Upon receipt of a complaint, the department shall assign an inspector to make a preliminary review of the complaint and shall notify the complainant of the name of such inspector. Unless the department determines that the complaint is wilfully intended to harass a licensee or is without any reasonable basis, it shall make an on-site inspection within ten days of the receipt of the complaint. In either event, the complainant shall be promptly informed of the department's proposed course of action. If the complainant requests the opportunity to do so, the complainant or his representative, or both, may be allowed to accompany the inspector to the site of the alleged violations during his tour of the facility, unless the inspector determines that the privacy of any patient would be violated thereby.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any duly authorized officer, employee, or agent of the department may enter and inspect any nursing home, including, but not limited to, interviewing residents and reviewing records, at any time to enforce any provision of this chapter. Inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed with the department shall be conducted in such a manner as to ensure maximum effectiveness. No advance notice shall be given of any inspection conducted pursuant to this chapter unless previously and specifically authorized by the director or required by federal law.

(2) Any public employee giving such advance notice in violation of this section shall be suspended from all duties without pay for a period of not less than five nor more than fifteen days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If upon inspection or investigation the director determines that a nursing home is in violation of any statutory provision or rule or regulation relating to the operation or maintenance of such facility he shall promptly, but not later than one day after the date of inspection, issue a citation to the licensee. Each citation shall be in writing and shall describe with particularity the nature of the violation, including a reference to the statutory provision, standard, rule or regulation alleged to have been violated. The citation shall fix the earliest feasible time for the elimination of the condition constituting the violation, where appropriate. The citation shall inform the licensee that, in lieu of a court hearing to set a penalty between the minimum and maximum amounts specified in section 7 of this 1974 act, the licensee may send to the director the minimum amount prescribed by law for each violation, which shall be specified on the citation. The citation shall be served upon the licensee in accordance with the manner specified by law for service of summons in civil cases in superior court. A copy of the citation shall be sent to each complainant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each citation for a violation specified in subsection (1) or (2) of section 7 of this 1974 act which is issued pursuant to this section and which has become final, or a copy or copies thereof, shall be prominently posted, as prescribed in regulations issued by the director, until the violation is corrected to the satisfaction of the department up to a maximum of one hundred twenty days. The citation or copy shall be posted in a place or places in plain view of the patients in the nursing home, persons visiting those patients, and persons who inquire about placement in the facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Citations issued pursuant to this chapter shall be classified according to the nature of the violation and shall indicate the classification on the face thereof, as follows:

(1) Class "A" violations are violations which the department determines present an imminent danger to the patients or guests of the nursing home and a substantial probability that death or serious physical harm would result therefrom. A physical condition or one or more practices, means, methods, or operations in use in a nursing home may constitute such a violation. The condition or practice constituting a class "A" violation shall be abated or eliminated immediately, unless a fixed period of time, as determined by the department, is required for correction. A class "A" violation is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than one thousand dollars and not exceeding five thousand dollars for each and every violation.

(2) Class "B" violations are violations which the department determines have a direct or immediate relationship to the health, safety, or security of nursing home patients, other than class "A" violations. A class "B" violation is subject to a civil penalty in an amount not less than fifty dollars and not exceeding two hundred fifty dollars for each and every violation. A citation for class "B" violations shall specify the time within which the violation is required to be corrected. If a class "B" violation is corrected within the time specified, no civil penalty shall be imposed.

The amount of the civil penalty assessed for each count of violation shall be based upon the nature of the violation and the seriousness of the effect of such violation upon effectuation of the purposes and provisions of this chapter.

Civil actions to recover civil penalties authorized by the provisions of this chapter shall be brought in the name of the state of Washington by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After consultation with the advisory nursing home council, but not later than September 30, 1974 the director shall publish proposed regulations setting forth the criteria and, where feasible, the specific acts that constitute class "A" and "B" violations under this chapter. Not later than December 31, 1974 the director shall adopt regulations setting forth criteria and, where feasible, specific acts constituting class "A" and "B" violations.

The director shall also prescribe procedures for the issuance of a notice of violation with respect to violations having only a minimal relationship to safety or health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) If the licensee desires to contest the existence of the factual basis upon which a citation for a violation is founded, he may within four business days of the issuance of the citation request an informal conference with the designee of the director. The director's designee shall then within four days from the receipt of the request hold an informal conference, at the conclusion of which he may affirm, modify, or dismiss the citation in accordance with his findings with respect to the factual basis of the citation. If the director's designee modifies or dismisses the citation, he shall state in writing his reasons for such action, and shall immediately transmit a copy thereof to each party to the original complaint.

A licensee desiring to contest further a citation for a class "A" or "B" citation or the proposed assessment of a civil penalty, shall notify the director in writing within four business days after the issuance of the original citation or within four business days after the receipt of the decision of the designee of the director, as provided in this subdivision, whichever is later. If the licensee fails to notify the director that he intends to contest the citation within the time specified in this subdivision, the citation and the minimum civil penalty prescribed for such violation pursuant to section 7 of this 1974 act, shall be deemed a final order of the department and shall not be subject to further administrative review, nor shall it be subject to judicial review, except as provided in RCW 34.04.130 and 34.04.140.

(2) Where a licensee has failed to correct a violation within the time specified in the citation, the department shall assess the licensee a civil penalty in the amount of fifty dollars for each day that such deficiency continues beyond the date specified for correction.

(3) If a licensee notifies the director that he intends to contest a citation, the director shall immediately notify the attorney general. Upon such notification, the attorney general shall promptly take all appropriate action to enforce the citation and recover the civil penalty prescribed thereon, and shall take such other action as he shall deem appropriate, in the superior court of the county in which the nursing home is located.

(4) The civil penalties authorized by this chapter shall be trebled for a second or subsequent violation for which a citation is issued during any twelve-month period.

(5) Actions brought under the provisions of this chapter shall be set for trial at the earliest possible date and shall take precedence on the court calendar over all other cases except matters to which equal or superior precedence is specifically granted by law. The times for responsive pleadings and for hearings in any such proceedings shall be set by the judge of the court with the object of securing a decision as to such matters at the earliest possible time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, any licensee who commits a class "A" or "B" violation may be enjoined from permitting the violation to continue and may be sued for civil damage.

(2) Any person who has notified the attorney general in writing that there is reason to believe a provision of this chapter is being or has been violated may himself bring, in the name of the state, any of the actions authorized under this chapter, if the attorney general has failed to commence an action hereunder within thirty days after such notice. If the person bringing such an action prevails, he shall be entitled to one-half of any judgment awarded, and to costs and attorney fees actually incurred: PROVIDED, That if the action is dismissed and the court finds that it was brought without reasonable cause, the court may order the person commencing the action to pay costs and attorney fees actually incurred by the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is unlawful for any person to do any of the following:

(1) Wilfully prevent, interfere with, or attempt to impede in any way the work of any duly authorized representative of the department in the lawful enforcement of any provision of this chapter.

(2) Wilfully prevent or attempt to prevent any such representative from examining any books or records in the conduct of his official duties under this chapter.

(3) Wilfully prevent or interfere with any such representative in the preserving of evidence of any violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or of the rules and regulations promulgated under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No licensee shall discriminate or retaliate in any manner against a patient or employee in its nursing home on the basis or for the reason that such patient or employee or any other person has initiated or participated in any proceeding specified in this chapter. A licensee who violates this section is subject to a civil penalty of no more than five hundred dollars.

(2) Any attempt to expel a patient from a nursing home, or any type of discriminatory treatment of a patient by whom, or upon whose behalf, a complaint has been submitted to the department or any proceeding instituted under or related to this chapter within one year of the filing of the complaint or the institution of such action, shall raise a rebuttable presumption that such action was taken by the licensee in retaliation for the filing of the complaint.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The remedies provided by this chapter are cumulative, and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy, provisional or otherwise, provided by law for the benefit of any party, and no judgment under this chapter shall preclude any party from obtaining additional relief based upon the same facts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any writing received, owned, used, or retained by the department in connection with the provisions of this chapter is a public record and, as such, is open to public inspection. However, the names of any persons contained in such records, except the names of duly authorized officers, employees, or agents of the department conducting an investigation or inspection in response to a complaint filed pursuant to this chapter, shall not be open to public inspection and copies of such records provided for public inspection shall have such names deleted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall, in addition to any inspections conducted pursuant to complaints filed pursuant to section 2 of this 1974 act, conduct at least one general inspection in every six-month period of all nursing homes in the state without providing advance notice of such inspection. At least one such inspection in any twelve-month period shall take place between the hours of 7 p.m. and 5 a.m. or on weekends.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

On or before February 1st of each year, the department shall notify all public agencies which refer patients to nursing homes of all of the nursing homes in the area found upon inspection within the previous twelve-month period to be without class "A" or "B" violations. Public agencies shall give priority to such nursing homes in referring publicly assisted patients. No public agency shall refer patients to nursing homes with any uncorrected class "A" violations or five or more uncorrected class "B" violations, except those nursing homes which the director may exempt because of a lack of facilities of the same type in the area sufficient to satisfy the demand for services provided by such type of facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department shall annually publish a report listing all licensees by name and address, indicating (1) the number of citations and the nature of each citation issued to each licensee during the previous twelve-month period and the status of any action taken pursuant to each citation, including penalties assessed, and (2) the nature and status of action taken with respect to each uncorrected violation for which a citation is outstanding.

The report shall be available to the public, at cost, at all offices of the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 18.51 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a nursing home has not been previously licensed pursuant to this chapter, the department may only provisionally license such facility as provided in this section. A provisional license to operate a nursing home shall terminate six months from the date of issuance. Within thirty days of the termination of a provisional license, the department shall give such facility a full and complete inspection, and, if the facility meets all applicable requirements for licensure, a regular license shall be issued. If the nursing home does not meet the requirements for licensure but has made substantial progress towards meeting such requirements, as determined by the department, the initial provisional license shall be renewed for six months. If the department determines that there has not been substantial progress towards meeting licensure requirements at the time of the first full inspection provided by this section, or, if the state department determines upon its inspection made within thirty days of the termination of a renewed provisional license that there is lack of full compliance with such requirements, no further license shall be issued.

(2) A nursing home seeking renewal of a license may, in the discretion of the department, be granted a provisional license under this section instead of a regular license, where there has been a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the standards, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto.

Sec. 20. Section 6, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 2, chapter 247, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of an application for license, the department, or the department and the approved health department jointly, shall issue a license or a provisional license if the applicant and the nursing home facilities meet the requirements established under this chapter. At the time of issuance or renewal of the license or provisional license the licensee shall pay a license fee of fifteen dollars plus one dollar per bed capacity per year, but in no event shall the total exceed one hundred dollars. No fee shall be required of government operated institutions. When the license or provisional license is issued jointly by the department and an approved health department, the license fee shall be paid to the approved health department. All licenses issued under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on a date to be set by the board, but no license issued pursuant to this chapter shall exceed twelve months in duration: PROVIDED, That when the annual license renewal date of a previously licensed nursing home is set by the board on a date less than twelve months prior to the expiration date of a license in effect at the time of reissuance, the license fee shall be prorated on a monthly basis and a credit be allowed at the first renewal of a license for any period of one month or more covered by the previous license. All applications for renewal of license shall be made not later than thirty days prior to the date of expiration of the license. Each license shall be issued only for the premises and persons named in the application, and no license shall be transferable or assignable except with the written approval of the department. Licenses shall be posted in a conspicuous place on the licensed premises.

[If there be a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the standards, rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the department, or the department and approved health department, may in its discretion issue to an applicant for a license, or for the renewal of a license, a provisional license which will permit the operation of the nursing home for a period to be determined by the department, or the department and approved health department, but not to exceed twelve months.]

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 10, chapter 117, Laws of 1951, section 6, chapter 160, Laws of 1953 and RCW 18.51.090;

(2) Section 13, chapter 117, Laws of 1951, section 7, chapter 160, Laws of 1953 and RCW 18.51.120; and

(3) Section 14, chapter 117, Laws of 1951, section 8, chapter 160, Laws of 1953 and RCW 18.51.130.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. Implementation of this 1974 Amendatory Act shall be contingent upon adoption of a Cost-Related Reimbursement System by the Department of Social and Health Services, to assure ability to comply with standards."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "You may speak to the point of order, Senator Francis, but the point of order is that this broadens and enlarges the scope and object of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "I had assumed that Senator Day would raise that. He is a good scrapper, Mr. President. I think I should point out several things. Since this requires that money be paid to employees of nursing homes and of course it is going to require that money come out of the taxpayer's pocket to do it, this amendment, I think, is related very much to it. It provides for cost accounting. It provides for inspections. It provides for citations if they do not comply with standards, all of which relates to how much money we are paying the nursing homes and is very much related to the question of whether or not we should be paying them more for meeting the minimum wage requirements for their employees. I think it is well within the scope and object and gets at the thing that I think we are trying to get at for both involved and that is to meet the needs of the patients. I might even add one last thing and that is when all of the employees came down and besieged each and every one of us with their requests for more money, I talked to them and they were brought down at the expense of their employers, but I talked to them about this bill, which gives them the opportunity to report violations without being in trouble with their employer for it and which provides for the needs of patients and every one of them that I talked to, which was about twelve of them, agreed it is a good bill. I think it is related and it is within the scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as presented by Senator Day, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3235 is a measure which makes the minimum wage laws applicable to nursing home employees. The amendment proposed by Senator Francis, Senator Ridder, Senator von Reichbauer and Senator Murray is a twenty-two section amendment which embodies a comprehensive nursing home regulatory act relating to citation systems, inspection and reporting systems, patient care guidelines and licensing mechanism. The amendment therefore does enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senator Francis, Ridder, von Reichbauer and Murray was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3235 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, when does this bill go into effect?"

Senator Rasmussen: "It will go into effect within ninety days."

Senator Day: "The last word we had from the new director was that he was not going to pay any increase in food costs or anything else until the first of July. How is it going to be funded?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I presume it would be funded like it always is, out of the profits."

Senator Day: "I just want to serve notice that when the budget flies by here I am going to put an amendment on there to see that it is."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think that you will find it will be taken care of in the budget, Senator Day."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "As a cigar smoker I appreciate the gift. Thank you, Senator Ridder.

"I think that this makes it easier for people who wish to just simply get a ballot and not go to the polls that day to do so and vote at their leisure. Is that correct, Senator Ridder?"

"Ladies and gentlemen, forgive me for using a personal example and I am sure the motives are all very meritorious, but there are some hazards here which I think you should be aware of before you pass this bill. I got my introduction to politics in Chicago, despite the fact I am a native Washingtonian. That is where I was in 1956 and as vice president of the Chicago Jaycees I was put on a joint civic committee on elections, one of one hundred to try to see to it that there were fair and honest elections throughout the county, the city of Chicago. As a poll watcher on the near Westside I had some other interesting experiences and today I am capable of telling you how to steal a paper ballot election. And it is regressive, not progressive, to go back to paper ballots. Now in this case it is even easier possibly because there is one step removed. The manner in which paper ballot elections can be stolen and in which I witnessed personally some activities, I will not go into great detail, but I will explain to you simply how it is done when there is a ballot involved and you go to the polls.

"First of all, there is a gentleman seated on a park bench some prescribed number of feet away from the polling place. A truckload of 'voters' wheels up. The first voter is the key. He goes into the ballot box, into the voting area and he folds — gets the paper ballot — the judge identifies him as yes he is who he says he is, whether it happens to have been a tombstone or an apartment house that was razed three years ago or whatever as the ballots are cleaned up in four years. . . ."

Senator Dore: "It is very interesting and I do not want to be rude, but I think you have spoken three minutes, Senator."

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "No, I have not, sir, because if you have been watching the time, I have one left."

"Okay, quickly, he palms it, takes it out, the person marks it, gives it to the next gentleman who goes in, he puts in, gets the blank, puts it in his pocket, deposits the one that is marked, takes the one back, and a chain is started. It is possible to see here how that there could be undue help given to people in voting and I urge you not to go back to the paper ballot."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: "I wish to, on behalf of the Senate, thank Senator Ridder for making her maiden speech and passing out the cigars; and, Senator Ridder, even though you passed out the cigars, from a bachelor to you, the men's lounge is still the men's lounge."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2429, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

MOTION

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "There is a special order of business, Senator Dore. Senate Bill No. 3312 on third reading."

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3312, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Senators Day and Francis):

Revising the law relating to the criminally insane.

Debate ensued.

The time having arrived, the President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3312.

Further debate ensued.

The Secretary commenced the roll call on Substitute Senate Bill No. 3312.

MOTION

Senator Dore moved that Senate Bill No. 3085 be made a special order of business for 4:59 p.m. today.

The President repeated Senator Dore's motion.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I had the floor and I was interrupted by Senator Dore making a motion. How did we get to this bill?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore: "A roll call is in progress."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "I wonder how we got to the roll call even. . . ."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "You may speak, Senator Rasmussen."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I just had a question of Senator Francis, Mr. President. On page 3 of this bill it says that a person cannot be under commitment longer than the charge for which he was committed by reason of insanity and it would seem to me that if a person was acquitted by reason of insanity. . . ."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Dore: "I rose, I called a point of order, and Senator Rasmussen got the floor when the roll call was in progress at the time."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Rasmussen, the President ruled that you could continue your remarks."

The Secretary continued with the roll call.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3312, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—40.

Voting nay: Senators Rasmussen, Sellar, Twigg, Woodall—4.

Absent or not voting: Senator Durkan—1.

Excused: Senators Atwood, Fleming, Guess—3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3312, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Is a special order of business up now on Senate Bill No. 3085?"

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, what time is it?"

The President: "I will have to call the United States Naval Observatory to find out."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I think the point of order with respect to further consideration of the calendar, Mr. President — under the rules this was to cease at five o'clock and we have now reached that order."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "I would raise the point of order that we are now functioning on what is called daylight saving time and I would ask the President to rule as to whether or not we do not have one more hour if we properly calculate it?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR DORE

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, to add in supplement to Senator Greive's sage remarks, I would like to recall that we called for a special order of business on Senate Bill No. 3085 at four fifty-nine and apparently you have not ruled that we have reached that time as yet, so I would like to continue with the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SCOTT

Senator Scott: "Mr. President, at the time Senator Dore asked you to make the bill currently the topic of consideration, a special order of business at four fifty-nine, the Senate was still considering Substitute Senate Bill No. 3312. None of us at that time knew when we were going to be finished with the consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3312, and therefore I would think it would be inappropriate for him to ask for the four fifty-nine time. Any one of us could have done that and someone else with a bill still on the calendar could ask for four fifty-nine, fifteen; four fifty-nine thirty, and so forth."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "One other point, Mr. President, and I do not believe that you announced that as a special order of business. If the President had so announced, that would be quite a different thing, but I have a very distinct recollection that the record will show that no such announcement was made."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Speaking to the point of order, I thought that I recalled the President saying is there is no objection, the special order would be set."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DORE

Senator Dore: "Responding briefly and agreeing with Senator Rasmussen, that is what the President said. There was no objection at that time. If there had been an objection, of course, we could have debated it, but I think by not objecting at that time you waived your right to raise the fact that it was raised within a bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Scott did hit on a definite point in the sense that other Senators could have made a similar motion. In fact, Senator Dore, at least one Senator was turned down on that same basis. Therefore, the President must rule that I must comply with the concurrent resolution."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich the following Senate bill was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means:

SENATE BILL NO. 3085, by Senators Dore, Mardesich, Marsh, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Connor, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Stortini, Keefe and Walgren:
Reducing car insurance rates ten percent during the energy crisis.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the Committee on State Government was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3322.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Senate Bill No. 3322 was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dore: "Under personal privilege I would like to make these remarks. Commissioner Herrmann has just advised me that this mandatory ten percent rate reduction would require various hearings and he needs additional appropriation in order to administer the bill, so the bill is now placed on Ways and Means in an effort to get an appropriation so hopefully we can get it out of the committee and on the floor before the end of the session."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Clarke: "My advice was that Commissioner Herrmann very vigorously opposed this particular bill, but that he was handling the situation very competently under the present law, and I would challenge the accuracy of the Senator's statement."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Dore: "I just was told that within the last hour by Mr. Bennett, Commissioner Herrmann's attorney, and I think he wanted one hundred thousand dollars in order to conduct these hearings. As a matter of fact, I have an amendment prepared right on my desk now which I would have added to the bill if I had had an opportunity."

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

"OUR FATHER, YOU HAVE GIVEN TO MOST OF US THE ABILITY TO LIVE SERENELY WHEN THE SEAS OF OUR LIVES ARE SMOOTH AND RHYTHMS GENTLE. BUT YOU HAVE CALLED SOME OF US TO LIVES PERPETUALLY IN THE MIDST OF STORM. THE WINDS OF CHANGE, THE FLOODS OF DEMANDS, THE OPPRESSIVE BAROMETRIC PRESSURES OF SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS, AND THE RELENTLESS HANDS OF THE CLOCK CHASING US TOWARD DEADLINES AND MEETINGS AND ADJOURNMENTS - ALL OF THESE BECOME OPPRESSIVE AT TIMES.

"THANK YOU, O GOD, FOR THIS QUIET MOMENT WHEN WE CAN TURN OUR THOUGHTS TO GENTLER THINGS. WE HAVE BEEN WASHED BY WAVES. LET US NOW BE IN TOUCH WITH THE MORE CONSTANT FORCES OF THE TIDES. PUT US WITHIN REACH OF OUR OWN ROOTS, THAT WE MAY DRAW NOURISHMENT FROM FAMILY TIES, FROM SIMPLE PATRIOTISM, AND FROM THE HUMAN TENDERNESS OF THOSE WHO LOVE US. LET THE REMEMBRANCE OF OUR PUREST IDEALS REFRESH US. LET THE OCCASIONAL MOMENT OF QUIET ALLOW US TO BE STILL, AND KNOW THAT YOU ARE GOD, SPEAKING, SUMMONING, EMPOWERING US WITH YOUR STILL, SMALL VOICE, WHICH REMAINS THE MIGHTIEST OF ALL. LET THIS DAY BE LIVED IN TOUCH WITH THE TIDES OF YOUR SPIRIT, O GOD, THAT OUR INDIVIDUAL LIVES, AND THE CORPORATE WISDOM OF THIS SENATE MAY BE A FIT OFFERING TO YOU, AND TO YOUR PEOPLE WHOM WE SERVE. WE PRAY IN OUR MASTER'S NAME. AMEN."

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 3085 was referred to the Committee on Rules.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Bailey yield? How long did you say we are going to be able to caucus?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Atwood, it would be my purpose that we finish the caucus on the budget before we come out. That may mean that we may be a little late in getting to Ways and Means but we must finish that caucus on the budget and we must go to Ways and Means and finish the budget today. That may be a long time; it may be a short time."

Senator Atwood: "Okay. I would rather go to Ways and Means and work the budget so that everyone from our side on Ways and Means can then go to caucus, since we have not seen the bill, even the committee members, it would be my impression that we move the Ways and Means up to three o'clock and work the budget. Haven't you made all your policy decisions on it?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Atwood, we feel that our membership that are not on Ways and Means should be in on the making of the budget. We probably will zero in on only a couple of items that we may want to discuss but we felt before we went to Ways and Means that we should at least give the information to the other members. When we come out and have the budget handed to us the other members have no input."

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, there will be a Republican caucus at one fifteen and we will adjourn the caucus at two o'clock for the committee meetings and I would hope that we could get a preliminary look at the budget at one fifteen."

MOTION

At 12:00 noon, on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 3:00 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 3:00 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1469, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Representatives North (Frances), Nelson, Smith, Hoggins, Ceccarelli and Fortson):

Preventing cruelty to animals.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry):

On page 1, section 1, line 12 after "he]" and before "shall" insert "or fails to use padded set traps or similar devices approved by the game commission in the trapping of animals"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Jolly: "I raise a question of scope and object of this amendment. We are dealing with a complete separate chapter in this amendment than we are with the bill. The original bill 1469 is dealing with Chapter 16.52. This amendment is dealing with Chapter 77.16 so I think it is a complete difference."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, speaking against the scope and object as raised by Senator Jolly, I would like to point out that what he is asking you to rule on is so narrowly defined that we cannot on the same subject matter add another chapter to an act and it says, 'An act relating to animals,' and the scope of that is so broad that I cannot see where the President could rule otherwise and what I am asking here is simply to provide for a humane method of trapping animals. And if that does not pertain to animals then I do not know what we are talking about here today and the scope and object, if the act were narrow and it said, 'An act relating to animals and specifically to this section and chapter' then Senator Jolly's position might be on much firmer ground, but the act is relating to animals. It is relating to all cruelty to animals and that is what we are talking about here, cruelty to animals, and I am asking merely that those people who trap be required to use the type of a humane trap that is being used in other states and which, incidentally, our Game Commission is fast approaching and will probably approve. And I think hopefully that the President would rule that in the interest of humanity that this is well within the scope and object.

REMARKS BY SENATOR JOLLY

Senator Jolly: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, one section deals with domestic animals and the other one deals with wild animals so I do not think there is any connection between the two."

POINT OF INFORMATION

The President: "Senator Jolly, may the President ask, is there any difference between domestic animals and wild animals?"

REPLY BY SENATOR JOLLY

Senator Jolly: "There is."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "If the members of the Senate would permit, the President should like to request additional time to review this particular point of order and report back to the Senate as soon as possible."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "I would point out that while you are debating, the horses are starving and dying."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "For that reason the President expresses appreciation to Senator Guess for his comments but would suggest that the Senate continue with its business."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I would also like to point out that while we are debating it the coyotes are eating sheep."

Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469, together with the point of order raised by Senator Jolly on the amendment proposed by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry), was ordered held for a Ruling by the President.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3118, by Senator Bottiger:
Relating to highway safety.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3118 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3118 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Walgren:

On page 1, line 7, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Section 1, chapter 199, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 3.62.015 are each amended to read as follows:

The state auditor shall establish distribution percentages for use by the county treasurer and state treasurer in remitting justice court income, except for (1) fines, forfeitures, and penalties assessed and collected because of the violation of city and/or county ordinances [and], (2) fees and costs assessed and collected because of a civil action, and (3) penalty assessments assessed and collected pursuant to section 2 (2) of this 1974 amendatory act. A separate percentage shall be established for each city within the county, and for each county, and for the amount that each county shall remit to the state treasurer. These percentages shall be established by reviewing the financial records of each county for the six years prior to January 1, 1969, and determining the average percentage of the net income from that county's justice courts, that each city, and the county, and the state has received for that period of time. The percentages determined by this procedure shall then be provided to each county treasurer for his use in distributing justice court income. Percentages shall be established for each state fund, now receiving justice court income, by determining the average percentage of justice court income that each fund has received from the total income remitted to the state by the counties for this period of time, except that any state fund receiving less than five hundred dollars each year for the two years 1967 and 1968 shall not have a percentage established for it and the amounts of income in such situation shall be added to the amounts remitted to the state general fund for the purpose of calculating average distribution percentages.

The state auditor, with the assistance of the administrator for the courts, shall review the distribution percentages annually. This review shall be based upon the annual percentages of types of violations, in relationship to the total cases processed, to determine if the original percentages established by this section are still proportionately accurate within a margin of plus or minus five percent. In the event the annual review indicates that the existing percentages are not proportionately accurate, the state auditor shall revise the distribution percentages to the percentages indicated in the annual review and notify the county and state treasurer within fifteen days in advance of any quarterly distribution of the revised percentages and the statistics supporting the revision.

Sec. 2. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 284, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of (a) driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or (b) driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of a narcotic drug, or under the influence of any other drug to a degree which renders the driver incapable of safely driving a motor vehicle shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than five days nor more than one year, and by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

On a second or subsequent conviction of either offense within a five year period he shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than thirty days nor more than one year and by a fine not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, and neither the jail sentence nor the fine shall be suspended: PROVIDED, That the court may, for a defendant who has not previously had a jail sentence suspended on such second or subsequent conviction, suspend such sentence and/or fine only on the condition that the defendant participate in and successfully complete a court approved alcohol treatment program: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the suspension shall be set aside upon the failure of the defendant to provide proof of successful completion of said treatment program within a time certain to be established by the court. If such person at the time of a second or subsequent conviction is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended.

(2) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury twenty-five percent of any fine, bail forfeiture or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute, or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor: PROVIDED, That all funds shall be for the exclusive use of the department for the driver licensing program and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62 or 35.20 RCW, or any other section, all moneys derived from such penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth therein.

[(2)] (4) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of either of the offenses named in subsection (1) above shall:

(a) Be suspended by the department for not less than thirty days;

(b) On a second conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be suspended by the department for not less than sixty days after the termination of such person's jail sentence;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction under either such offense within a five year period, be revoked by the department.

[(3)] (5) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, such revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case such conviction is sustained on appeal such revocation or suspension shall take effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 46.61 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The gross proceeds of the penalty assessments provided for in section 2 (2) of this 1974 amendatory act shall be separately accounted for and transmitted to the city or county treasurer, as the case may be, by the court collecting the same, in the manner and at the times that fines and bail forfeitures are transmitted to such treasurers. The city and county treasurers shall also separately account for such moneys, place them in a separate fund, and shall transmit to the state treasurer monthly and without deduction the gross amount of such penalty assessments received, which shall be credited forthwith to the highway safety fund of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1974 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? On the critical part, page 2, there are no lines here, but the last three lines of subsection (2) say, 'or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders.' This is rather wide open. What are we talking about there?"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, there is a series of programs that the State Patrol has adopted, to rehabilitate traffic offenders. For example, if you get so many tickets you get called in for a little interview with a State Patrol officer and he encourages you to do better and tells you what happens if you do not. We have the administration of the habitual traffic offender act, programs of this kind."

Senator Woody: "I can understand the alcohol safety thing and the drivers licensing program but do you have any statistics to indicate what percentage of this fund is actually going for these other similar programs as opposed to the alcohol safety action or the driver licensing program?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woody, under the original bill with the hundred dollars I could have told you what we would be financing because almost half of that would have gone to ASAP."

Senator Woody: "That is the alcohol?"

Senator Bottiger: "Right. We will not be able to fund ASAP with this because this does not produce enough money to do that, but there is a substantial portion, if you ask me to estimate I would say something in the area of fifteen or twenty percent of the highway safety fund goes to drug alcohol-type problems."

Senator Woody: "Let me ask you another very pointed question. In the event that this amendment passes, will there be any other measure used to attempt to fund the highway safety fund?"

Senator Bottiger: "In this same session we have dealt with the highway safety fund in the State Patrol officers' salary increase. I would not want to mislead you there. That is a washout. Money is going in and money is coming out and it washes out right down the line. I know of no other attempt, I can tell you that this particular amendment will produce two hundred and eighty-three thousand dollars in the rest of this biennium and one point one in the next biennium. That will not be quite enough. We are probably going to have to cut down on some of the activities in the safety fund or come up with some other method and I think probably cut down the activities will be what happens."

Senator Woody: "There is one other measure that is floating around here some place, another suggestion, and that is that a certain percentage of the bail forfeitures and fines of the district court be siphoned off and put into the highway safety fund. If this amendment is adopted and this measure is passed, will you then be abandoning that approach, that is the approach of raiding the bail forfeitures and fines of the district courts?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woody, I did not read all of the alternatives but undoubtedly what you have heard is another one of the alternatives presented to the committee by the department and that was the limiting of the fines and forfeitures that could be used by the court to fifty percent. We are rejecting that because I do not see how we can do it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "How much money are we talking about? I am interested in that section. Senator Woody spoke concerning 'transfers of twenty-five percent of all fines and forfeits into the motor vehicle safety fund.' We are talking about a lot of money."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, the twenty-five percent or his fifty percent limitation? This amendment, Senator Dore, would produce in the rest of this biennium two hundred and eighty-three thousand dollars which is just about exactly what we need to keep the fund from going in the red."

Senator Dore: "I am talking about subsection (2) 'There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury twenty-five percent of any fine, bail, forfeiture or cost on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute,' not just for motor vehicle but state statute, 'or city or county ordinance relating to the driving of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. PROVIDED: That all funds shall be for the exclusive use of the department for the driver licensing program and for a state-wide alcoholic safety action program.' Now where is that money now? Who is going to be shorted with it?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Dore, if you received a one hundred dollar fine from a judge for DWI or physical control, this bill would increase it to one hundred and twenty-five dollars. Twenty-five percent of the fine is a surcharge. So the money is not anyplace now. It is new fines being assessed against people driving under the influence of liquor. And as you read, any state statute, or the old gimmick where the counties and cities used to not charge them under the state statute. They would charge them under the city ordinance. We plugged that loophole. We say anybody who is arrested for physical control or DWI has an additional surcharge on his fine, whatever the judge sets, it goes into the highway safety . . ."

Senator Dore: "What is the surcharge?"

Senator Bottiger: "Twenty-five percent."

Senator Dore: "And how much will it raise the rest of this biennium, which is just another five months?"

Senator Bottiger: "In the 1973-75 biennium it will raise two hundred and eighty-three thousand dollars. In the 1975-77 biennium it will raise one point one million dollars, which is not quite enough to keep the fund at its present level, to keep it solvent. They will have to cut down."

Senator Dore: "One further question. As I understand it now, the motor vehicle safety fund is all financed by motor vehicle money, road money. Right?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, sir, it is financed basically by fines and forfeitures."

Senator Dore: "It is on the excise tax."

Senator Bottiger: "What is left over after cities and counties and judges have taken their cut, it goes in the highway safety."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 3118, together with the amendment by Senators Bottiger and Walgren which had been moved for adoption by Senator Bottiger, was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 2, 1974.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1469, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Representatives North (Frances), Nelson, Smith, Hoggins, Ceccarelli and Fortson):

Preventing cruelty to animals.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469. Earlier today, Senator Jolly raised a point of order on an amendment proposed by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry) and the bill was held for a Ruling by the President.

MOTION

Senator Woodall moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469 be referred to the Committee on Agriculture with instructions.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "Is it permissible to act on Senator Canfield's amendment before the Durkan-Lewis amendment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Woodall has a motion to refer the bill to committee. If Senator Woodall were to withdraw the motion then the President believes that the Senate could act upon Senator Canfield's amendment."

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469 be placed on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 2, 1974.

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Woodall was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469 was ordered placed on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 2, 1974.

MOTION

At 3:40 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 5:00 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 5:00 p.m.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Mardesich: "Yesterday, after the failure of Senate Bill No. 2980, I served notice that on the next succeeding day's business I would move for reconsideration of that bill. I would like to make that motion at this time and then set it over rather than continue work now, if the President will allow me to sit down and stand again to be recognized after this speech."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I would like a ruling from the Chair as to whether or not the subject matter being considered by Senator Mardesich's motion is apropos in view of the joint resolution adopted by this body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, speaking to the point, the Chair made the ruling yesterday on that very point when Senator Washington's bill failed and the Chair was asked if his motion to reconsider had to be put before five o'clock and the Chair so ruled, and his bill was almost identical subject matter, or similar subject matter as Senator Mardesich's so I think the Chair has to, in order to be consistent with the ruling on Senator Washington's bill, make the same type of ruling. I just wanted to point out that precedent to the Chair."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I would like also to point out that this matter is in the nature of legislative reform and all I was talking about was doing it on another day rather than today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Speaking on the suggestion of Senator Mardesich, I think we should all recognize he said that with a smile. There is obviously no connection between — oh, it was a snarl — there is obviously, seriously, Mr. President, no connection whatsoever between this type of legislation and legislative reform which deals with our own structure in housing and in procedures. This deals with another agency entirely and I think that would be obvious to the President in looking at the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "If the President would allow me to make a suggestion in view of the time and the fact that the Committee on Ways and Means is scheduled to meet at this moment, I would respectfully solicitate the delay of any decision with respect to this until another day when you could consider the matter at your leisure."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Thank you, Senator Mardesich. The President was just going to request that privilege of the members. If there are no objections?"

MOTION

At 5:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, February 2, 1974.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTIETH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Saturday, February 2, 1974.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Francis, Stortini and Woodall. On motion of Senator Greive, Senator Stortini was excused. On motion of Senator Keefe, Senator Woodall was excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Jeff Joe and Kathy Martin, presented the Colors. Doctor Henry S. Rahn, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ETERNAL GOD OUR FATHER, BELIEVING THAT WE WERE CREATED IN THY IMAGE, AND BELIEVING THAT THOU ART THE ONE IN WHOM WE LIVE AND HAVE OUR BEING, WE COME NOW PRAYING THAT WE MAY BE PREPARED FOR ALL THE EVENTS OF THE DAY, FOR WE KNOW NOT WHAT THE DAY MAY BRING FORTH. IN OUR UNCERTAINTY, HELP US TO SEE THE DIM ARCHES OF THY PROVIDENCE LOOMING ABOVE THE CONCERNS OF OUR DAY, TO RECOGNIZE THY GLORY HIDDEN IN THE FURROWS OF TIME. RELYING ON THEE, WITH RENEWED CONFIDENCE, WE WOULD TAKE UP OUR TASK. IN OUR MASTER'S NAME. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3360, by Committee on Parks and Recreation (originally sponsored by Senator Knoblauch):

Enacting the boating safety, regulation, and registration act of 1974.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, I have eighty miles of Idaho on one side of my district and all the people in Spokane and the Spokane valley have boats and when they go to Idaho they have to have them registered and licensed in Idaho. Now does this mean that they will now have to have two registrations and two licenses?"

Senator Woody: "If they own a boat in the state of Washington it is registerable here just like it is right now, with your WN numbers. If I were in court, then under this bill, if you have a WN number and you live in Washington, you do not have to register it any place else. If I were going on vacation in Oregon, California, Idaho, any place else with my trailerable boat and it is licensed in Washington, they cannot require me to license it any place else."

Senator Day: "They can in Idaho, Senator Woody, if you are going to put that boat in the water over there."

Senator Woody: "We have a reciprocal provision in this act and if Idaho does that to us, then we do it to Idaho."

Senator Day: "Thank you, Senator. What you are really saying then is that unless Idaho recognizes our reciprocity we will not recognize theirs and my boat owners will buy two licenses?"

Senator Woody: "I would say no, Senator Day. I would really say no because you cannot tax something the situs of which is owned by somebody out of state."

Senator Day: "But, Senator, we are putting it into Idaho waters now. Boats fit on trailers and they do drive them across the state line and we have nice big Lake Coeur d'Alene and Spirit Lake and all those beautiful lakes in Idaho which my people like to go over and use, but when they put it in the water over there, aren't they subject to some of the restrictions of the state of Idaho?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, but not the licensing. Just the same thing as the Boeing airplanes when they fly between here and New York, every state that they land in cannot put a personal property tax on them."

Senator Day: "They charge them landing fees, though."

Senator Woody: "That is not a personal property tax."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Woody yield to a further question? Senator Woody, you give a very good explanation of this bill. I just had a couple of questions. On page 5, being less than ten horsepower on outboard motors. . . ."

Senator Woody: "Could you give me that section please, Senator?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Section 4, on page 5, line 13."

Senator Woody: "Yes, subsection (7)?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Subsection (7). Right. Boats having less than ten horsepower used exclusively as lifeboats, and then in another section you go down to eight horsepower. Why the difference?"

Senator Woody: "The difference is the applicability of the act. Section 4 says what is not included, documented vessels are not. Vessels owned by the United States. Subsection (7) is basically the provision that we found it necessary, both from a Coast Guard point of view and, frankly, the yacht club owners' point of view. They wanted to have the little dinghy that is used primarily for their boat not to have to be either the one time license or the annual fee."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question was on the inconsistency between ten horsepower in one section and eight horsepower in another section."

Senator Woody: "They are dealing with two different things. One is the licensing. You do not have to even have it licensed. It is not applicable. This 1974 act shall not apply to the following vessels . . . subsection (7) 'Being less than ten horsepower and used exclusively as lifeboat and/or tender for a larger vessel.' It is completely out."

Senator Rasmussen: "In the other section it licenses it if it is over eight horsepower."

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Now I also see it also requires the registration of outboard motors. Are these outboard motors entirely separate from boats?"

