STATUTE LAW COMMITTEE

PREFACE

Numbering system: The number of each section of this code is made up of three parts, in sequence as follows: Number of title; number of chapter within the title; number of section within the chapter. Thus RCW 1.04.020 is Title 1, chapter 4, section 20. The section part of the number (.020) is initially made up of three digits, constitutes a true decimal, and provides a facility for numbering new sections to be inserted between old sections already consecutively numbered, merely by adding one or more digits at the end of the number. In most chapters of the code, sections have been numbered by tens (.010, .020, .030, .040, etc.), leaving nine vacant numbers between original sections so that for a time new sections may be inserted without extension of the section number beyond three digits.

Citation to the Revised Code of Washington: The code should be cited as RCW; see RCW 1.04-.040. An RCW title should be cited Title 7 RCW. An RCW chapter should be cited chapter 7.24 RCW. An RCW section should be cited RCW 7.24.010. Through references should be made as RCW 7.24.010 through 7.24.100. Series of sections should be cited as RCW 7.24.010, 7.24.020, and 7.24.030.

History of the Revised Code of Washington; Source notes. The Revised Code of Washington was adopted by the legislature in 1950; see chapter 1.04 RCW. The original publication (1951) contained material variances from the language and organization of the session laws from which it was derived, including a variety of divisions and combinations of the session law sections. During 1953 through 1959, the Statute Law Committee, in exercise of the powers contained in chapter 1.08 RCW, completed a comprehensive study of these variances and, by means of a series of administrative orders or reenactment bills, restored each title of the code to reflect its session law source, but retaining the general codification scheme originally adopted. An audit trail of this activity has been preserved in the concluding segments of the source note of each section of the code so affected. The legislative source of each section is enclosed in brackets [ ] at the end of the section. Reference to session laws is abbreviated; thus "1891 c 23 § 1; 1854 p 99 § 135" refers to section 1, chapter 23, Laws of 1891 and section 135, page 99, Laws of 1854. "Prior" indicates a break in the statutory chain, usually a repeal and reenactment. "RRS or Rem. Supp.—" indicates the parallel citation in Remington's Revised Code, last published in 1949.

Where, before restoration, a section of this code constituted a consolidation of two or more sections of the session laws, or of sections separately numbered in Remington's, the line of derivation is shown for each component section, with each line of derivation being set off from the others by use of small Roman numerals, "(i)," "(ii)," etc.

Where, before restoration, only a part of a session law section was reflected in a particular RCW section the history note reference is followed by the word "part."

"Formerly" and its correlative form "FORMER PART OF SECTION" followed by an RCW citation preserves the record of original codification.

Double amendments: Some double or other multiple amendments to a section made without reference to each other are set out in the code in smaller (8–point) type. See RCW 1.12.025.

Index: Titles 1 through 91 are indexed in the RCW General Index. Separate indexes are provided for the Rules of Court and the State Constitution.

Sections repealed or decodified; Disposition table: Memorials to RCW sections repealed or decodified are no longer carried in place. They are now tabulated in numerical order in the table entitled "Disposition of former RCW sections."

Codification tables: To convert a session law citation to its RCW number (for Laws of 1951 or later) consult the codification tables. A similar table is included to relate the disposition in RCW of sections of Remington's Revised Statutes.

Errors or omissions: (1) Where an obvious clerical error has been made in the law during the legislative process, the code reviser adds a corrected word, phrase, or punctuation mark in [brackets] for clarity. Such additions do not constitute any part of the law.

(2) Although considerable care has been used in the production of this code, within the limits of available time and facilities it is inevitable that in so large a work that there will be errors, both mechanical and of judgment. As such errors are detected or are believed to exist in particular sections, by those who use this code, it is requested that a note citing the section involved and the nature of the error be mailed to: Code Reviser, Legislative Building, Olympia, WA 98504, so that correction may be made in a subsequent publication.

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The board of accountancy is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.311. RCW 18.04.035, 18.04.045, and 18.04.055 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.312.

Falsifying accounts: Chapter 9A.60 RCW.

18.04.015 Purpose. It is the policy of this state and the purpose of this chapter:

(1) To promote the dependability of information which is used for guidance in financial transactions or for accounting for or assessing the status or performance of commercial and noncommercial enterprises, whether public, private or governmental; and

(2) To protect the public interest by requiring that:

(a) Persons engaged in the practice of public accounting be qualified;

(b) A public authority competent to prescribe and assess the qualifications of public accountants be established;

(c) Persons other than certified public accountants refrain from using the words "audit," "review," and "compilation" when designating a report customarily prepared by someone knowledgeable in accounting; and

(d) The use of accounting titles likely to confuse the public be prohibited. [1983 c 234 § 2.]

18.04.025 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of accountancy created by RCW 18.04.035.

(2) "Certified public accountant" or "CPA" means a person holding a certified public accountant certificate issued under this chapter or the accountancy act of any state.

(3) "State" includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the United States Virgin Islands.

(4) "Opinions on financial statements" are any reports prepared by certified public accountants, based on examinations in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as to whether the presentation of information used for guidance in financial transactions or for accounting for or assessing the status or performance of commercial and noncommercial enterprises, whether public, private, or governmental, conforms with generally accepted accounting principles or other comprehensive bases of accounting.

(5) The "practice of public accounting" means performing services as one skilled in the knowledge and practice of public accounting and preparing reports designated as "audit reports," "review reports," and "compilation reports." [1983 c 234 § 3.]

18.04.035 Board of accountancy—Members—Terms—Vacancies—Removal. (1) There is created a board of accountancy for the state of Washington to be known as the Washington board of accountancy. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor. Members of the board shall include four persons who hold certified public accountant certificates and have been in public practice as certified public accountants in this state continuously for the previous ten years. The fifth member shall be a person who is qualified to judge whether the qualifications, activities, and professional practice of those regulated under this chapter conform with standards to protect the public interest.

(2) The members of the board of accountancy existing immediately prior to July 1, 1983, shall serve out their existing terms as members of the board created under this act. Thereafter, each member of the board shall be appointed by the governor to a term of three years. Their successors shall be appointed for terms of three years. Vacancies occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Upon the expiration of a member's term of office, the member shall continue to serve until a successor has been appointed and has assumed office. The governor shall remove from the board any member whose certificate or permit to practice has been revoked or suspended and may, after hearing, remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or other just cause. No person who has served two successive complete terms is eligible for reappointment. Appointment to fill an unexpired term is not considered a complete term. [1983 c 234 § 4.]

Reviser's note: "This act" [1983 c 234] consists of the enactment of RCW 18.04.015, 18.04.025, 18.04.035, 18.04.045, 18.04.055, 18.04.065, 18.04.105, 18.04.185, 18.04.195, 18.04.205, 18.04.215, 18.04.295, 18.04.305, 18.04.335, 18.04.345, 18.04.405, 18.04.901, 18.04.910, 18.04.920, 18.04.930, 18.04.931, 18.04.932, 18.04.933, 18.04.934, 43.131.311, and 43.131.312; the amendments to RCW 18.04.080, 18.04.320, 18.04.350, 18.04.360, 18.04.370, 18.04.380, 18.04.390; and the repeal of RCW 18.04.020, 18.04.030, 18.04.040, 18.04.050, 18.04.060, 18.04.070, 18.04.090, 18.04.100, 18.04.120, 18.04.130, 18.04.160, 18.04.170, 18.04.190, 18.04.200, 18.04.220, 18.04.240, 18.04.250, 18.04.260, 18.04.270, 18.04.280, 18.04.290, 18.04.300, 18.04.310, 18.04.330, 18.04.340, 18.04.400, 18.04.900, 43.131.247, and 43.131.248.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.04.045 Board—Officers and staff—Compensation—Quorum—Records—Annual report.

(1) The board shall annually elect a chairman, a vice chairman, and a secretary from its members. The board may adopt and amend rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the orderly conduct of its affairs and for the administration of this chapter. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed. The board shall keep records of its proceedings, and of any proceeding in court arising from or founded upon this chapter. Copies of these records certified as correct under the seal of the board are admissible in evidence as tending to prove the content of the records. The board may employ personnel and arrange for assistance as it requires to perform its duties.

(2) Each member of the board shall receive compensation as provided under RCW 18.04.080.

(3) The board shall file an annual report of its activities with the governor. The report shall include but not be limited to a statement of all receipts and disbursements and a listing of all certified public accountants who are registered, or who have offices registered, or permits to practice issued under this chapter. Upon request, the board shall mail a copy of each annual report to any person, office, partnership, or corporation listed, or to any member of the public. [1983 c 234 § 5.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.04.055 Board—Rules. The board shall prescribe rules consistent with this chapter as necessary to implement this chapter. Included may be:

(1) Rules of procedure to govern the conduct of matters before the board;

(2) Rules of professional conduct to establish and maintain high standards of competence and integrity in the profession;

(3) Educational requirements for the issuance of the certificate of certified public accountant;

(4) Rules designed to ensure that certified public accountants' "opinions on financial statements" meet the definitional requirements for that term as specified in RCW 18.04.025;

(5) Requirements for continuing education to maintain or improve the professional competence of permit holders to practice under RCW 18.04.215 as a condition to their continuing in the practice of public accounting;

(6) Regulations governing sole proprietors, partnerships, and corporations practicing public accounting including, but not limited to, rules concerning their style, name, title, and affiliation with any other organization, and establishing reasonable practice standards to protect the public interest; and

(7) Any other rule which the board finds necessary or appropriate to implement this chapter. [1983 c 234 § 6.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.04.065 Board—Fees. The board shall set its fees at a level adequate to pay the costs of administering this chapter. [1983 c 234 § 24.]

18.04.080 Compensation and travel expenses of members. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of such duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 20; 1983 c 234 § 22; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 25; 1949 c 226 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-14.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.04.105 Issuance of certificate—Requirements—Waiver—Examination—Credits—Fees—Examination account—Earnings—Prior licenses.

(1) The certificate of "certified public accountant" shall be granted by the board to any person:

(a) Who is of good character;

(b) Who has a baccalaureate degree conferred by a college or university recognized by the board, and whose educational program included an accounting concentration or its equivalent, and related subjects the board determines to be appropriate; and

(c) Who has passed a written examination in accounting, auditing, and related subjects the board determines to be appropriate.

(2) The board may, in its discretion, waive the educational requirement for any person if it is satisfied, by appropriate means of evaluation, that the person's educational qualifications are an acceptable substitute for the requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(3) The examination described in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be held by the board and shall take place as often as the board determines to be desirable, but at least once a year. The board may use all or any part of the examination and grading service of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants to assist it in performing its duties under this chapter.

(4) A person who has met the educational requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section, or who expects to meet it within one hundred twenty days following the examination, or with respect to whom it has been waived under subsection (2) of this section, is eligible to take the examination if the person also meets the requirements of subsection (1)(a) of this section. If a person is admitted to the examination on the expectation that he or she will complete the educational requirement within one hundred twenty days, no certificate may be issued, nor credit for the examination or any part of it be given, unless this requirement is in fact completed within that time or within such time as the board in its discretion may determine upon application.

(5) The board may, by rule, provide for granting credit to a person for satisfactory completion of a written examination in any one or more of the subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section given by the licensing authority in any other state. These rules shall include requirements the board determines to be appropriate in order that any examination approved as a basis for any credit shall, in the judgment of the board, be at least as thorough as the most recent examination given by the board at the time credit is granted.

The board may, by rule, prescribe the terms and conditions under which a person who passes the examination in one or more of the subjects indicated in subsection (1)(c) of this section may be reexamined in only the remaining subjects, giving credit for the subjects previously passed. It may also provide by rule for a reasonable waiting period for a person's reexamination in a subject he or she has failed. A person is entitled to any number of reexaminations, subject to this subsection and any other rules adopted by the board.

A person passing the examination in any one or more subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall meet the educational requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section in effect on the date the person successfully completes the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section. The board may provide, by rule, for exceptions to prevent what it determines to be undue hardship to applicants.

(6) The board shall charge each applicant an examination fee for the initial examination under subsection (1) of this section, or for reexamination under subsection (5) of this section for each subject in which the applicant is reexamined, or for evaluation of a person's educational qualifications under subsection (2) of this section. The applicable fee shall be paid by the person at the time he or she applies for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications. Fees for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications shall be determined by the board under chapter 18.04 RCW. There is established in the state treasury an account to be known as the certified public accountant examination account. All fees received from candidates to take any or all sections of the certified public accountant examination shall be deposited by the board into this account, and funds appropriated from the account shall be used only for costs directly related to the examination. All earnings of investments of balances in the certified public accountant examination account shall be credited to the general fund.

(7) Persons who on July 1, 1983, held certified public accountant certificates previously issued under the laws of this state shall not be required to obtain additional certificates under this chapter, but shall otherwise be subject to this chapter. Certificates previously issued shall, for all purposes, be considered certificates issued under this chapter and subject to its provisions.

(8)(a) Persons who on July 1, 1983, hold registrations as licensed public accountants and annual permits to practice previously issued under the laws of this state shall be entitled to practice public accounting and be known as certified public accountants and to use the designation "CPA" provided that these persons continue to hold permits to practice under this chapter.

(b) Persons who held qualifications as licensed public accountants but who do not hold annual permits to practice on July 1, 1983, are not entitled to engage in the practice of public accounting under this chapter unless they meet the requirements imposed by this chapter for certified public accountants. These persons shall not use the term "licensed public accountants" or the designation "LPA." [1985 c 57 § 3; 1983 c 234 § 7.]

Effective date—1985 c 57: See note following RCW 15.52.320.

18.04.180 Reciprocity. The board shall authorize the issuance of a certificate as certified public accountant to any person who is the holder of a certificate, license, permit or degree authorizing him to practice as a certified public accountant in any state, territory, or possession of the United States, providing the requirements which such person has been called upon to meet in order to obtain such certificate, license, permit or degree were at least the equivalent of those for obtaining a certificate to practice as a certified public accountant in this state: And provided, further, That such state, territory or possession makes similar provision to authorize a person who holds a valid certificate to practice in this state as a certified public accountant to practice in such state, territory or possession as a certified public accountant. [1949 c 226 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-24.]

18.04.185 Nonresidents—Application for certification or biennial permit—Secretary of state agent for service of process. (1) Application for certification as certified public accountants by persons who are not residents of this state constitutes appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for service of process in any action or proceeding against the applicants arising from any transaction, activity, or operation connected with or incidental to the practice of public accounting in this state by nonresident holders of certified public accountant certificates.

(2) Application for a biennial permit to practice public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant who holds a permit to practice issued by another state constitutes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for service of process in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising from any transaction or operation connected with or incidental to the practice of public accounting in this state by the holder of the biennial permit to practice. [1983 c 234 § 8.]

18.04.195 Registration of partnerships or corporations—Requirements—Application—Fees. (1) A partnership engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall register with the board as a partnership of certified public accountants, and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the partnership shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board;

(b) At least one general partner of the partnership shall be a certified public accountant holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(c) Each resident manager in charge of an office of the partnership in this state and each resident partner personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting as a member in the office shall be a certified public accountant holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

(2) A corporation organized for the practice of public accounting and engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall register with the board as a corporation of certified public accountants and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the corporation shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board; and

(b) Each shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a permit to practice and shall be principally employed by the corporation or actively engaged in its business. No other person may have any interest in the stock of the corporation. The principal officer of the corporation and any officer or director having authority over the practice of public accounting by the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a permit to practice;

(c) At least one shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(d) Each resident manager in charge of an office of the corporation in this state and each shareholder or director personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(e) A written agreement shall bind the corporation or its shareholders to purchase any shares offered for sale by, or not under the ownership or effective control of, a qualified shareholder, and bind any holder not a qualified shareholder to sell the shares to the corporation or its qualified shareholders. The agreement shall be noted on each certificate of corporate stock. The corporation may purchase any amount of its stock for this purpose, notwithstanding any impairment of capital, as long as one share remains outstanding; and

(f) The corporation shall comply with any other rules pertaining to corporations practicing public accounting in this state as the board may prescribe.

(3) Application for registration of a partnership or corporation shall be made upon the affidavit of a general partner or shareholder who is a certified public accountant holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215. The board shall determine in each case whether the applicant is eligible for registration. A partnership or corporation which is so registered and which holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215 may use the designation "certified public accountants" or "CPAs" in connection with its partnership or corporate name. The board shall be given notification within thirty days after the admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting from any partnership or corporation so registered.

(4) Fees for the registration of partnerships or corporations and for notification of the board of the admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder shall be determined by the board. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the registration form or notice of admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder is filed with the board. [1983 c 234 § 9.]

18.04.205 Registration of offices—Requirements—Rules—Fees. (1) Each office established or maintained in this state for the practice of public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant, or a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants, shall register with the board under this chapter biennially.

Each office shall be under the direct supervision of a resident manager holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215 who may be either a principal shareholder, or a staff employee.

(2) The board shall by rule prescribe the procedure to be followed to register and maintain offices established in this state for the practice of public accounting.

(3) Fees for the registration of offices shall be determined by the board. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the registration form is filed with the board. [1983 c 234 § 10.]

18.04.215 Permits—Issuance—Renewal—Continuing education. (1) Biennial permits to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be issued by the board:

(a) To certified public accountants who have demonstrated, in accordance with rules issued by the board, one year of public accounting experience, or such other experience or employment which the board in its discretion regards as substantially equivalent;

(b) To partnerships and corporations registered under RCW 18.04.195, if all offices of the partnerships and corporations in this state are maintained and registered as required under RCW 18.04.205.

All permits to practice for persons born in an even-numbered year expire on the last day of June 1984 shall be for one year and may be renewed for a period of two years. All permits to practice for persons born in an odd-numbered year expire on the last day of June 1985 shall be for two years and may be renewed for a period of two years. Renewals of permits to practice issued to individuals under subsection (1) (a) or (b) of this section shall be issued in accordance with subsection (3) of this section. Applicants for issuance or renewal of permits shall, at the time of filing their applications, list with the board all states in which they hold or have applied for permits to practice.

(2) A certified public accountant who holds a permit issued by another state and applies for a permit in this state may practice accounting in this state from the date of filing a completed application with the board until the board has acted upon the application.

(3) As a prerequisite to renewal of a permit, a person practicing public accounting shall submit to the Washington state board of accountancy satisfactory proof of having completed ten days or an accumulation of eighty hours of continuing education recognized and approved by the board during the preceding two years. Failure to furnish this evidence as required constitutes grounds for revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the permit in a proceeding under RCW 18.04.295, unless the board determines the failure to have been due to reasonable cause or excusable neglect.

The board, in its discretion, may renew a biennial permit to practice despite failure to furnish evidence of compliance with requirements of continuing education upon condition that the applicant follow a particular program of continuing education. In issuing rules and individual orders with respect to continuing education requirements, the board, among other considerations, may rely upon guidelines and pronouncements of recognized educational and professional associations, may prescribe course content, duration, and organization, and shall take into account the accessibility of continuing education to applicants and instances of individual hardship.

(4) Fees for biennial permits to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be determined by the board under chapter 18.04 RCW. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the registration form is filed with the board. [1983 c 234 § 11.]

18.04.295 Revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew a certificate or permit. After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend any certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105, or may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew any permit to practice, or may censure the holder of a permit for one or a combination of the following causes:

(1) Fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate as a certified public accountant, or in obtaining registration under *this act, or in obtaining a permit to practice public accounting under RCW 18.04.215;

(2) Dishonesty, fraud, or gross negligence in the practice of public accounting;

(3) A violation of any provision of *this act;

(4) A violation of a rule of professional conduct promulgated by the board under the authority granted by *this act;

(5) Conviction of a crime or an act constituting a crime under:

(a) The laws of this state;

(b) The laws of another state, and which, if committed within this state, would have constituted a crime under the laws of this state; or

(c) Federal law;

(6) Cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority to practice as a certified public accountant by any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing education in the other state;

(7) Suspension or revocation of the right to practice before any state or federal agency; or** [1983 c 234 § 12.]

** (2) Subsection (8) of this section was vetoed.

18.04.305 Revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew registration of corporation or partnership. After notice and hearing under RCW 18.04.320, the board shall revoke the registration issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.195 and permit to practice issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.215 if at any time the partnership or corporation does not have all the qualifications prescribed under this chapter for registration. After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend the registration of a partnership or corporation, may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew its permit to practice for any of the causes enumerated in RCW 18.04.295 or for any of the following additional causes:

(1) The revocation or suspension of the certificate as a certified public accountant or the revocation or suspension or refusal to renew the permit of any partner or shareholder; or

(2) The cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority of the partnership or corporation, or any partner or shareholder thereof, to practice public accounting in any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing education in the other state. [1983 c 234 § 13.]

18.04.320 Proceedings for revocation or suspension.

(1) Proceedings for the revocation or suspension of the certificate, permit, or registration of any person, partnership, or corporation may be initiated by the board on its own motion, on the complaint of any person, or on receiving notification from another state board of accountancy of its decision to:

(a) Revoke or suspend practice privileges granted in that state to a holder of a certified public accountant certificate or a public accountant registrant of that state; or

(b) Revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice in that state who holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(2) Unless the charge or charges are dismissed by the board as unfounded or trivial, the board shall set a date for hearing not later than ninety days after formal charges are filed. A copy of the charge or charges, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing before the board shall be served not less than thirty days prior to the date set for hearing on the accused either personally or by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the address of the accused last known to the board;

(3) If after having been so served with a notice of hearing, the accused fails to appear at the hearing, the board may proceed to hear evidence against him and may enter such order as may be justified by the evidence, which shall be final unless the accused petitions for a review thereof. Within thirty days from the date of any such order upon a showing of good cause for failing to appear, the board may reopen the proceedings and may permit the accused to submit evidence in his or her behalf;

(4) At any hearing the accused may appear in person and by counsel, may produce evidence and witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may cross-examine such witnesses as may appear against him. A partnership may be represented before the board by counsel or by a partner. A corporation may be represented before the board by counsel or by a shareholder. The accused shall be entitled on application to the board to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence on his or her behalf;

(5) The board, or any member thereof, may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and may administer oaths, take testimony, hear proofs, and receive exhibits in evidence in connection with or upon hearing under this chapter. To compel obedience to a subpoena the board may invoke the aid of any court of this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence;

(6) The board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence;

(9) The decision of the board shall be by majority vote;

(10) Any person adversely affected by any action of the board may obtain a review thereof by filing a written petition for review in the superior court of the county in which he resides within thirty days after the entry of such order. A copy of the petition shall be served upon any member of the board and thereupon the board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record upon which the order complained of was entered. The court will hear the matter de novo, and may sustain, modify, or set aside the board's order in whole or in part, or may remand the matter to the board for further action, and may, in its discretion, stay the effect of the board's order pending its determination of the case. The court's decision has the force and effect of a decree in equity; and

(11) On rendering a decision to: (a) Revoke or suspend a certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105; (b) revoke or suspend a registration issued under RCW

18.04.195; or (c) revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, the board shall examine its records to determine whether the accused holds a certificate, a registration, or a permit or annual limited permit to practice in any other state. If the board determines that the accused holds a certificate, or a registration in any other state, the board shall notify the board of accountancy of the other state of its decision by mail within thirty days of rendering the decision. [1983 c 234 § 14; 1949 c 226 § 31; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-38.]

Reviser's note: Subsections (7) and (8) of this section were vetoed.

18.04.335 Reissuance of certificate—Reissuance of permit or modification of suspension of permit. Upon application in writing and after hearing pursuant to notice, the board may:

(1) Reissue a certificate to a certified public accountant whose certificate has been revoked or suspended; or

(2) Modify the suspension of or reissue any permit to practice which has been revoked, suspended, or which the board has refused to renew. [1983 c 234 § 15.]

18.04.345 Prohibited practices. (1) No person may hold himself or herself out to the public, or assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant or CPA unless the person has received a certificate as a certified public accountant, holds a valid permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all of the person's offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(2) No partnership or corporation may hold itself out to the public, or assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the partnership or corporation is composed of certified public accountants or CPAs, unless the partnership or corporation is registered as a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants under RCW 18.04.195, holds a valid permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all offices of the partnership or corporation in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(3) No person, partnership, or corporation may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public, or assume or use along, or in connection with his, hers, or its name, or any other name the title or designation "certified accountant," "chartered accountant," "enrolled accountant," "licensed accountant," "registered accountant," "accredited accountant," "public accountant," or any other title or designation likely to be confused with "certified public accountant" or any of the abbreviations "CA," "EA," "RA," "LA," "AA," or "PA," or similar abbreviations likely to be confused with "CPA." However, nothing in this chapter prohibits use of the title "accountant" by any person regardless of whether the person has been granted a certificate or holds a permit under this chapter.

(4) No person may sign, affix, or associate his or her name or any trade or assumed name used by the person in his or her business to any report designated as an "audit," "review," or "compilation," unless the person holds a biennial permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215 and all of the person's offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(5) No person may sign, affix, or associate a partnership or corporate name to any report designated as an "audit," "review," or "compilation," unless the partnership or corporation is registered under RCW 18.04.195, holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all of its offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(6) No person, partnership, or corporation not holding a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public as an "auditor" with or without any other description or designation by use of such word on any sign, card, letterhead, or in any advertisement or directory.

(7) Nothing contained in this chapter prohibits any person who is the holder of a valid certified public accountant certificate from assuming or using the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant.

(8) No person may assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" in conjunction with names indicating or implying that there is a partnership or corporation, or in conjunction with the designation "and Company" or "and Co." or a similar designation, if there is in fact no bona fide partnership or corporation registered under RCW 18.04.195.

(9) No person, partnership, or corporation holding a permit under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public in conjunction with the designation "and Associates" or "and Assoc." unless he or she has in fact a partner or employee who holds a permit under RCW 18.04.215.

(10) No person, partnership, or corporation may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public for the practice of public accounting unless the person, partnership, or corporation holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215 and all of his or its offices in this state are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205. [1983 c 234 § 16.]

18.04.350 Practices not prohibited. (1) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person not a certified public accountant from serving as an employee of, or as assistant to, a certified public accountant or partnership composed of certified public accountants or corporation of certified public accountants holding a valid permit under RCW 18.04.215. However, the employee or assistant shall not issue any accounting or financial statement over his or her name.

(2) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant registered in another state, or any accountant of a foreign country holding a certificate, degree or license which permits him to practice therein from temporarily practicing in this state on professional business incident to his regular practice.

(3) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to other certified public accountants, peer review teams, partnerships, or corporations of public accountants engaged in conducting peer reviews, or any one of their employees in connection with peer reviews of that accountant's accounting and auditing practice conducted under the auspices of recognized professional associations.

(4) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to any employee, representative, officer, or committee member of a recognized professional association, or to the board of accountancy, or any of its employees or committees in connection with a professional ethics investigation held under the auspices of recognized professional associations or the board of accountancy.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any officer, employee, partner, or principal of any organization:

(a) From affixing his or her signature to any statement or report in reference to the affairs of the organization with any wording designating the position, title, or office which he or she holds in the organization; or

(b) From describing himself or herself by the position, title, or office he or she holds in such organization.

(6) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person, or partnership or corporation composed of persons not holding a permit under RCW 18.04.215 from offering or rendering to the public bookkeeping, accounting, and tax services, including devising and installing systems, financial information or data, or preparing financial statements, written statements describing how such financial statements were prepared, or similar services, provided that persons, partnerships, or corporations not holding a permit under RCW 18.04.215 who offer or render these services do not designate any written statement as an "audit report," "review report," or "compilation report," do not issue any written statement which purports to express or disclaim an opinion on financial statements which have been audited, and do not issue any written statement which expresses assurance on financial statements which have been reviewed.

(7) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any act of or the use of any words by a public official or a public employee in the performance of his or her duties. [1983 c 234 § 17; 1969 c 114 § 7; 1949 c 226 § 34; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-41.]

18.04.360 Practices may be enjoined. If, in the judgment of the board any person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any acts or practices which constitute, or will constitute, a violation of this chapter, the board may make application to the appropriate court for an order enjoining such acts or practices and upon a showing by the board that such person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such acts or practices, an injunction, restraining order, or such other order as may be appropriate may be granted by such court. [1983 c 234 § 18; 1949 c 226 § 35; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-42.]

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

18.04.370 Penalty. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for not more than six months, or to both such fine and imprisonment. Whenever the board has reason to believe that any person is violating the provisions of this chapter it shall certify the facts to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such person resides or may be apprehended and the prosecuting attorney shall cause appropriate proceedings to be brought against such person. Nothing herein contained shall be held to in any way affect the power of the courts to grant injunctive or other relief as above provided. [1983 c 234 § 19; 1949 c 226 § 36; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-43.]

18.04.380 Advertising falsely—Effect. The display or presentation by a person of a card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved or written instrument or device, bearing a person's name in conjunction with the words "certified public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, or "licensed public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, or "public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in any action brought under this chapter that the person whose name is so displayed, caused or procured the display or presentation of the card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved, or written instrument or device, and that the person is holding himself or herself out to be a certified public accountant or a public accountant holding a permit to practice under this chapter. In any such action, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this chapter is sufficient to justify an injunction or a conviction without evidence of a general course of conduct. [1983 c 234 § 20; 1949 c 226 § 37; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-44.]

False advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

18.04.390 Papers, records, schedules, etc., property of the accountant—Prohibited practices. (1) In the absence of an express agreement between the certified public accountant and the client to the contrary, all statements, records, schedules, working papers, and memoranda made by a certified public accountant incident to or in the course of professional service to clients, except reports submitted by a certified public accountant to a client, are the property of the certified public accountant.

(2) No statement, record, schedule, working paper, or memorandum may be sold, transferred, or bequeathed without the consent of the client or his or her personal representative or assignee, to anyone other than one or more surviving partners, shareholders, or new partners or new shareholders of the accountant or corporation, or any combined or merged partnership or corporation, or successor in interest to the partnership or corporation. [1983 c 234 § 21; 1949 c 226 § 38; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 8269-45.]

18.04.405 Confidential information—Disclosure, when—Subpoenas. (1) A certified public accountant, a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees shall not disclose any confidential information obtained in the course of a professional transaction except with the consent of the client or former client or as disclosure may be required by law, legal process, the standards of the profession, or as disclosure of confidential information is permitted by *RCW 18.04.350 (2) and (3) in connection with peer reviews and ethics investigations.

(2) This section shall not be construed as limiting the authority of this state or of the United States or an agency of this state or of the United States to subpoena and use such information in connection with any investigation, public hearing, or other proceeding, nor shall this section be construed as prohibiting a certified public accountant whose professional competence has been challenged in a court of law or before an administrative agency from disclosing confidential information as a part of a defense to the court action or administrative proceeding. [1983 c 234 § 23.]

*Reviser's note: The reference to RCW 18.04.350 (2) and (3) appears to be erroneous in that RCW 18.04.350(2) pertains to the practice by out-of-state certified public accountants. The reference apparently intended is to RCW 18.04.350 (3) and (4) which pertain to disclosures.

18.04.901 Severability—1983 c 234. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 234 § 34.]

18.04.910 Effective date—1983 c 234. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1983. [1983 c 234 § 35.]

18.04.920 Short title. This chapter may be cited as the public accountancy act of 1983. [1983 c 234 § 1.]

18.04.930 Transfer of property, appropriations, etc., to Washington board of accountancy—1983 c 234. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the board of accountancy existing immediately prior to July 1, 1983, shall be delivered to the custody of the board of accountancy created by *this act. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property used by the board of accountancy of the state of Washington shall be made available to the Washington board of accountancy. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the board of accountancy of the state of Washington shall be assigned to the Washington board of accountancy.

Any appropriations made to the board of accountancy of the state of Washington shall, on July 1, 1983, be transferred and credited to the Washington board of accountancy.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned. [1983 c 234 § 25.]

*Reviser's note: For "this act," see note following RCW 18.04.035.

18.04.931 Transfer of employees to Washington board of accountancy—1983 c 234. All employees of the board of accountancy of the state of Washington are transferred to the jurisdiction of the Washington board of accountancy. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the Washington board of accountancy to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service. [1983 c 234 § 26.]

18.04.932 Transfer not to affect validity of acts—1983 c 234. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the board of accountancy of the state of Washington shall not affect the validity of any act performed by an employee prior to July 1, 1983. [1983 c 234 § 27.]

18.04.933 Transfer—Rules, pending business, and contracts and obligations—1983 c 234. All rules and all pending business before the board of accountancy of the state of Washington shall be continued and acted upon by the Washington board of accountancy. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed by the Washington board of accountancy. [1983 c 234 § 28.]

18.04.934 Transfer—Apportionment of budgeted funds—1983 c 234. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by RCW 18.04.930 through 18.04.932, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification. [1983 c 234 § 29.]

Performance of acupuncture by physicians' assistants and osteopathic physicians' assistants: RCW 18.57A.070 and 18.71A.080.

18.06.010 Definitions. The following terms in this chapter shall have the meanings set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Acupuncture" means a health care service based on a traditional Oriental system of medical theory utilizing Oriental diagnosis and treatment to promote health and treat organic or functional disorders by treating specific acupuncture points or meridians. Acupuncture includes but is not necessarily limited to the following techniques:

- (a) Use of acupuncture needles to stimulate acupuncture points and meridians;
  - (b) Use of electrical, mechanical, or magnetic devices to stimulate acupuncture points and meridians;
  - (c) Moxibustion;
  - (d) Acupressure;
  - (e) Cupping;
  - (f) Dermal friction technique (gwa hsa);
  - (g) Infra-red;
  - (h) Sonopuncture;
  - (i) Laserpuncture;
  - (j) Dietary advice based on traditional Chinese medical theory; and
  - (k) Point injection therapy (aquapuncture).
- (2) "Acupuncturist" means a person certified under this chapter.

(3) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing or the director's designee. [1985 c 326 § 1.]

18.06.020 Practice without certification unlawful. (1) No one may hold themselves out to the public as an acupuncturist or certified acupuncturist or any derivative thereof which is intended to or is likely to lead the public to believe such a person is an acupuncturist or certified acupuncturist unless certified as provided for in this chapter.

(2) No one may use any configuration of letters after their name (including Ac.) which indicates a degree or formal training in acupuncture unless certified as provided for in this chapter.

(3) The director may by rule proscribe or regulate advertising and other forms of patient solicitation which are likely to mislead or deceive the public as to whether someone is certified under this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 2.]

18.06.030 Authority to practice irrespective of other licensing laws—Exemptions for educational purposes. Any person certified as provided for in this chapter may practice acupuncture irrespective of any other occupational licensing law. This authorization also extends to:

(1) The practice of acupuncture by a person who is a regular student in a school of acupuncture approved by the director: Provided, however, That the performance of such services be pursuant only to a regular course of instruction or assignments from his instructor and that such services are performed only under the direct supervision and control of a person certified pursuant to this chapter or licensed under any other healing art whose scope of practice includes acupuncture; and

(2) The practice of acupuncture by any person licensed or certified to perform acupuncture in any other jurisdiction where such person is doing so in the course of regular instruction of a school of acupuncture approved by the director or in an educational seminar sponsored by a professional organization of acupuncture: Provided, That in the latter case, the practice is supervised directly by a person certified pursuant to this chapter or licensed under any other healing art whose scope of practice includes acupuncture. [1985 c 326 § 3.]

18.06.040 Exemptions from certification. The prescriptions contained in RCW 18.06.020 (1) and (2) do not extend to:

(1) Those holding valid licenses under chapter 18.71, 18.57, 18.22, or 18.32 RCW operating within their lawful scopes of practice or valid registration authorizing the performance of acupuncture procedures pursuant to chapter 18.71A or 18.57A RCW;

(2) Those practicing acupuncture in the state under the authority of any instrumentality of the United States; and

(3) Those performing acupuncture procedures under RCW 18.06.030 (1) and (2).

Provided, That such persons shall not hold themselves out as being certified acupuncturists under this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 4.]

18.06.050 Applications for examination—Qualifications. Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination:

(1) A written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require; and

(2) Proof that the candidate has:

(b) Successfully completed a course, approved by the director, of didactic training in basic sciences and acupuncture over a minimum period of two academic years. The training shall include such subjects as anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, hygiene, and a survey of western clinical sciences. The basic science classes must be equivalent to those offered at the collegiate level. However, if the applicant is a licensed chiropractor under chapter 18.25 RCW or a drugless healer under chapter 18.36 RCW, the requirements of this subsection relating to basic sciences may be reduced by up to one year depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the director;

(c) Successfully completed a course, approved by the director, of clinical training in acupuncture over a minimum period of one academic year. The training shall include a minimum of: (i) Twenty-nine quarter credits of supervised practice, consisting of at least four hundred separate patient treatments involving a minimum of one hundred different patients, and (ii) one hundred hours or nine quarter credits of observation which shall include case presentation and discussion. [1985 c 326 § 5.]

Reviser's note: Subsection (2)(a) of this section was vetoed by the governor.

18.06.060 Approval of educational programs. The department shall consider for approval any school, program, apprenticeship, or tutorial which meets the requirements outlined in this chapter and provides the training required under RCW 18.06.050. Clinical and didactic training may be approved as separate programs or as a joint program. The process for approval shall be established by the director by rule. [1985 c 326 § 6.]

18.06.070 Approval of applications—Examination fee. No applicant may be permitted to take an examination under this chapter until the director has approved his or her application and the applicant has paid an examination fee as prescribed under RCW 43.24.086. The examination fee shall accompany the application. [1985 c 326 § 7.]

18.06.080 Authority of director—Examination—Contents. (1) The director of licensing is hereby authorized and empowered to execute the provisions of this chapter and shall offer examinations in acupuncture at least twice a year at such times and places as the director may select. The examination shall be a written examination in English and may include a practical examination.

(2) The director shall develop or approve a licensure examination in the subjects that the director determines are within the scope of and commensurate with the work performed by certified acupuncturists and shall include but not necessarily be limited to anatomy, physiology, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, hygiene, and acupuncture. All application papers shall be deposited with the director and there retained for a [at] least one year, when they may be destroyed.

(3) If the examination is successfully passed, the director shall confer on such candidate the title of Certified Acupuncturist. [1985 c 326 § 8.]

18.06.090 Fluency in English required. Before certification, each applicant shall demonstrate sufficient fluency in reading, speaking, and understanding the English language to enable the applicant to communicate with other health care providers and patients concerning health care problems and treatment. [1985 c 326 § 9.]

18.06.100 Investigation of applicant's background. Each applicant shall, as part of his or her application, furnish written consent to an investigation of his or her personal background, professional training, and experience by the department or any person acting on its behalf. [1985 c 326 § 10.]

18.06.110 Application of uniform disciplinary act. The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of certificates and the disciplining of certificate holders under this chapter. The director shall be the disciplining authority under this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 11.]

18.06.120 Annual registration—Renewal—Fee—Lapse. (1) Every person certified in acupuncture shall register with the director annually and pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 on or before the certificate holder's birth anniversary date. The certificate of the person shall be renewed for a period of one year or longer in the discretion of the director.

(2) Any failure to register and pay the annual renewal registration fee shall render the certificate invalid. The certificate shall be reinstated upon: (a) Written application to the director; (b) payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086; and (c) payment to the state of all delinquent annual certificate renewal fees.

(3) Any person who fails to renew his or her certification for a period of three years shall not be entitled to renew such certification under this section. Such person, in order to obtain a certification in acupuncture in this state, shall file a new application under this chapter, along with the required fee, and shall meet examination or continuing education requirements as the director, by rule, provides.

(4) All fees collected under this section and RCW 18.06.060 shall be credited to the health professions account as required under RCW 43.24.072. [1985 c 326 § 12.]

18.06.130 Patient information form. The director shall develop a form to be used by an acupuncturist to inform the patient of the acupuncturist's scope of practice and qualifications. All certificate holders shall bring the form to the attention of the patients in whatever manner the director, by rule, provides. [1985 c 326 § 13.]

18.06.140 Consultation and referral to other health care practitioners. Every certified acupuncturist shall develop a written plan for consultation, emergency transfer, and referral to other health care practitioners operating within the scope of their authorized practices. The written plan shall be submitted with the initial application for certification as well as annually thereafter with the certificate renewal fee to the department. The department may withhold certification or renewal of certification if the plan fails to meet the standards contained in rules promulgated by the director.

When the acupuncturist sees patients with potentially serious disorders such as cardiac conditions, acute abdominal symptoms, and such other conditions, the acupuncturist shall immediately request a consultation or recent written diagnosis from a physician licensed under chapter 18.71 or 18.57 RCW. In the event that the patient with the disorder refuses to authorize such consultation or provide a recent diagnosis from such physician, acupuncture treatment shall not be continued. [1985 c 326 § 14.]

18.06.150 Violations of RCW 18.06.130 or 18.06.140—Penalty. Any person violating the provisions of RCW 18.06.130 or 18.06.140 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in RCW 9.92.030. [1985 c 326 § 15.]

18.06.160 Adoption of rules. The director shall adopt rules in the manner provided by chapter 34.04 RCW as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 16.]

18.06.170 Acupuncture advisory committee. (1) The acupuncture advisory committee is created. The committee shall be composed of one physician licensed under chapter 18.71 or 18.57 RCW, three acupuncturists certified under this chapter, and one public member, who does not have any financial interest in the rendering of health services.

(2) The director shall appoint members to staggered terms so as to provide continuity in membership. Members shall serve at the pleasure of the director but may not serve more than five years total. Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) Each member of the committee shall receive fifty dollars for each day during which the member attends an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed duties approved by the director.

(4) The committee shall meet only on the request of the director and consider only those matters referred to it by the director. [1985 c 326 § 17.]

18.06.180 Application of chapter to previously registered acupuncture assistants. All persons registered as acupuncture assistants pursuant to chapter 18.71A or 18.57A RCW on July 28, 1985, shall be certified under this chapter by the director without examination if they otherwise would qualify for certification under this chapter and apply for certification within one hundred twenty days of July 28, 1985. [1985 c 326 § 18.]

18.06.190 Reciprocal licenses. The director may certify a person without examination if such person is licensed or certified as an acupuncturist in another jurisdiction if, in the director's judgment, the requirements of that jurisdiction are equivalent to or greater than those of Washington state. [1985 c 326 § 19.]

18.06.200 Health care insurance benefits not mandatory. Nothing in this chapter may be construed to require that individual or group policies or contracts of an insurance carrier, health care service contractor, or health maintenance organization provide benefits or coverage for services and supplies provided by a person registered or certified under this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 20.]

18.06.210 Prescription of drugs and practice of medicine not authorized. This chapter shall not be construed as permitting the administration or prescription of drugs or in any way infringing upon the practice of medicine and surgery as defined in chapter 18.71 or 18.57 RCW, except as authorized in this chapter. [1985 c 326 § 21.]

18.08.150 Application for examination—Fee.

Reviser's note: RCW 18.08.150 was both amended and repealed during the 1985 legislative sessions, each without reference to the other. It has been decodified for publication purposes pursuant to RCW 1.12.025.

18.08.190 Expiration of certificate—Renewal— Fee—Withdrawal of registrant.

Reviser's note: RCW 18.08.190 was both amended and repealed during the 1985 legislative sessions, each without reference to the other. It has been decodified for publication purposes pursuant to RCW 1.12.025.

18.08.220 Reinstatement of certificate—Replacement of lost or destroyed certificate, charge.

Reviser's note: RCW 18.08.220 was both amended and repealed during the 1985 legislative sessions, each without reference to the other. It has been decodified for publication purposes pursuant to RCW 1.12.025.

18.08.235 Legislative findings—1985 c 37. The legislature finds that in order to safeguard life, health, and property and to promote the public welfare, it is necessary to regulate the practice of architecture. [1985 c 37 § 1.]

18.08.240 Architects' license account—Earnings. There is established in the state treasury the architects' license account, into which all fees paid pursuant to this chapter shall be paid. All earnings of investments of balances in the architects' license account shall be credited to the general fund. [1985 c 57 § 4; 1959 c 323 § 15.]

Effective date—1985 c 57: See note following RCW 15.52.320.

18.08.310 Registration or authorization to practice required. It is unlawful for any person to practice or offer to practice in this state, architecture, or to use in connection with his or her name or otherwise assume, use, or advertise any title or description including the word "architect," "architecture," "architectural," or language tending to imply that he or she is an architect, unless the person is registered or authorized to practice in the state of Washington under this chapter. The provisions of this section shall not affect the use of the words "architect," "architecture," or "architectural" where a person does not practice or offer to practice architecture. [1985 c 37 § 2.]

(1) "Administration of the construction contract" means the periodic observation of materials and work to observe the general compliance with the construction contract documents, and does not include responsibility for supervising construction methods and processes, site conditions, equipment operations, personnel, or safety on the work site.

(2) "Architect" means an individual who is registered under this chapter to practice architecture.

(3) "Board" means the state board of registration for architects.

(4) "Certificate of authorization" means a certificate issued by the director to a corporation or partnership that authorizes the entity to practice architecture.

(5) "Certificate of registration" means the certificate issued by the director to newly registered architects.

(6) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(7) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(8) "Engineer" means an individual who is registered as an engineer under chapter 18.43 RCW.

(9) "Person" means any individual, partnership, professional service corporation, corporation, joint stock association, joint venture, or any other entity authorized to do business in the state.

(10) "Practice of architecture" means the rendering of services in connection with the art and science of building design for construction of any structure or grouping of structures and the use of space within and surrounding the structures or the design for construction of alterations or additions to the structures, including but not specifically limited to schematic design, design development, preparation of construction contract documents, and administration of the construction contract.

(11) "Registered" means holding a currently valid certificate of registration or certificate of authorization issued by the director authorizing the practice of architecture.

(12) "Structure" means any construction consisting of load-bearing members such as the foundation, roof, floors, walls, columns, girders, and beams or a combination of any number of these parts, with or without other parts or appurtenances. [1985 c 37 § 3.]

18.08.330 Board of registration—Appointment, terms, vacancies, removal—Officers—Travel expenses. There is hereby created a state board of registration for architects consisting of seven members who shall be appointed by the governor. Six members shall be registered architects who are residents of the state and have at least eight years' experience in the practice of architecture as registered architects in responsible charge of architectural work or responsible charge of architectural teaching. One member shall be a public member, who is not and has never been a registered architect and who does not employ and is not employed by or professionally or financially associated with an architect.

The terms of each newly appointed member shall be six years. The members of the board of registration for architects serving on July 28, 1985, shall serve out the remainders of their existing five-year terms. The term of the public member shall coincide with the term of an architect.

Every member of the board shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor. On the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for a term of six years or until the next successor has been appointed.

The governor may remove any member of the board for cause. Vacancies in the board for any reason shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

The board shall elect a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary. The secretary may delegate his or her authority to the executive secretary.

Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1985 c 37 § 4.]

18.08.340 Board of registration—Rules—Executive secretary—Staff support—Investigations—Subpoenas. (1) The board may adopt such rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as are necessary for the proper performance of its duties under this chapter.

(2) The director shall employ an executive secretary subject to approval by the board. The director shall provide such secretarial and administrative support as may be required to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The board or the director may conduct investigations concerning alleged violations of this chapter. In making such investigations and in all proceedings of the board under this chapter, the chairman or any member of the board acting in place of the chairman may administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before the board, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, and require the production of books, records, papers, and documents. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena so issued, or refuses to testify or produce any books, records, papers, or documents so required to be produced, the board may present its petition in the superior court of Thurston county or the county in which the person resides, setting forth the facts, and thereupon the court shall, in a proper case, enter a suitable order compelling compliance with this chapter and imposing such other terms and conditions as the court finds equitable. [1985 c 37 § 5.]

18.08.350 Certificate of registration—Application—Qualifications. (1) A certificate of registration shall be granted by the director to all qualified applicants who are certified by the board as having passed the required examination and as having given satisfactory proof of completion of the required experience.

(2) Applications for examination shall be filed as the board prescribes by rule. The application and examination fees shall be determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086.

(3) An applicant for registration as an architect shall be of a good moral character, at least eighteen years of age, and shall:

(a) Have an accredited architectural degree and three years' practical architectural work experience approved by the board. At least two years' work experience must be under the direct supervision of an architect; or

(b) Have eight years' practical architectural work experience approved by the board. Each year spent in an accredited architectural program approved by the board shall be considered one year of practical experience. At least four years' practical work experience shall be under the direct supervision of an architect; or

(c) Be a person who has been designing buildings as a principal activity for eight years, or has an equivalent combination of education and experience, but who was not registered under chapter 323, Laws of 1959, as amended, as it existed before July 28, 1985, provided that application is made within four years after July 28, 1985. Nothing in this chapter prevents such a person from designing buildings for four years after July 28, 1985, or the five-year period allowed for completion of the examination process, after that person has applied for registration. A person who has been designing buildings and is qualified under this subsection shall, upon application to the board of registration for architects, be allowed to take the examination for architect registration on an equal basis with other applicants. [1985 c 37 § 6.]

18.08.360 Examinations. (1) The examination for an architect's certificate of registration shall be held at least annually at such time and place as the board determines.

(2) The board shall determine the content, scope, and grading process of the examination. The board may adopt an appropriate national examination and grading procedure.

(3) Applicants who fail to pass any section of the examination shall be permitted to retake the parts failed as prescribed by the board. If the entire examination is not successfully completed within five years, a retake of the entire examination shall be required. [1985 c 37 § 7.]

18.08.370 Issuance of certificates of registration—Seal, use. (1) The director shall issue a certificate of registration to any applicant who has, to the satisfaction of the board, met all the requirements for registration upon payment of the registration fee as provided in this chapter. All certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, have the registration number, and shall be signed by the chairman of the board and by the director. The issuance of a certificate of registration by the director is prima facie evidence that the person named therein is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a registered architect.

(2) Each registrant shall obtain a seal of the design authorized by the board bearing the architect's name, registration number, the legend "Registered Architect," and the name of this state. Drawings prepared by the registrant shall be sealed and signed by the registrant when filed with public authorities. It is unlawful to seal and sign a document after a registrant's certificate of registration or authorization has expired, been revoked, or is suspended. [1985 c 37 § 8.]

18.08.380 Reinstatement of revoked certificates of registration—Replacement of lost, destroyed, or mutilated certificates. (1) The director may reinstate a certificate of registration to any person or a certificate of authorization to any corporation or joint stock association whose certificate has been revoked, if a majority of the board vote in favor of such reissuance, if the board finds that the circumstances or conditions that brought about the revocation are not likely to recur and that the person, corporation, or joint stockholders' association is then sufficiently trustworthy and reliable at the time reinstatement is sought, and that the best interests of the public will be served by reinstatement of the registration.

(2) A new certificate of registration or certificate of authorization to replace any certificate lost, destroyed, or mutilated may be issued by the director. A charge, determined as provided in RCW 43.24.086, shall be made for such issuance. [1985 c 37 § 9.]

18.08.390 Registration of prior registrants. All persons registered as architects under chapter 205, Laws of 1919, or registered as architects under chapter 323, Laws of 1959, as amended, before July 28, 1985, shall be registered as architects without examination. [1985 c 37 § 10.]

18.08.400 Registration of out-of-state registrants. The director may, upon receipt of the current registration fee, grant a certificate of registration to an applicant who is a registered architect in another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia; or another country, if that individual's qualifications and experience are determined by the board to be equivalent to the qualifications and experience required of a person registered under RCW 18.08.350. [1985 c 37 § 11.]

18.08.410 Application of chapter. This chapter shall not affect or prevent:

(1) The practice of naval architecture, landscape architecture, engineering, space planning, interior design, or any legally recognized profession or trade by persons not registered as architects;

(2) Drafters, clerks, project managers, superintendents, and other employees of architects, engineers, naval architects, or landscape architects from acting under the instructions, control, or supervision of their employers;

(3) The construction, alteration, or supervision of construction of buildings or structures by contractors or superintendents employed by contractors or the preparation of shop drawings in connection therewith;

(4) Owners or contractors from engaging persons who are not architects to observe and supervise construction of a project;

(5) Any person from doing design work including preparing construction contract documents and administration of the construction contract for the erection, enlargement, repair, or alteration of a structure or any appurtenance to a structure, if the structure is to be used for a residential building of up to and including four dwelling units or a farm building or is a structure used in connection with or auxiliary to such residential building or farm building such as a garage, barn, shed, or shelter for animals or machinery;

(6) Any person from doing design work including preparing construction contract documents and administering the contract for construction, erection, enlargement, alteration, or repairs of or to a building of any occupancy up to four thousand square feet of construction;

(7) Design-build construction by registered general contractors if the structural design services are performed by a registered engineer;

(8) Any person from designing buildings or doing other design work for any structure prior to the time of filing for a building permit; or

(9) Any person from designing buildings or doing other design work for structures larger than those exempted under subsections (5) and (6) of this section, if the plans, which may include such design work, are stamped by a registered engineer or architect. [1985 c 37 § 12.]

18.08.420 Organization as corporation or joint stock association—Procedure—Requirements. (1) An architect or architects may organize a corporation formed either as a business corporation under the provisions of Title 23A RCW or as a professional corporation under the provisions of chapter 18.100 RCW. For an architect or architects to practice architecture through a corporation or joint stock association organized by any person under Title 23A RCW, the corporation or joint stock association shall file with the board:

(a) The application for certificate of authorization upon a form to be prescribed by the board and containing information required to enable the board to determine whether the corporation is qualified under this chapter to practice architecture in this state;

(b) Its notices of incorporation and bylaws and a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors of the corporation that designates individuals registered under this chapter as responsible for the practice of architecture by the corporation in this state and that provides that full authority to make all final architectural decisions on behalf of the corporation with respect to work performed by the corporation in this state shall be granted and delegated by the board of directors to the individuals designated in the resolution. The filing of the resolution shall not relieve the corporation of any responsibility or liability imposed upon it by law or by contract; and

(c) A designation in writing setting forth the name or names of the person or persons registered under this chapter who are responsible for the architecture of the firm. If there is a change in the person or persons responsible for the architecture of the firm, the changes shall be designated in writing and filed with the board within thirty days after the effective date of the changes.

(2) Upon the filing with the board of the application for certificate of authorization, the certified copy of the resolution, and the information specified in subsection (1) of this section, the board shall authorize the director to issue to the corporation a certificate of authorization to practice architecture in this state upon a determination by the board that:

(a) The bylaws of the corporation contain provisions that all architectural decisions pertaining to any project or architectural activities in this state shall be made by the specified architects responsible for the project or architectural activities, or other responsible architects under the direction or supervision of the architects responsible for the project or architectural activities;

(b) The applicant corporation has the ability to provide, through qualified personnel, professional services or creative work requiring architectural experience, and with respect to the architectural services that the corporation undertakes or offers to undertake, the personnel have the ability to apply special knowledge to the professional services or creative work such as consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, and administration of the construction contract in connection with any public or private structures, buildings, equipment, processes, works, or projects;

(c) The application for certificate of authorization contains the professional records of the designated person or persons who are responsible;

(d) The application for certificate of authorization states the experience of the corporation, if any, in furnishing architectural services during the preceding five-year period;

(e) The applicant corporation meets such other requirements related to professional competence in the furnishing of architectural services as may be established and promulgated by the board in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter; and

(f) The applicant corporation is possessed of the ability and competence to furnish architectural services in the public interest.

(3) Upon recommendation of the board, the director shall refuse to issue or may suspend or revoke a certificate of authorization to a corporation if the board finds that any of the officers, directors, incorporators, or the stockholders holding a majority of stock of the corporation have committed an act prohibited under RCW 18.08.440 or have been found personally responsible for misconduct under subsection (6) or (7) of this section.

(4) In the event a corporation, organized solely by a group of architects each registered under this chapter, applies for a certificate of authorization, the board may, in its discretion, grant a certificate of authorization to that corporation based on a review of the professional records of such incorporators, in lieu of the required qualifications set forth in subsections (1) and (2) of this section. In the event the ownership of such corporation is altered, the corporation shall apply for a revised certificate of authorization, based upon the professional records of the owners if exclusively architects, under the qualifications required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(5) Any corporation authorized to practice architecture under this chapter, together with its directors and officers for their own individual acts, are responsible to the same degree as an individual registered architect and shall conduct their business without misconduct or malpractice in the practice of architecture as defined in this chapter.

(6) Any corporation that has been certified under this chapter and has engaged in the practice of architecture shall have its certificate of authorization either suspended or revoked by the board if, after a proper hearing, the board finds that the corporation has committed misconduct or malpractice under RCW 18.08.440. In such a case, any individual architect registered under this chapter who is involved in such misconduct is also subject to disciplinary measures provided in this chapter.

(7) All plans, specifications, designs, and reports when issued in connection with work performed by a corporation under its certificate of authorization shall be prepared by or under the direction of the designated architects and shall be signed by and stamped with the official seal of the designated architects in the corporation authorized under this chapter.

(8) For each certificate of authorization issued under this section there shall be paid a certification fee and an annual certification renewal fee as prescribed by the director under RCW 43.24.086.

(9) This chapter shall not affect the practice of architecture as a professional service corporation under chapter 18.100 RCW. [1985 c 37 § 13.]

18.08.430 Renewal of certificates of registration—

Withdrawal. (1) The renewal date for certificates of registration shall be set by the director in accordance with RCW 43.24.086. Registrants who fail to pay the renewal fee within thirty days of the due date shall pay all delinquent fees plus a penalty fee equal to one-third of the renewal fee. A registrant who fails to pay a renewal fee for a period of five years may be reinstated under such circumstances as the board determines. The renewal and penalty fees and the frequency of renewal assessment shall be authorized under this chapter. Renewal date for certificates of authorization shall be the anniversary of the date of authorization.

(2) Any registrant in good standing may withdraw from the practice of architecture by giving written notice to the director, and may within five years thereafter resume active practice upon payment of the then-current renewal fee. A registrant may be reinstated after a withdrawal of more than five years under such circumstances as the board determines. [1985 c 37 § 14.]

18.08.440 Suspension, revocation, or refusal to issue or renew certificate—Grounds—Penalties. The board shall have the power to impose fines on any person practicing architecture in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars for each offense and may reprimand a registrant and may suspend, revoke, or refuse to issue or renew a certificate of registration or authorization to practice architecture in this state upon the following grounds:

(1) Offering to pay, paying, or accepting, either directly or indirectly, any substantial gift, bribe, or other consideration to influence the award of professional work;

(2) Being wilfully untruthful or deceptive in any professional report, statement, or testimony;

(3) Having conviction in any court of any offense involving moral turpitude or fraud;

(4) Having a financial interest in the bidding for or the performance of a contract to supply labor or materials for or to construct a project for which employed or retained as an architect except with the consent of the client or employer after disclosure of such facts; or allowing an interest in any business to affect a decision regarding architectural work for which retained, employed, or called upon to perform;

(5) Signing or permitting a seal to be affixed to any drawings or specifications that were not prepared or reviewed by the architect or under the architect's personal supervision by persons subject to the architect's direction and control;

(6) Aiding or abetting any person not authorized to practice architecture under this chapter;

(7) Wilfully evading or trying to evade any law, ordinance, code, or regulation governing construction of buildings; or

(8) Violating any provision of this chapter or any regulation adopted under it. [1985 c 37 § 15.]

18.08.450 Revocation or suspension of certificate—Discipline—Board's authority—Procedure.

(1) The board may revoke or suspend a certificate of registration or a certificate of authorization to practice architecture in this state, or otherwise discipline a registrant or person authorized to practice architecture, as provided in this chapter.

(2) Proceedings for the revocation, suspension, refusal to issue, or imposition of a monetary fine may be initiated by the board on its own motion based on the complaint of any person. A copy of the charge or charges, along with a notice of the time and place of the hearing before the board shall be served on the registrant as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) All procedures related to hearings on such charges shall be in accordance with rules for a contested case in chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act.

(4) If, after such hearing, the majority of the board vote in favor of finding the registrant guilty, the board shall take such disciplinary action as it deems appropriate under this chapter.

(5) The provisions of this section are in addition to and not in lieu of any other penalty or sanction provided by law. [1985 c 37 § 16.]

18.08.460 Violation of chapter—Penalties—Enforcement—Injunctions—Persons who may initiate proceedings. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule promulgated under it is guilty of a misdemeanor and may also be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars for each offense.

(1) It shall be the duty of all officers in the state or any political subdivision thereof to enforce this chapter. Any public officer may initiate an action before the board to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The board may apply for relief by injunction without bond to restrain a person from committing any act that is prohibited by this chapter. In such proceedings, it is not necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The members of the board shall not be personally liable for their actions in any such proceeding or in any other proceeding instituted by the board under this chapter. The board in any proper case shall cause prosecution to be instituted in any county or counties where any violation of this chapter occurs, and shall aid the prosecution of the violator.

(3) No person practicing architecture is entitled to maintain a proceeding in any court of this state relating to services in the practice of architecture unless it is alleged and proved that the person was registered or authorized under this chapter to practice or offer to practice architecture at the time the architecture services were offered or provided. [1985 c 37 § 17.]

(1) "Auctioneer" means a person who sells goods or real estate at public auction for another on commission or for recompense, or one who conducts an auction for another on commission or for recompense.

(2) "Auction" or "sale at auction" means the verbal exchanges between an auctioneer and the members of his or her audience, constituting a series of invitations for offers for the sale of goods or real property made by the auctioneer, offers by members of the audience, and the acceptance of the highest or most favorable offer by the auctioneer.

(3) "Auction mart" means any fixed or established place designed, intended, or used for the conduct of auction sales.

(4) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(5) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(6) "Person" means an individual, or a partner or member of a firm, partnership, or association, or an officer, director, or employee of a corporation.

(7) "Goods" mean wares, chattels, merchandise, or personal property owned or consigned, which may be lawfully kept or offered for sale, including domestic animals and farm products.

(8) "Qualified public depository" means a depository defined by RCW 39.58.010, a credit union as governed by chapter 31.12 RCW, a mutual savings bank as governed by Title 32 RCW, a savings and loan association as governed by Title 33 RCW, or a federal credit union or a federal savings and loan association organized, operated, and governed by any act of Congress. [1982 c 205 § 5.]

18.11.060 Administration of chapter under chapter 43.24 RCW. This chapter shall be administered under chapter 43.24 RCW. [1982 c 205 § 2.]

18.11.070 License required—Exceptions. (1) On and after June 10, 1982, it is unlawful for any person to act as an auctioneer, or to engage in the business of an auctioneer in this state without a license. A person conducting an auction or sale at auction of equipment, livestock, household goods, personal property, or real estate individually owned by that person is not required to obtain a license.

(2) This section does not apply to an auction or a sale at auction:

(a) Conducted by or under the direction of a public authority;

(b) Held under judicial order in the settlement of a decedent's estate;

(c) Which is required by law to be at auction;

(d) Conducted by or on behalf of a political organization or a charitable corporation or association if the person conducting the sale receives no compensation;

(e) Conducted by or under the auspices of national, state, or county livestock breeder or producer associations;

(f) Of livestock which is conducted by a person licensed by the federal government; or

(g) Conducted by or under the auspices of the Future Farmers of America, the 4-H Club, or a county or district fair. [1982 c 205 § 6.]

18.11.080 Applicants for certificate of registration—Licensing—Fees. The department shall license each applicant for a certificate of registration under this chapter who applies in writing on a form prescribed by the director with such information as the director requires. The director shall set license and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 8; 1982 c 205 § 3.]

18.11.090 Qualifications for license—Applications—Issuance fee—Renewal. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no person, partnership, association, or corporation may be licensed as an auctioneer unless the person, and all members of the partnership, association, or corporation are actively engaged in the auctioneering profession, are citizens, residents of the state, and eighteen years of age or older.

(2) Applications for licenses under this subsection shall be made to the department within ninety days of June 10, 1982, and be accompanied by an issuance fee as determined by the director.

(3) Persons licensed under this chapter shall apply for a license renewal annually on or before the birth date of the licensee. If the licensee does not renew his or her license before it expires, the licensee is subject to a penalty fee. [1982 c 205 § 7.]

18.11.100 Nonresident license—Reciprocity—Application—Fees. (1) A nonresident of this state may be licensed as an auctioneer upon complying with the rules of the department and this chapter.

(2) The department may accept, in lieu of the recommendations and statements otherwise required to accompany the application for a license, an auctioneer's license issued to the applicant by the state of his or her domicile upon the payment by the applicant of the proper license fee and filing with the department of a certified copy of the license issued by the other state. This section shall only apply to licensed auctioneers of those states under the laws of which similar recognition and courtesies are extended to licensed auctioneers of this state.

(3) The application of a person for a nonresident auctioneer's license under this chapter shall constitute the appointment of the secretary of state as the applicant's agent upon whom process may be served in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising out of a transaction or operation connected with or incidental to the business of an auctioneer.

(4) Nonresidents must pay the issuance fee, annual renewal fees, and such other fees as prescribed by the director under RCW 43.24.086, and file the bond or proof of the establishment of a trust account as required by this chapter. [1985 c 7 § 9; 1982 c 205 § 8.]

18.11.110 Trainee auctioneer's license. Upon application and the payment of a fee as provided under RCW 43.24.086, the department shall issue a trainee auctioneer's license to a person under the age of eighteen years if the department finds that:

(1) The applicant meets the other qualifications and requirements for an applicant for a license as an auctioneer;

(2) An auctioneer licensed under this chapter has given written notice to the department that he or she has agreed to employ the applicant as a trainee auctioneer, that he or she will assume responsibility for acts of the applicant in the conduct of auction business and sales, and that he or she will be present and supervise any auction sale conducted by the applicant; and

(3) The applicant has furnished security as required by RCW 18.11.120 or proof that the bond or trust account of the employer auctioneer under RCW 18.11.120 requires the auctioneer to pay all legal claims which may accrue in favor of any person arising out of auction business transacted under the auctioneer's direction.

No trainee licensed under this section may sell his or her own property at an auction sale which the trainee conducts, or sell any property by auction unless the employer auctioneer is present at the time of the auction sale. [1985 c 7 § 10; 1982 c 205 § 9.]

18.11.120 Surety bond or trust account required. (1) An auctioneer's license shall not be issued to any person, partnership, association, or corporation until the applicant has filed with the department an approved bond or has established a trust account in lieu of the bond, as required under this section.

(2) Each applicant for an auctioneer's license shall obtain a surety bond issued by a surety company authorized to do business in Washington or establish and maintain a trust account with a qualified public depository located in the state of Washington. Each trust account shall be managed by a trustee approved by the director. The bond or the trust account shall be in an amount not less than five thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. The amount of the bond or trust account required shall be based upon the value of the goods and real estate sold at auctions conducted by the auctioneer in the previous calendar year or, for a new auctioneer, the estimated value of the goods and real estate to be sold at auctions conducted by the auctioneer during the next calendar year. The director shall establish by rule the procedures to be used in determining the amount of the bond or trust account required for licensure or license renewal. Each such amount shall be expressed as a whole number multiple of one thousand dollars. The director may, by rule or order, establish procedures for the initiation, operation, forfeiture, or termination of any bond or trust account required under this section, including rules to ensure that the bond or trust account remains in effect for one year after expiration, revocation, or suspension of the auctioneer's license.

All bonds shall be subject to the condition that the licensee comply with this chapter and the law of the state. Each bond, or proof of the establishment of the required trust account, shall be filed with and retained by the department.

(3) The bond or trust account shall be in the name of the state of Washington. It shall be for the benefit of the state and any person injured by the auctioneer's violation of this chapter or by the auctioneer's breach of any obligation arising from auction business in this state. The state may bring an action against the bond or trust account to recover penalties. The state or an injured person may bring an action against the bond or trust account for damages to the injured person. The liability of the surety or trustee shall be only for actual damages and shall not exceed the amount of the bond or trust account. [1984 c 189 § 3; 1982 c 205 § 10.]

18.11.130 Written contract required—Exception—Penalty. No person may act as auctioneer in the sale at public auction of any goods or real estate until he or she has entered into a written contract or agreement with the owner or consignor in duplicate which contains the terms and conditions upon which the licensee receives or accepts the property for sale at auction. Auction marts shall not be subject to this section.

A person who violates this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. [1982 c 205 § 11.]

18.11.140 Records. Every person engaged in the business of selling goods or real estate at auction shall keep permanent written records available for inspection which indicate clearly the name and address of the owner, employer, or consignor of the goods or real estate, the terms of acceptance and sale, and a copy of the signed written contract of the auctioneer. [1982 c 205 § 12.]

18.11.150 Display of certificates of registration or renewal cards—Failure grounds for license suspension or revocation. All persons, partnerships, associations, and corporations licensed as auctioneers under this chapter shall be required to have their certificates of registration prominently displayed in their offices and the current renewal card or a facsimile available on demand at all sales at auction conducted or supervised by the licensee.

The violation of this section by any licensee shall be, in the discretion of the department sufficient cause for license suspension or revocation. [1982 c 205 § 13.]

18.11.160 Denial of license—Grounds. (1) If an auctioneer's license is revoked by the department after June 10, 1982, no new license may be issued to the person unless he or she complies with this chapter.

(2) After the revocation of any license, no new license may be issued to the same licensee within a period of at least one year from the date of the revocation nor at any time thereafter except in the sole discretion of the department.

(3) No license may be issued by the department to any person who has been convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy, fraud, theft, or other similar offense, or to any partnership of which the person is a member, or to any association or corporation of which the person is an officer or employee or in which as a stockholder the person has or exercises a controlling interest either directly or indirectly. [1982 c 205 § 14.]

18.11.170 Unauthorized practice—Penalties. Any person, partnership, association, or corporation who after June 10, 1982, engages in the profession, or acts in the capacity of an auctioneer within this state without a license or after the suspension or revocation of his or her license is guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction, the person shall be fined for the first offense not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars. For a second offense, the person shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for a period of not more than one year, or both. [1982 c 205 § 15.]

18.11.180 Compensation of nonlicensed person by licensee grounds for license suspension or revocation. It shall be unlawful for a licensed auctioneer to pay compensation in money or otherwise to anyone not licensed under this chapter to render any service or to do any act forbidden under this chapter to be rendered or performed except by licensees.

The violation of this section by any licensee shall be, in the discretion of the department, sufficient cause for license suspension or revocation. [1982 c 205 § 16.]

18.11.190 Actions for compensation for services. No action or suit may be instituted in any court of this state by any person, partnership, association, or corporation not licensed as an auctioneer to recover compensation for an act done or service rendered which is prohibited under this chapter. [1982 c 205 § 17.]

18.11.200 Director—Authority to adopt rules—Power to deny, suspend, or revoke licenses. The director may prescribe rules for the purpose of carrying out this chapter, including rules governing the conduct of investigations and inspections. Upon finding that any provision of this chapter has been violated, the director may deny issuance or renewal of any license authorized under this chapter or suspend or revoke any such license. [1982 c 205 § 18.]

18.11.210 Newspaper advertisements—Auctioneer's name and license number required. All newspaper advertising regarding auctions that is purchased by an auctioneer licensed under this chapter shall include the auctioneer's name and license number. [1984 c 189 § 1.]

18.11.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "auctioneer's licensing act." [1982 c 205 § 1.]

18.11.910 Termination of chapter. Chapter 18.11 RCW shall expire on June 30, 1986, unless extended by law. The legislative budget committee shall evaluate the effectiveness of chapter 18.11 RCW. The final report of the evaluation shall be available to the legislature at least six months prior to the scheduled termination date. The report shall include, but is not limited to, objective findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations as to continuation, modification, or termination of chapter 18.11 RCW. [1982 c 205 § 19.]

18.11.920 Severability—1982 c 205. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1982 c 205 § 20.]

Auctioneers: Chapter 18.11 RCW.

Mock auctions: RCW 9.45.070.

18.12.010 Definitions. When used herein the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Jewelry" includes gold, silver, plated ware, precious or semiprecious stones, mounted or unmounted, watches, clocks, and goods, wares and merchandise commonly classified as jewelry and commonly offered for sale in jewelry stores.

"Appliances" means new, as distinguished from used, radios, television sets, washing machines, refrigerators, toasters, food mixers, waffle irons, and similar items commonly sold in retail jewelry stores.

"Auction" means the sale of jewelry and appliances at either private or public sale, upon oral or written bids, to the highest bidder, and shall include all such sales although denominated as "action" sales or by any similar words. [1953 c 239 § 1.]

18.12.020 License required. It shall be unlawful to sell, offer for sale, or attempt to sell at auction any jewelry or appliances unless a license has been obtained as hereinafter provided. [1953 c 239 § 2.]

18.12.030 Application requisites—Place of sale—Prior conviction of applicant. The county commissioners, in the county in which the auction sale is to be held, shall grant licenses for jewelry and appliance auctions only when the application therefor indicates:

(1) The sale is to be held at the applicant's regularly established place of business, or at the place wherein his regular business has been operated for a period of at least one year prior to the application.

(2) The applicant has not been convicted of violating this chapter within a period of six years just prior to the date of application. [1953 c 239 § 3.]

18.12.040 Application requisites—Prior conviction of employee. The application shall indicate that no person will be employed in any manner in the conduct of the auction sale who has been convicted of any violation of this chapter within a period of six years prior thereto. [1953 c 239 § 7.]

18.12.050 Application requisites—In general. The application shall also indicate the name, residence, address and business address of the applicant; the purpose for which the sale is to be held; the type of business engaged in during the prior two years, if any, and its location; whether the proposed sale is to be held at the applicant's existing regularly established place of business; whether the applicant will personally participate at the auction sale; whether any additions to the stock to be sold at auction have been made within sixty days prior thereto; the name, address and occupational history for the preceding two years of any person who will participate in conducting the sale. [1953 c 239 § 4.]

18.12.060 Application requisites—Additions to inventory—Prior auctions. The application shall also indicate whether the applicant will make or permit additions to be made to the stock described in the inventory, hereinafter referred to, after his filing the said inventory; whether he has conducted any auction of jewelry or appliances within a period of five years prior thereto, and if so, a statement when and where it occurred. [1953 c 239 § 5.]

18.12.070 Application requisites—Inventory—Goods to be marked. The application shall have attached thereto a detailed inventory listing each article to be sold, together with an inventory number for each article. Prior to the auction, the applicant shall cause to be attached to each article the inventory number, and this marking or tag must be attached to the article at all times during the duration of the auction sale. [1953 c 239 § 6.]

18.12.080 Application requisites—Verification. The applicant shall verify under oath or affirmation that all the data and statements in the application and the inventory are true and correct. [1953 c 239 § 8.]

18.12.090 License in addition to any other. Any such license shall be in addition to a license required by the ordinance of any municipality in which said sale is to be held. [1953 c 239 § 19.]

18.12.100 Duration of license. No auction sale of jewelry or appliances shall be licensed for a period of more than thirty consecutive days, legal holidays excepted. [1953 c 239 § 14.]

18.12.110 License—Fee—Bond—Right of action—Liability. In addition to the requirements of RCW 18.12.010 through 18.12.080, 18.12.100, and 18.12.130 through 18.12.180, before issuance of a license for an auction of jewelry or appliances, the applicant shall pay therefor a fee of two hundred and fifty dollars, and shall file with the county commissioners a bond in a form approved by the county commissioners, executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, in an amount equal to one-half of the cost value of the articles inventoried for sale, said bond shall be approved by the county commissioners. Said bond shall run to the state of Washington and shall be conditioned that it is for the use or benefit of the person who may be damaged by the violation of this chapter by the licensee, his employees or agents, or who may have the cause of action against said licensee, his employees or agents, by reason of any matters arising out of the conduct of said auction sale. Any such person shall have, in addition to any other right of action which he may have, a right of action on such bond for all damages not exceeding one thousand dollars, and the aggregate liability of the surety upon said bond for all claims which may arise thereunder shall not exceed the sum specified in said bond. The county commissioners shall, upon compliance with all the above requirements, issue a license to hold an auction for the sale of jewelry and appliances. [1953 c 239 § 16.]

18.12.120 County commissioners may suspend, restore license—Appeal. The county commissioners may suspend and restore licenses as they deem reasonable or necessary to assure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Appeal from such decision of county commissioners may be made within ten days from date of filing of said decision of said county commissioners, to the superior court by the applicant or any aggrieved person. Said appeal may be taken by the issuance of an order to show cause directed to said county commissioners or by any other appropriate legal remedy afforded by law. Said appeal shall be speedily heard by said superior court under the rules of said superior court. [1953 c 239 § 17.]

18.12.130 Sale of noninventoried articles prohibited—Supplemental inventory. No article shall be sold at the auction for which the application was obtained unless it was listed in the inventory accompanying the application, except that such articles may be sold if listed on a supplemental inventory subsequently approved by a majority of the board of county commissioners of the county in which such auction is held. [1953 c 239 § 9.]

18.12.140 Articles stocked within sixty days prior to application. No article shall be listed in the inventory or sold at the auction which was purchased or stocked by the applicant within sixty days prior to the application for auction, except that such articles may be sold if listed on a supplemental inventory subsequently approved by a majority of the board of county commissioners of the county in which such auction is held. [1953 c 239 § 10.]

18.12.150 Merchandise to be truly represented and inventory made available. At all such auctions the applicant, and his employees and agents, shall represent to the public the true manufacture, quality and kind of said articles. If requested by anyone, a copy of the inventory will be shown. [1953 c 239 § 11.]

18.12.160 Sale of falsely described articles prohibited. No article shall be sold at auction which has been falsely described or concerning which any false statement has been made by the applicant or his employees or agents. [1953 c 239 § 12.]

18.12.170 Notice that purchases may be returned. The applicant shall cause to be displayed in a prominent place on the premises where the auction is being conducted a notice that all merchandise purchased may be returned, if it is at the time in the same condition as when purchased, for the amount paid, if returned within forty-eight hours from time of purchase. The said notice shall be of sufficient size as to be readily discernible by the bidders. [1953 c 239 § 13.]

18.12.180 Applicant's responsibility to comply with chapter. The applicant will be responsible for compliance with this chapter whether he is present at or absent from the auction sale. [1953 c 239 § 15.]

18.12.190 When chapter does not apply. This chapter shall not apply to any sale of second-hand jewelry or appliances, judicial sales or government sales, or sales by any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, or trustee in bankruptcy so authorized by any court of competent jurisdiction. [1953 c 239 § 18.]

18.12.200 Penalty. Any violation of this chapter is punishable, upon conviction, by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by confinement in the county jail for not exceeding six months, or both. [1953 c 239 § 20.]

18.12.900 Severability—1953 c 239. If any section, subsection, phrase or provision of this chapter should be held invalid by any court for any reason, such invalidity shall in no way affect the validity of the remainder of the chapter. [1953 c 239 § 21.]

18.16.905	Severability—1984 c 208.
18.16.907	Effective date—1984 c 208.

18.16.010 Intent. The legislature recognizes that the practice of cosmetology involves the use of tools and chemicals which may be dangerous when mixed or applied improperly, and therefore finds it necessary in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to regulate the practice of cosmetology in this state. [1984 c 208 § 1.]

18.16.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Board" means the cosmetology, barbering, and manicuring advisory board.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of licensing.

(3) "The practice of cosmetology" means the practice of manicuring, the practice of barbering, and the permanent waving, chemical relaxing or straightening, bleaching, or coloring of the hair of the face, neck, and scalp.

(4) "Cosmetologist" means a person licensed under this chapter to engage in the practice of cosmetology and who has completed sixteen hundred hours of instruction at a school licensed under this chapter.

(5) "The practice of barbering" means the cutting, trimming, arranging, dressing, curling, waving and shampooing hair of the face, neck and scalp.

(6) "Barber" means a person licensed under this chapter to engage in the practice of barbering and who has completed eight hundred hours of instruction at a school licensed under this chapter.

(7) "Practice of manicuring" means the application and removal of artificial nails, skin care involving hot compresses, massage, or the use of electrical appliances or chemical compounds formulated for professional application only, and the temporary removal of superfluous hair by means of lotions, creams or mechanical or electrical apparatus or appliances on another person.

(8) "Manicurist" means a person who has successfully completed five hundred hours of instruction at a school licensed under this chapter and who is licensed pursuant to this chapter.

(9) "School" means any establishment offering instruction in the practice of cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring to students and licensed under this chapter.

(10) "Student" means a person sixteen years of age or older who is enrolled in a school licensed under this chapter and receives any phase of cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring instruction with or without tuition, fee, or cost, and who does not receive any wage or commission.

(11) "Cosmetology instructor" means a person who gives instruction in the practice of cosmetology, barbering and/or manicuring in a school and who has the same qualifications as a cosmetologist and who has completed at least five hundred hours of instruction in cosmetology teaching techniques and lesson planning in a school and has passed an examination prepared or selected by the board and administered by the director. A person who applies for a license under this section and who can show equivalent credentials to the five hundred hour curriculum is exempt from the five hundred hour requirement. An applicant who holds a degree in education from an accredited postsecondary institution shall upon application be licensed as an instructor if the applicant meets the requirements for licensure as a cosmetologist.

(12) "Special student" is a person who has academically completed the eleventh grade of high school, who in cooperation with any senior high, vocational technical institute, community college, or prep school, attends a cosmetology school and participates in its student course of instruction and has the same rights and duties as a student as defined in this chapter. The school shall have relatively corresponding rights and responsibilities, and every such special student shall receive credit for all hours of instruction received in the school of cosmetology upon graduation from high school. Hours shall be credited to a special student if the student graduates from an accredited high school or receives a certificate of educational competence before applying to take the cosmetologist, barber, or manicurist license examination. [1984 c 208 § 2.]

18.16.030 Director—Powers and duties. In addition to any other duties imposed by law, the director shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) To set all license, examination, and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086;
- (2) To adopt rules necessary to implement this chapter;
- (3) To investigate alleged violations of this chapter and consumer complaints involving the practice of cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring;
- (4) To conduct all disciplinary proceedings, impose sanctions, and assess fines for violations of this chapter or any rules adopted under it;
- (5) To administer licensing examinations;
- (6) To establish minimum safety and sanitation standards for schools;
- (7) To establish minimum instruction guidelines for the training of students;
- (8) Shall keep all student training records submitted by the school on file for at least five years or until the student is licensed;
- (9) To set license expiration dates and renewal periods for all licenses under this chapter. [1984 c 208 § 7.]

18.16.040 Staff. The director shall employ such administrative, investigative, and clerical staff as needed to implement this chapter. [1984 c 208 § 17.]

18.16.050 Advisory board—Members—Compensation. There is created a state cosmetology, barbering, and manicuring advisory board consisting of five members appointed by the governor who shall advise the director concerning the administration of this chapter. Four members of the board shall be barbers or cosmetologists who are licensed under this chapter and who have been engaged in the practice of barbering or cosmetology for at least three years or who have qualified under RCW 18.16.120(1). One member of the board shall be a consumer who is unaffiliated with the cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring industry. The term of office for board members is three years. The terms of the first board members, however, shall be staggered to ensure an orderly succession of new board members thereafter. Any board member may be removed for just cause. The director may appoint a new member to fill any vacancy on the committee for the remainder of the unexpired term. No board member may serve more than two consecutive terms, whether full or partial.

Board members shall be entitled to compensation at the rate of fifty dollars per day for each day spent conducting official business and to reimbursement for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 208 § 9.]

18.16.060 Licenses required—Penalty. It is a misdemeanor for any person to do any of the following without first obtaining the license required by this chapter:

- (1) Commercial practice of cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring;
- (2) Instruct in a school; or
- (3) Operate a school. [1984 c 208 § 3.]

18.16.070 Licensing—Persons to whom chapter inapplicable. This chapter shall not apply to persons licensed under other laws of this state who are performing services within their authorized scope of practice and shall not be construed to require a license for students enrolled in a school. [1984 c 208 § 4.]

18.16.080 Licensing—Other persons to whom chapter inapplicable. Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person authorized under the laws of this state from performing any service for which the person may be licensed, nor prohibits any person from performing services as an electrologist if that person has been otherwise certified, registered, or trained as an electrologist.

This chapter does not apply to persons employed in the care or treatment of patients in hospitals or employed in the care of residents of nursing homes and similar residential care facilities. [1984 c 208 § 19.]

18.16.090 Examinations. Examinations for licensure under this chapter shall be conducted monthly at such times and places as the director determines appropriate. Examinations shall consist of tests designed to reasonably measure the applicant's knowledge of safe and sanitary practice. The director shall annually announce the dates and locations of examinations scheduled for that year. Passing grades shall be based upon a standard of one hundred percent. An applicant who receives a passing grade as determined by the board is entitled to the appropriate license for which the applicant was examined.

All examination papers completed by the applicant shall be kept on file by the director for a period of at least one year and shall be available for inspection by the applicant or the applicant's agent. [1984 c 208 § 10.]

18.16.100 Issuance of licenses—Requirements. Upon payment of the proper fee, the director shall issue the appropriate license to any person who:

- (1) Is at least seventeen years of age or older;
- (2) Has completed a sixteen hundred hour course of training in cosmetology, an eight hundred hour course of training in barbering, or a five hundred hour course of training in manicuring. The required curriculum shall be determined by the director in consultation with the board; and
- (3) Has received a passing grade on a licensing examination administered by the director. [1984 c 208 § 5.]

18.16.110 Issuance of licenses—Renewals. The director shall issue the appropriate license to each applicant who has applied for a license and complied with the requirements established under this chapter for that license. Failure to renew a license before its expiration date subjects the holder to a penalty fee as established by the director in accordance with RCW 43.24.086. A person whose license has not been renewed for three years shall be required to retake the applicable examination before the license may be reissued: Provided, That the director may waive this requirement for good cause shown. [1984 c 208 § 12.]

18.16.120 Issuance of licenses—Persons and schools licensed under prior laws. All licenses issued under chapters 18.15 and 18.18 RCW which are issued prior to June 30, 1984, shall remain in effect until October 1, 1984. On or before October 1, 1984, the director shall issue the equivalent license under this chapter to all persons or schools holding such licenses as follows:

- (1) Any person licensed as a cosmetology manager-operator under chapter 18.18 RCW, or certified men's hairstylist under chapter 18.15 RCW, shall be issued a cosmetologist license;
- (2) Any person licensed as a barber under chapter 18.15 RCW shall retain his or her license;
- (3) Any person licensed as a manicurist manager-operator under chapter 18.18 RCW shall be issued a manicurist license;
- (4) Any person licensed as an instructor-operator under chapter 18.18 RCW or as a barber instructor under chapter 18.15 RCW shall be issued a cosmetologist instructor license; and
- (5) Any cosmetology school licensed under chapter 18.18 RCW and any barber college or school licensed under chapter 18.15 RCW shall be issued a school license. [1984 c 208 § 18.]

18.16.130 Issuance of licenses—Persons licensed in other jurisdictions. Any person who is properly licensed in any state, territory, or possession of the United States, or foreign country shall be issued a license under this chapter without examination if the applicant provides proof to the director that he or she is currently licensed in good standing as a cosmetologist, barber, manicurist, or the equivalent in that jurisdiction and has completed a course of training equivalent to that required under this chapter. [1984 c 208 § 11.]

18.16.140 School licenses—Application—Surety bond—Issuance. Any person wishing to operate a school shall, before opening such a school, file with the director a license application containing the following information:

- (1) The names and addresses of all owners and instructors;
- (2) Proof that the school's curriculum satisfies the training guidelines established by the director;
- (3) The catalogs, brochures, and contract forms the school proposes to use;
- (4) A sample of the school's enrollment contract, and cancellation and refund policies;
- (5) A description of the school's physical equipment and facilities;
- (6) A surety bond not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars, in a form and amount acceptable to the director, running to the state of Washington for the protection of students of the school, except for community colleges and vocational technical schools.

Upon proper application and payment of fees, the director shall issue a license to operate a school. [1984 c 208 § 6.]

18.16.150 Schools—Compliance with chapter. From time to time as deemed necessary by the director, all schools shall be surveyed for compliance with this chapter. If the director determines that any licensed school is not maintaining the standards required according to this chapter, notice thereof, in writing, shall be given to the school. A school which fails to correct these conditions to the satisfaction of the director within a reasonable time shall, upon due notice to the school, be subject to penalties imposed by the director under RCW 18.16.210. [1984 c 208 § 8.]

18.16.160 Schools—Claims against—Procedure. In addition to any other legal remedy, any student having a claim against a school may bring suit upon the surety bond required in RCW 18.16.140(6) in the superior or district court of Thurston county or the county in which the educational services were offered by the school. Action upon the bond shall be commenced by filing the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior or district court within one year from the date of the cancellation of the bond: Provided, That no action shall be maintained upon the bond for any claim which has been barred by any nonclaim statute or statute of limitations of this state. Service of process in an action upon the bond shall be exclusively by service upon the director. Two copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the director at the time the suit is started. Such service shall constitute service on the surety and the school. The director shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the school at the address listed in the director's records and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it has been received. The surety shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond. In any action on a bond, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

The director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits commenced under this chapter upon surety bonds. [1984 c 208 § 16.]

18.16.200 Disciplinary action—Grounds. Any applicant or licensee under this chapter may be subject to disciplinary action by the director if the licensee or applicant:

- (1) Has been found guilty of a crime related to the practice of cosmetology, barbering, or manicuring;
- (2) Has made a material misstatement or omission in connection with an application;
- (3) Has engaged in false or misleading advertising;
- (4) Has performed services in an unsafe or unsanitary manner; or
- (5) Has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule adopted under it. [1984 c 208 § 13.]

18.16.210 Violations—Penalties. If, following a hearing, the director finds that an applicant or licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule adopted under it, the director may impose one or more of the following penalties:

- (1) Denial of a license or renewal;
- (2) Revocation or suspension of a license;
- (3) A fine of not more than five hundred dollars per violation;
- (4) Issuance of a reprimand or letter of censure;
- (5) Placement of the licensee on probation for a fixed period of time;
- (6) Restriction of the licensee's authorized scope of practice;
- (7) Requiring the licensee to make restitution or a refund as determined by the director to any individual injured by the violation; or
- (8) Requiring the licensee to obtain additional training or instruction. [1984 c 208 § 14.]

18.16.220 Appeal—Procedure. Any person aggrieved by the refusal of the director to issue any license provided for in this chapter, or to renew the same, or by the revocation or suspension of any license issued under this chapter or by the application of any penalty under RCW 18.16.210, shall have the right to appeal the decision of the director to the superior court of the county in which the person maintains his or her place of business. Such appeal shall be filed within thirty days of the director's decision. [1984 c 208 § 15.]

18.16.900 Short title—1984 c 208. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Washington cosmetologists, barbers, and manicurists act". [1984 c 208 § 20.]

18.16.905 Severability—1984 c 208. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 208 § 22.]

18.16.907 Effective date—1984 c 208. This act shall take effect July 1, 1984. [1984 c 208 § 23.]

18.20.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of standards for the maintenance and operation of boarding homes, which, in the light of advancing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate care of the individuals therein. It is further the intent of the legislature that boarding homes be available to meet the needs of those for whom they care by recognizing the capabilities of individuals to direct their self-medication or to use supervised self-medication techniques when ordered and approved by a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW or a podiatrist licensed under chapter 18.22 RCW. [1985 c 297 § 1; 1957 c 253 § 1.]

18.20.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Aged person" means a person of the age sixty-five years or more, or a person of less than sixty-five years who by reason of infirmity requires domiciliary care.

(2) "Boarding home" means any home or other institution, however named, which is advertised, announced or maintained for the express or implied purpose of providing board and domiciliary care to three or more aged persons not related by blood or marriage to the operator. It shall not include any home, institution or section thereof which is otherwise licensed and regulated under the provisions of state law providing specifically for the licensing and regulation of such home, institution or section thereof.

(3) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(4) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(5) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.

(6) "Authorized department" means any city, county, city-county health department or health district authorized by the secretary of social and health services to carry out the provisions of this chapter. [1985 c 213 § 4; 1979 c 141 § 25; 1957 c 253 § 2.]

Savings—Effective date—1985 c 213: See notes following RCW 43.20.050.

18.20.030 License required. After January 1, 1958, no person shall operate or maintain a boarding home as defined in this chapter within this state without a license under this chapter. [1957 c 253 § 3.]

18.20.040 Application for license. An application for a license shall be made to the department or authorized department upon forms provided by either of said departments and shall contain such information as the department reasonably requires, which shall include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with such rules and regulations as are lawfully promulgated by the board. [1957 c 253 § 4.]

18.20.050 Licenses—Issuance—Renewal—Provisional licenses—Fees—Display. Upon receipt of an application for license, if the applicant and the boarding home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter, the department or the department and the authorized health department jointly, shall issue a license. If there is a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the standards, rules, and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the department, or the department and authorized health department, may in its discretion issue to an applicant for a license, or for the renewal of a license, a provisional license which will permit the operation of the boarding home for a period to be determined by the department, or the department and authorized health department, but not to exceed twelve months, which provisional license shall not be subject to renewal. At the time of the application for or renewal of a license or provisional license the licensee shall pay a license fee as established by the department under RCW 43.20A.055. When the license or provisional license is issued jointly by the department and authorized health department, the license fee shall be paid to the authorized health department. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on a date to be set by the department, but no license issued pursuant to this chapter shall exceed twelve months in duration: Provided, That when the annual license renewal date of a previously licensed boarding home is set by the department on a date less than twelve months prior to the expiration date of a license in effect at the time of reissuance, the license fee shall be prorated on a monthly basis and a credit be allowed at the first renewal of a license for any period of one month or more covered by the previous license. All applications for renewal of license shall be made not later than thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the license. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons named in the application, and no license shall be transferable or assignable. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises. [1982 c 201 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 247 § 1; 1957 c 253 § 5.]

18.20.060 Denial, suspension, revocation of license. The department or the department and authorized department jointly, as the case may be, after notice and opportunity for hearing to the applicant or license holder, is authorized to deny, suspend or revoke a license in any case in which it finds there has been a failure or refusal to comply with the requirements established under this chapter or the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Notice of denial, suspension, or revocation shall be given by registered mail, or by personal service in the manner of service of summons in a civil action; which notice shall set forth the particular reasons for the proposed denial, suspension or revocation and shall fix a date not less than twenty days from the date of mailing or service, during which the applicant or licensee may in writing request a hearing on the denial, suspension, or revocation. If the applicant or licensee fails to request a hearing within that time, the department or the department and authorized department jointly may deny, suspend or revoke the license without further notice or action. The order of denial, suspension or revocation shall be mailed to the applicant or license holder by registered mail or personally served on him in the manner of service of summons in a civil action.

If the applicant or licensee requests a hearing within such time the department shall fix a time for the hearing and shall give the applicant or licensee or such person's attorney, written notice thereof.

The procedure governing hearings shall be in accordance with rules promulgated by the department and such hearing shall be informal and summary, except that a record shall be kept of the testimony taken on behalf of the applicant or licensee and the department, which need not be transcribed unless an appeal is taken therefrom. The department shall render its decision within a reasonable time after the hearing and issue its order, which shall be served on the applicant or licensee or such person's attorney, and the order shall become final unless an appeal is taken therefrom. [1985 c 213 § 5; 1957 c 253 § 6.]

18.20.070 Appeal from decision of department—Procedure. Within twenty days after the date of mailing of the decision of the department, the interested applicant or licensee may appeal to the superior court of the county in which the boarding home is located or is to be located, and such appeal shall be heard de novo as a case in equity, but upon such appeal only such issues of law may be raised as were properly included in the hearing before the department. Full opportunity to be heard upon the issues of law and fact shall be had before judgment is pronounced. Such appeal shall be perfected by serving a notice of appeal with the department and by filing the notice of appeal, together with proof of service thereof, with the clerk of the court. The service and the filing together with proof of service of the notice of appeal all within twenty days shall be jurisdictional. The department shall within twenty days after receipt of such notice of appeal serve and file a notice of appearance upon appellant or his attorney of record, and such appeal shall thereupon be deemed at issue. The department shall serve upon the appellant and file with the clerk of the court before hearing a certified copy of the complete record of the administrative proceedings which shall, upon being so filed, become the record in such case. The cost of transcribing the record shall be borne by the appellant where the order of the department is affirmed by the court. In the event of modification or reversal, such cost shall be borne as directed by the court. [1957 c 253 § 7.]

18.20.090 Rules, regulations, and standards. The department shall adopt, amend, and promulgate such rules, regulations, and standards with respect to all boarding homes and operators thereof to be licensed hereunder as may be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter in promoting safe and adequate care of individuals in boarding homes and the sanitary, hygienic and safe conditions of the boarding home in the interest of public health, safety, and welfare. [1985 c 213 § 6; 1971 ex.s. c 189 § 3; 1957 c 253 § 9.]

18.20.100 Enforcement by local authorities—Authorization. Where it is determined by the secretary together with the jurisdictional health officer, that a city, county, city-county health department or health district is qualified to carry out the provisions of this chapter, he shall authorize such political subdivision or agency to administer and enforce this chapter, and the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder.

Any such authorization may be withdrawn by the secretary after thirty days' notice in writing to the authorized department should the secretary determine that the authorized department is unwilling or unable to carry out the duties and responsibilities hereunder. [1979 c 141 § 26; 1957 c 253 § 10.]

18.20.110 Inspection of boarding homes—Approval of changes or new facilities. The department or authorized health department shall make or cause to be made at least a yearly inspection and investigation of all boarding homes. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records (other than financial records), methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The department may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit plans and specifications therefor to the department or to the authorized department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [1985 c 213 § 7; 1957 c 253 § 11.]

18.20.120 Information confidential. All information received by the department or authorized health department through filed reports, inspections, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter, shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner as to identify individuals or boarding homes, except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure. [1957 c 253 § 12.]

18.20.130 Fire protection—Duties of state fire marshal. Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all boarding homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the state fire marshal, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to boarding homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the state fire marshal or his deputy, shall make an inspection of the boarding home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the state fire marshal, he shall promptly make a written report to the boarding home and the department or authorized department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, authorized department, applicant or licensee shall notify the state fire marshal upon completion of any requirements made by him, and the state fire marshal, or his deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the boarding home to be licensed meets with the approval of the state fire marshal, he shall submit to the department or authorized department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The state fire marshal shall make or cause to be made inspections of such homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the state fire marshal to be equal to the minimum standards of the state fire marshal's code for boarding homes, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the state fire marshal or his deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued. [1957 c 253 § 13.]

18.20.140 Operating without license—Penalty. Any person operating or maintaining any boarding home without a license under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and each day of a continuing violation shall be considered a separate offense. [1957 c 253 § 14.]

18.20.150 Operating without license—Injunction. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department, may, in the manner provided by law, upon the advice of the attorney general who shall represent the department in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the operation or maintenance of a boarding home without a license under this chapter. [1957 c 253 § 15.]

18.20.160 Persons requiring medical or nursing care. No person operating a boarding home licensed under this chapter shall admit to or retain in the boarding home any aged person requiring nursing or medical care of a type provided by institutions licensed under chapters 18.51, 70.41 or 71.12 RCW, except that when registered nurses are available, and upon a doctor's order that a supervised medication service is needed, it may be provided. Supervised medication services, as defined by the department, may include an approved program of self-medication or self-directed medication. Such medication service shall be provided only to boarders who otherwise meet all requirements for residency in a boarding home. [1985 c 297 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 43 § 1; 1957 c 253 § 16.]

18.20.170 Application of chapter to homes operated by religious organizations. Nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be construed as authorizing the supervision, regulation, or control of the remedial care or treatment of residents in any boarding home conducted for those who rely upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination. [1957 c 253 § 17.]

18.20.900 Severability—1957 c 253. If any part, or parts, of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional, the remaining provisions shall be given full force and effect, as completely as if the part held unconstitutional had not been included herein, if any such remaining part can then be administered for the purpose of establishing and maintaining standards for boarding homes. [1957 c 253 § 20.]

18.22.005 Legislative finding—Purpose. The legislature finds that the conduct of podiatrists licensed to practice in this state plays a vital role in preserving the public health and well-being and that the existing agency responsible for disciplinary action against podiatrists does not offer a simple, expedient, and effective means of handling disciplinary action when necessary for the protection of the public. The purpose of *this act is to establish an effective public agency to regulate the practice of podiatry for the protection and promotion of the public health, safety, and welfare and to act as a disciplinary body for the licensed podiatrists of this state. [1982 c 21 § 1.]

18.22.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) The practice of podiatry means the diagnosis and the medical, surgical, mechanical, manipulative, and electrical treatments of ailments of the human foot. A podiatrist is a podiatric physician and surgeon of the foot licensed to treat ailments of the foot, except:

(a) Amputation of the foot;

(b) The administration of a spinal anesthetic or any anesthetic, which renders the patient unconscious, or the administration and prescription of drugs including narcotics, other than required to perform the services authorized for the treatment of the feet; and

(c) Treatment of systemic conditions.

(2) "Board" means the Washington state podiatry board.

(3) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(5) "Approved school of podiatry" means a school approved by the board, which may consider official recognition of the Council of Education of the American Podiatry Association in determining the approval of schools of podiatry. [1982 c 21 § 2; 1973 c 77 § 1; 1955 c 149 § 1; 1941 c 31 § 1; 1921 c 120 § 1; 1917 c 38 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10074.]

Persons licensed under prior laws:

1917 c 38 § 3: "Licenses for the practice of chiropody shall be issued by the state board of chiropody without examination to all persons who shall within sixty days from the taking effect of this act have and maintain a fixed place of business with the necessary facilities for the sterilization of instruments, and who shall at the time of making application file with said board an affidavit to the effect that he or she has such fixed place of business, and is a resident of the state, and been engaged in the practice of chiropody in this state for at least two years prior to making application; said application to be accompanied by the certificate of two licensed physicians resident at the place of business of the applicant, to the effect that they are acquainted with the applicant and believe him or her to be a person of good moral character. Said applicant shall at the time of making application pay to the said board the sum of ten dollars."

1935 c 48 § 2: "Licenses for the practice of chiropody shall be issued by the director of licenses without examination, to all persons who shall within ten days from the taking effect of this act have and maintain a fixed place of business with the necessary facilities for the sterilization of instruments, and who shall at the time of making application file with the said director an affidavit to the effect that he or she had such fixed place of business, and is a resident of the state and had been engaged in the practice of chiropody in this state for at least three years prior to 1917. The application for said license shall be accompanied by an affidavit of reputable persons to the effect that they are acquainted with the applicant and believe him or her to be a person of good moral character. In addition thereto, the applicant shall give satisfactory reasons to the director of licenses why he failed to register since chapter 38 of the Session Laws of 1917 went into effect. Said applicant shall at the time of making application pay to the said director of licenses the sum of twenty-five dollars: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to in anywise modify, repeal or alter the provisions of section 3 of chapter 38 of the Laws of 1917, except as herein contained."

18.22.013 Podiatry board—Membership. There is created the Washington state podiatry board consisting of five members to be appointed by the governor. All members shall be residents of the state. One member shall be a consumer whose occupation does not include the administration of health activities or the providing of health services and who has no material financial interest in providing health care services. Four members shall be podiatrists who at the time of appointment have been licensed under the laws of this state for at least five consecutive years immediately preceding appointment and shall at all times during their terms remain licensed podiatrists.

Board members shall serve five-year terms, except that the terms of the initial appointees shall be adjusted so that only one member's term expires each year. The initial appointees whose terms expire after two years and four years shall each be members of the existing podiatry examining committee appointed under RCW 43.24.060.

No person may serve more than two consecutive terms on the board. Each member shall take the usual oath of a state officer, which shall be filed with the secretary of state, and each member shall hold office for the term of appointment and until a successor is appointed and sworn.

Each member is subject to removal at the pleasure of the governor. If a vacancy on the board occurs from any cause, the governor shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term. [1982 c 21 § 8.]

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.22.014 Board—Meetings—Chairperson—Members' compensation and travel expenses. The board shall meet at the places and times it determines and as often as necessary to discharge its duties. The board shall elect a chairperson from among its members. Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 in addition to travel expenses provided by RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 26; 1982 c 21 § 9.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.22.015 Board—Duties—Rules. The board shall:

- (1) Administer all laws placed under its jurisdiction;
- (2) Prepare, grade, and administer or determine the nature, grading, and administration of examinations for applicants for podiatrist licenses;
- (3) Examine and investigate all applicants for podiatrist licenses and certify to the director all applicants it judges to be properly qualified;
- (4) Conduct hearings for the refusal, suspension, or revocation of licenses or appoint a departmental hearing officer to conduct these hearings;
- (5) Investigate all reports, complaints, and charges of malpractice, unsafe conditions or practices, or unprofessional conduct against any licensed podiatrist and direct corrective action if necessary;
- (6) Issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;
- (7) Take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding; and
- (8) Adopt rules establishing ethical standards for the podiatric profession including rules relating to false or misleading advertising and excessive charges for professional services. The board may adopt any other rules which it considers necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [1982 c 21 § 10.]

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

Revocation, suspension, denial of podiatrist's license—Unprofessional conduct as grounds—Scope: RCW 18.22.151.

18.22.016 Board—Members and staff immunity from suit. Board members and staff are immune from suit in any civil or criminal action based upon their official acts performed in good faith as members or staff of the board brought by or on behalf of a person who is being evaluated. [1982 c 21 § 11.]

18.22.017 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The podiatry board may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 26.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.22.020 Licensing required. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice podiatry in this state unless the person first has obtained a license therefor. [1982 c 21 § 3; 1973 c 77 § 2; 1957 c 52 § 13. Prior: 1917 c 38 § 2, part; RRS § 10075, part.]

18.22.030 Licensing—Exemptions. Nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed as preventing any licensed physician, surgeon, osteopath, chiropractor, or other person licensed to treat the sick and afflicted, from treating the hands or feet by the methods and means permitted by the person's license, nor to prevent the domestic administration of family remedies, nor shall this chapter be construed to discriminate against any particular school of medicine or surgery or osteopathy and surgery, or any chiropractic school, or any licensed system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, or to apply to or to regulate treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well recognized church or religious denomination. [1982 c 21 § 4; 1973 c 77 § 3; 1917 c 38 § 18; RRS § 10091.]

Exemptions: RCW 18.22.230.

18.22.040 Applicants—Eligibility. Before any person shall be permitted to take an examination for the issuance of a podiatry license, the applicant shall furnish the director of licensing and the board with satisfactory proof that:

- (1) The applicant is eighteen years of age or over;
- (2) The applicant is of good moral character;
- (3) The applicant has successfully completed a four-year course in a high school or its equivalent and a two-year college course leading toward the baccalaureate degree, not including correspondence courses, before beginning a course in podiatry in an approved school of podiatry; and

(4) The applicant has received a diploma or certificate of graduation from a legally incorporated, regularly established and approved school of podiatry. [1982 c 21 § 5; 1979 c 158 § 18; 1973 c 77 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 19; 1955 c 149 § 2; 1935 c 48 § 3; 1921 c 120 § 3; 1917 c 38 § 6; RRS § 10079.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.22.050 Applicants—Educational qualifications. Applicants for a certificate to practice podiatry shall file satisfactory evidence of having completed, in an approved, legally chartered school of podiatry, a course of instruction which includes those subjects that appear on the examinations administered by the national board of podiatry examiners. [1982 c 21 § 6; 1973 c 77 § 5; 1955 c 149 § 4. Prior: 1935 c 48 § 1, part; 1921 c 120 § 2, part; 1917 c 38 § 4, part; RRS § 10077, part.]

Applicants—Eligibility: RCW 18.22.040.

18.22.060 Application and reexamination fees. Every applicant for a license to practice podiatry shall pay to the state treasurer a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

An applicant who fails to pass an examination satisfactorily is entitled to reexamination at a meeting called for the examination of applicants, upon the payment of a fee for each reexamination determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 11; 1982 c 21 § 7; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 16; 1973 c 77 § 6; 1965 c 97 § 1; 1957 c 52 § 14. Prior: (i) 1921 c 120 § 5; 1917 c 38 § 9; RRS § 10082. (ii) 1921 c 120 § 4; 1917 c 38 § 7; RRS § 10080.]

18.22.081 License—Reciprocity with other states—Examinations, when. Any applicant who has been examined and licensed under the laws of another state which grants the holders of certificates from the proper authorities of this state the full privileges of practice within its borders or an applicant who has satisfactorily passed examinations given by the national board of podiatry examiners may, in the discretion of the board and after examination by the board in the clinical application of dermatology, bio-mechanics, surgery, medicine, podiatric medicine, radiology, pharmacology, laboratory procedures, and any other subjects the board may require by regulation, be granted a license on the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 to the state treasurer if the applicant has not previously failed to pass an examination held in this state. If the applicant was licensed in another state, the applicant must file with the director a copy of the license certified by the proper authorities of the issuing state to be a full and true copy thereof, and must show that the standards, eligibility requirements, and examinations of that state are at least equal in all respects to those of this state. [1985 c 7 § 12; 1982 c 21 § 12; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 17; 1973 c 77 § 8; 1965 c 97 § 3.]

18.22.083 License—Examination to determine professional qualifications. Except for applicants granted licenses under RCW 18.22.081, applicants must successfully complete an examination administered by the board to determine their professional qualifications. The board shall prepare and give, or approve the preparation and giving of, an examination which covers those general subjects and topics, a knowledge of which is commonly required of candidates for the degree of doctor of podiatry conferred by approved colleges or schools of podiatry in the United States. The board shall have the sole responsibility for determining the proficiency of applicants under this chapter and, in so doing, may waive any prerequisite to licensure not set forth in this chapter.

The board may by rule establish the passing grade for the examination, and in so doing may grant credit based on experience which shall not exceed five percent of the total possible grade. The department shall keep records of the examination grades which shall be permanently kept with each applicant's file. [1982 c 21 § 13.]

18.22.110 License—Display. Every holder of a podiatry license shall keep his license on exhibition in a conspicuous place in his office or place of business. [1973 c 77 § 9; 1957 c 52 § 15. Prior: 1917 c 38 § 2, part; RRS § 10075, part.]

18.22.120 License—Annual renewal, fee—Invalidation upon failure to pay—Reinstatement procedure. Every person practicing podiatry must renew his or her license each year and pay a renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

Failure to register and pay the annual renewal fee invalidates the license, but it shall be reinstated upon written application to the director and payment to the state of a penalty of ten dollars, together with all delinquent annual renewal fees: Provided, That a person who fails to renew his or her license for a period of three years is not entitled to renewal under this section but must file an original application as provided in this chapter, and pay the required fee. The board may permit an applicant whose license has lapsed in this manner to be licensed without examination if it determines that the applicant meets all the requirements for licensure in this state and is competent to engage in the practice of podiatry. [1985 c 7 § 13; 1982 c 21 § 14; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 18; 1973 c 77 § 10; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 4; 1965 c 97 § 2; 1955 c 149 § 6. Prior: (i) 1921 c 120 § 5, part; 1917 c 38 § 9, part; RRS § 10082, part. (ii) 1921 c 120 § 9; RRS § 10096.]

18.22.130 Record of licensees. The director shall keep in a book kept for that purpose, a record showing the name, age, place of residence, the time spent in the study and practice of podiatry, the time spent in schools of podiatry, and the date of graduation therefrom and the degree if any, and the date and number of the license issued to such applicant, and whether the same was issued upon or without examination; and the copy of such record certified by the director shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated in all courts and all actions and proceedings where proof of such facts is competent. [1973 c 77 § 11; 1917 c 38 § 5; RRS § 10078.]

18.22.141 Suspension of podiatrist's license for mental incompetency or illness—Procedure—Implied consent to examination. (1) If a podiatrist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, the board shall suspend the podiatrist's license upon the entry of judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a podiatrist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients due to illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or due to any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon the podiatrist for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the podiatrist to practice. In enforcing this subsection the board may, upon probable cause, direct a podiatrist in writing to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board, at least one of whom shall be approved by the podiatrist if he or she requests. A podiatrist's failure to submit to an examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of the podiatrist's license and a default and final order of suspension may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the podiatrist's control. A podiatrist suspended under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be given an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can competently resume the practice of podiatry with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, a podiatrist licensed under this chapter accepts the privilege of practicing podiatry in this state and by practicing or by filing annual registration to practice consents to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and waives objection to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(4) Neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board in any proceeding under subsection (2) of this section may be used against a podiatrist in any other proceeding. [1982 c 21 § 15.]

18.22.151 Revocation, suspension, denial of podiatrist's license—Unprofessional conduct as grounds—Scope. Any of the following acts is unprofessional conduct and grounds for revocation, suspension or denial of license:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, whether the act is committed in the course of his or her practice as a podiatrist or not, and whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. A certified copy of the judgment and sentence of conviction is conclusive evidence of the guilt of the podiatrist of the crime described in the judgment and sentence in any disciplinary proceeding before the board;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or reinstatement of a license to practice podiatry;

(3) All advertising of podiatric business which is intended to or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and is harmful or injurious to public morals or safety;

(4) The impersonation of another licensed podiatrist;

(5) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes;

(6) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any human condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the board;

(7) Unprofessional conduct under chapter 19.68 RCW;

(8) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice podiatry;

(9) Suspension or revocation of the podiatrist's license to practice podiatry by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(10) Incompetency or negligence in the practice of podiatry resulting in serious harm to the patient;

(11) Violation of any board rule fixing a standard of professional conduct;

(12) Wilful disregard of a board subpoena or notice;

(13) Gross or continued wilful overcharging for professional services;

(14) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed by the board;

(15) Any public claim, representation, or advertisement that the licensee is a "doctor" or its synonyms independent of the title "podiatrist" or its synonyms; or

(16) Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. [1982 c 21 § 16.]

State board—Duties—Rules: RCW 18.22.015.

18.22.185 Prescriptions. Podiatrists may issue prescriptions valid at any pharmacy for any drug necessary in the practice of podiatry. [1973 c 77 § 15; 1955 c 149 § 11.]

18.22.191 Rules and regulations. The director of licensing shall have the power and duty to formulate and prescribe such rules and regulations as may be reasonable in the proper administration of this chapter. [1955 c 149 § 13.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.22.210 Unlawful practice—Evidence of—Exception. It shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the practice of podiatry or of holding oneself out as a practitioner of podiatry within the meaning of this chapter for any person to treat in any manner the human foot by medical, surgical or mechanical means or appliances, or to use the title "podiatrist" or any other words or letters which designate or tend to designate to the public that the person so treating or holding himself or herself out to treat, is a podiatrist: Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prohibit a duly licensed physician or surgeon from treating the human foot by medical, surgical or mechanical means or appliances. [1982 c 21 § 17; 1973 c 77 § 17; 1935 c 48 § 4; 1921 c 120 § 6; 1917 c 38 § 10; RRS § 10083.]

18.22.215 Injunctions. If any person engages in the practice of podiatry without possessing a valid license so to do, or if a person violates the provisions of RCW 18.22.151, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county may maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin such person from engaging in the practice of podiatry. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to license suspension or revocation. [1983 c 3 § 24; 1982 c 21 § 18; 1973 c 77 § 18; 1955 c 149 § 14.]

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

18.22.220 Violations—Penalty. Every person violating, or failing to comply with, the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1955 c 149 § 10; 1917 c 38 § 21; RRS § 10094.]

18.22.230 Exemptions. The following practices, acts and operations are excepted from the operation of the provisions of this chapter:

(1) The practice of podiatry in the discharge of official duties by podiatrists in the United States armed forces, public health service, Veterans Bureau or Bureau of Indian Affairs;

(2) Recognized schools of podiatry or colleges of podiatry, and the practice of podiatry by students in such recognized schools or colleges, when acting under the direction and supervision of registered and licensed podiatrists acting as instructors;

(3) The practice of podiatry by licensed podiatrists of other states or countries while appearing as clinicians at meetings of the Washington state podiatry association or component parts thereof, or at meetings sanctioned by them;

(4) The use of roentgen and other rays for making radiograms or similar records of the feet or portions thereof, under the supervision of a licensed podiatrist or physician;

(5) The practice of podiatry by externs, interns, and residents in training programs approved by the American Podiatry Association;

(6) The performing of podiatric services by persons not licensed under this chapter when performed under the supervision of a licensed podiatrist if those services are authorized by board regulation or other law to be so performed. [1982 c 21 § 19; 1973 c 77 § 19; 1955 c 149 § 12.]

Licensing—Exemptions: RCW 18.22.030.

18.22.900 Severability—1917 c 38. If any provision of this act shall be held void or unconstitutional, all other provisions and all other sections of the act which are not expressly held to be void or unconstitutional shall continue in full force and effect. [1917 c 38 § 19.]

18.22.910 Severability—1955 c 149. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or applications, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1955 c 149 § 16.]

18.22.911 Severability—1982 c 21. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1982 c 21 § 20.]

Reviser's note: This act [1982 c 21] consists of the enactment of RCW 18.22.005, 18.22.013, 18.22.014, 18.22.015, 18.22.016, 18.22.083, 18.22.141, 18.22.151, the amendments to RCW 18.22.010, 18.22.020, 18.22.030, 18.22.040, 18.22.050, 18.22.060, 18.22.081, 18.22.120, 18.22.210, 18.22.215, and 18.22.230 and the repeal of RCW 18.22.070, 18.22.140, 18.22.150, 18.22.160, 18.22.170 and 18.22.200.

18.22.930 Persons licensed under prior law. Nothing contained in *this 1973 amendatory act shall be construed to require any person who has held a valid chiroprody license of this state prior to June 7, 1973 to meet any further eligibility or examination requirements for a podiatry license. [1973 c 77 § 28.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1973 amendatory act" refers to RCW 18.22.010-18.22.160, 18.22.185, 18.22.200-18.22.215, 18.22.230, 18.57A.060, 18.71A.060, 43.74.010, 43.74.037, 43.74.040, 43.74.080, 43.74.085, 70.98.170, as those sections were amended by 1973 c 77.

18.25.005 "Chiropractic" defined. For the purpose of chapters 18.25 and 18.26 RCW, the term "chiropractic" shall mean and include that practice of health care which deals with the detection of subluxations, which shall be defined as any alteration of the biomechanical and physiological dynamics of contiguous spinal structures which can cause neuronal disturbances, the chiropractic procedure preparatory to, and complementary to the correction thereof, by adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the vertebral column and its immediate articulations for the restoration and maintenance of health; it includes the normal regimen and rehabilitation of the patient, physical examination to determine the necessity for chiropractic care, the use of x-ray and other analytical instruments generally used in the practice of chiropractic: Provided, That no chiropractor shall prescribe or dispense any medicine or drug nor practice obstetrics or surgery nor use x-rays for therapeutic purposes: Provided, however, That the term "chiropractic" as defined in *this act shall not prohibit a practitioner licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW from performing accepted medical procedures, except such procedures shall not include the adjustment by hand of any articulation of the spine: And provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the rendering of dietary advice. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 7.]

*Reviser's note: For "this act", [1974 ex.s. c 97] see note following RCW 18.25.120.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.010 Practice without license unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice chiropractic in this state, unless they shall have obtained a license as provided in this chapter: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall apply to or affect any persons who are now actually engaged in the practice of such profession, except as hereinafter provided. [1919 c 5 § 4; RRS § 10099.]

Persons practicing prior to act: "All chiropractors practicing within this state six months prior to the passage of this act and who shall be a graduate of a chartered school or college of chiropractic requiring actual attendance in the same, during his course, shall be granted a license as herein provided, without examination, provided that application be made within sixty days after the taking effect of this act and accompanied by the required fee, as herein provided." [1919 c 5 § 7.]

18.25.015 Board created—Composition—

Terms. There is hereby created a state board of chiropractic examiners consisting of five practicing chiropractors and one consumer member to conduct examinations and perform duties as provided in this chapter.

Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor, who may consider such persons who are recommended for appointment by chiropractic associations of this state. For at least five years preceding the time of their appointment, and during their tenure of office, the members of the board must be actual residents of Washington, licensed to practice chiropractic in this state, and must be citizens of the United States.

Appointments shall be for a term of three years. Vacancies of members shall be filled by the governor as in the case of original appointment, such appointee to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term. [1984 c 279 § 49; 1980 c 51 § 1; 1965 ex.s. c 50 § 1; 1959 c 53 § 1.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

Severability—1980 c 51: "If any provision of this 1980 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1980 c 51 § 6.]

18.25.017 Board—Organization, meetings, rules, compensation, travel expenses—Immunity from suit.

The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment, and shall elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings shall be held at least once a year at such place as the director of licensing shall determine, and at such other times and places as he deems necessary.

The board may make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this chapter, as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Each member shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, all to be paid out of the general fund on vouchers approved by the director, but not to exceed in the aggregate the amount of fees collected as provided in this chapter.

Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon their duties or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1984 c 287 § 27; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 32; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 8; 1959 c 53 § 2.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.018 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act.

The board of chiropractic examiners, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 27.]

18.25.020 Applications—Qualifications—Fees.

(1) Any person not now licensed to practice chiropractic in this state and who desires to practice chiropractic in this state, before it shall be lawful for him to do so, shall make application therefor to the director, upon such form and in such manner as may be adopted and directed by the director. Each applicant who matriculates after January 1, 1975, shall have completed not less than one-half of the requirements for a baccalaureate degree at an accredited and approved college or university and shall be a graduate of a chiropractic school or college accredited and approved by the board of chiropractic examiners and shall show satisfactory evidence of completion by each applicant of a resident course of study of not less than four thousand classroom hours of instruction in such school or college. Applications shall be in writing and shall be signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall recite the history of the applicant as to his educational advantages, his experience in matters pertaining to a knowledge of the care of the sick, how long he has studied chiropractic, under what teachers, what collateral branches, if any, he has studied, the length of time he has engaged in clinical practice; accompanying the same by reference therein, with any proof thereof in the shape of diplomas, certificates, and shall accompany said application with satisfactory evidence of good character and reputation.

(2) There shall be paid to the director by each applicant for a license, a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 which shall accompany application and a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall be paid upon issuance of license. Like fees shall be paid for any subsequent examination and application. [1985 c 7 § 14; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 19; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 9; 1959 c 53 § 3; 1919 c 5 § 5; RRS § 10100.]

18.25.025 Board accreditation of chiropractic schools and colleges—Standards—Assistants for examinations authorized. The board shall have authority to grant accreditation to chiropractic schools and colleges.

The board shall have authority to adopt educational standards which may include standards of any accreditation agency recognized by the office of education of the department of health and human services or its successor agency, or any portion of such standards, as the board's standards: Provided, That such standards, so adopted, shall contain, as a minimum of on-campus instruction in chiropractic, the following: Principles of chiropractic, two hundred hours; adjustive technique, four hundred hours; spinal roentgenology, one hundred seventy-five hours; symptomatology and diagnosis, four hundred twenty-five hours; clinic, six hundred twenty-five hours: Provided further, That such standards shall not mandate, as a requirement for either graduation or accreditation, or include in the computation of hours of chiropractic instruction required by this section, instruction in the following: Mechanotherapy, physiotherapy, acupuncture, acupressure, or any other therapy.

The board shall approve and accredit chiropractic colleges and schools which apply for board accreditation and approval and which meet to the board's satisfaction the educational standards adopted by the board. It shall be the responsibility of the college to apply for accreditation and approval, and of a student to ascertain whether a college or school has been accredited or approved by the board.

The board shall have authority to engage assistants in the giving of examinations called for under this chapter. [1980 c 51 § 3.]

18.25.030 Examinations—Subjects—Grades.

Examinations for license to practice chiropractic shall be made by the board of chiropractic examiners according to the method deemed by it to be the most practicable and expeditious to test the applicant's qualifications. Such application shall be designated by a number instead of his or her name, so that the identity shall not be discovered or disclosed to the members of the examining committee until after the examination papers are graded.

All examinations shall be in whole or in part in writing, the subject of which shall be as follows: Anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, neurology, spinal pathology, x-ray, principles of chiropractic and adjusting, as taught by chiropractic schools and colleges. A license shall be granted to all applicants who shall correctly answer seventy-five percent of all questions asked, and if any applicant shall fail to answer correctly seventy percent of the questions on any branch of said examination, he or she shall not be entitled to a license. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 10; 1959 c 53 § 4; 1919 c 5 § 6; RRS § 10101.]

Hiring assistants for examinations: RCW 18.25.025.

18.25.035 Waiver of examination. The board may, in its discretion, waive any examination required by this chapter of persons applying for a license to practice chiropractic if, in its opinion, the applicant has successfully passed an examination conducted by the national board of chiropractic examiners of the United States that is of equal or greater difficulty than the examination being waived by the board. [1971 ex.s. c 227 § 5.]

18.25.040 Reciprocal licenses. Persons licensed to practice chiropractic under the laws of any other state having equal requirements of this chapter, may, in the discretion of the board of chiropractic examiners, and after examination by the board in principles of chiropractic, x-ray, and adjusting, as taught by chiropractic schools and colleges, be issued a license to practice in this state without further examination, upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 15; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 20; 1971 ex.s. c 227 § 6; 1919 c 5 § 14; RRS § 10108.]

18.25.050 Revocation or refusal of licenses—Hearing—Restoration. (1) The director may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice chiropractic in this state upon any of the following grounds, to wit: The employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this chapter; the practice of chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name; the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude; habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, controlled substances, or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties; exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of handbills, circulars, or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours, and telephone connections. Any person who is a licentiate, or who is an applicant for a license to practice chiropractic against whom any of the foregoing grounds for revoking or refusing a license, is presented to said director with a view of having the director revoke or refuse to grant a license, shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a hearing before said director in person or by attorney, and witnesses may be examined by said director respecting the guilt or innocence of said accused.

(2) Said director may at any time within two years of the refusal or revocation or cancellation of registration under this section, issue a new license or grant a license to the person affected, restoring him to, or conferring upon him all the rights and privileges of, and pertaining to the practice of chiropractic as defined and regulated by this chapter. Any person to whom such have been restored shall pay to the director a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 upon issuance of a new license. [1985 c 7 § 16; 1981 c 277 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 21; 1919 c 5 § 8; RRS § 10103.]

18.25.070 Annual renewal of license—Attendance at approved symposiums required—Fees—Forfeiture—Penalties—Reexamination. (1) Every person practicing chiropractic shall, as a prerequisite to annual renewal of license, submit to the director at the time of application therefor, satisfactory proof showing attendance of at least twenty-five hours during the preceding three-year period, at one or more chiropractic symposiums which are recognized and approved by the board of chiropractic examiners: Provided, That the board may, for good cause shown, waive said attendance. The following guidelines for such symposiums shall apply:

(a) Symposiums which shall be approved by the board for licensees practicing or residing within the state of Washington are those sponsored or conducted by any chiropractic association in the state or an approved chiropractic college or other institutions or organizations which devote themselves to lectures or demonstrations concerning matters which are recognized in the state of Washington chiropractic licensing laws;

(b) Rules shall be adopted by the board for licensees practicing and residing outside the state who shall meet all requirements established by the board by rules and regulations.

(2) Every person practicing chiropractic within this state shall pay on or before the first day of September of each year, after a license is issued to him as herein provided, to said director a renewal license fee to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. The director shall, thirty days or more before September first of each year, mail to all chiropractors in the state a notice of the fact that the renewal fee will be due on or before the first of September. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to require that the receipts shall be recorded as original licenses are required to be recorded.

The failure of any licensed chiropractor to pay his annual license renewal fee by the first day of October following the date on which the fee was due shall work a forfeiture of his license. It shall not be reinstated except upon evidence that continuing educational requirements have been fulfilled and the payment of a penalty to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24-.086, together with all annual license renewal fees delinquent at the time of the forfeiture, and those for each year thereafter up to the time of reinstatement. Should the licentiate allow his license to elapse for more than three years, he must be reexamined as provided for in RCW 18.25.040. [1985 c 7 § 17; 1980 c 51 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 22; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 5; 1959 c 53 § 5; 1919 c 5 § 10; RRS § 10105.]

Severability—1980 c 51: See note following RCW 18.25.015.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.080 Health regulations. Chiropractic practitioners shall observe and be subject to all state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases, sign death certificates and any and all matters pertaining to public health, reporting to the proper health officers the same as other practitioners. [1919 c 5 § 12; RRS § 10107.]

18.25.090 Prohibited practices—Penalty—Exceptions. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropractic, or any person who shall buy, sell or fraudulently obtain any diploma or license to practice chiropractic, or who shall use the title chiropractor, D.C.Ph.C., or any word or title to induce belief that he is engaged in the practice of chiropractic without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person falsely claiming himself to be the person named in a certificate issued to another, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony. All subsequent offenses shall be punished in like manner. Nothing herein shall be held to apply to or to regulate any kind of treatment by prayer: Provided, That on all cards, books, papers, signs or other written or printed means of giving information to the public, used by those licensed by this chapter to practice chiropractic, the practitioner shall use after or below his name the term chiropractor or D.C.Ph.C. designating his line of drugless practice, and shall not use the letters M.D. or D.O.: Provided, That the word doctor or "Dr." may be used only in conjunction with the word "chiropractic" or "chiropractor". [1981 c 277 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 227 § 7; 1919 c 5 § 15; RRS § 10109.]

18.25.100 Prosecutions for violations. It shall be the duty of the several prosecuting attorneys of this state to prosecute all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter. It shall be the duty of the director of licensing to aid said attorneys of this state in the enforcement of this chapter. [1919 c 5 § 16; RRS § 10110.]

18.25.110 "Unprofessional conduct". See RCW 18.26.030.

18.25.120 Discrimination—Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the costs of health care to the people are rising disproportionately to other costs and that there is a paramount concern that the right of the people to obtain access to health care in all its facets is being impaired thereby. For this reason, the reliance on the mechanism of health care service contractors, whether profit or nonprofit, is the only effective manner in which the large majority of the people can attain access to quality health care, and it is therefore declared to be in the public interest that health care service contractors be regulated to assure that all the people have access to health care to the greatest extent possible. *This 1974 amendatory act, prohibiting discrimination against the legally recognized and licensed profession of chiropractic, is necessary in the interest of the public health, welfare, and safety. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1974 amendatory act" [1974 ex.s. c 97] consists of RCW 18.25.005, 18.25.120–18.25.170, 18.26.035 and amendments to RCW 18.25.017, 18.25.020, 18.25.030, 18.25.070, 18.26.030, 18.26.040, and 18.26.070.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: "If any provision of this 1974 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 16.]

18.25.130 Discrimination—Acceptance of services of chiropractors by state and political subdivisions required. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions shall accept the services of licensed chiropractors for any service covered by their licenses with relation to any person receiving benefits, salaries, wages, or any other type of compensation from the state, its agencies or subdivisions. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 2.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.140 Discrimination—State and political subdivisions prohibited from discriminating against chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation. The state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from in any way discriminating against licensed chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 3.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.150 Discrimination—State and political subdivisions—Entering into agreements or contracts which discriminate prohibited. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from entering into any agreement or contract with any individual, group, association, or corporation which in any way, directly or indirectly, discriminates against licensed chiropractors in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 4.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.160 Discrimination—Immaterial whether costs deemed additional compensation. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.150 and 18.25.170 it is immaterial whether the cost of any policy, plan, agreement, or contract be deemed additional compensation for services, or otherwise. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 5.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.25.170 Discrimination—Application of RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.160. RCW 18.25.120 through 18.25.160 shall apply to all agreements, renewals, or contracts issued on or after July 24, 1974. [1974 ex.s. c 97 § 6.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The chiropractic disciplinary board is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.295. RCW 18.26.010 through 18.26.310 and 18.26.900 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.296.

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.26.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.26.010 Declaration of purpose. This chapter is passed:

(1) In the exercise of the police power of the state and to provide an adequate public agency to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state;

(2) Because the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance;

(3) Because the conduct of members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state;

(4) Because the agency which now exists to handle disciplinary proceedings for members of the chiropractic profession licensed to practice chiropractic in this state is ineffective and very infrequently employed, and consequently there is no effective means of handling such disciplinary proceedings when they are necessary for the protection of the public health; and

(5) Because practicing other healing arts while licensed to practice chiropractic and while holding one's self out to the public as a chiropractor affects the health and welfare of the people of the state. [1967 c 171 § 1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.
Chiropractic examining board: Chapter 18.25 RCW.

18.26.020 Definitions. Terms used in this chapter shall have the meaning set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

(1) "Board" means the chiropractic disciplinary board;

(2) "License" means a certificate of license to practice chiropractic in this state as provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW;

(3) "Members" means members of the chiropractic disciplinary board;

(4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the chiropractic disciplinary board. [1967 c 171 § 2.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.025 "Chiropractic" defined. See RCW 18.25.005.

18.26.027 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The chiropractic disciplinary board may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 28.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.26.030 "Unprofessional conduct". The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in this chapter and chapter 18.25 RCW shall mean the following items or any one or combination thereof:

(1) Conviction in any court of any offense involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of such conviction shall be conclusive evidence;

(2) Fraud or deceit in the obtaining of a license to practice chiropractic;

(3) A violation of any rule or regulation pertaining to advertising of chiropractic practice or business promulgated by the board;

(4) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner;

(5) Habitual intemperance;

(6) The wilful betrayal of a professional secret;

(7) Acts of gross misconduct in the practice of the profession;

(8) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice chiropractic;

(9) A declaration of mental incompetency by a court of competent jurisdiction;

(10) Failing to differentiate chiropractic care from any and all other methods of healing at all times;

(11) Practicing contrary to laws regulating the practice of chiropractic;

(12) Unprofessional conduct as defined in chapter 19.68 RCW;

(13) Violation of any ethical standard as established by the board;

(14) Suspension or revocation of license to practice chiropractic by competent authority in any state or foreign jurisdiction;

(15) Incompetency to practice chiropractic by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of controlled substances, chemicals, or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition.

Proceedings involving alleged unprofessional conduct shall be conducted by the attorney general upon the direction of the board. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 17; 1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 12; 1967 c 171 § 3.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 10.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120. Application of RCW 18.26.030(12): RCW 18.26.310.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.26.035 Unprofessional conduct—Filing of certificate or order of revocation or suspension of license—Appeal. The filing by the board in the office of the director of licensing of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension after due notice, hearing and findings in accordance with the procedure specified in this chapter, certifying that any holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, shall constitute a revocation or suspension of the license to practice chiropractic in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the certificate or order of revocation or suspension. Such certificate or order of revocation or suspension, if appealed, may be stayed by the board or by the reviewing court upon such terms as is deemed proper. [1979 c 158 § 19; 1974 ex.s. c 97 § 15.]

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 97: See note following RCW 18.25.120.

18.26.037 Mental or physical examination of chiropractor—Authority of board—Admissibility—Limitation. In enforcing any provision of *this 1975 amendatory act relating to the competency of a chiropractor to practice chiropractic, the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a chiropractor to submit to a mental or physical examination. Failure of a chiropractor to submit to such examination when directed shall constitute an admission of the allegations against him unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond his control, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence: Provided, however, That upon request a chiropractor may obtain an independent mental or physical examination by a licensed physician of his choice, and the results of such examination shall also be considered by the board.

For the purposes of this section, every chiropractor licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice chiropractic in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice chiropractic in this state, be deemed to have given his consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and, further, to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication.

In any proceeding under this section, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a chiropractor in any other proceeding. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 9.]

18.26.120, 18.26.130, 18.26.160, 18.26.170, 18.26.180, and 18.26.270 and the repeal of RCW 18.26.260.

18.26.080 Territorial scope of operations. The board may meet, function, and exercise its powers at any place within the state. [1967 c 171 § 8.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.090 Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall meet at least once a year or oftener upon the call of the chairman at such times and places as the chairman shall designate. Five members shall constitute a quorum to transact the business of the board. [1967 c 171 § 9.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.100 Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1967 c 171 § 10.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.110 Powers and duties. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(2) To establish and promulgate by rules and regulations ethical standards for the chiropractic profession including, but not limited to, regulations relating to advertising, or excessive charging for professional services;

(3) To investigate all complaints and charges of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license to practice chiropractic and to hold hearings to determine whether such charges are substantiated or unsubstantiated;

(4) To employ necessary stenographic or clerical help;

(5) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;

(6) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 2; 1967 c 171 § 11.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.120 Complaints—Hearing committee—Administrative law judge. Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the secretary charging the holder of a license to practice chiropractic with unprofessional conduct, specifying the grounds therefor. If the board determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the board shall have reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that any holder of a license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the chairman may designate three members to serve as a committee to hear and report upon such charges, or the board may sit as a whole to hear such charges, or the board may request the appointment of an administrative law judge under chapter 34.12 RCW to hear and report to the board upon such charges. [1981 c 67 § 19; 1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 3; 1967 c 171 § 12.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.130 Specification of charges. Prior to any hearing being conducted, the secretary or the attorney for the board shall prepare a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct made against a license holder, a copy of which shall be served upon the accused, together with a notice of the hearing. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 4; 1967 c 171 § 13.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.140 Time, notice of hearing. The time of hearing shall be fixed by the secretary as soon as convenient, but not earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the accused. The secretary shall issue a notice of hearing of the charges, which notice shall specify the time and place of hearing and shall notify the accused that he may file with the secretary a written response within twenty days of the date of service. Such notice shall also notify the accused that a stenographic record of the proceeding will be kept, that he will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses and evidence in his own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him, to examine witnesses testifying for him, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him, and to have witnesses subpoenaed by the board. [1967 c 171 § 14.]

18.26.150 Subpoenas—Contempt. Subpoenas issued by the board to compel the attendance of witnesses at any investigation or hearing shall be served in accordance with the provisions of law governing the service of subpoenas in court actions. The board shall issue subpoenas at the request and on the behalf of the accused. In case any person contumaciously refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the board or to answer any proper question put to him during the hearing or proceeding, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which the proceeding is held or in which such person resides or is found and the said court shall issue to such person an order requiring him to appear before the board or its hearing committee, there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony concerning the matter under investigation or question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished. [1967 c 171 § 15.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.160 Report of hearing. If a hearing officer or hearing committee has been appointed, within a reasonable time after holding a hearing, the hearing committee or hearing officer shall make a written report of its findings of fact and its recommendations, and the same shall be forthwith transmitted to the secretary, with a transcript of the evidence. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 5; 1967 c 171 § 16.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.170 Hearing before full board. If a hearing officer or hearing committee has been appointed, and the board deems it necessary, the board may, after further notice to the accused, take further testimony at a second hearing before the full board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 6; 1967 c 171 § 17.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.180 Basis for board's determination. In any event, whether the board makes its determination on the findings of the board acting as a whole, or on the findings of the hearing officer or the hearing committee, or on the findings of the hearing officer or the hearing committee as supplemented by a second hearing before the board, the board shall determine the charge or charges upon the merits on the basis of the evidence in the record before it. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 7; 1967 c 171 § 18.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.190 Certificate of revocation or suspension—Reprimand. If a majority of the members of the board then sitting vote in favor of finding the accused guilty of unprofessional conduct as specified in the charges, or any of the charges the board shall prepare written findings of fact and may thereafter prepare and file in the office of the director of licensing a certificate or order of revocation or suspension, in which case a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused, or the board may reprimand the accused, as it deems most appropriate. [1979 c 158 § 23; 1967 c 171 § 19.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.200 Dismissal of charges—Exoneration. If the license holder is found not guilty, or if less than a majority of the members then sitting vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against him by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so. [1967 c 171 § 20.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.210 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Stay. The filing by the board in the office of the director of licensing of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension after due notice, hearing and findings in accordance with the procedure specified in this chapter, certifying that any holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, shall constitute a revocation or suspension of the license to practice chiropractic in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the certificate or order of revocation or suspension: Provided, That if the licensee seeks judicial review of the board's decision pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, such revocation or the period of such suspension shall not be stayed unless the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the board. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 19; 1979 c 158 § 24; 1967 c 171 § 21.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.26.220 Contents of certificate or order—Recording. The certificate or order of revocation or suspension shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the certificate or order is based and the specific terms and conditions of such revocation or suspension, and shall be retained as a permanent record by the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 25; 1967 c 171 § 22.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.230 Issuance of license after revocation or suspension. The director of licensing shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 158 § 26; 1967 c 171 § 23.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.240 Appeal from decision of board. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board shall have the right to a judicial review of the board's decision. Such review shall be initiated by serving on the secretary a notice of appeal and filing such notice of appeal either in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of the county in which the appellant resides, within thirty days after the filing of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 27; 1967 c 171 § 24.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.250 Appeal from decision of board—Transmittal of transcript. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings. [1967 c 171 § 25.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.270 Appeal from decision of board—Appeal procedure. The procedure governing appeals to the superior court under chapter 34.04 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, shall govern in matters of appeal from a decision of the board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 39 § 8; 1967 c 171 § 27.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 39: See note following RCW 18.26.030.

18.26.280 Appeal from judgment of superior court. An aggrieved party may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases. [1967 c 171 § 28.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.290 Review though revocation not timely filed. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed. [1979 c 158 § 28; 1967 c 171 § 29.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.26.300 Engaging in healing arts other than as chiropractor—Surrender of license—Discontinuance of use of name. No person licensed as a chiropractor shall engage in the practice of healing arts other than as a chiropractor, unless he first surrenders his chiropractic license to the director of licensing and discontinues the use of the name chiropractor whether by way of advertising or in any other manner which might signify he is practicing as a chiropractor within the meaning of this chapter. [1979 c 158 § 29; 1967 c 171 § 30.]

18.26.310 Engaging in healing arts other than as chiropractor—Application of RCW 18.26.030(12) and 18.26.300. The provisions of RCW 18.26.030(12) and

18.26.300 shall not apply to persons holding a license to practice other healing arts as of the effective date of this chapter, but shall only apply to persons so licensed after the effective date of this chapter. [1967 c 171 § 32.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.27.010 Definitions. A "contractor" as used in this chapter is any person, firm or corporation who or which, in the pursuit of an independent business undertakes to, or offers to undertake, or submits a bid to, construct, alter, repair, add to, subtract from, improve, move, wreck or demolish, for another, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate or to do any part thereof including the installation of carpeting or other floor covering, the erection of scaffolding or other structures or works in connection therewith or who installs or repairs roofing or siding; or, who, to do similar work upon his own property, employs members of more than one trade upon a single job or project or under a single building permit except as otherwise provided herein. A "general contractor" is a contractor whose business operations require the use of more than two unrelated building trades or crafts whose work the contractor shall superintend or do in whole or in part; the term "general contractor" shall not include an individual who does all work personally without employees or other "specialty contractors" as defined herein. The terms "general contractor" and "builder" are synonymous. A "specialty contractor" is a contractor whose operations as such do not fall within the foregoing definition of "general contractor".

"Department" as used in this chapter means the department of labor and industries.

"Director" as used in this chapter means the director of the department of labor and industries. [1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 118 § 1; 1967 c 126 § 5; 1963 c 77 § 1.]

Effective date—1963 c 77: "This act shall take effect August 1, 1963." [1963 c 77 § 12.]

18.27.020 Registration required—Misdemeanor. It is a misdemeanor for any contractor having knowledge of the registration requirements of this chapter to offer to do work, submit a bid, or perform any work as a contractor without being registered as required by this chapter. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 17; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 2; 1963 c 77 § 2.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.030 Application for registration. An applicant for registration as a contractor shall submit an application under oath upon a form to be prescribed by the director and which shall include the following information pertaining to the applicant:

- (1) Employer social security number.
- (2) Industrial insurance number.
- (3) Employment security department number.
- (4) State excise tax registration number.
- (5) Type of contracting activity, whether a general or a specialty contractor and if the latter, the type of specialty.

(6) The name and address of each partner if the applicant be a firm or partnership, or the name and address of the owner if the applicant be an individual proprietorship, or the name and address of the corporate officers and statutory agent, if any, if the applicant be a corporation. The information contained in such application shall be a matter of public record and open to public inspection. [1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 3; 1963 c 77 § 3.]

18.27.040 Bond or other security required—Actions against—Suspension of registration upon impairment. (1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for or renewing a certificate of registration, file with the department a surety bond issued by a surety insurer who meets the requirements of chapter 48.28 RCW in a form acceptable to the department running to the state of Washington if a general contractor, in the sum of six thousand dollars; if a specialty contractor, in the sum of four thousand dollars, conditioned that the applicant will pay all persons performing labor, including employee benefits, for the contractor, will pay all taxes and contributions due to the state of Washington, and will pay all persons furnishing labor or material or renting or supplying equipment to the contractor and will pay all amounts that may be adjudged against the contractor by reason of negligent or improper work or breach of contract in the conduct of the contracting business. A change in the name of a business or a change in the type of business entity shall not impair a bond for the purposes of this section so long as one of the original applicants for such bond maintains partial ownership in the business covered by the bond.

