There being no objection, Substitute House Bill No. 1495 was substituted for House Bill No. 1495 and the substitute bill was placed on the second reading calendar.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1495 was read the second time.

Representative Reykdal moved the adoption of amendment (071):

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. SHORT TITLE.This act may be known and cited as the student user privacy in education rights act or SUPER act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS.The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "School service" means a web site, mobile application, or online service that: (a) Is designed and marketed primarily for use in a K-12 school; (b) is used at the direction of teachers or other employees of a K-12 school; and (c) collects, maintains, or uses student personal information. A "school service" does not include a web site, mobile application, or online service that is designed and marketed for use by individuals or entities generally, even if also marketed to a United States K-12 school.

(2) "School service provider" means an entity that operates a school service to the extent it is operating in that capacity.

(3) "Student personal information" means information collected through a school service that personally identifies an individual student or other information collected and maintained about an individual student that is linked to information that identifies an individual student.

(4) "Students" means students of K-12 schools in Washington state.

(5) "Targeted advertising" means sending advertisements to a student where the advertisement is selected based on information obtained or inferred from that student's online behavior, usage of applications, or student personal information. It does not include (a) advertising to a student at an online location based upon that student's current visit to that location without the collection and retention of a student's online activities over time or (b) adaptive learning, personalized learning, or customized education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. OBLIGATIONS OF SCHOOL SERVICE PROVIDERS—TRANSPARENCY.(1) School service providers shall provide clear and easy to understand information about the types of student personal information they collect and about how they use and share the student personal information.

(2) School service providers shall provide prominent notice before making material changes to their privacy policies for school services.

(3) School service providers shall facilitate access to and correction of student personal information by students or their parent or guardian either directly or through the relevant educational institution or teacher.

(4) Where the school service is offered to an educational institution or teacher, information required by subsections (1) and (2) of this section may be provided to the educational institution or teacher.

(5) The provisions of this section do not apply to the education data center established under RCW 43.41.400, but do apply to any subcontractors of the education data center.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. OBLIGATIONS OF SCHOOL SERVICE PROVIDERS—CHOICE AND CONTROL.(1) School service providers may collect, use, and share student personal information only for purposes authorized by the relevant educational institution or teacher, or with the consent of the student or the student's parent or guardian.

(2) School service providers may not sell student personal information. This prohibition does not apply to the purchase, merger, or other type of acquisition of a school service provider, or any assets of a school service provider by another entity, as long as the successor entity continues to be subject to the provisions of this section with respect to previously acquired student personal information to the extent that the school service provider was regulated by this chapter with regard to its acquisition of student personal information.

(3) School service providers may not use or share any student personal information for purposes of targeted advertising to students.

(4) School service providers may not use student personal information to create a personal profile of a student other than for supporting purposes authorized by the relevant educational institution or teacher, or with the consent of the student or the student's parent or guardian.

(5) School service providers must obtain consent before using student personal information in a manner that is materially inconsistent with the school service provider's privacy policy or school contract for the applicable school service in effect at the time of collection.

(6) The provisions of subsections (1), (2), (4), and (5) of this section may not apply to the use or disclosure of personal information by a school service provider to:

- (a) Protect the security or integrity of its web site, mobile application, or online service;
- (b) Ensure legal or regulatory compliance or to take precautions against liability;
- (c) Respond to or participate in judicial process;
- (d) Protect the safety of users or others on the web site, mobile application, or online service;
- (e) Investigate a matter related to public safety; or
- (f) A subcontractor, if the school service provider: (i) Contractually prohibits the subcontractor from using any student personal information for any purpose other than providing the contracted service to, or on behalf of, the school service provider; (ii) prohibits the subcontractor from disclosing any student personal information provided by the school service provider to subsequent third parties unless the disclosure is expressly permitted by (a) through (e) of this subsection or by sections 6 and 7 of this act; and (iii) requires the subcontractor to comply with the requirements of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. OBLIGATIONS OF SCHOOL SERVICE PROVIDERS—SAFEGUARDS.(1) School service providers must maintain a comprehensive information security program that is reasonably designed to protect the security, privacy, confidentiality, and integrity of student personal information. The information security program should make use of appropriate administrative, technological, and physical safeguards.