Senator Woody: "Yes. The reason for this, if you will look at section 5, you have to find an equitable technique of looking at an inboard, one of these little kickers with a ten horsepower inboard motor. How do you treat that person as opposed to an outboard boat with an outboard motor of five horsepower? The dollars have to come up to be the same and that is why we wrote it that way. The one-time registration fee for numbering shall be three dollars for each inboard boat. Now in the event that you had that same horsepower but with an outboard motor, it is two dollars for the vessel and one dollar for the motor. You would still be paying three dollars in either event."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question was, if I have an outboard motor, it might be a fifty horsepower, sitting in my basement, am I required to license that?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, one dollar."

Senator Rasmussen: "Even though I never use it, I license it every year?"

Senator Woody: "It is a one-time thing. This is just so the department can have that licensed so that they say, 'Senator Rasmussen owns a fifty horsepower Chrysler outboard marine engine, license number such and such or serial number such and such,' and that way you can always trace it. You know it is yours. If somebody burgles your place and steals it, they know it is yours. Now that is just a one-time fee."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is this a certificate of title issued then on that?"

Senator Woody: "That is correct."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, I have a district that borders on the Columbia River. The Coast Guard inspects our boats regularly and registers them and everything else. Now if I vote for this bill and it passes, every deputy sheriff that comes along will have his interpretation of the law and he will be in competition with the Coast Guard, too?"

Senator Woody: "No, this is in conjunction with the Coast Guard. That is why we were very careful when we wrote this, that we would not have any regulations that were different from the Coast Guard's. Basically, the Coast Guard told us what we had to do and they had to match theirs. If we did not match theirs, then they would not accept our bill as being a substitute for theirs. I should not say a substitute, but in conjunction with theirs."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Odegaard: "Would Senator Woody, or Wanamaker or Canfield yield to a question? I do not care which one. I notice in the fiscal impact statement, it has been stated that this is not a revenue gaining measure, but it does show in a biennium it will bring in three point six million dollars and the expenses total close to three hundred thousand. We are still left with about three point three million. Could you tell me how that will be distributed?"

Senator Woody: "As I mentioned when I first stood up under Senator Mardesich's three minute rule, fifty percent of that, after you take off the expenses. It depends on which column you are looking at, but if you are looking at the two hundred and ninety-one thousand, after you deduct that, a remainder of fifty percent is contributed to the local entities, cities, towns and counties, for their own boating safety programs. Twenty-five percent goes to various other agencies as specified in the act, including, for example, the game department, etc., so they can improve some of the ramps and create ramps. Twenty-five percent goes to the Boating Council which is created in here. The Boating Council with that twenty-five percent can look at specific projects, spend that money for those specific projects, including not only capital construction but education, safety programs, things of this sort."

Senator Odegaard: "Does any of this go to the local law enforcement agencies?"

Senator Woody: "Of that fifty percent that goes to local government, they can use it either to hold classes or for law enforcement, or both. It is up to them."

Senator Odegaard: "Senator Woody, I was not on the subcommittee. I am on the Parks Committee, as you know, but I did not hear all the testimony on this, not being on your subcommittee. Was there any thought of the enforcement being given to a state department such as Game or Parks?"

Senator Woody: "Or State Patrol. Yes, all of those were thought of. Without going into the various reactions, some of which made people jump about twenty feet in the air and others which one could live with, we decided rather than to get into the problem of saying just this particular agency shall be the law enforcement authority responsible for this, we would merely make various things unlawful so far as operating a boat in a negligent fashion, for example; then anybody who has authority as a peace officer, which includes sheriffs, city police, State Patrol, does not include the Game Department because they do not have general peace officer authority. But anybody else who is a peace officer can enforce this."

Senator Odegaard: "Does this present a problem as you see it then with all these different agencies, state and local, which have that power to enforce? Would this cause a problem in the uniformity that Senator Canfield was speaking to?"

Senator Woody: "What Senator Canfield was speaking to was primarily the situation, not the salt water areas, but in some of the lakes, where the various deputy sheriffs are now enforcing their own local county ordinances. They would now be enforcing this act and it would not cause a problem. We have had hearings over in Senator Guess's area as I recall where one of the problems presented by the resort owners was, which one should we follow? One county says you can do certain things at certain periods of time during the day, for example, and another county says you cannot. Yakima says — I think they still say — that you pay fifty cents to put your boat in the water and if you do not, you are subject to a fine. This makes it uniform so that the local government cannot make any local rules and regulations that are inconsistent with this."

"Senator Odegaard: "I realize that, but I mean the possibility of the way it is enforced with all the different agencies. Even though they have uniform rules, it might be a problem."

Senator Woody: "Just like the motor code. A deputy sheriff in one county may enforce it vigorously and in another county may not. But that is the only difference. It will be the same application as with automobiles."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Knoblauch yield? Senator, you are the chairman of the powerful Parks Committee and I think you should make this. . . ."

Senator Knoblauch: "I appointed a very powerful subcommittee, Senator Peterson."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "I would like to ask you the question. We know what the driver's license started out with. It was a dollar, and now it is five dollars, and I would like to have an explanation as to the tag. Who makes up the tag, and how far reaching on the inner lakes does the Coast Guard jurisdiction spread on this? Would you give me an explanation on this?"

Senator Knoblauch: "I will refer your question to Senator Woody, Senator Peterson."

Senator Woody: "Coast Guard jurisdiction covers all navigable waters. To people like Senator Guess, with Diamond Lake in his area, I have just been shocked to find out what constitutes navigable waters. If you can get a canoe on it, it is probably navigable. Technically, those lakes in eastern Washington, and Senator Rasmussen, when you were asking me a question at my desk a minute ago and said that if you use it on the lakes you are not under Coast Guard jurisdiction, that is not true. If the body of water is navigable under any stretch of the imagination or definition, then the Coast Guard does have jurisdiction. As a practical matter, I have not seen that fifty-some feet Coast Guard boat up in Everett any place but on the salt water. I have not seen them on the inland lakes, but they have jurisdiction. If there is a collision in the inland waters on the freshwater lakes, you use the Coast Guard rules as to whom had the right of way. Not any more. They do not exempt under ten horsepower. That is gone."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Who makes up the tag and the numbering for the vessel? Is that the Coast Guard as a whole, then?"

Senator Woody: "Currently, or under my bill?"

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Under your bill."

Senator Woody: "No, we do. The state does."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "I knew that the Coast Guard did not want to get into that and I just wondered for sure."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Woody yield to a further question? Senator Woody, Senator Odegaard almost got to the question I wanted to ask and that is this, we are going to register these boats, right?"

Senator Woody: "Yes."

Senator Talley: "All right. The thing that is going on now, the county assessor does not tax the boats very much because he does not know where they are and he does not want to bother with them. So all he will need to do now is just get a list of this and you will have every boat in your district."

Senator Woody: "No."

Senator Talley: "He can slap the assessment on and it will be worse than that trailer bill we had last time."

Senator Woody: "What I failed to make clear is this is in lieu of. The assessor cannot assess, if this bill passes. This is an excise tax and it is in lieu of the property tax. He cannot put the property tax on it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, section 5 has a proviso on line 31 which says, 'That the fee for each livery operation shall be two dollars and one dollar for each vessel.' Now when we were in the committee and during the hearings I thought that the livery operation on freshwater lakes was going to be excluded from the requirement of having to go get a certificate of title on these homemade boats, some of which are twenty years old. Then you go on down further into section 5 and it says. . . ."

Senator Woody: "Senator Guess, to help you out, look above section 5. Immediately above section 5 in section 4 which is the exemption section, subsection (8) deals with livery vessels. It says, 'Livery vessels,' which are the ones that you are speaking of, and that is precisely the language that came out of the hearing over in your area, the objections your people were making, 'Livery vessels operated in freshwater areas so long as such vessels are primarily used at a single location,' a resort situation; and 'so long as each such vessel carries the name of the owner, company, or resort to which it belongs and carries a number that is part of a consecutive numbering system for all such vessels which belong to the same owner, company, or resort.' They are out of it."

Senator Guess: "But now you read the proviso on line 31, page 5."

Senator Woody: "Yes, two dollars, one dollar. . . ."

Senator Guess: "Then do they have to get a certificate of license, certificate of ownership?"

Senator Woody: "No."

Senator Guess: "That is in subsection (3) further on, on the next page."

Senator Wanamaker: "Yes, Senator Guess, in answer to your question, no they do not. What they do is that they will buy a license for their resort. Two dollars. Then each boat will be listed on there. It does not have to go on the boat. All they have, it is on their certificate for their resort and the number of boats."

Senator Guess: "They do not have to get the certificate of title?"

Senator Wanamaker: "No."

Senator Guess: "Thank you very much, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WANAMAKER

Senator Wanamaker: "I would like to answer a couple of other questions that have come up. In answer to Senator Day's question on whether it would have to be registered in Idaho and Washington, and the answer is no. Under the federal act they do not or cannot register in two states. Therefore they would register their boat in the state of Washington. Also it would be worked out with the governing body of this bill and the state of Idaho, which they have already talked, that there would be a reciprocal agreement that they would have free access between states. Therefore we would not have the problem that they would have to register in both states.

"And in some answer to Senator Clarke's problem, in the first place I would say I cannot bleed too much for those poor people living on Lake Washington and this is, on those small boats, a one registration. And I fail to see — where they have the protection of their boat being registered against theft that it would be money well spent, and I think those people would probably go for this rather than to leave their boats as they are now."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Connor, Fleming, Grant, Jolly, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Metcalf, Murray, Scott, Sellar, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—18.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Greive, Guess, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren—27.

Absent or not voting: Senator Henry—1.

Excused: Senators Stortini, Woodall—2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3360, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Guess served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360 failed to pass the Senate.

MOTION

At 10:40 a.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 11:45 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 11:45 a.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 1, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3020, adopting the supplemental budget (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: That Substitute Senate Bill No. 3020 be substituted therefor and that the substitute bill do pass.

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Canfield, Dore, Fleming, Grant, Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 3020 was advanced to second reading.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3020, by Senators Atwood, Donohue and Odegaard (by Executive request):

Adopting the supplemental budget.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3020 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3020, and the substitute bill was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendment by Senators Mardesich, Durkan, Atwood, Marsh, Bailey, Odegaard, Lewis (Harry) and Guess was adopted:

On page 29, add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. General Fund surplus revenues from all sources, excluding federal funds, for the 1973-75 biennium in excess of $2,200,276,000, but not to exceed $20 million, as determined by the Department of Revenue, State Treasurer and Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, shall be credited to the State Treasurer for deposit to a special fund for special levy relief to be distributed through the school apportionment formula."

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Mardesich, Durkan, Atwood, Marsh, Bailey, Odegaard, Lewis (Harry) and Guess:

On page 29, line 20, add a new section following section 57 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. General Fund agency reversion of funds appropriated for expenditure during the 1973-75 biennium, excluding federal funds, but not to exceed $35 million, as determined by the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, shall be credited to the State Treasurer for deposit to a special fund for special levy relief to be distributed through the school apportionment formula."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Durkan yield? We are discussing the Mardesich, Durkan, Atwood, Marsh, Bailey, Odegaard and Lewis amendment, are we? I seem to recollect that last night when we were discussing this the general thinking, I thought, was that it would go into the school apportionment fund for distribution under the apportionment formula. And the way this is worded it is for special levy relief. Are you saying now it should only go to those districts that have special levies and should it go in proportion to the amount of special levies or is it available for general apportionment?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, what I am saying is exactly what we said up there yesterday, Senator. Any amount of money that is to be distributed will go to all school districts and hopefully it will prevent the necessity of special levy, but those who do have special levy will not be able to take the money if there is any available and put that on top of their special levy. They will be required to reduce the special levy by the amount of money that they get. We presently have that section in the appropriation act and I would hope that in 1975 the legislature will pass similar legislation to do just exactly that."

Senator Canfield: "I hope that this would go to all school districts for their needs and that is the intent of this, is it not?"

Senator Durkan: "That is the intent of this that it will, and it would be my hope that the 1975 session will reenact the provision which is presently in the substitute bill."

Senator Canfield: "I think under those conditions it is a very good amendment."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment by Senators Mardesich, Durkan, Atwood, Marsh, Bailey, Odegaard, Lewis (Harry) and Guess was adopted.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Day and Greive:

On page 6, line 1, after "factors" insert "for Department of Social and Health Services patients".

Debate ensued.

Senator Francis demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Washington, Connor, Twigg, Guess, Talley, Atwood, Peterson (Ted), Wanamaker and Woody.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Day and Greive was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 21; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Canfield, Connor, Day, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sellar, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker-24.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Clarke, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Talley, Washington, Whetzel, Woody-21.

Absent or not voting: Senator Matson-1.

Excused: Senators Stortini, Woodall-2.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, section 7, line 10 after "Appropriation" insert the following:

"PROVIDED, That none of this appropriation shall be used to process after January 1, 1975 any warrant issued by the state in payment of salary and wages or reimbursement of expenses paid state officials or employees or payments to vendors which shall contain any statement, representation, contract, or commitment that requires the payee to consent thereto as a condition of endorsement or receiving payment of such warrant."

Senator Newschwander moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Newschwander and Scott:

On pages 28-29 strike all of new section 55 and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. On and after the effective date of this 1974 amendatory act, but not later than March 31, 1974, it is the intent of the legislature that each and every agency of state government, in cooperation with the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, shall abolish all full time personnel authorizations which were either unfilled or unfunded as of December 31, 1973, except that such unfilled or unfunded personnel authorizations as are funded under the provisions of this 1974 amendatory act or any concurrent act of this third extraordinary session of the Forty-third legislature shall not be affected by the provisions of this section; PROVIDED FURTHER, That such savings as determined by the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, achieved by such action, shall be lapsed to reserve and remain unexpended."

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Newschwander yield? Senator, I am certainly one hundred percent in favor of your concept here, but I wonder what you mean by the last where you quit there and say the money shall remain unexpended. Forever? Until when? Remain unexpended?"

Senator Newschwander: "Any money that is left at the end of the biennium supposedly goes back to the fund there like the general fund, but many times we have found that they have not filled these positions and the money has been used for something else. I think we heard testimony upstairs in one of our meetings where one of the departments did not fill positions and used the money actually for positions that were unfunded. So I am saying that any time there is a funded unfilled position as of this date, I want to make sure it goes back to the general fund at the end of the biennium."

Senator Canfield: "Well, I agree with that, Senator, but when you say 'unexpended' I wonder if it means forever or just to the end of the biennium."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Newschwander failed and the amendment by Senators Newschwander and Scott was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 29, add a new section following section 58, being renumbered section 60, as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. If any provision of the 1974 act or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Remember the remaining section consecutively.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted:

On line 1 of new section 61 added by the Durkan amendment after "If any provision of" strike "the" and insert "this".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Durkan yield to a minor question? Shouldn't this amendment be before the emergency clause?"

Senator Durkan: "I have no objection to it being put before the emergency clause. With the permission of the body, I so move."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood and Newschwander:

On page 1 after line 10, strike the remainder of the act and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. That the following appropriations are hereby adopted and subject to the provisions set forth in the following sections or so much thereof as shall be sufficient to accomplish the purposes designated are hereby appropriated and authorized to be disbursed by the designated agencies and offices of the state and for other specified purposes, including operations and capital improvements, for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975, except as otherwise provided, out of the several funds of the state hereinafter named.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator, you just said that the cigarette taxes were raised in this bill?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate, I have only one comment to make with respect to the budgetary matters in general as distinguished from the particular matter which is before us today. There has been delivered to Senator Durkan and Senator Donohue certain information with respect to federal funding of various programs and the indication has included potential dates of forwarding of these federal funds to the state, which federal funds would be used for matching money and/or implementation of new programs. It is a very definite possibility that we will have all that information very shortly, which will enable us to consider whether we should allow any such new programs or whether we may make adjustments in this budget as a consequence of our knowledge with respect to these new federal funds. And I for one would reserve the right and those who could do so here now with respect to further consideration and reopening of the whole budgetary problem when we do have those facts and figures before us."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, would you restate what rights you are reserving, for the record?"

Senator Mardesich: "I am reserving the right to further reopen the whole budget question, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "On the basis that the federal funds will be decreased?"

Senator Mardesich: "Increased."

Senator Rasmussen: "It will be increased?"

Senator Mardesich: "Yes, sir. Which may be able to result in a savings of general fund moneys in excess of twenty million dollars."

Senator Rasmussen: "And what approximate date do you anticipate this information, before April?"

Senator Mardesich: "We now have received that information, as of just the other day a letter was forwarded to us with that information."

MOTION

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would move that Senator Mardesich's remarks be put in the record as a matter of personal remarks because we had nothing before the Senate at the time."

The President: "If there are no objections, it is so ordered."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator, are you referring at all to any kind of a secret agreement between the Speaker of the House and the majority party here in the Senate in these remarks as regards the April session?"

Senator Mardesich: "I have no secrets, Senator Lewis. You of all people should know that."

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 29, line 28, insert the following new section:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. . . . Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, there shall be a moratorium on state agency hiring effective February 15, 1974: PROVIDED, That such moratorium shall not apply to state correctional institutions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, with the concurrence of the Legislative Budget Committee, shall plan such moratorium in such a manner as to insure the maintenance of essential services of state agencies involved within the purview of this act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, in both the Durkan budget and the Atwood budget there was a provision for increasing the staff characteristics at the soldiers' home at Retsil and Orting, putting on some thirty-two new positions and funding them. As I read your proposed amendment you would then put a moratorium on that hiring since it would come after February 15, and we could not hire them even though we just appropriated the money."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "No, that is incorrect, Senator Bottiger. If you read the last two lines it says that such plans, such moratorium in such a manner as to insure the maintenance and essential services of state agencies involved within the purview of this act. In direct answer to your question, the intent of this amendment, if you want further clarification for the record, the intent of this amendment is to permit OPP&FM to develop an overall engineered state plan of holding personnel as close to the present level as is practicable. In those specific instances that we have authorized within the budget, it is not any intent of this amendment to curtail those. What I am talking about specifically is an example of the Department of General Administration, for instance in the area of purchasing. If they are short a purchasing agent now, the procedure would be that OPP&FM would look at the entire purchasing department, make a determination as to whether or not they could, by shifting loads around, handle the problems of the state in a proper manner. And OPP&FM has assured us that they can and would do this."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lewis, with your explanation I still am very much concerned about the use of the phrase 'to insure the maintenance of essential services,' when it is clearly our intent to improve an essential service with the appropriation to those two soldiers' homes and it causes me a great deal of concern in the way this was worded. I appreciate your expression of intent, though."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Lewis yield? Senator, I am not on Ways and Means. I did not hear the original discussion that went into the amendment, but I understand it is going to be vetoed, but I would like a little further explanation of how you contemplate this amendment, how you think that is going to work, what effect that is going to have."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Thank you, Senator Greive. Very simply put and as briefly as I can state it, we would establish a moratorium on state agency hiring as of February 15. From that time on, and that moratorium would not apply to state correctional institutions, the reason being that I think we could have some problems at Walla Walla and I would not want to curtail the hiring there immediately. In all other areas the judgment of OPP&FM working with and in conjunction with the state agency in engineering the location and the services provided by personnel within that department would be instigated prior to any hiring of new personnel. In other words, one of the problems we have is that many of the quits are in the lower, lower areas. The gals who work on the desks. But before any additional hiring was done in the higher levels, OPP&FM would be assured that the public was serviced properly and that the agency could perform the functions that we had assigned it, but we would require such agency, prior to hiring, to work in conjunction with OPP&FM. They have done this on one agency already, two years ago. It provided substantial savings in state government. It guaranteed the services that we said we would provide. The agency itself will not do it unless it is working with an engineering group from OPP&FM. And I feel sure that there would be a substantial savings without reduction in services. That, simply put, is how it would operate."

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3020 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Durkan yield to a question? About how many state employees do we have and do you know approximately what number would receive salary increases under this measure?"

Senator Durkan: "There is about twenty-seven thousand in the general fund and I do not recall the exact amount in the highways fund, but the twenty-two step and below is about seventeen thousand - would be entitled to salary increases under this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, I have discussed with you the problems of property tax refund, as a result of the Valentine case. I notice that this is not in this budget and you made assurances to me that is a problem when we get the answers to it we will have to deal with it."

Senator Durkan: "The staff has already started examining just what the problem is in the Valentine decision as to how many counties are going to be involved, whether or not the statute of limitations has run on some of those counties other than Pierce County, whether or not the moneys which have been expended can be gotten back, what the impact is going to be on certain school districts as a result of the loss of this property tax. When we do get some information which is reliable and stable, I intend to make recommendations to the Ways and Means Committee which will permit this legislature to intelligently discuss it."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3020, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Woody—32.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3020, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, line 11, section 1, after "of" and before "any" strike "one hundred dollars in addition to" and insert "twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to,".

On page 2, line 22, section 1, after "offenders." add "Such penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3118 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Do your amendments increase the fiscal impact of this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "The amendments, Senator Durkan, reduce the fiscal impact of the bill. I have attached a fiscal note to the amendments that were passed out which would be the bill as amended. These are not the original fiscal notes that would have been approximately seventy-five percent higher."

Senator Durkan: "I do not find a date on this fiscal note. Is that the 31st, '74?"

Senator Bottiger: "Well, it was prepared Saturday, Senator Durkan. It was prepared Friday or Saturday. I asked Jack Nelson from the department to bring it up to date and supply me with that as soon as possible. I got it Saturday and had it duplicated."

Senator Durkan: "Let me phrase it again. Did the committee have time to consider the increase in fees before it passed the bill out?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Durkan, as the bill went out of committee we had a flat hundred dollar penalty assessment. We considered the impact of that and the fiscal note. When the bill hit Rules we frankly could not get enough votes to get it out of Rules at one hundred dollars because it made it impossible for the judge in certain cases to reduce it. So with the concurrence of the members, I should not say concurrence, but at least with the knowledge of the Rules Committee members we reduced it to twenty-five percent of whatever his penalty would be. The fiscal note explains how they arrived at this figure and that is what I bring to you today and I cannot say that the Transportation Committee had this, no."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3118, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Fleming, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall—42.

Voting nay: Senators Grant, Woody—2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Francis—2.

Excused: Senators Mardesich, Walgren—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3118, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1469, by Committee on Agriculture (originally sponsored by Representatives North (Frances), Nelson, Smith, Hoggins, Ceccarelli and Fortson):

Preventing cruelty to animals.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469 and the following amendment proposed by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry) on Friday, February 1, 1974 and the point of order as raised by Senator Jolly on the scope and object of the amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 12 after "he")" and before "shall" insert "or fails to use padded set traps or similar devices approved by the game commission in the trapping of animals".

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling on the point of order as presented by Senator Jolly, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469 is a very broad measure which prohibits any cruel activity to animals, animals as defined by the original statute being amended to include all living creatures except man. The amendment by Senator Durkan states that certain trapping activities would be included within the law. Therefore the amendment does not enlarge the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry) was declared to be within the scope and object of the bill.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I think, Senator Durkan, you may now answer my question. What is an enjoyable and painless way to die? I would like to have a little testimony from your own personal experience if I may?"

Senator Durkan: "Well unfortunately, no one here who is going to vote against my amendment is going to have the opportunity to put their foot or leg in a steel jaw trap. That is one of the unfortunate incidents of this amendment. It is going to be very easy to defeat this amendment because the only recipients who are going to feel about a painful way to die are going to be the animals. I recognize that I certainly am in the minority this morning in talking about something such as a padded trap or an offset trap because there is not any painless way to die, but simply put, this type of a trap which has been used and which this Game Department is experimenting on, is less painful, Senator, than the steel jaw trap and is less painful than the gopher trap that you use. The only thing that I can think of is simply that if there is some way to make it less painful for animals if we do have to have predator control, then what is wrong with doing something about it? What is wrong with using a padded trap? What is wrong with using an offset trap? I fail to see why this Senate is opposed to doing something that will make it less painful for animals in the event that we do have to control them. That is simply what my amendment says and that is all it says. It does not say that we are not going to control predators and it does not say that we are not going to continue to trap. And anyone who misunderstands that then simply has not read my amendment. But it does say that we in the Senate have finally decided that we are going to take a less painful way to trap animals, even if we have to dispatch them. That does not seem to be too difficult to me."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Greive: "Will Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator, I am very much inclined to vote for your amendment. In fact I think it is an excellent idea. The only thing that crossed my mind is, have there been any studies made as to the effectiveness of this particular method of trapping animals?"

Senator Durkan: "There has been. It has been made by many state game departments including our own Game Department who recognize that the padded offset trap is a much more humane way to be used in trapping and it is an Econbear, that is the name of an offset trap. They have decided that it is a method by which it is much less painful to animals when they are trapped and you do not get the gouging of the legs or the tearing off of the legs or things such as that. There are studies on it."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Durkan demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Fleming, Bailey, Stortini, Scott, Metcalf, Lewis (Harry), Murray, Wanamaker and Woody.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry) was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 27; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Connor, Durkan, Fleming, Greive, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Murray, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Whetzel—16.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Talley, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—27.

Absent or not voting: Senators Dore, Francis, Sellar, Twigg—4.

Excused: Senator Mardesich—1.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, Senator Francis was excused.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, section 1, line 10, after "[otherwise,]" and before "animal" strike "[any domestic]" "an" and insert "any domestic".

On motion of Senator Bailey, there being no objection, the amendment on the Secretary's desk by Senator Bailey to page 2, line 1, following section 1 adding a new section was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 2, immediately following section 1, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If the county sheriff shall find that said domestic animal has been neglected by its owner, he may authorize the removal of the animal to a proper pasture or other suitable place for feeding and restoring to health."

Renumber the old section 2 to read "Sec. 3."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, there being no objection, the amendment by Senators Durkan and Lewis (Harry) on the Secretary's desk to page 2, following section 1 adding a new section was withdrawn.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 8, after "confines [,]" and before "or causes" insert "or captures".

On page 1, section 1, line 9, after "transported" and before "or confined" insert "captured".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I raise scope and object on this amendment now since we have adopted the word 'domestic'."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I do not believe that it does what Senator Woodall described that he said it would because we have restricted it now only to domestic animals and so I do not see that it hurts the bill but let us put it to a vote and resolve it that way."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Bailey believes that Senator Bailey's remarks are correct, inasmuch as the Senate in its judgment amended the bill to include the word 'domestic'."

The amendments proposed by Senator Lewis (Harry) to page 1, section 1, lines 8 and 9 were ruled out of order.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 11, strike "[or unnecessarily painful]" and insert "or unnecessarily painful".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I think this is another entry through the back door and I am referring now to another bill which I have seen floating around here from time to time, Senator Lewis, with regard to fairs and rodeos where you have calf catching and roping and bronc riding and things like that and you might say, 'Well, those are unnecessarily painful.' Now I have never talked to a horse and I do not know how painful it is but I do know that when you catch a calf on the run with a rope and that calf goes end over end it could be, I suppose in your definition, unnecessarily painful. And I am just wondering if you have some idea in mind that you could use this bill to outlaw all the rodeos and activities of that sort where we use animals. Would you care to mention your answer to that?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Canfield, I would like to suggest that you read the language in the paragraph you are talking about. It says 'any person who willfully transports or confines or causes to be transported or confined an animal or animals in a cruel or unnecessarily painful manner.' We are talking about transporting or confining. I am talking about four horses tied to a post fifty feet from a river and left to die from thirst. Two of them were dead when they got to that situation. The other two were just barely alive. We are only talking about transporting and confining. It has nothing to do with rodeos which I enjoy watching very much. And all I am suggesting in this amendment is that the word 'cruel' is a difficult one to define and we should reinstate, the same way as we reinstated the word 'domestic', the words 'or unnecessarily painful' because it is part of the old language. It did not effect anybody in agriculture over all the years and this new bill has taken it out. You have had it all this time and so now today to try to read an interpretation that I am trying to stop rodeoing is really an error. Senator, I am not trying to do that, I assure you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Canfield yield? Senator, I have not been riding horseback lately but I used to be quite an ardent fan of it and although I have a long bar in my saddle and use the proper horsehair pad and everything, would you consider my riding a horse cruel and unusual punishment?"

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, I decline to answer. I do not have all the data in mind. It could be."

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and amendment was adopted.

Senator Woodall moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, after "of a" strike "gross".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate will consider the amendment proposed by Senator Woodall and the amendment by Senator Woody simultaneously.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 12, after "misdemeanor" strike the balance of the material down through and including "imprisonment" on line 14.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Senator Woody, what are the criminal penalties on a misdemeanor?"

Senator Woody: "I knew somebody was going to ask that. I do not commit mere misdemeanors. I do not recall. Ninety days, two hundred and fifty dollars, my counsel says."

The motions by Senators Woodall and Woody carried and the Senate adopted the amendments simultaneously.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Canfield, there being no objection, the amendment to page 1, section 1, line 10 on the Secretary's desk was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 2 of the title, after the semicolon following RCW 16.52.080 insert "adding a new section to chapter 16.52 RCW;"

On motion of Senator Bailey, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, this has been hashed and rehashed and it ought to pass in a hurry, I hope, so we can go to lunch. I want to comment on one thing, however, that if the Governor in his exercising of his veto powers should strike that word 'domestic' I think the Senate is pretty well on record here today as to the intent of the Senate and it would be another proof of the need to override the power of the Governor in item veto."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I would certainly agree with Senator Bailey in this regard. The Senate has spoken, although I would say that there was a substantial amount of support for the issue it is very clear that this was not the purpose and I would personally ask him not to do that, Senator Bailey. I urge that we pass this legislation which is vitally needed."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1469, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, January 31, 1974.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

In compliance with the provisions of Section 11 of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Washington, I have the honor to submit herewith my report of each case of reprieve, commutation or pardon which I have granted since the adjournment of the First Extraordinary Session of the Forty-third Session of the Legislature.

MERCIE D. WILSON—Mercie D. Wilson was found guilty of the crime of Murder in the First Degree by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for King County, and she was thereafter sentenced to a term of not more than her natural life in such penal institution or correctional facility as the Director of Institutions were to deem appropriate. She served in excess of seven years in prison, most recently at the Purdy Treatment Center for Women, where her conduct and record were exemplary. Substantial additional incarceration would have been required under the law before she could be eligible for parole pursuant to the authority of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

Petitions were submitted to me on her behalf urging that the life sentence of Mercie D. Wilson be commuted so that she would be eligible for parole on the grounds that she is clearly able to assume a responsible role in society, is demonstrably rehabilitated and will not constitute a threat to other persons. The petitions for commutation of sentence were supported by the Superintendent of the Purdy Treatment Center for Women, the King County Superior Court Judge who presided at her trial and the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

On July 11, 1973, after concluding that further incarceration of Mercie D. Wilson would not be in the best interest of her or society, I commuted the life sentence of Mercie D. Wilson and thereby authorized the Washington State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles to consider her parole subject to the complete control, supervision and authority of that Board.

DAVID M. SINCLAIR—David M. Sinclair was found guilty of the crime of Murder in the First Degree by the Superior Court of the State of Washington for King County on March 18, 1966, and he was thereafter sentenced to a term of life imprisonment for such crime.

David M. Sinclair served in excess of seven years in prison, and since August 19, 1966, at the Washington State Reformatory in Monroe where his conduct and record have been exemplary. Because of the statutory minimum sentence provided in RCW Chapter 9.95, substantial additional incarceration would have been required before he could be eligible for parole pursuant to the authority of the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles.

Petitions were submitted to me on behalf of David M. Sinclair urging that his life sentence be commuted so that he would be eligible for parole on the grounds that David M. Sinclair is clearly able to assume a responsible role in society, is demonstrably rehabilitated and will not constitute a threat to other persons and will not be benefited by further incarceration. The Board of Prison Terms and Paroles recommended to me that the life sentence of David M. Sinclair should be commuted.

On November 30, 1973, after concluding that further incarceration of David M. Sinclair would not be in the best interests of society or of himself, I commuted the life sentence of David M. Sinclair and thereby authorized the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles to consider his parole subject to the complete control, supervision and authority of that Board.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

Referred to Committee on State Government.

Providing for review of agency rules by the legislature.

On page 2, section 2, line 4 strike all material down to "session." on line 18 and substitute:

"(1) All rules required to be filed pursuant to RCW 34.04.040 shall be subject to review by the legislature to determine whether such rules are within the intent of the statutes purporting to authorize the adoption thereof. [The legislative council may biennially review agency regulations to determine if the legislative intent is being correctly followed.]

(2) All such rules and regulations, except emergency rules adopted pursuant to RCW 34.04.030, shall be submitted by the adopting agency to the standing rules committees of the legislature at least 20 days before such rules are filed with the code reviser pursuant to section 1 of this 1974 amendatory act. The standing rules committees shall refer such rules to the appropriate standing committees of the senate and the house of representatives, or to a joint committee designated by the standing rules committees for substantive review and approval.

(3) If the appropriate committee of the senate and house of representatives or joint committee has failed to approve a rule or agency regulation submitted to it within thirty days after such submission the code reviser may file such rule or regulation if the attorney representing the agency involved files an affidavit of non-action by the appropriate committee of the senate or house stating that no action was taken within the thirty day period specified herein.

(4) If the appropriate committees shall reject a proposed rule as not being within the intent of the statute purporting to authorize the adoption thereof, such rejection shall be by majority vote of all the members of both such committees or of the joint committee. The agency affected shall be notified of such rejection and the reasons therefor, and the effective date of the rules suspended for a maximum of 30 days. If at the end of 30 days the agency affected and the appropriate legislative committees have not reached agreement as to the form or content of the proposed rule, it shall become effective as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW and the appropriate committees shall report to the code reviser any proposal for corrective action by the legislature.

(5) The code reviser shall submit a [A] comprehensive report of all said [biennial] reviews with recommendations [shall be submitted] to the members of the legislature ten days prior to the start of each [regular] session."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3192 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

Any person who fails to pay, prior to the end of the renewal period established by RCW 46.16.200, the twenty dollar additional renewal fee when required by this section shall be deemed to have released his priority to the letters or numbers, or combination thereof, displayed on the personalized license plates, and shall surrender such plates to the department forthwith."

Upon receipt of such application accompanied by an affidavit averring that the sole ground for the nonrenewal of his plates was his refusal to pay the additional twenty dollar renewal fee, the department shall reissue the surrendered plates to the applicant and shall assess no fee for such reissuance. On motion of Senator Woody, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2401 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: “With the adoption of the Walgren-Rasmussen amendments and one of them as amended by Senator Metcalf referring to personalized license plates, does this require a two-thirds vote on final passage? I think that we have amended Referendum 33 that was on the ballot last November . . .”

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: “Mr. President, speaking to Senator Newschwander’s point, we questioned that and were informed Senator Newschwander, it was not an initiative, it was a referendum put to the people which merely took a majority vote to adopt. Now maybe you have other information.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: “I think if you would refer to Article II, Section 41, the Twenty-sixth Amendment, ‘No act, law, or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted. No act, law or bill approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon shall be amended or repealed by the legislature within two years.’ With a two-thirds vote.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, does this have a sufficient control by the Highway Department or someone that would determine which busses would be eligible for these lanes? My concern is over, say, an airport bus or something like that which might decide they were going to use this lane. Without someone supervising it I can see where we would have a great deal of trouble and we could find a lot of people crowding into the lane and causing confusion."

Senator Walgren: "Yes, the Highway Commission would be given the authority to supervise it rather strictly."

Senator Bailey: "It would be up to the Highway Commission to control this, to give individual permits to anyone using that lane?"

Senator Walgren: "That is right."

Each county assessor shall cause real property being valued to be physically inspected at least once every four years in order to provide adequate data from which to make accurate valuations. During the intervals between each physical inspection of real property, the valuation of such property may be adjusted to its current true and fair value, such adjustments to be based upon appropriate statistical data.

The assessor may require property owners to submit pertinent data respecting taxable property in their control including data respecting any sale or purchase of said property within the past five years, the cost and characteristics of any improvement on the property and other facts necessary for appraisal of the property. The provisions of this section shall take effect on January 1, 1977."

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendments to page 2 were adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Donohue, the committee amendments to the title were adopted.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3135 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Will Senator Donohue yield? I would like to have an example of what you mean by assessment data."

Senator Donohue: "I think if you will look in the amendment, Senator, it could pertain to sales, purchase of the property, any fact pertaining to appraisals, like if I were to send you a form and ask you, 'Did you build on a bathroom? Did you reshingle your house? Have you remodeled? Have you built a new barn on your property?' and that type of thing. The approach that is suggested here in this pilot program is the same kind of approach that you, I am sure, understand in your personal property tax where you have to turn in the information, and that is all it is."

Senator Matson: "You are saying then if I improve my property in any way I would be required to report that to the county assessor?"

Senator Donohue: "If you improved your property the answer would be yes."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I had a chance to go over the forms and the questionnaire and the layout with Mr. Johnston's staff. Basically what the form and the request for information includes is how many bathrooms do you have, how many fireplaces, did you make any physical additions onto your house? Not improvements in the sense of painting it or things of this nature. Now this is a pilot program whereby the taxpayer would be submitting to the assessor a self-appraisal program like we use in industry and it is thought that if the property owner understands what goes into the appraisal and has a part in fixing the value on his property that he will begin to understand the problems of the assessor and of the state. I think it is a good idea that can be tried. Now if I could bring down for you, some of the form questions, remember the assessor already has this in his file and he can compare that against what is already currently in the file on that particular parcel."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, partly in answer to Senator Matson's question, the county assessor, Ken Johnston, in Pierce County has originated this, has experimented with it and has advised both the committee and at a meeting that I attended last night they received about a forty-two percent return, and in checking their returns they found that they were fairly accurate with the record that they had in the office. He further said, and this I felt was important and I agree with Senator Marsh when he indicated there were far too many questions and they were probably unnecessary on the form. They purposely made this form as a trial run as difficult as possible to see if the people could handle it, that the next form that was sent out on a county-wide basis would be simpler and he also advised that they would send the card with the information out to the taxpayer, the information that is at the assessor's office at the present time. For each property that they have listed they have a separate card in their file and it will also be on the computer. But the property owner will receive this card, along with the form which will say, 'The assessor's department has this information. Will you verify that and is this correct? Do you have two bedrooms or three bedrooms?' And in many instances there probably are errors where they will have a house listed with two bathrooms and four fireplaces and they probably only have one fireplace or something like that. So they will have the information to work from that the department at the present time has, and they have reason to believe it will work successfully."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stortini: "Will Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator, I am concerned about what Senator Dore and Senator Woodall have said here. This bill physically gives the assessor information to assess each year. Now do you read the bill the same way? Will it mean an increase in taxes?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Stortini, this particular question was brought up in the Senate Ways and Means Committee and I would assume that the answer to that would be yes. But let us look at it a different way. Senator Dore brought out the point that under the four year cyclical program that we are involved in now in assessing property that you have the bite every four years. Now this bite in the past, as Senator Dore well knows, has been a very great jump. In other words, it was never distributed over a four year period, it always occurred at the end of the fourth year and you had one huge jump in property taxes. It is possible that this four year cycle then would take into consideration the annual update of property and as Senator Dore said we have an inflationary problem. And that is true. So that if this went into effect and if in fact this became law, Senator Woodall, after December 31, 1976, which is the expiration date of this particular act, then it is very possible that there would be an increase of taxes slightly every year instead of a jump at the end of the fourth year.

"Now, Senator Woodall, in answer to your question pertaining to the language that you read, this is old language that is in the law now. We had to bring this section in so that we could pick up the January 1 date of 1977, which would reinstate all of the present laws. So it is a pilot program. It is designated to occur only in Pierce County because in the budget bill that we passed there is a proviso that says the Department of Revenue shall not allow other counties to go into this program and there is two hundred thousand dollars for Pierce County in the budget bill for the pilot program."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Canfield: "Senator Donohue, if you will yield, I will ask you what the experience has been with regard to the personal property filings. Have they worked well? Has there been public acceptance? What has been the cost comparatively, and what has been the revenue raised in comparison with the previous procedure? Could you answer, Senator Donohue?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Canfield, I do not have the actual cost figures but the testimony that we have had in Ways and Means Committee in this area has been that the property owners are very honest and they turn in their personal property and are very careful about the amount that they turn in. And they have done a very good job and the revenue from this honesty, if I might say so, of the property owners turning in this property has increased. Now when I say it has increased the revenue it would mean that over the years of course, we have had this about five or six years I think, that we have been involved in the personal property reporting, there has been an increase but of course this is not just due to the honesty of the individual taxpayer but it has been due to the increased amount of personal property that different property owners possess at this time."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Senator Bottiger, have you any experience in Pierce County, since your assessor asked for this plan? Have you any testimony in regard to benefits and costs?"