(2) Any contractor registered as of *the effective date of this 1983 act who maintains such registration in accordance with this chapter shall be in compliance with this chapter until the next annual renewal of the contractor's certificate of registration. At that time, the contractor shall provide a bond, cash deposit, or other security deposit as required by this chapter and comply with all of the other provisions of this chapter before the department shall renew the contractor's certificate of registration.

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation having a claim against the contractor for any of the items referred to in this section may bring suit upon such bond in the superior court of the county in which the work is done or of any county in which jurisdiction of the contractor may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by filing the complaint with the clerk of the appropriate superior court within one year from the date of expiration of the certificate of registration in force at the time the claimed labor was performed and benefits accrued, taxes and contributions owing the state of Washington became due, materials and equipment were furnished, or the claimed contract work was completed. Service of process in an action upon such bond shall be exclusively by service upon the department. Three copies of the complaint and a fee of ten dollars to cover the handling costs shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the department at the time suit is started and the department shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Service is not complete until the department receives the ten-dollar fee and three copies of the complaint. Such service shall constitute service on the registrant and the surety for suit upon the bond and the department shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the registrant at the address listed in his application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

(4) The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond nor for any monetary penalty assessed pursuant to this chapter for an infraction. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the department and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated but if the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (a) Labor, including employee benefits;
- (b) Claims for breach of contract by a party to the construction contract;
- (c) Material and equipment;
- (d) Taxes and contributions due the state of Washington;
- (e) Any court costs, interest, and attorney's fees plaintiff may be entitled to recover.

(5) In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the registration of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims shall have been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

(6) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the contractor may file with the department a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the department.

(7) Any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the registrant for any items referred to in this section may execute upon the security held by the department by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the department within one year of the date of entry of such judgment. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy the department shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the superior court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the department shall be the order of receipt by the department, but the department shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit.

(8) The director may promulgate rules necessary for the proper administration of the security. [1983 1st ex.s.

c 2 § 18; 1977 ex.s. c 11 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 4; 1972 ex.s. c 118 § 2; 1967 c 126 § 1; 1963 c 77 § 4.]

Unpaid wages by public works contractor constitute lien against bond: RCW 39.12.050.

18.27.050 Insurance required—Suspension of registration upon impairment. At the time of registration the applicant shall furnish to the director satisfactory evidence that the applicant has procured and has in effect public liability and property damage insurance covering the applicant's contracting operations in the sum of not less than twenty thousand dollars for injury or damage to property and fifty thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to any one person and one hundred thousand dollars for injury or damage including death to more than one person.

In the event that such insurance shall cease to be effective the registration of the contractor shall be suspended until such insurance shall be reinstated. [1963 c 77 § 5.]

18.27.060 Certificate of registration—Issuance, duration, renewal—Suspension. (1) A certificate of registration shall be valid for one year and shall be renewed on or before the expiration date. The department shall issue to the applicant a certificate of registration upon compliance with the registration requirements of this chapter.

(2) If the department approves an application, it shall issue a certificate of registration to the applicant. The certificate shall be valid for:

- (a) One year;
- (b) Until the bond expires; or
- (c) Until the insurance expires, whichever comes first.

The department shall place the expiration date on the certificate.

(3) A contractor may supply a short-term bond or insurance policy to bring its registration period to the full one year.

(4) If a contractor's surety bond or other security has an unsatisfied judgment against it or is canceled, or if the contractor's insurance policy is canceled, the contractor's registration shall be automatically suspended on the effective date of the impairment or cancellation. The department shall give notice of the suspension to the contractor. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 19; 1977 ex.s. c 61 § 1; 1963 c 77 § 6.]

18.27.065 Partnership or joint venture deemed registered, when. A partnership or joint venture shall be deemed registered under this chapter if any one of the general partners or venturers whose name appears in the name under which the partnership or venture does business is registered. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 16.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.070 Fees. The department shall charge fees for issuance, renewal, and reinstatement of certificates of registration; and changes of name, address, or business structure. The department shall set the fees by rule.

The fees shall cover the full cost of issuing certificates, filing papers and notices, and administering and enforcing this chapter. The costs shall include reproduction, travel, per diem, and administrative and legal support costs. [1983 c 74 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 66 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 5; 1967 c 126 § 2; 1963 c 77 § 7.]

Effective date—1977 ex.s. c 66: "This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1977." [1977 ex.s. c 66 § 2.]

18.27.075 Limit on fees for issuing or renewing certificate of registration. The department may not set a fee higher than fifty dollars for issuing or renewing a certificate of registration. [1983 c 74 § 2.]

18.27.080 Registration prerequisite to suit. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a contractor may bring or maintain any action in any court of this state for the collection of compensation for the performance of any work or for breach of any contract for which registration is required under this chapter without alleging and proving that he was a duly registered contractor and held a current and valid certificate of registration at the time he contracted for the performance of such work or entered into such contract. [1972 ex.s. c 118 § 3; 1963 c 77 § 8.]

18.27.090 Exemptions. This chapter shall not apply to:

- (1) An authorized representative of the United States government, the state of Washington, or any incorporated city, town, county, township, irrigation district, reclamation district, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of this state;
- (2) Officers of a court when they are acting within the scope of their office;
- (3) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the utilities and transportation commission in construction, maintenance, or development work incidental to their own business;
- (4) Any construction, repair, or operation incidental to the discovering or producing of petroleum or gas, or the drilling, testing, abandoning, or other operation of any petroleum or gas well or any surface or underground mine or mineral deposit when performed by an owner or lessee;
- (5) The sale or installation of any finished products, materials, or articles of merchandise which are not actually fabricated into and do not become a permanent fixed part of a structure;
- (6) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair of personal property;
- (7) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair carried on within the limits and boundaries of any site or reservation under the legal jurisdiction of the federal government;
- (8) Any person who only furnished materials, supplies, or equipment without fabricating them into, or consuming them in the performance of, the work of the contractor;

(9) Any work or operation on one undertaking or project by one or more contracts, the aggregate contract price of which for labor and materials and all other items is less than five hundred dollars, such work or operations being considered as of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply in any instance wherein the work or construction is only a part of a larger or major operation, whether undertaken by the same or a different contractor, or in which a division of the operation is made into contracts of amounts less than five hundred dollars for the purpose of evasion of this chapter or otherwise. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply to a person who advertises or puts out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he is a contractor, or that he is qualified to engage in the business of contractor;

(10) Any construction or operation incidental to the construction and repair of irrigation and drainage ditches of regularly constituted irrigation districts or reclamation districts; or to farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, or stock or poultry raising; or to clearing or other work upon land in rural districts for fire prevention purposes; except when any of the above work is performed by a registered contractor;

(11) An owner who contracts for a project with a registered contractor;

(12) Any person working on his own property, whether occupied by him or not, and any person working on his residence, whether owned by him or not but this exemption shall not apply to any person otherwise covered by this chapter who constructs an improvement on his own property with the intention and for the purpose of selling the improved property;

(13) Owners of commercial properties who use their own employees to do maintenance, repair, and alteration work in or upon their own properties;

(14) A licensed architect or civil or professional engineer acting solely in his professional capacity, an electrician licensed under the laws of the state of Washington, or a plumber licensed under the laws of the state of Washington or licensed by a political subdivision of the state of Washington while operating within the boundaries of such political subdivision. The exemption provided in this subsection is applicable only when the licensee is operating within the scope of his license;

(15) Any person who engages in the activities herein regulated as an employee of a registered contractor with wages as his sole compensation or as an employee with wages as his sole compensation;

(16) Contractors on highway projects who have been prequalified as required by chapter 13 of the Laws of 1961, RCW 47.28.070, with the department of transportation to perform highway construction, reconstruction, or maintenance work. [1983 c 4 § 1; 1980 c 68 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 25 § 2. Prior: 1973 1st ex.s. c 161 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 6; 1967 c 126 § 3; 1965 ex.s. c 170 § 50; 1963 c 77 § 9.]

18.27.100 Business practices—Advertising—Penalty. Except as provided in RCW 18.27.020 for partnerships and joint ventures, no person who has registered under one name as provided in this chapter shall engage in the business, or act in the capacity of a contractor under any other name unless such name also is registered hereunder. All advertising and all contracts, correspondence, cards, signs, posters, papers, and documents prepared by a contractor which show a contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's name or address as registered hereunder. The alphabetized listing of contractors appearing in the advertising section of telephone books and all advertising prepared by a contractor which shows the contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's current registration number: Provided, That signs on motor vehicles subject to RCW 46.16.010 and on-premise signs shall not constitute advertising as provided in this section. All materials prepared by a contractor and used to directly solicit business from retail customers who are not businesses shall show the contractor's current registration number. No contractor shall advertise that he is bonded and insured because of the bond required to be filed and sufficiency of insurance as provided in this chapter. All individual contractors and all partners, associates, agents, salesmen, solicitors, officers, and employees of contractors shall use their true names and addresses at all times while engaged in the business or capacity of a contractor or activities related thereto. Any person who is found to be in violation of this section by the director at a hearing held in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall be required to pay a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars as determined by the director. [1980 c 68 § 1; 1979 ex.s. c 116 § 1; 1963 c 77 § 10.]

Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 116: "The provisions of this 1979 amendatory act shall become effective on January 1, 1980." [1979 ex.s. c 116 § 2.]

18.27.110 Construction building permits—Cities, towns or counties prohibited from issuing without proof of registration. No city, town or county shall issue a construction building permit for work which is to be done by any contractor required to be registered under chapter 77, Laws of 1963 and chapter 18.27 RCW without proof that such contractor is currently registered as required by law. [1967 c 126 § 4.]

18.27.111 Public works, contracts with unregistered contractors prohibited. See RCW 39.06.010.

18.27.120 Department to compile, update list of registered contractors—Availability, fee. (1) The department shall compile a list of all contractors registered under this chapter and update the list at least bimonthly. The list shall be considered as public record information and shall be available to the public upon request: Provided, That the department may charge a reasonable fee under RCW 42.17.300.

(2) The department shall inform any person, firm, or corporation, if a contractor is registered, and if a contractor is bonded or insured, without charge except for a reasonable fee under RCW 42.17.300 for copies made. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 20; 1973 1st ex.s. c 153 § 7; 1972 ex.s. c 118 § 5.]

Fees, generally: RCW 18.27.070.

18.27.130 Provisions of chapter exclusive—Certain authority of cities and towns not limited or abridged. The provisions of this chapter relating to the registration or licensing of any person, firm, or corporation, including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, shall be exclusive and no political subdivision of the state of Washington shall require or issue any registrations, licenses, or bonds nor charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose: Provided, That nothing herein shall limit or abridge the authority of any city or town to levy and collect a general and nondiscriminatory license fee levied upon all businesses, or to levy a tax based upon gross business conducted by any firm within said city: Provided, further, That nothing herein shall limit the authority of any city or town with respect to contractors not required to be registered under this chapter. [1972 ex.s. c 118 § 4.]

18.27.140 Purpose of chapter. It is the purpose of this chapter to afford protection to the public including all persons, firms, and corporations furnishing labor, materials, or equipment to a contractor from unreliable, fraudulent, financially irresponsible, or incompetent contractors. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 21; 1973 1st ex.s. c 161 § 2.]

18.27.200 Violation—Infraction. An offer to do work, submission of a bid, or performance of any work by a contractor who is not registered with the department of labor and industries as required by this chapter is an infraction. Each day that a contractor works without being registered as required by this chapter is a separate infraction. Each worksite at which a contractor works without being registered as required by this chapter is a separate infraction. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 1.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: "Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1984." [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 24.]

18.27.210 Violations—Investigations—Evidence. An authorized representative of the department may investigate alleged or apparent violations of this chapter. If the name of the contractor allegedly or apparently in violation of this chapter is not known, or if the name of the contractor does not appear on the latest list of registered contractors compiled under RCW 18.27.120(1), upon presentation of credentials, an authorized representative of the department may inspect sites at which a contractor is working to determine whether the contractor is registered in accordance with this chapter. Upon request of the authorized representative of the department, a contractor or an employee of the contractor

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.220 Violations—Investigations—Failure to provide information identifying contractor misdemeanor. Wilful refusal to provide information identifying a contractor as required by RCW 18.27.210 is a misdemeanor. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 12.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.230 Notice of infraction—Service. The department may issue a notice of infraction if the department reasonably believes that the contractor required to be registered by this chapter has failed to do so. A notice of infraction issued under this section shall be personally served on the contractor named in the notice by an authorized representative of the department. If the contractor named in the notice of infraction is a firm or corporation, the notice may be personally served on any employee of the firm or corporation. If a notice of infraction is personally served upon an employee of a firm or corporation, the department shall within four days of service send a copy of the notice by certified mail to the contractor if the department is able to obtain the contractor's address. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 3.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.240 Notice of infraction—Form—Contents. (1) The form of the notice of infraction issued under this chapter shall be prescribed by the supreme court following consultation with the department. To the extent practicable, the notice of infraction issued under this chapter shall conform to the notice of traffic infraction prescribed by the supreme court pursuant to RCW 46.63.060.

(2) The notice of infraction shall include the following:

(a) A statement that the notice represents a determination that the infraction has been committed by the contractor named in the notice and that the determination shall be final unless contested as provided in this chapter;

(b) A statement that the infraction is a noncriminal offense for which imprisonment shall not be imposed as a sanction;

(c) A statement of the specific infraction for which the notice was issued;

(d) A statement that a one hundred dollar monetary penalty has been established for each infraction;

(e) A statement of the options provided in this chapter for responding to the notice and the procedures necessary to exercise these options;

(f) A statement that at any hearing to contest the determination the state has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the infraction was committed; and that the contractor may subpoena witnesses, including the authorized representative of the department who issued and served the notice of infraction;

(g) A statement, which the person who has been served with the notice of infraction shall sign, that the contractor promises to respond to the notice of infraction in one of the ways provided in this chapter;

(h) A statement that refusal to sign the infraction as directed in subsection (2)(g) of this section is a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment in jail; and

(i) A statement that a contractor's failure to respond to a notice of infraction as promised is a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment in jail. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 5.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.250 Notice of infraction—Filing—Hearing in district court. A violation designated as an infraction under this chapter shall be heard and determined by a district court. A notice of infraction shall be filed in the district court district in which the infraction is alleged to have occurred. If a notice of infraction is filed in a court which is not the proper venue, the notice shall be dismissed without prejudice on motion of either party. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 4.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.260 Notice of infraction—Determination infraction committed. Unless contested in accordance with this chapter, the notice of infraction represents a determination that the contractor to whom the notice was issued committed the infraction. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 6.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.270 Notice of infraction—Response—Requesting a hearing—Failure to respond or appear—Order set aside. (1) A contractor who receives a notice of infraction shall respond to the notice as provided in this section within fourteen days of the date the notice was served.

(2) If the contractor named in the notice of infraction does not want to contest the determination, the contractor shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records, and a record of the response and order shall be furnished to the department.

(3) If the contractor named in the notice of infraction wants to contest the determination, the contractor shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the contractor in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing. The date of the hearing shall not be sooner than fourteen days from the date of the notice of hearing, except by agreement of the parties.

(4) If any contractor issued a notice of infraction:

(a) Fails to respond to the notice of infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section; or

(b) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) of this section;

the court shall enter an appropriate order assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the infraction and shall notify the department of the failure of the contractor to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(5) An order entered by the court under subsection (4)(b) of this section may, for good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, be set aside for the same grounds a default judgment may be set aside in civil actions in courts of limited jurisdiction. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 7.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.280 Notice of infraction—Person's failure to respond—Misdemeanor. It is a misdemeanor for any person who has been personally served with a notice of infraction to refuse to sign a written promise to respond to the notice. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 10.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.290 Notice of infraction—Contractor's failure to respond—Misdemeanor. It is a misdemeanor for a contractor who has been personally served with a notice of infraction to wilfully violate the written promise to respond to a notice of infraction as provided in this chapter, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the infraction. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 11.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.300 Representation by attorney—Department represented by attorney general. A contractor subject to proceedings under this chapter may appear or be represented by counsel. The department shall be represented by the attorney general in any proceeding under this chapter. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 8.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.310 Infraction—Hearing—Procedure—Burden of proof—Order—Appeal. (1) A hearing held to contest the determination that an infraction has been committed shall be without a jury.

(2) The court may consider the notice of infraction and any sworn statement submitted by the department's authorized representative who issued and served the notice in lieu of his or her personal appearance at the hearing. The contractor named in the notice may subpoena witnesses, including the authorized representative who issued and served the notice, and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court.

(3) The burden of proof is on the department to establish the commission of the infraction by a preponderance of the evidence. The notice of infraction shall be dismissed if the defendant establishes that, at the time the notice was issued, the defendant was registered by the department or was exempt from registration.

(4) After consideration of the evidence and argument, the court shall determine whether the infraction was committed. If it has not been established that the infraction was committed, an order dismissing the notice shall be entered in the court's records. If it has been established that the infraction was committed, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records.

(5) An appeal from the court's determination or order shall be to the superior court. The decision of the superior court is subject only to discretionary review pursuant to Rule 2.3 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 9.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.320 Infraction—Dismissal, when. The court shall dismiss the notice of infraction at any time upon written notification from the department that the contractor named in the notice of infraction was registered at the time the notice of infraction was issued. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 13.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.330 Record of court's order—Transmittal. The court shall, within thirty days after entry of an order under this chapter, forward a record of the court's order to the department on a form prescribed by the department. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 14.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.340 Infraction—Monetary penalty. (1) A contractor found to have committed an infraction under RCW 18.27.200 shall be assessed a monetary penalty of one hundred dollars.

(2) The court may waive, reduce, or suspend the monetary penalty imposed for the infraction.

(3) Monetary penalties collected under this chapter shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW. [1983 1st ex.s. c 2 § 15.]

Effective date—1983 1st ex.s. c 2: See note following RCW 18.27.200.

18.27.900 Severability—1963 c 77. If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. [1963 c 77 § 11.]

18.28.010 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Debt adjusting" means the managing, counseling, settling, adjusting, prorating, or liquidating of the indebtedness of a debtor, or receiving funds for the purpose of distributing said funds among creditors in payment or partial payment of obligations of a debtor.

(2) "Debt adjuster", which includes any person known as a debt pooler, debt manager, debt consolidator, debt prorater, or credit counselor, is any person engaging in or holding himself out as engaging in the business of debt adjusting for compensation. The term shall not include:

(a) Attorneys at law, escrow agents, accountants, broker-dealers in securities, or investment advisors in securities, while performing services solely incidental to the practice of their professions;

(b) Any person, partnership, association, or corporation doing business under and as permitted by any law of this state or of the United States relating to banks, *small loan companies, industrial loan companies, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, credit unions, crop credit associations, development credit corporations, industrial development corporations, title insurance companies, or insurance companies;

(c) Persons who, as employees on a regular salary or wage of an employer not engaged in the business of debt adjusting, perform credit services for their employer;

(d) Public officers while acting in their official capacities and persons acting under court order;

(e) Any person while performing services incidental to the dissolution, winding up or liquidation of a partnership, corporation, or other business enterprise;

(f) Nonprofit organizations dealing exclusively with debts owing from commercial enterprises to business creditors;

(g) Nonprofit organizations engaged in debt adjusting and which do not assess against the debtor a service charge in excess of fifteen dollars per month.

(3) "Debt adjusting agency" is any partnership, corporation, or association engaging in or holding itself out as engaging in the business of debt adjusting.

(4) "License" means a debt adjuster license or debt adjusting agency license issued under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) "Licensee" means a debt adjuster or debt adjusting agency to whom a license has been issued under the provisions of this chapter.

(6) "Director" means the director of the department of licensing. [1979 c 156 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 97 § 1; 1967 c 201 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: "small loan companies" changed to "consumer finance business" by 1979 c 18. See chapter 31.08 RCW.

Effective date—1979 c 156: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 30, 1979." [1979 c 156 § 14.]

Severability—1979 c 156: "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 c 156 § 13.]

18.28.020 License required. No debt adjuster, debt adjusting agency, or branch office of any debt adjusting agency may engage in the business of debt adjusting within this state except as authorized by this chapter and without first obtaining a license from the director. [1967 c 201 § 2.]

18.28.030 Application for license, form, contents—Investigation fees—Licensing fees—Bond—Qualifications—Forms to be furnished. An application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the director. The application shall contain such relevant information as the director may require, but in all cases shall contain the name and residential and business addresses of each individual applicant, and of each member when the applicant is a partnership or association, and of each director and officer when the applicant is a corporation.

Except as provided hereinafter in this section the applicant shall pay an investigation fee and a licensing fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24-.086: Provided, That a branch office of a licensed debt adjusting agency need not pay an investigation fee but only the licensing fee. If a license is not issued in response to the application, the director shall return the licensing fee to the applicant. An annual license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24-.086, shall be paid to the director by January 1st of each year. If the annual license fee is not paid by January 1st, the licensee shall be assessed a penalty for late payment determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24-.086. And if the fee and penalty are not paid by January 31st, reapplication for a new license will be necessary, which may include taking any examination prescribed by the director.

The applicant shall file a surety bond with the director or in lieu thereof the applicant may file with the director a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director and under conditions set forth in RCW 18.28.040: Provided, That each branch office of a debt adjusting agency shall be required to be bonded as provided herein, but no bond will be required of an individual applicant while he is employed by a bonded debt adjusting agency or branch thereof.

The applicant shall furnish the director with such proof as the director may reasonably require to establish the qualifications set forth in RCW 18.28.060.

If the applicant is an individual person making an original license application he shall pay an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

If the applicant is applying for a debt adjusting agency license it shall furnish the director with complete forms of all contracts and assignments designed for execution by debtors making any assignments to or placing any property with the applicant for the purpose of paying the creditors of such debtors, and complete forms of all contracts and agreements designed for execution by creditors to whom payments are made by the applicant. Only such forms furnished the director and not disapproved by him shall be used by a debt adjusting agency licensee. [1985 c 7 § 18; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 23; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 6; 1967 c 201 § 3.]

18.28.040 Bond requirements—Security in lieu of bond. The bond, required in RCW 18.28.030, shall be a surety bond, annually renewable on January 1st, to be approved by the director as to form and content, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as a surety, whose liability shall not exceed the said sum in the aggregate. Such bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee for the benefit of the state and of any person or persons who may have cause of action against the principal of said bond under the provisions of this chapter. Such bond shall be conditioned that said principal as licensee hereunder will not commit any fraudulent act and will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules lawfully adopted hereunder, and will pay to the state and any such person or persons any and all moneys that may become due and owing from such principal under and by virtue of the provisions of this chapter. The surety on such bond shall be released and discharged from all liability accruing on such bond after the expiration of thirty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the director a written request to be released and discharged, but this provision shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue before the expiration of the thirty day period. The director shall promptly upon receiving any such request notify the principal who furnished the bond; and unless the principal shall, on or before the expiration of the thirty day period, file a new bond, the director shall forthwith cancel the principal's license.

An applicant for a license under this chapter may furnish, file and deposit with the director, in lieu of the surety bond provided for herein, United States currency or bonds, representing obligations of the United States, or bonds of the state of Washington or any legal subdivision thereof, for which the faith of the United States, the state of Washington or any legal subdivision thereof is pledged, for the payment of both the principal and interest, equal in amount to the amount of the bond required by this chapter. The security deposited with the director in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of three years after the license issued thereon has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or on the bond at the expiration of said three years. [1967 c 201 § 4.]

18.28.045 Additional bond—When required. If the director finds at any time that the bond is insecure, depleted, exhausted, or otherwise doubtful, an additional bond of the character specified in RCW 18.28.040 and approved by the director in the sum of not more than ten thousand dollars, shall be filed by the licensee within ten days after written demand upon the licensee by the director. [1979 c 156 § 2.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.050 Action on bond or security. If the licensee has failed to account to a debtor or distribute to the debtor's creditors such amounts as are required by this chapter and the contract between the debtor and licensee, the debtor, his legal representative or receiver, or the director, shall have, in addition to all other legal remedies, a right of action in the name of the debtor on the bond or the security given pursuant to the provisions of RCW 18.28.040, for loss suffered by the debtor, not exceeding the face of the bond or security, and without the necessity of joining the licensee in such suit or action. No action shall be brought upon any bond or security given under RCW 18.28.040 after the expiration of three years from the revocation or expiration of the license issued thereon. Upon entering judgment for plaintiff in any action on the bond required under RCW 18.28.040, for more than the sum tendered in the court by the defendant, if any, the court shall include in the judgment reasonable compensation for services of plaintiff's attorney in the action. [1967 c 201 § 5.]

18.28.060 Applicants for licenses—Requirements. The director shall issue a license to an applicant if the following requirements are met:

(1) The application is complete and the applicant has complied with RCW 18.28.030.

(2) Neither an individual applicant, nor any of the applicant's members if the applicant is a partnership or association, nor any of the applicant's officers or directors if the applicant is a corporation: (a) Has ever been convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud or any other like offense, or has been disbarred from the practice of law; (b) has participated in a violation of this chapter or of any valid rules, orders or decisions of the director promulgated under this chapter; (c) has had a license to engage in the business of debt adjusting revoked or removed for any reason other than for failure to pay licensing fees in this or any other state; or (d) is an employee or owner of a collection agency, or process serving business.

(3) An individual applicant is at least eighteen years of age.

(4) An applicant which is a partnership, corporation, or association is authorized to do business in this state.

(5) An individual applicant for an original license as a debt adjuster has passed an examination administered by the director, which examination may be oral or written, or partly oral and partly written, and shall be practical in nature and sufficiently thorough to ascertain the applicant's fitness. Questions on bookkeeping, credit adjusting, business ethics, agency, contracts, debtor and creditor relationships, trust funds and the provisions of this chapter shall be included in the examination. No applicant may use any books or other similar aids while taking the examination, and no applicant may take the examination more than three times in any twelve month period. [1979 c 156 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 20; 1967 ex.s. c 141 § 1; 1967 c 201 § 6.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.28.070 Licenses—Form—Contents—Display—Transferability. Each license shall:

(1) Be in the form and size prescribed by the director;

(2) Show the name of the licensee and the address at which the business of debt adjusting is to be conducted;

(3) Show the date of expiration of the license as December 31st, and show such other matter as may be prescribed by the director;

(4) While in force, be at all times conspicuously displayed in the outer office of the debt adjusting agency or branch thereof; and

(5) Not be transferable or assignable. [1967 c 201 § 7.]

18.28.080 Fees for debt adjusting services—Limitations—Requirements. (1) By contract a licensee may charge a reasonable fee for debt adjusting services. The total fee for debt adjusting services may not exceed fifteen percent of the total debt listed by the debtor on the contract. The fee retained by the licensee from any one payment made by or on behalf of the debtor may not exceed fifteen percent of the payment: Provided, That the licensee may make an initial charge of up to twenty-five dollars which shall be considered part of the total fee. If an initial charge is made, no additional fee may be retained which will bring the total fee retained to date to more than fifteen percent of the total payments made to date. No fee whatsoever shall be applied against rent and utility payments for housing.

In the event of cancellation or default on performance of the contract by the debtor prior to its successful completion, the licensee may collect in addition to fees previously received, six percent of that portion of the remaining indebtedness listed on said contract which was due when the contract was entered into, but not to exceed twenty-five dollars.

(2) A licensee shall not be entitled to retain any fee until notifying all creditors listed by the debtor that the debtor has engaged the licensee in a program of debt adjusting. [1979 c 156 § 4; 1967 ex.s. c 141 § 2; 1967 c 201 § 8.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.090 Excess charges—Contract void—Return of payments. If a licensee contracts for, receives or makes any charge in excess of the maximums permitted by this chapter, except as the result of an accidental and bona fide error, the licensee's contract with the debtor shall be void and the licensee shall return to the debtor the amount of all payments received from the debtor or on his behalf and not distributed to creditors. [1967 c 201 § 9.]

18.28.100 Contract requirements. Every contract between a licensee and a debtor shall:

(1) List every debt to be handled with the creditor's name and disclose the approximate total of all known debts;

(2) Provide in precise terms payments reasonably within the ability of the debtor to pay;

(3) Disclose in precise terms the rate and amount of all of the licensee's charges and fees;

(4) Disclose the approximate number and amount of installments required to pay the debts in full;

(5) Disclose the name and address of the licensee and of the debtor;

(6) Provide that the licensee shall notify the debtor, in writing, within five days of notification to the licensee by a creditor that the creditor refuses to accept payment pursuant to the contract between the licensee and the debtor;

(7) Contain the following notice in ten point boldface type or larger directly above the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer: NOTICE TO DEBTOR:

(a) Do not sign this contract before you read it or if any spaces intended for the agreed terms are left blank.

(b) You are entitled to a copy of this contract at the time you sign it.

(c) You may cancel this contract within three days of signing by sending notice of cancellation by certified mail return receipt requested to the debt adjuster at his address shown on the contract, which notice shall be posted not later than midnight of the third day (excluding Sundays and holidays) following your signing of the contract; and

(8) Contain such other and further provisions or disclosures as the director shall determine are necessary for the protection of the debtor and the proper conduct of business by the licensee. [1979 c 156 § 5; 1967 c 201 § 10.]

18.28.110 Licensees—Functions required to be performed. Every licensee shall perform the following functions:

(1) Make a permanent record of all payments by debtors, or on the debtors' behalf, and of all disbursements to creditors of such debtors, and shall keep and maintain in this state all such records, and all payments not distributed to creditors. No person shall intentionally make any false entry in any such record, or intentionally mutilate, destroy or otherwise dispose of any such record. Such records shall at all times be open for inspection by the director or his authorized agent, and shall be preserved as original records or by microfilm or other methods of duplication acceptable to the director, for at least six years after making the final entry therein.

(2) Deliver a completed copy of the contract between the licensee and a debtor to the debtor immediately after the debtor executes the contract, and sign the debtor's copy of such contract.

(3) Unless paid by check or money order, deliver a receipt to a debtor for each payment within five days after receipt of such payment.

(4) Distribute to the creditors of the debtor at least once each forty days after receipt of payment during the term of the contract at least eighty-five percent of each payment received from the debtor.

(5) At least once every month render an accounting to the debtor which shall indicate the total amount received from or on behalf of the debtor, the total amount paid to each creditor, the total amount which any creditor has agreed to accept as payment in full on any debt owed him by the debtor, the amount of charges deducted, and any amount held in trust. The licensee shall in addition render such an account to a debtor within ten days after written demand.

(6) Notify the debtor, in writing, within five days of notification to the licensee by a creditor that the creditor refuses to accept payment pursuant to the contract between the licensee and the debtor.

(7) Furnish the director with all contracts, assignments, and forms as described in RCW 18.28.030 which are currently in use. [1979 c 156 § 6; 1967 c 201 § 11.]

18.28.120 Licensees—Prohibited acts. A licensee shall not:

- (1) Take any contract, or other instrument which has any blank spaces when signed by the debtor;
- (2) Receive or charge any fee in the form of a promissory note or other promise to pay or receive or accept any mortgage or other security for any fee, whether as to real or personal property;
- (3) Lend money or credit;
- (4) Take any confession of judgment or power of attorney to confess judgment against the debtor or appear as the debtor in any judicial proceedings;
- (5) Take, concurrent with the signing of the contract or as a part of the contract or as part of the application for the contract, a release of any obligation to be performed on the part of the licensee;
- (6) Advertise his services, display, distribute, broadcast or televise, or permit his services to be displayed, advertised, distributed, broadcasted or televised in any manner whatsoever wherein any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation with regard to the services to be performed by the licensee, or the charges to be made therefor, is made;
- (7) Offer, pay, or give any cash, fee, gift, bonus, premiums, reward, or other compensation to any person for referring any prospective customer to the licensee;
- (8) Receive any cash, fee, gift, bonus, premium, reward, or other compensation from any person other than the debtor or a person in the debtor's behalf in connection with his activities as a licensee; or
- (9) Disclose to anyone, other than the director or his agent, the debtors who have contracted with the licensee; nor shall the licensee disclose the creditors of a debtor to anyone other than: (a) The debtor, or (b) the director or his agent, or (c) another creditor of the debtor and then only to the extent necessary to secure the cooperation of such a creditor in a debt adjusting plan. [1967 c 201 § 12.]

18.28.130 Legal services—Rendering or obtaining—Using name of attorney—Prohibited. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and other applicable laws, the licensee, manager or employee of a licensee shall not:

- (1) Prepare, advise, or sign a release of attachment or garnishment, stipulation, affidavit for exemption, compromise agreement or other legal or court document, nor furnish legal advice or perform legal services of any kind;
- (2) Represent that he is authorized or competent to furnish legal advice or perform legal services;
- (3) Assume authority on behalf of creditors or a debtor or accept a power of attorney authorizing it to employ or terminate the services of any attorney or to arrange the terms of or compensate for such services; or
- (4) Communicate with the debtor or creditor or any other person in the name of any attorney or upon the stationery of any attorney or prepare any form or instrument which only attorneys are authorized to prepare. [1967 c 201 § 13.]

18.28.140 Assignment of wages not prohibited. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the assignment of wages by a debtor to a licensee, if such assignment is otherwise in accordance with the law of this state. [1967 c 201 § 14.]

18.28.150 Payments by debtor to be kept in trust account—Disbursements. (1) Any payment received by a licensee from or on behalf of a debtor shall be held in trust by the licensee from the moment it is received. The licensee shall not commingle such payment with his own property or funds, but shall maintain a separate trust account and deposit in such account all such payments received. All disbursements whether to the debtor or to the creditors of the debtor, or to the licensee, shall be made from such account.

(2) In the event that the debtor cancels or defaults on the contract between the debtor and the licensee, the licensee shall close out the debtor's trust account in the following manner:

(a) The licensee may take from the account that amount necessary to satisfy any fees, other than any cancellation or default fee, authorized by this chapter.

(b) After deducting the fees provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section, the licensee shall distribute the remaining amount in the account to the creditors of the debtor. The distribution shall be made within five days of the demand therefor by the debtor, but if the debtor fails to make the demand, then the licensee shall make the distribution within thirty days of the date of cancellation or default. [1979 c 156 § 8; 1967 c 201 § 15.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.160 Revocation of licenses—Grounds. The director shall, upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, revoke any license issued pursuant to this chapter if he finds that:

- (1) The licensee has failed to renew its bond as required by this chapter;
- (2) The licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or any rule, promulgated by the director under the authority of this chapter or any order or decision of the director hereunder; or
- (3) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, reasonably would have warranted the director in refusing originally to issue such license. [1967 c 201 § 16.]

18.28.165 Investigations. For the purpose of discovering violations of this chapter or securing information lawfully required by him hereunder, the director may at any time, either personally or by a person or persons duly designated by him, investigate the debt adjusting business and examine the books, accounts, records, and files used therein, of every licensee. For that purpose the director and his duly designated representatives shall have free access to the offices and places of business, books, accounts, papers, records, files, safes, and vaults of all licensees. The director and all persons duly designated by him may require the attendance of and examine under oath all persons whomsoever whose testimony he may require relative to such debt adjusting business or to the subject matter of any examination, investigation, or hearing. [1979 c 156 § 7.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.170 Rules, orders, decisions, etc. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of this chapter. The director shall include among rules promulgated, those which describe and forbid deceptive advertising. [1979 c 156 § 9; 1967 c 201 § 17.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.180 Administrative procedure act to govern administration. The administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein, govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter. [1967 c 201 § 18.]

18.28.185 Violations—Unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW. A violation of this chapter constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the conduct of trade or commerce under chapter 19.86 RCW. [1979 c 156 § 10.]

Effective date—Severability—1979 c 156: See notes following RCW 18.28.010.

18.28.190 Violations—Penalty. Any person who violates any provision of this chapter or aids or abets such violation, or any rule lawfully promulgated hereunder or any order or decision of the director hereunder, or any person who operates as a debt adjuster without a license, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1967 c 201 § 19.]

18.28.200 Violations may be enjoined. Notwithstanding any other actions which may be brought under the laws of this state, the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county within the state may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent any violation of this chapter. [1967 c 201 § 20.]

18.28.210 Violations—Assurance of discontinuance—Effect. The attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice deemed in violation of this chapter in the enforcement thereof from any person engaging in or who has engaged in such act or practice. Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in the alternative, in Thurston county. Failure to perform the terms of any such assurance shall constitute prima facie proof of a violation of this chapter for the purpose of securing any injunction as provided for in RCW 18.28.200: Provided, That after commencement of any action by a prosecuting attorney, as provided therein, the attorney general may not accept an assurance of discontinuance without the consent of said prosecuting attorney. [1967 c 201 § 21.]

18.28.220 Violation of injunction—Civil penalty. Any person who violates any injunction issued pursuant to this chapter shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars. For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties. [1967 c 201 § 22.]

18.28.900 Contracts prior to effective date not invalidated. The provisions of this chapter shall not invalidate or make unlawful contracts between debt adjusters and debtors executed prior to the effective date of this chapter. [1967 c 201 § 23.]

Effective date—1967 c 201: June 8, 1967, see preface to 1967 session laws.

18.28.910 Severability—1967 c 201. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances, is not affected. [1967 c 201 § 24.]

18.29.003 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.29.005 "Surfaces of the teeth" defined. The term "surfaces of the teeth" as used in this chapter means the portions of the crown and root surface to which there is no periodontal membrane attached. [1969 c 47 § 6.]

18.29.010 License required. No person shall practice as a dental hygienist in this state without having a license as such and after the first year an unexpired license renewal certificate. [1923 c 16 § 26; RRS § 10030-26.]

Persons practicing prior to act: "Any citizen of this state who has been engaged in the practice of dental hygiene in this state under the direction of a licensed dentist for a period of not less than two years prior to the date when this act shall take effect, shall be entitled to a license as a dental hygienist under this act, upon filing his application within thirty days after this act shall take effect, paying a filing fee of ten dollars, furnishing proof of practice and citizenship by the affidavits of two licensed dentists and passing the practical tests provided for in section twenty-nine of this act." [1923 c 16 § 30.]

18.29.020 Applications—Qualifications—Fee. Any citizen of this state of good moral character who shall have attained the age of eighteen years may file his application for license as a dental hygienist in the manner provided by law on forms furnished by the director of licensing and shall submit with said application proof of said applicant's graduation from a training school for dental hygienists. Said application shall be signed and sworn to by said applicant. Each applicant shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 which shall accompany his application. [1985 c 7 § 19; 1979 c 158 § 30; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 24; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 21; 1969 c 47 § 1; 1923 c 16 § 28; RRS § 10030-28.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.29.031 Examinations—Committee—Duties—Compensation and travel expenses. The director of licensing shall appoint a committee of three licensed dental hygienists to prepare and conduct examinations for dental hygiene licensure. The committee shall require an applicant for licensure to pass an examination consisting of written and practical tests upon such subjects and of such scope as the committee determines. The standards for passage of the examination shall be set by the committee. Members of the committee shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

At least two examinations shall be given each calendar year in conjunction with examinations for licensure of dentists under chapter 18.32 RCW. [1984 c 287 § 29; 1983 c 168 § 14.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—1983 c 168: See RCW 18.120.910.

18.29.040 Reciprocal licenses—Fees. Applicants licensed as dental hygienists under the laws of other states whose requirements are equal to those of this state and who have been engaged in the lawful practice of dental hygiene for a period of not less than three years in such state may, upon the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, be granted licenses as dental hygienists in this state without examination: Provided, however, That the privileges of this section shall be extended only to those states which extend to this state the same privilege. [1985 c 7 § 20; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 25; 1969 c 47 § 3; 1923 c 16 § 33; RRS § 10030-33.]

18.29.050 Scope of licensee's functions—Employment—Supervision. Any person licensed as a dental hygienist in this state may remove deposits and stains from the surfaces of the teeth, may apply topical preventive or prophylactic agents, may polish and smooth restorations, may perform root planing and soft-tissue curettage, and may perform other dental operations and services delegated to them by a licensed dentist: Provided however, That licensed dental hygienists shall in no event perform the following dental operations or services:

- (1) Any surgical removal of tissue of the oral cavity;
- (2) Any prescription of drugs or medications requiring the written order or prescription of a licensed dentist or physician;
- (3) Any diagnosis for treatment or treatment planning; or
- (4) The taking of any impression of the teeth or jaw, or the relationships of the teeth or jaws, for the purpose of fabricating any intra-oral restoration, appliance, or prosthesis.

Such licensed dental hygienists may perform dental operations and services only under the supervision of a licensed dentist, and under such supervision may be employed by hospitals, boards of education of public or private schools, county boards, boards of health, or public or charitable institutions, or in dental offices: Provided, That the number of hygienists so employed in any dental office shall not exceed twice in number the licensed dentists practicing therein. [1971 ex.s. c 235 § 1; 1969 c 47 § 4; 1923 c 16 § 27; RRS § 10030-27.]

18.29.056 Employment by health care facilities authorized—Limitations. (1) Dental hygienists licensed under this chapter with two years' practical clinical experience with a licensed dentist within the preceding five years may be employed or retained by health care facilities to perform authorized dental hygiene operations and services without dental supervision, limited to removal of deposits and stains from the surfaces of the teeth, application of topical preventive or prophylactic agents, polishing and smoothing restorations, and performance of root planing and soft-tissue curettage, but shall not perform injections of anesthetic agents, administration of nitrous oxide, or diagnosis for dental treatment. The performance of dental hygiene operations and services in health care facilities shall be limited to patients, students, and residents of the facilities. For dental planning and dental treatment, dental hygienists shall refer patients to licensed dentists.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "health care facilities" are limited to hospitals; nursing homes; home health agencies; group homes serving the elderly, handicapped, and juveniles; state-operated institutions under the jurisdiction of the department of social and health services or the department of corrections; and federal, state, and local public health facilities. [1984 c 279 § 63.]

18.29.060 License—Record—Display. Upon passing an examination as provided in RCW 18.29.031 the director of licensing shall issue to the successful applicant a license as dental hygienist. The license shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in the operation room where such licensee shall practice. [1985 c 7 § 21; 1981 c 277 § 4; 1979 c 158 § 32; 1923 c 16 § 31; RRS § 10030-31.]

18.29.070 License renewal—Fee—Display. Every person licensed as a dental hygienist shall pay on or before the first day of October of each year after a license is issued to him a license renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and the license renewal certificate which shall be thereupon issued by the director of licensing shall be displayed with the license of said licensee. [1985 c 7 § 22; 1979 c 158 § 33; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 26; 1969 c 47 § 5; 1923 c 16 § 32; RRS § 10030-32.]

18.29.075 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 29.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.29.080 Practicing without license—Suspension—Penalty. Any person other than a licensed dentist who shall practice or attempt to practice or hold himself out as practicing dental hygiene within this state without having at the time of so doing a valid unrevoked license and after the first year a valid and unexpired license renewal certificate as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any licensed dental hygienist who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished either by fine or by a suspension of his license for a period of one year or by both such fine and suspension. [1923 c 16 § 34; RRS § 10030-34.]

18.29.090 Permitting unlawful acts—Penalty. Any licensed dentist who shall permit any dental hygienist operating under his supervision to perform any operation other than that permitted to dental hygienists under the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1923 c 16 § 35; RRS § 10030-35.]

Similar provision for dentists: RCW 18.32.340.

18.29.100 Violations—Penalty—Prosecutions. Any person who shall violate any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county to prosecute all cases involving a violation of this chapter arising within his county. The attorney general may assist in such prosecutions and shall appear at all hearings when requested to do so by the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 34; 1923 c 16 § 36; RRS § 10030-36.]

18.29.900 Construction—1923 c 16. Words used in this chapter importing the singular number may also be applied to the plural of persons and things. Words importing the plural may be applied to the singular, and words importing the masculine gender may be extended to females also. [1923 c 16 § 37.]

Number and gender: RCW 1.12.050.

18.29.910 Severability—1923 c 16. Should any section of this chapter, or any portion of any section be for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. [1923 c 16 § 38.]

18.32.020 Practice of dentistry defined. A person practices dentistry, within the meaning of this chapter, who (1) represents himself as being able to diagnose, treat, remove stains and concretions from teeth, operate or prescribe for any disease, pain, injury, deficiency, deformity, or physical condition of the human teeth, alveolar process, gums, or jaw, or (2) offers or undertakes by any means or methods to diagnose, treat, remove stains or concretions from teeth, operate or prescribe for any disease, pain, injury, deficiency, deformity, or physical condition of the same, or take impressions of the teeth or jaw, or (3) owns, maintains or operates an office for the practice of dentistry, or (4) engages in any of the practices included in the curricula of recognized and approved dental schools or colleges, or (5) professes to the public by any method to furnish, supply, construct, reproduce, or repair any prosthetic denture, bridge, appliance, or other structure to be worn in the human mouth.

The fact that a person uses any dental degree, or designation, or any card, device, directory, poster, sign, or other media whereby he represents himself to be a dentist, shall be prima facie evidence that such person is engaged in the practice of dentistry.

X-ray diagnosis as to the method of dental practice in which the diagnosis and examination is made of the normal and abnormal structures, parts or functions of the human teeth, the alveolar process, maxilla, mandible or soft tissues adjacent thereto, is hereby declared to be the practice of dentistry. Any person other than a regularly licensed physician or surgeon who makes any diagnosis or interpretation or explanation, or attempts to diagnose or to make any interpretation or explanation of the registered shadow or shadows of any part of the human teeth, alveolar process, maxilla, mandible or soft tissues adjacent thereto by the use of x-ray is declared to be engaged in the practice of dentistry, medicine or surgery. [1957 c 98 § 1; 1957 c 52 § 20. Prior: (i) 1935 c 112 § 6; RRS § 10031-6. (ii) 1943 c 240 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 10031-6a.]

18.32.030 Exemptions from statute. The following practices, acts and operations are excepted from the operation of the provisions of this chapter:

(1) The rendering of dental relief in emergency cases in the practice of his profession by a physician or surgeon, licensed as such and registered under the laws of this state, unless he undertakes to or does reproduce lost parts of the human teeth in the mouth or to restore or to replace in the human mouth lost or missing teeth;

(2) The practice of dentistry in the discharge of official duties by dentists in the United States army, navy, public health service, veterans' bureau, or bureau of Indian affairs;

(3) Dental schools or colleges approved by the board, and the practice of dentistry by students in dental schools or colleges approved by the board, when acting under the direction and supervision of registered and licensed dentists acting as instructors;

(4) The practice of dentistry by licensed dentists of other states or countries while appearing as clinicians at meetings of the Washington state dental association, or component parts thereof, or at meetings sanctioned by them;

(5) The use of roentgen and other rays for making radiograms or similar records of dental or oral tissues, under the supervision of a licensed dentist or physician;

(6) The making, repairing, altering or supplying of artificial restorations, substitutions, appliances, or materials for the correction of disease, loss, deformity, malposition, dislocation, fracture, injury to the jaws, teeth, lips, gums, cheeks, palate, or associated tissues or parts; providing the same are made, repaired, altered or supplied pursuant to the written instructions and order of a licensed dentist which may be accompanied by casts, models or impressions furnished by said dentist, and said prescriptions shall be retained and filed for a period of not less than three years and shall be available to and subject to the examination of the director of licensing or his authorized representatives;

(7) The removal of deposits and stains from the surfaces of the teeth, the application of topical preventative or prophylactic agents, and the polishing and smoothing of restorations, when performed or prescribed by a dental hygienist licensed under the laws of this state;

(8) A qualified and licensed physician and surgeon extracting teeth or performing oral surgery;

(9) A legal practitioner of another state making a clinical demonstration before a medical or dental society, or at a convention approved by the Washington state medical or dental association or Washington progressive dental society;

(10) Students practicing or performing dental operations, under the supervision of competent instructors, in any reputable dental college;

(11) The performing of dental operations or services by persons not licensed under this chapter when performed under the supervision of a licensed dentist: Provided however, That such nonlicensed person shall in no event perform the following dental operations or services unless permitted to be performed by him under other provisions of this chapter or chapter 18.29 RCW:

(a) Any removal of or addition to the hard or soft tissue of the oral cavity;

(b) Any diagnosis of or prescription for treatment of disease, pain, deformity, deficiency, injury, or physical condition of the human teeth or jaws, or adjacent structure;

(c) Any administration of general or injected local anaesthetic of any nature in connection with a dental operation;

(d) Any oral prophylaxis;

(e) The taking of any impressions of the teeth or jaw or the relationships of the teeth or jaws, for the purpose of fabricating any intra-oral restoration, appliance, or prosthesis. [1979 c 158 § 35; 1971 ex.s. c 236 § 1; 1969 c 47 § 7; 1957 c 52 § 21; 1953 c 93 § 1; 1951 c 130 § 1. Prior: (i) 1941 c 92 § 3; 1935 c 112 § 25; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-25; prior: 1923 c 16 § 23. 18.32.035 Board of dental examiners—Creation—Membership—Terms—Powers—Vacancies—Compacts and agreements with other states. There shall be a board of dental examiners consisting of nine practicing dentists and one consumer member, to be known as the Washington state board of dental examiners.

The members shall be appointed by the governor in the manner hereinafter set forth and at the time of their appointment upon said board must be actual residents of the state in active practice of dentistry or dental surgery as hereinafter defined and must have been for a period of five years or more legally licensed to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this state: Provided, however, That no person shall be eligible to appointment to said board who is in any way connected with or interested in any dental college or dental department of any institution of learning. Members shall be appointed to the board to serve for terms of five years from July 1 of the year in which they are appointed.

In case of a vacancy occurring on said board, such vacancy shall be filled by the governor as herein provided for the remainder of the term of the vacancy.

The board shall have the power to employ competent persons on a temporary basis to assist in conducting examinations for licensure.

The board shall have the authority to enter into compacts and agreements with other states and with organizations formed by several states, for the purpose of conducting multi-state licensing examinations. The board may enter into such compacts and agreements even though they would result in the examination of a candidate for a license in this state by an examiner or examiners from another state or states, and even though they would result in the examination of a candidate or candidates for a license in another state or states by an examiner or examiners from this state. [1984 c 279 § 50; 1979 c 38 § 1; 1975 c 49 § 1; 1953 c 93 § 2; 1941 c 92 § 1; 1935 c 112 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-2. Formerly RCW 43.68.010.]

18.32.037 Board of dental examiners—Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall choose one of its members president and one secretary thereof, and it shall meet at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, in the discretion of the director or board, and at such times and places as he or it may deem proper. A majority of the members of said board shall, at all times, constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the board, and the proceedings thereof shall, at all reasonable times, be open to public inspection. [1935 c 112 § 3; RRS § 10031-3. Formerly RCW 43.68.020.]

18.32.038 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of dental examiners, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 30.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.32.040 Rules and regulations—Minimum credits—Examinations—Certificates. Said board shall make rules and regulations to establish a uniform and reasonable standard of educational requirements to be observed by dental schools, colleges, or dental departments of universities, and said board may determine the reputability of these by reference to their compliance with said rules or regulations.

The board shall demand that every applicant for a license to practice dentistry shall:

(1) Be a graduate or have fifteen units of high school work in acceptable subjects from a high or other secondary school approved by the board.

(2) Present satisfactory evidence of completion of pre-dental and dental education under one of the following plans:

(a) Completion of a minimum of thirty semester hours of collegiate credit in acceptable subjects from a college or university approved by the board, and graduation from a dental college, school, or dental department of an institution requiring four courses of instruction of at least eight months each, approved by the board.

(b) Completion of a minimum of sixty semester hours of collegiate credit in acceptable subjects from a college or university approved by the board, and graduation from a dental school, college, or dental department of an institution requiring three courses of at least eight months each, approved by the board.

(3) Submit, for the files of the board, a recent picture duly identified and attested.

(4) Pass an examination given by the board of dental examiners in the theory and practice of the science of dentistry: Provided, That the board may recognize a certificate granted by the national board of dental examiners in lieu of, or subject to, such examination as may be required: Provided further, That the board may recognize passage of an examination given by another state or states, or by an organization formed by several states, with which the board has entered into a formal compact or agreement for the purpose of conducting a multi-state license examination: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any dental school which may desire to do so from establishing for admission a higher standard of preliminary education than specified in this chapter. [1979 c 38 § 2; 1935 c 112 § 5; RRS § 10031-5. Prior: 1923 c 16 §§ 4, 5. Formerly RCW 18.32.040 and 18.32.130 through 18.32.150.]

18.32.050 Board—Members' compensation and travel expenses. The members of the board shall each be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in attending the meetings of the board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Board members shall be compensated and reimbursed pursuant to this section for their activities in administering a multi-state licensing examination pursuant to the board's compact or agreement with another state or states or with organizations formed by several states: Provided, That any compensation or reimbursement received by a board member from another state, or organization formed by several states, for such member's services in administering a multi-state licensing examination, shall be deposited in the state general fund. [1984 c 287 § 30; 1979 c 38 § 3; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 34; 1967 c 188 § 2; 1957 c 52 § 23; 1953 c 93 § 3. Prior: 1935 c 112 § 11, part; RRS § 10031-11, part.]

18.32.055 Board—Members' and staffs' immunity from suit in certain civil actions. Members of the board of dental examiners shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon actions taken in the course of any dental examination or any other official act performed in good faith as members of such board. Such immunity shall apply to employees and staff of the board when acting at the direction of the board in the course of its official proceedings. [1981 c 99 § 1.]

18.32.070 Director—Annual list of licensed dentists. It shall be the duty of the director as soon as practicable after the first of each calendar year to furnish without charge to the secretary of the Washington state board of dental examiners a list of persons authorized to practice under this chapter. [1935 c 112 § 21; RRS § 10031-21.]

18.32.080 Enforcement provisions—Certificate of director as evidence. The said director is charged with the duty of enforcing this chapter and it shall be the duty of any prosecuting attorney on the complaint of the director, the state board of dental examiners, the dental disciplinary board, or of any member of either board to prosecute any violation of this chapter. The certificate of said director certifying in substance to the facts shown of record in departmental files, or to the fact that no license required by this chapter has been issued or renewed, shall be prima facie evidence in such proceeding of the truth of such certificate. [1981 c 277 § 5; 1977 ex.s. c 5 § 29; 1935 c 112 § 22; RRS § 10031-22. Formerly RCW 18.32.080 and 18.32.370.]

18.32.085 Director—Supervision of records. The director of licensing shall have the power and it shall be his duty to:

(1) Require licensed dentists to keep and maintain a copy of each laboratory referral instruction, describing detailed services rendered, for a period to be determined by the director but not more than three years, and to require the production of all such records for examination by the director of licensing or his authorized representatives; and

(2) Promulgate reasonable rules and regulations requiring licensed dentists to make, maintain and produce for examination by the director of licensing or his authorized representatives such other records as may be reasonable and proper in the performance of his duties and enforcing the provisions of this chapter. [1953 c 93 § 8.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.32.090 Licensing required. No person, unless previously licensed to practice dentistry in this state, shall begin the practice of dentistry or dental surgery, or any branches thereof, without first applying to, and obtaining a license therefor from the director. [1981 c 277 § 6; 1957 c 52 § 27. Prior: 1941 c 92 § 2, part; 1935 c 112 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-4, part.]

18.32.100 Application—Contents—Citizenship. The applicant for a dentistry license shall file an application on a form furnished by the director, and therein state his name, age, place of residence, citizenship, the name of the school or schools attended by him, the period of such attendance, the date of his graduation, whether he has ever been suspended or disbarred from the practice of dentistry, and shall include a statement of all of his dental activities for the previous five years.

The application shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to by him before some person authorized to administer oaths, and shall be accompanied by testimonials of his moral character, and proof of his school attendance and graduation.

Said applicant at the time of making application must, in addition to other requisites, be a citizen of the United States or have first papers for naturalization. [1957 c 52 § 28; 1953 c 93 § 4; 1951 c 130 § 2; 1941 c 92 § 2; 1935 c 112 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-4, part. Prior: 1923 c 16 §§ 2, 3, 6, 7; 1901 c 152 § 1; 1893 c 55 § 4.]

18.32.110 Application fee—Investigation fee. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 18.32.210, as now or hereafter amended each applicant shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall accompany his application: Provided, That applicants not licensed in another state and not residents of this state for at least six consecutive months shall pay an additional investigation fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 23; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 27; 1969 c 49 § 1; 1957 c 52 § 29. Prior: 1941 c 92 § 2, part; 1935 c 112 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-4, part.]

18.32.120 Examination requirements—Fee. When the application and the accompanying proof are found satisfactory, the director shall notify the applicant to appear before the board at a time and place to be fixed by the director, which time shall be not less than sixty days after the receipt of such application by the director.

Examination shall be made in writing in all theoretic subjects. Both theoretic and practical examinations shall be of a character to give a fair test of the qualifications of the applicant to practice dentistry or dental surgery.

The examination papers, and all grading thereon, and the grading of the practical work, shall be deemed public documents, and preserved for a period of not less than three years after the board has made and published its decisions thereon. All examinations shall be conducted by the board under fair and wholly impartial methods.

Any applicant who fails to make the required grade in his first examination is entitled to take as many subsequent examinations as he desires upon the prepayment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for each subsequent examination. At least two examinations shall be given in each calendar year. [1985 c 7 § 24; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 28; 1969 c 49 § 2; 1957 c 52 § 30; 1953 c 93 § 5. Prior: 1941 c 92 § 2, part; 1935 c 112 § 4, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10031-4, part.]

18.32.160 Licenses—Issue—Conditional as to full citizenship. All licenses issued by the director shall be signed by him and by all members of the board; provided that all licenses issued to applicants who are not naturalized citizens of the United States shall be conditioned upon full citizenship being acquired within a period of six years from issuance of said licenses, and any holder failing to so qualify shall not be eligible for renewal of his license until full citizenship is acquired. This limitation shall not apply to dentists fully registered and licensed at the effective date of this act. [1951 c 130 § 3; 1935 c 112 § 17; RRS § 10031-17.]

Reviser's note: The effective date of 1951 c 130 is midnight, June 6, 1951; see preface to 1951 session laws.

18.32.170 Licenses—Duplicate—Fee. A fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be charged for every duplicate license issued by the director. [1985 c 7 § 25; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 29; 1957 c 52 § 25. Prior: 1935 c 112 § 11, part; RRS § 10031-11, part.]

18.32.180 Licenses—Annual renewal fee—Forfeiture and reinstatement. Every person granted a license under this chapter shall pay to the director a license renewal fee determined by the director as provided in

RCW 43.24.086 for the year commencing with the first day of October next following the issuance of his license, and annually thereafter. Payment must be made within thirty days following the commencement of the year for which the same accrues. The license renewal certificate issued by the director shall be indispensable evidence that the same has been made.

The failure of any licensed dentist to pay his annual license renewal fee by the first day of November following the date on which the fee was due shall work a forfeiture of his license. It shall not be reinstated except upon written application and the payment of a penalty determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all annual license renewal fees delinquent at the time of the forfeiture, and those for each year thereafter up to the time of reinstatement. [1985 c 7 § 26; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 30; 1969 c 49 § 3; 1951 c 130 § 4; 1935 c 112 § 24; RRS § 10031-24.]

18.32.190 Licenses—Display—Notification of address. Every person who engages in the practice of dentistry in this state shall cause his or her license to be, at all times, displayed in a conspicuous place, in his or her office wherein he or she shall practice such profession, and shall further, whenever requested, exhibit such license to any of the members of said board, or its authorized agent, and to the director or his authorized agent. Every licensee shall notify the director of the address or addresses, and of every change thereof, where the licensee shall engage in the practice of dentistry. [1981 c 277 § 7; 1935 c 112 § 7; RRS § 10031-7. Prior: 1923 c 16 § 15; 1893 c 55 § 5.]

18.32.195 Licenses—Persons licensed or qualified out-of-state who are faculty at school of dentistry—Conditions. The board may, without examination, issue a license to persons who possess the qualifications set forth in this section.

(1) The board may, upon written request of the dean of the school of dentistry of the University of Washington, issue a license to practice dentistry in this state to persons who have been licensed or otherwise authorized to practice dentistry in another state or country and who have been accepted for employment by the school of dentistry as full-time faculty members. For purposes of this section, this means teaching members of the faculty of the school of dentistry of the University of Washington who are so employed on a one hundred percent of work time basis. Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice dentistry within the confines of the university facilities for a period of one year while he or she is so employed as a full-time faculty member by the school of dentistry of the University of Washington. It shall terminate whenever the holder ceases to be such a full-time faculty member. Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice dentistry only in connection with his or her duties in employment with the school of dentistry of the University of Washington. This limitation shall be stated on the license.

(2) The board may condition the granting of such license with terms the board deems appropriate. All persons licensed under this section shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the dental disciplinary board to the same extent as other members of the dental profession, in accordance with this chapter, and in addition the licensee may be disciplined by the dental disciplinary board after a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions set forth in this chapter, and determination by the dental disciplinary board that such licensee has violated any of the restrictions set forth in this section.

(3) Persons applying for licensure pursuant to this section shall pay the application fee determined by the director and, in the event the license applied for is issued, a license fee at the rate provided for licenses generally. After review by the board of dental examiners, licenses issued under this section may be renewed annually if the licensee continues to be employed as a full-time faculty member of the school of dentistry of the University of Washington and otherwise meets the requirements of the provisions and conditions deemed appropriate by the board of dental examiners. Any person who obtains a license pursuant to this section may, without an additional application fee, apply for licensure under this chapter, in which case the applicant shall be subject to examination and the other requirements of this chapter. [1985 c 111 § 1.]

18.32.210 Reciprocity with other states—Incoming dentists. Any dentist who has been lawfully licensed to practice in another state or territory which has and maintains a standard for the practice of dentistry or dental surgery which in the opinion of the board is equal to that at the time maintained in this state, and who has been lawfully and continuously engaged in the practice of dentistry for five years or more immediately before filing his application to practice in this state and who shall deposit in person with the director a duly attested certificate from the examining board of the state or territory in which he is registered, certifying to the fact of his registration and of his being a person of good moral character and of professional attainments, may, upon the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and after satisfactory practical examination demonstrating his proficiency, be granted a license to practice dentistry in this state, without being required to take an examination in theory: Provided, however, That no license shall be issued to any such applicant, unless the state or territory from which such certificate has been granted to such applicant shall have extended a like privilege to engage in the practice of dentistry within its own borders to dentists heretofore and hereafter licensed by this state, and removing to such other state: And provided further, That the Washington state board of dental examiners shall have power to enter into reciprocal relations with similar boards of other states whose laws are practically identical with the provisions of this chapter. [1985 c 7 § 27; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 32; 1969 c 49 § 4; 1935 c 112 § 13; RRS § 10031-13.]

18.32.220 Certificate available for dentists going out-of-state. Any one who is a legal and competent practitioner of dentistry or dental surgery in the state of Washington, and of good moral character and known to the board of dental examiners of this state as such, who desires to change his or her residence to another state or territory, shall, upon application to the board of dental examiners, receive a certificate over the signature of the president and secretary of said board, which shall attest the facts above mentioned, and giving the date upon which he was registered and licensed. [1935 c 112 § 14; RRS § 10031-14. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1935 c 112 § 15; RRS § 10031-15, now codified as RCW 18.32.225.]

18.32.225 Certificate available for dentists going out-of-state—Fee for issuance. The fee for issuing a certificate to a legal practitioner of this state under RCW 18.32.220 shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and in each case the fee shall be paid to the director before the certificate shall be issued. [1985 c 7 § 28; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 33; 1935 c 112 § 15; RRS § 10031-15. Formerly RCW 18.32-.220, part.]

18.32.230 Refusal of license—Hearing before disciplinary board. The director shall refuse to issue the license provided for in this chapter to any individual who is guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW 18.32.530.

Upon refusal of a license upon the ground of unprofessional conduct, the applicant may apply for a hearing before the dental disciplinary board. Such hearing shall be governed by the procedure set forth in this chapter and the applicant shall have all the rights accorded to an accused license holder, including the right to appeal from an adverse decision. In case of the refusal of a license by the dental disciplinary board, said board shall file a brief and concise statement of the grounds and reasons therefor in the office of the director which, together with the decision of the hearing committee of the dental disciplinary board, in writing, shall remain of record therein. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 30; 1935 c 112 § 8; RRS § 10031-8.]

18.32.290 Advertising—False—Credit terms. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to publish, directly or indirectly, or circulate any fraudulent, false or misleading statements within the state of Washington as to the skill or method of practice of any person or operator; or in any way to advertise in print any matter with a view of deceiving the public, or in any way that will tend to deceive or defraud the public; or to claim superiority over neighboring dental practitioners; or to publish reports of cases or certificates of same in any public advertising media; or to advertise as using any anesthetic, drug, formula, medicine, which is either falsely advertised or misnamed; or to advertise any amount as a price or fee for the service or services of any person engaged as principal or agent in the practice of dentistry, or for any material or materials whatsoever used or to be used, or to employ "capper" or "steerers" to obtain patronage; or to give a public demonstration of skill or methods of practicing dentistry upon or along the streets or highways; and any person committing any offense against any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be subjected to such penalties as are provided in this chapter: Provided, That any person licensed under this chapter may announce credit, terms of credit or installment payments that may be made at periodical intervals to apply on account of any dental service rendered: And provided further, That any person licensed under this chapter shall not advertise any specific amount of credit, terms of credit or installment payments that may be made at periodical intervals to apply on account of any dental service rendered. [1935 c 112 § 20; RRS § 10031-20.]

False advertising: RCW 9.04.010.

18.32.310 Practice or solicitation by corporations prohibited—Penalty. No corporation shall practice dentistry or shall solicit through itself, or its agent, officers, employees, directors or trustees, dental patronage for any dentists or dental surgeon employed by any corporation: Provided, That nothing contained in this chapter shall prohibit a corporation from employing a dentist or dentists to render dental services to its employees: Provided, further, That such dental services shall be rendered at no cost or charge to the employees; nor shall it apply to corporations or associations in which the dental services were originated and are being conducted upon a purely charitable basis for the worthy poor, nor shall it apply to corporations or associations furnishing information or clerical services which can be furnished by persons not licensed to practice dentistry, to any person lawfully engaged in the practice of dentistry, when such dentist assumes full responsibility for such information and services. Any corporation violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and each day that this chapter is violated shall be considered a separate offense. [1935 c 112 § 19; RRS § 10031-19.]

18.32.320 Prescriptions—Filled by druggists. Registered pharmacists of this state may fill prescriptions of legally licensed dentists of this state for any drug necessary in the practice of dentistry. [1935 c 112 § 26; RRS § 10031-26. Prior: 1923 c 16 § 24.]

Pharmacists: Chapter 18.64 RCW.

18.32.330 Sanitary regulations. It shall be the duty of every person engaged in the practice of dentistry or who shall own, operate, or manage any dental office to keep said office and dental equipment in a thoroughly clean and sanitary condition. [1935 c 112 § 27; RRS § 10031-27. Prior: 1923 c 16 § 25.]

18.32.340 Unlawful practice—Hygienists—Penalty. Any licensed dentist who shall permit any dental hygienist operating under his supervision to perform any operation required to be performed by a dentist under the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1935 c 112 § 28; RRS § 10031-28.]

Similar provision for dental hygienists: RCW 18.29.090.

18.32.350 Unlawful practice—Employing unlicensed dentist—Penalty. No manager, proprietor, partnership, or association owning, operating, or controlling any room, office, or dental parlors, where dental work is done, provided, or contracted for, shall employ or retain any unlicensed person or dentist as an operator; nor shall fail, within ten days after demand made by the director, the state board of dental examiners, or the dental disciplinary board in writing sent by certified mail, addressed to any such manager, proprietor, partnership, or association at said room, office, or dental parlor, to furnish the director, the state board of dental examiners, or the dental disciplinary board with the names and addresses of all persons practicing or assisting in the practice of dentistry in his place of business or under his control, together with a sworn statement showing by what license or authority said persons are practicing dentistry.

The sworn statement shall not be used as evidence in any subsequent court proceedings, except in a prosecution for perjury connected with its execution.

Any violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute improper, unprofessional, and dishonorable conduct; it shall also constitute grounds for injunction proceedings as provided by this chapter and in addition shall constitute a gross misdemeanor, except that the failure to furnish the information as may be requested in accordance with this section shall constitute a misdemeanor. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 31; 1957 c 52 § 38; 1953 c 93 § 7. Prior: 1937 c 45 § 1, part; 1935 c 112 § 18, part; RRS § 10031-18, part.]

18.32.360 Unlawful practice—Names used—Advertising—Penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice dentistry under any name, except his own, which shall be that used in his license issued by the director: Provided, That this shall not apply to any person who was practicing dentistry in this state on March 20, 1935, under an association or trade name.

It shall be unlawful for any person to conduct a dental office in his name, or to advertise his name in connection with any dental offices, unless he is personally present therein operating as a dentist, or personally overseeing the operations performed in any office, during most of the time that that office is being operated: Provided, That this section shall not prohibit any person from continuing to conduct any offices legally conducted in this state on March 20, 1935.

Any violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute improper, unprofessional and dishonorable conduct; it shall also constitute grounds for injunction proceedings as provided by this chapter, and in addition shall constitute a gross misdemeanor. [1957 c 52 § 39. Prior: 1937 c 45 § 1, part; 1935 c 112 § 18, part; RRS § 10031-18, part.]

18.32.380 Enforcement provisions—Injunctions. The attorney general, each prosecuting attorney, the director, the state board of dental examiners, the dental disciplinary board, or any citizen of any county where any person shall engage in the practice of dentistry as herein defined without possessing a valid license so to do, may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin such person from engaging in the practice of dentistry as herein defined until a valid license to practice dentistry be secured: Provided, however, That such injunction shall not relieve such person so practicing dentistry without a valid license from criminal prosecution therefor, but such remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 32; 1935 c 112 § 23; RRS § 10031-23.]

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

18.32.390 Penalty—General. Any person who shall practice or offer to practice dentistry in this state without being registered or without a license for that purpose, or violates any of the provisions of the chapter for which no specific penalty has been provided herein, shall be subject to prosecution before any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1935 c 112 § 16; RRS § 10031-16. Prior: 1901 c 152 § 4; 1893 c 55 § 8.]

18.32.400 Dentist members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of dentists—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.32.410 Dentists filing charges or presenting evidence before dental society committee or board—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.250.

18.32.420 Records of dental society committees or boards not subject to civil process. See RCW 4.24.250.

DENTAL DISCIPLINARY BOARD ACT

18.32.500 Short title. RCW 18.32.510 through 18.32.780 shall be known and may be cited as the "Dental Disciplinary Board Act". [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 37.]

18.32.510 Legislative declaration. The legislature finds that the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance.

The legislature further finds that the conduct of members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state.

The legislature further finds that there is no effective means of handling disciplinary proceedings against members of the dental profession licensed in this state when such proceedings are necessary for the protection of the public health.

Therefore, the legislature declares its intention to exercise the police power of the state to protect the public health, to promote the welfare of the state, and to provide a dental disciplinary board to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the dental profession licensed to practice dentistry in this state. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 1.]

18.32.520 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout RCW 18.32.510, and 18.32.530 through 18.32.780.

(1) "Board" means the dental disciplinary board created in RCW 18.32.560.

(2) "License" means a certificate or license to practice dentistry in this state as provided for in this chapter.

(3) "Member" means member of the dental disciplinary board.

(4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the dental disciplinary board.

(5) "Director" means the director of licensing of the state of Washington.

(6) "To practice dentistry" means to engage in the practice of dentistry as defined in RCW 18.32.020. [1979 c 158 § 36; 1977 ex.s. c 5 § 2.]

18.32.530 "Unprofessional conduct". The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780 and in RCW 18.32.230 as now or hereafter amended shall mean any one of the following items or any combination thereof:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, which act relates to a person's fitness to practice dentistry; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at an ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent dentist of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of said respondent dentist's violation of the statute upon which it is based: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to affect or alter the provisions of RCW 9.96A.020;

(2) Making any misrepresentation or false promise directly or indirectly to influence, persuade or induce dental patronage, or engaging in any other improper, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct in the practice of dentistry;

(3) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice dentistry or in the reinstatement of such license;

(4) Division of fees or agreeing to split or divide the fees received for dental services with any person for bringing or referring a patient, or for assisting in the care or treatment of a patient, without the knowledge of said patient or the patient's legal representative;

(5) Employing, procuring, inducing, aiding, or abetting a person not licensed or registered as a dentist to engage in the practice of dentistry. The person practiced upon shall not be deemed an accomplice, employer, procurer, inducer, aider, or abettor within the meaning of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780;

(6) Professional connection or association with or lending a dentist's name to another for the illegal practice of dentistry by another, or professional connection or association with any person, firm or corporation holding itself out in any manner contrary to this chapter;

(7) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner;

(8) Suspension or revocation of the dentist's license to practice dentistry by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(9) Gross incompetency in the practice of dentistry;

(10) Gross, wilful and continued overcharging for professional services;

(11) Wilful or repeated violations of lawful rules established by any health officer of the state or any municipal corporation or division thereof;

(12) Habitual intoxication or addiction to the use of controlled substances;

(13) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes or in violation of law;

(14) Any conduct in violation of this chapter;

(15) Wilful violation of RCW 18.32.540 or wilful disregard of a subpoena or notice of the dental disciplinary board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 3.]

18.32.533 Unprofessional conduct—Abrogation of copayment provisions. It is unprofessional conduct under this chapter and chapter 18.130 RCW for a dentist to abrogate the copayment provisions of a contract by accepting the payment received from a third party payer as full payment. [1985 c 202 § 1.]

18.32.535 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The dental disciplinary board may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 31.]

18.32.540 Obligation to cooperate with board—Failure deemed unprofessional conduct. It shall be the duty and obligation of a dentist against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the dental disciplinary board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

(1) Furnishing any papers or documents;

(2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;

(3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such dentist fail to cooperate with the board in the manner provided for in this section, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 4.]

18.32.550 Suspension of dentist's license for mental incompetency or illness, physical condition, etc.—

Procedure—Examination—Reinstatement. (1) In the event that a dentist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, said dentist's license shall be suspended automatically by the dental disciplinary board upon entry of the court's decree or judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the dental disciplinary board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a dentist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of controlled substances, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such dentist for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the dentist to adequately conduct practice. In enforcing this subsection the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a dentist to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board and at least one of whom may be chosen by the charged party. Failure of a dentist to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such dentist's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the dentist's control, and as a result of such refusal a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A dentist affected under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity by the board to demonstrate that said dentist can resume the competent practice of dentistry with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection, every dentist licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice dentistry in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice dentistry in this state, be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication.

In any proceeding under this subsection, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a dentist in any other proceeding. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 5.]

18.32.560 Board created—Composition—Attorney general as legal counsel. There is hereby created the Washington state dental disciplinary board, which shall be composed of five members, each of whom shall be a resident of this state engaged in the active practice of dentistry and who shall have been licensed to practice dentistry in this state for a period of five years or more prior to appointment to the board. Of the five members appointed to the board, two members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry east of the summit of the Cascade range and the other three members shall reside and engage in the active practice of dentistry west of the summit of the Cascade range.

The attorney general shall be counsel to the board and shall represent it in all legal proceedings.

In addition to the members specified in this section, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the board. The consumer member shall serve a term of six years commencing on October 1st. [1984 c 279 § 51; 1977 ex.s. c 5 § 6.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.32.570 Appointment of board members—Terms. Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor from among the holders of licenses to practice dentistry residing in this state and shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. The members of the first board shall serve for the following terms: Two members for two years, two members for four years, and one member for six years. Thereafter members of the board shall be appointed to terms of six years. The position of the members first appointed for the term of four years shall be held in such first term and in successive terms by the members residing east of the Cascade summit. The terms of office of members shall commence on October 1st. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 7.]

18.32.580 Vacancies. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the governor and a member appointed to fill a vacancy on the board shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term of the position to which said member was appointed and until the successor is appointed and takes office. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 8.]

18.32.590 Removal of members. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office. Whenever the governor is satisfied that any member of the board has been guilty of neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office, the governor shall file with the secretary of state a statement showing the governor's reasons, with the order of removal, and the secretary of state shall forthwith send a certified copy of such order of removal and statement of causes by registered mail to the last known post office address of the member in question. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 9.]

18.32.600 Compensation and travel expenses of members. Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03-.050 and 43.03.060 while engaged in business of the board. [1984 c 287 § 31; 1977 ex.s. c 5 § 10.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.32.610 Territorial scope of operations. The board may meet, function, and exercise its powers at any geographical location within the state. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 11.]

18.32.620 Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall elect from its members a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall meet at least once a year or upon the call of the chairman at such times and places as the chairman shall designate. Four members shall constitute a quorum to transact business. [1984 c 279 § 62; 1977 ex.s. c 5 § 12.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.32.630 Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 13.]

18.32.640 Powers and duties. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To adopt, amend and rescind such rules as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of RCW 18.32.510, and 18.32.530 through 18.32.780;

(2) To investigate all complaints and charges of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine whether or not such charges can be substantiated;

(3) To employ necessary stenographic or clerical help under the provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW;

(4) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding;

(5) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;

(6) To investigate complaints and charges of malpractice, unsafe conditions and practices, and to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 14.]

18.32.650 Complaint of unprofessional conduct—Hearing. Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the secretary charging the holder of a license to practice dentistry with unprofessional conduct, specifying the grounds therefor. If the board determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the board shall have reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that any holder of a license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the board may order that a hearing be held. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 15.]

18.32.660 Specification of charges—Preparation—Service upon accused—Notice of hearing. When a hearing is ordered by the board, the secretary shall prepare a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct made against a license holder, a copy of which shall be served upon the accused, together with a notice of the hearing, as provided in RCW 18.32.670. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 16.]

charges upon the accused. The secretary shall issue a notice of hearing of the charges, which notice shall specify the time and place of hearing and shall notify the accused that he may file with the secretary a written response within twenty days of the date of service. Such notice shall also notify the accused that a stenographic record of the proceeding will be kept, that the accused shall have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses and evidence, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against the accused, to examine witnesses testifying for the accused, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against the accused, and to have subpoenas issued by the board. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 17.]

18.32.680 Procedures governing hearings. The procedures governing contested cases before agencies under chapter 34.04 RCW shall govern all hearings before the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedures are not inconsistent with the procedures prescribed in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780; and the board shall have, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, all of the powers and duties granted to, or imposed upon, an agency by the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, which shall include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 18.]

18.32.690 Decision of board—Procedures upon finding of guilty or not guilty. Within a reasonable time after holding a hearing under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, the board shall render its decision. If a majority of the members of the board vote in favor of finding the accused guilty of unprofessional conduct as specified in the charges, or any of them, the board shall prepare written findings of fact and may thereafter prepare and file in the office of the director a certificate or order of revocation or suspension of the license to practice, in which case a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused, or the board may reprimand the accused, as it deems most appropriate. If the license holder is found not guilty, or if less than a majority of the members vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against the accused by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 19.]

18.32.700 Revocation or suspension of license—Appeal—Stay pending review. The filing by the board in the office of the director of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension after due notice, hearing, and findings in accordance with the procedure specified in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780, certifying that any holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, shall constitute a revocation or suspension of the license to practice dentistry in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the certificate or order of revocation or suspension. Such certificate or order of revocation or suspension, if appealed, may be stayed by the board or by the reviewing court upon such terms as are deemed proper. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 20.]

18.32.710 Contents of certificate or order of revocation or suspension—Retention. The certificate or order of revocation or suspension shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the certificate or order is based and the specific terms and conditions of such revocation or suspension, and shall be retained as a permanent record by the director. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 21.]

18.32.720 Conditions for issuance of license after revocation or suspension. The director shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 22.]

18.32.730 Appeal from decision of board—How initiated. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board shall have the right to a judicial review of the board's decision. Such review shall be initiated by serving on the secretary a notice of appeal and filing such notice of appeal either in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of the county in which the appellant resides, within thirty days after the filing of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 23.]

18.32.740 Appeal from decision of board—Transmittal of record, findings. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 24.]

18.32.750 Appeal from decision of board—Findings final and conclusive—Scope of review. The findings of the board, if supported by the preponderance of evidence, shall be final and conclusive. The review in the superior court shall be limited to determining whether the findings of the board are supported by the preponderance of evidence and whether the proceedings of the board were erroneous as a matter of law, or in violation of due process, or so arbitrary or capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion, or contrary to any constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 25.]

18.32.760 Appeal from decision of board—Appeal procedure—Appeal to higher court. The procedure governing appeals to the superior court by those provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW relating to contested cases, shall govern in matters of appeal from a decision of the board, insofar as applicable and to the extent such procedure is not inconsistent with the type of appeal provided in RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780. The accused may secure a review of any final judgment of the superior court by appeal to the court of appeals or the supreme court as provided in other civil cases. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 26.]

18.32.770 Review when certificate or order of revocation or suspension not timely filed. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 27.]

18.32.780 Application for reinstatement of license—Procedure. Any person whose license has been suspended or revoked under the provisions of RCW 18.32.530 through 18.32.780 may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof and issue a certificate of reinstatement to the director. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 28.]

18.32.900 Severability—1935 c 112. Should any section of this act for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the act. [1935 c 112 § 29.]

18.32.910 Severability—1953 c 93. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1953 c 93 § 9.]

18.32.915 Severability—1977 ex.s. c 5. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1977 ex.s. c 5 § 36.]

18.32.916 Severability—1979 c 38. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 c 38 § 4.]

18.34.010 Licensing—Exemptions—Limitations. Nothing in this chapter shall:

(1) Be construed to limit or restrict a duly licensed physician or optometrist or employees working under the personal supervision of a duly licensed physician or optometrist from the practices enumerated in this chapter, and each such licensed physician and optometrist shall have all the rights and privileges which may accrue under this chapter to dispensing opticians licensed hereunder;

(2) Be construed to prohibit an unlicensed person from performing mechanical work upon inert matter in an optical office, laboratory or shop;

(3) Be construed to prohibit an unlicensed person from engaging in the sale of spectacles, eyeglasses, magnifying glasses, goggles, sunglasses, telescopes, binoculars, or any such articles which are completely preassembled and sold only as merchandise;

(4) Be construed to authorize or permit a licensee hereunder to hold himself out as being able to, or to offer to, or to undertake to attempt, by any manner of means, to examine or exercise eyes, diagnose, treat, correct, relieve, operate or prescribe for any human ailment, deficiency, deformity, disease or injury. [1957 c 43 § 1.]

18.34.020 Definitions. The term "director" wherever used in this chapter shall mean the director of licensing of the state of Washington. The term "apprentice" wherever used in this chapter shall mean a person who shall be designated an apprentice in the records of the director at the request of a physician, registered optometrist or licensee hereunder, and who shall thereafter receive from such physician, registered optometrist or licensee hereunder training and direct supervision in the work of a dispensing optician. [1979 c 158 § 37; 1957 c 43 § 2.]

18.34.030 Apprentices. No licensee hereunder may have more than two apprentices in training at one time: Provided, That the licensee shall be responsible for the acts of his apprentices in the performance of their work in the apprenticeship program: Provided further, That apprentices shall complete their apprenticeship in six years and shall not work longer as an apprentice unless the director determines, after a hearing, that the apprentice was prevented by causes beyond his control from completing his apprenticeship and becoming a licensee hereunder in six years. [1957 c 43 § 3.]

18.34.040 Administration of chapter. This chapter shall be administered under and pursuant to the administrative code of the state of Washington contained in chapter 7, Laws of 1921 and chapter 43.24 RCW, as amended from time to time. [1957 c 43 § 4.]

18.34.050 Examining committee—Compensation and travel expenses. The examining committee shall consist of three persons primarily engaged in the business of dispensing opticians and who currently hold a valid license under this chapter. Members of the committee shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 32; 1957 c 43 § 5.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.34.060 Dispensing optician. A dispensing optician is a person who prepares duplications of, or prepares and dispenses lenses, spectacles, eyeglasses and/or appurtenances thereto to the intended wearers thereof on written prescriptions from physicians or optometrists, and in accordance with such prescriptions, measures, adapts, adjusts and fabricates such lenses, spectacles, eyeglasses and/or appurtenances thereto to the human face for the aid or correction of visual or ocular anomalies of the human eye: Provided, however, That contact lenses may be fitted only upon a written prescription of a physician or optometrist. [1957 c 43 § 6.]

18.34.070 Applicants—Eligibility for examination—Fee. Any applicant for a license shall be examined if he pays an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and certifies under oath that:

- (1) He is eighteen years or more of age; and
- (2) He has graduated from an accredited high school; and
- (3) He is a citizen of the United States or has declared his intention of becoming such citizen in accordance with law; and
- (4) He is of good moral character; and
- (5) He has either:
  - (a) Had at least three years of apprenticeship training; or

(b) Successfully completed a prescribed course in opticianry in a college or university approved by the director; or

(c) Been principally engaged in practicing as a dispensing optician not in the state of Washington for five years. [1985 c 7 § 29; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 34; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 22; 1957 c 43 § 7.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.34.080 Examination—Issuance and display of license. The examination shall determine whether the applicant has a thorough knowledge of the principles governing the practice of a dispensing optician which is hereby declared necessary for the protection of the public health. The director shall license successful examinees and the license shall be conspicuously displayed in the place of business of the licensee. [1957 c 43 § 8.]

18.34.090 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Grounds. A license may be suspended or revoked when a licensee:

(1) Has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude; or

(2) Is addicted to the use of alcohol or any drug; or

(3) Has used advertising, whether printed, radio, display, or of any other nature, which is fraudulent, misleading or inaccurate in any material particular, or misrepresents in any way any goods, services, or credit terms, values, policies, services or the nature or form of the business conducted; or

(4) Has practiced fraud or deception in his application for or in his examination for license; or

(5) Has used the word "licensed," "registered," or any of their synonyms publicly, except as provided in RCW 18.34.080; or

(6) Has displayed or published, directly or indirectly by any means, a price, terms of payment, or a discount or a policy or practice of generally underselling competitors, or any reference to the benefits available to the subscribers to any prepaid health plan; or

(7) Has participated in the division, assignment, rebate or refund of fees to a physician or optometrist in consideration of patient referrals; or

(8) Has bartered or given away as premiums in any manner either on his own account or as agent or representative for any other person, firm or corporation, any eyeglasses, spectacles, lenses or frames; or

(9) Has advertised the "free examinations of eyes," "free consultation," "consultation without obligation," "free advice," or any words or phrases of similar import which convey the impression to the public that eyes are examined free or of a character tending to deceive or mislead the public, or in the nature of "bait advertising"; or

(10) Has employed either directly or indirectly, any person commonly known as "cappers" or "steerers" to obtain business; or

(11) Has solicited, or employed any person to solicit from house to house; or

(12) Has used advertising offering a service to the public for which he is not licensed hereunder: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prohibit the optician from advertising merchandise for which the license which is the subject of this chapter is not required; or

(13) Has engaged in a group contract for the duplication of eyeglasses or spectacles without a written prescription from an optometrist or physician; or

(14) Has advertised the services of any other segment of the healing arts; or

(15) Has violated subsections (10) to (17) [(15)] inclusive of RCW 18.53.140. [1957 c 43 § 9.]

18.34.100 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Reissuance and reinstatement. The director, after a hearing, may for good cause reissue or reinstate the license of a person whose license has been revoked or suspended. [1957 c 43 § 10.]

18.34.110 Existing practitioner—Fee. The director shall issue a license without examination to any person who makes application therefor within six months after the effective date of this chapter, pays a fee of fifty dollars and certifies under oath that he is of good moral character and has been actually and principally engaged in the practice of a dispensing optician in the state of Washington for a period of not less than six months immediately preceding the effective date of this chapter. [1957 c 43 § 11.]

Reviser's note: The effective date of this chapter was midnight, June 12, 1957; see preface to 1957 session laws.

18.34.120 Annual renewal—Fee—Reinstatement—Penalty—Establishment of continuing education requirements optional. Each licensee hereunder shall pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, on or before the first day of July of each year, and thereupon the license of such person shall be renewed for a period of one year. Any failure to pay the annual renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor to the director and payment of a penalty determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all delinquent annual license renewal fees. In addition, the director of licensing may adopt rules establishing mandatory continuing education requirements to be met by persons applying for license renewal. [1984 c 279 § 52; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 35; 1957 c 43 § 12.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.34.130 Disposition of fees. All fees required to be paid under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer to be paid into the state general fund. [1982 c 227 § 6; 1957 c 43 § 13.]

Reviser's note: RCW 18.34.130 was repealed by 1983 c 168 § 13 without cognizance of its amendment by 1982 c 227 § 6.

18.34.130 Optician's account created—Disposition of fees. [1957 c 43 § 13.] Repealed by 1983 c 168 § 13.

18.34.135 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 32.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.34.140 Practicing without license—Penalty. It shall be a gross misdemeanor for any person to practice as a dispensing optician without a license or while his license is suspended or revoked. [1957 c 43 § 14.]

18.34.150 Unlawful practice may be enjoined. If any person engages in the practice of a dispensing optician without possessing a valid license to do so, or if he violates the provisions of RCW 18.34.090, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin such person from engaging in practice as a dispensing optician. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to suspension or revocation of his license. [1957 c 43 § 15.]

18.34.900 Severability—1957 c 43. If any provisions of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1957 c 43 § 16.]

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.35.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.35.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise:

- (1) "Department" means the department of licensing.
- (2) "Council" means the council on hearing aids.
- (3) "Hearing aid" means any wearable prosthetic instrument or device designed for or represented as aiding, improving, compensating for, or correcting defective human hearing and any parts, attachments, or accessories of such an instrument or device, excluding batteries and cords and ear molds.
- (4) "Fitting and dispensing of hearing aids" means the sale, lease, or rental or attempted sale, lease, or rental of hearing aids together with the selection and adaptation of hearing aids and the use of those tests and procedures essential to the performance of these functions. It includes the taking of impressions for ear molds for these purposes.
- (5) "Director" means the director of licensing.
- (6) "Establishment" means any facility engaged in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids. [1983 c 39 § 1; 1979 c 158 § 38; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 1.]

18.35.020 License required—Hearing aid establishments' responsibilities. No person shall engage in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids or imply or represent that he or she is engaged in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids unless he or she holds a valid license issued by the department as provided in this chapter. The owner or manager of a hearing aid establishment is responsible under this chapter for all transactions made in the establishment name or conducted on its premises by agents or employees of the establishment engaged in fitting and dispensing hearing aids. Every establishment shall have in its employ at least one licensed fitter-dispenser at all times, and shall annually submit proof that all audiometric equipment at that establishment has been properly calibrated. [1983 c 39 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s c 106 § 2.]

18.35.030 Receipt required—Contents. Any person who engages in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids shall provide to each person who enters into an agreement to purchase a hearing aid a receipt at the time of the agreement containing the following information:

(1) The seller's name, signature, license number, address, and phone number of his or her regular place of business;

(2) A description of the aid furnished, including make, model, and the term "used" or "reconditioned" if applicable;

(3) A disclosure of the cost of all services including but not limited to the cost of testing and fitting, the actual cost of the hearing aid furnished, the cost of ear molds if any, and the terms of the sale. These costs, including the cost of ear molds, shall be known as the total purchase price. The receipt shall also contain a statement of the purchaser's rescission rights under this chapter and an acknowledgment that the purchaser has read and understands these rights. Upon request, the purchaser shall also be supplied with a signed and dated copy of any hearing evaluation performed by the seller.

(4) At the time of delivery of the hearing aid, the purchaser shall also be furnished with the serial number of the hearing aid supplied. [1983 c 39 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 3.]

18.35.040 Applicants—Fee—Requirements. An applicant for license shall be at least eighteen years of age and shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. An applicant shall not be issued a license under the provisions of this chapter unless the applicant:

(1) Satisfactorily completes the examination required by this chapter; or

(2) Holds a current, unsuspended, unrevoked license or certificate from a state or jurisdiction with which the department has entered into a reciprocal agreement, and shows evidence satisfactory to the department that the applicant is licensed in good standing in the other jurisdiction; and

(3) Provides proof satisfactory to the department that the licensee has obtained the surety bond coverage required under this chapter. [1985 c 7 § 30; 1983 c 39 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 36; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 4.]

18.35.050 Examination—Required—When offered—Review. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter an applicant for license shall appear at a time and place and before such persons as the department may designate to be examined by written and practical tests. The department shall give an examination during the second full week in January and during the third full week in July each year. The examination shall be reviewed annually by the council and the department, and revised as necessary. No examination of any established association may be used as the exclusive replacement for the examination approved and developed by the council. [1983 c 39 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 5.]

18.35.060 Trainee license—Requirements—Fee—Contents—Authority of trainee—Expiration—Reissuance. (1) The department shall issue a trainee license to any applicant who has shown to the satisfaction of the department that:

(a) The applicant is at least eighteen years of age;

(b) If issued a trainee license, would be employed and directly supervised in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids by a person licensed in good standing as a fitter–dispenser for at least one year unless otherwise approved by the council; and

(c) Has paid an application fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, to the department.

The provisions of RCW 18.35.030, 18.35.110, and 18.35.120 shall apply to any person issued a trainee license. Pursuant to the provisions of this section, a person issued a trainee license may engage in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids without having first passed the examination provided under this chapter.

(2) The trainee license shall contain the name of the person licensed under this chapter who is employing and supervising the trainee and that person shall execute an acknowledgment of responsibility for all acts of the trainee in connection with the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids.

(3) A trainee may fit and dispense hearing aids, but only if the trainee is under the direct supervision of a person licensed under this chapter in a capacity other than as a trainee. Direct supervision by a licensed fitter–dispenser shall be required whenever the trainee is engaged in the fitting or dispensing of hearing aids during the trainee's first three months of full–time employment. The council shall develop and adopt guidelines on any additional supervision or training it deems necessary.

(4) The trainee license shall expire one year from the date of its issuance except that on recommendation of the council the license may be reissued for one additional year only.

(5) No person licensed under this chapter may assume the responsibility for more than two trainees at any one time, except that the department may approve one additional trainee if none of the trainees is within the initial ninety–day period of direct supervision and the licensee demonstrates to the department's satisfaction that adequate supervision will be provided for all trainees. [1985 c 7 § 31; 1983 c 39 § 6; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 37; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 6.]

18.35.070 Examination—Contents—Tests. The examination provided in RCW 18.35.050 shall consist of:

(1) Tests of knowledge in the following areas as they pertain to the fitting of hearing aids:

(a) Basic physics of sound;

(b) The human hearing mechanism, including the science of hearing and the causes and rehabilitation of abnormal hearing and hearing disorders; and

(c) Structure and function of hearing aids.

(2) Tests of proficiency in the following techniques as they pertain to the fitting of hearing aids:

(a) Pure tone audiometry, including air conduction testing and bone conduction testing;

(b) Live voice or recorded voice speech audiometry, including speech reception threshold testing and speech discrimination testing;

(c) Effective masking;

(d) Recording and evaluation of audiograms and speech audiometry to determine hearing aid candidacy;

(e) Selection and adaptation of hearing aids and testing of hearing aids; and

(f) Taking ear mold impressions.

(3) Evidence of knowledge regarding the medical and rehabilitation facilities for children and adults that are available in the area served.

(4) Evidence of knowledge of grounds for revocation or suspension of license under the provisions of this chapter.

(5) Any other tests as the department may by rule establish. [1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 7.]

18.35.080 License—Issuance—Fee—Duration. The department shall license each applicant, without discrimination, who satisfactorily completes the required examination and, upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 to the department, shall issue to the applicant a license. The license shall be effective until December 31st of the year in which it is issued. [1985 c 7 § 32; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 38; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 8.]

18.35.090 Renewal fee—Display of license—Continuing education requirements or competency standards. Each person who engages in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids shall annually, on the anniversary of his or her license, or as the department prescribes by rule, pay to the department a fee established by the director under RCW 43.24.086 for a renewal of the license and shall keep the license conspicuously posted in the place of business at all times. A thirty-day grace period shall be allowed after the applicable renewal date during which licenses may be renewed on payment of a penalty fee established by the director under RCW 43.24.086. Any person who fails to renew his or her license prior to the expiration of the grace period must satisfy the requirements of this chapter for initial licensure, including taking a new examination. The director may by rule establish mandatory continuing education requirements and/or continued competency standards to be met by licensees as a condition for license renewal. [1985 c 7 § 33; 1983 c 39 § 7; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 9.]

18.35.100 Place of business. (1) Every person who holds a license under this chapter shall notify the department in writing of the regular address of the place or places in the state of Washington where the person engages or intends to engage in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids and of any change thereof within ten days of such change. Failure to notify the department in writing shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of license.

(2) The department shall keep a record of the places of business of persons who hold licenses.

(3) Any notice required to be given by the department to a person who holds a license may be given by mailing it to the address of the last place of business of which the person has notified the department, except that notice to a licensee of proceedings to deny, suspend, or revoke the license shall be by certified or registered mail or by means authorized for service of process. [1983 c 39 § 8; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 10.]

18.35.105 Records—Contents. Each licensee shall keep records of all services rendered for a period of three years. These records shall contain the names and addresses of all persons to whom services were provided, the date the warranty expires, a description of the services and the dates the services were provided, and copies of any contracts and receipts. [1983 c 39 § 16.]

18.35.110 Disciplinary action—Grounds. Any person licensed under this chapter may be subject to disciplinary action by the council for any of the following causes:

(1) The licensee, in the application for the license, or in any written or oral communication to the department concerning the issuance or retention of the license, has made any material misstatement of fact, or has omitted to disclose any material fact which makes that which is stated misleading.

(2) For unethical conduct, or for gross incompetence in dealing in hearing aids. Unethical conduct shall include, but not be limited to:

(a) Using or causing or promoting the use of, in any advertising matter, promotional literature, testimonial, guarantee, warranty, label, brand, insignia, or any other representation, however disseminated or published, which is false, misleading or deceptive;

(b) Employing directly or indirectly any suspended or unlicensed person to perform any work covered by this chapter;

(c) Failing or refusing to honor or to perform as represented any representation, promise, agreement, or warranty in connection with the promotion, sale, dispensing, or fitting of the hearing aid;

(d) Advertising a particular model, type, or kind of hearing aid for sale which purchasers or prospective purchasers responding to the advertisement cannot purchase or are dissuaded from purchasing and where it is established that the purpose of the advertisement is to obtain prospects for the sale of a different model, type, or kind than that advertised;

(e) Falsifying hearing test or evaluation results;

(f) (i) Whenever any of the following conditions are found or should have been found to exist either from observations by the licensee or on the basis of information furnished by the prospective hearing aid user prior to fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any such prospective hearing aid user, failing to advise that prospective hearing aid user in writing that the user should first consult a licensed physician specializing in diseases of the ear or if no such licensed physician is available in the community then to any duly licensed physician:

(A) Visible congenital or traumatic deformity of the ear, including perforation of the eardrum;

(B) History of, or active drainage from the ear within the previous ninety days;

(C) History of sudden or rapidly progressive hearing loss within the previous ninety days;

(D) Acute or chronic dizziness;

(E) Any unilateral hearing loss;

(F) Significant air-bone gap when generally acceptable standards have been established as defined by the food and drug administration;

(G) Visible evidence of significant cerumen accumulation or a foreign body in the ear canal;

(H) Pain or discomfort in the ear; or

(I) Any other conditions that the department may by rule establish. It is a violation of this subsection for any licensee or that licensee's employees and putative agents upon making such required referral for medical opinion to in any manner whatsoever disparage or discourage a prospective hearing aid user from seeking such medical opinion prior to the fitting and dispensing of a hearing aid. No such referral for medical opinion need be made by any licensee in the instance of replacement only of a hearing aid which has been lost or damaged beyond repair within six months of the date of purchase. The licensee or the licensee's employees or putative agents shall obtain a signed statement from the hearing aid user documenting the waiver of medical clearance and the waiver shall inform the prospective user that signing the waiver is not in the user's best health interest: Provided, That the licensee shall maintain a copy of either the physician's statement showing that the prospective hearing aid user has had a medical evaluation or the statement waiving medical evaluation, for a period of three years after the purchaser's receipt of a hearing aid. Nothing in this section required to be performed by a licensee shall mean that the licensee is engaged in the diagnosis of illness or the practice of medicine or any other activity prohibited under the laws of this state;

(ii) Fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any person under eighteen years of age who has not been examined and cleared for hearing aid use within the previous six months by a physician specializing in otolaryngology except in the case of replacement instruments or except in the case of the parents or guardian of such person refusing, for good cause, to seek medical opinion: Provided, That should the parents or guardian of such person refuse, for good cause, to seek medical opinion, the licensee shall obtain from such parents or guardian a certificate to that effect in a form as prescribed by the department;

(iii) Fitting and dispensing a hearing aid to any person under eighteen years of age who has not been examined by an audiologist who holds at least a master's degree in audiology for recommendations during the previous six months, without first advising such person or his or her parents or guardian in writing that he or she should first consult an audiologist who holds at least a master's degree in audiology, except in cases of hearing aids replaced within six months of their purchase;

(g) Representing that the services or advice of a person licensed to practice medicine and surgery under chapter 18.71 RCW or osteopathy and surgery under chapter 18.57 RCW or of a clinical audiologist will be used or made available in the selection, fitting, adjustment, maintenance, or repair of hearing aids when that is not true, or using the word "doctor," "clinic," or other like words, abbreviations, or symbols which tend to connote a medical or osteopathic profession when such use is not accurate;

(h) Permitting another to use his or her license;

(i) Stating or implying that the use of any hearing aid will restore normal hearing, preserve hearing, prevent or retard progression of a hearing impairment, or any other false, misleading, or medically or audilogically unsupported claim regarding the efficiency of a hearing aid;

(j) Representing or implying that a hearing aid is or will be "custom-made," "made to order," "prescription made," or in any other sense specially fabricated for an individual when that is not the case; or

(k) Directly or indirectly offering, giving, permitting, or causing to be given, money or anything of value to any person who advised another in a professional capacity as an inducement to influence that person, or to have that person influence others to purchase or contract to purchase any product sold or offered for sale by the licensee, or to influence any person to refrain from dealing in the products of competitors.

(3) Engaging in the fitting or dispensing of hearing aids while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving risk to the public.

(4) Dealing in hearing aids under a false, misleading, or deceptive name.

(5) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules adopted by this chapter.

(6) Failure to properly and reasonably accept responsibility for the actions of his or her employees.

(7) Engaging in any unfair or deceptive practice or unfair method of competition in trade within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020 as now or hereafter amended.

(8) Aiding or abetting any violation of the rebating laws as stated in chapter 19.68 RCW. [1983 c 39 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 11.]

18.35.120 Disciplinary action—Additional grounds. A licensee under this chapter may also be subject to disciplinary action if the licensee:

(1) Is found guilty in any court of any crime involving forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, or conspiracy to defraud and ten years have not elapsed since the date of the conviction; or

(2) Has a judgment entered against him or her in any civil action involving forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, or conspiracy to defraud and five years have not elapsed since the date of the entry of the final judgment in the action, but a license shall not be issued unless the judgment debt has been discharged; or

(3) Has a judgment entered against him or her under chapter 19.86 RCW and two years have not elapsed since the entry of the final judgment; but a license shall not be issued unless there has been full compliance with the terms of such judgment, if any. The judgment shall not be grounds for denial, suspension, nonrenewal, or revocation of a license unless the judgment arises out of and is based on acts of the applicant, licensee, or employee of the licensee. [1983 c 39 § 10; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 12.]

Penalties authorized: RCW 18.35.161.

18.35.140 Powers and duties of department. The powers and duties of the department, in addition to the powers and duties provided under other sections of this chapter, are as follows:

(1) To purchase and maintain or rent audiometric equipment and facilities necessary to carry out the examination of applicants for license.

(2) To authorize all disbursements necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(3) To require the periodic examination of the audiometric testing equipment and to carry out the periodic inspection of facilities of persons who deal in hearing aids, as reasonably required within the discretion of the department. [1983 c 39 § 11; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 14.]

18.35.150 Council on hearing aids—Created—Membership—Qualifications—Terms—Vacancies—Meetings—Compensation—Travel expenses. (1) There is created hereby the council on hearing aids. The council shall consist of nine members to be appointed by the governor.

(2) Members of the council shall be residents of this state. Five members shall be persons experienced in the fitting of hearing aids who shall hold valid licenses under this chapter. One member shall be a medical doctor specializing in diseases of the ear. One member shall be a nondispensing audiologist. Two members shall represent the public.

(3) The term of office of a member is three years, except that the governor may appoint the initial members to one or two year terms to ensure an orderly succession of members. A member shall continue to serve until a successor has been appointed and qualifies. Before a member's term expires, the governor shall appoint a successor to assume his duties at the expiration of his predecessor's term. A vacancy in the office of a member shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

(4) The chairman of the council shall be elected from the membership of the council at the beginning of each year.

(5) The council shall meet at least once each year, at a place, day and hour determined by the council, unless otherwise directed by a majority of council members. The council shall also meet at such other times and places as are requested by the department or by three members of the council.

(6) Members of the council shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 33; 1983 c 39 § 12; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 35; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 15.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.35.161 Council on hearing aids—Powers and duties—Penalties authorized. The council shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To establish by rule such minimum standards and procedures in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids as deemed appropriate and in the public interest;

(2) To develop guidelines on the training and supervision of trainees;

(3) To adopt any other rules or regulations necessary to implement this chapter and which are not inconsistent with it;

(4) To develop, approve, and administer all licensing examinations required by this chapter; and

(5) To conduct all disciplinary proceedings pursuant to this chapter. All hearings conducted and all rules adopted shall be in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. If, following a hearing, the council finds that an applicant or licensee has violated any section of this chapter or any of the rules promulgated under it, the council may enter an order imposing one or more of the following penalties:

(a) Denial of an initial license or renewal;

(b) Revocation or suspension of license;

(c) A fine not to exceed one thousand dollars for each separate offense;

(d) Issuance of a reprimand or letter of censure;

(e) Placement of the licensee on probation for a period of time;

(f) Restriction of the licensee's authorized scope of practice; or

(g) Requiring the licensee to make restitution to any individual injured by the violation. [1983 c 39 § 13.]

18.35.170 Council on hearing aids—Restriction upon member taking examination. A member of the council on hearing aids shall not be permitted to take the examination provided under this chapter unless he has first satisfied the department that adequate precautions have been taken to assure that he does not and will not have any knowledge, not available to the members of the public at large, as to the contents of the examination. [1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 17.]

18.35.173 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The council on hearing aids may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 33.]

18.35.175 Unlawful sales practices. It is unlawful to sell a hearing aid to a resident of this state if the attempted sale or purchase is offered or made by telephone or mail order and there is no face-to-face contact to test or otherwise determine the needs of the prospective purchaser. This section does not apply to the sale of hearing aids by wholesalers to licensees under this chapter. [1983 c 39 § 21.]

18.35.180 Application of Consumer Protection Act and False Advertising Act. Acts and practices in the course of trade in the promoting, advertising, selling, fitting and dispensing of hearing aids shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 19.86 RCW (Consumer Protection Act) and RCW 9.04.050 (False Advertising Act) and any violation of the provisions of this chapter shall constitute violation of RCW 19.86.020. [1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 18.]

18.35.190 Valid license prerequisite to suits—Violations—Penalties—Rescission of transactions. (1) In addition to remedies otherwise provided by law, in any action brought by or on behalf of a person required to be licensed hereunder, or by any assignee or transferee thereof, arising out of the business of fitting and dispensing of hearing aids, it shall be necessary to allege and prove that the licensee at the time of the transaction held a valid license as required by this chapter, and that such license has not been suspended or revoked pursuant to RCW 18.35.110 or 18.35.120.

(2) Any person who shall engage in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids without having obtained a license or who shall wilfully and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars per violation or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six months, or both.

(3) In addition to any other rights and remedies a purchaser may have, the purchaser of a hearing aid shall have the right to rescind the transaction for other than the seller's breach if:

(a) The purchaser, for reasonable cause, returns the hearing aid or holds it at the seller's disposal: Provided, That the hearing aid is in its original condition less normal wear and tear. "Reasonable cause" shall be defined by the council but shall not include a mere change of mind on the part of the purchaser or a change of mind related to cosmetic concerns of the purchaser in wearing a hearing aid; and

(b) By sending notice of such cancellation to the licensee at the licensee's place of business by certified mail, return receipt requested, which shall be posted not later than thirty days following the date of delivery: Provided, That in the event of cancellation pursuant to this subsection or as otherwise provided by law, the licensee shall, without request, refund to the purchaser postmarked within ten days after such cancellation all deposits, including any down payment less fifteen percent of the total purchase price or one hundred dollars per hearing aid, whichever is less, and shall return all goods traded in to the licensee on account or in contemplation of the sale less any reasonable costs actually incurred in making ready for sale, goods so traded in: And provided further, That the buyer shall incur no additional liability for such cancellation.

(c) Where a purchaser has taken the steps described in subsections (a) and (b) above to cancel the purchase, and the purchaser subsequently agrees with the seller to extend the trial or rescission period, the purchaser remains entitled to receive the refund described in RCW 18.35.190(3)(b) upon demand made within sixty days of the original date of delivery or such other time as agreed to in writing by both parties. Written notice of the last date for demanding a refund shall be provided to the purchaser at the time the trial or rescission period is extended. [1983 c 39 § 14; 1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 19.]

18.35.195 Exemptions. This chapter shall not apply to federal employees, nor shall it apply to students enrolled in an accredited program who are supervised by a licensed hearing aid dispenser under the provisions of this chapter. [1983 c 39 § 22.]

18.35.200 Other laws unaffected. The provisions of this chapter shall not exclude the application of any other law to persons or circumstances covered under this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 20.]

18.35.205 Chapter exclusive. The legislature finds that the public health, safety and welfare would best be protected by uniform regulation of hearing aid fitter-dispensers throughout the state. Therefore, the provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of hearing aid fitter-dispensers and hearing aid establishments is exclusive. No political subdivision of the state of Washington within whose jurisdiction a hearing aid establishment is located may require any registrations, bonds, licenses, or permits of the establishment or its employees or charge any fee for the same or similar purposes: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall limit or abridge the authority of any political subdivision to levy and collect a general and nondiscriminatory license fee levied on all businesses, or to levy a tax based upon the gross business conducted by any firm within the political subdivision. [1983 c 39 § 24.]

18.35.210 Violations—Investigations—Subpoenas—Contempt. (1) The director or the director's designee may initiate and conduct such investigations as may be reasonably necessary to establish the existence of any alleged violations of or noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter or any rules issued hereunder. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer the director may designate, may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(2) If any individual fails to obey a subpoena or obeys a subpoena but refuses to give evidence, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon application by the director, issue to that person an order requiring the person to appear before the court, to show cause why he or she should not be compelled to obey the subpoena, and give evidence material to the matter under investigation. The failure to obey an order of the court may be punishable as contempt. [1983 c 39 § 15.]

18.35.220 Violations—Cease and desist orders—Notice—Injunctions. (1) If the council determines following notice and hearing, or following notice if no hearing was timely requested, that a person has:

(a) Violated any provisions of this chapter; or

(b) Violated any lawful order, or rule of the council an order may be issued by the council requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice. The council shall then take affirmative action as is necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) If the council makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, a temporary cease and desist order may be issued. Prior to issuing a temporary cease and desist order, the council, whenever possible, shall give notice by telephone or otherwise of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person to whom the order would be directed. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether the order becomes permanent.

(3) The department, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter, or rule or order under this chapter. Upon proper showing, injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The department shall not be required to post a bond in any court proceedings. [1983 c 39 § 17.]

18.35.230 Violations—Registered agent—Service. (1) Each licensee shall name a registered agent to accept service of process for any violation of this chapter or rule adopted under this chapter.

(2) The registered agent may be released at the expiration of four years after the license issued under this chapter has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee.

(3) Any licensee who fails to name a registered agent for service of process for violations of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter may also be served by filing two copies of the complaint with the director. Service on the director constitutes service on the licensee in this event. The director then shall transmit one copy of the complaint to the licensee within five business days after receipt of the complaint. [1983 c 39 § 19.]

18.35.240 Violations—Surety bond—Security in lieu of surety bonds—Withdrawal or cancellation of surety. (1) Every establishment engaged in the fitting and dispensing of hearing aids shall file with the department a surety bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, running to the state of Washington, for the benefit of any person injured or damaged as a result of any violation by the establishment's employees or agents of any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted by the director.

In lieu of the surety bond required by this section, the establishment may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. The security deposited with the department in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the establishment at the expiration of four years after any disciplinary proceedings involving employees or agents of the establishment, if no legal action has been instituted against the establishment or on the security deposit at the expiration of the four-year period.

(2) A surety may file with the department notice of withdrawal of the bond of the establishment. Upon filing a new bond, or upon the expiration of sixty days after the filing of notice of withdrawal by the surety, the liability of the former surety for all future acts of the establishment terminates.

(3) The department shall immediately cancel the bond given by a surety company upon being advised that the surety company's license to transact business in this state has been revoked.

(4) Upon the filing with the department notice by a surety of withdrawal of the surety on the bond of an establishment or upon the cancellation by the department of the bond of a surety under this section, the department shall immediately give notice to the establishment by certified or registered mail with return receipt requested addressed to the establishment's last place of business as filed with the department. [1983 c 39 § 18.]

18.35.250 Violations—Actions on bond or security—Commencement, when—Service—Records—Payment of judgment. (1) In addition to any other legal remedies, an action may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction upon the bond, cash deposit, or security in lieu of a surety bond required by this chapter, by any person having a claim against a licensee for any violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter. The aggregate liability of the surety to all claimants shall in no event exceed the sum of the bond.

(2) An action upon the bond or security shall be commenced by serving and filing the complaint within one year from the date of the cancellation of the bond, or in case of a cash deposit or other security deposited in lieu of the surety bond, within one year of the date of expiration of revocation of the license. Two copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, upon the department at the time the suit is started. The service constitutes service on the surety. The director shall transmit one copy of the complaint to the surety within five business days after the copy has been received.

(3) The director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits commenced under this chapter under surety bonds, or the cash or other security deposited in lieu of the surety bond. In the event that any final judgment impairs the liability of the surety upon a bond so furnished or the amount of the deposit so that there is not in effect a bond undertaking or deposit in the full amount prescribed in this section, the department shall suspend the license until the bond undertaking or deposit in the required amount, unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims, has been furnished.

(4) If a judgment is entered against the deposit or security required under this chapter, the department shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment, pay the judgment from the amount of the deposit or security. [1983 c 39 § 20.]

18.35.900 Severability—1973 1st ex.s. c 106. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provisions to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1973 1st ex.s. c 106 § 21.]

18.35.901 Severability—1983 c 39. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 39 § 23.]

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The regulation of drugless healing is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.293. RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.245 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.294.

Reviser's note: "Director" and "director of licensing" have been substituted for "board" and "board of examiners" throughout this chapter, since the state board of drugless examiners was abolished by 1921 c 7 § 135 and its powers and duties were transferred to the director of licenses by 1921 c 7 § 96, which powers and duties have subsequently devolved to the business and professions administration within the department of licensing (RCW 43.24.020).

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.36.010 Definitions—Purpose. The term "drugless therapeutics," as used in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 consists of hydrotherapy, dietetics, electrotherapy, radiography, sanitation, suggestion, mechanical and manual manipulation for the stimulation of physiological and psychological action to establish a normal condition of mind and body, including the use of severance and penetration of the skin for purposes only of withdrawing blood samples for diagnostic purposes (venipuncture), but shall in no way include the giving, prescribing, or recommending of pharmaceutical drugs and poisons for internal use, the purpose of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 being to confine practitioners under this chapter to drugless therapeutics. The legislative budget committee shall specifically study the appropriateness of venipuncture within this definition pursuant to the sunset review process provided for in chapter 43.131 RCW.

The words "certificate" and "license" shall be interchangeable terms in this chapter, but nothing in this section affects the definitions of these terms in chapter 18.120 RCW. [1985 c 131 § 1; 1919 c 36 § 13; RRS § 10123.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.020 "Separate and coordinate system". The term "separate and coordinate system" as used in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 is defined as follows:

Food science. Is the science of treating disease through the chemical action of foods, water, nonmedicinal herbs, roots, barks and all natural food elements other than pharmaceutical drugs and poisons, to bring about a normal condition of health.

Mechano-therapy. Is a system of therapeutics which enables the practitioner to know how to apply scientifically the mechanics of hydrotherapy, dietetics, circumstances, idea and manual manipulation for the stimulation of psycho and physiological action to establish a normal condition of the body.

Suggestive therapeutics. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know how to offer suggestions that will cause the mind of the patient to overcome the disease of the body and bringing mind and body into harmony, and both into harmony with environment.

Physcultopathy. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know the scientific effect of movements on the body and how to direct a system of mechanical gymnastics that restore the diseased parts or functions to a normal condition. [1919 c 36 § 12; RRS § 10122.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.030 Exemptions. Nothing in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be construed as to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of families' remedies, nor shall RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 apply to any commissioned health officer in the United States army, navy or marine hospital service, in discharge of his official duties, nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry, nor to any duly licensed physician in the practice of medicine, or surgery, nor to a person duly licensed to practice osteopathy, from using or recommending drugless methods of healing in the course of their practice, nor shall this apply to any practitioner from any other state who visits this state in response to a call to treat a particular patient: Provided, such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients within the limits of this state, nor shall RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: Provided, also that nothing in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be held to apply to, or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [1919 c 36 § 8; RRS § 10118. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1919 c 36 § 10, part, now codified in RCW 18.36.140.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.040 License required—Fee—Qualifications—Examinations—Refusals and cancellations—Appeals. Only persons desiring to practice drugless therapeutics in this state shall apply to said director for a license and pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which sum in no case shall be refunded. If at a time appointed, or at the next regular examination, he or she shall prove he or she has completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty–six weeks each at a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a high school education, or its equivalent and shall pass an examination in the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, urinalysis, dietetics, hydrotherapy, radiography, electrotherapy, gynecology, obstetrics, psychology, mechanical and manual manipulation, they shall be granted a license by said director, or if the school attendance of said applicant was prior to the passage of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 a diploma from a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a common school education or its equivalent, and two years continuous practice in this state shall suffice; or if the applicant has no diploma but has been in continuous practice in any of the drugless systems herein mentioned for the past four years, two years of which shall have been in continuous practice in one place in this state, he or she shall be allowed to practice: Provided, said applicant shall take an examination on the following subjects: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, mechanical and manual manipulation. After such examination the director shall grant the applicant a license to practice drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington. The examinations shall be both scientific and practical and thoroughly test the fitness of the candidate. All answers to questions peculiar to any school of therapeutics shall be scrutinized and their sufficiency passed upon by the director, but the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, and gynecology, shall be construed to be in common with all systems herein mentioned, and each candidate shall be examined in each of said subjects: Provided, after 1921, the following subjects shall be construed as common to all systems, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, symptomatology, hydrotherapy, and gynecology. The director may refuse to grant a license to, or may revoke the license of any person guilty of unprofessional conduct, subject to the right of appeal within ninety days, to the superior court of the county where the board met when said license was refused, or revocation made. Any license granted without a full and fair compliance with the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 may be canceled in any action brought in the name of the state by the prosecuting attorney of the county where the examination was held, or said action may be brought by the attorney general; and if a license is denied an applicant shall have the right to petition the superior court where said examination was held for an order compelling said board to issue said license.

Continuous practice as herein provided shall be construed to apply to drugless physicians who have actually been practicing in this state, even if they have not received a license under the present medical laws. [1985 c 7 § 34; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 39; 1919 c 36 § 3; RRS § 10113. Formerly RCW 18.36.040, 18.36.050, part, 18.36.080, 18.36.090, part, and 18.36.160.]

18.36.050 Examination regulations—Fee—Credits—Conduct of examinations. The examination held by the director under RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be conducted in accordance with the following regulations:

(1) Each applicant is required to make an affidavit setting forth his age, place of residence, time and place of each course of lectures, or other work connected with his drugless education and the date of graduation, or length of time in practice. The affidavit must be corroborated by the exhibition of a certificate from the proper officers of the college, showing that the applicant had completed the prescribed course for graduation. No advance standing shall be recognized for work done at other than drugless colleges.

(2) A fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 must accompany the application. This fee is under no consideration to be returned, but if the applicant should fail to secure an average of sixty-five percent, and should be denied a license, such applicant shall, without paying a further fee and without losing his classification under the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165, be permitted to take another examination any time within two years. Drugless practitioners who hold a diploma from a legally incorporated drugless school who have practiced in this state two years previous to the passing of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 and those having no diploma but who have been in continuous practice in this state for three years, shall be given a credit of fifteen percent on the general average.

(3) The examination shall be in charge of the director, and the papers of candidates shall be known by numbers which shall be arranged as follows: Envelopes shall be numbered and each containing a blank corresponding to the number, on which blank the applicant shall write his name and address, and return to the envelope, sealed by the applicant, and delivered to the director. Each candidate shall place on his paper the number given him and the year of graduation.

(4) The director shall examine the papers and place the mark opposite each candidate's number. When the markings are completed, the envelopes containing the names are to be opened and the names placed opposite their respective numbers.

(5) No dishonest methods will be tolerated, and any candidate disregarding these rules shall be debarred from further examination.

(6) Each subject for examination shall be covered by ten questions, and two hours' time shall be allowed for each subject.

(7) No candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination room after the question papers have been distributed, until the questions are answered and delivered to the examiners in charge.

(8) All examinations shall be in English. Within twenty days after a license is granted or refused, the reasons shall be set forth in writing and placed with the papers used in the examination, and all of said examination papers shall be filed with the director within thirty days after said license has been granted or refused. [1985 c 7 § 35; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 40; 1919 c 36 § 11; RRS § 10121. Formerly RCW 18.36.050, 18.36.070 and 18.36.090. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1919 c 36 § 3, part, now codified in RCW 18.36.040.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.060 Forms of certificates to practice—Affidavit of good character and diploma. The following forms of certificates shall be issued by the director:

(1) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice mechanotherapy;

(2) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice suggestive therapeutics;

(3) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice food science;

(4) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice physcultopathy;

(5) A certificate for any other separate and coordinate system of drugless practice: Provided, they shall show evidence of not less than fifty graduates, practicing in this state, whose requirements shall be no less than as set forth in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165. Practitioners hereunder shall confine their practice to the subjects and system or systems represented by their certificate or certificates granted by said director. The applicant for an examination must file satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma issued by some legally chartered drugless college, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, except as herein otherwise provided, and must fill out a blank application to be sworn to before some person authorized to take acknowledgments, showing that he or she is the person named in the diploma, is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made on a blank furnished by said director, and shall contain such other information concerning the instruction and preliminary education of the applicant as said director may by rule adopt. [1919 c 36 § 4; RRS § 10114. Formerly RCW 18.36.060 and 18.36.100.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.115 License renewal fee—Penalty. Every person heretofore or hereafter granted a license under this chapter shall pay to the director an annual license renewal fee to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, on or before the first day of July of each year, and thereupon the license of such person shall be renewed for a period of one year. Any failure to register and pay the annual license renewal fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor to the director, and payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all delinquent annual license renewal fees. [1985 c 7 § 36; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 41; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 7; 1953 c 83 § 1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.120 Advertising restrictions. On all cards, books, papers, signs, or other written or printed means of giving information to the public on any system of practice, the practitioner shall use after or below his name the proper term designating the special line of drugless practice in which he is engaged, and shall not use after his name the letters, "M.D." or Doctor of Medicine and Surgery, nor "D.O." or Doctor of Osteopathy, or "D.C." or Doctor of Chiropractic. [1919 c 36 § 14; RRS § 10124.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.
Crimes relating to advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

18.36.130 Applicability of health regulations. All persons granted licenses or certificates under RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165, shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations, relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying of births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [1919 c 36 § 7; RRS § 10117.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.
Public health and safety: Title 70 RCW.
Vital statistics: Chapter 70.58 RCW.

18.36.135 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 34.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.36.140 Unlawful practices. Any person not heretofore authorized by law who shall practice or attempt to practice or hold himself out as practicing drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington without having obtained the license herein provided for, contrary to any provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided by law for such offenses. Any person shall be regarded as practicing within the meaning of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 who shall use, prescribe, direct or recommend, any drugless treatment for the relief of any wound, fracture, bodily injury, or disease, either mental or physical: Provided, RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall not be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics, or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: Provided, also, that nothing in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be held to apply to or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [1919 c 36 § 10; RRS § 10120. Formerly RCW 18.36.140 and 18.36.030, part.]

Excepted practices: RCW 18.36.030.

18.36.150 Unprofessional conduct. The words "unprofessional conduct" as used in RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 is hereby declared to mean:

- (1) The procuring, aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.
- (2) The wilful betraying of a professional secret.
- (3) Advertising any means or remedy whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated, or menses reestablished.
- (4) Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude.
- (5) Habitual intemperance.
- (6) The personation of another licensed practitioner.
- (7) Exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of hand bills, circulars or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours and telephone connections.

(8) All advertising which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons.

(9) Conspiring to bring or cause to be brought any action in court against any licensed practitioner for alleged malpractice or agree with anyone for a share or part of any sum of money to be recovered in such action: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any licensed practitioner from testifying against any other licensed practitioner in any action for alleged malpractice. [1919 c 36 § 9; RRS § 10119.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.36.165 Violations—Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided by law. [1919 c 36 § 17; RRS § 10125. Formerly codified as RCW 18.36.250.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.170 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Grounds—Order to appear—Service. Whenever it shall come to the attention of the director of licensing that any applicant for a license to practice any form of drugless healing in this state under the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165, either with or without examination, presented with his application a diploma purporting to have been issued to such applicant by a drugless school, and a license was granted such applicant wholly or in part by reason of such diploma, and the director of licensing has reasonable ground to believe that the drugless school issuing such diploma, and the persons in charge thereof, have issued diplomas to persons who had not a high school education or its equivalent and who had not completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty-six weeks each in the school issuing the diploma, the director of licensing shall have the power to make and enter an order directed to such licentiate, setting forth the name of the licentiate, the date of his license and the name of the drugless school issuing the diploma upon which the license was based, and requiring such licentiate to appear before the director of licensing at his office in the city of Olympia at a time specified in the order, which shall not be less than twenty days after the service of a copy of such order upon him, and then and there to produce the diploma upon which his license was issued and produce and deliver to the director of licensing his license to practice drugless healing, and to testify under oath as to his educational qualifications at the time of his entering the school issuing the diploma and the length of his actual resident attendance at such school and all other schools for attendance at which credits were claimed. The order provided for shall be served upon such licentiate and return of service made in the manner provided by law for the service and return of summons in civil action. [1925 c 10 § 1; RRS § 10125-1. Formerly RCW 18.36.170 through 18.36.190.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.200 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Default—Relief therefrom. If any licentiate to practice drugless healing upon whom the order provided for in RCW 18.36.170 shall have been served shall fail or refuse to comply with such order in any particular the director of licensing shall have power to revoke the license of such licentiate: Provided, That if after any such revocation for failure to appear shall have been entered the licentiate shall establish to the satisfaction of the director that his failure to appear was occasioned by unavoidable accident and was not wilful, the director shall have the power to withdraw such revocation and grant a hearing. [1925 c 10 § 2; RRS § 10125-2.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.210 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Conduct of hearing. In case any licentiate shall appear at the hearing hereinbefore provided for and testify under oath as to the matters required in said order he shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to call witnesses and introduce documentary evidence in support of his claims that he had the required educational qualifications and resident attendance at the school issuing the diploma, or its equivalent; and the director shall have the power by subpoena to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence to controvert the claim of the licentiate, and any such hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the director for a reasonable length of time to permit of the securing of evidence in favor of or against the claims of the licentiate. [1925 c 10 § 3; RRS § 10125-3.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.220 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Revocation or return of license. If at the conclusion of the hearing hereinabove provided for the licentiate shall have failed to establish to the satisfaction of the director of licensing that on the date of the issuance of his diploma he had a high school education or its equivalent and had in fact completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty-six weeks each in the school by which such diploma was issued, or any other schools for which credits were properly allowable, it shall be the duty of the director of licensing to revoke the license of the licentiate to practice drugless healing. In case the director of licensing does not revoke the license the same shall be returned to the licentiate. [1925 c 10 § 4; RRS § 10125-4.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.230 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Appeal to superior court. Every licentiate to practice drugless healing whose license shall have been revoked as in RCW 18.36.170 through 18.36.245 provided after a hearing and feeling himself aggrieved by such revocation shall have the right by a writ of review sued out in the manner provided by law within ten days after the entry of such order of revocation to have the proceeding for the revocation of his license reviewed in the superior court of Thurston county, and the decision of such superior court shall be final. [1925 c 10 § 5; RRS § 10125-5.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.240 Revocation for want of educational qualifications—Surrender of license—Penalty. It shall be the duty of the licentiate whose license has been revoked as provided in RCW 18.36.170 through 18.36.245, within ten days after the final order revoking such license, to surrender his license to the director of licensing, and every person failing to comply with the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [1925 c 10 § 6; RRS § 10125-6.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.36.245 Construction—1925 c 10. Nothing in RCW 18.36.170 through 18.36.240 shall be construed as amending, modifying or repealing any other provision of law for the revocation of licenses, but RCW 18.36.170 through 18.36.240 shall be construed as additional and supplemental legislation. [1925 c 10 § 7.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Effective dates—1982 c 66: See note following RCW 18.39.240.
Number and gender: RCW 1.12.050.

18.39.020 Licensing required. It is unlawful for any person to act or hold himself out as a funeral director or embalmer or discharge any of the duties of a funeral director or embalmer as defined in this chapter unless the person has a valid license under this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to open up, maintain or operate a funeral establishment without having at all times at least one funeral director to supervise and direct the business conducted therefrom. [1981 c 43 § 2; 1937 c 108 § 2; RRS § 8314-1. Prior: 1909 c 215 § 1. Formerly RCW 18.39.020 and 18.39.110.]

18.39.035 Applicant for license as funeral director or embalmer—Eligibility. (1) An applicant for a license as a funeral director shall be at least eighteen years of age, of good moral character, and must have completed a course of not less than two years in an accredited college, and a one-year course of training under a licensed funeral director in this state. The applicant must also pass an examination which shall include the following subjects: Funeral directing, psychology, the signs of death, sanitary science, the preparation, burial, and disposal of dead human bodies, and the shipment of bodies of persons dying of contagious or infectious diseases.

(2) An applicant for a license as an embalmer must be at least eighteen years of age, of good moral character, and have completed two years at an accredited college, a two-year course of training under a licensed embalmer in this state, and a full course of instruction in an embalming school approved by the board. No portion of the course of instruction in the embalming school can be applied towards satisfaction of the two-year college course. The applicant must also pass an examination in each of the following subjects: Embalming, anatomy and physiology including histology, embryology, and dissection, pathology, bacteriology, public health including sanitation and hygiene, chemistry including toxicology, restorative art including plastic surgery and demi-surgery, the care, disinfection, preservation, transportation, burial, and disposal of dead human bodies and the contents of this chapter and of the law of the state relating to infectious diseases and quarantine. [1981 c 43 § 3.]

18.39.045 College course requirements. (1) The two-year college course required under this chapter shall consist of sixty semester or ninety quarter hours of instruction at a school, college, or university accredited by the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges or other accrediting association approved by the board, with a minimum 2.0 grade point, or a grade of C or better, in each subject required by subsection (2) of this section.

(2) Credits shall include one course in each of the following subjects: Psychology, mathematics, chemistry, and biology or zoology. Instruction shall also include two courses in English composition and rhetoric, two courses in social science, and three courses selected from the following subjects: Behavioral sciences, public speaking, counseling, business administration and management, and first aid.

(3) This section does not apply to any person registered and in good standing as an apprentice funeral director or embalmer on or before January 1, 1982. [1982 c 66 § 20; 1981 c 43 § 4.]

Effective dates—1982 c 66: See note following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.050 Application—Renewal—Fees. Every application for an initial license or a license renewal under this chapter shall be made in writing on a form prescribed by the director with such information as the director requires. The director shall set license fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 37; 1982 c 66 § 21; 1981 c 43 § 5; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 42; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 8; 1937 c 108 § 6; RRS § 8318-1. Formerly RCW 18.39.050, 18.39.060 and 18.39.140.]

Effective dates—1982 c 66: See note following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.070 Examinations—Applications—Notice—Passing grades—Second examinations. (1) License examinations shall be held by the director at least once each year at a time and place to be designated by the director. Application to take an examination shall be filed with the director at least forty-five days prior to the examination date and the department shall give each applicant notice of the time and place of the next examination by written notice mailed to the applicant's address as given upon his application not later than fifteen days before the examination, but no person may take an examination unless his application has been on file for at least fifteen days before the examination. The applicant shall be deemed to have passed an examination if the applicant attains a grade of not less than seventy-five percent in each subject of the examination. Any applicant who fails any subject in the first examination shall be entitled, at no additional fee, to a second examination in the subject or subjects at the next regular examination.

(2) An applicant for a license hereunder may take his written examination after completing the educational requirements and before completing the course of training required under RCW 18.39.035. [1981 c 43 § 6; 1965 ex.s. c 107 § 4; 1937 c 108 § 5; RRS § 8317. Prior: 1909 c 215 §§ 8, 11.]

18.39.100 License—Form—Restrictions. Every license issued hereunder shall specify the name of the person to whom it is issued, shall bear the signature of the licensee for identification purposes, and shall be displayed conspicuously in his place of business. No license shall be assigned, and not more than one person shall carry on the profession or business of funeral directing or embalming under one license. [1937 c 108 § 7; RRS § 8319. Prior: 1909 c 215 § 13.]

18.39.120 Apprentices—Registration—Renewal—Notice of termination—Fees. Every person engaged in the business of funeral directing or embalming, who employs an apprentice to assist in the conduct of the business, shall register the name of each apprentice with the director at the beginning of the apprenticeship, and shall also forward notice of the termination of the apprenticeship. The registration shall be renewed annually and shall expire on the anniversary of the apprentice's birthdate. Fees determined under RCW 43.24.086 shall be paid for the initial registration of the apprentice, and for each annual renewal. [1985 c 7 § 38; 1981 c 43 § 7; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 43; 1937 c 108 § 10; RRS § 8322.]

18.39.130 Licenses—Applicants from other states. The director may recognize licenses issued to funeral directors or embalmers from other states if the applicant's qualifications are comparable to the requirements of this chapter. Upon presentation of the license and payment by the holder of a fee determined under RCW 43.24.086, the director may issue a funeral director's or embalmer's license under this chapter. The license may be renewed annually upon payment of the renewal license fee as herein provided by license holders residing in the state of Washington. [1985 c 7 § 39; 1982 c 66 § 22; 1981 c 43 § 8; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 44; 1937 c 108 § 15; RRS § 8325. Prior: 1909 c 215 § 16.]

18.39.145 Funeral establishment license—Issuance—Requirements—Transferability. The director shall issue a funeral establishment license to any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization to operate a funeral establishment, at specific locations only, which has met the following requirements:

(1) The applicant has designated the name under which the funeral establishment will operate and has designated locations for which the general establishment license is to be issued;

(2) The applicant is licensed in this state as a funeral director and as an embalmer, or employs at least one person with both such qualifications or one licensed funeral director and one embalmer who will be in service at each designated location;

(3) The applicant has filed an application with the director as required by this chapter and paid the required filing fee therefor as fixed by the director pursuant to RCW 43.24.086.

The director shall make the determination of qualifications of all applicants within a reasonable time after the filing of an application with the director. No funeral establishment license shall be transferable, but an applicant may make application for more than one funeral establishment license so long as all of the requirements are met for each license. [1985 c 7 § 40; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 3.]

18.39.148 Funeral establishment license—Cancellation for not having funeral director or embalmer in employ. If a licensed funeral establishment does not have a licensed funeral director and embalmer in its employ at its place of business, its license shall be canceled immediately by the director or the board. [1981 c 43 § 9; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 4.]

embalmer whose license has lapsed shall reapply for a license and pay a fee as determined under RCW 43.24.086 before the license may be issued. Applications under this section shall be made within one year after the expiration of the previous license. If the application is not made within three years, the applicant shall be required to take an examination or submit other satisfactory proof of continued competency approved by the director and pay the license fee, as required by this chapter in the case of initial applications, together with all unpaid license fees and penalties. [1985 c 7 § 41; 1981 c 43 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 45; 1937 c 108 § 8; RRS § 8320.]

18.39.160 Contagious diseases—Report to health director—Funerals. Every funeral director and every embalmer shall immediately report to the local health officer every contagious case on which he may be called. There shall be no public funeral of any contagious disease unless authorized by the director of the state board of health, in writing, before burial or disposal. [1937 c 108 § 12; RRS § 8323-1.]

Public health and safety: Title 70 RCW.

18.39.170 Inspector of funeral directors and embalmers—Appointment—Eligibility—Term—Powers and duties. There shall be appointed by said director of licensing an agent whose title shall be "inspector of funeral directors and embalmers of the state of Washington." No person shall be eligible for such appointment unless, at the time of his appointment, he shall have been a duly licensed embalmer in the state of Washington, with a minimum experience of not less than five consecutive years both as an embalmer and as a funeral director in the state of Washington. Said inspector shall hold office during the pleasure of said director of licensing, and the duties of said inspector shall be, and he is hereby authorized, to enter the office, premises, establishment or place of business, where funeral directing or embalming is carried on for the purpose of inspecting said office, premises, establishment or place of business, and the licenses and registrations of embalmers, funeral directors and apprentices operating therein. Such inspector shall serve and execute any papers or process issued by the director of licensing under authority of this chapter, and perform any other duty or duties prescribed or ordered by the director of licensing. Said inspector shall at all times be under the supervision of said director of licensing and he may also assist the state health commissioner in enforcing the provisions of the law relating to health and such rules and regulations as shall have been made and promulgated by the state board of health. [1937 c 108 § 16; RRS § 8325-1.]

18.39.173 Board of funeral directors and embalmers—Established—Membership—Appointment—Qualifications—Terms—Vacancies—Officers—Quorum. There is hereby established a state board of funeral directors and embalmers to be composed of five members appointed by the governor in accordance with this section, one of whom shall be a public member. The three members of the state examining committee for funeral directors and embalmers, which was created pursuant to RCW 43.24.060, as of September 21, 1977 are hereby appointed as members of the board to serve for initial terms. The governor shall appoint two additional members of the board. Each professional member of the board shall be licensed in this state as a funeral director and embalmer and a resident of the state of Washington for a period of at least five years next preceding appointment, during which time such member shall have been continuously engaged in the practice as a funeral director or embalmer as defined in this chapter. No person shall be eligible for appointment to the board of funeral directors and embalmers who is financially interested, directly or indirectly, in any embalming college, wholesale funeral supply business, or casket manufacturing business.

All members of the board of funeral directors and embalmers shall be appointed to serve for a term of five years, to expire on July 1 of the year of termination of their term, and until their successors have been appointed and qualified: Provided, That the governor is granted the power to fix the terms of office of the members of the board first appointed so that the term of office of not more than one member of the board shall terminate in any one year. In case of a vacancy occurring on the board, the governor shall appoint a qualified member for the remainder of the unexpired term of the vacant office. Any member of the board of funeral directors and embalmers who fails to properly discharge the duties of a member may be removed by the governor.

The board shall meet once annually to elect a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary and take official board action on pending matters by majority vote of all the members of the board of funeral directors and embalmers and at other times when called by the director, the chairman, or a majority of the members. A majority of the members of said board shall at all times constitute a quorum. [1977 ex.s. c 93 § 8.]

18.39.175 Board of funeral directors and embalmers—Duties and responsibilities—Revocation of licenses—Compensation—Travel expenses. Each member of the board of funeral directors and embalmers shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in connection with board duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The state board of funeral directors and embalmers shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) To be responsible for the preparation, conducting, and grading of examinations of applicants for funeral director and embalmer licenses;

(2) To certify to the director the results of examinations of applicants and certify the applicant as having "passed" or "failed";

(3) To make findings and recommendations to the director on any and all matters relating to the enforcement of this chapter;

(4) To adopt, promulgate, and enforce reasonable rules. Rules regulating the cremation of human remains and establishing fees and permit requirements shall be adopted in consultation with the cemetery board; and

(5) To suspend or revoke any license, after proper hearing and notice to the licensee, if the licensee has committed any of the following:

(a) A crime involving moral turpitude and resulting in a conviction;

(b) Unprofessional conduct, which includes:

(i) Misrepresentation or fraud in the conduct of the business or the profession of a funeral director or embalmer;

(ii) False or misleading advertising as a funeral director or embalmer;

(iii) Solicitation of human dead bodies by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, whether the solicitation occurs after death or while death is impending. This chapter does not prohibit general advertising or the sale of pre-need funeral plans;

(iv) Employment by the licensee of persons known as "cappers," "steerers," or "solicitors" or other persons to obtain funeral directing or embalming business;

(v) Employment directly or indirectly of any person for the purpose of calling upon individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular funeral director or embalmer;

(vi) The buying of business by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, or the direct or indirect payment or offer of payment of a commission by the licensee, his agents, assistants, or employees, for the purpose of securing business;

(vii) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice funeral directing or embalming;

(viii) Solicitation or acceptance by a licensee of any commission or bonus or rebate in consideration of recommending or causing a dead human body to be disposed of in any crematory, mausoleum, or cemetery;

(ix) Using any casket or part of a casket which has previously been used as a receptacle for, or in connection with, the burial or other disposition of a dead human body without the written consent of next of kin;

(x) Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules in support thereof;

(xi) Violation of any state law or municipal or county ordinance or regulation affecting the handling, custody, care, or transportation of dead human bodies;

(xii) Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license;

(xiii) Refusing to promptly surrender the custody of a dead human body upon the express order of the person lawfully entitled to its custody;

(xiv) Selling, or offering for sale, a share, certificate, or an interest in the business of any funeral director or embalmer, or in any corporation, firm, or association owning or operating a funeral establishment, which promises or purports to give to purchasers a right to the services of the funeral director, embalmer, or corporation, firm, or association at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public; or

(xv) Knowingly concealing information concerning a violation of this chapter;

(6) To adopt rules establishing mandatory continuing education requirements to be met by persons applying for license renewal. [1985 c 402 § 6; 1984 c 287 § 34; 1984 c 279 § 53; 1981 c 43 § 11; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 9.]

Legislative finding—1985 c 402: See note following RCW 68.08.165.

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.39.176 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of funeral directors and embalmers may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 35.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.39.179 Authority of board to impose penalties. If the board finds an applicant or licensed funeral director or embalmer has committed a violation of this chapter, it may enter an order imposing one or more of the following penalties:

- (1) Denial of a license;
- (2) Revocation or suspension of a license;
- (3) A fine not to exceed one thousand dollars for each separate offense;
- (4) Issuance of a reprimand;
- (5) Placement of the licensed funeral director or embalmer on probation for a period of time; or
- (6) Restriction of the authorized scope of practice. [1981 c 43 § 12.]

18.39.181 Powers and duties of director. The director shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) To determine the qualifications of applicants for all licenses under this chapter;
- (2) To issue all licenses provided for under this chapter;
- (3) To annually renew licenses under this chapter;
- (4) To collect all fees prescribed and required under this chapter; and
- (5) To keep general books of record of all official acts, proceedings, and transactions of the department of licensing while acting under this chapter. [1981 c 43 § 13; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 5.]

18.39.190 Display of personal names where trade name, etc., used. It is unlawful for any person to use the name of any company, association, corporation, trade name, or business name, in the advertisement or operation of any funeral establishment, unless the person displays in a conspicuous place upon or near the entrance, or in a conspicuous place in the office, if any, maintained for the transaction of business with the public, a printed statement containing the name of every funeral director or embalmer engaged in the rendering of service within the office or establishment operated under the company, association, corporation, trade, or business name. [1981 c 43 § 14; 1937 c 108 § 9; RRS § 8321.]

18.39.195 Pricing information to be given—Billing "cash advanced" items. (1) Every licensed funeral director, his agent, or his employee shall give, or cause to be given, to the person making funeral arrangements or arranging for shipment, transportation, or other disposition of a deceased person:

(a) If requested by telephone, accurate information regarding the retail prices of funeral merchandise and services offered for sale by that funeral director; and

(b) At the time such arrangements are completed or prior to the time of rendering the service, a written, itemized statement showing to the extent then known the price of merchandise and service that such person making such arrangements has selected, the price of supplemental items of service and merchandise, if any, and the estimated amount of each item for which the funeral service firm will advance money as an accommodation to the person making such funeral arrangements.

