

SIXTY EIGHTH LEGISLATURE - REGULAR SESSION

TWENTY SIXTH DAY

House Chamber, Olympia, Friday, February 3, 2023

The House was called to order at 9:55 a.m. by the Speaker (Representative Bronoske presiding).

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2023-4608, by Representatives Pollet, Orcutt, Goehner, Berg, and Stokesbary

WHEREAS, It has been the tradition of the Washington State House of Representatives to honor significant and important contributions made by employees; and

WHEREAS, Keenan Konopaski retired as Washington's Legislative Auditor on January 4, 2023, following a thirty-one year career in public service, with eighteen of those years serving the Legislature through his work at the Joint Legislative Audit and Review Committee (JLARC); and

WHEREAS, While serving under the direction of eight different JLARC chairs, Keenan consistently displayed a commitment to rigorous, nonpartisan, objective analysis that has benefited the Legislature, state agencies, and the people of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Keenan oversaw performance audits that together addressed nearly every facet of state government, including competency to stand trial, highway maintenance and preservation, K-12 health benefits, low-income housing, worker's compensation, unemployment benefits, Medicaid, wildfire suppression, and more; and

WHEREAS, Keenan led JLARC and the Citizens Commission for the Performance Measurement of Tax Preferences in developing one of the nation's first state-level systematic reviews of tax preferences, through which he oversaw two hundred and seventy-seven reviews of preferences pertaining to agriculture, aerospace, manufacturing, education, and more; and

WHEREAS, Keenan ensured that the Legislature had relevant and timely information on demand by shifting reports from print to online, adding interactive tools and different formats; and

WHEREAS, To improve visibility of reports and foster implementation of recommendations, Keenan created a policy of notifying committee chairs and ranking members of audit reports on subjects within their committees' jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, Keenan's insight and dedication to leading-edge approaches brought national recognition for JLARC's work, earning three awards for excellence in research methods, twelve certificates of impact, and four notable document awards from the National Conference of State Legislatures, as well as invitations for JLARC staff members to share their work at national conferences; and

WHEREAS, Keenan has improved the efficiency and effectiveness of state government for all Washingtonians, as agencies implemented over ninety percent of the one hundred seventy-five recommendations issued to agencies under his leadership as Legislative Auditor; and

WHEREAS, Keenan led the effort to incorporate racial-equity analyses into all JLARC performance audits; and

WHEREAS, Keenan's commitment to professional development has benefited the sixty-nine current and former JLARC staff and interns that served under him, and instilled a dedication to producing well-researched, easily understandable, and relevant work for the Legislature; and

WHEREAS, Keenan's willingness to carry on the long-standing office tradition of having a pink flamingo mascot has resulted in numerous purchases of pink flamingo mugs, pens, stuffed animals, statues, cake toppers, trivets, towels, and flashing lights; and

WHEREAS, Keenan's retirement as Legislative Auditor does not end his state service, as he will continue to serve the citizens of Washington as an adjunct professor at The Evergreen State College and help develop the next generation of public servants, which hopefully will include future JLARC research analysts; and

WHEREAS, Keenan will be missed, but his retirement is well-deserved and we wish him all the best and many camping trips and travels with his family;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives express its sincerest gratitude to Keenan Konopaski for a long career serving the state of Washington; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be immediately transmitted to Keenan Konopaski.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4608 was adopted.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2023-4609, by Representative McClintock

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Washington State House of Representatives to recognize excellence in every field of endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Clark-Cowlitz Fire Rescue Division Chief Michael Jackson has been awarded the Fire Marshal of the Year Award for 2022 by the Washington State Association of Fire Marshals; and

WHEREAS, Division Chief Jackson has demonstrated leadership and innovation in the field of fire prevention and community risk reduction by creating and expanding programs that increase the safety of both first responders and citizens; and

WHEREAS, The cities in the Clark-Cowlitz Fire Rescue area have adopted the same fire code amendments, and work together as one agency for development, building, plan review, and inspection services. This cooperation was facilitated by Division Chief Jackson; and