Senator Bottiger: "I am not sure I can answer as to benefits and cost, Senator Canfield. I can give you an idea and possibly if I can expand on your question and my answer a little bit. Senator Dore, of course, brought one of the early lawsuits involving the four year recycle program and those of you that have been very carefully reading the court cases and especially the recent Valentine case, have to be aware that at least in my opinion the court is very close to saying that four years is not often enough. And remember the assessor does not set taxes. He puts the value on property within his county on which somebody else sets the taxes. Now we imposed a one hundred and six percent limitation, and how do you spread that limitation amongst the taxpayers within that county? I think, contrary to Senator Dore's comments, it is grossly unfair if I build a barn and wait four years to get caught while my neighbor down the street got caught the year he built the barn and he pays more than I do for an identical piece of property. Now that is not fair and the purpose of the four year cycle is to say at least every four years you will pick up those items: Now this bill, as Senator Donohue mentions, is designed for Pierce County. It is the one that has been financed and I do not think anybody, myself included, while I might disagree with Mr. Johnston on occasion I do not think that he should be characterized as trying to raise taxes. He is trying to provide a fairer way to distribute the tax load amongst the taxpayers of the county. How much does it cost? We are appropriating something like six million dollars in order to put the reappraisal program into condition to withstand court cases. And this is a fantastic expense. What Mr. Johnston is trying to do is find a way to do it cheaper and more fairly and to allow the citizen, and ninety percent of the citizens who are honest and who file their income tax and pay their other taxes because they are paying their share of government, to try to utilize that honesty to cut down the cost of government. Now his program has checks and balances and audits in it so that he thinks he can pick up the ten percent at the maximum who might not be truthful. Now what is wrong with that. Senator Dore says, 'Give me three years free ride before I have to pay my share,' and I guess that is what is wrong with it."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Senator Bottiger, this is a pilot program, as I understand, for Pierce County and in the budget bill there is a proviso that Pierce County shall receive two hundred thousand dollars to carry out the purpose of this act. I notice the bill is wide open, as Senator Woodall pointed out. It says any county assessor and it does not say you cannot if you do not want to submit this information. If you adopt this program it says 'shall.' Would you have any objection to putting it back to second reading? I have an amendment on the Secretary's desk to limit it to first class counties and then if it is really a pilot program at least it would be confined to Pierce County because even though the other counties do not have the money they may go ahead with it and once they go ahead they will say it will cost ten million dollars to go back to the old system and even though it expires after two years we will never get rid of it if it is not proper. Would you have any objections to going back and adopting the amendment?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Dore, I would not object as long as there is an understanding that it will be advanced back to third reading. I would point out, however, it says 'shall either cause the real property to be physically inspected or.' "

Senator Dore: "I am talking about line 16 where it says, 'Any county assessor electing to require property owners to report,' so it is wide open to all thirty-nine assessors so this would truly make it a pilot program permitting you in first class counties like Pierce to do it and not permit others."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stortini: "Will Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator, I was under the impression from our Pierce County assessor that the property owner would not have to return the form. Now as I read section 1 starting with line 16, I ask the question, what would happen if a property owner did not comply with this section?"

Senator Marsh: "I would like to yield that question to Senator Dore."

Senator Dore: "Just in the plain language of the bill I would say that if he did not do it he would be in violation of the law so I imagine the assessor then could seek other information, maybe just apply eight percent inflationary figure on his last evaluation. But I would like to just answer Senator Donohue's question because it would be an increase but it would come around the fourth year anyway which is true, but it is not required now. They do not tax you the second and third year. In other words, if you have a ten thousand dollar house and put a two thousand dollar improvement on it on the second year, they do not pick that up for evaluation purposes now until the fourth year of the cycle. Under this you would give the information immediately, they would raise the valuation up to twelve thousand and of course apply the regular mills. It would not affect the special mills because they are limited by dollar amount but on the regular mills for schools, cities and counties, of course, that is based on the evaluation so they would be able to immediately, and I think we are in an inflationary situation, Senator, they would be immediately able to tax you the second and third year which I do not think they can do now. In any event, I made that request, Senator, and if you say you have no objection I would like to move it back to second reading."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3135 was returned to second reading.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore and Donohue:

On page 1, section 1, line 16, after "assessor" and before "electing" insert "in class A counties"

On motion of Senator Guess, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Dore and Donohue was adopted:

After "counties" insert "west of the Cascades"

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Are we referring to first class counties only? West of the Cascades? My inquiry then is what particular county are we referring to? Does this take out Pierce? Is Pierce a first class or a Class A?"

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, I asked their legislators and they said they are first class."

Senator Canfield: "A first class county is one hundred and twenty-five thousand to two hundred and ten thousand, I believe. And a Class A county starts at two hundred and ten thousand. What is Pierce?"

Senator Bottiger: "You did not ask me. It is a Class A county."

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 3135 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Senator Atwood was excused.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3329, by Senators Washington and Murray:
Providing for the certification of sites for thermal power plants.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3329 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment by Senators Washington and Whetzel was adopted;

On page 3, section 2, line 9, strike "other".

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, how is the present thermal siting committee financed?"

Senator Washington: "I am sorry I cannot answer that particular question. Actually it receives funds from the state in some areas. In this particular plan that we are providing, however, the ten thousand figure would be provided by the agency which is attempting to get the approval."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "It is my understanding that it is funded, of course, through appropriation. Most of the funds come from a charge back to the people who put the application in, and if there is any deficit I assume it comes out of general fund. Most of the members of that committee are people who are on the state payroll, all the directors of various departments and all that, and I do not think that part is segregated out but there is a charge back."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "We are providing for here that the agency that makes the application, a private power company, a PUD, whoever it is, pay ten thousand dollars which the plant siting council then can utilize. They do not have their own engineers but they can utilize it for consultants. It also provides that if the ten thousand is not enough the applicant, if it is a private power company or a public utility district or whoever it may be, has to provide the additional funds. So what we are doing here is all financed by the agency which is attempting to build the plant."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Washington, the reason I asked that question was this, I kind of question the propriety of the people that are making the application directly financing the study and the siting, and I think that is in effect putting an undue pressure on the people at the local level who maybe have no funds available to them to go against whatever findings that are being developed. What in effect you are saying is that if these people pay us ten thousand dollars we will come in and make the siting study. In one way it just does not sound right. If these people pay you ten thousand dollars then of course, the study ought to come out satisfactorily to the site that they have already picked. That is my question on this method of financing and I do not know how Senator Mardesich indicated the original siting is handled. Most of the people of this committee are already paid state employees who would apparently take an impartial look at it."

Senator Washington: "They do need to have work done by consultant people who can go out into the field and actually study. The plant siting council itself acts as an agency to hear the evidence and to make decisions. It can be expensive. I do not think the public should have to pay the cost of Puget Sound Power and Light attempting to determine the environmental impact of the study."

Senator Rasmussen: "But I think you missed my point, Senator. This is exactly it, that you go out and get high priced consulting firms to make the study against the weight of the people at the local level that have no money to hire consulting firms to make the study on the opposite side. It is just sort of adversary approach that if you are going to have ten thousand dollars made available for finding a site you also should take the Nader approach and provide ten thousand dollars on the opposite side so that you get some balance. That is my concern."

Senator Washington: "Of course, here you have the private agency, in most cases it is going to be a private agency or it could be a PUD, they are providing the funds for the study and, of course, this information can also be available to the county. It does not prevent the county or the city from actually using their own funds, but it does also provide the additional means here of the private power company at least paying its own way in attempting to come into an area and perhaps disrupt the environment. In other words, they have the affirmative duty of establishing that it does not have an adverse environmental impact."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, I was one of the sponsors of the bill creating the thermal siting council and I would like to address my remarks to this bill and also to Senator Rasmussen's question. Now, Senator Rasmussen, first of all if you will notice in your budget book, you look on page 95 and you will find the legislative authorization for this siting council and how it is financed. Now the whole idea of the financing, Senator Rasmussen, is from two sources. First, from the agency contribution of personnel and you will note that all the concerned agencies of the state are in this siting council which is chaired by Dr. Greager, but the ultimate source of financing was expected to be and designed to be the application fee. And these application fees at the present time are established at twenty-five thousand dollars. I think the testimony is that that twenty-five thousand dollars has not been quite enough and so this bill, although I was not in on the formulation of this bill, is an attempt to not only provide better service but also to raise additional revenue. Now do not talk about the poor people on the local level having to provide matching money. There are no poor people on the local level who are going to build a nuclear plant. There are no poor people on the local level going to build a coal fired plant. I would like to point out that the word 'thermal' in this bill applies to any heat plant, coal or nuclear or whatever, as long as it is a heat plant as contrasted with a hydro which is water power and no heat. So I think this bill is a good step forward, Senator Rasmussen and members, in providing additional revenue and also to shorten the time of examining and certifying suitable sites. And I am sure that if you will look at this from that angle you will find this is a good bill.' "

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have no objection to the committee doing their siting study, but my objection is that in some of these localities the people are not sure that they want these plants in that area. And the means of financing a study to counteract the study that the thermal siting council is doing, along with all of the high priced technicians and consultants that can be hired by the private power companies or even the public power companies in the case of the Washington public power supply group, that these people do not have that means. The county commissioners at the local level trying to represent the people do not have these funds available to counteract these studies that are going to say, 'This is the location we think that the thermal site should be on.' And that is my objection, not to the purpose of the bill in general but your having these people pay an extra ten thousand. You could handle the financing out of the fees that they pay after they are in operation, as far as that goes."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MURRAY

Senator Murray: "I think in answer to Senator Rasmussen's question we should point out that the agencies involved, either county government which in this particular case is the one we are most concerned with, or the nuclear siting commission, does not have to provide the arguments on the other side. All they have to do is say, 'I do not like the arguments you have shown me. I do not think you have covered that well enough. You go back home and do it.' They do not have to put up the money to do it. All they have to do is stand there and say, 'I do not like it. I do not think you are right. I do not think your conclusion is correct. Either prove that you are correct to my satisfaction or you do not get the permit.' They do not have to come up with a positive argument. All they have to do is sit there and say no. Now this specific bill is designed so that we can go ahead and proceed at the state level with the nuclear siting committee before the local level has actually made the zoning conclusions. At the present time under existing law the local level has to approve it before they can even make application and pay the fee or to provide the information necessary for the environmental impact statement they have to have the approval at the local level. This bill merely says that they can go ahead and take a calculated risk, put up ten thousand dollars of the twenty-five thousand dollar total fee and get to work on it. If they get that zoning permission then they are a few months or maybe even a year down the road. I think that is what we are trying to do is say that if everything goes together properly you can take two actions concurrently at the same time. And we are trying to expedite the final conclusion if everything goes well but it does not put any limitation on the right of the local people to say no, on the right of the siting council to say no in the final analysis. I urge your support of the bill."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS
SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3366, by Senators Peterson (Lowell) and Wanamaker:

Granting certain powers to public utility districts.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3366.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following section 1, add a new section to read as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of the revised code of Washington any public utility district of the state is authorized to engage in the business of and have the power and authority to acquire, construct, maintain, operate, develop, reorganize and regulate a system of sewers including treatment and disposal plants and all necessary appurtenances and providing for additions and betterments thereof. Such public utility districts may include within their boundaries portions or all of one or more presently existing sewer districts which include one or more incorporated cities or towns or other political subdivisions: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no portion of any sewer district or portion or all of any incorporated city or town may be included without the consent by resolution of the sewer district commissioners or of the city or town legislative authority: PROVIDED FURTHER, HOWEVER, That such inclusion of any existing sewer district shall not affect the outstanding bonds, warrants or other indebtedness incurred by such district prior to its inclusion unless the public utility district shall undertake to assume those obligations.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Whetzel: “I raise the point of order that the amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: “I do not think there is any case there at all. The bill reads, ‘Granting power to a public utility district,’ and that is what this amendment does.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Will Senator Talley yield? Senator Talley, without going into the bill because we are not discussing the bill at the moment, we are discussing your amendment, but it appears to me on the face of your amendment that you are attempting to put the PUD’s within the category of the statutes that we have previously passed relative to sewer districts. Is this right?”

Senator Talley: “So they would be able to engage in the sewer business, yes. Supply sewer services. They supply electricity and they supply water now.”

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “I personally fail to see where it fits into the language of the bill that I presented, but perhaps Senator Whetzel’s question as directed to the President is in order as to whether this amendatory language fits into the scope and object of the language of the bill. It perhaps might fit the title, but this is a ruling that I cannot make.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “Senator Talley and members of the Senate, in ruling upon the point of order the President believes that the remarks of Senator Peterson are well taken. Senate Bill No. 3366 is a measure which merely permits advancing of funds to municipal corporations suffering financial loss or expenditures incurred in preliminary work in connection with electrical energy facilities. Your amendment, however, grants substantial powers to develop and maintain sewer systems to all public utility districts. Therefore, the President believes that your amendment does increase the scope and object of the bill and the point by Senator Whetzel is well taken.”

The amendment by Senator Talley was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Senate Bill No. 3366 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3366, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Dore, Durkan—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 3366, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Marsh yield? I have two questions, Senator Marsh. First, is this a new program?"

Senator Marsh: "Yes, it is a new program. It is a new program designed to help middle income students who need financial aid. These students often fall between the cracks of existing financial programs. Their families have sufficient levels of income that they cannot qualify for the income programs, the aid programs for the very poor, and of course they are not rich enough to pay for their own, and so this is designed to help that middle income student."

Senator Canfield: "Seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars for a starter?"

Senator Marsh: "Yes, sir."

Senator Canfield: "One further question. I understand from a rather quick inspection of the bill that a student would be eligible at any accredited institution of post-secondary education. I would like to have your comment on the public-private school support question."

Senator Marsh: "All the attorneys who looked at this particular bill feel that it is constitutional within the provisions of the Washington State Constitution and the United States Constitution, so I do not think we have a constitutional problem."

Senator Canfield: "Well, as a very expert attorney I am sure glad to get your advice."

Senator Marsh: "Thank you, Senator Canfield."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Knoblauch: "Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, would this allow the county commissioners to raise the mileage given employees like those who go out on right-of-way problems and so forth? They are now getting ten cents a mile. Would this allow the commissioners to set a higher rate?"

Senator Fleming: "It would allow those county officials who are attending to county business who are not using a county car, but using their own car and now receiving ten cents a mile, they would set that rate and whether they would set it at nine cents a mile or eleven cents a mile, this is what they would do. The cities already do it now."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, how many of these bills have you caught running through here that are borrowing from other funds to make the cash flow fund look better?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, I do not like the expression 'you.' These are Governor request bills."

Senator Canfield: "I amend that to say 'we' then."

Senator Donohue: "There are two or three other bills still in Ways and Means, Senator, which will help bolster the cash flow and I think it will help to the tune of about one hundred and five million. There are two or three more to come."

Senator Canfield: "When you say it helps to the tune of, do you mean it makes the cash flow look better? We are really borrowing this from other funds."

Senator Donohue: "It makes the bookkeeping look better, Senator. That is all it is. We did this in essence a couple of years ago, if you remember."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Donohue yield? Senator Donohue, every month we get that pretty little five by seven brochure from the Secretary of the Treasury and the minus marks get bigger every time and the plus marks get littler and littler. Does this mean we are living beyond our means? What is going to be the net outcome? Are we going to end up with a deficit in this biennium?"

Senator Donohue: "I do not know if we are going to end up in a deficit or not, but there is no doubt about it that we are living beyond our means, Senator. I think that is in essence exactly the problem."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1206, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Donohue, Senate Bill No. 3101 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator, as I read this bill, on lines 8, 9 and 10 it says, 'an accurate statement of estimated dollars increase or decrease in state or local revenues or expenditures for the next succeeding biennium.' We are talking about a fiscal note and I would assume that in a fiscal note we are talking about revenue that would affect state government. One of my pet peeves is that if we have a measure that comes through this body and it is to deal with revenue itself — from taxes or whatever — that if there is no immediate effect or long range effect or effect at all on state government but only on local government, there is no reason for that bill to go to Ways and Means, nor is there a bill for us to be required to have a fiscal note for Ways and Means before that bill is considered. Do you read what I am saying that way, or are you saying by this bill that if it is a local government revenue that the same should prevail?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Fleming, I would assume the way I read the bill and the testimony that we had would indicate to me that if you have a bill in your committee that involves local funds that you are going to be supplied with a fiscal note in your committee. You are going to know exactly what it costs and consequently you would be able to. Your judgment, in our thinking as far as the bill is concerned, will be better because of this information, and this is what we are trying to do, is just. . . ."

Senator Fleming: "There is no effect with whether, for instance, last session House Joint Resolution No. 22 went to Ways and Means in this body and I do not know how the assignments were made and what reason. In the House it went to Local Government. House Joint Resolution No. 22 had nothing to do with state government, and it should not have gone to Ways and Means, and so I am making this point and I hope that this body will take that and note that just because a bill is dealing with revenue — if it is not affecting state revenue — it should not go to Ways and Means."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President and lady and gentlemen of the Senate, answering your argument, Senator Fleming, I have no objection to what you say but lots of revenue measures affect both state and local directly and indirectly. If you will look at section 1, it deals with local revenues too and I think that this body should have an exact — as much as you can — an idea of what we are doing to local government before we start passing a lot of bills."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Senator Atwood, I guess you are saying the same thing that Senator Donohue said, that for my Committee on Local Government I should have that information, but because it is a revenue matter Ways and Means is not supposed to oversee my committee."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3101, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. Voting nay: Senator Francis—1.

Absent or not voting: Senator Greive—1.

SENATE BILL NO. 3101, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3256 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, lady and gentlemen of the Senate, this is a rather unusual measure in a sense. During the last regular session of the legislature we passed for the Senate expenses and salaries of the members the sum of five million eight hundred and eighty-nine thousand and we are now reducing that budget by three hundred thousand down to five million five hundred and eighty-nine thousand. What we have done is taken into account the rate of expenditures we have had during the first six months of this biennium. In addition to that we have allowed for forty days of special session in 1974, what we are doing here today and we have allowed for an additional one hundred and ten days in 1975, the regular session, and we have allowed for thirteen months at about the current rate of expenditure. All those figures added together would leave us a balance of three hundred and twenty-four thousand, provided we hold the line as we have in the past and we have left ourselves the twenty-four thousand and slashed and eliminated from our budget the three hundred thousand to avoid any temptation to spend what was not necessary, and I would hope that the other agencies of government would get the message and follow suit. We are pressing ourselves and keeping an eye on expenditures quite closely and we expect them to do the same."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "I would like to point out to the body and to Senator Mardesich that a third of this cut was dictated by 282 when they cut our salaries back to thirty-eight hundred. The last six months of the biennium which begins in January of this year, was programmed in at ten five for twenty-five of our good members here and I do not think that anybody will be drawing that amount, the difference amounts to about one-third of this cut, so it kind of makes me cry to see this go down the drain, but one hundred and two thousand of that is, I think, dictated by 282."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "We have not eliminated that yet, Senator. Other services and employees. That is still there, just in case."

SECOND READING

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 135, by Senators Whetzel, Murray, Van Hollebeke and Guess:

Memorializing Congress relative to motor vehicle emission standards.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

January 26, 1974.

SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 135, memorializing Congress relative to motor vehicle emission standards (reported by Committee on Ecology):

Recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 7, after "extend" and before "the" insert "for a reasonable time".

On page 1, line 8, after "standards" strike "for complex sources".

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Donohue, Guess, Murray, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Whetzel.

The memorial was read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel, Murray, Guess and Van Hollebeke:

On page 1, line 7, after "petition the Congress" insert "as follows:" and strike the balance of the material down through "effective" on line 10, then insert:

"WHEREAS, Section 110 of the Clean Air Act (42 USC 1857c-5) requires the states to attain ambient air quality standards by May 31, 1975 and pursuant to this law the Environmental Protection Agency has adopted regulations requiring certain transportation and land use controls to reduce the concentrations of contaminants, especially concentrations of carbon monoxide from motor vehicle emissions; and

WHEREAS, Questions have been raised as to what concentrations of carbon monoxide are dangerous to health; and

WHEREAS, Questions have been raised as to the reliability of the data from monitoring carbon monoxide concentrations; and

WHEREAS, Controls adopted or under consideration include management or reduction of parking spaces, a parking surcharge fee, selective exclusion of vehicles, inspection and retrofit of vehicles, bicycle lanes in Spokane; and

WHEREAS, Most of these controls apply to two specific geographical areas, the central business districts of Seattle and Spokane; and

WHEREAS, Certain of these controls may be counterproductive in their practical operation by encouraging businesses to disperse from the central business districts of Seattle and Spokane thus spreading rather than reducing the concentrations of contaminants; and

WHEREAS, The regulations do not give adequate consideration to the reduction in concentrations of such contaminants that will result when the standards governing motor vehicle emissions are attained. Standards for emissions from motor vehicles are governed by section 118 of the Clean Air Act (42 USC 1857f) which does not require standards to be attained for carbon monoxide until the 1975 model year. Attainment may take longer since extension of this time period is under consideration by Congress. Even when the standards go into effect, it will take some time for the replacement of older model automobiles without effective emission control devices; and

WHEREAS, Attainment of the motor vehicle emission standards for a significant number of motor vehicles may render unnecessary most, if not all, of the transportation and land use controls promulgated; and

WHEREAS, The gasoline shortage is working to reduce the amount of motor vehicle usage and to change the consumer demand to motor vehicles that will consume less amounts of gasoline and consequently may render unnecessary the controls promulgated; and

WHEREAS, The deadline required by section 110 has not permitted the Environmental Protection Agency to consider these important factors affecting future concentrations of carbon monoxide in adopting its regulations;

NOW, THEREFORE, Your Memorialists respectfully request that Congress extend for a reasonable time the deadline for compliance with ambient air standards associated with contaminants from motor vehicles until after the standards for emissions from motor vehicles becomes effective; and

BE IT RESOLVED, That copies of this memorial be immediately transmitted to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and each member of Congress from the State of Washington."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Senator, I noticed you left out Tacoma in this amendment here. You have Seattle and Spokane."

Senator Whetzel: "The present regulations do not include Tacoma, I believe, but they probably will."

Senator Dore: "What does that mean?"

Senator Whetzel: "Well, I think they are finding more and more carbon monoxide in Tacoma and they are going to have to come up with a plan to keep the cars out of downtown Tacoma."

Senator Dore: "But it seems to me Tacoma needs it worse than Spokane or Seattle."

Senator Whetzel: "No, I think what you are referring to is sulfur dioxide which is taken care of in another way."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "For Senator Dore's information, we have built a mall in the heart of downtown Tacoma and stopped all progress and automobiles."

The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the amendment by Senators Whetzel, Murray, Guess and Van Hollebeke was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, Engrossed Senate Joint Memorial No. 135 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the memorial was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 289, by Representatives Polk, Lysen, Freeman and Julin:

Providing for motorists' information signs.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 4, 1974.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 289, providing for motorists' information signs (reported by Committee on Transportation and Utilities):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4 add a new section following section 3 to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 47.42 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington state highway commission is authorized to erect and maintain specific information panels within the right of way of those portions both of the primary system and the scenic system lying outside of cities and towns and lying outside of commercial and industrial areas to give the traveling public specific information as to gas, food, or lodging available off the primary or scenic highway accessible by way of highways intersecting the primary or scenic highway. Specific information panels shall include the words "GAS", "FOOD", or "LODGING" and directional information and may contain one or more individual business signs maintained on the panel. The erection and maintenance of specific information panels along primary or scenic highways shall conform to the national standards promulgated by the secretary of transportation pursuant to sections 131 and 315 of Title 23 United States Code and regulations adopted by the commission including the manual on uniform traffic control devices for streets and highways. A motorist service business shall not be permitted to display its name, brand, or trademark on a specific information panel unless its owner has first entered into an agreement with the commission limiting the height of its on-premise signs at the site of its service installation to not more than fifteen feet higher than the roof of its main building. The commission shall charge reasonable fees for the display of individual business signs to defray the costs of their installation and maintenance."

On line 3 of the title after "new" strike "section" and insert "sections".

Signed by: Senators Walgren, Chairman; Henry, Vice Chairman; Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Peterson (Lowell), Wanamaker, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Wanamaker moved adoption of the committee amendment.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On line 8 after "food," insert "recreation," and on line 12 after "FOOD," insert "RECREATION,"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, a question of Senator Wanamaker? Senator Wanamaker, this bill refers to information panels within the right-of-way. What does this do to a Kiwanis Club or a Legion or a church sign that you usually see when you go into a city limits? Under the current law I understand they are outlawed."

Senator Wanamaker: "That is right. Unless there was a service installation that would allow direction. In other words, if they had a sign up there that showed a map of the area or something like that, but no advertising could be on it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Scott: "Would Senator Wanamaker yield again? What is the total number of such logos that could be hung on a given intersection, and is there any restriction as to the types of businesses that might be so identified?"

Senator Wanamaker: "Yes, it must be limited to gas, food and lodging and there could only be one for each business."

Senator Scott: "But there is no limitation on the total number of businesses that might be tangent to a given intersection?"

Senator Wanamaker: "If it was at one intersection and there were ten businesses down the road, each business would be allowed a sign. But that would be on one large panel. It would not be ten signs down the road."

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The motion by Senator Wanamaker carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, following the Senate committee amendment, add the following:

"Sec. 5. Sec. 4, chapter 96, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 4, chapter 62, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 47.42.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) Identify the donor, sponsor, or contributor of said shelters;
 (b) Contain safety slogans or messages, which shall occupy not less than sixty percent of the area of the sign;

(c) Contain no other message;

(d) Are located on school bus shelters which are authorized or approved by city, county, or state law, regulation, or ordinance, and at places approved by the city, county, or state agency controlling the highway involved; and

(e) Do not exceed thirty-two square feet in area. Not more than one sign on each shelter may face in any one direction.

Only signs of types 1, 2 [and] 3, and 6 shall be erected or maintained within view of the scenic system or the primary system."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 149, by Senators Washington and Scott:

Relating to governmental powers.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Washington, Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 was substituted for Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 and the substitute resolution was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 19, after "states" and before "in" insert "and/or with the executive committee of the Western Conference of the Council of State Governments and/or with representatives of the National Conference of Legislative Leaders".

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, I have in my hand a letter that is called the Northwest Federal Regional Council. It consists of nine separate flags of members who are heading the Regional Council and I imagine that is where this Region Ten that we are in is located. Is that correct?"

Senator Washington: "That is federal. We are not talking about something federal."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is it your intention that we start shoving some of these federal officials back to Washington, D.C.?"

Senator Washington: "Well, I would hope so."

Senator Rasmussen: "And leave the state to run on its own?"

Senator Washington: "I would hope so. I would hope that by using this group to get together and come up with some unified ideas on energy that we could avoid the necessity of passing a resolution like we did this morning asking the federal government to take a less positive approach in environment. Of course we know that by standing back and doing nothing the environmental protection agency has gone so far as to require the city of Spokane to build bicycle trails. They have gone so far as to attempt to get into zoning in the downtown districts of Seattle, and I think if we do not do something they are going to be moving further and further into the field of energy. I feel that there are areas that the states can do something. If we do not act, the federal government is going to take the whole thing."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 149, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. Excused: Senator Durkan-1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 149, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Mardesich moved that the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360 failed to pass the Senate.

Senator Guess had given notice of reconsideration on February 2, 1974 on Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360.

Debate ensued.

Senator Talley demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Wanamaker, Connor, Whetzel, Clarke, Woodall, Lewis (Harry), Sandison and Woody.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Does a vote 'aye' mean that the Senate would like to reconsider the action?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Mardesich, a vote aye will be to reconsider the vote by which the measure was lost."

ROLL CALL ON MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

The Secretary called the roll and the motion for reconsideration of the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360 failed to pass the Senate failed by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 25.

The motion by Senator Mardesich to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3360 failed to pass the Senate was lost.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 637, by Committee on Natural Resources (originally sponsored by Representatives Charette, Thompson, Bausch, Conner, Jastad, Van Dyk, Anderson, Savage, Benitz, Schumaker, Zimmerman, Newhouse, Flanagan, Clemente, Goltz, Paris, Kalich, Haussler, Swayze, North (Lois) and Berentson):

Enacting the forest practices act of 1974.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Löwell), Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 637 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Would Senator Lewis yield? Senator Lewis, I realize this has been redrafted and it is a second substitute bill. I know on the original bill there was a lot of concern by the small gypos of the way it was written. They thought it would prohibit them from doing many things and virtually run them out of business. Is there any problem you see in the second substitute bill for the gypo logger?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Odegaard, I would say, in answer to your question, there are problems with this bill with everyone involved. This is truly a compromise. It will protect the forest lands of the state. The gypo logger can live with it. The big logger can live with it. The Department of Ecology can live with it. The Department of Natural Resources can live with it, and overall I think for the people of the state this is the best that we could do. I am certain that we will have a complaint or two, but on the other hand it is time that we made decisions, state decisions, in forest practices because if we do not the Congress will invade this area in our state and we will be working with federal regulation rather than with state. The legislation is long and lengthy. In my view, as a forester, I believe that the gypo logger can live with this legislation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a further question? Senator Lewis, have you ever seen Weyerhaeuser, Simpson and all the rest of them waltzing with the Sierra Club like they did when this bill was heard? It made me suspicious, there were so many people throwing their arms around each other, but you assure me that the bill is all right?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Well, to me, Senator Rasmussen, it looked more like a tango than a waltz."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Would Senator Lewis yield? Senator Lewis, is there anything in this bill by way of appropriations for the extra personnel which would be, and if not - I see you are nodding 'no' - how many additional personnel would the department be requesting as a consequence of the passage of this measure?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Mardesich, the fiscal note indicates that at the end of the second year the department would be requesting thirty-two employees. You understand there are three different boards created in this legislation. I think, however, and it was agreed that we would pass the legislation in principle and that as far as the number of personnel was concerned, that that debate would be a separate one as it regards the budget. I have talked to the Department of Natural Resources and told them that I personally felt the request was too high and they indicated to me that they are willing to pare it back. So the answer to your question is, there is no fiscal impact in the passage of this legislation and that the implementation of it will depend upon the further action of the legislature in the area of budget."

Senator Mardesich: "I have seen a manning chart with respect to this that indicates there will be about forty new employees rather than the thirty-two you speak of. Is there some new chart?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Mardesich, that was the first substitute bill that had that number in it, as I understand it. This legislation has thirty-two point seven at the end of the second year, including everybody involved is what they are proposing."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 637, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 5; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Waigren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody-42.

Voting nay: Senators Fleming, Francis, Grant, Mardesich, Odegaard-5.

Excused: Senator Durkan-1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 637, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Providing for motorists' information signs.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "I have a question of Senator Wanamaker. I asked about service club signs or church signs as you went into a city. You said this was taken care of here but I cannot find it in the bill."

Senator Wanamaker: "No, they are not allowed under this type of sign."

Senator Bailey: "Then another question, Senator Wanamaker. Does this bill extend to inside of the city limits of any town?"

Senator Wanamaker: "No, it does not take in commercial zones. It is outside of commercial."

Senator Bailey: "I said city limits?"

Senator Wanamaker: "I would consider city limits as incorporated limits as city zones and it does not cover that, no."

Senator Bailey: "In other words you would think the intent of the law as you read it would be that service clubs or church directories inside of an incorporated city limit would probably be legal then?"

Senator Wanamaker: "I think they are now even without this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, so there is no confusion, there are two bills. One of them deals with commercial zones and inside corporate limits. Senator Wanamaker's bill is outside of that area. His bill does not change it. I think, Senator Bailey, that the Kiwanis sign and the church sign are illegal now. This bill will not change it but there is another one coming along that hopefully will."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Day, the committee amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Day, Second Substitute House Bill No. 1077, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Clarke yield? Senator Clarke, you are beyond doubt the most knowledgeable on insurance here. Do you read it the same way as Senator Francis, that namely a nonuser of alcohol would be mandated by law to buy a policy guaranteeing that he will not become an alcoholic or something of that nature? Is that the way you read it?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, Senator. The effect of this bill would be to mandate all policies and all health care programs to include coverage of disability or treatment resultant from alcoholism. Now I can go along with that insofar as group contracts are concerned because when you are negotiating a contract for a group, then I think it is desirable to include or even possibly to mandate the inclusion of all types of disability that would be likely to occur within the group. Now I had offered in the committee an amendment which would have eliminated from the bill individual accident and health contracts and that was defeated, I think, by a four to three vote. Now I thoroughly agree with the bad feature, that is it is a bad feature of this bill that an individual who is a complete nondrinker, under this bill when he buys a health or accident policy will be mandated to buy a policy that will include coverage against treatment for alcoholism. And in this way he is forced in substance to subsidize the balance of the policyholders. I can see this as a group concept but I do rather strongly object to the idea of mandating that an individual cannot buy a policy which will be restricted to the type of thing that he actually wants protection against. If he is a nondrinker I do not see why he should be forced to buy a policy that includes treatment for alcoholism and in substance made to pay for that particular coverage."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Fleming: "Senator Clarke, if we did not have the provision in this act that mandated the coverage for this disease, whether you are a drinker or not, and at some point in time because it was diagnosed that you had the potential, which we all have the potential, but you were a heavy drinker or either you were diagnosed as an alcoholic, would that person at that time as Senator Greive said — it would be a tough situation for him to probably get the policy, but if he could get the policy he probably would be charged an increase in premium or an extra amount. Would he or would he not under those circumstances?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, to answer you more or less in order of your questions, in the first place I think that if the person is a nondrinker and wants to buy a coverage which will not include hospitalization for alcoholism that if he starts to drink, why then quite probably he would reconsider and might want to buy a policy that would include that coverage. That is just like any other type of insurance. You normally do not wish to buy or pay a premium for a hazard to which you are not subject. And I think that is the inherent right of an individual to so contract. And I do not think it is up to society to mandate that if he takes any insurance at all he has to include a whole lot of hazards that do not apply to him. So as I said at the outset, I can understand when you are having a group policy that is going to cover a group of people where you know there will be people who will be needing this type of coverage, then it is one thing to mandate it. But to say that an individual must buy something he does not need, I do not think is in the public interest."

Senator Fleming: "Senator Clarke, a second question on that. If there was this added increase and I know that you probably cannot presuppose the situation, but there was an added increase, from my limited knowledge of insurance if I all of a sudden decided I wanted that insurance if it was not in this bill, the premium that I probably would have to pay for that would probably come to a lot more than the ten cents that Senator Day talked about."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, this is not unlike a situation where you elect not to buy accident and health insurance and then all of a sudden you find out that you are afflicted with some sort of a disease or a disability and for that reason want to buy insurance. Then I think it is quite obvious that in fairness to the other people who are buying insurance you should not then be permitted to buy that type of coverage for the identical premium because you are then in a high hazard class and you have elected not to buy while you were healthy a noncancellable type of coverage. Now I think that in all of these insurance matters it is simply a question of equity to the individual. I think each individual should pay a premium commensurate upon the expectancy of his hazard. Now if you want to look at it from a social program where, in effect, you are levying a tax, not making a voluntary purchase, but you are getting into what amounts to social security, that is another philosophy."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Will Senator Clarke yield? From the discussion I have been listening to it seems to me that we should probably have this bill relate only to group policies. If that is so, would it not have been wise to offer an amendment, or do you think it would be in order for us to return it?"

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I offered that amendment in committee and it was voted down four to three. It is really a very simple amendment. All you need to do is to strike two sections of the bill which are the sections that relate to private insurance."

On motion of Senator Donohue, House Bill No. 1261 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator, what is the condition of the general fund as of this date?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Rasmussen, I think that there were two or three figures floating around up in Ways and Means, but I think in the area of one hundred and fifty million."

Senator Rasmussen: "In the red?"

Senator Donohue: "That is correct. When we get through with two or three of these bills that we have had, we have passed some, it will look a lot better. We will be probably forty million in the red. It is a matter of shifting of funds and dates to make it look good."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator, do you believe that figures do not lie but liars do figure, or how does that go? That is in a quote."

Senator Donohue: "You would have to determine that, Senator. I will have to look that quote up."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, I read in the paper about a month or so before we came over here, I realize it was not a release out of your office but out of the Governor's office, that he had found some ten, fifteen extra million that he did not know he had and we were in great shape and we had this extra money here. I began to get phone calls from people saying that they would like some of it and we had it over here because they had read that news release. Now was there ever that extra found money and if there was, where did it go?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Woodall, the Ways and Means Committee with the earnest chairman has been chasing that fifteen or twenty million around trying to find it, Senator, and as yet we have not found it."

Notwithstanding any other provision of law or this chapter, chapter 28A.65 RCW, any school district may submit a request to the state superintendent of public instruction for authority to stipulate that the preliminary budget of such district shall become in fact the final budget thereof, such procedure being subject to rules and regulations as promulgated by the state superintendent of public instruction in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On line 9 of the title after "70.82.040;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 28A.65 RCW;"

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, House Bill No. 1282, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator von Reichbauer yield to a question?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "I will yield to any clear question."

Senator Rasmussen: "The Senator should know that we used to have 'crystal clear' sitting up there in the front row of the Senate for many years. Saltwater Riley. This bill is going to start a pilot program?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Yes, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "Does it require the local school district to consent to the transfer of its bus transportation to the intermediate school district?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Yes, sir, it does. And for your information, there is no new appropriation. I did not mention this. We expect or project two hundred thousand dollars and this is in SPI funds. There is no appropriation."

Senator Rasmussen: "My question is, suppose that Lakewood and Bethel and Franklin-Pierce, the superintendent just declares that he is going to set this pilot program forth and put the intermediate school district in charge of it. They then have to go along with that or can they stay out if they so desire?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "No, sir. SPI has direct authority over this program."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am not sure how it is going to work. They can do that without their permission."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator von Reichbauer yield? I am looking quickly through this bill. I see section 5, I assume it is still in there, that talks about the transfer of the environmental studies center to the intermediate school districts."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Right."

Senator Woody: "What is the purpose of this? That really was not the question. I am wondering what we are talking about in the way of the environmental studies."

Senator von Reichbauer: "It transfers the operation of the Cispus Environmental Studies Center from the state office to the ISD. Both of these transfers are supportive of the SPI effort to transfer operating programs to other appropriate agencies."

Senator Woody: "In the school bus consolidation pilot program in testimony before your committee, were there any particular school districts that were discussed so far as being involved with the pilot program?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Not directly, but it projected Vancouver and Pierce County."

Senator Woody: "And if those school districts were to utilize this pilot program, would they effectively use most of the two hundred thousand dollars that is on pages 2 and 3?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Yes."

Senator Woody: "There would not be anything left over for any other school districts?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Not on this pilot program."

On page 1, line 16, after "excepting" strike "possible".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator von Reichbauer yield? Senator von Reichbauer, you are exempting all kinds of motor vehicle violations from that operation of this particular bill. Such things as DWI, negligent homicide and a few other little goodies that are classified as motor vehicle violations. Is not that correct? Is that what you intend to do?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "We are with the effect of that. Yes, sir."

Senator Atwood: "Don't you think that is a little broad? If a person has four or five DWI's he should be the same as the other categories in your measure?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "I do not know if that would fall into the same category as sexual abuse of children, physical injury of children, or physical neglect of children."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, further consideration of House Bill No. 1294, together with the pending amendment by Senator von Reichbauer, was ordered placed at the end of today's second reading calendar.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1302, by Representatives Ceccarelli, Pardini and Gaspard:

Providing for changes in laws regulating industrial development corporations.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Dore, House Bill No. 1302 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator Dore, does this affect the new type of corporations that the city of Seattle intends to set up under the law that recently passed the Senate?"

Senator Dore: "I would say not. It has been on the books for a number of years. It is not about the Model City public corporations that were authorized."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is not the only one. They are going to have half a dozen of them over there."

