

SIXTY NINTH LEGISLATURE - REGULAR SESSION

NINETEENTH DAY

House Chamber, Olympia, Friday, January 31, 2025

The House was called to order at 9:55 a.m. by the Speaker (Representative Simmons presiding).

Reading of the Journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was ordered to stand approved.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2025-4608, by Representatives Abbarno, Zahn, Keaton, Steele, Ryu, Schmidt, Dent, Taylor, Macri, Pollet, Schmick, Leavitt, Low, Burnett, Barnard, Barkis, Waters, and Orcutt

WHEREAS, A 1983 public works report commissioned by the Washington state legislature found that local governments of the state of Washington projected more than $2 billion in critical infrastructure needs at that time; and

WHEREAS, To support Washington state local governments in the financing of critical infrastructure projects, the 1985 Washington state legislature created the Washington state Public Works Board in 1985; and

WHEREAS, The Public Works Board is composed of 13 members appointed by the governor; three representing cities, three representing counties, three jointly representing water-sewer districts and public utility districts, and four representing the general public; and

WHEREAS, The Public Works Board is responsible for administering low-interest loans and grants to Washington state counties, cities, water and sewer districts, and public utility districts to finance essential drinking water, sanitary sewer, stormwater, road, bridge, and solid waste infrastructure projects; and

WHEREAS, Since its creation, the Public Works Board has invested nearly $3.5 billion in more than 2,200 projects supporting essential infrastructure to the direct benefit of residents and businesses in every county and across cities and towns in the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, In the past six years, awards by the Public Works Board have saved local governments $188 million in interest rate savings and grants, helping keep utility rates affordable; and

WHEREAS, The success of the Public Works Board in providing a viable option for local governments to finance critical infrastructure projects has been recognized and emulated by other states across the nation; and

WHEREAS, The 2025 session of the Washington state legislature marks the fortieth anniversary of the creation of the Public Works Board;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the Public Works Board and recognize the significant benefit the program has created for the state of Washington and communities across the state by preserving public health and safety, protecting the environment, supporting affordable housing, and creating family-wage jobs since its creation in 1985.

With the consent of the House, HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4608 was adopted.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2025-4613, by Representatives Barkis, Connors, Stuebe, Steele, Dufault, Taylor, Waters, Zahn, Barnard, Leavitt, Eslick, Parshley, Low, Klicker,

Richards, Bronoske, Orcutt, Bernbaum, Salahuddin, Ryu, Marshall, and Reed

WHEREAS, On February 8, 2025, the Boy Scouts of America will celebrate 115 years of service to shaping the lives of young people by providing a positive, values-driven environment for growth, leadership, and community service; and

WHEREAS, Since its founding in 1910, Scouting has instilled in over 130 million youth a strong sense of duty, citizenship, and respect for others, empowering them to become active, responsible, and ethical members of society; and

WHEREAS, Scouting's history provides a rich legacy of acts of service in times of war, peace, and disaster to others, local communities, and our nation; and

WHEREAS, Scouting's Eagle Scouts have gone on to key roles in military service, government, aerospace and space exploration, business, sports, entertainment, and elected office; contributing greatly to our nation's success and prosperity; and

WHEREAS, Scouting's commitment to character development, physical fitness, environmental stewardship, and community involvement has enriched countless lives throughout the state of Washington; and

WHEREAS, Scouting facilitates programs annually in the state of Washington to more than 20,000 youth members, encourages hundreds of thousands of nights of outdoor camping, provides over half a million hours of community service, and recognizes thousands of young people with the highest rank of Scouting, Eagle Scout; and

WHEREAS, As part of its evolution and continued dedication to serving all youth across the nation, the Boy Scouts of America has embraced a new name, "Scouting America," to reflect its broad vision for the future of youth development; and

WHEREAS, Scouting America's mission remains steadfast in inspiring, preparing, and empowering young people from all backgrounds to become leaders of tomorrow through exciting, hands-on experiences and lifelong friendships; and

WHEREAS, The state of Washington proudly acknowledges the ongoing contributions of the Pacific Harbors, Chief Seattle, Blue Mountain, Mount Baker, and Cascade Pacific Councils of Scouting America in our communities, from promoting volunteerism to offering a wide range of programs that teach values, develop practical skills, and foster teamwork among young people of all ages;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington state House of Representatives join in celebrating this significant milestone and recognize the positive impact that Scouting America continues to make on the lives of individuals, families, and communities across the state of Washington.

With the consent of the House, HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4613 was adopted.

RESOLUTION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 2025-4614, by Representatives Zahn, Leavitt, Simmons, Callan, Thai, Walen, Ryu, Berg, Parshley, Fosse, Burnett, Duerr, Nance, and Macri

WHEREAS, Human trafficking is a crime that involves the use of force, fraud, or coercion to recruit, harbor, transport, provide, or obtain a person for the purposes of labor or sexual exploitation; and

WHEREAS, Human trafficking is also a significant public health and human rights issue, inflicting trauma on individuals, families, and communities while undermining safety, dignity, and fundamental freedoms; and

WHEREAS, The United States Department of Homeland Security estimates tens of millions of people worldwide are subjected to modern day slavery, with cases occurring across Washington state; and

WHEREAS, Vulnerable populations—including those experiencing poverty, homelessness, substance use disorders, mental health challenges, survivors of abuse, those identifying as LGBTQIA+, and Black, Indigenous, and communities of color, including individuals born outside the United States, regardless of immigration status—are at increased risk of trafficking and exploitation; and

WHEREAS, The ongoing exploitation and trafficking of people is deeply rooted in the legacy of colonization and slavery, systems that historically commodified and oppressed human beings, particularly people of African descent, Indigenous people, and other marginalized communities, and continue to perpetuate inequality, vulnerability, and the exploitation of individuals to this day; and

WHEREAS, Public awareness and education are essential to preventing human trafficking, protecting victims, and ensuring justice for those affected; and

WHEREAS, Every year since 2010, the President of the United States has designated the month of January as "National Human Trafficking Prevention Month" to bring attention to this critical issue;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State House of Representatives recognize January as Human Trafficking Awareness Month and reaffirm its commitment to eradicating human trafficking through education, policy, and community engagement.

With the consent of the House, HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 4614 was adopted.

There being no objection, the House advanced to the fourth order of business.