(2) No such funeral director, his agent, or his employee, shall bill or cause to be billed any item that is referred to as a "cash advanced" item unless the net amount paid for such item by the funeral director is the same amount as is billed to such funeral director. [1979 ex.s. c 62 § 1.]

18.39.215 Embalmers—Authorization required—Exception—Information required—Care of remains within twenty-four hours of receipt—Waiver—Penalty. (1) No licensed embalmer shall embalm a deceased body without first having obtained authorization from a family member or representative of the deceased.

Notwithstanding the above prohibition a licensee may embalm without such authority when after due diligence no authorized person can be contacted and embalming is in accordance with legal or accepted standards of care in the community, or the licensee has good reason to believe that the family wishes embalming. If embalming is performed under these circumstances, the licensee shall not be deemed to be in violation of the provisions of this subsection.

The funeral director or embalmer shall inform the family member or representative of the deceased that embalming is not required by state law, except that embalming is required under certain conditions as determined by rule by the state board of health.

(2) Any person authorized to dispose of human remains shall refrigerate or embalm the body within twenty-four hours upon receipt of the body, unless disposition of the body has been made. However, subsection (1) of this section and RCW 68.08.108 shall be complied with before a body is embalmed. Upon written authorization of the proper state or local authority, the provisions of this subsection may be waived for a specified period of time.

Violation of this subsection is a gross misdemeanor. [1985 c 402 § 5; 1981 c 43 § 15.]

Legislative finding—1985 c 402: See note following RCW 68.08.165.

18.39.217 Permit or endorsement required for cremation—Penalty—Regulation of affiliated and non-affiliated crematories. A permit or endorsement issued by the board or under chapter 68.05 RCW is required in order to operate a crematory or conduct a cremation. Conducting a cremation without a permit or endorsement is a misdemeanor. Each such cremation is a separate violation. Crematories owned or operated by or located on property licensed as a funeral establishment shall be regulated by the board of funeral directors and embalmers. Crematories not affiliated with a funeral establishment shall be regulated by the cemetery board. [1985 c 402 § 7.]

Legislative finding—1985 c 402: See note following RCW 68.08.165.

18.39.220 Unlawful business practices—Penalty. Every funeral director or embalmer who pays, or causes to be paid, directly or indirectly, money, or other valuable consideration, for the securing of business, and every person who accepts money, or other valuable consideration, directly or indirectly, from a funeral director or from an embalmer, in order that the latter may obtain business is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. Every person who sells, or offers for sale, any share, certificate, or interest in the business of any funeral director or embalmer, or in any corporation, firm, or association owning or operating a funeral establishment, which promises or purports to give to the purchaser a right to the services of the funeral director, embalmer, or corporation, firm, or association at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1981 c 43 § 16; 1937 c 108 § 13; RRS § 8323–2.]

Violations—Penalty—Unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW: RCW 18.39.350.

18.39.223 Violations—Investigation—Compelling compliance—Subpoena powers. The director or board may initiate and conduct investigations as may be reasonably necessary to establish the existence of violations of or noncompliance with this chapter or any rules issued hereunder. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director, the board, or any officer designated by either, may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director or the board deems relevant or material to the inquiry. Subpoenas issued under this section are enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction. [1981 c 43 § 17; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 6.]

18.39.225 Violations—Referral to attorney general or prosecutor. The director or the board may refer evidence concerning violations of this chapter, or of any rule adopted hereunder, to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the alleged violation arose. This chapter shall be considered in conjunction with chapters 9.04 and 19.86 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and the powers and duties of the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney as they appear in these chapters, apply against all persons subject to this chapter. [1981 c 43 § 18; 1977 ex.s. c 93 § 7.]

18.39.231 Certain relationships and financial dealings or advice between funeral directors and their clients prohibited—Exceptions—Rules—Penalty. A funeral director or any person under the supervision of a funeral director shall not, in conjunction with any professional services performed for compensation under this chapter, provide financial or investment advice to any person other than a family member, represent any person in a real estate transaction, or act as an agent under a power of attorney for any person. However, this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a funeral establishment from entering into prearrangement funeral service contracts in accordance with this chapter or to prohibit a funeral director from providing advice about government or insurance benefits.

A violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor and is grounds for disciplinary action, including suspension or revocation of the license, as provided in RCW 18.39.179.

The board shall adopt such rules as the board deems reasonably necessary to prevent unethical financial dealings between funeral directors and their clients. [1982 c 66 § 15.]

Effective dates—1982 c 66: See note following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.240 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Authorization. A funeral establishment licensed pursuant to this chapter may enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts, subject to the provisions of this chapter. [1982 c 66 § 2.]

Effective dates—1982 c 66: "This act shall take effect on September 1, 1982, with the exception of sections 20, 21, and 22 of this act, which are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately." [1982 c 66 § 24.] Sections 20, 21, and 22 of this act are the 1982 c 66 amendments to RCW 18.39.045, 18.39.050, and 18.39.130 which took effect on March 26, 1982.

Transfer of records, files, and pending business—1982 c 66: "(1) All records, files, reports, papers, or other written material in the possession of the insurance commissioner pertaining to the regulation of prepaid funeral expenses shall be delivered to the director of licensing on the effective date of this act.

(2) All business or matters concerning prepaid funeral expenses pending before the insurance commissioner shall be transferred to the director of licensing and assumed by the director on the effective date of this act." [1982 c 66 § 17.]

Savings—1982 c 66: "The transfer of duties under sections 2 through 14 of this act shall not affect the validity of any rule, action, decision promulgated or held prior to the effective date of this act." [1982 c 66 § 18.] "Sections 2 through 14 of this act" refers to the enactment of RCW 18.39.240 through 18.39.360.

18.39.250 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Trust funds. (1) Any funeral establishment selling by prearrangement funeral service contract any funeral merchandise or services shall establish and maintain one or more prearrangement funeral service trust funds for the benefit of the beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract.

(2) Fifteen percent of the cash purchase price of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax, may be retained by the funeral establishment. Deposits to the prearrangement funeral service trust fund shall be made not later than the twentieth day of the month following the receipt of each payment made on the last eighty-five percent of each prearrangement funeral service contract, excluding sales tax.

(3) All prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall be deposited in a qualified public depository. The account shall be designated as the prearrangement funeral service trust fund of the particular funeral establishment for the benefit of the beneficiaries named in the prearrangement funeral service contract.

(4) All interest, dividends, increases, or accretions of whatever nature earned by a trust fund shall be kept unimpaired and shall become a part of the trust fund, and adequate records shall be maintained to allocate the share thereof to each contract.

(5) A depository designated as the depository of a prearrangement funeral service trust fund shall permit withdrawal of all funds deposited under a prearrangement funeral service contract, plus accruals thereon, under the following circumstances and conditions:

(a) If the funeral establishment files a verified statement with the depository that the prearrangement funeral merchandise and services covered by the contract have been furnished and delivered in accordance therewith; or

(b) If the funeral establishment files a verified statement with the depository that the prearrangement funeral merchandise and services covered by the contract have been canceled in accordance with its terms.

(6) Any purchaser or beneficiary who has procured a prearrangement funeral service contract has the right to demand a refund of the entire amount paid on the contract, together with all interest, dividends, increases, or accretions to the funds.

(7) Prearrangement funeral service contracts shall automatically terminate if the funeral establishment goes out of business, becomes insolvent or bankrupt, makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or for any other reason is unable to fulfill the obligations under the contract. In such event, and upon demand by the purchaser or beneficiary of the prearrangement funeral service contract, the depository of the prearrangement funeral service contract funds shall refund to the purchaser or beneficiary all funds deposited under the contract, unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) Prearrangement funeral service trust funds shall not be used, directly or indirectly, for the benefit of the funeral establishment or any director, officer, agent, or employee of the funeral establishment including, but not limited to, any encumbrance, pledge, or other use of prearrangement funeral service trust funds as collateral or other security.

(9) Every prearrangement funeral service contract shall contain language which informs the purchaser of the prearrangement funeral service trust fund and the amount to be deposited in the trust fund, which shall not be less than eighty-five percent of the cash purchase price of the contract. [1982 c 66 § 3.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.260 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Certificates of registration required. A funeral establishment shall not enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts in this state unless the funeral establishment has obtained a certificate of registration issued by the director and such certificate is then in force. [1982 c 66 § 4.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.270 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Qualifications for certificates of registration. To qualify for and hold a certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

(1) Be licensed pursuant to this chapter; and

(2) Fully comply with and qualify according to the provisions of this chapter. [1982 c 66 § 5.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.280 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Application for original certificate of registration. To apply for an original certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

(1) File with the director its request showing:

(a) Its name, location, and organization date;

(b) The kinds of funeral business it proposes to transact;

(c) A statement of its financial condition, management, and affairs on a form satisfactory to or furnished by the director; and

(d) Such other documents, stipulations, or information as the director may reasonably require to evidence compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Deposit with the director the fees required by this chapter to be paid for filing the accompanying documents, and for the certificate of registration, if granted. [1982 c 66 § 7.]

Fees: RCW 18.39.290.

18.39.290 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Certificates of registration—Renewal—Fees—Disposition. All certificates of registration issued pursuant to this chapter shall continue in force until suspended, revoked, or renewed. A certificate shall be subject to renewal annually on the first day of July upon application by the funeral establishment and payment of the required fees.

The director shall collect in advance the following fees:

(1) Certificate of registration:

(a) Issuance – thirty-five dollars;

(b) Renewal – fifteen dollars;

(2) Annual statement of financial condition – ten dollars.

All fees so collected shall be remitted by the director to the state treasurer not later than the first business day following receipt of such funds and the funds shall be credited to the general fund. [1982 c 66 § 8.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.300 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Grounds for nonrenewal, revocation, or suspension of certificate of registration. The director may refuse to renew or may revoke or suspend a funeral establishment's certificate of registration, if the funeral establishment:

(1) Fails to comply with any provisions of this chapter or any proper order or regulation of the director;

(2) Is found by the director to be in such condition that further execution of prearrangement contracts could be hazardous to purchasers or beneficiaries and the people of this state;

(3) Refuses to be examined, or refuses to submit to examination or to produce its accounts, records and files for examination by the director when required; or

(4) Is found by the director after investigation or receipt of reliable information to be managed by persons who are incompetent or untrustworthy or so lacking in managerial experience as to make the proposed or continued operation hazardous to purchasers, beneficiaries, or to the public. [1982 c 66 § 6.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.310 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Suspension, revocation, or failure to renew certificate of registration—Notice—Effect. The director shall give a funeral establishment notice of the director's intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the establishment's certificate of registration not less than ten days before the order of suspension, revocation or refusal is to become effective.

A funeral establishment whose certificate of registration has been suspended, revoked, or refused shall not subsequently be authorized to enter into prearrangement contracts unless the grounds for such suspension, revocation, or refusal in the opinion of the director no longer exist and the funeral establishment is otherwise fully qualified. [1982 c 66 § 9.]

18.39.320 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Annual statement of financial condition—Effect of failure to file. (1) Each authorized funeral establishment shall annually, before the first day of March, file with the director a true and accurate statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs for the preceding calendar year. The statement shall be on such forms and shall contain such information as required by this chapter and by the director.

(2) The director shall suspend or revoke the certificate of registration of any funeral establishment which fails to file its annual statement when due or after any extension of time which the director has, for good cause, granted. [1982 c 66 § 10.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.330 Prearrangement funeral service contract forms—Approval required—Grounds for disapproval. No prearrangement funeral contract forms shall be used without the prior approval of the director.

The director shall disapprove any such contract form, or withdraw prior approval, when such form:

(1) Violates or does not comply with this chapter;

(2) Contains or incorporates by reference any inconsistent, ambiguous or misleading clauses, or exceptions and conditions which unreasonably or deceptively affect the merchandise or service purported to be provided in the general coverage of the contract;

(3) Has any title, heading, or other part of its provisions which is misleading; or

(4) Is being solicited by deceptive advertising. [1982 c 66 § 11.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.340 Prearrangement funeral service contracts—Director's powers and authority—Rules, investigations, examinations, and hearings. (1) The director has the authority expressly conferred upon him by or reasonably implied from the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The director may:

(a) Beginning on July 1, 1982, make reasonable rules for effectuating any provision of this chapter in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW;

(b) Conduct investigations to determine whether any person has violated any provision of this chapter; and

(c) Conduct examinations, investigations, and hearings, in addition to those specifically provided for, useful and proper for the efficient administration of any provision of this chapter. [1982 c 66 § 12.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.350 Violations—Penalty—Unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW—Application of chapter 63.14 RCW to retail installment sales. Any person who violates or fails to comply with, or aids or abets any person in the violation of, or failure to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter is guilty of a gross misdemeanor pursuant to chapter 9A.20 RCW. Any such violation constitutes an unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW and this chapter and conviction thereunder is grounds for license revocation under this chapter. Retail installment transactions under this chapter shall be governed by chapter 63.14 RCW. [1982 c 66 § 13.]

Unlawful business practices—Penalty: RCW 18.39.220.

18.39.360 Fraternal or benevolent organizations and labor unions excepted. This chapter does not apply to any funeral right or benefit issued or granted as an incident to or reason of membership in any fraternal or benevolent association or cooperative or society, or labor union not organized for profit. [1982 c 66 § 14.]

Effective dates—Transfer of records, files, and pending business—Savings—1982 c 66: See notes following RCW 18.39.240.

18.39.900 Severability—1937 c 108. If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. [1937 c 108 § 18.]

18.39.901 Severability—1982 c 66. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1982 c 66 § 23.]

18.39.910 Termination of chapter. The regulation of funeral directors and embalmers, chapter 18.39 RCW, shall terminate on June 30, 1987 and shall be subject to all of the processes provided in RCW 43.131.010 through 43.131.110 as now existing or hereafter amended. [1981 c 43 § 19.]

18.43.010 General provisions. In order to safeguard life, health, and property, and to promote the public welfare, any person in either public or private capacity practicing or offering to practice engineering or land surveying, shall hereafter be required to submit evidence that he is qualified so to practice and shall be registered as hereinafter provided; and it shall be unlawful for any person to practice or to offer to practice in this state, engineering or land surveying, as defined in the provisions of this chapter, or to use in connection with his name or otherwise assume, use, or advertise any title or description tending to convey the impression that he is a professional engineer or a land surveyor, unless such a person has been duly registered under the provisions of this chapter. [1947 c 283 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306–21. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 2; RRS § 8306–2.]

18.43.020 Definitions. Engineer: The term "engineer" as used in this chapter shall mean a professional engineer as hereinafter defined.

Professional engineer: The term "professional engineer" within the meaning and intent of this chapter, shall mean a person who, by reason of his special knowledge of the mathematical and physical sciences and the principles and methods of engineering analysis and design, acquired by professional education and practical experience, is qualified to practice engineering as hereinafter defined, as attested by his legal registration as a professional engineer.

Engineer-in-training: The term "engineer-in-training" as used in this chapter shall mean a candidate for registration as a professional engineer who is a graduate in an approved engineering curriculum of four years or more from a school or college approved by the board as of satisfactory standing, or who has had four years or more of experience in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the board; and who, in addition, has successfully passed the examination in the fundamental engineering subjects prior to completion of the requisite years of experience in engineering work as provided in RCW 18.43.060, and who shall have received a certificate stating that he has successfully passed this portion of the professional examination.

Engineering: The term "engineering" as used in this chapter shall mean the "practice of engineering" as hereinafter defined.

Practice of engineering: The term "practice of engineering" within the meaning and intent of this chapter shall mean any professional service or creative work requiring engineering education, training, and experience and the application of special knowledge of the mathematical, physical, and engineering sciences to such professional services or creative work as consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design and supervision of construction for the purpose of assuring compliance with specifications and design, in connection with any public or private utilities, structures, buildings, machines, equipment, processes, works, or projects.

A person shall be construed to practice or offer to practice engineering, within the meaning and intent of this chapter, who practices any branch of the profession of engineering; or who, by verbal claim, sign, advertisement, letterhead, card, or in any other way represents himself to be a professional engineer, or through the use of some other title implies that he is a professional engineer; or who holds himself out as able to perform, or who does perform, any engineering service or work or any other professional service designated by the practitioner or recognized by educational authorities as engineering.

The practice of engineering shall not include the work ordinarily performed by persons who operate or maintain machinery or equipment.

Land surveyor: The term "land surveyor" as used in this chapter shall mean a person who, through technical knowledge and skill gained by education and/or by experience, is qualified to practice land surveying as hereinafter defined.

Practice of land surveying: The term "practice of land surveying" within the meaning and intent of this chapter, shall mean assuming responsible charge of the surveying of land for the establishment of corners, lines, boundaries, and monuments, the laying out and subdivision of land, the defining and locating of corners, lines, boundaries and monuments of land after they have been established, the survey of land areas for the purpose of determining the topography thereof, the making of topographical delineations and the preparing of maps and accurate records thereof, when the proper performance of such services requires technical knowledge and skill.

Board: The term "board" as used in this chapter shall mean the state board of registration for professional engineers and land surveyors, provided for by this chapter. [1947 c 283 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-22. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 1; RRS § 8306-1.]

18.43.030 Board of registration—Members—Terms—Qualifications—Compensation and travel expenses. A state board of registration for professional engineers and land surveyors is hereby created which shall exercise all of the powers and perform all of the duties conferred upon it by this chapter. The board shall consist of five registered professional engineers, who shall be appointed by the governor and shall have the qualifications as hereinafter required. The members of the first board shall be appointed within thirty days after June 11, 1947, to serve for the following terms: One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, and one member for five years, from the date of their appointment, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. Every member of the board shall receive a certificate of his appointment from the governor and before beginning his term of office shall file with the secretary of state his written oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge of his official duty. On the expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall in the manner hereinbefore provided appoint for a term of five years a registered professional engineer having the qualifications as hereinafter required, to take the place of the member whose term on said board is about to expire.

Each member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor shall have been duly appointed and shall have qualified.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years immediately preceding his appointment, and shall have been engaged in the practice of the profession of engineering for at least twelve years, and shall have been in responsible charge of important engineering work for at least five years. Responsible charge of engineering teaching may be construed as responsible charge of important engineering work.

Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and, in addition thereto, shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The governor may remove any member of the board for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor as hereinabove provided. [1984 c 287 § 35; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 37; 1947 c 283 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-23.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.43.035 Bylaws—Employees—Rules—Investigations—Oaths, subpoenas—Periodic reports and roster. The board may adopt and amend bylaws establishing its organization and method of operation, including but not limited to meetings, maintenance of books and records, publication of reports, code of ethics, and rosters, and adoption and use of a seal. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of any business of the board. The board may employ such persons as are necessary to carry out its duties under this chapter. It may adopt rules and regulations reasonably necessary to administer the provisions of this chapter. It may conduct investigations concerning alleged violations of the provisions of this chapter. In making such investigations and in all proceedings under RCW 18.43.110, the chairman of the board or any member of the board acting in his place may administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before the board, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, and require the production of books, records, papers and documents. If any person shall refuse to obey any subpoena so issued, or shall refuse to testify or produce any books, records, papers or documents so required to be produced, the board may present its petition to the superior court of the county in which such person resides, setting forth the facts, and thereupon the court shall, in any proper case, enter a suitable order compelling compliance with the provisions of this chapter and imposing such other terms and conditions as the court may deem equitable. The board shall submit to the governor such periodic reports as may be required. A roster, showing the names and places of business of all registered professional engineers and land surveyors may be published for distribution, upon request, to professional engineers and land surveyors registered under this chapter and to the public. [1977 c 75 § 10; 1961 c 142 § 1; 1959 c 297 § 1.]

18.43.040 Registration requirements. The following will be considered as minimum evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant is qualified for registration as a professional engineer, engineer-in-training, or land surveyor, respectively, to wit:

As a professional engineer: A specific record of eight years or more of experience in engineering work of a character satisfactory to the board and indicating that the applicant is competent to practice engineering; and successfully passing a written or oral examination, or both, in engineering as prescribed by the board.

Graduation in an approved engineering curriculum of four years or more from a school or college approved by the board as of satisfactory standing shall be considered equivalent to four years of such required experience. The satisfactory completion of each year of such an approved engineering course without graduation shall be considered as equivalent to a year of such required experience. Graduation in a curriculum other than engineering from a school or college approved by the board shall be considered as equivalent to two years of such required experience: Provided, That no applicant shall receive credit for more than four years of experience because of undergraduate educational qualifications. The board may, at its discretion, give credit as experience not in excess of one year, for satisfactory postgraduate study in engineering.

As an engineer-in-training: The board shall permit an applicant for registration as a professional engineer, upon his request, to take the prescribed examination in two stages. The first stage of the examination may be taken upon submission of his application for certification as an engineer-in-training and payment of the application fee herein prescribed, at any time after the applicant has completed four years of the required engineering experience as defined above. The first stage of the examination shall test the applicant's knowledge of appropriate fundamentals of engineering subjects, including mathematics and the basic sciences.

At any time after the completion of the required eight years of engineering experience as defined above, the applicant may take the second stage of the examination, upon submission of application for registration and payment of the application fee herein prescribed. This stage of the examination shall test the applicant's ability, upon the basis of his greater experience, to apply his knowledge and experience in the field of his specific training and qualifications.

As a land surveyor: A specific record of six years or more of experience in land surveying work of a character satisfactory to the board and indicating that the applicant is competent to practice land surveying, and successfully passing a written or oral examination, or both, in surveying as prescribed by the board.

Graduation from a school or college approved by the board as of satisfactory standing, including the completion of an approved course in surveying, shall be considered equivalent to four years of such required experience.

No person shall be eligible for registration as a professional engineer, engineer-in-training, or land surveyor, who is not of good character and reputation.

Engineering teaching, of a character satisfactory to the board, shall be considered as experience not in excess of two years for professional engineering and one year for land surveying.

The mere execution, as a contractor, of work designed by a professional engineer, or the supervision of the construction of such work as a foreman or superintendent shall not be deemed to be practice of engineering.

Any person having the necessary qualifications prescribed in this chapter to entitle him to registration shall be eligible for such registration although he may not be practicing his profession at the time of making his application. [1947 c 283 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-24. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 2; RRS § 8306-2.]

18.43.050 Application, registration and issuance fees. Application for registration shall be on forms prescribed by the board and furnished by the director, shall contain statements made under oath, showing the applicant's education and detail summary of his technical work and shall contain not less than five references, of whom three or more shall be engineers having personal knowledge of his engineering experience.

The registration fee for professional engineers shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall accompany the application. The director shall also determine a fee as provided in RCW 43.24.086 to be paid upon issuance of the certificate. The fee for engineer-in-training shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall accompany the application and shall include the cost of examination and issuance of certificate. When registration as a professional engineer is completed by an engineer-in-training an additional fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be paid before issuance of certificate as professional engineer.

The registration fee for land surveyors shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall accompany the application and shall include the cost of examination and issuance of certificate. The registration fee for professional engineers also qualified as land surveyors shall be the same as for professional engineers.

Should the board deny the issuance of a certificate of registration to any applicant, the initial fee deposited shall be retained as an application fee. [1985 c 7 § 42; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 46; 1947 c 283 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-25. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 6; RRS § 8306-6.]

18.43.060 Examinations. When oral or written examinations are required, they shall be held at such time and place as the board shall determine. If examinations are required on fundamental engineering subjects (such as ordinarily given in college curricula) the applicant shall be permitted to take this part of the professional examination prior to his completion of the requisite years of experience in engineering work. The board shall issue to each applicant upon successfully passing the examination in fundamental engineering subjects a certificate stating that he has passed the examination in fundamental engineering subjects and that his name has been recorded as an engineer-in-training.

The scope of the examination and the methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board with special reference to the applicant's ability to design and supervise engineering works so as to insure the safety of life, health and property. Examinations shall be given for the purpose of determining the qualifications of applicants for registration separately in engineering and in land surveying. A candidate failing an examination may apply for reexamination at the expiration of six months and will be reexamined without payment of additional fees. Subsequent examinations will be granted upon payment of a fee to be determined by the board. [1961 c 142 § 2; 1947 c 283 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-26. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 7; RRS § 8306-7.]

18.43.070 Certificates and seals. The director of licensing shall issue a certificate of registration upon payment of a registration fee as provided for in this chapter, to any applicant who, in the opinion of the board, has satisfactorily met all the requirements of this chapter. In case of a registered engineer, the certificate shall authorize the practice of "professional engineering" and specify the branch or branches in which specialized, and in case of a registered land surveyor, the certificate shall authorize the practice of "land surveying". In the case of a registered professional engineer also qualified as land surveyor but one certificate shall be issued.

In case of engineer-in-training, the certificate shall state that the applicant has successfully passed the examination in fundamental engineering subjects required by the board and has been enrolled as an "engineer-in-training". All certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, shall have a serial number, and shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board and by the director of licensing.

The issuance of a certificate of registration by the director of licensing shall be prima facie evidence that the person named therein is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a registered professional engineer or a registered land surveyor, while the said certificate remains unrevoked and unexpired.

Each registrant hereunder shall upon registration obtain a seal of the design authorized by the board, bearing the registrant's name and the legend "registered professional engineer" or "registered land surveyor". Plans, specifications, plats and reports prepared by the registrant shall be signed, dated, and stamped with said seal or facsimile thereof. Such signature and stamping shall constitute a certification by the registrant that the same was prepared by or under his direct supervision and that to his knowledge and belief the same was prepared in accordance with the requirements of the statute. It shall be unlawful for anyone to stamp or seal any document with said seal or facsimile thereof after the certificate of registrant named thereon has expired or been revoked, unless said certificate shall have been renewed or reissued. [1959 c 297 § 4; 1947 c 283 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-27. Prior: 1935 c 167 §§ 8, 13; RRS § 8306-8, 13.]

18.43.080 Expiration and renewals of certificates—Fees. Certificates of registration, and certificates of authorization and renewals thereof shall expire on the last day of the month of December following their issuance or renewal and shall become invalid on that date unless renewed. It shall be the duty of the administrator of the division of professional licensing to notify every person, firm or corporation registered under this chapter, of the date of the expiration of his certificate and the amount of the renewal fee that shall be required for its renewal for one year. Such notice shall be mailed at least thirty days before the end of December of each year. Renewal may be effected during the month of December by the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. In case any professional engineer and/or land surveyor registered under this chapter shall fail to pay the renewal fee hereinabove provided for, within ninety days from the date when the same shall become due, the renewal fee shall be the current fee plus an amount equal to one year's fee. [1985 c 7 § 43; 1981 c 260 § 4. Prior: 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 47; 1975 c 23 § 1; 1965 ex.s. c 126 § 1; 1961 c 142 § 3; 1959 c 297 § 5; 1947 c 283 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-28; prior: 1935 c 167 § 10; RRS § 8306-10.]

18.43.090 Practitioners at time of act. Any person who has been an actual resident of this state prior to January 1, 1947, and who shall establish to the satisfaction of the board by affidavits of two professional engineers, registered under this chapter, that he was engaged in the practice of engineering other than civil, electrical, mechanical, structural and hydraulic engineering and/or land surveying as defined by chapter 167, Laws of 1935, one year immediately prior to the taking effect of this chapter, shall be eligible for registration without examination provided he makes application for registration and pays the registration fee of fifteen dollars before January 1, 1948. After January 1, 1948, the director of licensing shall issue certificates of registration only as provided in RCW 18.43.050. All persons holding certificates of registration as professional engineers in civil, electrical, mechanical, structural and hydraulic engineering and/or land surveying under chapter 167, Laws of 1935, at the time this chapter becomes effective shall be automatically registered under this chapter, without issuance of an additional certificate. [1947 c 283 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-29.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.43.100 Registration of out-of-state applicants—Requirements—Reciprocity. The board may, upon application therefor, and the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 issue a certificate without further examination as a professional engineer or land surveyor to any person who holds a certificate of qualification of registration issued to him following examination by proper authority, of any state or territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or of any foreign country, provided: (1) That the applicant's qualifications meet the requirements of the chapter, and the rules established by the board, (2) that the applicant is in good standing with the licensing agency in said state, territory, possession, district, or foreign country; and (3) that the said state, territory, possession, district, or foreign country gives like consideration on a reciprocal basis to those persons who have been registered by examination in this state. [1985 c 7 § 44; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 48; 1959 c 297 § 6; 1947 c 283 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306–30. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 5; RRS § 8306–5.]

18.43.105 "Misconduct or malpractice in the practice of engineering" defined. As used in this chapter "misconduct or malpractice in the practice of engineering" shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1) Offering to pay, paying or accepting, either directly or indirectly, any substantial gift, bribe, or other consideration to influence the award of professional work;

(2) Being wilfully untruthful or deceptive in any professional report, statement or testimony;

(3) Attempting to injure falsely or maliciously, directly or indirectly, the professional reputation, prospects or business of anyone;

(4) Failure to state separately or to charge separately for professional engineering services or land surveying where other services or work are also being performed in connection with the engineering services;

(5) Conviction in any court of any offense involving moral turpitude;

(6) Violation of any provisions of this chapter;

(7) Conflict of interest—Having a financial interest in bidding for or performance of a contract to supply labor or materials for or to construct a project for which employed or retained as an engineer except with the consent of the client or employer after disclosure of such facts; or allowing an interest in any business to affect a decision regarding engineering work for which retained, employed, or called upon to perform;

(8) Nondisclosure—Failure to promptly disclose to a client or employer any interest in a business which may compete with or affect the business of the client or employer;

(9) Unfair competition—Reducing a fee quoted for prospective employment or retainer as an engineer after being informed of the fee quoted by another engineer for the same employment or retainer;

(10) Improper advertising—Soliciting retainer or employment by advertisement which is undignified, self-laudatory, false or misleading, or which makes or invites comparison between the advertiser and other engineers;

(11) Committing any other act, or failing to act, which act or failure are customarily regarded as being contrary to the accepted professional conduct or standard generally expected of those practicing professional engineering or land surveying. [1961 c 142 § 4; 1959 c 297 § 2.]

18.43.110 Revocations, fines, reprimands, and suspensions. The board shall have the exclusive power to fine and reprimand the registrant and suspend or revoke the certificate of registration of any registrant who is found guilty of:

The practice of any fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate of registration; or Any gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct in the practice of engineering or land surveying as a registered engineer or land surveyor.

Any person may prefer charges of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct against any registrant. Such charges shall be in writing and shall be sworn to by the person making them and shall be filed with the secretary of the board.

All charges, unless dismissed by the board as unfounded or trivial, shall be heard by the board within three months after the date on which they have been preferred. All procedures related to hearings on such charges shall be in accordance with rules for a contested case, chapter 34.04 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act.

If, after such hearing, a majority of the board vote in favor of finding the accused guilty, the board shall revoke or suspend the certificate of registration of such registered professional engineer or land surveyor.

The board, for reasons it deems sufficient, may reissue a certificate of registration to any person whose certificate has been revoked or suspended, providing a majority of the board vote in favor of such issuance. A new certificate of registration to replace any certificate revoked, lost, destroyed, or mutilated may be issued, subject to the rules of the board, and a charge determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be made for such issuance.

Any person who shall feel aggrieved by any action of the board in denying or revoking his certificate of registration may appeal therefrom to the superior court of the county in which such person resides, and after full hearing, said court shall make such decree sustaining or revoking the action of the board as it may deem just and proper.

Fines imposed by the board shall not exceed one thousand dollars for each offense.

In addition to the imposition of civil penalties under this section, the board may refer violations of this chapter to the appropriate prosecuting attorney for charges under RCW 18.43.120. [1985 c 7 § 45; 1982 c 37 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 49; 1947 c 283 § 14; Rem. Supp.

18.43.120 Violations and penalties. Any person who shall practice, or offer to practice, engineering or land surveying in this state without being registered in accordance with the provisions of the chapter, or any person presenting or attempting to use as his own the certificate of registration or the seal of another, or any person who shall give any false or forged evidence of any kind to the board or to any member thereof in obtaining a certificate of registration, or any person who shall falsely impersonate any other registrant, or any person who shall attempt to use the expired or revoked certificate of registration, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

It shall be the duty of all officers of the state or any political subdivision thereof, to enforce the provisions of this chapter. The attorney general shall act as legal adviser of the board, and render such legal assistance as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [1947 c 283 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306–32. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 14; RRS § 8306–14.]

18.43.130 Excepted services—Fees. This chapter shall not be construed to prevent or affect:

(1) The practice of any other legally recognized profession or trade; or

(2) The practice of a person not a resident and having no established place of business in this state, practicing or offering to practice herein the profession of engineering or land surveying, when such practice does not exceed in the aggregate more than thirty days in any calendar year: Provided, Such person is legally qualified by registration to practice the said profession in his own state or country in which the requirements and qualifications for obtaining a certificate of registration are not lower than those specified in this chapter; or

(3) The practice of a person not a resident and having no established place of business in this state, or who has recently become a resident thereof, practicing or offering to practice herein for more than thirty days in any calendar year the profession of engineering or land surveying, if he shall have filed with the board an application for a certificate of registration and shall have paid the fee required by this chapter: Provided, That such person is legally qualified by registration to practice engineering or land surveying in his own state or country in which the requirements and qualifications of obtaining a certificate of registration are not lower than those specified in this chapter. Such practice shall continue only for such time as the board requires for the consideration of the application for registration; or

(4) The work of an employee or a subordinate of a person holding a certificate of registration under this chapter, or an employee of a person practicing lawfully under provisions of this section: Provided, That such work does not include final design or decisions and is done under the direct responsibility, checking, and supervision of a person holding a certificate of registration under this chapter or a person practicing lawfully under the provisions of this section; or

(5) The work of a person rendering engineering or land surveying services to a corporation, as an employee of such corporation, when such services are rendered in carrying on the general business of the corporation and such general business does not consist, either wholly or in part, of the rendering of engineering services to the general public: Provided, That such corporation employs at least one person holding a certificate of registration under this chapter or practicing lawfully under the provisions of this chapter; or

(6) The practice of officers or employees of the government of the United States while engaged within the state in the practice of the profession of engineering or land surveying for said government; or

(7) Nonresident engineers employed for the purpose of making engineering examinations; or

(8) The practice of engineering in this state by a corporation or joint stock association: Provided, That

(a) Such corporation shall file with the board an application for certificate of authorization upon a form to be prescribed by the board and containing information required to enable the board to determine whether such corporation is qualified in accordance with the provisions of this chapter to practice engineering in this state;

(b) Such corporation shall file with the board a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors of the corporation which shall designate a person holding a certificate of registration under this chapter as responsible for the practice of engineering by said corporation in this state and shall provide that full authority to make all final engineering decisions on behalf of said corporation with respect to work performed by the corporation in this state shall be granted and delegated by the board of directors to the person so designated in said resolution: Provided, That the filing of such resolution shall not relieve the corporation of any responsibility or liability imposed upon it by law or by contract;

(c) Such corporation shall file with the board a designation in writing setting forth the name or names of a person or persons holding certificates of registration under this chapter who shall be in responsible charge of each project and each major branch of the engineering activities in which the corporation shall specialize in this state. In the event there shall be a change in the person or persons in responsible charge of any project or major branch of the engineering activities, such changes shall be designated in writing and filed with the board within thirty days after the effective date of such changes;

(d) Upon the filing with the board of the application for certificate for authorization, certified copy of resolution, affidavit and designation of persons specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section the board shall issue to such corporation a certificate of authorization to practice engineering in this state upon a determination by the board (1) that:

(i) The bylaws of the corporation contain provisions that all engineering decisions pertaining to any project or engineering activities in this state shall be made by the specified engineer in responsible charge, or other responsible engineers under his direction or supervision;

(ii) The application for certificate of authorization states the type, or types, of engineering practiced, or to be practiced by such corporation;

(iii) A current certified financial statement accurately reflecting the financial condition of the corporation has been filed with the board and is available for public inspection;

(iv) The applicant corporation has the ability to provide through qualified engineering personnel, professional services or creative work requiring engineering experience, and that with respect to the engineering services which the corporation undertakes or offers to undertake such personnel have the ability to apply special knowledge of the mathematical, physical, and engineering sciences to such professional services or creative work as consultation, investigation, evaluation, planning, design, and supervision of construction for the purpose of assuring compliance with specifications and design, in connection with any public or private utilities, structures, buildings, machines, equipment, processes, works, or projects;

(v) The application for certificate of authorization states the professional records of the designated person or persons who shall be in responsible charge of each project and each major branch of engineering activities in which the corporation shall specialize;

(vi) The application for certificate of authorization states the experience of the corporation, if any, in furnishing engineering services during the preceding five year period and states the experience of the corporation, if any, in the furnishing of all feasibility and advisory studies made within the state of Washington;

(vii) The applicant corporation meets such other requirements related to professional competence in the furnishing of engineering services as may be established and promulgated by the board in furtherance of the objectives and provisions of this chapter; and

(2) Upon a determination by the board based upon an evaluation of the foregoing findings and information that the applicant corporation is possessed of the ability and competence to furnish engineering services in the public interest.

The board may in the exercise of its discretion refuse to issue or may suspend and/or revoke a certificate of authorization to a corporation where the board shall find that any of the officers, directors, incorporators, or the stockholders holding a majority of stock of such corporation has committed misconduct or malpractice as defined in RCW 18.43.105 or has been found personally responsible for misconduct or malpractice under the provisions of subsections (f) and (g) hereof.

The certificate of authorization shall specify the major branches of engineering of which the corporation has designated a person or persons in responsible charge as provided in subsection (8) (c) of this section.

(e) In the event a corporation, organized solely by a group of engineers, each holding a certificate of registration under this chapter, applies for a certificate of authorization, the board may, in its discretion, grant a certificate of authorization to such corporation based on a review of the professional records of such incorporators, in lieu of the required qualifications set forth in this subsection. In the event the ownership of such corporation shall be altered, the corporation shall apply for a revised certificate of authorization, based upon the professional records of the owners, if exclusively engineers or, otherwise, under the qualifications required by subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) hereof.

(f) Any corporation authorized to practice engineering under this chapter, together with its directors and officers for their own individual acts, are responsible to the same degree as an individual registered engineer, and must conduct its business without misconduct or malpractice in the practice of engineering as defined in this chapter.

(g) Any corporation which has been duly certified under the provisions of this chapter and has engaged in the practice of engineering shall have its certificate of authorization either suspended or revoked by the board if, after a proper hearing, the board shall find that the corporation has committed misconduct or malpractice as defined in RCW 18.43.105. In such case any individual engineer holding a certificate of registration under this chapter, involved in such malpractice or misconduct, shall have his certificate of registration suspended or revoked also.

(h) All plans, specifications, designs, and reports when issued in connection with work performed by a corporation under its certificate of authorization shall be prepared by or under the responsible charge of and shall be signed by and shall be stamped with the official seal of a person holding a certificate of registration under this chapter.

(i) For each certificate of authorization issued under the provisions of this subsection (8) of this section there shall be paid an initial fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and an annual renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

(9) The practice of engineering and/or land surveying in this state by partnership: Provided, That

(a) A majority of the members of the partnership are engineers or architects or land surveyors duly certificated by the state of Washington or by a state, territory, possession, district, or foreign country meeting the reciprocal provisions of RCW 18.43.100: Provided, That at least one of the members is a professional engineer or land surveyor holding a certificate issued by the director under the provisions of RCW 18.43.070; and

(b) Except where all members of the partnership are professional engineers or land surveyors or a combination of professional engineers and land surveyors or where all members of the partnership are either professional engineers or land surveyors in combination with an architect or architects all of which are holding certificates of qualification therefor issued under the laws of the state of Washington, the partnership shall file with the board an instrument executed by a partner on behalf of the partnership designating the persons responsible for the practice of engineering by the partnership in this state and in all other respects such person so designated and such partnership shall meet the same qualifications and shall be subject to the same requirements and the same penalties as those pertaining to corporations and to the responsible persons designated by corporations as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

For each certificate of authorization issued under the provisions of this subsection (9) of this section there shall be paid an initial fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and an annual renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 46; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 50; 1965 ex.s. c 126 § 2; 1961 c 142 § 5; 1959 c 297 § 7; 1947 c 283 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8306-33. Prior: 1935 c 167 § 2; RRS § 8306-2.]

18.43.140 Injunctive relief, proof— Board's immunity from liability—Prosecutions. The board is authorized to apply for relief by injunction without bond, to restrain a person from the commission of any act which is prohibited by this chapter. In such proceedings, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist, or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from the continued violation thereof. The members of the board shall not be personally liable for their action in any such proceeding or in any other proceeding instituted by the board under the provisions of this chapter. The board in any proper case shall cause prosecution to be instituted in any county or counties where any violation of this chapter occurs, and shall aid in the prosecution of the violator. [1959 c 297 § 3.]

18.43.150 Disposition of fees—Earnings. All fees collected under the provisions of RCW 18.43.050, 18.43.080 and 18.43.130 shall be divided and twenty percent paid into the state general fund and eighty percent paid into the professional engineers' account, which account is hereby established in the state treasury to be used to carry out the purposes and provisions of RCW 18.43.050, 18.43.060, 18.43.080, 18.43.100, 18.43.110, 18.43.120, 18.43.130, 18.43.140 and all other duties required for operation and enforcement of this chapter. All earnings of investments of balances in the professional engineers' account shall be credited to the general fund. [1985 c 57 § 5; 1965 ex.s. c 126 § 3.]

18.43.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Professional Engineers' Registration Act". [1947 c 283 § 19.]

18.43.910 Severability—1947 c 283. If any section of this chapter shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid, such adjudication shall not invalidate any other provision or provisions thereof. [1947 c 283 § 17.]

18.43.920 Severability—1959 c 297. If any section of this act or part thereof shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid, such adjudication shall not invalidate any other provision or provisions thereof. [1959 c 297 § 8.]

18.43.930 Severability—1961 c 142. If any section of this act or part thereof shall be adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, such adjudication shall not invalidate any other provision or provisions thereof. [1961 c 142 § 6.]

18.44.010 Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires terms used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

- (1) "Department" means the department of licensing.
- (2) "Director" means the director of licensing, or his duly authorized representative.
- (3) "Escrow" means any transaction wherein any person or persons, for the purpose of effecting and closing the sale, purchase, exchange, transfer, encumbrance, or lease of real or personal property to another person or persons, delivers any written instrument, money, evidence of title to real or personal property, or other thing of value to a third person to be held by such third person until the happening of a specified event or the performance of a prescribed condition or conditions, when it is then to be delivered by such third person, in compliance with instructions under which he is to act, to a grantee, grantor, promisee, promisor, obligee, obligor, lessee, lessor, bailee, bailor, or any agent or employee thereof.
- (4) "Escrow agent" means any sole proprietorship, firm, association, partnership, or corporation engaged in the business of performing for compensation the duties of the third person referred to in RCW 18.44.010(3) above.
- (5) "Certificated escrow agent" means any sole proprietorship, firm, association, partnership, or corporation holding a certificate of registration as an escrow agent under the provisions of this chapter.
- (6) "Person" unless a different meaning appears from the context, includes an individual, a firm, association, partnership or corporation, or the plural thereof, whether resident, nonresident, citizen or not.
- (7) "Escrow officer" means any natural person handling escrow transactions and licensed as such by the director.
- (8) "Escrow commission" means the escrow commission of the state of Washington created by RCW 18.44.208.
- (9) "Controlling person" is any person who owns or controls ten percent or more of the beneficial ownership of any escrow agent, regardless of the form of business organization employed and regardless of whether such interest stands in such person's true name or in the name of a nominee. [1985 c 7 § 47; 1979 c 158 § 42; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 1; 1965 c 153 § 1.]

18.44.020 Registration—Required—Exceptions. It shall be unlawful for any person to engage in business as an escrow agent within this state unless such person possesses a valid certificate of registration issued by the director pursuant to this chapter: Provided, That the registration and licensing requirements of this chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Any person doing business under the law of this state or the United States relating to banks, trust companies, mutual savings banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, insurance companies, title insurance companies, the duly authorized agents of title insurance companies the business of which agents is exclusively devoted to the title insurance business, or any federally approved agency or lending institution under the National Housing Act.

(2) Any person licensed to practice law in this state while engaged in the performance of his professional duties.

(3) Any company, broker, or agent subject to the jurisdiction of the director while performing acts in the course of or incidental to sales or purchases of real or personal property handled or negotiated by such company, broker, or agent: Provided, however, That no compensation is received for escrow services.

(4) Any transaction in which money or other property is paid to, deposited with, or transferred to a joint control agent for disbursal or use in payment of the cost of labor, material, services, permits, fees, or other items of expense incurred in the construction of improvements upon real property.

(5) Any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or other person acting under the supervision or order of any superior court of this state or of any federal court. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 2; 1967 ex.s. c 76 § 1; 1965 c 153 § 2.]

18.44.030 Registration—Application, requisites. An application for registration as an escrow agent shall be in writing in such form as is prescribed by the director, and shall be verified on oath by the applicant. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall include a list of the officers and directors of such corporation, and their addresses; if the applicant is a firm or partnership, the application shall include a list of the names and addresses of the partners. The application shall include a consent to service of process, in such form as the director shall prescribe, and payment of the fee required by RCW 18.44.080. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 3; 1965 c 153 § 3.]

18.44.040 Registration—Filing requirements. Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for registration, file with the director:

(1) The applicant's business form and place of organization.

(2) In the event the applicant is doing business under an assumed name, a certified copy of the certificate of assumed name as filed with the county clerk in the county or counties in which the applicant does business or proposes to do business, as provided in chapter 19.80 RCW.

(3) The qualification and business history including a commercial type credit and character report from a recognized credit reporting bureau satisfactory to the director on the applicant, principal officers, controlling person, or partners.

(4) Such proof as the director may require concerning the honesty, veracity, and good reputation, as well as the identity of the applicant, principal officers, controlling person, or partners. Identification of the applicant, principal officers, or partners shall include but not be limited to fingerprints.

(5) Whether the applicant, principal officers, or partners have been convicted of any crime within the preceding ten years which relate directly to the business or duties of escrow agents, or have suffered a judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion.

(6) The identity of the natural person designated as the escrow officer to supervise the agent's escrow activity.

(7) Any other information the director may reasonably require. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 3; 1965 c 153 § 4.]

18.44.050 Fidelity bond—Errors and omissions policy. At the time of filing an application as an escrow agent, or any renewal or reinstatement thereof, the applicant shall satisfy the director that it has obtained the following as evidence of financial responsibility:

(1) A fidelity bond providing coverage in the aggregate amount of two hundred thousand dollars covering each corporate officer, partner, escrow officer, and employee of the applicant engaged in escrow transactions; and

(2) An errors and omissions policy issued to the escrow agent providing coverage in the minimum aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars or, alternatively, cash or securities in the principal amount of fifty thousand dollars deposited in an approved depository on condition that they be available for payment of any claim payable under an equivalent errors and omissions policy in that amount and pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the department for that purpose.

For the purposes of this section, a "fidelity bond" shall mean a primary commercial blanket bond or its equivalent satisfactory to the director and written by an insurer authorized to transact surety business in the state of Washington. Such bond shall provide fidelity coverage for any fraudulent or dishonest acts committed by any one or more of the employees or officers as defined in the bond, acting alone or in collusion with others. Said bond shall be for the sole benefit of the escrow agent and under no circumstances whatsoever shall the bonding company be liable under the bond to any other party. The bond shall name the escrow agent as obligee and shall protect the obligee against the loss of money or other real or personal property belonging to the obligee, or in which the obligee has a pecuniary interest, or for which the obligee is legally liable or held by the obligee in any capacity, whether the obligee is legally liable therefor or not. The bond may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of thirty days' written notice to the director and to the escrow agent.

For the purposes of this section, an "errors and omissions policy" shall mean a group or individual insurance policy satisfactory to the director and issued by an insurer authorized to transact insurance business in the state of Washington. Such policy shall provide coverage for unintentional errors and omissions of the escrow agent and its employees, and may be canceled by the insurer upon delivery of thirty days' written notice to the director and to the escrow agent.

Except as provided in RCW 18.44.360, the fidelity bond and the errors and omissions policy required by this section shall be kept in full force and effect as a condition precedent to the escrow agent's authority to transact escrow business in this state, and the escrow agent shall supply the director with satisfactory evidence thereof upon request. [1979 c 70 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 4; 1965 c 153 § 5.]

18.44.060 Cancellation of bond, new bond required. In the event of cancellation of a bond the director shall require the filing of a new bond. Failure to deposit such new bond after notification by the director that one is required shall be sufficient grounds for the suspension or revocation of the certificate of registration. [1965 c 153 § 6.]

18.44.065 Advertisement, statement, or reference to existence of financial responsibility requirements prohibited. No escrow agent, officer, or employee shall publish or otherwise place before the public any advertisement, announcement, or statement which uses or makes reference to the existence of the financial responsibility requirements of this chapter, including but not limited to references to "bonded" or "insured".

No firm or organization engaged in escrow transactions, whether or not such firm is doing business in a corporate form, shall use in the name of such firm any reference to the financial responsibility requirements of this chapter, including but not limited to "bonded" or "insured". [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 18.]

18.44.067 Change in business or branch office location. Notice in writing shall be given to the director and to the insurer providing coverage under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended of any change of business location or of branch office location. Upon the surrender of the original registration for the agent or the registration applicable to a branch office and a payment of a fee, the director shall issue a new certificate covering the new location. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 19.]

18.44.070 Records and accounts—Segregation of funds. Every certificated escrow agent shall keep adequate records of all transactions handled by or through him including itemization of all receipts and disbursements of each transaction, which records shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

Every certificated agent shall keep a separate escrow fund account in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds, in which shall be kept separate and apart and segregated from the agent's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by the agent pending the closing of a transaction and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

Violation of this section shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the registration or license of any person under this chapter and such additional penalties as may be prescribed in Title 9A RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 6; 1965 c 153 § 7.]

18.44.080 Fees. The director shall charge and collect the following fees:

(1) For filing an original or a renewal application for registration as an escrow agent, annual fees for the first office or location and for each additional office or location.

(2) For filing an application for a change of address, for each certificate of registration and for each escrow officer license being so changed.

(3) For filing an application for a duplicate of a certificate of registration or of an escrow officer license lost, stolen, destroyed, or for replacement.

(4) For providing administrative support to the escrow commission.

All fees under this chapter shall be set by the director in accordance with RCW 43.24.086.

All fees received by the director under this chapter shall be paid by him into the state treasury to the credit of the general fund. [1985 c 340 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 5; 1965 c 153 § 8.]

18.44.090 Certificate of registration—Issuance. Upon the filing of the application for registration as an escrow agent on a form provided by the director and satisfying the requirements as set forth in this chapter, the director shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of registration to engage in the business of an escrow agent at the location set forth in the certificate. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 8; 1965 c 153 § 9.]

18.44.100 Certificate of registration—Duration—Posting. An escrow agent's certificate or registration shall remain in effect until surrendered, revoked, suspended, or until it expires, and shall at all times be kept conspicuously posted in all places of business of the agent. [1965 c 153 § 10.]

18.44.110 Certificate of registration—Expiration and renewal. Each escrow agent's certificate shall expire at noon on the thirty-first day of December of any calendar year. Registration may be renewed by filing an application and paying the annual registration fee for the next succeeding calendar year. [1985 c 340 § 2; 1965 c 153 § 11.]

18.44.120 Certificate of registration—Reinstatement. An escrow agent's certificate which has not been renewed may be reinstated at any time prior to the thirtieth day of January following its expiration, upon the payment to the director of the annual registration fees then in default and a penalty equal to one-half of the annual registration fees then in default. [1965 c 153 § 12.]

18.44.130 Termination of certificate—Effect upon preexisting escrows—Notice to principals. The revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration of an escrow agent's certificate shall not impair or affect preexisting escrows accepted by the agent prior to such revocation, suspension, surrender or expiration: Provided, That the escrow agent shall within five work days provide written notice to all principals of such preexisting escrows of the agent's loss of registration. The notice shall include as a minimum the reason for the loss of registration, the estimated date for completing the escrow, and the condition of the agent's bond and whether it is in effect or whether notice of cancellation has been given. The notice shall afford the principals the right to withdraw the escrow without monetary loss. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 9; 1965 c 153 § 13.]

18.44.140 Engaging in business without certificate—Penalty. Any person required by this chapter to obtain a certificate of registration who engages in business as an escrow agent without applying for and receiving the certificate of registration required by this chapter, or wilfully continues to act as an escrow agent after surrender or revocation of his certificate, is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than ninety days, or by a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [1965 c 153 § 14.]

Date for initial compliance: "All persons doing business within this state as an escrow agent as defined in this act, who may be required by this act to register with the department, shall comply with the provisions hereof not later than December 31, 1965." [1965 c 153 § 15.]

18.44.150 Enforcement officials. The attorney general and the prosecuting attorneys of the several counties shall be responsible for the enforcement of this chapter. [1965 c 153 § 16.]

18.44.160 Remedies—Injunction—Restraining order. Whenever it shall appear that any person, required by this chapter to register with the department, is conducting business as an escrow agent without having applied for and obtained a certificate of registration, or that any certificated escrow agent is conducting business in a manner deemed unsafe or injurious to the public or any party having business relations with such escrow agent as a contracting party to an escrow agreement as defined in RCW 18.44.010, or in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the appropriate county may, after such investigation as may be necessary, apply to the appropriate court for an order enjoining the person from engaging in or continuing to engage in the activity violative of this chapter, and upon a showing that such person has engaged, or is about to engage, in any such activity, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other appropriate order may be issued by the court. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 10; 1965 c 153 § 17.]

18.44.170 Remedies—Affecting corporate franchise. Upon petition by the attorney general, the court may, in its discretion, order the dissolution, or suspension or forfeiture of franchise, of any corporation for repeated or flagrant violation of this chapter or the terms of any order of injunction hereunder. [1965 c 153 § 18.]

18.44.175 Violations—Cease and desist orders—Injunction—Restraining order. If the director determines after notice and hearing that a person has:

- (1) Violated any provision of this chapter; or
- (2) Directly, or through an agent or employee, engaged in any false, deceptive, or misleading
  - (a) advertising or promotional activity, or
  - (b) business practices; or
- (3) Violated any lawful order, rule, or regulation of the director; the director may issue an order requiring the person to cease and desist from the unlawful practice and to take such affirmative action as in the judgment of the director will carry out the purposes of this chapter.

If the director makes a finding of fact in writing that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Prior to issuing the temporary cease and desist order, the director, whenever possible by telephone or otherwise, shall give notice of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include in its terms a provision that upon request a hearing will be held to determine whether or not the order becomes permanent.

If it appears that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of a provision of this chapter, or a rule or order under this chapter, the director, with or without prior administrative proceedings, may bring an action in the superior court to enjoin the acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter. Upon proper showing, injunctive relief or temporary restraining orders shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed. The director shall not be required to post a bond in any court proceedings. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 20.]

18.44.180 Proof of registration prerequisite to action for fee. No person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of an escrow agent may bring or maintain any action in any court of this state for the collection or compensation for the performances of any services entered upon after December 31, 1965, for which registration is required under this chapter without alleging and proving that he was a duly certificated escrow agent at the time of commencement of such services. [1965 c 153 § 19.]

18.44.190 Receivership. Upon application by the director or any other interested party and upon a showing that the interest of the creditors so requires, the superior court may appoint a receiver to take over, operate, or liquidate any escrow office in this state. [1971 ex.s. c 245 § 6.]

18.44.200 Escrow officer required for handling transactions—Exceptions—Responsibility of supervising escrow agent. No escrow agent shall engage in the business of handling escrow transactions unless such transactions are supervised by a licensed "escrow officer": Provided, That (1) in the case of a partnership, one licensed partner shall act on behalf of the partnership; (2) in the case of a corporation, one licensed officer thereof shall act on behalf of the corporation; and (3) each branch office shall be required to have at least one licensed escrow officer designated by the escrow agent. Responsibility for the conduct of any escrow agent, escrow officers, or branch escrow officers covered by this chapter shall rest with the escrow officer having direct supervision of such person's escrow activities. The branch escrow officer shall bear responsibility for persons operating under each branch escrow officer's supervision at a branch escrow office. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 7.]

18.44.208 Escrow commission—Members—Terms—Compensation and travel expenses. There is established an escrow commission of the state of Washington, to consist of the director of licensing as chairman, and five members who shall act as advisors to the director as to the needs of the escrow profession, including but not limited to the design and conduct of tests to be administered to applicants for escrow licenses, the schedule of license fees to be applied to the escrow licensees, educational programs, audits and investigations of the escrow profession designed to protect the consumer, and such other matters determined appropriate. Such members shall be appointed by the governor, each of whom shall have been a resident of this state for at least five years and shall have at least five years experience in the practice of escrow as an escrow agent or as a person in responsible charge of escrow transactions.

The members of the first commission shall serve for the following terms: One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, and one member for five years, from the date of their appointment, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. Every member of the commission shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor and before beginning the member's term of office shall file with the secretary of state a written oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge of the member's official duties. On the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for a term of five years or until the member's successor has been appointed and qualified.

The governor may remove any member of the commission for cause. Vacancies in the commission for any reason shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term.

Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1985 c 340 § 3; 1984 c 287 § 36.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.44.215 Compensation and travel expenses of commission members. The escrow commission members shall each be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03-.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided for state officials and employees in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, when called into session by the director or when otherwise engaged in the business of the commission. [1984 c 287 § 37; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 29.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.44.220 Escrow officers—Examination—Fee—Qualifications. Any person desiring to be an escrow officer must successfully pass an examination. The person shall make application for an escrow officer examination on a form provided by the director and pay an examination fee. The applicant shall satisfy the director that the applicant is at least eighteen years old and is a resident of the state of Washington. [1985 c 340 § 4; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 13; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 9.]

18.44.240 Escrow officer examination—Subjects—Annual. The escrow officer examination shall encompass the following:

(1) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing, and arithmetic;

(2) An understanding of the principles of real estate conveyancing, the general purposes and legal effects of deeds, mortgages, deeds of trust, contracts of sale, exchanges, rental and optional agreements, leases, earnest money agreements, personal property transfers, and encumbrances;

(3) An understanding of the obligations between principal and agent; and

(4) An understanding of the meaning and nature of encumbrances upon real property.

The examination shall be in such form as prescribed by the director and approved by the commission, and shall be given at least annually. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 14; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 11.]

18.44.250 Director—Educational conferences—Examinations. The director shall have the authority to hold educational conferences for the benefit of the industry and shall conduct examinations for licenses as an escrow officer. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 15; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 12.]

18.44.260 Denial, suspension, or revocation of escrow agent's registration or escrow officer's license—Grounds. The director may, upon notice to the escrow agent and to the insurer providing coverage under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended, by order deny, suspend, or revoke the certificate of registration or license of any escrow agent or escrow officer if he finds that the applicant or any partner, officer, director, controlling person, or employee is guilty of the following:

(1) Obtaining a license or registration by means of fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, or through the mistake or inadvertence of the director.

(2) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any lawful rules or regulations made by the director pursuant thereto.

(3) The commission of a crime against the laws of this or any other state or government, involving moral turpitude or dishonest dealings.

(4) Knowingly committing or being a party to, any material fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, conspiracy, collusion, trick, scheme, or device whereby any other person lawfully relying upon the word, representation, or conduct of the licensee or agent or any partner, officer, director, controlling person, or employee acts to his injury or damage.

(5) Conversion of any money, contract, deed, note, mortgage, or abstract or other evidence of title to his own use or to the use of his principal or of any other person, when delivered to him in trust or on condition, in violation of the trust or before the happening of the condition; and failure to return any money or contract, deed, note, mortgage, abstract or other evidence of title within thirty days after the owner thereof is entitled thereto, and makes demand therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of such conversion.

(6) Failing, upon demand, to disclose any information within his knowledge to, or to produce any document, book, or record in his possession for inspection of, the director or his authorized representatives.

(7) Committing any act of fraudulent or dishonest dealing, and a certified copy of the final holding of any court of competent jurisdiction in such matter shall be conclusive evidence in any hearing under this chapter.

(8) Accepting, taking or charging any undisclosed commission, rebate or direct profit on expenditures made for the principal. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 16; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 13.]

18.44.270 Application of administrative procedure act to revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew proceedings. The proceedings for revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew or accept an application for renewal of an escrow agent's registration or escrow officer license, and any appeal therefrom or review thereof shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 17; 1971 ex.s. c 245 § 14.]

18.44.280 Investigation of violations—Procedure—Powers of director. The director may:

(1) Make necessary public or private investigations within or outside of this state to determine whether any person has violated or is about to violate this chapter or any rule, regulation, or order under this chapter, or to aid in the enforcement of this chapter or in the prescribing of rules and forms under this chapter; or

(2) Require or permit any person to file a statement in writing, under oath or otherwise as the director determines, as to all facts and circumstances concerning the matter to be investigated.

For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths or affirmations, and upon his own motion or upon request of any party, may subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any matter which is relevant to the investigation, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition, and location of any books, documents, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge or relevant facts, or any other matter reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of material evidence.

Upon failure to obey a subpoena or to answer questions propounded by the investigating officer and upon reasonable notice to all persons affected thereby, the director may apply to the superior court for an order compelling compliance.

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter shall be in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 21.]

18.44.290 Escrow officer's license—Application—Form—Timely filing—Proof of moral character, etc. Any person desiring to be an escrow officer shall meet the requirements of RCW 18.44.220 as provided in this chapter. The applicant shall make application endorsed by a certificated escrow agent to the director on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the director. Such application must be received by the director within one year of passing the escrow officer examination. With this application the applicant shall:

- (1) Pay a license fee as set forth in this chapter; and
- (2) Furnish such proof as the director may require concerning his honesty, truthfulness, good reputation, and identity, including but not limited to fingerprints. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 22.]

18.44.300 Escrow officer's license—Fees—Renewal. Any person desiring to be an escrow officer must include with the application a license fee. Every escrow officer license issued under the provisions of this chapter expires on the date one year from the date of issue which date will henceforth be the renewal date. An annual license renewal fee in the same amount must be paid on or before each renewal date: Provided, That licenses issued or renewed prior to September 21, 1977 shall use the existing renewal date as the date of issue. If the application for a renewal license is not received by the director on or before the renewal date such license is expired. The license may be reinstated at any time prior to the next succeeding renewal date following its expiration upon the payment to the director of the annual renewal fee then in default. Acceptance by the director of an application for renewal after the renewal date shall not be a waiver of the delinquency. Licenses not renewed within one year of the renewal date then in default shall be canceled. A new license may be obtained by satisfying the procedures and qualifications for initial licensing, including where applicable successful completion of examinations. [1985 c 340 § 5; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 23.]

18.44.310 Escrow officer's license—Retention and display by agent—Termination—Inactive licenses. The license of an escrow officer shall be retained and displayed at all times by the certificated escrow agent, and when the officer ceases to represent the agent, the license shall cease to be in force. Notice of such termination shall be given by the next regular business day by the escrow agent to the director and such notice shall be accompanied by and include the surrender of the escrow officer's license. Failure to notify the director of such termination after demand by the affected escrow officer shall work a forfeiture of the escrow agent's certificate of registration.

The director may hold the escrow officer's license inactive for a period not exceeding three consecutive years upon application of the escrow officer: Provided, That the escrow officer shall pay the annual renewal fee. Such license may be activated upon application of a certificated escrow agent on a form provided by the director, endorsement by an escrow officer, and the payment of a fee. The director shall thereupon issue a new license for the unexpired term if such escrow officer is otherwise entitled thereto. An escrow officer's first license shall not be issued inactive. [1985 c 340 § 6; 1977 ex.s. c 156 § 24.]

18.44.320 Rules and regulations—Enforcement—Hearings—Denial, suspension or revocation of registration or licenses—Powers of director. The director may issue rules and regulations to govern the activities of certificated escrow agents and escrow officers. The director shall enforce all laws, rules, and regulations relative to the registration of escrow agents and licensing of escrow officers. The director may hold hearings and suspend or revoke the registration or licenses of violators and may deny, suspend, or revoke the authority of an escrow officer to act as the designated escrow officer of a person who commits violations of this chapter or of the rules and regulations.

Except as specifically provided in this chapter, the rules adopted and the hearings conducted shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 25.]

18.44.330 Escrow agent branch offices—Application to establish—Requirements. An escrow agent shall not operate an escrow business in a location other than the location set forth on the agent's certificate of registration issued by the director. The escrow agent may apply to the director for authority to establish one or more branch offices under the same name as the main office.

Any person desiring to operate a branch escrow office shall make application on a form provided by the director and pay a fee as set forth in this chapter. Such application shall identify the natural person designated as the escrow officer to supervise the agent's escrow activity at the escrow agent branch office.

No escrow agent branch office certificate of registration shall be issued until the applicant has satisfied the director that the escrow activity of said branch meets all financial responsibility requirements governing the conduct of escrow activity. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 26.]

18.44.340 Escrow agent branch offices—Issuance and delivery of certificate of registration to engage in business at branch location. Upon the filing of the application for an escrow agent branch office and satisfying the requirements of this chapter, the director shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of registration to engage in the business of an escrow agent at the branch location set forth on the certificate. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 27.]

18.44.350 Certificates of registration and licenses—Form and size—Contents. Each escrow agent and escrow agent branch office certificate of registration and each escrow officer license, when issued, shall be in the form and size prescribed by the director and shall state in addition to any other matter required by the director:

- (1) The name of the licensee or registrant;
- (2) The name under which the applicant will do business;
- (3) The address at which the applicant will do business;
- (4) The expiration date of the license or registration; and
- (5) In the case of a corporation, partnership, or branch office, the name of the natural person who is designated to act as the escrow officer on behalf thereof. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 28.]

18.44.360 Waiver of fidelity bond and/or errors and omissions policy requirements where not reasonably available—Determination procedure—Waiver period. The director shall, within thirty days after the written request of the escrow commission, hold a public hearing to determine whether the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy specified in RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is reasonably available to a substantial number of certificated escrow agents. If the director determines and the insurance commissioner concurs that such bond and/or policy is not reasonably available, the director shall waive the requirements for such bond and/or policy for a fixed period of time not to exceed ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 30.]

18.44.370 Organization of mutual corporation to insure or self-insure where fidelity bond and/or errors and omissions policy not reasonably available. After a written determination by the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, that the fidelity bond and/or the errors and omissions policy required under RCW 18.44.050 as now or hereafter amended is cost-prohibitive, or after a determination as provided in RCW 18.44.360 that such bond or policy is not reasonably available, upon the request of an association comprised of certificated escrow agents, the director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may authorize such association to organize a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW, exempt from the provisions of Title 48 RCW, for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against claims arising out of escrow transactions, if, in the director's judgment, there is a substantial likelihood that the corporation will operate for the benefit of the public and if the corporation shall have established rules, procedures, and reserves which satisfy the director that it will operate in a financially responsible manner which provides a substantial probability that it shall be able to pay any claims made against the corporation, up to the limits of financial responsibility as provided in RCW 18.44.050, as now or hereafter amended. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may limit the authority of the corporation to the insuring or self-insuring of claims which would be within the coverage specified in RCW 18.44.050. The director, with the consent of the insurance commissioner, may revoke the authority of the corporation to transact insurance or self-insurance if he determines, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, that the corporation is not acting in a financially responsible manner or for the benefit of the public. Any corporation established pursuant to this section shall cease to exist, except for the payment of incurred claims, ninety days after the next regular session of the legislature unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 31.]

18.44.900 Construction—1965 c 153. Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to authorize any escrow agent, or his employees or agents, to engage in the practice of law, and nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to impose any additional liability on any depository authorized by this chapter and the receipt or acquittance of the persons so paid by such depository shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge of such depository. [1965 c 153 § 20.]

18.44.910 Short title. This chapter shall be known and cited as the "Escrow Agent Registration Act". [1965 c 153 § 21.]

18.44.920 Severability—1971 ex.s. c 245. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1971 ex.s. c 245 § 15.]

18.44.921 Severability—1977 ex.s. c 156. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1977 ex.s. c 156 § 33.]

18.44.922 Severability—1979 c 70. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 c 70 § 2.]

Filing certificate of birth: RCW 70.58.080.

Record as to patients or inmates for purposes of vital statistics: RCW 70.58.270.

18.46.005 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of standards for the maintenance and operation of maternity homes, which, in the light of advancing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate care and treatment of the individuals therein. [1951 c 168 § 1.]

18.46.010 Definitions. (1) "Maternity home" means any home, place, hospital or institution in which facilities are maintained for the care of four or more women, not related by blood or marriage to the operator, during pregnancy or during or within ten days after delivery: Provided, however, That this chapter shall not apply to any hospital approved by the American College of Surgeons, American Osteopathic Association or its successor.

(2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(3) "Department" means the state department of social and health services. [1985 c 213 § 8; 1979 c 141 § 32; 1951 c 168 § 2. Prior: 1943 c 214 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6130-47.]

18.46.020 License required. After July 1, 1951 no person shall operate a maternity home in this state without a license under this chapter. [1951 c 168 § 3. Prior: 1943 c 214 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6130-48.]

18.46.030 Application for license—Fee. An application for license shall be made to the department upon forms provided by it and shall contain such information as the department reasonably requires, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereunder. Each application for license or renewal of license shall be accompanied by a license fee as established by the department under RCW 43.20A.055: Provided, That no fee shall be required of charitable or nonprofit or government-operated institutions. [1982 c 201 § 5; 1951 c 168 § 4.]

18.46.040 License—Issuance—Renewal—Limitations—Display. Upon receipt of an application for a license and the license fee, the licensing agency shall issue a license if the applicant and the maternity home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter. A license, unless suspended or revoked, shall be renewable annually. Applications for renewal shall be on forms provided by the department and shall be filed in the department not less than ten days prior to its expiration. Each application for renewal shall be accompanied by a license fee as established by the department under RCW 43.20A.055. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons named in the application and shall not be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the department. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises. [1982 c 201 § 6; 1951 c 168 § 5. Prior: 1943 c 214 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6130-49.]

18.46.050 License—Denial, suspension, revocation. The department after notice and opportunity for hearing to the applicant or licensee is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke a license in any case in which it finds that there has been failure or refusal to comply with the requirements established under this chapter.

Notice shall be effected by registered mail or by personal service setting forth the particular reasons for the proposed action and fixing a date not less than thirty days from the date of mailing or service at which time the applicant or licensee shall be given an opportunity for a prompt and fair hearing. On the basis of such hearing or upon default of the applicant or licensee, the department shall make a determination specifying its findings and conclusions. A copy of the determination shall be sent by registered mail or served personally upon the applicant or licensee. The decision revoking, suspending, or denying the license or application shall become final thirty days after it is mailed or served, unless the applicant or licensee, within such thirty day period, appeals the decision.

The procedure governing hearings authorized by this section shall be in accordance with the rules promulgated by the department. A full and complete record shall be kept of all proceedings, and all testimony shall be reported but need not be transcribed unless the decision is appealed. A copy or copies of the transcript may be obtained by any interested party on payment of the cost of preparing such copy or copies. Witnesses may be subpoenaed by either party. [1985 c 213 § 9; 1951 c 168 § 6.]

18.46.060 Rules and regulations. The department, after consultation with representatives of maternity home operators, state medical association, Washington Osteopathic Association, state nurses association, state hospital association, and any other representatives as the department may deem necessary, shall adopt, amend, and promulgate such rules and regulations with respect to all maternity homes in the promotion of safe and adequate medical and nursing care of inmates in the maternity home and the sanitary, hygienic and safe condition of the maternity home in the interest of the health, safety and welfare of the people. [1985 c 213 § 10; 1951 c 168 § 7.]

18.46.070 Rules and regulations—Time for compliance. Any maternity home which is in operation at the time of promulgation of any applicable rules or regulations under this chapter shall be given a reasonable time, under the particular circumstances, not to exceed three months from the date of such promulgation, to comply with the rules and regulations established under this chapter. [1951 c 168 § 8.]

18.46.080 Inspection of maternity homes—Approval of new facilities. The department shall make or cause to be made an inspection and investigation of all maternity homes, and every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises. The department may make an examination of all records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. The board may prescribe by regulation that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alteration or addition to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall before commencing such alterations, addition, or new construction submit plans and specifications therefor to the department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with regulations and standards herein authorized. Necessary conferences and consultations may be provided. [1951 c 168 § 9. Prior: 1943 c 214 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6130-50.]

18.46.090 Information confidential. All information received by the department through filed reports, inspection, or as otherwise authorized under this chapter shall not be disclosed publicly in any manner as to identify individuals or maternity homes except in a proceeding involving the question of licensure. [1951 c 168 § 10.]

18.46.100 Appeal from department. Any applicant or licensee aggrieved by the decision of the department after a hearing, may, within thirty days after the mailing or serving of notice of the decision, file a notice of appeal in the superior court of the county in which the maternity home is located or to be located, and serve a copy of the notice of appeal upon the department. Thereupon the department shall promptly certify and file with the court a copy of the record and decision, including the transcript of the hearings on which the decision is based.

Findings of fact by the department shall be conclusive unless substantially contrary to the weight of the evidence but upon good cause shown the court may remand the case to the department to take further evidence, and the department may thereupon affirm, reverse, or modify its decision. The court may affirm, or reverse the decision of the department and either the applicant or licensee or the department may apply for further review as is provided by law. Pending final disposition of the matter the status quo of the applicant or licensee shall be preserved, except as the court otherwise orders in the public interest. [1951 c 168 § 11.]

18.46.110 Fire protection—Duties of state fire marshal. Fire protection with respect to all maternity homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the state fire marshal, who shall adopt by reference, such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes, places of refuge, and maternity homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the state fire marshal or his deputy, shall make an inspection of the maternity home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the state fire marshal, he shall promptly make a written report to the department as to the manner in which the premises may qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the state fire marshal upon completion of any requirements made by him, and the state fire marshal, or his deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the maternity home to be licensed meets with the approval of the state fire marshal, he shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a license can be issued. The state fire marshal shall make or cause to be made such inspection of such maternity homes as he deems necessary.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the regulation of which is equal to the minimum standards of the state fire marshal's code for maternity homes, the building inspector and the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection and shall approve the premises before a license can be issued.

In cities where such building codes are in force, the state fire marshal may, upon request by the chief fire official, or the local governing body, or of a taxpayer of such city, assist in the enforcement of any such code pertaining to maternity homes. [1951 c 168 § 12.]

18.46.120 Operating without license—Penalty. Any person operating or maintaining any maternity home without a license under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of a continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. [1951 c 168 § 13.]

18.46.130 Operating without license—Injunction. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department may in the manner provided by law, upon the advice of the attorney general who shall represent the department in all proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the operation or maintenance of a maternity home not licensed under this chapter. [1951 c 168 § 14.]

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

18.46.140 Application of chapter to homes operated by certain religious organizations. Nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be construed as authorizing the supervision, regulation, or control of the remedial and nursing care of residents or patients in any maternity home as defined in this chapter, conducted for or by members of a recognized religious sect, denomination, or organization which in accordance with its creed, tenets, or principles depends for healing upon prayer in the practice of religion, nor shall the existence of any of the above conditions militate against the licensing of such home or institution. [1951 c 168 § 15.]

18.46.900 Severability—1951 c 168. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of this chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of the chapter are declared to be severable. [1951 c 168 § 17.]

18.50.003 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.50.005 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

- (1) "Department" means the department of licensing.
- (2) "Director" means the director of licensing.
- (3) "Midwife" means a midwife licensed under this chapter. [1981 c 53 § 2.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: "Sections 1, 2, 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 13 through 17 of this act shall take effect January 15, 1982." [1981 c 53 § 19.] This applies to RCW 18.50.005, 18.50.032, 18.50.034, 18.50.102, 18.50.108, 18.50.135, to the amendments to RCW 7.70.020, 18.50.010, 18.50.040, 18.50.060, 18.50.100 and 43.24.085, and to an uncodified appropriation section.

18.50.010 Practicing midwifery defined—Gratuitous services—Duty to consult with physician. Any person shall be regarded as practicing midwifery within the meaning of this chapter who shall render medical aid for a fee or compensation to a woman during prenatal, intrapartum, and postpartum stages or who shall advertise as a midwife by signs, printed cards, or otherwise. Nothing shall be construed in this chapter to prohibit gratuitous services. It shall be the duty of a midwife to consult with a legally qualified physician whenever there are significant deviations from normal in either the mother or the infant. [1981 c 53 § 5; 1917 c 160 § 8; RRS § 10181. Formerly RCW 18.50.010, 18.50.030, part, and 18.50.090.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.020 License required. Any person who shall practice midwifery in this state after July 1, 1917, shall first obtain from the director of licensing of the state of Washington a license so to do, and the said director is authorized to grant such license after examination of the applicant as hereinafter provided. [1917 c 160 § 1; RRS § 10174.]

18.50.030 Exemptions—Practice of religion—Treatment by prayer. This chapter shall not be construed to interfere in any way with the practice of religion, nor be held to apply to or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [1917 c 160 § 12; RRS § 10185. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1917 c 160 § 8, part; RRS § 10181, part, now codified in RCW 18.50.010.]

Gratuitous services exempted: RCW 18.50.010.

18.50.032 Exemptions—Registered nurses and nurse midwives. Registered nurses and nurse midwives certified by the board of nursing under chapter 18.88

RCW shall be exempt from the requirements and provisions of this chapter. [1981 c 53 § 10.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.034 Exemptions—Persons enrolled in midwifery programs. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of midwifery by a person who is enrolled in a program of midwifery approved and accredited by the director: Provided, That the performance of such services is only pursuant to a regular course of instruction or assignment from the student's instructor, and that such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed in the state of Washington to perform services encompassed under this chapter. [1981 c 53 § 11.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.040 Candidates for examination—Application—Eligibility, training, and education requirements—Student midwife permits. (1) Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof the candidate has received a high school degree or its equivalent; that the candidate is twenty-one years of age or older; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a midwifery program accredited by the director and registered under chapter 28B.05 RCW, when applicable, or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the country in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign candidates must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the certificate or diploma was issued.

(2) The candidate shall meet the following conditions:

(a) Obtaining a minimum period of midwifery training for at least three years including the study of the basic nursing skills that the department shall prescribe by rule. However, if the applicant is a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or has had previous nursing education or practical midwifery experience, the required period of training may be reduced depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the department. In no case shall the training be reduced to a period of less than two years.

(b) Meeting minimum educational requirements which shall include studying obstetrics; neonatal pediatrics; basic sciences; female reproductive anatomy and physiology; behavioral sciences; childbirth education; community care; obstetrical pharmacology; epidemiology; gynecology; family planning; genetics; embryology; neonatology; the medical and legal aspects of midwifery; nutrition during pregnancy and lactation; breast feeding; nursing skills, including but not limited to injections, administering intravenous fluids, catheterization, and aseptic technique; and such other requirements prescribed by rule.

(c) For a student midwife during training, undertaking the care of not less than fifty women in each of the prenatal, intrapartum, and early postpartum periods, but the same women need not be seen through all three periods. A student midwife may be issued a permit upon the satisfactory completion of the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection and the satisfactory completion of the licensure examination required by RCW 18.50.060. The permit permits the student midwife to practice under the supervision of a midwife licensed under this chapter, a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, or a certified nurse-midwife licensed under the authority of chapter 18.88 RCW. The permit shall expire within one year of issuance and may be extended as provided by rule.

(d) Observing an additional fifty women in the intrapartum period before the candidate qualifies for a license.

The training required under this section shall include training in either hospitals or alternative birth settings or both with particular emphasis on learning the ability to differentiate between low-risk and high-risk pregnancies. [1981 c 53 § 6; 1917 c 160 § 2; RRS § 10175.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.045 Midwifery education programs—Accreditation. The director shall promulgate standards by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW for accrediting midwifery educational programs. The standards shall cover the provision of adequate clinical and didactic instruction in all subjects and noncurriculum matters under this section including, but not limited to, staffing and teacher qualifications. In developing the standards, the director shall be advised by and receive the recommendations of the midwifery advisory committee. [1981 c 53 § 7.]

18.50.050 Admission of candidate to examination—Fee—Reexamination. If the application is approved and the candidate shall have deposited an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 with the director, the candidate shall be admitted to the examination, and in case of failure to pass the examination, may be reexamined at any regular examination within one year without the payment of an additional fee, said fee to be retained by the director after failure to pass the second examination. [1985 c 7 § 48; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 51; 1917 c 160 § 3; RRS § 10176.]

18.50.060 Examinations—Times and places—Subjects—Issuance of license—Drugs and medications. (1) The director of licensing is hereby authorized and empowered to execute the provisions of this chapter and shall offer examinations in midwifery at least twice a year at such times and places as the director may select. The examinations shall be written and shall be in the English language.

(2) The director, with the assistance of the midwifery advisory committee, shall develop or approve a licensure examination in the subjects that the director determines are within the scope of and commensurate with the work performed by a licensed midwife. The examination shall be sufficient to test the scientific and practical fitness of candidates to practice midwifery. All application papers shall be deposited with the director and there retained for at least one year, when they may be destroyed.

(3) If the examination is satisfactorily completed, the director shall issue to such candidate a license entitling the candidate to practice midwifery in the state of Washington.

(4) A midwife licensed under this chapter may obtain and administer prophylactic ophthalmic medication, postpartum oxytocic and local anesthetic; and may administer such other drugs or medications as prescribed by a licensed physician. A pharmacist who dispenses such drugs to a licensed midwife shall not be liable for any adverse reactions caused by any method of utilization by the midwife. [1981 c 53 § 8; 1979 c 158 § 43; 1917 c 160 § 4; RRS § 10177.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.100 Refusal, suspension, or revocation of license—Reprimand or censure—Grounds—Complaints—Hearing—Appeal. The director may refuse to grant or may suspend or revoke any license, may reprimand or censure a license holder, or may place on probation subject to reasonable remedial conditions a license holder for any of the following reasons: Persistent inebriety; the practice of criminal abortion; the commission of any crime involving moral turpitude relevant to the practice of midwifery; presentation of a certificate or diploma for registration or license illegally obtained; application for examination under fraudulent misrepresentation; mishandling drugs authorized by this chapter; neglect or refusal to make proper returns to the department of social and health services of births or of puerperal contagion or infectious diseases within the required limit of time; failure to consult with a physician in a case of significant deviations from normal in either the mother or the infant.

In complaints of violations of the provisions of this section, the accused shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and be given a hearing before a hearing examiner, with right of appeal to the director. Any midwife refused admittance to the examination or whose license has been revoked who shall attempt or continue the practice of midwifery shall be subject to the penalties prescribed under this chapter. [1981 c 53 § 9; 1917 c 160 § 7; RRS § 10180. Formerly RCW 18.50.100 and 18.50.110.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.50.102 Annual registration—Renewal fee—Delinquent renewals. Every person licensed to practice midwifery shall register with the director of licensing annually and pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 on or before the licensee's birth anniversary date. The license of the person shall be renewed for a period of one year. Any failure to register and pay the annual renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid. The license shall be reinstated upon written application to the director, payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and payment to the state of all delinquent annual license renewal fees. Any person who fails to renew his or her license for a period of three years shall not be entitled to renew such license under this section. Such person, in order to obtain a license to practice midwifery in this state, shall file a new application under this chapter, along with the required fee. The director, in the director's discretion, may permit the applicant to be licensed without examination if satisfied that the applicant meets all the requirements for licensure in this state and is competent to engage in the practice of midwifery. [1985 c 7 § 49; 1981 c 53 § 13.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.105 Form to inform patient of qualifications of midwife. The director, with the advice of the midwifery advisory committee, shall develop a form to be used by a midwife to inform the patient of the qualifications of a licensed midwife. [1981 c 53 § 12.]

18.50.108 Written plan for consultation, emergency transfer, and transport. Every licensed midwife shall develop a written plan for consultation with other health care providers, emergency transfer, transport of an infant to a newborn nursery or neonatal intensive care nursery, and transport of a woman to an appropriate obstetrical department or patient care area. The written plan shall be submitted annually together with the license renewal fee to the department. [1981 c 53 § 14.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.120 Unlawful practice—Penalties. Any person hereafter practicing midwifery in this state without first complying with the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court. [1917 c 160 § 9; RRS § 10182.]

18.50.125 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 36.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.50.130 "Certificate" and "license" synonymous. The words "certificate" and "license" shall be known as interchangeable terms in this chapter. [1917 c 160 § 11; RRS § 10184.]

18.50.135 Rules. The director shall promulgate rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [1981 c 53 § 15.]

Effective date—1981 c 53: See note following RCW 18.50.005.

18.50.140 Midwifery advisory committee—Created—Members—Appointment—Terms—Travel expenses. The midwifery advisory committee is created.

The committee shall be composed of one licensed physician who is a practicing obstetrician; one practicing licensed physician; one certified nurse midwife licensed under chapter 18.88 RCW; three midwives licensed under this chapter; and one public member, who shall have no financial interest in the rendering of health services. The committee may seek other consultants as appropriate, including persons trained in childbirth education and perinatology or neonatology.

The members are appointed by the director and serve at the pleasure of the director but may not serve more than three consecutive years or more than five years in total. The terms of office shall be staggered. Members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. [1981 c 53 § 3.]

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The midwifery advisory committee is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.297. RCW 18.50.140 and 18.50.150 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.298.

18.50.150 Midwifery advisory committee—Advice and recommendations—Transmittal to legislature. The midwifery advisory committee shall advise and make recommendations to the director on issues including, but not limited to, continuing education, mandatory reexamination, and peer review. The director shall transmit the recommendations to the social and health services committee of the senate and the human services committee of the house of representatives on an annual basis. [1981 c 53 § 4.]

Sunset Act application: See note following RCW 18.50.140.

18.50.900 Repeal and saving. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter may be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, This chapter shall not repeal the provisions of the vital statistics laws of the state, but shall be deemed as additional and cumulative provisions. [1917 c 160 § 10.]

Maternity homes: Chapter 18.46 RCW.

Resident care, operating standards: Chapter 74.42 RCW.

18.51.005 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the development, establishment, and enforcement of standards for the maintenance and operation of nursing homes, which, in the light of advancing knowledge, will promote safe and adequate care and treatment of the individuals therein. An important secondary purpose is the improvement of nursing home practices by educational methods so that such practices eventually exceed the minimum requirements of the basic law and its original standards. [1951 c 117 § 1.]

18.51.007 Legislative intent. It is the intent of the legislature in enacting *this 1975 amendatory act to establish (1) a system for the imposition of prompt and effective sanctions against nursing homes in violation of the laws and regulations of this state relating to patient care; (2) an inspection and reporting system to insure that nursing homes are in compliance with state statutes and regulations pertaining to patient care; and (3) a mechanism to insure that licenses are issued to or retained by only those nursing homes that meet state standards for resident health and safety. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 14; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 3.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1975 amendatory act" [1975 1st ex.s. c 99] consists of RCW 18.51.007, 18.51.055, 18.51.065, and 18.51.190 through 18.51.290, amendments to RCW 18.51.050 and 18.51.060, and the repeal of RCW 18.51.090, 18.51.120, and 18.51.130.

18.51.010 Definitions. (1) "Nursing home" means any home, place or institution which operates or maintains facilities providing convalescent or chronic care, or both, for a period in excess of twenty-four consecutive hours for three or more patients not related by blood or marriage to the operator, who by reason of illness or infirmity, are unable properly to care for themselves. Convalescent and chronic care may include but not be limited to any or all procedures commonly employed in waiting on the sick, such as administration of medicines, preparation of special diets, giving of bedside nursing care, application of dressings and bandages, and carrying out of treatment prescribed by a duly licensed practitioner of the healing arts. It may also include care of mentally incompetent persons. It may also include community-based care. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to include general hospitals or other places which provide care and treatment for the acutely ill and maintain and operate facilities for major surgery or obstetrics, or both. Nothing in this definition shall be construed to include any boarding home, guest home, hotel or related institution which is held forth to the public as providing, and which is operated to give only board, room and laundry to persons not in need of medical or nursing treatment or supervision except in the case of temporary acute illness. The mere designation by the operator of any place or institution as a hospital, sanitarium, or any other similar name, which does not provide care for the acutely ill and maintain and operate facilities for major surgery or obstetrics, or both, shall not exclude such place or institution from the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That any nursing home providing psychiatric treatment shall, with respect to patients receiving such treatment, comply with the provisions of RCW 71.12.560 and 71.12.570.

(2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, association, or joint stock association, and the legal successor thereof.

(3) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(4) "Department" means the state department of social and health services.

(5) "Community-based care" means but is not limited to the following:

- (a) Home delivered nursing services;
- (b) Personal care;

- (c) Day care;
- (d) Nutritional services, both in-home and in a communal dining setting;
- (e) Habilitation care; and
- (f) Respite care. [1983 c 236 § 1; 1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 15; 1973 1st ex.s. c 108 § 1; 1953 c 160 § 1; 1951 c 117 § 2.]

Construction—1983 c 236: "Nothing in this 1983 act affects the provisions of chapter 70.38 RCW." [1983 c 236 § 3.] This applies to the 1983 c 236 amendments to RCW 18.51.010 and 18.51.091.

Severability—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 28.]

Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions. Sections 1, 2, 3, and 10 through 26 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1981. Section 4 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1983. Sections 5 through 9 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1984." [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 27.] The disposition of sections under each effective date is as follows:

(1) July 1, 1981: New sections codified as RCW 74.09.610, 74.46-.850, and 18.51.145, amendments to RCW 74.09.580, 74.46.070, 74.46.901, 74.09.120, 18.51.007, 18.51.010, 18.51.050, 18.51.060, 18.51.065, 18.51.190, 18.51.200, 18.51.210, 18.51.240, 18.51.300, 18.51.310, and 35A.70.070, and the repeal of RCW 18.51.020, 18.51.055, 74.09.590 and 74.46.830.

(2) July 1, 1983: Amendments to RCW 74.46.120.

(3) July 1, 1984: Amendments to RCW 74.46.460, 74.46.490, 74.46.530, 74.46.810, and 1980 c 177 § 90 (uncodified).

18.51.030 License required. After July 1, 1951 no person shall operate or maintain a nursing home in this state without a license under this chapter. [1951 c 117 § 4.]

18.51.040 Application for license. An application for license shall be made to the department upon forms provided by it and shall contain such information as the department reasonably requires, which may include affirmative evidence of ability to comply with the rules and regulations as are lawfully prescribed hereunder. [1953 c 160 § 3; 1951 c 117 § 5.]

18.51.050 License—Issuance, renewal—Fee—Display. Upon receipt of an application for license, the department shall issue a license if the applicant and the nursing home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter. Prior to the issuance or renewal of the license, the licensee shall pay a license fee as established by the department. No fee shall be required of government operated institutions. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on a date to be set by the department, but no license issued pursuant to this chapter shall exceed thirty-six months in duration. When a change of ownership occurs, the entity becoming the licensed operating entity of the facility shall pay a fee established by the department at the time of application for the license. The previously determined date of license expiration shall not change.

All applications and fees for renewal of the license shall be submitted to the department not later than thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the license.

All applications and fees for change of ownership licenses shall be submitted to the department not later than sixty days before the date of the proposed change of ownership. Each license shall be issued only to the operating entity and those persons named in the license application. The license is valid only for the operation of the facility at the location specified in the license application. Licenses are not transferable or assignable. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises. [1985 c 284 § 4; 1981 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 2; 1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 17; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 247 § 2; 1953 c 160 § 4; 1951 c 117 § 6.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

18.51.054 Denial of license for noncompliance with regulations. The department may deny a license to any applicant who has a history of significant noncompliance with federal or state regulations in providing nursing home care. In deciding whether to deny a license under this section, the factors the department considers shall include the gravity and frequency of the noncompliance. [1985 c 284 § 1.]

18.51.060 Denial, suspension, revocation of license—Penalty. The department is authorized to deny, suspend, or revoke a license or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation in any case in which it finds that the applicant, or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of five percent or more of the assets of the nursing home, or managing employee:

(1) Failed or refused to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the standards, rules and regulations established hereunder; or

(2) Was the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter, which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled; or

(3) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department; or

(4) Refused to allow representatives or agents of the department to inspect all books, records, and files required to be maintained or any portion of the premises of the nursing home; or

(5) Wilfully prevented, interfered with, or attempted to impede in any way the work of any duly authorized representative of the department and the lawful enforcement of any provision of this chapter; or

(6) Wilfully prevented or interfered with any representative of the department in the preservation of evidence of any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or the standards, rules, and regulations promulgated hereunder; or

(7) Failed to report patient abuse or neglect in violation of chapter 70.124 RCW; or

(8) Fails to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the department pursuant to this chapter within ten days after such assessment becomes final: Provided, That in no event shall the department assess a civil monetary penalty authorized pursuant to this section or post the said premises as provided in RCW 18.51.260 or include in the report required pursuant to RCW 18.51-.270 during any period in which it has not reasonably implemented and funded its cost-related reimbursement system for public patients. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 18; 1979 ex.s. c 228 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 2; 1953 c 160 § 5; 1951 c 117 § 7.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

18.51.070 Rules and regulations. The department, after consultation with the nursing home advisory council and the board of health, shall adopt, amend, and promulgate such rules, regulations, and standards with respect to all nursing homes to be licensed hereunder as may be designed to further the accomplishment of the purposes of this chapter in promoting safe and adequate medical and nursing care of individuals in nursing homes and the sanitary, hygienic and safe conditions of the nursing home in the interest of public health, safety, and welfare. [1979 ex.s. c 211 § 64; 1951 c 117 § 8.]

Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 211: "Section 64 of this 1979 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately." [1979 ex.s. c 211 § 71.] Section 64 of this 1979 act is codified as RCW 18.51.070. Due to this emergency clause, the effective date of this section is May 30, 1979.

18.51.091 Inspection of nursing homes and community-based services—Notice of violations—Approval of alterations or new facilities. The department shall make or cause to be made at least one inspection of each nursing home prior to license renewal and shall inspect community-based services as part of the licensing renewal survey. Every inspection may include an inspection of every part of the premises and an examination of all records, methods of administration, the general and special dietary and the stores and methods of supply. Those nursing homes that provide community-based care shall establish and maintain separate and distinct accounting and other essential records for the purpose of appropriately allocating costs of the providing of such care: Provided, That such costs shall not be considered allowable costs for reimbursement purposes under chapter 74.46 RCW. Following such inspection or inspections, written notice of any violation of this law or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be given the applicant or licensee and the department. The notice shall describe the reasons for the facility's non-compliance. The notice shall inform the facility that it must comply with a plan of correction within a specified time, not to exceed sixty days from the date the plan of correction is approved by the department. The penalties in RCW 18.51.060 may be imposed if, after the specified period, the department determines that the facility has not complied. In life-threatening situations or situations which substantially limit the provider's capacity to render adequate care, the department may require immediate correction or proceed immediately under RCW 18.51.060. The department may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specified types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit its plans and specifications therefor to the department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [1983 c 236 § 2; 1981 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 3; 1979 ex.s. c 211 § 63.]

18.51.100 Nursing home advisory council—Members—Terms. The governor shall appoint a nursing home advisory council. The council shall be comprised of:

- (1) Five members of the general public who are not owners or employees of a nursing home or engaged by a nursing home. Of these five members, one shall be a representative of senior citizens, one shall be a representative of a health care consumer group, and one shall be a licensed certified public accountant;
- (2) Three members who are nursing home operators, one of whom shall operate a nonprofit nursing home;
- (3) One member of the association of nursing home administrators;
- (4) One member of the state medical association; and
- (5) One member of the state nurses association.

The governor shall choose one of the five members from the general public to be chairman of the advisory nursing home council. Each member of the council shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03-.050 and 43.03.060. Each member shall hold office for a term of four years, except that any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed shall be appointed for the remainder of such term and the terms of office of the members first taking office shall expire, as designated at the time of appointment, two at the end of the first year, three at the end of the second year, three at the end of the third year, and two at the end of the fourth year after the date of appointment. Thereafter all appointments shall be for four years. The council shall meet as frequently as the chairman deems necessary, but not less than quarterly each year. Upon request by four or more members, it shall be the duty of the chairman to call a meeting of the council. [1984 c 287 § 39; 1979 ex.s. c 211 § 65; 1971 ex.s. c 85 § 1; 1951 c 117 § 11.]

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The nursing home advisory council is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.301. RCW 18.51.100 and 18.51.110 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.302.

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.51.110 Nursing home advisory council—Duties. The advisory nursing home council shall:

(1) Consult with the legislature and the department in matters of policy affecting administration of nursing homes, and in the development of rules, regulations, pertaining to nursing homes; and

(2) Review and make recommendations with respect to rules, regulations, and standards pertaining to nursing homes prior to their adoption and promulgation by the department as specified herein. [1979 ex.s. c 211 § 66; 1951 c 117 § 12.]

18.51.140 Fire protection—Duties of state fire marshal. Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all nursing homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the state fire marshal, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the state fire marshal or his deputy, shall make an inspection of the nursing home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the state fire marshal, he shall promptly make a written report to the nursing home and the department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the state fire marshal upon completion of any requirements made by him, and the state fire marshal, or his deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the nursing home to be licensed meets with the approval of the state fire marshal, he shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The state fire marshal shall make or cause to be made inspections of such nursing homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the state fire marshal to be equal to the minimum standards of the state fire marshal's code for nursing homes, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the state fire marshal or his deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued. [1953 c 160 § 9; 1951 c 117 § 15.]

State fire protection board: Chapter 48.48 RCW.

18.51.145 Building inspections—Authority of state fire marshal. Inspections of nursing homes by local authorities shall be consistent with the requirements of chapter 19.27 RCW, the state building code. Findings of a serious nature shall be coordinated with the department and the state fire marshal for determination of appropriate actions to ensure a safe environment for nursing home residents. The state fire marshal shall have exclusive authority to determine appropriate corrective action under this section. [1983 1st ex.s. c 67 § 45; 1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 16.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

18.51.150 Operating without license—Penalty. Any person operating or maintaining any nursing home without a license under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and each day of a continuing violation after conviction shall be considered a separate offense. [1951 c 117 § 16.]

18.51.160 Operating without license—Injunction. Notwithstanding the existence or use of any other remedy, the department, may, in the manner provided by law, upon the advice of the attorney general who shall represent the department in the proceedings, maintain an action in the name of the state for an injunction or other process against any person to restrain or prevent the operation or maintenance of a nursing home without a license under this chapter. [1951 c 117 § 17.]

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

18.51.170 Application of chapter to homes or institutions operated by certain religious organizations. Nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be construed as authorizing the supervision, regulation, or control of the remedial care or treatment of residents or patients in any nursing home or institution conducted for those who rely upon treatment by prayer or spiritual means in accordance with the creed or tenets of any well-recognized church or religious denomination, or for any nursing home or institution operated for the exclusive care of members of a convent as defined in RCW 84.36.800 or rectory, monastery, or other institution operated for the care of members of the clergy. [1977 c 48 § 1; 1951 c 117 § 21.]

18.51.180 Out-patient services—Authorized—Defined. A nursing home may, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the department of social and health services, offer out-patient services to persons who are not otherwise patients at such nursing home. Any certified nursing home offering out-patient services may receive payments from the federal medicare program for such services as are permissible under that program.

Out-patient services may include any health or social care needs, except surgery, that could feasibly be offered on an out-patient basis. [1973 1st ex.s. c 71 § 1.]

18.51.185 Out-patient services—Cost studies—Vendor rates. The department of social and health services shall assist the nursing home industry in researching the costs of out-patient services allowed under RCW 18.51.180. Such cost studies shall be utilized by the department in the determination of reasonable vendor rates for nursing homes offering such services to insure an adequate return to the nursing homes and a cost savings to the state as compared to the cost of institutionalization. [1973 1st ex.s. c 71 § 2.]

18.51.190 Complaint of violation—Request for inspection—Notice—Confidentiality. Any person may request an inspection of any nursing home subject to licensing under this chapter in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by giving notice to the department of an alleged violation of applicable requirements of state law. The complainant shall be encouraged to submit a written, signed complaint following a verbal report. The substance of the complaint shall be provided to the licensee no earlier than at the commencement of the inspection. Neither the substance of the complaint provided the licensee nor any copy of the complaint or record published, released, or otherwise made available to the licensee shall disclose the name of any individual complainant or other person mentioned in the complaint, except the name or names of any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department conducting the investigation or inspection pursuant to this chapter, unless such complainant specifically requests the release of such name or names. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 20; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 4.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

18.51.200 Preliminary review of complaint—On-site investigation. Upon receipt of a complaint, the department shall make a preliminary review of the complaint. Unless the department determines that the complaint is wilfully intended to harass a licensee or is without any reasonable basis, or unless the department has sufficient information that corrective action has been taken, it shall make an on-site investigation within a reasonable time after the receipt of the complaint or otherwise ensure complaints are responded to. In either event, the complainant shall be promptly informed of the department's proposed course of action. If the complainant requests the opportunity to do so, the complainant or his representative, or both, may be allowed to accompany the inspector to the site of the alleged violations

18.51.210 Authority to enter and inspect nursing home—Advance notice—Defense. (1) Any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department may enter and inspect any nursing home, including, but not limited to, interviewing residents and reviewing records, at any time to enforce any provision of this chapter. Inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed with the department shall be conducted in such a manner as to ensure maximum effectiveness. No advance notice shall be given of any inspection conducted pursuant to this chapter unless previously and specifically authorized by the secretary or required by federal law.

(2) Any public employee giving such advance notice in violation of this section shall be suspended from all duties without pay for a period of not less than five nor more than fifteen days.

(3) In any hearing held pursuant to this chapter, it shall be a defense to a violation relating to the standard of care to be afforded public patients to show that the department does not provide reasonable funds to meet the cost of reimbursement standard allegedly violated. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 22; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 6.]

18.51.220 Retaliation or discrimination against complainant prohibited, penalty—Presumption. (1) No licensee shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against a patient or employee in its nursing home on the basis or for the reason that such patient or employee or any other person has initiated or participated in any proceeding specified in this chapter. A licensee who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Any attempt to expel a patient from a nursing home, or any type of discriminatory treatment of a patient by whom, or upon whose behalf, a complaint has been submitted to the department or any proceeding instituted under or related to this chapter within one year of the filing of the complaint or the institution of such action, shall raise a rebuttable presumption that such action was taken by the licensee in retaliation for the filing of the complaint. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 7.]

18.51.240 Alterations or additions—Preliminary inspection and approval. The department may prescribe by regulations that any licensee or applicant desiring to make specific types of alterations or additions to its facilities or to construct new facilities shall, before commencing such alteration, addition or new construction, submit its plans and specifications therefor to the department for preliminary inspection and approval or recommendations with respect to compliance with the regulations and standards herein authorized. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 23; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 11.]

18.51.250 Nursing homes without violations—Public agencies referring patients to be notified—Priority. On or before February 1st of each year, the department shall notify all public agencies which refer patients to nursing homes of all of the nursing homes in the area found upon inspection within the previous twelve-month period to be without violations. Public agencies shall give priority to such nursing homes in referring publicly assisted patients. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 12.]

18.51.260 Citations for violation of RCW 18.51.060 to be posted. Each citation for a violation specified in subsections (1) through (7) of RCW 18.51.060 which is issued pursuant to this section and which has become final, or a copy or copies thereof, shall be prominently posted, as prescribed in regulations issued by the director, until the violation is corrected to the satisfaction of the department up to a maximum of one hundred twenty days. The citation or copy shall be posted in a place or places in plain view of the patients in the nursing home, persons visiting those patients, and persons who inquire about placement in the facility. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 13.]

Reviser's note: RCW 18.51.060 was amended by 1979 ex.s. c 228 § 10. A new subsection (7) was added and the existing subsection (7) became subsection (8).

18.51.270 Annual report of citations for violations—Publication—Contents. The department shall annually publish a report listing all licensees by name and address, indicating (1) the number of citations and the nature of each citation issued to each licensee during the previous twelve-month period and the status of any action taken pursuant to each citation, including penalties assessed, and (2) the nature and status of action taken with respect to each uncorrected violation for which a citation is outstanding.

The report shall be available to the public, at cost, at all offices of the department. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 14.]

18.51.280 Chapter cumulative. The remedies provided by this chapter are cumulative, and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy, provisional or otherwise, provided by law for the benefit of any party, and no judgment under this chapter shall preclude any party from obtaining additional relief based upon the same facts. [1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 8.]

18.51.290 Writings deemed public record—Open to public inspection. Any writing received, owned, used, or retained by the department in connection with the provisions of this chapter is a public record and, as such, is open to public inspection. Copies of such records provided for public inspection shall comply with RCW 42.17.260(1). The names of duly authorized officers, employees, or agents of the department shall be included. [1980 c 184 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 99 § 9.]

Conflict with federal requirements—1980 c 184: See RCW 74.42.630.

18.51.300 Retention and preservation of records of patients. Unless specified otherwise by the department, a nursing home shall retain and preserve all records which relate directly to the care and treatment of a patient for a period of no less than ten years following the most recent discharge of the patient; except the records of minors, which shall be retained and preserved for a period of no less than three years following attainment of the age of eighteen years, or ten years following such discharge, whichever is longer.

If a nursing home ceases operations, it shall make immediate arrangements, as approved by the department, for preservation of its records.

The department shall by regulation define the type of records and the information required to be included in the records to be retained and preserved under this section; which records may be retained in photographic form pursuant to chapter 5.46 RCW. [1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 24; 1975 1st ex.s. c 175 § 2.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

18.51.310 Comprehensive plan of care for each resident—Evaluation—Classification of residents—Licensing standards—Regulations. (1) Within thirty days of admission, the department shall evaluate, through review and assessment, the comprehensive plan of care for each resident supported by the department under RCW 74.09.120 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) The department shall review the comprehensive plan of care for such resident at least annually or upon any change in the resident's classification.

(3) Based upon the assessment of the resident's needs, the department shall assign such resident to a classification. Developmentally disabled residents shall be classified under a separate system.

(4) The nursing home shall submit any request to modify a resident's classification to the department for the department's approval. The approval shall not be given until the department has reviewed the resident.

(5) The department shall adopt licensing standards suitable for implementing the civil penalty system authorized under this chapter and chapter 74.46 RCW.

(6) No later than July 1, 1981, the department shall adopt all those regulations which meet all conditions necessary to fully implement the civil penalty system authorized by this chapter, chapter 74.42 RCW, and chapter 74.46 RCW. [1981 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 5; 1981 1st ex.s. c 2 § 12; 1980 c 184 § 5; 1979 ex.s. c 211 § 67; 1977 ex.s. c 244 § 1.]

Severability—Effective dates—1981 1st ex.s. c 2: See notes following RCW 18.51.010.

Conflict with federal requirements—1980 c 184: See RCW 74.42.630.

Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 211: See RCW 74.42.920.

18.51.320 Contact with animals—Rules. (1) A nursing home licensee shall give each patient a reasonable opportunity to have regular contact with animals. The licensee may permit appropriate animals to live in the facilities and may permit appropriate animals to visit if the animals are properly supervised.

(2) The department shall adopt rules for the care, type, and maintenance of animals in nursing home facilities. [1984 c 127 § 2.]

Intent—1984 c 127: "The legislature finds that the senior citizens of this state, particularly those living in low-income public housing or in nursing homes, often lead lonely and harsh lives. The legislature recognizes that the warmth and companionship provided by pets can significantly improve the quality of senior citizens' lives. This legislation is intended to insure that senior citizens and persons in nursing homes will not be deprived of access to pets." [1984 c 127 § 1.]

18.51.350 Conflict with federal requirements. If any part of this chapter is found to conflict with federal requirements which are a prescribed condition to the allocation of federal funds to the state, the conflicting part of this chapter is hereby declared to be inoperative solely to the extent of the conflict, and such finding or determination shall not affect the operation of the remainder of this chapter. [1981 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 1.]

18.51.900 Severability—1951 c 117. If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the provisions or application of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1951 c 117 § 22.]

Labor regulations, collective bargaining—Health care activities: Chapter 49.66 RCW.

18.52.010 Short title—Intent. This chapter shall be known as the "Nursing Home Administrator Licensing Act" and is intended to establish and provide for the enforcement of standards for the licensing of nursing home administrators. The legislature finds that the quality of patient care in nursing homes is directly related to the competence of the nursing home administrators. It is the intent of this chapter that licensed nursing home administrators continually maintain (1) the suitable character required and (2) the capacity to consider the available resources and personnel of the facility subject to their authority and come to reasonable decisions implementing patient care. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 1.]

18.52.020 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise clearly requires:

(1) "Board" means the state board of examiners for the licensing of nursing home administrators representative of the professions and institutions concerned with the care of the chronically ill and infirm aged patients.

(2) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(3) "Nursing home" means any facility or portion thereof licensed under state law as a nursing home.

(4) "Nursing home administrator" means an individual in active administrative charge of nursing homes as defined herein, whether or not having an ownership interest in such homes, and although functions and duties may be shared with or delegated to other persons: Provided however, That nothing in this definition or this chapter shall be construed to prevent any person, so long as he is otherwise qualified, from obtaining and maintaining a license even though he has not administered or does not continue to administer a nursing home. [1979 c 158 § 44; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 2.]

18.52.030 Management and supervision of nursing homes by licensed administrators required. On or after July 1, 1970 nursing homes operating within this state must be under the active, overall administrative charge and supervision of an administrator licensed as provided in this chapter. An administrator may delegate functions and duties to other persons. No person acting in any capacity, unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued under this chapter, shall be charged with the overall responsibility to make decisions or direct actions involved in managing the internal operation of a nursing home. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 3.]

18.52.040 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Created—Membership. There is hereby created a state board of examiners for nursing home administrators which shall consist of nine members appointed by the governor. All members shall be representative of the professions and institutions concerned with the care and treatment of chronically ill or infirm elderly patients. However, at no time shall representatives of a single profession or a single institutional category compose a majority of the board membership. In addition, no member who is a noninstitutional representative shall have any direct financial interest in nursing homes while serving as a member of the board. For purposes of this section, nursing home administrators are considered representatives of institutions. Eight of the board's members shall be privately or self-employed persons who the governor finds have had at least four years of actual experience in the administration or overall management of licensed nursing homes in this state immediately prior to the governor's appointment of them to the board; or shall be representatives from the medical professions, or health care administration education, or persons with four years actual experience in the administration of the nursing home unit of a licensed hospital immediately preceding the governor's appointment of them to the board; and shall be privately or self-employed persons, or persons employed by educational institutions, whom the governor appoints because of their special knowledge or expertise in the field of long term care or the care of the aged and chronically ill: Provided, That one member shall be a citizen eligible for medicare who shall have no financial interest in or family ownership connection with nursing homes. Board members selected who meet any of the preceding qualifications may in addition be nurses, physicians or other persons with special health care training. The governor shall consult with and seek the recommendations of the appropriate state-wide business and professional organizations and societies primarily concerned with long term health care facilities in the course of considering his appointments to the board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 97 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 4.]

18.52.050 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Qualifications—Terms—Removal. Members of the board shall be citizens of the United States and residents of this state. Except for the initial appointments to the first board, all administrator members of the board shall be holders of licenses under this chapter. Three members of the board shall be appointed initially for terms of three years, three members shall be appointed for terms of two years, and three members shall be appointed for terms of one year. Thereafter the terms of all members shall be three years. Members of the board may be removed by the governor for cause after appropriate notice and hearing. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 5.]

18.52.055 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Immunity. Members of the board and the board's staff shall be immune from liability in any suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon their duties or other official acts performed in good faith as members or staff of the board, when the action is being brought by or on behalf of the person who is being evaluated. [1984 c 279 § 72.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.52.060 Board of examiners for nursing home administrators—Officers—Meetings—Compensation and travel expenses—Personnel. The board shall elect from its membership a chairman, vice chairman, and secretary-treasurer, and shall adopt rules and regulations to govern its proceedings. The chairman or four board members by signed written request may call board meetings upon reasonable written notice to each member. Each member shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. A full-time or part-time executive secretary for the board may be employed by the director through the department of licensing, and the director through the department of licensing shall provide the executive secretary and the board with such secretarial, administrative, and other assistance as may be required to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Employment of an executive secretary shall be subject to confirmation by the board. The position of executive secretary shall be exempt from the requirements of chapter 41.06 RCW. [1984 c 287 § 40; 1979 c 158 § 45; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 38; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 6.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.52.065 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of examiners for nursing home administrators may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 37.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.52.070 Qualifications of licensees—Examinations. Upon the director's receipt of an application and examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and completed application forms provided by the director, a nursing home administrator's license shall be issued to any person who:

(1) Is at least twenty-one years of age and of good moral character.

(2) Has presented evidence satisfactory to the board of practical experience, education, and training which, when evaluated according to criteria developed by the board, is equivalent to two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home: Provided, That after January 1, 1980, no license shall be issued to any applicant unless such applicant has either successfully completed at least two years of formal education beyond the high school level or holds an associate degree from a recognized institution of higher learning: Provided further, That the educational degree required by this subsection may be waived for individuals who present evidence satisfactory to the board of sufficient practical experience.

(3) Has passed an examination administered by the board which shall be designed to test the candidate's competence to administer a nursing home on the basis of the candidate's formal instruction and training or actual experience: Provided however, That nothing in this chapter or the rules and regulations thereunder shall be construed to require an applicant for a license or provisional license as a nursing home administrator who is certified by any well established and generally recognized church or religious denomination which teaches reliance on spiritual means alone for healing as having been approved to administer institutions certified by such church or denomination for the care and treatment of the sick in accordance with its teachings, to demonstrate proficiency in any medical techniques or to meet any medical educational qualifications or medical standards not in accord with the remedial care and treatment provided in such institutions: Provided further, That any such individual shall demonstrate in the process of application for the examination his membership in such church or religious denomination and his license shall indicate the limited extent of his authority to act as an administrator.

(4) The initial administrator members of the board shall be selected and appointed by the governor to meet the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and of RCW 18.52.040 and 18.52.050. The three nonadministrator members of the first board shall administer to the initial administrator members an appropriate examination, and the initial administrator members shall thereafter be issued their licenses under this chapter as nursing home administrators. The three nonadministrator members of the first board may exercise the powers of the board to carry out licensing of the initial administrator members, regardless of the normal quorum or procedural requirements for board action. The licensing of the initial administrator members of the first board shall be carried out within thirty days after appointment of the board, and in all events prior to April 1, 1970. [1984 c 279 § 65; 1977 ex.s. c 243 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 52; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 7.]

18.52.090 Licensing duties and responsibilities of director. The director shall have the administrative duty and responsibility to:

(1) Issue nursing home administrator's licenses to individuals who meet the licensing requirements of RCW 18.52.070;

(2) Investigate complaints against nursing home administrators, and upon order of the board reprimand any licensee, or revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to reregister the license of any licensee or applicant who fails to meet the applicable requirements of this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 68; 1977 ex.s. c 243 § 3; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 9.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.52.100 Duties and responsibilities of board—Standards, licenses, complaints, temporary permits, rules and regulations—Training program. The board with the assistance of the director for administrative matters shall have the duty and responsibility within the limits provided in this chapter:

(1) To develop standards which must be met by individuals in order to receive a license as a nursing home administrator, which standards shall include criteria to evaluate the practical experience, education, and training of applicants for licenses to determine that applicants have the equivalent of two years of experience in the operation of a nursing home. The standards and criteria shall be designed to insure that nursing home administrators will be individuals who are of good character and are otherwise suitable, and who, by training or experience in the field of institutional administration, are qualified to serve as nursing home administrators as provided in this chapter.

(2) To develop appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations to the extent necessary to determine whether an individual meets such standards for licensing.

(3) To develop, administer, and supervise an administrator-in-training program for applicants for licenses who are otherwise qualified but do not have the equivalent of two years experience in the operation of a nursing home at the time of application. Such program shall provide for supervision of each administrator-in-training by licensed nursing home administrators as preceptors. The board shall have the authority to do all acts necessary for the implementation of such a program, including, but not limited to, conducting education and training programs, establishing standards of qualification for preceptors, establishing criteria for creating and evaluating individual programs, and monitoring such programs to assure compliance with rules and regulations adopted by the board.

(4) To order the director to issue licenses to individuals determined by the board, after the application of such techniques, to meet such standards and to order the director to deny licenses to individuals who do not meet such standards or who are in violation of the provisions of RCW 18.52.120.

(5) To assure that the goals set forth in RCW 18.52.010 are effected the board shall have the authority after any notice and hearing which may be required by law, to order a reprimand of any licensee, or the suspension, refusal to reregister, or revocation of any license. The board may defer any such order or impose conditions thereon to permit continued licensed status when such action is reasonable considering the circumstances of the case, the protection of the health and safety of patients, and fairness to the administrator.

(6) To investigate, and take appropriate action with respect to, any charge or complaint filed with the board or director to the effect that any individual licensed as a nursing home administrator has failed to comply with the requirements of the standards for licensing.

(7) To conduct a continuing study and investigation of the licensing of administrators of nursing homes within the state with a view to the improvement of the standards imposed for the licensing of new administrators and of procedures and methods for the enforcement of such standards with respect to administrators of nursing homes who are to be licensed.

(8) To encourage qualified educational institutions and other qualified organizations to establish, provide, and conduct and continue such training and instruction courses and programs as will enable all otherwise qualified individuals to attain the qualifications necessary to meet the standards for licensing nursing home administrators.

(9) To establish and carry out procedures, if required, designed to insure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements and standards for licensing set forth in this chapter.

(10) To establish appropriate procedures for the issuance in unusual circumstances and without examination of temporary license permits as nursing home administrators. Such permits may be issued and renewed by the director pursuant to rules and regulations which shall be established by the board. Such permits and renewals shall be subject to confirmation or rescission by order of the board upon review at the next board meeting. Any such permit or renewal thereof shall in all events expire six months from the date issued. No more than three consecutive permits shall be issued to any one person. Persons receiving such permits need not have passed the required examination but shall meet the other requirements of this chapter, except RCW 18.52.070(2). After hearing before the board and upon order of the board the director may revoke or suspend any such permit for the reasons provided in this chapter for suspension or revocation of administrator licenses.

(11) To advise the relevant state agencies regarding receipt and administration of such federal funds as are made available to carry out the educational purposes of this chapter.

(12) To advise the director regarding the application forms used by the director under this chapter.

(13) To direct the granting of provisional licenses as provided in this chapter.

(14) To issue rules and regulations which are necessary to carry out the functions of the board specifically assigned to it by this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 4; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 10.]

and may thereafter in accordance with rules prescribed by the board charge up to double the normal reregistration fee. In the event that the license of an individual is not reregistered within two years from the most recent date for reregistration it shall lapse and such individual must again apply for licensing and meet all requirements of this chapter for a new applicant. The board may prescribe rules for maintenance of a license at a reduced fee for temporary or permanent withdrawal or retirement from the active practice of nursing home administration.

(2) A condition of reregistration shall be the presentation of proof by the applicant that he has attended the number of classroom hours of approved educational programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings set by the board. The board shall have the power to approve programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings offered in this state or elsewhere by any accredited institution of higher learning or any national or local group or society if such programs, classes, seminars, or proceedings are reasonably related to the administration of nursing homes. The board shall establish rules and regulations providing that the applicant for reregistration may present such proofs yearly, or may obtain the cumulative number of required hours over a three year period and present such proofs over periods of three years. In no event shall the number of classroom hours required for any time period exceed the number of such board approved classroom hours reasonably available over such time period on an adult or continuing education basis to nonmatriculating participants in this state.

(3) An individual may obtain and reregister a license under this chapter although he does not actively engage in nursing home administration. The licensee shall meet requirements set by the board to ensure the individual's continued competency. [1984 c 279 § 69; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 54; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 9; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 11.]

18.52.120 Suspension, revocation, or refusal of reregistration of licenses. The director, after any notice and hearing before the board which may be required by law, and upon the order of the board, shall, subject to any deferral or condition ordered, refuse to reregister or shall suspend or revoke an administrator's license, or issue a reprimand as directed by the board, as provided in this chapter when proof has been submitted to the board that:

(1) The licensee has committed any fraud or material misrepresentation or concealment in obtaining or maintaining the license.

(2) The license was obtained due to the mistake or inadvertence of the board or the director.

(3) The licensee has knowingly or repeatedly violated any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules promulgated by the board in accordance with this chapter or authorized or directed another so to act.

(4) The licensee has knowingly or repeatedly violated rules promulgated by the department of social and health services or the state board of health concerning patient care in a manner demonstrating a substantial disregard for patient health and safety.

(5) The licensee is unable to administer a nursing home with due regard for patient health and safety by reason of habitual, intemperate use of alcohol, controlled substances, or other chemicals or materials; or the licensee is similarly incapacitated by mental illness, insanity, mental disorder, or some other condition which creates an undue risk that the person would cause harm to other persons by being a nursing home administrator.

(6) The licensee has committed any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, committed in the course of his or her duties as a nursing home administrator, whether or not the act constitutes a crime.

(7) The licensee has been negligent or has committed misconduct in the administration of a nursing home.

(8) The licensee has participated in or has offered or agreed to participate in, any arrangement whereby any payment or rebate is given to any party in return for the referral of a patient to the facility the licensee administers, or for referral by such licensee of a patient to any party for rendition of professional services to such patient.

(9) The licensee or applicant has previously been refused a license as an administrator or had renewal thereof refused, or has had such a license suspended or revoked by any competent state, federal, or foreign authority: Provided, That a suspension, revocation, refusal to issue or refusal to reregister a license under this subsection must be based upon a showing in the record of such previous proceedings which would constitute a proper basis for the action proposed under the provisions of this chapter, and the licensee or applicant shall, on request, have the opportunity to challenge the fairness of the previous proceedings or the correctness of the factual determinations involved.

Administrators whose licenses have been revoked, or to whom reregistration has been refused, may, on subsequent application be licensed, relicensed, or reregistered, according to such rules or regulations as may be prescribed by the board and according to standards prescribed by the board. Suspended licenses are automatically in force at the expiration of the period of suspension specified in the board's order, but must be reregistered in the normal course if they expire during the period of suspension. [1984 c 279 § 70; 1977 ex.s. c 243 § 5; 1975 1st ex.s. c 97 § 2; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 12.]

18.52.130 Reciprocity. Upon receipt of an application fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and an annual license fee, the director may issue a nursing home administrator's license, without examination, to any person who holds a current license as a nursing home administrator from another jurisdiction: Provided, That the board finds that the standards for licensing in such other jurisdiction are at least the substantial equivalent of those prevailing in this state, and that the applicant is otherwise qualified. In the event that there is developed a nationally recognized standard for the licensing of nursing home administrators which is in fact utilized in licensing procedures on a reasonably uniform basis the board may by rule or regulation provide for granting reciprocal licensing on a showing of compliance with such standard. [1985 c 7 § 50; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 55; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 13.]

18.52.140 License required—Penalty. It shall be unlawful and constitute a gross misdemeanor for any person to act or serve in the capacity of a nursing home administrator unless he is the holder of a nursing home administrator's license issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter: Provided however, That persons carrying out functions and duties delegated by a licensed administrator shall not be construed to be committing any unlawful act under this chapter. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 14.]

18.52.150 Proceedings—Hearings—Appeals—Investigations. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, all proceedings under this chapter of the director and board for rule making, for the hearings required by this chapter, for contested cases, and for appeals shall be conducted in conformity with the administrative procedure act. In matters involving reprimand, suspension, revocation, refusal of reregistration, or denial of licenses, the board shall require clear, cogent, and convincing evidence before the board orders action. Complaints regarding any licensed administrator shall be considered only if submitted to the director in writing and signed. If a complaint indicates a possible violation of the provisions of this chapter, it shall be investigated by the director. Additionally, the director on his own initiative may, or, upon order of the board, shall, initiate an investigation of possible violations of this chapter. The director shall advise the board of all complaints received and action taken.

If, after investigation the chairman of the board, or the board, decides that there is reasonable cause to believe that grounds exist for a reprimand, or for denial, suspension, refusal of reregistration, or revocation of a license issued or to be issued under this chapter, the director shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing and serve him personally, or by certified mail, with return receipt requested, stating the grounds for the reprimand or upon which the license is to be denied, suspended, revoked, or reregistration refused, and shall make available, upon request, so much of the investigative information as relates to any grounds asserted for proposed action.

Within twenty days of the service or receipt of notice of the alleged grounds for reprimand, denial, suspension, revocation, or refusal of reregistration, the applicant or licensee may serve upon the director a written request for hearing before the board. Service of a request for a hearing shall be made personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, and in the latter event shall be addressed to the director at the director's office in Thurston county.

Upon receiving a request for a hearing, the director shall refer the matter to the board to arrange for a hearing. Hearings may be conducted by the board, by a committee of the board the majority of which shall be administrator members, or by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW.

If the applicant or licensee does not file a timely request for a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section, the director shall refer the matter to the board for appropriate action which may be taken without further notice to the applicant or licensee. [1981 c 67 § 20; 1977 ex.s. c 243 § 6; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 15.]

Effective dates—Severability—1981 c 67: See notes following RCW 34.12.010.

18.52.155 Authority to administer oaths—Compel attendance and testimony—Subpoenas—Contempt. In any investigation or proceeding authorized in this chapter, the director, the board, any committee of the board, and any hearing officer conducting a contested case, shall have authority to administer oaths and take testimony, issue subpoenas requiring attendance of witnesses, together with relevant books, memoranda, papers, and other documents, articles, or instruments, and to discover from such witnesses all relevant facts known to them. In a contested case subpoenas shall be issued at the request of a party.

If an individual fails to obey the subpoena or obeys the subpoena but refuses to testify concerning matters relevant to the investigation or proceedings, the issuer of the subpoena may petition the superior court of the county where the investigation or proceeding is being conducted for enforcement of the subpoena. The petition shall be accompanied by a copy of the subpoena and proof of service, and shall set forth in what specific manner the subpoena has not been complied with, and shall ask an order of the court to compel the witness to appear and testify before the agency. The court may enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place fixed in such order to show cause why he has not responded to the subpoena or has refused to testify. A copy of such order shall be served upon the witness. If it then appears to the court that the subpoena was properly issued and that the particular questions which the witness refuses to answer are reasonable and relevant the court shall enter an order that the witness appear at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the items required, and on failing to obey the order the witness shall be subject to being held in contempt of court. [1977 ex.s. c 243 § 7.]

18.52.160 Examinations—Times and places—Meetings of board. The board shall meet as often as may be necessary to carry out the duties of the board under this chapter. Examinations shall be administered at intervals not less than semiannually and at such times and places as may be determined by the board. There shall not be a limit upon the number of times a candidate may take the required examination. [1984 c 279 § 71; 1970 ex.s. c 57 § 17.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.52.170 Fees and revenues—Disposition. All fees or revenue collected in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited in the state general fund. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 19.]

18.52.900 Severability—1970 ex.s. c 57. If any provision of this 1970 act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1970 ex.s. c 57 § 20.]

- 18.52A.040 Nursing assistant training programs.
- 18.52A.050 Administering medication, practicing as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse.
- 18.52A.060 Rules.

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The regulation of nurses is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.305. RCW 18.52A.010 through 18.52A.060, 18.78.010 through 18.78.182 and 18.78.900, and 18.88.010 through 18.88.300 and 18.88.900 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.306.

18.52A.010 Legislative finding. The legislature finds that the quality of patient care in nursing homes is dependent upon the competence of the personnel who staff their facilities. To assure the availability of trained personnel in nursing homes, the legislature recognizes the need for the development of an entry-level training program for nursing assistants. [1979 c 114 § 1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.52A.020 Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Nursing assistant" means a person who, under the direction and supervision of a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse, assists in the care of patients in a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, a wing of a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW if the wing is certified to provide nursing home care under Title XVIII or Title XIX of the social security act, or any nursing care facility operated under the direction of the department of veterans affairs.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Nursing home" means a facility licensed under chapter 18.51 RCW, a wing of a hospital licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW if the wing is certified to provide nursing home care under Title XVIII or Title XIX of the social security act, or any nursing care facility operated under the direction of the department of veterans affairs.

(4) "Board" means the state board of nursing. [1985 c 284 § 5; 1979 c 114 § 2.]

18.52A.030 Qualification requirements for employment of nursing assistants. (1) Any nursing assistant employed by a nursing home, who has satisfactorily completed a nursing assistant training program under this chapter, shall, upon application, be issued a certificate of completion.

(2) All nursing assistants employed by a nursing home shall be required to show evidence of satisfactory completion of a nursing assistant training program, or that they are enrolled in and are progressing satisfactorily towards completion of a training program under standards promulgated by the board, which program must be completed within six months of employment. A nursing home may employ a person not currently enrolled if the employer within twenty days enrolls the person in an approved training program. All persons enrolled in a training program must satisfactorily complete the program within six months from the date of initial employment.

(3) All nursing assistants who, on June 7, 1979, are employed in nursing homes shall be given the opportunity to obtain a certificate of completion by passing a written and/or practical examination developed by the board and conducted by a school or nursing home, or by providing evidence of sufficient practical experience. The board shall adopt rules specifying the amount of practical experience to be required for the issuance of a certificate under this section.

(4) Compliance with this section shall be a condition of licensure of nursing homes under chapter 18.51 RCW. Beginning January 1, 1986, compliance with this section shall be a condition of licensure of hospitals licensed under chapter 70.41 RCW with a wing certified to provide nursing home care under Title XVIII or Title XIX of the social security act. Any health provider of skilled nursing facility care or intermediate care facility care shall meet the requirements of this section. [1985 c 284 § 6; 1979 c 114 § 3.]

18.52A.040 Nursing assistant training programs. (1) The board shall establish minimum curriculum standards and approve or disapprove curriculum used in nursing assistant training programs. The standards shall include, as a minimum, instruction in patient environment, patients' psychosocial needs, aseptic technique, personal hygiene, excretory systems, basic nursing procedures, food service, and fire safety, consisting of at least twenty-five classroom hours and at least fifty hours of supervised and on-the-job training clinical practice. The fifty hours may consist of employment as nurse assistants under supervision of a registered nurse.

(2) For nursing assistant training programs conducted by nursing homes, the board shall adopt additional minimum standards covering noncurriculum matters such as, but not limited to, staffing and teacher qualifications.

Of the standards adopted by the board, nursing assistant training programs conducted by publicly supported schools, and private educational institutions accredited by the northwest association of schools and colleges, shall be required to meet only those standards established under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The board shall periodically review the nursing assistant training programs conducted by nursing homes. Upon completion of the review, the board shall approve or disapprove each program.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education shall periodically review with the board the nursing assistant training programs conducted by publicly supported schools within the agencies' respective jurisdictions. Upon completion of the review, the board shall approve or disapprove each program, and graduates of such approved programs shall automatically be certified. [1979 c 114 § 4.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.52A.050 Administering medication, practicing as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as conferring on a nursing assistant the authority to administer medication or to practice as a registered nurse or licensed practical nurse. [1979 c 114 § 5.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.52A.060 Rules. The department and the board shall, within ninety days of June 7, 1979, adopt such rules as are necessary for the implementation of this chapter. [1979 c 114 § 6.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.53.003 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.53.005 Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the practice of optometry is a learned profession and affects the health, welfare and safety of the people of this state, and should be regulated in the public interest and limited to qualified persons licensed and authorized to practice under the provisions of chapters 18.53 and 18.54 RCW. [1981 c 58 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 1.]

18.53.010 Definition. (1) The practice of optometry is defined as the examination of the human eye, the examination and ascertaining any defects of the human vision system and the analysis of the process of vision. The practice of optometry may include, but not necessarily be limited to, the following:

(a) The employment of any objective or subjective means or method including the use of pharmaceutical agents topically applied to the eye for diagnostic purposes by those licensed under this chapter and who meet the requirements of subsection (2) of this section, and the use of any diagnostic instruments or devices for the examination or analysis of the human vision system, the measurement of the powers or range of human vision, or the determination of the refractive powers of the human eye or its functions in general; and

(b) The prescription and fitting of lenses, prisms, therapeutic or refractive contact lenses and the adaption or adjustment of frames and lenses used in connection therewith; and

(c) The prescription and provision of visual therapy, therapeutic aids and other optical devices; and

(d) The ascertainment of the perceptive, neural, muscular or pathological condition of the visual system; and

(e) The adaptation of prosthetic eyes.

(2) Those persons using pharmaceutical agents for diagnostic purposes in the practice of optometry shall have a minimum of sixty hours of didactic and clinical instruction in general and ocular pharmacology as applied to optometry, and certification from an institution of higher learning, accredited by a regional or professional accrediting organization and recognized or approved by the accrediting commission for senior colleges and universities of the western association of schools and colleges to qualify for certification by the optometry board of Washington to use pharmaceutical agents for diagnostic purposes. Such course or courses shall be the fiscal responsibility of the participating and attending optometrist. [1981 c 58 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 2; 1919 c 144 § 1; RRS § 10147. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 1.]

18.53.020 Licensing required. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice optometry as above defined in the state of Washington without first obtaining a license from the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 46; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 3; 1919 c 144 § 2; RRS § 10148. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 5.]

18.53.030 Temporary permit—When issued. The director may at his discretion, issue a permit to practice optometry during the interim between examinations, to any person who has filed an application for examination which has been accepted by said director as admitting the applicant to the next examination. Such permit shall be valid only until the date of the next examination and shall not be issued sooner than thirty days following any regular examination, and no permit shall be issued to any person who has failed before the director, nor where a certificate has been revoked. [1919 c 144 § 8; RRS § 10153.]

18.53.040 Exemptions—Exceptions—Limitation. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to pertain in any manner to the practice of any regularly qualified oculist or physician, who is regularly licensed to practice medicine in the state of Washington, or to any person who is regularly licensed to practice as a dispensing optician in the state of Washington, nor to any person who in the regular course of trade, sells or offers for sale, spectacles or eyeglasses as regular merchandise without pretense of adapting them to the eyes of the purchaser, and not in evasion of this chapter: Provided, That any such regularly qualified oculist or physician or other person shall be subject to the provisions of subdivisions (10) through (15) of RCW 18.53.140, in connection with the performance of any function coming within the definition of the practice of optometry as defined in this chapter: Provided further, however, That in no way shall this section be construed to permit a dispensing optician to practice optometry as defined in *this 1975 amendatory act. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 15; 1937 c 155 § 3; 1919 c 144 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1937 § 10159. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 13.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1975 amendatory act" [1975 1st ex.s. c 69] consists of RCW 18.53.005, 18.53.155, 18.53.200, 18.53.911, amendments to RCW 18.53.010, 18.53.020, 18.53.040, 18.53.060, 18.53.070, 18.53.100, 18.53.140, 18.53.190, 18.54.050, 18.54.070, 18.54.080, 18.54.140 and the repeal of RCW 18.53.090.

18.53.050 Certificate renewal—Suspension for failure to pay. Every registered optometrist shall annually or on the date specified by the director pay to the state treasurer a renewal fee, to be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and failure to pay such fee within the prescribed time shall cause the suspension of his or her certificate. [1985 c 7 § 51; 1983 c 168 § 8; 1981 c 277 § 8; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 56; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 10; 1955 c 275 § 1; 1919 c 144 § 13; RRS § 10158.]

Severability—1983 c 168: See RCW 18.120.910.

18.53.055 License renewal—Reinstatement after revocation, suspension. In the event of revocation of license for nonpayment of required renewal fees, reinstatement may be effected by payment of accumulated unpaid renewal fees accruing from the date of suspension of license to the date of reinstatement. Funds realized from such reinstatements shall be distributed as provided in RCW 18.53.050. [1955 c 275 § 2.]

18.53.060 License applicants—Eligibility—Qualifications—Examinations—Exception. From and after January 1, 1940, in order to be eligible for examination for registration, a person shall be a citizen of the United States of America, who shall have a preliminary education of or equal to four years in a state accredited high school and has completed a full attendance course in a regularly chartered school of optometry maintaining a standard which is deemed sufficient and satisfactory by the optometry board, who is a person of good moral character, who is not afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, who has a visual acuity in at least one eye, of a standard known as 20/40 under correction: Provided, That from and after January 1, 1975, in order to be eligible for examination for a license, a person shall have the following qualifications:

(1) Be a graduate of a state accredited high school or its equivalent;

(2) Have a diploma or other certificate of completion from an accredited college of optometry or school of optometry, maintaining a standard which is deemed sufficient and satisfactory by the optometry board, conferring its degree of doctor of optometry or its equivalent, maintaining a course of four scholastic years in addition to preprofessional college level studies, and teaching substantially all of the following subjects: General anatomy, anatomy of the eyes, physiology, physics, chemistry, pharmacology, biology, bacteriology, general pathology, ocular pathology, ocular neurology, ocular myology, psychology, physiological optics, optometrical mechanics, clinical optometry, visual field charting and orthoptics, general laws of optics and refraction and use of the ophthalmoscope, retinoscope and other clinical instruments necessary in the practice of optometry;

(3) Be of good moral character; and

(4) Have no contagious or infectious disease.

Such person shall file an application for an examination and license with said board at any time thirty days prior to the time fixed for such examination, or at a later date if approved by the board, and such application must be on forms approved by the board, and properly attested, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall entitle the applicant upon payment of the proper fee, to take the examination prescribed by the board. Such examination shall not be out of keeping with the established teachings and adopted textbooks of the recognized schools of optometry, and shall be confined to such subjects and practices as are recognized as essential to the practice of optometry. All candidates without discrimination, who shall successfully pass the prescribed examination, shall be registered by the board and shall, upon payment of the proper fee, be issued a license. The optometry board, at its discretion, may waive all or a portion of the written examination for any applicant who has satisfactorily passed the examination given by the National Board of Examiners in Optometry. Any license to practice optometry in this state issued by the director, and which shall be in full force and effect at the time of passage of *this 1975 amendatory act, shall be continued. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 4; 1937 c 155 § 1; 1919 c 144 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1937 § 10150. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 7. Formerly RCW 18.53.060 and 18.53.080.]

18.53.070 Application and license fees. The fees for application for examination and for issuing a certificate of registration shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which shall be paid to the director as he shall prescribe. [1985 c 7 § 52; 1981 c 260 § 5. Prior: 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 5; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 57; 1919 c 144 § 9; RRS § 10151; prior: 1909 c 235 § 7.]

18.53.100 Revocation of license—Grounds. The optometry board may under the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, upon presentation of evidence and information by the director, revoke the license of any optometrist for any of the following causes:

(1) Conviction of any crime involving moral turpitude; or

(2) Any form of fraud or deceit used in securing a license; or

(3) Any unprofessional conduct, of a nature likely to deceive or defraud the public; or

(4) The obtaining of any fee by fraud or misrepresentation; or

(5) The employing either directly or indirectly of any person or persons commonly known as "cappers" or "steerers" to obtain business; or

(6) To employ any person to solicit from house to house, or to personally solicit from house to house; or

(7) The employment of any unlicensed person to perform the work covered by this chapter; or

(8) Advertisement in any way in which untruthful, improbable or impossible statements are made regarding treatments, cures or values; or

(9) The use of the term "eye specialist" in connection with the name of such optometrist; or

(10) For habits of intemperance or habitual drunkenness, addiction to the drug habit, in a manner likely to destroy the accuracy of the work of an optometrist; or

(11) Affliction with a contagious or infectious disease, or one which is likely to destroy the accuracy of the work of the afflicted; or

(12) For any cause for which the director or board of optometry might refuse to admit a candidate to his examination; or

(13) Inability to demonstrate, in a manner satisfactory to the director or the board of optometry, their practical ability to perform any function set forth in RCW 18.53.010 which they utilize in their practice; or

(14) For the violation of any provision of this chapter or any rules and regulations of the director or the optometry board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 6; 1919 c 144 § 11; RRS § 10156. Prior: 1909 c 235 §§ 11, 12.]

Powers previously vested in director of licensing under RCW 18.53.100 now vested in optometry board: RCW 18.54.150.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.53.140 Unlawful acts—Penalty. It shall be unlawful for any person:

(1) To sell or barter, or offer to sell or barter any license issued by the director; or

(2) To purchase or procure by barter any license with the intent to use the same as evidence of the holder's qualification to practice optometry; or

(3) To alter with fraudulent intent in any material regard such license; or

(4) To use or attempt to use any such license which has been purchased, fraudulently issued, counterfeited or materially altered as a valid license; or

(5) To practice optometry under a false or assumed name, or as a representative or agent of any person, firm or corporation with which the licensee has no connection: Provided, Nothing in this chapter nor in the optometry law shall make it unlawful for any lawfully licensed optometrist or association of lawfully licensed optometrists to practice optometry under the name of any lawfully licensed optometrist who may transfer by inheritance or otherwise the right to use such name; or

(6) To wilfully make any false statements in material regard in an application for an examination before the director, or for a license; or

(7) To practice optometry in this state either for himself or any other individual, corporation, partnership, group, public or private entity, or any member of the licensed healing arts without having at the time of so doing a valid license issued by the director of licensing; or

(8) To in any manner barter or give away as premiums either on his own account or as agent or representative for any other purpose, firm or corporation, any eyeglasses, spectacles, lenses or frames; or

(9) To use drugs in the examination of eyes except diagnostic agents, topically applied, known generally as cycloplegics, mydriatics, topical anesthetics, dyes such as florescein, and for emergency use only, miotics, which legend drugs a certified optometrist is authorized to purchase, possess and administer; or

(10) To use advertising whether printed, radio, display, or of any other nature, which is misleading or inaccurate in any material particular, nor shall any such person in any way misrepresent any goods or services (including but without limitation, its use, trademark, grade, quality, size, origin, substance, character, nature, finish, material, content, or preparation) or credit terms, values, policies, services, or the nature or form of the business conducted; or

(11) To advertise the "free examination of eyes," "free consultation," "consultation without obligation," "free advice," or any words or phrases of similar import which convey the impression to the public that eyes are examined free or of a character tending to deceive or mislead the public, or in the nature of "bait advertising;" or

(12) To use an advertisement of a frame or mounting which is not truthful in describing the frame or mounting and all its component parts. Or advertise a frame or mounting at a price, unless it shall be depicted in the advertisement without lenses inserted, and in addition the advertisement must contain a statement immediately following, or adjacent to the advertised price, that the price is for frame or mounting only, and does not include lenses, eye examination and professional services, which statement shall appear in type as large as that used for the price, or advertise lenses or complete glasses, viz.: frame or mounting with lenses included, at a price either alone or in conjunction with professional services; or

(13) To use advertising, whether printed, radio, display, or of any other nature, which inaccurately lays claim to a policy or continuing practice of generally underselling competitors; or

(14) To use advertising, whether printed, radio, display or of any other nature which refers inaccurately in any material particular to any competitors or their goods, prices, values, credit terms, policies or services; or

(15) To use advertising whether printed, radio, display, or of any other nature, which states any definite amount of money as "down payment" and any definite amount of money as a subsequent payment, be it daily, weekly, monthly, or at the end of any period of time; or

(16) To violate any provision of this chapter or any rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. [1981 c 58 § 3; 1979 c 158 § 47; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 7; 1945 c 78 § 1; 1935 c 134 § 1; 1919 c 144 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 10152. Cf. 1909 c 235 § 5.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.53.145 Unlawful to advertise indemnity benefits to health care service contract subscribers when not a participant or contractor. It shall be unlawful for any licensee subject to the provisions of chapter 18.53 RCW to advertise to the effect that benefits in the form of indemnity will accrue to subscribers of health care service contracts for services performed by the licensee for a subscriber when the licensee is neither a health care service contractor nor a participant. A violation of this section shall be punishable as provided in RCW 18.53.140(10). [1969 c 143 § 2.]

18.53.150 Violations generally—Penalty. Any person violating any provision of RCW 18.53.010 through 18.53.150 shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both. [1919 c 144 § 22; RRS § 10163. Prior: 1909 c 235 § 12.]

18.53.155 Injunction to restrain violations. If any person engages in the practice of optometry without possessing a valid license to do so, or if he violates the provisions of RCW 18.53.100 or 18.53.140, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county, may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin such person from engaging in practice as an optometrist. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to suspension or revocation of his license. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 13.]

18.53.160 Public aid ocular services—Discrimination prohibited. All agencies of the state and its subdivisions, and all commissions, clinics and boards administering relief, public assistance, public welfare assistance, social security, health insurance, or health service under the laws of this state, shall accept the services of licensed optometrists for any service covered by their licenses relating to any person receiving benefits from said agencies or subdivisions and shall pay for such services in the same way as practitioners of other professions may be paid for similar services. None of the said governmental agencies, or agents, officials or employees thereof, including the public schools, in the performance of their duties shall in any way show discrimination among licensed ocular practitioners. [1949 c 149 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 9991a.]

