[S. B. 122.]

SCHOOLS.

An Act relating to the cost of educating non-resident pupils and amending section 4715 of Remington's Compiled Statutes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 4715 of Remington's Compiled Statutes be amended to read as follows:

Section 4715. The county superintendent of schools shall, after verifying such reports, certify, on or before the fifteenth day of August each year, to the county commissioners of his county and to the county commissioners of such other counties as any high school district of his county may have claims against under the provisions of this act, the amount of each such high school district claim for the cost of educating non-resident high school pupils, and such county commissioners are hereby authorized to levy and shall levy as a tax, not to exceed four mills, against all non-high school districts in their respective counties the aggregate amount, as certified to them by the county superintendent of schools, such levy to be made at the same time and in the same manner as other county levies for school purposes are made. In fixing the amount of any such claim by a high school district for educating non-resident high school pupils the county superintendent shall take the net difference between the cost per pupil per day of educating high school pupils in the given high school district and the apportionment per pupil per day to such high school district from the state current school fund and the county school tax as provided in section 4936, such difference to be multiplied by the days of attendance of non-resident high school pupils in each case. Such amount,