Senator Dore: "I would say no, positively no. These are lending corporations that make loans to industry when they cannot get them through conventional sources such as banks. It has nothing to do with that, Senator. It is possible that it might, but I would say it is not for that purpose, but I cannot conceive how these Model Cities agencies are going to engage in industrial development. I cannot see it. I think mostly they are engaged in social situations and things of that nature, not industrial development."

Senator Rasmussen: "What about the small business loans?"

Senator Dore: "Senator, this is the situation, as I understand it from the testimony. This is a public corporation, lending corporation, which after an industrial account applies for a loan to a conventional bank. They do not satisfy the loan criteria so they are turned down. Then they turn to this corporation and if the corporation feels that the industrial development would mean more jobs for this particular community, for instance, Senator Keefe just whispered in my ear, in Spokane the loaning of this money resulted in three thousand new jobs, he said, by a series of loans that have been made through the years, even though today only a million dollars is outstanding. I do not know if those figures are entirely accurate. Sometimes the Senator from Spokane is prone to exaggerate. Maybe it is not three thousand, maybe it is only two thousand nine hundred. But that is the purpose of the bill, to make industrial loans in those cases where conventional sources have turned down the loan for one reason or another. It has nothing to do with the Model Cities. It has been on the books for a long time. The only amendment in this bill of any importance is expansion of the amount of money then can loan. Now they are limited to an amount equal to ten times their paid-in capital. Now this bill provides they can loan up to an amount equal to fifteen times their paid-in capital. So they are loaning now, I think, about a million dollars, their maximum amount in Spokane. They will be able to go up to a million point five."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you for your answer. I was a little curious because the Small Business Administration has been engaged in that. They have been dumping the taxpayers' money out on many questionable deals. They never seem to get very much back."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator von Reichbauer moved adoption of the committee amendments to page 1, lines 9, 15, 16, 22 and 26 simultaneously.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Will Senator von Reichbauer yield to a question? I want you to know that there are two of us up on either side of this question and both of us want to know — Senator Mardesich is against it and I am for it — what does this have to do with Metro?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Greive, I will yield to Senator Bottiger."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, this bill is a bill that up to and including the first five amendments pertains to contracting by school districts with other units of government including other school districts for transportation of children and all they are doing is making sure that Metro was a possible contractor."

The motion by Senator Von Reichbauer carried and the committee amendments to page 1, lines 9, 15, 16, 22 and 26 were adopted.

Senator von Reichbauer moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 1, following section 1, adding a new section.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Odegaard: "I make the point of the scope and object of this amendment.

"Mr. President and members of the Senate, this bill deals with the transportation involving Metro, House Bill No. 1463, and this amendment involves the prosecuting attorney fees for the services rendered to school districts. I think they are two completely different things and it broadens the scope and object of this bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "I believe this question came up in the committee meeting and it was discussed and the Chair so ruled before we adopted the amendment that he believed it was within the scope and object of this bill so we adopted the amendment in committee and I would like to say that this section, along with the first section of the bill, both deal with contracting and that was the reason we saw fit to amend it at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Speaking to the point of order, I would like to support Senator Newschwander on this measure. In committee we did address ourselves to it and we are looking at Engrossed House Bill No. 1463 that dealt with school districts going into contracts or making agreements pursuant to chapter 39.34 RCW with counties. And the amendment that is added, "There is added chapter 39.34 RCW" and it indicates that school districts as the bill pursuant to contracts under chapter 39.34 RCW may contract with counties for the performance of these legal services, and so I hope that the President will take these remarks into consideration in making his decision."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, in looking at the bill, the contracts that are referred to are bus transportation contracts. The amendment expands that substantially into legal services, and I think the scope and object is clearly expanded by the amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed House Bill No. 1463, together with the adopted committee amendments and the committee amendment to page 1, adding a new section, and the point of order as raised by Senator Odegaard on that amendment, was ordered held for a Ruling by the President at the end of today's second reading calendar.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would the Senator yield? Senator, I have had a will contest where this matter came up. Suppose in the examination of the person they are committing part of the background they run into is a syphilitic background, a case of something that was untreated, and it is deemed that that was a contributing cause to the particular mental difficulty with which this person is now suffering, and that goes into a report. Now would that be a violation of what we are talking about here with this amendment or not?"

Senator Francis: "No, I do not think it would be a violation. What kinds of situations allow release of information are covered elsewhere in the present law."

The motion of Senator Francis carried and the committee amendments to page 30 were adopted simultaneously.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 8, section 6, line 26, after "request" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the staff of any public or private agency regards a person voluntarily admitted as dangerous to himself or others or gravely disabled as defined by this act, they may detain such person for a reasonable length of time sufficient to notify the designated county mental health professional of such person's condition to enable such mental health professional to authorize such person being further held in custody or transported to an evaluation and treatment center pursuant to the provisions of this act".

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Atwood was adopted:

On line 6 of the amendment, after "time" insert ", not to exceed four days,".

The motion by Senator Atwood carried and the amendment, as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 11, section 8, line 11, after "or cause" insert "by oral or written order".

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 18, beginning on line 29 delete all the matter down through and including line 6 on page 19 and insert:

"The physician-patient privilege shall be deemed waived in proceedings under this chapter when a court of competent jurisdiction in its discretion determines that it is unreasonable for the petitioner seeking 14-day involuntary treatment to obtain a sufficient evaluation of the detained person by a psychiatrist or psychologist or other health professional and such waiver is necessary in the opinion of the court to protect either the detained person or the public.

Whenever the physician-patient privilege is deemed waived pursuant to this section, the waiver shall be limited to the introduction of relevant and competent medical records or testimony of an evaluation or treatment facility or its staff, a facility of the department of social and health services or its staff, or a facility certified for 90-day treatment by the department of social and health services or its staff for the purpose of meeting evaluation requirements contained in chapter 10.77 RCW and chapter 71.12 RCW: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the physician-patient privilege shall not be waived if the physician specifically identifies himself to the detained person as one who is communicating with that person for treatment only."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Day yield? In your amendment you have apparently deleted all references to the records and I think that is probably the key to any evaluation. You have deleted the entire amendment and I think that is very bad, Senator. I think the records are always available and that is what this main amendment was directed to, and now you have taken any reference out of the bill to the patient's records and I think that you did not mean to do that."

Senator Day: "It is right in the second section of the amendment, the second paragraph. 'The waiver shall be limited to introduction of relevant and competent medical records or testimony.'"

Senator Atwood: "Let me point out to you the law is now that there is no doctor-patient privilege on these records and they could be hospital records. Now you have given them a privilege that never existed before and you are going to create all kinds of problems. That is what this amendment does."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1525, together with the adopted amendments and the amendment by Senator Day pending, was made a special order of business for 2:15 p.m. today.

MOTION

Allowing insurance rates to reflect differences on risk factors between the sexes.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Dore and Marsh:

On page 2, line 25, add a new section 3 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As the energy crisis has effectuated a reduction of speed and traffic, causing excess profits in automobile insurance policies, therefore, the Insurance Commissioner, by March 1, 1974, shall order a reduction of at least five percent in casualty insurance rates and premiums, without discrimination of the sexes."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "I question the scope and object of this particular amendment, Mr. President."

Debate ensued.

Senator Dore moved that further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1508 and the pending amendment by Senators Dore and Marsh be held at the end of today's second reading calendar.

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Day, the President has just read the amendment and, Senator Dore, the President does feel that it changes the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senators Dore and Marsh was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed House Bill No. 1508 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, in prohibiting discrimination so far as engaging in an insurance transaction, would that also include the marital status so that an insurance company could not arbitrarily and solely on the basis of marital status either deny or change the rate of insurance to an applicant?"

Senator Day: "I do not think marital status is indicated in the bill at all. The only thing this is directed to is sex."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Clarke yield to a question? Senator Clarke, you raised the point of order on a clarifying amendment I had proposed and you in your remarks addressed to Senator Francis talked only about life insurance. But just for the record and the Journal, now let me ask you this in reference to automobile casualty rates. Would this bill if passed permit a different rate to be charged a woman than a man driving a car just because she is a woman, even though they are equally good drivers?"

Senator Clarke: "I do not believe it would. I think that they would have to establish some difference other than the mere fact of sex. In other words if, as you put the point, they are equally good drivers, then I think they must be treated equally insofar as rating is concerned."

Senator Dore: "Senator, isn't it a fact that the classification just comes back that people are girls, in other words, you give a lower rate for girls, as I understand, than boys. Isn't that correct? And isn't this illegal under the equal rights amendment and this would of course make this legal under this bill?"

Senator Clarke: "Let me first state that I do not hold myself out as an expert on automobile rating. I do not know the truth of what you state. I would say, however, in answer to your question, that unless it can be shown that for some other reason other than the distinction of sex, the loss expectancy is different, then I would say that it should not be proper to make a rating differential based solely upon sex. I do not think that this bill in any way changes this because I think that in substance all that it does is to permit the recognition of physical differences."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Day yield to a question? For the Journal I would like to put in the record that as chairman of the committee it is your intent not to permit discrimination in rates as between the sexes just because they happen to be a man or a woman. Is that right?"

Senator Day: "No, that would revert the intent of the language, Senator. What this intent is that if the discrimination is based on statistical differences which are bona fide, then of course those statistical differences can be considered."

Senator Dore: "Just one question. Let us get down to specifics. How about between young boys and young girls that are covered. Under your bill, as I understand it, this will not permit a different rate structure for young boys and young girls just because of the sexes. They must actually make a finding they are not as good a driver. Is that correct?"

Senator Day: "They would have to be based on bona fide statistical differences for the risk or exposure they were covering. Now you must understand I am certain, Senator Dore, that insurance companies are money brokers, that when you buy coverage they have to protect that coverage by having actuarially sound reserves to so do, and if those require different rates then sex could not stop the drawing of those different rates.”

Further debate ensued.

Authorizing school districts to enter into contracts with other governmental entities to provide for transportation of both students and the public through use of school transportation facilities.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 1463, as amended on February 5, 1974 and on that day Senator Odegaard raised the point of scope and object on the committee amendment to page 1 adding new section 2.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling on the point of order as presented by Senator Odegaard, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill 1463 is a measure which authorizes school districts to contract for transportation of students and the public using school district busses, equipment and employees. The amendment proposed by the Committee on Education, however, pertains to contractual agreements between the county and the district for legal services of the prosecuting attorney. The amendment does therefore enlarge the scope and object of the bill and notwithstanding that the title is broad, as pointed out by Senator Newschwander, the point is well taken."

The committee amendment to page 1 adding a new section 2 was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator von Reichbauer, Engrossed House Bill No. 1463, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Sec. 8. Section 11.52.012, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.52.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Such award shall be made by an order or judgment of the court and shall vest the absolute title, and thereafter there shall be no further administration upon such portion of the estate so set off, but the remainder of the estate shall be settled as other estates: PROVIDED, That no property of the estate shall be awarded or set off, as in RCW 11.52.010 through 11.52.024 provided, to a surviving spouse who has feloniously killed the deceased spouse: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if it shall appear to the court, either (1) that there are [minor or incompetent] children of the deceased by a former marriage or by adoption prior to decedent's marriage to petitioner or (2) that the petitioning surviving spouse has abandoned his or her minor children or wilfully and wrongfully failed to provide for them, or (3) if such surviving spouse or minor children are entitled to receive property including insurance by reason of the death of the deceased spouse in the sum of [ten] twenty thousand dollars, or more, then the award in lieu of homestead and exemptions shall lie in the discretion of the court, and that whether there shall be an award and the amount thereof shall be determined by the court, who shall enter such decree as shall be just and equitable but not in excess of the award provided herein.

Sec. 10. Section 11.52.022, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 12, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 11.52.022 are each amended to read as follows:

PART III. PROVISIONS RELATING TO NONINTERVENTION POWERS

Sec. 13. Section 11.68.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.68.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[In all cases where it is provided in the last will and testament of the deceased that the estate shall be settled in a manner provided in such last will and testament, and that such estate shall be settled without the intervention of any court or courts, and where it duly appears to the court, by the inventory filed, and other proof, that the estate is fully solvent, which fact may be established by an order of the court on the filing of the inventory, it shall not be necessary to take out letters testamentary or of administration, except to admit the will to probate and to file a true inventory of all the property of such estate and give notice to creditors and to the body having charge of the collection of inheritance tax, in the manner required by law.

After the probate of any such will and the filing of the inventory all such estates may be managed and settled without the intervention of the court, if the last will and testament so provides. However, when the estate is ready to be closed, the court, upon application, shall have authority and it shall be its duty, to make and cause to be entered a decree finding and adjudging that all debts have been paid, finding and adjudging also the heirs and those entitled to take under the will and distributing the property to the persons entitled thereto. Such decree shall be made after notice given as provided for like decrees in the estates of persons dying intestate. If no application for a final decree is filed, the executor shall, when the administration of the estate has been completed, file a written declaration to that effect, and thereupon his powers shall cease.

The executor of a nonintervention will shall not be deemed to waive his nonintervention powers by obtaining any order appointing appraisers, fixing or allowing appraiser's fees, dispensing with appraisal, or approving or allowing creditors' claims, not by obtaining any other order or decree.] Subject to the provisions of this chapter, if the estate of a decedent, who died either testate or intestate, is solvent, and if the personal representative is other than a creditor of the estate, such estate shall be managed and settled without the intervention of the court; the fact of solvency shall be established by the entry of an order of solvency. An order of solvency may be entered at the time of the appointment of the personal representative or at any time thereafter where it appears to the court by the petition of the personal representative, or the inventory filed, and/or other proof submitted, that the estate of the decedent is solvent, and that notice of the application for an order of solvency has been given to those persons entitled thereto when required by RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 14. Section 11.68.020, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.68.020 are each amended to read as follows:

[In all cases, if the party named in such will as executor declines to execute the trust or dies or is otherwise disabled for any cause from acting as such executor, letters testamentary or of administration shall issue and the estate be settled as in other cases.] Unless court supervision of an estate shall be specifically required under the terms and provisions of a will, a decedent shall be deemed to have intended any and all personal representatives named in his will to have the power to administer his estate without the intervention of court, and any personal representative or personal representatives named in the decedent's will shall acquire nonintervention powers without prior notice, upon meeting the requirements of RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 15, Section 11.68.030, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.68.030 are each amended to read as follows:

[If the person named in the will fails to execute the trust faithfully and to take care and promote the interest of all parties, then, upon petition of a creditor of the estate, or of any of the heirs, or of any person on behalf of any minor heir, the court shall cite such person to appear before it, and if, upon hearing of the petition it appears that the trust in such will is not faithfully discharged, and that the parties interested, or any of them, have been or are about to be damaged by the doings of the executor, then, in the discretion of the court, administration may be had and required as is required in the administration of estates, and in all such cases the costs of the citation and hearing shall be charged against the party failing and neglecting to execute the trust as required in the will.] Subject to giving prior notice when required under RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended and the entry of an order of solvency, the personal representative, other than a creditor, of an estate of a decedent who died intestate or the personal representative, other than a creditor, with the will annexed of the estate of a decedent who died testate shall have the power to administer the estate without further intervention of court after the entry of an order of solvency and furnishing bond when required.

Sec. 16. Section 11.68.040, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.68.040 are each amended to read as follows:

[Executors acting under nonintervention wills may, if the estate has been adjudged solvent; mortgage, lease, sell, exchange, and convey the real and personal property of the testator, and borrow money on the general credit of the estate, without an order of the court for that purpose and without notice, approval, or confirmation, and in all other respects administer and settle the estate without the intervention of the court. The other party to any such transaction and his successors in interest shall be entitled to have it conclusively presumed that such transaction is necessary for the administration of the estate.]

If the decedent shall have died intestate, or the petitioning personal representative is not named in the will as such, and in either case the petitioner wishes to acquire nonintervention powers, the personal representative shall, after filing the petition for order of solvency, give notice of his intention to apply to the court for nonintervention powers to all heirs, devisees, legatees of the decedent, and all parties who have requested notice under RCW 11.28.240, who have not, in writing, either waived notice of the hearing or consented to the entry of an order of solvency; said notice shall be given at least ten days prior to the date fixed by the personal representative for the hearing on his petition for an order of solvency: PROVIDED, That no prior notice of said hearing shall be required when the personal representative is:

(1) The surviving spouse of the decedent and the decedent left no issue of a prior marriage; or

(2) A bank or trust company authorized to do trust business in the state of Washington.

The notice required by this section shall be sent by regular mail and proof of mailing of said notice shall be by affidavit filed in the cause. Said notice shall contain the name of the decedent's estate, the probate cause number, the name and address of the personal representative, and shall state in substance as follows:

(a) The personal representative has petitioned the superior court of county, state of Washington, for the entry of an order of solvency and a hearing on said petition will be held on the day of, 19 , at o'clock, . . . M.;

(b) The petition for order of solvency has been filed with said court;

(c) Upon the entry of an order of solvency by the court, the personal representative will be entitled to administer and close the decedent's estate without further court intervention or supervision;

(d) Any heir, legatee, or devisee shall have the right to appear at the time of the hearing on the petition for an order of solvency to object to the granting of nonintervention powers to the personal representative.

If no notice is required, or all heirs, legatees, and devisees have either waived notice of said hearing or consented to the entry of an order of solvency as provided in this section, the court may hear the petition for an order of solvency at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If at the time set for the hearing upon the petition for the entry of an order of solvency, any party entitled to notice under the provisions of RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended, shall appear and object to the granting of nonintervention powers to the personal representative of the estate, the court shall consider said objections, if any, and the entry of an order of solvency shall be discretionary with the court upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended. The court may restrict the powers of the personal representative in such manner as the court determines and shall thereupon restrict the powers as ordered. If no heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the entry of an order of solvency, the court shall enter an order of solvency upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If, after the entry of an order of solvency, any personal representative of the estate of the decedent shall die, resign, or otherwise become disabled from any cause from acting as the nonintervention personal representative, the successor personal representative, other than a creditor, shall administer the estate of the decedent without the intervention of court after notice and hearing as required by sections 16 and 17 of this 1974 amendatory act, unless at the time of said hearing objections to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative shall be made by an heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent, and unless the court, after hearing said objections shall refuse to grant nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative. If no heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative, the court shall enter an order granting nonintervention powers to the successor personal representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If any personal representative who has been granted nonintervention powers fails to execute his trust faithfully or is subject to removal for any reason specified in RCW 11.28.250 as now or hereafter amended, upon petition of any unpaid creditor of the estate who has filed a claim or any heir, devisee, legatee, or of any person on behalf of any incompetent heir, devisee, or legatee, such petition being supported by affidavit which makes a prima facie showing of cause for removal or restriction of powers, the court shall cite such personal representative to appear before it, and if, upon hearing of the petition it appears that said personal representative has not faithfully discharged said trust or is subject to removal for any reason specified in RCW 11.28.250 as now or hereafter amended, then, in the discretion of the court said personal representative may be removed and a successor appointed with such powers as the court may determine, and in the event the court shall restrict the powers of the personal representative in any manner, it shall endorse the words "Powers restricted" upon the original order of solvency together with the date of said endorsement, and in all such cases the cost of the citation, hearing, and reasonable attorney's fees may be awarded as the court determines.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After such notice as the court may require, the order of solvency shall be vacated upon the petition of any personal representative, heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor, if supported by proof satisfactory to the court that said estate has become insolvent.

If, after hearing, the court shall vacate the prior order of solvency, the court shall endorse the term "Vacated" or "Powers restricted" upon the original order of solvency together with the date of said endorsement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any personal representative acting under nonintervention powers, may mortgage, encumber, lease, sell, exchange, and convey the real and personal property of the decedent, and borrow money on the general credit of the estate, without an order of court for that purpose and without notice, approval or confirmation, and in all other respects administer and settle the estate of the decedent without intervention of court. Any other party to any such transaction and his successors in interest shall be entitled to have it conclusively presumed that such transaction is necessary for the administration of the decedent's estate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) When the estate is ready to be closed, the court, upon application by the personal representative who has nonintervention powers, shall have the authority and it shall be its duty, to make and cause to be entered a decree which either:

(a) Finds and adjudges that all approved claims of the decedent have been paid, finds and adjudges the heirs of the decedent or those persons entitled to take under his will and distribute the property of the decedent to the persons entitled thereto; or

(b) Approves the accounting of the personal representative and settles the estate of the decedent in the manner provided for in the administration of those estates in which the personal representative has not acquired nonintervention powers.

(2) Either decree provided for in this section shall be made after notice given as provided for in the settlement of estates by a personal representative who has not acquired nonintervention powers. The petition for either decree provided for in this section shall state the fees paid or proposed to be paid to the personal representative, his attorneys, accountants, and appraisers, and any heir, devisee, or legatee whose interest in the assets of a decedent's estate would be reduced by the amount of said fee shall receive a copy of said petition with the notice of hearing thereon; at the request of the personal representative or any said heir, devisee, or legatee, the court shall, at the time of the hearing on either petition, determine the reasonableness of said fees. The criteria for and reasonable range of fees reviewed shall be as established by court rules issued by the state supreme court. The court shall take into consideration all criteria forming the basis for the determination of the amount of such fees as contained in the code of professional responsibility; in determining the reasonableness of the fees charged by any personal representative, accountants, and appraisers the court shall take into consideration the criteria forming the basis for the determination of attorney's fees, to the extent applicable, and any other factors which the court determines to be relevant in the determination of the amount of fees to be paid to such personal representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If a personal representative who has acquired nonintervention powers shall not apply to the court for either final decree provided for in section 22 of this 1974 amendatory act, the personal representative shall, when the administration of the estate has been completed, file a declaration to that effect, which declaration shall state as follows:

(1) The date of the decedent's death, and his residence at the time of death, whether or not the decedent died testate or intestate, and if testate, the date of his last will and testament and the date of the order admitting said will to probate;

(2) That each creditor's claim which was justly due and properly presented as required by law has been paid or otherwise disposed of by agreement with the creditor, and that the amount of state inheritance or federal estate tax due as the result of the decedent's death has been determined, settled, and paid;

(3) The personal representative has completed the administration of the decedent's estate without court intervention, and the estate is ready to be closed;

(4) If the decedent died intestate, the names, addresses (if known), and relationship of each heir of the decedent, together with the distributive share of each said heir;

(5) The amount of fees paid or to be paid to each of the following: (a) Personal representative or representatives, (b) attorney or attorneys, (c) appraiser or appraisers, and (d) accountant or accountants. That the personal representative believes said fees to be reasonable and does not intend to obtain court approval of the amount of said fees or to submit an estate accounting to the court for approval.

Subject to the requirement of notice as provided in this section, unless an heir, devisee, or legatee of a decedent shall petition the court either for an order requiring the personal representative to obtain court approval of the amount of fees paid or to be paid to the personal representative, his attorneys, appraisers, or accountants, or for an order requiring an accounting, or both, within thirty days from the date of filing a declaration of completion of probate, the personal representative will be discharged and his powers cease thirty days after the filing of said declaration of completion of probate, and said declaration of completion of probate shall, at said time, be the equivalent of the entry of a decree of distribution in accordance with the provisions of chapter 11.76 RCW for all legal intents and purposes.

Within five days of the date of the filing of the declaration of completion, the personal representative or his attorney shall mail a copy of said declaration of completion to each heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent (who has not waived notice of said filing, in writing, filed in the cause) together with a notice which shall be as follows:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the attached Declaration of Completion of Probate was filed by the undersigned in the above-entitled court of the . . . day of . . . , 19 . . . ; unless you shall file a petition in the above-entitled court requesting the court to approve the reasonableness of said fees, or for an accounting, or both, and serve a copy thereof upon

If you file and serve a petition with the period specified, the undersigned will request the court to fix a time and place for the hearing of said petition, and you will be notified of the time and place thereof, by mail, or personal service, not less than ten days before the hearing on said petition.

Dated this day of, 19.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A personal representative who has acquired nonintervention powers in accordance with this chapter shall not be deemed to have waived his nonintervention powers by obtaining any order or decree during the course of his administration of the estate.

Administrators with the will annexed shall have the same authority as the executor named in the will would have had, and their acts shall be as effectual for every purpose: PROVIDED, That they shall not lease, mortgage, pledge, exchange, sell, or convey any real or personal property of the estate except under order of the court and pursuant to procedure under existing laws pertaining to the administration of estates in cases of intestacy, unless the powers expressed in the will are directory and not discretionary, or said administrator with will annexed shall have obtained nonintervention powers as provided in chapter 11.68 RCW.

(1) Applications for the probate of a will and for letters testamentary, or either, may be made to the judge of the court having jurisdiction and the court may immediately hear the proofs and either probate or reject such will as the testimony may justify. Upon such hearing the court shall make and cause to be entered a formal order, either establishing and probating such will, or refusing to establish and probate the same, and such order shall be conclusive except in the event of a contest of such will as hereinafter provided. All testimony in support of the will shall be reduced to writing, signed by the witnesses, and certified by the judge of the court. If the application for probate of a will does not request the appointment of a personal representative and the court enters an adjudication of testacy establishing such will no further administration shall be required except as commenced pursuant to section 32 of this 1974 amendatory act.

(2) In addition to the foregoing procedure for the proof of wills, any or all of the attesting witnesses to a will may, at the request of the testator or, after his decease, at the request of the executor or any person interested under it, make an affidavit before any person authorized to administer oaths, stating such facts as they would be required to testify to in court to prove such will, which affidavit may be written on the will or may be attached to the will or to a photographic copy of the will. The sworn statement of any witness so taken shall be accepted by the court as if it had been taken before the court.

Sec. 28. Section 11.28.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 29. Section 11.28.110, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 30. Section 11.28.237, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 70, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.28.237 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. There is added to chapter 11.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

- (1) State the name and address of the applicant;
- (2) State that on the . . . day of, 19. . . . , the applicant obtained an order from the superior court of county, state of Washington, adjudicating that the decedent died intestate, or testate, whichever shall be the case;
- (3) In the event the decedent died testate, enclose a copy of his will therewith, and state that the adjudication of testacy will become final and conclusive for all legal intents and purposes unless any heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent shall contest said will within four months after the date the said will was adjudicated to be the last will and testament of the decedent;
- (4) In the event that the decedent died intestate, set forth the names and addresses of the heirs of the decedent, their relationship to the decedent, the distributive shares of the estate of the decedent which they are entitled to receive, and that said adjudication of intestacy and heirship shall become final and conclusive for all legal intents and purposes, unless, within four months of the date of said adjudication of intestacy, a petition shall be

(1) Establishing the decedent's will as his last will and testament and persons entitled to receive his estate thereunder; or

(2) Establishing the fact that the decedent died intestate, and those persons entitled to receive his estate as his heirs at law.

The right of an heir, legatee, or devisee to receive the assets of a decedent shall, to the extent otherwise provided by this title, be subject to the prior rights of the decedent's creditors and of any persons entitled to a homestead award or award in lieu of homestead or family allowance, and nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to alter or diminish such prior rights, or to prohibit any person for good cause shown, from obtaining the appointment of a personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent after the entry of an order adjudicating testacy or intestacy and heirship. However, if the petition for letters testamentary or of administration shall be filed more than four months after the date of the adjudication of testacy or of intestacy and heirship, the issuance of such letters shall not affect the finality of said adjudications.

Claims need not be supported by affidavit.

Sec. 35. Section 11.40.030, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

If he allow the claim, it shall be presented to the judge of the court, who shall in the same manner indorse on it his allowance or rejection, or he may by order allow or reject the claim. If the personal representative reject the claim in whole or in part, he shall notify the claimant forthwith of said rejection and file in the office of the clerk an affidavit showing such notification and the date thereof. Such notification shall be by personal service or registered or certified mail and shall state that the holder of the rejected claim must bring suit in the proper court against the personal representative within thirty days after notification of the rejection, otherwise the claim shall be forever barred.

If the personal representative shall neglect for the period of sixty days after service upon him or his attorney to act upon any such claim, the claimant may take the matter up before the court and the court may require the personal representative to act on such claim and in its discretion may impose costs and attorney's fees.] Unless the personal representative shall, within six months after the date of first publication of notice to creditors, have obtained an order extending the time for his allowance or rejection of claims timely and properly served and filed, all claims presented within the time and in the manner provided in RCW 11.40.010 and 11.40.020 as now or hereafter amended, shall be deemed allowed and may not thereafter be rejected, unless the personal representative shall, within six months after the date of first publication of notice to creditors, or any extended time, notify the claimant of its rejection, in whole or in part; if the personal representative shall reject the claim, in whole or in part, he shall notify the claimant of said rejection and file in the office of the clerk, an affidavit showing such notification and the date thereof. Said notification shall be by personal service or certified mail addressed to the claimant at his address as stated in the claim; if a person other than the claimant shall have signed said claim for or on behalf of the claimant, and said person's business address as stated in said claim is different from that of the claimant, notification of rejection shall also be made by personal service or certified mail upon said person; the date of the postmark shall be the date of notification. The notification of rejection shall advise the claimant, and the person making claim on his, her, or its behalf, if any, that the claimant must bring suit in the proper court against the personal representative within thirty days after notification of rejection or before expiration of the time for serving and filing claims against the estate, whichever period is longer, and that otherwise the claim will be forever barred.

The personal representative may, either before or after rejection of any claim compromise said claim, whether due or not, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, if it appears to the personal representative that such compromise is in the best interests of the estate.

The payment of such deposit made in good faith to the spouse making the affidavit shall be a full acquittance and release of the bank for the amount of the deposit so paid.

No probate proceeding shall be necessary to establish the right of said surviving spouse to withdraw said deposits upon the filing of said affidavit: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, Whenever an administrator is appointed in an estate where a withdrawal of deposits has been had in compliance with this section, the spouse so withdrawing said deposits shall account for the same to the administrator. The bank or trust company may also pay out the moneys on deposit to the credit of the deceased upon presentation of an affidavit as provided in section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act.

Sec. 40. Section 32.12.020, chapter 13, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 2, chapter 55, Laws of 1969 and RCW 32.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Such regulations shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the room where the business of such savings bank shall be transacted, and shall be available to depositors upon request. All such rules and regulations, and all amendments thereto, from time to time in effect, shall be binding upon all depositors.

(1) Such bank may at any time by a resolution of its board of trustees require a notice of not more than six months before repaying deposits, in which event no deposit shall be due or payable until the required notice of intention to withdraw the same shall have been personally given by the depositor: PROVIDED, That such bank at its option may pay any deposit or deposits before the expiration of such notice. But no bank shall agree with its depositors or any of them in advance to waive the requirement of notice as herein provided.

(2) Except as provided in subdivisions (3), (4), and (5) of this section the savings bank shall not pay any dividend, or interest, or deposit, or portion thereof, or any check drawn upon it by a depositor unless the certificate of deposit is produced, or the passbook of the depositor is produced and the proper entry is made therein, at the time of the payment.

(3) The board of trustees of any such bank may by its bylaws provide for making payments in cases of loss of passbook or certificate of deposit, or other exceptional cases where the passbooks or certificates of deposit cannot be produced without loss or serious inconvenience to depositors, the right to make such payments to cease when so directed by the supervisor upon his being satisfied that such right is being improperly exercised by any such bank; but payments may be made at any time upon the judgment or order of a court.

(4) The board of trustees of any such bank may by its bylaws provide for making payments to depositors at their request, of dividends or interest payable on any deposit, without requiring the production of the passbook or certificate of deposit of the depositor, and any payment made in accordance with any such request and the receipt or acquittance of the one to whom such payment is made shall be a valid and sufficient release and discharge to such savings bank for all payments made on account of such request prior to receipt by such savings bank of notice in writing not to pay such sums in accordance with the terms of such request.

(5) The issuance of a passbook or certificate of deposit may be omitted for any account if a ledger record thereof is maintained in lieu of a passbook or certificate of deposit on which shall be entered deposits, withdrawals, and interest credited: PROVIDED, That in any event a passbook or certificate of deposit shall be issued upon the request of any depositor.

(6) If any person dies leaving in any such bank an account on which the balance due him does not exceed one thousand dollars and no executor or administrator of his estate has been appointed, such bank may in its discretion pay the balance of his account to his widow (or if the decedent was a married woman, then to her husband), next of kin, funeral director, or other creditor who may appear to be entitled thereto. As a condition of such payment such bank may require proof by affidavit as to the parties in interest, the filing of proper waivers, the execution of a bond of indemnity with surety or sureties by the person to whom the payment is to be made, and a proper receipt and acquittance for such payment. For any such payment pursuant to this section such bank shall not be liable to the decedent's executor or administrator thereafter appointed, unless the payment was made within six months after the decedent's death, and an action to recover the amount is commenced within six months after the date of payment. On the death of any depositor of any savings bank, the bank may also pay out the moneys on deposit to the credit of the deceased upon presentation of an affidavit as provided in section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act.

For any such payment, the association may require such proofs, waivers, indemnity and receipt and acquittance as it may deem proper. For any payment made hereunder, the association shall not be liable to the decedent's executor or administrator. On the death of any person having any savings account in an association, the association may also pay out the moneys on deposit to the credit of the deceased upon presentation of an affidavit as provided in section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act.

If at the time of the death of any person, his employer is indebted to him for work, labor, and services performed, and no executor or administrator of his estate has been appointed, such employer shall upon the request of the surviving spouse forthwith pay said indebtedness, in such an amount as may be due not exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars, to the said surviving spouse or if the decedent leaves no surviving spouse, then to the child or children, or if no children, then to the father or mother of said decedent: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if by virtue of a community property agreement between the decedent and the surviving spouse, which meets the requirements of RCW 26.16.120, the right to such indebtedness became the sole property of the surviving spouse upon the death of the decedent, the employer shall pay to the surviving spouse the total of such indebtedness or that portion which is governed by the community property agreement upon presentation of said agreement accompanied by affidavit of the surviving spouse stating that such agreement was executed in good faith between the parties thereto and had not been rescinded by the parties prior to the death of the decedent: PROVIDED FURTHER, That in all cases the employer shall require proof of claimant's relationship to decedent by affidavit, and shall require claimant to acknowledge receipt of such payment in writing. Any payments made by an employer pursuant to the provisions of RCW 49.48.115 and 49.48.120 shall operate as a full and complete discharge of the employer's indebtedness to the extent of said payment, and no employer shall thereafter be liable therefor to the decedent's estate, or the decedent's executor or administrator thereafter appointed. The employer may also pay the indebtedness upon presentation of an affidavit as provided in section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act.

Sec. 43. Section 30.04.260, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.260 are each amended to read as follows:

No trust company or other corporation which advertises that it will furnish legal advice, construct or prepare wills, or do other legal work for its customers, shall be permitted to act as executor, administrator, or guardian; and any trust company or other corporation whose officers or agents shall solicit legal business [or personally solicit the appointment of such trust company or corporation as executor, administrator or guardian] shall be ineligible for a period of one year thereafter to be appointed executor, administrator or guardian in any of the courts of this state.

Any trust company or other corporation which advertises that it will furnish legal advice, construct or prepare wills, or do other legal work for its customers, and any officer, agent, or employee of any trust company or corporation who shall solicit legal business [or personally solicit the appointment of such trust company or corporation as executor, administrator or guardian] shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

PART VII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. There is added to chapter 11.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When a petition for general letters of administration or for letters of administration with the will annexed shall be filed, the matter may be heard forthwith, appointment made and letters of administration issued: PROVIDED, That if there be a surviving spouse and a petition is presented by anyone other than the surviving spouse, or any person designated by the surviving spouse to serve as personal representative on his or her behalf, notice to the surviving spouse shall be given of the time and place of such hearing at least ten days before the hearing, unless the surviving spouse shall waive notice of the hearing in writing filed in the cause.

Sec. 45. Section 11.76.080, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 28, Laws of 1971 and RCW 11.76.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If there be any incompetent as defined in RCW 11.88.010 interested in the estate who has no legally appointed guardian, the court:

(1) At any stage of the proceeding in its discretion and for such purpose or purposes as it shall indicate, may, and

(2) For hearings held pursuant to RCW 11.52.010, 11.52.020, 11.68.040 and 11.76.050 as now or hereafter amended, or for entry of an order adjudicating testacy or intestacy and heirship when no personal representative is appointed to administer the estate of the decedent, shall [-] appoint some disinterested person as guardian ad litem to represent such incompetent with reference to any petition, proceeding [or], report, or adjudication of testacy or intestacy without the appointment of a personal representative to administer the estate of decedent in which the incompetent may have an interest, who, on behalf of the incompetent, may contest the same as any other person interested might contest it, and who shall be allowed by the court reasonable compensation for his services: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That where a surviving spouse is the sole beneficiary under the terms of a will, the court may grant a motion by the personal representative to waive the appointment of a guardian ad litem for a person who is the minor child of such surviving spouse and the decedent and who is incompetent solely for the reason of his being under eighteen years of age.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. There is added to chapter 11.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When the terms of the decedent's will manifest an intent that the personal representative appointed to administer the estate shall not be required to furnish bond or other security, or when the personal representative is the surviving spouse of the decedent and it appears to the court that the entire estate, after provision for expenses and claims of creditors, will be distributable to such spouse and any minor children born to or adopted by decedent and living with said surviving spouse, then such personal representative shall not be required to give bond or other security as a condition of appointment. In all cases where a bank or trust company authorized to act as personal representative is appointed as personal representative, no bond shall be required. In all other cases, unless waived by the court, the personal representative shall give such bond or other security, in such amount and with such surety or sureties, as the court may direct.

Every person required to furnish bond must, before receiving letters testamentary or of administration, execute a bond to the state of Washington conditioned that the personal representative shall faithfully execute the duty of the trust according to law.

The court may at any time after appointment of the personal representative require said personal representative to give a bond or additional bond, the same to be conditioned and to be approved as provided in this section; or the court may allow a reduction of the bond upon a proper showing.

In lieu of bond, the court may in its discretion, substitute other security or financial arrangements, such as provided under RCW 11.88.105, or as the court may deem adequate to protect the assets of the estate.

Sec. 47. Section 11.40.100, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

If any action be pending against the testator or intestate at the time of his death, the plaintiff shall within [ninety days] four months after first publication of notice to creditors, or the filing of a copy of such notice, whichever is later, serve on the personal representative a motion to have such personal representative, as such, substituted as defendant in such action, and, upon the hearing of such motion, such personal representative shall be so substituted, unless, at or prior to such hearing, the claim of plaintiff, together with costs, be allowed by the personal representative and court. After the substitution of such personal representative, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the action as in other civil cases.

Sec. 48. Section 11.44.025, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.44.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any property of the estate not mentioned in the inventory comes to the knowledge of a personal representative, he shall cause the same to be inventoried and appraised and shall make and return upon oath into the court a true inventory of said property within thirty days after the discovery thereof, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. There is added to chapter 11.44 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Within the time required to file an inventory as provided in RCW 11.44.015, the personal representative shall determine the fair net value, as of the date of the decedent's death, of each item contained in the inventory after deducting the encumbrances, liens, and other secured charges thereon. The personal representative may employ a qualified and disinterested person to assist him in ascertaining the fair market value as of the date of the decedent's death of any asset the value of which may be subject to reasonable doubt. Different persons may be employed to appraise different kinds of assets included in the estate. The appraisement may, but need not be, filed in the probate cause: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That upon receipt of a written request for a copy of said inventory and appraisement from any heir, legatee, devisee or unpaid creditor who has filed a claim, or from the inheritance tax division of the department of revenue, the personal representative shall furnish to said person, a true and correct copy thereof.

Sec. 50. Section 11.44.070, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 10, chapter 168, Laws of 1967 and RCW 11.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

[The appraiser shall receive as compensation for his service an amount as to the court shall seem just and reasonable, but not less than ten dollars nor more than one-tenth of one percent of the gross value of the assets of the estate actually appraised by him.] The amount of the fee to be paid to any persons assisting the personal representative in any appraisal shall be determined by the personal representative: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the reasonableness of any such compensation shall, at the time of hearing on any final account as provided in chapter 11.76 RCW or on a request or petition under sections 22 or 23 of this 1974 amendatory act, be reviewed by the court in accordance with the provisions of section 22 of this 1974 amendatory act, and if the court determines the compensation to be unreasonable, a personal representative may be ordered to make appropriate refund.