18.53.165 Discrimination prohibited—Legislative finding and declaration. The legislature finds and declares that the costs of health care to the people are rising disproportionately to other costs and that there is a paramount concern that the right of the people to obtain access to health care in all its facets is being impaired thereby. For this reason, the reliance on the mechanism of insurance, whether profit or nonprofit, is the only effective manner in which the large majority of the people can attain access to quality health care, and it is therefore declared to be in the public interest that health care insurance be regulated to assure that all the people have access to health care rendered by whatever means, and to the greatest extent possible. RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.190 and 18.53.901, prohibiting discrimination against the legally recognized and licensed profession of optometrists, is necessary in the interest of the public health, welfare and safety. [1973 c 48 § 1.]

18.53.170 Discrimination prohibited—Acceptance of services by state agencies and subdivisions. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions shall accept the services of licensed optometrists for any service covered by their licenses with relation to any person receiving benefits, salaries, wages, or any other type of compensation from the state, its agencies or subdivisions. [1973 c 48 § 2.]

18.53.175 Discrimination prohibited—State agencies and subdivisions—Officials and employees. The state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from in any way discriminating against licensed optometrists in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1973 c 48 § 3.]

18.53.180 Discrimination prohibited—Agreements or contracts by state and subdivisions. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the state and its political subdivisions, and all officials, agents, employees, or representatives thereof, are prohibited from entering into any agreement or contract with any individual, group, association, or corporation which in any way, directly or indirectly, discriminates against licensed optometrists in performing and receiving compensation for services covered by their licenses. [1973 c 48 § 4.]

18.53.185 Discrimination prohibited—Costs immaterial. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purpose of RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.180 and 18.53.190 it is immaterial whether the cost of any policy, plan, agreement, or contract be deemed additional compensation for services, or otherwise. [1973 c 48 § 5.]

18.53.190 Discrimination prohibited—Application of law. RCW 18.53.165 through 18.53.185 shall apply to all agreements, renewals, or contracts issued on or after June 7, 1973.

Health care service contracts having a participant agreement with a majority of the licensed optometrists within its service area may provide benefits to persons or groups of persons through contracts which allow a subscriber to utilize on an equal participation basis the services of any participant provided in the contract, and such contracts shall not be discriminatory. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 8; 1973 c 48 § 6.]

18.53.200 Privileged communications. The information and records of a licensed optometrist pertaining to a patient shall be privileged communications, the same as now or hereafter may exist in the relationship of physician and patient and shall not be released or subjected to disclosure without the consent of the patient or as otherwise required by law. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 14.]

Privileged communications—Physician and patient: RCW 5.60.060.

18.53.900 Short title—1919 c 144. This act shall be known, and may be referred to as, "The Optometry Law". [1919 c 144 § 20.]

18.53.910 Severability—1919 c 144. Any question of unconstitutionality arising concerning any of the sections or provisions of this act shall in no wise affect any other section or provision of the act. [1919 c 144 § 18.]

18.53.911 Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 69. If any provision of this 1975 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 17.]

18.53.912 Severability—1981 c 58. If any provision of this amendatory act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1981 c 58 § 4.]

18.53.920 Repeal—1919 c 144. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed. [1919 c 144 § 19.]

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.54.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.54.010 Definitions. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the terms used in this chapter take their meanings as follows:

(1) "Board" means the optometry board;

(2) "License" means a certificate or permit to practice optometry as provided in RCW 18.53.020 as amended from time to time;

(3) "Members" means members of the optometry board. [1963 c 25 § 1.]

18.54.020 Examining committee reconstituted as optometry board. The examining committee, heretofore created pursuant to RCW 43.24.060, is reorganized and reconstituted as the optometry board. [1963 c 25 § 2.]

RCW 43.24.060, 43.24.110 and 43.24.120 not applicable to optometry: RCW 18.54.920.

18.54.030 Composition—Appointments—Qualifications—Terms—Vacancies. The initial composition of the optometry board includes the three members of the examining committee for optometry plus two more optometrists to be appointed by the governor.

The governor must make all appointments to the optometry board. Only optometrists who are citizens of the United States, residents of this state, having been licensed to practice and practicing optometry in this state for a period of at least four years immediately preceding the effective date of appointment, and who have no connection with any school or college embracing the teaching of optometry or with any optical supply business may be appointed.

The governor may set the terms of office of the initial board at his discretion, to establish the following perpetual succession: The terms of the initial board include one position for one year, two for two years and two for three years; and upon the expiration of the terms of the initial board, all appointments are for three years.

In addition to the members specified in this section, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the board, who shall serve for a term of three years.

In the event that a vacancy occurs on the board in the middle of an appointee's term, the governor must appoint a successor for the unexpired portion of the term only. [1984 c 279 § 54; 1963 c 25 § 3.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.54.040 Officers. The board must elect a chairman and secretary from its members, to serve for a term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. [1963 c 25 § 4.]

18.54.050 Meetings. The board must meet at least once yearly or more frequently upon call of the chairman or the director of licensing at such times and places as the chairman or the director of licensing may designate by giving three days' notice or as otherwise required by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW as now or hereafter amended. [1979 c 158 § 48; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 9; 1963 c 25 § 5.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 69: See RCW 18.53.911.

18.54.060 Quorum. Three members constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of the board. [1963 c 25 § 6.]

18.54.070 Powers and duties—Examinations—Unprofessional conduct—Employment of personnel. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) The board shall prepare the necessary lists of examination questions, conduct examinations, either written or oral or partly written and partly oral, and shall certify to the director of licensing all lists, signed by all members conducting the examination, of all applicants for licenses who have successfully passed the examination and a separate list of all applicants for licenses who have failed to pass the examination, together with a copy of all examination questions used, and the written answers to questions on written examinations submitted by each of the applicants.

(2) The director shall investigate all complaints and charges of unprofessional conduct against any licensed optometrist, and the board shall hold hearings to determine whether or not such charges are founded.

(3) The board shall take disciplinary action against any optometrist whom the board finds guilty of unprofessional conduct; and may, under appropriate circumstances, order the revocation or suspension of a license to practice optometry by filing a copy of its findings and conclusions with the director of licensing.

(4) The board may employ stenographic and clerical help, and such other assistance as may be necessary to enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(5) The board shall adopt rules and regulations to promote safety, protection and the welfare of the public, to carry out the purposes of this chapter, to aid the board in the performance of its powers and duties, and to govern the practice of optometry. [1979 c 158 § 49; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 10; 1963 c 25 § 7.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 69: See RCW 18.53.911.

18.54.075 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The optometry board may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 38.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.54.080 "Unprofessional conduct" defined. The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in this chapter means and includes the following acts and omissions, or any one or any combination thereof, as follows:

(1) Any one or more of the acts enumerated as grounds for revocation of a license, under the provisions of RCW 18.53.100; or

(2) Any one or more of the acts enumerated as unlawful under the provisions of RCW 18.53.140. [1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 11; 1963 c 25 § 8.]

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 69: See RCW 18.53.911.

18.54.090 Administrative procedures—Minimum fees. The board is an administrative agency of the state of Washington, and the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW as amended from time to time, govern the conduct and proceedings of the board. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to give the board the power to set or recommend a minimum schedule of fees to be charged by licensed optometrist. [1963 c 25 § 9.]

18.54.100 Suspension or revocation of license for unprofessional conduct. The filing by the board in the office of the director of licenses of a certificate or order of revocation or suspension, after due notice, hearing, and findings and conclusions, in accordance with the procedure set forth in this chapter, certifying that a holder of a license has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct by the board, constitutes revocation or suspension of the license to practice optometry in this state, and it is unlawful for any person to practice optometry contrary to the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the board's certificate or order of revocation or suspension. [1963 c 25 § 10.]

18.54.110 Suspension or revocation of license for unprofessional conduct—Judicial review. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended may seek judicial review of the board's action or decision under the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW as amended from time to time. [1963 c 25 § 11.]

18.54.120 Suspension or revocation of license for unprofessional conduct—Reinstatement. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time; and the board may hold hearings on such petition, may impose such terms or conditions as are appropriate under the circumstances, and may order a reinstatement. [1963 c 25 § 12.]

18.54.130 Compensation and travel expenses of members. Members of the board are entitled to receive their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Each member of the board will also be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. [1984 c 287 § 41; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 39; 1967 c 188 § 3; 1963 c 25 § 13.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.54.140 Board may draw from health professions account. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, rule or regulation, the board may draw from the health professions account on vouchers approved by the director of licensing, so much money as is necessary to carry into effect, to administer, and to enforce the provisions of this chapter. [1983 c 168 § 9; 1979 c 158 § 50; 1975 1st ex.s. c 69 § 12; 1963 c 25 § 14.]

Severability—1983 c 168: See RCW 18.120.910.

Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 69: See RCW 18.53.911.
Health professions account: RCW 43.24.072.

18.54.150 Devolution of powers relating to revocation of certificates. All powers previously vested in the director of licenses under the provisions of RCW 18.53.100 are vested in the optometry board. [1963 c 25 § 15.]

18.54.900 Short title. This act may be known and cited as the "optometry board act." [1963 c 25 § 16.]

18.54.920 RCW 43.24.060, 43.24.110 and 43.24.120 not applicable to optometry. The provisions of RCW 43.24.060, 43.24.110 and 43.24.120 are not applicable to the licensing and regulation of the practice of optometry. [1963 c 25 § 18.]

18.55.010 Licensing—Exemptions—Limitations. (1) Nothing in this chapter shall:

(a) Be construed to limit or restrict a duly licensed physician or employees working under the personal supervision of a duly licensed physician from the practices enumerated in this chapter;

(b) Be construed to prohibit an unlicensed person from performing mechanical work upon inert matter in an ocularist's office or laboratory;

(c) Be construed to authorize or permit a licensee under this chapter to hold himself or herself out as being able to, or to offer to, or to undertake to attempt, by any manner of means, to examine or exercise eyes, or diagnose, treat, correct, relieve, operate, or prescribe for disease or any visual deficiency.

(2) Each practitioner duly licensed pursuant to chapters 18.53, 18.57, and 18.71 RCW shall have all the rights and privileges which may accrue under this chapter to ocularists licensed under this chapter. [1980 c 101 § 1.]

18.55.020 Definitions. The terms defined in this section shall have the meaning ascribed to them wherever appearing in this chapter, unless a different meaning is specifically used to such term in such statute.

(1) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(2) "Ocularist" means a person who designs, fabricates, and fits ocular prosthetic appliances. An ocularist is authorized to perform the necessary procedures to provide an ocular prosthetic service for the patient in the ocularist's office or laboratory on prescription of a physician. The ocularist is authorized to make judgment on the needed care, replacement, and use of an ocular prosthetic appliance. The ocularist is authorized to design, fabricate, and fit human prosthetics in the following categories:

(a) Stock and custom prosthetic eyes;

(b) Stock and custom therapeutic scleral shells;

(c) Stock and custom therapeutic painted iris shells;

(d) External orbital and facial prosthetics; and

(e) Ocular conformers: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to allow the fitting or fabricating of contact lenses.

(3) "Apprentice" means a person designated an apprentice in the records of the director at the request of a licensed ocularist, and who shall thereafter receive from such licensee training and direct supervision in the work of an ocularist. [1980 c 101 § 2.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. Sec RCW 43.24.020.

18.55.030 Licenses—Issuance—Time for renewal—Expiration. Upon receipt of an application for a license and the license fee as determined by the director, the director shall issue a license if the applicant meets the requirements established under this chapter. The license, unless suspended or revoked, shall be renewed annually. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on the 1st day of July. [1980 c 101 § 3.]

18.55.040 License applicants—Qualifications—Examination—Exemption from examination. (1) No applicant for a license shall be registered under this chapter until the applicant pays an examination fee as shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, and certifies under oath that the applicant:

(a) Is eighteen years or more of age;

(b) Has graduated from high school;

(c) Is of good moral character; and

(d) Has either:

(i) Had at least five years of apprenticeship training under a licensed ocularist in the state of Washington; or

(ii) Successfully completed a prescribed course in ocularist training programs in a college, teaching facility, or university approved by the director; or

(iii) Been principally engaged in practicing as an ocularist outside the state of Washington for eight years and shall have been employed by a licensed ocularist or physician for one year in the state of Washington; and

(iv) Successfully passes with a grade of at least seventy-five percent, an examination, conducted by the director, which shall determine whether the applicant has a thorough knowledge of the principles governing the practice of an ocularist.

(2) The director shall issue a license without examination to any person who makes application therefor within six months after June 12, 1980, pays a fee as determined by the director, and certifies under oath that the applicant has been actually and principally engaged in the practice of an ocularist in the state of Washington for a period of not less than five years immediately preceding June 12, 1980.

(3) Any person who on June 12, 1980 (a) is employed as apprentice by a person who is principally engaged in the practice of an ocularist, (b) registers with the director prior to one hundred twenty days after June 12, 1980, and (c) furnishes the director a statement, under oath, and certified as correct by the employer, as to the length of time of such employment shall be given credit for such period towards compliance with the requirement for five years' apprenticeship. [1985 c 7 § 53; 1980 c 101 § 4.]

18.55.050 Licenses—Renewal. Every licensee under this chapter shall pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director, as provided by RCW 43.24.086, on or before the 1st day of July of each year, and thereupon the license of such person shall be renewed for a period of one year. An application for renewal shall be on the form provided by the director and shall be filed with the department of licensing not less than ten days prior to its expiration. Each application for renewal shall be accompanied by a license fee as shall be determined by the director. Any license not renewed as provided in this section shall render the license invalid but such licensee shall be reinstated upon written application therefore to the director and payment of a renewal fee to the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all delinquent annual renewal license fees. [1985 c 7 § 54; 1980 c 101 § 7.]

18.55.060 Apprentices. (1) No licensee under this chapter may have more than two apprentices in training at one time.

(2) The licensee shall be responsible for the acts of the apprentices in the performance of their work in the apprenticeship program.

(3) Apprentices shall complete their apprenticeship in eight years and shall not work longer as an apprentice unless the director determines, after a hearing, that the apprentice was prevented by causes beyond his or her control from completing the apprenticeship and becoming a licensee hereunder in eight years. [1980 c 101 § 5.]

18.55.065 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 39.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.55.070 Suspension or revocation of a license—Grounds. A license may be suspended or revoked when a licensee:

(1) Has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude related to the practice of an ocularist;

(2) Is addicted to the use of alcohol or any drug;

(3) Has used advertising, whether printed, radio, display, or of any other nature, which is fraudulent, misleading, deceptive, or inaccurate in any material particular, or misrepresents in any way any goods, services, credit terms, values, policies, services, or the nature or form of the business conducted;

(4) Has practiced fraud or deception in the application for or during the examination for license;

(5) Has participated in the division, assignment, rebate, or refund of fees to a physician in consideration of patient referrals;

(6) Has bartered or given away as premiums in any manner either on the licensee's own account or as agent or representative for any other person;

(7) Has employed, either directly or indirectly, any person commonly known as "cappers" or "steerers" to obtain business;

(8) Has solicited or employed any person to solicit from house to house;

(9) Has used advertising offering a service to the public for which the licensee is not licensed under this chapter: Provided, That nothing in this section shall prohibit the ocularist from advertising merchandise for which the license which is the subject of this chapter is not required;

(10) Has engaged in a group contract for the ocularist's services without a prescription from a physician; or

(11) Has advertised the services of any other segment of the healing arts. [1980 c 101 § 6.]

18.55.080 Reinstatement of revoked or suspended license. The director, after a hearing, may for cause reissue or reinstate the license of a person whose license has been revoked or suspended. [1980 c 101 § 8.]

18.55.090 Unauthorized practice—Penalty. It shall be a gross misdemeanor for any person to practice as an ocularist without a license or while the license is suspended or revoked. [1980 c 101 § 9.]

18.55.100 Injunction to restrain violations. If any person engaged in the practice of an ocularist without possessing a valid license to do so, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen who resides in the same county as said practitioner who operates an office, may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin such person from engaging in practice as an ocularist. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to suspension or revocation of the license: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to prevent any licensed physician, licensed optometrist, or licensed dispensing optician from making any examination or performing any act permitted or authorized by law. [1980 c 101 § 10.]

18.57.001 Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Board" means the Washington state board of osteopathic medicine and surgery;
- (2) "Department" means the department of licensing;
- (3) "Director" means the director of licensing; and
- (4) "Osteopathic medicine and surgery" means the use of any and all methods in the treatment of disease, injuries, deformities, and all other physical and mental conditions in and of human beings, including the use of osteopathic manipulative therapy. The term means the same as "osteopathy and surgery". [1979 c 117 § 1.]

18.57.002 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria.

See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.57.003 State board of osteopathic medicine and surgery—Membership—Terms—Qualifications—Officers—Meetings—Compensation and travel expenses—Removal.

There is hereby created an agency of the state of Washington, consisting of seven individuals appointed by the governor to be known as the Washington state board of osteopathic medicine and surgery.

The members of the first board shall be appointed to serve the following terms from the date of their appointment: Two members for two years, two members for three years, and three members for five years, or until their successors are appointed and fully qualified. The respective terms of office of such initial appointees shall be designated by the governor at the time of appointment. On expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint for a period of five years an individual of similar qualifications to take the place of such member. Each member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor shall have been appointed and shall have qualified. Initial appointments shall be made and vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and must be an actual resident of this state. One member shall be a consumer who has neither a financial nor a fiduciary relationship to a health care delivery system, and every other member must have been in active practice as a licensed osteopathic physician and surgeon in this state for at least five years immediately preceding appointment.

The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment and elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings of the board shall be held at least four times a year and at such place as the board shall determine and at such other times and places as the board deems necessary.

It shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the board to take any official action.

Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, or upon written request of two-thirds of the physicians licensed under this chapter and in active practice in this state. [1984 c 287 § 42; 1979 c 117 § 2.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

18.57.005 Powers and duties of board. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To administer examinations to applicants for licensure under this chapter;

(2) To grant, deny, restrict, suspend, or revoke licenses to practice under this chapter;

(3) To make such rules and regulations as are not inconsistent with the laws of this state as may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(4) To establish and administer requirements for continuing professional education as may be necessary or proper to insure the public health and safety as a prerequisite to granting and renewing licenses under this chapter: Provided, That such rules shall not require a licensee under this chapter to engage in continuing education related to or provided by any specific branch, school, or philosophy of medical practice or its political and/or professional organizations, associations, or societies;

(5) To establish rules and regulations fixing standards of professional conduct;

(6) To adopt such rules as are necessary to establish, administer, and/or delegate a review of each malpractice action filed against a person licensed to practice under this chapter. On the basis of such review, where in its sole discretion, it deems it necessary, take such action as required to protect the public health and safety, including restriction, suspension, or revocation of a license to practice under this chapter; and

(7) To keep an official record of all its proceedings, which record shall be evidence of all proceedings of the board which are set forth therein. [1979 c 117 § 3.]

18.57.009 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act.

The board of osteopathic medicine may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 40.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.57.020 Licenses—Forms—Qualifications to practice—Preexisting licenses. A license shall be issued by the director authorizing the holder thereof to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery, including the use of internal medicine and drugs, and shall be the only type of license issued. All licenses to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery, including the use of internal medicine and drugs, heretofore issued shall remain in full force and effect: Provided, That a license to practice osteopathy and surgery shall be deemed to be the same as a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery, and the former license may be exchanged for the latter license at the option of the license holder.

In order to procure a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery, the applicant must file with the board satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma issued by some legally chartered school of osteopathic medicine and surgery, approved by the board, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, and he must file with such diploma an application sworn to before some person authorized to administer oaths, and attested by the hand and seal of such officer, if he have a seal, stating that he is the person named in said diploma, that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made upon a form prepared by the director, with the approval of the board, and it shall contain such information concerning said osteopathic medical instruction and the preliminary education of the applicant as the board may by rule provide. Applicants who have failed to meet the requirements must be rejected.

An applicant for a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery must furnish evidence satisfactory to the board that he has served for not less than one year as intern or resident in a training program acceptable to the board.

In addition, the applicant may be required to furnish evidence satisfactory to the board that he is physically and mentally capable of safely carrying on the practice of osteopathic medicine and surgery. The board may require any applicant to submit to such examination or examinations as it deems necessary to determine an applicant's physical and/or mental capability to safely practice osteopathic medicine and surgery. The applicant must also show that he has not been guilty of any conduct which would constitute grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of such license under the laws of the state of Washington.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the board from requiring such additional information from applicants as it deems necessary.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require any applicant for licensure, or any licensee, as a requisite of retaining or renewing licensure under this chapter, to be a member of any political and/or professional organization. [1979 c 117 § 11; 1959 c 110 § 1; 1919 c 4 § 4; RRS § 10056. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 6. Formerly RCW 18.57.020, 18.57.060, 18.57.070 and 18.57.090.]

18.57.030 Licensing required—Penalty—Payment of fines—Remittance of justice court fines, fees, penalties and forfeitures. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice, or hold himself out as practicing osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state, without having, at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked certificate as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In each such conviction the fine shall be paid, when collected, to the state treasurer, and shall constitute a special fund to be used by the director, for the prosecution of illegal practitioners as defined in this chapter, and the said director is authorized to prosecute all persons guilty of a violation of the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. [1969 ex.s. c 199 § 16; 1919 c 4 § 14; RRS § 10066. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 14.]

18.57.040 Licensing exemptions. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of family remedies, or the practice of midwifery; nor shall this chapter apply to any commissioned medical officer in the United States army, navy, or marine hospital service, in the discharge of his official duties; nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry; nor shall this chapter apply to any practitioner from any other state or territory in which he resides: Provided, That such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients or receive calls within the limits of this state.

This chapter shall not be construed to apply in any manner to any other system or method of treating the sick or afflicted or to apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or any kind of treatment by prayer. [1919 c 4 § 19; RRS § 10071. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1921 c 82 § 1, part; 1919 c 4 § 17, part; RRS § 10069, part, now codified in RCW 18.57.130.]

18.57.050 Fees—Disposition—Renewal of licenses. Each applicant on making application shall pay the director a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 which shall be paid to the state treasurer by said director and used to defray the expenses and compensation of said director. In case the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or in case he does not desire to take the examination, the sum of fifteen dollars shall be returned. All persons licensed to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery within this state who are engaged in active practice shall pay on or before the first day of May of each year to the director a renewal license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. The board may establish rules and regulations governing mandatory continuing education requirements which shall be met by physicians applying for renewal of licenses. Licenses not so renewed will not be valid. The director shall thirty days or more before May 1st of each year mail to all active practitioners of osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery in this state at their last known address a notice of the fact that the renewal fee will be due on or before the first of May. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed so as to require that the receipt shall be recorded as original licenses are required to be recorded. [1985 c 7 § 55; 1979 c 117 § 12; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 58; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 11; 1919 c 4 § 6; RRS § 10058. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 7. Formerly RCW 18.57.050 and 18.57.120.]

18.57.080 Examinations. Applicants for a license must be personally examined by the board as to their qualifications. The examination shall be conducted in the English language, shall be practical in character and designed to discover the applicant's fitness to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery, and shall be in whole or in part in writing on the following fundamental subjects, to wit: Anatomy, histology, gynecology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, toxicology, physiology, obstetrics, general diagnosis, hygiene, principles and practice of osteopathic medicine, surgery, and the management of surgical cases (including anesthetics) and any other subjects that the board shall deem advisable. The examination papers shall form a part of the records of the director and shall be kept on file by the board for a period of one year after examination. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret until final action by the board on such application. [1979 c 117 § 13; 1919 c 4 § 5; RRS § 10057. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 6. Formerly RCW 18.57.080 and 18.57.090, part.]

18.57.085 Waiver of examination in basic sciences and clinical subjects. The board may, in its discretion, waive the examination in basic sciences required under *chapter 43.74 RCW, and the examination in clinical subjects required under RCW 18.57.080 as now or hereafter amended, of persons applying for a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery if, in the sole discretion of the board, the applicant has successfully passed an examination of equal or greater difficulty than the examination being waived. [1979 c 117 § 14; 1971 ex.s. c 227 § 3.]

Reviser's note: *(1) "chapter 43.74 RCW" was repealed in its entirety by 1979 ex.s. c 114 § 1, with the exception of RCW 43.74.030, which was repealed by 1980 c 26 § 1.

(2) This section was also repealed by 1979 ex.s. c 114 § 1, without cognizance of its amendment by 1979 c 117 § 14.

18.57.085 Waiver of examination in basic sciences. [1971 ex.s. c 227 § 3.] Repealed by 1979 ex.s. c 114 § 1.

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1979 c 117 § 14 without cognizance of the repeal thereof.

18.57.130 Persons licensed by other states—Requirements—Fees. Any person who meets the requirements of RCW 18.57.020 as now or hereafter amended and has been examined and licensed to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery by a state board of examiners of another state or the duly constituted authorities of another state authorized to issue licenses to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery upon examination, shall upon approval of the board be entitled to receive a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery in this state upon the payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 to the state treasurer and filing a copy of his license in such other state, duly certified by the authorities granting the license to be a full, true, and correct copy thereof, and certifying also that the standard of requirements adopted by such authorities as provided by the law of such state is equal to that provided for by the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That no license shall issue without examination to any person who has previously failed in an examination held in this state: Provided, further, That all licenses herein mentioned may be revoked for unprofessional conduct, in the same manner and upon the same grounds as if issued under this chapter: Provided, further, That no one shall be permitted to practice surgery under this chapter who has not a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery. [1985 c 7 § 56; 1979 c 117 § 15; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 59; 1921 c 82 § 1; 1919 c 4 § 17; RRS § 10069. Formerly RCW 18.57.010, 18.57.040, part, and 18.57.130.]

18.57.140 Advertising regulations. On all cards, signs, letterheads, envelopes and billheads used by those licensed by this chapter to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery the word "osteopathic" shall always immediately precede the word "physician" and if the word "surgeon" is used in connection with said name, the word "osteopathic" shall also immediately precede said word "surgeon." [1919 c 4 § 20; RRS § 10072.]

18.57.145 Use of designations in combination with name. No provision of this chapter or of any other law shall prevent any person who holds a valid, unrevoked certificate to practice osteopathy from using in combination with his name the designation "Osteopathic Physician and Surgeon" or the abbreviation of his professional degree, Doctor of Osteopathy (D.O.), provided he hold such professional degree, or any combination thereof upon his stationery, in any professional lists or directories or in other places where the same may properly appear as permitted within the canons of ethics now or hereafter promulgated by the Washington State Osteopathic Association or its successors. [1959 c 110 § 2.]

18.57.150 Applicability of health regulations. All persons granted licenses or certificates under this chapter shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying to births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [1919 c 4 § 18; RRS § 10070.]

Vital statistics: Chapter 70.58 RCW.

18.57.160 Unlawful practices—Penalty. Every person falsely claiming himself to be the person named in a certificate issued to another, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to such penalties as are provided by the laws of this state for the crime of forgery. [1981 c 277 § 9; 1919 c 4 § 15; RRS § 10067. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 15.]

Forgery: RCW 9A.60.020.

18.57.170 Unprofessional conduct—Defined. The words "unprofessional conduct," as used in this chapter, are hereby declared to mean:

(1) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

(2) The commission of any act, whether the same be committed in the course of a licensee's relations as a physician or otherwise, and whether the same constitutes a crime or not, which creates a reasonable and substantial doubt as to the ability of the licensee to honestly or competently practice his profession. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction therefor the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at any ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent physician of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of violation of the statute upon which it is based.

(3) The violation of any rule or regulation pertaining to advertising of osteopathic practice promulgated by the board.

(4) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice osteopathic medicine and surgery or osteopathy, or in renewal or re-statement thereof.

(5) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by any secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any human condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the board.

(6) Habitual intemperance which affects a physician's practice.

(7) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner.

(8) Any public claim, representation, or advertisement that the licensee is practicing under any professional degree for which such licensee is not licensed to practice in this state.

(9) The possession, distribution, use, or prescription for the use of any controlled substance as defined in chapter 69.50 RCW, or legend drugs as defined in chapter 69.41 RCW in any way other than for therapeutic purposes.

(10) Unprofessional conduct as defined in chapter 19.68 RCW.

(11) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery.

(12) Suspension or revocation of the physician's license to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.

(13) Violation of any board rule or regulation fixing a standard of professional conduct.

(14) Wilful violation of RCW 18.57.140 or of RCW 18.57.195 or wilful disregard of the subpoena or notice of the board. [1979 c 117 § 16; 1963 c 142 § 2; 1919 c 4 § 11; RRS § 10063. Cf. 1909 c 192 § 11.]

Abortion: Chapter 9.02 RCW.

18.57.173 Unprofessional conduct—Complaint—Disciplinary proceedings. (1) Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the director charging the holder of a license to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. Such complaint must be made within five years after the date of the act or occurrence which constitutes the subject of the complaint. If the director determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the director shall have reason to believe, without formal complaint, that any holder of such license has been guilty of unprofessional conduct, the director shall institute disciplinary proceedings by preparing and filing with the board a specification of the charge or charges of unprofessional conduct and serve a copy thereof on the accused license holder together with notice of a hearing before the board.

(2) All disciplinary proceedings before the board shall be conducted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) A member of the board who has not personally heard all the testimony and oral argument, if any, shall be disqualified from voting on the final decision in any disciplinary proceeding before the board. [1979 c 117 § 4.]

18.57.175 Restriction, suspension, or revocation of license for unprofessional conduct—Reprimand—Reinstatement—Dismissal and exoneration. (1) The board may restrict, suspend, or revoke the license of any physician found guilty of unprofessional conduct under this chapter, or the board may issue a reprimand, as it deems most appropriate.

(2) The board may, in its discretion, suspend imposition of a penalty of restriction, suspension, or revocation of license for such period of time as it may determine proper, and the board may impose such terms and conditions as it may determine proper as a condition to such suspension of imposition of penalty.

(3) Any person whose license has been restricted, suspended, or revoked under the provisions of this chapter may apply to the board for reinstatement at any time and the board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof.

(4) If the license holder is found not guilty, or if fewer than a majority of all the board members vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against him by such public exoneration as is necessary, if requested by the accused to do so. [1979 c 117 § 5.]

18.57.177 Order of reprimand, restriction, suspension, or revocation—Contents—Effect. (1) An order of reprimand, restriction, suspension, or revocation shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the order is based and of the terms and conditions of the restriction and of any suspension of imposition of such restriction, suspension, or revocation, and such order shall be retained as a permanent record of the board.

(2) The filing by the board in the office of the director of an order of restriction, suspension, or revocation shall constitute a restriction, suspension, or revocation of the license to practice in this state in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by the board and embodied in the order. [1979 c 117 § 6.]

18.57.181 Issuance of license after restriction, revocation, or suspension. The director shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof under this chapter to any person whose license has been restricted, suspended, or revoked by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the order of restriction, suspension, or revocation, or in accordance with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in conformity with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 117 § 7.]

18.57.185 Suspension of physician's license for mental incompetency or mental or physical condition—Hearing—Examination—Consent—Resumption of practice. (1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent, such physician's license shall automatically be suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent is unable to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to practice adequately. In enforcing this subsection the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board; at least one of whom may be designated by the charged party if such party chooses. Failure of a physician to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such physician's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the control of such physician, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician affected under this subsection shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate a capacity to resume the competent practice of osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection, every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice osteopathy or osteopathic medicine and surgery in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to so practice, be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitutes a privileged communication.

In any proceeding under this subsection, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a physician in any other proceeding. [1979 c 117 § 8.]

18.57.195 Cooperation with board—Failure deemed unprofessional conduct. It shall be the duty and obligation of a physician against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

- (1) Furnishing any papers or documents;
- (2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;
- (3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such physician fail to cooperate with the board in the manner provided in this section, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. [1979 c 117 § 9.]

18.57.205 Immunity from prosecution or suit. In any proceedings under this chapter, neither the board nor any of its members, staff, employees, nor any appointee or employee of the department of licensing or its administrative divisions, nor the state or its elected officials, appointees, or employees, nor any individual, corporation, company, or organization giving testimony or evidence or bringing complaints or charges before the board shall be prosecuted or subject to suit in any action based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the board or as a consequence of involvement in proceedings of the board in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. [1979 c 117 § 10.]

18.57.250 Physician members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of physicians—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.57.260 Physicians filing charges or presenting evidence before committees, boards or hospitals—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.250, 4.24.260.

18.57.270 Records of medical society or hospital committee or board not subject to civil process. See RCW 4.24.250.

18.57.900 Interchangeable terms. The words "certificates" and "licenses" shall be known as interchangeable terms in this chapter. [1919 c 4 § 21; RRS § 10073.]

18.57.910 Repeal. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [1919 c 4 § 22.]

18.57A.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.57A.010 Definitions. (1) "Osteopathic physician's assistant" means a person who has satisfactorily completed a board-approved training program designed to prepare persons to practice osteopathic medicine to a limited extent;

(2) "Board" means the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery; and

(3) "Practice medicine" shall have the meaning defined in RCW 18.57.001. [1979 c 117 § 17; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 7.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.020 Board to adopt rules and regulations fixing qualifications and restricting practice—Contents. The board shall adopt rules and regulations fixing the qualifications and the educational and training requirements for persons who may be employed as osteopathic physician's assistants or who may be enrolled in any physician's training program.

The board shall, in addition, adopt rules and regulations governing the extent to which physician's assistants may practice medicine during training and after successful completion of a training course. Such regulations shall provide:

(1) That the practice of an osteopathic physician's assistant shall be limited to the performance of those services for which he is trained; and

(2) That each osteopathic physician's assistant shall practice medicine only under the supervision and control of an osteopathic physician licensed in this state, but such supervision and control shall not be construed to necessarily require the personal presence of the supervising physician at the place where services are rendered. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 8.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.030 Limitations on practice by osteopathic physicians' assistants. An osteopathic physician's assistant as defined in this chapter may practice osteopathic medicine in this state only after authorization by the board and only to the extent permitted by the board. An osteopathic physician's assistant shall be subject to discipline under RCW 18.57.170. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 9.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.040 Osteopathic physician's application for assistant—Fee—Approval or rejection by board—Hearing. No osteopathic physician practicing in this state shall utilize the services of an osteopathic physician's assistant without the approval of the board.

Any osteopathic physician licensed in this state may apply to the board for permission to use the services of an osteopathic physician's assistant. The application shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, shall detail the manner and extent to which the physician's assistant would be used and supervised, shall detail the education, training, and experience of the osteopathic physician's assistant and shall provide such other information in such form as the board may require.

The board may approve or reject such applications. In addition, the board may modify the proposed utilization of the osteopathic physician's assistant, and approve the application as modified. No such approval shall extend for more than one year, but approval once granted may be renewed annually upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Whenever it appears to the board that an osteopathic physician's assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of an approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with *RCW 18.57.180. [1985 c 7 § 57; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 60; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 10.]

*Reviser's note: RCW 18.57.180 was repealed by 1979 c 117 § 18. Later enactment, see RCW 18.57.175, 18.57.181.

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.050 Osteopathic physician's liability, responsibility. No osteopathic physician who uses the services of an osteopathic physician's assistant in accordance with and within the terms of any permission granted by the medical examining board shall be considered as aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to practice osteopathic medicine within the meaning of RCW 18.57.080 or 18.57.030: Provided, however, That any physician shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of medicine as defined in RCW 18.57.130 when performed by a physician's assistant in his employ. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 11.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.060 Limitations on health care services. No health care services may be performed under this chapter in any of the following areas:

(1) The measurement of the powers or range of human vision, or the determination of the accommodation and refractive state of the human eye or the scope of its functions in general, or the fitting or adaptation of lenses or frames for the aid thereof.

(2) The prescribing or directing the use of, or using, any optical device in connection with ocular exercises, visual training, vision training or orthoptics.

(3) The prescribing of contact lenses for, or the fitting or adaptation of contact lenses to, the human eye.

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude the performance of routine visual screening.

(5) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene as defined in chapter 18.32 and 18.29 RCW respectively. The exemptions set forth in RCW 18.32.030, paragraphs (1) and (8), shall not apply to a physician's assistant.

(6) The practice of chiropractic as defined in chapter 18.25 RCW including the adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the spine.

(7) The practice of podiatry as defined in chapter 18.22 RCW. [1973 c 77 § 20; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 12.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: See note following RCW 18.71A.010.

18.57A.070 Performance of acupuncture. (1) The performance of acupuncture for the purpose of demonstration, therapy, or the induction of analgesia by a person licensed under this chapter shall be within the scope of practice authorized: Provided, however, That a person licensed to perform acupuncture under this section shall only do so under the direct supervision of a licensed osteopathic physician.

(2) The board shall determine the qualifications of a person authorized to perform acupuncture under subsection (1) of this section. In establishing a procedure for certification of such practitioners the board shall consider a license or certificate which acknowledges that the person has the qualifications to practice acupuncture issued by the government of the Republic of China (Taiwan), the Peoples' Republic of China, British Crown Colony of Hong Kong, Korea, Great Britain, France, the Federated Republic of Germany (West Germany), Italy, Japan, or any other country or state which has generally equivalent standards of practices of acupuncture as determined by the board as evidence of such qualification.

(3) As used in this section "acupuncture" means the insertion of needles into the human body by piercing the skin of the body for the purpose of relieving pain, treating disease, or to produce analgesia, or as further defined by rules and regulations of the board. [1977 ex.s. c 233 § 1.]

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The regulation of occupational therapy is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.335. RCW 18.59.010 through 18.59.200, 18.59.900, and 18.59.905 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.336.

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.59.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.59.010 Purpose. In order to safeguard the public health, safety, and welfare; to protect the public from being misled by incompetent, unethical, and unauthorized persons; to assure the highest degree of professional conduct on the part of occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants; and to assure the availability of occupational therapy services of high quality to persons in need of such services, it is the purpose of this chapter to provide for the regulation of persons offering occupational therapy services to the public. [1984 c 9 § 2.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.020 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of occupational therapy practice.

(2) "Occupational therapy" is the scientifically based use of purposeful activity with individuals who are limited by physical injury or illness, psychosocial dysfunction, developmental or learning disabilities, or the aging process in order to maximize independence, prevent disability, and maintain health. The practice encompasses evaluation, treatment, and consultation. Specific occupational therapy services include but are not limited to: Using specifically designed activities and exercises to enhance neurodevelopmental, cognitive, perceptual motor, sensory integrative, and psychomotor functioning; administering and interpreting tests such as manual muscle and sensory integration; teaching daily living skills; developing prevocational skills and play and avocational capabilities; designing, fabricating, or applying selected orthotic and prosthetic devices or selected adaptive equipment; and adapting environments for the handicapped. These services are provided individually, in groups, or through social systems.

(3) "Occupational therapist" means a person licensed to practice occupational therapy under this chapter.

(4) "Occupational therapy assistant" means a person licensed to assist in the practice of occupational therapy under the supervision or with the regular consultation of an occupational therapist.

(5) "Occupational therapy aide" means a person who is trained to perform specific occupational therapy techniques under professional supervision as defined by the board but who does not perform activities that require advanced training in the sciences or practices involved in the profession of occupational therapy.

(6) "Person" means any individual, partnership, unincorporated organization, or corporate body, except that only an individual may be licensed under this chapter.

(7) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(8) "Director" means the director of licensing. [1984 c 9 § 3.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.030 License required. No person may practice occupational therapy or hold oneself out as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant, or as being able to practice occupational therapy, or to render occupational therapy services in this state unless the person is licensed in accordance with, or is in compliance with, this chapter. [1984 c 9 § 4.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.040 Practice, services, or activities not prevented or restricted by chapter—Limited permits. This chapter shall not be construed as preventing or restricting the practice, services, or activities of:

(1) A person licensed in this state under any other law from engaging in the profession or occupation for which the person is licensed;

(2) A person employed as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant by the government of the United States, if the person provides occupational therapy solely under the directions or control of the organization by which the person is employed;

(3) A person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree or certificate in occupational therapy in an accredited or approved educational program if the activities and services constitute a part of a supervised course of study, if the person is designated by a title which clearly indicated the person's status as a student or trainee;

(4) A person fulfilling the supervised fieldwork experience requirements of RCW 18.59.050, if the activities and services constitute a part of the experience necessary to meet the requirements of RCW 18.59.050;

(5) A person performing occupational therapy services in the state, if the services are performed for no more than ninety working days and if:

(a) The person is licensed under the laws of another state which has licensure requirements at least as stringent as the requirements of this chapter, as determined by the board; or

(b) The person has met commonly accepted standards for the practice of occupational therapy as specifically defined by the board;

(6) A person employed by or supervised by an occupational therapist as an occupational therapy aide;

(7) A person with a limited permit. A limited permit may be granted to persons who have completed the education and experience requirements of this chapter, or education and experience requirements which the board deems equivalent to those specified as requirements for licensure. The limited permit allows the applicant to practice in association with an occupational therapist. The limited permit is valid until the results of the next examination have been made public. One extension of this permit may be granted if the applicant has failed the examination, but during this period the person shall be under the direct supervision of an occupational therapist;

(8) Any persons who teach daily living skills, develop prevocational skills, and play and avocational capabilities, or adapt equipment or environments for the handicapped, or who do specific activities to enhance cognitive, perceptual motor, sensory integrative and psychomotor skills, but who do not hold themselves out to the public by any title, initials, or description of services as being engaged in the practice of occupational therapy; or

(9) Any person who designs, fabricates, or applies orthotic or prosthetic devices which are prescribed by a health care professional authorized by the laws of the state of Washington to prescribe the device or to direct the design, fabrication or application of the device. [1985 c 296 § 1; 1984 c 9 § 5.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.050 Licenses—Application—Requirements—Waiver. (1) An applicant applying for a license as an occupational therapist or as an occupational therapy assistant shall file a written application on forms provided by the department showing to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant meets the requirements specified in this subsection.

(a) The applicant shall be of good moral character.

(b) The applicant shall present evidence satisfactory to the board of having successfully completed the academic requirements of an educational program in occupational therapy recognized by the board, with concentration in biological or physical science, psychology, sociology, and with education in selected manual skills.

(i) For an occupational therapist, such a program shall be nationally accredited and approved by rules of the board.

(ii) For an occupational therapy assistant, such a program shall be nationally accredited and approved by rules of the board.

(c) The applicant shall submit to the board evidence of having successfully completed a period of supervised fieldwork experience at a recognized educational institution or a training program approved by the educational institution at which the applicant met the academic requirements.

(i) For an occupational therapist, a minimum of six months of supervised fieldwork experience is required.

(ii) For an occupational therapy assistant, a minimum of two months of supervised fieldwork experience is required.

(d) An applicant for licensure as an occupational therapist or as an occupational therapy assistant shall pass an examination as provided in RCW 18.59.060.

(2) The board may waive the educational requirements specified under subsection (1)(b)(ii) of this section for an occupational therapy assistant who has met the experience and any other requirements established by the board. Upon successful completion of the examination required of the occupational therapist, the individual shall be granted a license. [1984 c 9 § 6.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.060 Examinations. (1) A person applying for licensure shall demonstrate eligibility in accordance with RCW 18.59.050 and shall apply for examination upon a form and in such a manner as the department prescribes. The application shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed by RCW 18.59.110, which fee shall not be refunded. A person who fails an examination may apply for reexamination. The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(2) An applicant for licensure under this chapter shall be given a written examination to test the applicant's knowledge of the basic and clinical sciences relating to occupational therapy and occupational therapy theory and practice, including the applicant's professional skills of occupational therapy techniques and methods, and such other subjects as the board deems useful to determine the applicant's fitness to practice. The board shall approve the examination and establish standards for acceptable performance.

(3) Applicants for licensure shall be examined at a time and place and under such supervision as the board may determine. The examination shall be given at least twice each year at such places as the board determines, and the board shall give reasonable public notice of the examinations in accordance with its rules at least sixty days prior to the administration of the examination.

(4) Applicants may obtain their examination scores and may review their papers in accordance with such rules as the board establishes. [1984 c 9 § 7.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.070 Waiver of examination and licensing requirements—Applicants licensed in other states or territories. (1) The board shall waive the examination and grant a license to a person engaged in the profession of an occupational therapist or an occupational therapy assistant on June 7, 1984, if the board determines that the person meets commonly accepted standards for the profession, as established by rule of the board. The board may waive the examination, education, or experience requirements and grant a license to any person meeting the standards adopted by the board under this section after June 7, 1984, if the board considers the requirements for licensure in this chapter as having been met.

(2) The board may grant a license to any applicant who presents proof of current licensure as an occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant in another state, the District of Columbia, or a territory of the United States, which requires standards for licensure considered by the board to be equivalent to the requirements for licensure under this chapter.

(3) The board shall waive the education and experience requirements for licensure in RCW 18.59.050(1)(c) and (d) for applicants for licensure who present evidence to the board that they have been engaged in the practice of occupational therapy for the three years immediately prior to June 7, 1984. The proof of actual practice shall be presented to the board in such a manner as the board prescribes by rule. To obtain the waiver, an applicant shall file an application for examination no later than six months from June 7, 1984. An applicant who has filed for examination under this subsection shall be excluded from the licensure requirement until the date the results of the examination are made public, and may conduct the appropriate activities under RCW 18.59.030. [1984 c 9 § 8.]

18.59.080 Licenses—Issuance—Posting required. The director shall issue a license to a person who meets the licensing requirements of this chapter upon payment of the prescribed license fee. The license shall be posted in a conspicuous location at the person's work site. [1984 c 9 § 9.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.090 Renewal of licenses—Reinstatement of suspended or revoked licenses—Inactive status. (1) Licenses under this chapter shall be renewed at the time and in the manner determined by the director and with the payment of a renewal fee. The board may establish requirements for license renewal which provide evidence of continued competency. The director may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee in accordance with its rules which may include additional continuing education or examination requirements.

(2) A suspended license is subject to expiration and may be renewed as provided in this section, but the renewal does not entitle the licensee, while the license remains suspended and until it is reinstated, to engage in the licensed activity, or in any other conduct or activity in violation of the order or judgment by which the license was suspended. If a license revoked on disciplinary grounds is reinstated, the licensee, as a condition of reinstatement, shall pay the renewal fee and any applicable late fee.

(3) Any occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant licensed under this chapter not practicing occupational therapy or providing services may place his or her license in an inactive status. The director may prescribe requirements for maintaining an inactive status and converting from an inactive or active status. [1984 c 9 § 10.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.100 Denial, refusal to renew, suspension, or revocation of a license—Probationary conditions—Grounds—Reinstatement. (1) The board may deny or refuse to renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions if the licensee or applicant for a license has been guilty of conduct which has endangered the health, welfare, or safety of the public. Such conduct includes:

(a) Obtaining a license by means of fraud or misrepresentation or concealment of material facts;

(b) Being guilty of unprofessional conduct or gross incompetence as defined by the rules of the board, or violating the code of ethics adopted and published by the board, which shall require that an occupational therapist shall, after evaluating a patient and if the case is a medical one, refer the case to a physician for appropriate medical direction if such direction is lacking. Treatment by an occupational therapist of such a medical case may take place only upon the referral of a physician or podiatrist licensed to practice medicine in this state;

(c) Being convicted of a crime of moral turpitude or a felony which relates to the profession of occupational therapy;

(d) Violating an order or rule of the board; or

(e) Violating any provision of this chapter.

(2) Such denial, refusal to renew, suspension, revocation, or imposition of probationary conditions on a licensee may be ordered by the board in compliance with chapter 34.04 RCW. One year from the date of revocation of a license, application may be made to the board for reinstatement. The board has discretion to accept or reject an application for reinstatement and may, but is not required to, hold a hearing to consider the reinstatement. [1984 c 9 § 11.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.59.110 Fees. The director shall prescribe and publish fees in amounts determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for the following purposes:

- (1) Application for examination;
- (2) Initial license fee;
- (3) Renewal of license fee;
- (4) Late renewal fee; and
- (5) Limited permit fee.

The fees shall be set in such an amount as to reimburse the state, to the extent feasible, for the cost of the services rendered. [1985 c 7 § 58; 1984 c 9 § 12.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.120 Board of occupational therapy practice established—Members—Terms—Meetings—

Compensation. (1) There is established a board of occupational therapy practice. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor, who may consider the persons who are recommended for appointment by occupational therapy associations of the state. The members of the board shall be residents of the state. Four of the members shall have been engaged in rendering services to the public, teaching, or research in occupational therapy for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment. Three of these four board members shall be occupational therapists who shall at all times be holders of licenses for the practice of occupational therapy in the state, except for the initial members of the board, all of whom shall fulfill the requirements for licensure under this chapter. At least one member of the board shall be an occupational therapy assistant licensed to assist in the practice of occupational therapy, except for the initial member appointed to this position, who shall fulfill the requirements for licensure as a occupational therapy assistant under this chapter. The remaining member of the board shall be a member of the public with an interest in the rights of consumers of health services.

(2) The governor shall, within sixty days after June 7, 1984, appoint one member for a term of one year, two members for a term of two years, and two members for a term of three years. Appointments made thereafter shall be for three-year terms, but no person shall be appointed to serve more than two consecutive full terms. Terms shall begin on the first day of the calendar year and end on the last day of the calendar year or until successors are appointed, except for the initial appointed members, who shall serve through the last calendar day of the year in which they are appointed before commencing the terms prescribed by this section. The governor shall make appointments for vacancies in unexpired terms within ninety days after the vacancies occur.

(3) The board shall meet during the first month of each calendar year to select a chairman and for other purposes. At least one additional meeting shall be held before the end of each calendar year. Further meetings may be convened at the call of the chairman or the written request of any two board members. A majority of members of the board constitutes a quorum for all purposes. All meetings of the board shall be open to the public, except that the board may hold closed sessions to prepare, approve, grade, or administer examinations or, upon request of an applicant who fails an examination, to prepare a response indicating the reasons for the applicant's failure.

(4) Members of the board shall receive compensation in the amount of fifty dollars for each day's attendance at proper meetings of the committee. [1984 c 9 § 13.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.130 Board—Powers and duties—Rules—Hearings, notice.

(1) The board shall administer, coordinate, and enforce this chapter, evaluate qualifications under this chapter, and provide for supervision of examinations of applicants for licensure under this chapter. The board may issue subpoenas, examine witnesses, and administer oaths and may investigate allegations of practices violating this chapter.

(2) The board shall adopt rules relating to professional conduct to carry out the policy of this chapter, including, but not limited to, rules relating to professional licensure and to the establishment of ethical standards of practice for persons holding a license to practice occupational therapy in this state in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The board shall conduct such hearings and keep such records and minutes as are necessary to carry out its functions. The board shall provide at least thirty days' notice in writing to the appropriate persons of the times and places of all hearings authorized under this chapter in such a manner and at such times as it may determine by its rules. [1984 c 9 § 14.]

18.59.140 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act.

The board of occupational therapy practice may elect to adopt the uniform disciplinary act (chapter 18.130 RCW) in lieu of the disciplinary procedures outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 9 § 17.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.150 Board—Staff. The director shall provide such administrative and investigative staff as are necessary for the board to carry out its duties under this chapter. [1984 c 9 § 15.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.200 Violations—Penalties. A person who violates RCW 18.59.030 is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment. The court may impose a civil fine of up to one thousand dollars for any violation of RCW 18.59.030. [1984 c 9 § 16.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the occupational therapy practice act. [1984 c 9 § 1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.59.905 Severability—1984 c 9. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 9 § 21.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter digest.

18.64.001 State board of pharmacy—Creation—Membership—Oath—Vacancies. There shall be a state board of pharmacy consisting of seven members, to be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate. Five of the members shall be designated as pharmacist members and two of the members shall be designated a public member.

Each pharmacist member shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state, and at the time of his appointment shall have been a duly registered pharmacist under the laws of this state for a period of at least five consecutive years immediately preceding his appointment and shall at all times during his incumbency continue to be a duly licensed pharmacist: Provided, That subject to the availability of qualified candidates the governor shall appoint pharmacist members representative of the areas of practice and geographically representative of the state of Washington.

The public member shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state. The public member shall be appointed from the public at large, but shall not be affiliated with any aspect of pharmacy.

Members of the board shall hold office for a term of four years, and the terms shall be staggered so that the terms of office of not more than two members will expire simultaneously on the third Monday in January of each year.

No person who has been appointed to and served for two four year terms shall be eligible for appointment to the board.

Each member shall qualify by taking the usual oath of a state officer, which shall be filed with the secretary of state, and each member shall hold office for the term of his appointment and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

In case of the resignation or disqualification of a member, or a vacancy occurring from any cause, the governor shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term. [1984 c 153 § 1; 1981 c 338 § 17; 1973 1st ex.s. c 18 § 1; 1963 c 38 § 16; 1935 c 98 § 1; RRS § 10132. Formerly RCW 43.69.010.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.64.005 State board of pharmacy—Powers and duties. The board shall:

(1) Regulate the practice of pharmacy and administer and enforce all laws placed under its jurisdiction;

(2) Prepare, grade, and administer or determine the nature of, and supervise the grading and administration of, examinations for applicants for pharmacists' licenses;

(3) Examine, inspect, and investigate all applicants for license as pharmacists or pharmacy interns and grant licenses to all applicants whom it shall judge to be properly qualified;

(4) Establish reasonable fees for licenses, examinations, and services for other agencies sufficient to cover the cost of the operations of the board. In cases where there are unanticipated demands for services the board may request payment for services directly from the agencies for whom the services are performed, to the extent that revenues or other funds are available. Drug-related investigations regarding licensed health care practitioners shall be funded by an appropriation to the board from the health professions account. The payment may be made on either an advance or a reimbursable basis as approved by the director of financial management;

(5) Employ an executive officer, inspectors, investigators, chemists, and other agents as necessary to assist it for any purpose which it may deem necessary;

(6) Investigate violations of the provisions of law or regulations under its jurisdiction, and cause prosecutions to be instituted in the courts;

(7) Make inspections and investigations of pharmacies and other places, including dispensing machines, in which drugs or devices are stored, held, compounded, dispensed, sold, or administered to the ultimate consumer, to take and analyze any drugs or devices and to seize and condemn any drugs or devices which are adulterated, misbranded, stored, held, dispensed, distributed, administered, or compounded in violation of or contrary to law;

(8) Conduct hearings for the revocation or suspension of licenses, permits, registrations, certificates, or any other authority to practice granted by the board, which hearings may also be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW;

(9) Issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter or any other chapter assigned to the board;

(10) Assist the regularly constituted enforcement agencies of this state in enforcing all laws pertaining to drugs, controlled substances, and the practice of pharmacy, and/or any other laws or rules under its jurisdiction;

(11) Promulgate rules for the dispensing, distribution, wholesaling, and manufacturing of drugs and devices and the practice of pharmacy for the protection and promotion of the public health, safety, and welfare. Violation of any such rules shall constitute grounds for refusal, suspension, or revocation of licenses or any other authority to practice issued by the board;

(12) Adopt rules establishing and governing continuing education requirements for pharmacists and other licenses applying for renewal of licenses under this chapter;

(13) Be immune, collectively and individually, from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. Such immunity shall apply to employees of the board when acting at the direction of the board in the course of disciplinary proceedings;

(14) Establish an interdepartmental coordinating committee on drug misuse, diversion, and abuse, composed of one member from each caucus of the house of representatives and senate, the superintendent of public instruction, the director of licensing, the executive secretary of the criminal justice training commission, the chief of the Washington state patrol, the secretary of social and health services, director of the traffic safety commission, representatives of prescribing, delivering, and dispensing health care practitioner boards, the attorney general, the director of the department of labor and industries, a representative of local law enforcement agencies, and the executive officer of the board of pharmacy, or their designees. The committee shall meet at least twice annually at the call of the executive officer of the board of pharmacy who shall serve as chairperson of the committee. The committee shall advise the board of pharmacy in all matters related to its powers and duties delineated in subsections (15), (16), (17), (18) and (19) of this section, and shall report to the legislature each biennium on the results of its and the board's activity under those subsections;

(15) Provide for the coordination and exchange of information on state programs relating to drug misuse, diversion, and abuse, and act as a permanent liaison among the departments and agencies engaged in activities concerning the legal and illegal use of drugs;

(16) Suggest strategies for preventing, reducing, and eliminating drug misuse, diversion, and abuse, including professional and public education, and treatment of persons misusing and abusing drugs;

(17) Conduct or encourage educational programs to be conducted to prevent the misuse, diversion, and abuse of drugs for health care practitioners and licensed or certified health care facilities;

(18) Monitor trends of drug misuse, diversion, and abuse and make periodic reports to disciplinary boards of licensed health care practitioners and education, treatment, and appropriate law enforcement agencies regarding these trends;

(19) Enter into written agreements with all other state and federal agencies with any responsibility for controlling drug misuse, diversion, or abuse and with health maintenance organizations, health care service contractors, and health care providers to assist and promote coordination of agencies responsible for ensuring compliance with controlled substances laws and to monitor observance of these laws and cooperation between these agencies. The department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the department of licensing, and any other state agency including licensure disciplinary boards, shall refer all apparent instances of over-prescribing by practitioners and all apparent instances of legend drug overuse to the board. The board shall also encourage such referral by health maintenance organizations, health service contractors, and health care providers. [1984 c 153 § 2; 1981 c 67 § 21; 1979 c 90 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 18 § 2; 1963 c 38 § 18; 1935 c 98 § 3; RRS § 10132-2. Formerly RCW 43.69.030.]

18.64.007 State board of pharmacy—Executive officer. The board shall employ an executive officer who shall not be a member of the board but who shall be a pharmacist duly licensed in Washington. Said officer shall receive compensation as set by the appropriate authority, and shall be responsible for:

(1) The administering of all professional and public affairs as directed by the board;

(2) Appointing, as authorized and delegated by the board, such secretarial, clerical, accounting, and other office assistance as necessary under provisions of chapter 41.06 RCW;

(3) Reporting to and carrying out all policies and instructions emanating from the board;

(4) Preparing and maintaining all board records;

(5) Attending to the correspondence of the board; and

(6) Receiving and receipting for all fees collected. [1979 c 90 § 3; 1963 c 38 § 19. Formerly RCW 43.69.040.]

18.64.020 Licensing required. It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person to practice pharmacy or to institute or operate any pharmacy unless such person shall be a licensed pharmacist or shall place in charge of said pharmacy a licensed pharmacist: Provided, That persons licensed as manufacturers or as wholesalers, and their employees, acting within the scope of their licenses, shall be exempt from this section. [1979 c 90 § 6; 1899 c 121 § 1; RRS § 10126. Prior: 1891 c 113 § 1. Formerly RCW 18.67.010, part.]

18.64.040 Examination fee. Every applicant for license examination under this chapter shall pay the sum determined by the board before the examination is attempted. [1979 c 90 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 201 § 1; 1963 c 38 § 2; 1949 c 153 § 1; 1935 c 98 § 4; 1909 c 213 § 5; 1899 c 121 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10135.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 201: "If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1971 ex.s. c 201 § 9.]

18.64.043 Pharmacy license—Fee—Display—Declaration of ownership and location—Penalties. (1) The owner of each pharmacy shall pay an original license fee to be determined by the board, and annually thereafter, on or before a date to be determined by the board, a fee to be determined by the board, for which he or she shall receive a license of location, which shall entitle the owner to operate such pharmacy at the location specified, or such other temporary location as the board may approve, for the period ending on a date to be determined by the board, and each such owner shall at the time of filing proof of payment of such fee as provided in RCW 18.64.045 as now or hereafter amended, file with the state board of pharmacy on a blank therefor provided, a declaration of ownership and location, which declaration of ownership and location so filed as aforesaid shall be deemed presumptive evidence of ownership of the pharmacy mentioned therein.

(2) It shall be the duty of the owner to immediately notify the board of any change of location and/or ownership and to keep the license of location or the renewal thereof properly exhibited in said pharmacy.

(3) Failure to comply with this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and each day that said failure continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

(4) In the event such license fee remains unpaid for sixty days from date due, no renewal or new license shall be issued except upon payment of the license renewal fee and a penalty fee equal to the original license fee. [1984 c 153 § 4; 1979 c 90 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 201 § 2; 1963 c 38 § 3; 1949 c 153 § 4; 1935 c 98 § 8; 1909 c 213 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10145. Formerly RCW 18.67.020.]

18.64.044 Shopkeeper's registration—When required—Authority—Penalty. (1) A shopkeeper registered or exempt from registration as provided in this section may sell nonprescription drugs, if such drugs are sold in the original package of the manufacturer. Shopkeepers with fifteen or fewer drugs shall be exempt from the registration requirements of this section and shall not be required to pay any fees required by this section, but shall be considered shopkeepers for any other purposes under chapter 18.64 RCW.

(2) Every shopkeeper not a licensed pharmacist, desiring to secure the benefits and privileges of this section, is hereby required to register as a shopkeeper through the master license system, and he or she shall pay the fee determined by the board for registration, and on a date to be determined by the board thereafter the fee determined by the board for renewal of the registration; and shall at all times keep said registration or the current renewal thereof conspicuously exposed in the shop to which it applies. In event such shopkeeper's registration is not renewed by the master license expiration date, no renewal or new registration shall be issued except upon payment of the registration renewal fee and the master license delinquency fee under chapter 19.02 RCW. This registration fee shall not authorize the sale of legend drugs or controlled substances.

(3) The registration fees determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section shall not exceed the cost of registering the shopkeeper.

(4) Any shopkeeper who shall vend or sell, or offer to sell to the public any such nonprescription drug or preparation without having registered to do so as provided in this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and each sale or offer to sell shall constitute a separate offense. [1984 c 153 § 5; 1982 c 182 § 30; 1979 c 90 § 17.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 201: See note following RCW 18.64.040.

18.64.046 Wholesaler's license—Required—Authority of licensee—Penalty. The owner of each place of business which sells legend drugs and nonprescription drugs, or nonprescription drugs at wholesale shall pay a license fee to be determined by the board, and thereafter, on or before a date to be determined by the board, a like fee to be determined by the board, for which the owner shall receive a license of location from the state board of pharmacy, which shall entitle such owner to either sell legend drugs and nonprescription drugs or nonprescription drugs at wholesale at the location specified for the period ending on a date to be determined by the board, and each such owner shall at the time of payment of such fee file with the state board of pharmacy, on a blank therefor provided, a declaration of ownership and location, which declaration of ownership and location so filed as aforesaid shall be deemed presumptive evidence of the ownership of such place of business mentioned therein. It shall be the duty of the owner to notify immediately the board of any change of location and ownership and to keep the license of location or the renewal thereof properly exhibited in such place of business. Failure to conform with this section shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and each day that said failure continues shall be deemed a separate offense. In event such license fee remains unpaid for sixty days from date due, no renewal or new license shall be issued except upon payment of the license renewal fee and a penalty fee equal to the license renewal fee. [1984 c 153 § 7; 1979 c 90 § 18.]

18.64.047 Itinerant vendor's or peddler's registration—Fee—Penalties. Any itinerant vendor or any peddler of any nonprescription drug or preparation for the treatment of disease or injury, shall pay a registration fee determined by the board on a date to be determined by the board. The state board of pharmacy may issue a registration to such vendor on an approved application made to the state board of pharmacy. Any itinerant vendor or peddler who shall vend or sell, or offer to sell to the public any such nonprescription drug or preparation without having registered to do so as provided in this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and each sale or offer to sell shall constitute a separate offense. In event such registration fee remains unpaid for sixty days from date due, no renewal or new registration shall be issued except upon payment of the registration renewal fee and a penalty fee equal to the renewal fee. This registration shall not authorize the sale of legend drugs or controlled substances. [1984 c 153 § 8; 1979 c 90 § 10; 1971 ex.s. c 201 § 4; 1963 c 38 § 5; 1949 c 153 § 3; 1935 c 98 § 7; 1899 c 121 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10141. Formerly RCW 18.60.010 through 18.60.030.]

18.64.050 Duplicate for lost or destroyed license or certificate—Certified documents—Fees. In the event that a license or certificate issued by the board of pharmacy is lost or destroyed, the person to whom it was issued may obtain a duplicate thereof upon furnishing proof of such fact satisfactory to the board of pharmacy and the payment of a fee determined by the board of pharmacy.

In the event any person desires any certified document to which he is entitled, he shall receive the same upon payment of a fee determined by the board of pharmacy. [1984 c 153 § 9; 1963 c 38 § 6; 1935 c 98 § 9; RRS § 10145-1. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1935 c 98 § 10; RRS § 10145-2, now codified as RCW 18.64.055.]

18.64.080 Licensing of pharmacists—Registration of interns—Prerequisites—Examinations—Reciprocity—Fees—Renewal. (1) The state board of pharmacy may license as a pharmacist any person who has filed an application therefor, subscribed by the person under oath or affirmation, containing such information as the board may by regulation require, and who—

(a) Is at least eighteen years of age and is a citizen of the United States, an alien in an educational pharmacy graduate or residency program for the period of the program, or a resident alien;

(b) Has satisfied the board that he or she is of good moral and professional character, that he or she will carry out the duties and responsibilities required of a pharmacist, and that he or she is not unfit or unable to practice pharmacy by reason of the extent or manner of his or her proven use of alcoholic beverages, drugs, or controlled substances, or by reason of a proven physical or mental disability;

(c) Holds a baccalaureate degree in pharmacy or a doctor of pharmacy degree granted by a school or college of pharmacy which is accredited by the board of pharmacy;

(d) Has completed or has otherwise met the internship requirements as set forth in board rules;

(e) Has satisfactorily passed the necessary examinations given by the board.

(2) The state board of pharmacy shall, at least once in every calendar year, offer an examination to all applicants for a pharmacist license who have completed their educational and internship requirements pursuant to rules promulgated by the board. The said examination shall be determined by the board. In case of failure at a first examination, the applicant shall have within three years the privilege of a second and third examination. In case of failure in a third examination, the applicant shall not be eligible for further examination until he or she has satisfactorily completed additional preparation as directed and approved by the board. The applicant must pay the examination fee determined by the board for each examination taken. Upon passing the required examinations and complying with all the rules and regulations of the board and the provisions of this chapter, the board shall grant the applicant a license as a pharmacist and issue to him or her a certificate qualifying him or her to enter into the practice of pharmacy.

(3) Any person enrolled as a student of pharmacy in an accredited college may file with the state board of pharmacy an application for registration as a pharmacy intern in which said application he or she shall be required to furnish such information as the board may, by regulation, prescribe and, simultaneously with the filing of said application, shall pay to the board a fee to be determined by the board. All certificates issued to pharmacy interns shall be valid for a period to be determined by the board, but in no instance shall the certificate be valid if the individual is no longer making timely progress toward graduation, provided however, the board may issue an intern certificate to a person to complete an internship to be eligible for initial licensure or for the reinstatement of a previously licensed pharmacist.

(4) To assure adequate practical instruction, pharmacy internship experience as required under this chapter shall be obtained after registration as a pharmacy intern by practice in any licensed pharmacy or other program meeting the requirements promulgated by regulation of the board, and shall include such instruction in the practice of pharmacy as the board by regulation shall prescribe.

(5) The board may, without examination other than one in the laws relating to the practice of pharmacy, license as a pharmacist any person who, at the time of filing application therefor, is currently licensed as a pharmacist in any other state, territory, or possession of the United States: Provided, That the said person shall produce evidence satisfactory to the board of having had the required secondary and professional education and training and who was licensed as a pharmacist by examination in another state prior to June 13, 1963, shall be required to satisfy only the requirements which existed in this state at the time he or she became licensed in such other state: Provided further, That the state in which said person is licensed shall under similar conditions grant reciprocal licenses as pharmacist without examination to pharmacists duly licensed by examination in this state. Every application under this subsection shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the board.

(6) The board shall provide for, regulate, and require all persons licensed as pharmacists to renew their license periodically, and shall prescribe the form of such license and information required to be submitted by all applicants. [1984 c 153 § 10; 1981 c 147 § 1; 1979 c 90 § 11; 1972 ex.s. c 9 § 1. Prior: 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 25; 1971 ex.s. c 201 § 5; 1963 c 38 § 7; 1931 c 56 § 1; 1927 c 253 § 1; 1923 c 180 § 3; RRS § 10126-3. Formerly RCW 18.64.010, part, 18.64.080 and 18.64.090, part.]

18.64.140 License—Annual renewal—Fee—Penalty—Display—Inactive license. Every licensed pharmacist who desires to practice pharmacy shall secure from the board a license, the fee for which shall be determined by the board. The renewal fee shall also be determined by the board. The date of renewal may be established by the board by regulation and the board may by regulation extend the duration of a licensing period for the purpose of staggering renewal periods. Such regulation may provide a method for imposing and collecting such additional proportional fee as may be required for the extended period. Payment of this fee shall entitle the licensee to a pharmacy law book, subsequent current mailings of all additions, changes, or deletions in the pharmacy practice act, chapter 18.64 RCW, and all additions, changes, or deletions of pharmacy board regulations. Pharmacists shall pay the license renewal fee and a penalty equal to the license renewal fee for the late renewal of their license more than sixty days after the renewal is due. The current license shall be conspicuously displayed to the public in the pharmacy to which it applies. Any licensed pharmacist who desires to leave the active practice of pharmacy in this state may secure from the board an inactive license. The initial license and renewal fees shall be determined by the board. The holder of an inactive license may reactivate his or her license to practice pharmacy in accordance with rules adopted by the board. [1984 c 153 § 11; 1979 c 90 § 12; 1971 ex.s. c 201 § 6; 1963 c 38 § 9; 1949 c 153 § 2; 1935 c 98 § 5; 1899 c 121 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10136. Formerly RCW 18.64.140 and 18.64.150.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 201: See note following RCW 18.64.040.

18.64.160 Refusal, suspension, and revocation of pharmacist's and intern's licenses—Grounds—Procedure. The board of pharmacy shall have the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke the license of any pharmacist or intern upon proof that:

(1) His or her license was procured through fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(2) He or she has been convicted of a felony relating to his or her practice as a pharmacist;

(3) He or she has committed any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, if the act committed directly relates to the pharmacist's fitness to practice pharmacy. Upon such conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent pharmacist of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of his or her violation of the statute upon which it is based;

(4) He or she is unfit to practice pharmacy because of habitual intemperance in the use of alcoholic beverages, drugs, controlled substances, or any other substance which impairs the performance of professional duties;

(5) He or she exhibits behavior which may be due to physical or mental impairment, which creates an undue risk of causing harm to him or herself or to other persons when acting as a licensed pharmacist or intern;

(6) He or she has incompetently or negligently practiced pharmacy, creating an unreasonable risk of harm to any individual;

(7) His or her legal authority to practice pharmacy, issued by any other properly constituted licensing authority of any other state, has been and is currently suspended or revoked;

(8) In the event that a pharmacist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent, the pharmacist shall automatically have his or her license suspended by the board upon the entry of the judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal;

(9) He or she has knowingly violated or permitted the violation of any provision of any state or federal law, rule, or regulation governing the possession, use, distribution, or dispensing of drugs, including, but not limited to, the violation of any provision of this chapter, Title 69 RCW, or rule or regulation of the board;

(10) He or she has knowingly allowed any unlicensed person to take charge of a pharmacy or engage in the practice of pharmacy, except a pharmacy intern or pharmacy assistant acting as authorized in this chapter or chapter 18.64A RCW in the presence of and under the immediate supervision of a licensed pharmacist;

(11) He or she has compounded, dispensed, or caused the compounding or dispensing of any drug or device which contains more or less than the equivalent quantity of ingredient or ingredients specified by the person who prescribed such drug or device: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the pharmacist from exercising professional judgment in the preparation or providing of such drugs or devices.

In any case of the refusal, suspension, or revocation of a license by said board of pharmacy under the provisions of this chapter, said board shall proceed in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. [1985 c 7 § 60; 1984 c 153 § 12; 1979 c 90 § 13; 1963 c 38 § 10; 1909 c 213 § 10; RRS § 10143. Formerly RCW 18.64.160 through 18.64.190.]

18.64.165 Refusal, suspension, and revocation of other licenses. The board shall have the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke the license of any manufacturer, wholesaler, pharmacy, shopkeeper, itinerant vendor, or peddler upon proof that:

(1) The license was procured through fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit;

(2) The licensee has violated or has permitted any employee to violate any of the laws of this state relating to drugs, controlled substances, cosmetics, or nonprescription drugs, or has violated any of the rules and regulations of the board of pharmacy. [1979 c 90 § 14; 1963 c 38 § 15.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.64.200 Refusal, suspension, and revocation of other licenses—Appeal procedure. In any case of the refusal, suspension or revocation of a license by said board under the provisions of this chapter, appeal may be taken in accordance with the administrative procedure act. [1963 c 38 § 11; 1909 c 213 § 11; RRS § 10144. Formerly RCW 18.64.200 through 18.64.240.]

Administrative procedure act: Title 34 RCW.

18.64.245 Prescription records. Every proprietor or manager of a pharmacy shall keep readily available a suitable record of prescriptions which shall preserve for a period of not less than five years the record of every prescription dispensed at such pharmacy which shall be numbered, dated, and filed, and shall produce the same in court or before any grand jury whenever lawfully required to do so. The record shall be maintained either separately from all other records of the pharmacy or in such form that the information required is readily retrievable from ordinary business records of the pharmacy. All record-keeping requirements for controlled substances must be complied with. Such record of prescriptions shall be for confidential use in the pharmacy, only: Provided, That the record of prescriptions shall be open for inspection by the board of pharmacy or any officer of the law. [1979 c 90 § 15; 1939 c 28 § 1; RRS § 6154-1. Formerly RCW 18.67.090.]

18.64.246 Prescriptions—Labels—Cover or cap to meet safety standards. To every box, bottle, jar, tube or other container of a prescription which is dispensed there shall be fixed a label bearing the name and address of the pharmacy wherein the prescription is compounded, the corresponding serial number of the prescription, the name of the prescriber, his directions, the name of the medicine and the strength per unit dose, name of patient, date, the expiration date, and initials of the licensed pharmacist who has compounded the prescription, and the security of the cover or cap on every bottle or jar shall meet safety standards promulgated by the state board of pharmacy: Provided, That at the physician's request, the name and dosage of the drug need not be shown. If the prescription is for a combination drug product, the generic names of the drugs combined or the trade name used by the manufacturer or distributor for the product shall be noted on the label. This section shall not apply to the dispensing of medicines to in-patients in hospitals. [1984 c 153 § 13; 1971 ex.s. c 99 § 1; 1939 c 28 § 2; RRS § 6154-2. Formerly RCW 18.67.080.]

18.64.247 Penalty for violation of RCW 18.64.245, 18.64.246. Any person violating or failing to comply with the requirements of RCW 18.64.245 and 18.64.246 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1939 c 28 § 3; RRS § 6154-3. Formerly RCW 18.67.091.]

18.64.250 Unlawful practices—Penalty for violations—Exceptions. (1) Any person not a licensed pharmacist and not having continuously and regularly in his employ a duly licensed pharmacist within the full meaning of this chapter, who shall practice pharmacy; or

(2) Any person who shall permit the compounding and dispensing of prescriptions, or vending of drugs, medicines, or poisons in his or her store or place of business, except under the supervision of a licensed pharmacist; or

(3) Any licensed pharmacist or shopkeeper licensed under this chapter, who while continuing in business, shall fail or neglect to procure his or her renewal of license; or

(4) Any person who shall wilfully make any false representations to procure a license for himself or herself or for any other person; or

(5) Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter wilfully and knowingly; or

(6) Any person who shall take or use or exhibit in or upon any place of business, or advertise in a newspaper, telephone directory, or other directory, or by electronic media, or in any other manner, the title of pharmacist, pharmacy intern, pharmacy assistant, druggist, pharmacy, drug store, medicine store, drug department, drugs, drug sundries, or any title or name of like description or import, or display or permit to be displayed upon said place of business the characteristic pharmacy symbols, bottles or globes, either colored or filled with colored liquids, without having continuously and regularly employed in his or her shop, store, or place of business, during business hours of the pharmacy, a pharmacist duly licensed under this chapter; shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and each and every day that such prohibited practice continues shall be deemed a separate offense. [1979 c 90 § 16; 1963 c 38 § 12; 1935 c 98 § 6; 1909 c 213 § 7; 1899 c 121 § 13; RRS § 10138. Formerly RCW 18.64.250, 18.64.010, 18.64.030, 18.67.030, 18.67.040 and 18.67.130. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1909 c 213 § 13; RRS § 10146, now codified as RCW 18.64.280.]

(1) To restrict the scope of authorized practice of any practitioner other than a pharmacist, duly licensed as such under the laws of this state; or

(2) In the absence of the pharmacist from the hospital pharmacy, to prohibit a registered nurse designated by the hospital and the responsible pharmacist from obtaining from the hospital pharmacy such drugs as are needed in an emergency: Provided, That proper record is kept of such emergency, including the date, time, name of prescriber, the name of the nurse obtaining the drugs, and a list of what drugs and quantities of same were obtained; or

(3) To prevent shopkeepers, itinerant vendors, peddlers, or salesmen from dealing in and selling nonprescription drugs, if such drugs are sold in the original packages of the manufacturer, or in packages put up by a licensed pharmacist in the manner provided by the state board of pharmacy, if such shopkeeper, itinerant vendor, salesman, or peddler shall have obtained a registration. [1984 c 153 § 14; 1981 c 147 § 3; 1979 c 90 § 19.]

18.64.260 Enforcement provisions—Disposition of fines—Remittance of justice court fines, fees, penalties and forfeitures. All suits for the recovery of the several penalties prescribed in this chapter shall be prosecuted in the name of the state of Washington in any court having jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein such offense is committed to prosecute all persons violating the provisions of this chapter upon the filing of proper complaint. All penalties collected under the provisions of this chapter shall inure to the school fund of the county in which suit was prosecuted and judgment obtained: Provided, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. [1969 ex.s. c 199 § 17; 1909 c 213 § 9; 1899 c 121 § 17; RRS § 10142.]

18.64.270 Responsibility for drug purity—Adulteration—Penalty. Every proprietor of a wholesale or retail drug store shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals or medicines sold or dispensed by him except those sold in original packages of the manufacturer and except those articles or preparations known as patent or proprietary medicines. Any person who shall knowingly, wilfully or fraudulently falsify or adulterate any drug or medicinal substance or preparation authorized or recognized by an official compendium or used or intended to be used in medical practice, or shall wilfully, knowingly or fraudulently offer for sale, sell or cause the same to be sold for medicinal purposes, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in any sum not less than seventy-five nor more than one hundred and fifty dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than one month nor more than three months, and any person convicted a third time for violation of any of the provisions of this section may suffer both fine and imprisonment. In any case he shall forfeit to the state of Washington all drugs or preparations so falsified or adulterated. [1963 c 38 § 13; 1899 c 121 § 14; RRS § 10139. Prior: 1891 c 153 § 15. Formerly RCW 18.67.100 and 18.67.120.]

18.64.280 General penalty. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of chapter 18.64 RCW and for which a penalty is not provided shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1963 c 38 § 14; 1909 c 213 § 13; RRS § 10146. Formerly RCW 18.64.250, part.]

18.64.300 Pharmacist members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of pharmacists—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.64A.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.64A.010 Definitions. Terms used in this chapter shall have the meaning set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Board" means the state board of pharmacy;
- (2) "Pharmacist" means a person duly licensed by the state board of pharmacy to engage in the practice of pharmacy;
- (3) "Pharmacy" means every place properly licensed by the board of pharmacy where the practice of pharmacy is conducted;
- (4) "Pharmacy assistant level A" means:
  - (a) A person who is enrolled in, or who has satisfactorily completed, a board approved training program designed to prepare persons to perform nondiscretionary functions associated with the practice of pharmacy; or
  - (b) A person who is a graduate with a degree in pharmacy or medicine of a foreign school, university, or college recognized by the board;
- (5) "Pharmacy assistant level B" means a person certified by the board to perform limited functions in the pharmacy;
- (6) "Practice of pharmacy" means the definition given in RCW 18.64.011, as now or hereafter amended. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 1.]

18.64A.020 Regulations fixing classification, qualifications, educational requirements, training programs, supervision, etc. (1) The board shall adopt, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, rules and regulations fixing the classification and qualifications and the educational and training requirements for persons who may be employed as pharmacy assistants or who may be enrolled in any pharmacy assistant training program. Such regulations shall provide that:

- (a) Licensed pharmacists shall supervise the training of pharmacy assistants; and
- (b) Training programs shall assure the competence of pharmacy assistants to aid and assist pharmacy operations. Training programs shall consist of instruction and/or practical training.

(2) The board may disapprove or revoke approval of any training program for failure to conform to board rules and regulations. In the case of the disapproval or revocation of approval of a training program by the board, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 18.64.160 as now or hereafter amended, and appeal may be taken in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 2.]

18.64A.030 Regulations governing services which may be performed by pharmacy assistants—Certification to levels of classification. The board shall adopt, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, rules and regulations governing the extent to which pharmacy assistants may perform services associated with the practice of pharmacy during training and after successful completion of a training course. Such regulations shall provide for the certification of pharmacy assistants at a uniform annual fee to be determined by the board according to the following levels of classification:

- (1) "Level A pharmacy assistants" may assist in performing, under the immediate supervision and control of a licensed pharmacist, manipulative, nondiscretionary functions associated with the practice of pharmacy.
- (2) "Level B pharmacy assistants" may perform, under the general supervision of a licensed pharmacist, duties including but not limited to, typing of prescription labels, filing, refiling, bookkeeping, pricing, stocking, delivery, nonprofessional phone inquiries, and documentation of third party reimbursements. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 3.]

18.64A.040 Limitations on practice by pharmacy assistants. (1) A pharmacy assistant shall practice pharmacy in this state only after authorization by the board and only to the extent permitted by the board in accordance with this chapter.

(2) A pharmacist shall be assisted by a pharmacy assistant in the practice of pharmacy in this state only after authorization by the board and only to the extent permitted by the board in accordance with this chapter: Provided, That no pharmacist may supervise more than one person performing level A pharmacy assistant duties and functions: Provided further, That in pharmacies operating in connection with facilities licensed pursuant to chapters 70.41 or 71.12 RCW, whether or not situated within the said facility, the ratio of pharmacists to persons performing level A pharmacy assistant duties and functions shall be as follows: in the preparation of medicine or other materials used by patients within the facility, one pharmacist supervising no more than three persons performing level A pharmacy assistant duties and functions; in the preparation of medicine or other materials dispensed to persons not patients within the facility, one pharmacist supervising not more than one person performing level A pharmacy assistant duties and functions. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 4.]

18.64A.050 Grounds for refusal, suspension or revocation of pharmacy assistant's certificate—Hearing—Appeal. The board of pharmacy shall have the power to refuse, suspend, or revoke the certificate of any pharmacy assistant upon proof that:

(1) His or her certificate was procured through fraud, misrepresentation or deceit;

(2) He or she has been found guilty of any offense in violation of the laws of this state relating to drugs, poisons, cosmetics or drug sundries by any court of competent jurisdiction: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to affect or alter the provisions of RCW 9.96A.020;

(3) He or she is unfit to perform his or her duties because of habitual intoxication or abuse of controlled substances;

(4) He or she has exhibited gross incompetency in the performance of his or her duties;

(5) He or she has wilfully or repeatedly violated any of the rules and regulations of the board of pharmacy;

(6) He or she has wilfully or repeatedly performed duties beyond the scope of his or her certificate in violation of the provisions of this chapter; or

(7) He or she has impersonated a licensed pharmacist.

In any case of the refusal, suspension or revocation of a certificate by the board, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 18.64.160, as now or hereafter amended, and appeal may be taken in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 5.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.64A.060 Pharmacy's application for pharmacy assistant—Fee—Approval or rejection by board—Hearing—Appeal. No pharmacy licensed in this state shall utilize the services of pharmacy assistants without approval of the board.

Any pharmacy licensed in this state may apply to the board for permission to use the services of pharmacy assistants. The application shall be accompanied by a uniform fee to be determined by the board, shall detail the manner and extent to which the pharmacy assistants would be used and supervised, and shall provide other information in such form as the board may require.

The board may approve or reject such applications. In addition, the board may modify the proposed utilization of pharmacy assistants and approve the application as modified. No such approval shall extend for more than one year, but approval once granted may be renewed annually upon payment of a uniform fee as determined by the board. Whenever it appears to the board that a pharmacy assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 18.64 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and appeal may be taken in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 6.]

18.64A.070 Persons presently acting as pharmacy assistants—Pharmacies presently employing persons acting as pharmacy assistants. (1) Persons presently assisting a pharmacist by performing the functions of a pharmacy assistant may continue to do so under the supervision of a licensed pharmacist: Provided, That within eighteen months after May 28, 1977, such persons shall be in compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Pharmacies presently employing persons to perform the functions of a pharmacy assistant may continue to do so while obtaining board approval for the use of certified pharmacy assistants: Provided, That within eighteen months after May 28, 1977, such pharmacies shall be in compliance with the provisions of this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 7.]

18.64A.080 Pharmacy's or pharmacist's liability, responsibility. No pharmacy or pharmacist which utilizes the services of a pharmacy assistant with approval by the board, shall be considered as aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to practice pharmacy within the meaning of chapter 18.64 RCW, as now or hereafter amended: Provided, however, That the pharmacy or pharmacist shall retain responsibility for any act performed by a pharmacy assistant in the course of his or her employment. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 8.]

18.64A.900 Severability—1977 ex.s. c 101. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1977 ex.s. c 101 § 10.]

18.71.011 Definition of practice of medicine—Engaging in practice of chiropractic prohibited, when. A person is practicing medicine if he does one or more of the following:

(1) Offers or undertakes to diagnose, cure, advise or prescribe for any human disease, ailment, injury, infirmity, deformity, pain or other condition, physical or mental, real or imaginary, by any means or instrumentality;

(2) Administers or prescribes drugs or medicinal preparations to be used by any other person;

(3) Severs or penetrates the tissues of human beings;

(4) Uses on cards, books, papers, signs or other written or printed means of giving information to the public, in the conduct of any occupation or profession pertaining to the diagnosis or treatment of human disease or conditions the designation "doctor of medicine", "physician", "surgeon", "m.d." or any combination thereof unless such designation additionally contains the description of another branch of the healing arts for which a person has a license: Provided however, That a person licensed under this chapter shall not engage in the practice of chiropractic as defined in RCW 18.25.005. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 15.]

18.71.015 Washington state board of medical examiners. There is hereby created a board of medical examiners consisting of six individuals licensed to practice medicine in the state of Washington and one individual who is not a physician, to be known as the Washington state board of medical examiners.

The board shall be appointed by the governor. The members of the first board shall be appointed within thirty days after March 21, 1961, to serve the following terms: One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, one member for five years, from the date of their appointment, or until their successors are duly appointed and qualified. On expiration of the term of any member, the governor shall appoint for a period of five years an individual of similar qualifications to take the place of such member. Each member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which such member is appointed or until a successor shall have been appointed and shall have qualified.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States, must be an actual resident of this state, and, if a physician, must have been licensed to practice medicine in this state for at least five years.

The board shall meet as soon as practicable after appointment and elect a chairman and a secretary from its members. Meetings shall be held at least four times a year and at such place as the board shall determine and at such other times and places as the board deems necessary.

It shall require the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board to carry any motion or resolution, to adopt any rule, to pass any measure, or to authorize or deny the issuance of any certificate.

Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and in addition thereto shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in carrying out the duties of the board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Any such expenses shall be paid from funds appropriated to the department of licensing.

Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, or malfeasance or misfeasance in office.

Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor. [1984 c 287 § 44; 1979 c 158 § 52; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 41; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 2; 1961 c 284 § 2.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.71.017 Rules and regulations by board. The board may make such rules and regulations as are not inconsistent with the laws of this state as may be determined necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter. [1961 c 284 § 11.]

18.71.018 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of medical examiners, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 41.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.71.020 Licensing required—Penalties, enforcement—Exemptions—Remittance of justice court fines, fees, penalties and forfeitures. Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice or hold himself out as practicing medicine in this state, without having, at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked license as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prohibit or penalize emergency life-saving service rendered by a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician, by a physician's trained mobile airway management technician, or by a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, as defined in RCW 18.71.200 as now or hereafter amended, if such emergency lifesaving service be rendered under the responsible supervision and control of a licensed physician. In each such conviction the fine shall be paid, when collected, to the state treasurer: Provided, That all fees, fines, forfeitures and penalties collected or assessed by a justice court because of the violation of a state law shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW as now exists or is later amended. The director is authorized to prosecute all persons guilty of a violation of the provisions of this chapter. [1977 c 55 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 305 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 199 § 18; 1961 c 284 § 3; 1919 c 134 § 8; 1909 c 192 § 14; RRS § 10018. Prior: 1890 p 119 § 8; Code 1881 § 2290.]

Persons licensed under prior laws: "Any person who holds a license from the board of medical examiners heretofore existing, under the provisions of any laws of this state, past or present, shall be entitled to practice medicine and surgery in this state the same as if issued under this act: Provided, however, That all licenses herein mentioned may be revoked for unprofessional conduct, in the same manner and upon the same grounds as if issued under this act." [1909 c 192 § 17.]

18.71.025 Injunction to prevent practice until license secured. The attorney general, each prosecuting attorney, the director, the state board of medical examiners, or any citizen of the state may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin such person from engaging in the practice of medicine as herein defined until a valid license to practice medicine be secured: Provided, That such injunction shall not relieve such person so practicing medicine without a valid license from criminal prosecution therefor, but such remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 4; 1961 c 284 § 10.]

18.71.030 Exemptions. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or any kind of treatment by prayer; nor shall anything in this chapter be construed to prohibit:

- (1) The furnishing of medical assistance in cases of emergency requiring immediate attention;
- (2) The domestic administration of family remedies;
- (3) The administration of oral medication of any nature to students by public school district employees or private elementary or secondary school employees as provided for in chapter 28A.31 RCW, as now or hereafter amended;
- (4) The practice of dentistry, osteopathy, osteopathy and surgery, nursing, chiropractic, podiatry, optometry, drugless therapeutics or any other healing art licensed under the methods or means permitted by such license;

(5) The practice of medicine in this state by any commissioned medical officer serving in the armed forces of the United States or public health service or any medical officer on duty with the United States veterans administration while such medical officer is engaged in the performance of the duties prescribed for him by the laws and regulations of the United States;

(6) The practice of medicine by any practitioner licensed by another state or territory in which he resides, provided that such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients or receiving calls within this state;

(7) The practice of medicine by a person who is a regular student in a school of medicine approved and accredited by the board: Provided, however, That the performance of such services be only pursuant to a regular course of instruction or assignments from his instructor, or that such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(8) The practice of medicine by a person serving a period of postgraduate medical training in a program of clinical medical training sponsored by a college or university in this state or by a hospital accredited in this state: Provided, That the performance of such services shall be only pursuant to his duties as a trainee;

(9) The practice of medicine by a person who is regularly enrolled in a physician's assistant program approved by the board: Provided, however, That the performance of such services be only pursuant to a regular course of instruction in said program: And provided further, That such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(10) The practice of medicine by a registered physician's assistant which practice is performed under the supervision and control of a physician licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(11) The practice of medicine, in any part of this state which shares a common border with Canada and which is surrounded on three sides by water, by a physician licensed to practice medicine and surgery in Canada or any province or territory thereof;

(12) The administration of nondental anesthesia by a dentist who has completed a residency in anesthesiology at a school of medicine approved by the board of medical examiners: Provided, That a dentist allowed to administer nondental anesthesia shall do so only under authorization of the patient's attending surgeon, obstetrician, or psychiatrist: And provided further, That the medical disciplinary board shall have jurisdiction to discipline a dentist practicing under this exemption and enjoin or suspend such dentist from the practice of nondental anesthesia according to the provisions of chapter 18.72 RCW. [1983 c 2 § 1. Prior: 1982 c 195 § 3; 1982 c 51 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 110 § 1; 1961 c 284 § 4; 1919 c 134 § 12; 1909 c 192 § 19; RRS § 10024.]

the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1983 c 2 § 21.]

Severability—1982 c 195: See note following RCW 28A.31.150.

Administering drugs, inoculations, etc., by registered nurses permitted: RCW 18.88.290.

18.71.040 Application—Fee. Every applicant for a certificate to practice medicine and surgery shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43-.24.086. [1985 c 322 § 1. Prior: 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 6; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 61; 1955 c 202 § 35; prior: 1941 c 166 § 1, part; 1913 c 82 § 1, part; 1909 c 192 § 7, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10010-1, part.]

18.71.050 Application—Eligibility requirements—United States and Canadian graduates. Each applicant who has graduated from a school of medicine located in any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada, shall file an application for licensure with the board on a form prepared by the director with the approval of the board. Each applicant shall furnish proof satisfactory to the board of the following:

(1) That the applicant has attended and graduated from a school of medicine approved by the board;

(2) That the applicant has completed two years of postgraduate medical training in a program acceptable to the board, provided that applicants graduating before July 28, 1985, may complete only one year of postgraduate medical training;

(3) That the applicant is of good moral character;

(4) That the applicant is physically and mentally capable of safely carrying on the practice of medicine. The board may require any applicant to submit to such examination or examinations as it deems necessary to determine an applicant's physical and/or mental capability to safely practice medicine;

(5) That the applicant's license to practice medicine is not at the time of the application revoked or suspended by any licensing agency and that the applicant has not been guilty of any conduct which would constitute grounds for refusal, revocation or suspension of such license under the laws of the state of Washington.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the board from requiring such additional information from applicants as it deems necessary. [1985 c 322 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 7; 1961 c 284 § 5; 1957 c 60 § 3. Prior: 1947 c 168 § 1, part; 1919 c 134 § 3, part; 1909 c 192 § 6, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 10008, part; prior: 1905 c 41 § 1, part; 1901 c 42 § 1, part; 1890 p 115 § 3, part; Code 1881 § 2285, part.]

18.71.051 Application—Eligibility requirements—Foreign graduates. Applicants for licensure to practice medicine who have graduated from a school of medicine located outside of the states, territories and possessions of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada, shall file an application for licensure with the board on a form prepared by the director with the approval of the board. Each applicant shall furnish proof satisfactory to the board of the following:

(1) That he has completed in a school of medicine a resident course of professional instruction equivalent to that required in this chapter for applicants generally;

(2) That he meets all the requirements which must be met by graduates of the United States and Canadian school of medicine except that he need not have graduated from a school of medicine approved by the board;

(3) That he has satisfactorily passed the examination given by the educational council for foreign medical graduates or has met the requirements in lieu thereof as set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the board;

(4) That he has the ability to read, write, speak, understand, and be understood in the English language. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 16.]

18.71.055 Schools of medicine—Requirements for approval. The board may approve any school of medicine which is located in any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or in the Dominion of Canada, provided that it:

(1) Requires collegiate instruction which includes courses deemed by the board to be prerequisites to medical education;

(2) Provides adequate instruction in the following subjects: Anatomy, biochemistry, microbiology and immunology, pathology, pharmacology, physiology, anaesthesiology, dermatology, gynecology, internal medicine, neurology, obstetrics, ophthalmology, orthopedic surgery, otolaryngology, pediatrics, physical medicine and rehabilitation, preventive medicine and public health, psychiatry, radiology, surgery and urology and such other subjects determined by the board;

(3) Provides clinical instruction in hospital wards and out-patient clinics under guidance.

Approval may be withdrawn by the board at any time a medical school ceases to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the board to approve a school of osteopathy, osteopathy and surgery or osteopathic medicine, for purposes of qualifying an applicant to be licensed under this chapter by direct licensure, reciprocity or otherwise. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 8; 1961 c 284 § 6; 1957 c 60 § 4.]

18.71.060 Record of proceedings of board and of applications. Said board shall keep an official record of all its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for licensure under this chapter, with the result of each application. Said record shall be evidence of all the proceedings of said board which are set forth therein. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 9; 1961 c 284 § 7; 1909 c 192 § 8; RRS § 10011.]

18.71.070 Examination—Record. With the exception of those applicants granted licensure through the provisions of RCW 18.71.090 or 18.71.095, applicants for licensure must successfully complete an examination administered by the board to determine their professional qualifications. The board shall prepare and give, or approve the preparation and giving of, an examination which shall cover those general subjects and topics, a knowledge of which is commonly and generally required of candidates for the degree of doctor of medicine conferred by approved colleges or schools of medicine in the United States. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board shall have the sole responsibility for determining the proficiency of applicants under this chapter, and, in so doing, may waive any prerequisite to licensure not set forth in this chapter.

The board may by rule establish the passing grade for the examination.

Examination results shall be part of the records of the board and shall be permanently kept with the applicant's file. [1985 c 322 § 3; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 10; 1961 c 284 § 8; 1919 c 134 § 4; 1909 c 192 § 6; RRS § 10009.]

18.71.080 License—Annual renewal—Continuing education requirement—Failure to renew, procedure. Every person licensed to practice medicine in this state shall register with the director of licensing annually, and pay an annual renewal registration fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. The board may establish rules and regulations governing mandatory continuing education requirements which shall be met by physicians applying for renewal of licenses. Any failure to register and pay the annual renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor to the director, and payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all delinquent annual license renewal fees: Provided, however, That any person who fails to renew the license for a period of three years, shall in no event be entitled to renew the license under this section. Such a person in order to obtain a license to practice medicine in this state, shall file an original application as provided for in this chapter, along with the requisite fee therefor. The board, in its sole discretion, may permit such applicant to be licensed without examination if it is satisfied that such applicant meets all the requirements for licensure in this state, and is competent to engage in the practice of medicine. [1985 c 322 § 4. Prior: 1979 c 158 §§ 53, 54, 55; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 11; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 12; 1955 c 202 § 36; prior: 1941 c 166 § 1, part; 1913 c 82 § 1, part; 1909 c 192 § 7, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10010-1, part.]

Medical disciplinary assessment fee, payment annually: RCW 18.72.380.

18.71.090 License without examination—Reciprocity—National board examinees—Fee. Any applicant who meets the requirements of RCW 18.71.050 and has been licensed under the laws of another state, territory, or possession of the United States, or of any province of Canada, or an applicant who has satisfactorily passed examinations given by the national board of medical examiners may, in the discretion of the board, be granted a license without examination on the payment of the fees required by this chapter: Provided, That the applicant must file with the board a copy of the license certified by the proper authorities of the issuing state to be a full, true copy thereof, and must show that the standards, eligibility requirements and examinations of that state are at least equal in all respects to those of this state. [1985 c 322 § 5. Prior: 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 12; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 63; 1961 c 284 § 9; 1957 c 60 § 5; 1919 c 134 § 11; RRS § 10023.]

18.71.095 Limited licenses. The board may, without examination, issue a limited license to persons who possess the qualifications set forth herein:

(1) The board may, upon the written request of the secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary of corrections, issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by the department of social and health services or the department of corrections as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with patients, residents, or inmates of the state institutions under the control and supervision of the secretary of the department of social and health services or the department of corrections.

(2) The board may issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by a county or city health department as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with his or her duties in employment with the city or county health department.

(3) Upon receipt of a completed application showing that the applicant meets all of the requirements for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050 except for completion of two years of postgraduate medical training, and that the applicant has been appointed as a resident physician in a program of postgraduate clinical training in this state approved by the board, the board may issue a limited license to a resident physician. Such license shall permit the resident physician to practice medicine only in connection with his or her duties as a resident physician and shall not authorize the physician to engage in any other form of practice. Each resident physician shall practice medicine only under the supervision and control of a physician licensed in this state, but such supervision and control shall not be construed to necessarily require the personal presence of the supervising physician at the place where services are rendered.

All persons licensed under this section shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the medical disciplinary board to the same extent as other members of the medical profession, in accordance with chapter 18.72 RCW and in addition, the limited license to practice medicine in the state of Washington may be revoked by the medical disciplinary board after a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions set forth in chapter 18.72 RCW, and determination made by the medical disciplinary board that such licensee has violated the limitations set forth herein.

Persons applying for licensure pursuant to this section shall pay an application fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and, in the event the license applied for is issued, a license fee at the rate provided for renewals of licenses generally. Licenses issued hereunder may be renewed annually pursuant to the provisions of RCW 18.71.080. Any person who obtains a limited license pursuant to this section may, without an additional application fee, apply for licensure under this chapter. [1985 c 322 § 6; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 13; 1973 1st ex.s. c 4 § 1; 1967 c 138 § 1; 1965 c 29 § 1; 1959 c 189 § 1.]

18.71.100 Applicability of health regulations. All persons granted licenses or certificates under this chapter, shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying to births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [1909 c 192 § 18; RRS § 10022.]

Vital statistics: Chapter 70.58 RCW.

18.71.120 Refusal of license for unprofessional conduct—Reinstatement procedure. The board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct: Provided, That any person whose license has been suspended or revoked under the provisions of chapter 18.72 RCW may apply to the medical disciplinary board for reinstatement at any time and the medical disciplinary board may hold hearings on any such petition and may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions thereof and issue a certificate of reinstatement. [1961 c 284 § 12; 1955 c 202 § 38. Prior: 1919 c 134 § 7, part; 1909 c 192 § 11, part; 1905 c 41 § 1, part; RRS § 10014, part.]

"Unprofessional conduct": RCW 18.72.030.

18.71.140 Refusal of license for unprofessional conduct—Hearing required. Before refusal of a license upon the ground of unprofessional conduct a hearing must be had before the medical disciplinary board. Such hearing shall be governed by the procedure set forth in chapter 18.72 RCW and the applicant shall have all the rights accorded to an accused license holder under such chapter, including the right to appeal from an adverse decision. [1955 c 202 § 40. Prior: 1919 c 134 § 7, part; 1909 c 192 § 11, part; 1905 c 41 § 1, part; RRS § 10014, part.]

"Unprofessional conduct": RCW 18.72.030.

18.71.145 Denial of license application or renewal—Notification—Right to hearing. If the board determines to deny an application for licensure, or renewal, it shall forthwith notify the applicant by mailing to him at the address listed on his application a concise statement of the reasons for such denial. Such an applicant may request a hearing within thirty days of the date such notification is mailed and such request shall be granted if it appears that the board, under any circumstances which might be shown at such a hearing, has the power to reverse its decision. All such hearings shall be held in accordance with the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW). [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 17.]

18.71.151 Physician members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of physicians—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.71.161 Physicians filing charges or presenting evidence before committees, boards or hospitals—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.250, 4.24.260.

18.71.165 Board of medical examiners—Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any other action, civil or criminal, based upon licensure proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the board. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 18.]

18.71.171 Records of medical society or hospital committee or board not subject to civil process. See RCW 4.24.250.

18.71.180 Denial of license—Statement of grounds—Record. In case of the denial of a license, the board shall file a brief and concise statement of the grounds and reasons therefor in the office of the director of licensing, which shall remain of record therein. [1979 c 158 § 56; 1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 14; 1955 c 202 § 44. Prior: (i) 1919 c 134 § 7, part; RRS § 10014, part. (ii) 1909 c 192 § 12; RRS § 10016.]

False personation: RCW 9A.60.040.

18.71.195 Suspension of physician's license for mental incompetency or illness, physical condition—Hearing—Examination—Reinstatement—Grounds. See RCW 18.72.275.

18.71.200 Physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technicians, physician's trained mobile airway management technicians, physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedics—Definitions. (1) As used in

RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended, a "physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services;

(2) As used in RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended, a "physician's trained mobile airway management technician" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile airway management technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services; and

(3) As used in RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended, a "physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director:

(i) To carry out all phases of advanced cardiac life support;

(ii) To administer drugs under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iii) To administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iv) To perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic by the University of Washington's school of medicine or by the department of social and health services. [1983 c 112 § 1; 1977 c 55 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 52 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 305 § 2.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 52: See note following RCW 43.22.010.

18.71.205 Physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, mobile intensive care paramedics—Certification and recertification standards and requirements—"Approved medical program director" defined. (1) The secretary of the department of social and health services, in conjunction with the advice and assistance of the emergency medical services committee as prescribed in RCW 18.73.050, and the board of medical examiners, shall prescribe:

(a) Minimum standards and performance requirements for the certification and recertification of physician's trained intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, and mobile intensive care paramedics; and

(b) Procedures for certification, recertification, and decertification of physician's trained intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, and mobile intensive care paramedics.

(2) Initial certification shall be for a period of two years.

(3) Recertification shall be granted upon proof of continuing satisfactory performance and education, and shall be for a period of two years.

(4) As used in chapter 18.71 RCW, "approved medical program director" means a person who:

(a) Is licensed to practice medicine and surgery pursuant to chapter 18.71 RCW or osteopathy and surgery pursuant to chapter 18.57 RCW; and

(b) Is qualified and knowledgeable in the administration and management of emergency care and services; and

(c) Is so certified by the department of social and health services for a county or group of counties in coordination with the recommendations of the local medical community and local emergency medical service council. [1983 c 112 § 2; 1977 c 55 § 3.]

18.71.210 Physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, mobile intensive care paramedics—Liability for acts or omissions. No act or omission of any physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, intravenous therapy technician, or airway management technician, as defined in RCW 18.71.200 as now or hereafter amended, done or omitted in good faith while rendering emergency medical service under the responsible supervision and control of a licensed physician or an approved medical program director or delegate(s) to a person who is in imminent danger of loss of life or has suffered grievous bodily injury shall impose any liability upon:

(1) The trained mobile intensive care paramedic, intravenous therapy technician, or airway management technician;

(2) The medical program director;

(3) The supervising physician(s);

(4) Any hospital, the officers, members of the staff, nurses, or other employees of a hospital;

(5) Any training agency or training physician(s);

(6) Any licensed ambulance service; or

(7) A federal, state, county, city or other local governmental unit or employees of such a governmental unit.

This section shall apply to an act or omission committed or omitted in the performance of the actual emergency medical procedures and not in the commission or omission of an act which is not within the field of medical expertise of the physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, intravenous therapy technician, or airway management technician, as the case may be.

This section shall not relieve a physician or a hospital of any duty otherwise imposed by law upon such physician or hospital for the designation or training of a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, intravenous therapy technician, or airway management technician, nor shall this section relieve any individual or other entity listed in this section of any duty otherwise imposed by law for the provision or maintenance of equipment to be used by the physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedics, intravenous therapy technicians, or airway management technicians.

This section shall not apply to any act or omission which constitutes either gross negligence or wilful or wanton conduct. [1983 c 112 § 3; 1977 c 55 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 305 § 3.]

18.71.215 Physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, mobile intensive care paramedics—Liability for acts or omissions of approved medical program directors, delegates, or agents. The department of social and health services shall defend and hold harmless approved medical program directors, delegates, or agents for any act or omission committed or omitted in good faith in the performance of administrative nonmedical procedures for certification, recertification, and decertification of physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technicians, airway management technicians, and mobile intensive care paramedics. [1983 c 112 § 4.]

Medical program director—Duties: RCW 18.73.077.

18.71.220 Rendering emergency care—Immunity of physician or hospital from civil liability. No physician or hospital licensed in this state shall be subject to civil liability, based solely upon failure to obtain consent in rendering emergency medical, surgical, hospital, or health services to any individual regardless of age where its patient is unable to give his consent for any reason and there is no other person reasonably available who is legally authorized to consent to the providing of such care: Provided, That such physician or hospital has acted in good faith and without knowledge of facts negating consent. [1971 ex.s. c 305 § 4.]

Persons rendering emergency care, immunity from liability—Exclusion: RCW 4.24.300.

18.71.230 Revocation of right of Canadian physician to practice—Grounds—Procedure. A right to practice medicine and surgery by a Canadian physician in this state pursuant to RCW 18.71.030 shall be revocable by order of the director of licensing upon a finding by the director of an act of unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW 18.72.030. Such physician shall have the same rights of notice, hearing and judicial review as provided licensed physicians generally pursuant to chapter 18.72 RCW. [1979 c 158 § 57; 1973 1st ex.s. c 110 § 2.]

18.71.240 Abortion—Right to medical treatment of infant born alive. The right of medical treatment of an infant born alive in the course of an abortion procedure shall be the same as the right of an infant born prematurely of equal gestational age. [1981 c 328 § 1.]

18.71.910 Repeal—1909 c 192. All acts, or parts of acts, in any wise conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed. [1909 c 192 § 22.]

18.71.920 Repeal—1957 c 60. All acts and parts of acts to the extent that the same are in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [1957 c 60 § 6.]

18.71.930 Severability—1957 c 60. If any section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act should be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this act. [1957 c 60 § 7.]

18.71.940 Severability—1961 c 284. If any section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this act should be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this act. [1961 c 284 § 13.]

18.71.941 Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 171. If any section, sentence, clause, or phrase of this 1975 amendatory act should be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this 1975 amendatory act. [1975 1st ex.s. c 171 § 19.]

18.71A.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.71A.010 Definitions. (1) "Physician's assistant" means:

(a) A person who is enrolled in, or who has satisfactorily completed, a board approved training program designed to prepare persons to practice medicine to a limited extent; or

(b) A person who is a university medical graduate of a foreign medical school or college.

(2) "Board" means the board of medical examiners.

(3) "Practice medicine" shall have the meaning defined in *RCW 18.71.010. [1975 1st ex.s. c 190 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 1.]

*Reviser's note: For definition of "practice of medicine," see RCW 18.71.011.

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 30: "If any provision of this 1971 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 13.]

18.71A.020 Board to adopt rules and regulations fixing qualifications and restricting practice—Contents. The board shall adopt rules and regulations fixing the qualifications and the educational and training requirements for persons who may be employed as physician's assistants or who may be enrolled in any physician's assistant training program.

The board shall, in addition, adopt rules and regulations governing the extent to which physician's assistants may practice medicine during training and after successful completion of a training course. Such regulations shall provide:

(1) That the practice of a physician's assistant shall be limited to the performance of those services for which he is trained; and

(2) That each physician's assistant shall practice medicine only under the supervision and control of a physician licensed in this state, but such supervision and control shall not be construed to necessarily require the personal presence of the supervising physician at the place where services are rendered. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 2.]

18.71A.030 Limitations on practice by physicians' assistants. A physician's assistant as defined in this chapter may practice medicine in this state only after authorization by the board and only to the extent permitted by the board. A physician's assistant shall be subject to discipline under chapter 18.72 RCW. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 3.]

18.71A.040 Physician's application for physician's assistant—Fee—Approval or rejection by board—Hearing. No physician practicing in this state shall utilize the services of a physician's assistant without the approval of the board.

Any physician licensed in this state may apply to the board for permission to use the services of a physician's assistant. The application shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24-.086, shall detail the manner and extent to which the physician's assistant would be used and supervised, shall detail the education, training, and experience of the physician's assistant and shall provide such other information in such form as the board may require.

The board may approve or reject such applications. In addition, the board may modify the proposed utilization of the physician's assistant, and approve the application as modified. No such approval shall extend for more than one year, but approval once granted may be renewed annually upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Whenever it appears to the board that a physician's assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of an approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with RCW 18.71.140. [1985 c 7 § 61; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 64; 1975 1st ex.s. c 190 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 4.]

18.71A.050 Physician's liability, responsibility. No physician who uses the services of a physician's assistant in accordance with and within the terms of any permission granted by the medical examining board shall be considered as aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to practice medicine within the meaning of RCW 18.71-.020 or 18.72.030(13): Provided, however, That any physician shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of medicine as defined in RCW 18.71.010 when performed by a physician's assistant in his employ. [1971 ex.s. c 30 § 5.]

18.71A.060 Limitations on health care services. No health care services may be performed under this chapter in any of the following areas:

(1) The measurement of the powers or range of human vision, or the determination of the accommodation and refractive state of the human eye or the scope of its functions in general, or the fitting or adaptation of lenses or frames for the aid thereof.

(2) The prescribing or directing the use of, or using, any optical device in connection with ocular exercises, visual training, vision training or orthoptics.

(3) The prescribing of contact lenses for, or the fitting or adaptation of contact lenses to, the human eye.

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude the performance of routine visual screening.

(5) The practice of dentistry or dental hygiene as defined in chapters 18.32 and 18.29 RCW respectively. The exemptions set forth in RCW 18.32.030, paragraphs (1) and (8), shall not apply to a physician's assistant.

(6) The practice of chiropractic as defined in chapter 18.25 RCW including the adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the spine.

(7) The practice of podiatry as defined in chapter 18-.22 RCW. [1973 c 77 § 21; 1971 ex.s. c 30 § 6.]

18.71A.070 Medical practice investigator—Appointment—Powers and duties. There shall be appointed by the director of licensing an agent whose title shall be "medical practice investigator", who shall have the duty and shall be authorized to enter the clinic, office, or premises where a physician's assistant is employed for the purpose of inspecting the registration and utilization of any physician's assistant employed therein.

Said investigator may serve and execute any notice or process issued under the authority of this chapter and shall perform any other duty prescribed by the director or the board, including assisting other agencies in enforcing the provisions of the law regulating the practice of medicine: Provided, That funds must be included in the department's 1975-77 operational budget for this program. [1979 c 158 § 58; 1975 1st ex.s. c 190 § 3.]

18.71A.080 Performance of acupuncture. (1) The performance of acupuncture for the purpose of demonstration, therapy, or the induction of analgesia by a person licensed under this chapter shall be within the scope of practice authorized: Provided, however, That a person licensed to perform acupuncture under this section shall only do so under the direct supervision of a licensed physician.

(2) The board shall determine the qualifications of a person authorized to perform acupuncture under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) As used in this section "acupuncture" means the insertion of needles into the human body by piercing the skin of the body for the purpose of relieving pain, treating disease, or to produce analgesia, or as further defined by rules and regulations of the board. [1985 c 322 § 7; 1977 ex.s. c 233 § 2.]

Physicians: Chapter 18.71 RCW.

18.72.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.72.010 Declaration of purpose. This chapter is passed:

(1) In the exercise of the police power of the state to protect public health, to promote the welfare of the state, and to provide an adequate public agency to act as a disciplinary body for the members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state;

(2) Because the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance;

(3) Because the conduct of members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state plays a vital role in preserving the health and well-being of the people of the state; and

(4) Because the agency which now exists to handle disciplinary proceedings for members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state is ineffective and very infrequently employed, and consequently there is no effective means of handling such disciplinary proceedings when they are necessary for the protection of the public health. [1955 c 202 § 1.]

18.72.020 Definitions. Terms used in this chapter and in RCW 18.71.040, 18.71.080, 18.71.120, 18.71.140 and 18.71.180 shall have the meaning set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Board" means the medical disciplinary board.
- (2) "License" means a certificate or license to practice medicine and surgery in this state as provided for in RCW 18.71.010 and 18.71.050.
- (3) "Members" means members of the medical disciplinary board.
- (4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the medical disciplinary board. [1955 c 202 § 2.]

18.72.030 "Unprofessional conduct" defined. The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in this chapter and chapter 18.71 RCW shall mean the following items or any one or combination thereof:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, whether the same be committed in the course of his or her relations as a physician, or otherwise, and whether the same constitutes a crime or not; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent physician of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of his or her violation of the statute upon which it is based;

(2) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion;

(3) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice medicine or in reinstatement thereof;

(4) All advertising of medical business which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and so be harmful or injurious to public morals or safety;

(5) The impersonation of another licensed practitioner;

(6) The possession, use, prescription for use, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for therapeutic purposes;

(7) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any human condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the board;

(8) Unprofessional conduct as defined in chapter 19.68 RCW;

(9) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice medicine;

(10) Suspension or revocation of the physician's license to practice medicine by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction;

(11) Incompetency or negligence in the practice of medicine and surgery resulting in serious harm to the patient;

(12) Violation of any board rule or regulation fixing a standard of professional conduct;

(13) Wilful violation of RCW 18.72.175 or wilful disregard of the subpoena or notice of the Washington state medical disciplinary board;

(14) Gross, wilful, or continued overcharging for professional services; or

(15) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed pursuant to RCW 18.72.150(6). [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 1; 1975 c 61 § 1; 1963 c 142 § 1; 1955 c 202 § 3.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: "If any provision of this 1979 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 21.]

Abortion: Chapter 9.02 RCW.

Controlled substances: Chapter 69.50 RCW.

Failure of accused physician to cooperate deemed unprofessional conduct: RCW 18.72.175.

False advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

Legend drugs: Chapter 69.41 RCW.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.72.040 Board created—Composition—Legal advisor. There is hereby created the "Washington state medical disciplinary board," which shall be composed of one holder of a valid license to practice medicine and surgery from each congressional district now existing or hereafter created in the state and one member of the public who meets the qualifications contained in RCW 70.39.020(2) shall be appointed by the governor. The public member's term shall be for two years commencing on October 1st of each odd-numbered year. The board shall be an administrative agency of the state of Washington. The attorney general shall be the advisor of the board and shall represent it in all legal proceedings. [1977 c 71 § 1; 1955 c 202 § 4.]

18.72.050 Election of members. Members of the board, except the public member, shall be elected by secret mail ballot by the holders of licenses to practice medicine and surgery residing in each congressional district, now or hereafter existing in the state, and shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified. Members from even-numbered congressional districts shall be elected in even-numbered years and members from odd-numbered congressional districts shall be elected in odd-numbered years. The board shall not be deemed unlawfully constituted and a member of the board shall not be deemed ineligible to serve the remainder of the member's unexpired term on the board solely by reason of the establishment of new or revised boundaries for congressional districts. [1982 1st ex.s. c 30 § 3; 1977 c 71 § 2; 1955 c 202 § 5.]

18.72.055 Membership, effect of creation of new congressional districts or boundaries. The terms of office of members of the medical disciplinary board who are elected from the various congressional districts shall not be affected by the creation of either new boundaries for congressional districts or additional districts. In such an event, each board member so elected may continue to serve in office for the balance of the term for which he or she was elected or appointed: Provided, That the board member continues to reside within the boundaries of the congressional district as they existed at the time of his or her election or appointment. Vacancies which occur in a board member position during the balance of any such term shall be filled pursuant to RCW 18.72.080, as now or hereafter amended, by a successor who resides within the boundaries of the congressional district from which the member whose office was vacated was elected as they existed at the time of his or her election. At the election immediately preceding expiration of the term of office of each board member provided for in this section following the creation of either new boundaries for congressional districts or additional districts, and thereafter, a successor shall be elected from the congressional district which corresponds in number with the congressional district from which the incumbent was appointed or elected. [1982 1st ex.s. c 30 § 4.]

18.72.060 Nominations. Nominations to the board may be made by petition signed by not less than twenty-five license holders residing in the nominee's district, and shall be submitted to the board at least four weeks prior to the date of the election. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 2; 1955 c 202 § 6.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.070 Date of election—Commencement of term. The election shall be held in September and shall be conducted in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the board under the rule-making power hereinafter provided for. Terms of office of members shall commence on October 1st. [1955 c 202 § 7.]

18.72.080 Vacancies. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the governor and a member appointed to fill a vacancy on the board shall serve until the naming of his successor in the next district election and until his successor takes office on the October 1st following the election. [1955 c 202 § 8.]

18.72.090 Removal of members. Any member of the board may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct or malfeasance or misfeasance in office, after being given a written statement of the charges against him and sufficient opportunity to be heard thereon. [1955 c 202 § 9.]

18.72.100 Compensation and reimbursement of members. Members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be repaid their travel expenses while engaged in business of the board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Such compensation and reimbursement for expenses shall be paid out of the general fund on vouchers approved by the director of licensing. [1984 c 287 § 45; 1979 ex.s. c 111 § 3; 1979 c 158 § 59; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 42; 1955 c 202 § 10.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.72.110 Territorial scope of operations. The board may meet, function, and exercise its powers at any place within the state. [1955 c 202 § 11.]

18.72.120 Organization of first board. The first board shall be organized in this manner: Within ten days after the effective date of this chapter the director of licenses shall appoint five holders of licenses to practice medicine and surgery in this state to serve as members of a temporary commission which shall, within ninety days thereafter, organize and hold the election to name the first members of the medical disciplinary board. The temporary commission shall adopt such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to govern the holding of the first election. After the election is completed and the first members of the board have qualified and taken office, the temporary commission shall be abolished and all of its records shall be turned over to the board. [1955 c 202 § 12.]

18.72.130 Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall elect from its members a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall meet at least once a year or oftener upon the call of the chairperson at such times and places as he/she shall designate. Five members shall constitute a quorum of the full board for the transaction of any business. A majority of the members appointed to a panel shall constitute a quorum for a panel of the board to transact any business delegated to a panel by the board. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 4; 1955 c 202 § 13.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.135 Board members pro tem—Panels—Authority. The director of licensing, upon request of the board, is authorized to appoint members pro tem for the purpose of participating as members of one or more panels of the board in connection with proceedings specifically identified in the appointment. While serving as medical disciplinary members pro tem, persons so appointed shall have all the authority, duties, and immunities, and shall be entitled to the emoluments, including travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, of regular members of the board.

The chairperson of a panel shall be a regular member of the board.

Panels shall have authority to act as directed by the board with respect to all matters concerning the review, investigation, and adjudication of all complaints, allegations, charges, and matters subject to the jurisdiction of the board. Final decisions of board panels shall be subject to appeal as hereinafter provided. The authority to act through panels shall not restrict the authority of the board to act as a single body at any phase of proceedings within the board's jurisdiction.

Board panels shall have authority to make interim orders and to issue final decisions with respect to matters and cases delegated to a panel by the board. Final decisions may be appealed as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 9.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.140 Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of such board. [1955 c 202 § 14.]

18.72.150 Powers and duties. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;

(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine if unprofessional conduct has been committed;

(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation or investigative or disciplinary hearing or proceeding;

(5) To investigate complaints or reports of malpractice and unsafe conditions and practices, to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action;

(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of the license of a physician, or restricting or limiting the licensed physician's practice pending proceedings by the board, as authorized by RCW 34.04.170;

(7) To appoint a hearing officer to conduct hearings subject to final determination by the board;

(8) To enter into contracts for professional services determined by the board to be necessary;

(9) To contract with physicians or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervising of physicians and surgeons who are placed on probation, or whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to being monitored by the board; and

(10) The board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 5; 1975 c 61 § 4; 1955 c 202 § 15.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.153 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The medical disciplinary board may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 42.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.72.155 Executive secretary—Staff. The director of the department of licensing shall appoint, from a list of three names supplied by the board, an executive secretary who shall act to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall also employ such additional staff including administrative assistants, investigators, and clerical staff as are required to enable the board to accomplish its duties and responsibilities. The executive secretary shall be exempt from the provisions of the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 6.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.160 Complaints—Investigation. Any person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the board charging the holder of a license to practice medicine and surgery with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. If the board determines that such complaint merits consideration, or if the board shall have reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that any holder of a license has engaged in unprofessional conduct, the board shall investigate and determine whether there has been unprofessional conduct. If the board determines that there has been unprofessional conduct by the holder of a license, the board shall determine the appropriate sanction to be imposed to protect the health and well-being of the people of this state and maintain the integrity of the medical profession. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 8; 1955 c 202 § 16.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.170 Statement of charges. When the board or a panel of the board determines to hear a charge of unprofessional conduct against a license holder, it shall cause a statement of the charge or charges to be prepared and served upon the license holder at the earliest practical time. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 10; 1955 c 202 § 17.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.175 Accused to cooperate with board—Failure deemed unprofessional conduct. It shall be the duty and obligation of a physician against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the medical disciplinary board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

- (1) Furnishing any papers or documents;
- (2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;
- (3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such physician fail to cooperate with the board in the manner herein provided, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. [1975 c 61 § 2.]

18.72.180 Time, notice, of hearing. The time of hearing shall be fixed by the secretary as soon as convenient, but not earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the accused. The secretary shall issue a notice of hearing of the charges, which notice shall specify the time and place of hearing and shall notify the accused that he may file with the secretary a written response within twenty days of the date of service. Such notice shall also notify the accused that a stenographic record of the proceeding will be kept, that he will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses and evidence in his own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him, to examine witnesses testifying for him, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him, and to have subpoenas issued by the board. [1955 c 202 § 18.]

18.72.190 Subpoenas—Contempt. Subpoenas issued by the board to compel the attendance of witnesses at any investigation or hearing shall be served in accordance with the provisions of chapter 5.56 RCW, governing the service of subpoenas in court actions. The board shall issue subpoenas at the request and on the behalf of the accused. In case any person contumaciously refuses to obey a subpoena issued by the board or to answer any proper question put to him during the hearing or proceeding, the superior court of any county in which the proceeding is carried on or in which the person guilty of refusal to obey the subpoena or to answer the question resides or is found shall have jurisdiction, upon application by the board, to issue to such person an order requiring him to appear before the board or its hearing committee, there to produce evidence if so ordered, or there to give testimony concerning the matter under investigation or question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished. [1955 c 202 § 19.]

Failure to attend, penalty: RCW 5.56.061.

18.72.201 Report of charges and final actions. (1) The board shall report the issuance of statements of charges and final actions in cases processed by the board to:

- (a) The person or agency who brought to the board's attention information which resulted in the initiation of the case;
- (b) Appropriate organizations, public or private, which serve the medical profession; and
- (c) The public.

(2) This section shall not be construed to require the reporting of any information which is exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 7.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.230 Certificate or order—Provisions. If a majority of the members of the board or an authorized panel determines that a license holder has committed unprofessional conduct as specified in a statement of charges, the board or panel shall make findings of facts, conclusions of law, and an order and may thereafter prepare and file in the office of the director of licensing a certificate or order, in which case a copy thereof shall be served upon the accused. The order may provide for:

- (1) Revocation of license;
- (2) Suspension of license for a fixed or indefinite term;
- (3) Restriction or limitation upon the license holder's practice;

(4) The establishment of a requirement that the license holder complete a specific program of continuing medical education;

(5) Monitoring of the license holder's practice by a preceptor approved by the board;

(6) Censure or reprimand;

(7) Any combination of the foregoing, which may be partly or totally stayed; and

(8) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 11; 1955 c 202 § 23.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.240 Dismissal of charges—Exoneration. If the license holder is found not guilty, or if less than a majority of the members then sitting vote for a finding of guilty, the board shall forthwith order a dismissal of the charges and the exoneration of the accused. When a proceeding has been dismissed, either on the merits or otherwise, the board shall relieve the accused from any possible odium that may attach by reason of the charges made against him by such public exoneration as is necessary. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 12; 1955 c 202 § 24.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.245 Assessment of costs. Any portion or all of the costs associated with a preceptor for the monitoring of the conditions of probation or the license holder's compliance with the terms of the board's decision and order may be assessed by the board against the license holder, in which event the payment of the said costs and expenses shall become a legal obligation of the license holder to the department of licensing, payment of which may be enforced in the superior or district courts. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 13.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.250 Order—When effective—Stay. The filing by the board in the office of the director of licensing of an order pursuant to proceedings authorized by this chapter, after due notice, hearing, and findings in accordance with procedures specified in this chapter and chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered as authorized by this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its filing. Such order, if appealed, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the board or the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the board, which stay may provide for terms necessary to protect the public. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 14; 1979 c 158 § 60; 1969 c 58 § 1; 1955 c 202 § 25.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.260 Contents of certificate—Recording. The certificate or order of revocation or suspension shall contain a brief and concise statement of the ground or grounds upon which the certificate or order is based and the specific terms and conditions of such revocation or suspension, and shall be retained as a permanent record by the director of licensing. [1955 c 202 § 26.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.265 Regulations requiring reports—Contents confidential—Immunity. (1) The board may adopt regulations requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, hospitals, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the board any: Conviction, determination, or finding that a licensed physician has committed unprofessional conduct as defined by RCW 18.72.030 as now or hereafter amended, or to report information which indicates that a licensed physician may not be able to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients as the result of any mental or physical condition.

(2) The contents of any report file shall be confidential and exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, except that it may be reviewed (a) by the licensee involved or his counsel or authorized representative who may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information; which statements or other information shall be included in the file, or (b) by a representative of the medical disciplinary board, or investigator thereof, who has been assigned to review the activities of a licensed physician.

(3) Upon a determination that a report is without merit, the board's records may be purged of information relating to the report.

(4) If any person contumaciously refuses to furnish a required report, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which said person resides or is found, and said court shall issue to such person an order to furnish the required report. Any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

(5) Every individual, medical association, medical society, hospital, medical service bureau, health insurance carrier or agent, professional liability insurance carrier, professional standards review organization, and agency of the federal, state, or local government shall be immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the board subsequent to the regulations outlined in [sub]section (1) of this section, or for which an individual health care provider has immunity under the provisions of RCW 4.24.240, 4.24.250, or 4.24.260, as now or hereafter amended. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 15.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.270 Issuance of license after revocation or suspension. The director of licensing shall not issue any license or any renewal thereof to any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the board, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under the provisions of this chapter. [1955 c 202 § 27.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.271 Refusal of license—Reinstatement—Hearing—Record. See RCW 18.71.120, 18.71.140 and 18.71.180.

18.72.275 Suspension of physician's license for mental incompetency or illness, physical condition—Hearing—Examination—Reinstatement—

Grounds. (1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, such physician shall automatically have his or her license suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician and notice shall be given the physician that a hearing will be held on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to adequately conduct his or her practice. If the board determines that the physician is unable to adequately conduct his or her practice for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the board shall suspend or restrict the license of such physician, or impose such conditions on the conduct of the physician's practice as the board finds to be appropriate for the protection of the public.

(3) In enforcing this section, the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more physicians and/or a psychological evaluation by one or more licensed psychologists designated by the board. In addition to any examinations ordered by the board, the subject physician may submit psychiatric, physical, or psychological examination reports from physicians or psychologists of the physician's choosing and expense. Failure of a physician to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such physician's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond his or her control, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can resume the competent practice of medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(4) For the purpose of this section, every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice medicine in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice medicine in this state, be deemed to have given his or her consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute privileged communications.

(5) In any proceeding under this section, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a physician in any other proceeding. [1979 ex.s. c 111 § 16; 1975 c 61 § 3.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 111: See note following RCW 18.72.030.

18.72.280 Appeal from decision of board. Any person whose license has been revoked or suspended by the board shall have the right to a judicial review of the board's decision. Such review shall be initiated by serving on the secretary a notice of appeal and filing such notice of appeal either in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of the county in which the appellant resides, within thirty days after the filing of the certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing. [1955 c 202 § 28.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.290 Appeal from decision of board—Transmittal of transcript. The secretary shall, within twenty days after the service of the notice of appeal, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is taken a transcript of the record before the board, certified under the seal of the board, together with a certified copy of the board's written findings. [1955 c 202 § 29.]

18.72.300 Appeal from decision of board—Scope of review. The findings of the board, if supported by the preponderance of evidence, shall be final and conclusive. The review in the superior court shall be limited to determining whether the findings of the board are supported by the preponderance of evidence and whether the proceedings of the board were erroneous as a matter of law, or in violation of due process, or so arbitrary or capricious as to amount to an abuse of discretion, or contrary to any constitutional right, power, privilege or immunity. [1955 c 202 § 30.]

18.72.320 Appeal from decision of superior court. Appeal shall be from the decision of the superior court. [1955 c 202 § 32.]

18.72.330 Review though revocation not timely filed. If the board finds the holder of any license guilty of unprofessional conduct and fails to file a certificate or order of revocation or suspension in the office of the director of licensing within thirty days, the license holder shall have the right to a judicial review of such finding of the board in the same manner and to the same extent as if the certificate or order had been filed. [1955 c 202 § 33.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.72.350 Physician members of committees to evaluate credentials and qualifications of physicians—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.240.

18.72.360 Physicians filing charges or presenting evidence before committees, boards, or hospitals—Immunity from civil suit. See RCW 4.24.250, 4.24.260.

18.72.370 Records of medical society or hospital committee or board not subject to civil process. See RCW 4.24.250.

18.72.380 Medical disciplinary assessment fee. There is hereby levied to be collected by the department of licensing from every physician and surgeon licensed pursuant to chapter 18.71 RCW an annual medical disciplinary assessment equal to the license renewal fee established under RCW 43.24.086. The assessment levied pursuant to this subsection is in addition to any license renewal fee established under RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 62; 1983 c 71 § 1.]

18.72.390 Medical disciplinary account—Purpose—Earnings. Because it is the express purpose of this chapter to protect the public health and to provide for a public agency to act as a disciplinary body for members of the medical profession licensed to practice medicine and surgery in this state, and because the health and well-being of the people of this state are of paramount importance, there is hereby created an account in the state treasury to be known as the medical disciplinary account. All assessments, fines, and other funds collected or received pursuant to this chapter shall be deposited in the medical disciplinary account and used to administer and implement this chapter. All earnings of investments of balances in the medical disciplinary account shall be credited to the general fund. [1985 c 57 § 6; 1983 c 71 § 2.]

Effective date—1985 c 57: See note following RCW 15.52.320.

18.72.400 Director of licensing's allocation of appropriated funds. The director of licensing shall allocate all appropriated funds to accomplish the purposes of this chapter. [1983 c 71 § 3.]

18.72.900 Severability—1955 c 202. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this chapter should be held invalid or unconstitutional, the invalidity or unconstitutionality thereof shall not affect the validity or constitutionality of any other section, sentence, clause or phrase of this medical disciplinary board act. [1955 c 202 § 46.]

18.72.910 Short title. This chapter may be known, as [and] cited, as the "medical disciplinary board act". [1955 c 202 § 48.]

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.73.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.73.010 Legislative finding. The legislature finds that a state-wide program of emergency medical care is necessary to promote the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of this state. The intent of the legislature is that the secretary of the department of social and health services develop and implement a program to promote immediate prehospital treatment for victims of motor vehicle accidents, suspected coronary illnesses, and other acute illness or trauma.

The legislature further recognizes that emergency medical care and transportation methods are constantly changing and conditions in the various regions of the state vary markedly. The legislature, therefore, seeks to establish a flexible method of implementation and regulation to meet those conditions. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 1.]

18.73.020 Supersession of local ordinances, regulations, requirements and fees. The legislature further declares its intention to supersede all ordinances, regulations, and requirements promulgated by counties, cities and other political subdivisions of the state of Washington, insofar as they may provide for the regulation of emergency medical care, first aid, and ambulance services which do not exceed the provisions of this chapter; except that (1) license fees established in this chapter shall supersede all license fees of counties, cities and other political subdivisions of this state; and, (2) nothing in this chapter shall alter the provisions of RCW 18.71-.020, 18.71.200, 18.71.210 and 18.71.220. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 2.]

18.73.030 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the meanings indicated.

(1) "Secretary" means the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(2) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(3) "Committee" means the emergency medical services committee.

(4) "Ambulance" means a vehicle designed and used to transport the ill and injured and to provide personnel, facilities, and equipment to treat patients before and during transportation.

(5) "First aid vehicle" means a vehicle used to carry first aid equipment and individuals trained in first aid or emergency medical procedure.

(6) "Emergency medical technician" means a person who is authorized by the secretary to render emergency medical care pursuant to RCW 18.73.110 as now or hereafter amended.

(7) "Ambulance operator" means a person who owns one or more ambulances and operates them as a private business.

(8) "Ambulance director" means a person who is a director of a service which operates one or more ambulances provided by a volunteer organization or governmental agency.

(9) "First aid vehicle operator" means a person who owns one or more first aid vehicles and operates them as a private business.

(10) "First aid director" means a person who is a director of a service which operates one or more first aid vehicles provided by a volunteer organization or governmental agency.

(11) "Emergency medical care" or "emergency medical service" means such medical treatment and care which may be rendered to persons injured, sick, or incapacitated in order to reduce the risk of loss of life or aggravation of illness or injury, including care rendered while transporting a patient from an ambulance or other vehicle to an appropriate location within a hospital or other medical facility.

(12) "Communications system" means a radio or landline network which provides rapid public access, coordinated central dispatching of services, and coordination of personnel, equipment, and facilities in an emergency medical services system.

(13) "Emergency medical services region" means a region established by the secretary of the department of social and health services pursuant to RCW 18.73.060, as now or hereafter amended.

(14) "Patient care guidelines" mean the written guidelines adopted by local or regional emergency medical services councils which direct the care of the emergency patient. These guidelines shall be based upon the assessment of the patient's medical needs and his geographic location, and shall address which medical care vehicles will be dispatched to the scene, what treatment will be provided for serious conditions, which hospital will first receive the patient, and which hospitals are appropriate for transfer if necessary.

(15) "Medical program director" means a person who is an approved medical program director under RCW 18.71.205(4).

(16) "Council" means the local or regional emergency medical services advisory council.

(17) "Basic life support" means emergency medical treatment services.

(18) "Advanced life support" means services requiring advanced emergency medical treatment skills, i.e., intravenous technicians, airway technicians, and paramedics.

(19) "System service area" means an emergency medical service area that develops because of trade, patient catchment, market, or other factors and may include county or multicounty boundaries.

(20) "First responder" means a person who is authorized by the secretary to render emergency medical care pursuant to RCW 18.73.205. [1983 c 112 § 5; 1979 ex.s. c 261 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 3.]

18.73.040 Emergency medical services committee—Created—Membership—Terms—Officers—Meetings—Travel expenses. There is created an emergency medical services committee of nine members to be appointed by the governor. Members of the committee shall be persons knowledgeable in specific and general aspects of emergency medical services. Members shall be appointed for a period of three years; except, that the first appointees shall serve for terms as follows: Five for three years, two for two years, and two for one year. Further, the terms of those members representing the same field shall not expire at the same time.

The committee shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman whose terms of office shall be for one year each. The chairman shall be ineligible for reelection after serving two consecutive terms.

The committee shall meet on call by the governor, the secretary or the chairman.

In addition to the members specified in this section, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the board, who shall serve for a term of three years.

All appointive members of the committee, in the performance of their duties, may be entitled to receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. [1984 c 279 § 55; 1981 c 338 § 13; 1979 ex.s. c 261 § 2; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 43; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 4.]

Reviser's note—Sunset Act application: The emergency medical services committee is subject to review, termination, and possible extension under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.303. RCW 18.73.040 and 18.73.050 are scheduled for future repeal under RCW 43.131.304.

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.73.050 Emergency medical services committee—Duties—Review of rules. The committee shall:

(1) Advise the secretary regarding emergency medical care needs throughout the state.

(2) Review all administrative rules proposed for adoption by the secretary under this chapter or under RCW 18.71.205. The secretary shall submit all such rules to the committee in writing. The committee shall, within forty-five days of receiving the proposed rules, advise the secretary of its recommendations. If the committee fails to notify the secretary within forty-five days of receipt of a proposed rule it shall be deemed to be approved by the committee.

(3) Assist the secretary, at the secretary's request, to fulfill any duty or exercise any power under this chapter. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 5.]

Sunset Act application: See note following RCW 18.73.040.

18.73.060 Planning and service areas. (1) The secretary shall designate at least eight planning and service areas so that all parts of the state are within such an area. These designations are to be made on the basis of convenience and efficiency of delivery of needed emergency medical services.

(2) The secretary shall conduct a public hearing in a major city of each planning and service area at least sixty days prior to the formulation of a comprehensive plan for prehospital emergency medical services. Such hearing shall (a) afford an opportunity for participation by those interested in the determination of the need for, and the location of ambulances and first aid vehicles and (b) provide a public forum that affords a full opportunity for presenting views on any relevant aspect of prehospital emergency medical services. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 6.]

18.73.070 State-wide comprehensive plan—Public hearing. After conducting a public hearing in one or more major cities in each emergency medical service region, affording all interested persons an opportunity to present their views on any relevant aspect of emergency medicine, the secretary shall adopt a state-wide comprehensive plan for the development and implementation of emergency medical care systems based upon the regional plans. The hearings shall be held at least sixty days before adoption or revision of the plan. Components of this plan shall include but not be limited to: Facilities, vehicles, medical and communications equipment, personnel and training, transportation, public information and education, and coordination of services.

The secretary shall encourage communities and medical care providers to implement the regional plan. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 7.]

18.73.073 Local and regional emergency medical services advisory councils—Power and duties. (1) A county or group of counties may create a local emergency medical services advisory council composed of persons representing health services providers, consumers, and local government agencies involved in the delivery of emergency medical services.

(2) Regional emergency medical services advisory councils shall be created by the department with representatives from the local emergency medical services councils within the region and whose representation is determined by the local council.

(3) Power and duties of the councils are as follows:

(a) Local emergency medical services advisory councils shall review and evaluate the provision of emergency medical services in the community/system service area, and provide recommendations to the regional emergency medical services advisory councils on standards and matters relating to emergency medical services.

(b) Regional emergency medical services advisory councils shall make recommendations to the department on projects, programs, and legislation needed to improve emergency medical services in the state. [1983 c 112 § 8.]

18.73.077 Medical program director—Duties—Delegation to physicians. A medical program director shall be responsible for:

(1) The medical matters pertaining to the emergency medical services system in a county or group of counties;

(2) The training or the supervision of training for basic life support personnel; and

(3) The medical control of basic life support personnel.

The training and medical control aspects may be delegated to the training physician(s) or supervisory physician(s). [1983 c 112 § 7.]

18.73.080 Duties of secretary—Minimum requirements to be prescribed. In addition to other duties prescribed by law the secretary shall:

(1) Prescribe minimum requirements for:

(a) Ambulances;

(b) First aid vehicles; and

(c) Communication equipment;

(2) Prescribe minimum standards governing the authorization and conduct of all training programs for emergency medical personnel authorized by this chapter;

(3) Review and approve or disapprove all applications for the conduct of emergency medical training courses authorized by this chapter;

(4) Establish and operate or contract with other qualified institutions or organizations for the operation of training programs for emergency medical personnel authorized by this chapter;

(5) Establish standards governing the establishment and operation of emergency medical care services and systems;

(6) Review the budgets prepared by the regional councils pursuant to *section 7 of this 1979 act, and prepare a single budget for submission to the governor;

(7) Establish procedures for evaluating the effectiveness of emergency medical care throughout the state;

(8) Adopt a format for submission of annual regional plans;

(9) Cooperate with and assist other agencies of state government and political subdivisions of the state of Washington who provide first aid or emergency medical training to ensure that this training is available throughout the state;

(10) Prescribe minimum requirements for liability insurance to be carried by ambulance operators except that this requirement shall not apply to self-insured public bodies; and

(11) Assist in the coordination of medical air evacuation and poison control services. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 6; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 8.]

18.73.085 Disbursement of funds to regional emergency medical services councils—Grants to nonprofit agencies—Purposes. (1) The secretary, with the assistance of the regional emergency medical services councils, shall adopt a program for the disbursement of funds for the development of emergency medical care. Under the program, the secretary shall disburse funds to each regional council, stipulating the purpose for which the funds shall be expended. The regional council shall use such funds to make available matching grants in an amount not to exceed fifty percent of the cost of the proposal for which the grant is made. Grants shall be made to any public or private nonprofit agency which, in the judgment of the regional council, will best fulfill the purpose of the grant.

(2) Grants may be awarded for any of the following purposes:

(a) Establishment and initial development of an emergency medical service program;

(b) Expansion and improvement of an emergency medical service program;

(c) Purchase of equipment for the operation of an emergency medical service program; and

(d) Training and continuing education of emergency medical personnel.

(3) Any emergency medical service program which receives a grant shall stipulate that it will:

(a) Operate in accordance with patient care guidelines adopted by the regional council; and

(b) Provide, without prior inquiry as to ability to pay, emergency medical care to all patients requiring such care. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 8.]

18.73.090 Emergency medical communications. The secretary shall establish standards for emergency medical communications for use in connection with the delivery of emergency medical services systems. He shall, in conjunction with other agencies of state government and political subdivisions of the state of Washington, encourage establishment of a state-wide communication system utilizing presently available facilities and such additional facilities as they become available; except, that each ambulance and first aid vehicle licensed under provisions of this chapter shall be equipped with transmitting and receiving equipment. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 9.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.100 Variance from standards. Upon the establishment of this chapter, the secretary may grant variance from standards when compliance can be expected to create prohibitive costs or cause substantial reduction or loss of existing service. Variance may be granted for a period of not more than one year. The variance may be renewed upon approval of the committee. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 10; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 10.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.110 Emergency medical technician certificates—Issuance—Qualification—Reciprocity—Duration—Renewal—Continuing education. The secretary shall specify the level of knowledge required to qualify as an emergency medical technician and shall issue a certificate of qualification to those eligible applicants who pass a written and practical examination given under the secretary's direction, or who provide proof of having graduated, with satisfactory performance, from a course of instruction, of not less than eighty hours, approved by the secretary. Reciprocity may be arranged, in granting emergency medical technician certificates, with a national certifying organization whose standards are at least equal to those established by the secretary.

