POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Representative Moeller: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. As today's activities are winding down, hopefully, I would like to take a brief moment to thank you personally, Mr. Speaker, as our Speaker Pro-Tem and for the leadership you have shown this body over the last three years. For your fairness and for your good humor. It has been a pleasure to have you at the rostrum, quite honestly, for the entire staffing at the rostrum it has been our honor and I just want to take a moment to thank you for that.

Speaker Pro-Tempore Morris: "Whoa, thank you for that. Thank you very much for your kind words Representative Moeller, and soon this will all be yours."

Representative Kessler: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. I know if Speaker Chopp were out here he would like to thank you so much for allowing him to sit in the back of the room while you take care of the floor action. If any of you don't know this, and you probably should, standing up there hour after hour after hour in one spot maintaining the good humor, working well with both sides, I think being very fair I believe you have, you usually hit us as hard as you were hitting the other side. You have done a remarkable job and your stamina up there has been amazing, I know that is not easy, and I know that again, Frank wants to thank you from the bottom of his heart, and so do I. I will miss you but I'm going away. I know you will still be a member of this chamber and you will be sitting there relaxed while the new Speaker Pro Tem's feet are falling off, so thank you for your service up there."

Representative Quall: "Thank you Mr. Speaker. I not only want to acknowledge your fairness and the good tone you set for debate on this floor, but I must share that to my wife Allene, you are her favorite T.V. personality. I might add people talk about fairness, I know how fair he is because he has gaveled me down when I was making a very good point. But again, I want to thank you Representative Morris for your friendship. I get a paycheck today, I want to thank you for your friendship and being a colleague of mine, thank you very much."

Representative Hinkle: Thank you Mr. Speaker. I too would like to join my colleagues in congratulating you and thanking you for your good service and also for the scariest moment I ever had on the House Floor. You called me to the rostrum one day when everyone was retiring and I thought you were making an announcement I didn't know about yet, that maybe you had talked to my wife or something. Your good humor has been fun and I have to admit to some of us, it has been fun to watch the Speaker up there as the debate goes on, and to watch the faces that they make. Now he tries to play poker pretty hard, but once in a while we were able to break him down completely, like we did just now. It's a tough job and you did it well, with dignity and fairness, and to us that is very important. I really appreciate that you were very accessible and when we wanted to storm the rostrum, you looked a little nervous sometimes, but you were very accepting and approachable. We look forward to working with you more this coming session, thank you."

Mr. Speaker: Thank you Mr. Speaker for recognizing me from the back of the chamber. I am speaking on behalf of Representative Kirby and myself, thank you for the wonderful job you have done for all of us, you are tremendous not only for this house, this institution, but for the entire people of the State of Washington who we represent. From the bottom of my heart I really appreciate what you have done, thanks Jeff very much."

Speaker Pro-Tempore Morris: "I don't have a prepared speech but from the bottom of my heart, this is a business of personalities and I've really enjoyed serving all of you up here. Trying to be fair and making the institution run and making sure that we didn't turn into the Taiwan Legislature with fist fights and things being thrown around the chamber. I thought my good seatmate was done getting me all choked up after last session, and the 45th end-of-Quall dinner I had to sit through, I thought I had moved on to acceptance. You have been a great mentor and your comments mean a great deal to me, all of your remarks mean a lot to me. You have all honored me with this position and I look forward to working with you the next two years in a different capacity. Representative Moeller, Speaker Pro-Tem elect, will do an able job and I look forward to hassling him from the floor. Thank you all very much, it has been a pleasure."