Whenever any person having died leaving a will which has been admitted to probate or established by an adjudication of testacy, shall by said will have given, devised or bequeathed unto any person, a legacy or a devise upon the condition that said person survive him, and not otherwise, such legacy or devise shall lapse and fall into the residue of said estate to be distributed according to the residuary clause, if there be one, of said will, and if there be none then according to the laws of descent, unless said legatee or devisee, as the case may be, or his heirs, personal representative, or someone in behalf of such legatee or devisee, shall appear before the court which is administering said estate within [six] three years from and after the date the said will was admitted to probate or established by an adjudication of testacy, and prove to the satisfaction of the court that the said legatee or devisee, as the case may be, did in fact survive the testator.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. Whenever a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by a power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "This power of attorney shall not be affected by disability of the principal," or "This power of attorney shall become effective upon the disability of the principal," or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the authority conferred shall be exercisable notwithstanding his disability, the authority of the attorney in fact or agent is exercisable by him as provided in the power on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incapacity of the principal at law or later uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent pursuant to the power during any period of disability or incompetence or uncertainty as to whether the principal is dead or alive have the same effect and inure to the benefit of and bind the principal or his guardian or heirs, devisees and personal representative as if the principal were alive, competent and not disabled. If a guardian thereafter is appointed for the principal, the attorney in fact or agent, during the continuance of the appointment, shall account to the guardian rather than the principal. The guardian has the same power the principal would have had if he were not disabled or incompetent, to revoke, suspend or terminate all or any part of the power of attorney or agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. (1) The death, disability, or incompetence of any principal who has executed a power of attorney in writing other than a power as described by section 43 of this 1974 amendatory act, does not revoke or terminate the agency as to the attorney in fact, agent or other person who, without actual knowledge of the death, disability, or incompetence of the principal, acts in good faith under the power of attorney or agency. Any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, binds the principal and his heirs, devisees, and personal representatives.

(2) An affidavit, executed by the attorney in fact or agent stating that he did not have, at the time of doing an act pursuant to the power of attorney, actual knowledge of the revocation or termination of the power of attorney by death, disability, or incompetence, is, in the absence of a showing of fraud or bad faith, conclusive proof of the nonrevocation or nontermination of the power at that time. If the exercise of the power requires execution and delivery of any instrument which is recordable, the affidavit when authenticated for record is likewise recordable.

(3) This section shall not be construed to alter or affect any provision for revocation or termination contained in the power of attorney.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. (1) Any of the following provisions in an insurance policy, contract of employment, bond, mortgage, promissory note, deposit agreement, pension plan, joint tenancy, community property agreement, trust agreement, conveyance, or any other written instrument effective as a contract, gift, conveyance, or trust is deemed to be nontestamentary, and this title does not invalidate the instrument or any provision:

(a) that money or other benefits theretofore due to, controlled or owned by a decedent shall be paid after his death to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently;

(b) that any money due or to become due under the instrument shall cease to be payable in event of the death of the promisee or the promisor before payment or demand; or

(c) that any property which is the subject of the instrument shall pass to a person designated by the decedent in either the instrument or a separate writing, including a will, executed at the same time as the instrument or subsequently.

(2) Nothing in this section limits the rights of creditors under other laws of this state.

(3) Any provision in a lease of a safety deposit repository to the effect that two or more persons shall have access to the repository, or that purports to create a joint tenancy in the repository or in the contents of the repository, or that purports to vest ownership of the contents of the repository in the surviving lessee, is ineffective to create joint ownership of the contents of the repository or to transfer ownership at death of one of the lessees to the survivor. Ownership of the contents of the repository and devolution of title to those contents is determined according to rules of law without regard to the lease provisions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. The following acts or parts of acts are each hereby repealed:

(1) Section 11.28.130, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.130;

(2) Section 11.28.180, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.180;

(3) Section 11.28.200, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.28.200;

(4) Section 11.40.050, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.40.050;

(5) Section 11.44.055, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.44.055;

(6) Section 11.44.065, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.44.065; and

(7) Section 11.44.080, chapter 145, Laws of 1965, section 11, chapter 168, Laws of 1967 and RCW 11.44.080.

Senator Rasmussen: "And the joint tenancy agreement with right of survivorship?"

Senator Francis: "That is correct, it does not interfere with that."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1144, by Representatives Ceccarelli, Pardini and Perry:

Providing for health care of newborn infants.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 5, 1974.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 18, section 2, after "contract" and before "blanket" strike "or" and insert "except".

On page 1, line 20, section 2, after "services," and before "delivered" insert "renewed,"

On page 2, line 11, section 3, after "birth." and before "NEW SECTION." on line 12 insert "NEW SECTION. Sec. 4." and renumber remaining sections consecutively.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 48.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any self insurer providing coverage or health care benefits or services for dependent children shall include coverage or health care service benefits or services for congenital anomalies of newborn children from the moment of birth."

Signed by: Senators Dore, Chairman; Clarke, Jones, Keefe, Newschwander, Woody.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Dore, the committee amendments were adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would Senator Jones yield to a question please? Senator Jones, you were the chairman of the subcommittee that worked on this bill and one of the major concerns related to whether or not the bill would in effect extend to the normal pediatric care for babies who had nothing wrong with them whatsoever. And calling your attention — on page 1 of the bill where it says — 'Coverage provided in accordance with this section shall include but not be limited to coverage for congenital anomalies of such infant children from moment of birth,' I would ask you whether it is the intent of this bill to cover the expense of the pediatric service that is usual for all children within the first few days after birth where nothing abnormal is discovered and the child then goes through the usual period before it is discharged from the hospital?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "On what authority does Senator Jones speak for this body? As far as I am concerned he can say anything he wants, but it is strictly one man's opinion and in no way speaks for me or for other members of the body."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I think that the way the question was phrased that as the chairman of the subcommittee he has the right to answer whether or not it was the intent to cover that."

Senator Jones: "My answer is, that is if I am permitted by Senator Greive to express an opinion, which I believe is the case of all of us, that it was not our intention to cover normal wellborn baby care, that it was intended to cover catastrophic or unusual situations which are the bane of the existence of new families, to extend this coverage from the moment of birth and to exclude, as is in some policies, a period of time which may extend from fourteen days to a month and cover those contingencies referred to as congenital defects and to cover that kind of catastrophic situation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "I wonder if Senator Clarke would ask me the same question as chairman of the committee? For the record, without repeating it all again, but would you. . . ."

Senator Clarke: "Senator, I will be very happy to do that because, and the reason for me asking the question at this particular time is that if Senator Jones' response is not correct, then I intend to put up an amendment which will clarify."

Senator Dore: "Answering the question, I think that is the way Senator Jones interpreted the language of the bill. It is very difficult to define what well baby care is. We had testimony before the committee by Dr. Robert Polley, a well-known pediatrician, and he says there is no such thing as a well baby until the baby is ready to go home. I then received letters from other doctors who said there is no such thing as a well baby until after forty-eight hours. So it is very difficult to write it. Well baby care was more or less left in the bill, not resolved."

We had two opinions at the hearing, one by the illustrious Senator Woody. He said that the way it was written, well baby care was provided for. Senator Jones felt that it was not. I think that it is in the bill, possibly. It may not be in the bill. It depends on what a judicial interpretation does, when a judge has to determine what a well baby is, then he can have testimony by the experts and then he can determine what a well baby is. I think it is very difficult to even attempt to do it and Senator Clarke, if you offer such an amendment I certainly am going to oppose it. I think the bill as written came out of the House, we adopted the House form, it was an executive request bill and I think we should have it in the broad coverage I think it is in. The question is, what is a well baby? Now it may be that a baby may look fine when you take him home and then three months later he has some congenital defect. That could be covered. And yet with your definition if he was a well baby during this original period of time you would say, 'Well, he is not covered.' It is a very difficult question. The battle raged in the committee for nearly two weeks.

I do not think I am capable of trying to define well baby care, but I think Senator Jones did an excellent job here. He left it in the bill to let the courts decide. I think that is the proper approach and that is the statement I want to leave in the Journal, and I hope if an amendment is offered to try to resolve this that you vote it down. I think we have done the best possible job we can do."

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendments by Senators Day and Clarke simultaneously:

On page 1, line 15, section 1, after "birth" strike the period and insert ", but need not include benefits for routine well-baby care."

On page 1, line 27, section 2, after "birth" strike the period and insert ", but need not include benefits for routine well-baby care."

On page 2, section 3, line 11, after "birth" strike the period and insert ", but need not include benefits for routine well-baby care."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendments by Senators Day and Clarke were adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, Engrossed House Bill No. 1144, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 6, section 3, after "environment," and before "and" insert "whether the use of such products in each environment is permanent or temporary in nature".

On page 2, line 23, section 3, after "of" and before "products" insert "individual".

On page 5, following section 8, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All rules and regulations adopted pursuant to the requirements of this act except emergency rules adopted pursuant to RCW 34.04.030, shall be submitted by the adopting agency to the standing rules committees of the legislature at least 20 days before such rules are filed with the code reviser pursuant to section 1 of this 1974 amendatory act. The standing rules committees shall refer such rules to the appropriate standing committees of the senate and the house of representatives, or to a joint committee designated by the standing rules committees for substantive review and approval.

If the appropriate committee of the senate and house of representatives or joint committee has failed to approve a rule or agency regulation submitted to it within thirty days after such submission the code reviser may file such rule or regulation if the attorney representing the agency involved files an affidavit of non-action by the appropriate committee of the senate or house stating that no action was taken within the thirty day period specified herein.

If the appropriate committees shall reject a proposed rule as not being within the intent of the statute purporting to authorize the adoption thereof, such rejection shall be by majority vote of all the members of both such committees or of the joint committee. The agency affected shall be notified of such rejection and the reasons therefor, and the effective date of the rules suspended for a maximum of 30 days. If at the end of 30 days the agency affected and the appropriate legislative committees have not reached agreement as to the form or content of the proposed rule, it shall become effective as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW and the appropriate committees shall report to the code reviser any proposal for corrective action by the legislature."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Signed by: Senators Washington, Chairman; Donohue, Murray, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, line 6, section 3.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Washington, will you say how many decibels higher for a temporary installation?"

Senator Washington: "This does not state how many decibels it will be. It says they shall take that into consideration in establishing their regulations. It states that in so doing the department shall take also into account the economic practical benefit to be derived from the use of various products in such environment and whether the use of such products in each environment is permanent or temporary in nature. Now they have to take that into consideration in establishing their regulations. It directs that they take that into consideration."

Senator Guess: "Senator Washington, in connection with this particular amendment I would like to cite you the regulations that were contained in the specifications for the federal pavilion in Spokane before they started construction. It had that economic consideration in the specifications and it gave us a table of decibel ratings to which the equipment could not exceed. I took my meter which I have in my hand and I went over to various construction sites over on the Havermale Island and I found that not one single piece of equipment operating on the island would be able to be used on the construction of the federal pavilion. Now I became very concerned and I called Washington, D.C. and I talked to the EPA and they told me that under no consideration would any piece of equipment be used on the site that exceeded those regulations. Then I called the General Services Administration in Auburn and I got a ten decibel variance from that which was stated in the specifications after I gave them the readings that I had taken. Now what concerns me is that you will run into the attitude of these people as I did in Washington, D.C. that would give you no tolerance whatsoever. I want to make sure that anything that is adopted in the state of Washington does not close down all construction, Senator. Right now the level of my voice is running right at about eighty-six to eighty-eight. I have been taking some readings that I will give you later in the debate on this bill, but the problem that I have with this thing is that if we let the Department of Ecology promulgate rules and regulations according to the Seattle regulations or even to the King County, which is a good bit more liberal than Seattle, we could not even be speaking on the floor of the Senate in the state of Washington. So some way or other we are going to have to make sure that we do not get ourselves into a real box."

Senator Washington: "I think this is true, Senator Guess. I think at this point in the bill, however, Senator, that this is a salutatory amendment and of course it was put in at the request of the construction industry by the committee to take care of this particular point, that they do take into consideration that in construction that they could have a higher decibel rating."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the committee amendment to page 2, line 6, section 3 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Washington, the committee amendments to page 2, line 23, section 3 and page 4, line 22, section 6, subsection (3) were adopted.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, adding a new section.

On motion of Senator Washington, the following amendment by Senator Washington to the committee amendment to page 5 was adopted:

Amend the senate committee amendment on page 5 as follows:

On line 6 of the senate committee amendment, being line 6 of new section 9, after "to" strike the remainder of the sentence to and including the word "act" and insert "chapter 34.04 RCW".

There being no objection, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended, was ordered held for further consideration following Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1268.

Absent or not voting: Senator Durkan—1.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Twigg—2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 671, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 757.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 757, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Representatives Erickson, Johnson, Valle, McCormick, Wojahn, Maxie, North (Lois) and Hayner):

Supplementing law authorizing school patrols.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 757 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Would Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Are these adults being compensated in any way?"

Senator Bottiger: "Under the bill they could be paid but in fact in all cases that we have heard of they would be volunteers. You might hire one to supervise, but the testimony was all volunteer."

Senator Jones: "It is optional then, it is not required. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newschwander: "I appreciate your answer to the question, but it seems to me that when we had this bill before us last year there originally was an appropriation for the bill and since then it has been rewritten, but the other night in the meeting there was a fiscal note if they decided later to put this in force. I think it was one adult per every hundred children or so, but with the fiscal note of around a million dollars. Since there is not an appropriation here, it looks to me like this is the first step or the foot in the front door, and you will soon come back in the '75 session looking for an appropriation."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Newschwander, presuming that was a question, it is not our intent to do so, and the school districts that were involved and my understanding is that once the bill was first introduced many other school districts also said they would like to do this. It occurs in your district and mine where they have had volunteers offer to do it, but they cannot cover them with their liability insurance and that is the reference on the last line to put them under liability."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 757, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Absent or not voting: Senators Connor, Durkan—2.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Twigg—2.

SECOND READING

and providing for suspension or revocation of veterinary license if revoked in another state.
The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Jolly, Reengrossed House Bill No. 385 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Jolly yield? Senator Jolly, both Senator Bottiger and I last year were concerned when this came through because at least last year it restricted — it was restrictive enough so that our respective wives could not give our animals shots, as both of our wives have quite a needle. And would it do that now? Would that restrict it?"

Senator Jolly: "Senator Woody, if you will look at line 22 on page 3, it says 'Persons practicing veterinary medicine upon their own animals are exempt.' So your wife can practice on her own animals."

Senator Woody: "If my neighbor's cat comes over and needs a penicillin shot, my wife cannot do it?"

Senator Jolly: "Your neighbor has to give the cat the shot himself. But you can practice on your own animals."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Reengrossed House Bill No. 385, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Twigg-2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1180, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator Rasmussen, I noticed the other day we referred to you the matter of studying the two parole or pardon messages of the Governor whereby two first degree murderers who were sentenced to life by the courts were turned loose in seven years. It cost us taxpayers two hundred thousand for the guy they let run around over in Tacoma and I just read in the paper today that we taxpayers have just now paid the widow of Trooper Noble eighty-six thousand five hundred for letting that man have a night out, so I think you should get your committee meeting and look into this whole liberal policy. We taxpayers just cannot afford these follies."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think you are right, Senator Woodall. Thanks for bringing it to the attention of the committee."

MOTION

At 9:10 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate was declared to be at ease. The President called the Senate to order at 10:45 a.m.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 569, by Committee on Ecology (originally sponsored by Representatives Wojahn, Valle, Blair, Nelson and Paris):

Providing for the abatement and control of noise.

The Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 569. On Wednesday, February 5, 1974 the committee amendments to page 2, lines 6 and 23 and to page 4, line 22 were adopted. The committee amendment to page 5 adding new section 9 was moved for adoption by Senator Washington, and an amendment by Senator Washington to the committee amendment was adopted on Wednesday, February 6, 1974.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, there is a question in my mind yet on this bill. We do not at the present time know the rules and regulations that they will promulgate. And yet we are subject to a hundred dollar fine for each occurrence of violation. Have you taken that portion out of the bill?"

Senator Washington: "No, that portion is not out of the bill, but it cannot go into effect until the rules and regulations have been adopted. There is no enforcing provision until the regulations have been promulgated, until they have been first sent to the standing Rules Committee of each house. The standing Rules Committee can either send it to the Ecology Committee or if they do not have confidence in the Ecology Committee they can set up a special joint committee to review those rules and regulations. If we do not like those rules and regulations, then you can negotiate with the Department of Ecology and certainly through all of this means, if we have some real opposition to those rules and regulations which are specifically expressed, the Department of Ecology will undoubtedly go along with the legislature. Then of course it provides that if they do not agree it can be referred to the legislature for further action. The thing I do want to say is that your fear of having some requirements which would place someone under the possibility of having a penalty, that cannot go into effect until all of this has been done. And I would like to raise a point of order here. If we could get this amendment adopted, I think you are putting your emphasis on another particular section of the act. I would like to at least get this adopted here. The Department of Ecology is going to have to submit to these very strict regulations that we are putting in the bill."

The motion by Senator Washington made on Wednesday, February 6, 1974 carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Washington, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 569, as amended by the Senate, was made a special order of business for 12:00 noon today.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 10, by Judiciary Committee (originally sponsored by Representatives Ehlers, Shinpoeh, Wojahn and Goltz):

Providing that disclaimer of warranties in the sale of consumer goods shall be ineffective.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 5, 1974.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 10, providing that disclaimer of warranties in the sale of consumer goods shall be ineffective (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 10, section 1, after "purchased" and before "primarily" insert "or leased" and on line 11, after "use" and before "for" strike "and not" and insert "or" and on line 14, after "sellers" and before "or" insert "or lessors".

On page 3, line 10, section 2, after "purchased" and before "primarily" insert "or leased" and on line 14, after "sales" and before "of" insert "or leases".

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Bottiger, Dore, Durkan, Marsh, Van Hollebeke.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 10, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "I would like to get Senator Francis's remarks on the record so I would ask him to respond to a question with respect to the particularity of the warranty as to goods damaged in transit or with fire."

Senator Francis: "Senator Clarke, as I just stated, the language in this bill which says that there can be a disclaimer so long as the disclaimer sets forth with particularity the qualities and characteristics which are not being warranted. Our committee concluded after extensive discussion and testimony that that would mean that damage in transit, if you said that there was transit damage and you had not inspected, you do not know what kind of damage there is and you are selling on an 'as is' basis, you could do that. The same with a fire sale or with some other kind of damage of a generalized nature where you are particularizing the reason for your 'as is' sale."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 10, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 10, absent or not voting, 1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3194, by Senators Durkan, Bailey and Peterson (Ted):
 Providing for increases in police and firemen's pensions.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 6, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3194, providing for increases in police and firemen's pensions (reported by Committee on Local Government and Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments by Committee on Ways and Means:

On page 1, line 7, section 1, strike all the material down to and including the period on line 12.

On page 1, line 13, section 1, strike "Effective April 1, 1974" and insert:

"In lieu of the two percent increase in benefits received by pensioners under RCW 41.18.104 and effective July 1, 1974".

On page 2, line 8, section 2, strike all the material down to and including the period on line 11.

On page 2, line 12, section 2, strike "Effective April 1, 1975" and insert:

"In lieu of the two percent increase in benefits being received by pensioners under RCW 41.18.104 and effective July 1, 1974".

On page 2, line 21, section 2, after "section", add:

": PROVIDED FURTHER: That the increased benefits authorized by this section shall not affect any benefit payable under the provisions of chapter 41.18 RCW in which the benefit payment is attached to a current salary of the rank held at time of retirement".

On page 3, line 1, section 3, strike all the material down to and including the period on line 4.

On page 3, line 5, section 3, strike "Effective April 1, 1975" and insert:

"In lieu of the two percent increase in benefits being received by pensioners under RCW 41.20.050, 41.20.060, and 41.20.080 and effective July 1, 1974".

On page 3, line 14, section 3, after "section", add:

": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the increased benefits authorized by this section shall not affect any benefit payable under the provisions of chapter 41.20 RCW in which the benefit payment is attached to a current salary of the rank held at time of retirement".

Following are the amendments by the Committee on Local Government:

On page 3, after section 3 add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. To carry out the provisions of this 1974 act there is appropriated from the general fund for the remainder of the biennium ending June 30, 1975, the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary."

In line 1 of the title, after "benefits;" and before "adding" insert "making an appropriation;"

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Scott, Woody.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Before we leave second reading I wonder if Senator Odegaard could tell me who is going to pay for this act. I know that there is an appropriation in here, but it seems unclear whether the state or the cities will pay for this."

Senator Odegaard: "In answer to Senator Whetzel, this relates back to the reserve funds that the cities have and the information we have is that they have plenty of money in reserve to take care of the cost of the amendment which will total about one hundred and thirty thousand dollars state-wide."

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Odegaard, is section 4, the Local Government Committee amendment, still on this bill, 'That to carry out the provisions of this act there is appropriated from the general fund the sum of one million dollars?'"

Senator Odegaard: "It is still on it, but that would be my next motion to move to not adopt that amendment."

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Odegaard, the committee amendments by the Committee on Ways and Means were adopted.

Senator Odegaard moved that the committee amendment by the Committee on Local Government to page 3, adding new section 4 not be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Odegaard yield? Senator Odegaard, how much money is it going to require that Spokane meet out of a nonexistent reserve fund?"

Senator Odegaard: "How much for Spokane? Spokane presently has in their fund reserve three point four million dollars, Senator Guess, and I do not have the exact figure of what this bill would amount to for Spokane, but it would be just one part out of one hundred and thirty thousand. So it would be a relatively small amount out of the three point four million reserve."

Senator Guess: "Are you sure that is a reserve? Isn't it reserved for paying out the pensions? It is not a surplus, but it is the funding of the thing to cut down on the nonfunded portion, isn't it?"

Senator Odegaard: "As I understand it, that is a good part of it, yes. They also have the availability of the local one mill levy for the pension fund and some of the cities are not utilizing all of that for the pension fund, but are using it for other things. I understand that Spokane is one that is not now using all that one mill for pension funding."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "At this time I do not want to oppose that, but if we find out that the costs there are one million dollars to the cities of the state, then maybe I want to oppose this so the state would pick up this cost that we are imposing on the cities by our action and the cities have asked us not to do."

Senator Odegaard: "In answer to that, Senator Whetzel, the amendments which we have adopted have taken off that cost because that would have allowed the immediate twenty percent increase and this body a short time ago adopted the amendment that did away with that twenty percent immediate increase so that is the reason then for not adopting the Local Government Committee amendment to appropriate the million dollars."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, Senate Bill No. 3194, as amended, was made a special order of business for 2:45 p.m. today.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1295, by Representatives Perry, Kraabel, Charnley, Kishimoto, Rabel, Ceccarelli and Van Dyk:

Where an existing highway severs, or where the right of way of an existing highway accommodates a trail for pedestrians, equestrians or bicyclists [or would accommodate], or where the separation of motor vehicle traffic from pedestrians, equestrians, or bicyclists will materially [benefit] increase the motor vehicle safety [of the traveling public by] the provision [within the right of way] of facilities for pedestrians, equestrians, or bicyclists which are a part of a comprehensive trail plan adopted by federal, state, or local governmental authority having jurisdiction over the trail [,] is hereby authorized. The state highway commission, or the county or city having jurisdiction over the highway, road, or street, or facility is further authorized to spend reasonable amounts out of the funds made available to them, according to the provisions of RCW 46.68.100, as necessary for the planning, accommodation, establishment, and maintenance of such facilities."

Renumber the remaining sections.

On motion of Senator Walgren, Engrossed House Bill No. 1295, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Would Senator Walgren yield? Senator Walgren, are these funds that we are speaking of coming out of highway tax dollars?"

Senator Walgren: "The Urban Arterial Board fund, highway from that standpoint, yes."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Coming out of our gas tax money, though?"

Senator Walgren: "To a certain extent, yes."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "To what extent?"

Senator Walgren: "Over fifty thousand dollars is being appropriated here."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "For the pilot program?"

Senator Walgren: "The pilot program."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Do we have any projection as to what we are getting ourselves into in future revenues?"

Senator Walgren: "Hopefully a lot of people who are concerned about riding bicycles, and I am one of them, that this may very well become a very important mode of transportation in this state and I think that with the energy problems, the gasoline shortage, Senator Peterson, we might find a lot of people on bicycles. Senator Guess, of course, is one of the predominant bicycle riders that we have here in the Senate. Senator Whetzel used to be one of those very important bicycle riders."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, just to further clarify the situation to Senator Peterson, it was suggested in our caucus that in the future we would be using the freeways for the bicycle trails."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Walgren yield to a question? Senator Walgren, this bill says that it conserves energy and you have said that they do not use energy. My question is, how come every time I ride my kids' bicycles I am so tired when I get through?"

Senator Walgren: "Me, too."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "If I might inform Senator Van Hollebeke, it is that he does not ride sufficiently often."

SENATE BILL NO. 2329,
THIRD SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2843,
SENATE BILL NO. 2969,
SENATE BILL NO. 3040,
SENATE BILL NO. 3050,
SENATE BILL NO. 3077,
SENATE BILL NO. 3168,
SENATE BILL NO. 3229,
SENATE BILL NO. 3351.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1169, by Representatives Williams, Chatalas, Conner, Maxie, Brown and Eng (by Asian-American Advisory Council request):

Establishing the Washington commission on Asian-American Affairs.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendments simultaneously:

On page 2, section 4, line 4, after "twenty" and before "members" insert "four".

On page 2, section 4, line 5, after the period following "senate" and before "In" insert "Two of the members to be appointed shall be members of the house of representatives to be selected by the speaker of the house of representatives and two of the members shall be members of the senate of the state of Washington to be selected by the president of the senate. The legislative members selected by each house shall be one member from each political party."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Dore yield? Senator, I think the first committee we created along these lines was the Mexican-American Affairs Commission and it was created, I think, for a worthwhile purpose. The success has been questionable up to this time. But the question I want to ask you, Senator Dore, is why are you making this a political appointment? I thought this was designed to serve the Asian-American citizens, and as I read your second amendment particularly you are making it a partisan appointment."

Senator Dore: "Bipartisan, Senator, so we have a viewpoint of both the Republicans and Democrats on this important matter, yes."

Senator Canfield: "I thought that these members were supposed to concern themselves with the problems of their own particular ethnic situations and it seems to me that making political appointments is out of order."

Senator Dore: "I do not know if that is a question or not, but the idea is to bring all minorities in the state into the mainstream and not to, as you might suggest, just study and analyze the very limited ethnic participation. We want to have them participate on a broad basis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Dore, would you yield to a question? Do you plan on offering amendments to the Women's Council and all the others in the same fashion and do you also plan on in the near future making an amendment to do the same thing to the Mexican-American Affairs Commission?"

Senator Dore: "Senator, is this on the calendar, those other bills?"

Senator Fleming: "No, it is not."

Senator Dore: "Well, I have to read the bill first. . . ."

Senator Fleming: "It is not the idea of whether you are reading the bill. They are all commissions and they are all set up to do the same thing."

Senator Dore: "I would not think it would be harmful, but I would like to reserve my opinion on those until I have a chance to read them."

Senator Fleming: "Senator, I think I am going to oppose this amendment. I think that what you are trying to do here is a pretty good idea on the surface and I can understand probably some of the reasons why you might want this done in view of some of the situations that might have taken place politically or one way or another, but I think I would have to support Senator Canfield on this measure, although we are talking about these special commissions set up to deal with special problems and maybe in your point of view some of their activities might have spilled over into the political situation and maybe that is wrong. Or maybe it is right. I do not know, but I think that to get involved in trying to put a member of each legislative body on this commission would not be appropriate at this time."

Senator Dore: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I have no quarrel, I am very much in favor of the act. In fact, I have written many letters supporting it. I am not going to have to be serving on the committee. I have no personal interest, but I just think it is good on a broad base to have representation from this body. It was discussed in caucus by a number of members and they seemed to join with me and that was the reason that they asked me to put this amendment up. Unfortunately, a lot of times we talk about minorities and blacks seem to think they are the only minority. They do not think one of Chinese or Japanese ancestry or so forth is a minority, and I disagree with that. I think they are entitled to be represented too as minorities, and I think if they can associate with legislators who know their problems and are able to come to the legislature then with perhaps legislation, they have the background of going to their meetings and studying their needs. This is especially effective in the Urban Government Committee on which both you and I serve. We served and when they came to conclusions and recommendations we took those here, put them into laws and passed them. Now if we had not been members of those committees I doubt seriously if they would have been able to give us the background and the factual information and the impetus and the sincerity to instill in us the ability so we put bills in to effectuate the change in the law. And that is what I am trying to do here, to do for the Asians the same thing we did for the Urban Racial Committee, for the other minority groups, and that is why I offered it. I have nothing personal involved in it. I am one hundred percent for them. They are supporters of mine. I want to help them. I think it would be very helpful if we could get four legislators there to go to their meetings to hear what they want, what their grievances are, what type of legislation they want and to have that knowledge, to be in contact with their leaders and then come here, put the bills in, and pass them. Otherwise, they operate in a vacuum. They meet with themselves, they do not have the expertise or background or experience of legislators to get the information to introduce bills, and I think that the knowledge and the example of the urban committee on which you and I both served was very effective in doing this. In fact, if we had not been there, I doubt seriously whether any legislation would have passed at all."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, just briefly to Senator Dore, as I said before I understand what you are trying to do here, but this commission is a little different from the URD commission, and I want to remind you that the blacks do not think that they are the only minorities. They have just taken the brunt of everything to pave the way for other minorities and the women to do a lot of the things that they are doing."

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Ridder, Engrossed House Bill No. 1169, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

I ask you, if you have time, to take a look at it. This is the forest tax bill and it is a brief, section by section. There are a couple of amendments which we are preparing, one really minor one is to make the changes necessary in the bill to make it fit with the new school formula which was changed, and there is one other technical amendment which has to do with the classified lands which will provide a rollback provision which is really a simple amendment, although it is quite lengthy. I wanted to bring to your attention that we do have a brief of the bill before you, and it is a long bill. It is almost identical to the one we passed last session, but the bill will be considered tomorrow. This will give you an opportunity to go over the details. If you have any questions, Senator Odegaard or I or Senator Durkan would be very happy to try to answer them for you."

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 2, 1974.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 833, providing standards for detention and correctional facilities (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, after section 5, beginning on line 28, add a new section 6 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5, within sixty days of the first meeting of the commission, the commission shall consider rules and regulations pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW consistent with the provisions of subsections (1) through (9) of this section and the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant hereto shall be effective only until minimum standards and rules are promulgated by the commission pursuant to section 5 (2) and 7 of this 1974 act and made effective by the legislature.

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Jolly, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Murray, Ridder, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 4, adding a new section.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Fleming, would you yield? Number one, 'he shall have the right to exercise his own religious beliefs,' which I am sure all of us are in favor of, but could you answer as to whether or not this includes — this might sound a little ridiculous but I want to make sure that it does not include their right to go to church on Sunday outside the detention facility? I knew Senator Woodall was going to ask that since he was not awfully excited about the 'Taking a Lifer to Dinner' program."

Senator Fleming: "No, Senator Woody, it does not indicate that."

Senator Woody: "In the postage allowance I see that each individual shall receive a reasonable postage allowance, determined by his individual need. Do you remember what the testimony was in committee as to what fiscal impact this might have and whether it be on the state or the county, number one, and what limitations this might have."

Senator Fleming: "No, I think the testimony was that, one, this would be something which the correctional institution would decide themselves. Quite naturally, when we say 'need' we are not talking about furnishing a man with two or three hundred dollars worth of stamps, but what is reasonable, if a person wanted to write and so forth."

Senator Woody: "And under subsection (3) on visiting hours which includes weekends and evenings, was there any testimony about what effect this might have on the very small county which has a very limited number of personnel?"

Senator Fleming: "No, it did not. We did not discuss that to that extent that it would have a great effect. We, the local officials — were present. They were speaking on behalf of the local elected officials and the counties and the sheriffs and so forth, and there was no objection to this language in there so evidently there was no great alarm about it."

Senator Woody: "And in subsection (5) stating that 'They shall have the right to receive and subscribe for reading material including newspapers,' the limitation I see is there is a type that is permitted to be distributed by the United States Post Office and I presume, am I correct, that that would keep them from receiving items that the post office has determined to be of a quality that is not permissible to be mailed?"

Senator Fleming: "This is true, and then there was some concern about whether the inmates could receive hard copy books or whatever it is, but these are basically those things that were covered under that United States Post Office delivery."

Senator Woody: "Under subsection (7) relating to infractions of regulations and what must occur before there is any sanction for infractions of regulations, and I notice that a hearing is required and I recall that last session we passed a bill that would take the Administrative Procedures Act out of the prison system for just this sort of thing. Did you give that any consideration?"

Senator Fleming: "No, not at the time when we were discussing this amendment, no."

Senator Woody: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, on House Bill No. 833, who appeared before your committee to testify for this? Just social workers?"

Senator Fleming: "No. First of all, Senator Rasmussen, I can give you a history of where this bill comes from and who testified and so forth."

Senator Rasmussen: "I do not care where it came from, Senator Fleming. I am just wondering where it is going to go."

Senator Fleming: "Okay, let us put it this way. We have studied this bill for over a year and we had two or three other bills that were introduced and we worked on this. One of the biggest problems we were having at first, the local officials versus the Department of Social and Health Services versus the Governor's office all had different concerns. And we first started out with a bill that was talking about building physical structures and so forth so we did have a conflict between the local officials and the state officials. Then we came to this and the people representing the sheriffs and the county people, the prosecutors, local elected officials, law enforcement officials, you name it, testified on this bill and they had their concerns. And so we decided that we would just come up with a bill setting up a commission to report back to this legislature as to guides, standards and so forth dealing with detentions and corrections because no one has ever dealt with the idea of whether we are talking about detentions or corrections or a combination thereof.

"This amendment came about because the section that you are dealing with is setting out that the commission will do these kinds of things. Now at the present time we had some concern. You have seen articles in the paper this morning, you have seen articles in the paper week after week that something needs to be done now. If we cannot do anything with the physical standards and structures right now, then we needed something to be in effect at the present time. These rules and regulations that the Association of Washington Cities and other people have agreed to because they were a little different we amended them and cleaned them up as much as we could. It was put there to say, 'Okay, until the commission sets their standards and reports back to the legislature in December and then the legislature takes into consideration their report and comes up with some legislation dealing with these. We need something in effect now.' These were the rules and regulations governing the rights of the inmates and we made sure that by having these they would self-destruct upon the effective date of the new rules that would be set on these matters, and hopefully we mandated that the commission would at least take these rules into consideration when they were drawing up their new rules in these areas of subject matter. So the local officials did testify on this matter."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Fleming."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate imposed a three-minute rule with no yields, recognition only once on an issue and the regular procedure that has been followed previously in the Senate during this session.

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Fleming lost and the committee amendment to page 4 adding a new section was not adopted on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendment to page 5, section 7, line 25 was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 5, after section 7, insert a new section 8 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The provisions of this chapter shall cease to be effective and all commissions formed hereunder shall be abolished on June 30, 1975."

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 833, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Senate Bill No. 3194, as amended, was re-referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1084, by Representative Moon:

Setting the maximum rate of interest permitted on time deposits of public funds.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 1084 on second reading.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

"Section 1. Section 12, chapter 193, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 39.58.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The public deposit protection commission shall from time to time fix the rates of interest to be paid by qualified public depositaries upon investment deposits of one year or less maturity: PROVIDED, That [time] such investment deposits issued pursuant to this chapter shall bear interest at [a] rates which would not be [in excess of] less than one hundred percent of the [average bill rate] coupon equivalent yields at the [last] then most recent U.S. treasury [91-day bill] market auction for comparable maturities or in excess of the maximum rates permitted by any applicable governmental regulation: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the interest rate paid by a qualified public depositary upon investment deposits shall not be less than the interest rate that depositary pays upon its private savings deposit accounts. For the purposes of this section "savings deposit accounts" shall mean those accounts (1) with respect to which the depositor is not required by the deposit contract, but may at any time be required by the depositary, to give notice in writing of an intended withdrawal not less than thirty days before such withdrawal is made and (2) which are not payable on a specified date or at the expiration of a specified time after the date of deposit."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this amendment has been placed on your desks. It is the exact bill that came to the Senate Rules Committee and I believe it was even on the floor. I do not recall, but in any event it came to the Senate Rules Committee from Senator Dore's committee and deals with exactly the same subject as the House bill does. Now I am aware that Senator Dore's committee has studied this problem in depth. As a matter of fact, I attended a number of such committee meetings where this matter was considered, and I was under the impression that Senator Dore had agreed with the various segments of the industry that the bill that he moved out of committee was a proper one and was a solution to the problem. And what it does is merely accept the treasury rate but Senator Dore provided that it would require that the interest paid be not less than, not less than the amount paid for treasury equivalents. Not less than means that, of course, the interest rate can be more and then there was a proviso providing that the rate in any event should not be less than that paid to depositors in savings accounts."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Now I would like to address to Senator Dore a question. That question being, Senator Dore, in view of the extensive study that you did in your committee and in view of your opinion that the bill as it came out of your committee, Senate Bill No.

3007, which I am now offering as amendments, was one that you considered to be the best possible solution to the problem, is not now a proper amendment offered by me?"

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, in answer to the question, this version of the public deposit bill did not get voted out of the committee so that was amended which went into the Senate Rules Committee. I do not know if I can speak, but in answer to this question at this time, it is not the version that we voted out of the committee."

Senator Mardesich: "Do you have any argument then with it being the version which you felt should be introduced as a solution to this problem and what changes would you make to make it correspond to the bill that was voted in the committee?"

Senator Dore: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, the amendment offered was a bill, it looks like a Senate bill, in fact it is, Senate Bill No. 3007 which is a bill that I introduced that I thought would solve the situation, but this particular bill was never considered in the House. It is an entirely different approach than House Bill No. 1084, and I assume if we put the amendment on here as far as I am concerned it is a good amendment if it could possibly pass. But if it gets put on here with only two and one-half hours to go, I assume then it is an entirely new concept. The Public Deposit Commission is retained in the bill, which is eliminated, or made kind of negatively on the version we have before us, House Bill No. 1084. And that is the reason why I would oppose it at this time, because I think we would be right back to what we did two years ago when we passed it here, amended it in a little manner, and then it never was read in the House and the bill died.

"But in answer to your question, Senator, the amendment that you have is a bill that never got out of our committee, that we never adopted either this approach or the approach that is on the desks. The bill that came over from the House by a vote of ninety-four to nothing, we had a hearing on it, rather an extensive hearing of about three hours I believe it was, as a result of which Senator Clarke and myself and Senator Jones and three others joined us in signing the report. Six out of the eight signed the report. And so this is a bill that has the support, I think, of the body, because the version that you have before us, we never passed out of the committee and the House has never had before it. You must remember the version we have before us was in the House Rules Committee, never went to committee before during this session, came directly to the floor and was passed. So if you put such a comprehensive change on this bill, of course, of necessity the chairman of the committee in the House will want to rerefer it to committee and I doubt seriously in two and one-half hours he can have a meeting and report it out into Rules and get it back to the floor."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the three-minute rule during debate on House Bill No. 1084.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I have three questions. One, what is the purpose of your amendment? Number two, what does it do? And number three, how does that differ from what House Bill No. 1084 does?"

Senator Mardesich: "First of all, and I will address myself to the questions later and perhaps answer them in the course of my discussion. First of all I would like to disavow an implied personal interest in this bill that was made by 'Senator' Scates in the morning Daily. He pointed out that it might be of interest to note that I was a borrower at the bank to the tune of somewhere between one hundred and one hundred and fifty thousand, I am told. I did not read the article, but I was told that. I would like to point out to 'Senator' Scates that you go back to 1951 when I was a member of this legislature for a little over a year and I was into the banks, along with my partnership in the fishing business, at that time in excess of a million dollars and those were the days when a buck was a real buck, 'Senator' Scates, and was probably worth three million now, and the one hundred or one hundred and fifty, I assure you, is backed by damned good collateral. So the banks are in no position to place any undue pressure on me with respect to this matter.