The certificate shall be valid for a period of three years and may be renewed at expiration upon proof that the holder has met postcertification, continuing education requirements adopted by the secretary and upon passing an examination approved by the secretary. [1982 c 53 § 1; 1979 ex.s. c 261 § 11; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 11.]

18.73.120 Certificate of advanced first aid qualification. The secretary shall recognize a current certificate of advanced first aid qualification for those who provide proof of advanced Red Cross training or its equivalent. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 12; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 12.]

18.73.130 Ambulance operator, ambulance director, first aid vehicle operator or first aid director licenses—Required—Exceptions—Duration—Renewal. An ambulance operator, ambulance director, first aid vehicle operator or first aid director may not operate a service in the state of Washington without holding a license for such operation, issued by the secretary when such operation is consistent with the comprehensive plan established pursuant to RCW 18.73.070, indicating the general area to be served and the number of vehicles to be used, with the following exceptions:

- (1) The United States government;
- (2) Ambulance operators and ambulance directors providing service in other states when bringing patients into this state;
- (3) Owners of businesses in which ambulance or first aid vehicles are used exclusively on company property but occasionally in emergencies may bring patients to hospitals not on company property;
- (4) Operators of vehicles pressed into service for transportation of patients in emergencies when licensed ambulances are not available or cannot meet overwhelming demand.

The license shall be valid for a period of three years and shall be renewed on request provided the holder has consistently complied with the regulations of the department and the department of licensing and provided also that the needs of the area served have been met satisfactorily. The license shall not be transferable. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 13; 1979 c 158 § 61; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 13.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.140 Ambulance licenses—Issuance—Duration—Revocation—Inspections. The secretary shall approve the issuance of an ambulance license for each vehicle so designated. The license shall be for a period of one year and may be reissued on expiration if the vehicle and its operation meet requirements in force at the time of expiration of the license period. The license may be revoked if the ambulance is found to be operating in violation of the regulations promulgated by the department or without required equipment. The license shall be terminated automatically if the vehicle is sold or transferred to the control of anyone not currently licensed as an ambulance operator or ambulance director. The ambulance license number shall be prominently displayed on each vehicle.

Licensed ambulances shall be inspected periodically by the secretary at the location of the ambulance station. Inspection shall include adequacy and maintenance of medical equipment and supplies and the mechanical condition of the vehicle including its mechanical and electrical equipment. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 14; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 14.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.150 Ambulance personnel requirements. Any ambulance operated as such shall operate with sufficient personnel for adequate patient care, at least one of whom shall be an emergency medical technician under standards promulgated by the secretary. The emergency medical technician shall have responsibility for its operation and for the care of patients both before they are placed aboard the vehicle and during transit. If there are two or more emergency medical technicians operating the ambulance, a nondriving medical technician shall be in command of the vehicle. The emergency medical technician in command of the vehicle shall be in the patient compartment and in attendance to the patient.

The driver of the ambulance shall have at least a certificate of advance first aid qualification recognized by the secretary pursuant to RCW 18.73.120. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 15; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 15.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.160 First aid vehicle licenses—Issuance—Duration—Revocation—Inspections. The secretary shall approve the issuance of a first aid vehicle license for each vehicle so designated. The license shall be for a period of one year and may be reissued on expiration if the vehicle meets requirements in force at the time of expiration of the license period. The license may be revoked if the vehicle is found to be operating in violation of regulations promulgated by the department or without required equipment. The license shall be terminated automatically if the vehicle is sold or transferred to the control of anyone not currently licensed as a first aid vehicle operator or first aid director. The first aid vehicle license number shall be prominently displayed on each vehicle.

Licensed first aid vehicles shall be inspected periodically by the secretary at the location of the first aid vehicle station. Inspection shall include adequacy and maintenance of medical equipment and supplies and the mechanical condition of the vehicle, including mechanical and electrical equipment. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 16; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 16.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.170 First aid vehicles—Personnel—Use. The first aid vehicle shall be operated in accordance with standards promulgated by the secretary, by at least one person holding a certificate recognized under RCW 18.73.120.

The first aid vehicle may be used for transportation of patients only when it is impossible or impractical to obtain an ambulance or when a wait for arrival of an ambulance would place the life of the patient in jeopardy. If so used, the vehicle shall be under the command of a person holding a certificate recognized pursuant to RCW 18.73.110 other than the driver who shall be in attendance to the patient. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 17; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 17.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.180 Other transportation vehicles. Other vehicles not herein defined by this chapter shall not be used commercially or by public services for transportation of patients who must be carried on a stretcher and who may require attention en route, except that such transportation may be used when a disaster creates a situation that cannot be served by licensed ambulances. [1979 ex.s. c 261 § 18; 1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 18.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.190 Violations—Penalties. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter and for which a penalty is not provided shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or may be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 19.]

Effective date—1973 1st ex.s. c 208: See RCW 18.73.910.

18.73.200 Administrative procedure act applicable. The administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 21.]

18.73.205 First responders—Qualifications—Reciprocity—Certificates. (1) The secretary shall specify the level of knowledge required to qualify as a first responder and shall issue a certificate of qualification to those eligible applicants who (a) pass a written and practical examination given under the secretary's direction and who (b) provide proof of having graduated, with satisfactory performance, from a course of instruction of not less than forty-four hours, approved by the secretary. Reciprocity may be arranged, in granting first responder certificates, with a national certifying organization whose standards are at least equal to those established by the secretary.

(2) The certificate shall be valid for a period of three years and may be renewed at the expiration thereof (a) upon proof that the holder has met postcertification continuing education requirements adopted by the secretary and (b) upon passing an examination approved by the secretary. [1983 c 112 § 6.]

18.73.210 Legislative findings—Poisonous substances. The legislature finds that accidental and purposeful ingestions of poisonous substances continues to be a severe health problem in the state of Washington. It further finds that a significant reduction in the consequences of such accidental ingestions have occurred as a result of the development of regional poison information centers.

The purpose of RCW 18.73.210 through 18.73.230 is to reduce morbidity and mortality associated with overdose and poisoning incidents by providing emergency telephone assistance and treatment referral to victims of such incidents, by providing immediate treatment information to health care professionals, and by establishing an effective public education and prevention program. Further, the purpose is to improve utilization of drugs by providing information to health professionals relating to appropriate therapeutic drug use. [1980 c 178 § 1.]

18.73.220 Establishment of state-wide program of poison control and drug information services. As limited by the availability of *funds appropriated by this act, the department shall support the establishment of a state-wide program of poison control and drug information services with regional units to be located in the city of Seattle and the city of Spokane and satellite units that may be established in the cities of Tacoma and Yakima. The services of this program shall be:

(1) Emergency telephone management and treatment referral of victims of poisoning and overdose incidents;

(2) Information to health professionals involved in management of poisoning and overdose victims;

(3) Community education programs designed to inform the public of poison prevention methods; and

(4) Information to health professionals relating to appropriate therapeutic use of medications, their compatibility and stability, and adverse drug reactions and interactions. [1980 c 178 § 2.]

*Reviser's note: The funds appropriated by 1980 c 178 are: "In addition to, and not in lieu of, any other appropriations, there is appropriated to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1981, from the general fund the sum of two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act." [1980 c 178 § 4.] This act, 1980 c 178, is codified as RCW 18.73.210, 18.73.220, and 18.73.230.

18.73.230 Poison control and drug information program. (1) The principal activities of the poison control and drug information program shall be answering requests by telephone for poison information and making recommendations for appropriate emergency management and treatment referral of poisoning exposure and overdose victims. These services, provided around-the-clock, will involve determining whether treatment can be accomplished in the home setting or whether transport to an emergency treatment facility is required; recommending treatment measures to appropriate personnel; and carrying out follow-up to assure that adequate care is provided.

(2) Program personnel shall provide follow-up education to prevent future similar incidents. They shall also provide community education programs designed to improve public awareness of poisoning and overdose problems, and to educate the public regarding prevention.

(3) Program personnel shall answer drug information questions from health professionals by providing current, accurate, and unbiased information relating to drugs and their therapeutic uses.

(4) The program shall utilize physicians, pharmacists, nurses, and supportive personnel trained in various aspects of toxicology, poison control and prevention, and drug information retrieval and analysis. [1980 c 178 § 3.]

18.73.900 Severability—1973 1st ex.s. c 208. If any provision of this 1973 act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 20.]

The provisions of sections 1 through 8, inclusive, 11, 12, 20, 21, 22, and 23 of this 1973 act shall take effect on July 1, 1973. The provisions of sections 9, 10, and 13 through 19, inclusive, shall take effect on January 1, 1976. [1973 1st ex.s. c 208 § 22.]

Reviser's note: Sections 1 through 8 are codified as RCW 18.73.010 through 18.73.080, respectively; sections 11 and 12 as RCW 18.73.110 and 18.73.120 respectively; section 20 as RCW 18.73.900; section 21 as RCW 18.73.200; section 22 as RCW 18.73.910; sections 9 and 10 as RCW 18.73.090 and 18.73.100, respectively; sections 13 through 19 as RCW 18.73.130 through 18.73.190, respectively.

18.74.003 Regulation of health care professions—
Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.74.005 Purpose. In order to safeguard the public safety and welfare, to protect the public from being misled by incompetent, unethical, and unauthorized persons, and to assure the highest degree of professional conduct and competency, it is the purpose of this chapter to strengthen existing regulation of persons offering physical therapy services to the public. [1983 c 116 § 1.]

18.74.010 Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of physical therapy created by RCW 18.74.020.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(4) "Physical therapy" means the treatment of any bodily or mental condition of any person by the use of the physical, chemical, and other properties of heat, cold, air, light, water, electricity, sound, massage, and therapeutic exercise, which includes posture and rehabilitation procedures; the performance of tests and measurements of neuro muscular function as an aid to the diagnosis or treatment of any human condition; performance of treatments on the basis of test findings after consultation with and periodic review by an authorized health care practitioner; supervision of selective forms of treatment by trained supportive personnel; and provision of consultative services for health, education, and community agencies. The use of Roentgen rays and radium for diagnostic and therapeutic purposes, the use of electricity for surgical purposes, including cauterization, and chiropractic practices as defined by RCW 18.25.005, which include the adjustment or manipulation of the articulations of the spine and its immediate articulations or mobilization of these articulations by use of a thrusting force, are not included under the term "physical therapy" as used in this chapter.

(5) "Physical therapist" means a person who practices physical therapy as defined in this chapter but does not include massage operators as defined in RCW 18.108.010.

(6) Words importing the masculine gender may be applied to females.

(7) "Authorized health care practitioner" means and includes licensed physicians, osteopathic physicians, chiropractors, naturopaths, podiatrists, and dentists: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be construed as altering the scope of practice of such practitioners as defined in their respective licensure laws. [1983 c 116 § 2; 1961 c 64 § 1; 1949 c 239 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-1.]

Number and gender: RCW 1.12.050.

18.74.020 Board created—Members—Staff assistance—Compensation and travel expenses. The state board of physical therapy is hereby created. The board shall consist of five members who shall be appointed by the governor. Of the initial appointments, two shall be appointed for a term of two years, two for a term of three years, and one for a term of four years. Thereafter, all appointments shall be for terms of four years. Four members of the board shall be physical therapists licensed under this chapter and residing in this state, shall have not less than five years' experience in the practice of physical therapy, and shall be actively engaged in practice within two years of appointment. The fifth member shall be appointed from the public at large, shall have an interest in the rights of consumers of health services, and shall not be or have been a member of any other licensing board, a licensee of any health occupation board, an employee of any health facility nor derive his primary livelihood from the provision of health services at any level of responsibility. In the event that a member of the board for any reason cannot complete his term of office, another appointment shall be made by the governor in accordance with the procedure stated above to fill the remainder of the term. No member may serve for more than two successive four-year terms.

The director of licensing shall furnish such secretarial, clerical and other assistance as the board may require. Each member of the board shall, in addition to travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03-.060, be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03-.240. [1984 c 287 § 46; 1983 c 116 § 3; 1979 c 158 § 62; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 44; 1949 c 239 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-2.]

Severability—Effective date—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.74.023 Board—Powers and duties. The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To administer examinations to applicants for a license under this chapter.

(2) To pass upon the qualifications of applicants for a license and to certify to the director duly qualified applicants.

(3) To approve, deny, restrict, suspend, or revoke authorization to practice under this chapter.

(4) To make such rules not inconsistent with the laws of this state as may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(5) To establish and administer requirements for continuing professional education as may be necessary or proper to ensure the public health and safety and which may be a prerequisite to granting and renewing a license under this chapter.

(6) To establish rules fixing standards of professional conduct.

(7) To keep an official record of all its proceedings, which record shall be evidence of all proceedings of the board which are set forth therein.

(8) To adopt rules not inconsistent with the laws of this state, when it deems appropriate, in response to questions put to it by professional health associations, physical therapists, and consumers in this state concerning the authority of physical therapists to perform particular acts. [1983 c 116 § 4.]

18.74.027 Board—Officers—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall elect from its members a chairperson and vice chairperson-secretary, who shall serve for one year and until their successors are elected. The board shall meet at least once a year and upon the call of the chairperson at such times and places as the chairperson designates. Three members constitute a quorum of the full board for the transaction of any business. Meetings of the board shall be open and public, except the board may hold executive sessions to the extent permitted by chapter 42.30 RCW. [1983 c 116 § 5.]

18.74.028 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of physical therapy may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 43.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.74.030 Qualifications of applicants. An applicant for a license as a physical therapist shall have the following minimum qualifications:

(1) Be of good moral character; and

(2) Have obtained either (a) a baccalaureate degree in physical therapy from an institution of higher learning approved by the board or (b) a baccalaureate degree from an institution of higher learning and a certificate or advanced degree from a school of physical therapy approved by the board.

The applicant shall present proof of qualification to the board in the manner and on the forms prescribed by it. [1983 c 116 § 6; 1961 c 64 § 2; 1949 c 239 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-3.]

18.74.035 Examinations—Scope—Time and place. All qualified applicants for a license as a physical therapist shall be examined by the board at such time and place as the board may determine. The examination shall embrace the following subjects: The applied sciences of anatomy, neuroanatomy, kinesiology, physiology, pathology, psychology, physics; physical therapy, as defined in this chapter, applied to medicine, neurology, orthopedics, pediatrics, psychiatry, surgery; medical ethics; technical procedures in the practice of physical therapy as defined in this chapter; and such other subjects as the board may deem useful to test the applicant's fitness to practice physical therapy, but not including the adjustment or manipulation of the spine or use of a thrusting force as mobilization. Examinations shall be held within the state at least once a year, at such time and place as the board shall determine. An applicant who fails an examination may apply for reexamination upon payment of a reexamination fee determined by the director. [1983 c 116 § 7; 1961 c 64 § 3.]

18.74.040 Licenses. The director of licensing shall license as a physical therapist, and shall furnish a license to each applicant who successfully passes the examination for licensure as a physical therapist. [1983 c 116 § 8; 1949 c 239 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-4.]

18.74.050 Licenses—Fees. The director shall furnish a license upon the authority of the board to any person who applies and who has qualified under the provisions of this chapter. At the time of applying, the applicant shall pay to the state treasurer a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, provided no person registered or licensed on July 24, 1983, as a physical therapist shall be required to pay an additional fee for a license under this chapter. [1985 c 7 § 63; 1983 c 116 § 9; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 65; 1961 c 64 § 4; 1949 c 239 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-5.]

18.74.060 Reciprocity. Upon the recommendation of the board, the director shall license as a physical therapist and shall furnish a license to any person who is a physical therapist registered or licensed under the laws of another state or territory, or the District of Columbia, if the qualifications for such registration or license required of the applicant were substantially equal to the requirements under this chapter. At the time of making application, the applicant shall pay to the state treasurer a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 64; 1983 c 116 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 66; 1961 c 64 § 5; 1949 c 239 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-6.]

18.74.065 Licenses—Issuance to persons licensed or registered prior to July 24, 1983. Any person holding a valid license or certificate of registration to practice physical therapy issued by authority of this state prior to July 24, 1983, shall be issued a license under this chapter. [1983 c 116 § 11.]

18.74.070 Renewal of license—Lapsed license—Fees. Every licensed physical therapist shall apply to the director for a renewal of the license and pay to the state treasurer a fee determined by the director as provided in *RCW 43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended. The license of a physical therapist who fails to renew the license within thirty days of the date set by the director for renewal shall automatically lapse. Within three years from the date of lapse and upon the recommendation of the board, the director may revive a lapsed license upon the payment of all past unpaid renewal fees and a penalty fee to be determined by the director. The board may require reexamination of an applicant whose license has lapsed for more than three years and who has not continuously engaged in lawful practice in another state or territory, or waive reexamination in favor of evidence of continuing education satisfactory to the board. [1983 c 116 § 12; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 67; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 13; 1961 c 64 § 6; 1949 c 239 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-7.]

*Reviser's note: RCW 43.24.085 was repealed by 1983 c 168 § 13. See RCW 43.24.086 for establishment of fees by the director of licensing.

18.74.080 Restriction, suspension, or revocation of license—Reissuance. After a hearing and upon the recommendation of the board, the director of licensing shall refuse to grant a license to any physical therapist or shall restrict, suspend, or revoke the license of any physical therapist if the physical therapist:

(1) Has been found guilty of a felony for violating any state or federal drug or controlled substance law;

(2) Has been found guilty of any crime involving moral turpitude;

(3) Has obtained or attempted to obtain a license by fraud, deceit, or material misrepresentation;

(4) Is found guilty of fraud, deceit, or negligence or incompetency in the practice of physical therapy or in the supervision of supportive personnel engaged in physical therapy which results in serious harm to a patient, or any act derogatory to the profession of physical therapy;

(5) Has entered into a contract or arrangement which provides for the payment of an unearned fee to a person following the referral of a patient;

(6) Has knowingly engaged in an act which, before it was committed, had been determined to be beyond the scope of the practice of physical therapy; or

(7) Wilfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted thereunder.

Upon recommendation of the board, the department shall reissue a license that has been restricted, suspended, or revoked under this section. Application for reissuance of such license shall not be considered prior to one year from the date of the board's action and shall be made in such manner as the board may specify. [1983 c 116 § 13; 1961 c 64 § 7; 1949 c 239 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163-8.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.74.082 Suspension or restriction of license for mental incompetency or illness or physical condition—Examination—Implied consent—Reinstatement. (1) If a licensed physical therapist is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, the physical therapist shall automatically have his license suspended by the department upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) (a) If it appears to the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physical therapist who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, or excessive use of intoxicating liquor, drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon the physical therapist and a notice shall be given to the physical therapist that a hearing will be held on the sole issue of the capacity of the physical therapist to adequately conduct a practice. If the board determines that the physical therapist is unable to adequately conduct a practice, the director, upon recommendation of the board, shall suspend or restrict the license of the physical therapist, or impose such conditions on the conduct of the physical therapist's practice as the board finds to be appropriate for the protection of the public.

(b) In enforcing this section, the board, upon probable cause, has authority to compel a physical therapist to submit to a mental and/or physical examination by one or more physicians and/or a psychological evaluation by one or more licensed psychologists designated by the board. In addition to any examinations ordered by the board, the physical therapist may submit psychiatric, physical, and psychological examination reports from physicians or psychologists of the physical therapist's choosing and expense. Failure of a physical therapist to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of the physical therapist's license, whereupon a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the physical therapist's control. A physical therapist affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate to the board that the therapist can resume the practice of physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(c) For the purpose of this section, a physical therapist licensed under this chapter or who applies for a license under this chapter is deemed to consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitutes privileged communications.

(d) In a proceeding under this section, neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board may be used against a licensed physical therapist in any other proceeding. [1983 c 116 § 15.]

18.74.084 Investigations—Duty to cooperate. It is the duty of a physical therapist licensed under this chapter against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

- (1) Furnishing papers or documents;
- (2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint; and
- (3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Failure to comply with this section is unprofessional conduct. [1983 c 116 § 14.]

18.74.086 Hearings conducted under chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall conduct all hearings pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. [1983 c 116 § 16.]

18.74.088 Appeal from decision of board or department. A person aggrieved by the refusal of the department to issue or renew a physical therapist license, by the restriction, suspension, or revocation of a physical therapist license, or by any law administered under this chapter, has the right of appeal in the manner provided by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1983 c 116 § 17.]

18.74.090 False advertising—Use of name and words—Duty of attorney general and prosecuting attorneys—Penalty. A person who is not licensed with the director of licensing as a physical therapist under the requirements of this chapter shall not represent himself as being so licensed and shall not use in connection with his name the words or letters "P.T.", "R.P.T.", "L.P.T.", "physical therapy", "physiotherapy", "physical therapist" or "physiotherapist", or any other letters, words, signs, numbers, or insignia indicating or implying that he is a physical therapist. Any person who practices or attempts to practice as or hold himself out as practicing as a physical therapist in this state without having at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked license as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor: Provided, That nothing in this chapter prohibits any person licensed in this state under any other act from engaging in the practice for which he or she is licensed. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county to prosecute all cases involving a violation of this chapter arising within his county. The attorney general may assist in such prosecution and shall appear at all hearings when requested to do so by the board. [1983 c 116 § 18; 1961 c 64 § 8; 1949 c 239 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163–9.]

False advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

18.74.095 False advertising—Injunctions. If any person violates the provisions of this chapter, the attorney general, prosecuting attorney, the director, the board, or any citizen of the same county, may maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin such person from practicing or holding himself out as practicing physical therapy. The injunction shall not relieve criminal prosecution but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender for criminal prosecution and the suspension or revocation of his license. [1983 c 116 § 19; 1961 c 64 § 9.]

18.74.100 False representation—Penalty. A person who obtains or attempts to obtain a license as a physical therapist by any wilful misrepresentation or any fraudulent representation shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1983 c 116 § 20; 1949 c 239 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163–10.]

Criminal impersonation: RCW 9A.60.040.

18.74.120 Record of proceedings—Register. The director of licensing shall keep a record of proceedings under this chapter and a register of all persons licensed under it. The register shall show the name of every living licensed physical therapist, his last known place of residence, and the date and number of his license as a physical therapist. [1983 c 116 § 21; 1979 c 158 § 63; 1977 c 75 § 11; 1949 c 239 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10163–12.]

18.74.125 Construction of chapter—Activities not prohibited—Use of letters or words in connection with name. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person licensed in this state under any other act from engaging in the practice for which he is licensed. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit any person who, at any time prior to January 1, 1961 was practicing any healing or manipulative art in the state of Washington and designating the same as physical therapy or physiotherapy, from continuing to do so after the passage of this amendatory act: Provided, That no such person shall represent himself as being registered and shall not use in connection with his name the words or letters "registered" or "licensed" or "R.P.T." [1961 c 64 § 10.]

Reviser's note: The language "after the passage of this amendatory act" refers to chapter 64, Laws of 1961 which passed the House March 1, 1961, passed the Senate February 27, 1961, approved by the governor March 6, 1961, and became effective at midnight June 7, 1961.

18.74.130 Practices and services not regulated or prohibited by chapter. This chapter does not prohibit or regulate:

(1) The practice of physical therapy by students enrolled in approved schools as may be incidental to their course of study so long as such activities do not go beyond the scope of practice defined by this chapter.

(2) Auxiliary services provided by physical therapy aides carrying out duties necessary for the support of physical therapy including those duties which involve minor physical therapy services when performed under the direct supervision of licensed physical therapists so long as such activities do not go beyond the scope of practice defined by this chapter.

(3) The practice of physical therapy by licensed or registered physical therapists of other states or countries while appearing as clinicians of bona fide educational seminars sponsored by physical therapy, medical, or other healing art professional associations so long as such activities do not go beyond the scope of practice defined by this chapter.

(4) The practice of physical therapists in the armed services or employed by any other branch of the federal government. [1983 c 116 § 22.]

18.74.900 Severability—1949 c 239. If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable. [1949 c 239 § 13.]

18.74.910 Severability—1961 c 64. If any provision of this amendatory act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this amendatory act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this amendatory act are declared to be severable. [1961 c 64 § 11.]

18.74.911 Severability—1983 c 116. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 116 § 24.]

18.78.003 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.78.005 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to protect the health of the general public and to provide for the establishment and enforcement of standards for licensing practical nurses. Any person offering to practice as a licensed practical nurse in this state shall be licensed as provided in this chapter. [1983 c 55 § 1.]

18.78.010 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

- (1) "Board" shall mean "Washington state board of practical nursing."
- (2) "Curriculum" means the theoretical and practical studies which must be taught in order for students to meet the minimum standards of competency as determined by the board.
- (3) "Director" shall mean "director of licensing."

(4) "Licensed practical nurse," abbreviated "L.P.N.," means a person licensed by the board to practice practical nursing.

(5) "Licensed practical nurse practice" shall mean the performance of services requiring the knowledge, skill, and judgment necessary for carrying out selected aspects of the designated nursing regimen under the direction of a licensed physician and surgeon, dentist, osteopathic physician and surgeon, or podiatrist or at the direction and under the supervision of a registered nurse.

(6) "Supervision" shall mean the critical evaluation of acts performed with authority to take corrective action, but shall not be construed so as to require direct and bodily presence. [1983 c 55 § 2; 1967 c 79 § 1; 1963 c 15 § 1; 1949 c 222 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-27.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Persons having previous qualifications—1949 c 222: "The director, upon certification of the board, shall issue a license to practice as a practical nurse to any person who shall submit to the board on or before January 1, 1950, written evidence, verified under oath, that such applicant:

- (1) Is twenty years of age;
- (2) Is a citizen of the United States or who has applied for citizenship, and a resident of the state of Washington;
- (3) Is of good moral character;
- (4) Has had two years' or more experience in the care of the sick preceding the passing of this act, and who submits with his or her application for a license affidavits of two licensed physicians or two registered professional nurses in this state, or of one of each, that said licensed physicians or registered nurses have personal knowledge of the applicant's qualifications, and that said applicant has been so engaged as a practical nurse.

The right to obtain a license as a practical nurse as provided in this section shall not continue after January 1, 1950." [1949 c 222 § 8.]

18.78.020 Board of practical nursing created. There is hereby created a board to be known and designated as the "Washington state board of practical nursing." The board shall be composed of five members, appointed by the governor as follows:

(1) Two members shall be licensed registered nurses who have no less than five years' experience in the practice of nursing, one of whom shall be a registered nurse actively engaged in instructing in an approved practical nursing course, and one of whom shall be a registered nurse supervisor of licensed practical nurses;

(2) There shall be one public member who does not derive his or her livelihood primarily from the provision of health services and is not:

(a) A present or former member of another licensing board;

(b) A licensed health professional; or

(c) An employee of a health care facility;

(3) Two members shall be licensed practical nurses who shall have had not less than five years' actual experience as a licensed practical nurse and who have practiced as a practical nurse within two years of appointment. [1983 c 55 § 3; 1967 c 79 § 2; 1949 c 222 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-28.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.78.030 Terms of members—Vacancies. On July 24, 1983, the members of the board shall be appointed to serve as follows:

(1) One licensed practical nurse for a term of five years;

(2) One registered nurse for a term of four years;

(3) One licensed practical nurse for a term of three years;

(4) One registered nurse for a term of two years; and

(5) One public member for a term of one year.

Thereafter all appointments shall be for terms of five years each. Vacancies occurring on the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the governor, who also may remove any member from the board for neglect of duty required by law, or for incompetency or unprofessional or disorderly conduct. [1983 c 55 § 4; 1949 c 222 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-29.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.040 Compensation and travel expenses of board members—Officers. Each board member shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be paid travel expenses while away from home in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The members of the board shall appoint a chairman and a secretary from among its entire members, who shall serve until his or her successor is appointed by the board. [1984 c 287 § 47; 1983 c 55 § 5; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 45; 1967 c 188 § 4; 1949 c 222 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-30.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Executive secretary of board: RCW 18.78.100.

18.78.050 Duties of board—Rules. The board shall conduct examinations for all applicants for licensure under this chapter and shall certify qualified applicants to the department of licensing for licensing. The board shall also determine and formulate what constitutes the curriculum for an approved practical nursing program preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement. The board or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW may conduct hearings for the suspension or revocation of licenses.

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. [1983 c 55 § 6; 1979 c 158 § 64; 1967 c 79 § 3; 1949 c 222 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-31.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.053 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of practical nursing may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 44.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.78.055 Practical nursing programs—Approval—Surveys. If in the opinion of the board the curriculum of a program of practical nursing meets the requirements of the board, the program shall be approved.

All approved practical nursing programs in the state shall be surveyed and the board shall review written reports of each survey. The surveys shall be conducted periodically as determined by the board. If the board determines that an approved practical nursing program is not maintaining the curriculum standards required for approval, the board shall give written notice specifying the deficiencies. Failure to correct the deficiencies within a period of time specified by the board shall result in the suspension of the program's approval. [1983 c 55 § 7.]

18.78.060 Qualifications of applicants for license—Examination. An applicant for a license to practice nursing as a licensed practical nurse shall submit to the board written evidence, on a form provided by the board, verified under oath, that the applicant:

- (1) Is at least eighteen years of age;
- (2) Is of good moral character;
- (3) Is of good physical and mental health;
- (4) Has completed at least a tenth grade course or its equivalent, as determined by the board;
- (5) Has completed an approved program of not less than nine months for the education of practical nurses, or its equivalent, as determined by the board.

To be licensed as a practical nurse, each applicant shall be required to pass an examination in such subjects as the board may determine within the scope of and commensurate with the work to be performed by a licensed practical nurse. Any applicant failing to pass such an examination may apply for reexamination. Upon passing such an examination as determined by the board, the director shall issue to the applicant a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse, providing the license fee is paid by the applicant and the applicant meets all other requirements of the board. [1983 c 55 § 8; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 26; 1963 c 15 § 2; 1949 c 222 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-32.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.78.070 Licenses for persons from other states and foreign countries. The director may issue a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse without examination to any applicant who has been duly licensed as a licensed practical nurse by examination under the laws of another state. An applicant graduated from a nursing program outside the United States and licensed by a country outside the United States shall meet all qualifications required by this chapter and by the board and shall pass an examination to be determined by the board. [1983 c 55 § 9; 1949 c 222 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-33.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.080 License fee. All applicants applying for a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse with or without examination, as provided in this chapter, shall pay a license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 to the department of licensing: Provided, however, That the applicant applying for a reexamination shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 65; 1979 c 158 § 65; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 68; 1963 c 15 § 3; 1949 c 222 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-35.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.090 Renewal. Every licensed practical nurse in this state shall renew the license with the department of licensing and shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Any failure to register and pay the renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor and upon payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, together with all delinquent license renewal fees. [1985 c 7 § 66; 1983 c 55 § 10; 1979 c 158 § 66; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 69; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 14; 1967 c 79 § 4; 1963 c 15 § 4; 1949 c 222 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-36.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.100 Executive secretary of board—Qualifications. After consultation with the board, the director shall appoint an executive secretary of the board to carry out the provisions of this chapter who shall have the following qualifications:

- (1) Be a registered nurse in the state of Washington;
- (2) Be the holder of a baccalaureate degree from an accredited four-year institution of higher education;
- (3) Have not less than five years' experience in the field of nursing; and
- (4) Have not less than two years' experience in nursing education. [1983 c 55 § 11; 1971 c 68 § 1; 1949 c 222 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-37.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.110 Compensation of executive secretary—Clerical assistance. The director shall fix the compensation and provide for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended for the executive secretary of the board and shall provide such clerical assistance as said director may deem necessary. [1983 c 55 § 12; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 46; 1949 c 222 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-38.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.78.135 Denial, revocation, or suspension of license—Grounds—Reissuance. The department shall deny, revoke, or suspend a license on a recommendation of the board based upon any of the following findings that the applicant or licensee:

- (1) Procured or attempted to procure the license by fraud, deceit, or misrepresentation;
- (2) Pleaded guilty to any gross misdemeanor or felony involving drugs or was convicted of any felony relating to the person's practice as a practical nurse;
- (3) Is habitually intemperate in the use of drugs, controlled substances, or any other substance which impairs the performance of the person's practical nursing duties;
- (4) Distributed drugs for illegitimate purposes;
- (5) Removed drugs from the supply of an institution or patient for the person's own use or for any other improper purpose;
- (6) Exhibits behavior which may be due to poor physical or mental health which creates an undue risk that the person, as a practical nurse, would cause harm to him or herself or other persons;
- (7) Had a practical nursing license revoked or suspended and not reinstated in any state, territory, or possession of the United States or in any foreign country;
- (8) Committed gross negligence in nursing practice;
- (9) Engaged in any act inconsistent with good practical nursing practice;
- (10) Knowingly engaged in any act which at the time it was committed was beyond the scope of that person's nursing practice according to rules adopted under this chapter; or
- (11) Wilfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter or rules adopted under this chapter.

Upon the board's recommendation, the department shall reissue a license that has been revoked or suspended under this section. Application for the reissuance of a license shall not be considered within one year after revocation and shall be made in a manner the board may specify. [1983 c 55 § 13.]

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.78.145 Hearings—Decisions and orders. Hearings under this chapter shall be held at locations determined by the board. Testimony by deposition may be admitted under rules adopted by the board.

The board shall file a copy of its decision and order, including its findings of fact and conclusions of law, with the department. A written order of license revocation or suspension signed by the chairman of the board or the director and stating the grounds for revocation or suspension shall be served on the licensee. [1983 c 55 § 14.]

18.78.155 Appeal—Application of chapter 34.04 RCW. Any person feeling aggrieved by the refusal of the board to issue any license provided for in this chapter, or to renew the same, or by the revocation or suspension of the license issued under the provisions of this chapter, or any law being administered under this chapter, has the right of appeal in the manner provided by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. [1983 c 55 § 20.]

18.78.160 Limitation of practice—Activities not covered by chapter. This chapter shall not be construed as conferring authority to practice medicine or surgery, or to practice as a registered nurse, or to undertake the treatment or cure of disease, pain, injury, deformity or physical condition; nor shall it be construed to prohibit:

- (1) The incidental care of the sick by domestic servants or persons primarily employed as housekeepers, if they do not practice practical nursing within the meaning of this chapter;
- (2) The domestic administration of family remedies or the furnishing of nursing assistance in case of emergency;
- (3) Practical nurse practice by students enrolled in approved schools if incidental to their course of study, nor shall it prohibit these students from working as nursing aides;
- (4) Auxiliary services provided by persons performing duties necessary for the support of nursing service including those duties which involve minor nursing services for persons performed in hospitals, nursing homes, or elsewhere under the direction of licensed physicians or the supervision of registered nurses;
- (5) The practice of nursing in this state by a practical nurse legally qualified in another state or territory of the United States whose engagement requires the person to accompany and care for a patient temporarily residing in this state during the period of one engagement not to exceed six months, if the person does not represent himself or herself as a nurse licensed to practice in this state;
- (6) Nursing or care of the sick, with or without compensation, when done in connection with the practice of the religious tenets of any church by its adherents if they do not engage in practical nurse practice as defined in this chapter; or
- (7) The practice, while in the course of official duties, of any legally qualified practical nurse of another state who is employed by the United States government or any of its bureaus, divisions, or agencies. [1983 c 55 § 15; 1949 c 222 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-43.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.165 Reported violations—Investigations. Reported violations of this chapter shall be investigated by the department or the board, as appropriate. If the department or board finds that a violation has occurred, it may report its finding to the prosecuting attorney for the county in which the violation took place for prosecution. The department shall also report a finding of violation to the board. [1983 c 55 § 18.]

18.78.170 Penalty for practice without license. It shall be a gross misdemeanor for any person to practice nursing as a licensed practical nurse in this state unless such person shall have first obtained a license from the board. [1983 c 55 § 16; 1967 c 79 § 5; 1949 c 222 § 18; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-44.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.175 Injunctions to prevent violations. If any person engages in licensed practical nurse practice without possessing a valid license so to do, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the board, the director, or any citizen may maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin such person from engaging in licensed practical nurse practice. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution. [1983 c 55 § 17; 1967 c 79 § 7.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.182 Licensed practical nurses may administer medications, etc., under supervision. A licensed practical nurse under his or her license may perform nursing care (as that term is usually understood) of the ill, injured, or infirm, and in the course thereof is authorized, under the direction and supervision of a licensed physician and surgeon, osteopathic physician and surgeon, dentist, podiatrist (acting within the scope of his license), or at the direction and under the supervision of a registered nurse, to administer drugs, medications, treatments, tests, injections, and inoculations, whether or not the piercing of tissues is involved and whether or not a degree of independent judgment and skill is required, when selected to do so by one of the licensed practitioners designated in this section, or by a registered nurse who need not be physically present; provided the order given by such physician, dentist, or podiatrist be reduced to writing within a reasonable time and made a part of the patient's record. [1983 c 55 § 19; 1971 c 68 § 2; 1967 c 79 § 6.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Authority of registered nurses: RCW 18.88.285.

18.78.900 Severability—1949 c 222. Should any section of this chapter, or any portion of any section, for any reason be held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. [1949 c 222 § 19.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.78.901 Severability—1983 c 55. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 55 § 22.]

Reviser's note: The powers and duties of the examining board of psychology are scheduled for termination under chapter 43.131 RCW, the Sunset Act. See RCW 43.131.323. The board of psychologist examiners was redesignated the examining board of psychology by 1984 c 279 § 75 [RCW 18.83.010].

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

18.83.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.83.010 Definitions. When used in this chapter:

(1) The "practice of psychology" means the application of established principles of learning, motivation, perception, thinking and emotional relationships to problems of evaluation, group relations and behavior adjustment, including but not limited to: (a) counseling and guidance; (b) use of psychotherapeutic techniques with clients who have adjustment problems in the family, at school, at work or in interpersonal relationships; (c) measuring and testing of personality, intelligence, aptitudes, emotions, public opinion, attitudes and skills.

This definition does not include the teaching of principles of psychology for accredited educational institutions, or the conduct of research in problems of human or animal behavior.

Nothing in this definition shall be construed as permitting the administration or prescribing of drugs or in any way infringing upon the practice of medicine and surgery as defined in chapter 18.71 RCW.

(2) "Director" means director of licensing.

(3) "Board" means the examining board of psychology.

(4) "Committee" means the disciplinary committee established by the board.

(5) "Department" means the department of licensing. [1984 c 279 § 75; 1979 c 158 § 67; 1965 c 70 § 1; 1955 c 305 § 1.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.020 License required—Use of "psychology" or terms of like import. (1) To safeguard the people of the state of Washington from the dangers of unqualified and improper practice of psychology, it shall be unlawful for any person unless exempted from the provisions of this chapter, to represent himself to be a psychologist without first obtaining a license as provided in this chapter.

(2) A person represents himself to be a psychologist when he adopts or uses any title or any description of services which incorporates one or more of the following terms: "psychology," "psychological," "psychologist," or any term of like import. [1965 c 70 § 2; 1955 c 305 § 2.]

18.83.025 Director—Authority. The director has the following authority:

(1) To hire such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter;

(2) To establish fees to be paid for witnesses, expert witnesses, and consultants used in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding, and to reimburse the individuals for services provided. [1984 c 279 § 87.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.035 Examining board—Composition—Terms—Chairperson. There is created the examining board of psychology which shall examine the qualifications of applicants for licensing. The board shall consist of seven psychologists and two public members, all appointed by the governor. The public members shall not be and have never been psychologists or in training to be psychologists; they may not have any household member who is a psychologist or in training to be a psychologist; they may not participate or ever have participated in a commercial or professional field related to psychology, nor have a household member who has so participated; and they may not have had within two years before appointment a substantial financial interest in a person regulated by the board. Each psychologist member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States who has actively practiced psychology in the state of Washington for at least three years immediately preceding appointment and who is licensed under this chapter. Each member of the board shall serve for a term of five years. The members of the first board appointed after June 7, 1984, shall determine by lot psychologist members to serve for five, four, and three year terms to stagger the terms, with members of the board existing on June 7,

1984, serving the shorter terms. Public members of the first board appointed after June 7, 1984, shall choose one to serve for five years and one to serve for four years. Upon the death, resignation, or removal of a member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for the unexpired term. The board shall elect one of its members to serve as chairperson. [1984 c 279 § 76.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.045 Examining board—Meetings—Quorum. The board shall meet at least once each year and at such other times as the board deems appropriate to properly discharge its duties. All meetings shall be held in Olympia, Washington, or such other places as may be designated by the director. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum, except that oral examinations may be conducted with only three psychologist members. [1984 c 279 § 77.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.050 Examining board—Powers and duties. (1) The board shall adopt such rules as it deems necessary to carry out its functions.

(2) The board shall examine the qualifications of applicants for licensing under this chapter, to determine which applicants are eligible for licensing hereunder and shall forward to the director the names of applicants so eligible.

(3) The board shall administer examinations to qualified applicants on at least an annual basis. The board shall determine the subject matter and scope of the examinations and shall require both written and oral examinations of each applicant, except as provided in RCW 18.83.170. The board may allow applicants to take the written examination upon the granting of their doctoral degree before completion of their internship for supervised experience.

(4) The board shall keep a complete record of its own proceedings, of the questions given in examinations, of the names and qualifications of all applicants, and the names and addresses of all licensed psychologists. The examination paper of such applicant shall be kept on file for a period of at least one year after examination.

(5) The board shall, by rule, adopt a code of ethics for psychologists which is designed to protect the public interest.

(6) The board shall create a disciplinary committee within the board for the purposes of hearing, examining, and ruling on complaints and evidence of unethical conduct or practices brought by the public, other psychologists, organizations, corporations, public or private agencies, or officers, agencies, or instrumentalities of state, county, or local governments. [1984 c 279 § 78; 1965 c 70 § 5; 1955 c 305 § 5.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.051 Examining board—Compensation and travel expenses. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and in addition thereto shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in carrying out the duties of the board in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 48; 1983 c 168 § 10; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 48; 1969 ex.s. c 199 § 19; 1965 c 70 § 21.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—1983 c 168: See RCW 18.120.910.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.83.053 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act.

The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 45.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.060 Application for license—Fee. Each applicant for a license shall file with the director an application duly verified, in such form and setting forth such information as the board shall prescribe. An application fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall accompany each application. [1984 c 279 § 79; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 72; 1965 c 70 § 6; 1955 c 305 § 6.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.070 Applicants—Qualifications—Examination. An applicant for a license as "psychologist" must submit proof to the board that:

(1) The applicant is of good moral character.

(2) The applicant holds a doctoral degree from a regionally accredited institution, obtained from an integrated program of graduate study in psychology as defined by rules of the board.

(3) The applicant has had no fewer than two years of supervised experience, at least one of which shall have been obtained subsequent to the granting of the doctoral degree. The board shall adopt rules defining the circumstances under which supervised experience shall qualify the candidate for licensure.

(4) The applicant has passed the written and oral examinations prescribed by the board.

Any person holding a valid license to practice psychology in the state of Washington on June 7, 1984, shall be considered licensed under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 80; 1965 c 70 § 7; 1955 c 305 § 7.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.072 Examinations—Where held—Applicant-board conference—Reexamination. (1) Examination of applicants shall be held in Olympia, Washington, or at such other place as designated by the director, at least annually at such times as the board may determine.

(2) Any applicant shall have the right to discuss with the board his or her performance on the examination.

(3) Any applicant who fails to make a passing grade on the examination may be allowed to retake the examination. Any applicant who fails the examination a second time must obtain special permission from the board to take the examination again.

(4) The reexamination fee shall be the same as the application fee set forth in RCW 18.83.060. [1984 c 279 § 81; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 15; 1965 c 70 § 20.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.080 Licenses—Issuance—Display. Upon forwarding to the director by the board of the name of each applicant entitled to a license under this chapter, the director shall promptly issue to such applicant a license authorizing such applicant to use the title "psychologist" for a period of one year. Said license shall be in such form as the director shall determine. Each licensed psychologist shall keep his license displayed in a conspicuous place in his principal place of business. [1965 c 70 § 8; 1955 c 305 § 8.]

18.83.082 Temporary permits. (1) A valid receipt for an initial application for license hereunder, provided the applicant meets the requirements of RCW 18.83.070 (1), (2), and (3), shall constitute a temporary permit to practice psychology until the board completes action on the application. The board must complete action within one year of the date such receipt is issued.

(2) A person, not licensed in this state, who wishes to perform practices under the provisions of this chapter for a period not to exceed ninety days within a calendar year, must petition the board for a temporary permit to perform such practices. If the person is licensed or certified in another state deemed by the board to have standards equivalent to this chapter, a permit may be issued. No fee shall be charged for such temporary permit. [1984 c 279 § 82; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 73; 1965 c 70 § 23.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.090 Continuing education requirements—License renewal. The board shall establish rules governing mandatory continuing education requirements which shall be met by any psychologist applying for a license renewal. Each licensed psychologist shall pay to the health professions account, created in RCW 43.24.072, annually, at such time as determined by the board, an annual license renewal fee determined by the director under RCW 43.24.086. Upon receipt of the fee, the director shall issue a certificate of renewal in such form as the director shall determine. [1984 c 279 § 83; 1977 c 58 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 74; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 16; 1965 c 70 § 9; 1955 c 305 § 9.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.100 Licenses—Failure to renew. Failure to renew a license as herein provided shall suspend such license: Provided, That a license holder whose license has been suspended for failure to renew may reinstate such license by paying to the state treasurer the renewal fees for all of the years in which such failure occurred, together with a renewal fee for the current year, but not to exceed five years. However, no renewal license shall be issued after one year from the expiration of the last valid license unless the board shall find that the applicant has not violated any provision of this chapter since his license was suspended. [1965 c 70 § 10; 1955 c 305 § 10.]

18.83.105 Certificates of qualification. The board may issue certificates of qualification with appropriate title to applicants who meet all the licensing requirements except the possession of the degree of Doctor of Philosophy or its equivalent in psychology from an accredited educational institution. These certificates of qualification certify that the holder has been examined by the board and is deemed competent to perform certain functions within the practice of psychology under the periodic direct supervision of a psychologist licensed by the board. Such functions will be specified on the certificate issued by the board. Such applicant shall pay to the board of examiners a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for certification in a single area of qualification and a fee for amendment of the certificate to include each additional area of qualification. Upon petition by a holder the board of examiners may grant authority to function without immediate supervision. [1985 c 7 § 67; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 75; 1965 c 70 § 22.]

18.83.110 Privileged communications. Confidential communications between a client and a psychologist shall be privileged against compulsory disclosure to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as confidential communications between attorney and client. [1965 c 70 § 11; 1955 c 305 § 11.]

18.83.120 Unethical practice defined. Within the meaning of this chapter unethical practice of psychology shall include any act or practice which violates the codes of ethics established by the board. In addition, the following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute the unethical practice of psychology for any licensee or applicant subject to this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, relating to the practice of psychology, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the licensee or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this subsection abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW.

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof.

(3) Advertising in a manner which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and so be harmful or injurious to public health, safety, or welfare.

(4) Incompetency or negligence in the practice of psychology which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer.

(5) Practicing psychology while under the suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction.

(6) Violation of any state statute or administrative code specifically governing the practice of psychology.

(7) Failure to cooperate with the committee by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents requested by the committee;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the committee;

(c) Not appearing before the committee at the time and place designated; or

(d) Not properly responding to subpoenas issued by the committee.

(8) Failure to comply with an order issued by the committee or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the committee.

(9) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required.

(10) Gross, wilful, or continued overcharging for professional services.

(11) Wilful or repeated violations of rules established by any health officer of the state or a political subdivision thereof.

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law.

(13) Misrepresentations or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the profession.

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's safety is at risk.

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health.

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service.

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of psychology. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW.

(18) Physically abusing or having sexual contact with a patient or client.

(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the committee.

(20) The wilful betrayal of a professional secret.

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW. [1984 c 279 § 84; 1965 c 70 § 12; 1955 c 305 § 13.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.130 Denial, suspension, revocation of license.

The board shall refuse to grant a license to any applicant and shall revoke or suspend the license of any psychologist, or place other restrictions on that psychologist's practice of psychology, for the following reasons:

(1) Commission of any act involving moral turpitude, as defined by the board by rule, dishonesty, or corruption, which relates directly to a person's fitness to practice psychology, whether that act constitutes a crime or not; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon conviction, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at any ensuing disciplinary hearing of guilt of the psychologist of the crime described in the indictment or information and of the violation of the statute upon which it is based.

(2) Failing to maintain the confidentiality of information under RCW 18.83.110.

(3) Violations of the ethical code developed by the board under RCW 18.83.050 and 18.83.120.

(4) Failing to inform prospective research subjects or their authorized representatives of the possible serious effects of participation in research; and failing to undertake reasonable efforts to remove possible harmful effects of participation.

(5) Practicing in an area of psychology for which the person is clearly untrained or incompetent.

(6) Being negligent in the practice of psychology.

(7) Failing to exercise appropriate supervision over persons who practice under the supervision of a psychologist.

(8) Using fraud or deceit in the procurement of the psychology license, or knowingly assisting another in the procurement of such a license through fraud or deceit.

(9) Engaging in the practice of psychology while the person's ability to perform professional services is significantly impaired by alcohol, drugs, illness, or other dysfunctions.

(10) Engaging in the practice of psychology when the person's psychology license has been suspended or revoked by competent authority in any other state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction when the reason for that suspension or revocation is a violation of this chapter or rules adopted by the board and its disciplinary committee.

(11) Unprofessional conduct as defined in chapter 19.68 RCW.

(12) Wilful violation of RCW 18.83.120 or *section 79 of this 1984 act or wilful disregard of the subpoena or notice of the disciplinary committee.

(13) Failure to abide by the terms of corrective actions directed under **RCW 18.83.150.

(14) Violation of any board rule fixing a standard of professional conduct. [1984 c 279 § 85; 1965 c 70 § 13; 1955 c 305 § 12.]

Reviser's note: *(1) As a result of renumbering sections when Substitute House Bill No. 1178 [1984 c 279] was enrolled, the reference to section 79 [RCW 18.83.060] is apparently erroneous. Section 88, codified as RCW 18.83.145 was apparently intended.

** (2) RCW 18.83.150 was repealed by 1984 c 279 § 93.

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.135 Disciplinary committee—Immunity—

Powers and duties. The disciplinary committee shall meet at least once each year or upon the call of the chairperson at such time and place as the chairperson designates. A quorum for transaction of any business shall consist of five members, including at least one public member.

The members of the disciplinary committee shall be immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based upon its disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in good faith as members of the committee.

The committee shall have the following authority:

(1) To order investigation of all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;

(2) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(3) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;

(5) In the course of investigating a complaint of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;

(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the committee;

(7) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings; however, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license;

(8) To use consultants or individual members of the board to assist in the direction of investigations and issuance of statements of charges; however, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case;

(9) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(10) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the committee;

(11) To grant or deny license application, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(12) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement not to violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action;

(13) To maintain records of all activities, and to publish and distribute to all psychologists at least once each year abstracts of significant activities of the committee;

(14) To obtain the written consent of the complaining client or patient or their legal representative, or of any person who may be affected by the complaint, in order to obtain information which otherwise might be confidential or privileged;

(15) To report, when appropriate, statements of complaints and disposition of cases processed by the committee to:

- (a) The person or agency initiating the action;
- (b) Appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology, including counterpart licensing boards in other states; and
- (c) The public.

This subsection does not require the reporting of any information which is exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW or is otherwise privileged or confidential.

The committee has, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in this chapter, all of the powers and duties under chapter 34.04 RCW, which include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions. [1984 c 279 § 86.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.145 Disciplinary committee—Action after hearing. The disciplinary committee may take any of the following actions as a result of investigation of a complaint and the ensuing hearing:

- (1) Revocation of the license.
- (2) Suspension of the license for a fixed term.
- (3) Restriction or limitation upon the licensee's practice.
- (4) Establishment of a requirement that a licensee complete a specified program of continuing education or reeducation.
- (5) Monitoring of the licensee's practice by a licensed psychologist or other person or organization appointed by the committee.
- (6) Censure or reprimand.
- (7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time.
- (8) Any combination of the foregoing, which may be partly or totally stayed.
- (9) Dismissal of the complaint and exoneration of the licensee.
- (10) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation.

Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account.

(11) Denial of the license request.

(12) Corrective action by the license holder.

(13) Refund of fees charged to the consumer by the license holder. [1984 c 279 § 88.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.155 Disciplinary committee—Notice of action. The committee shall report to appropriate national and state organizations which represent the profession of psychology any action taken pursuant to an investigation or hearing that finds a licensee has committed unprofessional or unethical conduct.

In the event of an order for revocation or suspension of a psychology license, or for restriction or limitation of a licensee's practice, the committee shall report such action to the public. This public notification shall be suspended for thirty days from date of filing of any appeal.

If the committee finds that a complaint against a licensee is not substantiated, or if there is no finding of unprofessional or unethical conduct, resulting in dismissal of the complaint and exoneration of the licensee, the committee shall attempt to relieve the licensee of any possible odium that may attach by reason of the complaint by such public exoneration as is necessary. [1984 c 279 § 89.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.161 Costs of enforcing disciplinary actions. Any portion or all of the costs associated with providing a psychologist or other person or organization for monitoring the conditions of probation or of the licensee's compliance with the terms of the committee's decision and order may be assessed by the committee against the licensee, in which event payment of such costs and expenses shall become a legal obligation of the licensee to the department of licensing. [1984 c 279 § 90.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.165 Appeal. Orders of the board may be appealed as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. An order, if appealed, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the committee or the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the committee, which stay shall provide terms necessary to protect the public. [1984 c 279 § 91.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.170 Reciprocity. Upon application accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, the board may grant a license, without written examination, to any applicant who has not previously failed any examination held by the board of psychology of the state of Washington and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant:

- (1) Holds a doctoral degree with primary emphasis on psychology from an accredited college or university; and
- (2) Is licensed or certified to practice psychology in another state or country in which the requirements for such licensing or certification are, in the judgment of the board, essentially equivalent to those required by this chapter and the rules and regulations of the board. Such individuals must have been licensed or certified in another state for a period of at least two years; or

(3) Is a diplomate in good standing of the American Board of Examiners in Professional Psychology. [1984 c 279 § 92; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 76; 1965 c 70 § 17; 1955 c 305 § 17.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.83.180 Penalties. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to:

(1) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a licensed psychologist unless duly licensed under or specifically excluded from the provisions of this chapter;

(2) Practice as a licensed psychologist during the time his or her license issued under the provisions of this chapter is suspended or revoked. [1965 c 70 § 18; 1955 c 305 § 18.]

18.83.190 Injunction. If any person represents himself to be a psychologist, unless exempted from the provisions of this chapter without possessing a valid license, certificated qualification, or a temporary permit to do so, or if he violates any of the provisions of this chapter any prosecuting attorney, the director, or any citizen of the same county may maintain an action in the name of the state to enjoin such person from representing himself as a psychologist. The injunction shall not relieve from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of such offender to criminal prosecution and to suspension or revocation of his license. [1965 c 70 § 24.]

18.83.200 Exemptions. This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) Any person teaching, lecturing, consulting, or engaging in research in psychology but only insofar as such activities are performed as a part of or are dependent upon a position in a college or university in the state of Washington.

(2) Any person who holds a valid school psychologist credential from the Washington state board of education but only when such a person is practicing psychology in the course of his employment.

(3) Any person employed by a local, state, or federal government agency whose psychologists must qualify for employment under federal or state certification or civil service regulations; but only at those times when that person is carrying out the functions of his employment.

(4) Any person who must qualify under the employment requirements of a business or industry and who is employed by a business or industry which is not engaged in offering psychological services to the public, but only when such person is carrying out the functions of his employment: Provided, That no person exempt from licensing under this subsection shall engage in the clinical practice of psychology.

(5) Any person who is a student of psychology, psychological intern, or resident in psychology preparing for the profession of psychology under supervision in a training institution or facilities and who is designated by the title such as "psychological trainee," "psychology student," which thereby indicates his training status.

(6) Any person who has received a doctoral degree from an accredited institution of higher learning with an adequate major in sociology or social psychology as determined by the board and who has passed comprehensive examinations in the field of social psychology as part of the requirements for the doctoral degree. Such persons may use the title "social psychologist" provided that they file a statement of their education with the board. [1965 c 70 § 19.]

18.83.210 Certain counseling or guidance not prohibited. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting any individual from offering counseling or guidance provided that such individuals do not hold themselves forth as psychologists. [1965 c 70 § 25.]

18.83.900 Severability—1965 c 70. If any provision of this 1965 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the 1965 amendatory act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1965 c 70 § 26.]

18.85.010 Definitions. In this chapter words and phrases have the following meanings unless otherwise apparent from the context:

(1) "Real estate broker," or "broker," means a person, while acting for another for commissions or other compensation or the promise thereof, or a licensee under this chapter while acting in his own behalf, who:

(a) Sells or offers for sale, lists or offers to list, buys or offers to buy real estate or business opportunities, or any interest therein, for others;

(b) Negotiates or offers to negotiate, either directly or indirectly, the purchase, sale, exchange, lease, or rental of real estate or business opportunities, or any interest therein, for others;

(c) Negotiates or offers to negotiate, either directly or indirectly, the purchase, sale, or exchange of a used mobile home in conjunction with the purchase, sale, exchange, rental, or lease of the land upon which the used mobile home is located;

(d) Advertises or holds himself out to the public by any oral or printed solicitation or representation that he is so engaged; or

(e) Engages, directs, or assists in procuring prospects or in negotiating or closing any transaction which results or is calculated to result in any of these acts;

(2) "Real estate salesman" or "salesman" means any natural person employed, either directly or indirectly, by a real estate broker, or any person who represents a real estate broker in the performance of any of the acts specified in subsection (1) of this section;

(3) An "associate real estate broker" is a person who has qualified as a "real estate broker" who works with a broker and whose license states that he is associated with a broker;

(4) The word "person" as used in this chapter shall be construed to mean and include a corporation or copartnership, except where otherwise restricted;

(5) "Business opportunity" shall mean and include business, business opportunity and good will of an existing business or any one or combination thereof;

(6) "Commission" means the real estate commission of the state of Washington;

(7) "Director" means the director of licensing;

(8) "Real estate multiple listing association" means any association of real estate brokers:

(a) Whose members circulate listings of the members among themselves so that the properties described in the listings may be sold by any member for an agreed portion of the commission to be paid; and

(b) Which require in a real estate listing agreement between the seller and the broker, that the members of the real estate multiple listing association shall have the same rights as if each had executed a separate agreement with the seller;

(9) "Clock hours of instruction" means actual hours spent in classroom instruction in any tax supported, public vocational-technical institution, community college, or any other institution of higher learning or a correspondence course from any of the aforementioned institutions certified by such institution as the equivalent of the required number of clock hours, and the real estate commission may certify courses of instruction other than in the aforementioned institutions; and

(10) "Incapacitated" means the physical or mental inability to perform the duties of broker prescribed by this chapter. [1981 c 305 § 1; 1979 c 158 § 68; 1977 ex.s. c 370 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 57 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 1; 1969 c 78 § 1; 1953 c 235 § 1; 1951 c 222 § 1; 1943 c 118 § 1; 1941 c 252 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 8340-25. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 4.]

18.85.030 Employees. The director shall appoint an adequate staff to assist him. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 2; 1951 c 222 § 2; 1945 c 111 § 1, part; 1941 c 252 § 5, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-28, part.]

18.85.040 Director—General powers and duties. The director, with the advice and approval of the commission, may issue rules and regulations to govern the activities of real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers and salesmen, consistent with this chapter, fix the times and places for holding examinations of applicants for licenses and prescribe the method of conducting them. The director shall enforce all laws, rules and regulations relating to the licensing of real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers, and salesmen, grant or deny licenses to real estate brokers, associate real estate brokers, and salesmen, hold hearings and suspend or revoke the licenses of violators and may deny, suspend or revoke the authority of a broker to act as the designated broker of persons who commit violations of the real estate license law or of the rules and regulations. The director shall institute a program of education for the benefit of the licensees. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 3; 1953 c 235 § 2; 1951 c 222 § 3; 1941 c 252 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-27. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 2.]

18.85.050 Director or employees shall not have interest in the business. Neither the director nor any employees, shall be interested in any real estate business regulated by *this 1972 amendatory act: Provided, That if any real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or salesman is employed by the director or by the commission as an employee, the license of such broker, associate real estate broker, or salesman shall not be revoked, suspended, or canceled by reason thereof. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 4; 1953 c 235 § 3; 1951 c 222 § 4; 1945 c 111 § 1, part; 1941 c 252 § 5, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-28, part.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1972 amendatory act" [1972 ex.s. c 139] consists of the amendments to RCW 18.85.010, 18.85.030, 18.85.040, 18.85.050, 18.85.060, 18.85.071, 18.85.090, 18.85.100, 18.85.110, 18.85.130, 18.85.140, 18.85.150, 18.85.161, 18.85.170, 18.85.190, 18.85.210, 18.85.230, 18.85.271, 18.85.290, and the addition of new sections codified as RCW 18.85.095, 18.85.155, and 18.85.920.

18.85.060 Director's seal. The director shall adopt a seal with the words real estate director, state of Washington, and such other device as he may approve engraved thereon, by which he shall authenticate the proceedings of his office. Copies of all records and papers in the office of the director certified to be a true copy under the hand and seal of the director shall be received in evidence in all cases equally and with like effect as the originals. The director may deputize one or more of his assistants to certify records and papers. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 5; 1941 c 252 § 8; RRS § 8340-31. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 7.]

18.85.071 Real estate commission created—Qualifications, terms, appointment of members—Vacancies. There is established the real estate commission of the state of Washington, consisting of the director of the commission and six commission members who shall act in an advisory capacity to the director.

The six commission members shall be appointed by the governor in the following manner: For a term of six years each, with the exception of the first appointees, who shall be appointed one for a term of one year, one for a term of two years, one for a term of three years, one for a term of four years, one for a term of five years, and one for a term of six years, with all other subsequent appointees to be appointed for a six year term. At least two of the commission members shall be selected from the area in the state west of the Cascade mountain range and at least two shall be selected from that area of the state east of the Cascade mountain range. No commission member shall be appointed who has had less than five years experience in the sale, operation, or management of real estate in this state, or has had at least three years experience in investigative work of a similar nature, preferably in connection with the administration of real estate license law of this state or elsewhere. Any vacancies on the commission shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired term. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 6; 1953 c 235 § 17.]

18.85.080 Real estate commission—Compensation and travel expenses. The six board members of the commission shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, plus travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 when they shall be called into session by the director or when presiding at examinations for applicants for licenses or when otherwise engaged in the business of the commission. [1984 c 287 § 49; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 49; 1953 c 235 § 4; 1951 c 222 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-37.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.85.085 Commission—Educational conferences—Examinations of applicants for licenses. The commission shall have authority to hold educational conferences for the benefit of the industry, and shall conduct examinations of applicants for licenses under this chapter. It shall be charged with the preparation of such examinations and shall administer them at least once a month, with not less than six examinations per year in each of the following six areas of the state: Northwest Washington, southwest Washington, northeast Washington, southeast Washington, north central Washington, and south central Washington. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 1; 1953 c 235 § 18.]

18.85.090 Real estate commission—Duties—Examination for broker's license—Qualifications of applicant. The commission shall be responsible for the preparation of the examination to be submitted to applicants, and shall make and file with the director a list, which may be signed by a majority of the members of the commission conducting the examination, of all applicants who successfully passed the examination and of those who failed.

Any applicant who fails to pass the examination may apply again.

No applicant shall be permitted to take the examination for a real estate broker's license without first satisfying the director that the applicant:

(1) Has had a minimum of two years of actual experience as a full time real estate salesman in this state or in another state having comparable requirements within the five years previous to applying for said examination or is, in the opinion of the director, otherwise and similarly qualified, or is otherwise qualified, by reason of practical experience in a business allied with or related to real estate;

(2) Is eighteen years of age or older;

(3) Has a high school diploma or its equivalent;

(4) Has furnished proof, as the director may require, that the applicant has completed successfully ninety clock hours of instruction in real estate. Instruction must include one course in brokerage management and one course in real estate law. Each course must be at least thirty clock hours. Courses must be completed within five years prior to applying for the examination.

The requirements of subsections (1) through (4) of this section shall not apply to persons who are licensed as brokers under any real estate license law in Washington which exists prior to this law's enactment and whose license has not been subsequently revoked: Provided, That requirements for brokers created by *this 1972 amendatory act shall apply to any person who is licensed as a salesman on or before May 23, 1972, if such person shall apply to become a broker or associate broker after May 23, 1972. [1985 c 162 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 8; 1953 c 235 § 5; 1951 c 222 § 7; 1941 c 252 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-38.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1972 amendatory act," see note following RCW 18.85.050.

18.85.095 Salesmen—Minimum qualifications of applicant—Renewal. It is hereby established that the minimum requirements for an individual to receive a salesman's license are that the individual:

(1) Is eighteen years of age or older;

(2) Is a resident of the state of Washington;

(3) Has passed a salesman's examination; and

(4) Has successfully completed a thirty clock hour course in real estate fundamentals prior to obtaining a first real estate license.

No licensed salesman shall have his license renewed a second time unless he or she furnishes proof, as the director may require, that he or she has successfully completed an additional thirty clock hours of instruction in real estate courses approved by the director.

Nothing in this section shall apply to persons who are licensed as salesmen under any real estate license law in Washington which exists prior to this law's enactment and whose license has not been subsequently revoked. [1985 c 162 § 2; 1977 ex.s. c 370 § 2; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 7.]

18.85.100 License required—Prerequisite to suit for commission. It shall be unlawful for any person to act as a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman without first obtaining a license therefor, and otherwise complying with the provisions of this chapter.

No suit or action shall be brought for the collection of compensation as a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, without alleging and proving that the plaintiff was a duly licensed real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman prior to the time of offering to perform any such act or service or procuring any promise or contract for the payment of compensation for any such contemplated act or service. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 9; 1951 c 222 § 8. Formerly: (i) 1941 c 252 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-29. (ii) 1941 c 252 § 25; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-48.]

18.85.110 Exemptions from license requirement. This chapter shall not apply to (1) any person who purchases property and/or a business opportunity for his own account, or that of a group of which he is a member, or who, as the owner or part owner of property, and/or a business opportunity, in any way disposes of the same; nor, (2) any duly authorized attorney in fact, or an attorney at law in the performance of his duties; nor, (3) any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, administrator, guardian, or any person acting under the order of any court, or selling under a deed of trust; nor, (4) any secretary, bookkeeper, accountant, or other office personnel who does not engage in any conduct or activity specified in any of the definitions under RCW 18.85-.010; nor, (5) any owner of rental or lease property, members of the owner's family whether or not residing on such property, or a resident manager of a complex of residential dwelling units wherein such manager resides; nor, (6) any person who manages residential dwelling units on an incidental basis and not as his principal source of income so long as that person does not advertise or hold himself out to the public by any oral or printed solicitation or representation that he is so engaged. [1977 ex.s. c 370 § 9; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 10; 1951 c 222 § 9; 1941 c 252 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-26. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 4.]

18.85.120 Applications—Conditions—Fees. Any person desiring to be a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman with the exception of applicants meeting the requirements of RCW 18.85-.161, must pass an examination as provided in this chapter. Such person shall make application for an examination and for a license on a form prescribed by the director. Concurrently, the applicant shall:

(1) Pay an examination fee of twenty-five dollars as directed by the director if a salesman's license is applied for and of forty dollars if a broker's license is applied for.

(2) If the applicant is a corporation, furnish a list of its officers and directors and their addresses, and if the applicant is a copartnership, a list of the members thereof and their addresses.

(3) Furnish such proof as the director may require that the applicant is a resident of the state of Washington or, if the applicant is a corporation or copartnership, that the designated broker of the corporation or copartnership is a resident of the state of Washington.

(4) Furnish such other proof as the director may require concerning the honesty, truthfulness, and good reputation, as well as the identity, including but not limited to fingerprints, of any applicants for a license, or of the officers of a corporation making the application. [1980 c 72 § 1; 1979 c 25 § 1. Prior: 1977 ex.s. c 370 §

3; 1977 ex.s. c 24 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 42 § 1; 1953 c 235 § 6; 1951 c 222 § 10. Formerly: (i) 1947 c 203 § 1, part; 1945 c 111 § 3, part; 1943 c 118 § 2, part; 1941 c 252 § 11, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-34, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 §§ 10, 11. (ii) 1947 c 203 § 3; 1945 c 111 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-39.]

18.85.130 Examinations—Scope—Manual—Disposition of moneys from sale of manual. The director shall provide each original applicant for a license with a manual containing a sample list of questions and answers pertaining to real estate law and the operation of the business and may provide the same at cost to any licensee or to other members of the public. The director shall ascertain by written examination, that each applicant, and in case of a corporation, or copartnership, that each officer, agent, or member thereof whom it proposes to act as licensee, has:

- (1) Appropriate knowledge of the English language, including reading, writing, spelling, and arithmetic;
- (2) An understanding of the principles of real estate conveyancing, the general purposes and legal effect of deeds, mortgages, land contracts of sale, exchanges, rental and option agreements, and leases;
- (3) An understanding of the principles of land economics and appraisals;
- (4) An understanding of the obligations between principal and agent;
- (5) An understanding of the principles of real estate practice and the canons of business ethics pertaining thereto; and,
- (6) An understanding of the provisions of this chapter.

The examination for real estate brokers shall be more exacting than that for real estate salesmen.

All moneys received for the sale of the manual to licensees and members of the public shall be placed in the real estate commission fund to be returned to the current biennium operating budget. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 11; 1951 c 222 § 11. Formerly: 1947 c 203 § 2, part; 1945 c 111 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 12, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-35, part.]

18.85.140 License fees—Expiration—Renewal—Identification cards. Before receiving his license every real estate broker must pay a license fee of forty dollars, every associate real estate broker must pay a license fee of forty dollars, and every real estate salesman must pay a license fee of twenty-five dollars. Every license issued under the provisions of this chapter expires on the applicant's birthday following issuance of the license which date will henceforth be the renewal date. Licenses issued to corporations and partnerships expire December 31st, which date will henceforth be their renewal date. On or before the renewal date an annual renewal license fee in the same amount must be paid.

If the application for a renewal license is not received by the director on or before the renewal date, the renewal license fee shall be fifty-five dollars for a real estate broker and associate real estate broker and thirty-five dollars for a real estate salesman. Acceptance by the director of an application for renewal after the renewal date shall not be a waiver of the delinquency.

The license of any person whose license renewal fee is not received within one year from the date of expiration shall be canceled. This person may obtain a new license by satisfying the procedures and qualifications for initial licensing, including the successful completion of any applicable examinations.

The director shall issue to each active licensee a license and a pocket identification card in such form and size as he shall prescribe. [1979 c 25 § 2. Prior: 1977 ex.s. c 370 § 4; 1977 ex.s. c 24 § 3; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 12; 1953 c 235 § 7; 1951 c 222 § 12. Formerly: (i) 1947 c 203 § 2, part; 1945 c 111 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 12, part; Rem. 18.85.150 Temporary permits. A temporary broker's permit may, in the discretion of the director, be issued to the legally accredited representative of a deceased or incapacitated broker, the senior qualified salesman in that office or other qualified representative of the deceased or incapacitated broker, which shall be valid for a period not exceeding four months and in the case of a partnership or a corporation, the same rule shall prevail in the selection of a person to whom a temporary broker's permit may be issued. [1979 c 25 § 3. Prior: 1977 ex.s. c 370 § 5; 1977 ex.s. c 24 § 4; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 13; 1953 c 235 § 8; 1951 c 222 § 13; prior: (i) 1947 c 203 § 2, part; 1945 c 111 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 12, part; Rem. 18.85.155 Responsibility for conduct of salesman, associate broker or branch manager. Responsibility for any salesman, associate broker or branch manager in conduct covered by this chapter shall rest with the broker to which such licensees shall be licensed.

In addition to the broker, a branch manager shall bear responsibility for salesmen and associate brokers operating under the branch manager at a branch office. [1977 ex.s. c 370 § 6; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 14.]

18.85.161 Nonresident brokers, salesmen—Licensing—Requirements—Reciprocity. A nonresident broker may apply for and be issued a nonresident broker's license upon compliance with all of the provisions of this chapter. He shall not be required to maintain a definite place of business within this state, but shall retain in this state all funds arising from transactions within this state, until such funds are distributed to the proper parties involved, and he shall be subject to the requirements of this chapter relating to the handling and depositing of closing funds.

Any privileges accorded herein to a nonresident shall apply only to a licensed real estate broker of two years' experience or more and only so long as the broker shall

(1) maintain an active place of business within the state of his domicile, and (2) maintain his license in good standing in the state of his domicile: Provided, That such nonresident is domiciled in a state which extends similar recognition and courtesies to licensed real estate brokers of this state. When any broker moves into this state from a state having similar reciprocal laws and desires a license, and if such broker has maintained a license in his home state in good standing prior to his moving into this state, he shall, in the discretion of the director, not be required to take the state examination for a license.

The director may waive the requirement of examination of any applicant for a license in the case of an application from a nonresident who is licensed in a state having similar requirements, under the laws of which, similar recognition and courtesies are extended to licensees of this state by mutual written agreement of the directors and commissions of the concerned states.

Salesmen employed by a nonresident broker who has been issued a nonresident broker's license may operate for such broker in this state upon payment of the license fee required of salesmen during such time as they continue licensed under the nonresident broker in this state and if such salesman maintains a license in good standing under his broker in his home state.

An applicant for a nonresident license shall irrevocably consent to having suits and actions commenced against him in any county of this state in which the plaintiff resides, and to service of any process or pleadings by delivery thereof to the director. The service shall be valid and binding upon the applicant. The consent shall be in a form prescribed by the director, acknowledged before a notary public, and, if the applicant is a corporation, shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the resolution of the board of directors authorizing the execution of the same. Any process or pleading so served upon the director shall be in duplicate. One copy shall be filed in the office of the director, and one copy shall be immediately forwarded by registered mail to the applicant's office address given in his application. Service shall be deemed to have been made upon the applicant on the third day following the deposit of the copy in the mail. [1977 ex.s. c 370 § 7; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 15; 1953 c 235 § 9; 1951 c 222 § 21.]

18.85.163 Nonresident brokers—Regulatory provisions apply. The regulatory provisions of this chapter shall apply to all nonresident brokers acting within this state. [1951 c 222 § 22.]

18.85.170 Licenses—Restrictions as to use—Exceptions. No license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall authorize any person other than the person to whom it is issued to do any act by virtue thereof nor to operate in any other manner than under his own name except:

(1) When a license is issued to a corporation it shall entitle one officer thereof, to be named by the corporation in its application, who shall qualify the same as any other agent, to act as a real estate broker on behalf of said corporation, without the payment of additional fees;

(2) When a license is issued to a copartnership it shall entitle one member thereof to be named in the application, who shall qualify to act as a real estate broker on behalf of the copartnership, without the payment of additional license fees;

(3) A licensed broker, associate broker, or salesman may operate and/or advertise under a name other than the one under which the license is issued by obtaining the written consent of the director to do so;

(4) A broker may establish one or more branch offices under a name or names different from that of the main office if the name or names are approved by the director, so long as each branch office is clearly identified as a branch or division of the main office. No broker may establish branch offices under more than three names. Both the name of the branch office and of the main office must clearly appear on the sign identifying the office, if any, and in any advertisement or on any letterhead of any stationery or any forms, or signs used by the real estate firm on which either the name of the main or branch offices appears. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 16; 1951 c 222 § 14; 1945 c 111 § 2; 1941 c 252 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340–33. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 9.]

18.85.180 Licenses—Office required—Display of license. Every licensed real estate broker must have and maintain an office in this state accessible to the public which shall serve as his office for the transaction of business. Any office so established must comply with the zoning requirements of city or county ordinances and the broker's license must be prominently displayed therein. [1957 c 52 § 41; 1951 c 222 § 15. Prior: 1947 c 203 § 4, part; 1945 c 111 § 7, part; 1943 c 118 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 18, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340–41, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 12, part.]

18.85.190 Licenses—Branch office. A real estate broker may apply to the director for authority to establish one or more branch offices under the same name as the main office upon the payment of twenty-five dollars for each branch office. The director shall issue a duplicate license for each of the branch offices showing the location of the main office and the particular branch. Each duplicate license shall be prominently displayed in the office for which it is issued. Each branch office shall be required to have a branch manager who shall be an associate broker authorized by the designated broker to perform the duties of a branch manager.

A branch office license shall not be required where real estate sales activity is conducted on and, limited to a particular subdivision or tract, if a licensed office or branch office is located within thirty-five miles of the subdivision or tract. A real estate broker shall apply for a branch office license if real estate sales activity on the particular subdivision or tract is five days or more per week. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 5; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 17; 1957 c 52 § 42. Prior: 1947 c 203 § 4, part; 1945 c 111 § 7, part; 1943 c 118 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 18, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340–41, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 12, part.]

18.85.200 Licenses—Change of location. Notice in writing shall be given to the director of any change by a real estate broker, associate broker, or salesman of his business location or of any branch office. Upon the surrender of the original license for the business or the duplicate license applicable to a branch office, and a payment of a fee of five dollars, the director shall issue a new license or duplicate license, as the case may be, covering the new location. [1971 ex.s. c 266 § 17; 1957 c 52 § 43. Prior: 1947 c 203 § 4, part; 1945 c 111 § 7, part; 1943 c 118 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 18, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-41, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 12, part.]

18.85.210 Licenses—Annual list—Compilation—Distribution. The director may publish annually a list of names and addresses of brokers and salesmen licensed under the provisions hereof, together with a copy of this chapter and such information relative to the enforcement of the provisions hereof as he may deem of interest to the public; and he may mail one copy thereof to each licensed broker. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 18; 1953 c 235 § 10; 1947 c 203 § 8; 1941 c 252 § 27; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-50. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 22.]

18.85.215 Inactive licenses. (1) Any license issued under this chapter and not otherwise revoked shall be deemed "inactive" at any time it is delivered to the director. Until reissued under this chapter, the holder of an inactive license shall be deemed to be unlicensed.

(2) An inactive license may be renewed on the same terms and conditions as an active license, and failure to renew shall result in cancellation in the same manner as an active license.

(3) An inactive license may be placed in an active status upon completion of an application as provided by the director and upon compliance with this chapter and the rules adopted pursuant thereto. If a holder has an inactive license for more than three years, the holder must show proof of successfully completing a thirty clock hour course in real estate within one year prior to the application for active status.

(4) The provisions of this chapter relating to the denial, suspension, and revocation of a license shall be applicable to an inactive license as well as an active license, except that when proceedings to suspend or revoke an inactive license have been initiated, the license shall remain inactive until the proceedings have been completed. [1985 c 162 § 4; 1977 ex.s. c 370 § 8.]

18.85.220 License fees—Disposition—Real estate commission fund. All fees required under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer. The sum of five dollars from each license fee and each renewal fee received from a broker, associate broker, or salesman, shall be placed in the general fund. The balance of such fees and all other fees paid under the provisions of this chapter shall be placed in a special fund to be designated the real estate commission fund, one-half of which may be held and used for the sole purpose of inspecting the books, records and operations of the brokers, associate brokers, and salesmen. [1967 c 22 § 1; 1953 c 235 § 11; 1941 c 252 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-30.]

Real estate commission fund transferred to real estate commission account in state treasury: RCW 43.79.330 through 43.79.334.

18.85.230 Denial, revocation, suspension of licenses—Grounds. The director may, upon his own motion, and shall upon verified complaint in writing by any person, investigate the actions of any person engaged in the business or acting in the capacity of a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, regardless of whether the transaction was for his own account or in his capacity as broker, and may temporarily suspend or permanently revoke or deny the license of any holder who is guilty of:

(1) Obtaining a license by means of fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, or through the mistake or inadvertence of the director;

(2) Violating any of the provisions of this chapter or any lawful rules or regulations made by the director pursuant thereto;

(3) Being convicted in a court of competent jurisdiction of this or any other state, or federal court, of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, bribery, larceny, extortion, conspiracy to defraud, or any similar offense or offenses: Provided, That for the purposes of this section being convicted shall include all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction, and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended;

(4) Making, printing, publishing, distributing, or causing, authorizing, or knowingly permitting the making, printing, publication or distribution of false statements, descriptions or promises of such character as to reasonably induce any person to act thereon, if the statements, descriptions or promises purport to be made or to be performed by either the licensee or his principal and the licensee then knew or, by the exercise of reasonable care and inquiry, could have known, of the falsity of the statements, descriptions or promises;

(5) Knowingly committing, or being a party to, any material fraud, misrepresentation, concealment, conspiracy, collusion, trick, scheme or device whereby any other person lawfully relies upon the word, representation or conduct of the licensee;

(6) Accepting the services of, or continuing in a representative capacity, any salesman who has not been granted a license, or after his license has been revoked or during a suspension thereof;

(7) Conversion of any money, contract, deed, note, mortgage, or abstract or other evidence of title, to his own use or to the use of his principal or of any other person, when delivered to him in trust or on condition, in violation of the trust or before the happening of the condition; and failure to return any money or contract, deed, note, mortgage, abstract or other evidence of title within thirty days after the owner thereof is entitled thereto, and makes demand therefor, shall be prima facie evidence of such conversion;

(8) Failing, upon demand, to disclose any information within his knowledge to, or to produce any document, book or record in his possession for inspection of the director or his authorized representatives acting by authority of law;

(9) Continuing to sell any real estate, or operating according to a plan of selling, whereby the interests of the public are endangered, after the director has, by order in writing, stated objections thereto;

(10) Committing any act of fraudulent or dishonest dealing or a crime involving moral turpitude, and a certified copy of the final holding of any court of competent jurisdiction in such matter shall be conclusive evidence in any hearing under this chapter;

(11) Advertising in any manner without affixing the broker's name as licensed, and in the case of a salesman or associate broker, without affixing the name of the broker as licensed for whom or under whom the salesman or associate broker operates, to the advertisement;

(12) Accepting other than cash or its equivalent as earnest money unless that fact is communicated to the owner prior to his acceptance of the offer to purchase, and such fact is shown in the earnest money receipt;

(13) Charging or accepting compensation from more than one party in any one transaction without first making full disclosure of all the facts to all the parties interested in the transaction;

(14) Accepting, taking or charging any undisclosed commission, rebate or direct profit on expenditures made for the principal;

(15) Accepting employment or compensation for appraisal of real property contingent upon reporting a predetermined value;

(16) Issuing an appraisal report on any real property in which the broker or salesman has an interest unless his interest is clearly stated in the appraisal report;

(17) Misrepresentation of his membership in any state or national real estate association;

(18) Discrimination against any person in hiring or in sales activity, on the basis of race, color, creed or national origin, or violating any of the provisions of any state or federal antidiscrimination law;

(19) Failing to keep an escrow or trustee account of funds deposited with him relating to a real estate transaction, for a period of three years, showing to whom paid, and such other pertinent information as the director may require, such records to be available to the director, or his representatives, on demand, or upon written notice given to the bank;

(20) Failing to preserve for three years following its consummation records relating to any real estate transaction;

(21) Failing to furnish a copy of any listing, sale, lease or other contract relevant to a real estate transaction to all signatories thereof at the time of execution;

(22) Acceptance by a salesman, associate broker or branch manager of a commission or any valuable consideration for the performance of any acts specified in

*this 1972 amendatory act, from any person, except the licensed real estate broker with whom he is licensed;

(23) To direct any transaction involving his principal, to any lending institution for financing or to any escrow company, in expectation of receiving a kickback or rebate therefrom, without first disclosing such expectation to his principal;

(24) Failing to disclose to an owner his intention or true position if he directly or indirectly through third party, purchases for himself or acquires or intends to acquire any interest in, or any option to purchase, property;

(25) In the case of a broker licensee, failing to exercise adequate supervision over the activities of his licensed associate brokers and salesmen within the scope of *this 1972 amendatory act;

(26) Any conduct in a real estate transaction which demonstrates bad faith, dishonesty, untrustworthiness or incompetency;

(27) Acting as a mobile home and travel trailer dealer or salesman, as defined in RCW 46.70.011 as now or hereafter amended, without having a license to do so;

(28) Failing to assure that the title is transferred under chapter 46.12 RCW when engaging in a transaction involving a mobile home as a broker or salesman; or

(29) Violation of an order to cease and desist which is issued by the director under this chapter. [1979 c 25 § 4. Prior: 1977 ex.s. c 261 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 204 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 139 § 19; 1967 c 22 § 3; 1953 c 235 § 12; 1951 c 222 § 16; 1947 c 203 § 5; 1945 c 111 § 8; 1943 c 118 § 5; 1941 c 252 § 19; Rem. 18.85.240 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Director's delegation of authority. The director may deputize one or more of his assistants to perform his duties with reference to refusal, revocation or suspension of licenses, including the power to preside at hearings and to render decisions therein subject to the approval of the director. [1957 c 52 § 45. Prior: 1945 c 111 § 9, part; 1941 c 252 § 20, part; 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 14, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-43, part.]

18.85.251 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Procedure—Investigation—Hearing. The proceedings for revocation or suspension of a license or refusal to renew a license or accept an application for renewal shall be had on motion of the director or after a statement in writing verified by some person or persons familiar with the facts upon which the proposed revocation, suspension, or refusal is based has been filed with the director. Upon receipt of such statement or accusation, the director shall make a preliminary investigation of the facts charged to determine whether the statement or accusation is sufficient. If the director shall determine the statement or accusation is sufficient to require formal action, the director shall thereupon set the matter for hearing at a specified time and place. A copy of such order setting time and place and a copy of the verified statement shall be served upon the licensee involved not less than twenty days before the day appointed in the order for said hearing. The department of licensing, the licensee accused, and the person making the accusation may be represented by counsel at such a hearing. The director or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW shall hear and receive pertinent evidence and testimony. [1981 c 67 § 22; 1951 c 222 § 23.]

18.85.261 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Hearing—Conduct of. If the licensed person accused does not appear at the time and place appointed for the hearing in person or by counsel, the hearing officer may proceed and determine the facts of the accusation in his absence. The proceedings may be conducted at places within the state convenient to all persons concerned as determined by the director, and may be adjourned from day to day or for longer periods. The hearing officer shall cause a transcript of all such proceedings to be kept by a reporter and shall upon request after completion thereof, furnish a copy of such transcript to the licensed person accused in such proceedings at the expense of the licensee. The hearing officer shall certify the transcript of proceedings to be true and correct. If the director finds that the statement or accusation is not proved by a fair preponderance of evidence, the director shall notify the licensee and the person making the accusation and shall dismiss the case. [1951 c 222 § 24.]

18.85.271 Refusal, revocation, suspension of licenses—Order—Judicial review. If the director shall decide, after such hearing, that the evidence supports the accusation by a preponderance of evidence, he may revoke the license in question or withhold renewal of any such license or suspend any such license. In such event he shall enter an order to that effect and shall file the same in his office and immediately mail a copy thereof to the affected party at the address of record with the department. Such order shall not be operative for a period of ten days from the date thereof. Any licensee or applicant aggrieved by a final decision by the director in a contested case whether such decision is affirmative or negative in form, is entitled to a judicial review in the superior court under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. Upon instituting appeal in the superior court, the appellant shall give a cash bond to the state of Washington, which bond shall be filed with the clerk of the court, in the sum of five hundred dollars to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against such appellant in the event of an adverse decision, such bond and notice to be filed within thirty days from the date of the director's decision. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 20; 1951 c 222 § 25.]

18.85.281 Appeal—As stay of order—Transcript. The filing of such notice and bond shall supersede the order of the director until the final determination of such appeal. The director shall prepare at appellant's expense and shall certify a transcript of the whole record to the director's office of all matters involved in the appeal, which shall be thereupon delivered by the director to the court in which the appeal is pending. The appellant shall be notified of the filing of the transcript and the cost thereof and shall within fifteen days thereafter pay the cost of said transcript. If the cost is not paid in full within fifteen days the appeal shall be dismissed. [1951 c 222 § 26.]

18.85.290 Failure to perfect appeal or pay expenses terminates stay of proceedings—Further appeal. If said appellant shall fail to perfect his appeal or fail to pay the expense of preparing the transcript as provided herein, said stay of proceedings shall automatically terminate.

An aggrieved party may secure review of a final judgment of the superior court under *this 1972 amendatory act by appeal therefrom. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from the superior court in other civil cases. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 21; 1971 c 81 § 62; 1957 c 52 § 46; 1951 c 222 § 17. Prior: 1945 c 111 § 9, part; 1941 c 252 § 20, part; Rem. Supp. 1945 § 8340-43, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 14, part.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1972 amendatory act", see note following RCW 18.85.050.

18.85.300 Bonds—Remedy upon—Limit of liability. Every bond given under the provisions of this chapter, after approval by the director, shall be filed in his office. Any person who may be damaged by the wrongful conversion of trust funds by any real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, shall, in addition to other legal remedies, have a right of action on such bond for all damages not exceeding five thousand dollars against a broker or one thousand dollars against a salesman. The aggregate liability of the surety upon the bond of any real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman for all claims which may arise thereunder shall not exceed the sum specified therein. [1951 c 222 § 18; 1943 c 118 § 3; 1941 c 252 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 8340-40. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 11.]

Embezzlement: Chapter 9A.56 RCW.

18.85.310 Broker's records—Delivery of copies—Separate funds. Every licensed real estate broker shall keep adequate records of all real estate transactions handled by or through him. The records shall include, but are not limited to, a copy of the earnest money receipt, and an itemization of the broker's receipts and disbursements with each transaction. These records and all other records hereinafter specified shall be open to inspection by the director or his authorized representatives.

Every real estate broker shall also deliver or cause to be delivered to all parties signing the same, at the time of signing, conformed copies of all earnest money receipts, listing agreements and all other like or similar instruments signed by the parties, including the closing statement.

Every real estate broker shall also keep separate real estate fund accounts in a recognized Washington state depository authorized to receive funds in which shall be kept separate and apart and physically segregated from licensee broker's own funds, all funds or moneys of clients which are being held by such licensee broker pending the closing of a real estate sale or transaction, or which have been collected for said client and are being held for disbursement for or to said client and such funds shall be deposited not later than the first banking day following receipt thereof.

Any violation by a real estate broker of any of the provisions of this section, or RCW 18.85.230, shall be grounds for revocation of the licenses issued to the broker. [1957 c 52 § 44; 1953 c 235 § 13; 1951 c 222 § 19. Prior: 1947 c 203 § 4, part; 1945 c 111 § 7, part; 1943 c 118 § 4, part; 1941 c 252 § 18, part; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-41, part; prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 12, part.]

18.85.320 Salesmen, associate brokers—Termination of services. The license of a real estate salesman or associate real estate broker shall be retained at all times by his designated broker and when any real estate salesman or associate real estate broker ceases to represent his broker his license shall cease to be in force. Notice of such termination shall be given by the broker to the director and such notice shall be accompanied by and include the surrender of the salesman's or associate real estate broker's license. Failure of any broker to promptly notify the director of such salesman's or associate real estate broker's termination after demand by the affected salesman or associate real estate broker shall work a forfeiture of the broker's license. Upon application of the salesman or associate real estate broker and the payment of five dollars, the director shall issue a new license for the unexpired term, if such salesman or associate real estate broker is otherwise entitled thereto. When a real estate salesman's or associate real estate broker's services shall be terminated by his broker for a violation of any of the provisions of RCW 18.85.230, a written statement of the facts in reference thereto shall be filed forthwith with the director by the broker. [1953 c 235 § 14; 1947 c 203 § 7; 1943 c 118 § 7; 1941 c 252 § 26; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-49. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 21.]

18.85.330 Sharing commissions. It shall be unlawful for any licensed broker to pay any part of his commission or other compensation to any person who is not a licensed real estate broker in any state of the United States or its possessions or any province of the Dominion of Canada, or to a real estate salesman not licensed to do business for such broker; or for any licensed salesman to pay any part of his commission or other compensation to any person, whether licensed or not, except through his broker. [1953 c 235 § 15; 1943 c 118 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 8340-47.]

18.85.340 Violations—Penalty. Any person acting as a real estate broker, associate real estate broker, or real estate salesman, without a license, or violating any of the provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1951 c 222 § 20; 1941 c 252 § 23; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-46. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 17.]

18.85.343 Violations—Cease and desist orders. (1) The director may issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated a provision of this chapter or a lawful order or rule of the director.

(2) If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, he may issue a temporary cease and desist order. Before issuing the temporary cease and desist order, whenever possible the director shall give notice by telephone or otherwise of the proposal to issue a temporary cease and desist order to the person. Every temporary cease and desist order shall include a provision that a hearing will be held upon request to determine whether or not the order will become permanent.

At the time the temporary cease and desist order is served, the licensee shall be notified that he is entitled to request a hearing for the sole purpose of determining whether or not the public interest imperatively requires that the temporary cease and desist order be continued or modified pending the outcome of the hearing to determine whether or not the order will become permanent. The hearing shall be held within thirty days after the department receives the request for hearing, unless the licensee requests a later hearing. A licensee may secure review of any decision rendered at a temporary cease and desist order review hearing in the same manner as a contested case. [1977 ex.s. c 261 § 2.]

18.85.345 Attorney general as legal advisor. The attorney general shall render to the director opinions upon all questions of law relating to the construction or interpretation of this chapter, or arising in the administration thereof, that may be submitted to him by the director, and shall act as attorney for the director in all actions and proceedings brought by or against him under or pursuant to any provisions of this chapter. [1941 c 252 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-32. Prior: 1925 ex.s. c 129 § 8.]

18.85.350 Enforcement provisions. The director may prefer a complaint for violation of any section of this chapter before any court of competent jurisdiction.

The prosecuting attorney of each county shall prosecute any violation of the provisions of this chapter which occurs in his county, and if the prosecuting attorney fails to act, the director may request the attorney general to take action in lieu of the prosecuting attorney.

Process issued by the director shall extend to all parts of the state, and may be served by any person authorized to serve process of courts of record, or may be mailed by registered mail to the licensee's last business address of record in the office of the director.

Whenever the director believes from evidence satisfactory to him that any person has violated any of the provisions of this chapter, or any order, license, decision, demand or requirement, or any part or provision thereof, he may bring an action, in the superior court in the county wherein such person resides, against such person to enjoin any such person from continuing such violation or engaging therein or doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In this action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be proper.

The director may petition the superior court in any county in this state for the immediate appointment of a receiver to take over, operate or close any real estate office in this state which is found, upon inspection of its books and records to be operating in violation of the provisions of this chapter, pending a hearing as herein provided. [1967 c 22 § 2; 1957 c 52 § 48; 1953 c 235 § 16. Prior: (i) 1941 c 252 § 21, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-44, part. (ii) 1947 c 203 § 6; 1941 c 252 § 22; Rem. Supp. 1947 § 8340-45.]

18.85.360 Witnesses—Depositions—Fees—

Subpoenas. The director may administer oaths; certify to all official acts; subpoena and bring before him any person in this state as a witness; compel the production of books and papers; and take the testimony of any person by deposition in the manner prescribed for procedure of the superior courts in civil cases, in any hearing in any part of the state.

Each witness, who appears by order of the director, shall receive for his attendance the fees and mileage allowed to a witness in civil cases in the superior court. Witness fees shall be paid by the party at whose request the witness is subpoenaed.

If a witness, who has not been required to attend at the request of any party, is subpoenaed by the director, his fees and mileage shall be paid from funds appropriated for the use of the real estate department in the same manner as other expenses of the department are paid. [1957 c 52 § 49. Prior: 1941 c 252 § 21, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 8340-44, part.]

18.85.400 Multiple listing associations—Entrance

requirements. Each real estate multiple listing association shall submit to the real estate commission for approval or disapproval its entrance requirements. No later than sixty days after receipt of the real estate multiple listing associations entrance requirements the commission shall, with the directors approval, approve or disapprove the said entrance requirements. In no event shall the real estate commission approve any entrance requirements which shall be more restrictive on the person applying to join a real estate multiple listing association than the following:

(1) Require the applicant at the time of application and admission to be a licensed broker under chapter 18.85 RCW;

(2) Require the applicant, if all members of the real estate multiple listing association are so required, to obtain and maintain a policy of insurance, containing specified coverage within designated limits protecting members from claims by sellers who have made keys to their premises available to members for access to their properties, against losses arising from damage to or theft of contents of such properties;

(3) Require the applicant to pay an initiation fee computed by dividing an amount equal to five times the book value of the real estate multiple listing association concerned (exclusive of any value for listings and exclusive of all investments not related to the operation of the real estate multiple listing association and exclusive of all real estate), by the number of real estate broker members of said organization: Provided, That in no event shall the initiation fee exceed twenty-five hundred dollars;

(4) Require the applicant for membership to have been:

(a) A broker in the territory of the real estate multiple listing association for a period of one year; or

(b) An associate broker with one year's experience in the area of the real estate multiple listing association, who in addition has had one year's experience as a broker in any other area of the state.

(5) Require the applicant to follow any other rules of the association which apply to all the members of such association: Provided, That such other rules do not violate federal or state law: Provided, That nothing in *this 1969 amendatory act shall be construed to limit the authority of any real estate multiple listing association to engage in any activities which are not otherwise prohibited by law. [1969 c 78 § 2.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1969 amendatory act" consists of this section and the 1969 amendment to RCW 18.85.010.

18.85.450 Land development representative—Issuance of registration—Minimum applicant requirements.

The director shall issue a land development representative registration for any applicant, upon application made by the employing real estate broker, on a form provided by the department. The minimum requirements for an individual to be registered as a land development representative are that the applicant shall:

(1) Be eighteen years of age or older;

(2) Be a resident of the state of Washington; and

(3) Furnish such proof as the director may require concerning the applicant's honesty, good reputation, and identification including finger prints. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 6.]

18.85.460 Land development representative—Registration issued to employing broker—Display—Fee—Transferability—Period of validity.

The registration for a land development representative shall be issued to and retained by the employing broker and shall be displayed as set forth in this chapter for licenses. A fee of fifteen dollars shall accompany each application for registration. Each registration shall be valid for a period of one year from date of issue or until employment with the broker is terminated, whichever occurs first. No registration may be transferred to another broker, nor may a representative be registered to more than one broker at a time. Upon the termination of employment of any representative the broker shall release and return the registration of that representative to the department. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 7.]

18.85.470 Land development representative—Authorized activities—"Land development" defined.

(1) The activity of a land development representative registered with a broker under this chapter shall be restricted to land developments as defined in this section and limited to:

- (a) Disseminating information;
- (b) Contacting prospective purchasers; and
- (c) Transporting prospective purchasers to the land development site.

(2) This section shall not be construed to authorize any representative to:

- (a) Engage in the selling of real estate;
- (b) Negotiate for or bind the broker in any agreement relating to the sale of real estate;
- (c) Receive or handle funds;
- (d) Assist in preparation of documentation attendant upon sale of real estate; or

(e) Engage in any other conduct or activity specified in any of the definitions under RCW 18.85.010, except as provided by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The words "land development" as used in this chapter mean land which is divided, for the purpose of disposition, into ten or more parcels on which no residential structure exists at the time it is offered for sale. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 8.]

18.85.480 Land development representative—Responsibility of employing broker—Violations. Full responsibility for the activities of the land development representative registered under this chapter shall rest with the employing broker. The director may deny, suspend, or revoke the registration of any representative or the license of the employing broker for any violation of this chapter by the representative. [1977 ex.s. c 24 § 9.]

18.85.900 Severability—1941 c 252. If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause in this act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such fact shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. [1941 c 252 § 28.]

18.85.910 Severability—1951 c 222. The provisions of this act are to be severable and if any section, subdivision or clause of this act shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of the act. [1951 c 222 § 27.]

18.85.920 Severability—1972 ex.s. c 139. The provisions of this 1972 amendatory act are to be severable and if any section, subdivision, or clause of this act shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of the act. [1972 ex.s. c 139 § 22.]

18.88.005 Regulation of health care professions—Criteria. See chapter 18.120 RCW.

18.88.010 Statement of policy. In order to safeguard life, health and to promote public welfare, any person practicing or offering to practice nursing as a registered nurse in this state shall hereafter be required to submit evidence that he or she is qualified so to practice, and shall be licensed as hereinafter provided. The registered nurse is directly accountable and responsible to the individual consumer for the quality of nursing care rendered. [1973 c 133 § 1; 1949 c 202 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: "If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1973 c 133 § 31.]

18.88.020 Licensing required. After the first day of July, 1949, it shall be unlawful for any person to practice or to offer to practice as a registered nurse in this state or to use any title, sign or device to indicate that such a person is practicing as a registered nurse unless such person has been duly licensed and registered under the provisions of this chapter. [1973 c 133 § 2; 1949 c 202 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-2. Prior: 1909 c 41 § 1.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.030 Definitions—Construction—Exceptions. Whenever used in this chapter, terms defined in this section shall have the meanings herein specified unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

The practice of nursing means the performance of acts requiring substantial specialized knowledge, judgment and skill based upon the principles of the biological, physiological, behavioral and sociological sciences in either:

(1) The observation, assessment, diagnosis, care or counsel, and health teaching of the ill, injured or infirm, or in the maintenance of health or prevention of illness of others.

(2) The performance of such additional acts requiring education and training and which are recognized jointly by the medical and nursing professions as proper to be performed by nurses licensed under this chapter and which shall be authorized by the board of nursing through its rules and regulations.

(3) The administration, supervision, delegation and evaluation of nursing practice: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall affect the authority of any hospital, hospital district, medical clinic or office, concerning its administration and supervision.

(4) The teaching of nursing.

(5) The executing of medical regimen as prescribed by a licensed physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, or chiroprapist.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting any person from practicing any profession for which a license shall have been issued under the laws of this state or specifically authorized by any other law of the state of Washington.

This chapter shall not be construed as prohibiting the nursing care of the sick, without compensation, by any unlicensed person who does not hold herself or himself out to be a registered nurse, and further, this chapter shall not be construed as prohibiting the practice of practical nursing by any practical nurse, with or without compensation in either homes or hospitals.

The word "board" means the Washington state board of nursing.

The term "department" means the department of licensing.

The word "diagnosis", in the context of nursing practice, means the identification of, and discrimination between, the person's physical and psycho-social signs and symptoms which are essential to effective execution and management of the nursing care regimen.

The term "diploma" means written official verification of completion of an approved nursing education program.

The term "director" means the director of licensing.

The terms "nurse" or "nursing" wherever they occur in this chapter, unless otherwise specified, for the purposes of this chapter shall mean a registered nurse or registered nursing. [1979 c 158 § 69; 1973 c 133 § 3; 1961 c 288 § 1; 1949 c 202 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-3. Prior: 1909 c 41 § 10.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.050 State board of nursing—Members—Terms. The state board of nursing, after July 1, 1973, shall consist of seven members, to be appointed by the governor, two of whom shall be appointed for a term of two years, two for a term of four years, and three for a term of five years. Thereafter all appointments shall be for terms of five years. The terms of board members in office at the time of the *effective date of this 1973 amendatory act shall end June 30, 1973. No person shall serve as a member of the board for more than two consecutive terms.

The governor may remove any member from the board for neglect of any duty required by law, or for incompetency or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. Vacancies in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the governor as herein provided. [1973 c 133 § 4; 1949 c 202 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-4. Prior: 1909 c 41 § 2.]

*Reviser's note: The "effective date of this 1973 amendatory act" [1973 c 133] is June 7, 1973.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

Director of licensing or director's designee ex officio member of health professional licensure and disciplinary boards: RCW 43.24.015.

18.88.060 Qualifications of board members. There shall be six nurse members and one public member on the board.

Each member of the board shall be a citizen of the United States and a resident of this state.

(1) Nurse members of the board shall be:

(a) Licensed as registered nurses under the provisions of this chapter.

(b) Have had at least five years experience in the active practice of nursing and shall have been engaged in practice within two years of appointment.

(2) The public member shall not be or have been a member of any other licensing board, nor a licensee of any health occupation board, an employee of any health facility, nor derive his primary livelihood from the provision of health services at any level of responsibility. [1973 c 133 § 5; 1961 c 288 § 3; 1949 c 202 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-5. Prior: 1923 c 150 § 3; 1909 c 41 § 2.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.070 Meetings of board. The board shall meet annually and at its annual meeting shall elect from among its members a chairman and a secretary. The board shall meet at least quarterly at times and places it designates. It shall hold such other meetings during the year as may be deemed necessary to transact its business. A majority of the board, including one officer, shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. All meetings of the board shall be open and public except the board may hold executive sessions to the extent permitted by chapter 42.30 RCW. [1973 c 133 § 6; 1949 c 202 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-6. Prior: 1909 c 41 § 3.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.080 Powers and duties of board—Compensation and travel expenses of members. The board may adopt such rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law, as may be necessary to enable it to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter. The board shall approve curricula and shall establish criteria for minimum standards for schools preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. It shall keep a record of all its proceedings and make such reports to the governor as may be required. The board shall define by regulation what constitutes specialized and advanced levels of nursing practice as recognized by the medical and nursing professions. The board may adopt regulations in response to questions put to it by professional health associations, nursing practitioners, and consumers in this state concerning the authority of various categories of nursing practitioners to perform particular acts.

The board shall approve such schools of nursing as meet the requirements of this chapter and the board, and the board shall approve establishment of basic nursing education programs and shall establish criteria as to the need for and the size of a program and the type of program and the geographical location. The board shall establish criteria for proof of reasonable currency of knowledge and skill as a basis for safe practice after three years nonpracticing status. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement. The board shall examine all applications for registration under this chapter, and shall certify to the director for licensing duly qualified applicants.

The department shall furnish to the board such secretarial, clerical and other assistance as may be necessary to effectively administer the provisions of this chapter. Each member of the board shall, in addition to travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 while away from home, be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. [1984 c 287 § 50; 1977 c 75 § 12; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 50; 1973 c 133 § 7; 1961 c 288 § 4; 1949 c 202 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-7. Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.085 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The board of nursing may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 46.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.88.090 Executive secretary—Assistants—Employees—Compensation, travel expenses. The director shall appoint, after consultation with the board, an executive secretary who shall act to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall also employ such assistants licensed under the provisions of this chapter as shall be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall fix the compensation and provide for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended for such appointee and all such employees. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 51; 1973 c 133 § 8; 1961 c 288 § 5; 1949 c 202 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-8.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.100 Qualifications of executive secretary. The executive secretary shall be a graduate of an approved nursing education program and of a college and/or university, with a masters degree, and currently licensed under the provisions of this chapter; shall have a minimum of at least eight years experience in nursing in any combination of administration and nursing education; and shall have been actively engaged in practice of nursing or nursing education within two years immediately prior to the time of appointment. [1973 c 133 § 9; 1961 c 288 § 6; 1949 c 202 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-8a.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.110 Approval of nursing schools. An institution desiring to conduct a school of professional nursing shall apply to the board and submit evidence that:

(1) It is prepared to carry out the approved basic professional nursing curriculum, and

(2) It is prepared to meet other standards established by this law and by the board. Surveys of the schools and institutions and agencies to be used by the schools shall be made as determined by the board. If, in the opinion of the board, the requirements for an approved school of nursing are met, such school shall be approved. [1973 c 133 § 10; 1949 c 202 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-9.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.120 Periodic survey of schools. From time to time as deemed necessary by the board, it shall be its duty to survey all schools of nursing in the state. Written reports of such survey shall be reviewed by the board. If the board determines that any approved school of nursing is not maintaining the standards required by the statutes and by the board, notice thereof in writing, specifying the defect or defects shall be given to the school. A school which fails to correct these conditions to the satisfaction of the board within a reasonable time shall, upon due notice to the school, be removed from the list of approved schools of nursing to be maintained by the department. [1973 c 133 § 11; 1949 c 202 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-10.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.130 Qualifications of applicants for license. An applicant for a license to practice as a registered nurse shall submit to the board (1) an attested written application on department form; (2) written official evidence of diploma from an approved school of nursing; and (3) any other official records specified by the board. The applicant at the time of such submission shall not be in violation of RCW 18.88.230 as now or hereafter amended or any other provision of this chapter.

The board, by regulation, shall establish criteria for evaluating the education of all applicants. [1973 c 133 § 12; 1961 c 288 § 7; 1949 c 202 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-11. Prior: 1933 c 180 § 2; 1923 c 150 § 2; 1909 c 41 § 4.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.140 Examinations—Permits to practice. The applicant shall be required to pass a written examination in such subjects as the board shall determine. Each written examination may be supplemented by an oral or practical examination. The board shall establish the standards for passing.

Upon approval by the board, the department shall issue an interim permit authorizing the applicant to practice nursing pending notification of the results of the first licensing examination following verification of diploma from an approved school of nursing. Upon the applicant passing the examination, the department shall issue to the applicant a license to practice as a registered nurse. If the applicant fails the examination, the interim permit expires upon notification and is not renewable. Those applicants who fail the first examination shall be allowed to submit themselves for one subsequent examination without payment of any additional fee if such examination is to be held within one year of the first failure. The board shall establish, by rule and regulation, the requirements necessary to qualify for reexamination of applicants who have failed. [1973 c 133 § 13; 1961 c 288 § 8; 1949 c 202 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-12. Prior: 1933 c 180 § 2; 1923 c 150 § 2; 1909 c 41 § 4.]

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.185 Licensing of qualified but unlicensed person—Examination—Time limitation. Any person not holding a valid license or certificate of registration to practice nursing issued by authority of the state but who is otherwise qualified and who has also practiced professional nursing in this state for at least one year within the immediate five year period prior to making application, may become licensed to practice upon making application within eighteen months after the *effective date of this 1961 amendatory act, and upon passing an examination given by the board. [1961 c 288 § 16.]

*Reviser's note: The "effective date of this 1961 amendatory act" [1961 c 288] is midnight June 7, 1961; see preface to 1961 session laws.

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

18.88.190 Renewal of licenses—Fee—Continuing education requirements—Termination date. Every license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be renewed, except as hereinafter provided. The board shall by regulation establish requirements of continuing nursing education as a condition of license renewal: Provided, That membership in an organization shall not be a prerequisite or condition to the fulfillment of any continuous education requirement established as provided herein: Provided further, That the board shall validate all educational programs established as provided herein. At least thirty days prior to expiration, the director shall mail a notice for renewal of license to every person licensed for the current licensing period. The applicant shall return the notice to the department with a renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 before the expiration date. Upon receipt of the notice and appropriate fee, and if requirements for continuing nursing education have been met, the department shall issue to the applicant a license which shall render the holder thereof a legal practitioner of nursing for the period stated on the license: Provided, That the requirement of continuing nursing education may for good cause shown be waived by the board. The department's costs for nurses' continuing education shall be borne from licensure fees: Provided further, That the power of the board to establish continuing nursing education requirements as a condition of license renewal shall terminate on January 1, 1986, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time. Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.210 Penalty for practicing during lapse of license. Any person practicing nursing, as provided for in this chapter, during the time his or her license has lapsed, shall be considered an illegal practitioner and shall be subject to the penalties provided for violations of this chapter. [1949 c 202 § 21; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173–19. Prior: 1933 c 180 § 1.]

18.88.220 Temporary retirement—Evidence of knowledge and skill after nonpracticing status for three or more years. A person licensed under the provisions of this chapter desiring to retire temporarily from the practice of nursing in this state shall send a written notice to the director.

Upon receipt of such notice the name of such person shall be placed upon the nonpracticing list. While remaining on this list the person shall not be subject to the payment of any renewal fees and shall not practice nursing in the state as provided in this chapter. When such person desires to resume practice, application for renewal of license shall be made to the board and renewal fee payable to the state treasurer. Persons on nonpracticing status for three years or more must provide evidence of knowledge and skill of current practice as required by the board or as hereinafter in this chapter provided. [1973 c 133 § 20; 1949 c 202 § 22; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173–20. Prior: 1933 c 180 § 1.]

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.230 Denial, revocation or suspension of license—Reissuance. Upon recommendation of the board, the department shall deny, or after a hearing by the board, shall revoke or suspend the license upon finding that the person: (1) Procured or attempted to procure the license by fraud or deceit; or (2) has been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude; or (3) is habitually intemperate in the use of or is addicted to any habit forming or other dangerous drugs; or (4) has engaged in distribution of drugs for any other than legitimate purposes; or (5) exhibits behaviors which may be due to poor physical or mental health which create an undue risk that the person, as a nursing practitioner, would cause harm to other persons; or (6) has previously had a registered nursing license revoked or suspended in this or any other state, territory, possession of the United States, or country, unless reinstated; or (7) has been guilty of gross negligence in the performance of acts of nursing practice; or (8) has engaged in any act inconsistent with generally accepted professional standards of good nursing practice; or (9) has knowingly engaged in any act which, before it was committed, had been determined to be beyond the scope of that person's nursing practice by regulation under this chapter; or (10) willfully violated any of the provisions of this chapter or regulations adopted thereunder. The department shall upon recommendation from the board reissue a license that has been revoked or suspended under the provisions of this section. Application for the reissuance of such license shall not be considered prior to one year after revocation and shall be made in such manner as the board may specify. [1973 c 133 § 21; 1949 c 202 § 23; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-21. Prior: 109 c 41 § 6.]

18.88.240 Procedure. Any licensee shall be entitled to a hearing by the board before his or her license is revoked or suspended. In all proceedings having for their purpose a revocation or suspension of a license to practice as a registered nurse, the holder of such license shall be given twenty days' notice in writing by the director, which notice shall specify the offense or offenses against this chapter with which such accused person is charged, and shall also give the day and place where the hearing is to be held, which shall be the city of Olympia, Washington, unless a different place shall be fixed by the board. The director or the chairman of the board shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses or the production of books or documents. The accused person shall have the opportunity to make his or her defense and may have issued such subpoenas as he or she may desire. Subpoenas may be served in the same manner as in civil cases in the superior court. Witnesses shall testify under oath administered by the chairman of the board. Testimony shall be taken in writing and may be taken by deposition under such rules as the board may prescribe. The board shall hear and determine the charges and shall make findings and conclusions upon the evidence produced; it shall file the same with the department, together with a transcript of all the evidence, a duplicate copy of which shall be served upon the accused. The revocation or suspension of a license to practice shall be in writing, signed by the director or chairman of the board, stating the grounds upon which such order is based. Neither the board nor any court to which an appeal may be taken shall be bound by strict rules of procedure or by the rules of evidence in the conduct of its proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient legal evidence to sustain it. [1973 c 133 § 22; 1949 c 202 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-22. Prior: 1909 c 41 § 6.]

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.265 Injunctions to prevent unauthorized practice. The board of nursing may at its option by injunctive proceedings instituted by the attorney general, prevent the practice of nursing by any person not validly licensed. [1973 c 133 § 25; 1961 c 288 § 15.]

Sunset Act application: See note following chapter 18.52A RCW digest.

Severability—1973 c 133: See note following RCW 18.88.010.

18.88.270 Violations—Penalty. It shall be a gross misdemeanor for any person to:

(1) Sell or fraudulently obtain or furnish any nursing diploma, license, record or registration, or aid or abet therein;

(2) Practice nursing as defined by this chapter under cover of any diploma, license, record or registration illegally or fraudulently obtained or signed or issued unlawfully or under fraudulent representation or mistake of fact in a material regard;

(3) Practice nursing as defined by this chapter, unless duly licensed to do so under the provisions of this chapter;

(4) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a registered, professional nurse unless duly licensed to practice under the provisions of this chapter;

(5) Practice as a registered nurse during the time his or her license issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be suspended or revoked; and

(6) Otherwise violate any of the provisions of this chapter. [1973 c 133 § 26; 1949 c 202 § 27; Rem. Supp. 1949 § 10173-25.]

Duty of veterinarians to report diseases: RCW 16.36.080.

18.92.010 Veterinary practice defined. Any person shall be regarded as practicing veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry within the meaning of this chapter who shall, within this state, (1) by advertisement, or by any notice, sign, or other indication, or by a statement written, printed or oral, in public or private, made, done, or procured by himself or herself, or any other, at his or her request, for him or her, represent, claim, announce, make known or pretend his or her ability or willingness to diagnose or prognose or treat diseases, deformities, defects, wounds, or injuries of animals; (2) or who shall so advertise, make known, represent or claim his or her ability and willingness to prescribe or administer any drug, medicine, treatment, method or practice, or to perform any operation, manipulation, or apply any apparatus or appliance for cure, amelioration, correction or reduction or modification of any animal disease, deformity, defect, wound or injury, for hire, fee, compensation, or reward, promised, offered, expected, received, or accepted directly or indirectly; (3) or who shall within this state diagnose or prognose any animal diseases, deformities, defects, wounds or injuries, for hire, fee, reward, or compensation promised, offered, expected, received, or accepted directly or indirectly; (4) or who shall within this state prescribe or administer any drug, medicine, treatment, method or practice, or perform any operation, or manipulation, or apply any apparatus or appliance for the cure, amelioration, alleviation, correction, or modification of any animal disease, deformity, defect, wound, or injury, for hire, fee, compensation, or reward, promised, offered, expected, received or accepted directly or indirectly; (5) or who performs any manual procedure for the diagnosis of pregnancy, sterility, or infertility upon livestock.

The opening of an office or place of business for the practice of veterinary medicine, the use of a sign, card, device or advertisement as a practitioner of veterinary medicine or as a person skilled in such practice shall be prima facie evidence of engaging in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry. [1959 c 92 § 1; 1941 c 71 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-1. Prior: 1907 c 124 § 1. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1941 c 71 § 21; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-21, now codified as RCW 18.92.015.]

18.92.015 Definitions. The term "board" used in this chapter shall mean the Washington state veterinary board of governors; and the term "director" shall mean the director of licensing of the state of Washington. "Animal technician" shall mean a person who has successfully completed an examination administered by the board and who has either successfully completed a post high school course approved by the board in the care and treatment of animals, or a person who has had five years practical experience acceptable to the board with a licensed veterinarian. [1983 c 102 § 1; 1979 c 158 § 71; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 1; 1959 c 92 § 2;

18.92.021 Veterinary board of governors—Appointment, qualifications, terms, officers—Quorum.

(1) There is created a Washington state veterinary board of governors consisting of six members, five of whom shall be licensed veterinarians, and one of whom shall be a lay member.

(2) The licensed members shall be appointed by the governor. At the time of their appointment the licensed members of the board must be actual residents of the state in active practice as licensed practitioners of veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry and must be citizens of the United States. Not more than one licensed member shall be from the same congressional district. The board shall not be deemed to be unlawfully constituted and a member of the board shall not be deemed ineligible to serve the remainder of the member's unexpired term on the board solely by reason of the establishment of new or revised boundaries for congressional districts.

The terms of the first licensed members of the board shall be as follows: One member for five, four, three, two, and one years respectively. Thereafter the terms shall be for five years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(3) The lay member shall be appointed by the governor for a five year term and until the lay member's successor is appointed.

(4) A member may be appointed to serve a second term, if that term does not run consecutively. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the governor, the appointee to hold office for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(5) Officers of the board shall be a chairman and a secretary-treasurer to be chosen by the members of the board from among its members.

(6) Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum at meetings of the board. [1983 c 2 § 2. Prior: 1982 1st ex.s. c 30 § 5; 1982 c 134 § 1; 1979 ex.s. c 31 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 2; 1959 c 92 § 3.]

Severability—1983 c 2: See note following RCW 18.71.030.

18.92.030 General duties of board. It shall be the duty of the board to prepare examination questions, conduct examinations, and grade the answers of applicants. The board shall supervise the conduct of those practicing veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry and shall make such recommendations as it deems necessary to the director in regard to the granting, suspension, or revocation of licenses. It shall be the duty of the board to adopt a code of professional conduct for the practice of the veterinary profession in this state. The board, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter including the performance of the duties and responsibilities of animal technicians: Provided, however, That such rules are adopted in the interest of good veterinary health care delivery to the consuming public, and do not prevent animal technicians from inoculating an animal. The board shall further have the power to adopt, by reasonable rules and regulations, standards prescribing requirements for veterinary medical facilities and to fix minimum standards of continuing veterinary medical education.

The department shall be the official office of record.

The board shall have the power to conduct all hearings pertaining to violations of this chapter and may impose appropriate sanctions on licensees or registrants following a hearing. The hearings may be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW. [1983 c 102 § 2; 1982 c 134 § 2; 1981 c 67 § 23; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 2; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 3; 1961 c 157 § 2; 1959 c 92 § 4; 1941 c 71 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-4. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1941 c 71 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-9 now codified as RCW 18.92.035.]

Effective dates—Severability—1981 c 67: See notes following RCW 34.12.010.

18.92.033 Administrative and investigative staff—Investigations authorized—Subpoenas.

The director shall provide the board with adequate administrative and investigative staff to carry out its duties. The board has the power to investigate alleged violations of this chapter and to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of any witnesses, or the production of any books, papers, charts, records, or other documents necessary for its investigations. [1983 c 102 § 3.]

Disciplinary proceedings: RCW 18.92.180.

18.92.035 Board to certify successful examinees. The board shall certify to the director the names of all applicants who have successfully passed an examination and are entitled to a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry. The director shall thereupon issue a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry to such applicant. [1941 c 71 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-9. Formerly RCW 18.92.030, part.]

18.92.040 Compensation and travel expenses of board members. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. No expense may be incurred by members of the board except in connection with board meetings without prior approval of the director. [1984 c 287 § 51; 1983 c 102 § 4; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 53; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 3; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 4; 1959 c 92 § 5; 1941 c 71 § 5; 1913 c 79 § 2; 1907 c 124 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-5.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—Effective date—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.92.045 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The veterinary board of governors may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 47.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.92.050 Licensing required. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice the profession of veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry in this state, who shall not have complied with the provisions of this chapter. [1941 c 71 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-2. Prior: 1907 c 124 § 2. FORMER PART OF SECTION: 1941 c 71 § 6, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-6, part, now codified in RCW 18.92.070.]

18.92.060 Licensing exemptions. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to:

(1) Commissioned veterinarians in the United States military services, veterinarians employed by Washington state and federal agencies while performing official duties;

(2) Persons practicing veterinary medicine upon a person's own animals;

(3) A person advising with respect to or performing the castrating and dehorning of cattle, castrating and docking of sheep, castrating of swine or caponizing of poultry or artificial insemination of animals;

(4) A person who is a regularly enrolled student in a veterinary school, or regularly enrolled in a training course approved under the provisions of RCW 18.92.015 and while performing duties or actions assigned by his instructors, or working under the direct supervision of a licensed veterinarian during a school vacation period or a person performing assigned duties under supervision of a veterinarian within the established framework of an internship program recognized by the board;

(5) A veterinarian regularly licensed in another state consulting with a licensed veterinarian in this state;

(6) An animal technician acting under the supervision and control of a licensed veterinarian: Provided, however, That the practice of an animal technician is limited to the performance of those services which are authorized by the board;

(7) An owner being assisted in such practice by his employees when employed in the conduct of such person's business;

(8) An owner being assisted in such practice by some other person gratuitously. [1974 ex.s. c 44 § 4; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 5; 1959 c 92 § 13; 1941 c 71 § 20; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-20. Prior: 1907 c 124 § 15.]

18.92.070 Applications—Procedure—Qualifications—Eligibility to take examination. No person, unless registered or licensed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in this state at the time this chapter shall become operative, shall begin the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry without first applying for and obtaining a license for such purpose from the director. In order to procure a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in the state of Washington, the applicant for such license shall file his or her application at least sixty days prior to date of examination upon a form furnished by the director of licensing, which, in addition to the fee provided by this chapter, shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence that he or she is at least eighteen years of age and of good moral character, and by official transcripts or other evidence of graduation from a veterinary college satisfactory to and approved by the board. Said application shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to by him or her before some person authorized to administer oaths. When such application and the accompanying evidence are found satisfactory, the director shall notify the applicant to appear before the board for the next examination: Provided, however, That the director of licensing must deny the application of every applicant who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct within the two years immediately preceding date of application for license.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the board from permitting a person who has completed a portion of his or her educational program as determined by the board, in a veterinary college recognized by the board, to take the examination or any part thereof prior to satisfying the requirements for application for a license: Provided however, That no license shall be issued to such applicant until such requirements are satisfied. [1982 c 134 § 3; 1979 c 158 § 72; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 292 § 28; 1941 c 71 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-6. Formerly RCW 18.92.050, part, 18.92.070, part, and 18.92.080, part.]

Severability—1971 ex.s. c 292: See note following RCW 26.28.010.

18.92.100 Examinations—Time of—Subjects—Manner. Examinations for license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry shall be held at least once each year at such times and places as the director may authorize and direct. Said examination, which shall be conducted in the English language shall be, in whole or in part, in writing on the following subjects: Veterinary anatomy, surgery, obstetrics, pathology, chemistry, hygiene, veterinary diagnosis, materia medica, therapeutics, parasitology, physiology, sanitary medicine, and such other subjects which are ordinarily included in the curricula of veterinary colleges, as the board may prescribe. All examinees shall be tested by written examination, supplemented by such oral interviews and practical demonstrations as the board deems necessary. The board may accept the examinee's results on the National Board of Veterinary Examiners in lieu of the written portion of the state examination. [1967 ex.s. c 50 § 6; 1959 c 92 § 7; 1941 c 71 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-7.]

18.92.115 Reexamination—Fee. Any applicant who shall fail to secure the required grade in his first examination may take the next regular veterinary examination. The fee for reexamination shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 71; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 82; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 7; 1959 c 92 § 8; 1941 c 71 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1941 §

18.92.120 License—Temporary certificates, restrictions. Any person who shall make application for examination, as provided by RCW 18.92.070, and who has not previously failed to pass the veterinary examination, and whose application is found satisfactory by the director, may be given a temporary certificate to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry valid only until the results of the next examination for licenses are available. No more than one temporary certificate may be issued to any applicant. Such permittee shall be employed by a licensed veterinary practitioner or by the state of Washington. [1967 ex.s. c 50 § 8; 1959 c 92 § 9; 1941 c 71 § 11; 1907 c 124 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-11.]

18.92.125 Animal technicians. No veterinarian who uses the services of an animal technician shall be considered as aiding and abetting any unlicensed person to practice veterinary medicine within the meaning of RCW 18.92.160. A veterinarian shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of veterinary medicine as defined in this chapter when performed by an animal technician in his employ. [1983 c 102 § 5; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 6.]

18.92.130 License—Reciprocity with other states—Fee. Any person who has been lawfully licensed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in another state or territory which has and maintains a standard for the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry which is substantially the same as that maintained in this state, and who has been lawfully and continuously engaged in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry for two years or more immediately before filing his application to practice in this state and who shall submit to the director a duly attested certificate from the examining board of the state or territory in which he is registered, certifying to the fact of his registration and of his being a person of good moral character and of professional attainments, may upon the payment of the fee as provided herein, be granted a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry in this state, without being required to take an examination: Provided, however, That no license shall be issued to any applicant, unless the state or territory from which such certificate has been granted to such applicant shall have extended a like privilege to engage in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry within its own borders to veterinarians heretofore and hereafter licensed by this state, and removing to such other state: And provided further, That the director of licensing shall have power to enter into reciprocal relations with other states whose requirements are substantially the same as those provided herein. The board shall make recommendations to the director upon all requests for reciprocity. [1959 c 92 § 10; 1941 c 71 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-12.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.92.140 License—Renewal. Each person now qualified to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry or registered as an animal technician in this state or who shall hereafter be licensed or registered to engage in such practice, shall register with the director of licensing annually or on the date prescribed by the director and pay the renewal registration fee set by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. A person who fails to renew a license or certificate prior to its expiration shall be subject to a late renewal fee equal to one-third of the regular renewal fee set by the director. [1985 c 7 § 72; 1983 c 102 § 6; 1941 c 71 § 16; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-16. FORMER PARTS OF SECTION: (i) 1941 c 71 § 17; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-17, now codified as RCW 18.92.142. (ii) 1941 c 71 § 19, part; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-19, part, now codified as RCW 18.92.145.]

18.92.145 License, certificates of registration, permit, examination, and renewal fees. The director shall determine the fees, as provided in RCW 43.24.086, for the issuance, renewal, or administration of the following licenses, certificates of registration, permits, duplicate licenses, renewals, or examination:

(1) For a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry issued upon an examination given by the examining board;

(2) For a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry issued upon the basis of a license issued in another state;

(3) For a certificate of registration as an animal technician;

(4) For a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry. The temporary permit fee shall be accompanied by the full amount of the examination fee. [1985 c 7 § 73; 1983 c 102 § 7; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 84; 1971 ex.s. c 266 § 20; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 9; 1959 c 92 § 12; 1941 c 71 § 19; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-19. Prior: 1907 c 124 §§ 9, 10. Formerly RCW 18.92.090 and 18.92.140.]

18.92.150 License—Display. Every person holding a license under the provisions of this chapter shall conspicuously display it in his principal place of business, together with the annual renewal license certificate. [1941 c 71 § 18; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-18.]

18.92.160 Disciplinary action—Grounds. A person licensed or registered under this chapter may be subject to disciplinary action by the board for any of the following causes:

(1) Fraud, misrepresentation or deception in obtaining such license, including animal technician application.

(2) Being found guilty of a crime involving moral turpitude.

(3) Chronic inebriety or habitual use of drugs.

(4) Fraud in representation as to skill or ability.

(5) Use of untruthful or improbable statements in advertisements, publicity material or interviews.

(6) Distribution of alcohol or drugs for any other than legitimate purposes.

(7) Personation of another licensed practitioner.

(8) Violation or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, any of the provisions of this chapter and any rules or regulation promulgated by the board pursuant to this chapter.

(9) Actions in the practice of his or her profession which result in, or have a significant likelihood of resulting in, significant harm to the patient or public.

(10) Violation of the ethics of the profession. The code of ethics adopted by the board of governors shall be the standard of ethics for the licensed veterinarians and registered animal technicians of this state.

(11) Revocation of a license to practice veterinary medicine, an animal technician certificate, or its equivalent, for cause by another state, territory, or district of the United States on grounds other than nonpayment of registration or license fees. [1983 c 102 § 8; 1974 ex.s. c 44 § 7; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 10; 1961 c 157 § 1; 1941 c 71 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-13. Formerly RCW 18.92.170, part.]

False advertising: Chapter 9.04 RCW.

False personation: RCW 9A.60.040.

Uniform controlled substances act: Chapter 69.50 RCW.

18.92.180 Disciplinary proceedings—Penalties. In all disciplinary proceedings, the holder of the license or certificate of registration shall be given twenty days notice in writing which shall specify the offense or offenses against this chapter with which said accused person is charged, and said notice shall also give the day and place where the hearing is to be held. The board or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses, or the production of books or documents. The accused person shall have opportunity to make his defense, and may have issued such subpoenas as he may desire. Witnesses shall testify under oath. The board or the administrative law judge shall hear and determine the charges and shall make findings of facts and conclusions of law upon the evidence produced, and may thereafter prepare and file in the director's office, together with a transcript of all the evidence, a certificate or order, a duplicate copy of which shall be served upon the accused. The order shall be signed by the director and may provide for:

(1) Revocation of the license;

(2) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;

(3) Restriction or limitation upon the licensee's practice;

(4) The establishment of a requirement that the licensee complete a specific program of continuing veterinary medical education;

(5) Monitoring of the licensee's practice by a preceptor approved by the board;

(6) Censure or reprimand;

(7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;

(8) A fine not to exceed five hundred dollars for each violation of this chapter; and

(9) Any combination of the foregoing, which may be partly or totally stayed. [1983 c 102 § 9; 1981 c 67 § 24; 1967 ex.s. c 50 § 11; 1959 c 92 § 11; 1941 c 71 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-14. Formerly RCW 18.92-.180 through 18.92.200.]

Effective dates—Severability—1981 c 67: See notes following RCW 34.12.010.

Administrative and investigative staff—Investigations authorized—Subpoenas: RCW 18.92.033.

18.92.210 Disciplinary proceedings—Appeal. Any person feeling himself aggrieved by an order of the director shall have the right to appeal from such order within fifteen days after a copy of such order is served upon him, to the superior court of any county, which court shall hear such matter de novo. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state from the judgment of said superior court in the same manner as provided by law in other civil cases. [1971 c 81 § 63; 1941 c 71 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-15.]

18.92.220 Unlawful use of title "veterinary". It shall be unlawful for any person to append any veterinary title to his name, without having been authorized so to do legally, or to assume or advertise any veterinary title in such manner as to convey the impression that he is a lawful practitioner of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry. [1941 c 71 § 22; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-22. Prior: 1907 c 124 § 16.]

18.92.230 Use of another's license or diploma a felony—Penalty. Any person filing or attempting to file, as his own, the diploma or license of another shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to such fine and imprisonment as is made and provided by the statutes of this state for the crime of forgery. [1941 c 71 § 23; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-23.]

Forgery: RCW 9A.60.020.

18.92.235 Injunction to restrain practice without license. If any person engages in the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry as defined in this chapter without possessing a valid license to do so, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director of licensing, the Washington State Veterinary Medical Association, or any citizen of the same county in which [such] person engages in such practice may maintain an action to enjoin such person from engaging in such practice. The injunction shall not relieve such person from criminal prosecution and shall be in addition to liability for criminal prosecution. [1959 c 92 § 14.]

Reviser's note: The term "director of licenses" has been changed to "director of licensing" in this section. See RCW 43.24.020.

18.92.240 Violations generally—Penalty. Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or of any rule or regulation made pursuant thereto, shall constitute a misdemeanor and punishable by fine of not less than fifty dollars. [1941 c 71 § 24; Rem. Supp. 1941 § 10040-24.]

18.92.900 Severability—1941 c 71. Should any section of this chapter, or any portion of any section be for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter. [1941 c 71 § 25.]

18.96.010 Evidence of qualifications required. In order to safeguard human health and property, and to promote the public welfare, any person in either public or private capacity practicing or offering to practice landscape architecture for hire, shall be required to submit evidence that he is qualified so to practice and shall be registered under the provisions of this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 1.]

18.96.020 Registration required. It shall be unlawful for any person to use, or advertise the title landscape architect, landscape architecture, or landscape architectural, unless such person has duly registered under the provisions of this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 2.]

18.96.030 Definitions. The following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

"Director" means the director of licensing of the state of Washington.

"Board" means the state board of registration for landscape architects.

"Landscape architect" means a person who engages in the practice of landscape architecture as hereinafter defined. A person practices landscape architecture within the meaning and intent of this chapter who performs for hire professional services such as consultations, investigations, reconnaissance, research, planning, design or teaching supervision in connection with the development of land areas where, and to the extent that, the dominant purpose of such services is the preservation, enhancement, or determination of proper land uses, natural land features, ground cover and planting, naturalistic and aesthetic values, the settings and approaches to structures or other improvements, or natural drainage and erosion control. This practice shall include the location, design, and arrangement of such tangible objects as pools, walls, steps, trellises, canopies, and other nonhabitable structures, and such features as are incidental and necessary to the purposes outlined herein. It involves the design and arrangement of land forms and the development of outdoor space including, but not limited to, the design of public parks, playgrounds, cemeteries, home and school grounds, and the development of industrial and recreational sites. [1979 c 158 § 73; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 3.]

18.96.040 Board of registration for landscape architects—Created—Members—Qualifications.

There is created a state board of registration for landscape architects. The board shall consist of three landscape architects and two members of the general public. Members of the board shall be appointed by the governor and must be residents of this state having the qualifications required by this chapter.

No public member of the board may be a past or present member of any other licensing board under this title. No public member may make his or her own livelihood from, nor have a parent, spouse, or child make their respective livelihood from providing landscape architect services, or from enterprises dealing in landscape architecture.

The landscape architect members of the board must, while serving on the board, be actively engaged in their profession or trade and, immediately preceding appointment, have had at least five years experience in responsible charge of work or teaching within their profession or trade. [1985 c 18 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 4.]

Effective date—1985 c 18: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on June 30, 1985." [1985 c 18 § 6.]

18.96.050 Board of registration for landscape architects—Terms of office—Removal—Compensation and travel expenses. The members of the first board shall serve for the following terms:

One member for one year, one member for two years, one member for three years, one member for four years, and one member for five years from the date of appointment or until successors are duly appointed and qualified. Every member of the board shall receive a certificate of his appointment from the governor, and before beginning his term of office shall file with the secretary of state his written oath or affirmation for the faithful discharge of his official duties. On the expiration of the term of each member, the governor shall appoint a successor to serve for a term of five years, or until his successor has been appointed and qualified: Provided, That no member shall serve more than ten consecutive years.

The governor may remove any member of the board for cause. Vacancies in the board for any reason shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. In carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses according to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, such funds to be provided from the landscape architects' account in the state general fund. [1984 c 287 § 52; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 54; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 5.]

18.96.060 Board of registration for landscape architects—Rules—Quorum—Hearings—Subpoena power. The board shall adopt rules for its own organization and procedure and such other rules as it may deem necessary to the proper performance of its duties. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of any business of the board.

The board may conduct hearings concerning alleged violations of the provisions of this chapter. In conducting such hearings the chairman of the board, or any member of the board acting in his place, may administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses appearing before the board, subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance, and require the production of books, records, papers and documents. If any person shall refuse to obey any subpoena so issued, or shall refuse to testify or to produce any books, records, papers or documents so required to be produced, the board may present its petition to the superior court of the county in which such person resides, setting forth the facts, and thereupon the court shall, in any proper case, enter a suitable order compelling compliance with the provisions of this chapter and imposing such other terms and conditions as the court may deem equitable. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 6.]

18.96.070 Qualifications of applicants. The following will be considered as minimum evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant is qualified for registration as a professional landscape architect.

The applicant must have completed a course of study in landscape architecture and have been graduated from a college or school approved by the board as offering a curriculum in landscape architecture, or the equivalent thereof, in any form of training, as determined by the board. Each complete year of study in any registered college or school of landscape architecture may be accepted in lieu of one year of equivalent training.

He must have a minimum of seven years in any combination of training and experience, and shall present proof to the director of passing such written examinations as may be prescribed by the board.

Registration under this chapter shall be on an individual, personal basis, and the director shall not register any firm, company, partnership, corporation, nor any public agency. Corporate practice is not permitted under the provisions of this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 7.]

18.96.080 Applications—Contents—Fees—Practitioners at time of enactment. Application for registration shall be filed with the director prior to the date set for examination and shall contain statements made under oath showing the applicant's education and a detailed summary of his practical experience, and shall contain not less than five references, of whom three or more shall be landscape architects having personal knowledge of his landscape architectural experience.

The application fee shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and shall include a nonrefundable examination fee, and a fee for issuance of the certificate.

The application fee for reexamination shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 and shall include, and must be filed with the director not less than six days prior to the date set for examination.

At any time within the first two years following August 11, 1969, the board shall certify for registration, without examination, any applicant who submits proof that he has had at least a combination of education and experience substantially equivalent to six years of practice in landscape architecture prior to August 11, 1969. [1985 c 7 § 74; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 85; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 8.]

18.96.090 Examinations. Examinations of applicants for certificates of registration shall be held at least annually or at such times and places as the board may determine. The board shall determine from the examination and the material submitted with the applications whether or not the applicants possess sufficient knowledge, ability and moral fitness to safely and properly practice landscape architecture and to hold themselves out to the public as persons qualified for that practice.

The scope of the examination and methods of procedure shall be prescribed by the board with special reference to landscape construction materials and methods, grading and drainage, plant materials suited for use in the northwest, specifications and supervisory practice, history and theory of landscape architecture relative to landscape architectural design, site planning and land design, subdivision, urban design, and a practical knowledge of botany, horticulture and similar subjects related to the practice of landscape architecture.

Applicants who fail to pass any subjects shall be permitted to retake the examination in the subjects failed. A passing grade in any subject area shall exempt the applicant from examination in that subject for five years: Provided, That failure to complete successfully the entire examination within five years will result in requiring a retake of the entire examination. The board may determine the standard for passing grades computed on a scale of one hundred percent. A certificate of registration shall be granted by the director to all qualified applicants who shall be certified by the board as having passed the required examination and as having given satisfactory proof of completion of the required experience. [1985 c 18 § 2; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 9.]

Effective date—1985 c 18: See note following RCW 18.96.040.

18.96.100 Reciprocity. The director may, upon payment of a filing and investigation fee including the current registration fee in an amount as determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, grant a certificate of registration without examination to any applicant who is a registered landscape architect in any other state or country whose requirements for registration are at least substantially equivalent to the requirements of this state for registration by examination, and which extends the same privileges of reciprocity to landscape architects registered in this state. [1985 c 7 § 75; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 86; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 10.]

18.96.110 Expiration date—Renewals. Certificates of registration shall expire on the last day of June three years following their issuance or renewal. The director shall set the fee for renewal which shall be determined as provided in RCW 43.24.086. Renewal may be effected during the month of June by payment to the director of the required fee.

In case any registrant fails to pay the renewal fee before thirty days after the due date, the renewal fee shall be the current fee plus an amount equal to one year's fee at the discretion of the board: Provided, That any registrant in good standing, upon fully retiring from landscape architectural practice, may withdraw from practice by giving written notice to the director, and may thereafter resume practice at any time upon payment of the then current annual renewal fee. Any registrant, other than a properly withdrawn licensee, who fails to renew his registration for a period of one year may reinstate only on reexamination as is required for new registrants. [1985 c 18 § 3; 1985 c 7 § 76; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 87; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 11.]

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1985 c 7 § 76 and 1985 c 18 § 3, each without reference to the other. Both amendments are incorporated in the publication of this section pursuant to RCW 1.12.025(2). For rule of construction, see RCW 1.12.025(1).

Effective date—1985 c 18: See note following RCW 18.96.040.

18.96.120 Refusal, suspension or revocation of certificates—Grounds. The director may refuse to renew, or may suspend or revoke, a certificate of registration to use the titles landscape architect, landscape architecture, or landscape architectural in this state upon the following grounds:

(1) The holder of the certificate of registration is impersonating a practitioner or former practitioner.

(2) The holder of the certificate of registration is guilty of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, gross incompetency or gross misconduct in the practice of landscape architecture.

(3) The holder of the certificate of registration permits his seal to be affixed to any plans, specifications or drawings that were not prepared by him or under his personal supervision by employees subject to his direction and control.

(4) The holder of the certificate has committed fraud in applying for or obtaining a certificate. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 12.]

18.96.130 Charges against registrants—Hearings—Findings—Penalties. Any person may prefer charges of fraud, deceit, gross negligence, incompetency, or misconduct against any registrant. Such charges shall be in writing and shall be sworn to by the person making them and shall be filed with the director.

All charges unless dismissed by the director as unfounded or trivial, shall be heard by the board within three months after the date on which they have been preferred.

An action of suspension, revocation, refusal to renew, or a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars per violation by the director, shall be based upon the findings of the board after charges and evidence in support thereof have been heard and determined. [1985 c 18 § 4; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 13.]

Effective date—1985 c 18: See note following RCW 18.96.040.

18.96.140 Restoration of suspended or revoked licenses—Reissuance of lost or destroyed certificates. Upon the recommendations of the board, the director may restore a license to any person whose license has been suspended or revoked. Application for the reissuance of a license shall be made in such a manner as indicated by the board.

A new certificate of registration to replace any certificate lost or destroyed, or mutilated may be issued by the director, and a charge determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be made for such issuance. [1985 c 7 § 77; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 88; 1969 ex.s. c 158 § 14.]

18.96.150 Certificates of registration—Issuance—Contents—Seal. The director shall issue a certificate of registration upon payment of the registration fee as provided in this chapter to any applicant who has satisfactorily met all requirements for registration. All certificates of registration shall show the full name of the registrant, shall have a serial number and shall be signed by the chairman and the secretary of the board, and by the director.

Each registrant shall obtain a seal of a design authorized by the board, bearing the registrant's name and the legend, "registered landscape architect". All sheets of drawings and title pages of specifications prepared by the registrant shall be stamped with said seal. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 15.]

18.96.160 Misuse of seal. It shall be unlawful for anyone to stamp or seal any document with the seal after the certificate of registrant named thereon has expired or been revoked, or while the certificate is suspended. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 16.]

18.96.170 Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 17.]