(2) School service providers must delete student personal information within a reasonable period of time if the relevant educational institution requests deletion of the data under the control of the educational institution unless:

- (a) The school service provider has obtained student consent or the consent of the student's parent or guardian to retain information related to that student; or
- (b) The student has transferred to another educational institution and that educational institution has requested that the school service provider retain information related to that student.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. ADAPTIVE LEARNING AND CUSTOMIZED EDUCATION.Notwithstanding sections 2 through 7 of this act, nothing in this chapter is intended to prohibit the use of student personal information for purposes of:

- (1) Adaptive learning or personalized or customized education;
- (2) Maintaining, developing, supporting, improving, or diagnosing the school service provider's web site, mobile application, online service, or application;
- (3) Providing recommendations for school, educational, or employment purposes within a school service without the response being determined in whole or in part by payment or other consideration from a third party; or

(4) Responding to a student's request for information or for feedback without the information or response being determined in whole or in part by payment or other consideration from a third party.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. This chapter adopts and does not modify existing law regarding consent, including consent from minors and employees on behalf of educational institutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This chapter shall not be construed to:

- (1) Impose a duty upon a provider of an interactive computer service, as defined in 47 U.S.C. Sec. 230, to review or enforce compliance with this section by third-party content providers;
- (2) Apply to general audience internet web sites, general audience mobile applications, or general audience online services even if login credentials created for a school service provider's web site, mobile application, or online service may be used to access those general audience web sites, mobile applications, or online services;
- (3) Impede the ability of students to download, export, or otherwise save or maintain their own student data or documents;
- (4) Limit internet service providers from providing internet connectivity to schools or students and their families;
- (5) Prohibit a school service provider from marketing educational products directly to parents so long as the marketing did not result from use of student personal information obtained by the school service provider through the provision of its web site, mobile application, or online service; or
- (6) Impose a duty on a school service provider of an electronic store, gateway, marketplace, or other means of purchasing or downloading software or applications to review or enforce compliance with this chapter on those applications or software.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.If a school service provider entered into a signed, written contract with an educational institution or teacher before the effective date of this section, the school service provider is not liable for the requirements of sections 2 through 6 of this act with respect to that contract until the next renewal date of the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 and 11 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 28A RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. EFFECTIVE DATE.This act takes effect July 1, 2016."

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Employers may pay employees who are at least eighteen years old but under the age of twenty-five a training wage as follows:

(a) A wage rate of eighty-five percent of the rate established in section 1 of this act if the trainee employee is working under a training curriculum developed by the employer that meets the minimum criteria established by the department; or

(b) If the employer does not have a curriculum meeting the criteria established by the department, a wage rate of ninety percent of the rate established in section 1 of this act if the employer, before hiring the trainee employee, provides the department with a job description listing the skills the trainee employee will be learning through his or her employment.

(2) An employer may not pay a trainee employee the training wage established in this section for more than a total of twelve months.

(3) An employer must employ the trainee employee for a minimum period of eighteen consecutive months. If the employer terminates the trainee employee prior to the expiration of the minimum eighteen month period, the employer must pay a civil penalty to the department in the amount of one-half the difference between the wages paid to the trainee employee and the wages that would have been paid to the trainee employee at the rate of the state minimum wage. The civil penalty under this subsection does not apply if the employer terminated the trainee employee for cause, including but not limited to theft or delinquency, or if the trainee employee voluntarily leaves employment before the expiration of the eighteen month period.

(4) A public employer that is subject to a collective bargaining agreement may not allow any dues, fees, assessments, or charges to be deducted under a union security provision from the pay of any trainee employee who is receiving the wage rate established under this section. The employee must receive the same representation and benefits under the collective bargaining agreement as other employees who are members of the employee organization.