"The fact is that I have had a number of calls from the small banks. They are concerned. They are concerned that this will have the effect of driving the money out of this state. They are concerned that it will have the effect of one or two big banks being able to come in and grab it all, and withdraw from their banks all the public deposits that are there. They are afraid that the public treasurer, these various bodies, will be required almost under a compulsion, to put the money out at the highest rate, no matter to whom that money goes. As a consequence, this money will be taken out of the local market where the banks need it, they say, to develop business on a local level, to lend out for homes, to lend out to the local businesses and keep the activity going in the state, the type of business activity which they feel would result in an equal amount of income to the state in terms of the increased business activity and the additional money that comes into the state through sales tax and so on by virtue of added business activity. I am inclined to agree with them. As a matter of fact, I was the one who put on the first, the law that this bill now attempts to amend, back a few years requiring them to come up at least to the ninety day treasury rate. And further, before it slips my mind, Senator Dore, I can assure you and I think you probably recognize that Representative Sawyer and I are well acquainted with each other and if I ask him to do something for me that he is inclined to go along with it. I assure you that is the fact, and that I will request of the Speaker that he direct the attention of the House to this matter immediately, either pass the amendment or reject it, and in either event the matter will still be before us, because it will then be, if they reject it, a matter of difference before the House. If they accept it, it will be the law, so the bill as a matter will not be dead as you imply.

"With respect then to the rest of the problem, Senator Francis, I think that we would have to address ourselves to that concern of the small banks. I have been trying to figure out a way and none of the people I have spoken to have been able to come up with an answer. How do you protect these banks? How do you maintain some of that local money out in Twisp or wherever, where it is needed to develop some of the current business activity, some of the money that is available for housing, and all those things on a local level to help those banks? I have not been able to come up with an answer. I thought we might be able to use a little bait, a hundred thousand or two hundred that the banks might be able to bid in at the ninety day rate. And I have been told that is unconstitutional. If you had to do it, you had to do it for all. And then if you had an offering of a million dollars for deposit, what would you do? Allow one bank to bid on the first hundred thousand or whatever amount they are short of the limitation, and let somebody else bid the balance? I was unable to get any answers. So I offered this as one possible solution, this amendment. This bill which Senator Dore apparently thought was the answer to the question or the problem at one time and now rejects. And that is the reason I have offered it. The difference is that under the House Bill that is now before us there is no limitation. And any bank, state, out-of-state, Bank of Tokyo, so on, could come in and bid it, all of it. There is no prohibition against that in this bill now. And who is to say? I think we all recognize that overseas interest rates are higher than ours almost without exception. And who is to say that those banks do not come in and bid on this and take it all out of state? And that is the fear that I have. I think that money is better working here in our local communities than elsewhere overseas. As a matter of fact, I have even proposed in the past that all public depositories should be required to be made within the United States area. I think that retaining the money for investment locally is more important than the couple of million dollars we might pick up otherwise. This bill by contradistinction says that the rate shall be no less than the treasury rate and that is the guarantee that we will receive — what is at least the highest rate of return in the public money market. That is your short term treasury notes. And that is the biggest single determiner of public interest — what the U.S. Treasury pays for money on a ninety day basis. That is what this bill as amended would do. And in addition, it has a proviso that says no matter what that treasury rate is, in case interest rates should drop rapidly, that the least amount that would be paid to the state would be an amount equal to what they pay private savings depositors for the savings accounts."

Senator Francis: "What is the current rate?"

Senator Mardesich: "I think it is about four and three-quarters now. I am not sure. Maybe it is four and one-half. I do not know what private savings deposits are. But at least that sets the floor beneath which it cannot go. They would not be able to pay to us as a state or to the public county treasurer or any other such body less than they are paying to the public depositor for savings accounts. That is the minimum. And the maximum then is free to go at not less than the treasury rate, and in most cases the treasury rate for ninety day notes will be higher than the amounts paid on local deposits in savings accounts. And I thought it was a pretty good compromise. But then they got into a big hassle about whether it should be less than, more than, or what it should be. This bill with the amendment provides it shall be not less than. And in my opinion it would be a better answer than just putting the money out there and letting it go wherever the interest rates are higher. So I have offered this as an amendment."

Senator Francis: "I think my three questions – what is the purpose of the amendment? I think Senator Mardesich explained that. What does it do? He assumed that we understand one thing which I take it is that this interest rate will be controlled by the Public Deposit Protection Commission which I take is in existence now, and that it will be fixing these rates and as Senator Mardesich said, no lower than the rate of U.S. Treasury ninety day notes which is what this means when it says 'private savings deposit accounts' which are defined, well it goes into a detailed definition, and how it differs from the House bill is that House Bill No. 1084 is not limited. Overseas interest rates could attract everything away from the state of Washington. I still have some questions in my mind, but I see that we have to decide on this thing. Since Senator Mardesich has made a commitment on the record to do everything in his power to keep this thing alive if the House does not accept the amendment, I think that I will support this effort. It looks to be a way of getting at a problem effectively."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Although we were discussing other matters, while I was there with the Speaker I asked him would he assure me that this bill would come before the House for consideration were it amended. He has assured me that it would."

Senator Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Knoblauch, Washington, Durkan, Mardesich, Stortini, Day, Bailey, Woody and von Reichbauer.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Mardesich failed by the following vote: Yeas, 6; nays, 39; absent or not voting, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bottiger, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Matson, von Reichbauer-6.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Greive, Guess, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Marsh, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody-39.

Absent or not voting: Senators Henry, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Van Hollebeke-3.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, section 1, line 14, after "regulation." add "No qualified public depository shall sell, assign or transfer any investment deposit to any state bank, trust company, national banking association or other financial institution which is not a qualified public depository as defined in this chapter unless such sale, assignment or transfer is required by law or any applicable governmental regulation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, this is simply one that does not affect the question of what the interest rate should be. The bill as it now stands would regulate the industry and this merely addresses itself to the question of whether these moneys would leave the state. I still feel we would be better off to have that money working in this state than out and I again assure you that I will prevail upon the House to consider this matter. It may be considered at any time up until we adjourn."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? Senator Mardesich, before I vote on this amendment, I have some concern. Some of our members on this floor have been alluding to the fact that we are in the midnight hour and if you amend the bill today, this is the last day of the session and we will not be able to do anything with that bill. Now I would like to know, before I vote on one of these amendments, you were talking to Speaker Sawyer, do you know something that the rest of us do not know, that we are not going to have a difference between the two houses and that we are adjourning today rather than this weekend or next week?"

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, if I might respond. Any amendment to the bill is a difference between the houses and that would keep the issue before us until such time as we adjourn under our concurrent resolution. The matter would be before us and the Speaker has assured me that the House will address itself to this question on the floor on a vote, either accept or reject."

Senator Fleming: "Further question. I cannot recall that resolution, but it has something to do with somewhere between twenty-eight and thirty days or something of that nature."

Senator Mardesich: "If we were to adjourn today, then possibly Senator Dore's contention would be correct. If we did happen to adjourn today, I assure you that they would have all of our scalps hanging on the wall."

Senator Fleming: "You did have the information that we would probably act on some portion of the budget before we leave?"

Senator Mardesich: "Of course, the House still has to pass the budget. I do not see how as a practical matter we could possibly under any circumstance finish tomorrow as has been suggested. It is difficult for me to even envision how we are going to get out of here Saturday. It is more likely that we will be in until the first of the week. If we can do it sooner, then so be it. The sooner we can do it, the better off we are, I think, in doing so, but certainly we cannot finish up and leave here within the next two days — no sooner than the next two days."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, following Senator Mardesich's comments I want to point out to Senator Fleming that these are matters between the houses, but they could well become conference matters and there are some of these bills I would like very much not to hand to three people of each house and throw into conference. We do not know what they are going to look like when they come back and that, therefore, is one of the reasons I am now voting against most of the amendments to these bills."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, Senator Mardesich, on the last amendment I talked to Senator Dore and others after you spoke on the floor and I got a lot of confusing numbers but they were all higher than the one you gave me of four point seventy five and I realize that it would take hours to really understand the effect of that amendment. Now that amendment was defeated and under the salutary principle of fire and fall back you have got this one. I hope you do not have any more after this one. What you say it does, again I am sure that in the process it does that but I can see a lot of other possibilities too where they cannot assign, sell or transfer any deposits to any nonqualified institutions. Within banking circles is that unduly restrictive? What kinds of problems does it give, and so forth? It just seems to me that it brings up all kinds of questions and may not really be effective of what you are trying to accomplish. I think this is another one, frankly after I said I thought I would vote with you on the last one I did not and I am going to have to vote against this one and I hope you do not put any more of them up."

Senator Mardesich: "I would only answer in this way. If this amendment should be accepted, and I still think there is good reason why it should be, and if the House in its wisdom chooses not to accept it after the time to debate it tomorrow or the next day, whatever time they desire to take it up, then I for one would be the first to prove that I am not out to kill this bill by acceding to the House's position. However, it seems to me that it is simply a wise move to keep that money here. If the House refuses to concur in that situation or face the other problems with this amendment, I repeat again I would be more than happy to accede to the House's position. With that background, with my position made clear, I see nothing wrong with accepting this. Senator Dore says that the banks can get together and decide not to bid and if they do that a few of them will go to the penitentiary and I do not think the bankers want to go to the penitentiary. He says they are going to commit illegal acts. If he is going to use the approach that you are going to commit illegal acts, then there is no sense passing any law. So when he says that, he is talking through his left ear."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woodall, the amendment by Senator Mardesich was laid upon the table.

On motion of Senator Dore, House Bill No. 1084 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 1084, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—46.

Absent or not voting: Senators Atwood, Lewis (R. H. "Bob")—2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1084, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woodall, House Bill No. 1084 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 473, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Jastad, Bagnariol, Wojahn, McCormick, Savage, Kalich, Thompson, Anderson, Ceccarelli and Gaines):

Authorizing card rooms, pinball machines, punch cards, and pull tabs.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473 on second reading.

Senators Mardesich, Bailey and Greive demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present.

On motion of Senator Henry, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 6, 1974.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 473, authorizing card rooms, pinball machines, punch cards, and pull tabs (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 15, line 31, section 4, after "games be" strike all remaining material in the subsection and insert "recorded and reported as established by rule or regulation of the commission to the extent deemed necessary by considering the scope and character of the gambling activity in such a manner that will disclose gross income from any gambling activity, amounts received from each player, the nature and value of prizes, and the fact of distributions of such prizes to the winners thereof."

On page 19, line 14, section 6, after "county" strike all material down through and including "issued" on line 21.

On page 21, line 21, section 8, after "or" and before "as" insert "out" and on line 22, after "receipts" add "less the amount paid for or out as prizes".

On page 23, line 5 strike all of section 11 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Signed by: Senators Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Marsh, Van Hollebeke, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Francis, the committee amendment to page 15, line 31, section 4 was adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis lost and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Francis moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 21, line 21, section 8.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Day moved that the Senate immediately reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6 was not adopted.

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "The motion by Senator Day is for reconsideration as to the vote for local option and a vote 'aye' would be to reopen the question of local option and a vote 'nay' would be to let the issue remain where it is and providing that there be no local option. Am I correct in that interpretation?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes your remarks are essentially correct, Senator Mardesich. This is the amendment, 'On page 19, line 14, section 6, after "county", strike all materials down through and including "issued" on line 21.' "

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Therefore, Mr. President, the effect of an 'aye' vote would be to reopen the question in favor of state control rather than local option. A vote 'no' would be to retain the bill where it is for local option?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "A vote 'aye' will open the question up for the decision of the Senate. A vote 'no' will keep the situation exactly as it is now."

The motion for reconsideration by Senator Day carried on a rising vote.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6 on reconsideration.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I am not going to prolong this. Anyway, I want to point out something that happened last April in the middle of the night, as they said in the paper, when we passed the original gambling bill. The record will show that I asked the question that we had not had a chance to read that bill and was local option in it? I was assured, yes, local option was there. Look at the record and you will find out that local option was taken out later in the evening. I said at that time I would not vote for that gambling bill under those circumstances late at night unless I was sure it was there and provisions of the bill could be re-reviewed by local authorities. Now the argument of Senator Greive is not a good argument, nor is Senator Van Hollebeke's a good argument. The people might have voted on this issue and they might want state-wide laws, but what have we done? We have given it to counties and cities of the first class only. I contend that we should leave local option in, that we should then adopt an amendment that Senator Sellar has and put the small cities and towns back and give them some say as to what happens inside their borders. I am not talking about gambling or not gambling, I am talking about the right to say, 'We do not want a particular activity in our town because we haven't got the way to enforce it,' or something of that sort. I do not care if I go down to defeat. I want to be on record as favoring local control and local option and the right of the local cities to determine what they want, and if the people want something, the local officials are going to respond."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Will Senator Bailey yield to a question? If I understand this right now, this will extend local option to cities of all classes. Is that correct?"

Senator Bailey: "If we adopt Senator Sellar's amendment, yes. If we maintain the local option that we adopted by voice vote awhile ago and then will adopt Senator Sellar's amendment, every incorporated city and county would be able to make their own rules. As it is now, only the counties and cities of the first class can do this. The counties impose their rule on all incorporated cities except first class. There is a problem of code cities which have been ruled not to be able to make their own rules even if they are cities of the first class."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "The amendment that Senator Bailey speaks to is in the same section. Should my amendment be considered first, prior to this one, because it would be precluded if this amendment passed?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "I would suggest that that would have been in order had it been made in order but that time is past. We are now reconsidering an amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes Senator Greive's remarks are well taken, Senator Sellar."

Senator Henry demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bottiger, Bailey, Herr, Metcalf, Francis, Fleming, Walgren, Greive and Connor.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "While the President is pondering that question, would he set that aside for a moment and consider whether this measure would fall within the allowance for consideration of bills beyond the deadline at five p.m. today by virtue of its having to do with the question of revenues? It does impose a tax and regulate the extent and authority of the tax."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Maybe Senator Mardesich would permit me to suggest that if we made it an order of business at four fifty-five then would not the bill be under consideration and could properly be disposed of within the rule?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President will state that what you say is unequivocally correct, Senator, but the President was just pondering the point as to whether even though — in other words, I am trying to say that the bill is under consideration if, for instance, we are considering another bill at four fifty-five or even after five we would have to finish completion of that bill unless the Senate wished otherwise. The President believes this will be alive after five o'clock today but only today, as a special order of business. This bill is under consideration right now and this is, I am sure every member will understand, this is a highly technical point. I want to be correct. Therefore, I feel if I delay the proceedings that I should permit consideration of it after five p.m., but only after the bill under consideration at five is completed. This will be the only other bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would like to move that this be a special order of business at four fifty-five, that the bill be considered under consideration as of this time and we proceed with the calendar until you can make a ruling on that, and set it for four fifty-five."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, would Senator Bailey accept an amendment so that the bill under consideration at four fifty-five be completed and then this bill be put."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Just to understand, what you are saying then in effect is that the bill is presently before us and therefore it can be considered after five o'clock. Isn't that right?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, sir."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I want to make it clear I am in favor of this bill generally. I am not trying to kill it, but I wanted to be sure that we do not kill it by an accidental postponement and I think we should proceed with the calendar and try to clean up some of the other bills while you are making that decision."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, speaking to the motion by Senator Bailey, I rather question, Mr. President, setting this precedent because I can well see the situation where we can get into every Senator putting his bill up and getting it on consideration and saying because we are under consideration we then can go beyond the cutoff time. Now it is a well-known fact that many, many times as a means of delaying bills that are not appealing to us that we will debate a bill beyond the cutoff time and cut off all the other bills. I would rather see the President go to the point of saying that it is a revenue and appropriation measure and let it be considered on another day rather than to set this precedent of setting all bills, we start action on them and then carry them beyond the cutoff time. So I would urge the President to consider that. I would object to any other measure."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Rasmussen, the President has your thoughts in mind and for that reason mentioned this would be the only bill and the reason for the delay is the President's hesitancy in giving an explanation now without thoroughly briefing the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I would withdraw my amendment to Senator Bailey's so it would erase any possibility of confusion and then whatever bill, at four fifty-five we would take this measure up again and whatever happened to be then on the calendar would die."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Very well."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I cannot agree with Senator Rasmussen when he said he would like to hear the President say it was a revenue measure because the President cannot say that unless he judiciously determines it is, because that would certainly invite a court challenge to the constitutionality of the whole thing if he merely called it a revenue measure and he did not carefully research it and it was not in fact. I think the four fifty-five method is by far the safer one."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Thank you, Senator Woodall. The President did examine the bill for that possibility, but you are absolutely correct. It could not be designated as a revenue bill.

"If there are no objections, the measure is a special order of business at four fifty-five."

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473, together with the committee amendments, the motion by Senator Day to reconsider the vote by which the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6 was not adopted, was made a special order of business for 4:55 p.m. today.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO: 3243, by Senators Grant, Washington and Murray:
Providing for public disclosure by public officials.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, I would like to inquire whether it would be your ruling that Senate Bill No. 3243 could be considered after the five o'clock cutoff date? It is regarding a change in the Public Disclosure Act."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President feels that falls within the purview of legislative reform, Senator Grant."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Senate Bill No. 3243 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Friday, February 8, 1974.

Providing for a corporation to sue or be sued in its corporate name.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Matson, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 29 after "banks." add a new section as follows:

"Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 172, Laws of 1923, as last amended by section 4, chapter 19, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.04.100 are each amended to read as follows:

No corporation under the provisions of this chapter shall:

(1) Make any loan, on the security of makers, comakers, endorsers, sureties or guarantors, [for a longer period than two years from the date thereof] which provides for a repayment period exceeding 36 months and 15 days.

(2) Hold at any one time the primary obligation, or obligations of any person, firm or corporation, for more than two percent of the amount of the paid-up capital and surplus of such industrial loan company.

(3) Hold at any one time the obligation or obligations of persons, firms, or corporations purchased from any person, firm or corporation in excess of twenty percent of the aggregate paid-up capital and surplus of such industrial loan company.

(4) Make any loans secured by chattel mortgage [for a longer period than two years from the date thereof] which provides for a repayment period exceeding 36 months and 15 days.

(5) Make any loan or discount on the security of its own capital stock, or be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith. Stock so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale or otherwise disposed of within ninety days from the time of its purchase or acquisition.

(6) Invest any of its funds, otherwise than as herein authorized except in such investments as are by law legal investments for commercial banks.

(7) Make any loan or discount, nor shall any officer or employer thereof on behalf of such corporation, make any loan or discount directly or indirectly to any director, officer, or employee of such corporation.

(8) Have outstanding at any time its promissory notes or other evidences of debt in an aggregate sum in excess of three times the aggregate of its paid-up capital and surplus, exclusive of investment certificates hypothecated with the corporation issuing them.

(9) Exact a surrender charge on investment certificates issued by the corporation.

(10) Deposit any of its funds with any other moneyed corporation unless such corporation has been designated as such depository by a vote of the majority of the directors or the executive committee exclusive of any director who is an officer, director or trustee of the depository so designated.

(12) Have outstanding at any time investment certificates issued in the name of any one person, firm or corporation for an amount in excess of two and one-half percent of its paid up capital and surplus.

(13) Pledge or hypothecate any of its securities to any creditor except that it may borrow and rediscount an amount not to exceed in the aggregate three times the amount of the paid-up capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security for amounts borrowed assets of the corporation not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed and may pledge as security for amounts rediscounted assets of the corporation not exceeding one-half the amount rediscounted."

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 17 after "less" and before the colon insert:

"for contracts which provide for a repayment period not exceeding 24 months and 15 days, and at a rate of nine percent per annum, or less for contracts for a repayment period exceeding 24 months and 15 days."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Matson yield? Senator, would you tell me now, with your amendment, precisely what we have done?"

Senator Matson: "It is my understanding, Senator Greive, that what we have done is to increase by the first amendment the time for repayment of industrial loans from two years to three years and fifteen days. The second amendment would reduce the interest from ten percent to nine to cover that period between two years and three years and fifteen days. If we do not do that, then in effect we are going to increase the rates because of the longer period of time. I think it is necessary to understand that we are talking about people here who cannot qualify for commercial bank loans. They are consumers who are borrowing money to buy automobiles, refrigerators, and so forth."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Senator Matson asked me about this amendment before. I read it carefully. I think it is all right. I tried to get ahold of Mr. Hart, the supervisor, in his office. He was not there, but I just would like to ask one question, Senator Matson, for the record. When you extended the length of time of the payback, does it come to the same rate of interest over-all?"

Senator Matson: "Yes, that is the purpose of it."

Senator Dore: "I have no objection to it, Mr. President."

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Matson, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 5 of the title, strike the period and insert:

"; and amending section 9, chapter 172, Laws of 1923, as last amended by section 4, chapter 19, Laws of 1941 and RCW 31.04.100."

On motion of Senator Matson, Engrossed House Bill No. 393, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 474, allowing state, city and county employees to engage in certain political activities (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, section 1, beginning on line 7, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"(1) Solicitation for or payment to any partisan, political organization or for any partisan, political purpose of any compulsory assessment or involuntary contribution is prohibited: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That officers of employee associations shall not be prohibited from soliciting dues or contributions from members of their associations. No [person] elected official or employee of the state or a political subdivision thereof shall solicit on state property or property of a political subdivision of this state any contribution to be used for [partisan,] political purposes.

(2) Employees of the state or any political subdivision thereof shall have the right to vote and to express their opinions on all political subjects and candidates [, but shall not] and to hold any political party office or participate in the management of a partisan, political campaign. Nothing in this section shall prohibit [a classified] an employee of the state or any political subdivision thereof from participating fully in campaigns relating to constitutional amendments, referendums, initiatives, and issues of a similar character, and for nonpartisan offices.

On page 1, in line 2 of the title, after "41.06.250" strike everything down to the period in line 3.

Signed by: Senators Grant, Chairman; Metcalf, von Reichbauer, Washington.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed House Bill No. 474, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, I was concerned in the discussion this morning that we had on whether or not this bill would permit officers of employee associations from soliciting dues or contributions from members of their association while they are on the job. Will you make a statement on that?"

Senator Grant: "Senator Guess, the language still says, if you will read further, in the next sentence, Senator Guess, beginning on line 10, 'No elected official or employee of the state or a political subdivision thereof shall solicit on state property or political subdivision property for contributions for political purposes.' So that if you have a union or an association that has as members public employees, they are able to go to the public place and solicit their dues from among their members, not from new people but from among their members. I think you can see that."

Senator Guess: "Senator Grant, you used the word that has come in here foreign to what we have been talking about. You use the word 'dues' now. The bill does not have anything to do with dues. Are you now saying that they could use dues for political purposes?"

Senator Grant: "There is no prohibition in any state law that I am aware of now that prohibits the use of dues for political contributions, or association fees or any contributions. There is nothing to prohibit that now."

Senator Guess: "The question that I started out to ask was, and you have answered it, that they cannot solicit contributions on state lands and the property of a political subdivision. May they solicit contributions from them at home?"

Senator Grant: "Certainly. They can do that now."

Senator Guess: "All right. That is the other question. Have they been prohibited in the past from doing that?"

Senator Grant: "No, they have not."

Senator Guess: "In other words, this bill does not change that situation?"

Senator Grant: "No, Senator Guess, it does not."

Senator Guess: "Then I think that answers my question. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator Sandison, I presume this could be the case where the student would be the deciding vote in a tenure case. He probably is in the institution for a very short period of time, yet his vote would be of lasting effect. What is the real purpose of it?"

Senator Sandison: "As I understand, speaking to the author of this bill, the students feel they have a real investment in there. They did not want to control the tenure committee, but there is a good deal of student dissatisfaction with the whole tenure procedure and they wanted to be in a position to at least comment from the input they received from the rest of the students on the effectiveness of this particular faculty member."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would prefer that they have their input after they are affected by tenure rather than before, Senator."

Debate ensued.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 473, by Committee on Commerce (originally sponsored by Representatives Jastad, Bagnariol, Wojahn, McCormick, Savage, Kalich, Thompson, Anderson, Ceccarelli and Gaines):

Authorizing card rooms, pinball machines, punch cards, and pull tabs.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473. Previously today, the committee amendment to page 15, line 31, section 4 was adopted. The committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6 was not adopted. On motion of Senator Day, the Senate moved to reconsider the vote by which that amendment was not adopted. Senator Henry had demanded a roll call and the demand had been sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption, on reconsideration, of the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President, in response to the inquiries pertaining to the vote on the pending motion to adopt the second committee amendment, has the understanding that the existing language commencing on line 14, page 19 of the measure, gives to first class cities or counties containing first class cities certain powers to veto the validity of a state-issued license.

"The amendment, if adopted, would remove this special local veto power and leave complete regulatory licensing functions at the state level. Therefore, a 'yea' vote would remove the local veto authority of the specified areas and a 'nay' vote would leave the local veto authority as now contained in the bill. The President hopes that he has not confused you more."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "A 'yea' vote would sustain the committee for state option and a 'nay' vote would sustain my stand and be for local option."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that your remarks are correct, Senator Bailey."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I would dislike calling the Call of the Senate. If members would show up and vote, I would reserve the right to call for a Call of the Senate anytime which I would want everyone to understand. If they would all come out of the woods, we could avoid that."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the committee amendment to page 19, line 14, section 6, on reconsideration, was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 25.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Connor, Day, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, Woodall, Woody—23.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Clarke, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Guess, Jolly, Jones, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel—25.

There being no objection, Senator Rasmussen was excused.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, there was an amendment by Senator Sellar that had never been acted on. I do not know the status. Do you have some more amendments, Senator? Point of inquiry then. Should we act on the amendment relating to this section, or does the committee amendment proceed first? I care not, but I just wondered."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The ever thoughtful Secretary has taken the large number of amendments that have been presented and put them in chronological order on the yellow sheets in the belief that this would be the easiest to understand and the best procedure."

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 1, line 14, after "town" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, That participants in amusement games as defined and regulated shall not be designated as gamblers, nor such amusement game be defined as gambling".

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "I am not trying to confuse this issue, but I thought we had to consider amendments section by section, and I do not want to come back later and find out that I cannot get back to the local option section."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "It will not prohibit you from coming back, Senator."

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, section 2, line 21, after "same." strike all the material down through and including "section" on line 27 and insert: [The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue

Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section]”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 28, after “newspaper” strike the comma and insert “[,]”.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 10, line 28, after “game” and before the period insert “, or to the winner or winners of said prize or prizes”.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Ted), the following amendment was adopted:

On page 12, section 3, line 12, add a new subsection following subsection (1) as follows:

“(2) Bona fide charitable or bona fide nonprofit organizations organized primarily for purposes other than the conduct of raffles, are hereby authorized to conduct raffles without obtaining a license to do so from the commission when such raffles are held in accordance with all other requirements of chapter 9.46 RCW, other applicable laws, and rules of the commission; when gross revenues from all such raffles held by the organization during the calendar year do not exceed $5000; and when tickets to such raffles are sold only to, and winners are determined only from among, the regular members of the organization conducting the raffle: PROVIDED, That the term members for this purpose shall mean only those persons who have become members prior to the commencement of the raffle and whose qualification for membership was not dependent upon, or in any way related to, the purchase of a ticket, or tickets, for such raffles.”

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 13, line 26, after “issue,” and before “suspend” insert “deny,”

On page 13, line 27, after “race,” and before “creed,” insert “sex,”

Senator Francis moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 13, lines 23 through 25, after “[That]” strike all the material down through and including “PROVIDED FURTHER, That” and insert “[the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER, That]”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: “Are you intending to return the original language or merely strike the stricken language?”

Senator Francis: “I am striking actually only the language on lines 23, 24 and 25 and the part that is already stricken should not be considered as part of the amendment. That is wrong. It should not say ‘line 18 through 25.’ It should say ‘line 23 through 25.’”

Senator Mardesich: “And then the stricken matter would remain stricken?”

Senator Francis: “It would remain stricken.”

Senator Mardesich: “That is incorrectly drawn, then?”

Senator Francis: “Yes. I agree with Senator Mardesich. If you can make that correction up there.”

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 14, beginning on line 7, after “PROVIDED,” strike all the material down through and including “FURTHER,” on line 10 and insert “[That the commission shall not deny a license to an otherwise qualified applicant in an effort to limit the number of licenses to be issued: PROVIDED FURTHER,]”

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 15, line 13, after “having” and before “interest” strike “an” and insert “[an] a managerial or ownership”.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 15, line 23, between “holding” and “interest” strike “an” and insert “[an] a managerial or ownership”.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "It is my understanding that when the bingo clubs were operating in Seattle that they never operated under the names of the managers. As a factual matter, I have evidence, for instance in Wayne's which was not a bingo but a go-go club where Mr. Colacurcio - who was rather famous throughout the state of Washington - was listed as the night janitor for a hundred dollars a month, and later when he got three hundred dollars a month he was listed to be, of all things, a dishwasher. Now we cannot prove that he ever washed a dish or that he was ever there at night, but he was on the payroll. It would seem to me that to remove the responsibility with an amendment such as this is a very dangerous situation and I am against not only this amendment, but the previous amendment. Maybe Senator Canfield has some explanation as to how to get around this."

Senator Canfield: "Senator Greive, let me illustrate it by a practical example of the fair in Yakima with the grounds being owned by the county. All the people of Yakima County have an interest in those grounds. The way this bill is worded, we would have to get the names of every person in Yakima County on this application because they all have an interest in the property. That is just an example. I think what we are really after is the people who are heading up the thing, who are controlling it, who are the managers of the operation."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 15, line 26, after "activity" and before the semicolon insert "PROVIDED FURTHER, That fingerprinting shall be required only in those cases where the commission or the director has cause to believe that information gained thereby may disclose criminal or other relevant activity".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Canfield yield? I certainly am with you, but a little bit of your language here, 'when they have cause to believe that information gained thereby may disclose criminal or other relevant activity.' What is 'other relevant activity'?"

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, I think Senator Woodall's remarks are well taken and with the consent of the body, I would move to strike 'or other relevant' and then I withdraw my request until we hear further evidence, Mr. President."

Senator Francis objected to Senator Canfield's motion to delete "or other relevant" and there being no objection, Senator Canfield withdrew his motion to delete.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, no one has moved to strike that language and Senator Canfield has withdrawn his request to do so, and so I think Senator Greive is not speaking to anything that is before the body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "I stand corrected."

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.

The following committee amendment was adopted previously today:

On page 15, beginning on line 31, after "games be" strike all the matter down through "fair;" on page 16, line 5 and insert: [receipted for at the time the income is received from each individual player and that all prizes be receipted for at the time the prize is distributed to each individual player and to require that all raffle tickets be consecutively numbered and accounted for. PROVIDED, That in lieu of the requirements of this subsection, agricultural fairs as defined herein shall report such income not later than thirty days after the termination of said fair,] recorded and reported as established by rule or regulation of the commission to the extent deemed necessary by considering the scope and character of the gambling activity in such manner that will disclose gross income from any gambling activity, amounts received from each player, the nature and value of prizes, and the fact of distributions of such prizes to the winners thereof;"

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger, Marsh and Canfield:

On page 16, section 4, following line 23, insert a new subsection to read as follows:

"(11) To regulate and establish for bona fide charitable nonprofit corporations and organizations reasonable admission fees which may be imposed by such organizations for the purpose of defraying the expenses incident to a social card or other game or fund raising endeavor and the balance over and above such expenses is to be used solely for the charitable purposes of the corporation or organization;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Why do you have it that the Grange has to ask the commission what they can charge each other to come to their own meeting?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Woodall, I am just a practical politician. I wrote it the other way last time. You participated in it. The Governor vetoed it and I take it he would do it again, so I am just trying to get what I can get, I guess."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Sellar, the following amendments by Senators Sellar and Bailey were adopted:

On page 19, beginning on line 15, after "therein" strike all the matter down through and including "government" on line 17.

On page 19, beginning on line 18, strike "of twenty thousand or more persons".

Senator Stortini moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Stortini and Woodall:

On page 21, line 14, after "over" and before "dollars" strike "five" and insert "{five} fifty".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Knoblauch: "Would Senator Stortini yield to a question? Senator, does your amendment also cover the bingo winnings up to fifty dollars?"

Senator Stortini: "Senator Knoblauch, we are dealing with section 8, and that only deals with punchboards and pull tabs. It does not cover bingo."

Senator Knoblauch: "Well, I would hope that we could include bingo at the same time. But getting back to my friendly tavern owner in Sumner, one of his gripes too, is that he has to — each time he has a winner on a pull tab or a punchboard — ask for their name and list their names. It looks as though we are trying to say everybody is a crook. I cannot see anything wrong if a man wins a prize. I cannot see why he should be asked his name and address. What does that prove?"

Senator Stortini: "Members of the Senate, in response to Senator Francis, let me say first of all, on a punchboard whenever there is a winner the winning number is then blacked out and the person who does punch that board knows exactly how many winning tickets are left, plus the prizes are right there in full view. But I think even more important than that, the real enforcement comes from the fact that the liquor board can take away the owner's liquor license according to state law if there is any cheating at all. And I just do not think he would risk that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "Will Senator Francis yield, please? Senator Francis, I have had some input from local law enforcement people who indicate to me that punchboards and pull tabs are about as easy a way to fleece the public as there exists. They have some question about the credibility of the operation in its entirety, and I wonder in your investigation — maybe Senator Stortini perhaps would like to answer this — but is it common practice that when there is a winning number pulled that it is indicated on the face of the board that those numbers are gone? Is that common practice now to indicate that there is only one prize left or two prizes left on the board?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Lewis, the testimony that we received indicated that Senator Stortini is right on that. However, we were also informed in testimony on several occasions, most of it as you remember well over a year ago that there are a number of other ways to deceive the public on that, and when we let that bill out of committee it was very clearly established in the bill that there would be no punchboards or pull tabs distributed by anyone but the commission. They would not be sold as they are under the present law by private operators, and only the commission would have the keys, and so forth. I think that law enforcement is somewhat justifiably concerned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Francis yield? Senator Francis, a number of years ago when punchboards were in operation in Oregon there was an awful lot of stir down there over the fact that punchboards came with coded codes on the back of them and the sharpies would come along and skim the entire board and there would not be anything left. Have we anything in this bill that will stop that kind of thing?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Guess, I know of nothing in this bill that would do anything about that. However, the commission has the power to regulate and I am sure they are not allowing the keys to be printed right on the punchboard."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I can answer that. I attended a hearing on this subject they had. One man spoke who sold them. He said, 'You know, if it was possible to do that, to put out a money board and have your pal come along behind you and punch them out,' he said, 'I would have retired and been out of the business years ago.' Because, they explained, there are four companies in America and they explained how these are put together. They have this whole barrel of numbers and they are blown into these little holes under pressure and there just is no way, in other words you do not stand there with your finger and deliberately put number ten in a certain hole and then mark down, 'I have put ten in a certain hole.' They just are not made up that way. They are blown in, in an accidental fashion, and it is impossible to have a code on them."

The motion by Senator Stortini carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Grant and Stortini:

On page 21, line 19, strike "[ten] fifteen" and insert "ten".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following committee amendment was adopted:

On page 21, line 21, after "or" and before "as" insert "out" and on line 22, after "receipts" add "less the amount paid for or out as prizes".

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 22, line 2, after "therewith." strike "The" and insert "Each commissioner, the".

There being no objection, an amendment by Senator Canfield to page 22, line 30 on the Secretary's desk, was withdrawn.

Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 22, line 30, add a new section 10 to read as follows:

"Sec. 10. Section 20, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.200 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other penalty provided for in this chapter, every person, directly or indirectly controlling the operation of any gambling activity authorized in section 3 of this act including a director, officer, and/or manager of any association, organization or corporation conducting the same, whether charitable, nonprofit, or profit, shall be liable, jointly and severally, for money damages suffered by any person because of any violation of this chapter, together with interest on any such amount of money damages at six percent per annum from the date of the loss, and reasonable attorneys' fees: PROVIDED, That if any such director, officer, and/or manager did not know any such violation was taking place, and if such director, officer and/or manager shall establish by a preponderance of the evidence that he did not have such knowledge and that he had exercised all reasonable care to prevent the violations he shall not be liable hereunder. [Any civil action under this section may be considered a class action.]”

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Canfield carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following committee amendment was adopted:

On page 23, line 5 strike all of section 11 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 23, line 5, insert a new section 11 as follows:

“Sec. 11. Section 4, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a commission, known as the “Washington state gambling commission”, consisting of five members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. The members of the commission shall be appointed within thirty days of July 16, 1973 for terms beginning July 1, 1973, and expiring as follows: One member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1975; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1976; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1977; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1978; and one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1979; each as the governor so determines. Their successors, all of whom shall be citizen members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, upon being appointed and qualified, shall serve six year terms; PROVIDED, That no member of the commission who has served a full six year term shall be eligible for reappointment. In case of a vacancy, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term in which said vacancy occurs. No vacancy in the membership of the commission shall impair the right of the remaining member or members to act, except as in RCW 9.46.050(2) provided.

In addition to the members of the commission there shall [initially] be four ex officio members without vote from the legislature consisting of: (1) Two members of the senate, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the president of the senate; (2) two members of the house of representatives, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; [all of whose terms shall end December 31, 1974; appointments shall be made within thirty days of July 16, 1973] such appointments shall be for a term of two years or for the period in which the appointee serves as a legislator, whichever expires first; members may be reappointed; vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are made. Such ex officio members who shall collect data deemed essential to future legislative proposals and exchange information with the board shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the board and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120, the same to be paid from the “gambling revolving fund” as being expenses relative to commission business.”

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Matson was excused.

Senator Van Hollebeke moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 21, section 8, line 2, strike “twenty-five” and insert “[twenty-five] fifty”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Van Hollebeke failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 23, section 12, line 12, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect on June 1, 1974: PROVIDED, That this act shall be subject to referendum petition pursuant to Article II, Section 1 of the constitution of the State of Washington."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, the thought struck me the other day that the bills we are passing here are not going to become effective unless we put a date on them or have an emergency clause because if we happen to recess and come back at an April date the Constitution provides that no bill can take effect until ninety days after the final adjournment of that session of the legislature. Now in this bill my first concern is not in any gambling interest. My first concern is the small bingo game, the small organization, the small nonprofit group that is going to read this bill having passed and wonder why it does not go into effect. It cannot go into effect unless we finally adjourn, and I am pessimistic enough to fear that we are not going to do that.

"The other thing is that we have Expo '74 involved in this bill and if this act does not take effect until July or August, it is very necessary that we have some sort of a date in here to make the bill effective in order to be effective for Expo '74. I provide in this amendment that the act would not take effect until approximately ninety days, which would be June 1, and provide also that it would be subject to referendum petition because I did not want it to fall under the court ruling we had on the last budget. Whether this is constitutional or not I don't know. A judge can tell us that, and the intention is not to slide something through that the people cannot speak back on, but if we do not do this we have just wasted an awful lot of time here today and it is not going to do any good until August or September and Expo '74 will probably have gone by the boards."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Speaking against the amendment, this body has never done this. I think it is clearly unconstitutional. You cannot have an emergency clause bill subject to a referendum by the Constitution itself. Now I know that the attorneys differ. I do not know, but it will not, with the emergency clause on it and the referendum it probably will not go to the Governor. I see, it was not an automatic referendum. Okay, I did not understand that the way it was. I do not know whether you can do that either, Senator. I think it probably is unconstitutional, but we will find out."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I thought for quite awhile about how to phrase this so that we would get around that question, the precise question if we can couple a referendum or an emergency clause with a permissible referendum, if somebody goes out and collects the ballots. It seems to me the court would say, 'You had your chance, the ninety days was there from the passage until the effective date of the act. You have had your chance and if you wait and try to wait until ninety days after we adjourn, you are out of luck.' And that is, in my opinion, what a court would say because the people's right to referendum is protected and yet the emergency date or the effective date of the act is also taken care of."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

Senator Whetzel: "What Senator Bailey is trying to do, I think, does run afoul of the Constitution. It does say, 'No act, law or bill subject to referendum shall take effect until ninety days after the adjournment of the session at which it was enacted,' so I think your June 1 date is probably not going to be effective. It is going to be deferred until the ninety days after this session adjourns. Since you are placing the referendum on it, I think that is the way it would end up."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, Senator Whetzel, we do not know what date we are going to adjourn sine die so at this moment we certainly do not know that that date we put on there is less than ninety days from then, so at this moment anyway, we can act with the expectation it will be constitutional even under your argument. So I would say the best we can do is this, we are putting an effective date on it. Let us give it a try."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, my question is directed to any one of the good attorneys in here, but could we not set an effective date without using the emergency clause wording?"