WHEREAS, Division Chief Jackson expanded the Community Assistance Referral and Educational Services (CARES) Program into Southwestern Washington allowing for better delivery of health care services to medically fragile members of the community; and

WHEREAS, Division Chief Michael Jackson started a behavioral co-response unit to work in tandem with paramedics by addressing behavioral health and nonlife-threatening emergencies; and

WHEREAS, Division Chief Jackson instituted a fall reduction program to prevent a significant source of injury in his community by educating those most at risk of injury and installing grab bars and other safety devices;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives honor and congratulate Division Chief Jackson on being awarded Fire Marshal of the Year for 2022 as declared by the Washington State Association of Fire Marshals, and for success in community risk prevention; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Division Chief Michael Jackson of Clark-Cowlitz Fire Rescue.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4609 was adopted.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2023-4611, by Representative McClintock

WHEREAS, It is the policy of the Washington State House of Representatives to recognize excellence in every field of endeavor; and

WHEREAS, Cindy Arnold, director of career and technical education of the Battleground School District has earned the Region V Administrator of the Year award from the Association for Career and Technical Education; and

WHEREAS, Director Arnold demonstrated creativity and initiative in her duties by pushing Battleground School District toward a stronger career and technical education program; and

WHEREAS, Arnold expanded the knowledge base of Battleground's students by exposing them to a wide range of career options and technical skills and designing Battleground School District's science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) strategic plan; and

WHEREAS, Arnold started a middle school design modeling and robotics program to introduce younger students to STEM activities at a younger age; and

WHEREAS, Arnold's programs taught heating, ventilation, air conditioning (HVAC), plumbing and electrical, computer programming, and math; and

WHEREAS, When Arnold was the principal of Captain Strong Primary School, she oversaw a program to help students develop skills and serve as greeters, assembly leaders, and recess monitors. Students also participated in interviews with their teachers;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives thank Director Cindy Arnold for her hard work in developing the young minds of the future; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Cindy Arnold, director of career and technical education for Battleground School District.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4611 was adopted.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2023-4612, by Representative Couture

WHEREAS, Washington state boasts the most dedicated and honorable members of law enforcement that protect and serve our communities selflessly; and

WHEREAS, Within the state of Washington, former Mason County Sheriff Casey Salisbury oversaw the just and accurate dispensation of law enforcement duties for both the Thurston County Sheriff's Office, and the Mason County Sheriff's Office; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Salisbury received his college diploma in 1985 having earned a degree in education, credentials as a public school administrator, and teaching certificate; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Salisbury served the people of Mason County as a substitute teacher in the Hood Canal and McCleary school districts subsequent to graduation; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Salisbury began in law enforcement as a reserve deputy with the Mason County Sheriff's Office while substitute teaching; and

WHEREAS, He transitioned careers to full-time law enforcement beginning at the Thurston County Sheriff's Office where he would attain the rank of Lieutenant; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Salisbury was elected as Mason County Sheriff in 2006 where he would serve the people of Mason County for 16 years, graduate from the FBI Academy, and spearhead a campaign of reinvigorating equipment, policies, and procedures, and hiring the first female deputy in Mason County Sheriff's Office history; and

WHEREAS, Sheriff Salisbury always brought his love of people and zeal for teaching to every position he held, dedicating himself to service, reflecting credit upon himself, the Mason County Sheriff's Office, and all of law enforcement. His efforts ensured that children, adults, residents, and visitors to Mason County were cared for with excellence;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives express its thanks and appreciation to the devoted care shown by Sheriff Salisbury during his career in public service as both teacher and eventually chief law enforcement officer of Mason County; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the value and dedication of Sheriff Salisbury to the viability, safety, security, and well-being of this state, both through his outstanding performance at the Mason County Sheriff's Office and through the continued benefit to local communities by the presence of well-equipped and trained law enforcement professionals; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives to Sheriff Casey Salisbury and the Mason County Sheriff's Office.

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4612 was adopted.