(5) The director must establish minimum criteria for curricula for different industries. The director may consult with businesses, industry associations, community and technical colleges, and other entities in establishing minimum criteria for curricula.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The joint legislative audit and review committee must conduct a study to determine the effects, over a five year period, of the provisions created under section 2 of this act on the unemployment rate of youth between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five. The joint legislative audit and review committee must report back to the appropriate committees of the legislature by December 1, 2021.

(2) This section expires January 1, 2021."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly and correct the title.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Lytton requested a scope and object ruling on amendment (087) to House Bill No. 1355.

SPEAKER'S RULING

Mr. Speaker: "The title of House Bill 1355 is 'an act relating to increasing the minimum hourly wage to twelve dollars over four years, without creating new exemptions.' The bill phases-in an increase in state minimum wage for employees over the age of eighteen followed by annual adjustments based on inflation beginning January 1, 2020. Amendment (087) creates a new exemption and is beyond the scope of the bill as defined by its title. Your point of order is well taken."

Representative Manweller moved the adoption of amendment (096).

On page 2, beginning on line 18, after "(b)" strike all material through "30th" on line 19 and insert "~~((On September 30, 2000, and on each following September 30th))~~ Subject to section 2 of this act"

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This section is the minimum wage performance statement for the minimum wage increase created in section 1 of this act. This performance statement is only intended to be used for subsequent evaluation of the minimum wage increase. It is not intended to create a private right of action by any party or be used to determine eligibility for any wage and hour benefits.

(1) It is the legislature's specific public policy objective to increase minimum wages, but not to the detriment of the minority population of the state.

(2) Beginning September 2020, the joint legislative audit and review committee shall conduct a review on whether the minority unemployment rate has increased from the effective date of this section. If the review finds that the minority unemployment rate has increased by more than two percent, then the department may not adjust the minimum wage rate for inflation, as provided for under section 1 of this act, unless the increase is due to some factor other than the minimum wage increase in section 1 of this act. The minimum wage rate shall not be adjusted until a review conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee finds that the rate of minority unemployment has not increased by more than two percent.

(b) Beginning September 2025, and every five years thereafter, the joint legislative audit and review committee shall conduct a review on whether the rate of minority unemployment has increased or decreased from the previous review conducted by the joint legislative audit and review committee. The minimum wage rate may be adjusted for inflation as provided for under section 1 of this act only if the joint legislative audit and review committee finds in its review that minority unemployment has not increased from the last review by more than two percent, or if the percentage has increased by more than two percent, the increase is due to some factor other than the minimum wage increase in section 1 of this act. If the minimum wage rate is adjusted, it must be adjusted by the average rate of inflation for the previous number of years since the last time the minimum wage rate was adjusted for inflation.

(3) In order to obtain the data necessary to perform the review in subsection 2 of this section, the joint legislative audit and review committee shall refer to the most current information available from the United States census bureau."

(1) It is the legislature's specific public policy objective to increase minimum wages for the purposes of reducing or maintaining the number of Washingtonians at or below the federal poverty level as measured by the United States census bureau.

(2) As of 2012, according to data from the United States census bureau, thirteen and a half percent of Washingtonians were at or below poverty, ranking Washington as nineteenth in the nation with the lowest poverty level.

(3)(a) Beginning September 2020, the joint legislative audit and review committee shall conduct a review on whether the percentage of Washingtonians at or below the federal poverty level has increased or decreased from the effective date of this section. If the review finds that the percentage of Washingtonians at or below the federal poverty level has increased, then the department may not adjust the minimum wage rate for inflation, as provided for under section 1 of this act, unless the increase is due to some factor other than the minimum wage increase in section 1 of this act. December 31, 2015, and must be adjusted as required by (b) of this subsection.