Senator Bailey: "I had some very good attorneys draw this. I think it is worth trying. We have got to solve this some way, and I certainly think that is what we pay the Supreme Court judges for. None of us here know what in the devil they will do in the second place. It might be a five to four decision, half of them with us and five of them against us, or it might be just the opposite, but we should try it. We have got to do something or this bill is totally useless."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "The purpose, I had always thought, of the referendum ability was to permit a referendum to in effect prevent a law from becoming effective until the people had had an opportunity of voting on it. Now if you put an effective date of June 1 on this, how can the people by referendum exercise their prerogative of delaying its taking effect until such time as they have a right to vote? Now to me an effective date previous to when bills would normally take effect is in substance an emergency clause. An emergency clause has always been inconsistent with the idea of referendum."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "I think the answer is that they would have between now and June 1 to come up with the signers. If they got the signers between now and June 1, then this would not go in. Then the law just plain would be hung up until the next general election. If by June 1 they have not come up with the signers, then we have a law. I think that is the way as a practical matter it would have to work itself out. I have just checked and made sure that we have a severability clause in here because I was a little apprehensive that this particular paragraph could possibly ruin the whole bill because we are doing something that I have never known in thirty years to be done, to set a date and an emergency and a referendum all in the same paragraph. This is a brand new thing. I wanted to make sure that we had a severability clause so that if the court threw that part out, it did not spoil all of our efforts in other areas. There is a severability clause in there so that if the Bailey combination triple threat amendment should be thrown out, we still have our law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, could not the emergency clause be cut out and just set an effective date with the referendum?"

Senator Bailey: "The Constitution clearly provides that a bill cannot become effective until ninety days after the final adjournment of the session of the legislature and this is what we are trying to circumvent."

Senator Canfield: "Now wait a minute. Can't you set an effective date by statute?"

Senator Bailey: "If you want to change the Constitution, but that is going to take a little time."

Senator Canfield: "No, my law books say that you can set a date certain."

Senator Bailey: "Only with an emergency clause, I think."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would like to make it clear I am not trying to foul this up, but I just do not think we have a bill unless we adjourn sine die. The point I am getting at is we did not say it had to go to referendum, Senator Clarke. We figured out ninety days as Senator Woodall said, so that people would have ninety days if they wanted to get up a referendum petition. We did not want in any way to steamroller this so that people could not have a referendum on it if they wished. That was the only reason we put that on there. It was subject to referendum, but it is there only if enough people are upset about it. I have an idea that when the Governor gets through wearing out a couple of pens on this thing we are going to be arguing over nothing, anyway."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, if you look at it in the light of why cannot we do it instead of why we can do it, I think you will come to the conclusion that just because we have always said, 'shall take effect immediately,' at the last of the emergency clause, we have always phrased it that way. But suppose we said, 'shall take effect fifteen days from now.' I do not see any reason in the world why we cannot do that, put an emergency clause on and say fifteen days from now it will take effect. So if we can do it fifteen days from now, we can do it June 1. Now the only question that comes up then is how do you protect the people's right to referendum? The bill says so and all the court has to do, if somebody challenges it, is point out that 'You had the right to referendum way back when they put it in.' Is there anything inconsistent with the right to referendum in an emergency clause? No, nothing at all."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, I would like to inform Senator Bailey I have eighteen votes here that will support you on that, adjourning Saturday night. Sine die."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TWIGG

Senator Twigg: "Mr. President, I appreciate Senator Bailey's concern about Expo '74 and accordingly would offer an oral amendment to his amendment changing the effective date to May 4, 1974, which is the opening gun of Expo '74, leaving approximately ninety days from today for the signatures to be secured."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think the whole issue may evolve on whether or not we give people ninety days to refer this measure, and I think that if Expo '74 had to run a dry week it probably could survive. I would suggest that we put it at least maybe the 20th of May so that then you people can go downstairs and try to get the governor to sign it."

On motion of Senator Twigg, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bailey was adopted:

On line 5 of new section 13, added by the Bailey amendment, strike "June 1" and insert "May 20".

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 15 of the title, strike "and" and on line 16 after "penalties" and before the period insert "; declaring an emergency and prescribing an effective date".

On motion of Senator Francis, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 5 of the title, after "9.46.030;" insert "amending section 4, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.040;"

On motion of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On line 10 of the title, after "9.46.110;" insert "amending section 20, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.200;"

On motion of Senator Francis, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, the Senate commenced consideration of House Bill No. 1276.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1276, by Representatives Charette, Eikenberry and Kelley (by Attorney General request):

Defining exempted transactions under the consumer protection act.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

February 6, 1974.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1276, defining exempted transactions under the consumer protection act (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 9, after "permitted" and before "under" and insert "[, prohibited or regulated]".

On page 1, line 12, strike "actions or transactions permitted".

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Durkan, Marsh, Woodall.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Francis moved that the committee amendment not be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "May I ask a question? By this act is the Attorney General trying to take over the function of the other regulatory agencies except the Utilities Commission?"

How about the Insurance Commissioner? Is he going to take over the consumer problems like the Insurance Commission?"

Senator Francis: "No, Senator Dore. What you are asking me has nothing to do with the bill. The bill is about application of the Consumer Protection Law to actions or transactions which are regulated by the Utilities and Transportation Commission, the Insurance Commissioner and the Federal Power Commission. It does not affect those three. It does say that nothing will apply, actions or transactions permitted by other regulatory bodies, and by leaving it out, it is kind of a complicated way of doing it, but it is the only way to do it. By leaving it out it would mean that if another regulatory body other than those three violated its own rules, if there was something done that was not permitted by those bodies by somebody else, then they could apply the Consumer Protection Law. It does expand the Consumer Protection Law a little bit, but not into the areas of the Insurance Commissioner that you asked me about."

Senator Dore: "Could you tell me with what regulatory agencies it now has concurrent jurisdiction?"

Senator Francis: "Any regulatory body or officer acting under statutory authority of this state with the exception of those which have been regarded as preempted in the past, it is still preempted. We cannot get into those areas that are regulated by those three that are mentioned."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Francis yield? The professional disciplinary boards now and the professional licensing boards, does this allow the Attorney General to get into those areas?"

Senator Francis: "I do not really know what you are saying there."

Senator Day: "They are presently exempted from the . . ."

Senator Francis: "We are not talking about the boards, we are talking about people who are governed under -- yes, if a person who is licensed commits a consumer fraud, for example, you would be able to assert in a civil case the Consumer Protection Law. Now even though you are licensed, if you commit a fraud that is not permitted by your regulatory agency, then you would be able to assert the Consumer Protection Law. That is what this is about, yes."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after "commission," insert "those licensed under chapter 18,".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Day yield? Does this include attorneys and doctors and . . ."

Senator Day: "Chapter 18 includes the healing arts, doctors, etc., but I do not believe that it includes attorneys."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "I raise the point that this is being considered after five o'clock cutoff contrary to the joint rule adopted by both houses."

MOTION

At 6:42 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Friday, February 8, 1974.

“GRACIOUS FATHER GOD, WE INVOKE YOUR PRESENCE THIS DAY TO BE WITH OUR ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES IN GOVERNMENT. IN YOUR WISDOM YOU ESTABLISHED IN OUR MIDST THESE LEGISLATIVE BODIES—EMPOWERING THEM WITH THE LAW-MAKING POWERS TO UPHOLD ORDER, LIBERTY, JUSTICE AND HUMAN DIGNITY. WE PRAY FOR YOUR CONTINUAL BLESSINGS UPON THIS FORM OF GOVERNMENT IN OUR STATE AND IN OUR NATION.

“GRANT THAT OUR LEGISLATORS MAY ALWAYS BE MINDFUL OF THE WELFARE OF THE ENTIRE CONSTITUENCY. WE PRAY THAT THEY MAY BE GUIDED TO SERVE UNSELFISHLY THE COMMON GOOD OF ALL THE PEOPLE. KEEP THEM, O FATHER, FROM PARTY PETTINESS AND SELF-SEEKING. PROTECT, O FATHER, THOSE LIBERTIES OF RULE BY REPRESENTATION WHICH ARE THE CORNERSTONE OF OUR GOVERNMENT. TEACH US CHRISTIANS THE GRACE TO USE OUR FREEDOM TO PROCLAIM YOUR WORD AND TO USE EACH AND EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE OUR FELLOW MEN. MAY WE GIVE PROOF OF OUR GRATITUDE IN SEEKING THE WELFARE OF OUR STATE, IN USING OUR PRIVILEGES OF BALLOT AND FREEDOM OF PRESS AND SPEECH FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF OUR OWN COMMUNITIES AND OUR ENTIRE NATION. Providing for public disclosure by public officials.

SENATE BILL NO. 3243, providing for public disclosure by public officials (reported by Committee on Constitution and Elections):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 2, line 4, section 1, subsection (7), after "preparation" strike "and" insert "or".

On page 2, line 10, strike section 2 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment to page 2, line 10 was not adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 2, line 13.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Grant yield? Does that extension date apply to officials too or only to lobbyists for that extension?"

Senator Grant: "Only to lobbyists' employers, Senator Woodall. That was the item that was hung up in the Supreme Court as to whether they were required to report at all. That decision was made in January that they must report so you go back to the original Initiative 276 language which would have required them to report by January 31st. As a matter of fact, right now they should have had their reports in. If they have not, and they did not have a very long period of time from the decision of the court to gather that information, if they did not report they are technically in violation of the law right now."

Senator Woodall: "I wholly agree with you but my question is, did you consider extending the date for elected officials? Some of us found the 31st of January a real close tight date when you consider that you get your last bank statement back maybe around the end of the month of January and you are trying to make a final statement, the 31st of January is pretty tight, particularly in a legislative session. I just wondered if you gave any thought to extending the date to make it a little bit easier on ourselves. We always eased up on everybody else and I would like to have you consider if you could insert it somewhere that if that is a good date maybe we should make it a little bit later in the year for ourselves to where if you are in Olympia and you are in the middle of a session, you are trying to collect your data, that we not tie ourselves to the 31st of January and I would like to have you comment on that point."

Senator Grant: "Senator Woodall, we have had a continuing consideration of Initiative 276 and potential amendments to it. That particular problem has not been brought to the attention of the committee and may very well be a problem. I personally do not find it to be a problem in my own case but I would certainly be more than happy to take a look at that type of concern in the committee in the interim period. There are other aspects of the changes here within the bill that we are working on though that I can assure you do relate specifically to legislators and our operations and the mechanical aspects of Initiative 276. So we are taking a look at that area."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, the committee amendment to page 3, line 6 was adopted. Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, line 29.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Grant yield? Reading this quickly, I do not understand what the significance is in deleting the real property from this proviso."

Senator Grant: "I think perhaps Senator Washington can answer that better than I can. I think it was his amendment. I am not that well acquainted with that particular aspect."

Senator Washington: "In answering the question, we were trying to really hit what I think is the major problem which is small businessmen who are in public office, whether it is a grocery store, whether it is an implement dealer, feed dealer, someone selling farm equipment or whatever it would be. They were the ones that were having to disclose a long list of persons with whom they had done business, and they felt that it was giving the list of the persons with whom they did do business which would be detrimental to them. It was generally felt that if this were personal property and you were in the store business and you got the value received for the material you sold that they should not have to report that as compensation. On the other hand, real estate just generally by its nature quite often in the public mind generally is something that public officials are dealing in and that ordinarily you are not dealing in large numbers of tracts and it would not ordinarily be too difficult for you to list the property that you had sold and the compensation that you had received for it, that it would not help the reporting very much and would tend to add another cloud against public officials."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Grant moved adoption of the committee amendment to page 5, line 26.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Grant yield? I do not quite get the import of what you are saying. You are saying that a merchant on a five hundred deal has to report each one of them, is that what you are saying?"

Senator Grant: "No, because, Senator Woodall, . . ."

Senator Woodall: "Twenty-five hundred, which is it?"

Senator Grant: "The bill originally said twenty-five hundred."

Senator Woodall: "And you are dropping it to five hundred?"

Senator Grant: "Initiative 276 was initially five hundred."

Senator Woodall: "And you are raising it then?"

Senator Grant: "But because we have defined compensation further and made an exception from compensation where we say in the usual course of business, in the ordinary course of business the type of transaction that you are discussing is not necessarily to be reported."

Senator Woodall: "Well let me be specific. We lost a school board member in Toppenish who was a Shell oil dealer and, you know the salary of a school board member is nothing. And he just said 'I will be damned if I am going to give my competitor the names of all of my five hundred dollar customers.' So he quit the school board. A big gain for good government. Now how about it? Are you making it easier for a man like that to stay on or tougher or leaving it the same?"

Senator Grant: "I think, Senator Woodall, by the amendment we passed previously we are making it easier for them to stay on the job because the amendment we passed previously said 'compensation,' which is what we are talking about, the transactions of five hundred dollars that must be reported under the original act, 'shall not include payment for tangible personal property, for water and other utility services, at current market value and in the ordinary course of business.'"

Senator Woodall: "So the Shell oil dealer under this could stay on and he would not now have to give his competitor the names of all of his customers?"

Senator Grant: "I think that is true, Senator Woodall."

Senator Woodall: "Thank you."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Odegaard moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 7, line 17, add a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 5. Section 24, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 and RCW 42.17.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every elected official (except president, vice president [and], precinct committeemen, and any elected official of a local agency with a total annual budget of less than seventy-five thousand dollars: PROVIDED, That such minimum budget amount shall be increased or decreased by a percentage equal to the then most recent percentage change in the national consumer price index as determined by the United States department of labor, bureau of labor statistics) shall on or before January 31st of each year, and every candidate (except for the offices [of president, vice president and precinct committeeman] excluded above) shall, within two weeks of becoming a candidate, file with the commission a written statement sworn as to its truth and accuracy stating for himself and his immediate family for the preceding twelve months:

(a) Occupation, name of employer, and business address; and

(b) Each direct financial interest in excess of five thousand dollars in a bank or savings account or cash surrender value of any insurance policy; each other direct financial interest in excess of five hundred dollars; and the name, address, nature of entity, nature, and value of each such direct financial interest; and

(c) The name and address of each creditor to whom the value of five hundred dollars or more was owed; the original amount of each debt to each such creditor; the amount of each debt owed to each creditor as of the date of filing; the terms of repayment of each such debt; and the security given, if any, for each such debt: PROVIDED, That debts arising out of a "retail installment transaction" as defined in chapter 63.14 RCW (Retail Installment Sales Act) need not be reported; and

(d) Every public or private office, directorship, and position as trustee held; and

(e) All persons for whom actual or proposed legislation, rules, rates, or standards has been prepared, promoted, or opposed for current or deferred compensation; the description of such actual or proposed legislation, rules, rates, or standards; and the amount of current or deferred compensation paid or promised to be paid; and

(f) The name and address of each governmental entity, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, association, union, or other business or commercial entity from whom compensation has been received in any form of a total value of five hundred dollars or more; the value of such compensation; and the consideration given or performed in exchange for such compensation; and

(g) The name of any corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, union, or other entity in which is held any office, directorship, or any general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more; the name or title of that office, directorship, or partnership; the nature of ownership interest; and with respect to each such entity the name of each governmental entity, corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, association, union, or other business or commercial entity from which such entity has received compensation in any form in the amount of five hundred dollars or more during the preceding twelve months and the consideration given or performed in exchange for such compensation; and

(h) A list, including legal descriptions, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars in which any direct financial interest was acquired during the preceding calendar year, and a statement of the amount and nature of the financial interest and of the consideration given in exchange for such interest; and

(i) A list, including legal descriptions, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars in which any direct financial interest was divested during the preceding calendar year, and a statement of the amount and nature of the consideration received in exchange for such interest, and the name and address of the person furnishing such consideration; and

(j) A list, including legal descriptions, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds two thousand five hundred dollars in which a direct financial interest was held: PROVIDED, That if a description of such property has been included in a report previously filed, such property may be listed, for purposes of this provision, by reference to such previously filed report;

(k) A list, including legal descriptions, of all real property in the state of Washington, the assessed valuation of which exceeds five thousand dollars, in which a corporation, partnership, firm, enterprise, or other entity had a direct financial interest, in which corporation, partnership, firm, or enterprise a ten percent or greater ownership interest was held; and

(l) Such other information as the commission may deem necessary in order to properly carry out the purposes and policies of this chapter, as the commission shall by rule prescribe.

(2) Where an amount is required to be reported under subsection (1), paragraphs (a) through (k) of this section, it shall be sufficient to comply with such requirement to report whether the amount is less than one thousand dollars, at least one thousand dollars but less than five thousand dollars, at least five thousand dollars but less than ten thousand dollars, at least ten thousand dollars but less than twenty-five thousand dollars, or twenty-five thousand dollars or more. An amount of stock may be reported by number of shares instead of by market value. No provision of this subsection shall be interpreted to prevent any person from filing more information or more detailed information than required.

(3) Elected officials and candidates reporting under this section shall not be required to file the statements required to be filed with the secretary of state under RCW 42.21.060."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "I am wondering if Senator Grant would yield to a question to see if there might be some other problems. Senator Grant, was an amendment of this kind considered by your committee and if so, what problems did you see in it?"

Senator Grant: "Yes, Senator Bottiger, at the request of Senator Odegaard this measure was considered by the committee and I know that he was there when the committee heard his bill and it was felt, I believe, by a majority of the members of the committee that even though a budget of a small governmental entity may be relatively small, seventy-five thousand dollars or less, that the amount of transactions that might be considered by that small governmental unit might amount to millions of dollars. The potential for conflict for those small governmental units, it was felt by the committee, and the chairman feels this way too, is potentially as great as it is for anybody else in public office and they should be required to report the same as anybody else.

"Now we have, I think, solved some of the problems but obviously not all of them by the amendments that we have proposed here, including the definition of compensation, and I can assure you there will be a continued review of Initiative 276 as additional problems are brought to our attention. If this is a continued serious problem and if a formula can be worked out that can resolve this situation we will certainly give it our careful consideration."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, I note your amendment says, 'and any elected official.' I am an elected official, you are an elected official, of a local agency. Would you consider your family a local agency? How is local agency defined in 276? My second question would be, if you put this in you would destroy the effectiveness of 276 for the purposes that I am an insurance salesman and I like to go over there and see how much money these people have, both income and otherwise, or I am a car dealer and I would like to get a list of those people that are able to buy a new car, and you would take a lot of these people out of 276 filings so that I cannot inspect them over there. There are numerous people that like to do business with people that have more than two dollars to rub together and if you take all of these people out you destroy that. We will have a constant stream of people that will be dissatisfied. They go over there and they find that that millionaire that is working on the school board that has a good income, he will not have to file any more because he is an agency that has less than a seventy-five thousand dollar budget. I wonder if you had considered those, particularly the fact that we might make our families the local agency."

Senator Odegaard: "Thank you, Senator. You got a good speech in there with your question. First question, when I had asked bill drafting to draft this bill to exempt out the taxing districts that handle the budgets less than seventy-five thousand and then when the bill came back to me and it used the words 'local agency' I asked them too what exactly does that mean? They said that refers back to certain definitions in present law that define it as taxing districts and as far as I know it has no relationship to the local family, Senator, in 276.

"To your other question, it of course would exempt out the officials that handle budgets less than seventy-five thousand and you, of course, would not be able to see their holdings and so forth and that is the purpose of this amendment, as I have explained, that I did not think they should have to come under the act."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "A question of Senator Odegaard? Senator, I noticed you refer to any elected official in charge of a budget under seventy-five thousand dollars. Now we have had, I think at the present time and in the past, councilmen and mayors from small cities also serving as state legislators. Under this definition he would not have to file, would he?"

Senator Odegaard: "If he also served in the legislature?"

Senator Dore: "Yes."

Senator Odegaard: "He would because legislators handle, of course, budgets way over seventy-five thousand."

Senator Dore: "Directing your attention to the language, it says, 'Exceptions are any elected official of a local agency where the total annual budget of less than seventy-five thousand dollars.' That is the exemption. So he would be exempt, and the fact that he is a legislator or holds any other positions, he would not have to file. I see no exception in there for that case."

Senator Odegaard: "He would not have to report if he were just a city councilman or soil conservation district commissioner or whatever and handled these small budgets but as I understand this, the way I asked for it to be drafted, he would have to, as a legislator, because he would be handling a budget over seventy-five thousand."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Knoblauch: "Would Senator Odegaard yield to a question? Senator Odegaard, I noticed in your amendment that you have a section where you have to report your bank or savings accounts over five thousand dollars, on page 1, subsection (b), that is in the existing bill. Are we changing that any at all?"

Senator Odegaard: "No, that is the existing language, Senator."

Senator Knoblauch: "Quite frankly, this was my pet peeve. I wish we could change that. I see where this proves nothing. I feel very strongly it is an invasion of your privacy and I wish we could take that out of the bill. It does not prove anything."

The motion by Senator Odegaard failed and the amendment was not adopted.

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3243 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Grant, this may be clear in this amendment on page 5, line 29, where we talked about compensation not including interest paid by a borrower on loans from a bank or other commercial lender. Could you explain that a little further? I take it that what we mean there is that if the official making this report, if he is an officer of a bank, that he need not report the interest that the borrowers pay to the bank?"

Senator Grant: "Yes, I think that is the intent, Senator Whetzel. That is the intention." Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3243, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 1.

MOTION

At 2:50 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate recessed until 4:00 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 4:00 p.m.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2541, by Senator Talley:

Reducing acreage required to qualify for taxation under timber tax law.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2541 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Van Hollebeke, Senator Stortini was excused.

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 9, section 2, line 3, after "reimbursement for" strike all of the material down to the colon on line 5 and insert "such purposes, the remaining amount of the excess shall, in the following year, be distributed to taxing districts including the state in the following manner"

On page 9, section 2, line 11, strike all of subsection (b) and substitute the following:

"(b) By multiplying the amount of such excess by the harvest factor proportions, the department of revenue shall calculate the amount to be distributed to each local taxing district and to the state and shall certify such amounts to the respective county assessors and state on or before October 15: PROVIDED, That the state shall subtract from the amount of the regular property tax levy the respective amounts certified by the department of revenue and collect no more than such reduced amount;"

On page 9, section 2, line 16, strike all of subsection (c) and substitute the following:

"(c) The assessor shall subtract from the amount of the regular or special property tax levies of local taxing districts the respective amounts certified by the department of revenue and extend no more than such reduced amount of property taxes upon the tax rolls;"

On page 9, section 2, line 23, after "each" strike all of the material down through "RCW 28A.41.130" on line 30 and insert "local taxing district one-fourth of such district's portion (determined pursuant to (b) above) of such excess and the state treasurer shall pay into the state's general fund for the support of the common schools out of the state timber reserve fund such additional one-fourth amount due the state"

Beginning on page 10, strike all of section 3 and substitute the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 148, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On or before March 1, 1972 and January 1 of each year commencing with 1973, subject to review by the [forest tax committee established pursuant to RCW 84.33.180] ways and means committees of the house and senate and after compliance with the procedures set forth in chapter 34.04 RCW for adoption of rules, the department of revenue shall determine the true and fair value of each grade of bare forest land and shall certify such values to the county assessors. Such values shall be determined on the basis that the only use of the land is for growing and harvesting timber, and other potential uses shall not be considered in fixing such values.

(2) In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1971 for taxes payable in 1972, the assessor shall list each parcel of forest land at a value not to exceed the value used on the 1970 assessment roll for such land. In preparing the assessment roll for 1972 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall enter as the true and fair value of each parcel of forest land the appropriate grade value certified to him by the department of revenue, and he shall compute the assessed value of such land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. In preparing the assessment roll for 1975 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall assess and value as classified forest land all forest land that is not then designated pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or RCW 84.33.130 and shall make a notation of such classification upon the assessment and tax rolls. On or before January 15 of the first year in which such notation is made, the assessor shall mail notice by certified mail to the owner that such land has been classified as forest land and is subject to the compensating tax imposed by this section. If the owner desires not to have such land assessed and valued as classified forest land, he shall give the assessor written notice thereof on or before March 31 of such year and the assessor shall remove from the assessment and tax rolls the classification notation entered pursuant to this subsection, and shall thereafter assess and value such land in the manner provided by law other than this chapter 84.33 RCW.

(3) In any year commencing with 1972, an owner of land which is assessed and valued by the assessor other than pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and subsections (1) and (2) of this section, and which has, in the immediately preceding year, been assessed and valued by the assessor as forest land, may appeal to the county board of equalization by filing an application with the board in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of RCW 84.33.130. The county board shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests and shall act upon the application [with due regard to all relevant evidence without any one or more items of evidence necessarily being determinative] in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act.

(4) [The assessor may in any year commencing with 1972 discontinue assessing and valuing pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and subsections (1) and (2) of this section any land, except designated forest land, for which a higher and better use exists than growing and harvesting timber. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or RCW 84.33.130.] Land that has been assessed and valued as classified forest land as of any year commencing with 1975 assessment year or earlier shall continue to be so assessed and valued until removal of classification by the assessor only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such land from classification as forest land;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that, because of actions taken by the owner, such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber;

(d) Determination that a higher and better use exists for such land than growing and harvesting timber after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard.

The assessor shall remove classification pursuant to subsections (c) or (d) above prior to September 30 of the year prior to the assessment year for which termination of classification is to be effective. Removal of classification as forest land upon occurrence of subsection (a), (b) or (d) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (c) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber.

(6) Within thirty days after such removal of classification as forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (3) of this section or RCW 84.33.130 or to appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(7) Unless the owner successfully applies for designation of such land or unless the removal is reversed on appeal, notation of removal from classification shall immediately be made upon the assessment and tax rolls, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor made such notation, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (9) of this section and unless the assessor shall not have mailed notice of classification pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer on or before April 30 of the following year. On or before May 31 following such assessment date, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as classified forest land.

(8) Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent and, together with applicable interest thereon, shall as of said date become a lien on such land which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(9) The compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land.

(10) With respect to any land that has been designated prior to the effective date of this amendatory act, pursuant to subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.130, the assessor may, prior to January 1, 1975, on his own motion or pursuant to petition by the owner, change, without imposition of the compensating tax provided under RCW 84.33.140, the status of such designated land to classified forest land."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Lewis answer a question? Is one of the amendments you are applying, the rollback provision to personal property? It says in the original 1971 act, chapter 294, 'lands classified as forest land were not subjected to a rollback provision. Lands that were designated were subject to a maximum ten year rollback provision.' What does that mean?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Dore, the way the present forest tax law acts, when the landowner decides that he wants to put his land under the forest tax bill he applies, he places his land on the tax rolls as forest land. If the assessor does not feel that such lands qualify as forest lands and feels that for one reason or another there is a question, the landowner is required to apply and designate his lands, the word 'designation' which under those conditions then the rollback provisions would apply. If he did not designate and the assessor in most cases just classifies the land, these large blocks of land in the outlying areas, then there was no rollback provision provided for.

"Now there have been questions from the assessors as to the equity of this situation, where there are lands in question as to whether they should be forest land or whether they will stay in forest land production, the assessors argued that there was not true equity unless there was a rollback provision. What we have done by this amendment is apply the same rollback that we have presently in the law on designated land to the classified lands, which is the other method of handling them, so that in every case after the assessor notifies the landowner by certified mail and he will do this first, and he will place a note on the tax rolls that from that point on, which is a year from now, all land which is covered under the forest tax laws of this state will be subject to the rollback provisions as provided in the amendment before you. So the amendment is a little confusing unless you are familiar with the history but in essence what it says is that all forest lands will be subject to rollback provisions and the penalties as outlined in the amendment, starting in 1975."

Senator Dore: "That is what I am trying to get at, the rollback. What are the mechanics of it? Do they go back at the regular rate or what?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "There is a difference between the rollback provisions in the forest tax law and in the open space law. The forest tax rollback is more severe and has a higher penalty for changing use than does the open space law. Briefly put, the rollback on forest lands would apply as follows: You would take the land value as set by the Department of Revenue in the year that the change from forest land to other use applies. You would then take the assessor's current value of comparable lands and that difference, times the millage, times the number of years under the forest tax act, would then be the penalty. Now there is no interest with this but in our computations, because we are taking the last year under the forest tax act where there is the greatest difference in value because of the gradual appreciation of land over the years, that greater difference when applied would result in a substantially higher penalty than would occur under the open space act upon which the penalty is calculated on a year by year basis and accumulated with interest. Do you understand that?"

Senator Dore: "Not entirely."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Let me help you. Ask me a specific . . ."

Senator Dore: "In fact, I do not understand it at all. What I am getting at then over-all this is an attempt to have the people who pay this forest tax to pay a rollback which presently they do not do under the existing law except in very limited circumstances. Is that correct?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "They would not pay a penalty unless they took their land out from under classification as forest land. Supposing we had somebody with forty acres just on the fringes of Seattle that was classified as forest land, and you could see that development was coming that way and the question in the assessor's mind or your mind might be, 'Is he going to put this under the forest tax act to try to escape the higher cost on an ad valorem basis of land values?' How are we going to know he is not going to do this and not going to try to get away with something that somebody else could not. He would agree to put it in forest land. When he did so he agreed to pay a penalty if he changed the land use. So before he could develop it, before he could realize, that high profit when selling in the difference in value, he would pay the penalty. He would pay the equivalent of all the back taxes plus a higher penalty than he would under the open space act."

Senator Dore: "Under the open space act, if you take it out within less than ten years you pay the penalty. Now what is the provision in the forest tax bill here?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "It is the same way. If you had it in five years you pay a penalty of the differences between the two values on five . . ."

Senator Dore: "Let me ask you a specific question because I am confused. If I put it under a forest tax act and I take it out in less than ten years, then do I pay the penalties all the way back to year one?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Yes."

Senator Dore: "Now after ten years I do not, is that right?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "You pay up to a maximum of ten."

Senator Dore: "But if I leave it in use more than ten and take it out, then there is no penalty?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "No, no. You still pay the difference times ten, the same way as in the open space act. Ten years is the maximum multiplier."

Senator Dore: "In other words, after ten years then you just pay the ten years, even though you take it out twenty years later. Right?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "If you had it fifteen years you would pay the difference in value times ten. The same as the open space act except that it is a higher penalty on a cumulative basis."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Lewis, let us assume you are still talking about this same forty acres and I hold it for one hundred years and I do not cut the timber, still standing timber. I decide that I am going to subdivide it so I pay back ten years taxes and that is all, a rollback of ten years. Where do the other taxpayers recover any money on that ninety years that this land was held under the forest tax? He is only paying a very minimal land tax and paying nothing for the increased value of the surrounding property and there is no chance of regaining anything on the capital gains that they have made on this. Explain what happens then. With only the ten year rollback you are speaking of."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "To begin with, Senator Rasmussen, you would have to be a damn fool to hold your timber for one hundred years in today's market. The average cycle in timber areas is between fifty and sixty years, depending on the growing capacity of the soil. In actual fact, the way you would operate your land on today's market is within twenty years you would be going in with the thinning, and you would pay a yield tax on that thinning. You would come back five years later and you would thin again, and you would thin at least three times before you got to your final cut. The investment you have in land, the same investment that you have in land and in protection and in thinning costs and in road costs and so forth are carried and capitalized over all the years. I think that there is no question about the equity if we are going to have forest land in this state. I suspect that what you are driving at, really a much more basic question, is there a difference between forest lands and other lands in the state, and the forest tax bill speaks to that. It says, yes, there is. It says timber has to be treated differently. We have always recognized this in this state and I think we recognize it in this bill and I think that is probably what you are getting to and if you are I cannot answer that question. That is one you have to make up in your own mind."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am agreed on the timber as I am agreed on agricultural projects, but I am not agreed on the fact that we can allow these people to continue to hold this and achieve a tremendous amount of capital gains on it and not get anything back to help the average taxpayer who is paying his taxes every year."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, let me try to respond, first of all, Senator, if you will take a look in your packet that I put on your desk, I would like to give you an idea of what the tax collections have been on timber and timberland as compared to the total property tax. Is that what you are directing your question to? And timber as a total — the only point I am trying to make is that the percentage of tax that timber pays as compared to the percentage of tax that all other property tax pays excluding timber and timberland in the state, the timber the percentage would increase by one hundred percent from 1967 to 1975. In other words, I am saying that timber has gained by one hundred percent in its proportion of taxes paid, timber and timberlands, from 1967 through to the implementation of this tax bill in 1975 through the ad valorem into the excise tax, and I think that this is a significant shift and if you would look at that chart I think you can recognize what I am saying."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wanamaker: "Will Senator Lewis yield to another question? Senator Lewis, as I understand this now, there is the property tax which is on the land and then the timber tax is based on the yield at the time of its cutting. Now this rollback then, does that pertain solely to the land or is there a rollback on the timber as well?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "It applies just to the land, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I should like Senator Durkan to yield to a question and then Senator Atwood. Senator Durkan, was the amendment as offered by Senator Lewis considered in Ways and Means, and if so, why was it rejected? Senator Durkan, I assume you are familiar with the contents of Senator Lewis's amendment."

Senator Durkan: "I am, yes, generally familiar with all of them."

Senator Mardesich: "Is there any change from the basic intent of the bill if the Senator Lewis amendment were to be adopted and what change?"

Senator Durkan: "There are probably two basic changes, one is the distribution of the school funds which because of the manner in which we passed 187 last time that we had to correct the distribution of school funds under the present formula. That is the first thing. The second thing that is important is the amendment that he talked on with Senator Dore which makes the bill much more acceptable to local county officials in the fact that designated and classified lands will be treated the same, and those are the two major changes. There are others that are in front of you and you have the same thing that I am looking at, but I could go through those if you want me to."

Senator Mardesich: "Are you familiar with them?"

Senator Durkan: "Pretty much so. I have gone through them. I went through them with the staff."

Senator Mardesich: "Was there any diminution in the revenue which will result from timber sales as a consequence of these amendments?"

Senator Durkan: "To the best of our ability on determining the question of timber revenue in this, this bill is going to increase the yield in total dollars for local communities . . ."

Senator Mardesich: "With respect to all the income, does the amendment have any effect in the reduction of that total income, both the state and local government?"

Senator Durkan: "My answer would have to be no, based upon the sliding formula that you have on the bill, the answer would be absolutely not. We should derive more funds out of the five and one-half percent. It is a direct recommendation of the consultant and it appears to me that everything that we had in that consultant's study is here in the bill."

Senator Mardesich: "Thank you, Senator Durkan."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "And probably addressed to both of you, as I understand the application of the measure, it is tied basically to the base year of 1970. I have hardly glanced at it but this is the quick reaction I get, and it also has in addition to that base year of 1970, a dollar factor which is used as base and lid at the same time. Primarily lid. And if you have a high inflationary period which we are obviously going through now, the government has indicated that inflation in this year will be in excess of eight percent, with the dollar lid that you have here, will it not result in a proportionate percentage decrease in actual revenue to the state and local government?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Are you asking me, Senator, or Senator Durkan? I would like to respond to that. At the recommended excise tax rate of five and one-half percent we have said that it would increase to six and one-half percent if the total dollar value of the timber harvested falls below two hundred and fifty-five million dollars."

Senator Mardesich: "Let us say that you cut the same amount of timber and it is worth twice as much this year."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Actually I said if the harvest falls below two hundred and fifty-five million dollars, the rate would go up. Okay. There is no lid. Actually the harvest value that we expect exceeds four hundred and eighty million dollars. Now in addition to that, we have that reserve fund which is for the purpose of protecting the local taxing districts and that reserve fund has generated more dollars than we said it would by a substantial amount. In every case the report of the Forest Tax Committee has been conservative. We have said the local taxing districts will get at least as much revenue. We have said we estimate we will receive this many dollars and we have received that many more. We do not anticipate and our consultant, as well as the Department of Revenue, as well as Bert Cole's Department of Natural Resources, as well as the private timber growers all agree that the timber harvest value will continue to grow. There is no way, in my view nor in the view of the several economists we talked to, that the timber harvest value could reduce itself. In addition to that, Senator, we have provided in the bill for an annual review by the Ways and Means Committee of the House and the Senate of the applicable rate. We have in addition to that provided that the Department of Revenue may adjust stumpage values twice a year rather than on a once a year basis. So I believe, Senator Mardesich, in answer to your questions, that there is every protection possible that we could anticipate or build in for any eventuality of reduction of revenue for local taxing districts, and our purpose was to go in the other direction and I believe that we have."

Senator Mardesich: "What I guess I really am trying to point out is that with a rapid inflationary period, property taxes will not adjust upward as fast as timber values, as harvest values. It is impossible, simply because of the four year turn around. And that applies here as well. If you have a rapid inflationary period you are not going to reap the dollars out of this tax as you would ordinarily."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "I understand Senator Mardesich's question and I think he is partially correct and partially wrong, actually, but the best barometer or indicator is taking the oranges with oranges and that is the timberland and the timber in relation to the total property taxes in the state and how one increases over the other. In 1967 the timberland and timber and just including the excise and surtax was about two percent of the total of all total property taxes excluding timber and timberlands, so it was just about two percent. Under the tax collections as they will be estimated in 1975 they will not only increase from six point seven which is about two percent of the total amount but they will increase the total dollars of about thirty-two million, which is about four percent. So they will have doubled in that period of time. And so it does go up with the inflation factor as far as property taxes are concerned. As a matter of fact it increases."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Murray: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, I think both of you have been making the point that the total tax take will increase very substantially and that is true. My question is that according to the Department of Natural Resources the actual value or the average stumpage price, and let us assume that we have a constant cut, increased from a price in December of 1971 of fifty-eight to December of 1973 to a price of one hundred and ninety-four dollars. Now that is triple the actual price for a given amount of timber. Now it may be true that the tax is doubled but if the value of the timber is tripled we are really deriving a smaller percentage of the value of the timber than we were before. The relative value of the land, I believe, in the comparable figures were that the total take was going to be about twenty-five million dollars, the land tax being about three million dollars of that, so proportionately it is relatively insignificant. If the timber has tripled in value the tax has only doubled in value, then you know, our percentage of the value has gone down quite substantially. Now is that intended? Is that part of the policy?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "No, Senator Murray, the percentage increase in tax collections from 1967 to 1975 on timber and timberlands is three hundred and seventy-nine percent. The increase on all other property tax, excluding timber and timberlands, for the same period of time was one hundred and thirty-seven percent. From 1972 to 1975 the tax collected on timber and timberlands increased by one hundred and thirty-four point three percent. The amount of increase on the remainder of the property tax, excluding timber and timberlands, was twenty-three percent. The question that you are asking about stumpage values is based on an assumption that stumpage values could go down substantially and affect the amount of revenue that comes in. The economists that we talked to felt that stumpage rates would never go below, again, one hundred dollars. The year that you happened to pick out, and I have not seen the figures that you have so it is difficult to comment on them without looking at them directly and studying them, but the significant thing is that the fluctuations in the timber market have had very little to do with the harvest volume over the years and that both the harvest volume and the stumpage values have moved to a higher position and we do not think that they will go down. In the event that the question that you raise were to occur and that you could see a lessening of dollars coming into local taxing districts, we have provided in the bill for a continuing review to make sure that that does not happen. I do not see it happening and I do not think that you have a concern there."

Senator Murray: "No, my question is, we have increased the total dollar take, that is true, no question about it. We have substantially decreased the percentage of the total dollar volume involved. Is that intended? It is not equity as compared to other property taxes."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator, I do not know what you are talking about — an appreciated value on timber over a period of years. You are saying that the value of the timber that is out there has increased so much and therefore we are paying a lesser amount of tax."

Senator Murray: "That is exactly right."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I question the figures that you are giving. I do not think that they have appreciated that much. Our figures have come from the Department of Natural Resources, they have come from the Department of Revenue, as well as our consultant's figures."

Senator Murray: "Excuse me, you are comparing apples and oranges."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator, I wish you had had the courtesy to bring me these figures before. I would be glad to sit and look at them if you want."

Senator Murray: "I just got them too."

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I do not know what you are looking at. Let me look at them."