18.96.180 Injunctions—Board members not personally liable—Prosecutions. The board is authorized to apply for relief by injunction without bond to restrain a person from the commission of any act which is prohibited by this chapter. The members of the board shall not be personally liable for their action in any such proceeding or in any other proceeding instituted by the board under the provisions of this chapter. The board, in any proper case, shall cause prosecution to be instituted in any county or counties where any violation of this chapter occurs, and shall aid in the prosecution of the violator. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 18.]

18.96.900 Severability—1969 ex.s. c 158. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1969 ex.s. c 158 § 19.]

Materials specifically authorized to be printed and distributed by secretary of state: RCW 43.07.140.

Revolving fund of secretary of state, deposit of moneys for costs of carrying out secretary of state's functions under this chapter: RCW 43.07.130.

18.100.010 Legislative intent. It is the legislative intent to provide for the incorporation of an individual or group of individuals to render the same professional service to the public for which such individuals are required by law to be licensed or to obtain other legal authorization. [1969 c 122 § 1.]

18.100.020 Short title. This chapter may be cited as "the professional service corporation act". [1969 c 122 § 2.]

18.100.030 Definitions. As used in this chapter the following words shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) The term "professional service" means any type of personal service to the public which requires as a condition precedent to the rendering of such service the obtaining of a license or other legal authorization and which prior to the passage of this chapter and by reason of law could not be performed by a corporation, including, but not by way of limitation, certified public accountants, chiropractors, dentists, osteopaths, physicians, podiatrists, chiropodists, architects, veterinarians and attorneys at law.

(2) The term "professional corporation" means a corporation which is organized under this chapter for the purpose of rendering professional service.

(3) The term "ineligible person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, fiduciary, trust, association, government agency, or other entity which for any reason is or becomes ineligible under this chapter to own shares issued by a professional corporation. [1983 c 51 § 2; 1969 c 122 § 3.]

18.100.035 Fees for services by secretary of state. See RCW 43.07.120.

18.100.040 Application of chapter to previously organized corporations. This chapter shall not apply to any individuals or groups of individuals within this state who prior to the passage of this chapter were permitted to organize a corporation and perform personal services to the public by means of a corporation, and this chapter shall not apply to any corporation organized by such individual or group of individuals prior to the passage of this chapter: Provided, That any such individual or group of individuals or any such corporation may bring themselves and such corporation within the provisions of this chapter by amending the articles of incorporation in such a manner so as to be consistent with all the provisions of this chapter and by affirmatively stating in the amended articles of incorporation that the shareholders have elected to bring the corporation within the provisions of this chapter. [1969 c 122 § 4.]

18.100.050 Organization of professional service corporations authorized generally—Provisions applicable to architects, engineers, and health care professionals. An individual or group of individuals duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same professional services within this state may organize and become a shareholder or shareholders of a professional corporation for pecuniary profit under the provisions of Title 23A RCW for the purpose of rendering professional service: Provided, That one or more of such legally authorized individuals shall be the incorporators of such professional corporation: Provided further, That notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, registered architects and registered engineers may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: And provided further, That licensed health care professionals, providing services to enrolled participants either directly or through arrangements with a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW or federally qualified health maintenance organization, may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation. [1983 c 100 § 1; 1969 c 122 § 5.]

18.100.060 Rendering of services through legally authorized individuals required. No corporation organized under this chapter may render professional services except through individuals who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render such professional services within this state: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted to require the licensing of clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, and other assistants employed by a professional corporation who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be rendering professional services to the public for which a license or other legal authorization is required. [1983 c 51 § 3; 1969 c 122 § 6.]

18.100.065 Directors, officers to be legally authorized to render same services as corporation. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 18.100.118, all directors of a corporation organized under this chapter and all officers other than the secretary and the treasurer shall be duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services within this state as those for which the corporation was incorporated. [1983 c 51 § 7.]

18.100.070 Professional relationships and liabilities not abolished, modified, restricted or limited. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted to abolish, repeal, modify, restrict or limit the law now in effect in this state applicable to the professional relationship and liabilities between the person furnishing the professional services and the person receiving such professional service and the standards for professional conduct. Any director, officer, shareholder, agent or employee of a corporation organized under this chapter shall remain personally and fully liable and accountable for any negligent or wrongful acts or misconduct committed by him or by any person under his direct supervision and control, while rendering professional services on behalf of the corporation to the person for whom such professional services were being rendered. The corporation shall be liable for any negligent or wrongful acts of misconduct committed by any of its directors, officers, shareholders, agents or employees while they are engaged on behalf of the corporation, in the rendering of professional services. [1969 c 122 § 7.]

18.100.080 Engaging in other business prohibited—Investments. No professional service corporation organized under this chapter shall engage in any business other than the rendering of the professional services for which it was incorporated or service as a trustee as authorized by RCW 11.36.021 or as a personal representative as authorized by RCW 11.36.010: Provided, That nothing in this chapter or in any other provisions of existing law applicable to corporations shall be interpreted to prohibit such corporation from investing its funds in real estate, personal property, mortgages, stocks, bonds, insurance, or any other type of investments. [1984 c 149 § 170; 1969 c 122 § 8.]

Severability—Effective dates—1984 c 149: See notes following RCW 11.02.005.

18.100.090 Stock issuance. Except as otherwise provided in RCW 18.100.118, no professional corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter may issue any of its capital stock to anyone other than an individual who is duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same specific professional services within this state as those for which the corporation was incorporated. [1983 c 51 § 4; 1969 c 122 § 9.]

18.100.095 Validity of share voting agreements. A proxy, voting trust, or other voting agreement with respect to shares of a professional corporation shall not be valid unless all holders thereof, all trustees and beneficiaries thereof, or all parties thereto, as the case may be, are eligible to be shareholders of the corporation. [1983 c 51 § 12.]

18.100.100 Legal disqualification of officer, shareholder or employee to render professional service, effect. If any director, officer, shareholder, agent or employee of a corporation organized under this chapter who has been rendering professional service to the public becomes legally disqualified to render such professional services within this state, he shall sever all employment with, and financial interests in, such corporation forthwith. A corporation's failure to require compliance with this provision shall constitute a ground for the forfeiture of its articles of incorporation and its dissolution. When a corporation's failure to comply with this provision is brought to the attention of the office of the secretary of state, the secretary of state forthwith shall certify that fact to the attorney general for appropriate action to dissolve the corporation. [1969 c 122 § 10.]

18.100.110 Sale or transfer of shares. No shareholder of a corporation organized as a professional corporation may sell or transfer his shares in such corporation except to another individual who is eligible to be a shareholder of such corporation. Any transfer of shares in violation of this section shall be void. However, nothing in this section prohibits the transfer of shares of a professional corporation by operation of law or court decree. [1983 c 51 § 5; 1969 c 122 § 11.]

18.100.114 Merger or consolidation. (1) A corporation organized under this chapter may merge or consolidate with another corporation, domestic or foreign, organized to render the same specific professional services, only if every shareholder of each corporation is eligible to be a shareholder of the surviving or new corporation.

(2) Upon the merger or consolidation of a corporation organized under this chapter, the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, may render professional services in this state only if it is organized under, and complies with, the provisions of this chapter. [1983 c 51 § 8.]

18.100.116 Treatment of shares upon death of shareholder or transfer of shares by law or court decree to ineligible person. If a shareholder of a professional corporation dies, or if shares of a professional corporation are transferred by operation of law or court decree to an ineligible person, and if the shares held by the deceased shareholder or by such ineligible person are less than all of the outstanding shares of the corporation:

(1) The shares held by the deceased shareholder or by the ineligible person may be transferred to remaining shareholders of the corporation or may be redeemed by the corporation pursuant to terms stated in the articles of incorporation or by laws of the corporation, or in a private agreement. In the absence of any such terms, such shares may be transferred to any individual eligible to be a shareholder of the corporation.

(2) If such a redemption or transfer of the shares held by a deceased shareholder or an ineligible person is not completed within twelve months after the death of the deceased shareholder or the transfer, as the case may be, such shares shall be deemed to be shares with respect to which the holder has elected to exercise the right of dissent described in RCW 23A.24.040 and has made written demand on the corporation for payment of the fair value of such shares. The corporation shall forthwith cancel the shares on its books and the deceased shareholder or ineligible person shall have no further interest in the corporation other than the right to payment for the shares as is provided in RCW 23A.24.040. For purposes of the application of RCW 23A.24.040, the date of the corporate action and the date of the shareholder's written demand shall be deemed to be one day after the date on which the twelve-month period from the death of the deceased shareholder, or from the transfer, expires. [1983 c 51 § 10.]

18.100.118 Eligibility of certain representatives and transferees to serve as directors, officers, or shareholders. If all of the outstanding shares of a professional corporation are held by an administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, or receiver of the estate of a former shareholder, or by a transferee who received such shares by operation of law or court decree, such administrator, executor, guardian, conservator, receiver, or transferee for a period of twelve months following receipt or transfer of such shares may be a director, officer, or shareholder of the professional corporation. [1983 c 51 § 11.]

18.100.120 Name—Abbreviations—Listing of shareholders. Corporations organized pursuant to this chapter shall render professional service and exercise its authorized powers under a name permitted by law and the professional ethics of the profession in which the corporation is so engaged. In the event that the words "company", "corporation" or "incorporated" or any other word, abbreviation, affix or prefix indicating that it is a corporation shall be used, it shall be accompanied with the abbreviation "P.S." or "P.C." or the words "professional service". With the filing of its first annual report and any filings thereafter, professional service corporation shall list its then shareholders: Provided, That notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the corporate name of a corporation organized to render dental services shall contain the full names or surnames of all shareholders and no other word than "chartered" or the words "professional services" or the abbreviation "P.S." or "P.C." [1982 c 35 § 169; 1969 c 122 § 12.]

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

18.100.130 Application of business corporation act. The provisions of Title 23A RCW shall be applicable to a corporation organized pursuant to this chapter except to the extent that any of the provisions of this chapter are interpreted to be in conflict with the provisions thereof, and in such event the provisions and sections of this chapter shall take precedence with respect to a corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. [1983 c 51 § 6; 1969 c 122 § 13.]

18.100.134 Professional services—Deletion from stated purposes of corporation. A professional corporation may amend its articles of incorporation to delete from its stated purposes the rendering of professional services and to conform to the requirements of Title 23A RCW. Upon the effective date of such amendment, the corporation shall no longer be subject to the provisions of this chapter and shall continue in existence as a corporation under Title 23A RCW. [1983 c 51 § 9.]

18.100.140 Illegal, unethical or unauthorized conduct not authorized. Nothing in this chapter shall authorize a director, officer, shareholder, agent or employee of a corporation organized under this chapter, or a corporation itself organized under this chapter, to do or perform any act which would be illegal, unethical or unauthorized conduct under the provisions of the following acts: (1) Medical disciplinary act, chapter 18.72 RCW; (2) Anti-rebating act, chapter 19.68 RCW; (3) State bar act, chapter 2.48 RCW; (4) Professional accounting act, chapter 18.04 RCW; (5) Professional architects act, chapter 18.08 RCW; (6) Professional auctioneers act, chapter 18.11 RCW; (7) Barbers, chapter 18.15 RCW; (8) Cosmetology, chapter 18.18 RCW; (9) Boarding homes act, chapter 18.20 RCW; (10) Podiatry, chapter 18.22 RCW; (11) Chiropractic act, chapter 18.25 RCW; (12) Registration of contractors, chapter 18.27 RCW; (13) Debt adjusting act, chapter 18.28 RCW; (14) Dental hygienist act, chapter 18.29 RCW; (15) Dentistry, chapter 18.32 RCW; (16) Dispensing opticians, chapter 18.34 RCW; (17) Drugless healing, chapter 18.36 RCW; (18) Embalmers and funeral directors, chapter 18.39 RCW; (19) Engineers and land surveyors, chapter 18.43 RCW; (20) Escrow agents registration act, chapter 18.44 RCW; (21) Furniture and bedding industry, chapter 18.45 RCW; (22) Maternity homes, chapter 18.46 RCW; (23) Midwifery, chapter 18.50 RCW; (24) Nursing homes, chapter 18.51 RCW; (25) Optometry, chapter 18.53 RCW; (26) Osteopathy, chapter 18.57 RCW; (27) Pharmacists, chapter 18.64 RCW; (28) Physical therapy, chapter 18.74 RCW; (29) Practical nurses, chapter 18.78 RCW; (30) Prophylactic vendors, chapter 18.81 RCW; (31) Psychologists, chapter 18.83 RCW; (32) Real estate brokers and salesmen, chapter 18.85 RCW; (33) Registered professional nurses, chapter 18.88 RCW; (34) Sanitarians, chapter 18.90 RCW; (35) Veterinarians, chapter 18.92 RCW. [1982 c 35 § 170; 1969 c 122 § 14.]

Reviser's note: (1) Chapters 18.15 and 18.18 RCW were repealed by 1983 c 75. For laws regulating barbers and cosmetologists, see chapter 18.16 RCW.

(2) Chapter 18.45 RCW was repealed by 1979 c 99 § 51.

(3) Chapter 18.81 RCW was repealed by 1984 c 153 § 22.

(4) Chapter 18.90 RCW was repealed by 1979 c 99 § 60.

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

18.100.150 Indemnification of agents of any corporation authorized—Application of RCW 23A.08.025. See RCW 23A.08.026.

18.104.010 Purpose. The legislature declares that the drilling, making or constructing of water wells using the ground water resources within the state is a business and activity of vital interest to the public. In order to protect the public health, welfare, and safety of the people it is necessary that provision be made for the regulation and licensing of water well contractors and operators and for the regulation of water well construction. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 1.]

18.104.020 Definitions. The definitions set forth in this section apply throughout this chapter, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context.

(1) "Constructing a well" or "construct a well" means and includes boring, digging, drilling, or excavating and installing casing, sheeting, lining, or well screens, whether in the installation of a new well or in the alteration of an existing well.

(2) "Department" means the department of ecology.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology.

(4) "Ground water" means and includes ground waters as defined in RCW 90.44.035, as now or hereafter amended.

(5) "Operator" means any person, other than a person exempted by RCW 18.104.180, who is employed by a water well contractor for the control and supervision of the construction of a water well or for the operation of water well construction equipment.

(6) "Water well" means and includes any excavation that is drilled, cored, bored, washed, driven, dug, jetted, or otherwise constructed when the intended use of the well is for the location, diversion, artificial recharge, or withdrawal of ground water. "Water well" does not mean an excavation made for the purpose of obtaining or prospecting for oil, natural gas, minerals, or products of mining, or quarrying, or for inserting media to re-pressure oil or natural gas bearing formations, or for storing petroleum, natural gas, or other products.

(7) "Water well contractor" means any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, corporation, association, or other entity engaged in the business of constructing water wells. [1983 1st ex.s. c 27 § 14; 1971 ex.s. c 212 § 2.]

18.104.030 Compliance enjoined. It is unlawful:

(1) For any water well contractor to construct a water well for compensation without complying with the licensing provisions of this chapter;

(2) For any water well contractor to construct a water well for compensation without complying with the rules and regulations for water well construction adopted pursuant to this chapter;

(3) For any water well construction operator to supervise the construction of a water well without having an operators license as provided in this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 3.]

18.104.040 Powers of department. The department shall have the power:

(1) To issue, deny, suspend or revoke licenses pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;

(2) To enter upon lands for the purpose of inspecting any water well, drilled or being drilled, at all reasonable times;

(3) To call upon or receive professional or technical advice from any public agency or any person;

(4) To make such rules and regulations governing licensing hereunder and water well construction as may be appropriate to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the department may in cooperation with the department of social and health services make rules and regulations regarding:

(a) Standards for the construction and maintenance of water wells and their casings;

(b) Methods of sealing artesian wells and water wells to be abandoned or which may contaminate other water resources;

(c) Methods of artificial recharge of ground water bodies and of construction of wells which insure separation of individual water bearing formations;

(d) The manner of conducting and the content of examinations required to be taken by applicants for license hereunder;

(e) Reporting requirements of water well contractors;

(f) Limitations on water well construction in areas identified by the department as requiring intensive control of withdrawals in the interests of sound management of the ground water resource. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 4.]

18.104.050 Reports of water well construction or alteration. In order to enable the state to protect the welfare, health and safety of its citizens, any water well contractor shall furnish a water well report to the director within thirty days after the completion of the construction or alteration by him of any water well. The director, by regulation, shall prescribe the form of the report and the information to be contained therein. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 5.]

18.104.060 Violations—Cease and desist orders. Notwithstanding and in addition to any other powers granted to the department, whenever it appears to the director, or to an assistant authorized by the director to issue regulatory orders under this section, that a person is violating or is about to violate any of the provisions of this chapter, the director, or his authorized assistant, may cause a written regulatory order to be served upon said person either personally, or by registered or certified mail delivered to the addressee only with return receipt requested and acknowledged by him. The order shall specify the provision of this chapter, and if applicable, the rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter alleged to be or about to be violated, and the facts upon which the conclusion of violating or potential violation is based, and shall order the act constituting the violation or the potential violation to cease and desist or, in appropriate cases, shall order necessary corrective action to be taken with regard to such acts within a specific and reasonable time. A regulatory order issued hereunder shall become effective immediately upon receipt by the person to whom the order is directed, and shall become final unless review thereof is requested as provided in this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 6.]

18.104.070 License required—Qualifications—Fee—Examination—Exemption from chapter 18.27 RCW. Except as provided in RCW 18.104.180, no person may contract to engage in the construction of a water well and no person may act as an operator without first obtaining a license by applying to the department.

A person shall be qualified to receive a water well construction operators license if he:

(1) Has made application therefor to the department and has paid to the department an application fee of twenty-five dollars; and

(2) Has passed a written examination as provided for in RCW 18.104.080: Provided, That should any applicant establish his illiteracy to the satisfaction of the department, such applicant shall be entitled to an oral examination in lieu of the written examination authorized herein.

Licensees hereunder shall, in order to construct water wells, be exempt from the registration requirements of chapter 18.27 RCW. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 7.]

18.104.080 Examinations—Subjects—Times and places. The examination, which is made a prerequisite for obtaining a license hereunder, shall be prepared to test knowledge and understanding of the following subjects:

(1) Washington ground water laws as they relate to well construction;

(2) Sanitary standards for water well drilling and construction of water wells;

(3) Types of water well construction;

(4) Drilling tools and equipment;

(5) Underground geology as it relates to water well construction; and

(6) Rules and regulations of the department and the department of social and health services relating to water well construction.

Examinations shall be held at such times and places as may be determined by the department but not later than thirty days after an applicant has filed a completed application with the department. The department shall make a determination of the applicant's qualifications for a license within ten days after the examination. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 8.]

18.104.100 Licenses—Duration—Renewal—Fee—Failure to renew, procedure. The term for the effectiveness of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be one year, commencing on the date the license is issued. Every license shall be renewed annually upon payment of a renewal fee of ten dollars. If a licensee fails to submit an application for renewal, together with the renewal fee, before the end of the effective term of his license, his license shall be suspended for thirty days on notice by the director. If his renewal fee is paid prior to the end of said suspension period, the suspension shall automatically terminate. If during the period of suspension renewal is not completed, his license shall be revoked: Provided, That the director shall give the licensee ten days notice prior to the revocation of any license for failure to renew.

A person whose license is revoked under this section and who thereafter desires to engage in the supervision of construction of water wells must make application for a new license and pay twenty-five dollars as provided in RCW 18.104.070. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 10.]

18.104.110 Suspension or revocation of licenses—
Grounds—Duration. In cases other than those relating to the failure of a licensee to renew a license, any license issued hereunder may be suspended or revoked by the director for any of the following reasons:

- (1) For fraud or deception in obtaining the license;
- (2) For fraud or deception in reporting under RCW 18.104.050;
- (3) For violating the provisions of this chapter, or of any lawful rule or regulation of the department or the department of social and health services.

No license shall be suspended for more than six months. No person whose license is revoked shall be eligible to apply for a license for one year from the effective date of the final order of revocation. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 11.]

18.104.120 Complaints against contractors or operators—Department's response—Review. Any person with an economic or noneconomic interest may make a complaint against any water well contractor or operator for violating this chapter or any regulations under it to the department of ecology. The complaint shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and specify the grievances against the licensee. The department shall respond to the complaint by issuance of an order it deems appropriate. Review of the order shall be subject to the hearings procedures set forth in RCW 18.104.130. [1983 c 93 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 212 § 12.]

18.104.130 Hearings—Procedure—Judicial review. Any person who feels aggrieved by an order of the department issued pursuant to this chapter shall be entitled to a hearing before the pollution control hearings board upon request. No such request shall be entertained unless it contains the following:

- (1) Requestor's name and address;
- (2) The date of the order for which the request for review is taken;
- (3) A statement of the substance of the order complained of;

(4) Clear, separate and concise statements of each and every error which the requestor alleges to have been committed by the department;

(5) Clear and concise statement of facts upon which the requestor relies to sustain his statements of error;

(6) A statement setting forth the relief sought.

The request shall be delivered to said pollution control hearings board's office in Olympia, Washington, either personally or by registered mail, within thirty days following the rendition of the order sought to be reviewed. All orders issued by the department as to which a hearing has been requested shall be stayed pending the completion of the hearing process and the issuance of a final order by the pollution control hearings board with the exception of regulatory orders issued pursuant to RCW 18.104.060. Any final order shall be subject to judicial review in accordance with chapter 43.21B RCW.

The issuance of a regulatory order hereunder, the granting or denial of a license hereunder and the revocation or suspension of a license pursuant to RCW 18.104.110 shall be deemed to be orders for the purposes of this section. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 13.]

18.104.140 Proceedings governed by chapters 43.21B and 34.04 RCW. Proceedings authorized by RCW 18.104.130 shall be governed by chapter 43.21B RCW and, to the extent not superseded or modified thereby, by chapter 34.04 RCW. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 14.]

18.104.150 Receipts paid to general fund. All receipts realized in the administration of this chapter shall be paid into the general fund. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 15.]

18.104.160 Penalties—Prosecutions. Any person who shall violate any provision of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be subject to a fine of not more than two hundred fifty dollars, or imprisonment in a county jail for a term not to exceed thirty days, or both. Criminal prosecutions for violations of this chapter shall be prosecuted by the prosecuting attorney in the county in which the violation occurred. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 16.]

18.104.170 Remedies cumulative. The remedies provided for in this chapter shall be cumulative and nothing herein shall alter, abridge or foreclose alternative actions at common law or in equity or under statutory law, civil or criminal. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 17.]

18.104.180 Exemptions. No license hereunder shall be required of:

(1) Any individual who personally drills a well on land which is owned or leased by him or in which he has a beneficial interest as a contract purchaser and is used by the individual for farm or noncommercial domestic use only.

(2) Any individual who performs labor or services for a water well contractor in connection with the drilling of a well at the direction and under the supervision and control of a licensed operator. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 18.]

18.104.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Washington Water Well Construction Act". [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 19.]

18.104.910 Effective date—1971 ex.s. c 212. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1971. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 20.]

18.104.920 Severability—1971 ex.s. c 212. If any provision of the act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1971 ex.s. c 212 § 21.]

18.106.010 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Advisory board" means the state advisory board of plumbers;

(2) "Department" means the department of labor and industries;

(3) "Director" means the director of department of labor and industries;

(4) "Journeyman plumber" means any person who has been issued a certificate of competency by the department of labor and industries as provided in this chapter;

(5) "Specialty plumber" means anyone who has been issued a specialty certificate of competency limited to installation, maintenance, and repair of the plumbing of single family dwellings, duplexes, and apartment buildings which do not exceed three stories;

(6) "Plumbing" means that craft involved in installing, altering, repairing and renovating potable water systems and liquid waste systems within a building: Provided, That installation in a water system of water softening or water treatment equipment shall not be within the meaning of plumbing as used in this chapter. [1983 c 124 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 149 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 71 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 1.]

18.106.020 Journeyman certificate, specialty certificate, temporary permit, or supervision required—Penalty. (1) No person may engage in the trade of plumbing without having a journeyman certificate, specialty certificate, temporary permit or without being supervised by a person who has a journeyman certificate, specialty certificate, or temporary permit.

(2) Violation of subsection (1) of this section is an infraction. [1983 c 124 § 4; 1977 ex.s. c 149 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 71 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 2.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: "Sections 4 through 16 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1984." [1983 c 124 § 21.] "Sections 4 through 16 of this act" consist of the amendment to RCW 18.106.020 and the enactment of RCW 18.106.025, 18.106.170, 18.106.180, 18.106.190, 18.106.200, 18.106.210, 18.106.220, 18.106.230, 18.106.240, 18.106.250, 18.106.260, and 18.106.270.

18.106.025 Violation of RCW 18.106.020—Separate infractions. Each day in which a person engages in the trade of plumbing in violation of RCW 18.106.020 is a separate infraction. Each work site at which a person engages in the trade of plumbing in violation of RCW 18.106.020 is a separate infraction. [1983 c 124 § 5.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.030 Application for certificate of competency—Evidence of competency required. Any person desiring to be issued a certificate of competency as provided in this chapter shall deliver evidence in a form prescribed by the department affirming that said person has had sufficient experience in as well as demonstrated general competency in the trade of plumbing or specialty plumbing so as to qualify him to make an application for a certificate of competency as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber: Provided, That completion of a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the coordinating council on occupational education shall constitute sufficient evidence of experience and competency to enable such person to make application for a certificate of competency.

In addition to supplying the evidence as prescribed in this section, each applicant for a certificate of competency shall submit an application for such certificate on such form and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the director of the department. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 3.]

18.106.040 Examinations—Eligibility requirements—Determination. Upon receipt of the application and evidence set forth in RCW 18.106.030, the director shall review the same and make a determination as to whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination each applicant for a journeyman plumber's certificate of competency shall furnish written evidence that he has either completed a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the coordinating council on occupational education; or that he has four or more years of experience under the direct supervision of a licensed journeyman plumber. Each applicant for a specialty plumber's certificate of competency shall furnish written evidence that he has either completed a course of study in the plumbing trade in the armed services of the United States or at a school accredited by the commission for vocational education or its designee, or that he has had at least three years practical experience in his specialty. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed. The director shall establish reasonable rules and regulations for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing said rules, regulations, and criteria, the director shall consult with the state advisory board of plumbers as established in RCW 18.106.110. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the director shall so notify him, indicating the time and place for taking the same. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 71 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 4.]

18.106.050 Examinations—Scope—Results—Retaking. The department, with the advice of the advisory board, shall prepare a written examination to be administered to applicants for certificates of competency for journeyman plumber and specialty plumber. The examination shall be constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that are identified with the trade of journeyman plumber or specialty plumber; and

(2) Whether the applicant is familiar with the applicable plumbing codes and the administrative rules of the department pertaining to plumbing and plumbers.

The department shall administer the examination to eligible persons. All applicants shall, before taking the examination, pay to the department a fee.

The department shall certify the results of the examination, and shall notify the applicant in writing whether he or she has passed or failed. Any applicant who has failed the examination may retake the examination, upon the terms and after a period of time that the director shall set by rule. The director may not limit the number of times that a person may take the examination. [1983 c 124 § 2; 1977 ex.s. c 149 § 5; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 5.]

18.106.070 Certificates of competency—Issuance—Renewal—Rights of holder—Plumbing training certificates—Supervision. (1) The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination and have paid the fee for the certificate. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the birthdate of the holder immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewable every other year, upon application, on or before the birthdate of the holder. A renewal fee shall be assessed for each certificate. If a person fails to renew the certificate by the renewal date, he or she must pay a doubled fee. If the person does not renew the certificate within ninety days of the renewal date, he or she must retake the examination and pay the examination fee.

The certificate of competency and the temporary permit provided for in this chapter grant the holder the right to engage in the work of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber in accordance with their provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions on any job or any employment without additional proof of competency or any other license or permit or fee to engage in the work. This section does not preclude employees from adhering to a union security clause in any employment where such a requirement exists.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the plumbing construction trade or who is learning the plumbing construction trade may work in the plumbing construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman plumber or a certified specialty plumber in that plumber's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall obtain a plumbing training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the plumbing construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman plumber or a specialty plumber working in his or her specialty. The holder of the plumbing training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the plumbing construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the plumbing construction trade shall have their plumbing training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing plumbing work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued a plumbing training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman plumber or an appropriate specialty plumber shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter. The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty plumbers working on a job site shall be: (a) From July 28, 1985, through June 30, 1988, not more than three noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty plumber; (b) effective July 1, 1988, not more than two noncertified plumbers working on any one job site for every certified specialty plumber or journeyman plumber working as a specialty plumber; and (c) effective July 1, 1988, not more than one noncertified plumber working on any one job site for every certified journeyman plumber working as a journeyman plumber.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the plumbing construction trade in a school approved by the commission for vocational education, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter. [1985 c 465 § 1; 1983 c 124 § 3; 1977 ex.s. c 149 § 7; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 7.]

18.106.080 Persons engaged in plumbing business or trade on effective date. No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on July 16, 1973, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade of plumbing, or on said date held a valid journeyman plumber's license issued by a political subdivision of the state of Washington and whose license is valid at the time of making his application for said certificate. Applicants qualifying under this section shall be issued a certificate by the department upon making an application as provided in RCW 18.106.030 and paying the fee required under RCW 18.106.050: Provided, That no applicant under this section shall be required to furnish such evidence as required by RCW 18.106.030. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 8.]

18.106.090 Temporary permits. The department is authorized to grant and issue temporary permits in lieu of certificates of competency whenever a plumber coming into the state of Washington from another state requests the department for a temporary permit to engage in the trade of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or as a specialty plumber during the period of time between filing of an application for a certificate as provided in RCW 18.106.030 as now or hereafter amended and taking the examination provided for in RCW 18.106.050: Provided, That no temporary permit shall be issued to:

(1) Any person who has failed to pass the examination for a certificate of competency;

(2) Any applicant under this section who has not furnished the department with such evidence required under RCW 18.106.030;

(3) To any apprentice plumber. [1985 c 7 § 78; 1977 ex.s. c 149 § 8; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 9.]

18.106.100 Revocation of certificate of competency—Grounds—Procedure. (1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to carry on the trade of plumbing as a journeyman plumber or specialty plumber;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereto.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder thereof shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to said holder's last known address. Said notice shall enumerate the allegations against such holder, and shall give him the opportunity to request a hearing before the advisory board. At such hearing, the department and the holder shall have opportunity to produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 10.]

18.106.110 Advisory board of plumbers. (1) There is created a state advisory board of plumbers, to be composed of three members appointed by the governor. One member shall be a journeyman plumber, one member shall be a person conducting a plumbing business, and one member from the general public who is familiar with the business and trade of plumbing.

(2) The initial terms of the members of the advisory board shall be one, two, and three years respectively as set forth in subsection (1) of this section. Upon the expiration of said terms, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve for a period of three years. In the case of any vacancy on the board for any reason, the governor shall appoint a new member to serve out the term of the person whose position has become vacant.

(3) The advisory board shall carry out all the functions and duties enumerated in this chapter, as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to this chapter.

(4) Each member of the advisory board shall receive travel expenses in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended for each day in which such member is actually engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the advisory board. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 56; 1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 11.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.106.125 Fees. The department shall charge fees for issuance, renewal, and reinstatement of all certificates and permits and for examinations required by this chapter. The department shall set the fees by rule.

The fees shall cover the full cost of issuing the certificates and permits, devising and administering the examinations, and administering and enforcing this chapter. The costs shall include travel, per diem, and administrative support costs. [1983 c 124 § 17.]

18.106.130 Plumbing certificate fund. All moneys received from certificates, permits, or other sources, shall be paid to the state treasurer as ex officio custodian thereof and by him placed in a special fund designated as the "plumbing certificate fund". He shall pay out upon vouchers duly and regularly issued therefor and approved by the director. The treasurer shall keep an accurate record of payments into said fund, and of all disbursement therefrom. Said fund shall be charged with its pro rata share of the cost of administering said fund. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 13.]

18.106.140 Powers and duties of director. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders, and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter: Provided, That in the administration of this chapter the director shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 14.]

18.106.150 Exemptions from chapter requirements. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to require that a person obtain a license or a certified plumber in order to do plumbing work at his residence or farm or place of business or on other property owned by him. Any person performing plumbing work on a farm may do so without having a current certificate of competency or apprentice permit: Provided, however, That nothing in this chapter shall be intended to derogate from or dispense with the requirements of any valid plumbing code enacted by a political subdivision of the state, except that no code shall require the holder of a certificate of competency to demonstrate any additional proof of competency or obtain any other license or pay any fee in order to engage in the trade of plumbing: And provided further, That this chapter shall not apply to common carriers subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, nor to their officers and employees: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to any farm, business, industrial plant, or corporation doing plumbing work on premises it owns or operates: And provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative or other person when none of the individuals doing such plumbing hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of plumbing. [1973 1st ex.s. c 175 § 15.]

18.106.155 Reciprocity. The director may, upon payment of the appropriate fees, grant a certificate of competency without examination to any applicant who is a registered journeyman plumber or specialty plumber in any other state whose requirements for registration are at least substantially equivalent to the requirements of this state, and which extends the same privileges of reciprocity to journeymen plumbers or specialty plumbers registered in this state. [1977 ex.s. c 149 § 11.]

18.106.170 Violations—Investigations—Evidence of compliance. An authorized representative of the department may investigate alleged or apparent violations of this chapter. An authorized representative of the department upon presentation of credentials may inspect sites at which a person is doing plumbing work for the purpose of determining whether that person has a certificate or permit issued by the department in accordance with this chapter or is supervised by a person who has such a certificate or permit. Upon request of the authorized representative of the department, a person doing plumbing work shall produce evidence that the person has a certificate or permit issued by the department in accordance with this chapter or is supervised by a person who has such a certificate or permit. [1983 c 124 § 6.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.180 Notice of infraction—Service. An authorized representative of the department may issue a notice of infraction if a person who is doing plumbing work fails to produce evidence of having a certificate or permit issued by the department in accordance with this chapter or of being supervised by a person who has such a certificate or permit. A notice of infraction issued under this section shall be personally served on the person named in the notice by an authorized representative of the department. [1983 c 124 § 7.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.190 Notice of infraction—Form—Contents. (1) The form of the notice of infraction issued under this chapter shall [be] prescribed by the supreme court following consultation with the department. To the extent practicable, the notice of infraction issued under this chapter shall conform to the notice of traffic infraction prescribed by the supreme court pursuant to RCW 46.63.060.

(2) The notice of infraction shall include the following:

(a) A statement that the notice represents a determination that the infraction has been committed by the person named in the notice and that the determination shall be final unless contested as provided in this chapter;

(b) A statement that the infraction is a noncriminal offense for which imprisonment shall not be imposed as a sanction;

(c) A statement of the specific infraction for which the notice was issued;

(d) A statement that a one hundred dollar monetary penalty has been established for the infraction;

(e) A statement of the options provided in this chapter for responding to the notice and the procedures necessary to exercise these options;

(f) A statement that at any hearing to contest the determination the state has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the infraction was committed; and that the person may subpoena witnesses, including the authorized representative of the department who issued and served the notice of infraction;

(g) A statement, which the person shall sign, that the person promises to respond to the notice of infraction in one of the ways provided in this chapter;

(h) A statement that refusal to sign the infraction as directed in subsection (2)(g) of this section is a misdemeanor; and

(i) A statement that failure to respond to a notice of infraction as promised is a misdemeanor and may be punished by a fine or imprisonment in jail. [1983 c 124 § 9.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.200 Notice of infraction—Filing—Hearing in district court. A violation designated as an infraction under this chapter shall be heard and determined by a district court. A notice of infraction shall be filed in the district court district in which the infraction is alleged to have occurred. If a notice of infraction is filed in a court which is not the proper venue, the notice shall be dismissed without prejudice on motion of either party. [1983 c 124 § 8.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.210 Notice of infraction—Determination infraction committed. Unless contested in accordance with this chapter, the notice of infraction represents a determination that the person to whom the notice was issued committed the infraction. [1983 c 124 § 10.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.220 Notice of infraction—Response—Requesting a hearing—Failure to respond or appear—Order set aside. (1) A person who receives a notice of infraction shall respond to the notice as provided in this section within fourteen days of the date the notice was served.

(2) If the person named in the notice of infraction does not wish to contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the appropriate portion of the notice of infraction and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. A check or money order in the amount of the penalty prescribed for the infraction must be submitted with the response. When a response which does not contest the determination is received, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records, and a record of the response and order shall be furnished to the department.

(3) If the person named in the notice of infraction wishes to contest the determination, the person shall respond by completing the portion of the notice of infraction requesting a hearing and submitting it, either by mail or in person, to the court specified on the notice. The court shall notify the person in writing of the time, place, and date of the hearing, and that date shall not be sooner than fourteen days from the date of the notice, except by agreement of the parties.

(4) If any person issued a notice of infraction:

(a) Fails to respond to the notice of infraction as provided in subsection (2) of this section; or

(b) Fails to appear at a hearing requested pursuant to subsection (3) of this section;

the court shall enter an appropriate order assessing the monetary penalty prescribed for the infraction and shall notify the department of the failure to respond to the notice of infraction or to appear at a requested hearing.

(5) An order entered by the court under subsection (4)(b) of this section may, for good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, be set aside for the same grounds a default judgment may be set aside in civil actions in courts of limited jurisdiction. [1983 c 124 § 11.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.230 Notice of infraction—Failure to respond—Misdemeanor. It is a misdemeanor for any person who has been personally served with a notice of infraction:

(1) To refuse to sign a written promise to respond to the notice; or

(2) To wilfully violate the written promise to respond to a notice of infraction as provided in this chapter, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the infraction. [1983 c 124 § 14.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.240 Representation by attorney—Department represented by attorney general. A person subject to proceedings under this chapter may appear or be represented by counsel. The department shall be represented by the attorney general in any proceeding under this chapter. [1983 c 124 § 12.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.250 Infraction—Hearing—Procedure—Burden of proof—Order—Appeal. (1) A hearing held for the purpose of contesting the determination that an infraction has been committed shall be without a jury.

(2) The court may consider the notice of infraction and any other written report made under oath submitted by the department's authorized representative who issued and served the notice in lieu of his or her personal appearance at the hearing. The person named in the notice may subpoena witnesses, including the authorized representative who issued and served the notice, and has the right to present evidence and examine witnesses present in court.

(3) The burden of proof is on the department to establish the commission of the infraction by a preponderance of the evidence. The notice of infraction shall be dismissed if the defendant establishes that, at the time the notice was issued, the defendant was registered by the department or was exempt from registration.

(4) After consideration of the evidence and argument, the court shall determine whether the infraction was committed. If it has not been established that the infraction was committed, an order dismissing the notice shall be entered in the court's records. If it has been established that the infraction was committed, an appropriate order shall be entered in the court's records. A record of the court's determination and order shall be furnished to the department.

(5) An appeal from the court's determination or order shall be to the superior court. The decision of the superior court is subject only to discretionary review pursuant to Rule 2.3 of the Rules of Appellate Procedure. [1983 c 124 § 13.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.260 Record of court's order—Transmittal.

The court shall, within thirty days after entry of an order under this chapter, forward a record of the court's order to the department on a form prescribed by the department. [1983 c 124 § 15.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.106.270 Infraction—Monetary penalty. (1) A person found to have committed an infraction under RCW 18.106.020 shall be assessed a monetary penalty of one hundred dollars.

(2) The court may waive, reduce, or suspend the monetary penalty imposed for the infraction.

(3) Monetary penalties collected under this chapter shall be remitted as provided in chapter 3.62 RCW. [1983 c 124 § 16.]

Effective date—1983 c 124: See note following RCW 18.106.020.

18.108.010 Definitions. In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following meanings shall apply:

(1) "Board" means the state message examining board;

(2) "Massage" means the treatment of the superficial parts of the body, with or without the aid of soaps, oils, or lotions, by rubbing, touching, stroking, tapping, and kneading, provided no attempt be made to adjust or manipulate the articulations of the spine;

(3) "Massage operator" means a person engaged in the practice of massage;

(4) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(5) Massage business means the operation of a business where massages are given. [1979 c 158 § 74; 1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 1.]

18.108.020 State message examining board—Created—Membership—Terms—Vacancies—Powers and duties—Compensation and travel expenses. The state message examining board is hereby created. The board shall consist of three members who shall be appointed by the governor for a term of three years each. Members shall be residents of this state and shall have not less than three years experience in the practice of massage immediately preceding their appointment and shall be actively engaged in the practice of massage during their incumbency. Within thirty days after September 8, 1975, three members shall be appointed by the governor to serve one, two, and three years respectively.

In addition to the members specified in this section, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the board, who shall serve for a term of three years.

In the event that a member cannot complete his term of office, another appointment shall be made by the governor in accordance with the procedures stated in this section to fill the remainder of the term. No member may serve more than two successive terms and shall qualify and receive a license pursuant to this chapter within ninety days of their appointment.

Subject to the approval of the director, the board shall have the power to promulgate rules and regulations not inconsistent with the law and which may be necessary for the performance of its duties. It shall be the duty of the board to pass upon the qualifications of applicants for licenses, prepare the necessary examination questions and practical demonstrations, conduct examinations from time to time in such places as the director designates, and to determine the applicants who successfully passed the examination, and in turn notify the director of such determinations.

Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240. Members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the actual performance of their duties, as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 53; 1984 c 279 § 56; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 57; 1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 2.]

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1984 c 287 § 53, effective July 1, 1985, and by 1984 c 279 § 56, each without reference to the other. Both amendments are incorporated in the publication of this section pursuant to RCW 1.12.025(2). For rule of construction, see RCW 1.12.025(1).

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

18.108.030 Massage operator's license required. No person shall engage in, or hold themselves out as engaged in the practice of massage without a massage operator's license issued by the director. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 3.]

18.108.040 Advertising practice of massage by unlicensed person unlawful. It shall be unlawful to advertise the practice of massage by a person not licensed by the director. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 4.]

18.108.050 Exemptions. This chapter does not apply to:

(1) An individual giving massage in their home to members of their immediate family;

(2) Persons licensed in this state to practice medicine, surgery, drugless therapy, cosmetology, barbering, physical therapy, osteopathy, osteopathy and surgery, chiropractic, podiatry, nursing, or persons working under prescription, supervision, or direction of any such person;

(3) Massage practiced at the athletic department of any institution maintained by the public funds of the state, or any of its political subdivisions;

(4) Massage practiced at the athletic department of any school or college accredited by the northwest association of secondary and higher schools. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 5.]

Exemptions: RCW 18.108.130.

18.108.060 Massage operator's licenses—Expiration date—Renewal—Fees. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter, unless otherwise provided shall expire on the annual anniversary date of the individual's date of birth.

Failure to pay the annual license renewal fee by the dates specified above shall render the license invalid, but such license may be reinstated upon written application therefor to the director, and payment to the state of a penalty of ten dollars together with all delinquent annual license renewal fees.

The director shall prorate the licensing fee for massage operator based on one-twelfth of the annual license fee for each full calendar month between the issue date and the next anniversary of the applicant's birth date, a date used as the expiration date of such license.

Every applicant for a license shall pay an examination fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, which fee shall accompany their application.

Applicants granted a license under this chapter shall pay to the director a license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086, prior to the issuance of their license, and an annual renewal fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. [1985 c 7 § 79; 1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 6.]

18.108.070 Massage operator's licenses—Applicant's qualifications—Examination. The director shall approve issuance of a massage operator license to any applicant who is eighteen years of age or over and who has furnished satisfactory proof of their good character and health and who also has passed a written or oral examination and/or practical demonstration, prepared and conducted by the board establishing their competency and ability to engage in the practice of massage. The examinations shall require the applicant to demonstrate a basic knowledge of anatomy, physiology, hygiene, first aid, and such other subjects as the examining board may determine: Provided, That the board shall give an appropriate alternate form of examination for persons who cannot read or speak English to determine equivalent competency. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 7.]

18.108.075 Option to adopt uniform disciplinary act. The disciplinary authority, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule the uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 48.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.108.080 Grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of licenses. The director may deny issuance or renewal of any license authorized under this chapter, or suspend or revoke any such license, if the licensee:

(1) Has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation of the director adopted pursuant to this chapter;

(2) Has made any false statement or representation to the director in order to induce or prevent action by the director;

(3) Has been convicted of a crime of lewdness or moral turpitude or a crime involving possession, use, or distribution of controlled substances, or has forfeited a bond to appear in court for any of the foregoing offenses. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 9.]

Grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of licenses: RCW 18.108.170.

18.108.090 General penalty. Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter, or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 10.]

18.108.100 Provisions relating to licensing of persons nonexclusive. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person shall not be exclusive, and any political subdivision of the state of Washington within whose jurisdiction the practice of massage is performed may require additional registrations or licenses, regulating the practice of massage or massage operators, and charge any fee for the same or similar purpose. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 11.]

18.108.110 Massage business license—Advertising without license unlawful. It shall be unlawful to advertise the practice of massage by a business not licensed by the director. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 12.]

18.108.120 Massage business license—Required—Hiring unlicensed massage operator prohibited. No person shall conduct a massage business without a massage business license issued by the director and, where required, by the political subdivision within whose jurisdiction the massage business is located. No massage business shall hire a massage operator who is not licensed by the director, provided that this requirement shall not become effective until six months after September 8, 1975. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 13.]

18.108.130 Exemptions. This chapter does not apply to:

- (1) Massage practiced at the athletic department of any institution maintained by the public funds of the state, or any of its political subdivisions;
- (2) Massage practiced at the athletic department of any primary or secondary school, or institution of higher education; and
- (3) Massage practiced at the athletic department of any nonprofit organization licensed under RCW 66.24-.400 and 66.24.450. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 14.]

Exemptions: RCW 18.108.050.

18.108.140 Massage business license—Expiration—Renewal. Massage business license shall expire annually. Failure to pay the annual license renewal fee shall render the license invalid, but such license may be reinstated upon written application thereof to the director, and payment to the state of a penalty of ten dollars together with all delinquent annual license renewal fees. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 15.]

18.108.150 Massage business license—Qualifications—Information to be furnished. The director shall approve issuance of a massage business license to any applicant who supplies the following information:

- (1) The name, home address, telephone number, and social security number and birth certificate of the applicant and of all persons named under subsections (3) and (4) of this section; and

- (2) The business name, business address and telephone number of the establishment or proposed establishment and a description of the premises on which said business will be conducted; and

- (3) The names of all persons owning an interest in such business or proposed business, including any corporate stockholders, and whether such business will be conducted as a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation; if a partnership, giving the names of all persons sharing in the profits of said business, and if a corporation giving the names of its officers and directors and the title of each; and

- (4) The names of all persons who will act as proprietor, manager, or person in charge of such business or proposed business; and

- (5) Evidence that the facilities of the applicant's massage business comply with the standards established by the director. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 16.]

18.108.160 Massage business license—Fees. The fee for application for, and renewal of a massage business license shall be determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086: Provided, That only one fee shall be required where an applicant applies for both a license to practice massage and for a business license. [1985 c 7 § 80; 1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 17.]

18.108.170 Grounds for denial of issuance or renewal of licenses. The director may deny issuance or renewal of any license authorized under this chapter, or suspend or revoke any such license, if the licensee:

- (1) Has violated any provision of this chapter, or any rule or regulation of the director adopted pursuant to this chapter;
- (2) Has made any false statement or representation to the director in order to induce or prevent action by the director;
- (3) Has displayed improper, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct in the operation of his massage business;
- (4) Has been convicted of a crime, in connection with the licensee's practice as a massage operator, of lewdness or moral turpitude or possession, use or distribution of a schedule I controlled substance, except marihuana, as defined in RCW 69.50.204, or has forfeited a bond to appear in court for any of the foregoing offenses;
- (5) Has failed or refused to qualify for or obtain any business license required by the local political subdivision within whose jurisdiction the massage business is located. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 18.]

Grounds for denial, suspension or revocation of licenses: RCW 18.108.080.

18.108.180 Inspection of massage premises by director—Reports and information. The director or any of his authorized representatives may at any time visit and inspect the premises of each massage business establishment in order to ascertain whether it is conducted in compliance with the law, including the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the director. The operator of such massage business shall furnish such reports and information as may be required. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 19.]

18.108.190 Inspection of premises by law enforcement personnel. State and local law enforcement personnel shall have the authority to inspect the premises at any time including business hours. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 20.]

18.108.200 Massage businesses—Rules and regulations. The director is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the provisions of this chapter relating to the regulation of massage businesses in this state. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 21.]

18.108.210 Provisions relating to licensing of massage businesses nonexclusive—Authority of local political subdivisions. The provisions of this chapter relating to the registration and licensing of any massage business shall not be exclusive and any political subdivision of the state of Washington within whose jurisdiction the massage business is located may require any registrations or licenses, or charge any fee for the same or similar purpose; and nothing herein shall limit or abridge the authority of any political subdivision to levy and collect a general and nondiscriminatory license fee levied upon all businesses, or to levy a tax based upon gross business conducted by any firm within said political subdivision. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 22.]

18.108.900 Severability—1975 1st ex.s. c 280. If any provision of this 1975 act is declared unconstitutional or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this 1975 act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. [1975 1st ex.s. c 280 § 23.]

18.110.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

- (1) "Art dealer" means a person, partnership, firm, association, or corporation, other than a public auctioneer, which undertakes to sell a work of fine art created by another.
- (2) "Artist" means the creator of a work of fine art.
- (3) "On consignment" means delivered to an art dealer for the purpose of sale or exhibition, or both, to the public by the art dealer other than at a public auction.

- (4) "Work of fine art" means an original art work which is:
  - (a) A visual rendition including a painting, drawing, sculpture, mosaic, or photograph;
  - (b) A work of calligraphy;
  - (c) A work of graphic art including an etching, lithograph, offset print, or silk screen;
  - (d) A craft work in materials including clay, textile, fiber, wood, metal, plastic, or glass; or
  - (e) A work in mixed media including a collage or a work consisting of any combination of works included in this subsection. [1981 c 33 § 1.]

18.110.020 Rights—Duties—Liabilities. If an art dealer accepts a work of fine art on a fee, commission, or other compensation basis, on consignment from the artist:

- (1) The art dealer is, with respect to that work of fine art, the agent of the artist.
- (2) The work of fine art is trust property and the art dealer is trustee for the benefit of the artist until the work of fine art is sold to a bona fide third party.
- (3) The proceeds of the sale of the work of fine art are trust property and the art dealer is trustee for the benefit of the artist until the amount due the artist from the sale is paid. These trust funds shall be paid to the artist within thirty days of receipt by the art dealer unless the parties expressly agree otherwise in writing. If the sale of the work of fine art is on installment, the funds from the installment shall first be applied to pay any balance due the artist on the sale, unless the artist expressly agrees in writing that the proceeds on each installment shall be paid according to a percentage established by the consignment agreement.
- (4) The art dealer is strictly liable for the loss of or damage to the work of fine art while it is in the art dealer's possession. For the purpose of this subsection the value of the work of fine art is the value established in a written agreement between the artist and art dealer prior to the loss or damage or, if no written agreement regarding the value of the work of fine art exists, the fair market value of the work of fine art.

A work of fine art which is trust property when initially accepted by the art dealer remains trust property notwithstanding the subsequent purchase of the work of fine art by the art dealer directly or indirectly for the art dealer's own account until the purchase price is paid in full to the artist. No property which is trust property under this section is subject to the claims, liens, or security interests of the creditors of the art dealer. [1981 c 33 § 2.]

18.110.030 Contract required—Provisions. (1) An art dealer may accept a work of fine art on a fee, commission, or other compensation basis, on consignment from the artist only if prior to or at the time of acceptance the art dealer enters into a written contract with the artist which states:

- (a) The value of the work of fine art;

(b) The minimum price for the sale of the work of fine art; and

(c) The fee, commission, or other compensation basis of the art dealer.

(2) An art dealer who accepts a work of fine art on a fee, commission, or other compensation basis, on consignment from the artist may use or display the work of fine art or a photograph of the work of fine art or permit the use or display of the work or photograph only if:

(a) Notice is given to users or viewers that the work of fine art is the work of the artist; and

(b) The artist gives prior written consent to the particular use or display.

(3) Any portion of a contract which waives any provision of this chapter is void. [1981 c 33 § 3.]

18.110.040 Violations—Penalties—Attorney fees. An art dealer violating RCW 18.110.030 is liable to the artist for fifty dollars plus actual damages, including incidental and consequential damages, sustained as a result of the violation. If an art dealer violates RCW 18.110.030, the artist's obligation for compensation to the art dealer is voidable. In an action under this section the court may, in its discretion, award the artist reasonable attorney's fees. [1981 c 33 § 4.]

18.110.900 Application of chapter. This chapter applies to any work of fine art accepted on consignment on or after July 26, 1981. If a work of fine art is accepted on consignment on or after July 26, 1981 under a contract made before that date, this section applies only to the extent that it does not conflict with the contract. [1981 c 33 § 5.]

Health professions account—Fees credited—Requirements for biennial budget request: RCW 43.24.072.

Violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, the Uniform Controlled Substances Act—Suspension of license: RCW 69.50.413.

18.120.010 Purpose—Criteria. (1) The purpose of this chapter is to establish guidelines for the regulation of health professions not licensed or regulated prior to July 24, 1983, and those licensed or regulated health professions which seek to substantially increase their scope of practice: Provided, That the provisions of this chapter are not intended and shall not be construed to: (a) Apply to any regulatory entity created prior to July 24, 1983, except as provided in this chapter; (b) affect the powers and responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction or state board of education under RCW 28A.04.120 and 28A.70.005; (c) apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or to any kind of treatment by prayer; and (d) apply to any remedial or technical amendments to any statutes which licensed or regulated activity before July 24, 1983. The legislature believes that all individuals should be permitted to enter into a health profession unless there is an overwhelming need for the state to protect the interests of the public by restricting entry into the profession. Where such a need is identified, the regulation adopted by the state should be set at the least restrictive level consistent with the public interest to be protected.

(2) It is the intent of this chapter that no regulation shall, after July 24, 1983, be imposed upon any health profession except for the exclusive purpose of protecting the public interest. All bills introduced in the legislature to regulate a health profession for the first time should be reviewed according to the following criteria. A health profession should be regulated by the state only when:

(a) Unregulated practice can clearly harm or endanger the health, safety, or welfare of the public, and the potential for the harm is easily recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;

(b) The public needs and can reasonably be expected to benefit from an assurance of initial and continuing professional ability; and

(c) The public cannot be effectively protected by other means in a more cost-beneficial manner.

(3) After evaluating the criteria in subsection (2) of this section and considering governmental and societal costs and benefits, if the legislature finds that it is necessary to regulate a health profession not previously regulated by law, the least restrictive alternative method of regulation should be implemented, consistent with the public interest and this section:

(a) Where existing common law and statutory civil actions and criminal prohibitions are not sufficient to eradicate existing harm, the regulation should provide for stricter civil actions and criminal prosecutions;

(b) Where a service is being performed for individuals involving a hazard to the public health, safety, or welfare, the regulation should impose inspection requirements and enable an appropriate state agency to enforce violations by injunctive relief in court, including, but not limited to, regulation of the business activity providing the service rather than the employees of the business;

(c) Where the threat to the public health, safety, or economic well-being is relatively small as a result of the operation of the health profession, the regulation should implement a system of registration;

(d) Where the consumer may have a substantial basis for relying on the services of a practitioner, the regulation should implement a system of certification; or

(e) Where apparent that adequate regulation cannot be achieved by means other than licensing, the regulation should implement a system of licensing. [1983 c 168 § 1.]

18.120.020 Definitions. The definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Applicant group" includes any health professional group or organization, any individual, or any other interested party which proposes that any health professional group not presently regulated be regulated or which proposes to substantially increase the scope of practice of the profession.

(2) "Certificate" and "certification" mean a voluntary process by which a statutory regulatory entity grants recognition to an individual who (a) has met certain prerequisite qualifications specified by that regulatory entity, and (b) may assume or use "certified" in the title or designation to perform prescribed health professional tasks.

(3) "Grandfather clause" means a provision in a regulatory statute applicable to practitioners actively engaged in the regulated health profession prior to the effective date of the regulatory statute which exempts the practitioners from meeting the prerequisite qualifications set forth in the regulatory statute to perform prescribed occupational tasks.

(4) "Health professions" means and includes the following health and health-related licensed or regulated professions and occupations: Podiatry under chapter 18.22 RCW; chiropractic under chapters 18.25 and 18.26 RCW; dental hygiene under chapter 18.29 RCW; dentistry under chapter 18.32 RCW; dispensing opticians under chapter 18.34 RCW; hearing aids under chapter 18.35 RCW; drugless healing under chapter 18.36 RCW; embalming and funeral directing under chapter 18.39 RCW; midwifery under chapter 18.50 RCW; nursing home administration under chapter 18.52 RCW; optometry under chapters 18.53 and 18.54 RCW; ocularists under chapter 18.55 RCW; osteopathy and osteopathic medicine and surgery under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW; pharmacy under chapters 18.64 and 18.64A RCW; medicine under chapters 18.71, 18.71A, and 18.72 RCW; emergency medicine under chapter 18.73 RCW; physical therapy under chapter 18.74 RCW; practical nurses under chapter 18.78 RCW; psychologists under chapter 18.83 RCW; registered nurses under chapter 18.88 RCW; occupational therapists licensed pursuant to chapter 18.59 RCW; veterinarians and animal technicians under chapter 18.92 RCW; health care assistants under chapter 18.135 RCW; massage practitioners under chapter 18.108 RCW; and acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.

(5) "Inspection" means the periodic examination of practitioners by a state agency in order to ascertain whether the practitioners' occupation is being carried out in a fashion consistent with the public health, safety, and welfare.

(6) "Legislative committees of reference" means the standing legislative committees designated by the respective rules committees of the senate and house of representatives to consider proposed legislation to regulate health professions not previously regulated.

(7) "License", "licensing", and "licensure" mean permission to engage in a health profession which would otherwise be unlawful in the state in the absence of the permission. A license is granted to those individuals who meet prerequisite qualifications to perform prescribed health professional tasks and for the use of a particular title.

(8) "Professional license" means an individual, non-transferable authorization to carry on a health activity based on qualifications which include: (a) Graduation from an accredited or approved program, and (b) acceptable performance on a qualifying examination or series of examinations.

(9) "Practitioner" means an individual who (a) has achieved knowledge and skill by practice, and (b) is actively engaged in a specified health profession.

(10) "Public member" means an individual who is not, and never was, a member of the health profession being regulated or the spouse of a member, or an individual who does not have and never has had a material financial interest in either the rendering of the health professional service being regulated or an activity directly related to the profession being regulated.

(11) "Registration" means the formal notification which, prior to rendering services, a practitioner shall submit to a state agency setting forth the name and address of the practitioner; the location, nature and operation of the health activity to be practiced; and, if required by the regulatory entity, a description of the service to be provided.

(12) "Regulatory entity" means any board, commission, agency, division, or other unit or subunit of state government which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or other endeavors in this state.

(13) "State agency" includes every state office, department, board, commission, regulatory entity, and agency of the state, and, where provided by law, programs and activities involving less than the full responsibility of a state agency. [1985 c 326 § 28; 1985 c 117 § 3. Prior: 1984 c 279 § 57; 1984 c 9 § 18; 1983 c 168 § 2.]

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1985 c 117 § 3 and by 1985 c 326 § 28, each without reference to the other. Both amendments are incorporated in the publication of this section pursuant to RCW 1.12.025(2). For rule of construction, see RCW 1.12.025(1).

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

Severability—1984 c 9: See RCW 18.59.905.

18.120.030 Applicants for regulation—Information. After July 24, 1983, if appropriate, applicant groups shall explain each of the following factors to the extent requested by the legislative committees of reference:

(1) A definition of the problem and why regulation is necessary:

(a) The nature of the potential harm to the public if the health profession is not regulated, and the extent to which there is a threat to public health and safety;

(b) The extent to which consumers need and will benefit from a method of regulation identifying competent practitioners, indicating typical employers, if any, of practitioners in the health profession; and

(c) The extent of autonomy a practitioner has, as indicated by:

(i) The extent to which the health profession calls for independent judgment and the extent of skill or experience required in making the independent judgment; and

(ii) The extent to which practitioners are supervised;

(2) The efforts made to address the problem:

(a) Voluntary efforts, if any, by members of the health profession to:

(i) Establish a code of ethics; or

(ii) Help resolve disputes between health practitioners and consumers; and

(b) Recourse to and the extent of use of applicable law and whether it could be strengthened to control the problem;

(3) The alternatives considered:

(a) Regulation of business employers or practitioners rather than employee practitioners;

(b) Regulation of the program or service rather than the individual practitioners;

(c) Registration of all practitioners;

(d) Certification of all practitioners;

(e) Other alternatives;

(f) Why the use of the alternatives specified in this subsection would not be adequate to protect the public interest; and

(g) Why licensing would serve to protect the public interest;

(4) The benefit to the public if regulation is granted:

(a) The extent to which the incidence of specific problems present in the unregulated health profession can reasonably be expected to be reduced by regulation;

(b) Whether the public can identify qualified practitioners;

(c) The extent to which the public can be confident that qualified practitioners are competent:

(i) Whether the proposed regulatory entity would be a board composed of members of the profession and public members, or a state agency, or both, and, if appropriate, their respective responsibilities in administering the system of registration, certification, or licensure, including the composition of the board and the number of public members, if any; the powers and duties of the board or state agency regarding examinations and for cause revocation, suspension, and nonrenewal of registrations, certificates, or licenses; the promulgation of rules and canons of ethics; the conduct of inspections; the receipt of complaints and disciplinary action taken against practitioners; and how fees would be levied and collected to cover the expenses of administering and operating the regulatory system;

(ii) If there is a grandfather clause, whether such practitioners will be required to meet the prerequisite qualifications established by the regulatory entity at a later date;

(iii) The nature of the standards proposed for registration, certification, or licensure as compared with the standards of other jurisdictions;

(iv) Whether the regulatory entity would be authorized to enter into reciprocity agreements with other jurisdictions; and

(v) The nature and duration of any training including, but not limited to, whether the training includes a substantial amount of supervised field experience; whether training programs exist in this state; if there will be an experience requirement; whether the experience must be acquired under a registered, certificated, or licensed practitioner; whether there are alternative routes of entry or methods of meeting the prerequisite qualifications; whether all applicants will be required to pass an examination; and, if an examination is required, by whom it will be developed and how the costs of development will be met;

(d) Assurance of the public that practitioners have maintained their competence:

(i) Whether the registration, certification, or licensure will carry an expiration date; and

(ii) Whether renewal will be based only upon payment of a fee, or whether renewal will involve reexamination, peer review, or other enforcement;

(5) The extent to which regulation might harm the public:

(a) The extent to which regulation will restrict entry into the health profession:

(i) Whether the proposed standards are more restrictive than necessary to insure safe and effective performance; and

(ii) Whether the proposed legislation requires registered, certificated, or licensed practitioners in other jurisdictions who migrate to this state to qualify in the same manner as state applicants for registration, certification, and licensure when the other jurisdiction has substantially equivalent requirements for registration, certification, or licensure as those in this state; and

(b) Whether there are similar professions to that of the applicant group which should be included in, or portions of the applicant group which should be excluded from, the proposed legislation;

(6) The maintenance of standards:

(a) Whether effective quality assurance standards exist in the health profession, such as legal requirements associated with specific programs that define or enforce standards, or a code of ethics; and

(b) How the proposed legislation will assure quality:

(i) The extent to which a code of ethics, if any, will be adopted; and

(ii) The grounds for suspension or revocation of registration, certification, or licensure;

(7) A description of the group proposed for regulation, including a list of associations, organizations, and other groups representing the practitioners in this state, an estimate of the number of practitioners in each group, and whether the groups represent different levels of practice; and

- (8) The expected costs of regulation:
  - (a) The impact registration, certification, or licensure will have on the costs of the services to the public; and
  - (b) The cost to the state and to the general public of implementing the proposed legislation. [1983 c 168 § 3.]

18.120.040 Applicants for regulation—Written reports—Recommendations by state health coordinating council. Applicant groups shall submit a written report explaining the factors enumerated in RCW 18.120.030 to the legislative committees of reference, copies of which shall be sent to the state health coordinating council and the department of licensing for review and comment. The state health coordinating council, in addition to the duties specified in RCW 70.38.065, shall make recommendations based on the report submitted by applicant groups to the extent requested by the legislative committees. [1984 c 279 § 59.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.120.050 Continuing education requirements—Legislative proposals—Evidence of effectiveness. Requirements for licensees to engage in continuing education as a condition of continued licensure has not been proven to be an effective method of guaranteeing or improving the competence of licensees or the quality of care received by the consumer. The legislature has serious reservations concerning the appropriateness of mandated continuing education. Any legislative proposal which contains a continuing education requirement should be accompanied by evidence that such a requirement has been proven effective for the profession addressed in the legislation. [1984 c 279 § 58.]

Severability—1984 c 279: See RCW 18.130.901.

18.120.900 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington regulation of health professions act. [1983 c 168 § 4.]

18.120.910 Severability—1983 c 168. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 168 § 17.]

Reports, studies, and recommendations by department of licensing on disciplinary procedures for health and health-related professions: RCW 43.24.075.

18.130.010 Intent. It is the intent of the legislature to strengthen and consolidate disciplinary procedures for the licensed health and health-related professions and businesses by providing a uniform disciplinary act with standardized procedures for the enforcement of laws the purpose of which is to assure the public of the adequacy of professional competence and conduct in the healing arts.

Further, the legislature declares that the addition of public members on all health care boards can give both the state and the public, which it has a statutory responsibility to protect, assurances of accountability and confidence in the various practices of health care. [1984 c 279 § 1.]

18.130.020 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Disciplining authority" means the agency or board having the authority to take disciplinary action against a holder of a professional or business license upon a finding of a violation of this chapter or the chapter under which the license is held.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(4) "Board" means any of those boards specified in RCW 18.130.040.

(5) "Unlicensed practice" means:

(a) Practicing a profession or operating a business identified in RCW 18.130.040 without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so; or

(b) Representing to a consumer, through offerings, advertisements, or use of a professional title or designation, that the individual is qualified to practice a profession or operate a business identified in RCW 18.130.040, without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so.

(6) "Disciplinary action" means sanctions identified in RCW 18.130.160. [1984 c 279 § 2.]

18.130.030 Chapter may be adopted. The disciplinary authorities specified in RCW 18.130.040, in consultation with professional associations, may elect to adopt by rule this chapter in lieu of the disciplinary provisions outlined under their respective chapters. [1984 c 279 § 3.]

18.130.040 Application of chapter to certain professions—Authority of director—Authority to grant or deny licenses. (1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

(i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;

(ii) Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW;

(iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;

(iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

(v) Psychologists licensed under chapter 18.83 RCW unless a disciplinary committee is established under chapter 18.83 RCW;

(vi) Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW;

(vii) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW; and (viii) Acupuncturists certified under chapter 18.06 RCW.

(b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:

(i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;

(ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;

(iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;

(iv) The council on hearing aids as established in chapter 18.35 RCW;

(v) The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;

(vi) The board of examiners for nursing home administrators as established in chapter 18.52 RCW;

(vii) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;

(viii) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;

(ix) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;

(x) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;

(xi) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;

(xii) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;

(xiii) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and

(xiv) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32-.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure by the disciplining authority, the board of chiropractic examiners, the board of dental examiners, and the board of medical examiners, if adopted pursuant to this chapter by the disciplinary authority. [1985 c 326 § 29; 1984 c 279 § 4.]

18.130.050 Authority of disciplining authority. The disciplining authority has the following authority:

(1) To adopt, amend, and rescind such rules as are deemed necessary to carry out this chapter;

(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct as defined in this chapter and to hold hearings as provided in this chapter;

(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken and use other discovery procedures as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding held under this chapter;

(5) To compel attendance of witnesses at hearings;

(6) In the course of investigating a complaint of unprofessional conduct, to conduct practice reviews;

(7) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of a license, or restriction or limitation of the licensee's practice pending proceedings by the disciplining authority;

(8) To use the office of administrative hearings as authorized in chapter 34.12 RCW to conduct hearings. However, the disciplining authority shall make the final decision regarding disposition of the license;

(9) To use consultants or individual members of the boards to assist in the direction of investigations and issuance of statements of charges. However, the member of the board shall not subsequently participate in the hearing of the case;

(10) To enter into contracts for professional services determined to be necessary for adequate enforcement of this chapter;

(11) To contract with licensees or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervision of licensees who are placed on probation, whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to monitoring by the disciplining authority;

(12) To adopt standards of professional conduct or practice;

(13) To grant or deny license applications, and in the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct by an applicant or license holder, to impose any sanction against a license applicant or license holder provided by this chapter;

(14) To enter into an assurance of discontinuance in lieu of issuing a statement of charges or conducting a hearing. The assurance shall consist of a statement of the law in question and an agreement to not violate the stated provision. The applicant or license holder shall not be required to admit to any violation of the law, nor shall the assurance be construed as such an admission. Violation of an assurance under this subsection is grounds for disciplinary action. [1984 c 279 § 5.]

18.130.060 Additional authority of director. In addition to the authority specified in RCW 18.130.050, the director has the following additional authority:

(1) To hire such investigative, administrative, and clerical staff as necessary for the enforcement of this chapter;

(2) Upon the request of a board, to appoint pro tem members for the purpose of participating as members of one or more committees of the board in connection with proceedings specifically identified in the request. Individuals so appointed must meet the same minimum qualifications as regular members of the board. While serving as board members pro tem, persons so appointed have all the powers, duties, and immunities, and are entitled to the emoluments, including travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, of regular members of the board. The chairperson of a committee shall be a regular member of the board. Committees have authority to act as directed by the board with respect to all matters concerning the review, investigation, and adjudication of all complaints, allegations, charges, and matters subject to the jurisdiction of the board. The authority to act through committees does not restrict the authority of the board to act as a single body at any phase of proceedings within the board's jurisdiction. Board committees may make interim orders and issue final decisions with respect to matters and cases delegated to the committee by the board. Final decisions may be appealed as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW;

(3) To establish fees to be paid for witnesses, expert witnesses, and consultants used in any investigation and to establish fees to witnesses in any agency hearing or contested case as authorized by RCW 34.04.105(4). [1984 c 279 § 6.]

18.130.070 Disciplining authority may adopt rules requiring reports—Court orders—Immunity from liability—Licensees required to report. (1) The disciplining authority may adopt rules requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that a license holder has committed an act which constitutes unprofessional conduct, or to report information which indicates that the license holder may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety to consumers as a result of a mental or physical condition.

(2) If a person fails to furnish a required report, the disciplining authority may petition the superior court of the county in which the person resides or is found, and the court shall issue to the person an order to furnish the required report. A failure to obey the order shall be punished by the court as civil contempt.

(3) A person is immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the disciplining authority pursuant to the rules adopted under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The holder of a license subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter shall report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that the licensee has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. Failure to report within thirty days of notice of the conviction, determination, or finding constitutes grounds for disciplinary action. [1984 c 279 § 7.]

18.130.080 Unprofessional conduct by license holder or applicant—Complaint—Investigation. A person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the disciplining authority charging a license holder or applicant with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. If the disciplining authority determines that the complaint merits investigation, or if the disciplining authority has reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that a license holder or applicant may have engaged in unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall investigate to determine whether there has been unprofessional conduct. [1984 c 279 § 8.]

18.130.090 Statement of charge—Request for hearing—Notice. (1) If the disciplining authority determines, upon investigation, that there is reason to believe a violation of RCW 18.130.180 has occurred, a statement of charge or charges shall be prepared and served upon the license holder or applicant at the earliest practical time. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the disciplining authority within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the disciplining authority may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be fixed by the disciplining authority as soon as convenient, but not earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing. The notice shall also notify the license holder or applicant that a record of the proceeding will be kept, that he or she will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses, who will be subject to cross-examination, and evidence in his or her own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him or her, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him or her, to conduct depositions, and to have subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority. [1984 c 279 § 9.]

18.130.100 Hearings—Contested cases under chapter 34.04 RCW. The procedures governing contested cases before agencies under chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, govern all hearings before the disciplining authority. The disciplining authority has, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in this chapter, all of the powers and duties under chapter 34.04 RCW, which include, without limitation, all powers relating to the administration of oaths, the receipt of evidence, the issuance and enforcing of subpoenas, and the taking of depositions. [1984 c 279 § 10.]

18.130.110 Findings of fact—Order—Report.

(1) In the event of a finding of unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall prepare and serve findings of fact and an order as provided in RCW 34.04.120. If the license holder or applicant is found to have not committed unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall forthwith prepare and serve findings of fact and an order of dismissal of the charges, including public exoneration of the licensee or applicant. The findings of fact and order shall be retained by the disciplining authority as a permanent record.

(2) The disciplining authority shall report the issuance of statements of charges and final orders in cases processed by the disciplining authority to:

(a) The person or agency who brought to the disciplining authority's attention information which resulted in the initiation of the case;

(b) Appropriate organizations, public or private, which serve the professions;

(c) The public. Notification of the public shall include press releases to appropriate local news media and the major news wire services; and

(d) Counterpart licensing boards in other states, or associations of state licensing boards.

(3) This section shall not be construed to require the reporting of any information which is exempt from public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. [1984 c 279 § 11.]

18.130.120 License denied, revoked, or suspended—Issuance prohibited—Exception. The department shall not issue any license to any person whose license has been denied, revoked, or suspended by the disciplining authority except in conformity with the terms and conditions of the certificate or order of denial, revocation, or suspension, or in conformity with any order of reinstatement issued by the disciplining authority, or in accordance with the final judgment in any proceeding for review instituted under this chapter. [1984 c 279 § 12.]

18.130.130 Orders—When effective—Stay. An order pursuant to proceedings authorized by this chapter, after due notice and findings in accordance with this chapter and chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered under this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its being served. The order, if appealed to the court, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the disciplining authority, which stay shall provide for terms necessary to protect the public. [1984 c 279 § 13.]

18.130.140 Appeal. An individual who has been disciplined or whose license has been denied by a disciplining authority may appeal the decision as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW. [1984 c 279 § 14.]

18.130.150 Reinstatement. A person whose license has been suspended or revoked under this chapter may petition the disciplining authority for reinstatement after an interval as determined by the disciplining authority in the order. The disciplining authority shall hold hearings on the petition and may deny the petition or may order reinstatement and impose terms and conditions as provided in RCW 18.130.160 and issue an order of reinstatement. The disciplining authority may require successful completion of an examination as a condition of reinstatement. [1984 c 279 § 15.]

18.130.160 Finding of unprofessional conduct—Orders—Sanctions—Stay—Costs. Upon a finding that a license holder or applicant has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition, the disciplining authority may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

(1) Revocation of the license;

(2) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;

(3) Restriction or limitation on the license holder's practice;

(4) The establishment of a requirement that the license holder satisfactorily complete a specific program of remedial education or treatment;

(5) The monitoring of the license holder's practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;

(6) Censure or reprimand;

(7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;

(8) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account;

(9) Denial of the license request;

(10) Corrective action by the license holder;

(11) Refund of fees charged to the consumer by the license holder.

Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the disciplining authority. In determining what action is appropriate, the disciplining authority must first consider what sanctions are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after such provisions have been made may the disciplining authority consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the license holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant. [1984 c 279 § 16.]

18.130.170 Capacity of license holder to practice—Hearing—Mental or physical examination—Implied consent. (1) If the disciplining authority believes a license holder or applicant may be unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to consumers by reason of any mental or physical condition, a statement of charges in the name of the disciplining authority shall be served on the license holder or applicant and notice shall also be issued providing an opportunity for a hearing. The hearing shall be limited to the sole issue of the capacity of the license holder or applicant to practice with reasonable skill and safety. If the disciplining authority determines that the license holder or applicant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the disciplining authority shall impose such sanctions under RCW 18.130.160 as is deemed necessary to protect the public.

(2) In enforcing this section, the disciplining authority may require a license holder or applicant to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more physicians, a psychological examination by one or more licensed psychologists designated by the disciplining authority, or any combination thereof. The cost of the examinations ordered by the disciplining authority shall be paid out of the health professions account. In addition to any examinations ordered by the disciplining authority, the licensee may submit psychiatric, physical, or psychological examination reports from physicians or psychologists of the license holder's or applicant's choosing and expense. Failure of a license holder or applicant to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension or denial of the license, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentations of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the person's control. A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that a license holder or applicant is mentally incompetent or mentally ill is presumptive evidence of the license holder's or applicant's inability to practice with reasonable skill and safety. An individual affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that the individual can resume competent practice with reasonable skill and safety to the consumer.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, an applicant or license holder governed by this chapter, by making application, practicing, or filing a license renewal, is deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental, physical, or psychological examination when directed in writing by the disciplining authority and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility or use of the examining physician's or psychologist's testimony or examination reports by the disciplining authority on the ground that the testimony or reports constitute privileged communications. [1984 c 279 § 17.]

18.130.180 Unprofessional conduct. The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. The disciplinary authority shall define by rule acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession. If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) Incompetence, negligence, or use of any practice or procedure in the practice of the profession which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer;

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice the profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;

(6) The possession, use, addiction to, prescription for use, diversion, or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, or violation of any drug law, or prescribing drugs for oneself;

(7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;

(8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority; or

(c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding;

(9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining authority or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the disciplining authority;

(10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;

(11) Wilful or repeated violations of rules established by any health agency or authority of the state or a political subdivision thereof;

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law;

(13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;

(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;

(20) The wilful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW;

(22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by wilful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;

(23) Drunkenness or habitual intemperance in the use of alcohol or addiction to alcohol;

(24) Physical abuse or sexual contact with a client or patient. [1984 c 279 § 18.]

18.130.190 Practice without license—Investigation of complaints—Temporary cease and desist orders—Injunctions—Penalty. (1) The director shall investigate bona fide complaints concerning practice by unlicensed individuals of a profession requiring a license. In the investigation of the complaints, the director shall have the same authority as provided the director for the investigation of complaints against license holders. The director shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated this subsection. If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The cease and desist order shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(2) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the director, a board, or any individual may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin any individual practicing a licensed profession without a license from engaging in such practice until the required license is secured. However, the injunction shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(3) Practice of a profession specified in RCW 18.130-.040 without a license, unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor. [1984 c 279 § 19.]

18.130.200 Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license—Penalty. A person who attempts to obtain a license by wilful misrepresentation or fraudulent representation is guilty of a misdemeanor. [1984 c 279 § 20.]

18.130.210 Commission of crime by license holder—Notice to attorney general or county prosecuting attorney. If the disciplining authority determines or has cause to believe that a license holder has committed a crime, the disciplining authority shall, in addition to taking the appropriate administrative action, concurrently notify the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney in the county in which the act took place of the facts known to the disciplining authority. [1984 c 279 § 22.]

18.130.300 Persons immune from liability. The director, members of the boards, or individuals acting on their behalf are immune from suit in any action, civil or criminal, based on any disciplinary proceedings or other official acts performed in the course of their duties. [1984 c 279 § 21.]

18.130.310 Biennial reports—Format. The disciplinary authority shall submit a report to the legislature on January 1 of each odd-numbered year on its proceedings during the biennium, detailing the number of complaints made, investigated, and adjudicated and manner of disposition. The report may include recommendations for improving the disciplinary process, including proposed legislation. The department of licensing shall develop a uniform report format. [1984 c 279 § 23.]

18.130.900 Short title. This chapter shall be known and cited as the uniform disciplinary act. [1984 c 279 § 24.]

18.130.901 Severability—1984 c 279. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 279 § 95.]

- 18.135.080 Violations—Decertification.
- 18.135.090 Practices under chapter not unlicensed practice as health care practitioner.

18.135.010 Practices authorized. It is in the public interest that limited authority to administer skin tests and subcutaneous, intradermal, intramuscular, and intravenous injections and to perform minor invasive procedures to withdraw blood in this state be granted to health care assistants who are not so authorized under existing licensing statutes, subject to such regulations as will assure the protection of the health and safety of the patient. [1984 c 281 § 1.]

18.135.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Director" means the director of licensing.
- (2) "Health care assistant" means an unlicensed person who assists a licensed health care practitioner in providing health care to patients pursuant to this chapter.
- (3) "Health care practitioner" means a physician licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW, an osteopathic physician or surgeon licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW, or, acting within the scope of their respective licensures, a podiatrist licensed under chapter 18.22 RCW or a registered nurse licensed under chapter 18.88 RCW.

(4) "Supervision" means supervision of procedures permitted pursuant to this chapter by a health care practitioner who is physically present and is immediately available in the facility during the administration of injections, as defined in this chapter, but need not be present during procedures to withdraw blood.

(5) "Health care facility" means any hospital, hospice care center, licensed or certified health care facility, health maintenance organization regulated under chapter 48.46 RCW, federally qualified health maintenance organization, renal dialysis center or facility federally approved under 42 C.F.R. 405.2100, or blood bank federally licensed under 21 C.F.R. 607.

(6) "Delegation" means direct authorization granted by a licensed health care practitioner to a health care assistant to perform the functions authorized in this chapter which fall within the scope of practice of the delegator and which are not within the scope of practice of the delegatee. [1984 c 281 § 2.]

18.135.030 Rules—Requirements for certification.

The director, or the director's designee, with the advice of designees of the board of medical examiners, the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery, the podiatry board, and the board of nursing, shall adopt rules necessary to administer, implement, and enforce this chapter and establish the minimum uniform requirements necessary for a health care facility or health care practitioner to certify a health care assistant capable of performing the functions authorized in this chapter. These requirements shall ensure that the public health and welfare are protected and shall include, but not be limited to, the following factors:

- (1) The education and occupational qualifications of the health care assistant including types and limitation of drugs or diagnostic agents which may be administered by injection by a health care assistant;
- (2) The work experience of the health care assistant; and
- (3) The instruction and training provided to the health care assistant. [1984 c 281 § 4.]

18.135.040 Certification of health care assistants. A certification issued to a health care assistant pursuant to this chapter shall be authority to perform only the functions authorized in RCW 18.135.010 subject to proper delegation and supervision in the health care facility making the certification or under the supervision of the certifying health care practitioner in other health care facilities or in his or her office. No certification made by one health care facility or health care practitioner is transferrable to another health care facility or health care practitioner. [1984 c 281 § 3.]

18.135.050 Health care facility or health care practitioner may certify—Roster—Recertification.

(1) Any health care facility may certify a health care assistant to perform the functions authorized in this chapter in that health care facility; and any health care practitioner may certify a health care assistant capable of performing such services in any health care facility, or in his or her office, under a health care practitioner's supervision. Before certifying the health care assistant, the health care facility or health care practitioner shall verify that the health care assistant has met the minimum requirements established by the director under this chapter. These requirements shall not prevent the certifying entity from imposing such additional standards as the certifying entity considers appropriate. The health care facility or health care practitioner shall provide the licensing authority with a certified roster of health care assistants who are certified.

(2) Certification of a health care assistant shall be effective for a period of two years. Recertification is required at the end of this period. Requirements for recertification shall be established by rule. [1984 c 281 § 5.]

18.135.055 Registering an initial or continuing certification—Fee. The health care facility or health care practitioner registering an initial or continuing certification pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086.

All fees collected under this section shall be credited to the health professions account as required in RCW 43.24.072. [1985 c 117 § 1.]

18.135.060 Conditions under which authorized functions may be performed. Any health care assistant certified pursuant to this chapter shall perform the functions authorized in this chapter only by delegation of authority from the health care practitioner and under the supervision of a health care practitioner acting within the scope of his or her license. In the case of subcutaneous, intradermal and intramuscular and intravenous injections, a health care assistant may perform such functions only under the supervision of a health care practitioner having authority, within the scope of his or her license, to order such procedures. [1984 c 281 § 6.]

18.135.070 Complaints—Violations—Investigations—Disciplinary action. The licensing authority of health care facilities or the disciplinary board of the delegating or supervising health care practitioner shall investigate all complaints or allegations of violations of proper certification of a health care assistant or violations of delegation of authority or supervision. A substantiated violation shall constitute sufficient cause for disciplinary action by the licensing authority of a health care facility or the disciplinary board of the health care practitioner. [1984 c 281 § 7.]

18.135.080 Violations—Decertification. The director or the director's designee shall decertify a health care assistant based on a finding that the assistant has obtained certification through misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact or has engaged in unsafe or negligent practices. [1984 c 281 § 8.]

18.135.090 Practices under chapter not unlicensed practice as health care practitioner. The performance of the functions authorized in this chapter by a health care assistant pursuant to this chapter does not constitute unlicensed practice as a health care practitioner. [1984 c 281 § 9.]

Reviser's note: Throughout chapter 19.02 RCW, the term "this 1977 amendatory act" has been changed to "this chapter". This 1977 amendatory act [1977 ex.s. c 319] consists of this chapter, the 1977 amendment to RCW 82.24.220, and the repeal of RCW 14.04.260, 14.04.270, 15.14.090, 16.44.100, 16.72.050, 18.04.210, 18.04.230, 46.08.060, 67.08.020, 67.08.025, 70.72.010–70.72.090, 75.28.310, and 78.40.100–78.40.145.

19.02.010 Purpose—Intent. Experience under the pilot program of the business coordination act suggests that the number of state licenses required for new businesses and the renewal of existing licenses places an undue burden on business. Studies under this act also show that the state can reduce its costs by coordinating and consolidating application forms, information, and licenses. Therefore, the legislature extends the business coordination act by establishing a business license program and license center to develop and implement the following goals and objectives:

(1) The first goal of this system is to provide a convenient, accessible, and timely one-stop system for the business community to acquire and maintain the necessary state licenses to conduct business. This system shall be developed and operated in the most cost-efficient manner for the business community and state. The objectives of this goal are:

(a) To provide a service whereby information is available to the business community concerning all state licensing and regulatory requirements, and to the extent feasible, include local and federal information concerning the same regulated activities;

(b) To provide a system which will enable state agencies to efficiently store, retrieve, and exchange license information with due regard to privacy statutes; to issue and renew master licenses where such licenses are appropriate; and to provide appropriate support services for this objective;

(c) To provide at designated locations one consolidated application form to be completed by any given applicant; and

(d) To provide a state-wide system of common business identification.

(2) The second goal of this system is to aid business and the growth of business in Washington state by instituting a master license system that will reduce the paperwork burden on business, and promote the elimination of obsolete and duplicative licensing requirements by consolidating existing licenses and applications.

It is the intent of the legislature that the authority for determining if a requested license shall be issued shall remain with the agency legally authorized to issue the license.

It is the further intent of the legislature that those licenses which no longer serve a useful purpose in regulating certain business activities should be eliminated. [1982 c 182 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 1.]

Severability—Effective date—1977 ex.s. c 319: See RCW 19.02.900 and 19.02.910.

19.02.020 Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following words shall have the following meanings:

(1) "System" means the mechanism by which master licenses are issued and renewed, license and regulatory information is disseminated, and account data is exchanged by the agencies;

(2) "Business license center" means the business registration and licensing center established by this chapter and located in and under the administrative control of the department of licensing;

(3) "Board of review" means the body established to review policies and rules adopted by the department of licensing for carrying out the provisions of this chapter;

(4) "Master application" means a document incorporating pertinent data from existing applications for licenses covered under this chapter;

(5) "Master license" means the single document designed for public display issued by the business license center which certifies state agency license approval and which incorporates the endorsements for individual licenses included in the master license system, which the state requires for any person subject to this chapter;

(6) "License" means the whole or part of any agency permit, license, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or any form or permission required by law, including agency rule, to engage in any activity;

(7) "Regulatory" means all licensing and other governmental or statutory requirements pertaining to business or professional activities;

(8) "Person" means any individual, sole proprietorship, partnership, association, cooperative, corporation, nonprofit organization, state or local government agency, and any other organization required to register with the state to do business in the state and to obtain one or more licenses from the state or any of its agencies;

(9) "Director" means the director of licensing;

(10) "Department" means the department of licensing; and

(11) "Regulatory agency" means any state agency, board, commission, or division which regulates one or more professions, occupations, industries, businesses, or activities. [1982 c 182 § 2; 1979 c 158 § 75; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 2.]

19.02.030 Center—Created—Duties—Administrator—Rules, review of. (1) There is created within the department of licensing a business license center.

(2) The duties of the center shall include:

(a) Developing and administering a computerized one-stop master license system capable of storing, retrieving, and exchanging license information with due regard to privacy statutes, as well as issuing and renewing master licenses in an efficient manner;

(b) Providing a license information service detailing requirements to establish or engage in business in this state;

(c) Providing for staggered master license renewal;

(d) Identifying types of licenses appropriate for inclusion in the master license system;

(e) Recommending in reports to the governor and the legislature the elimination, consolidation, or other modification of duplicative, ineffective, or inefficient licensing or inspection requirements; and

(f) Incorporating licenses into the master license system.

(3) The department of licensing shall establish the position of assistant director of the business license center who will also act as executive secretary to the board of review.

(4) The director of licensing may adopt under chapter 34.04 RCW such rules as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter. All proposed rules shall be submitted in writing to the board of review for its review and recommendations. [1982 c 182 § 3; 1979 c 158 § 76; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 3.]

19.02.035 Center to compile and distribute information—Scope. The business license center shall compile information regarding the regulatory programs associated with each of the licenses obtainable under the master license system. This information shall include, at a minimum, a listing of the statutes and administrative rules requiring the licenses and pertaining to the regulatory programs that are directly related to the licensure.

For example, for pesticide dealers' licenses, the information shall include the statutes and rules requiring licensing as well as those pertaining to the subject of registering or distributing pesticides.

The business license center shall provide information governed by this section to any person requesting it. Materials used by the center to describe the services provided by the center shall indicate that this information is available upon request. [1982 c 182 § 4.]

19.02.038 Center—Duties—To be completed by date certain. The business license center shall, with the assistance and full cooperation of the board of review, conclude the following tasks by the dates indicated:

(1) By February 1, 1982, ensure that packets containing the forms for the use of the master licensing system, as well as forms for those licenses commonly needed to begin most kinds of businesses, and materials explaining the use of the forms, the system, and the center are available at each headquarters and each field office of the departments of revenue, employment security, labor and industry, and licensing and at the office of the secretary of state;

(2) By July 1, 1982, revise the application forms distributed in subsection (1) of this section such that all of the forms have a common format;

(3) By January 1, 1983:

(a) Identify those licenses needed to begin most kinds of businesses in the state that should be consolidated and processed under the master license system;

(b) Develop a checklist for each major category of industry that identifies the license renewal requirements for licenses not included in the master license system;

(c) Identify a schedule for implementing the long-range goals of the business license center, including the use of a common data base by state agencies;

(d) For licenses not processed under the master license system and for which renewal fees are fixed rather than variable, develop a schedule for processing the licenses under the system;

(e) Authorize those offices of the various county auditors that are served by automated fee deposit systems to act as agents for the center to collect fees payable under the master license system;

(4) By July 1, 1983:

(a) Assign a common business identifier to each master license system account for use by all state agencies;

(b) Develop a common format for issuing all licenses to businesses for which inspections are not required; and

(5) By June 30, 1985, use the computer services of an agency of the state that has been designated as the state's principal computer services agency, if one has been so designated. [1982 c 182 § 13.]

19.02.040 Board of review—Created—Members—Chairperson—Meetings—Duties. (1) There is hereby created a board of review to provide policy direction to the department of licensing as it establishes and operates the business registration and licensing system. The board of review shall be composed of the following officials or their designees:

- (a) Director, department of revenue;
- (b) Director, department of labor and industries;
- (c) Commissioner, employment security department;
- (d) Director, department of agriculture;
- (e) Director, department of trade and economic development;
- (f) Director, department of licensing;
- (g) Director, office of financial management;
- (h) Chairman, liquor control board;
- (i) Secretary, department of social and health services;
- (j) Secretary of state;
- (k) The governor; and
- (l) As ex officio members:
  - (i) The president of the senate or the president's designee;
  - (ii) The speaker of the house or the speaker's designee; and
  - (iii) A representative of a recognized state-wide organization of employers, representing a large cross section of the Washington business community, to be appointed by the governor.

(2) The governor shall be the chairperson. In the governor's absence, the secretary of state shall act as chairperson.

(3) The board shall meet at the call of the chairperson at least semi-annually or at the call of a member to:

- (a) Establish interagency policy guidelines for the system;
- (b) Review the findings, status, and problems of system operations and recommend courses of action;
- (c) Receive reports from industry and agency task forces;
- (d) Determine in questionable cases whether a specific license is to be included in the master license system;
- (e) Review and make recommendations on rules proposed by the business license center and any amendments to or revisions of the center's rules.

(4) The board shall submit a report to the legislature each biennium identifying the licenses that the board believes should be added to the list of those processed under the master license system. [1985 c 466 § 37; 1982 c 182 § 5; 1979 c 158 § 77; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 4.]

Effective date—Severability—1985 c 466: See notes following RCW 43.31.005.

19.02.050 Participation of state agencies. (1) The legislature hereby directs the full participation by the following agencies in the implementation of this chapter:

- (a) Department of agriculture;
- (b) Secretary of state;
- (c) Department of social and health services;
- (d) Department of revenue;
- (e) Department of fisheries;
- (f) Department of employment security;
- (g) Department of labor and industries;
- (h) Department of trade and economic development;
- (i) Liquor control board;

- (j) Board of pharmacy;
- (k) Department of licensing;
- (l) Utilities and transportation commission; and
- (m) Other agencies as determined by the governor. [1985 c 466 § 38; 1979 c 158 § 78; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 5.]

Effective date—Severability—1985 c 466: See notes following RCW 43.31.005.

19.02.070 Issuance of licenses—Scope—Master application and fees—Action by regulatory agency, when—Agencies provided information. (1) Any person requiring licenses which have been incorporated into the system shall submit a master application to the department requesting the issuance of the licenses. The master application form shall contain in consolidated form information necessary for the issuance of the licenses.

(2) The applicant shall include with the application the sum of all fees and deposits required for the requested individual license endorsements.

(3) Irrespective of any authority delegated to the department of licensing to implement the provisions of this chapter, the authority for approving issuance and renewal of any requested license that requires a preclicensing or renewal investigation, inspection, testing, or other judgmental review by the regulatory agency otherwise legally authorized to issue the license shall remain with that agency. The business license center has the authority to issue those licenses for which proper fee payment and a completed application form have been received and for which no preclicensing or renewal approval action is required by the regulatory agency.

(4) Upon receipt of the application and proper fee payment for any license for which issuance is subject to regulatory agency action under subsection (3) of this section, the department shall immediately notify the regulatory agency with authority to approve issuance or renewal of the license requested by the applicant. Each regulatory agency shall advise the department within a reasonable time after receiving the notice: (a) That the agency approves the issuance of the requested license and will advise the applicant of any specific conditions required for issuing the license; (b) that the agency denies the issuance of the license and gives the applicant reasons for the denial; or (c) that the application is pending.

(5) The department shall issue a master license endorsed for all the approved licenses to the applicant and advise the applicant of the status of other requested licenses. It is the responsibility of the applicant to contest the decision regarding conditions imposed or licenses denied through the normal process established by statute or by the agency with the authority for approving issuance of the license.

(6) Regulatory agencies shall be provided information from the master application for their licensing and regulatory functions. [1982 c 182 § 6; 1979 c 158 § 79; 1977 ex.s. c 319 § 7.]

19.02.080 Licensing fees—Disposition of. All fees collected under the system shall be deposited with the state treasurer. Upon issuance or renewal of the master license or supplemental licenses, the department shall distribute the fees to the appropriate accounts under the applicable statutes for those agencies' licenses. [1982 c 182 § 7.]

19.02.085 Licensing fees—Master license delinquency fee—Rate—Disposition. To encourage timely renewal by applicants, a master license delinquency fee shall be imposed on licensees who fail to renew by the master license expiration date. The master license delinquency fee shall be computed as fifty percent of a base comprised of the licensee's renewal fee minus corporate licensing taxes, corporation annual report fee, and any interest fees or penalties charged for late taxes or corporate renewals. The master license delinquency fee shall be added to the renewal fee and paid by the licensee before a master license shall be renewed. The delinquency fee shall be deposited in the general fund. [1982 c 182 § 9.]

19.02.090 Master license—Expiration date—Prorated fees—Conditions of renewal. (1) The department shall assign an expiration date for each master license. All renewable licenses endorsed on that master license shall expire on that date. License fees shall be prorated to accommodate the staggering of expiration dates.

(2) All renewable licenses endorsed on a master license shall be renewed by the department under conditions originally imposed unless a regulatory agency advises the department of conditions or denials to be imposed before the endorsement is renewed. [1982 c 182 § 8.]

19.02.100 Master license—Issuance or renewal—Denied, when. (1) The department shall not issue or renew a master license to any person if:

(a) The person does not have a valid tax registration, if required;

(b) The person is a corporation delinquent in fees or penalties owing to the secretary of state or is not validly registered under Title 23A RCW, chapter 18.100 RCW, Title 24 RCW, and any other statute now or hereafter adopted which gives corporate or business licensing responsibilities to the secretary of state; or

(c) The person has not submitted the sum of all fees and deposits required for the requested individual license endorsements, any outstanding master license delinquency fee, or other fees and penalties to be collected through the system.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent registration by the state of an employer for the purpose of paying an employee of that employer industrial insurance or unemployment insurance benefits. [1982 c 182 § 10.]

19.02.110 Master license—System to include additional licenses. In addition to the licenses processed under the master license system prior to April 1, 1982, on July 1, 1982, use of the master license system shall be expanded as provided by this section.

Applications for the following shall be filed with the business license center and shall be processed, and renewals shall be issued, under the master license system:

(1) Nursery dealer's licenses required by chapter 15.13 RCW;

(2) Seed dealer's licenses required by chapter 15.49 RCW;

(3) Pesticide dealer's licenses required by chapter 15.58 RCW;

(4) Shopkeeper's licenses required by chapter 18.64 RCW;

(5) Refrigerated locker licenses required by chapter 19.32 RCW;

(6) Wholesalers licenses and retailers licenses required by chapter 19.91 RCW;

(7) Bakery licenses and distributor's licenses required by chapter 69.12 RCW; and

(8) Egg dealer's licenses required by chapter 69.25 RCW. [1982 c 182 § 11.]

19.02.120 Agencies to review licensure requirements and report to governor. The gambling commission, department of general administration, state board of health, department of social and health services, department of ecology, department of labor and industries, department of agriculture, department of licensing, department of natural resources, department of transportation, insurance commissioner, employment security department, liquor control board, utilities and transportation commission, and department of revenue shall review the licenses, as defined in RCW 19.02.020, and requirements for licensure within their jurisdictions and report to the governor no later than July 1, 1983, those that they recommend be eliminated, modified, or consolidated with other requirements. In the report, each agency in this section shall identify the need for continuing each licensure requirement not recommended for elimination. In identifying the need for continuation, each agency in this section shall be as specific as possible and shall not use the existence of a statute as the source of the need for continuation. [1982 c 182 § 14.]

19.02.130 Governor to submit recommendations on licensure requirements to legislature. The governor shall review the reports submitted under RCW 19.02.120 and shall submit to the speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the senate by January 9, 1984, recommendations for the elimination, consolidation, or modification of licensing requirements. At least two copies of each of the agency reports shall be transmitted with the governor's recommendations. [1982 c 182 § 15.]

19.02.200 Center as secretary of state's agent for corporate renewals—Proposals for—Schedule. See RCW 43.07.200.

19.02.800 Master license system—Certain business or professional activity licenses exempt. Except as provided in RCW 43.07.200, the provisions of this chapter regarding the processing of license applications and renewals under a master license system shall not apply to those business or professional activities that are licensed or regulated under chapter 31.04, 31.08, 31.12, 31.12A, or 31.13 RCW or under Title 30, 32, 33, or 48 RCW. [1982 c 182 § 17.]

19.02.810 Master license system—Existing licenses or permits registered under, when. A license or permit affected by this act and otherwise valid on April 1, 1982, need not be registered under the master license system until the renewal or expiration date of that license or permit under the laws in effect prior to April 1, 1982, unless otherwise revoked or suspended. [1982 c 182 § 46.]

Reviser's note: "This act" consists of the 1982 c 182 amendments to RCW 15.13.250, 15.13.280, 15.13.290, 15.13.300, 15.49.380, 15.49.390, 15.58.030, 15.58.180, 15.58.190, 18.64.011, 18.64.044, 19.02.010, 19.02.020, 19.02.030, 19.02.040, 19.02.070, 19.32.020, 19.32.040, 19.32.050, 19.91.010, 19.91.130, 19.91.140, 19.91.150, 69.12.020, 69.12.030, 69.12.040, 69.12.050, 69.25.020, 69.25.050, 69.25.060; the enactment of RCW 15.49.055, 19.02.035, 19.02.038, 19.02.080, 19.02.085, 19.02.090, 19.02.100, 19.02.110, 19.02.120, 19.02.130, 19.02.800, 19.02.810, 19.02.890, 19.02.901, 19.02.920, and 43.07.200; and the repeal of RCW 19.02.060 and 82.24.220.

19.02.890 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the business license center act. [1982 c 182 § 18.]

19.02.900 Severability—1977 ex.s. c 319. If any provision of this 1977 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1977 ex.s. c 319 § 10.]

19.02.901 Severability—1982 c 182. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1982 c 182 § 47.]

Reviser's note: For "this act," see note following RCW 19.02.810.

19.02.910 Effective date—1977 ex.s. c 319. This 1977 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1977. [1977 ex.s. c 319 § 11.]

19.02.920 Construction. The rule of strict construction shall have no application to this chapter and it shall be liberally construed in order to carry out its purposes. [1982 c 182 § 16.]

19.09.912	Effective date—1983 c 265.

19.09.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to protect the general public and public charity in the state of Washington; to require full public disclosure of facts relating to persons and organizations who solicit funds from the public for public charitable purposes, the purposes for which such funds are solicited, and their actual uses; and to prevent deceptive and dishonest statements and conduct in the solicitation of funds for or in the name of charity. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 1.]

19.09.020 Definitions. When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) A "bona fide officer or employee" of a charitable organization is one whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization and who does not act in the manner of an independent contractor in his relation with the organization.

(2) "Charitable organization" means: (a) Any benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, eleemosynary, education, social, recreation, fraternal organization, or any other person having or purporting to have a charitable nature; and (b) which solicits or solicits and collects contributions for any charitable purpose. "Charitable" shall have its common law meaning unless the context in which it is used clearly requires a narrower or a broader meaning.

(3) "Contribution" means the donation, promise or grant, for consideration or otherwise, of any money or property of any kind or value which contribution is wholly or partly induced by a solicitation. Reference to dollar amounts of "contributions" or "solicitations" in this chapter means in the case of payments or promises to pay for merchandise or rights of any description, the value of the total amount paid or promised to be paid for such merchandise or rights less the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any such tangible merchandise, rights, or services resold by the organization, and not merely that portion of the purchase price to be applied to a charitable purpose.

(4) "Compensation" means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration.

(5) "Cost of solicitation" means and includes all costs, expenditures, debts, obligations, salaries, wages, commissions, fees, or other money or thing of value paid or incurred in making a solicitation for a direct gift or conducting a sale or benefit affair; cost of solicitation shall not include the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any tangible goods or services resold by the organization as a part of its fund raising activities.

(6) "Direct gift" shall mean and include an outright contribution of food, clothing, money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value to be used for a charitable or religious purpose and for which the donor receives no consideration or thing of value in return.

(7) "Membership" means that for the payment of fees, dues, assessments, etc., an organization provides services and confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, honor, or other direct benefit, in addition to the right to vote, elect officers, or hold office. The term "membership" shall not include those persons who are granted a membership upon making a contribution as the result of solicitation.

(8) "Parent organization" means that part of a charitable organization which coordinates, supervises, or exercises control over policy, fund raising, or expenditures, or assists or advises one or more chapters, branches, or affiliates of such organization in the state of Washington.

(9) "Person" means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, or any combination thereof.

(10) "Professional fund raiser" means any person who, for compensation or other consideration, plans, conducts, manages, or advises concerning any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable purpose, or who engages in the business of or holds himself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations: Provided, That the following persons shall not be deemed professional fund raisers: (a) Any bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent establishment in the state of Washington; whose salary or other compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised; (b) a clergyman of a religious corporation exempt under the provisions of RCW 19.09.030.

(11) A "professional solicitor" means any person other than a professional fund raiser who is employed or retained for compensation by any person or charitable organization to solicit contributions for charitable purposes from persons in this state, but shall not include any bona fide officer or employee of a registered charitable organization.

(12) "Sale and benefit affair" shall mean and include, but not be limited to, athletic or sports event, bazaar, benefit, campaign, circus, contest, dance, drive, entertainment, exhibition, exposition, party, performance, picnic, sale, social gathering, theater, or variety show which the public is requested to patronize or attend or to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable or religious purpose connected therewith: Provided, That bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation within the provisions of this chapter.

(13) "Secretary" means the secretary of state.

(14) "Solicitation" means any oral or written request for a contribution, including the solicitor's offer or attempt to sell any property, rights, services, or other thing in connection with which:

(a) Any appeal is made for any charitable purpose; or

(b) The name of any charitable organization is used as an inducement for consummating the sale; or

(c) Any statement is made which implies that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale will be applied toward any charitable purpose or donated to any charitable organization.

The solicitation shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making it receives any contribution or makes any sale. [1983 c 265 § 1; 1979 c 158 § 80; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 106 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 2.]

19.09.030 Exemptions. The registration and disclosure requirements of this chapter, except the requirements of RCW 19.09.210, shall not apply to the following:

(1) Solicitations by religious corporations duly organized and operated in good faith as religious organizations which are entitled to receive a declaration of current tax exempt status from the government of the United States and their duly organized branches or chapters, if the solicitations by such organization are conducted among the members thereof by other members or officers thereof, voluntarily or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions to the regular or special religious assemblies, meetings, or services of any such organization or if the solicitations by such organization are for evangelical, missionary, or religious purposes. An exempt religious corporation shall also be exempt from the requirements of RCW 19.09.210.

(2) Any charitable organizations when the solicitation of contributions is confined to the membership of the organization and when the solicitation is managed and conducted solely by officers and members of such organizations who are unpaid for such services.

(3) Persons requesting any contributions for the relief of named individuals:

(a) When the solicitation is managed and conducted solely by persons who are unpaid for such services and;

(b) When the contributions collected do not exceed ten thousand dollars in any twelve month period; and

(c) When all of the contributions collected, without any deductions whatsoever except for the actual cost of a banquet, dance, or similar social gathering, are turned over to the named beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(4) Charitable organizations which do not intend to solicit and receive, and do not actually raise or receive, contributions from the public in excess of ten thousand dollars during a calendar year, if all their functions, including all fund raising activities, are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services and if no part of their assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to any officer or member.

(5) Charitable organizations which do not intend to solicit and receive, and do not actually raise or receive, contributions from more than ten persons during a calendar year, if all their functions, including all fund raising activities, are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services and if no part of their assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to any officer or member.

(6) Solicitations by government subdivisions which solicit funds for governmental purposes, if such funds are subject to control, examination, or review by governmental agents or agencies.

(7) Solicitations by volunteer hospital organizations affiliated with nonprofit hospitals whose budgets are subject to review by the Washington state hospital commission according to chapter 70.39 RCW when: At least eighty percent of the net proceeds of such solicitations are used solely to improve or maintain tax exempt health care services or facilities of such institutions; the solicitation is carried on solely by persons who are unpaid for their services and no part of the volunteer organizations' assets or income inures to the benefit of, or is paid to any officer or member; and no professional fund raiser or solicitor is employed or retained for compensation in connection with such solicitations. Sales by gift shops operated by such hospital organizations do not constitute solicitations under this section. [1983 c 265 § 2; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 106 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 3.]

19.09.045 Organization ceasing to be exempt—Registration. Any person or charitable organization which ceases to be exempt under RCW 19.09.030 shall register with the secretary as required by this chapter within thirty days after the loss of the exemption. [1983 c 265 § 3.]

19.09.050 Professional fund raisers not exempt. A professional fund raiser is not exempted from any provisions of this chapter by acting for an organization exempted under the provisions of RCW 19.09.030. [1983 c 265 § 13; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 5.]

19.09.065 Charitable organizations—Registration required—Public record—Registration not endorsement. (1) All charitable organizations, as defined in RCW 19.09.020, unless exempt under RCW 19.09.030, shall register with the secretary.

(2) Failure to register as required by this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

(3) Information provided to the secretary pursuant to this chapter shall be a public record.

(4) Registration shall not be considered or be represented as an endorsement by the secretary or the state of Washington. [1983 c 265 § 4.]

19.09.069 Professional fund raisers—Registration required—Public record—Registration not endorsement. (1) All professional fund raisers, as defined in RCW 19.09.020, shall register with the secretary.

(2) Failure to register as required by this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

(3) Information provided to the secretary pursuant to this chapter shall be a public record.

(4) Registration shall not be considered or be represented as an endorsement by the secretary or the state of Washington. [1983 c 265 § 14.]

19.09.075 Charitable organizations—Application for registration—Contents—Fee. An application for registration as a charitable organization shall contain the following:

(1) The name of the charitable organization;

(2) The name under which the organization will solicit contributions;

(3) The name, address, and telephone number of the president and treasurer, or comparable officers, of the organization;

(4) The purpose of the solicitations;

(5) A solicitation history of the organization including:

(a) The number of solicitation campaigns over the past three years;

(b) The total amount of money applied to the costs of the solicitations over the past three years;

(c) The total amount of money dispersed for charitable purposes over the past three years;

(d) The number of solicitation campaigns reported under subsection (5)(a) of this section for which the organization used a professional fund raiser; and

(6) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The requirements of subsections (5)(b) and (c) of this section may be satisfied by the submission of an independent certified audit.

The application shall be submitted with a fifteen-dollar filing fee and shall be signed by the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the organization. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered. [1983 c 265 § 5.]

19.09.079 Professional fund raisers—Application for registration—Contents—Fee. An application for registration as a professional fund raiser shall contain the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the professional fund raiser;

(2) A solicitation history of the professional fund raiser for the past three years including:

(a) Number of solicitation campaigns;

(b) Names of charitable organizations for whom fund raising has been performed; and

(c) A list of the states in which fund raising has been performed; and

(3) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The application shall be submitted with a fifteen-dollar filing fee and shall be signed by the professional fund raiser. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered. [1983 c 265 § 15.]

19.09.085 Registration—Duration—Changes—Notice to reregister. (1) Registration under this chapter shall be effective for two years.

(2) Persons and charitable organizations required to register under this chapter shall file a notice of change of information within thirty days of any change in the information contained in RCW 19.09.075 (1) through (4).

(3) The secretary may notify persons and charitable organizations registered under this chapter of the need to reregister upon the expiration of their current registration. The notification shall be by mail, sent at least sixty days prior to the expiration of their current registration. [1983 c 265 § 8.]

19.09.095 Subsidiary organizations—Requirement to register—Exemptions. If any chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division of a charitable organization is supervised and controlled by a superior or parent organization which is incorporated, qualified to do business, or is doing business within this state, such chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division shall not be required to register under RCW 19.09.065 if the superior or parent organization files an application, on behalf of its subsidiary, in addition to or as a part of its own application. If an application has been filed by a superior or parent organization, on behalf of the subsidiary organization, the superior or parent organization need not include the financial statement information as part of its financial report for any chapter, branch, or affiliate which solicits and collects less than five hundred dollars during its fiscal year, providing all such fund raising is done by persons who are unpaid for such services. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend between five hundred dollars and five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall report such financial information either separately or in consolidated form. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend in excess of five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall set forth such financial information separately, in addition to including such information in consolidated form. [1983 c 265 § 6.]

19.09.100 Conditions applicable to solicitations. The following conditions apply to solicitations as defined by RCW 19.09.020:

(1) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall disclose verbally or in writing to each person or organization solicited:

(a) The name of the individual making the solicitation;

(b) The name of the charitable organization;

(c) The purpose of the solicitation, and the name of the organization that will receive the funds contributed; and

(d) Upon request, the estimated percentage of the money collected which will be applied to the cost of the solicitation or to the charitable purpose;

(2) A charitable organization shall comply with all local governmental regulations which apply to soliciting for or on behalf of charitable organizations;

(3) The advertising material and the general promotional plan for a solicitation shall not be false, misleading, or deceptive, and shall afford full and fair disclosure; and

(4) Solicitations shall not be conducted by a charitable organization that has, or if a corporation, its officers, directors, or principals have, been convicted of a crime involving solicitations for or on behalf of a charitable organization in this state, the United States, or any other state or foreign country within the past ten years and has been subject to any permanent injunction or administrative order or judgment, under the provisions of RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090, involving a violation or violations of the provisions of RCW 19.86.020, within the past ten years, or of restraining a false or misleading promotional plan involving solicitations for charitable organizations.

Failure to comply with subsections (1) through (4) of this section is a violation of this chapter. [1983 c 265 § 9; 1982 c 227 § 7; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 6; 1974 ex.s. c 106 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 10.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: "Sections 5 and 6 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1983. The remaining sections of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect March 1, 1982." [1982 c 227 § 25.] "Sections 5 and 6 of this act" consist of a temporary section (uncodified) and the 1982 c 227 amendment to RCW 18.34.130, respectively.

Reviser's note: Substitute House Bill No. 778, (1982 c 227), was signed by the governor April 3, 1982.

19.09.190 Professional fund raisers—Surety bond.

Every person employed or retained as a professional fund raiser by or for a charitable organization shall execute a surety bond as principal in the amount of five thousand dollars with one or more sureties whose liability in the aggregate as such sureties will at least equal the said sum. The bond shall be filed with the secretary. The bond shall run to the state and to any person who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond for any malfeasance or misfeasance in the conduct of such solicitation. [1983 c 265 § 16; 1982 c 227 § 8; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 19.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.200 Books, records and contracts. Charitable organizations and professional fund raisers shall maintain accurate, current, and readily available books and records at their usual business locations until at least three years shall have elapsed following the effective period to which they relate.

All contracts between professional fund raisers and charitable organizations shall be in writing and true and correct copies of such contracts or records thereof shall be kept on file in the various offices of the charitable organization and/or professional fund raiser for a three-year period as provided in this section. Such records and contracts shall be available for inspection and examination by the attorney general or by the county prosecuting attorney. A copy of such contract or record shall be submitted by the charitable organization or professional fund raiser, within ten days, following receipt of a written demand therefor from the attorney general or county prosecutor. [1982 c 227 § 9; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 20.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.210 Financial statements. Upon the request of the attorney general or the county prosecutor, a charitable organization shall submit a financial statement containing, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) The gross amount of the contributions pledged and the gross amount collected.

(2) The amount thereof, given or to be given to charitable purposes represented together with details as to the manner of distribution as may be required.

(3) The aggregate amount paid and to be paid for the expenses of such solicitation.

(4) The amounts paid to and to be paid to professional fund raisers and solicitors.

(5) Copies of any annual or periodic reports furnished by the charitable organization, of its activities during or for the same fiscal period, to its parent organization, subsidiaries, or affiliates, if any. [1983 c 265 § 10; 1982 c 227 § 10; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 10; 1975 1st ex.s. c 219 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 21.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.230 Using the name of another person. No charitable organization, professional fund raiser, or professional solicitor shall knowingly use the name of any other person for the purpose of soliciting contributions from persons in this state without the written consent of such other person: Provided, That such consent may be deemed to have been given by anyone who is a director, trustee, other officer, employee, agent, professional fund raiser, or professional solicitor of the charitable organization.

A person may be deemed to have used the name of another person for the purpose of soliciting contributions if such latter person's name is listed on any stationery, advertisement, brochure, or correspondence of the charitable organization or person or if such name is listed or represented to any one who has contributed to, sponsored, or endorsed the charitable organization or person, or its or his activities. [1982 c 227 § 11; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 23.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.240 Using similar name, symbol, or statement.

No charitable organization, professional fund raiser, or other person soliciting contributions for or on behalf of a charitable organization shall use a name, symbol, or statement so closely related or similar to that used by another charitable organization or governmental agency that the use thereof would tend to confuse or mislead the public. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 24.]

19.09.275 Violations—Penalties. Any person who willfully and knowingly violates any provisions of this chapter or who shall willfully and knowingly give false or incorrect information to the secretary, attorney general, or county prosecuting attorney in filing statements required by this chapter, whether or not such statement or report is verified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW. [1983 c 265 § 11; 1982 c 227 § 12; 1977 ex.s. c 222 § 14.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.305 Service on secretary when registrant not found—Procedure—Costs. When a person or an organization registered under this chapter, or its president, treasurer, or comparable officers, cannot be found after reasonably diligent effort, the secretary of state shall be an agent of such person or organization upon whom process may be served. Service on the secretary shall be made by delivering to the secretary or the secretary's designee duplicate copies of such process, and a twenty-five dollar filing fee. Thereupon, the secretary shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded to the registrant at the most current address shown in the secretary's files. Any service so had on the secretary shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

Any fee under this section shall be taxable as costs in the action.

The secretary shall maintain a record of all process served on the secretary under this section, and shall record the date of service and the secretary's action with reference thereto.

Nothing in this section limits or affects the right to serve process required or permitted to be served on a registrant in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law. [1983 c 265 § 7.]

19.09.315 Forms and procedures—Publications—Fee. The secretary may establish, by rule, standard forms and procedures for the efficient administration of this chapter. The secretary may issue such publications, reports, or information from the records as may be useful to the solicited public and charitable organizations. To defray the costs of any such publication, the secretary is authorized to charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs of preparing, printing, and distributing such publications. [1983 c 265 § 17.]

19.09.340 Violations deemed unfair practice under chapter 19.86 RCW—Application of chapter 9.04 RCW—Procedure. (1) The commission by any person of an act or practice prohibited by this chapter is hereby declared to be an unfair act or practice or unfair method of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce for the purpose of application of the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

(2) The secretary may refer such evidence, as may be available, concerning violations of this chapter to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the alleged violation arose. In addition to any other action they might commence, the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney may bring an action in the name of the state, with or without such reference, against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act or practice prohibited by this chapter: Provided, That this chapter shall be considered in conjunction with chapters 9.04 and 19.86 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and the powers and duties of the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney as they may appear in the aforementioned chapters, shall apply against all persons subject to this chapter. [1983 c 265 § 12; 1982 c 227 § 13; 1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 34.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.09.355 Moneys to be transmitted to general fund.

All fees and other moneys received by the secretary of state under this chapter shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund. [1983 c 265 § 18.]

19.09.910 Severability—1973 1st ex.s. c 13. The provisions of this chapter are severable, and if any part or provision hereof shall be void, the decision of the court so holding shall not affect or impair any of the remaining parts or provisions of this chapter. [1973 1st ex.s. c 13 § 38.]

19.09.911 Severability—1983 c 265. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 265 § 20.]

19.09.912 Effective date—1983 c 265. With the exception of section 19 of this act, this act shall take effect January 1, 1984. [1983 c 265 § 21.]

Reviser's note: "Section 19 of this act" is an uncodified appropriation section.

19.16.100 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Person" includes individual, firm, partnership, trust, joint venture, association, or corporation.

(2) "Collection agency" means and includes:

(a) Any person directly or indirectly engaged in soliciting claims for collection, or collecting or attempting to collect claims owed or due or asserted to be owed or due another person;

(b) Any person who directly or indirectly furnishes or attempts to furnish, sells, or offers to sell forms represented to be a collection system or scheme intended or calculated to be used to collect claims even though the forms direct the debtor to make payment to the creditor and even though the forms may be or are actually used by the creditor himself in his own name;

(c) Any person who in attempting to collect or in collecting his own claim uses a fictitious name or any name other than his own which would indicate to the debtor that a third person is collecting or attempting to collect such claim.

(3) "Collection agency" does not mean and does not include:

(a) Any individual engaged in soliciting claims for collection, or collecting or attempting to collect claims on behalf of a licensee under this chapter, if said individual is an employee of the licensee;

(b) Any individual collecting or attempting to collect claims for not more than one employer, if all the collection efforts are carried on in the name of the employer and if the individual is an employee of the employer; or

(c) Any person whose collection activities are carried on in his or its true name and are confined and are directly related to the operation of a business other than that of a collection agency, such as but not limited to trust companies, savings and loan associations, building and loan associations, abstract companies doing an escrow business, real estate brokers, public officers acting in their official capacities, persons acting under court order, lawyers, insurance companies, credit unions, loan or finance companies, mortgage banks, and banks.

(4) "Claim" means any obligation for the payment of money or thing of value arising out of any agreement or contract, express or implied.

(5) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(6) "Client" or "customer" means any person authorizing or employing a collection agency to collect a claim.

(7) "Licensee" means any person licensed under this chapter.

(8) "Board" means the Washington state collection agency board.

(9) "Debtor" means any person owing or alleged to owe a claim. [1979 c 158 § 81; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 1.]

19.16.110 License required. No person shall act, assume to act, or advertise as a collection agency as defined in this chapter, except as authorized by this chapter, without first having applied for and obtained a license from the director.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require a regular employee of a collection agency duly licensed under this chapter to procure a collection agency license. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 2.]

19.16.120 Denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew licenses—Civil penalty—Grounds. In addition to other provisions of this chapter, any license issued pursuant to this chapter or any application therefor may be denied, not renewed, revoked, or suspended, or in lieu of or in addition to suspension a licensee may be assessed a civil, monetary penalty in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars:

(1) If an individual applicant or licensee is less than eighteen years of age or is not a resident of this state.

(2) If an applicant or licensee is not authorized to do business in this state.

(3) If the application or renewal forms required by this chapter are incomplete, fees required under RCW 19.16.140 and 19.16.150 have not been paid, and the surety bond or cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director required by RCW 19.16.190 has not been filed or renewed or is canceled.

(4) If any individual applicant, owner, officer, director, or managing employee of a nonindividual applicant or licensee:

(a) Shall have knowingly made a false statement of a material fact in any application for a collection agency license or renewal thereof, or in any data attached thereto and two years have not elapsed since the date of such statement;

(b) Shall have had a license to engage in the business of a collection agency denied, not renewed, suspended, or revoked by this state, any other state, or foreign country, for any reason other than the nonpayment of licensing fees or failure to meet bonding requirements: Provided, That the terms of this subsection shall not apply if:

(i) Two years have elapsed since the time of any such denial, nonrenewal, or revocation; or

(ii) The terms of any such suspension have been fulfilled;

(c) Has been convicted in any court of any felony involving forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, or conspiracy to defraud and is incarcerated for that offense or five years have not elapsed since the date of such conviction;

(d) Has had any judgment entered against him in any civil action involving forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, larceny, extortion, or conspiracy to defraud and five years have not elapsed since the date of the entry of the final judgment in said action: Provided, That in no event shall a license be issued unless the judgment debt has been discharged;

(e) Has had his license to practice law suspended or revoked and two years have not elapsed since the date of such suspension or revocation, unless he has been relicensed to practice law in this state;

(f) Has had any judgment entered against him or it under the provisions of RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090 involving a violation or violations of RCW 19.86.020 and two years have not elapsed since the entry of the final judgment: Provided, That in no event shall a license be issued unless the terms of such judgment, if any, have been fully complied with: Provided further, That said judgment shall not be grounds for denial, suspension, nonrenewal, or revocation of a license unless the judgment arises out of and is based on acts of the applicant, owner, officer, director, managing employee, or licensee while acting for or as a collection agency;

(g) Has petitioned for bankruptcy, and two years have not elapsed since the filing of said petition;

(h) Shall be insolvent in the sense that his or its liabilities exceed his or its assets or in the sense that he or it cannot meet his or its obligations as they mature;

(i) Has failed to pay any civil, monetary penalty assessed in accordance with RCW 19.16.351 or 19.16.360 within ten days after the assessment becomes final; or

(j) Has knowingly failed to comply with, or violated any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter, and two years have not elapsed since the occurrence of said noncompliance or violation.

Any person who is engaged in the collection agency business as of January 1, 1972 shall, upon filing the application, paying the fees, and filing the surety bond or cash deposit or other negotiable security in lieu of bond required by this chapter, be issued a license hereunder. [1977 ex.s. c 194 § 1; 1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 3.]

19.16.130 License—Application—Form—Contents. Every application for a license shall be in writing, under oath, and in the form prescribed by the director.

Every application shall contain such relevant information as the director may require.

The applicant shall furnish the director with such evidence as the director may reasonably require to establish that the requirements and qualifications for a licensee have been fulfilled by the applicant.

Every application for a license shall state, among other things that may be required, the name of the applicant with the name under which the applicant will do business and the location by street and number, city and state of each office of the business for which the license is sought.

No license shall be issued in any fictitious name which may be confused with or which is similar to any federal, state, county, or municipal governmental function or agency or in any name which may tend to describe any business function or enterprise not actually engaged in by the applicant or in any name which is the same as or so similar to that of any existing licensee as would tend to deceive the public or in any name which would otherwise tend to be deceptive or misleading. The foregoing shall not necessarily preclude the use of a name which may be followed by a geographically descriptive title which would distinguish it from a similar name licensed but operating in a different geographical area. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 4.]

19.16.140 License—Application—Fees. Each applicant when submitting his application shall pay a licensing fee and an investigation fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. If a license is not issued in response to the application, the license fee shall be returned to the applicant.

An annual license fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be paid to the director on or before January first of each year. If the annual license fee is not paid on or before January first, the licensee shall be assessed a penalty for late payment in an amount determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. If the fee and penalty are not paid by January thirty-first, it will be necessary for the licensee to submit a new application for a license: Provided, That no license shall be issued upon such new application unless and until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this section have been paid.

Any license or branch office certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on December thirty-first following the issuance thereof. [1985 c 7 § 81; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 90; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 5.]

19.16.150 Branch office certificate required. If a licensee maintains a branch office, he or it shall not operate a collection agency business in such branch office until he or it has secured a branch office certificate therefor from the director. A licensee, so long as his or its license is in full force and effect and in good standing, shall be entitled to branch office certificates for any branch office operated by such licensee upon payment of the fee therefor provided in this chapter.

Each licensee when applying for a branch office certificate shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086. An annual fee determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 for a branch office certificate shall be paid to the director on or before January first of each year. If the annual fee is not paid on or before January first, a penalty for late payment in an amount determined by the director as provided in RCW 43.24.086 shall be assessed. If the fee and the penalty are not paid by January thirty-first, it will be necessary for the licensee to apply for a new branch office certificate: Provided, That no such new branch office certificate shall be issued unless and until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this section have been paid. [1985 c 7 § 82; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 91; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 6.]

19.16.160 License and branch office certificate—Form—Contents—Display. Each license and branch office certificate, when issued, shall be in the form and size prescribed by the director and shall state in addition to any other matter required by the director:

- (1) The name of the licensee;
- (2) The name under which the licensee will do business;
- (3) The address at which the collection agency business is to be conducted; and
- (4) The number and expiration date of the license or branch office certificate.

A licensee shall display his or its license in a conspicuous place in his or its principal place of business and, if he or it conducts a branch office, the branch office certificate shall be conspicuously displayed in the branch office.

Concurrently with or prior to engaging in any activity as a collection agency, as defined in this chapter, any person shall furnish to his or its client or customer the number indicated on the collection agency license issued to him pursuant to this section. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 2; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 7.]

19.16.170 Procedure upon change of name or business location. Whenever a licensee shall contemplate a change of his or its trade name or a change in the location of his or its principal place of business or branch office, he or it shall give written notice of such proposed change to the director. The director shall approve the proposed change and issue a new license or a branch office certificate, as the case may be, reflecting the change. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 8.]

19.16.180 Assignability of license or branch office certificate. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a license or branch office certificate granted under this chapter is not assignable or transferable.

(2) Upon the death of an individual licensee, the director shall have the right to transfer the license and any branch office certificate of the decedent to the personal representative of his estate for the period of the unexpired term of the license and such additional time, not to exceed one year from the date of death of the licensee, as said personal representative may need in order to settle the deceased's estate or sell the collection agency. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 9.]

19.16.190 Surety bond requirements—Cash deposit or securities. (1) Each applicant shall, at the time of applying for a license, file with the director a surety bond in the sum of five thousand dollars. The bond shall be annually renewable on January first of each year, shall be approved by the director as to form and content, and shall be executed by the applicant as principal and by a surety company authorized to do business in this state as surety. Such bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee for the benefit of the state and conditioned that the licensee shall faithfully and truly perform all agreements entered into with the licensee's clients or customers and shall, within thirty days after the close of each calendar month, account to and pay to his client or customer the net proceeds of all collections made during the preceding calendar month and due to each client or customer less any offsets due licensee under RCW 19.16.210 and 19.16.220. The bond required by this section shall remain in effect until canceled by action of the surety or the licensee or the director.

(2) An applicant for a license under this chapter may furnish, file, and deposit with the director, in lieu of the surety bond provided for herein, a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director. The security deposited with the director in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of one year after the collection agency's license has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or on said security deposit at the expiration of said one year.

(3) A surety may file with the director notice of his or its withdrawal on the bond of the licensee. Upon filing a new bond or upon the revocation of the collection agency license or upon the expiration of sixty days after the filing of notice of withdrawal as surety by the surety, the liability of the former surety for all future acts of the licensee shall terminate.

(4) The director shall immediately cancel the bond given by a surety company upon being advised that the surety company's license to transact business in this state has been revoked.

(5) Upon the filing with the director of notice by a surety of his withdrawal as the surety on the bond of a licensee or upon the cancellation by the director of the bond of a surety as provided in this section, the director shall immediately give notice to the licensee of the withdrawal or cancellation. The notice shall be sent to the licensee by registered or certified mail with request for a return receipt and addressed to the licensee at his or its main office as shown by the records of the director. At the expiration of thirty days from the date of mailing the notice, the license of the licensee shall be terminated, unless the licensee has filed a new bond with a surety satisfactory to the director.

(6) All bonds given under this chapter shall be filed and held in the office of the director. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 10.]

19.16.200 Action on bond, cash deposit or securities.

In addition to all other legal remedies, an action may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction upon the bond or cash deposit or security in lieu thereof, required by RCW 19.16.190, by any person to whom the licensee fails to account and pay as set forth in such bond or by any client or customer of the licensee who has been damaged by failure of the licensee to comply with all agreements entered into with such client or customer: Provided, That the aggregate liability of the surety to all such clients or customers shall in no event exceed the sum of such bond.

An action upon such bond or security shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of the cancellation of the bond or, in the case of a cash deposit or other security deposited in lieu of the surety bond, within one year of the date of expiration or revocation of license: Provided, That no action shall be maintained upon such bond or such cash deposit or other security for any claim which has been barred by any nonclaim statute or statute of limitations of this state. Two copies of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the director at the time the suit is started. Such service shall constitute service on the surety. The director shall transmit one of said copies of the complaint served on him to the surety within forty-eight hours after it shall have been received.

The director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits commenced under this chapter upon surety bonds, or the cash or other security deposited in lieu thereof.

In the event of a judgment being entered against the deposit or security referred to in RCW 19.16.190(2), the director shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment, pay said judgment from the amount of the deposit or security. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 11.]

19.16.210 Accounting and payments by licensee to customer. A licensee shall within thirty days after the close of each calendar month account in writing to his or its customers for all collections made during that calendar month and pay to his or its customers the net proceeds due and payable of all collections made during that calendar month except that a licensee need not account to the customer for:

(1) Court costs recovered which were previously advanced by licensee or his or its attorney.

(2) Attorney's fees and interest or other charges incidental to the principal amount of the obligation legally and properly belonging to the licensee, if such charges are retained by the licensee after the principal amount of the obligation has been accounted for and remitted to the customer. When the net proceeds are less than ten dollars at the end of any calendar month, payments may be deferred for a period not to exceed three months. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 12.]

19.16.220 Accounting and payments by customer to licensee. Every customer of a licensee shall, within thirty days after the close of each calendar month, account and pay to his or its collection agency all sums owing to the collection agency for payments received by the customer during that calendar month on claims in the hands of the collection agency.

If a customer fails to pay a licensee any sums due under this section, the licensee shall, in addition to other remedies provided by law, have the right to offset any moneys due the licensee under this section against any moneys due customer under RCW 19.16.210. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 13.]

19.16.230 Licensee—Business office—Records to be kept. (1) Every licensee required to keep and maintain records pursuant to this section shall establish and maintain a regular active business office in the state of Washington for the purpose of conducting his or its collection agency business. Said office must be open to the public during reasonable stated business hours, and must be managed by a resident of the state of Washington.

(2) Every licensee shall keep a record of all sums collected by him or it and all disbursements made by him or it. All such records shall be kept at the business office referred to in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Licensees shall maintain and preserve accounting records of collections and payments to customers for a period of six years from the date of the last entry thereon. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 3; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 14.]

19.16.240 Licensee—Trust fund account. Each licensee shall at all times maintain a separate bank account in this state in which all moneys collected by the licensee shall be deposited except that negotiable instruments received may be forwarded directly to a customer. Moneys received must be deposited within ten days after posting to the book of accounts. In no event shall moneys received be disposed of in any manner other than to deposit such moneys in said account or as provided in this section.

The bank account shall bear some title sufficient to distinguish it from the licensee's personal or general checking account, such as "Customer's Trust Fund Account". There shall be sufficient funds in said trust account at all times to pay all moneys due or owing to all customers and no disbursements shall be made from such account except to customers or to remit moneys collected from debtors on assigned claims and due licensee's attorney or to refund over payments except that a licensee may periodically withdraw therefrom such moneys as may accrue to licensee.

Any money in such trust account belonging to a licensee may be withdrawn for the purpose of transferring the same into the possession of licensee or into a personal or general account of licensee. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 15.]

19.16.245 Financial statement. No licensee shall receive any money from any debtor as a result of the collection of any claim until he or it shall have submitted a financial statement showing the assets and liabilities of the licensee truly reflecting that the licensee's net worth is not less than the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars, in cash or its equivalent, of which not less than five thousand dollars shall be deposited in a bank, available for the use of the licensee's business. Any money so collected shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 19.16.430(2). The financial statement shall be sworn to by the licensee, if the licensee is an individual, or by a partner, officer, or manager in its behalf if the licensee is a partnership, corporation, or unincorporated association. The information contained in the financial statement shall be confidential and not a public record, but is admissible in evidence at any hearing held, or in any action instituted in a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter: Provided, That this section shall not apply to those persons holding a valid license issued pursuant to this chapter on July 16, 1973. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 9.]

19.16.250 Prohibited practices. No licensee or employee of a licensee shall:

(1) Directly or indirectly aid or abet any unlicensed person to engage in business as a collection agency in this state or receive compensation from such unlicensed person: Provided, That nothing in this chapter shall prevent a licensee from accepting, as forwarder, claims for collection from a collection agency or attorney whose place of business is outside the state.

(2) Collect or attempt to collect a claim by the use of any means contrary to the postal laws and regulations of the United States postal department.

(3) Publish or post or cause to be published or posted, any list of debtors commonly known as "bad debt lists" or threaten to do so. For purposes of this chapter, a "bad debt list" means any list of natural persons alleged to fail to honor their lawful debts. However, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit a licensee from communicating to its customers or clients by means of a coded list, the existence of a check dishonored because of insufficient funds, not sufficient funds or closed account by the financial institution servicing the debtor's checking account: Provided, That the debtor's identity is not readily apparent: Provided further, That the licensee complies with the requirements of subsection (9)(e) of this section.

(4) Have in his possession or make use of any badge, use a uniform of any law enforcement agency or any simulation thereof, or make any statements which might be construed as indicating an official connection with any federal, state, county, or city law enforcement agency, or any other governmental agency, while engaged in collection agency business.

(5) Perform any act or acts, either directly or indirectly, constituting the practice of law.

(6) Advertise for sale or threaten to advertise for sale any claim as a means of endeavoring to enforce payment thereof or agreeing to do so for the purpose of soliciting claims, except where the licensee has acquired claims as an assignee for the benefit of creditors or where the licensee is acting under court order.

(7) Use any name while engaged in the making of a demand for any claim other than the name set forth on his or its current license issued hereunder.

(8) Give or send to any debtor or cause to be given or sent to any debtor, any notice, letter, message, or form which represents or implies that a claim exists unless it shall indicate in clear and legible type:

(a) The name of the licensee and the city, street, and number at which he is licensed to do business;

(b) The name of the original creditor to whom the debtor owed the claim if such name is known to the licensee or employee: Provided, That upon written request of the debtor, the licensee shall make a reasonable effort to obtain the name of such person and provide this name to the debtor;

(c) If the notice, letter, message, or form is the first notice to the debtor or if the licensee is attempting to collect a different amount than indicated in his or its first notice to the debtor, an itemization of the claim asserted must be made including:

(i) Amount owing on the original obligation at the time it was received by the licensee for collection or by assignment;

(ii) Interest or service charge, collection costs, or late payment charges, if any, added to the original obligation by the original creditor, customer or assignor before it was received by the licensee for collection, if such information is known by the licensee or employee: Provided, That upon written request of the debtor, the licensee shall make a reasonable effort to obtain information on such items and provide this information to the debtor;

(iii) Interest or service charge, if any, added by the licensee or customer or assignor after the obligation was received by the licensee for collection;

(iv) Collection costs, if any, that the licensee is attempting to collect;

(v) Attorneys' fees, if any, that the licensee is attempting to collect on his or its behalf or on the behalf of a customer or assignor;

(vi) Any other charge or fee that the licensee is attempting to collect on his or its own behalf or on the behalf of a customer or assignor.

(9) Communicate or threaten to communicate, the existence of a claim to a person other than one who might be reasonably expected to be liable on the claim in any manner other than through proper legal action, process, or proceedings except under the following conditions:

(a) A licensee or employee of a licensee may inform a credit reporting bureau of the existence of a claim: Provided, That if the licensee or employee of a licensee reports a claim to a credit reporting bureau, the licensee shall upon receipt of written notice from the debtor that any part of the claim is disputed, forward a copy of such written notice to the credit reporting bureau;

(b) A licensee or employee in collecting or attempting to collect a claim may communicate the existence of a claim to a debtor's employer if the claim has been reduced to a judgment;

(c) A licensee or employee in collecting or attempting to collect a claim that has not been reduced to judgment, may communicate the existence of a claim to a debtor's employer if:

(i) The licensee or employee has notified or attempted to notify the debtor in writing at his last known address or place of employment concerning the claim and the debtor after a reasonable time has failed to pay the claim or has failed to agree to make payments on the claim in a manner acceptable to the licensee, and

(ii) The debtor has not in writing to the licensee disputed any part of the claim: Provided, That the licensee or employee may only communicate the existence of a claim which has not been reduced to judgment to the debtor's employer once unless the debtor's employer has agreed to additional communications.

(d) A licensee may for the purpose of locating the debtor or locating assets of the debtor communicate the existence of a claim to any person who might reasonably be expected to have knowledge of the whereabouts of a debtor or the location of assets of the debtor if the claim is reduced to judgment, or if not reduced to judgment, when:

(i) The licensee or employee has notified or attempted to notify the debtor in writing at his last known address or last known place of employment concerning the claim and the debtor after a reasonable time has failed to pay the claim or has failed to agree to make payments on the claim in a manner acceptable to the licensee, and

(ii) The debtor has not in writing disputed any part of the claim.

(e) A licensee may communicate the existence of a claim to its customers or clients if the claim is reduced to judgment, or if not reduced to judgment, when:

(i) The licensee has notified or attempted to notify the debtor in writing at his last known address or last known place of employment concerning the claim and the debtor after a reasonable time has failed to pay the claim or has failed to agree to make payments on the claim in a manner acceptable to the licensee, and

(ii) The debtor has not in writing disputed any part of the claim.

(10) Threaten the debtor with impairment of his credit rating if a claim is not paid.

(11) Communicate with the debtor after notification in writing from an attorney representing such debtor that all further communications relative to a claim should be addressed to the attorney: Provided, That if a licensee requests in writing information from an attorney regarding such claim and the attorney does not respond within a reasonable time, the licensee may communicate directly with the debtor until he or it again receives notification in writing that an attorney is representing the debtor.

(12) Communicate with a debtor or anyone else in such a manner as to harass, intimidate, threaten, or embarrass a debtor, including but not limited to communication at an unreasonable hour, with unreasonable frequency, by threats of force or violence, by threats of criminal prosecution, and by use of offensive language. A communication shall be presumed to have been made for the purposes of harassment if:

(a) It is made with a debtor or spouse in any form, manner, or place, more than three times in a single week;

(b) It is made with a debtor at his or her place of employment more than one time in a single week;

(c) It is made with the debtor or spouse at his or her place of residence between the hours of 9:00 p.m. and 7:30 a.m.

(13) Communicate with the debtor through use of forms or instruments that simulate the form or appearance of judicial process, the form or appearance of government documents, or the simulation of a form or appearance of a telegraphic or emergency message.

(14) Communicate with the debtor and represent or imply that the existing obligation of the debtor may be or has been increased by the addition of attorney fees, investigation fees, service fees, or any other fees or charges when in fact such fees or charges may not legally be added to the existing obligation of such debtor.

(15) Threaten to take any action against the debtor which the licensee cannot legally take at the time the threat is made.

(16) Send any telegram or make any telephone calls to a debtor or concerning a debt or for the purpose of demanding payment of a claim or seeking information about a debtor, for which the charges are payable by the addressee or by the person to whom the call is made.

(17) In any manner convey the impression that the licensee is vouched for, bonded to or by, or is an instrumentality of the state of Washington or any agency or department thereof.

(18) Collect or attempt to collect in addition to the principal amount of a claim any sum other than allowable interest, collection costs or handling fees expressly authorized by statute, and, in the case of suit, attorney's fees and taxable court costs.

(19) Procure from a debtor or collect or attempt to collect on any written note, contract, stipulation, promise or acknowledgment under which a debtor may be required to pay any sum other than principal, allowable interest, and, in the case of suit, attorney's fees and taxable court costs. [1983 c 107 § 1; 1981 c 254 § 5; 1971 e.x.s. c 253 § 16.]

19.16.260 Licensing prerequisite to suit. No collection agency may bring or maintain an action in any court of this state involving the collection of a claim of any third party without alleging and proving that he or it is duly licensed under this chapter and has satisfied the bonding requirements hereof: Provided, That in any case where judgment is to be entered by default, it shall not be necessary for the collection agency to prove such matters.

A copy of the current collection agency license, certified by the director to be a true and correct copy of the original, shall be prima facie evidence of the licensing and bonding of such collection agency as required by this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 17.]

19.16.270 Presumption of validity of assignment. In any action brought by licensee to collect the claim of his or its customer, the assignment of the claim to licensee by his or its customer shall be conclusively presumed valid, if the assignment is filed in court with the complaint, unless objection is made thereto by the debtor in a written answer or in writing five days or more prior to trial. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 18.]

19.16.280 Board created—Composition of board—Qualification of members. There is hereby created a board to be known and designated as the "Washington state collection agency board". The board shall consist of five members, one of whom shall be the director and the other four shall be appointed by the governor. The director may delegate his duties as a board member to a designee from his department. The director or his designee shall be the executive officer of the board and its chairman.

At least two but no more than two members of the board shall be licensees hereunder. Each of the licensee members of the board shall be actively engaged in the collection agency business at the time of his appointment and must continue to be so engaged and continue to be licensed under this chapter during the term of his appointment or he will be deemed to have resigned his position: Provided, That no individual may be a licensee member of the board unless he has been actively engaged as either an owner or executive employee or a combination of both of a collection agency business in this state for a period of not less than five years immediately prior to his appointment.

No board member shall be employed by or have any interest in, directly or indirectly, as owner, partner, officer, director, agent, stockholder, or attorney, any collection agency in which any other board member is employed by or has such an interest.

No member of the board other than the director or his designee shall hold any other elective or appointive state or federal office. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 19.]

19.16.290 Board—Initial members—Terms—Oath—Removal. The initial members of the board shall be named by the governor within thirty days after January 1, 1972. At the first meeting of the board, the members appointed by the governor shall determine by lot the period of time from January 1, 1972 that each of them shall serve, one for one year; one for two years; one for three years; and one for four years. In the event of a vacancy on the board, the governor shall appoint a successor for the unexpired term.

Each member appointed by the governor shall qualify by taking the usual oath of a state officer, which shall be filed with the secretary of state, and each member shall hold office for the term of his appointment and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

Any member of the board other than the director or his designee may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, misconduct, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, after being given a written statement of the charges against him and sufficient opportunity to be heard thereon. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 20.]