(b) On September 30, 2017, and on each following September 30th, the department of labor and industries shall calculate an adjusted minimum wage rate for individuals employed in agricultural labor, as required in (a) of this subsection. The adjusted minimum wage rate shall be calculated to the nearest cent using the consumer price index for urban wage earners and clerical workers, CPI-W, or a successor index, for the twelve months prior to each September 1st as calculated by the United States department of labor. Each adjusted minimum wage rate calculated under this subsection takes effect on the following January 1st.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection, "agricultural labor" means services performed:

(i) On a farm, in the employ of any person, in connection with the cultivation of the soil, or in connection with raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity, including raising, shearing, feeding, caring for, training, and management of livestock, bees, poultry, and furbearing animals and wild life, or in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm in connection with the operation, management, conservation, improvement, or maintenance of such farm and its tools and equipment; or

(ii) In packing, packaging, grading, storing, or delivering to storage, or to market or to a carrier for transportation to market, any agricultural or horticultural commodity if such service is performed as an incident to ordinary farming operations.

On page 2, after line 30, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Employers may pay employees under the age of eighteen either the federal minimum hourly wage rate established in section 206, subsection (a)(1) of the federal fair labor standards act, or no less than the state minimum hourly wage rate established in section 1 of this act.

(2) A public employer that is subject to a collective bargaining agreement may not allow any dues, fees, assessments, or charges to be deducted under a union security provision from the pay of any employee who is receiving a wage rate equal to the federal minimum wage. The employee must receive the same representation and benefits under the collective bargaining agreement as other employees who are members of the employee organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 41.56 RCW to read as follows:

An employee organization may not deduct any dues, fees, assessments, or charges under a union security provision from the pay of an employee who is being paid a wage rate equal to the federal minimum wage. The employee must receive the same representation and benefits under the collective bargaining agreement as other employees who are members of the employee organization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.80 RCW to read as follows:

An employee organization may not deduct any dues, fees, assessments, or charges under a union security provision from the pay of an employee who is being paid a wage rate equal to the federal minimum wage. The employee must receive the same representation and benefits under the collective bargaining agreement as other employees who are members of the employee organization."

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Lytton requested a scope and object ruling on amendment (086) to House Bill No. 1355.

SPEAKER'S RULING

Mr. Speaker: "'The title of House Bill 1355 is 'an act relating to increasing the minimum hourly wage to twelve dollars over four years without creating new exemptions.' The bill phases-in an increase in state minimum wage for employees over the age of eighteen followed by annual adjustments based on inflation beginning January 1, 2020. Amendment (086) relates to the minimum wage for employees under the age of eighteen and also regulates the scope of representation of employees subject to collective bargaining agreements, whether or not those employees or agreements are impacted by the bill. These provisions go far beyond the bill's purpose in setting the minimum wage for employees over the age of eighteen and are beyond the scope and object of the bill. Your point of order is well taken.

Representative Vick moved the adoption of amendment (089).

On page 2, after line 30, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.46 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The state of Washington hereby occupies and preempts the entire field regarding the minimum hourly wage rate within the boundaries of the state. A city, town, county, or port district may not require, enforce, or otherwise regulate by means of charter, ordinance, regulation, rule, resolution, or contract, including purchase agreement, the minimum hourly wage rate for private employers. Any such provisions or terms shall not be adopted or agreed to and are preempted and unenforceable. The state preemption created in this section does not apply to any charter, ordinance, regulation, rule, or resolution regulating, or any contract, including purchase agreement, regarding the minimum hourly wage rate for private employers that was adopted by a city, town, county, or port district before the effective date of this section.

(2) This section does not impair any provision of a collective bargaining agreement in effect on the effective date of this section.

(3) The preemption created in this section shall be broadly construed.

Sec. 3. RCW 49.46.120 and 1961 ex.s. c 18 s 4 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter establishes a minimum standard for wages and working conditions of all employees in this state, unless exempted herefrom, and is in addition to and supplementary to any other federal(;) or state(~~(-or local)~~) law (~~(or ordinance)~~) or any rule or regulation issued thereunder. Any standards relating to wages, hours, or other working conditions established by any applicable federal(;) or state (~~(-or local)~~) law (~~(or ordinance)~~) or any rule or regulation issued thereunder, which are more favorable to employees than the minimum standards applicable under this chapter, or any rule or regulation issued hereunder, shall not be affected by this chapter and such other laws, or rules or regulations, shall be in full force and effect and may be enforced as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

Section 2 of this act governs the authority of a city or town to regulate and contract with private employers regarding the minimum hourly wage rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 35A.21 RCW to read as follows:

Section 2 of this act governs the authority of a code city to regulate and contract with private employers regarding the minimum hourly wage rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 36.01 RCW to read as follows:

Section 2 of this act governs the authority of a county to regulate and contract with private employers regarding the minimum hourly wage rate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

Section 2 of this act governs the authority of a port district to regulate and contract with private employers regarding the minimum hourly wage rate."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct the title.

