Senators McCoy and Wellman spoke in favor of adoption of the resolution.

The motion by Senator McCoy carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Sheldon: "Madam President, I, it gives me pause to rise for a somber note after those wonderful resolutions but I want rise and recognize Trooper Tony Radulescu. And, Trooper Tony was killed yesterday, eight years ago in the line of duty. He was performing a routine traffic stop on Highway 16 in Gorst, just outside of Bremerton. Tony had served 16 years with the Washington State Patrol, so add on those eight that he has not served he would be at 24 years today. A wonderful guy, spent time with the community. If you think of somebody, when you see his picture of a trooper that you admire it was Tony. He was very involved as I said with the community and certainly a very liked guy and certainly didn't deserve to be murdered by a driver that he stopped to inspect his vehicle with a light out. So, it's too bad and we will remember Tony. Thank you Madam President."

REMARKS BY SENATOR LIAS

Senator Liias: "Thank you Madam President and thank you to Senator Sheldon. I had the opportunity to meet Tony's family eight years ago and some of the people that worked with him. So, thank you for that reminder of what a special person he was and his service to the people of Washington."