19.16.300 Board meetings—Quorum—Effect of vacancy. The board shall meet as soon as practicable after the governor has appointed the initial members of the board. The board shall meet at least once a year and at such other times as may be necessary for the transaction of its business.

The time and place of the initial meeting of the board and the annual meetings shall be at a time and place fixed by the director. Other meetings of the board shall be held upon written request of the director at a time and place designated by him, or upon the written request of any two members of the board at a time and place designated by them.

A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum.

A vacancy in the board membership shall not impair the right of the remaining members of the board to exercise any power or to perform any duty of the board, so long as the power is exercised or the duty performed by a quorum of the board. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 21.]

19.16.310 Board—Compensation—Reimbursement of travel expenses. Each member of the board appointed by the governor shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and in addition thereto shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred while on official business of the board and in attending meetings thereof, in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. [1984 c 287 § 54; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 58; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 22.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

19.16.320 Board—Territorial scope of operations. The board may meet, function and exercise its powers and perform its duties at any place within the state. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 23.]

19.16.330 Board—Immunity from suit. Members of the board shall be immune from suit in any civil action based upon an official act performed in good faith as members of such board. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 24.]

19.16.340 Board—Records. All records of the board shall be kept in the office of the director. Copies of all records and papers of the board, certified to be true copies by the director, shall be received in evidence in all cases with like effect as the originals. All actions by the board which require publication, or any writing shall be over the signature of the director or his designee. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 25.]

19.16.351 Additional powers and duties of board. The board, in addition to any other powers and duties granted under this chapter:

(1) May adopt, amend, and rescind such rules and regulations for its own organization and procedure and such other rules and regulations as it may deem necessary in order to perform its duties hereunder.

(2) When an applicant or licensee has requested a hearing as provided in RCW 19.16.360 the board shall meet and after notice and hearing may deny any application for a license hereunder, and may fail to renew, suspend, or revoke any license issued hereunder, if the applicant or licensee has failed to comply with or violated any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation issued pursuant to this chapter. In its discretion, the board may assess a civil, monetary penalty against a licensee in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars in lieu of or in addition to suspension. It shall be the duty of the board within thirty days after the last day of hearing to notify the appellant of its decision.

(3) May inquire into the needs of the collection agency business, the needs of the director, and the matter of the policy of the director in administering this chapter, and make such recommendations with respect thereto as, after consideration, may be deemed important and necessary for the welfare of the state, the welfare of the public, and the welfare and progress of the collection agency business.

(4) Upon request of the director, confer and advise in matters relating to the administering of this chapter.

(5) May consider and make appropriate recommendations to the director in all matters referred to the board.

(6) Upon his request, confer with and advise the director in the preparation of any rules and regulations to be adopted, amended, or repealed.

(7) May assist the director in the collection of such information and data as the director may deem necessary to the proper administration of this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 194 § 2; 1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 8.]

19.16.360 Licenses—Denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew—Civil penalty—Hearing.

(1) Whenever the director shall have reasonable cause to believe that grounds exist for denial, nonrenewal, revocation or suspension of a license issued or to be issued under this chapter, or in lieu of or in addition to suspension that a licensee should be assessed a civil, monetary penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars, he shall notify the applicant or licensee in writing by certified or registered mail, with return receipt requested, stating the grounds upon which it is proposed that the license be denied, revoked, not renewed, or suspended and upon which any monetary penalty is going to be assessed and the amount of the penalty.

(2) Within thirty days from the receipt of notice of the alleged grounds for denial, revocation, lack of renewal, or suspension or for the monetary penalty to be assessed in lieu of or in addition to suspension, the applicant or licensee may serve upon the director a written request for hearing before the board. Service of a request for a hearing shall be by certified mail and shall be addressed to the director at his office in Thurston county. Upon receiving a request for a hearing, the director shall fix a date for which the matter may be heard by the board, which date shall be not less than thirty days from the receipt of the request for such hearing. If no request for hearing is made within the time specified, the license shall be deemed denied, revoked, or not renewed or the license shall be deemed suspended and/or the civil, monetary penalty shall be deemed assessed.

(3) Whenever a licensee who has made timely and sufficient application for the renewal of a license, receives notice from the director that it is proposed that his or its license is not to be renewed, and said licensee requests a hearing under subsection (2) of this section, the licensee's current license shall not expire until the last day for seeking review of the board's decision expires or if judicial review of the board's decision is sought until final judgment has been entered by the superior court, or in the event of an appeal or appeals, until final judgment has been entered by the last appellate court in which review has been sought. [1977 ex.s. c 194 § 3; 1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 4; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 27.]

19.16.380 Administrative procedure act—Application. Except as specifically provided in this chapter, the rules adopted and the hearings conducted shall be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW (Administrative Procedure Act). [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 29.]

19.16.390 Personal service of process outside state.

Personal service of any process in an action under this chapter may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has engaged in conduct in violation of this chapter which has had the impact in this state which this chapter reprehends. Such persons shall be deemed to have thereby submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state within the meaning of RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 30.]

19.16.400 Investigations or proceedings—Powers of director or designees—Contempt.

(1) The director may initiate and conduct investigations as may be reasonably necessary to establish the existence of any alleged violations of or noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations issued hereunder. For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

(2) If any individual fails to obey a subpoena or obeys a subpoena but refuses to give evidence, any court of competent jurisdiction, upon application by the director, may issue to that person an order requiring him to appear before the court, to show cause why he should not be compelled to obey the subpoena and give evidence material to the matter under investigation. The failure to obey an order of the court may be punishable as contempt. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 5; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 31.]

19.16.410 Rules, orders, decisions, etc. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders and rulings, including therein demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of his duties under this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 32.]

19.16.420 Copy of this chapter, rules and regulations available to licensee. On or about the first day of February in each year, the director shall cause to be made available at reasonable expense to a licensee a copy of this chapter, a copy of the current rules and regulations of the director, and board, and such other materials as the director or board prescribe. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 33.]

19.16.430 Violations—Operating collection agency without a license—Penalty—Return of fees or compensation. (1) Any person who knowingly operates as a collection agency without a license or knowingly aids and abets such violation is punishable by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

(2) Any person who operates as a collection agency in the state of Washington without a valid license issued pursuant to this chapter shall not charge or receive any fee or compensation on any moneys received or collected while operating without a license or on any moneys received or collected while operating with a license but received or collected as a result of his or its acts as a collection agency while not licensed hereunder. All such moneys collected or received shall be forthwith returned to the owners of the accounts on which the moneys were paid. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 6; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 34.]

19.16.440 Violations of RCW 19.16.110 and 19.16.250 are unfair and deceptive trade practices under chapter 19.86 RCW. The operation of a collection agency without a license as prohibited by RCW 19.16.110 and the commission by a licensee or an employee of a licensee of an act or practice prohibited by RCW 19.16.250 are declared to be unfair acts or practices or unfair methods of competition in the conduct of trade or commerce for the purpose of the application of the Consumer Protection Act found in chapter 19.86 RCW. [1973 1st ex.s. c 20 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 253 § 35.]

19.16.450 Violation of RCW 19.16.250—Additional penalty. If an act or practice in violation of RCW 19.16.250 is committed by a licensee or an employee of a licensee in the collection of a claim, neither the licensee, the customer of the licensee, nor any other person who may thereafter legally seek to collect on such claim shall ever be allowed to recover any interest, service charge, attorneys' fees, collection costs, delinquency charge, or any other fees or charges otherwise legally chargeable to the debtor on such claim: Provided, That any person asserting the claim may nevertheless recover from the debtor the amount of the original claim or obligation. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 36.]

19.16.460 Violations may be enjoined. Notwithstanding any other actions which may be brought under the laws of this state, the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county within the state may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent any violation of this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 37.]

19.16.470 Violations—Assurance of discontinuance—Effect. The attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice deemed in violation of this chapter from any person engaging in or who has engaged in such act or practice. Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in the alternative, in Thurston county.

Such assurance of discontinuance shall not be considered an admission of a violation for any purpose; however, proof of failure to perform the terms of any such assurance shall constitute prima facie proof of a violation of this chapter for the purpose of securing an injunction as provided for in RCW 19.16.460: Provided, That after commencement of any action by a prosecuting attorney, as provided therein, the attorney general may not accept an assurance of discontinuance without the consent of said prosecuting attorney. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 38.]

19.16.480 Violation of injunction—Civil penalty. Any person who violates any injunction issued pursuant to this chapter shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 39.]

19.16.500 Public bodies may retain collection agencies to collect public debts. (1) Agencies, departments, taxing districts, political subdivisions of the state, counties, and incorporated cities may retain, by written contract, collection agencies licensed under this chapter for the purpose of collecting public debts owed by any person.

(2) No debt may be assigned to a collection agency unless (a) there has been an attempt to advise the debtor (i) of the existence of the debt and (ii) that the debt may be assigned to a collection agency for collection if the debt is not paid, and (b) at least thirty days have elapsed from the time the notice was sent.

(3) Collection agencies assigned debts under this section shall have only those remedies and powers which would be available to them as assignees of private creditors.

(4) For purposes of this section, the term debt shall include fines and other debts. [1982 c 65 § 1.]

19.16.900 Provisions cumulative—Violation of RCW 19.16.250 deemed civil. The provisions of this chapter shall be cumulative and nonexclusive and shall not affect any other remedy available at law: Provided, That the violation of RCW 19.16.250 shall be construed as exclusively civil and not penal in nature. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 40.]

19.16.910 Severability—1971 ex.s. c 253. If any section or provision of this act shall be adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional such adjudication shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole, or any section, provisions, or part thereof not adjudged invalid or unconstitutional. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 41.]

19.16.920 Provisions exclusive—Authority of political subdivisions to levy business and occupation taxes not affected. (1) The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing and regulation of collection agencies shall be exclusive and no county, city, or other political subdivision of this state shall enact any laws or rules and regulations licensing or regulating collection agencies.

(2) This section shall not be construed to prevent a political subdivision of this state from levying a business and occupation tax upon collection agencies maintaining an office within that political subdivision if a business and occupation tax is levied by it upon other types of businesses within its boundaries. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 42.]

19.16.930 Effective date—1971 ex.s. c 253. This act shall become effective January 1, 1972. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 44.]

19.16.940 Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Collection Agency Act". [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 45.]

19.16.950 Section headings. Section headings used in this chapter shall not constitute any part of the law. [1971 ex.s. c 253 § 46.]

Chapter 19.25

REPRODUCED SOUND RECORDINGS

Sections
19.25.010	"Owner" defined.
19.25.020	Reproduction of sound without consent of owner unlawful—Fine and penalty.

19.25.030	Chapter nonapplicable to commercial or educational radio or television—Broadcast only.
19.25.040	Chapter nonapplicable to public records.
19.25.900	Severability—1974 ex.s. c 100.

19.25.010 "Owner" defined. As used in this chapter, "owner" means the owner of the master recording, master disc, master tape, master film, or other device used for reproducing recorded sound on a phonograph record, disc, tape, film, or other material on which sound is recorded and from which the transferred recorded sound is directly or indirectly derived. [1974 ex.s. c 100 § 1.]

19.25.020 Reproduction of sound without consent of owner unlawful—Fine and penalty. A person commits a gross misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars and imprisonment not to exceed one year and confiscation of illegal stock, if he:

(1) Reproduces for sale any sound recording without the written consent of the owner of the master recording; or

(2) Knowingly sells or offers for sale or advertises for sale any sound recording that has been reproduced without the written consent of the owner of the master recording. [1974 ex.s. c 100 § 2.]

19.25.030 Chapter nonapplicable to commercial or educational radio or television—Broadcast only. This chapter shall not be applicable to the reproduction of any sound recording that is used or intended to be used only for broadcast by commercial or educational radio or television stations. [1974 ex.s. c 100 § 3.]

19.25.040 Chapter nonapplicable to public records. This chapter shall not be applicable to the reproduction of a sound recording defined as a public record of any court, legislative body, or proceedings of any public body, whether or not a fee is charged or collected therefor. [1974 ex.s. c 100 § 4.]

19.25.900 Severability—1974 ex.s. c 100. If any provision of this 1974 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1974 ex.s. c 100 § 5.]

Chapter 19.26

PRERECORDED RECORDING OR TAPE

Sections
19.26.010	Sale without name and address of recorder unlawful—Penalty.
19.26.020	Each violation separate offense—Fine.

19.26.010 Sale without name and address of recorder unlawful—Penalty. It shall be unlawful and a misdemeanor for any retailer in this state to sell or offer to sell any prerecorded sound or audio recording tape or any prerecorded video recording or tape unless such recording or tape bears the actual name and address of the recorder on its face or package: Provided, That this chapter shall not be applicable to any said recording or tape that is intended to be used for broadcast by commercial or educational radio or television stations. Each and every sale of such recording or tape which does not bear the actual name and address of the recorder shall constitute a separate violation of this chapter. [1971 ex.s. c 113 § 1.]

19.26.020 Each violation separate offense—Fine. Each and every violation of RCW 19.26.010 shall constitute a separate offense and be subject to a fine not to exceed one hundred dollars. [1971 ex.s. c 113 § 2.]

adoption of building, plumbing, electrical codes, etc: RCW 36.32.120(7).

building codes: Chapter 36.43 RCW.

Energy-related building standards: Chapter 19.27A RCW.

19.27.010 Short title. This chapter shall be known as the State Building Code Act. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 1.]

19.27.015 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

- (1) "City" means a city or town; and
- (2) "Multifamily residential building" means common wall residential buildings that consist of four or fewer units, that do not exceed two stories in height, that are less than five thousand square feet in area, and that have a one-hour fire-resistive occupancy separation between units. [1985 c 360 § 1.]

19.27.020 Purposes—Objectives—Standards. The purpose of this chapter is to promote the health, safety and welfare of the occupants or users of buildings and structures and the general public by the provision of building codes throughout the state. Accordingly, this chapter is designed to effectuate the following purposes, objectives, and standards:

(1) To require minimum performance standards and requirements for construction and construction materials, consistent with accepted standards of engineering, fire and life safety.

(2) To require standards and requirements in terms of performance and nationally accepted standards.

(3) To permit the use of modern technical methods, devices and improvements.

(4) To eliminate restrictive, obsolete, conflicting, duplicating and unnecessary regulations and requirements which could unnecessarily increase construction costs or retard the use of new materials and methods of installation or provide unwarranted preferential treatment to types or classes of materials or products or methods of construction.

(5) To provide for standards and specifications for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by physically disabled persons.

(6) To consolidate within each authorized enforcement jurisdiction, the administration and enforcement of building codes. [1985 c 360 § 6; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 2.]

19.27.031 State building code—Adoption by reference—Conflicts—Opinions. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, there shall be in effect in all counties and cities the state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

(1) Uniform Building Code and Uniform Building Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(2) Uniform Mechanical Code, 1982 edition, including Chapter 22, Fuel Gas Piping, Appendix B, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(3) The Uniform Fire Code and Uniform Fire Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association: Provided, That, notwithstanding any wording in this code, participants in religious ceremonies shall not be precluded from carrying hand-held candles;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code and Uniform Plumbing Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: Provided, That chapters 11 and 12 of such code are not adopted; and

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following.

The council may issue opinions relating to the codes at the request of a local building official. [1985 c 360 § 5.]

19.27.040 Cities and counties authorized to amend state building code—Limitations. The governing body of each county or city is authorized to amend the state building code as it applies within the jurisdiction of the county or city. The minimum performance standards of the codes and the objectives enumerated in RCW 19.27-.020 shall not be diminished by any county or city amendments. Amendments to RCW 19.27A.010 shall not result in structures that exceed the overall structural heat loss characteristics that would have resulted from conforming to RCW 19.27A.010.

Nothing in this chapter shall authorize any modifications of the requirements of chapter 70.92 RCW. [1985 c 360 § 8; 1977 ex.s. c 14 § 12; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 4.]

19.27.050 Enforcement. The state building code required by this chapter shall be enforced by the counties and cities. Any county or city not having a building department shall contract with another county, city, or inspection agency approved by the county or city for enforcement of the state building code within its jurisdictional boundaries. [1985 c 360 § 9; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 5.]

19.27.060 Local building regulations superseded—Exceptions. (1) The governing bodies of counties and cities may amend the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 as they apply within their respective jurisdictions, but the amendments shall not result in a code that is less than the minimum performance standards and objectives contained in the state building code. No amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 that affects single family or multifamily residential buildings shall be effective unless the amendment is approved by the building code council under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b). Any county or city amendment to a code enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 which is approved under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) shall continue to be effective after any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) without necessity of reapproval under RCW 19.27.074(1)(b) unless the amendment is declared null and void by the council at the time any action is taken under RCW 19.27.074(1)(a) because such action in any way altered the impact of the amendment.

(2) Except as permitted or provided otherwise under this section, the state building code shall be applicable to all buildings and structures including those owned by the state or by any governmental subdivision or unit of local government.

(3) The governing body of each county or city may limit the application of any portion of the state building code to exclude specified classes or types of buildings or structures according to use other than single family or multifamily residential buildings: Provided, That in no event shall fruits or vegetables of the tree or vine stored in buildings or warehouses constitute combustible stock for the purposes of application of the uniform fire code.

(4) The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any building four or more stories high with a B occupancy as defined by the uniform building code, 1982 edition, and with a city fire insurance rating of 1, 2, or 3 as defined by a recognized fire rating bureau or organization.

(5) No provision of the uniform fire code concerning roadways shall be part of the state building code: Provided, That this subsection shall not limit the authority of a county or city to adopt street, road, or access standards.

(6) The provisions of the state building code are preempted by any physical standards adopted by the state jail commission under RCW 70.48.050 when the code provisions relating to the installation or use of sprinklers in the cells conflict with the standards and the secure and humane operation of jails. [1985 c 360 § 10; 1981 2nd ex.s. c 12 § 5; 1980 c 64 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 282 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 6.]

19.27.070 State building code council—Established—Membership—Reports—Travel expenses. There is hereby established a state building code council to be appointed by the governor.

(1) The state building code council shall consist of fifteen members, two of whom shall be county elected legislative body members or elected executives and two of whom shall be city elected legislative body members or mayors. One of the members shall be a local government building code enforcement official and one of the members shall be a local government fire service official. Of the remaining nine members, one member shall represent general construction, specializing in commercial and industrial building construction; one member shall represent general construction, specializing in residential and multifamily building construction; one member shall represent the architectural design profession; one member shall represent the structural engineering profession; one member shall represent the mechanical engineering profession; one member shall represent the construction building trades; one member shall represent manufacturers, installers, or suppliers of building materials and components; one member shall be a person with a physical disability and shall represent the disability community; and one member shall represent the general public. At least six of these fifteen members shall reside east of the crest of the Cascade mountains. The council shall include an employee of the office of the insurance commissioner and an employee of the electrical division of the department of labor and industries, as ex officio, nonvoting members with all other privileges and rights of membership. Terms of office shall be for three years. The board shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on the operation and administration of this chapter. The report shall include a summary of all council decisions relating to updates or amendments to the codes. The council shall elect a member to serve as chair of the council for one-year terms of office. Any member who is appointed by virtue of being an elected official or holding public employment shall be removed from the council if he or she ceases being such an elected official or holding such public employment. Before making any appointments to the building code council, the governor shall seek nominations from recognized organizations which represent the entities or interests listed in this subsection. Members serving on the council on July 28, 1985, may complete their terms of office. Any vacancy shall be filled by alternating appointments from governmental and nongovernmental entities or interests until the council is constituted as required by this subsection.

(2) Members shall not be compensated but shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(3) The department of community development shall provide administrative and clerical assistance to the building code council. [1985 c 360 § 11; 1984 c 287 § 55; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 59; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 7.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

Polling places—Standards—Revision, when: RCW 29.57.030.

19.27.074 State building code council—Duties—Public meetings—Timing of code changes. (1) The state building code council shall:

(a) Maintain the codes to which reference is made in RCW 19.27.031 in a status which is consistent with the state's interest as set forth in RCW 19.27.020. In maintaining these codes, the council shall regularly review updated versions of the codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 and other pertinent information and shall amend the codes as deemed appropriate by the council;

(b) Approve or deny all county or city amendments to any code referred to in RCW 19.27.031 to the degree the amendments apply to single family or multifamily residential buildings;

(c) As required by the legislature, develop and adopt any codes relating to buildings; and

(d) Propose a budget for the operation of the state building code council to be submitted to the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.88.090.

(2) The state building code council may:

(a) Appoint technical advisory committees which may include members of the council;

(b) Employ permanent and temporary staff and contract for services; and

(c) Conduct research into matters relating to any code or codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 or any related matter.

All meetings of the state building code council shall be open to the public under the open public meetings act, chapter 42.30 RCW. All actions of the state building code council which adopt or amend any code of state-wide applicability shall be pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

All council decisions relating to the codes enumerated in RCW 19.27.031 shall require approval by at least a majority of the members of the council.

All decisions to adopt or amend codes of state-wide application shall be made prior to December 1 of any year and shall not take effect before the end of the regular legislative session in the next year. [1985 c 360 § 2.]

19.27.078 State building code council—Studies. (1) The state building code council shall contract with a private entity to conduct a study and analysis of the codes referred to in RCW 19.27.031 and related regulations of state and local agencies to ascertain the amount and nature of any conflict and inconsistencies. The findings and proposed solutions resulting from this study and analysis shall be submitted to the state building code council no later than September 1, 1987. The state building code council shall consider these findings and proposed solutions when carrying out its responsibilities under RCW 19.27.074.

(2) The state building code council shall conduct a study of county and city enforcement of the requirements of the codes to which reference is made in RCW 19.27.031. In conducting the study, the council shall conduct public hearings at designated council meetings to seek input from interested individuals and organizations. The findings of the study shall be submitted in a report to the governor and the legislature no later than September 1, 1987.

(3) The study required under subsection (2) of this section shall include, but not be limited to, a review of the impact of discretionary building permit requirements imposed by local code enforcement personnel. This review shall be designed to determine the extent, if any, to which such discretionary requirements are based upon (a) the requirements of the state building code or (b) city or county amendments to the state building code. [1985 c 360 § 3.]

19.27.080 Chapters of RCW not affected. Nothing in *this 1974 act shall affect the provisions of chapters 19-.28, 43.22, 70.77, 70.79, 70.87, 48.48, 18.20, 18.46, 18-.51, 28A.02, 28A.04, 70.41, 70.62, 70.75, 70.108, 71.12, 74.15, 70.94, or 76.04 RCW or grant rights to duplicate the authorities provided under chapters 70.94 or 76.04 RCW. [1975 1st ex.s. c 282 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 8.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1974 act" consists of RCW 19.27.010 through 19.27.090, and 70.92A.060. RCW 70.92A.060 was repealed by 1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 10, effective July 1, 1976.

19.27.085 Building code council account—Building permit fee. (1) There is hereby created the building code council account in the state treasury. Moneys deposited into the account shall be used by the building code council, after appropriation, to perform the purposes of the council.

(2) All moneys collected under subsection (3) of this section shall be deposited into the building code council account. Every four years the state treasurer shall report to the legislature on the balances in the account so that the legislature may adjust the charges imposed under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) There is imposed a fee of one dollar and fifty cents on each building permit issued by a county or a city. Quarterly each county and city shall remit moneys collected under this section to the state treasury; however, no remittance is required until a minimum of fifty dollars has accumulated pursuant to this subsection. [1985 c 360 § 4.]

19.27.090 Local jurisdictions reserved. Local land use and zoning requirements, building setbacks, side and rear-yard requirements, site development, property line requirements, subdivision requirements, and local fire zones are specifically reserved to local jurisdictions notwithstanding any other provision of *this 1974 act. [1974 ex.s. c 96 § 9.]

*Reviser's note: "This 1974 act", see note following RCW 19.27.080.

19.27.100 Cities, towns, counties may impose fees different from state building code. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a city, town, or county of the state from imposing fees different from those set forth in the state building code. [1975 1st ex.s. c 8 § 1.]

19.27.110 Uniform fire code—Administration and enforcement by counties, other political subdivisions and municipal corporations—Fees. Each county government shall administer and enforce the uniform fire code in the unincorporated areas of the county: Provided, That any political subdivision or municipal corporation providing fire protection pursuant to RCW 14.08.120 shall, at its sole option, be responsible for administration and enforcement of the uniform fire code on its facility. Any fire protection district or political subdivision may, pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW, the interlocal cooperation act, assume all or a portion of the administering responsibility and coordinate and cooperate with the county government in the enforcement of the uniform fire code.

It is not the intent of RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111 to preclude or limit the authority of any city, town, county, fire protection district, state agency, or political subdivision from engaging in those fire prevention activities with which they are charged.

It is not the intent of the legislature by adopting the state building code or RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111 to grant counties any more power to suppress or extinguish fires than counties currently possess under the Constitution or other statutes.

Each county is authorized to impose fees sufficient to pay the cost of inspections, administration, and enforcement pursuant to RCW 19.27.110 and 19.27.111. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 37 § 1.]

19.27.111 RCW 19.27.080 not affected. Nothing in RCW 19.27.110 shall affect the provisions of RCW 19.27.080. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 37 § 2.]

19.27.120 Buildings or structures having special historical or architectural significance—Exception. (1) Repairs, alterations, and additions necessary for the preservation, restoration, rehabilitation, strengthening, or continued use of a building or structure may be made without conformance to all of the requirements of the codes adopted under RCW 19.27.031, when authorized by the appropriate building official under the rules adopted under subsection (2) of this section, provided:

(a) The building or structure: (i) Has been designated by official action of a legislative body as having special historical or architectural significance, or (ii) is an unreinforced masonry building or structure on the state or the national register of historic places, or is potentially eligible for placement on such registers; and

(b) The restored building or structure will be less hazardous, based on life and fire risk, than the existing building.

(2) The state building code council shall adopt rules, where appropriate, to provide alternative methods to those otherwise required under this chapter for repairs, alterations, and additions necessary for preservation, restoration, rehabilitation, strengthening, or continued use of buildings and structures identified under subsection (1) of this section. [1985 c 360 § 13; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 11 § 1.]

State building code: Chapter 19.27 RCW.

19.27A.010 National codes and standards—Adoption by reference—Conflicts. There shall be in effect in all cities, towns, and counties of the state a state building code which shall consist of the following codes which are hereby adopted by reference:

(1) Uniform Building Code and Uniform Building Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(2) Uniform Mechanical Code, 1982 edition, including Chapter 22, Fuel Gas Piping, Appendix B, published by the International Conference of Building Officials;

(3) The Uniform Fire Code and Uniform Fire Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Conference of Building Officials and the Western Fire Chiefs Association: Provided, That, notwithstanding any wording in this code, participants in religious ceremonies shall not be precluded from carrying hand-held candles;

(4) The Uniform Plumbing Code and Uniform Plumbing Code Standards, 1982 edition, published by the International Association of Plumbing and Mechanical Officials: Provided, That chapters 11 and 12 of such code are not adopted;

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided for in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160; and

(6) The Washington state energy code, June 30, 1980, edition adopted by the **state building code advisory council and amendments to the code adopted prior to January 1, 1985, the revision to the state energy code adopted pursuant to *RCW 19.27.075, and subsequent amendments adopted by the council under chapter 34.04 RCW.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following. [1985 c 144 § 1; 1984 c 101 § 1; 1980 c 8 § 1; 1979 ex.s. c 76 § 1; 1977 ex.s. c 14 § 11; 1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 8; 1974 ex.s. c 96 § 3. Formerly RCW 19.27.030.]

Reviser's note: *(1) RCW 19.27.075 was recodified as RCW 19.27A.020 by 1985 c 360.

***(2) The "state building code advisory council" redesignated the "state building code council" by 1985 c 360 § 11. See RCW 19.27.070.

Severability—1985 c 144: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1985 c 144 § 7.]

Effective date—1975 1st ex.s. c 110: "Sections 8, 9, and 10 of this amendatory act shall take effect on July 1, 1976." [1975 1st ex.s. c 110 § 12.] This applies to the 1975 amendments to RCW 19.27.030 and 19.27.040 and to the repeal of RCW 70.92.010 through 70.92.060 and 70.92A.010 through 70.92A.060.

Public buildings and accommodations, provisions for aged and handicapped: Chapter 70.92 RCW.

19.27A.020 Revised state code—Adoption by state building code advisory council—Guidelines. (1) The state building code advisory council shall promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, for the purpose of adopting a revised state code. The revised code shall be designed to achieve reductions in energy consumption relative to buildings constructed to comply with the state energy code, June 30, 1980 edition, as amended. The council shall follow the legislature's guidelines set forth in this section to design a revised code which requires new buildings to meet a certain level of energy efficiency, but allows flexibility in building design and construction within that framework. The revised code shall take into account regional climatic conditions and shall be designed according to the following guidelines:

(a) For new electric resistance heated residential buildings, the code shall be designed to achieve energy savings equivalent to savings achieved in typical buildings constructed with:

(i) Ceilings insulated to a level of R-38, except single rafter or joist vaulted ceilings may be insulated to a level of R-30 (R value includes insulation only);

(ii) Walls insulated to a level of R-19 (total assembly);

(iii) Floors over unheated spaces insulated to a level of R-19 for areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days and to a level of R-25 for areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days (R value includes insulation only);

(iv) Double glazed windows with tested R values not less than 1.79 when tested according to the procedures of the American architectural manufacturers association; and

(v) In areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days a maximum of seventeen percent of the floor area in glazing; in areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days a maximum of twenty-one percent of the floor area in glazing. Throughout the state for the purposes of determining equivalent thermal performance, the maximum glazing area shall be fifteen percent.

(b) For new residential buildings which are space-heated with other fuels, the code shall be designed to achieve energy savings equivalent to savings achieved in typical buildings constructed with:

(i) Ceilings insulated to a level of R-30 (R value includes insulation only);

(ii) Walls insulated to a level of R-19 (total assembly);

(iii) Floors over unheated spaces insulated to a level of R-19 (R value includes insulation only);

(iv) Double glazed windows with tested R values not less than 1.40 when tested according to the procedures of the American architectural manufacturers association; and

(v) In areas with more than six thousand annual heating degree days a maximum of seventeen percent of the floor area in glazing; in areas with six thousand or less annual heating degree days a maximum of twenty-one percent of the floor area in glazing. Throughout the state for the purposes of determining equivalent thermal performance, the maximum glazing area shall be fifteen percent.

(c) For new nonresidential buildings, the code shall be designed to achieve a ten percent reduction in energy consumption relative to buildings constructed to comply with the state energy code, June 30, 1980 edition, as amended.

(2) In developing the revised code, the council shall consider possible health and respiratory problems caused by insulating buildings so tightly that the rate of air exchange is significantly retarded, thereby concentrating toxic pollutants at unhealthy high levels.

(3) The council shall publish the revision as proposed rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW and provide for the rules to become effective January 1, 1986. All cities, towns, and counties shall enforce the revised state energy code not later than April 1, 1986. [1985 c 144 § 2; 1979 ex.s. c 76 § 3. Formerly RCW 19.27.075.]

Reviser's note: The "state building code advisory council" redesignated "state building code council" by 1985 c 360 § 11. See RCW 19.27.070.

Severability—1985 c 144: See note following RCW 19.27A.010.

19.27A.030 Local energy codes superseded—Exceptions. (1) The revised state energy code shall supersede all local government residential energy codes except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section: Provided, That cities, towns, and counties may adopt more energy efficient codes for residential construction if the builder or owner of new residential construction is reimbursed by an authorized federal agency for those additional costs to the consumer of conservation components that are attributable to the more energy efficient codes. This subsection shall not apply after January 1, 1989.

(2) The revised state energy code shall not preempt energy codes, adopted by a city, town, or county of the state prior to April 24, 1985, or first class cities with a population over three hundred thousand which operate electrical utilities, that are designed to achieve reduction in energy consumption relative to the revised state energy code.

(3) The revised state energy code shall not preempt a less energy efficient energy code adopted by a county, city, or town if it can be shown that the revised state energy code is not cost-effective for that county, city, or town. [1985 c 144 § 3.]

Reviser's note: 1985 c 144 directed that this section be added to chapter 19.27 RCW. Since the energy-related building standards in chapter 19.27 RCW were recodified by 1985 c 360 to create a new chapter, chapter 19.27A RCW, it appears more appropriate to codify this section in chapter 19.27A RCW.

Severability—1985 c 144: See note following RCW 19.27A.010.

19.27A.040 Thermal transmittance testing—Study—Committee—Recommendations—Funding. (1) The University of Washington college of architecture and department of mechanical engineering shall conduct in situ testing of the annual thermal transmittance of individual construction components and conservation measures proposed for new residential construction by the northwest power planning council.

(2) There shall be a committee to oversee the study. The committee shall include the director of the state energy office as chair; two members recommended by the home building industry chosen by the governor; and two members nationally renowned as experts in building energy performance chosen by the governor.

(3) The study shall include an analysis of the economic feasibility of adopting thermal performance standards for new residential construction as proposed by the northwest power planning council. The study of economic feasibility shall include but not necessarily be limited to factors which shall not require an amortization of the individual components exceeding a life cycle of seven years and a discount rate (interest) computed at the current conventional market rate of home mortgages at par.

(4) The director of the state energy office shall make recommendations, based on the results of the study and the residential standards demonstration program, to the legislature and the state building code advisory council regarding the cost-effectiveness of the revised state energy code developed pursuant to *RCW 19.27.075 no later than January 15, 1988.

(5) If federal funds are not available, the study shall be funded by a surcharge on building permit fees for new building construction imposed by all local governments of the state. The department of community development, after consultation with the state energy office, shall develop and implement a method of collecting the surcharge. The surcharge shall be ten dollars on all multifamily residential building permits, fifteen dollars on all single-family residential building permits, and fifteen dollars on all other building permits. The surcharge shall terminate on June 30, 1989, or at such time as the state general fund is reimbursed for the cost of the study. [1985 c 144 § 4.]

Reviser's note: *(1) RCW 19.27.075 was recodified as RCW 19.27A.020 by 1985 c 360.

(2) The "state building code advisory council" redesignated "state building code council" by 1985 c 360 § 11. See RCW 19.27.070.

(3) See reviser's note following RCW 19.27A.030.

Severability—1985 c 144: See note following RCW 19.27A.010.

19.27A.050 State building code advisory council—Construction—Inclusion of successor agency. As used in this chapter, references to the state building code advisory council shall be construed to include any successor agency. [1985 c 144 § 5.]

Reviser's note: (1) The "state building code advisory council" redesignated "state building code council" by 1985 c 360 § 11. See RCW 19.27.070.

(2) See reviser's note following RCW 19.27A.030.

Severability—1985 c 144: See note following RCW 19.27A.010.

19.27A.060 Hot water heaters—Temperature regulation. (1) "Hot water heater" means the primary source of hot water for a residence.

(2) The thermostat of a new water heater offered for sale or lease in this state for use in a residential unit, shall be preset by the manufacturer no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

(3) Upon occupancy of a new tenant in a residential unit leased or rented in this state, if hot water is supplied from an accessible, individual water heater, the water heater shall be set by the owner or agent at a temperature not higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an owner of an owner-occupied residential unit or resident of a leased or rented residential unit from readjusting the temperature setting after occupancy. Any readjustment of the temperature setting by the resident relieves the owner or agent of an individual residential unit and the manufacturer of water heaters from liability for damages attributed to the readjustment by the resident.

(5) The utility providing energy for any water heater under this section shall at least annually, include in its billing a statement:

(a) Recommending that water heaters be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature to prevent severe burns and reduce excessive energy consumption; and

(b) That the thermostat of an individual water heater furnished in a residential unit leased or rented in this state to new tenants shall be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature pursuant to chapter 19.27 RCW.

(6) The manufacturer of a water heater under this section which is offered for sale or installed after July 24, 1983, shall have a tag attached to the thermostat access plate or immediately adjacent to exposed thermostats. The tag shall state that the thermostat settings above the preset temperature may cause severe burns and consume excessive energy.

(7) Nothing in this section requires or permits any inspections other than those otherwise required or permitted by law.

(8) This section does not apply to multiple-unit residences supplied by central water heater systems. [1985 c 119 § 1; 1983 c 178 § 2. Formerly RCW 19.27.130.]

Findings—1983 c 178: "The legislature recognizes that unnecessarily hot tap or bath water creates an extreme risk of severe burns, especially among the elderly, children, and retarded persons. Annually, numerous persons suffer severe scald burns, some resulting in death, from tap or bath water which is inordinately hot. Excessive tap and bath water temperatures in residential usage is unnecessary for sanitary purposes. Regulation of the setting of water temperatures upon installation can virtually eliminate incidences of dangerous scalding. Further, the legislature finds that projected future shortages of energy in our state could be reduced or prevented by the efficient utilization of existing energy resources. Reducing the temperature settings on thermostats to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) would save energy that is now unnecessarily consumed, reduce homeowners' average utility costs, and promote home safety without any loss of comfort or health." [1983 c 178 § 1.]

19.27A.065 Study of state building code relating to energy by legislative committees on energy and utilities. See RCW 44.39.038.

19.27A.070 Intent. It is hereby declared that modern, efficient, safety-tested portable oil-fueled heaters may be offered for sale, sold, and used in this state. However, fire hazards and other dangers to the health, safety, and welfare of the inhabitants of this state may exist absent legislation to provide reasonable assurances that portable oil-fueled heaters offered for sale to, sold to, and used by the inhabitants of this state are modern, efficient, and safety-tested. It is the intent of the legislature to set forth standards for the sale and use of approved portable oil-fueled heaters. [1983 c 134 § 1. Formerly RCW 19.27.410.]

19.27A.080 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120.

(1) "Portable oil-fueled heater" means any nonflue-connected, self-contained, self-supporting, oil-fueled, heating appliance equipped with an integral reservoir, designed to be carried from one location to another.

(2) "Oil" means any liquid fuel with a flash point of greater than one hundred degrees Fahrenheit, including but not limited to kerosene.

(3) "Listed" means any portable oil-fueled heater which has been evaluated in accordance with the Underwriters Laboratories, Inc. standard for portable oil-fueled heaters or an equivalent standard and with respect to reasonably foreseeable hazards to life and property by a nationally recognized testing or inspection agency, such as Underwriters Laboratories, Inc., and which has been authorized as being reasonably safe for its specific purpose and shown in a list published by such agency and/or bears the mark, name, and/or symbol of such agency as indication that it has been so authorized. Such evaluation shall include but not be limited to evaluation of the requirements hereinafter set forth.

(4) "Approved" means any listed portable oil-fueled heater which is deemed approved if it satisfies the requirements set forth herein or adopted under RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120 and if the supplier certifies to the authority having jurisdiction over the sale and use of the heater that it is listed and in compliance with RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120.

(5) "Structure" means any building or completed construction of any kind included in state building code groups M, R-1, R-3, B-4 and B-2 occupancies, except sleeping rooms and bathrooms: Provided, however, That in B-2 occupancies, approved portable oil-fueled heaters shall only be used under permit of the fire chief.

(6) "Supplier" means any party offering to sell to retailers or to the general public approved portable oil-fueled heaters. [1985 c 360 § 15; 1983 c 134 § 2. Formerly RCW 19.27.420.]

19.27A.090 Portable oil-fueled heaters—Sales and use—Approval required. Notwithstanding any other section of the state building code, chapter 19.27 RCW, or any other code adopted by reference in chapter 19.27 RCW, approved portable oil-fueled heaters may be offered for sale, sold, and used as a supplemental heat source in structures in the state. Portable oil-fueled heaters which are not approved may not be offered for sale, sold, or used in this state. Any approved portable oil-fueled heater may be offered for sale, sold, and used in locations other than structures unless specifically prohibited by laws of this state. [1983 c 134 § 3. Formerly RCW 19.27.430.]

19.27A.100 Portable oil-fueled heaters—Requirements for approval. Approved portable oil-fueled heaters must adhere to the following requirements:

(1) Labeling must be affixed to the heater to caution and inform the user concerning:

(a) The necessity for an adequate source of ventilation when the heater is operating;

(b) The use of suitable fuel;

(c) The proper manner of refueling;

(d) The proper placement and handling of the heater when in operation; and

(e) The proper procedures for lighting, flame regulation, and extinguishing the heater.

(2) Packaging must include instructions that will inform the purchaser of proper maintenance and operation.

(3) Approved portable oil-fueled heaters must be constructed with a low center of gravity and minimum tipping angle of thirty-three degrees from the vertical with an empty reservoir.

(4) Approved portable oil-fueled heaters must have an automatic safety shut-off device or inherent design feature which eliminates fire hazards in the event of tipover and must otherwise conform with the standards set forth in National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) No. 31.

(5) Approved portable oil-fueled heaters must not produce carbon monoxide at rates creating a hazard when operated as intended and instructed. [1983 c 134 § 4. Formerly RCW 19.27.440.]

19.27A.110 Portable oil-fueled heaters—Jurisdiction over approval—Sale and use governed exclusively. The state fire marshal is the only authority having jurisdiction over the approval of portable oil-fueled heaters. The sale and use of portable oil-fueled heaters is governed exclusively by RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120: Provided, That cities and counties may adopt local standards as provided in RCW 19.27.040. [1985 c 360 § 16; 1983 c 134 § 5. Formerly RCW 19.27.450.]

19.27A.120 Violations—Penalty. The penalty for failure to comply with RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120 is a misdemeanor. [1985 c 360 § 17; 1983 c 134 § 6. Formerly RCW 19.27.460.]

State building code: Chapter 19.27 RCW.

19.28.005 Definitions. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Administrator" means a person designated by an electrical contractor to supervise electrical work and electricians in accordance with the rules adopted under this chapter.

(2) "Advisory board" means the electrical advisory board under RCW 19.28.065.

(3) "Board of electrical examiners" means the board of electrical examiners under RCW 19.28.123.

(4) "Chapter" means chapter 19.28 RCW.

(5) "Department" means the department of labor and industries.

(6) "Director" means the director of the department or the director's designee.

(7) "Electrical construction trade" includes but is not limited to installing or maintaining electrical wires and equipment that are used for light, heat, or power.

(8) "Electrical contractor" means a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity that offers to undertake, undertakes, submits a bid for, or does the work of installing or maintaining wires or equipment that convey electrical current.

(9) "Equipment" means any equipment or apparatus that directly uses, conducts, or is operated by electricity but does not mean plug-in household appliances.

(10) "Journeyman electrician" means a person who has been issued a journeyman electrician certificate of competency by the department.

(11) "Specialty electrician" means a person who has been issued a specialty electrician certificate of competency by the department. [1983 c 206 § 1.]

19.28.010 Electrical wiring requirements—General—Exceptions. (1) All wires and equipment, and installations thereof, that convey electric current and installations of equipment to be operated by electric current, in, on, or about buildings or structures, except for telephone, telegraph, radio, and television wires and equipment, and television antenna installations, signal strength amplifiers, and coaxial installations pertaining thereto shall be in strict conformity with this chapter, the statutes of the state of Washington, and the rules issued by the department, and shall be in conformity with approved methods of construction for safety to life and property. All wires and equipment that fall within section 90.2(b)(5) of the National Electrical Code, 1981 edition, are exempt from the requirements of this chapter. The regulations and articles in the National Electrical Code, as approved by the American Standards Association, and in the national electrical safety code, as approved by the American Standards Association, and other installation and safety regulations approved by the American Standards Association, as modified or supplemented by rules issued by the department in furtherance of safety to life and property under authority hereby granted, shall be prima facie evidence of the approved methods of construction. All materials, devices, appliances, and equipment used in such installations shall be of a type that conforms to applicable standards or be indicated as acceptable by the established standards of the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. or other equivalently national recognized authorities.

(2) This chapter shall not limit the authority or power of any city or town to enact and enforce under authority given by law, any ordinance, rule, or regulation requiring an equal, higher, or better standard of construction and an equal, higher, or better standard of materials, devices, appliances, and equipment than that required by this chapter. In a city or town having an equal, higher, or better standard the installations, materials, devices, appliances, and equipment shall be in accordance with the ordinance, rule, or regulation of the city or town.

(3) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as permitting the connection of any conductor of any electrical circuit with a pipe that is connected with or designed to be connected with a waterworks piping system, without the consent of the person or persons legally responsible for the operation and maintenance of the waterworks piping system. [1983 c 206 § 2; 1965 ex.s. c 117 § 1; 1963 c 207 § 1; 1935 c 169 § 1; RRS § 8307-1. Formerly RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.050.]

19.28.015 Disputes regarding local regulations—Arbitration—Appeal. Disputes arising under RCW 19.28.010(2) regarding whether the city or town's electrical rules, regulations, or ordinances are equal to the rules adopted by the department shall be resolved by arbitration. The department shall appoint two members of the advisory board to serve on the arbitration panel, and the city or town shall appoint two persons to serve on the arbitration panel. These four persons shall choose a fifth person to serve. If the four persons cannot agree on a fifth person, the presiding judge of the superior court of the county in which the city or town is located shall choose a fifth person. A decision of the arbitration panel may be appealed to the superior court of the county in which the city or town is located within thirty days after the date the panel issues its final decision. [1983 c 206 § 3.]

19.28.060 Rules, regulations, and standards. Prior to January 1st of each year, the director shall obtain an authentic copy of the national electrical code as approved by the American Standards Association, and an authentic copy of any applicable regulations and standards of the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc., or other nationally recognized testing laboratory prescribing rules, regulations, and standards for electrical materials, devices, appliances, and equipment, including any modifications and changes that have been made during the previous year in the rules, regulations, and standards. The department, after consulting with the advisory board and receiving the board's recommendations, shall adopt reasonable rules in furtherance of safety to life and property. All rules shall be kept on file by the department. Compliance with the rules shall be prima facie evidence of compliance with this chapter. The department upon request shall deliver to all persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities licensed under this chapter a copy of the rules. [1983 c 206 § 4; 1965 ex.s. c 117 § 2; 1935 c 169 § 10; RRS § 8307-10.]

19.28.065 Electrical advisory board. There is hereby created an electrical advisory board, consisting of seven members to be appointed by the governor with the advice of the director of labor and industries as herein provided. It shall be the purpose and function of the board to advise the director on all matters pertaining to the enforcement of this chapter including, but not limited to standards of electrical installation, minimum inspection procedures, and the adoption of rules and regulations pertaining to the electrical inspection division: Provided, however, That no rules or regulations shall be amended or repealed until the electrical advisory board has first had an opportunity to consider any proposed amendments or repeals and had an opportunity to make recommendations to the director relative thereto. The members of the electrical advisory board shall be selected and appointed as follows: One member shall be an employee or officer of a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power; one member shall be an employee or officer of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of making electrical installations; one member shall be an employee, or officer, or representative of a corporation or firm engaged in the business of manufacturing or distributing electrical materials, equipment, or devices; one member shall be a person not related to the electrical industry to represent the public; one member shall be a recognized electrician; one member shall be a licensed professional engineer qualified to do business in the state of Washington; and one member shall be the state chief electrical inspector. Each of the members except the public member and the chief electrical inspector shall be appointed by the governor from among a list of individuals nominated by nonprofit organizations or associations representing individuals, corporations, or firms engaged in the business classification from which such member shall be selected. The regular term of each member shall be four years: Provided, however, The original board shall be appointed for the following terms: The first term of the member representing a corporation or public agency generating or distributing electric power shall serve four years; the member representing the installer of electrical equipment or appliances shall serve three years; the member representing a manufacturer or distributor of electrical equipment or devices shall serve three years; the member representing the public shall serve two years; the member selected as the recognized electrician shall serve for two years; the member selected as the licensed professional electrical engineer shall serve for one year. Thereafter, the governor shall appoint or reappoint board members for terms of four years and to fill vacancies created by the completion of the terms of the original members. The governor shall also fill vacancies caused by death, resignation, or otherwise for the unexpired term of such members by appointing their successors from the same business classification. The same procedure shall be followed in making such subsequent appointments as is provided for the original appointments. The board, at this first meeting shall elect one of its members to serve as chairman. Any person acting as the chief electrical inspector shall serve as secretary of the board during his tenure as chief state inspector. Meetings of the board shall be called at the discretion of the director of labor and industries. Each member of the board shall receive travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries. [1984 c 287 § 56; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 60; 1969 ex.s. c 71 § 1; 1963 c 207 § 5.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

19.28.070 Enforcement—State electrical inspectors—Qualifications—Salaries and expenses. The director of labor and industries of the state of Washington and the officials of all incorporated cities and towns where electrical inspections are required by local ordinances shall have power and it shall be their duty to enforce the provisions of this chapter in their respective jurisdictions. The director of labor and industries shall have power to appoint an electrical inspector, and such assistant inspectors as he shall deem necessary to assist him in the performance of his duties. All electrical inspectors appointed by the director of labor and industries shall be electricians of not less than four years experience in installing and maintaining electrical equipment, or four years experience as electrical inspectors for a municipality, or two years electrical training in a college of electrical engineering of recognized standing, and two years continuous practical electrical experience in installation work or four years of electrical training in a college of electrical engineering of recognized standing. Such state inspectors shall be paid such salary as the director of labor and industries shall determine, together with their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended. The expenses of the director of labor and industries and the salaries and expenses of state inspectors incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be paid entirely out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries. [1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 61; 1967 c 88 § 1; 1935 c 169 § 3; RRS § 8307-3. Formerly RCW 19.28.070 through 19.28.110.]

Effective date—Severability—1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34: See notes following RCW 2.08.115.

19.28.120 License required—General or specialty licenses—Fees—Application—Bond—Cash deposit in lieu of bond. (1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing or maintaining equipment to be operated by electric current as it pertains to the electrical industry, without having an unrevoked, unsuspended, and unexpired electrical contractor license, issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. All electrical contractor licenses expire on the thirty-first day of December following the day of their issue. Application for an electrical contractor license shall be made in writing to the department, accompanied by the required fee. The application shall state the name and address of the applicant; in case of firms or partnerships, the names of the individuals composing the firm or partnership; in case of corporations, the names of the managing officials thereof; the location of the place of business of the applicant and the name under which the business is conducted; and whether a general or specialty electrical contractor license is sought and, if the latter, the type of specialty. Electrical contractor specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance. A general electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder the right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electric current, and installing or maintaining equipment, or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current, in the state of Washington. A specialty electrical contractor license shall grant to the holder a limited right to engage in, conduct, or carry on the business of installing or maintaining wires or equipment to carry electrical current, and installing or maintaining equipment; or installing or maintaining material to fasten or insulate such wires or equipment to be operated by electric current in the state of Washington as expressly allowed by the license.

(2) The application for a contractor license shall be accompanied by a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars with the state of Washington named as obligee in the bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the department. The bond shall at all times be kept in full force and effect, and any cancellation or revocation thereof, or withdrawal of the surety therefrom, suspends the license issued to the principal until a new bond has been filed and approved as provided in this section. Upon approval of a bond, the department shall on the next business day deposit the fee accompanying the application in the electrical license fund and shall file the bond in the office. The department shall upon request furnish to any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity a certified copy of the bond upon the payment of a fee that the department shall set by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of furnishing the certified copy. The bond shall be conditioned that in any installation or maintenance of wires or equipment to convey electrical current, and equipment to be operated by electrical current, the principal will comply with the provisions of this chapter and with any electrical ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2) that is in effect at the time of entering into a contract. The bond shall be conditioned further that the principal will pay for all labor, including employee benefits, and material furnished or used upon the work, taxes and contributions to the state of Washington, and all damages that may be sustained by any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity due to a failure of the principal to make the installation or maintenance in accordance with this chapter or any applicable ordinance, building code, or regulation of a city or town adopted pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the department a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the department. If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the department shall deposit the funds in a special trust savings account in a commercial bank, mutual savings bank, or savings and loan association and shall pay annually to the depositor the interest derived from the account.

(3) The department shall issue general or specialty electrical contractor licenses to applicants meeting all of the requirements of this chapter. The provisions of this chapter relating to the licensing of any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity including the requirement of a bond with the state of Washington named as obligee therein and the collection of a fee therefor, are exclusive, and no political subdivision of the state of Washington may require or issue any licenses or bonds or charge any fee for the same or a similar purpose. No person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity holding more than one specialty contractor license under this chapter may be required to pay an annual fee for more than one such license or to post more than one three thousand dollar bond, equivalent cash deposit, or other negotiable security.

(4) To obtain a general or specialty electrical contractor license the applicant must designate an individual who currently possesses an administrator's certificate as a general electrical contractor administrator or as a specialty electrical contractor administrator in the specialty for which application has been made. Administrator certificate specialties include but are not limited to: Residential, domestic, appliance, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance. To obtain an administrator's certificate an individual must pass an examination as set forth in RCW 19.28.123 unless the applicant was a licensed electrical contractor at any time during 1974. Applicants who were electrical contractors licensed by the state of Washington at any time during 1974 are entitled to receive a general electrical contractor administrator's certificate without examination if the applicants apply prior to January 1, 1984. The board of electrical examiners shall certify to the department the names of all persons who are entitled to either a general or specialty electrical contractor administrator's certificate. [1983 c 206 § 5; 1975 1st ex.s. c 195 § 1; 1975 1st ex.s. c 92 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 188 § 1; 1971 ex.s. c 129 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 71 § 2; 1969 c 30 § 1. Effective date—1974 ex.s. c 188: "The effective date of this 1974 amendatory act is July 1, 1974." [1974 ex.s. c 188 § 6.] This applies to RCW 19.28.123, 19.28.125 and to the 1974 amendment to RCW 19.28.120.

Severability—1974 ex.s. c 188: "If any provision of this 1974 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1974 ex.s. c 188 § 5.] This applies to RCW 19.28.123, 19.28.125 and to the 1974 amendment to RCW 19.28.120.

Effective date—1971 ex.s. c 129: "The effective date of this 1971 amendatory act shall be December 1, 1971." [1971 ex.s. c 129 § 3.] This applies to the 1971 amendments to RCW 19.28.120 and 19.28.210.

19.28.123 Board of electrical examiners—Created—Membership—Examinations—Meetings—Compensation—Travel expenses. There is hereby created a board of electrical examiners consisting of nine members to be appointed by the governor. It shall be the purpose and function of this board to establish in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, such classifications of specialty electrical contractors' licenses as it deems appropriate with regard to individual sections pertaining to state adopted codes in chapter 19.28 RCW. In addition, it shall be the purpose and function of this board to establish and administer written examinations for general electrical contractors' qualifying certificates and the various specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates. Examinations shall be designed to reasonably insure that general and specialty electrical contractor's qualifying certificate holders are competent to engage in and supervise the work covered by this statute and their respective licenses. The examinations shall include questions from the following categories to assure proper safety and protection for the general public: (1) Safety, (2) state electrical code, and (3) electrical theory. It shall be the further purpose and function of this board to advise the director as to the need of additional electrical inspectors and compliance officers to be utilized by the director on either a full-time or part-time employment basis. Meetings of the board shall be held quarterly on the first Monday of February, May, August, and November of each year. Each member of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240, and each member shall also receive travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060, which shall be paid out of the electrical license fund, upon vouchers approved by the director of labor and industries. [1984 c 287 § 57; 1977 ex.s. c 79 § 1; 1975-'76 2nd ex.s. c 34 § 62; 1975 1st ex.s. c 195 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 92 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 188 § 2.]

Legislative findings—Severability—Effective date—1984 c 287: See notes following RCW 43.03.220.

Effective date—Severability—1974 ex.s. c 188: See notes following RCW 19.28.120.

19.28.125 Electrical contractors—Designee of firm to take administrator's examination—Certificate duration, renewal, nontransferable—Administrator's duties. (1) Each applicant for an electrical contractor's license, other than an individual, shall designate a supervisory employee or member of the firm to take the required administrator's examination. This person shall be designated as administrator under the license. No person may qualify as administrator for more than one contractor. If the relationship of the administrator with the electrical contractor is terminated, the contractor's license is void within ninety days unless another administrator is qualified by the board of electrical examiners. However, if the administrator dies, the contractor's license is void within one hundred eighty days unless another administrator is qualified by the board of electrical examiners. A certificate issued under this section is valid for the calendar year of issuance, unless revoked or suspended, and further is nontransferable. The certificate may be renewed without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. An individual holding more than one administrator's certificate under this chapter shall not be required to pay annual fees for more than one certificate. A person may take the administrator's test as many times as necessary without limit.

(2) The administrator shall:

(a) Be available during working hours to carry out the duties of an administrator under this section;

(b) Ensure that all electrical work complies with the electrical installation laws and rules of the state;

(c) Ensure that the proper electrical safety procedures are used;

(d) Ensure that all electrical labels, permits, and licenses required to perform electrical work are used;

(e) See that corrective notices issued by an inspecting authority are complied with; and

(f) Notify the department in writing within ten days if the administrator terminates the relationship with the electrical contractor.

(3) The department shall not by rule change the administrator's duties under subsection (2) of this section. [1983 c 206 § 6; 1975 1st ex.s. c 195 § 3; 1975 1st ex.s. c 92 § 3; 1974 ex.s. c 188 § 4.]

Effective date—Severability—1974 ex.s. c 188: See notes following RCW 19.28.120.

19.28.180 Licensee's bond—Action on—Priorities—Cash deposit, payment from. Any person, firm, or corporation sustaining any damage or injury by reason of the breach of the conditions of said bond by the principal therein may bring an action against the surety named therein, with or without joining in said action the principal named in said bond; said action may be brought in the superior court of any county in which the principal on said bond resides or transacts business, or in the county in which the work was performed as a result of which the breach is alleged to have occurred; said action shall be maintained and prosecuted as other civil actions. No action on said bond, or failure to bring action thereon shall waive the right of any person, firm or corporation to sue the principal named in said bond for any damage or injury sustained by reason of the failure of the principal in said bond to comply with the provisions of this chapter: Claims or actions against the surety on such bonds shall be paid in full in the following order of priority: (1) labor, including employee benefits, (2) materials and equipment used upon such work, (3) taxes and contributions due to the state, (4) damages sustained by any person, firm or corporation due to the failure of the principal to make the installation in accordance with the provisions of chapter 19.28 RCW, or any ordinance, building code, or regulation applicable thereto: Provided, That the total liability of the surety on any such bond shall not exceed the sum of three thousand dollars; and any such action shall be brought within one year from the completion of the work in the performance of which the breach is alleged to have occurred.

In the event that a cash or securities deposit has been made in lieu of the surety bond, and in the event of a judgment being entered against such depositor and deposit, the director shall upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment, pay said judgment from such deposit. [1969 ex.s. c 71 § 3; 1965 ex.s. c 117 § 4; 1935 c 169 § 5; RRS § 8307-5. Prior: 1919 c 204 § 4.]

19.28.190 Actions—Local permits—Proof of licensure. No person, firm or corporation engaging in, conducting or carrying on the business of installing wires or equipment to convey electric current, or installing apparatus to be operated by said current, shall be entitled to commence or maintain any suit or action in any court of this state pertaining to any such work or business, without alleging and proving that such person, firm or corporation held, at the time of commencing and performing such work, an unexpired, unrevoked and unsuspended license issued under the provisions of this chapter; and no city or town requiring by ordinance or regulation a permit before any such electrical work is installed, shall issue such permit to any person, firm or corporation not holding such license. [1935 c 169 § 6; RRS § 8307-6.]

19.28.200 Licensing—Exemptions. No license under the provision of this chapter shall be required from any utility because of work in connection with the installation and/or maintenance of lines or wires for transmission of electricity from the source of supply to the point of contact at the premises and/or property to be supplied, or for work in installing or maintaining or repairing on the premises of customers, service connections and meters, and other apparatus or appliances used in the measurement of the consumption of electricity by customers, or for work in connection with the lighting of streets, alleys, ways, or public areas or squares, or for the work of installing, maintaining or repairing wires, apparatus or appliances used in their business, or in making or distributing electricity, upon the property owned or operated and managed by them; or for the work of installing and repairing ignition or lighting systems for motor vehicles, or as exempted in RCW 19.28.010. [1980 c 30 § 15; 1935 c 169 § 11; RRS § 8307-11.]

19.28.210 Inspections—Notice to repair and change—Disconnection—Entry—Concealment—Connection to utility—Permits, fees. The director shall cause an inspector to inspect all wiring, appliances, devices, and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter except those pertaining to cities and towns pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2). Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays, and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect electrical power to the installation if the necessary electrical work permit is displayed. Whenever the installation of any wiring, device, appliance, or equipment is not in accordance with this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity owning, using, or operating it shall be notified by the department and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger to life or property and to make it conform to this chapter. The director, through the inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to conductors or equipment that are found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with this chapter. Upon making a disconnection the inspector shall attach a notice stating that the conductors have been found dangerous to life or property and are not in accordance with this chapter. It is unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or equipment without the approval of the department, and until the conductors and equipment have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in a condition that complies with this chapter. The director, through the electrical inspector, has the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his or her official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment, or material contained in or on the buildings or premises. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to this chapter may be concealed until it has been approved by the inspector making the inspection. Persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, or other entities making electrical installations shall obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the department as required by this chapter before requesting the electric utility to connect to the installations. Electric utilities may connect to the installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the electrical work permit required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately at the discretion of the utility before approval if an electrical work permit is displayed. The permits shall be furnished upon payment of the fee to the department. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the advisory board, shall set by rule a schedule of license and electrical work permit fees that will cover the costs of administration and enforcement of this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. No fee may be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances. [1983 c 206 § 7; 1971 ex.s. c 129 § 2; 1969 ex.s. c 71 § 4; 1967 c 88 § 3; 1965 ex.s. c 117 § 5; 1963

c 207 § 3; 1959 c 325 § 2; 1935 c 169 § 8; RRS § 8307-8. Formerly RCW 19.28.210 through 19.28.240.]

Effective date—1971 ex.s. c 129: See note following RCW 19.28.120.

Adoption of certain regulations proscribed: RCW 36.32.125.

RCW 19.28.210 inapplicable in certain cities and towns and electricity supply agency service areas: RCW 19.28.360.

19.28.250 Inspection reports. If any inspection made under this chapter requires any correction or change in the work inspected, a written report of the inspection shall be made by the inspector, in which report the corrections or changes required shall be plainly stated. A copy of the report shall be furnished to the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity doing the installation work, and a copy shall be filed with the department. [1983 c 206 § 8; 1935 c 169 § 9; RRS § 8307-9.]

19.28.260 Nonconforming installations—Disputes—Reference to advisory board. It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to install or maintain any electrical wiring, appliances, devices, or equipment not in accordance with this chapter. In cases where the interpretation and application of the installation or maintenance standards prescribed in this chapter is in dispute or in doubt, the advisory board shall, upon application of any interested person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity, determine the methods of installation or maintenance or the materials, devices, appliances, or equipment to be used in the particular case submitted for its decision. [1983 c 206 § 9; 1935 c 169 § 2; RRS § 8307-2.]

19.28.300 Advisory board—Request for ruling—Fee—Costs. Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity desiring a decision of the advisory board pursuant to RCW 19.28.260 shall, in writing, notify the director of such desire and shall accompany the notice with a certified check payable to the department in the sum of two hundred dollars. The notice shall specify the ruling or interpretation desired and the contention of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity as to the proper interpretation or application on the question on which a decision is desired. If the advisory board determines that the contention of the applicant for a decision was proper, the two hundred dollars shall be returned to the applicant; otherwise it shall be used in paying the expenses and per diem of the members of the advisory board in connection with the matter. Any portion of the two hundred dollars not used in paying the per diem and expenses of the board in the case shall be paid into the electrical license fund. [1983 c 206 § 10; 1935 c 169 § 13; RRS § 8307-13.]

19.28.310 Revocation or suspension of license—Grounds—Appeal to board of electrical examiners—Fee—Costs. The department has the power, in case of continued noncompliance with the provisions of this chapter, to revoke or suspend for such a period as it determines, any electrical contractor license or electrical contractor administrator certificate issued under this chapter. The department shall notify the holder of the license or certificate of the revocation or suspension by certified mail. A revocation or suspension is effective fifteen days after the holder receives the notice. Any revocation or suspension is subject to review by an appeal to the board of electrical examiners. The filing of an appeal stays the effect of a revocation or suspension until the board of electrical examiners makes its decision. The appeal shall be filed within fifteen days after notice of the revocation or suspension is given by certified mail sent to the address of the holder of the license or certificate as shown on the application for the license or certificate, and shall be effected by filing a written notice of appeal with the department, accompanied by a certified check for two hundred dollars, which shall be returned to the holder of the license or certificate if the decision of the department is not sustained by the board. If the board sustains the decision of the department, the two hundred dollars shall be applied by the department to the payment of the per diem and expenses of the members of the board incurred in the matter, and any balance remaining after payment of per diem and expenses shall be paid into the electrical license fund. [1983 c 206 § 11; 1935 c 169 § 7; RRS § 8307-7. Formerly RCW 19.28.310 and 19.28.320.]

19.28.330 Electrical license fund. All sums received from licenses, permit fees, or other sources, herein shall be paid to the state treasurer and placed in a special fund designated as the "electrical license fund," and by him paid out upon vouchers duly and regularly issued therefor and approved by the director of labor and industries or the director's designee following determination by the board of electrical examiners that the sums are necessary to accomplish the intent of chapter 19.28 RCW. The treasurer shall keep an accurate record of payments into, or receipts of, said fund, and of all disbursements therefrom. [1979 ex.s. c 67 § 1; 1935 c 169 § 18; RRS § 8307-18.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 67: "If any provision of this 1979 act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1979 ex.s. c 67 § 22.]

19.28.340 Liability for injury or damage. Nothing contained in this chapter will be construed to relieve from or lessen the responsibility or liability of any person for injury or damage to person or property caused by or resulting from any defect of any nature in any electrical work performed by said person or in any electrical equipment owned, controlled, installed, operated or used by him; nor shall the state of Washington, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof incur or be held as assuming any liability by reason or in consequence of any permission, certificate of inspection, inspection or approval authorized herein, or issued or given as herein provided, or by reason of consequence of any things done or acts performed pursuant to any provision of this chapter. [1935 c 169 § 16; RRS § 8307-16.]

19.28.350 Violations of RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380—Penalty. Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity violating any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380 is guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars, or not less than five days imprisonment, or both the fine and imprisonment. Each day that any violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense. [1983 c 206 § 12; 1980 c 30 § 16; 1935 c 169 § 14; RRS § 8307–14.]

19.28.360 RCW 19.28.210 inapplicable in certain cities and towns and electricity supply agency service areas. The provisions of RCW 19.28.210 shall not apply:

(1) Within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town which has heretofore adopted and enforced or subsequently adopts and enforces an ordinance requiring an equal, higher or better standard of construction and of materials, devices, appliances and equipment than is required by this chapter: Provided, That such city or town shall require that its electrical inspectors meet qualifications provided for state electrical inspectors in accordance with RCW 19.28.070.

(2) Within the service area of an electricity supply agency owned and operated by a city or town which is supplying electricity and enforcing a standard of construction and materials outside its corporate limits at the time this act takes effect: Provided, That such city, town or agency shall henceforth enforce by inspection within its service area outside its corporate limits the same standards of construction and of materials, devices, appliances and equipment as is enforced by the department of labor and industries under the authority of this chapter: Provided further, That fees charged henceforth in connection with such enforcement shall not exceed those established in RCW 19.28.210. [1967 ex.s. c 97 § 1; 1963 c 207 § 4; 1959 c 325 § 3.]

Effective date—1963 c 207: See RCW 19.28.910.

19.28.370 RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380 inapplicable to telegraph or telephone companies exercising certain functions. The provisions of RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380 shall not apply to the work of installing, maintaining or repairing any and all electrical wires, apparatus, installations or equipment used or to be used by a telegraph company or a telephone company in the exercise of its functions and located outdoors or in a building or buildings used exclusively for that purpose. [1980 c 30 § 17; 1959 c 325 § 4.]

19.28.380 RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380 inapplicable within rights of way of state highways if equal or better standards enforced. The provisions of RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380 shall not apply within the rights of way of state highways, provided the Washington state department of transportation maintains and enforces an equal, higher or better standard of construction and of materials, devices, appliances and equipment than is required by RCW 19.28.010 through 19.28.380. [1980 c 30 § 18; 1965 ex.s. c 170 § 35.]

19.28.390 Devices for diagnosis or treatment of disease or injury—Compliance with chapter. Any device used or useful in the diagnosis or treatment of disease or injury which is not in violation of the Medical Device Amendments of 1976, Public Law No. 94–295, 90 Stat. 539, as amended from time to time, and as interpreted by the Food and Drug Administration of the United States Department of Health and Human Services or its successor, shall be deemed to be in compliance with all requirements imposed by this chapter. [1981 c 57 § 1.]

19.28.510 Certificate of competency required—Electrical training certificate—Fee. (1) No person may engage in the electrical construction trade without having a current journeyman electrician certificate of competency or a current specialty electrician certificate of competency issued by the department in accordance with this chapter. Electrician certificate of competency specialties include, but are not limited to: Residential, domestic appliances, pump and irrigation, limited energy system, signs, and nonresidential maintenance.

(2) A person who is indentured in an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade or who is learning the electrical construction trade may work in the electrical construction trade if supervised by a certified journeyman electrician or a certified specialty electrician in that electrician's specialty. All apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall obtain an electrical training certificate from the department. The certificate shall authorize the holder to learn the electrical construction trade while under the direct supervision of a journeyman electrician or a specialty electrician working in his or her specialty. The holder of the electrical training certificate shall renew the certificate annually. At the time of renewal, the holder shall provide the department with an accurate list of the holder's employers in the electrical construction industry for the previous year and the number of hours worked for each employer. An annual fee shall be charged for the issuance or renewal of the certificate. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the cost of administering and enforcing the trainee certification and supervision requirements of this chapter. Apprentices and individuals learning the electrical construction trade shall have their electrical training certificates in their possession at all times that they are performing electrical work. They shall show their certificates to an authorized representative of the department at the representative's request.

(3) Any person who has been issued an electrical training certificate under this chapter may work if that person is under supervision. Supervision shall consist of a person being on the same job site and under the control of either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician who has an applicable certificate of competency issued under this chapter. Either a journeyman electrician or an appropriate specialty electrician shall be on the same job site as the noncertified individual for a minimum of seventy-five percent of each working day unless otherwise provided in this chapter.

The ratio of noncertified individuals to certified journeymen or specialty electricians working on a job site shall be:

(a) From September 1, 1979, through December 31, 1982, not more than three noncertified electricians working on any one job site for every certified journeyman or specialty electrician;

(b) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than two noncertified individuals working on any one job site for every specialty electrician or journeyman electrician working as a specialty electrician;

(c) Effective January 1, 1983, not more than one noncertified individual working on any one job site for every certified journeyman electrician.

The ratio requirements do not apply to a trade school program in the electrical construction trade established during 1946.

An individual who has a current training certificate and who has successfully completed or is currently enrolled in an approved apprenticeship program or in a technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school approved by the commission for vocational education, may work without direct on-site supervision during the last six months of meeting the practical experience requirements of this chapter. [1983 c 206 § 13; 1980 c 30 § 2.]

19.28.520 Application for certificate of competency.

Any person desiring to be issued a certificate of competency as provided in this chapter shall deliver evidence in a form prescribed by the department affirming that said person has met the qualifications required under RCW 19.28.530, as now or hereafter amended. [1980 c 30 § 3.]

19.28.530 Certificate of competency—Eligibility for examination—Rules.

(1) Upon receipt of the application, the department shall review the application and determine whether the applicant is eligible to take an examination for the journeyman or specialty certificate of competency. To be eligible to take the examination for a journeyman certificate the applicant must have worked in the electrical construction trade for a minimum of four years employed full time, of which two years shall be in industrial or commercial electrical installation under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter and not more than a total of two years in all specialties under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter or have successfully completed an apprenticeship program approved under chapter 49.04 RCW for the electrical construction trade. To be eligible to take the examination to become a specialty electrician the applicant shall have worked in that specialty of the electrical construction trade, under the supervision of a journeyman electrician certified under this chapter or an appropriate specialty electrician certified under this chapter, for a minimum of two years employed full time, or have successfully completed an approved apprenticeship program under chapter 49.04 RCW for the applicant's specialty in the electrical construction trade. Before January 1, 1984, applicants for nonresidential maintenance specialty licenses are eligible to become nonresidential maintenance specialists upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of two years full-time experience in that specialty field. Persons applying before January 1, 1984, for a journeyman certificate are eligible to take the examination to become journeymen until July 1, 1984, upon certification to the department that they have the equivalent of five years full-time experience in nonresidential maintenance, of which two years shall be in industrial electrical installation. Any applicant who has successfully completed a two-year technical school program in the electrical construction trade in a school that is approved by the commission for vocational education may substitute up to two years of the technical school program for two years of work experience under a journeyman electrician. The applicant shall obtain the additional two years of work experience required in industrial or commercial electrical installation prior to the beginning, or after the completion, of the technical school program. Any applicant who has received training in the electrical construction trade in the armed service of the United States may be eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. Any applicant who is a graduate of a trade school program in the electrical construction trade that was established during 1946 is eligible to take the examination for the certificate of competency. No other requirement for eligibility may be imposed.

(2) The department shall establish reasonable rules for the examinations to be given applicants for certificates of competency. In establishing the rules, the department shall consult with the board of electrical examiners. Upon determination that the applicant is eligible to take the examination, the department shall so notify the applicant, indicating the time and place for taking the examination. [1983 c 206 § 14; 1980 c 30 § 4.]

19.28.540 Examination—Contents—Times—Fees—Certification of results. The department, in coordination with the board of electrical examiners, shall prepare an examination to be administered to applicants for journeyman and specialty certificates of competency. The examination shall be constructed to determine:

(1) Whether the applicant possesses varied general knowledge of the technical information and practical procedures that are identified with the status of journeyman electrician or specialty electrician; and

(2) Whether the applicant is sufficiently familiar with the applicable electrical codes and the rules of the department pertaining to electrical installations and electricians.

The department shall, at least four times annually, administer the examination to persons eligible to take it under RCW 19.28.530. A person may take the journeyman or specialty test as many times as necessary without limit. All applicants shall, before taking the examination, pay to the department an examination fee. The department shall set the fee by rule. The fee shall cover but not exceed the costs of preparing and administering the examination.

The department shall certify the results of the examination upon such terms and after such a period of time as the department, in cooperation with the board of electrical examiners, deems necessary and proper. [1983 c 206 § 15; 1980 c 30 § 5.]

19.28.550 Certificate of competency—Issuance—Renewal—Fees—Effect. The department shall issue a certificate of competency to all applicants who have passed the examination provided in RCW 19.28.540, and who have complied with RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 and the rules adopted under this chapter. The certificate shall bear the date of issuance, and shall expire on the first of July immediately following the date of issuance. The certificate shall be renewed annually, upon application, on or before the first of July. A fee shall be assessed for each certificate and for each annual renewal. The certificate may be renewed without examination by appropriate application unless the certificate has been revoked, suspended, or not renewed within ninety days after the expiration date. If the certificate is not renewed before the expiration date, the individual shall pay twice the usual fee. The department shall set the fees by rule for issuance and renewal of a certificate of competency. The fees shall cover but not exceed the costs of issuing the certificates and of administering and enforcing the electrician certification requirements of this chapter.

The certificates of competency and temporary permits provided for in this chapter grant the holder the right to work in the electrical construction trade as a journeyman electrician or specialty electrician in accordance with their provisions throughout the state and within any of its political subdivisions without additional proof of competency or any other license, permit, or fee to engage in such work. [1983 c 206 § 16; 1980 c 30 § 6.]

19.28.560 Persons engaged in trade or business on July 16, 1973. No examination shall be required of any applicant for a certificate of competency who, on July 16, 1973, was engaged in a bona fide business or trade as a journeyman electrician in the state of Washington. Applicants qualifying under this section shall be issued a certificate by the department upon making an application as provided in RCW 19.28.520 and paying the fee required under RCW 19.28.540: Provided, That no applicant under this section shall be required to furnish such evidence as required by RCW 19.28.520. [1980 c 30 § 7.]

19.28.570 Temporary permits. The department is authorized to grant and issue temporary permits in lieu of certificates of competency whenever an electrician coming into the state of Washington from another state requests the department for a temporary permit to engage in the electrical construction trade as an electrician during the period of time between filing of an application for a certificate as provided in RCW 19.28.520 and taking the examination provided for in RCW 19.28.540. The department is authorized to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states providing for the acceptance of such states' journeyman certificate of competency or its equivalent when such states requirements are equal to the standards set by this chapter. No temporary permit shall be issued to:

(1) Any person who has failed to pass the examination for a certificate of competency, except that any person who has failed the examination for competency under this section shall be entitled to continue to work under a temporary permit for ninety days if the person is enrolled in a journeyman electrician refresher course and shows evidence to the department that he or she has not missed any classes. The person, after completing the journeyman electrician refresher course, shall be eligible to retake the examination for competency at the next scheduled time.

(2) Any applicant under this section who has not furnished the department with such evidence required under RCW 19.28.520.

(3) To any apprentice electrician. [1983 c 206 § 17; 1980 c 30 § 8.]

19.28.580 Revocation of certificate of competency—Grounds—Procedure. (1) The department may revoke any certificate of competency upon the following grounds:

(a) The certificate was obtained through error or fraud;

(b) The holder thereof is judged to be incompetent to work in the electrical construction trade as a journeyman electrician or specialty electrician;

(c) The holder thereof has violated any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 or any rule adopted under this chapter.

(2) Before any certificate of competency shall be revoked, the holder shall be given written notice of the department's intention to do so, mailed by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the holder's last known address. The notice shall enumerate the allegations against the holder, and shall give the holder the opportunity to request a hearing before the board of electrical examiners. At the hearing, the department and the holder may produce witnesses and give testimony. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall render its decision based upon the testimony and evidence presented, and shall notify the parties immediately upon reaching its decision. A majority of the board shall be necessary to render a decision. [1983 c 206 § 18; 1980 c 30 § 9.]

19.28.590 Board of electrical examiners—Duties under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. The board of electrical examiners shall carry out all the functions and duties enumerated in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620, as well as generally advise the department on all matters relative to RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. [1983 c 206 § 19; 1980 c 30 § 10.]

19.28.600 Powers and duties of director—Administration of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 by the department. The director may promulgate rules, make specific decisions, orders, and rulings, including demands and findings, and take other necessary action for the implementation and enforcement of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. In the administration of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 the department shall not enter any controversy arising over work assignments with respect to the trades involved in the construction industry. [1983 c 206 § 20; 1980 c 30 § 11.]

19.28.610 Exemptions from RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. Nothing in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be construed to require that a person obtain a license or a certified electrician in order to do electrical work at his or her residence or farm or place of business or on other property owned by him: Provided, however, That nothing in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be intended to derogate from or dispense with the requirements of any valid electrical code enacted by a city or town pursuant to RCW 19.28.010(2), except that no code shall require the holder of a certificate of competency to demonstrate any additional proof of competency or obtain any other license or pay any fee in order to engage in the electrical construction trade: And provided further, That RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall not apply to common carriers subject to Part I of the Interstate Commerce Act, nor to their officers and employees: And provided further, That nothing in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be deemed to apply to the installation or maintenance of communications or electronic circuits, wires and apparatus, or radio or television stations; nor to any electrical utility or its employees, in the installations and maintenance of electrical wiring, circuits, and equipment by or for the utility, or comprising a part of its plants, lines or systems. The licensing provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall not apply to persons making electrical installations on their own property or to regularly employed employees working on the premises of their employer: And provided further, That nothing in RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be construed to restrict the right of any householder to assist or receive assistance from a friend, neighbor, relative or other person when none of the individuals doing the electrical installation hold themselves out as engaged in the trade or business of electrical installations. Nothing precludes any person who is exempt from the licensing requirements of this chapter under this section from obtaining a journeyman or specialty certificate of competency if they otherwise meet the requirements of this chapter. [1983 c 206 § 21; 1980 c 30 § 12.]

19.28.620 Violations of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620—Penalty. (1) It is unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity to employ an individual for purposes of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 who has not been issued a certificate of competency or a training certificate. It is unlawful for any individual to maintain or install any electrical equipment for light, heat, or power without having in his or her possession a certificate of competency or a training certificate under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620. Any person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity found in violation of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars. Any equipment maintained or installed by any person who does not possess a certificate of competency under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 shall not receive an electrical work permit and electrical service shall not be connected or maintained to operate the equipment. Each day that a person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other entity violates the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 is a separate violation.

(2) A civil penalty shall be collected in a civil action brought by the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the alleged violation arose at the request of the department if any of the provisions of RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 or any rules promulgated under RCW 19.28.510 through 19.28.620 are violated. [1983 c 206 § 22; 1980 c 30 § 13.]

19.28.900 Severability—1935 c 169. If any section or part of this chapter shall be held and adjudged to be void or unconstitutional such adjudication shall not affect any other section or part of this chapter not adjudged to be void or unconstitutional. [1935 c 169 § 17.]

19.28.910 Effective date—1963 c 207. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1963. [1963 c 207 § 6.]

19.28.911 Severability—1983 c 206. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1983 c 206 § 24.]

Electricians, licensing, etc.: Chapter 19.28 RCW.

19.29.010 Rules for use of electrical apparatus or construction. It shall be unlawful from and after the passage of this chapter for any officer, agent, or employee of the state of Washington, or of any county, city or other political subdivision thereof, or for any other person, firm or corporation, or its officers, agents or employees, to run, place, erect, maintain, or use any electrical apparatus or construction, except as provided in the rules of this chapter.

Rule 1. No wire or cable carrying a current of less than seven hundred fifty volts of electricity within the corporate limits of any city or town shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any insulator the center of which is less than thirteen inches from the center line of any pole. And no such wire shall be run past any pole to which it is not attached at a distance of less than thirteen inches from the center line thereof. This rule shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from under ground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole top fixture as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure and the point of attachment to such building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole; nor to bridle or jumper wires on any pole which are attached to or connected with signal wires on the same pole; nor to any aerial cable as between such cable and any pole upon which it originates or terminates; nor to exclusive telephone or telegraph toll lines; nor to aerial cables containing telephone, telegraph, or signal wires, or wires continuing from same, where the cable is attached to poles on which no wires or cables other than the wires continuing from said cable are maintained, provided, that electric light or power wires or cables are in no case maintained on the same side of the street or highway on which said aerial cable is placed.

Rule 2. No wire or cable used to carry a current of over seven hundred fifty volts of electricity within the incorporate limits of any city or town shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any insulator the center of which is nearer than twenty-four inches to the center line of any pole. And no such wire or cable shall be run past any pole to which it is not attached at a distance of less than twenty-four inches from the center line thereof: Provided, That this shall not apply to any wire or cable where the same is run from under ground and placed vertically on the pole; nor to any wire or cable where the same is attached to the top of the pole; nor to a pole top fixture, as between it and the same pole; nor to any wire or cable between the points where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with transformers or other appliances on the same pole: Provided further, That where said wire or cable is run vertically, it shall be rigidly supported and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms.

Rule 3. No wire or cable carrying a current of more than seven hundred fifty volts, and less than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used within three feet of any wire or cable carrying a current of seven hundred fifty volts or less of electricity; and no wire or cable carrying a current of more than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained, or used within seven feet of any wire or cable carrying less than seventy-five hundred volts: Provided, That the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any wire or cable within buildings or other structures; nor where the same are run from under ground and placed vertically upon the pole; nor to any service wire or cable where the same is made to leave any pole or fixture thereon for the purpose of entering any building or other structure, and the point of attachment to said building or structure; nor to any jumper wire or cable carrying a current or connected with a transformer or other appliance on the same pole: Provided, That where run vertically, wires or cables shall be rigidly supported, and where possible run on the ends of the cross-arms: Provided further, That as between any two wires or cables mentioned in Rules 1, 2 and 3 of this section, only the wires or cables last in point of time so run, placed, erected or maintained, shall be held to be in violation of the provisions thereof.

Rule 4. No wire or cable used for telephone, telegraph, district messenger, or call bell circuit, fire or burglar alarm, or any other similar system, shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on any pole at a distance of less than three feet from any wire or cable carrying a current of over three hundred volts of electricity; and in all cases (except those mentioned in exceptions to Rules 1, 2 and 3) where such wires or cables are run, above or below, or cross over or under electric light or power wires, or a trolley wire, a suitable method of construction, or insulation or protection to prevent contact shall be maintained as between such wire or cable and such electric light, power or trolley wire; and said methods of construction, insulation or protection shall be installed by, or at the expense of the person owning the wire last placed in point of time: Provided, That telephone, telegraph or signal wires or cables operated for private use and not furnishing service to the public, may be placed less than three feet from any line carrying a voltage of less than seven hundred and fifty volts.

Rule 5. Transformers, either single or in bank, that exceed a total capacity of over ten K.W. shall be supported by a double cross-arm, or some fixture equally as strong. No transformer shall be placed, erected, maintained or used on any cross-arm or other appliance on a pole upon which is placed a series electric arc lamp or arc light: Provided, This shall not apply to a span wire supporting a lamp only. All aerial and underground transformers used for low potential distribution shall be subjected to an insulation test in accordance with the standardized rules of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. In addition to this each transformer shall be tested at rated line voltage prior to each installation and shall have attached to it a tag showing the date on which the test was made, and the name of the person making the test.

Rule 6. No wire or cable carrying more than seventy-five hundred volts of electricity shall be run, placed, erected, maintained or used on curves or corners of greater than fifteen degrees without maintaining guards sufficient to hold said wire or cable in case of breakage of pins or insulators to which the same are attached, except where said wire or cable terminates or dead-ends on curves or corners.

No wire or cable, other than ground wires, used to conduct or carry electricity, shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used vertically on any pole without causing such wire or cable to be at all times sufficiently insulated the full length thereof to insure the protection of anyone coming in contact with said wire or cable.

Rule 7. The neutral point or wire of all transformer secondaries strung or erected for use in low potential distributing systems shall be grounded in all cases where the normal maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will not exceed one hundred and fifty volts. When no neutral point or wire is accessible one side of the secondary circuit shall be grounded in the case of single phase transformers, and any one common point in the case of interconnected polyphase bank or banks of transformers. Where the maximum difference of potential between the ground and any point in the secondary circuit will, when grounded, exceed one hundred fifty volts, grounding shall be permitted. Such grounding shall be done in the manner provided in Rule 33.

Rule 8. In all cases where a wire or cable larger than No. 14 B.W.G. originates or terminates on insulators attached to any pin or other appliance, said wire or cable shall be attached to at least two insulators: Provided however, That this section shall not apply to service wires to buildings; nor to wires run vertically on a pole; nor to wires originating or terminating on strain insulators or circuit breakers; nor to telephone, telegraph or signal wires outside the limits of any incorporated city or town.

Rule 9. All poles along which shall be run vertically any wire or cable used to conduct or carry a current of over two hundred fifty volts shall be provided with steps, and no steps shall be placed on any pole nearer the ground than seven feet.

Rule 10. Fixtures placed or erected for the support of wires on the roofs of buildings shall be of sufficient strength to withstand all strains to which they may be subjected, due to the breaking of all wires on one side thereof, and except where insulated wires or cables are held close to fire walls by straps or rings, shall be of such height and so placed that all of the wires supported by such fixtures shall be at least seven feet above any point of roofs less than one-quarter pitch over which they pass or may be attached, and no roof fixtures or wire shall be so placed that they will interfere with the free passage of persons upon, over, to or from the roofs.

Rule 11. No guy wire or cable shall be placed, run, erected, maintained or used within the incorporate limits of any city or town on any pole or appliance to which is attached any wire or cable used to conduct electricity without causing said guy wire or cable to be efficiently insulated with circuit breakers at all times at a distance of not less than eight feet nor more than ten feet measured along the line of said guy wire or cable from each end thereof: Provided, No circuit breaker shall be required at the lower end of the guy wire or cable where the same is attached to a ground anchor, nor shall any circuit breaker be required where said guy wire or cable runs direct from a grounded messenger wire to a grounded anchor rod.

Rule 12. In all span wires used for the purpose of supporting trolley wires or series arc lamps there shall be at least two circuit breakers, one of which shall at all times be maintained no less than four feet nor more than six feet distant from the trolley wire or series arc lamp, and in cases where the same is supported by a building or metallic pole, the other circuit breaker shall be maintained at the building or at the pole: Provided, That in span wires which support two or more trolley wires no circuit breaker shall be required in the span wire between any two of the trolley wires: Provided further, That in span wires supporting trolley wires attached to wooden poles only the circuit breaker adjacent to the trolley wire shall be required.

Rule 13. At all points where in case of a breakdown of trolley span wires, the trolley wire would be liable to drop within seven feet of the ground, there shall be double span wires and hangers placed at such points.

Rule 14. All energized wires or appliances installed inside of any building or vault, for the distribution of electrical energy, shall be sufficiently insulated, or so guarded, located, or arranged as to protect any person from injury.

Rule 15. The secondary circuit of current transformers, the casings of all potential regulators and arc light transformers, all metal frames of all switch boards, metal oil tanks used on oil switches except where the tank is part of the conducting system, all motor and generator frames, the entire frame of the crane and the tracks of all traveling cranes and hoisting devices, shall be thoroughly grounded, as provided in Rule 33.

Rule 16. All generators and motors having a potential of more than three hundred volts shall be provided with a suitable insulated platform or mat so arranged as to permit the attendant to stand upon such platform or mat when working upon the live parts of such generators or motors.

Rule 17. Suitable insulated platforms or mats shall be provided for the use of all men while working on any live part of switchboards on which any wire or appliance carries a potential in excess of three hundred volts.

Rule 18. Every generator, motor, transformer, switch or other similar piece of apparatus and device used in the generation, transmission or distribution of electrical energy in stations or substations, shall be either provided with a name plate giving the capacity in volts and amperes, or have this information stamped thereon in such a manner as to be clearly legible.

Rule 19. In all cases there shall be two switches used at the station or substation in each feeder for the transmission of electrical energy at constant potential of seven hundred fifty volts or over; one shall be an oil switch so situated as to insure the safety of the person operating the same; the other shall be a disconnecting switch: Provided, That oil switches shall not be required in direct current feeders.

Rule 20. When lines of seven hundred fifty volts or over are cut out at the station or substation to allow employees to work upon them, they shall be short-circuited and grounded at the station, and shall in addition, if the line wires are bare, be short-circuited, and where possible grounded at the place where the work is being done.

Rule 21. All switches installed with overload protection devices, and all automatic overload circuit breakers must have the trip coils so adjusted as to afford complete protection against overloads and short circuits, and the same must be so arranged that no pole can be opened manually without opening all the poles, and the trip coils shall be instantly operative upon closing.

Rule 22. All feeders for electric railways must, before leaving the plant or substation, be protected by an approved circuit breaker which will cut off the circuit in case of an accidental ground or short circuit.

Rule 23. There shall be provided in all distributing stations a ground detecting device.

Rule 24. There shall be provided in all stations, plants, and buildings herein specified warning cards printed on red cardboard not less than two and one-quarter by four and one-half inches in size, which shall be attached to all switches opened for the purpose of linemen or other employees working on the wires. The person opening any line switch shall enter upon said card the name of the person ordering the switch opened, the time opened, the time line was reported clear and by whom, and shall sign his own name.

Rule 25. No manhole containing any wire carrying a current of over three hundred volts shall be less than six feet from floor to inside of roof; if circular in shape it shall not be less than six feet in diameter; if square it shall be six feet from wall to wall: Provided however, That this paragraph shall not apply to any manhole in which it shall not be required that any person enter to perform work: Provided further, That the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with this law within the space or location designated by the proper authorities.

Rule 26. All manholes containing any wires or appliances carrying electrical current shall be kept in a sanitary condition, free from stagnant water or seepage or other drainage which is offensive or dangerous to health, either by sewer connection or otherwise, while any person is working in the same.

Rule 27. No manhole shall have an opening to the outer air of less than twenty-six inches in diameter, and the cover of same shall be provided with vent hole or holes equivalent to three square inches in area.

Rule 28. No manhole shall have an opening which is, at the surface of the ground, within a distance of three feet at any point from any rail of any railway or street car track: Provided, That this shall not apply where satisfactory proof shall be submitted to the proper authorities that it is impracticable or physically impossible to comply with the provisions of this paragraph: Provided,

That in complying with the provisions of this rule only the construction last in point of time performed, placed or erected shall be held to be in violation thereof.

Rule 29. Whenever persons are working in any manhole whose opening to the outer air is less than three feet from the rail of any railway or street car track, a watchman or attendant shall be stationed on the surface at the entrance of such manhole at all times while work is being performed therein.

Rule 30. There shall be provided proper cutout switches on all primary and secondary wires in all manholes where the wires are connected with transformers or other electrical devices therein.

Rule 31. All persons employed in manholes shall be furnished with insulated platforms so as to protect the workmen while at work in the manholes: Provided, That this paragraph shall not apply to manholes containing only telephone, telegraph or signal wires or cables.

Rule 32. No work shall be permitted to be done on any live wire, cable or appliance carrying more than seven hundred fifty volts of electricity by less than two competent and experienced persons, who, at all times while performing such work shall be in the same room, chamber, manhole or other place in which, or on the same pole on which, such work is being done: Provided, That in districts where only one competent and experienced person is regularly employed, and a second competent and experienced person cannot be obtained without delay at prevailing rate of pay in said district, such work shall be permitted to be done by one competent and experienced person and a helper who need not be on the same pole on which said work is being done.

No work shall be permitted to be done in any manhole or subway on any live wire, cable or appliance carrying more than three hundred volts of electricity by less than two competent and experienced persons, who at all times while performing such work shall be in the same manhole or subway in which such work is being done.

Rule 33. The grounding provided for in these rules shall be done in the following manner: By connecting a wire or wires not less than No. 6 B.&S. gauge to a water pipe of a metallic system outside of the meter, if there is one, or to a copper plate one-sixteenth inch thick and not less than three feet by six feet area buried in coke below the permanent moisture level, or to other device equally as efficient. The ground wire or wires of a direct current system of three or more wires shall not be smaller than the neutral wire at the central station, and not smaller than a No. 6 B.&S. gauge elsewhere: Provided, That the maximum cross section area of any ground wire or wires at the central station need not exceed one million circular mils. The ground wires shall be carried in as nearly a straight line as possible, and kinks, coils and short bends shall be avoided: Provided, That the provisions of this rule shall not apply as to size to ground wires run from instrument transformers or meters. [1965 ex.s. c 65 § 1; 1913 c 130 § 1; RRS § 5435.] [1954 SLC-RO 29.]

19.29.020 Copy of chapter to be posted. A copy of this chapter printed in a legible manner shall be kept posted in a conspicuous place in all electric plants, stations and storerooms. [1913 c 130 § 2; RRS § 5436.] [1954 SLC-RO-29.]

19.29.030 Time for compliance. All wires, cables, poles, electric fixtures and appliances of every kind being used or operated at the time of the passage of this chapter, shall be changed, and made to conform to the provisions of this chapter, on or before the 1st day of July, 1940: Provided however, That the director of labor and industries of Washington shall have power, upon reasonable notice, to order and require the erection of all guards, protective devices, and methods of protection which in the judgment of the director are necessary and should be constructed previous to the expiration of the time fixed in this section: Provided further, That nothing in this chapter shall apply to manholes already constructed, except the provisions for guards, sanitary conditions, drainage and safety appliances specified in rules 20, 24, 26, 29, 30, 31 and 32. [1937 c 105 § 1; 1931 c 24 § 1; 1921 c 20 § 1; 1917 c 41 § 1; 1913 c 130 § 3; RRS § 5437.] [1954 SLC-RO-29.]

19.29.040 Enforcement by director of labor and industries—Change of rules—Violation. It shall be the duty of the director of labor and industries of Washington to enforce all the provisions and rules of this chapter and the director is hereby empowered upon hearing to amend, alter and change any and all rules herein contained, or any part thereof, and to supplement the same by additional rules and requirements, after first giving reasonable public notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard to all affected thereby: Provided, That no rule amending, altering or changing any rule supplementary to the rules herein contained shall provide a less measure of safety than that provided by the rule amended, altered or changed.

A violation of any rule herein contained or of any rule or requirement made by the director of labor and industries which it is hereby permitted to make shall be deemed a violation of this chapter. [1983 c 4 § 2; 1913 c 130 § 4; RRS § 5438.] [1954 SLC-RO-29.]

19.29.050 Violation of rules by public service company or political subdivision—Penalty. Every public service company, county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, and all officers, agents and employees of any public service company, county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, shall obey, observe and comply with every order, rule, direction or requirement made by the commission [director of labor and industries] under authority of this chapter, so long as the same shall be and remain in force. Any public service company, county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, which shall violate or fail to comply with any provision of this chapter, or which fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, rule, or any direction, demand or requirement of the commission [director of labor and industries], pursuant to this chapter, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every offense. Every violation of any such order, direction or requirement of this chapter shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continued violation every day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense. [1913 c 130 § 5; RRS § 5439.] [1954 SLC-RO-29.]

Reviser's note: (1) Duties of the public service commission devolved on director of labor and industries. 1921 c 7 § 80 subdivision (5) relating to powers and duties of the director of labor and industries reads: "(5) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties in relation to the enforcement, amendment, alteration, change, and making additions to rules and regulations concerning the operation, placing, erection, maintenance, and use of electrical apparatus, and the construction thereof, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the public service commission;". See also RCW 43.22.050(3).

(2) Name of "public service commission" changed to "utilities and transportation commission" by 1961 c 290 § 1.

19.29.060 Violation of rules by agent, employee or officer—Penalty. Every officer, agent or employee of any public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, who shall violate or fail to comply with, or who procures, aids or abets any violation by any public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, of any provision of this chapter, or who shall fail to obey, observe or comply with any order of the commission [director of labor and industries], pursuant to this chapter, or any provision of any order of the commission [director of labor and industries], or who procures, aids or abets any such public service company, the state of Washington, or any county, city, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington, in its failure to obey, observe and comply with any such order or provision, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1913 c 130 § 6; RRS § 5440.] [1954 SLC-RO-29.]

Reviser's note: See note following RCW 19.29.050.

19.30.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Person" includes any individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation, or unit or agency of state or local government.

(2) "Farm labor contractor" means any person, or his or her agent or subcontractor, who, for a fee, performs any farm labor contracting activity.

(3) "Farm labor contracting activity" means recruiting, soliciting, employing, supplying, transporting, or hiring agricultural employees.

(4) "Agricultural employer" means any person engaged in agricultural activity, including the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm or nursery products, or engaged in the forestation or reforestation of lands, which includes but is not limited to the planting, transplanting, tubing, precommercial thinning, and thinning of trees and seedlings, the clearing, piling, and disposal of brush and slash, the harvest of Christmas trees, and other related activities.

(5) "Agricultural employee" means any person who renders personal services to, or under the direction of, an agricultural employer in connection with the employer's agricultural activity.

(6) This chapter shall not apply to employees of the employment security department acting in their official capacity or their agents, nor to any common carrier or full time regular employees thereof while transporting agricultural employees, nor to any person who performs any of the services enumerated in subsection (3) of this section only within the scope of his or her regular employment for one agricultural employer on whose behalf he or she is so acting, unless he or she is receiving a commission or fee, which commission or fee is determined by the number of workers recruited, or to a non-profit corporation or organization which performs the same functions for its members. Such nonprofit corporation or organization shall be one in which:

(a) None of its directors, officers, or employees are deriving any profit beyond a reasonable salary for services performed in its behalf.

(b) Membership dues and fees are used solely for the maintenance of the association or corporation.

(7) "Fee" means:

(a) Any money or other valuable consideration paid or promised to be paid for services rendered or to be rendered by a farm labor contractor.

(b) Any valuable consideration received or to be received by a farm labor contractor for or in connection with any of the services described in subsection (3) of this section, and shall include the difference between any amount received or to be received by him, and the amount paid out by him for or in connection with the rendering of such services.

(8) "Director" as used in this chapter means the director of the department of labor and industries of the state of Washington. [1985 c 280 § 1; 1955 c 392 § 1.]

19.30.020 License required—Duplicates. No person shall act as a farm labor contractor until a license to do so has been issued to him or her by the director, and unless such license is in full force and effect and is in the contractor's possession. The director shall, by regulation, provide a means of issuing duplicate licenses in case of loss of the original license or any other appropriate instances. The director shall issue, on a monthly basis, a list of currently licensed farm labor contractors. [1985 c 280 § 2; 1955 c 392 § 2.]

19.30.030 Applicants—Qualifications—Fee—Liability insurance. The director shall not issue to any person a license to act as a farm labor contractor until:

(1) Such person has executed a written application on a form prescribed by the director, subscribed and sworn to by the applicant, and containing (a) a statement by the applicant of all facts required by the director concerning the applicant's character, competency, responsibility, and the manner and method by which he or she proposes to conduct operations as a farm labor contractor if such license is issued, and (b) the names and addresses of all persons financially interested, either as partners, stockholders, associates, profit sharers, or providers of board or lodging to agricultural employees in the proposed operation as a labor contractor, together with the amount of their respective interests;

(2) The director, after investigation, is satisfied as to the character, competency, and responsibility of the applicant;

(3) The applicant has paid to the director a license fee of: (1) Thirty-five dollars in the case of a farm labor contractor not engaged in forestation or reforestation, or (2) one hundred dollars in the case of a farm labor contractor engaged in forestation or reforestation or such other sum as the director finds necessary, and adopts by rule, for the administrative costs of evaluating applications;

(4) The applicant has filed proof satisfactory to the director of the existence of a policy of insurance with any insurance carrier authorized to do business in the state of Washington in an amount satisfactory to the director, which insures the contractor against liability for damage to persons or property arising out of the contractor's operation of, or ownership of, any vehicle or vehicles for the transportation of individuals in connection with the contractor's business, activities, or operations as a farm labor contractor;

(5) The applicant has filed a surety bond or other security which meets the requirements set forth in RCW 19.30.040;

(6) The applicant executes a written statement which shall be subscribed and sworn to and shall contain the following declaration:

"With regards to any action filed against me concerning my activities as a farm labor contractor, I appoint the director of the Washington department of labor and industries as my lawful agent to accept service of summons when I am not present in the jurisdiction in which the action is commenced or have in any other way become unavailable to accept service"; and

(7) The applicant has stated on his or her application whether or not his or her contractor's license or the license of any of his or her agents, partners, associates, stockholders, or profit sharers has ever been suspended, revoked, or denied by any state or federal agency, and whether or not there are any outstanding judgments against him or her or any of his or her agents, partners, associates, stockholders, or profit sharers in any state or federal court arising out of activities as a farm labor contractor. [1985 c 280 § 3; 1955 c 392 § 3.]

19.30.040 Surety bond—Security. (1) The director shall require the deposit of a surety bond by any person acting as a farm labor contractor under this chapter to insure compliance with the provisions of this chapter. Such bond shall be in an amount specified by the director in accordance with such criteria as the director adopts by rule but shall not be less than five thousand dollars. The bond shall be payable to the state of Washington and shall be conditioned that the contractor will comply with this chapter and will pay all sums legally owing to any person recruited, solicited, employed, supplied, or hired by the contractor, or the contractor's agent or subcontractor, and will pay all damages arising out of the violation of any provision of this chapter, or false statements or misrepresentations made in the procurement of the contractor's license. The aggregate liability of the surety upon such bond for all claims which may arise thereunder shall not exceed the face amount of the bond.

(2) The amount of the bond may be raised or additional security required by the director, upon his or her own motion or upon petition to the director by any person, when it is shown that the security or bond is insufficient to satisfy the contractor's potential liability for the licensed period.

(3) No surety insurer may provide any bond, undertaking, recognizance, or other obligation for the purpose of securing or guaranteeing any act, duty, or obligation, or the refraining from any act with respect to a contract using the services of a farm labor contractor unless the farm labor contractor has made application for or has a valid license issued under RCW 19.30.030 at the time of issuance of the bond, undertaking, recognizance, or other obligation.

(4) During the period for which a bond is executed, the bond may not be canceled or otherwise terminated, unless alternative security arrangements are approved by the director.

(5) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section, the contractor may file with the director a deposit consisting of cash or other security acceptable to the director. The deposit shall not be less than five thousand dollars in value. The security deposited with the director in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the contractor at the expiration of three years after the farm labor contractor's license has expired or been revoked if no legal action has been instituted against the contractor or on the security deposit at the expiration of the three years.

(6) If a contractor has deposited a bond with the director and has failed to comply with the conditions of the bond as provided by this section, and has departed from this state, service may be made upon the surety as prescribed in RCW 4.28.090. [1985 c 280 § 4; 1955 c 392 § 4.]

19.30.050 License—Grounds for denying. A license to operate as a farm labor contractor shall be denied:

(1) To any person who sells or proposes to sell intoxicating liquors in a building or on premises where he or she operates or proposes to operate as a farm labor contractor, or

(2) To a person whose license has been revoked within three years from the date of application. [1985 c 280 § 5; 1955 c 392 § 5.]

19.30.060 License—Revocation, suspension, refusal to issue or renew. Any person may protest the grant or renewal of a license under this section. The director may revoke, suspend, or refuse to issue or renew any license when it is shown that:

(1) The farm labor contractor or any agent of the contractor has violated or failed to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter;

(2) The farm labor contractor has made any misrepresentations or false statements in his or her application for a license;

(3) The conditions under which the license was issued have changed or no longer exist;

(4) The farm labor contractor, or any agent of the contractor, has violated or wilfully aided or abetted any person in the violation of, or failed to comply with, any law of the state of Washington regulating employment in agriculture, the payment of wages to farm employees, or the conditions, terms, or places of employment affecting the health and safety of farm employees, which is applicable to the business activities, or operations of the contractor in his or her capacity as a farm labor contractor;

(5) The farm labor contractor or any agent of the contractor has in recruiting farm labor solicited or induced the violation of any then existing contract of employment of such laborers; or

(6) The farm labor contractor or any agent of the contractor has an unsatisfied judgment against him or her in any state or federal court, arising out of his or her farm labor contracting activities. [1985 c 280 § 6; 1955 c 392 § 6.]

19.30.070 License—Contents. Each license shall contain, on the face thereof:

(1) The name and address of the licensee and the fact that he or she is licensed to act as a farm labor contractor for the period upon the face of the license only;

(2) The number, date of issuance, and date of expiration of the license;

(3) The amount of the surety bond deposited by the licensee;

(4) The fact that the license may not be transferred or assigned; and

(5) A statement that the licensee is or is not licensed to transport workers. [1985 c 280 § 7; 1955 c 392 § 7.]

19.30.081 License—Duration—Renewal. Farm labor contractors may hold either a one-year license or a two-year license, at the director's discretion.

The one-year license shall run to and include the 31st day of December next following the date thereof unless sooner revoked by the director. A license may be renewed each year upon the payment of the annual license fee, but the director shall require that a new application and a renewed bond be submitted.

The two-year license shall run to and include the 31st day of December of the year following the year of issuance unless sooner revoked by the director. This license may be renewed every two years under the same terms as the one-year license, except that a farm labor contractor possessing a two-year license shall renew his or her bond each year and file an application on which he or she shall disclose all information required by RCW 19.30.030 (1)(b), (4), and (7). [1985 c 280 § 8.]

19.30.090 License—Application for renewal. All applications for renewal shall state the names and addresses of all persons financially interested either as partners, associates or profit sharers in the operation as a farm labor contractor. [1955 c 392 § 9.]

19.30.110 Farm labor contractor—Duties. Every person acting as a farm labor contractor shall:

(1) Carry a current farm labor contractor's license at all times and exhibit it to all persons with whom the contractor intends to deal in the capacity of a farm labor contractor prior to so dealing.

(2) Disclose to every person with whom he or she deals in the capacity of a farm labor contractor the amount of his or her bond and the existence and amount of any claims against the bond.

(3) File at the United States post office serving the address of the contractor, as noted on the face of the farm labor contractor's license, a correct change of address immediately upon each occasion the contractor permanently moves his or her address, and notify the director within ten days after an address change is made.

(4) Promptly when due, pay or distribute to the individuals entitled thereto all moneys or other things of value entrusted to the contractor by any third person for such purpose.

(5) Comply with the terms and provisions of all legal and valid agreements and contracts entered into between the contractor in the capacity of a farm labor contractor and third persons.

(6) File information regarding work offers with the nearest employment service office, such information to include wages and work to be performed and any other information prescribed by the director.

(7) On a form prescribed by the director, furnish to each worker, at the time of hiring, recruiting, soliciting, or supplying, whichever occurs first, a written statement in English and any other language common to workers who are not fluent or literate in English that contains a description of:

(a) The compensation to be paid and the method of computing the rate of compensation;

(b) The terms and conditions of any bonus offered, including the manner of determining when the bonus is earned;

(c) The terms and conditions of any loan made to the worker;

(d) The conditions of any transportation, housing, board, health, and day care services or any other employee benefit to be provided by the farm labor contractor or by his or her agents, and the costs to be charged for each of them;

(e) The terms and conditions of employment, including the approximate length of season or period of employment and the approximate starting and ending dates thereof, and the crops on which and kinds of activities in which the worker may be employed;

(f) The terms and conditions under which the worker is furnished clothing or equipment;

(g) The place of employment;

(h) The name and address of the owner of all operations, or the owner's agent, where the worker will be working as a result of being recruited, solicited, supplied, or employed by the farm labor contractor;

(i) The existence of a labor dispute at the worksite;

(j) The name and address of the farm labor contractor;

(k) The existence of any arrangements with any owner or agent of any establishment at the place of employment under which the farm labor contractor is to receive a fee or any other benefit resulting from any sales by such establishment to the workers; and

(l) The name and address of the surety on the contractor's bond and the workers' right to claim against the bond.

(8) Furnish to the worker each time the worker receives a compensation payment from the farm labor contractor, a written statement itemizing the total payment and the amount and purpose of each deduction therefrom, hours worked, rate of pay, and pieces done if the work is done on a piece rate basis, and if the work is done under the Service Contract Act (41 U.S.C. Secs. 351 through 401) or related federal or state law, a written statement of any applicable prevailing wage.

(9) With respect to each worker recruited, solicited, employed, supplied, or hired by the farm labor contractor:

(a) Make, keep, and preserve for three years a record of the following information:

(i) The basis on which wages are paid;

(ii) The number of piecework units earned, if paid on a piecework basis;

(iii) The number of hours worked;

(iv) The total pay period earnings;

(v) The specific sums withheld and the purpose of each sum withheld; and

(vi) The net pay; and

(b) Provide to any other farm labor contractor and to any user of farm labor for whom he or she recruits, solicits, supplies, hires, or employs workers copies of all records, with respect to each such worker, which the contractor is required by this chapter to make, keep, and preserve. The recipient of such records shall keep them for a period of three years from the end of the period of employment. When necessary to administer this chapter, the director may require that any farm labor contractor provide the director with certified copies of his or her payroll records for any payment period.

The record-keeping requirements of this chapter shall be met if either the farm labor contractor or any user of the contractor's services makes, keeps, and preserves for the requisite time period the records required under this section, and so long as each worker receives the written statements specified in subsection (8) of this section. [1985 c 280 § 9; 1955 c 392 § 11.]

19.30.120 Farm labor contractor—Prohibited acts. No person acting as a farm labor contractor shall:

(1) Make any misrepresentation or false statement in an application for a license.

(2) Make or cause to be made, to any person, any false, fraudulent, or misleading representation, or publish or circulate or cause to be published or circulated any false, fraudulent, or misleading information concerning the terms or conditions or existence of employment at any place or places, or by any person or persons, or of any individual or individuals.

(3) Send or transport any worker to any place where the farm labor contractor knows a strike or lockout exists.

(4) Do any act in the capacity of a farm labor contractor, or cause any act to be done, which constitutes a crime involving moral turpitude under any law of the state of Washington. [1985 c 280 § 10; 1955 c 392 § 12.]

19.30.130 Rules—Adjustment of controversies. (1) The director shall adopt rules not inconsistent with this chapter for the purpose of enforcing and administering this chapter.

(2) The director shall investigate and attempt to adjust equitably controversies between farm labor contractors and their workers with respect to claims arising under this chapter. [1985 c 280 § 11; 1955 c 392 § 14.]

19.30.150 Penalties. Any person who violates any provisions of this chapter, or who causes or induces another to violate any provisions of this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or both. [1955 c 392 § 13.]

19.30.160 Civil penalty—Hearing—Action in superior court—Action upon surety bond. (1) In addition to any criminal penalty imposed under RCW 19.30.150, the director may assess against any person who violates this chapter, or any rule adopted under this chapter, a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation.

(2) The person shall be afforded the opportunity for a hearing, upon request to the director made within thirty days after the date of issuance of the notice of assessment. The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) If any person fails to pay an assessment after it has become a final and unappealable order, or after the court has entered final judgment in favor of the agency, the director shall refer the matter to the state attorney general, who shall recover the amount assessed by action in the appropriate superior court. In such action, the validity and appropriateness of the final order imposing the penalty shall not be subject to review.

(4) Without regard to any other remedy otherwise provided in this chapter, the director may bring suit upon the surety bond filed by the farm labor contractor on behalf of any worker whose rights under this chapter have been violated by the contractor. Such action may be commenced in any court of competent jurisdiction. In any such action, the notice and service requirements set forth in RCW 19.30.170(3) shall be complied with. [1985 c 280 § 15.]

19.30.170 Civil actions—Damages, costs, attorney's fees—Actions upon surety bond—Satisfaction of claims. (1) After filing a notice of a claim with the director, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter may bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the claim arose, or in which either the plaintiff or respondent resides, without regard to the amount in controversy and without regard to exhaustion of any alternative administrative remedies provided in this chapter. No such action may be commenced later than three years after the date of the violation giving rise to the right of action. In any such action the court may award to the prevailing party, in addition to costs and disbursements, reasonable attorney fees at trial and appeal.

(2) In any action under subsection (1) of this section, if the court finds that the respondent has violated this chapter or any rule adopted under this chapter, it may award damages up to and including an amount equal to the amount of actual damages, or statutory damages of five hundred dollars per plaintiff per violation, whichever is greater, or other equitable relief.

(3) Without regard to any other remedy otherwise provided in this chapter, any person having a claim against the farm labor contractor for any violation of this chapter may bring suit upon the surety bond or security deposit filed by the contractor pursuant to RCW 19.30.040, in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the claim arose, or in which either the claimant or contractor resides. An action upon the bond or security deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing the complaint within three years from the date of expiration or cancellation of the bond, or in the case of a security deposit, within three years of the date of the expiration or revocation of the license. A copy of the complaint in any such action shall be served upon the director at the time of commencement of the action and the director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service shall constitute service on the farm labor contractor and the surety for suit upon the bond and the director shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the contractor at the address listed in his or her application and to the surety within forty-eight hours after it has been received. The surety upon the bond may, upon notice to the director and the parties, tender to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the action an amount equal to the claims thereunder or the amount of the bond less the amount of judgments, if any, previously satisfied therefrom and to the extent of such tender the surety upon the bond shall be exonerated. A claimant against the bond or security deposit shall be entitled to damages under subsection (2) of this section. If the actions commenced and pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond then unimpaired, the claims shall be satisfied from the bond in the following order:

- (a) Wages, including employee benefits;
- (b) Damages imposed under subsection (2) of this section;
- (c) Any costs and attorney's fees claimant may be entitled to recover.

If any final judgment impairs the liability of the surety upon the bond so furnished so that there is not in effect a bond undertaking in the full amount prescribed by the director, the director shall suspend the license of such contractor until the bond liability in the required amount unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims has been furnished. If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished.

If the farm labor contractor has filed other security with the director in lieu of a surety bond, any person having an unsatisfied final judgment against the contractor for any violation of this chapter may execute upon the security deposit held by the director by serving a certified copy of the unsatisfied final judgment by registered or certified mail upon the director. Upon the receipt of service of such certified copy, the director shall pay or order paid from the deposit, through the registry of the court which rendered judgment, towards the amount of the unsatisfied judgment. The priority of payment by the director shall be the order of receipt by the director, but the director shall have no liability for payment in excess of the amount of the deposit. [1985 c 280 § 16.]

19.30.180 Injunctions—Costs—Attorney fee. The director or any other person may bring suit in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from using the services of an unlicensed farm labor contractor or to enjoin any person acting as a farm labor contractor in violation of this chapter, or any rule adopted under this chapter, from committing future violations. The court may award to the prevailing party costs and disbursements and a reasonable attorney fee. [1985 c 280 § 12.]

19.30.190 Retaliation against employee prohibited. No farm labor contractor or agricultural employer may discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee because:

- (1) The employee has made a claim against the farm labor contractor or agricultural employer for compensation for the employee's personal services.
- (2) The employee has caused to be instituted any proceedings under or related to RCW 19.30.180.
- (3) The employee has testified or is about to testify in any such proceedings.
- (4) The employee has discussed or consulted with anyone concerning the employee's rights under this chapter. [1985 c 280 § 13.]

19.30.200 Unlicensed farm labor contractors—Liability for services. Any person who knowingly uses the services of an unlicensed farm labor contractor shall be personally, jointly, and severally liable with the person acting as a farm labor contractor to the same extent and in the same manner as provided in this chapter. In making determinations under this subsection [section], any user may rely upon either the license issued by the director to the farm labor contractor under RCW 19.30.030 or the director's representation that such contractor is licensed as required by this chapter. [1985 c 280 § 14.]

19.30.900 Severability—1955 c 392. If any section, sentence, clause or word of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional, the invalidity of such section, sentence, clause or word shall not affect the validity of any other portion of this chapter, it being the intent of this legislative assembly to enact the remainder of this chapter notwithstanding such part so declared unconstitutional should or may be so declared. [1955 c 392 § 17.]

19.30.901 Severability—1985 c 280. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1985 c 280 § 18.]

19.30.902 Effective date—1985 c 280. This 1985 act shall take effect January 1, 1986. [1985 c 280 § 19.]

19.31.010 Short title. This chapter shall be known and cited as "The Employment Agency Act". [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 1.]

19.31.020 Definitions. Unless a different meaning is clearly required by the context, the following words and phrases, as hereinafter used in this chapter, shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Employment agency" is synonymous with "agency" and shall mean any business in which any part of the business gross or net income is derived from a fee received from applicants, and in which any of the following activities are engaged in:

(a) The offering, promising, procuring, or attempting to procure employment for applicants; or

(b) The giving of information regarding where and from whom employment may be obtained.

In addition the term "employment agency" shall mean and include any person, bureau, organization, or school which for profit, by advertisement or otherwise, offers, as one of its main objects or purposes, to procure employment for any person who pays for its services, or which collects tuition, or charges for service of any nature, where the main object of the person paying the same is to secure employment. The term "employment agency" shall not include labor union organizations, temporary service contractors, proprietary schools, theatrical agencies, farm labor contractors, or the Washington state employment agency.

(2) "Temporary service contractors" shall mean any person, firm, association, or corporation conducting a business which consists of employing individuals directly for the purpose of furnishing such individuals on a part time or temporary help basis to others.

(3) "Theatrical agency" means any person who, for a fee or commission, procures or attempts to procure on behalf of an individual or individuals, employment or engagements for circus, vaudeville, the variety field, the legitimate theater, motion pictures, radio, television, phonograph recordings, transcriptions, opera, concert, ballet, modeling, or other entertainments, exhibitions, or performances.

(4) "Farm labor contractor" means any person, or his agent, who, for a fee, employs workers to render personal services in connection with the production of any farm products, to, for, or under the direction of an employer engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products, or who recruits, solicits, supplies, or hires workers on behalf of an employer engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products or who provides in connection with recruiting, soliciting, supplying, or hiring workers engaged in the growing, producing, or harvesting of farm products, one or more of the following services: Furnishes board, lodging, or transportation for such workers, supervises, times, checks, counts, sizes, or otherwise directs or measures their work; or disburses wage payments to such persons.

(5) "Employer" means any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association employing or seeking to enter into an arrangement to employ a person through the medium or service of an employment agency.

(6) "Applicant", except when used to describe an applicant for an employment agency license, means any person, whether employed or unemployed, seeking or entering into any arrangement for his employment or change of his employment through the medium or service of an employment agency.

(7) "Person" includes any individual, firm, corporation, partnership, association, company, society, manager, contractor, subcontractor, bureau, agency, service, office, or an agent or employee of any of the foregoing.

(8) "Director" shall mean the director of licensing. [1979 c 158 § 82; 1977 ex.s. c 51 § 1; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 2.]

19.31.030 Records. Each employment agency shall keep records of all services rendered employers and applicants. These records shall contain the name and address of the employer by whom the services were solicited; the name and address of the applicant; kind of position ordered by the employer; kind of position accepted by the applicant; probable duration of the employment, if known; rate of wage or salary to be paid the applicant; amount of the employment agency's fee; dates and amounts of refund if any, and reason for such refund; and the contract agreed to between the agency and applicant.

The director shall have authority to demand and to examine, at the employment agency's regular place of business, all books, documents, and records in its possession for inspection. Unless otherwise provided by rules or regulation adopted by the director, such records shall be maintained for a period of three years from the date in which they are made. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 3.]

19.31.040 Contract between agency and applicant—Contents—Notice. An employment agency shall provide each applicant with a copy of the contract between the applicant and employment agency which shall have printed on it or attached to it a copy of RCW

19.31.170 as now or hereafter amended. Such contract shall contain the following:

- (1) The name, address, and telephone number of the employment agency;
- (2) Trade name if any;
- (3) The date of the contract;
- (4) The name of the applicant;
- (5) The amount of the fee to be charged the applicant, or the method of computation of the fee, and the time and method of payments: Provided, however, That if the provisions of the contract come within the definition of a "retail installment transaction", as defined in RCW 63.14.010, the contract shall conform to the requirements of chapter 63.14 RCW, as now or hereafter amended;

(6) A notice in eight-point bold face type or larger directly above the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the buyer. The caption, "NOTICE TO APPLICANT—READ BEFORE SIGNING" shall precede the body of the notice and shall be in ten-point bold face type or larger. The notice shall read as follows:

"This is a contract. If you accept employment with any employer through [name of employment agency] you will be liable for the payment of the fee as set out above. Do not sign this contract before you read it or if any spaces intended for the agreed terms are left blank. You must be given a copy of this contract at the time you sign it." [1985 c 7 § 83; 1977 ex.s. c 51 § 2; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 4.]

19.31.050 Approval of contract, fee schedule. Prior to using any contract or fee schedule in the transaction of its business with applicants, each employment agency shall obtain the director's approval for the use of such contract or fee schedule. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 5.]

19.31.060 Request from employer for interview required—Information to be furnished applicant. No employment agency shall send any applicant on an interview with a prospective employer without having first obtained, either orally or in writing, a bona fide request from such employer for the interview: Provided, however, That, it shall be the duty of every employment agency to give to each applicant for employment, orally or in writing, before being sent on an interview, information as to the name and address of the person to whom the applicant is to apply for such employment, the kind of service to be performed, the anticipated rate of wages or compensation, the agency's fee based on such anticipated wages or compensation, whether such employment is permanent or temporary, and the name and address of the natural person authorizing the interviewing of such applicant. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 3; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 6.]

19.31.070 Administration of chapter—Rules—Subpoenas—Investigations—Inspections. (1) The director shall administer the provisions of this chapter and shall issue from time to time reasonable rules and regulations for enforcing and carrying out the provisions and purposes of this chapter.

(2) The director shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses by the issuance of subpoenas, to administer oaths, and to take testimony and proofs concerning all matters pertaining to the administration of this chapter.

(3) The director shall have supervisory and investigative authority over all employment agencies. Upon receiving a complaint against any employment agency, the director shall have the right to examine all books, documents, or records in its possession. In addition, the director may examine the office or offices where business is or shall be conducted by such agency. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 7.]

19.31.080 License required—Penalty. It shall be a misdemeanor for any person to conduct an employment agency business in this state unless he has an employment agency license issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 8.]

19.31.090 Bond—Cash deposit—Action on bond or deposit—Procedure—Judgment. (1) Before conducting any business as an employment agency each licensee shall file with the director a surety bond in the sum of two thousand dollars running to the state of Washington, for the benefit of any person injured or damaged as a result of any violation by the licensee or his agent of any of the provisions of this chapter or of any rule or regulation adopted by the director pursuant to RCW 19.31.070(1).

(2) In lieu of the surety bond required by this section the license applicant may file with the director a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the director: Provided, however, If the license applicant has filed a cash deposit, the director shall deposit such funds with the state treasurer. If the license applicant has deposited cash or other negotiable security with the director, the same shall be returned to the licensee at the expiration of one year after the employment agency's license has expired or been revoked, if no legal action has been instituted against the licensee or the surety deposit at the expiration of the year.

(3) Any person having a claim against an employment agency for any violation of the provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder may bring suit upon such bond or deposit in an appropriate court of the county where the office of the employment agency is located or of any county in which jurisdiction of the employment agency may be had. Action upon such bond or deposit shall be commenced by serving and filing of the complaint within one year from the date of expiration of the employment agency license in force at the time the act for which the suit is brought occurred. A copy of the complaint shall be served by registered or certified mail upon the director at the time the suit is started, and the director shall maintain a record, available for public inspection, of all suits so commenced. Such service on the director shall constitute service on the surety and the director shall transmit the complaint or a copy thereof to the surety within five business days after it shall have been received. The surety upon the bond shall not be liable in an aggregate amount in excess of the amount named in the bond, but in case claims pending at any one time exceed the amount of the bond, claims shall be satisfied in the order of judgment rendered. In the event that any final judgment shall impair the liability of the surety upon bond so furnished or the amount of the deposit so that there shall not be in effect a bond undertaking or deposit in the full amount prescribed in this section, the director shall suspend the license of such employment agency until the bond undertaking or deposit in the required amount, unimpaired by unsatisfied judgment claims, shall have been furnished.

(4) In the event of a final judgment being entered against the deposit or security referred to in subsection (2) of this section, the director shall, upon receipt of a certified copy of the final judgment, order said judgment to be paid from the amount of the deposit or security. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 4; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 9.]

19.31.100 Applications—Contents—Filing—Qualifications of applicants and licensees—Waiver. (1) Every applicant for an employment agency's license or a renewal thereof shall file with the director a written application stating the name and address of the applicant; the street and number of the building in which the business of the employment agency is to be conducted; the name of the person who is to have the general management of the office; the name under which the business of the office is to be carried on; whether or not the applicant is pecuniarily interested in the business to be carried on under the license; shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to before a notary public; and shall identify anyone holding over twenty percent interest in the agency. If the applicant is a corporation, the application shall state the names and addresses of the officers and directors of the corporation, and shall be signed and sworn to by the president and secretary thereof. If the applicant is a partnership, the application shall also state the names and addresses of all partners therein, and shall be signed and sworn to by all of them. The application shall also state whether or not the applicant is, at the time of making the application, or has at any previous time been engaged in or interested in or employed by anyone engaged in the business of an employment agency.

(2) The application shall require a certification that no officer or holder of more than twenty percent interest in the business has been convicted of a felony within ten years of the application which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought, or had any judgment entered against such person in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion.

(3) All applications for employment agency licenses shall be accompanied by a copy of the form of contract and fee schedule to be used between the employment agency and the applicant.

(4) No license to operate an employment agency in this state shall be issued, transferred, renewed, or remain in effect, unless the person who has or is to have the general management of the office has qualified pursuant to this section. The director may, for good cause shown, waive the requirement imposed by this section for a period not to exceed one hundred and twenty days. Persons who have been previously licensed or who have operated to the satisfaction of the director for at least one year prior to September 21, 1977 as a general manager shall be entitled to operate for up to one year from such date before being required to qualify under this section. In order to qualify, such person shall, through testing procedures developed by the director, show that such person has a knowledge of this law, pertinent labor laws, and laws against discrimination in employment in this state and of the United States. Said examination shall be given at least once each quarter and a fee for such examination shall be established by the director. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to preclude any one natural person from being designated as the person who is to have the general management of up to three offices operated by any one licensee. [1982 c 227 § 14; 1977 ex.s. c 51 § 5; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 10.]

Effective date—1982 c 227: See note following RCW 19.09.100.

19.31.110 Expiration date of licenses—Reinstatement. An employment agency license shall expire June 30th. Any such license not renewed may be reinstated if the employment agency can show good cause to the director for renewal of the license and present proof of intent to continue to act as an employment agency: Provided, That no license shall be issued upon such application for reinstatement until all fees and penalties previously accrued under this chapter have been paid. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 6; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 11.]

19.31.120 Transfer of licenses. No license granted pursuant to this chapter shall be transferable without the consent of the director. No employment agency shall permit any person not mentioned in the license application to become connected with the business as an owner, member, officer, or director without the consent of the director. Consent may be withheld for any reason for which an original application for a license might have been rejected, if the person in question had been mentioned therein. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 12.]

19.31.130 Denial, suspension or revocation of licenses—Grounds. In accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW as now or as hereafter amended, the director may by order deny, suspend or revoke the license of any employment agency if he finds that the applicant or licensee:

(1) Was previously the holder of a license issued under this chapter, which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the director, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled;

(2) Has been found guilty of any felony within the past five years involving moral turpitude, or for any misdemeanor concerning fraud or conversion, or suffering any judgment in any civil action involving wilful fraud, misrepresentation or conversion;

(3) Has made a false statement of a material fact in his application or in any data attached thereto;

(4) Has violated any provisions of this chapter, or failed to comply with any rule or regulation issued by the director pursuant to this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 13.]

19.31.140 Fees for licensees. The director shall determine the fees, as provided in RCW 43.24.086, charged to those parties licensed as employment agencies for original applications, renewal per year, branch license, both original and renewal, transfer of license, and approval of amended or new contracts and/or fee schedules. [1985 c 7 § 84; 1975 1st ex.s. c 30 § 92; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 14.]

19.31.150 Employment condition precedent to charging fee. No employment agency shall charge or accept a fee or other consideration from an applicant without complying with the terms of a written contract as specified in RCW 19.31.040, and then only after such agency has been responsible for referring such job applicant to an employer or such employer to a job applicant and where as a result thereof such job applicant has been employed by such employer. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 15.]

19.31.160 Charging fee or payment contrary to chapter—Return of excess. Any employment agency which collects, receives, or retains a fee or other payment contrary to the provisions of this chapter or to the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter shall return the excessive portion of the fee within seven days after receiving a demand therefor from the director. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 16.]

19.31.170 Limitations on fee amounts—Refunds. (1) If an applicant accepts employment by agreement with an employer and thereafter never reports for work, the gross fee charged to the applicant shall not exceed: (a) Ten percent of what the first month's gross salary or wages would be, if known; or (b) ten percent of the first month's drawing account. If the employment was to have been on a commission basis without any drawing account, then no fee may be charged in the event that the applicant never reports for work.

(2) If an applicant accepts employment on a commission basis without any drawing account, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall be a percentage of commissions actually earned.

(3) If an applicant accepts employment and if within sixty days of his reporting for work the employment is terminated, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty percent of the gross salary, wages or commission received by him.

(4) If an applicant accepts temporary employment as a domestic, household employee, baby sitter, agricultural worker, or day laborer, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not be in excess of twenty-five percent of the first full month's gross salary or wages: Provided, That where an applicant accepts employment as a domestic or household employee for a period of less than one month, then the gross fee charged such applicant shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the gross salary or wages paid.

(5) Any applicant requesting a refund of a fee paid to an employment agency in accordance with the terms of the approved fee schedule of the employment agency pursuant to this section shall file with the employment agency a form requesting such refund on which shall be set forth information reasonably needed and requested by the employment agency, including but not limited to the following: Circumstances under which employment was terminated, dates of employment, and gross earnings of the applicant.

(6) Refund requests which are not in dispute shall be made by the employment agency within thirty days of receipt. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 7; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 17.]

19.31.180 Posting of fee limitation and remedy provisions. Each licensee shall post the following in a conspicuous place in each office in which it conducts business: (1) The substance of RCW 19.31.150 through 19.31.170; and (2) a name and address provided by the director, in a form prescribed by him, of a person to whom complaints concerning possible violation of this chapter may be made. All words required to be posted pursuant to this section shall be printed in ten point bold face type. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 18.]

19.31.190 Rules of conduct—Complaints. In addition to the other provisions of this chapter the following rules shall govern each and every employment agency:

(1) Every license or a verified copy thereof shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in each office of the employment agency;

(2) No fee shall be solicited or accepted as an application or registration fee by any employment agency solely for the purpose of being registered as an applicant for employment;

(3) No licensee or agent of the licensee shall solicit, persuade, or induce an employee to leave any employment in which the licensee or agent of the licensee has placed the employee; nor shall any licensee or agent of the licensee persuade or induce or solicit any employer to discharge any employee;

(4) No employment agency shall knowingly cause to be printed or published a false or fraudulent notice or advertisement for obtaining work or employment. All advertising by a licensee shall signify that it is an employment agency solicitation;

(5) No licensee shall fail to state in any advertisement, proposal or contract for employment that there is a strike or lockout at the place of proposed employment, if he has knowledge that such condition exists;

(6) No licensee or agent of a licensee shall directly or indirectly split, divide, or share with an employer any fee, charge, or compensation received from any applicant who has obtained employment with such employer or with any other person connected with the business of such employer;

(7) When an applicant is referred to the same employer by two licensees, the fee shall be paid to the licensee who first contacted the applicant concerning the position for that applicant: Provided, That the licensee has given the name of the employer to the applicant and has within five working days arranged an interview with the employer and the applicant was hired as the result of that interview;

(8) No licensee shall require in any manner that a potential employee or an employee of an employer make any contract with any lending agency for the purpose of fulfilling a financial obligation to the licensee;

(9) Any aggrieved person, firm, corporation, or public officer may submit a written complaint to the director charging the holder of an employment agency license with violation of this chapter and/or the rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 8; 1969 ex.s. c 228 § 19.]

19.31.210 Enforcement. The director may refer such evidence as may be available to him concerning violations of this chapter or of any rule or regulation adopted hereunder to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the alleged violation arose, who may, in their discretion, with or without such a reference, in addition to any other action they might commence, bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act or practice prohibited by this chapter: Provided, That this chapter shall be considered in conjunction with chapters 9.04 and 19.86 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and the powers and duties of the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney as they may appear in the aforementioned chapters, shall apply against all persons subject to this chapter. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 21.]

19.31.220 Assurance of discontinuance of violation. In the enforcement of this chapter, the attorney general and/or any said prosecuting attorney may accept an assurance of discontinuance from any person deemed in violation of any provisions of this chapter. Any such assurance shall be in writing and shall be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in Thurston county. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 22.]

19.31.230 Civil penalty. Any person who violates the terms of any court order or temporary or permanent injunction issued pursuant to this chapter, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than five thousand dollars. For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain continuing jurisdiction and in such cases the attorney general and/or the prosecuting attorney acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 23.]

19.31.240 Service of process outside state. Personal service of any process in an action under this chapter may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has engaged in conduct in violation of this chapter which conduct has had impact in this state which this chapter reprehends. Such person shall be deemed to have thereby submitted himself to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state within the meaning of RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185, as now or hereafter amended. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 24.]

19.31.245 Licensing prerequisite to suit by employment agency—Action against unlicensed employment agency. (1) No employment agency may bring or maintain a cause of action in any court of this state for compensation for, or seeking equitable relief in regard to, services rendered employers and applicants, unless such agency shall allege and prove that at the time of rendering the services in question, or making the contract therefor, it was the holder of a valid license issued under this chapter.

(2) Any person who shall give consideration of any kind to any employment agency for the performance of employment services in this state when said employment agency shall not be the holder of a valid license issued under this chapter shall have a cause of action against the employment agency. Any court having jurisdiction may enter judgment therein for treble the amount of such consideration so paid, plus reasonable attorney's fees and costs. [1977 ex.s. c 51 § 10.]

19.31.250 Chapter provisions exclusive—Authority of political subdivisions not affected. (1) The provisions of this chapter relating to the regulation of private employment agencies shall be exclusive.

(2) This chapter shall not be construed to affect or reduce the authority of any political subdivision of the state of Washington to provide for the licensing of private employment agencies solely for revenue purposes. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 25.]

19.31.260 Administrative procedure act to govern administration. The administration of this chapter shall be governed by the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 26.]

19.31.900 Severability—1969 ex.s. c 228. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 27.]

19.31.910 Effective date—1969 ex.s. c 228. This act shall become effective July 1, 1969. [1969 ex.s. c 228 § 28.]

19.32.010 Declaration of police power. This chapter is in exercise of the police powers of the state for the protection of the safety, health and welfare of the people of the state. It hereby is found and declared that the public welfare requires control and regulation of the operation of refrigerated lockers and of the sale, handling and processing of articles of human food in connection therewith, and the control, inspection and regulation of persons engaged therein, in order to prevent or eliminate unsanitary, unhealthful, fraudulent, and unfair or unecconomic practices and conditions in connection with the refrigerated locker business, which practices and conditions endanger public health, defraud customers, jeopardize the public source of supply and storage facilities of essential food products, and adversely affect an important and growing industry. It is further found and declared that the regulation of the refrigerated locker business, as above outlined, is in the interest of the economic and social well-being and the health and safety of the state and all of its people. [1943 c 117 § 1; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–125.]

19.32.020 Definitions. Except where the context indicates a different meaning, terms used in this chapter shall be defined as follows:

(1) "Refrigerated locker" or "locker" means any place, premises or establishment where facilities for the cold storage and preservation of human food in separate and individual compartments are offered to the public upon a rental or other basis providing compensation to the person offering such services.

(2) "Person" includes any individual, partnership, corporation, association, county, municipality, cooperative group, or other entity engaging in the business of operating or owning or offering the services of refrigerated lockers as above defined.

(3) "Master license system" means the mechanism established by chapter 19.02 RCW by which master licenses, endorsed for individual state-issued licenses, are issued and renewed utilizing a master application and a master license expiration date common to each renewable license endorsement. [1982 c 182 § 31; 1943 c 117 § 2; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–126.]

Severability—1982 c 182: See RCW 19.02.901.

19.32.030 Director—Duties. The director of agriculture is hereby empowered to prescribe and to enforce such rules and regulations and to make such definitions, and to prescribe such procedure with regard to hearings, as he may deem necessary to carry into effect the full intent and meaning of this chapter. [1943 c 117 § 7; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–131.]

19.32.040 Licensing required—Application. No person hereafter shall engage within this state in the business of owning, operating or offering the services of any refrigerated locker or lockers without having obtained a license for each such place of business. Application for such license shall be made through the master license system. Such licenses shall be granted as a matter of right unless conditions exist which are grounds for a cancellation or revocation of a license as hereinafter set forth. [1982 c 182 § 32; 1943 c 117 § 3; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–127.]

Severability—1982 c 182: See RCW 19.02.901.

Master license system

defined: RCW 19.32.020(3).

existing licenses or permits registered under, when: RCW 19.02.810.

to include additional licenses: RCW 19.02.110.

19.32.050 License fees—Expiration—Annual renewal fees. (1) An annual fee of ten dollars shall accompany each application for a refrigerated locker license or renewal of the license. All such license and renewal fees shall be deposited in the state's general fund.

(2) Each such license shall expire on the master license expiration date unless sooner revoked for cause. Renewal may be obtained annually by paying the required annual license fee. Such license fee shall not be transferable to any person nor be applicable to any location other than that for which originally issued. [1982 c 182 § 33; 1967 c 240 § 39; 1943 c 117 § 4; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–128.]

Severability—1982 c 182: See RCW 19.02.901.

Severability—1967 c 240: See note following RCW 43.23.010.

Master license system

existing licenses or permits registered under, when: RCW 19.02.810.

license expiration date: RCW 19.02.090.

19.32.055 Stipulated license fee to replace existent charges. Payment of the license fee stipulated herein shall be accepted in lieu of any and all existing fees and charges for like purposes or intent which may be existent prior to the adoption of this chapter. [1943 c 117 § 15; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–139.]

19.32.060 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Grounds—Notice—Review. (1) The director of agriculture may cancel or suspend any such license if he finds after proper investigation that (a) the licensee has violated any provision of this chapter or of any other law of this state relating to the operation of refrigerated lockers or of the sale of any human food in connection therewith, or any regulation effective under any act the administration of which is in the charge of the department of agriculture, or (b) the licensed refrigerated locker premises or any equipment used therein or in connection therewith is in an unsanitary condition and the licensee has failed or refused to remedy the same within ten days after receipt from the director of agriculture of written notice to do so.

(2) No license shall be revoked or suspended by the director without delivery to the licensee of a written statement of the charge involved and an opportunity to answer such charge within ten days from the date of such notice.

(3) Any order made by the director suspending or revoking any license may be reviewed by certiorari in the superior court of the county in which the licensed premises are located, within ten days from the date notice in writing of the director's order revoking or suspending such license has been served upon him. [1943 c 117 § 5; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-129. Formerly RCW 19.32-.060 through 19.32.080.]

19.32.090 Revocation or suspension of licenses—Witnesses—Evidence. In any proceeding under this chapter the director of agriculture may administer oaths and issue subpoenas, summon witnesses and take testimony of any person within the state of Washington. [1943 c 117 § 10; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-134.]

19.32.100 Equipment—Operation—Controls—Temperatures. Every operator of a refrigerated locker plant shall provide a complete refrigeration system with adequate capacity and accurate and reliable controls for the maintenance of the following uniform temperatures of the various refrigerated rooms if provided, under extreme conditions of outside temperatures and under peak load conditions in the normal operation of the plant. The temperatures of the following rooms shall not exceed:

(1) Chill room, temperatures within two degrees (Fahrenheit) plus or minus of thirty-five degrees (Fahrenheit) with a tolerance of ten degrees (Fahrenheit) after fresh food is put in for chilling;

(2) Sharp freeze room, sharp freeze compartments, temperatures of minus ten degrees (Fahrenheit) or lower, or temperatures of zero degrees (Fahrenheit) or lower when forced air circulation is employed, with a tolerance of ten degrees (Fahrenheit) for either type of installation after fresh food is put in for freezing;

(3) Locker room temperatures of zero degrees (Fahrenheit) with a tolerance of twelve degrees (Fahrenheit) plus. [1943 c 117 § 9; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-133.]

19.32.110 Diseased persons not to be employed—Health certificates. (1) No person afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease shall work or be permitted to work in or about any refrigerated locker, nor in the handling, dealing nor processing of any human food in connection therewith.

(2) No person shall work or be permitted to work in or about any refrigerated locker in the handling, processing or dealing in any human food or any ingredient thereof without holding a certificate from a physician, duly accredited for that purpose by the department of social and health services, certifying that such person has been examined and found free from any contagious or infectious disease. The department of social and health services may fix a maximum fee, not exceeding two dollars which may be charged by a physician for such examination. Such certificate shall be effective for a period of six months and thereafter must be renewed following proper physical examination as aforesaid. Where such certificate is required and provided under municipal ordinance upon examination deemed adequate by the department, certificates issued thereunder shall be sufficient under this chapter.

(3) Any such certificate shall be revoked by the department of social and health services at any time the holder thereof is found, after proper physical examination, to be afflicted with any communicable or infectious disease. Refusal of any person employed in such premises to submit to proper and reasonable physical examination upon written demand by the department of social and health services or of the director of agriculture shall be cause for revocation of that person's health certificate. [1985 c 213 § 11; 1943 c 117 § 6; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-130. Formerly RCW 19.32.110 through 19.32.140.]

19.32.150 Inspection of lockers and vehicles. The director of agriculture shall cause to be made periodically a thorough inspection of each establishment licensed under this chapter to determine whether or not the premises are constructed, equipped and operated in accordance with the requirements of this chapter and of all other laws of this state applicable to the operation either of refrigerated lockers or of the handling of human food in connection therewith, and of all regulations effective under this chapter relative to such operation. Such inspection shall also be made of each vehicle used by [an] operator of refrigerated lockers or of an establishment handling human food in connection therewith, when such vehicle is used in transporting or distributing human food products to or from refrigerated lockers within this state. [1943 c 117 § 8; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-132.]

19.32.160 Liability for loss of goods. The liability of the owner or operator of refrigerated lockers for loss of goods in lockers or in operator's care shall be limited to negligence of operation or of employees. [1943 c 117 § 12; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-136. FORMER PARTS OF SECTION: (i) 1943 c 117 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-138, now codified as RCW 19.32.165. (ii) 1943 c 117 § 13, part; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294-137, part, now codified in RCW 19.32.170.]