Representative Vick spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

POINT OF ORDER

Representative Lytton requested a scope and object ruling on amendment (050) to House Bill No. 1356.

SPEAKER'S RULING

Mr. Speaker: "The title of HB 1356 defines its scope as providing safe or sick leave benefits to all Washington workers, with very limited exceptions. The amendment provides a very broad exception removing benefits for hundreds of thousands of Washington workers. The Speaker finds the amendment is clearly outside the scope of the bill as defined by its title. The point of order is well taken."

Representative Vick moved the adoption of amendment (049):

On page 11, beginning on line 11, strike all of section 11

Re-number the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Representative Vick spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

Representative Sells spoke against the adoption of the amendment.

A roll call vote was demanded and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of amendment (049).

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of amendment (049), and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 46; Nays, 51; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Buys, Caldier, Chandler, Condotta, DeBolt, Dent, Fagan, Griffey, Haler, Hargrove, Harmsworth, Harris, Hawkins, Hayes, Holy, Hunt, G., Johnson, Klippert, Kochmar, Kretz, MacEwen, Magendanz, Manweller, McCabe, McCaslin, Muri, Nealey, Orcutt, Parker, Pike, Rodne, Schmick, Scott, Shea, Short, Smith, Stambaugh, Stokesbary, Taylor, Van Werven, Vick, Walsh, Wilcox, Wilson, Young, and Zeiger

Voting nay: Representatives Appleton, Bergquist, Blake, Carlyle, Chopp, Clibborn, Cody, Dunshee, Farrell, Fey, Fitzgibbon, Goodman, Gregerson, Gregory, Hansen, Hudgins, Hunt, S., Hunter, Hurst, Jinkins, Kagi, Kilduff, Kirby, Lytton, McBride, Moeller, Morris, Moscoso, Ormsby, Ortiz-Self, Orwall, Peterson, Pettigrew, Pollet, Reykdal, Riccelli, Robinson, Ryu, Santos, Sawyer, Sells, Senn, Springer, Stanford, Sullivan, Takko, Tarleton, Tharinger, Van De Wege, Walkinshaw, and Wylie

On page 12, beginning on line 1, after "LAWS." strike all material through "employees" on line 6 and insert "(1) The state of Washington hereby occupies and preempts the entire field regarding paid sick and safe leave within the boundaries of the state. A city, town, county, or port district may not require, enforce, or otherwise regulate by means of charter, ordinance, regulation, rule, resolution, or contract, including purchase agreement, paid sick and safe leave by private employers. Any such provisions or terms shall not be adopted or agreed to and are preempted and unenforceable. The state preemption created in this section does not apply to any charter, ordinance, regulation, rule, or resolution regulating, or any contract, including purchase agreement, regarding paid sick and safe leave by private employers that was adopted or agreed to by a city, town, county, or port district before the effective date of this section.

(2) This section does not impair any provision of a collective bargaining agreement in effect on the effective date of this section.

(3) The preemption created in this section shall be broadly construed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

Section 13 of this act governs the authority of a city or town to regulate and contract with private employers regarding paid sick and safe leave.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 35A.21 RCW to read as follows:

Section 13 of this act governs the authority of a code city to regulate and contract with private employers regarding paid sick and safe leave.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 36.01 RCW to read as follows:

Section 13 of this act governs the authority of a county to regulate and contract with private employers regarding paid sick and safe leave.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 53.08 RCW to read as follows:

Section 13 of this act governs the authority of a port district to regulate and contract with private employers regarding paid sick and safe leave."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct the title.