19.32.165 Owners or operators not warehousemen. Persons who own or operate refrigerated locker plants shall not be construed to be warehousemen, nor shall receipts or other instruments issued by such persons in the ordinary conduct of their business be construed to be negotiable warehouse receipts. [1943 c 117 § 14; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–138. Formerly RCW 19.32.160, part.]

19.32.170 Operator's lien—Liability for game law violations. Every operator of a locker shall have a lien upon all the property of every kind in his possession for all lockers' rentals, processing, handling or other charges due. Such lien may be foreclosed under the procedures as provided in chapter 60.10 RCW and RCW 61.12.162.

(1) Locker owners and operators shall not be responsible for liability for violations of game or other laws by renters unless the contents of the locker are under the control of the locker plant operator. [1969 c 82 § 10; 1943 c 117 § 13; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–137. Formerly RCW 19.32.160, part.]

19.32.180 Violations—Penalty. Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars for the first offense, and not less than two hundred dollars for the second and for each and every subsequent offense, and each day that any violation continues shall constitute a separate offense. [1943 c 117 § 11; Rem. Supp. 1943 § 6294–135.]

19.32.900 Severability—1943 c 117. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this chapter shall, for any reason, be adjudged or decreed to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair nor invalidate the remainder of this chapter, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which said judgment or decree shall have been rendered. [1943 c 117 § 16.]

Assignment for benefit of creditors: Chapter 7.08 RCW.

Conveyances of property to qualify for public assistance: RCW 74.08-.331 through 74.08.338.

Disposal of property to defraud creditors, etc.: RCW 9.45.080 through 9.45.100.

19.40.010 Definition of terms. In this chapter "Assets" of a debtor means property not exempt from liability for his debts. To the extent that any property is liable for any debts of the debtor, such property shall be included in his assets.

"Conveyance" includes every payment of money, assignment, release, transfer, lease, mortgage or pledge of tangible or intangible property, and also the creation of any lien or incumbrance, except when given to a trustee or assignee for the benefit of all unsecured creditors.

"Creditor" is a person having any claim, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute, fixed or contingent.

"Debt" includes any legal liability, whether matured or unmatured, liquidated or unliquidated, absolute, fixed or contingent. [1945 c 136 § 1; RRS § 5854–40.]

19.40.020 Insolventy. (1) A person is insolvent when the present fair salable value of his assets is less than the amount that will be required to pay his probable liability on his existing debts as they become absolute and matured.

(2) In determining whether a partnership is insolvent there shall be added to the partnership property the present fair salable value of the separate assets of each general partner in excess of the amount probably sufficient to meet the claims of his separate creditors, and also the amount of any unpaid subscription to the partnership of each limited partner, provided the present fair salable value of the assets of such limited partner is probably sufficient to pay his debts, including such unpaid subscription. [1945 c 136 § 2; RRS § 5854-41.]

Partnerships: Title 25 RCW.

19.40.030 Fair consideration. Fair consideration is given for property, or obligation,

(1) When in exchange for such property, or obligation, as a fair equivalent therefor, and in good faith, property is conveyed or an antecedent debt is satisfied, or

(2) When such property, or obligation is received in good faith to secure a present advance or antecedent debt in amount not disproportionately small as compared with the value of the property, or obligation obtained. [1945 c 136 § 3; RRS § 5854-42.]

19.40.040 Conveyances by insolvent. Every conveyance made and every obligation incurred by a person who is or will be thereby rendered insolvent is fraudulent as to creditors without regard to his actual intent if the conveyance is made or the obligation is incurred without a fair consideration. [1945 c 136 § 4; RRS § 5854-43.]

19.40.050 Conveyances by persons in business. Every conveyance made without fair consideration when the person making it is engaged or is about to engage in a business or transaction for which the property remaining in his hands after the conveyance is an unreasonably small capital, is fraudulent as to creditors and as to other persons who become creditors during the continuance of such business or transaction without regard to his actual intent. [1945 c 136 § 5; RRS § 5854-44.]

19.40.060 Conveyances by a person about to incur debts. Every conveyance made and every obligation incurred without fair consideration when the person making the conveyance or entering into the obligation intends or believes that he will incur debts beyond his ability to pay as they mature, is fraudulent as to both present and future creditors. [1945 c 136 § 6; RRS § 5854-45.]

19.40.070 Conveyances made and obligations incurred with intent to defraud. Every conveyance made and every obligation incurred with actual intent, as distinguished from intent presumed in law, to hinder, delay or defraud either present or future creditors, is fraudulent as to both present and future creditors. [1945 c 136 § 7; RRS § 5854-46.]

19.40.080 Conveyance of partnership property. Every conveyance of partnership property and every partnership obligation incurred when the partnership is or will be thereby rendered insolvent, is fraudulent as to partnership creditors, if the conveyance is made or obligation is incurred.

(1) To a partner, whether with or without a promise by him to pay partnership debts, or

(2) To a person not a partner without fair consideration to the partnership as distinguished from consideration to the individual partners. [1945 c 136 § 8; RRS § 5854-47.]

19.40.090 Rights of creditors whose claims have matured. (1) Where a conveyance or obligation is fraudulent as to a creditor, such creditor, when his claim has matured, may, as against any person except a purchaser for fair consideration without knowledge of the fraud at the time of the purchase, or one who has derived title immediately or mediately from such a purchaser,

(a) Have the conveyance set aside or obligation annulled to the extent necessary to satisfy his claim, or

(b) Disregard the conveyance and attach or levy execution upon the property conveyed.

(2) A purchaser who without actual fraudulent intent has given less than a fair consideration for the conveyance or obligation, may retain the property or obligation as security for repayment. [1945 c 136 § 9; RRS § 5854-48.]

19.40.100 Rights of creditors whose claims have not matured. Where a conveyance made or obligation incurred is fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim has not matured he may proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction against any person against whom he could have proceeded had his claim matured, and the court may,

(1) Restrain the defendant from disposing of his property,

(2) Appoint a receiver to take charge of the property,

(3) Set aside the conveyance or annul the obligation, or

(4) Make any order which the circumstances of the case may require. [1945 c 136 § 10; RRS § 5854-49.]

Assignment for benefit of creditors: Chapter 7.08 RCW.

Injunctions: Chapter 7.40 RCW.

Receivers: Chapter 7.60 RCW.

19.40.110 Cases not provided for in chapter. In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and equity including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent, and the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy or other invalidating cause shall govern. [1945 c 136 § 11; RRS § 5854-50.]

False representations: Chapter 9.38 RCW.

Frauds and swindles: Chapters 9.45 and 9A.60 RCW.

19.40.120 Construction of chapter. This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [1945 c 136 § 12; RRS § 5854-51.]

19.40.130 Short title. This act may be cited as the "Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act." [1945 c 136 § 13.]

Guest defined: RCW 60.64.010.

19.48.020 Record of guests—Hotels and trailer camps. Every hotel and trailer camp shall keep a record of the arrival and departure of its guests in such a manner that the record will be a permanent one for at least one year from the date of departure: Provided, That this requirement shall not apply with respect to guests of tenants in mobile home parks, as defined in RCW 59.20.030. [1979 ex.s. c 186 § 14; 1955 c 138 § 1; 1915 c 190 § 2; RRS § 6861.]

Severability—1979 ex.s. c 186: See note following RCW 59.20.030.

19.48.030 Liability for loss of valuables when safe or vault furnished—Limitation. Whenever the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager of any hotel, lodging house or inn shall provide a safe or vault for the safekeeping of any money, bank notes, jewelry, precious stones, ornaments, railroad mileage books or tickets, negotiable securities or other valuable papers, bullion, or other valuable property of small compass belonging to the guests, boarders or lodgers of such hotel, lodging house or inn, and shall notify the guests, boarders or lodgers thereof by posting a notice in three or more public and conspicuous places in the office, elevators, public rooms, elevator lobbies, public corridors, halls or entrances, or in the public parlors of such hotel, lodging house or inn, stating the fact that such safe or vault is provided in which such property may be deposited; and if such guests, boarders or lodgers shall neglect to deliver such property to the person in charge of such office, for deposit in the safe or vault, the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager, whether individual, partnership or corporation, of such hotel, lodging house or inn shall not be liable for any loss or destruction of any such property, or any damage thereto, sustained by such guests, boarders or lodgers, by negligence of such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager, or his, her, their or its employees, or by fire, theft, burglary, or any other cause whatsoever; but no proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager of any hotel, lodging house or inn, shall be obliged to receive property on deposit for safekeeping exceeding one thousand dollars in value; and if such guests, boarders or lodgers shall deliver such property to the person in charge of said office for deposit in such safe or vault, said proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, shall not be liable for the loss or destruction thereof, or damage thereto, sustained by such guests, boarders or lodgers in any such hotel, lodging house, or inn, exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars, notwithstanding said property may be of greater value, unless by special arrangement in writing with such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager: Provided, however, That in case of such deposit of such property, the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager of such hotel, lodging house, or inn, shall in no event be liable for loss or destruction thereof, or damage thereto, unless caused by the theft or gross negligence of such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, of his, her, their, or its agents, servants or employees. [1933 c 114 § 1; 1929 c 216 § 2; 1915 c 190 § 3; 1890 p 95 § 1; RRS § 6862. Formerly RCW 19.48.010, part, 19.48.030 through 19.48.060.]

19.48.070 Liability for loss of baggage and other property—Limitation—Storage—Disposal. Except as provided for in RCW 19.48.030, the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager, whether individual, partnership or corporation, of a hotel, lodging house, or inn, shall not be liable for the loss or destruction of, or damage to any personal property brought or sent into such hotel, lodging house, or inn, by or for any of the guests, boarders or lodgers thereof, unless such loss, destruction or damage is occasioned by the gross negligence of such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager, or his, her, their, or its agents, servants or employees; but in no event shall such liability exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, shall have contracted in writing with such guest, boarder, or lodger to assume a greater liability: Provided, however, That in no event shall liability of the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee or manager, or his, her, their, or its agents, servants or employees, of a hotel, lodging house, or inn exceed the following: For a guest, boarder or lodger, paying twenty-five cents per day, for lodging, or for any person who is not a guest, boarder or lodger, the liability for loss, destruction or damage, shall not exceed the sum of fifty dollars for a trunk and contents, ten dollars for a suitcase or valise and contents, five dollars for a box, bundle or package, and ten dollars for wearing apparel or miscellaneous effects. For a guest, boarder or lodger, paying fifty cents a day for lodging, the liability for loss, destruction or damage shall not exceed seventy-five dollars for a trunk and contents, twenty dollars for a suitcase or valise and contents, ten dollars for a box, bundle or package and contents, and twenty dollars for wearing apparel and miscellaneous effects. For a guest, boarder or lodger paying more than fifty cents per day for lodging, the liability for loss, destruction or damage shall not exceed one hundred fifty dollars for a trunk and contents, fifty dollars for a suitcase or valise and contents, ten dollars for a box, bundle or package and contents, and fifty dollars for wearing apparel and miscellaneous effects, unless in such case such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager of such hotel, lodging house, or inn, shall have consented in writing to assume a greater liability: And provided further, Whenever any person shall suffer his baggage or property to remain in any hotel, lodging house, or inn, after leaving the same as a guest, boarder or lodger, and after the relation of guest, boarder or lodger between such person and the proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager of such hotel, lodging house, or inn, has ceased, or shall forward or deliver the same to such hotel, lodging house, or inn, before, or without, becoming a guest, boarder, or lodger thereof, and the same shall be received into such hotel, lodging house, or inn, the liability of such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager thereof shall in no event exceed the sum of one hundred dollars, and such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, may at his, her, their or its option, hold such baggage or property at the risk of such owner thereof; and when any baggage or property has been kept or stored by such hotel, lodging house, or inn, for six months after such relation of guest, boarder or lodger has ceased, or when such relation does not exist, after six months from the receipt of such baggage or property in such hotel, lodging house, or inn, such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, may, if he, she, they or it so desires, sell the same at public auction in the manner now or hereinafter provided by law for the sale of property to satisfy a hotel keeper's lien, and from the proceeds of such sale pay or reimburse himself the expenses incurred for advertisement and sale, as well as any storage that may have accrued, and any other amounts owing by such person to said hotel, lodging house, or inn: Provided, That when any such baggage or property is received, kept or stored therein after such relation does not exist, such proprietor, keeper, owner, operator, lessee, or manager, may, if he, she, or it, so desires, deliver the same at any time to a storage or warehouse company for storage, and in such event all responsibility or liability of such hotel, lodging house, or inn, for such baggage or property, or for storage charges thereon, shall thereupon cease and terminate. [1929 c 216 § 3; 1917 c 57 § 1; 1915 c 190 § 4; RRS § 6863. Formerly RCW 19.48.070 through 19.48.100.]

19.48.110 Obtaining hotel, restaurant, lodging house, ski area, etc., accommodations by fraud—Penalty. Any person who shall wilfully obtain food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation at any hotel, inn, restaurant, commercial ski area, boarding house or lodging house, without paying therefor, with intent to defraud the proprietor, owner, operator or keeper thereof; or who obtains food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation at such hotel, inn, restaurant, commercial ski area, boarding house or lodging house, by the use of any false pretense; or who, after obtaining food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging, or accommodation at such hotel, inn, restaurant, commercial ski area, boarding house, or lodging house, removes or causes to be removed from such hotel, inn, restaurant, commercial ski area, boarding house or lodging house, his or her baggage, without the permission or consent of the proprietor, manager or authorized employee thereof, before paying for such food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor: Provided, That if the aggregate amount of food, money, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation, or credit so obtained is seventy-five dollars or more such person shall be guilty of a felony. Proof that food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation were obtained by false pretense or by false or fictitious show or pretense of any baggage or other property, or that the person refused or neglected to pay for such food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation on demand, or that he or she gave in payment for such food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation, negotiable paper on which payment was refused, or that he or she absconded, or departed from, or left, the premises without paying for such food, money, credit, use of ski area facilities, lodging or accommodation, or that he or she removed, or attempted to remove, or caused to be removed, or caused to be attempted to be removed his or her property or baggage, shall be prima facie evidence of the fraudulent intent hereinbefore mentioned. [1985 c 129 § 2; 1974 ex.s. c 21 § 1; 1929 c 216 § 6; 1915 c 190 § 7; 1890 p 96 § 2; RRS § 6866. Formerly RCW 19.48.110, 19.48.120.]

Legislative findings—1985 c 129: "The legislature finds that commercial ski areas, which contribute significantly to the economic well-being of the state, suffer substantial financial losses from the fraudulent use of their facilities by persons who obtain services without paying for them. It is therefore the intent of the legislature that the law that protects hotels, inns, and restaurants from such fraud be extended to also protect commercial ski areas." [1985 c 129 § 1.]

Fraud on innkeeper, restaurant, etc.: RCW 9.45.040.

Leaving restaurant without paying: RCW 4.24.230.

19.48.900 Severability—1929 c 216. In the event that any section or any part of any section of this act, or this act as it applies to any persons or under any circumstances, should be adjudged invalid, such adjudication shall not affect or impair the validity of the remainder of this act, or the act as it applies to other persons, and under other circumstances. [1929 c 216 § 7.]

Interest

rates on pledged property: RCW 19.60.060.

rates on warrants: Chapter 39.56 RCW.

Retail installment sales of goods and services: Chapter 63.14 RCW.

19.52.005 Declaration of policy. RCW 19.52.005, 19.52.020, 19.52.030, 19.52.032, 19.52.034, and 19.52.036 are enacted in order to protect the residents of this state from debts bearing burdensome interest rates; and in order to better effect the policy of this state to use this state's policies and courts to govern the affairs of our residents and the state; and in recognition of the duty to protect our citizens from oppression generally. [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 2.]

Severability—1967 ex.s. c 23: "If any provision of this chapter is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the chapter and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby." [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 8.]

Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: "The provisions of this 1967 amendatory act shall not apply to transactions entered into prior to the effective date hereof." [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 9.]

19.52.010 Rate in absence of agreement—Application to consumer leases. (1) Every loan or forbearance of money, goods, or thing in action shall bear interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum where no different rate is agreed to in writing between the parties: Provided, That with regard to any transaction heretofore or hereafter entered into subject to this section, if an agreement in writing between the parties evidencing such transaction provides for the payment of money at the end of an agreed period of time or in installments over an agreed period of time, then such agreement shall constitute a writing for purposes of this section and satisfy the requirements thereof. The discounting of commercial paper, where the borrower makes himself liable as maker, guarantor, or indorser, shall be considered as a loan for the purposes of this chapter.

(2) A lease shall not be considered a loan or forbearance for the purposes of this chapter if:

(a) It constitutes a "consumer lease" as defined in RCW 63.10.020; or

(b) It would constitute such "consumer lease" but for the fact that:

(i) The lessee was not a natural person;

(ii) The lease was not primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; or

(iii) The total contractual obligation exceeded twenty-five thousand dollars. [1983 c 309 § 1; 1983 c 158 § 6; 1981 c 80 § 1; 1899 c 80 § 1; RRS § 7299. Prior: 1895 c 136 § 1; 1893 c 20 § 1; Code 1881 § 2368; 1863 p 433 § 1; 1854 p 380 § 1.]

Reviser's note: This section was amended by 1983 c 158 § 6 and 1983 c 309 § 1, each without reference to the other. Both amendments are incorporated in the publication of this section pursuant to RCW 1.12.025(2). For rule of construction, see RCW 1.12.025(1).

Severability—1983 c 158: See RCW 63.10.900.

19.52.020 Highest rate permissible—Setup charges. (1) Any rate of interest shall be legal so long as the rate of interest does not exceed the higher of: (a) Twelve percent per annum; or (b) four percentage points above the equivalent coupon issue yield (as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco) of the average bill rate for twenty-six week treasury bills as determined at the first bill market auction conducted during the calendar month immediately preceding the later of (i) the establishment of the interest rate by written agreement of the parties to the contract, or (ii) any adjustment in the interest rate in the case of a written agreement permitting an adjustment in the interest rate. No person shall directly or indirectly take or receive in money, goods, or things in action, or in any other way, any greater interest for the loan or forbearance of any money, goods, or things in action.

(2)(a) In any loan of money in which the funds advanced do not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, a setup charge may be charged and collected by the lender, and such setup charge shall not be considered interest hereunder.

(b) The setup charge shall not exceed four percent of the amount of funds advanced, or fifteen dollars, whichever is the lesser, except that on loans of under one hundred dollars a minimum not exceeding four dollars may be so charged.

(3) Any loan made pursuant to a commitment to lend at an interest rate permitted at the time the commitment is made shall not be usurious. Credit extended pursuant to an open-end credit agreement upon which interest is computed on the basis of a balance or balances outstanding during a billing cycle shall not be usurious if on any one day during the billing cycle the rate at which interest is charged for the billing cycle is not usurious. [1985 c 224 § 1; 1981 c 78 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 23 § 4; 1899 c 80 § 2; RRS § 7300. Prior: 1895 c 136 § 2; 1893 c 20 § 3; Code 1881 § 2369; 1863 p 433 § 2; 1854 p 380 § 2.]

Effective date—1985 c 224: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1985." [1985 c 224 § 2.]

Severability—1981 c 78: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1981 c 78 § 7.]

Severability—Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: See notes following RCW 19.52.005.

Interest on judgments: RCW 4.56.110.

19.52.030 Usury—Penalty upon suit on contract—Costs and attorneys' fees. (1) If a greater rate of interest than is allowed by statute shall be contracted for or received or reserved, the contract shall be usurious, but shall not, therefore, be void. If in any action on such contract proof be made that greater rate of interest has been directly or indirectly contracted for or taken or reserved, the creditor shall only be entitled to the principal, less the amount of interest accruing thereon at the rate contracted for; and if interest shall have been paid, the creditor shall only be entitled to the principal less twice the amount of the interest paid, and less the amount of all accrued and unpaid interest; and the debtor shall be entitled to costs and reasonable attorneys' fees plus the amount by which the amount he has paid under the contract exceeds the amount to which the creditor is entitled: Provided, That the debtor may not commence an action on the contract to apply the provisions of this section if a loan or forbearance is made to a corporation engaged in a trade or business for the purposes of carrying on said trade or business unless there is also, in connection with such loan or forbearance, the creation of liability on the part of a natural person or his property for an amount in excess of the principal plus interest allowed pursuant to RCW 19.52.020. The reduction in principal shall be applied to diminish pro rata each future installment of principal payable under the terms of the contract.

(2) The acts and dealings of an agent in loaning money shall bind the principal, and in all cases where there is usurious interest contracted for by the transaction of any agent the principal shall be held thereby to the same extent as though he had acted in person. And where the same person acts as agent of the borrower and lender, he shall be deemed the agent of the lender for the purposes of *this act. If the agent of both the borrower and lender, or of the lender only, transacts a usurious loan for a commission or fee, such agent shall be liable to his principal for the amount of the commission or fee received or reserved by the agent, and liable to the lender for the loss suffered by the lender as a result of the application of **this act. [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 5; 1899 c 80 § 7; RRS § 7304. Prior: 1895 c 136 § 5; 1893 c 20 § 3. Formerly RCW 19.52.030 through 19.52.050.]

Reviser's note: *(1) "this act" (1899 c 80) is codified as RCW 4.56-.110 (interest on judgments), RCW 19.52.010–19.52.030 and 39.56-.010–39.56.030 (interest on state and municipal warrants).

***(2) "this act"; phrase added by 1967 ex.s. c 23 § 5; 1967 ex.s. c 23 is codified as RCW 62A.3–515, 19.52.005, 19.52.020, 19.52.030, 19.52.032, 19.52.034 and 19.52.036.

Severability—Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: See notes following RCW 19.52.005.

19.52.032 Declaratory judgment action to establish usury—Time limitations for commencing. The debtor, if a natural person, or the creditor may bring an action for declaratory judgment to establish whether a loan or forbearance contract is or was usurious, and such an action shall be considered an action on the contract for the purposes of applying the provisions of RCW 19.52.030. Such an action shall be brought against the current creditor or debtor on the contract or, if the loan or debt has been fully repaid, by the debtor against the creditor to whom the debtor was last indebted on the contract. No such an action shall be commenced after six months following the date the final payment becomes due, whether by acceleration or otherwise, nor after six months following the date the principal is fully paid, whichever first occurs. If the debtor commences such an action and fails to establish usury, and if the court finds the action was frivolously commenced, the defendant or defendants may, in the court's discretion, recover reasonable attorney's fees from the debtor. [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 6.]

Severability—Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: See notes following RCW 19.52.005.

19.52.034 Application of chapter 19.52 RCW to loan or forbearance made outside state. Whenever a loan or forbearance is made outside Washington state to a person then residing in this state the usury laws found in chapter 19.52 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, shall be applicable in all courts of this state to the same extent such usury laws would be applicable if the loan or forbearance was made in this state. [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 3.]

Severability—Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: See notes following RCW 19.52.005.

19.52.036 Application of consumer protection act.

Entering into or transacting a usurious contract is hereby declared to be an unfair act or practice in the conduct of commerce for the purpose of the application of the consumer protection act found in chapter 19.86 RCW. [1967 ex.s. c 23 § 7.]

Severability—Savings—1967 ex.s. c 23: See notes following RCW 19.52.005.

19.52.060 Interest on charges in excess of published rates. Any corporation, partnership or individual who furnishes the public any goods, wares, merchandise, pledge, security, insurance or transportation of which the price, rate or tariff is by law required to be published, shall, when any price, rate or tariff is charged in excess of the existing and established price, rate or tariff, refund to the person, partnership or corporation so overcharge, or to the assignee of such claim, the amount of such overcharge, and on failure so to do, the claim for such overcharge shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per annum until paid. [1907 c 187 § 1; RRS § 5841.]

19.52.080 Defense of usury or maintaining action thereon prohibited if transaction primarily agricultural, commercial, investment, or business—Exception. Profit and nonprofit corporations, Massachusetts trusts, associations, trusts, general partnerships, joint ventures, limited partnerships, and governments and governmental subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities may not plead the defense of usury nor maintain any action thereon or therefor, and persons may not plead the defense of usury nor maintain any action thereon or therefor if the transaction was primarily for agricultural, commercial, investment, or business purposes: Provided, however, That this section shall not apply to a consumer transaction of any amount.

Consumer transactions, as used in this section, shall mean transactions primarily for personal, family, or household purposes. [1981 c 78 § 2; 1975 1st ex.s. c 180 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 97 § 2; 1969 ex.s. c 142 § 1.]

Severability—1981 c 78: See note following RCW 19.52.020.

19.52.090 Defense of usury or maintaining action thereon prohibited for certain types of transactions after May 1, 1980, and prior to March 1, 1981. No person may plead the defense of usury or maintain any action thereon or therefor for the interest charged on the unpaid balance of a contract for the sale and purchase of personal property which was not purchased primarily for personal, family or household use or real property if the purchase was made after May 1, 1980 and prior to March 1, 1981. [1981 c 78 § 9.]

Severability—1981 c 78: See note following RCW 19.52.020.

19.52.100 Chapter not applicable to retail installment transactions. This chapter shall not apply to a retail installment transaction, as defined by RCW 63.14.010, whether or not it is construed to be a loan or forbearance of any money, goods, or things in action. [1981 c 78 § 3.]

Severability—1981 c 78: See note following RCW 19.52.020.

19.52.110 Limitations in chapter not applicable to interest charged by broker-dealers—When. The interest charged by any broker-dealer registered under chapter 21.20 RCW and under the federal securities and exchange act of 1934, as amended, shall not be subject to the limitations imposed by this chapter if the underlying loans (1) may be paid in full at the option of the borrower and (2) are subject to the credit regulations of the board of governors of the federal reserve system, or its successor. [1981 c 79 § 1.]

19.52.115 Lender credit card agreements subject to provisions of chapter 19.52 RCW. See RCW 63.14.165.

19.52.120 Sales contract providing for deferred payment of purchase price not subject to chapter. A sales contract for goods or services providing for the deferred payment of the purchase price shall not be subject to this chapter, regardless of who seeks to enforce the contract, notwithstanding the existence or occurrence of any one or more of the following events:

(1) That the seller may have arranged to sell, pledge, indorse, negotiate, assign, or transfer the obligations thereof to any person, including a financing organization, prior to or subsequent to or concurrently with the making of the sales transaction;

(2) That the amount of the finance charge, however denominated, is determined by reference to charts, computations or information supplied by such person;

(3) That the form or forms of instruments used to evidence the sales transaction have been supplied or prepared by such person;

(4) That the credit standing of the purchaser is or may have been evaluated by such person;

(5) That the sales transaction and the execution of any instrument evidencing the same is negotiated in the presence or with the assistance of a representative of such person;

(6) That the instrument or instruments used to evidence the sales transaction are pledged, indorsed, negotiated, assigned, or transferred by the seller to such person;

(7) That there is an underlying agreement between the seller and such person concerning the pledging, indorsing, negotiation, assigning, or transferring of sales contracts; or

(8) That the financing organization or its affiliates also provide franchising, financing, or other services to the seller-assignor. [1981 c 77 § 7.]

Application, saving—Severability—1981 c 77: See RCW 63.14.902 and 63.14.903.

19.52.130 Charge made by assignee of retail installment contract or charge agreement to seller-assignor not limited by chapter—No agreement between credit card issuing bank and retailer shall prohibit discounts for cash payment. (1) Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to limit any charge made by an assignee of a retail installment contract or charge agreement to the seller—assignor upon the sale, transfer, assignment, or discount of the contract or agreement, notwithstanding retention by the assignee of recourse rights and notwithstanding duties retained by the assignee to service delinquencies, perform service or warranty agreements regarding the property which is the subject matter of the assigned or discounted contracts or charge agreements, or to do or perform any other duty with respect to the account or contract assigned or the subject matter of such account or contract.

(2) No agreement between a credit card issuing bank and retailer shall prohibit the retailer from granting general discounts for the payment of cash, not in excess of the percentage allowed by Regulation Z, the Federal Truth in Lending Act. [1981 c 77 § 8.]

Application, saving—Severability—1981 c 77: See RCW 63.14.902 and 63.14.903.

19.52.140 Chapter not applicable to interest, penalties, or costs on delinquent property taxes. This chapter does not apply in respect to interest, penalties, or costs imposed on delinquent property taxes under chapter 84.64 RCW. [1981 c 322 § 8.]

19.52.150 Defense or action of usury not applicable to consumer leases. See RCW 63.10.060.

19.52.160 Chapter not applicable to mobile homes. This chapter shall not apply to the financing of mobile homes which meets the definition of real property contained in RCW 84.04.090, and which financing is insured by a federal instrumentality. [1985 c 395 § 6.]

19.52.900 Application—Construction—1981 c 78. *Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall apply only to loans or forbearances or transactions which are entered into after May 8, 1981, or to existing loans or forbearances, contracts or agreements which were not primarily for personal, family or household use to which there is an addition to the principal amount of the credit outstanding after May 8, 1981: Provided, however, That nothing in **this act shall be construed as implying that agricultural or investment purposes are not already included within the meaning of "commercial or business purposes" as used in section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 19.52.080 as in effect prior to May 8, 1981. [1981 c 78 § 10.]

Reviser's note: *(1) "Sections 1 through 8 of this act" [1981 c 78] refers to the enactment of RCW 19.52.100, the 1981 amendments to RCW 19.52.020 and 19.52.080, sections 4, 5, and 6, which were vetoed by the governor, section 7, which is a severability clause noted after RCW 19.52.020, and section 8, which is an uncodified emergency clause.

** (2) "This act" [1981 c 78] consists of the enactment of RCW 19.52.090, 19.52.100, and 19.52.900 and the amendments to RCW 19.52.020 and 19.52.080.

Severability—1981 c 78: See note following RCW 19.52.020.

Chapter 19.56 UNSOLICITED GOODS

19.56.020 Goods mailed without authority are gifts.

*Advertising, crimes relating to: Chapter 9.04 RCW.
Libel and slander: Chapter 9.58 RCW.*

19.56.010 Newspaper mailed without authority is gift. Whenever any person, company or corporation owning or controlling any newspaper or periodical of any kind, or whenever any editor or proprietor of any such newspaper or periodical shall mail or send any such newspaper or periodical to any person or persons in this state without first receiving an order for said newspaper or periodical from such person or persons to whom said newspaper or periodical is mailed or sent, [it] shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against such person or persons, whether said newspaper or periodical is received by the person or persons to whom it is sent or not. [1890 p 460 § 1; RRS § 5842.]

19.56.020 Goods mailed without authority are gifts. Unless otherwise agreed, where unsolicited goods are mailed to a person, he has a right to accept delivery of such goods as a gift only, and is not bound to return such goods to the sender. If such unsolicited goods are either addressed to or intended for the recipient, he may use them or dispose of them in any manner without any obligation to the sender, and in any action for goods sold and delivered, or in any action for the return of the goods, it shall be a complete defense that the goods were mailed voluntarily and that the defendant did not actually order or request such goods, either orally or in writing. [1967 c 57 § 1.]

Chapter 19.58 MOTION PICTURE FAIR COMPETITION ACT

Sections
19.58.010 Purpose.
19.58.020 Definitions.
19.58.030 Blind bidding or blind selling prohibited—Trade screening required—Notice.
19.58.040 Solicitation of bids.
19.58.050 Violation—Civil suit—Attorneys' fees.
19.58.900 Short title.
19.58.905 Severability—1979 ex.s. c 29.

19.58.010 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish fair and open procedures for bidding and negotiation for the right to exhibit motion pictures in the state in order to prevent unfair and deceptive acts or practices and unreasonable restraints of trade in the business of motion picture distribution and exhibition within the state; to promote fair and effective competition in that business; and to insure that exhibitors have the opportunity to view a motion picture and know its contents before committing themselves to exhibiting the motion picture in their communities. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 1.]

19.58.020 Definitions. The definitions contained in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Bid" means a written or oral offer or proposal to buy made by an exhibitor to a distributor in response to an invitation to bid for the license or right to exhibit a motion picture, the license stating the terms under which the exhibitor agrees to exhibit the motion picture.

(2) "Blind bidding" means the exhibitor's bidding or negotiating for, or the exhibitor's offering or agreeing to, terms for the license or right to exhibit a feature motion picture at any time either before the feature motion picture has been trade screened within the state or before the feature motion picture has been otherwise made available for viewing within the state by all exhibitors.

(3) "Blind selling" means the practice whereby a distributor licenses a feature motion picture before the exhibitor is afforded an opportunity to view the feature motion picture by trade screening.

(4) "Buying" or "selling" of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture means the licensing of a theater to show the feature motion picture for a certain number of days for a certain price.

(5) "Distributor" means a person engaged in the business of distributing or supplying more than one feature motion picture per year to exhibitors by rental, sale, licensing, or other agreement.

(6) "Exhibit" or "exhibition" means playing or showing a feature motion picture to the public for an admission charge.

(7) "Exhibitor" means a person in the business of operating one or more theaters in which motion pictures are exhibited to the public.

(8) "Feature motion picture" means a motion picture exceeding sixty minutes in duration.

(9) "Invitation to bid" means a written or oral solicitation or invitation by a distributor to one or more exhibitors to bid or negotiate for the license or right to exhibit a feature motion picture.

(10) "Licensing agreement" means a contract, agreement, understanding, or condition between a distributor and an exhibitor relating to the licensing or exhibition of a feature motion picture by the exhibitor.

(11) "Person" means one or more individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, societies, trusts, organizations, or corporations.

(12) "Run" means the continuous exhibition of a feature motion picture in a defined geographic area for a specified period of time. A "first run" is the first exhibition of the feature motion picture in the defined area; a "second run" is the second exhibition; and "subsequent runs" are subsequent exhibitions after the second run. "Exclusive run" is a run limited to a single theater in a defined geographic area and a "nonexclusive run" is a run in more than one theater in a defined geographic area.

(13) "Theater" means an establishment in which feature motion pictures are regularly exhibited to the public for an admission charge.

(14) "Trade screening" means the exhibition of a feature motion picture, prior to its release for public exhibition by a distributor, in the largest city within the state, which is open to all exhibitors from whom the distributor intends to solicit bids or with whom the distributor intends to negotiate for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 2.]

19.58.030 Blind bidding or blind selling prohibited—Trade screening required—Notice. (1) The buying or selling of the right to exhibit a feature motion picture by blind bidding or blind selling is prohibited within the state.

(2) No bids may be returnable, no negotiations for the exhibition or licensing of a motion picture may take place, and no license agreement or any of its terms may be agreed upon, for the exhibition of a feature motion picture within the state before the feature motion picture has either been trade screened or otherwise made available for viewing by all exhibitors within the state.

(3) A distributor shall provide reasonable and uniform notice of the trade screening of feature motion pictures to those exhibitors within the state from whom bids will be solicited or with whom negotiations will be conducted for the license or right to exhibit the feature motion picture.

(4) A purported waiver of the prohibition in this chapter against blind bidding or blind selling is void and unenforceable. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 3.]

19.58.040 Solicitation of bids. If bids are solicited from exhibitors for the licensing of a feature motion picture within the state, then:

(1) The invitation to bid shall specify: (a) Whether the run for which the bid is being solicited is a first, second, or subsequent run; whether the run is an exclusive or nonexclusive run; and, the geographic area for the run; (b) the names of all exhibitors who are being solicited; (c) the date and hour the invitation to bid expires; and (d) the time, date, and location, including the address, where the bids will be opened, which shall be within the state.

(2) All bids shall be submitted in writing and shall be opened at the same time and in the presence of those exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids and who attend the bid opening.

(3) Immediately upon being opened, the bids shall be subject to examination by the exhibitors, or their agents, who submitted bids, and who are present at the opening. Within ten business days after the bids are opened, the distributor shall notify each exhibitor who submitted a bid either the name of the winning bidder or the fact that none of the bids were acceptable.

(4) Once bids are solicited, the distributor shall license the feature motion picture only by bidding and may solicit rebids if none of the submitted bids are acceptable. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 4.]

19.58.050 Violation—Civil suit—Attorneys' fees. Any person aggrieved by a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations or to recover the actual damages sustained, or both, together with the costs of the suit. In any such action, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 5.]

19.58.900 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington motion picture fair competition act. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 6.]

19.58.905 Severability—1979 ex.s. c 29. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1979 ex.s. c 29 § 8.]

Larceny—Receiving stolen property: RCW 9A.56.140 through 9A.56.170.

19.60.010 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) Melted metals means metals derived from metal junk or precious metals that have been reduced to a melted state from other than ore or ingots which are produced from ore that has not previously been processed.

(2) Metal junk means any metal that has previously been milled, shaped, stamped, or forged and that is no longer useful in its original form, except precious metals.

(3) Nonmetal junk means any nonmetal, commonly discarded item that is worn out, or has outlasted its usefulness as intended in its original form except nonmetal junk does not include an item made in a former period which has enhanced value because of its age.

(4) Pawnbroker means every person engaged, in whole or in part, in the business of loaning money on the security of pledges, deposits or conditional sales of personal property.

(5) Precious metals means gold, silver, and platinum.

(6) Second-hand dealer means every person engaged in whole or in part in the business of purchasing, selling, trading, consignment selling, or otherwise transferring for value, second-hand property including metal junk, melted metals, precious metals, whether or not the person maintains a fixed place of business within the state.

(7) Second-hand property means any item of personal property offered for sale which is not new, including metals in any form, except postage stamps, coins that are legal tender, bullion in the form of fabricated hallmarked bars, used books, and clothing of a resale value of seventy-five dollars or less, except furs.

(8) Transaction means a pledge, purchase, or consignment by a pawnbroker or a second-hand dealer from a member of the general public. [1985 c 70 § 1; 1984 c 10 § 1; 1981 c 279 § 3; 1909 c 249 § 235; RRS § 2487. FORMER PARTS OF SECTION: (i) 1909 c 249 § 236; RRS § 2488, now codified as RCW 19.60.015. (ii) 1939 c 89 § 1; RRS § 2488-1, now codified as RCW 19.60.065.]

19.60.014 Fixed place of business required. No person may operate as a pawnbroker unless the person maintains a fixed place of business within the state. [1984 c 10 § 4.]

19.60.020 Duty to record information. (1) Every pawnbroker and second-hand dealer doing business in this state shall maintain wherever that business is conducted a record in which shall be legibly written in the English language, at the time of each transaction the following information:

(a) The signature of the person with whom the transaction is made;

(b) The date of the transaction;

(c) The name of the person or employee conducting the transaction;

(d) The name, date of birth, sex, height, weight, race, and address of the person with whom the transaction is made;

(e) A complete description of the property pledged, bought, or consigned, including the brand name, serial number, model number, initials, engravings, size, patterns, and color, and in the case of firearms, the caliber, barrel length, type of action, and whether it is a pistol, rifle, or shotgun;

(f) The price paid or the amount loaned;

(g) The type and identifying number of identification used by the person with whom the transaction is made, which shall consist of a valid drivers license or identification card issued by any state or two pieces of identification issued by a governmental agency, one of which shall be descriptive of the person identified; and

(h) The nature of the transaction, a number identifying the transaction, the name and address of the business conducting the transaction, and the location of the property.

(2) This record shall at all times during the ordinary hours of business, or at reasonable times if ordinary hours of business are not kept, be open to the inspection of any commissioned law enforcement officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions, and shall be maintained wherever that business is conducted for three years following the date of the transaction. [1984 c 10 § 3; 1909 c 249 § 229; RRS § 2481.]

19.60.040 Report to chief law enforcement officer.

(1) Upon request every pawnbroker and second-hand dealer doing business in the state shall furnish or mail within twenty-four hours to the chief of police of the city or to the county's chief law enforcement officer, on such forms as are provided by the chief of police or the county's chief law enforcement officer, a full, true, and correct transcript of the record of all transactions conducted on the preceding day within the jurisdiction of the chief of police or the county's chief law enforcement officer.

(2) If a pawnbroker or second-hand dealer has good cause to believe that any property in his or her possession has been previously lost or stolen, the pawnbroker or second-hand dealer shall promptly report that fact to the applicable chief of police or the county's chief law enforcement officer, together with the name of the owner, if known, and the date when, and the name of the person from whom it was received. [1984 c 10 § 6; 1909 c 249 § 231; RRS § 2483.]

19.60.045 Duties upon notification that property is reported stolen. Following notification from a law enforcement agency that an item of property has been reported as stolen, the pawnbroker or second-hand dealer shall hold that property intact and safe from alteration, damage, or commingling. The pawnbroker or second-hand dealer shall place an identifying tag or other suitable identification upon the property so held. Property held shall not be released for one hundred twenty days from the date of police notification unless released by written consent of the applicable law enforcement agency or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. The pawnbroker or second-hand dealer shall give ten days written notice before the expiration of the one hundred twenty-day holding period to the applicable law enforcement agency about the stolen property. If notice is not given within the required ten-day period, then the hold on the property shall continue for an additional one hundred twenty days. The applicable law enforcement agency may renew the holding period for additional one hundred twenty-day periods as necessary. [1984 c 10 § 5.]

Receiving stolen property: RCW 9A.56.140 through 9A.56.170.

19.60.050 Retention of property by pawnbrokers—Inspection. Property bought or received in pledge by any pawnbroker shall not be removed from that place of business, except when redeemed by the owner, within fifteen days after the receipt of the property. Property shall at all times during the ordinary hours of business be open to inspection to any commissioned law enforcement officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions. [1984 c 10 § 8; 1909 c 249 § 232; RRS § 2484.]

Restoration of stolen property: RCW 9.54.130.

19.60.055 Retention of property by second-hand dealers—Inspection. (1) Property bought or received on consignment by a second-hand dealer with a permanent place of business in the state shall not be removed from that place of business, except consigned property returned to the owner, within fifteen days after the receipt of the property. Property shall at all times during the ordinary hours of business be open to inspection to any commissioned law enforcement officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions.

(2) Property bought or received on consignment by a second-hand dealer without a permanent place of business in the state, shall be held within the city or county in which the property was received, except consigned property returned to the owner, for fifteen days after receipt of the property. The property shall be available within the appropriate jurisdiction for inspection at reasonable times by any commissioned law enforcement officer of the state or any of its political subdivisions. [1984 c 10 § 7.]

Interest—Usury: Chapter 19.52 RCW.

19.60.061 Pawnbrokers—Sale of pledged property limited—Written document required for transactions.

(1) A pawnbroker shall not sell any property received in pledge within ninety days after the term of the loan expires. However, if a pledged article is not redeemed within the ninety-day period, the pawnbroker has all rights, title, and interest of the pledgor or the pledgor's assigns.

(2) Every transaction entered into by a pawnbroker shall be evidenced by a written document, a copy of which shall be furnished to the pledgor. The document shall set forth the loan period, the date on which the loan is due and payable, and shall inform the pledgor of the pledgor's right to redeem the pledge within ninety days after the expiration of the loan term. [1984 c 10 § 10.]

19.60.062 Attorney fees and costs in action to recover possession. In an action brought by an owner to recover goods in the possession of a pawnbroker or second-hand dealer, the prevailing party is entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs. [1984 c 10 § 11; 1979 ex.s. c 41 § 1.]

19.60.066 Prohibited acts—Penalty. It is a gross misdemeanor under chapter 9A.20 RCW for:

(1) Any person to remove, alter, or obliterate any manufacturer's make, model, or serial number, personal identification number, or identifying marks engraved or etched upon an item of personal property that was purchased, consigned, or received in pledge;

(2) Any person to knowingly make, cause, or allow to be made any false entry or misstatement of any material matter in any book, record, or writing required to be kept under this chapter;

(3) Any pawnbroker or second-hand dealer to receive any property from any person under the age of eighteen years, any person under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or any person known to the pawnbroker or second-hand dealer as having been convicted of burglary, robbery, theft, or possession of or receiving stolen property within the past ten years whether the person is acting in his or her own behalf or as the agent of another; or

(4) Any person to violate knowingly any other provision of this chapter. [1984 c 10 § 12.]

19.60.075 Regulation by political subdivisions. The regulation of pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers under this chapter is not intended to restrict political subdivisions from enacting ordinances or codes requiring the licensing of pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers or from enacting ordinances or codes which are more restrictive than the provisions of this chapter. [1984 c 10 § 13.]

19.60.085 Exemptions. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to transactions conducted by the following:

(1) Motor vehicle dealers licensed under chapter 46.70 RCW;

(2) Motor vehicle wreckers or hulk haulers licensed under chapter 46.79 or 46.80 RCW;

(3) Persons giving an allowance for the trade-in or exchange of second-hand property on the purchase of other merchandise of the same kind of greater value; and

(4) Persons in the business of buying or selling empty food and beverage containers or metal or nonmetal junk. [1985 c 70 § 2; 1984 c 10 § 2.]

19.60.900 Severability—1984 c 10. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 10 § 15.]

19.60.901 Effective date—1984 c 10. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect thirty days after it is signed by the governor and filed with the secretary of state. [1984 c 10 § 16.]

Reviser's note: The effective date of this act [1984 c 10] was March 22, 1984.

19.72.001 Definitions. See RCW 19.72.109.

19.72.020 Individual sureties—Eligibility. Whenever any bond or recognizance is required, or permitted, by law to be made, given or filed, conditioned upon the doing or not doing of anything specified therein and to be signed by one or more persons as sureties, each of such sureties shall be a resident of this state; but no attorney at law, sheriff, clerk of any court of record, or other officer of such court, shall be permitted to become such surety. [1927 c 162 § 1; RRS § 958-1.]

19.72.030 Individual sureties—Number—Qualification. Each of such sureties shall have separate property worth the amount specified in the bond or recognizance, over and above all debts and liabilities, and exclusive of property exempt from execution, unless the other spouse joins in the execution of the bond, in which case they must have community property of such required value; but in case such bond or recognizance is given in any action or proceeding commenced or pending in any court the judge, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify, severally, in amounts less than the amount specified, if the whole justification is equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties. [1973 1st ex.s. c 154 § 22; 1927 c 162 § 2; RRS § 958-2.]

Severability—1973 1st ex.s. c 154: See note following RCW 2.12.030.

19.72.040 Individual sureties—Examination—Approval. In case such bond or recognizance is given in any action or proceeding commenced or pending in any court, the judge or clerk of any court of record, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, or any party to the action or proceeding for the security or protection of which such bond or recognizance is made may, upon notice, require any of such sureties to attend before the judge, or justice of the peace at a time and place specified and to be examined under oath touching his qualifications both as to residence and property as such surety, in such manner as the judge, or justice of the peace, in his discretion, may think proper. If the party demanding the examination require it, the examination shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by the surety. If the judge, or justice of the peace, find the surety possesses the requisite qualifications and property, he shall endorse his allowance thereof on the bond or recognizance, and cause it to be filed as provided by law, otherwise it shall be of no effect. [1927 c 162 § 3; RRS § 958-3. Formerly RCW 19.72.040, 19.72.050.]

19.72.060 Corporate surety. See surety insurance: Chapter 48.28 RCW.

19.72.070 Subrogation of surety. When any defendant, surety in a judgment or special bail or replevin or surety in a delivery bond or replevin bond, or any person being surety in any bond whatever, has been or shall be compelled to pay any judgment or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, or when any sheriff or other officer or other surety upon his official bond shall be compelled to pay any judgment or any part thereof by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over money collected, or for wasting property levied upon, the judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of the bail, surety, officer or other person making such payment, and after the plaintiff is paid, so much of the judgment as remains unsatisfied may be prosecuted to execution for his use. [Code 1881 § 648; RRS § 978. Prior: 1877 p 134 § 651; 1869 p 151 § 588; 1854 p 211 § 430.]

19.72.080 Contribution among sureties. Any one of several judgment defendants, and any one of several replevin bail having paid and satisfied the plaintiff, shall have the remedy provided in RCW 19.72.070 against the codefendants and cosureties to collect of them the ratable proportion each is equitably bound to pay. [Code 1881 § 649; RRS § 979. Prior: 1877 p 135 § 652; 1869 p 151 § 589; 1854 p 211 § 431.]

19.72.090 Default by surety—Indemnity. No surety or his representative shall confess judgment or suffer judgment by default in any case where he is notified that there is a valid defense, if the principal will enter himself defendant to the action and tender to the surety or his representatives good security to indemnify him, to be approved by the court. [Code 1881 § 650; RRS § 980. Prior: 1877 p 135 § 653; 1869 p 151 § 590; 1854 p 211 § 432.]

19.72.100 Notice to creditor to institute action. Any person bound as surety upon any contract in writing for the payment of money or the performance of any act, when the right of action has accrued, may require by notice in writing the creditor or obligee forthwith to institute an action upon the contract. [Code 1881 § 644; RRS § 974. Prior: 1877 p 134 § 647; 1869 p 150 § 584; 1854 p 210 § 426. FORMER PART OF SECTION:

Code 1881 § 645; RRS § 975, now codified as RCW 19.72.101.]

19.72.101 Failure of creditor to proceed—Discharge of surety. If the creditor or obligee shall not proceed within a reasonable time to bring his action upon such contract, and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety shall be discharged from all liability thereon. [Code 1881 § 645; RRS § 975. Prior: 1877 p 134 § 648; 1869 p 150 § 585; 1854 p 210 § 427. Formerly RCW 19.72.100, part.]

19.72.109 Release from official's, executor's, licensee's, etc., bond—Definitions. Unless otherwise required by the context, words as used in RCW 19.72.110, and 19.72.130 shall mean:

(1) "Bond" shall mean and include any bond, undertaking or writing executed by a principal and surety, required by law from the principal as an official or employee of the state, or any county, municipal corporation or taxing district, or as guardian, executor, administrator, receiver or trustee, or as a licensee or permittee as a condition to the right to receive, hold or exercise any license, permit or franchise;

(2) "Surety" shall mean and include any person, firm or corporation that has executed as surety any bond. [1937 c 145 § 1; RRS § 9942. Formerly RCW 19.72.010.] [SLC-RO-17.]

19.72.110 Release from official's, executor's, licensee's, etc., bond—Notice, service, proof. Any surety upon any bond described in RCW 19.72.109 desiring to be released from subsequent liability and responsibility on any such bond shall serve upon the principal of such bond a written notice that on and after a certain date to be fixed in the notice, which shall be not less than ten days from the date of the service of the notice, the surety will withdraw as surety from such bond and shall serve a copy of such notice upon the official with whom such bond is filed not less than ten days prior to the date fixed in the notice as the date of termination of liability. If such principal is an individual and resides within the state of Washington, or is a corporation doing business in the state of Washington, such notice shall be personally served upon such individual, or if the principal is a firm or a corporation, such notice shall be served personally upon any person upon whom personal service of summons may be made under the existing laws of the state of Washington. If the principal is an individual and is not a resident of the state of Washington, or cannot be found therein, or if the principal is a foreign corporation, such notice shall be mailed by registered mail to the last known address of such principal, if any, which fact shall be shown by affidavit filed with the notice of withdrawal as hereinafter provided, and a copy of such notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of the residence of the official with whom such bond is filed. The date of the last publication of notice shall be not less than twenty days from the date stated therein as the date upon which the surety will withdraw from the bond.

Proof of such service or publication shall be made by affidavit and filed with the official with whom the bond is filed at least ten days before the date fixed in the notice of withdrawal. [1937 c 145 § 2; RRS § 9943. Formerly RCW 19.72.110 and 19.72.120.] [SLC-RO-17.]

19.72.130 Release from official's, executor's, licensee's, etc., bond—Effective date—Failure to give new bond, effect. On and after the date fixed in the notice as the termination date the surety shall be released from subsequent liability on such bond; and, unless before the date fixed in such notice as the termination date by the surety, a new bond shall be filed with sufficient and satisfactory surety as required by law under which the bond was originally furnished and filed, the office, position or trust in the case of a public office, guardian, executor, administrator, receiver or trustee shall become vacant and a successor shall be appointed as provided by law; and in case of a license, certificate, permit or franchise, the same shall become null and void: Provided, however, That no surety shall be released on the bond of any guardian, executor, administrator, receiver, or trustee until such fiduciary shall have furnished a new bond with surety approved by the court, or until his successor has been appointed and has qualified and taken over the fiduciary assets. Said notice of withdrawal shall be final and not subject to cancellation by said surety and said license, certificate, permit or franchise can only be continued upon filing a new bond as above provided. [1937 c 145 § 3; RRS § 9944.] [SLC-RO-17.]

19.72.140 Suretyship—Raising issue as defendant. When any action is brought against two or more defendants upon a contract, any one or more of the defendants being surety for the others, the surety may, upon a written complaint to the court, cause the question of suretyship to be tried and determined upon the issues made by the parties at the trial of the cause, or at any time before or after the trial, or at a subsequent term, but such proceedings shall not affect the proceedings of the plaintiff. [Code 1881 § 646; RRS § 976. Prior: 1877 p 134 § 649; 1869 p 150 § 586; 1854 p 210 § 428. FORMER PART OF SECTION: Code 1881 § 647; RRS § 977, now codified as RCW 19.72.141.]

19.72.141 Suretyship—Order to exhaust principal's property. If the finding upon such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff to levy the execution upon, and first exhaust the property of the principal before a levy shall be made upon the property of the surety, and the clerk shall indorse a memorandum of the order upon the execution. [Code 1881 § 647; RRS § 977. Prior: 1877 p 134 § 650; 1869 p 151 § 587; 1854 p 211 § 429. Formerly RCW 19.72.140, part.]

19.72.150 Heirs, etc., bound—Exception. The provisions of RCW 19.72.070 through 19.72.101, 19.72.140, 19.72.141 shall extend to heirs, executors, and administrators of deceased persons, but the provisions of RCW

19.72.101 shall not operate against persons under legal disabilities. [Code 1881 § 651; RRS § 981. Prior: 1877 p 135 § 654; 1869 p 151 § 591; 1854 p 211 § 433.]

19.72.160 Assets—Safekeeping agreements—Joint control of deposits. It shall be lawful for any party of whom a bond, undertaking or other obligation is required, to agree with his surety or sureties for the deposit of any or all moneys and assets for which he and his surety or sureties are or may be held responsible, with a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, safe deposit or trust company, authorized by law to do business as such, or with other depository approved by the court or a judge thereof, if such deposit is otherwise proper, for the safekeeping thereof, and in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such money or assets or any part thereof, without the written consent of such surety or sureties, or an order of court, or a judge thereof made on such notice to such surety or sureties as such court or judge may direct: Provided, however, That such agreement shall not in any manner release from or change the liability of the principal or sureties as established by the terms of said bond. [1953 c 46 § 1.]

19.72.170 Bonds not to fail for want of form or substance. No bond required by law, and intended as such bond, shall be void for want of form or substance, recital, or condition; nor shall the principal or surety on such account be discharged, but all the parties thereto shall be held and bound to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same, to the amount specified in such bond. In all actions on such defective bond, the plaintiff may state its legal effect, in the same manner as though it were a perfect bond. [Code 1881 § 749; 1854 p 219 § 489; RRS § 777. Formerly RCW 10.19.120, part.] [SLC-RO-10.]

19.72.180 Successive recoveries on bond—Limitation. In the event of the breach of the condition of any bond described in RCW 19.72.109, successive recoveries may be made thereon by any of the obligees thereof: Provided, however, That the total amount of all such recoveries, whether by one or more of such obligees, shall not exceed, in the aggregate, the penal sum specified in such bond. [1959 c 113 § 1.]

Crimes relating to trademarks: Chapter 9.16 RCW.

Materials specifically authorized to be printed and distributed by secretary of state: RCW 43.07.140.

19.77.010 Definitions. As used in this chapter:

- (1) "Applicant" means the person filing an application for registration of a trademark under this chapter, his legal representatives, successors, or assigns of record with the secretary of state;
- (2) "Person" means any individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association, union, or other organization;
- (3) "Registrant" means the person to whom the registration of a trademark under this chapter is issued, his legal representatives, successors, or assigns of record with the secretary of state;
- (4) "Trademark" means any word, name, symbol, or device or any combination thereof adopted and used by a person to identify goods made or sold by him and to distinguish them from goods made or sold by others, and further includes without limitation a mark, name, symbol, title, designation, slogan, character name, and distinctive feature of radio or other advertising used in the sale or advertising of services to identify the services of one person and distinguish them from the services of others;
- (5) A trademark shall be deemed to be "used" in this state when it is placed in any manner on the goods or their containers, or on tabs or labels affixed thereto, or displayed in connection with such goods, and such goods are sold or otherwise distributed in this state, or when it is used or displayed in the sale or advertising of services rendered in this state. [1955 c 211 § 1.]

Effective date—1955 c 211: "This act shall be in force and take effect on September 1, 1955." [1955 c 211 § 19.]

19.77.020 Registration of certain trademarks prohibited. A trademark by which the goods or services of any applicant for registration may be distinguished from the goods or services of others shall not be registered if it:

- (1) Consists of or comprises immoral, deceptive, or scandalous matter; or

- (2) Consists of or comprises matter which may disparage or falsely suggest a connection with persons, living or dead, institutions, beliefs, or national symbols, or bring them into contempt or disrepute; or

- (3) Consists of or comprises the flag or coat of arms or other insignia of the United States, or of any state or municipality, or of any foreign nation, or any simulation thereof; or

- (4) Consists of or comprises the name, portrait, or signature identifying a particular living individual, except with his written consent; or

- (5) Consists of a mark which,
  - (a) when applied to the goods or services of the applicant is merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or

- (b) when applied to the goods or services of the applicant is primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of them, or

- (c) is primarily merely a surname; or

- (6) Consists of or comprises a trademark which so resembles a trademark registered in this state, or a trademark or trade name previously used in this state by another and not abandoned, as to be likely, when applied to the goods or services of the applicant, to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive. [1955 c 211 § 2.]

19.77.030 Application for registration. Subject to the limitations set forth in this chapter, any person who has adopted and is using a trademark in this state may file in the office of the secretary of state, on a form to be furnished by the secretary of state, an application for registration of that trademark setting forth, but not limited to, the following information:

- (1) The name and business address of the applicant, and, if the applicant is a corporation, its state of incorporation;
- (2) The particular goods or services in connection with which the trademark is used and the class in which such goods or services fall;
- (3) The manner in which the trademark is placed on or affixed to the goods or containers, or displayed in connection with such goods, or used in connection with the sale or advertising of the services;
- (4) The date when the trademark was first used with each of such goods or services anywhere and the date when it was first used with each of such goods or services in this state by the applicant or his predecessor in business;
- (5) A statement that the trademark is presently in use in this state by the applicant; and
- (6) A statement that the applicant believes himself to be the owner of the trademark and believes that no other person has the right to use such trademark in connection with the same or similar goods or services in this state either in the identical form thereof or in such near resemblance thereto as might be calculated to deceive or to be mistaken therefor.

A single application for registration of a trademark may specify all goods or services in a single class for which the trademark is actually being used, but may not specify goods or services in different classes.

The application shall be signed by the applicant individual, or by a member of the applicant firm, or by an officer of the applicant corporation, association, union or other organization.

The application shall be accompanied by three specimens or facsimiles of the trademark for at least one of the goods or services for which its registration is requested, and a filing fee of fifty dollars payable to the secretary of state. [1982 c 35 § 181; 1955 c 211 § 3.]

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

19.77.040 Certificate of registration—Issuance—Contents—Admissibility in evidence. Upon compliance by the applicant with the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of registration and deliver it to the applicant. The certificate of registration shall be issued under the signature of the secretary of state and the seal of the state, and it shall show the registrant's name and business address and, if the registrant is a corporation, its state of incorporation, the date claimed for the first use of the trademark anywhere, the date claimed for the first use of the trademark in this state, the particular goods or services for which the trademark is used, the class in which such goods and services fall, a reproduction of the trademark, the registration date and the term of the registration.

Any certificate of registration issued by the secretary of state under the provisions hereof or a copy thereof duly certified by the secretary of state shall be admissible in evidence as competent and sufficient proof of the registration of such trademark in any action or judicial proceeding in any court of this state. [1955 c 211 § 4.]

19.77.050 Duration of certificate—Renewal. Registration of a trademark hereunder shall be effective for a term of ten years from the date of registration. Upon application filed within six months prior to the expiration of such term, on a form to be furnished by the secretary of state requiring all the allegations of an application for original registration, the registration may be renewed for successive terms of ten years as to the goods or services for which the trademark is still in use in this state. A renewal fee of fifty dollars, payable to the secretary of state, shall accompany each application for renewal of the registration.

The secretary of state shall notify registrants of trademarks hereunder or their agents for service of record with the secretary of state of the necessity of renewal within the year, but not less than six months, next preceding the expiration of the unexpired original or renewed term by writing to the last known address of the registrants or their agents according to the files of the secretary of state.

Any registration in force on September 1, 1955 shall expire five years from the date of the registration or one year after September 1, 1955, whichever date is later, and may be renewed as provided for renewing registrations under this chapter. A separate renewal application is required for goods in each class.

The secretary of state shall, within six months after September 1, 1955, notify all registrants of trademarks under previous acts of the date of expiration of their registrations by writing to the last known address of the registrants according to the files of the secretary of state, unless such registrations have been renewed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [1982 c 35 § 182; 1955 c 211 § 5.]

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

19.77.060 Assignment of trademark, registration, or application. Any trademark and its registration or application for registration hereunder shall be assignable with the good will of the business in which the trademark is used, or with that part of the good will of the business connected with the use of and symbolized by the trademark. An assignment by an instrument in writing duly executed and acknowledged, or the designation of a legal representative, successor, or agent for service shall be recorded by the secretary of state on request when accompanied by a fee of ten dollars payable to the secretary of state. On request, upon recording of the assignment and payment of a further fee of five dollars, the secretary of state shall issue in the name of the assignee a new certificate for the remainder of the unexpired original or renewal term of the registration. An assignment of any registration or application for registration under this chapter shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser for a valuable consideration without notice, unless it is recorded with the secretary of state within three months after the date thereof or prior to such subsequent purchase. [1982 c 35 § 183; 1955 c 211 § 6.]

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

19.77.070 Secretary of state to keep records. The secretary of state shall keep for public examination a record of all trademarks registered or renewed under this chapter, and the records specified in RCW 19.77.060. [1955 c 211 § 7.]

19.77.080 Secretary of state must cancel certain registrations. The secretary of state shall cancel from the register:

(1) After one year from September 1, 1955, all registrations under prior acts which are more than five years old and not renewed in accordance with this chapter;

(2) Any registration concerning which the secretary of state shall receive a voluntary written request for cancellation thereof from the registrant;

(3) All expired registrations not renewed under this chapter;

(4) Any registration concerning which a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, upon filing of a certified copy of such decree with the secretary of state, shall adjudge:

(a) That the registered trademark has been abandoned; or

- (b) That the registrant is not the owner of the trademark; or
  - (c) That the registration was granted improperly; or
  - (d) That the registration was obtained fraudulently; or
  - (e) That the registration be canceled on any ground.
- [1955 c 211 § 8.]

19.77.090 Actions relating to registration—Service on secretary of state—Fees. The secretary of state shall be the agent for service of process in any action relating to the registration of any registrant who is at the time of such service a nonresident or a foreign firm, corporation, association, union, or other organization without a resident of this state designated as the registrant's agent for service of record with the secretary of state, or who cannot be found in this state, and service of process, pleadings and papers in such action made upon the secretary of state shall be held as due and sufficient process upon the registrant. The secretary of state shall charge and collect a fee of twenty-five dollars at the time of any service of process upon the secretary of state under this section. The fee may be recovered as taxable costs by the party to the suit or action causing such service to be made if such party prevails in the suit or action. The fee shall be deposited in the secretary of state's revolving fund. [1982 c 35 § 184; 1955 c 211 § 9.]

Intent—Severability—Effective dates—Application—1982 c 35: See notes following RCW 43.07.160.

19.77.100 Cancellation at instance of person damaged. Any person who believes he will be damaged by a registration of a trademark by the secretary of state may request cancellation of such registration by filing with the secretary of state in duplicate a verified petition setting forth the facts in support of such request, accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars payable to the revolving fund of the secretary of state. To each copy of said petition for cancellation there shall be attached a copy of each of the trademarks or trade names, or the personal name, portrait, or signature, of the petitioner, or other exhibits of like character relied on in the petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall mail to the registrant or his agent for service of record with the secretary of state a copy of said petition, addressed to the last known address of the registrant or such agent according to the files of the secretary of state, accompanied by a notice that said registrant may, within twenty days if the registrant is a resident of the state of Washington, or within sixty days if the registrant is a nonresident of the state of Washington, file in duplicate a verified answer to said petition. Thereafter the secretary of state shall forward a copy of said answer to said petitioner, accompanied by a notice that said petitioner may, within a specified time, not less than twenty days, file in duplicate a verified statement as to any further facts which are pertinent to issues raised by said answer, and the secretary of state shall in like manner forward a copy thereof to said registrant or such agent. The secretary of state shall then fix a hearing date not less than thirty days from the last day that the petitioner may file a statement of further facts. Written notice of such hearing shall be served on the parties by the secretary of state not less than fifteen days before the hearing in the same manner as the petition and answer were forwarded. Additional relevant testimony or other evidence may be introduced by the parties, and the secretary of state may subpoena such witnesses as he deems necessary. The parties shall have the right to be represented by counsel. On conclusion of the hearing the secretary of state shall grant or deny the petitioner's request for cancellation of the registration as the facts shall warrant and shall send a copy of his decision to the petitioner and to the registrant or such agent. If the secretary of state finds that the trademark should not have been registered, or is in violation of the common law rights of the petitioner, or if the secretary of state receives no answer from the registrant within the time limits specified hereinabove, he shall cancel said registration from the register, unless a petition for review of such decision is filed as provided hereinafter.

Either the petitioner or the registrant may, within sixty days after mailing of the copy of the decision by the secretary of state, file in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county, and mail to the secretary of state and the other party or such agent at his last known address according to the files of the secretary of state, a petition for review of the decision of the secretary of state. The court shall review such decision on the basis of the record before the secretary of state for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of such decision and, subject to the right of appeal to the supreme court or the court of appeals of the state, the decree of the superior court shall be binding upon the secretary of state with respect to the granting or denial of the petitioner's request for cancellation. In any such petition for review the secretary of state shall be a necessary party, and the petitioner for cancellation and the registrant shall be proper parties. [1982 c 35 § 185; 1971 c 81 § 65; 1955 c 211 § 10.]

19.77.110 Classification of goods. The following general classes of goods are established for the convenient administration of this chapter, but do not limit or extend the applicant's or registrant's rights:

- (49) Distilled alcoholic liquors.
- (50) Merchandise not otherwise classified.
- (51) Cosmetics and toilet preparations.
- (52) Detergents and soaps. [1955 c 211 § 11.]

19.77.120 Classification of services. The following general classes of services are established for the convenient administration of this chapter, but do not limit or extend the applicant's or registrant's rights:

- (100) Miscellaneous.
- (101) Advertising and business.
- (102) Insurance and financial.
- (103) Construction and repair.
- (104) Communication.
- (105) Transportation and storage.
- (106) Material treatment.
- (107) Education and entertainment. [1955 c 211 § 12.]

19.77.130 Fraudulent registration. Any person who shall for himself, or on behalf of any other person, procure the registration of any trademark by the secretary of state under the provisions of this chapter, by knowingly making any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, or by any other fraudulent means, shall be liable to pay all damages sustained in consequence of such registration, to be recovered by or on behalf of the party injured thereby in any court of competent jurisdiction. [1955 c 211 § 13.]

19.77.140 Trademark imitation. Subject to the provisions of RCW 19.77.900 any person who shall:

(1) Use, without the consent of the registrant, any reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a trademark registered under this chapter in connection with the sale, offering for sale, or advertising of any goods or services on or in connection with which such use is likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive as to the source of origin of such goods or services; or

(2) Reproduce, counterfeit, copy or colorably imitate any such trademark and apply such reproduction, counterfeit, copy or colorable imitation to labels, signs, prints, packages, wrappers, receptacles, or advertisements intended to be used upon or in connection with the sale or other distribution of goods or services in this state; shall be liable to a civil action by the registrant for any or all of the remedies provided in RCW 19.77.150, except that under subdivision (2) of this section the registrant shall not be entitled to recover profits or damages unless the acts have been committed with knowledge that such use is intended to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive. [1955 c 211 § 14.]

19.77.150 Remedies of registrants. Any registrant may proceed by suit to enjoin the manufacture, use, display, or sale of any counterfeits or imitations of a trademark registered under this chapter, and any court of competent jurisdiction may grant injunction to restrain such manufacture, use, display, or sale as may be by the said court deemed just and reasonable, and may require the defendants to pay to such registrant all profits derived from and/or all damages suffered by reason of such wrongful manufacture, use, display, or sale; and such court may also order that any such counterfeits or imitations in the possession or under the control of any defendant in such case be delivered to an officer of the court, or to the registrant, to be destroyed.

The enumeration of any right or remedy herein shall not affect a registrant's right to prosecute under any penal law of this state. [1955 c 211 § 15.]

19.77.900 Common law rights preserved. Nothing herein shall adversely affect the rights or the enforcement of rights in trademarks acquired in good faith at any time at common law. [1955 c 211 § 16.]

19.77.910 Saving—1955 c 211. As to any pending suit, proceeding or appeal, and for that purpose only, the repeal of prior acts shall be deemed not to be effective until final determination. [1955 c 211 § 17.]

19.77.920 Severability—1955 c 211. If any provision of this chapter is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions. [1955 c 211 § 20.]

19.80.075	Collection and deposit of fees.
19.80.900	Severability—1984 c 130.

19.80.001 Purposes. The purposes of this chapter are: (1) To require each person who is conducting business in the state of Washington under a trade name to disclose the true and real name of each person conducting that business, and (2) to provide a central registry of businesses operating under a trade name in the state of Washington. [1984 c 130 § 1.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: "Sections 1 through 11 of this act shall take effect on October 1, 1984. The director of licensing is authorized to immediately take such steps as are necessary to insure that this act is implemented on its effective date." [1984 c 130 § 12.]

19.80.005 Definitions. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Trade name" means a word or name, or any combination of a word or name, used by a person to identify the person's business which:

(a) Is not, or does not include, the true and real name of all persons conducting the business; or

(b) Includes words which suggest additional parties of interest such as "company," "and sons," or "and associates."

(2) "Business" means an occupation, profession, or employment engaged in for the purpose of seeking a profit.

(3) "Executed" by a person means that a document signed by such person is signed by that person under penalties of perjury and in an official and authorized capacity on behalf of the person submitting the document to the department of licensing.

(4) "Person" means any individual, partnership, or corporation conducting or having an interest in a business in the state.

(5) "True and real name" means:

(a) The surname of an individual coupled with one or more of the individual's other names, one or more of the individual's initials, or any combination;

(b) The designation or appellation by which an individual is best known and called in the business community where that individual transacts business, if this is used as that individual's legal signature;

(c) The registered corporate name of a domestic corporation as filed with the secretary of state;

(d) The registered corporate name of a foreign corporation authorized to do business within the state of Washington as filed with the secretary of state;

(e) The registered partnership name of a domestic limited partnership as filed with the secretary of state;

(f) The registered partnership name of a foreign limited partnership as filed with the secretary of state; or

(g) The name of a general partnership which includes in its name the true and real names, as defined in (a) through (f) of this subsection, of each general partner as required in RCW 19.80.010. [1984 c 130 § 2.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.010 Registration required. Each person or persons who shall carry on, conduct, or transact business in this state under any trade name shall register that trade name with the department of licensing as set forth in this section:

(1) Sole proprietorship or general partnership: The registration shall set forth the true and real name or names of each person conducting the same, together with the post office address or addresses of each such person and the name of the general partnership, if applicable.

(2) Foreign or domestic limited partnership: The registration shall set forth the limited partnership name as filed with the office of the secretary of state.

(3) Foreign or domestic corporation: The registration shall set forth the corporate name as filed with the office of the secretary of state.

(4) The registration shall be executed by:

(a) The sole proprietor of a sole proprietorship;

(b) A general partner of a domestic or foreign general or limited partnership; or

(c) An officer of a domestic or foreign corporation. [1984 c 130 § 3; 1979 ex.s. c 22 § 1; 1907 c 145 § 1; RRS § 9976.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

Adoption of rules—1979 ex.s. c 22: "The director of the department of licensing shall promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to implement the transfer of duties and of records required by section 1 of this 1979 act. Such rules shall provide for transfer of existing certificates from the counties to the department, set fees for filing of certificates and amendments, and set fees for obtaining copies thereof." [1979 ex.s. c 22 § 3.] "Section 1 of this 1979 act" consists of the amendments to RCW 19.80.010 by 1979 ex.s. c 22.

Effective date—1979 ex.s. c 22: "This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1979." [1979 ex.s. c 22 § 4.]

19.80.025 Changes in registration—Filing amendment. (1) An executed amendment shall be filed with the department of licensing when a change occurs in:

(a) The true and real name of a person conducting a business with a trade name registered under this chapter; or

(b) Any mailing address set forth on the registration or any subsequently filed amendment.

(2) A notice of cancellation shall be filed with the department when use of a trade name is discontinued.

(3) A notice of cancellation, together with a new registration, shall be filed before conducting or transacting any business when:

(a) An addition, deletion, or any change of person or persons conducting business under the registered trade name occurs; or

(b) There is a change in the wording or spelling of the trade name since initial registration or renewal. [1984 c 130 § 5.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.035 Reregistration for names registered prior to October 1, 1984—Fee—Termination of previous registration. On or before October 1, 1986, each person who registered a trade name prior to October 1, 1984, and is conducting or transacting business in this state under that trade name, shall reregister the trade name under this chapter. All reregistrations shall be executed under RCW 19.80.010 and shall be accompanied by a fee of five dollars or the fee set under RCW 19.80.045. Within three years of October 1, 1984, the department of licensing shall devise and implement a no-fee system for identifying and purging trade name registrations that have become inactive. Failure to reregister on or before October 1, 1986, terminates the previous registration. [1985 c 88 § 1; 1984 c 130 § 4.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.040 Failure to file. No person or persons carrying on, conducting, or transacting business under any trade name shall be entitled to maintain any suit in any of the courts of this state until such person or persons have properly completed the registration as provided for in RCW 19.80.010. Failure to complete this registration shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such person or persons and shall not prevent such person or persons from defending any suit in any court of this state. [1984 c 130 § 7; 1907 c 145 § 5; RRS § 9980. Formerly RCW 19.80.040 and 19.80.050.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.045 Rules—Fees. The director of licensing shall adopt rules as necessary to administer this chapter. The rules may include but are not limited to specifying forms and setting fees for trade name registrations, amendments, searches, renewals, and copies of registration documents. Fees shall not exceed the actual cost of administering this chapter. [1984 c 130 § 6.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.065 RCW 42.17.260(5) inapplicable. RCW 42.17.260(5) does not apply to registrations made under this chapter. [1984 c 130 § 8.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.075 Collection and deposit of fees. All fees collected by the department of licensing under this chapter shall be deposited with the state treasurer and credited to the general fund. [1984 c 130 § 9.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.80.900 Severability—1984 c 130. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1984 c 130 § 11.]

Effective date—1984 c 130: See note following RCW 19.80.001.

19.83.010 License required to use or furnish trading stamps, coupons, or similar devices. Every person who uses, or furnishes, or sells to any other person for use, in, with, or for the sale of any goods, any trading stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards or other similar devices which entitle the purchaser to procure any goods free of charge or for less than the retail market price thereof, upon the production of any number of such trading stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices, shall before so furnishing, selling, or using the same obtain a separate license from the auditor of each county wherein such furnishing or selling or using shall take place for each and every store or place of business in that county, owned or conducted by such person from which such furnishing or selling, or in which such using shall take place. [1913 c 134 § 1; RRS § 8359. Formerly RCW 36.91.010.]

19.83.020 Issuance of license—Fee. In order to obtain such license the person applying therefor shall pay to the county treasurer of the county for which the license is sought the sum of six thousand dollars, and upon such payment being made to the county treasurer he shall issue his receipt therefor which shall be presented to the auditor of the county, who shall upon the presentation thereof issue to the person making such payment a license to furnish or sell, or a license to use, for one year, trading stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices. Such license shall contain the name of the licensee, the date of its issue, the date of its expiration, the city or town in which and the location at which the same shall be used, and the license shall be used at no place other than that mentioned therein. [1913 c 134 § 2; RRS § 8360. Formerly RCW 36.91.020.]

19.83.030 Furnishing or selling trading stamps, coupons, or similar devices geographically limited. No person shall furnish or sell to another for use, in, with, or for the sale of any goods, any trading stamps, coupons, tickets, certificates, cards, or other similar devices to be used in any county, city or town in this state other than that in which such furnishing or selling shall take place. [1957 c 221 § 2. Prior: 1939 c 31 § 1, part; 1913 c 134 § 3, part; RRS § 8361, part. Formerly RCW 36.91.030.]

19.83.040 Coupons or similar devices—Exemptions. (1) Nothing in this chapter, or in any other statute or ordinance of this state, shall apply to:

(a) The issuance and direct redemption by a manufacturer of a premium coupon, certificate, or similar device; or prevent him from issuing and directly redeeming such premium coupon, certificate, or similar device, which, however, shall not be issued, circulated, or distributed by retail vendors except when contained in or attached to an original package;

(b) The publication by, or distribution through, newspapers or other publications of coupons, certificates, or similar devices; or

(c) A coupon, certificate, or similar device which is within, attached to, or a part of a package or container as packaged by the original manufacturer and which is to be redeemed by another manufacturer, if:

(i) The coupon, certificate, or similar device clearly states the names and addresses of both the issuing manufacturer and the redeeming manufacturer; and

(ii) The issuing manufacturer is responsible for redemption of the coupon, certificate, or similar device if the redeeming manufacturer fails to do so.

(2) The term "manufacturer," as used in this section, means any vendor of an article of merchandise which is put up by or for him in an original package and which is sold under his or its trade name, brand, or mark. [1983 c 40 § 1; 1972 ex.s. c 104 § 1; 1957 c 221 § 3. Prior: 1939 c 31 § 1, part; 1913 c 134 § 3, part; RRS § 8361, part. Formerly RCW 36.91.040.]

Severability—1983 c 40: "If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected." [1983 c 40 § 2.]

19.83.050 Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [1913 c 134 § 4; RRS § 8362. Formerly RCW 36.91.050.]

19.84.010	Redeemable cash value to be printed on face.
19.84.020	Must redeem at cash value.
19.84.030	Distributor liable.
19.84.040	Criminal penalty.

Trading stamp licenses: Chapter 19.83 RCW.

19.84.010 Redeemable cash value to be printed on face. No person shall sell or issue any stamps, trading stamp, cash discount stamp, check, ticket, coupon or other similar device, which will entitle the holder thereof, on presentation thereof, either singly or in definite number, to receive, either directly from the vendor or indirectly through any other person, money or goods, wares or merchandise, unless each of said stamps, trading stamps, cash discount stamps, checks, tickets, coupons or other similar devices shall have legibly printed or written upon the face thereof the redeemable value thereof in cents. [1907 c 253 § 1; RRS § 5837.]

19.84.020 Must redeem at cash value. Any person who shall sell or issue to any person engaged in any trade, business or profession, any stamp, trading stamp, cash discount stamp, check, ticket, coupon, or other similar device which will entitle the holder thereof, on presentation thereof either singly or in definite number, to receive either directly from the vendor or indirectly through any other person, money or goods, wares or merchandise, shall, upon presentation, redeem the same either in goods, wares or merchandise, or in cash, good and lawful money of the United States, at the option of the holder thereof, and any number of such stamps, trading stamps, cash discount stamps, checks, tickets, coupons, or other similar devices shall be redeemed as hereinbefore set forth, at the value in cents printed upon the face thereof, and it shall not be necessary for the holder thereof to have any stipulated number of the same before demand for redemption may be made, but they shall be redeemed in any number, when presented, at the value in cents printed upon the face thereof, as hereinbefore provided. [1907 c 253 § 2; RRS § 5838.]

19.84.030 Distributor liable. Any person engaged in any trade, business or profession who shall distribute, deliver or present to any person dealing with him, in consideration of any article or thing purchased, any stamp, trading stamp, cash discount stamp, check, ticket, coupon or other similar device, which will entitle the holder thereof, on presentation thereof, either singly or in definite number, to receive, either directly from the person issuing or selling the same, as set forth in RCW 19.84.020, or indirectly through any other person, shall, upon the refusal or failure of the said person issuing or selling same to redeem the same, as set forth in RCW 19.84.020, be liable to the holder thereof for the face value thereof, and shall upon presentation redeem the same, either in goods, wares or merchandise, or in cash, good and lawful money of the United States of America, at the option of the holder thereof, and in such case any number of such stamps, trading stamps, cash discount stamps, checks, tickets, coupons or other similar devices, shall be redeemed as hereinbefore set forth, at the value in cents printed upon the face thereof, and it shall not be necessary for the holder thereof to have any stipulated number of the same before demand for redemption may be made, but they shall be redeemed in any number, when presented, at the value in cents printed upon the face thereof, as hereinbefore provided. [1907 c 253 § 3; RRS § 5839.]

19.84.040 Criminal penalty. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each offense. [1907 c 253 § 4; RRS § 5840.]

REGULATORY FAIRNESS ACT

Sections

19.85.010	Legislative declaration, intent—Short title.
19.85.020	Definitions.
19.85.030	Agency duties and options when adopting rule affecting industry and businesses therein.
19.85.040	Small business economic impact statement—Purpose—Contents.
19.85.050	Agency plan to review all rules affecting industry and businesses therein—Scope—Factors applicable upon rule review—Annual list of rules to be reviewed.
19.85.900	Severability—1982 c 6.

19.85.010 Legislative declaration, intent—Short title. The legislature finds that small businesses in the state of Washington have in the past been subjected to rules adopted by agencies, departments, and instrumentalities of the state government which have placed a proportionately higher burden on the small business community in Washington state. The legislature also finds that such proportionately higher burdens placed on small businesses have reduced competition, reduced employment, reduced new employment opportunities, reduced innovation, and threatened the very existence of some small businesses. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature that rules affecting the business community shall not place proportionately higher burdens on small businesses. The legislature therefore enacts this Regulatory Fairness Act to minimize such proportionately higher impacts of rules on small businesses in the future. [1982 c 6 § 1.]

19.85.020 Definitions. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the definitions in this section apply through this chapter.

(1) "Small business" has the meaning given in *RCW 43.31.920.

(2) "Small business economic impact statement" means a statement meeting the requirements of RCW 19.85.040 prepared by a state agency pursuant to RCW 19.85.030.

(3) "Industry" means all of the businesses in this state in any one three-digit standard industrial classification as published by the United States department of commerce. [1982 c 6 § 2.]

*Reviser's note: RCW 43.31.920 was repealed by 1985 c 466 § 76, effective June 30, 1985.

19.85.030 Agency duties and options when adopting rule affecting industry and businesses therein. In the adoption of any rule pursuant to RCW 34.04.025 which will have an economic impact on more than twenty percent of all industries, or more than ten percent of any one industry, the adopting agency:

(1) Shall reduce the economic impact of the rule on small business by doing one or more of the following when it is legal and feasible in meeting the stated objective of the statutes which are the basis of the proposed rule:

(a) Establish differing compliance or reporting requirements or timetables for small businesses;

(b) Clarify, consolidate, or simplify the compliance and reporting requirements under the rule for small businesses;

(c) Establish performance rather than design standards;

(d) Exempt small businesses from any or all requirements of the rule;

(2) Shall prepare a small business economic impact statement in accordance with RCW 19.85.040 and file such statement with the code reviser along with the notice required under RCW 34.04.025;

(3) May request from the office of small business available statistics which the agency can use in the preparation of the small business economic impact statement. [1982 c 6 § 3.]

Publication of small business economic statement in Washington State Register: RCW 34.08.020.

19.85.040 Small business economic impact statement—Purpose—Contents. A small business economic impact statement shall analyze the costs of compliance for businesses required to comply with the provisions of a rule adopted pursuant to RCW 34.04.025, including costs of equipment, supplies, labor, and increased administrative costs, and compare to the greatest extent possible the cost of compliance for small business with the cost of compliance for the ten percent of firms which are the largest businesses required to comply with the proposed new or amendatory rules. The small business economic impact statement shall use one or more of the following as a basis for comparing costs:

(1) Cost per employee;

(2) Cost per hour of labor;

(3) Cost per one hundred dollars of sales;

(4) Any combination of (1), (2), or (3). [1982 c 6 § 4.]

Publication in Washington State Register: RCW 34.08.020.

19.85.050 Agency plan to review all rules affecting industry and businesses therein—Scope—Factors applicable upon rule review—Annual list of rules to be reviewed. (1) Within one year after June 10, 1982, each agency shall publish and deliver to the office of financial management and to all persons who make requests of the agency for a copy of a plan to periodically review all rules then in effect and which have been issued by the agency which have an economic impact on more than twenty percent of all industries or ten percent of the businesses in any one industry. Such plan may be amended by the agency at any time by publishing a revision to the review plan and delivering such revised plan to the office of financial management and to all persons who make requests of the agency for the plan. The purpose of the review is to determine whether such rules should be continued without change or should be amended or rescinded, consistent with the stated objectives of applicable statutes, to minimize the economic impact on small businesses as described by this chapter. The plan shall provide for the review of all such agency rules in effect on June 10, 1982, within ten years of that date.

(2) In reviewing rules to minimize any significant economic impact of the rule on small businesses as described by this chapter, and in a manner consistent with the stated objectives of applicable statutes, the agency shall consider the following factors:

- (a) The continued need for the rule;
- (b) The nature of complaints or comments received concerning the rule from the public;
- (c) The complexity of the rule;
- (d) The extent to which the rule overlaps, duplicates, or conflicts with other state or federal rules, and, to the extent feasible, with local governmental rules; and
- (e) The degree to which technology, economic conditions, or other factors have changed in the subject area affected by the rule.

(3) Each year each agency shall publish a list of rules which are to be reviewed pursuant to this section during the next twelve months and deliver a copy of the list to the office of financial management and all persons who make requests of the agency for the list. The list shall include a brief description of the legal basis for each rule as described by RCW 34.04.026(1)(a) or 34.04.026(1)(b), and shall invite public comment upon the rule. [1982 c 6 § 5.]

19.85.900 Severability—1982 c 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected. [1982 c 6 § 11.]

Monopolies and trusts prohibited: State Constitution Art. 12 § 22.

19.86.040 Monopolies and attempted monopolies declared unlawful. It shall be unlawful for any person to monopolize, or attempt to monopolize or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize any part of trade or commerce. [1961 c 216 § 4.]

19.86.050 Transactions and agreements not to use or deal in commodities or services of competitor declared unlawful when lessens competition. It shall be unlawful for any person to lease or make a sale or contract for sale of goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, supplies, or other commodities, or services, whether patented or unpatented, for use, consumption, enjoyment, or resale, or fix a price charged therefor, or discount from, or rebate upon, such price, on the condition, agreement, or understanding that the lessee or purchaser thereof shall not use or deal in the goods, wares, merchandise, machinery, supplies, or other commodity or services of a competitor or competitors of the lessor or seller, where the effect of such lease, sale, or contract for such sale or such condition, agreement, or understanding may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce. [1961 c 216 § 5.]

19.86.060 Acquisition of corporate stock by another corporation to lessen competition declared unlawful—Exceptions—Judicial order to divest. It shall be unlawful for any corporation to acquire, directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the stock or assets of another corporation where the effect of such acquisition may be to substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any line of commerce.

This section shall not apply to corporations purchasing such stock solely for investment and not using the same by voting or otherwise to bring about, or in attempting to bring about, the substantial lessening of competition. Nor shall anything contained in this section prevent a corporation from causing the formation of subsidiary corporations for the actual carrying on of their immediate lawful business, or the natural and legitimate branches or extensions thereof, or from owning and holding all or a part of the stock of such subsidiary corporations, when the effect of such formation is not to substantially lessen competition.

In addition to any other remedy provided by this chapter, the superior court may order any corporation to divest itself of the stock or assets held contrary to this section, in the manner and within the time fixed by said order. [1961 c 216 § 6.]

19.86.070 Labor not an article of commerce—Chapter not to affect mutual, nonprofit organizations. The labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to forbid the existence and operation of labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations, instituted for the purposes of mutual help, and not having capital stock or conducted for profit, or to forbid or restrain individual members of such organizations from lawfully carrying out the legitimate objects thereof. [1961 c 216 § 7.]

Labor regulations: Title 49 RCW.

19.86.080 Attorney general may restrain prohibited acts—Costs—Restoration of property. The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful; and the prevailing party may, in the discretion of the court, recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorney's fee.

The court may make such additional orders or judgments as may be necessary to restore to any person in interest any moneys or property, real or personal, which may have been acquired by means of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 1; 1961 c 216 § 8.]

19.86.090 Civil action for damages—Treble damages authorized—Action by governmental entities. Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of RCW 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee, and the court may in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not to exceed three times the actual damages sustained: Provided, That such increased damage award for violation of RCW 19.86.020 may not exceed ten thousand dollars: Provided further, That such person may bring a civil action in the justice court to recover his actual damages, except for damages which exceed the amount specified in RCW 3.66.020, and the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney's fees. The justice court may, in its discretion, increase the award of damages to an amount not more than three times the actual damages sustained, but such increased damage award shall not exceed the amount specified in RCW 3.66.020. For the purpose of this section "person" shall include the counties, municipalities, and all political subdivisions of this state.

Whenever the state of Washington is injured by reason of a violation of RCW 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, it may sue therefor in the superior court to recover the actual damages sustained by it and to recover the costs of the suit including a reasonable attorney's fee. [1983 c 288 § 3; 1970 ex.s. c 26 § 2; 1961 c 216 § 9.]

Short title—Purposes—1983 c 288: "This act may be cited as the antitrust/consumer protection improvements act. Its purposes are to strengthen public and private enforcement of the unfair business practices—consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, and to repeal the unfair practices act, chapter 19.90 RCW, in order to eliminate a statute which is unnecessary in light of the provisions and remedies of chapter 19.86 RCW. In repealing chapter 19.90 RCW, it is the intent of the legislature that chapter 19.86 RCW should continue to provide appropriate remedies for predatory pricing and other pricing practices which constitute violations of federal antitrust law." [1983 c 288 § 1.] "This act" consists of the 1983 c 288 amendments to RCW 19.86.090, 19.86.140, 19.86.920, and 15.66.010; the enactment of RCW 19.86-.095; and the repeal of chapter 19.90 RCW.

19.86.095 Request for injunctive relief—Appellate proceeding—Service on the attorney general. In any proceeding in which there is a request for injunctive relief under RCW 19.86.090, the attorney general shall be served with a copy of the initial pleading alleging a violation of this chapter. In any appellate proceeding in which an issue is presented concerning a provision of this chapter, the attorney general shall, within the time provided for filing the brief with the appellate court, be served with a copy of the brief of the party presenting such issue. [1983 c 288 § 5.]

Short title—Purposes—1983 c 288: See note following RCW 19.86.090.

19.86.100 Assurance of discontinuance of prohibited act—Approval of court—Not considered admission. In the enforcement of this chapter, the attorney general may accept an assurance of discontinuance of any act or practice deemed in violation of this chapter, from any person engaging in, or who has engaged in, such act or practice. Any such assurance shall be in writing and be filed with and subject to the approval of the superior court of the county in which the alleged violator resides or has his principal place of business, or in Thurston county.

Such assurance of discontinuance shall not be considered an admission of a violation for any purpose; however, proof of failure to comply with the assurance of discontinuance shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 3; 1961 c 216 § 10.]

19.86.110 Demand to produce documentary materials for inspection, answer written interrogatories, or give oral testimony—Contents—Service—Unauthorized disclosure—Return—Modification, vacation—Use—Penalty. (1) Whenever the attorney general believes that any person (a) may be in possession, custody, or control of any original or copy of any book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, or other tangible document or recording, wherever situate, which he believes to be relevant to the subject matter of an investigation, answer written interrogatories, or give oral testimony of a possible violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, or (b) may have knowledge of any information which the attorney general believes relevant to the subject matter of such an investigation, he may, prior to the institution of a civil proceeding thereon, execute in writing and cause to be served upon such a person, a civil investigative demand requiring such person to produce such documentary material and permit inspection and copying, to answer in writing written interrogatories, to give oral testimony, or any combination of such demands pertaining to such documentary material or information: Provided, That this section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(2) Each such demand shall:

(a) State the statute and section or sections thereof, the alleged violation of which is under investigation, and the general subject matter of the investigation;

(b) If the demand is for the production of documentary material, describe the class or classes of documentary material to be produced thereunder with reasonable specificity so as fairly to indicate the material demanded;

(c) Prescribe a return date within which the documentary material is to be produced, the answers to written interrogatories are to be made, or a date, time, and place at which oral testimony is to be taken; and

(d) Identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and copying, to whom answers to written interrogatories are to be made, or who are to conduct the examination for oral testimony.

(3) No such demand shall:

(a) Contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper if contained in a subpoena duces tecum, a request for answers to written interrogatories, or a request for deposition upon oral examination issued by a court of this state; or

(b) Require the disclosure of any documentary material which would be privileged, or which for any other reason would not be required by a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state.

(4) Service of any such demand may be made by:

(a) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be served, or, if such person is not a natural person, to any officer or managing agent of the person to be served; or

(b) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place of business in this state of the person to be served; or

(c) Mailing by registered or certified mail a duly executed copy thereof addressed to the person to be served at the principal place of business in this state, or, if said person has no place of business in this state, to his principal office or place of business.

(5)(a) Documentary material demanded pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal business hours at the principal office or place of business of the person served, or at such other times and places as may be agreed upon by the person served and the attorney general;

(b) Written interrogatories in a demand served under this section shall be answered in the same manner as provided in the civil rules for superior court;

(c) The oral testimony of any person obtained pursuant to a demand served under this section shall be taken in the same manner as provided in the civil rules for superior court for the taking of depositions. In the course of the deposition, the assistant attorney general conducting the examination may exclude from the place where the examination is held all persons other than the person being examined, the person's counsel, and the officer before whom the testimony is to be taken;

(d) Any person compelled to appear pursuant to a demand for oral testimony under this section may be accompanied by counsel;

(e) The oral testimony of any person obtained pursuant to a demand served under this section shall be taken in the county within which the person resides, is found, or transacts business, or in such other place as may be agreed upon between the person served and the attorney general.

(6) No documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or copies thereof, shall, unless otherwise ordered by a superior court for good cause shown, be produced for inspection or copying by, nor shall the contents thereof be disclosed to, other than an authorized employee of the attorney general, without the consent of the person who produced such material, answered written interrogatories, or gave oral testimony: Provided, That, under such reasonable terms and conditions as the attorney general shall prescribe, the copies of such documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony shall be available for inspection and copying by the person who produced such material, answered written interrogatories, or gave oral testimony, or any duly authorized representative of such person. The attorney general or any assistant attorney general may use such copies of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony as he determines necessary in the enforcement of this chapter, including presentation before any court: Provided, That any such material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony which contain trade secrets shall not be presented except with the approval of the court in which action is pending after adequate notice to the person furnishing such material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony.

(7) At any time before the return date specified in the demand, or within twenty days after the demand has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date for, or to modify or set aside a demand issued pursuant to subsection (1), stating good cause, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston county, or in such other county where the parties reside. A petition, by the person on whom the demand is served, stating good cause, to require the attorney general or any person to perform any duty imposed by the provisions of this section, and all other petitions in connection with a demand, may be filed in the superior court for

Thurston county, or in the county where the parties reside. The court shall have jurisdiction to impose such sanctions as are provided for in the civil rules for superior court with respect to discovery motions.

(8) Whenever any person fails to comply with any civil investigative demand for documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony duly served upon him under this section, or whenever satisfactory copying or reproduction of any such material cannot be done and such person refuses to surrender such material, the attorney general may file, in the trial court of general jurisdiction of the county in which such person resides, is found, or transacts business, and serve upon such person a petition for an order of such court for the enforcement of this section, except that if such person transacts business in more than one county such petition shall be filed in the county in which such person maintains his principal place of business, or in such other county as may be agreed upon by the parties to such petition. Whenever any petition is filed in the trial court of general jurisdiction of any county under this section, such court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter so presented and to enter such order or orders as may be required to carry into effect the provisions of this section, and may impose such sanctions as are provided for in the civil rules for superior court with respect to discovery motions. [1982 c 137 § 1; 1970 ex.s. c 26 § 4; 1961 c 216 § 11.]

Rules of court: See Rules for Superior Court.

19.86.120 Limitation of actions—Tolling. Any action to enforce a claim for damages under RCW 19.86-.090 shall be forever barred unless commenced within four years after the cause of action accrues: Provided, That whenever any action is brought by the attorney general for a violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060, except actions for the recovery of a civil penalty for violation of an injunction or actions under RCW 19.86.090, the running of the foregoing statute of limitations, with respect to every private right of action for damages under RCW 19.86-.090 which is based in whole or part on any matter complained of in said action by the attorney general, shall be suspended during the pendency thereof. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 5; 1961 c 216 § 12.]

Action to enforce claim for civil damages under chapter 19.86 RCW must be commenced within six years. Unfair motor vehicles business practices act: RCW 46.70.220.

Limitation of actions: Chapter 4.16 RCW.

19.86.130 Final judgment to restrain is prima facie evidence in civil action—Exceptions. A final judgment or decree rendered in any action brought under RCW 19.86.080 by the state of Washington to the effect that a defendant has violated RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 19.86.060 shall be prima facie evidence against such defendant in any action brought by any party against such defendant under RCW 19.86.090 as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel as between the parties thereto: Provided, That this section shall not apply to consent judgments or decrees where the court makes no finding of illegality. [1970 ex.s. c 26 § 6; 1961 c 216 § 13.]

19.86.140 Civil penalties. Every person who shall violate the terms of any injunction issued as in this chapter provided, shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

Every person, other than a corporation, who violates RCW 19.86.030 or 19.86.040 shall pay a civil penalty of not more than one hundred thousand dollars. Every corporation which violates RCW 19.86.030 or 19.86.040 shall pay a civil penalty of not more than five hundred thousand dollars.

Every person who violates RCW 19.86.020 shall forfeit and pay a civil penalty of not more than two thousand dollars for each violation: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall apply to any radio or television broadcasting station which broadcasts, or to any publisher, printer or distributor of any newspaper, magazine, billboard or other advertising medium who publishes, prints or distributes, advertising in good faith without knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

For the purpose of this section the superior court issuing any injunction shall retain jurisdiction, and the cause shall be continued, and in such cases the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for the recovery of civil penalties.

With respect to violations of RCW 19.86.030 and 19.86.040, the attorney general, acting in the name of the state, may seek recovery of such penalties in a civil action. [1983 c 288 § 2; 1970 ex.s. c 26 § 7; 1961 c 216 § 14.]

Short title—Purposes—1983 c 288: See note following RCW 19.86.090.

19.86.150 Dissolution, forfeiture of corporate franchise for violations. Upon petition by the attorney general, the court may, in its discretion, order the dissolution, or suspension or forfeiture of franchise, of any corporation which shall violate RCW 19.86.030 or 19.86.040 or the terms of any injunction issued as in this chapter provided. [1961 c 216 § 15.]

19.86.160 Personal service of process outside state. Personal service of any process in an action under this chapter may be made upon any person outside the state if such person has engaged in conduct in violation of this chapter which has had the impact in this state which this chapter reprehends. Such persons shall be deemed to have thereby submitted themselves to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state within the meaning of RCW 4.28.180 and 4.28.185. [1961 c 216 § 16.]

19.86.170 Exempted actions or transactions—Stipulated penalties and remedies are exclusive. Nothing in this chapter shall apply to actions or transactions otherwise permitted, prohibited or regulated under laws administered by the insurance commissioner of this state, the Washington utilities and transportation commission, the federal power commission or actions or transactions permitted by any other regulatory body or officer acting under statutory authority of this state or the United States: Provided, however, That actions and transactions prohibited or regulated under the laws administered by the insurance commissioner shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 19.86.020 and all sections of chapter 216, Laws of 1961 and chapter 19.86 RCW which provide for the implementation and enforcement of RCW 19.86.020 except that nothing required or permitted to be done pursuant to Title 48 RCW shall be construed to be a violation of RCW 19.86.020: Provided, further, That actions or transactions specifically permitted within the statutory authority granted to any regulatory board or commission established within Title 18 RCW shall not be construed to be a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW: Provided, further, That this chapter shall apply to actions and transactions in connection with the disposition of human remains.

RCW 9A.20.010(2) shall not be applicable to the terms of this chapter and no penalty or remedy shall result from a violation of this chapter except as expressly provided herein. [1977 c 49 § 1; 1974 ex.s. c 158 § 1; 1967 c 147 § 1; 1961 c 216 § 17.]

Radio communications: RCW 80.04.530.

Telecommunications: RCW 80.36.360.

19.86.900 Severability—1961 c 216. If any provision of this act is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of the act and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby. [1961 c 216 § 18.]

19.86.910 Short title. This act shall be known and designated as the "Consumer Protection Act." [1961 c 216 § 19.]

19.86.920 Purpose—Interpretation—Liberal construction—Saving—1985 c 401; 1983 c 288; 1983 c 3; 1961 c 216. The legislature hereby declares that the purpose of this act is to complement the body of federal law governing restraints of trade, unfair competition and unfair, deceptive, and fraudulent acts or practices in order to protect the public and foster fair and honest competition. It is the intent of the legislature that, in construing this act, the courts be guided by final decisions of the federal courts and final orders of the federal trade commission interpreting the various federal statutes dealing with the same or similar matters and that in deciding whether conduct restrains or monopolizes trade or commerce or may substantially lessen competition, determination of the relevant market or effective area of competition shall not be limited by the boundaries of the state of Washington. To this end this act shall be liberally construed that its beneficial purposes may be served.

It is, however, the intent of the legislature that this act shall not be construed to prohibit acts or practices which are reasonable in relation to the development and preservation of business or which are not injurious to the public interest, nor be construed to authorize those acts or practices which unreasonably restrain trade or are unreasonable per se. [1985 c 401 § 1; 1983 c 288 § 4; 1983 c 3 § 25; 1961 c 216 § 20.]

Reviser's note: "This act" originally appears in 1961 c 216.

Short title—Purposes—1983 c 288: See note following RCW 19.86.090.

19.91.010 Definitions. When used in this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Person" means and includes any individual, firm, association, company, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, club, agency, syndicate, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of this state, trust, receiver, trustee, fiduciary and conservator.

(2) "Wholesaler" includes any person who:

(a) Purchases cigarettes directly from the manufacturer, or

(b) Purchases cigarettes from any other person who purchases from or through the manufacturer, for the purpose of bona fide resale to retail dealers or to other persons for the purpose of resale only, or

(c) Services retail outlets by the maintenance of an established place of business for the purchase of cigarettes, including, but not limited to, the maintenance of warehousing facilities for the storage and distribution of cigarettes.

Nothing contained herein shall prevent a person from qualifying in different capacities as both a "wholesaler" and "retailer" under the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(3) "Retailer" means and includes any person who operates a store, stand, booth, concession, or vending machine for the purpose of making sales of cigarettes at retail.

(4) "Cigarettes" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated, or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.

(5) "Sale" means any transfer for a consideration, exchange, barter, gift, offer for sale and distribution, in any manner, or by any means whatsoever.

(6) "Sell at wholesale", "sale at wholesale" and "wholesale" sales mean and include any bona fide transfer of title to cigarettes for a valuable consideration, made in the ordinary course of trade or in the usual conduct of the wholesaler's business, to a retailer for the purpose of resale.

(7) "Sell at retail", "sale at retail" and "retail sales" mean and include any transfer of title to cigarettes for a valuable consideration, made in the ordinary course of trade or usual conduct of the seller's business, to the purchaser for consumption or use.

(8) "Basic cost of cigarettes" means the invoice cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, as the case may be, or the replacement cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, as the case may be, in the quantity last purchased, whichever is lower, to which shall be added the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state and by ordinance of any municipality thereof, now in effect or hereafter enacted, if not already included by the manufacturer in his list price. The disposition of the manufacturer's cash discount is at the discretion of the wholesaler. Any retailer or wholesaler who actually receives and sells cigarettes with trade or cash discounts shall execute a sworn affidavit and obtain a sworn affidavit from the person granting the discount, whether a manufacturer or wholesaler, which shows: (a) Amount or rate of the discount, (b) date the discount was granted, (c) names of the persons granting and receiving the discount, and (d) whether the discount is for cash or trade purposes. Sworn affidavits under this section are maintained for five years and available for inspection by the department of revenue's request. The department of revenue may impose a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars for each failure to maintain affidavits under this section.

Nothing in this section may be construed to require any retailer to obtain affidavits from retail purchasers of cigarettes.

(9) (a) The term "cost to the wholesaler" means the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler plus the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" which said cost of doing business amount shall be expressed percentage-wise in the ratio that said wholesalers "cost of doing business" bears to said wholesalers dollar volume for all products sold by the wholesaler per annum, and said "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" shall be evidenced and determined by the standards and methods of accounting regularly employed by him for the purpose of federal income tax reporting for the total operation of his establishment in his allocation of overhead costs and expenses, paid or incurred, and must include, without limitation, labor costs (including reasonable salaries for partners, executives, and officers), rent, depreciation, selling cost, maintenance of equipment, delivery costs, all types of licenses, taxes, insurance and advertising, expressed as a percentage and applied to the "basic cost of cigarettes". Any fractional part of a cent amounting to one-tenth of one cent or more in cost to the wholesaler per carton of ten packages of cigarettes shall be rounded off to the next higher cent.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter the "cost of doing business" may not be computed using a percentage less than the overall percentage shown in subsection (9)(a) of this section or in the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business by the wholesaler making the sale, the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" shall be presumed to be four percent of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler, plus cartage to the retail outlet, if performed or paid for by the wholesaler, which cartage cost, in the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost, shall be deemed to be one-half of one percent of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler.

(10) (a) The term "cost to the retailer" means the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the retailer plus the "cost of doing business by the retailer" which said cost of doing business amount shall be expressed percentage-wise in the ratio that said retailers "cost of doing business" bears to said retailers dollar volume per annum, and said "cost of doing business by the retailer" shall be evidenced and determined by the standards and methods of accounting regularly employed by him for the purpose of federal income tax reporting for the total operation of his establishment in his allocation of overhead costs and expenses, paid or incurred, and must include, without limitation, labor (including reasonable salaries for partners, executives, and officers), rent, depreciation, selling costs, maintenance of equipment, delivery costs, all types of licenses, taxes, insurance and advertising, expressed as a percentage and applied to the "basic cost of cigarettes": Provided, That any retailer who, in connection with the retailer's purchase, receives not only the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer but also, in whole or in part, discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler shall, in determining "cost to the retailer", pursuant to this subdivision, add the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler," as defined in subdivision (9) of this section, to the "basic cost of cigarettes" to said retailer, as well as the "cost of doing business by the retailer". Any fractional part of a cent amounting to one-tenth of one cent or more in cost to the retailer per carton of ten packages of cigarettes shall be rounded off to the next higher cent.

(b) In the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business by the retailer making the sale, the "cost of doing business by the retailer" shall be presumed to be twelve and five-tenths percent of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the retailer.

(c) In the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business, the "cost of doing business by the retailer", who, in connection with the retailer's purchase, receives not only the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer but also, in whole or in part, the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler, shall be presumed to be twelve and five-tenths percent of the sum of the "basic cost of cigarettes" and the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler".

(11) "Business day" means any day other than a Sunday or a legal holiday.

(12) "Master license system" means the mechanism established by chapter 19.02 RCW by which master licenses, endorsed for individual state-issued licenses, are issued and renewed utilizing a master application and a master license expiration date common to each renewable license endorsement. [1984 c 173 § 1; 1983 c 2 § 3. Prior: 1982 1st ex.s. c 16 § 1; 1982 c 182 § 34; 1979 c 107 § 1; 1967 ex.s. c 26 § 20; 1957 c 286 § 1.]

19.91.020 Unlawful practices—Penalty. It shall be unlawful and a violation of this chapter:

(1) For any retailer or wholesaler with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition:

(a) To advertise, offer to sell, or sell, at retail or wholesale, cigarettes at less than cost to such a retailer or wholesaler, as said cost is defined in this chapter, as the case may be;

(b) To offer a rebate in price, to give a rebate in price, to offer a concession of any kind, or to give a concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the sale of cigarettes.

(2) For any retailer with intent to injure competitors or destroy or substantially lessen competition:

(a) To induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure the purchase of cigarettes at a price less than "cost to wholesalers" as defined in this chapter;

(b) To induce or attempt to induce or to procure or attempt to procure any rebate or concession of any kind or nature whatsoever in connection with the purchase of cigarettes.

(3) Any retailer or wholesaler who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be prosecuted and punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars for each such offense. Any individual who as a director, officer, partner, member, or agent of any person violating the provisions of this act assists or aids, directly or indirectly in such violation, shall equally with the person for whom he acts, be responsible therefor and subject to the punishment and penalties set forth herein.

(4) Evidence of advertisement, offering to sell, or sale of cigarettes by any retailer or wholesaler at less than cost to him, or evidence of any offer of a rebate in price, or the giving of a rebate in price or an offer of a concession, or the inducing, or attempt to induce, or the procuring, or the attempt to procure the purchase of cigarettes at a price less than cost to the wholesaler or the retailer, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to injure competitors and to destroy or substantially lessen competition. [1957 c 286 § 2.]

19.91.030 Sales between wholesalers. When one wholesaler sells cigarettes to any other wholesaler, the former shall not be required to include in his selling price to the latter, "cost to the wholesaler", as provided by RCW 19.91.010(10), except that no such sale shall be made at a price less than the "basic cost of cigarettes" as defined in RCW 19.91.010(9), but the latter wholesaler, upon resale to a retailer, shall be deemed to be the wholesaler governed by the provisions of RCW 19.91.010(10). [1957 c 286 § 3.]

19.91.040 Transactions involving combinations of items, gifts, trading stamps, discounts, etc. (1) In all advertisements, offers for sale or sales involving two or more items, at least one of which items is cigarettes, at a combined price, and in all advertisements, offers for sale, or sales, involving the giving of any gift or concession of any kind whatsoever (whether it be coupons or otherwise), the retailer's or wholesaler's combined selling price shall not be below the "cost to the retailer" or the "cost to the wholesaler", respectively, of the total costs of all articles, products, commodities, gifts and concessions included in such transactions.

(2) In all advertisements, offers for sale, or sales wherein there is accepted as part of the purchase price any coupon, discount slip, trading stamp, or similar device, the net purchase price after deducting the value of said coupon, discount slip, or trading stamp, shall be not less than the retailers, or the wholesalers, as the case may be, as defined by this chapter, as being "cost of the retailer", or "cost of the wholesaler", respectively. [1957 c 286 § 4.]

19.91.050 Transactions to which chapter does not apply. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to sales at retail or sales at wholesale made:

(1) As an isolated transaction and not in the usual course of business;

(2) Where cigarettes are advertised, offered for sale, or sold in bona fide clearance sales for the purpose of discontinuing trade in such cigarettes and said advertising, offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes advertised, offered for sale, or to be sold;

(3) Where cigarettes are advertised, offered for sale, or sold as imperfect or damaged, and said advertising, offer to sell, or sale shall state the reason therefor and the quantity of such cigarettes advertised, offered for sale, or to be sold;

(4) Where cigarettes are sold upon the final liquidation of a business; or

(5) Where cigarettes are advertised, offered for sale, or sold by any fiduciary or other officer acting under the order or direction of any court. [1957 c 286 § 5.]

19.91.060 Permissible advertisements, offers, sales—Action other than injunctive relief, judgment.

(1) Any retailer may advertise, offer to sell, or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the legal price, as defined in this chapter, of a competitor who is selling the same article at cost to him as a retailer as prescribed in this chapter. Any wholesaler may advertise, offer to sell, or sell cigarettes at a price made in good faith to meet the legal price, as defined in this chapter, of a competitor who is rendering the same type of service and is selling the same article at cost to him as a wholesaler as prescribed in this chapter. The price of cigarettes advertised, offered for sale, or sold under the exceptions specified in RCW 19.91.050 shall not be considered the price of a competitor and shall not be used as a basis for establishing prices below cost, nor shall the price established at a bankrupt sale be considered the price of a competitor within the purview of this section.

(2) In the absence of proof of the "price of a competitor", under this section, the "lowest cost to the retailer", or the "lowest cost to the wholesaler", as the case may be, determined by any "cost survey", made pursuant to RCW 19.91.100, may be deemed the "legal price of a competitor", within the meaning of this section. If the plaintiff elect not to seek injunctive relief, but does prove actual damages, plaintiff shall be entitled to the entry of a judgment in plaintiff's favor in the amount of said damages proven, together with his costs of suit and a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court. [1957 c 286 § 6.]

19.91.070 Contract in violation of chapter declared void. Any contract, expressed or implied, made by any person in violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, is declared to be an illegal and void contract and no recovery thereon shall be had. [1957 c 286 § 7.]

19.91.080 Determining "cost to the retailer" and "cost to the wholesaler" when person complained against.

(1) In determining "cost to the retailer" and "cost to the wholesaler" the department of revenue or a court shall receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of the cost, evidence tending to show that any person complained against under any of the provisions of this chapter purchased cigarettes, with respect to the sale of which complaint is made, at a fictitious price, or upon terms, or in such a manner, or under such invoices, as to conceal the true cost, discounts or terms of purchase, and shall also receive and consider as bearing on the bona fides of such cost, evidence of the normal, customary and prevailing terms and discounts in connection with other sales of a similar nature in the trade area or state.

(2) Merchandise given gratis or payment made to a retailer or wholesaler by the manufacturer thereof for display, or advertising, or promotion purposes, or otherwise, shall not be considered in determining the cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler. [1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 13; 1957 c 286 § 8.]

19.91.090 Cost to retailer or wholesaler—Purchases outside of ordinary channels of trade. In establishing the cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, the invoice cost of said cigarettes purchased at a forced, bankrupt, or close-out sale, or other sale outside of the ordinary channels of trade, may not be used as a basis for justifying a price lower than one based upon the replacement cost of the cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler in the quantity last purchased, through the ordinary channels of trade. [1957 c 286 § 9.]

19.91.100 Cost survey is competent evidence. Where a cost survey, pursuant to recognized statistical and cost accounting practices, has been made for the trading area in which the offense is committed, to establish the lowest "cost to the retailer" and the lowest "cost to the wholesaler", said cost survey shall be deemed competent evidence to be used in proving the cost to the person complained against within the provisions of this chapter. [1957 c 286 § 10.]

19.91.110 Civil action for violations—Costs, attorney fees. (1) In addition to penalties provided by RCW 19.91.020, any person injured by any violation of this chapter, may maintain an action in any court of equitable jurisdiction to prevent, restrain or enjoin such violation. If in such action a violation of this chapter shall be established, the court shall enjoin and restrain or otherwise prohibit such violation and in addition thereto shall assess in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant the costs of the suit and reasonable attorneys' fees. In such action it shall not be necessary that actual damages to the plaintiff be alleged or proved, but where alleged and proved the plaintiff in said action, in addition to such injunctive relief and fees and costs of suit, shall be entitled to recover from the defendant the amount of actual damages sustained by the plaintiff. [1957 c 286 § 11.]

19.91.120 Unlawful to conduct business without license. After June 12, 1957, no person shall engage in, or conduct the business of purchasing, selling, consigning, or distributing cigarettes in this state, without having first obtained the appropriate license for that purpose as prescribed in RCW 19.91.130. [1957 c 286 § 12.]

19.91.130 Wholesalers, retailers licenses—Issuance—Duration. The licenses issuable under this chapter shall be as follows:

- (1) Wholesalers license.
- (2) Retailers license.

Application for the licenses shall be made through the master license system. The department of revenue shall make rules regarding the regulation of the licenses. The department of revenue may refrain from the issuance of any license under this chapter, where it has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has wilfully withheld information requested of him for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the applicant to receive a license, or where it has reasonable cause to believe that information submitted in the application is false or misleading or is not made in good faith. Each such license shall expire on the master license expiration date, and each such license shall be continued annually upon the conditions that the licensee shall have paid the required fee and complied with all the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the department of revenue made pursuant thereto. [1982 c 182 § 35; 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 14; 1957 c 286 § 13.]

Severability—1982 c 182: See RCW 19.02.901.

to include additional licenses: RCW 19.02.110.

19.91.140 Wholesaler license fee—Separate license for each place of business—Display of license—Wholesaler's bond. A fee of six hundred fifty dollars shall accompany each wholesaler's license application or license renewal application. If a wholesaler sells or intends to sell cigarettes at two or more places of business, whether established or temporary, a separate license with a license fee of one hundred fifteen dollars shall be required for each additional place of business. Each license, or certificate thereof, and such other evidence of license as the department of revenue shall require, shall be exhibited in the place of business for which it is issued and in such manner as is prescribed for the display of a master license. The department of revenue shall require each licensed wholesaler to file with him a bond in an amount not less than one thousand dollars to guarantee the proper performance of his duties and the discharge of his liabilities under this chapter. The bond shall be executed by such licensed wholesaler as principal, and by a corporation approved by the department of revenue and authorized to engage in business as a surety company in this state, as surety. The bond shall run concurrently with the wholesaler's license. [1983 c 2 § 4. Prior: 1982 1st ex.s. c 16 § 2; 1982 c 182 § 36; 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 15; 1957 c 286 § 14.]

Master license system—Existing licenses or permits registered under, when: RCW 19.02.810.

19.91.160 Separate licenses to operate in each capacity required. Any person licensed only as a wholesaler, or as a retail dealer, shall not operate in any other capacity except under that for which he is licensed herein, unless the additional appropriate license or licenses are first secured. [1957 c 286 § 16.]

19.91.170 Engaging in business without license prohibited—Penalty. Any person who shall engage in any business or activity for which a license is required under the provisions of this chapter, without first having obtained a license to do so, or who, having had such a license, shall continue to engage in or conduct such business after any such license shall have been revoked, or during a suspension thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [1957 c 286 § 17.]

19.91.180 Enforcement and administration of chapter—Rules—Revocation, suspension, reinstatement of license, procedure—Appeals. (1) In addition to the penalties and rights imposed and set forth in RCW 19.91.020 and 19.91.110, the department of revenue may enforce the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue shall have the power to adopt, amend and repeal rules and regulations necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue is given full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state of Washington upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee or permittee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) No license or licenses shall be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by said department of revenue. The said department of revenue, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the said licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend said license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the said department of revenue finds the offender has been guilty of wilful and persistent violations, it may revoke said person's license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department of revenue at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of his license or licenses. Such license or licenses may be reinstated by the department of revenue if it shall appear to the satisfaction of said department of revenue that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

(4) No person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by him or upon other premises controlled by him or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department of revenue, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department of revenue of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county in and for the state of Washington. Said superior court shall review the order or ruling of the department of revenue and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter, and the duties imposed upon the department of revenue. Said review by the superior court, and any order entered thereon by said superior court, shall be appealable under and by virtue of the procedural law of this state. [1982 1st ex.s. c 16 § 4; 1975 1st ex.s. c 278 § 17; 1957 c 286 § 18.]

19.91.190 Fees, penalties paid into general fund. All fees and penalties received or collected by the department of revenue pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund. [1979 c 107 § 2; 1959 c 172 § 1; 1957 c 286 § 19.]

Effective date—1959 c 172: "The effective date of this act is July 1, 1959." [1959 c 172 § 4.]

Cigarette fee account—Moneys transferred to general fund: "On July 1, 1959, the tax commission shall transfer to the state general fund any unexpended balance remaining in the cigarette fee account." [1959 c 172 § 2.]

Cigarette fee account—Warrants to be paid from general fund: "From and after July 1, 1959, all warrants drawn upon the cigarette fee account and not heretofore presented for payment shall be paid from the general fund." [1959 c 172 § 3.]

19.91.900 Severability—1957 c 286. The provisions of this chapter shall be severable and if any of its sections, provisions, exceptions, sentences, clauses, phrases, or parts be held unconstitutional or void, the remainder of this chapter shall continue in full force and effect. [1957 c 286 § 20.]

19.91.910 Short title. This chapter may be known and cited as the unfair cigarette sales below cost act. [1982 1st ex.s. c 16 § 5; 1957 c 286 § 21.]

19.91.911 Expiration of chapter—Performance audit. (1) This chapter shall expire on June 30, 1986, unless extended by law indefinitely or for an additional fixed period of time. The legislative budget committee shall cause a performance audit to be conducted of this chapter. The final audit report shall be available to the legislature at least six months prior to the scheduled expiration date. The legislative budget committee shall make objective findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations as to the continuation, modification, or expiration of this chapter.

(2) In conducting its audit, the legislative budget committee shall consider, but not be limited to, the following areas:

(a) Definition, adequacy, and methods of determining cigarette pricing;

(b) The advantages, disadvantages, and effects of including cash discounts in the act's pricing formula; and

(c) The effect that state deregulation of cigarette pricing would have on wholesalers, retailers, and consumers.

(3) The legislative budget committee shall hold meetings and hearings at the times and places it designates to accomplish the purposes of this section. It shall make use of existing legislative facilities and the staff of the senate and house of representatives. [1984 c 173 § 2.]

Weighing commodities transported for sale: Chapter 15.80 RCW.

19.92.100 Bread—Standard loaves. No person shall manufacture for sale, sell or offer or expose for sale, any bread except in the following weights, which shall be the net weights twelve hours after baking: "standard small loaf", which shall weigh not less than fifteen ounces and not more than seventeen ounces; "standard large loaf", which shall weigh not less than twenty-two and one-half ounces and not more than twenty-five and one-half ounces; "standard partial loaf", which shall weigh not less than eight ounces and not more than twelve ounces; or multiples of the foregoing weights for the "standard small loaf" and "standard large loaf": Provided, That variations at the rate of one ounce over and one ounce under the foregoing, per "standard small loaf", or one and one-half ounce over or under per "standard large loaf", or any multiple of the foregoing variations per each multiple type loaf, in the above specified unit weights are permitted in individual loaves, but the average weight of not less than twelve loaves of any one kind of loaf shall not be less than the weight hereinabove prescribed. It shall be unlawful to sell or expose for sale bread in a loaf of such form that it has the appearance and size of a loaf of greater weight. [1983 c 89 § 1; 1955 c 61 § 1; 1937 c 214 § 1; 1927 c 194 § 10; RRS § 11626.]

19.92.110 Bread—Open top or "hearth" loaves—Exceptions. "Open top" or "hearth" means bread baked in pans or forms the top or top and sides of which are not enclosed.

"Open top" or "hearth bread" shall be baked in pans or forms the length and width of which shall not exceed the following:

"Standard small loaf", length, nine inches, width, four and one-half inches;

"Standard large loaf", length, twelve and one-quarter inches, width, four and one-half inches.

This section does not apply to standard partial loaves of bread or odd-shaped, ethnic, or specialty loaves of bread. [1983 c 89 § 2; 1955 c 61 § 3. Prior: (i) 1937 c 214 § 2, part; RRS § 11626-1, part. (ii) 1937 c 214 § 3; RRS § 11626-2.]

19.92.120 Bread—"Pullman" loaves. "Pullman bread" means bread baked in pans all six sides of which are enclosed.

"Pullman bread" shall be baked in pans the length and cubic content of which shall not exceed the following:

"Standard small Pullman loaf", length, nine inches; cubic content, one hundred forty-four cubic inches;

"Standard large Pullman loaf", length, thirteen inches; cubic content, two hundred and eight cubic inches;

"Standard large multiple Pullman loaf 'a'", length, sixteen inches; cubic content, two hundred fifty-six cubic inches;

"Standard large multiple Pullman loaf 'b'", length, twenty inches; cubic content, four hundred five cubic inches. [1955 c 61 § 4. Prior: (i) 1937 c 214 § 2, part; RRS § 11626-1, part. (ii) 1937 c 214 § 4; RRS § 11626-3.]

19.92.240 Hops—Bale—Tare. The amount of tare to be deducted from the gross weight of each bale of hops grown and hereafter sold in this state is hereby fixed at five pounds per bale. Five yards of baling cloth is the maximum quantity to be used in making the bale, and the standard weight of each yard of baling cloth is hereby fixed at from twenty-four to thirty ounces. The standard weight for a bale of hops is hereby fixed at from one hundred and seventy-five to two hundred and ten pounds. Any vendor of hops using heavier sacking than that specified in this section, or using any extraneous matter in the baling thereof, shall have the same deducted as additional tare. [1890 p 522 § 1. No RRS.]

19.94.010 Application of terms. Terms used in this chapter shall have the meaning given to them in RCW 19.94.020 through 19.94.130 unless where used the context shall clearly indicate to the contrary. [1969 c 67 § 1.]

19.94.020 "Department". "Department" means the department of agriculture of the state of Washington. [1969 c 67 § 2.]

19.94.030 "Director". "Director" means the director of the department or his duly appointed representative. [1969 c 67 § 3.]

19.94.040 "Person". "Person" means a natural person, individual, firm, partnership, corporation, company, society, and association, and every officer, agent or employee thereof. [1969 c 67 § 4.]

19.94.050 "Weights and measures". "Weights and measures" means weights and measures of every kind, instruments and devices for weighing and measuring, and every appliance and accessory associated with any or all such instruments and devices. [1969 c 67 § 5.]

19.94.060 "City". "City" means a city of the first class with a population of over fifty thousand persons. [1969 c 67 § 6.]

19.94.070 "Cord". "Cord" means the measurement of wood intended for fuel or pulp purposes that is contained in a space of one hundred and twenty-eight cubic feet, when the wood is ranked and well stowed. [1969 c 67 § 7.]

19.94.080 "City sealer". "City sealer" means the sealer of weights and measures of a city. [1969 c 67 § 8.]

19.94.090 "Ton". "Ton" means a unit of two thousand pounds avoirdupois weight. [1969 c 67 § 9.]

19.94.100 "Commodity in package form". The term "commodity in package form" shall be construed to mean a commodity put up or packaged in any manner in advance of sale in units suitable for either wholesale or retail sale, exclusive, however, of an auxiliary shipping container enclosing packages that individually conform to the requirements of this chapter. An individual item or lot of any commodity not in package form as defined in this section, but on which there is marked a selling price based on an established price per unit of weight or of measure, shall be construed to be a commodity in package form. [1969 c 67 § 10.]

19.94.110 "Meat". "Meat" shall mean and include all animal flesh, carcasses or parts of animals, and shall include fish, shell fish, game, poultry and meat food products of every kind and character, whether fresh, frozen, cooked, cured or processed. [1969 c 67 § 11.]

19.94.120 "Poultry". "Poultry" shall mean all fowl, domestic or wild, which is prepared, processed, sold or intended or offered for sale. [1969 c 67 § 12.]

19.94.130 "Fish". "Fish" shall mean any water-breathing animal, including shellfish such as, but not limited to, lobster, clam, crab or other mollusca which is prepared, processed, sold, or intended or offered for sale. [1969 c 67 § 13.]

19.94.140 Definitions applicable to rules or regulations. In any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) A "nonconsumer package" or "package of non-consumer commodity" shall be construed to mean any commodity in package form other than a consumer package, and particularly a package designed solely for industrial or institutional use or for wholesale distribution only.

(2) A "consumer package" or "package of consumer commodity" shall be construed to mean a commodity in package form that is customarily produced or distributed for sale through retail sales agencies or instrumentalities for consumption by individuals, or use by individuals for the purposes of personal care or in the performance of services ordinarily rendered in or about the household or in connection with personal possessions. [1969 c 67 § 14.]

19.94.150 Standards recognized. The system of weights and measures in customary use in the United States and the metric system of weights and measures are jointly recognized, and either one or both of these systems shall be used for all commercial purposes in this state. The definitions of basic units of weight and measure and weights and measures equivalents, as published by the national bureau of standards, are recognized and shall govern weighing and measuring equipment and transactions in the state. [1969 c 67 § 15.]

19.94.160 State standards. Weights and measures in conformity with the standards of the United States as have been supplied to the state by the federal government or otherwise obtained by the state for use as state standards, shall, when the same shall have been certified as such by the national bureau of standards, be the state standards of weight and measure. The state standards shall be kept in a place designated by the director and shall not be removed from the said place except for repairs or for certification: Provided, That they shall be submitted at least once in ten years to the national bureau of standards for certification. [1969 c 67 § 16.]

19.94.170 Field standards. In addition to the state standards provided for in RCW 19.94.160, there shall be supplied by the state such "field standards" and such equipment as may be found necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The field standards shall be verified upon their initial receipt and at least once each year thereafter, by comparison with the state standards. [1969 c 67 § 17.]

19.94.180 State sealer—Custody of standards—Supervision over city sealers and weights and measures. The director shall be the state sealer of weights and measures, which shall include all towns and all cities with a population of less than fifty thousand persons, and he shall have the custody of the state standards of weights and measures and of the other standards and equipment provided for in this chapter. The director shall have general supervision over city sealers of weights and measures and over the weights and measures offered for sale, sold, or in use in the state. [1969 c 67 § 18.]

19.94.190 Rules and regulations—Correct and incorrect apparatus. The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter and shall issue from time to time reasonable rules and regulations for enforcing and carrying out the purposes of this chapter. Such rules and regulations shall have the effect of law and may include (1) standards of net weight, measure, or count, and reasonable standards of fill for any commodity in package form, (2) rules governing the technical and reporting procedures to be followed, and the report and record forms and marks of rejection to be used by the director and city sealers in the discharge of their official duties, (3) rules governing technical test procedures, reporting procedures, record and reporting forms to be used by commercial firms when installing, repairing or testing commercial weights or measures, (4) rules providing that all weights and measures used by commercial firms in repairing or servicing commercial weighing and measuring devices shall be calibrated by the department and be directly traceable to state standards and shall be submitted to the department for calibration and certification as necessary and/or at such reasonable intervals as may be established or required by the director, (5) exemptions from the sealing or marking requirements of RCW 19.94.250 with respect to weights and measures of such character or size that such sealing or marking would be inappropriate, impracticable, or damaging to the apparatus in question, (6) exemptions from the requirements of RCW 19.94.200 and 19.94.210 for testing, with respect to classes of weights and measures found to be of such character that periodic retesting is unnecessary to continued accuracy. These regulations shall include specifications, tolerances, and regulations for weights and measures of the character of those specified in RCW 19.94.210, designed to eliminate from use, without prejudice to apparatus that conforms as closely as practicable to the official standards, those (a) that are not accurate, (b) that are of such construction that they are faulty, that is, that are not reasonably permanent in their adjustment or will not repeat their indications correctly, or (c) that facilitate the perpetration of fraud. The specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and measuring devices, together with amendments thereto, as recommended by the national bureau of standards Handbook 44, third edition as published at the time of the enactment of this chapter shall be the specifications, tolerances, and regulations for commercial weighing and/or measuring devices of the state. To promote uniformity, any supplements or amendments to Handbook 44 or any similar subsequent publication of the national bureau of standards shall be deemed to have been adopted under this section. The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication or effective date of Handbook 44 or any supplements, amendments, or similar publications give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such publications should not be applicable under this section. The hearing shall be conducted under chapter 34.04 RCW. For the purpose of this chapter, apparatus shall be deemed to be "correct" when it conforms to all applicable requirements promulgated as specified in this section; all other apparatus shall be deemed to be "incorrect". [1977 ex.s. c 26 § 5; 1969 c 67 § 19.]

19.94.200 Testing, inspecting, approving standards, weights and measures of cities and institutions. The director shall test the standards of weight and measure procured by any city for which the appointment of a sealer of weights and measures is provided by this chapter, at least once every five years, and shall approve the same when found to be correct, and he shall inspect such standards at least once every two years. He shall test all weights and measures used in checking the receipt or disbursement of supplies in every institution for the maintenance of which moneys are appropriated by the legislature, and he shall report his findings, in writing, to the executive officer of the institution concerned. [1969 c 67 § 20.]

19.94.210 Inspection and testing of weights and measures—Single-service devices, sample lots. If not otherwise provided by law, the director shall have the power to inspect and test to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures kept, offered, or exposed for sale. A representative sample may be used as the basis to determine whether any lot is incorrect. It shall be the duty of the director, except in cities for which city sealers of weights and measures have been appointed as provided for in this chapter, as often as he may deem necessary, to inspect and test to ascertain if they are correct, all weights and measures commercially used (1) in determining the weight, measurement, or count of commodities or things sold, or offered or exposed for sale, on the basis of weight or of measure or of count, (2) in computing the basic charge or payment for services rendered on the basis of weight or of measure or of count, or (3) in determining weight or measurement or count when a charge is made for such determination: Provided, That with respect to single-service devices, that is, devices designed to be used commercially only once and to be then discarded, and with respect to devices uniformly mass-produced, as by means of a mold or die, and not susceptible of individual adjustment, the inspection and testing of each individual device shall not be required and the inspecting and testing requirements of this section will be satisfied when inspections and tests are made on representative sample lots of such devices; and the larger lot of which such sample lots are representative shall be held to be correct or incorrect upon the basis of the results of the inspections and tests on such sample lots. [1969 c 67 § 21.]

19.94.220 Investigations, purposes. The director shall investigate complaints made to him concerning violations of the provisions of this chapter, and shall, upon his own initiative, conduct such investigations as he deems appropriate and advisable to develop information on prevailing procedures in commercial quantity determination and on possible violations of the provisions of this chapter and to promote the general objective of accuracy in the determination and representation of quantity in commercial transactions. [1969 c 67 § 22.]

19.94.230 Inspections to determine conformity to law—Off sale order—Marks, tags, etc. The director shall, from time to time, weigh or measure and inspect packages or amounts of commodities kept, offered, exposed for sale, sold or in the process of delivery to determine whether the same contain the amounts represented and whether they be kept, offered, exposed for sale or sold in accordance with law; and when such packages or amounts of commodities are found not to contain the amounts represented or are found to be kept, offered or exposed for sale in violation of law, the director may order them off sale and may mark, tag, or stamp them in a manner prescribed by him. In carrying out the provisions of this section, the director may employ recognized sampling procedures under which the compliance of a given lot of packages will be determined on the basis of a result obtained on a sample selected from and representative of such lot. No person shall (1) sell, keep, offer or expose for sale any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale as provided in this section unless and until such package or amount of commodity has been brought into full compliance with legal requirements or (2) dispose of any package or amount of commodity that has been ordered off sale and that has not been brought into compliance with legal requirements in any manner except with the specific approval of the director. [1969 c 67 § 23.]

19.94.240 Stop-use, stop-removal and removal orders. The director shall have the power to issue stop-use orders, stop-removal orders and removal orders with respect to weights and measures being, or susceptible of being, commercially used, and to issue stop-removal orders and removal orders with respect to packages or amounts of commodities kept, offered, exposed for sale, sold or in process of delivery, whenever in the course of his enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and/or rules and regulations adopted hereunder he deems it necessary or expedient to issue such orders. No person shall use, remove from the premises specified or fail to remove from any premises specified any weight, measure, or package or amount of commodity contrary to the terms of a stop-use order, stop-removal order or removal order issued under the authority of this section. [1969 c 67 § 24.]

19.94.250 Rejection of incorrect weights and measures. The director shall reject and mark or tag as "rejected" such weights and measures as he finds upon inspection or test to be "incorrect" as defined in RCW 19.94.190, but which in his best judgment are susceptible of satisfactory repair: Provided, That such sealing or marking shall not be required with respect to such weights and measures as may be exempted therefrom by a regulation of the director issued under the authority of RCW 19.94.190. The director may reject or seize any weights and measures found to be incorrect that, in his best judgment, are not susceptible of satisfactory repair. Weights and measures that have been rejected may be confiscated and may be destroyed by the director if not corrected as required by RCW 19.94.330 or if used or disposed of contrary to the requirements of said section. [1969 c 67 § 25.]

19.94.260 Arrest of violators—Entry of premises—Search warrant. (1) With respect to the enforcement of this chapter and any other acts dealing with weights and measures that he is, or may be empowered to enforce, the director is authorized to arrest any violator of the said chapter, and to seize for use as evidence incorrect or unsealed weights and measures or amounts or packages of commodities to be used, retained, offered, exposed for sale or sold in violation of the law.

(2) In the performance of his official duties the director is authorized at reasonable times during the normal business hours of the person using the weights and measures to enter into or upon any structure or premises where weights and measures are used or kept for commercial purposes. Should the director be denied access to any premises or establishment where such access was sought for the purposes set forth in this section, he may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for a search warrant authorizing access to such premises or establishment for said purposes. The court may, upon such application, issue the search warrant for the purposes requested. [1969 c 67 § 26.]

19.94.270 Delegation of powers and duties. The powers and duties given to and imposed upon the director by the provisions in RCW 19.94.200, 19.94.210, 19.94.220, 19.94.230, 19.94.240, 19.94.250, 19.94.260 and 19.94.350 may be performed by any of his duly authorized representatives acting under the instructions and at the direction of the director. [1969 c 67 § 27.]

19.94.280 City sealers and deputies—Appointment, removal. There shall be a sealer of weights and measures in every city and such deputies as may be required by ordinance of each such city governed by this chapter. Such sealer and such deputies shall in any such city be appointed by, and they shall hold office subject to applicable local civil service laws and regulations; otherwise they shall be appointed by the mayor, or other chief executive officer of such city, by and with the advice and consent of the governing body of such city, and they may be removed for cause in the same manner. [1969 c 67 § 28.]

19.94.290 City sealers and deputies—Bond. A bond with sureties, to be approved by the appointing power, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and the safekeeping of any standards or equipment entrusted to his care, shall forthwith, upon his appointment, be given by each city sealer and deputy sealer in the penal sum of one thousand dollars; the premium on such bond shall be paid by the city for which the officer in question is appointed. [1969 c 67 § 29.]

19.94.300 City sealers and deputies—Powers and duties. The city sealer and his deputy sealers when acting under his instructions and at his direction shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties within the city for which appointed as are granted to and imposed upon the director by RCW 19.94.210, 19.94.220, 19.94.230, 19.94.240, and 19.94.250. [1969 c 67 § 30.]

19.94.310 City sealers and deputies—Duties of governing body—Sealer to have annual standards comparison made. The council or other governing body of each city for which a city sealer has been appointed as provided for by RCW 19.94.280 shall (1) procure at the expense of the city such standards of weight and measure and such additional equipment, to be used for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter in such city, as may be prescribed by the director; (2) provide a suitable office for the city sealer; and (3) make provision for the necessary clerical services, supplies, transportation and for defraying contingent expenses incidental to the official activities of the city sealer in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. When the standards of weight and measure required by this section to be provided by a city shall have been examined and approved by the director, they shall be the official standards for such city. It shall be the duty of the city sealer to make, or to arrange to have made, at least as frequently as once a year, comparisons between his field standards and appropriate standards of a higher order belonging to his city or to the state, in order to maintain such field standards in accurate condition. [1969 c 67 § 31.]

19.94.320 City sealers and deputies—Director to have concurrent authority—Powers and duties of chapter are additional. In cities for which city sealers of weights and measures have been appointed as provided for in this chapter, the director shall have concurrent authority to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The powers and duties relative to weights and measures contained in this chapter shall be in addition to the powers granted to any city by law or charter. [1969 c 67 § 32.]

19.94.330 Correction of rejected weights and measures. Weights and measures that have been rejected

under the authority of the director or a city sealer shall remain subject to the control of the rejecting authority until such time as suitable repair or disposition thereof has been made as required by this section. The owners of such rejected weights and measures shall cause the same to be made correct within thirty days or such longer period as may be authorized by the rejecting authority; or, in lieu of this, may dispose of the same, but only in such a manner as is specifically authorized by the rejecting authority. Weights and measures that have been rejected shall not again be used commercially until they have been officially reexamined and found to be correct or until specific written permission for such use is issued by the rejecting authority. [1969 c 67 § 33.]

19.94.340 Sales of commodities—How measured—Exceptions—Regulations to assure good practice and accuracy. Commodities in liquid form shall be sold only by liquid measure or by weight, and, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, commodities not in liquid form shall be sold only by weight, by measure of length or area, or by count: Provided, That liquid commodities may be sold by weight and commodities not in liquid form may be sold by count only if such methods give accurate information as to the quantity of commodity sold: And provided further, That the provisions of this section shall not apply (1) to commodities when sold for immediate consumption on the premises where sold, (2) to vegetables when sold by the head or bunch, (3) to commodities in containers standardized by a law of this state or by federal law, (4) to commodities in package form when there exists a general consumer usage to express the quantity in some other manner, (5) to concrete aggregates, concrete mixtures, and loose solid materials such as earth, soil, gravel, crushed stone, and the like, when sold by cubic measure, or (6) to unprocessed vegetable and animal fertilizer when sold by cubic measure. The director may issue such reasonable regulations as are necessary to assure that amounts of commodity sold are determined in accordance with good commercial practice and are so determined and represented to be accurate and informative to all interested parties. [1969 c 67 § 34.]

19.94.350 Packaged commodities in intrastate commerce—Declaration of contents on outside—Regulations. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any commodity in package form introduced or delivered for introduction into or received in intrastate commerce, kept for the purpose of sale, offered or exposed for sale or sold in intrastate commerce, shall bear on the outside of the package such definite, plain, and conspicuous declaration of (1) the identity of the commodity in the package unless the same can easily be identified through the wrapper or container, (2) the net quantity of the contents in terms of weight, measure or count; and (3) in the case of any package not sold on the premises where packed, the name and place of business of the manufacturer, packer, or distributor, as may be prescribed by regulation issued by the director: Provided, That in connection with the declaration required under subdivision (2) of this section, neither the qualifying term "when packed" or any words of similar import, nor any term qualifying a unit of weight, measure, or count (for example, "jumbo", "giant", "full", "or over", and the like) that tends to exaggerate the amount of commodity in a package, shall be used: And provided further, That under clause (2) the director shall by regulation establish (a) reasonable variations to be allowed, (b) exemptions as to small packages and (c) exemptions as to commodities put up in variable weights or sizes for sale to the consumer intact and either customarily not sold as individual units or customarily weighed or measured at time of sale to the consumer. [1969 c 67 § 35.]

19.94.360 Declaration of price on outside of package. In addition to the declarations required by RCW 19.94.350, any commodity in package form, the package being one of a lot containing random weights, measures or counts of the same commodity and bearing the total selling price of the package, shall bear on the outside of the package a plain and conspicuous declaration of the price per single unit of weight, measure, or count. [1969 c 67 § 36.]

19.94.370 Misleading wrappers, containers of packaged commodities—Standards of fill required. No commodity in package form shall be so wrapped, nor shall it be in a container so made, formed or filled as to mislead the purchaser as to the quantity of the contents of the package, and the contents of a container shall not fall below such reasonable standards of fill as may have been prescribed for the commodity in question by the director. [1969 c 67 § 37.]

19.94.380 "Weight" defined as net weight—Sales, contracts based upon net weight. The word "weight" as used in this chapter in connection with any commodity shall mean net weight. Whenever any commodity is sold on the basis of weight, the net weight of the commodity shall be employed, and all contracts concerning commodities shall be so construed. [1969 c 67 § 38.]

19.94.390 Price not to be misleading, deceiving, misrepresented—Fractions. Whenever any commodity or service is sold, or is offered, exposed, or advertised for sale, by weight, measure, or count, the price shall not be misrepresented, nor shall the price be represented in any manner calculated or tending to mislead or deceive an actual or prospective purchaser. Whenever an advertised, poster or labeled price per unit of weight, measure, or count includes a fraction of a cent, all elements of the fraction shall be prominently displayed and the numeral or numerals expressing the fraction shall be immediately adjacent to, of the same general design and style as, and at least one-half the height and one-half the width of the numerals representing the whole cents. [1969 c 67 § 39.]

19.94.400 Meat, fish, poultry to be sold by weight—Exceptions. Except for immediate consumption on the premises where sold or as one of several elements comprising a meal sold as a unit, for consumption elsewhere than on the premises where sold, all meat, meat products, fish and poultry offered or exposed for sale or sold as food, unless otherwise provided for by the laws of the state of Washington, shall be offered or exposed for sale and sold by weight. [1969 c 67 § 40.]

19.94.410 Butter, margarine to be sold by weight in units. Butter, oleomargarine and margarine shall be offered and exposed for sale and sold by weight and only in units of one-quarter pound, one-half pound, one pound or multiples of one pound, avoirdupois weight. [1969 c 67 § 41.]