Representative Manweller spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

Representative Sells spoke against the adoption of the amendment.

A roll call vote was demanded and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of amendment (083).

ROLL CALL

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of amendment (083), and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 47; Nays, 50; Absent, 0; Excused, 1.

Voting yea: Representatives Buys, Caldier, Chandler, Condotta, DeBolt, Dent, Fagan, Griffey, Haler, Hargrove, Harmsworth, Harris, Hawkins, Hayes, Holy, Hunt, G., Hurst, Johnson, Klippert, Kochmar, Kretz, MacEwen, Magendanz, Manweller, McCabe, McCaslin, Muri, Nealey, Orcutt, Parker, Pike, Rodne, Schmick, Scott, Shea, Short, Smith, Stambaugh, Stokesbary, Taylor, Van Werven, Vick, Walsh, Wilcox, Wilson, Young, and Zeiger

Voting nay: Representatives Appleton, Bergquist, Blake, Carlyle, Chopp, Clibborn, Cody, Dunshee, Farrell, Fey, Fitzgibbon, Goodman, Gregerson, Gregory, Hansen, Hudgins, Hunt, S., Hunter, Jinkins, Kagi, Kilduff, Kirby, Lytton, McBride, Moeller, Morris, Moscoso, Ormsby, Ortiz-Self, Orwall, Peterson, Pettigrew, Pollet, Reykdal, Riccelli, Robinson, Ryu, Santos, Sawyer, Sells, Senn, Springer, Stanford, Sullivan, Takko, Tarleton, Tharinger, Van De Wege, Walkinshaw, and Wylie

Excused: Representative Kristiansen

Amendment (083) was not adopted.

Representative Manweller moved the adoption of amendment (051).

On page 12, after line 17, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. TAX PREFERENCE PERFORMANCE STATEMENT. This section is the tax preference performance statement for the tax preferences contained in sections 18 and 19 of this act. This performance statement is only intended to be used for subsequent evaluation of the tax preference. It is not intended to create a private right of action by any party or be used to determine eligibility for preferential tax treatment.

(1) The legislature categorizes these tax preferences as tax preferences intended to provide tax relief for certain businesses or individuals, as indicated in RCW 82.32.808(2)(e).

(2) It is the legislature's specific public policy objective to provide tax relief to businesses for the cost of compliance with chapter 49.--- RCW (the new chapter created in section 16 of this act). It is the legislature's intent to allow a business and occupation tax credit and a public utility tax credit for cost of compliance in order to provide tax relief.

(3) If a review finds that the percentage increase in the real growth domestic product in the state since the effective date of this section is less than ten percent, then the legislature intends to extend the expiration date of the tax preference.

(4) In order to obtain the data necessary to perform the review in subsection (3) of this section, the joint legislative audit and review committee may refer to:

(a) Data reported by the bureau of economic analysis in the United States department of commerce;

(b) The amount of the business and occupation tax credit taken under section 18 of this act, as reported on the tax return form; and

(c) The amount of the public utility tax credit taken under section 19 of this act, as reported on the tax return form.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

BUSINESS AND OCCUPATION TAX CREDIT.

In computing the tax imposed under this chapter, a credit is allowed for the cost of compliance with chapter 49.--- RCW (the new chapter created in section 16 of this act). No application is necessary for the credit; however, a business taking a credit under this section must keep and preserve records for the period required by RCW 82.32.070 establishing that the business is eligible for the credit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 82.16 RCW to read as follows:

PUBLIC UTILITY TAX CREDIT.

In computing the tax imposed under this chapter, a credit is allowed for the cost of compliance with chapter 49.--- RCW (the new chapter created in section 16 of this act). No application is necessary for the credit; however, a business taking a credit under this section must keep and preserve records for the period required by RCW 82.32.070 establishing that the business is eligible for the credit."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively, correct any internal references accordingly, and correct the title.

Representative Manweller and Manweller (again) spoke in favor of the adoption of the amendment.

Representative Sells spoke against the adoption of the amendment.

A roll call vote was demanded and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of amendment (051).