Senator Murray: "No, what you have said has to do with the relative value of timberlands as compared to all other lands. A true statement. I do not think there is any question about that being a fact. I am not questioning your figures at all. I am saying that the relationship that we are looking for is the value of timber in 1965 as compared to the value of timber in 1974. That is the relationship we are looking for. Are you still paying the same percentage of tax on the value, whatever that value is, this year that you did two years or four years ago?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "What you are talking about in reading this, is the Department of Natural Resources timber sales, monthly average stumpage prices. You are talking about the bid price of timber on the stump as sold at market at a particular time and this thing varies with the demand in the market in and out. You go back to 1971 and show fifty-eight dollars. You show a high of two hundred and fifty-four and here in December of 1973 one hundred and ninety-four. This is really nothing to be concerned about. It is the price of a sale. It would depend on the demand for the product. It would depend on the quality of the timber in that sale and you don't know that these things are necessarily comparable from year to year unless you can examine the specific sales and value them."

Senator Murray: "For a given volume of timber the increase in price would triple the total take. Now you have made the statement that the cut has been the same, regardless of price."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541, together with the pending amendments by Senator Lewis (Harry), was ordered placed as the first order of business on the second reading calendar for Saturday, February 9, 1974.

On motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 152, by Senator Bailey:

Authorizing temporary suspension of cutoff under Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 152 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, before you advance the resolution to third reading, I would like to explain the whole process here. I think I went through the Democratic and Republican caucuses before I did this, but Senator Atwood, did you explain it to your caucus?"

Senator Atwood: "I did but our caucus does not want to lift the lid, Senator Bailey."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Let me explain. The reason I have a resolution with it is only to be sure it lifts the rule for one bill. If I could explain the bill, I would like to do so. Under the commitment act we enacted last year, we find now that a person who is incarcerated with mental illness in one of our state hospitals cannot even communicate, or the doctors cannot even communicate with members of their family to tell them the condition, physical or mental, of the patient unless the patient signs a release of medical information. In this case, the one case I have in mind, the patient is so far gone they do not know how to sign a release or anything. This bill would just take care of the next of kin being allowed to have that information when a person was in a mental hospital until such time as a guardian could be appointed to take over. I have a case of an elderly woman who has been there two weeks. The family cannot even get any information on how she is getting along and cannot find out whether she is dying or getting better because she is not able to sign her own release of medical information. I think we need to do this bill. The House will pick it up, I understand, and pass it on through. The bill is now on your desks."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 152 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was adopted.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3379, by Senators Bailey and Day:

An Act relating to mental illness; amending section 45, chapter 142, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 24, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 71.05.400; and declaring an emergency.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senator Day was permitted as an additional sponsor to Senate Bill No. 3379.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Bill No. 3379 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think this bill has been explained. If it does any more than what I said it was supposed to do, I did not mean it to do that. Some lawyer slipped a word in here or there, but really it is a very emergent situation and one which you may run into many times in the coming year if we do not do something about it. Unfortunately, the bill that we could have amended went through and was signed about an hour before I got the word that the Department of Social and Health Services would not yield and interpret the law in the same way. Sometimes I think common sense would stop the need for a lot of bills but in this case the department decided they were going to follow the law differently so I think we need this bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 152 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3379 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—44.

Absent or not voting: Senators Francis, Herr—2.

Excused: Senators Metcalf, Stortini—2.

SENATE BILL NO. 3379, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 152 and Senate Bill No. 3379 were ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I would like to point out to the members of the Senate that the only other time or the only other person who has ever displayed this kind of raw power, ramming something down our throats like this, was a gal by the name of Julia Butler Hansen. She went to Congress."

MOTION

At 4:45 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Saturday, February 9, 1974.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

TWENTY-SEVENTH DAY

The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Dore, Metcalf, Twigg and Whetzel. On motion of Senator Sellar, Senator Metcalf was excused. On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Whetzel was excused.

WE THANK YOU, TOO, FOR OUR ELECTED OFFICIALS WHO HAVE STUCK MANFULLY TO THEIR JOB DESPITE THE DISTRACTIONS OF THEIR AUDIENCE: BLESS THEM NOW AS THEY MOVE TO THE CONCLUSION OF THIS SESSION. HELP THEM TO RECOVER HANDILY FROM THE EMBARRASSMENT OF BEING PUBLICLY FRISKED BY THE NEWS MEDIA - EVEN TO THE REASONABLY THIN WALLET MOST OF THEM SEEM TO BE CARRYING. AND NOW AS THEY BECOME MORE DEEPLY INVOLVED IN BUDGETARY MATTERS, PROVIDE FOR THEM SOUNDER ADVICE IN HANDLING PUBLIC MONIES THAN AT LEAST ONE OF THEM RECEIVED IN HANDLING HIS OWN. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talley, a copy of the prayer given by Reverend Charles Loyer was distributed to each member's desk.

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass.

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Canfield, Fleming, Grant, Marsh, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Woody.

Passed to Committee on Rules for second reading.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "The other day on the floor I made reference to a newspaper article that Mr. Scates had written. He implied, I thought, that I had a conflict of interest because I had borrowed money from banks and was speaking with respect to a bill relating to banks. I would like to point out to the members of the caucus that the following day Mr. Scates indicated that he felt he was a little out of order there in making that sort of a comment in the press and, not seeing any retraction this morning, I thought I would point out to the body that he did indicate he felt he was, I think the words were, a little out of line there in printing that kind of an article. I do not know why he should feel the way he does about making statements of that sort. I have never pointed out that I felt he had a conflict of interest and say he has never said anything particularly bad about the Governor, and I do not think that is because he owns part of some land jointly with the Governor at all. I do not think that is the reason. I have never pointed out that he might have a conflict there, and I do not know why he did it with respect to me, since I was a member of this body. Nevertheless, I thought I would make it clear that he did apologize."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Scabby Scates is sometimes wrong, but never in doubt."

SENATE BILL NO. 3366,
SENATE JOINT MEMORIAL NO. 106.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2541, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senator Talley):

Pertaining to the taxation of timber and forest lands.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541 and the amendments proposed by Senator Lewis (Harry) on Friday, February 8, 1974.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendments to page 9, section 2, lines 3, 11, 16 and 23 were adopted and the amendment beginning on page 10, striking all of section 3 and substituting new material was adopted.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment was adopted:

On page 10, section 2, line 26, after "February" strike "10" and insert "[10] 20".

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 1, lines 8 and 9, strike "five and five-tenths" and insert "six".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, the five and one-half that you are talking about and the six that Senator Mardesich is talking about is not effective until such a time as this timber is marketed. Is this correct?"

Senator Durkan: "That is correct. It is an income tax, something that we Democrats have supported over the years. Some of us."

Senator Rasmussen: "In a large, in fact in the majority of cases, it will not be effective on a lot of this growing land until possibly sixty years from now?"

Senator Durkan: "It takes between forty and sixty years to harvest mature timber, dependent upon the type of timber and the location of the timber. Yes, that is correct, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "And a large portion of our timber has already gone overseas, major portion of it, to foreign markets?"

Senator Durkan: "The citizens of this state settled that by initiative, that they did not want to restrict the shipment of logs overseas. That was a highly fought initiative, if you recall. The majority of the people voted in favor of shipment."

Senator Rasmussen: "So that the tax will only become effective in the majority of cases in about sixty years from now?"

Senator Durkan: "No, that is not true because in the state of Washington we have constant rotation. . . ."

Senator Rasmussen: "There will be some, yes?"

Senator Durkan: "Of cutting and growing of timber and the volume, hopefully, that this is the type of a bill that is going to encourage reforestation practices and those things which will continue to make a viable industry out of the forest practices (sic) industry."

Senator Rasmussen: "What you are saying, though, is that the normal sales tax now is about five and one-half percent. Senator Mardesich is proposing, in the case of timber that has had this long delay, of raising it up one-half percent to six percent?"

Senator Durkan: "That is right."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would think that Senator Mardesich has a reasonable proposal and it should probably be adopted because nowhere in this bill have I found any section related to the increased value of the land plus the timber that is not cut, and I do not think it is taken care of in this bill."

Senator Durkan: "We are talking about a yield tax. The legislature had decided not so many years ago that we were willing to take at harvest a yield tax or an income tax. That was the type of taxing treatment that we were going to give the forest industry. We decided that. What we are talking about today is the rate that is to be imposed. . . ."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is the cutting tax."

Senator Durkan: "So they will pay their fair share. We think — and obviously it is arguable here on the floor — we think that five and one-half percent is sufficient initially for the amount of the tax. It may well be that if the volume goes down in cutting that the tax will have to go up, or vice versa, but we think with the information that we have from the Department of Natural Resources, from the Department of Revenue and from the consultant that five and one-half percent is a fair tax. That is why I support it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? What was the total amount of taxes paid by the timber companies last year and under your amendment, what will the projected amount of taxes be that we will receive next year? Or better yet, what is the difference between five and one-half percent and six? What is the difference between the bill as written and Senator Mardesich's amendment?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "It is about two and one-half million dollars, Senator Murray advises me. Two and one-half million dollar increase."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Twigg was excused.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Mardesich:

After "six" on line 2 of the Mardesich amendment to page 2, lines 8 and 9, add "and one-half".

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Do we vote on Senator Dore's amendment first?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "And then Senator Mardesich's."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Murray yield to a question? Senator Murray, apparently you are the latest one to become educated on this and you indicated if the tax was to be six or six and one-half percent that it would put the little landowner out of business. On what do you base this?"

Senator Murray: "I think the small landowner is the one who can least afford to carry the total situation over the twenty to sixty year growth period to bring his crop to harvest, and he is the one who will not have the working capital to be in this really long range business so that at the point in time when he does have to pay that tax in addition to the land tax that he has been paying and so on, will be the hardest hit. The large timber companies have adequate working capital to carry them even under the old system. They have had no problem with it, but I think it does make a difference to the small operator at the present time."

Senator Rasmussen: "You indicate by your speech that you thought they were going to pay this six and one-half percent every year. Is it true that this tax will only come at the time that the timber is cut?"

Senator Murray: "This tax would come only at the time it is harvested. By the same token there is a tax on the land that is paid annually just as we pay any real estate tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "At the time that you are getting whatever the amount is, whether it be sixty or a hundred dollars a thousand, probably sixty years from now it will be three or four hundred dollars a thousand for timber, this tax is not going to throw anybody out of business because it is only going to be put on at the time that the timber goes to market?"

Senator Murray: "No, the test really would be the small landowner who has had a sixty year crop under the old system, who has been paying the ad valorem taxes for the last fifty-nine years, and now harvests it this year."

Senator Rasmussen: "Very small tax."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator, you indicated you thought a compromise would be in order between the five and one-half and six and one-half percent. You thought Senator Mardesich's amendment was just right. Is that what you said?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I thought that it was a reasonable amount, yes, because we had heard that six and one-half percent was to be the figure and then it comes out that it is five and one-half percent. Senator Mardesich has taken a moderate approach and I thought that his was reasonable."

Senator Dore: "That is the figure you are going to support then. Is that correct?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Six percent."

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Dore to the amendment by Senator Mardesich was withdrawn.

Senators Mardesich, Sandison and Washington demanded a Call of the Senate. A Call of the Senate was ordered.

CALL OF THE SENATE

The Sergeant at arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Metcalf, Twigg and Whetzel, who had previously been excused.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call on the amendment to page 2, section 1, lines 8 and 9 by Senator Mardesich, and the demand was sustained by Senators Durkan, Sandison, Day, Connor, Mardesich, Donohue, Talley, Rasmussen and Van Hollebeke.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Mardesich was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 15; nays, 30; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Connor, Day, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Rasmussen, Ridder, Van Hollebeke, Washington—15.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Durkan, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—30.

Excused: Senators Metcalf, Twigg, Whetzel—3.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 17, after the period insert "During the year 1977 and for each year thereafter the tax shall be increased by one-tenth of one percent for a period of twenty-five years."

Debate ensued.

Senator Mardesich demanded a roll call on the amendment to page 2, line 17, and the demand was sustained by Senators Woody, Day, Washington, Greive, Bailey, Grant, Fleming, Van Hollebeke and von Reichbauer.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Mardesich was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 30; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Connor, Day, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Herr, Keefe, Mardesich, Marsh, Rasmussen, Ridder, Van Hollebeke, Washington, Woody—16.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Durkan, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall—30.

Excused: Senators Metcalf, Whetzel—2.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Durkan, Greive, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. Voting nay: Senators Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Herr, Mardesich, Ridder, Van Hollebeke—8.

Excused: Senators Metcalf, Whetzel—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2541, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2541 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1276, by Representatives Charette, Eikenberry and Kelley (by Attorney General request):

Defining exempted transactions under the consumer protection act.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "House Bill No. 1276 does not concern itself with any of the subjects which are contained in the concurrent resolution which set the cutoff as five p.m. February 7."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Speaking to Senator Day's point of order, I understand by two-thirds vote we can consider this measure. Is that correct under our rules?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I do not think so, Senator. I think your point is not well taken because it is a concurrent resolution which set these standards and there is no possible way that we can go over and take a two-thirds poll of the House real quick."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, at the time this bill was under consideration prior to the cutoff, the point was raised — I believe by Senator Mardesich — to the then presiding officer Lieutenant Governor Cherberg, that we would go ahead and if the bill received a two-thirds or more majority we would attempt to get a two-thirds majority of House and Senate amendment to the concurrent resolution. He indicated that we would go ahead and pass or at least vote on all of these matters which he regarded as being on a more or less consent calendar and although we may not be able to get the two-thirds vote here, I think that it would be consistent with the ruling at that time which was the justification for putting the bill over that we go ahead with it."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President, in reading Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143, cannot find anything that talks about using two-thirds except for introduction of a bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, what I was talking to while somebody else was talking to you was that this body had at a time when I think it is binding on the body and upon the presiding officer done something because of an understanding that we would be able to proceed with it after the cutoff. Now that was the reason we postponed consideration at the time and as such I think we ought to continue with what we in my opinion bound ourselves to do."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Day: "Mr. President, then I would be forced to raise a further point of order that you mentioned a moment ago, that this single body cannot amend a concurrent resolution or its intent without the concurrence of the other body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Speaking to Senator Day's point of order, yesterday under the leadership of Senator Bailey we did take a resolution and attach a bill to it and sent it on over to the House of Representatives, which permits them then to consider the resolution and also the bill. So my further point of order would be that it has been done and still can be done."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Mr. President, speaking to that, the gentleman had every opportunity to raise an objection and failed to do so."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I am going to confuse you further. I have to oppose Senator Durkan on this because my bill yesterday was a Senate bill that had to have two-thirds support in this house and has to go to the other house and receive two-thirds support in order to set aside the concurrent resolution. Now this is a House bill. If the Senate adopts it by two-thirds vote it means that we alone adopt and suspend the joint rule and it does not go back to the House except for an amendment. I think it is a different situation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Members of the Senate, it seems to me that we could have a resolution which would allow this body to vote on this particular bill. It would not be effective unless the House also concurred in the resolution. It seems to me that this is the place to use this means because I think I recall rather clearly that when this issue did come up that the Lieutenant Governor, the presiding officer at that time, did indicate to the body that this could be put over and if it carried by a two-thirds vote it would be possible to be done. But there is a way to do it which would be a resolution, then pass the bill and if the House concurs in the resolution, we are clear."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "This is not a resolution, Senator. This is a House bill that has already passed the House. I agree that there is a way to bend the law to do most anything if you want to do it badly enough."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "I think under the rules, or having no rules, I would make an oral resolution that we resolve that this bill be passed by a two-thirds vote. I do not think I have worded that resolution too happily, but perhaps we could hold this matter on the calendar for a half hour and we could come up with a resolution.”

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: “I rise to a point of order on Senator Washington’s motion. I think that if we do this we have to have it in writing. It has to go to the House and be passed by the House before we can consider the bill. Now if the bill can be passed there is no harm in that because it probably then comes outside the resolution anyway, but I do not see how we can pass an oral resolution to be sent to the House on an oral resolution. Lord knows what they will say when they get up and make their oral resolution. We have to have it in writing and pass it by two-thirds and go to the House and have it passed before we can consider the bill.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 1276 was made a special order of business immediately following the noon recess today.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2705, by Senators Peterson (Lowell) and Peterson (Ted):

Relating to food fish and shellfish.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Substitute Senate Bill No. 2705 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2705, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 4, line 19, after "by" strike all the material down through line 9 of page 4 and insert "[the fifteenth day of the month in which the fees become due, the fees shall become delinquent and the schedule of penalties stated below shall be invoked. A return of remittance which is transmitted to the director by United States mail shall be deemed filed or received on the date shown by the post office cancellation mark stamped upon the envelope containing it. The following shall be the schedule of penalties to be assessed for delinquent payments of such fees:

(3) Sixty-one through ninety days after due date – Add twenty-five percent of total fees due but not less than three dollars.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, after section 7, beginning on line 9, add new sections as follows:

"Sec. 8. Section 75.28.130, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 283, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 75.28.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The fee for all licenses prescribed in this chapter employing troll lines in the taking of salmon shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum. Each license shall entitle the licensee to use six or less troll lines.

The fee for all licenses prescribed in this chapter employing troll lines in the taking of food fish, other than salmon, shall be twenty-seven dollars and fifty cents per annum. Each license shall entitle the licensee to use six or less troll lines.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 75.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any vessel licensed as a commercial troller may use either fixed or hand-held gear: PROVIDED, That vessels using hand-held gear must prominently display a permanently affixed distinguishing marking in a form and manner determined by the director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 75.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No commercially licensed troll vessel using hand-held gear, shall be used for angling for personal use during the commercial troll salmon season in coastal fishing areas nor in contiguous areas closed to commercial troll salmon fishing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Section 1, chapter 23, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 75.12.650 are each hereby repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This 1974 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, before we proceed I raise the question of scope and object of this amendment. This amendment relates to defining the type of fishing gear. It has nothing to do with the landing fees, and I think it is an effort to circumvent and put into this Senate a bill that did not come out of the Rules Committee. I think that it clearly exceeds the scope and object of the original bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, speaking to the point of order raised by Senator Bailey regarding the scope and object, this clearly comes under the provisions of Senate Bill

No. 2705, which is transferring to the Revenue Department the collection of all fees by the Fisheries Department. This in addition provides that the fee instead of one hundred dollars shall be one hundred and twenty-five dollars for all commercial fishing licenses, and it directly relates to the revenues which the department is going to collect and in the committee it was suggested that the fee be increased to one hundred and fifty dollars. This again is taking the moderate approach and increasing the fees to one hundred and twenty-five dollars. I urge that the President study the subject and say that it relates to the bill in question, which it clearly does."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "I wish to concur in Senator Bailey's remarks. The actual prime purpose of this bill is to give the Department of Revenue the power of audit and the testimony in Ways and Means that it will produce five hundred thousand dollars in revenue because as of now one one is auditing this collection of fees. It has nothing to do with setting of them. It is an audit bill and that is what its prime purpose was, and I think that Senator Bailey's point is well taken. If you start setting fees in this bill, it would be way beyond the purpose of this basic bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Speaking further on the scope and object, I do not exactly question Senator Rasmussen on fees, but I do question the wording on line 18 where it changes the definition of gear for different types of fishing. Now that is the secret to the whole effort here to sneak around the left end or the back end or something, but I think there is nothing in the original bill that relates to redefining the type of gear that is to be used and this is clearly an effort to bring into this a bill that the Governor vetoed last session and which also was held in the Rules Committee."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bailey is bringing in a number of extraneous matters which have no relation to the subject under consideration as to whether the Governor had vetoed anything at all. Certainly we are not as a body upholding the Governor's vetoes as being perfectly proper. All of our arguments have been the other way. So I do not want to touch on that subject. But I will say that this does relate to the revenue that they are going to collect. It will amount to some fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars in additional revenue for the Fisheries Department and it will be the duty of the Revenue Department to collect it, so, Senator Atwood, I think it does relate to the bill in question."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The President in reading the bill finds the underlined matter only refers to the changing to the Department of Revenue the catch fees as formerly collected by the Department of Fisheries, and the amendment deals with licensing fees of different types of gear. Under the tight rule of scope and object that both the Lieutenant Governor and I have maintained over the past few years, Senator Bailey's point is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Rasmussen was ruled out of order.

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2705 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2705, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woody—44.

Absent or not voting: Senators Lewis (Harry), Woodall—2.

Excused: Senators Metcalf, Whetzel—2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2705, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Expediting certification of thermal power plant sites and lines.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 1516 was ordered to hold its place on the second reading calendar for Monday, February 11, 1974.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3170.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3170, by Senators Walgren, Bottiger, Matson, Marsh, Dore and Bailey:

Enacting emergency energy legislation.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3170 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3170, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Walgren, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, section 3, line 12, after "Members" insert "shall be confirmed by the senate and"

Senator von Reichbauer moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5, line 14, insert a new section 8 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any person convicted by any state or federal court of a restraint of trade or commerce in a petroleum product which restraint created an artificial shortage in such product shall be liable for civil damages as provided in RCW 19.86.090 to any individual, partnership, corporation or governmental agency, with whom such person had a contract at the time an order was issued or an action taken pursuant to this chapter which impaired the contract rights of such individual, partnership, corporation or government agency."

Re-number the remaining sections consecutively.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator von Reichbauer yield? Are you a lawyer, Senator?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Fortunately no, sir."

Senator Canfield: "Neither am I, so maybe we can talk common people's language."

Senator von Reichbauer: "Very good, sir."

Senator Canfield: "I think that I would agree with the concept of your amendment, but I am just wondering if - supposing you ran a service station or you are a wholesaler here in Olympia and the parent company that supplies you would get convicted. Would that conviction carry on down to you as a minor supplier?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "No, sir, it would not. It would deal with the company that was guilty of the conspiracy. It would have no effect upon the dealer."

Senator Canfield: "Well, if he were a part of that company, would he be guilty?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "In a criminal case it would deal with the intent and the intent would be on the part of the company, not with the dealer."

Senator Canfield: "Well, I hope you are correct."

Senator von Reichbauer: "It is good to talk to a non-lawyer here in the Senate."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, would Senator von Reichbauer yield? Senator von Reichbauer, I will try to keep my questions in the language of the common people also, whatever that means. You said that section 8 was necessitated by section 7 of the bill. I see that section 7 requires that people furnishing energy fuels comply with committee orders immediately and exempts them from liability for compliance with orders. Now are you saying that section 8 somehow or other changes that and does that take away their exemption from complying with the order of the energy commission?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Again, I read this bill yesterday as a non-lawyer and I recognize that the existing laws under everyday situations do protect the people against the conspiracy but it was my reading of section 7 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3170 that there might be a loophole here and this is my intent to protect the public."

Senator Francis: "Are you saying then that you are protecting the public by closing the loophole, which loophole is that when a person obeys the orders of the energy commission in our state he is exempt from being accused of restraint of trade by obeying those orders to maybe close his gas station on Sunday or something? Are you saying that section 8 changes that exemption and takes it away and that is how it closes the loophole?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "If he was guilty of a conspiracy it would, but if he is not guilty of a conspiracy he is not affected by it, obviously."

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I think that there are some serious questions raised by this amendment. I will listen to further debate on the subject."

MOTION

At 11:55 a.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1276, by Representatives Charette, Eikenberry and Kelley (by Attorney General request):

Defining exempted transactions under the consumer protection act.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 1276 and the Point of Order raised by Senator Day earlier today that House Bill No. 1276 does not concern itself with any of the subjects contained in the concurrent resolution setting the cutoff date and time as five o'clock p.m. on February 7, 1974.

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "The point of order raised by Senator William S. Day of Spokane. . . the President ruling upon the point of order believes that his point is well taken. The bill is not alive under the concept of the joint concurrent resolution. The bill is dead."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, I have been assured by Senator Day that this bill is not just dead, that there will be active participation on his behalf in working on a solution that will help the consumer act to be alive and that we will be able to do something on that between now and April."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Durkan yield? It is my understanding that the Attorney General still has this case pending in the Supreme Court. Is that correct?"

Senator Durkan: "That is correct."

Senator Atwood: "I think it would be wise to wait until they give us a reading on exactly what the powers are. I am in favor of the bill, but I think since this is in the process of being litigated, it probably should have a reading from the Supreme Court and we could do a much better job on redefining what the Attorney General can do in these areas of consumer protection."

Senator Durkan: "I agree, but the Senate I hope will understand and the public will know that the Senate is not just brushing this aside."

RULING BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "In the course of the arguments presented on the motion earlier, the statement was made on two or three occasions that the President of the Senate had ruled that anything that started before five o'clock would still remain alive. I have verbatim his statement taken from the tape: 'The President believes this will be alive after five o'clock today, but only today as a special order of business.' So this is not arbitrary and capricious on my part."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Jolly: "In the event that we recess now and come back again in April, would not the same ruling be under effect on these bills in April as they are now?"

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I think, my own personal opinion, and having no rules to back it up, I would say that it would be incumbent upon the leadership to come up with a concurrent resolution in the April session that would handle this matter."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Day: "Mr. President, lady and gentlemen of the Senate, when this bill came on the floor it was obvious that it was an all-encompassing measure and I think that the intent of the Attorney General, as I read the letter he has now sent to me, was to place under the scope of these particular acts for consumer protection, things outside of the licensed and policed areas of professions. Now the way this was written it obviously was much broader than that and some of these professions specifically have their own disciplinary acts. In fact, this session we did pass through a bill which has passed this Senate three times now relative to naturopathy, which does give them a disciplinary procedure. I believe that between now and April we can work out a satisfactory defining of the area that the Consumer Protection Act should apply to for any practitioner who exceeds the scope of his license or who transgresses in a manner which would not be encompassed by the disciplinary proceeding that does discipline his particular profession. That way there will be assurance that the consumer protection will not be utilized to the advantage of some professions and the disadvantage of others."

POINT OF INQUIRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Senator Day, in order to speed up my answering a couple of letters, what happened to the naturopathy bill?"

Senator Day: "It died in the House."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Mr. President, maybe it is a little late in the game, but I did ask our attorney, Max Nicolai, to draft an amendment on this bill to focalize on what we are trying to do, to give the Attorney General the jurisdiction over fraudulent practices and representations of motor vehicle dealers and salesmen, and it seems to me that this solves all the problems I had with it. I think it should solve all of Senator Day's problems in that if you would withdraw your point of order I think we could put this on and you would not have any difficulty, Senator."

Senator Day: "Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman's question, Senator Dore, Senator Atwood stated there is a case under litigation over here and that by April I believe that we will be in a position to have completely looked into the thing because the way it is presently written I am not certain that your amendment does satisfy all of the objections, and you can be assured of this, that I will take a good look at it myself and when we come back here in April we can get at this and do it properly."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, House Bill No. 1276 was referred to the Committee on Rules.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3170, by Senators Walgren, Bottiger, Matson, Marsh, Dore and Bailey:

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 105, by Committee on Constitution and Elections (originally sponsored by Senators Washington, Grant, Ridder, Metcalf and Whetzel):

Amending the Constitution to provide for annual, interim and extra legislative sessions and to allow the legislature to increase members' salaries.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Grant, Second Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was substituted for Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 and the second substitute resolution was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Grant, Second Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Grant yield? In Second Substitute SJR 105 it says, 'Under such rules as the legislature may adopt.' We did adopt some rules back in the regular session but we have been operating here all this time without rules. What happens if there are no rules adopted? Just majority rules, is that your reading of it?"

Senator Grant: "This constitutional language would not speak to that, Senator Atwood."

Senator Atwood: "You did not have anything in mind then?"

Senator Grant: "No, I would hope that the legislature itself would set certain statutes forth whereby the standing committees during the interim would have certain ground rules under which they would have to operate. I think that is one of the weaknesses perhaps we have now but it does not require that. We are not required in session apparently to operate under any rules either."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, now that we have the continuing legislative concept I am wondering, how did you determine the ninety days? We did take ninety-eight days here a year ago, but why did you leave the sixty days? We did have sixty days and then we went to the thirty and with this continuing concept, with the two mini-sessions thrown in between, I wondered why you got the figure of ninety days rather than staying with the old sixty days?"

Senator Grant: "As you indicated, Senator Peterson, the session last year was ninety-nine days or something like that, ninety-eight, and it was the feeling of the committee and I think it was the feeling of the Senate generally that in the odd numbered years that that is about what we have been spending, a combination of the two years, about one hundred and fifty days since about 1967; during a biennial period we have been spending about one hundred and fifty days in session in floor work. That is an even number. If we have additional business that is not completed, or course the Governor still has his right to call us back into session. Further, we have the authority ourselves by a two-thirds vote to call an additional session. If we do so, that is limited to thirty days. It could have made it one hundred days and fifty days, or whatever figure you would pick, but I think that most annual session provisions have ninety/sixty or ninety/forty-five or something of that nature."

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President, may I continue. I just questioned this because when we took the longer time the public was critical of us and then when we came back for the additional thirty days we finalized and did so much, and also in the mini-session we passed out forty bills and we were congratulated for having taken hold and done a real job where we were criticized for staying down here the ninety or one hundred days."

Senator Grant: "May I respond just very briefly to that? It pains me somewhat that we are subject to criticism whether we stay here five days or ninety days or one hundred and fifty days, and I would like to just quote perhaps from John Kennedy. It does not relate directly to this but I think it is something that we ought to continue to consider. John Kennedy said on February 19, 1959, 'The cost of doing the job right is not more than we can afford. It may not be cheap or easy or popular but we cannot afford to do less.' And I think that is my response to those who are critical of the time that is spent in doing the people's business. The time is spent well and the money is spent well if we do the job right."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Second Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 105, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—42.

Voting nay: Senator Peterson (Ted)—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Donohue, Matson—2.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Metcalf, Whetzel—3.

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 105, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

On motion of Senator Francis, Senator Greive was excused.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No license as an agent to sell lottery tickets or shares shall be issued to any person to engage in business exclusively as a lottery sales agent. Before issuing such license the director of the state lottery shall consider such factors as (1) the financial responsibility and security of the person and his business or activity, (2) the accessibility of his place of business or activity to the public, (3) the sufficiency of existing licenses to serve the public convenience, and (4) the volume of expected sales.

For the purposes of this section, the term "person" shall be construed to mean and include an individual, association, corporation, club, trust, estate, society, company, joint stock company, receiver, trustee, assignee, referee, or any other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, whether appointed by a court or otherwise, and any combination of individuals. "Person" shall not be construed to mean or include any department, commission, agency, or instrumentality of the state, or any county and municipality or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any person licensed as provided in this chapter is hereby authorized and empowered to act as a lottery sales agent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The director of the state lottery may suspend or revoke, after notice and hearing, any license issued pursuant to this chapter. Such license may, however, be temporarily suspended by the director of the state lottery without prior notice, pending any prosecution, investigation, or hearing. A license may be suspended or revoked by the director for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) Failure to account for lottery tickets received or the proceeds of the sale of lottery tickets or to file a bond if required by the director of the state lottery or to comply with the instructions of the director concerning the licensed activity;

(2) Conviction of any crime as defined by RCW 9.01.020;

(3) Failure to file any return or report or to keep records or to pay any tax required by this chapter;

(4) Fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or conduct prejudicial to public confidence in the state lottery;

(5) That the number of lottery tickets sold by the lottery sales agent is insufficient to meet administrative costs and that public convenience is adequately served by other licensees;

(6) A material change, since issuance of the license with respect to any matters required to be considered by the director under section 6 of this 1974 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No right of any person to a prize drawn shall be assignable, except that payment of any prize drawn may be paid to the estate of a deceased prize winner, and except that any person pursuant to an appropriate judicial order may be paid the prize to which the winner is entitled. The director shall be discharged of all further liability upon payment of a prize pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. No person shall sell a ticket or share at a price greater than that fixed by rule or regulation of the commission. No person other than a licensed lottery sales agent shall sell lottery tickets, except that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any person from giving lottery tickets or shares to another as a gift.

Any person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. No ticket or share shall be sold to any person under the age of eighteen, but this shall not be deemed to prohibit the purchase of a ticket or share for the purpose of making a gift by a person eighteen years of age or older to a person less than that age. Any licensee who knowingly sells or offers to sell a lottery ticket or share to any person under the age of eighteen, and is convicted of such, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. No ticket or share shall be purchased by, and no prize shall be paid to any of the following persons: Any officer or employee of the lottery or to any spouse, child, brother, sister, or parent residing as a member of the same household in the principal place of abode of any officer or employee of the lottery.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Unclaimed prize money for the prize on a winning ticket or share shall be retained in the state lottery fund by the director of the state lottery for the person entitled thereto for one year after the drawing in which the prize was won. If no claim is made for said money within such year, the prize money shall then be transferred to the state general fund and all rights to the prize existing prior to such transfer shall be extinguished as of the day of the transfer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The director of the state lottery may, in his discretion, require any or all lottery sales agents to deposit to the credit of the state lottery fund in banks designated by the state treasurer, all moneys received by such agents from the sale of lottery tickets or shares, less the amount, if any, retained as compensation for the sale of the tickets or shares, and to file with the director of the state lottery or his designated agents reports of their receipts and transactions in the sale of lottery tickets in such form and containing such information as he may require. The director of the state lottery may make such arrangements for any person, including a bank, to perform such functions, activities, or services in connection with the operation of the lottery as he may deem advisable pursuant to this chapter and the rules and regulations of the commission, and such functions, activities, or services shall constitute lawful functions, activities, and services of such person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. No other law providing any penalty or disability for the sale of lottery tickets or any acts done in connection with a lottery shall apply to the sale of tickets or shares performed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If the person entitled to a prize or any winning ticket is under the age of eighteen years, and such prize is less than five thousand dollars, the director of the state lottery may direct payment of the prize by delivery to an adult member of the minor's family or a guardian of the minor of a check or draft payable to the order of such minor. If the person entitled to a prize or any winning ticket is under the age of eighteen years, and such prize is five thousand dollars or more, the director of the state lottery may direct payment to such minor by depositing the amount of the prize in any bank to the credit of an adult member of the minor's family or a guardian of the minor as custodian for such minor. The person so named as custodian shall have the same duties and powers as a person designated as a custodian in a manner prescribed by the Washington Uniform Gifts to Minors Act, chapter 21.24 RCW, and for the purposes of this section the terms "adult member of a minor's family", "guardian of a minor" and "bank" shall have the same meaning as in said act. The director of the state lottery shall be discharged of all further liability upon payment of a prize to a minor pursuant to this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is hereby created and established a separate fund, to be known as the state lottery fund. Such fund shall be maintained and controlled by the commission and shall consist of all revenues received from the sale of lottery tickets or shares, and all other moneys credited or transferred thereto from any other fund or source pursuant to law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The moneys in said state lottery fund shall be used only: (1) For the payment of prizes to the holders of winning lottery tickets or shares; (2) for purposes of making deposits into the reserve account created by section 19 of this 1974 amendatory act and into the revolving fund created by section 20 of this 1974 amendatory act; (3) for purposes of making deposits into the general fund; and (4) for the repayment to the general fund of the amount appropriated to the fund pursuant to section 24 of this 1974 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. In the event the commission decides to pay any portion of or all of the prizes in the form of installments over a period of years, it shall provide for the payment of all such installments by one, but not both, of the following methods:

(1) It may enter into contracts with any financially responsible person or firm providing for the payment of such installments; or

(2) It may establish and maintain a reserve account into which shall be placed sufficient moneys for the director of the lottery to pay such installments as they become due. Such reserve account shall be maintained as a separate and independent fund outside the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is hereby created a revolving fund into which the commission shall deposit sufficient money to provide for the payment of the costs incurred in the operation and administration of the lottery: PROVIDED, That the amount deposited in such revolving fund shall never exceed fifteen percent of the total revenues accruing from the sale of lottery tickets or shares. Such revolving fund shall be managed, controlled and maintained by the commission and shall be a separate and independent fund outside the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now law or hereafter amended, shall apply to administrative actions taken by the commission or the director pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The state auditor, in addition to the duties assigned to him by RCW 9.46.060 shall conduct an annual post-audit of all accounts and transactions of the lottery and such other special post-audits as he may be directed to conduct pursuant to chapter 43.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, provision, or other portion of sections 1 through 19 of this 1974 amendatory act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held to be invalid, such holding shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this chapter or the application of such portion held invalid to any other person or circumstances, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, provision, or other portion thereof directly involved in such holding or to the person and circumstances therein involved. If any provision of this chapter is inconsistent with, in conflict with, or contrary to any other provision of law, such provision of this chapter shall prevail over such other provision and such other provision shall be deemed to have been amended, superseded, or repealed to the extent of such inconsistency, conflict, and contrariety.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. There is hereby appropriated to the state lottery fund from the general fund the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purposes of the lottery in carrying out its functions and duties pursuant to sections 1 through 23 of this 1974 amendatory act. Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable from the net revenues accruing in the state lottery fund after the payment of prizes to holders of winning tickets or shares and expenses of the lottery.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. Sections 1 through 23 of this 1974 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 67 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is added to chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. a new section to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter, as now law or hereafter amended, shall not apply to the conducting, operating, participating, or selling or purchasing of tickets or shares in the "lottery" or "state lottery" as defined in Second Reengrossed Senate Bill 2004 (section 1, chapter . . . , Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess.), when such conducting, operating, participating, or selling or purchasing is in conformity to the provisions of Second Reengrossed Senate Bill 2004 (chapter . . . , Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess.) and to the rules and regulations adopted thereunder.

Sec. 27. Section 4, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a commission, known as the "Washington state gambling commission", consisting of five members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate. The members of the commission shall be appointed within thirty days of July 16, 1973 for terms beginning July 1, 1973, and expiring as follows: One member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1975; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1976; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1977; one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1978; and one member of the commission for a term expiring July 1, 1979; each as the governor so determines. Their successors, all of whom shall be citizen members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, upon being appointed and qualified, shall serve six year terms: PROVIDED, That no member of the commission who has served a full six year term shall be eligible for reappointment. In case of a vacancy, it shall be filled by appointment by the governor for the unexpired portion of the term in which said vacancy occurs. No vacancy in the membership of the commission shall impair the right of the remaining member or members to act, except as in RCW 9.46.050 (2) provided.

In addition to the members of the commission there shall [initially] be four ex officio members without vote from the legislature consisting of: (1) Two members of the senate, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the president of the senate; (2) two members of the house of representatives, one from the majority political party and one from the minority political party, both to be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; [all of whose terms shall end December 31, 1974; appointments shall be made within thirty days of July 16, 1973] such appointments shall be for a term of two years or for the period in which the appointee serves as a legislator, whichever expires first; members may be reappointed; vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments are made. Such ex officio members who shall collect data deemed essential to future legislative proposals and exchange information with the board shall be deemed engaged in legislative business while in attendance upon the business of the board and shall be limited to such allowances therefor as otherwise provided in RCW 44.04.120, the same to be paid from the "gambling revolving fund" as being expenses relative to commission business."

On page 1, strike the title and insert the following:

"AN ACT Relating to the establishment and operation of a state lottery; amending section 4, chapter 218, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9.46.040; creating a new chapter in Title 67 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 9.46 RCW; creating new sections; and making an appropriation.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Second Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2004 except the proviso on page 3, section 3, line 13.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, supporting Senator Rasmussen I would just say this. My worry is not in the special levy provision but it is one Senator Greive raised the other day and that is that many people think that the lottery is going to cure special levies. I am fearful that when they start selling tickets, if they ever do, that a lot of people will think that they are taking care of special levies by buying a lottery ticket and I just do not think this is anything but fooling the public. I would like to have it stricken out of there. I understand the House will recede in that one amendment."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "What the House did was scalp the entire bill and put a new bill on it. It is not one amendment, as I see it. Is this permissible to ask them to back off from one section because it was adopted as an entire amendment?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "We have that prerogative, I am sure, Senator, and if we ask them to recede from that particular section and they refuse, they send the bill back, we have a choice of either concurring or sending it to committee and it takes the course of a whole new bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "With the permission of the body, I think the members would like to know the other changes in the bill before they vote on a concurrence with the other amendments."

REPLY BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "I think it is entirely up to the body, but I would think that we would ask the House to recede from that particular point and then explain the part of the amendment we wanted to concur in."

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Second Reengrossed Senate Bill No. 2004, except the proviso on page 3, section 3, line 13.

On page 3, line 20 of the engrossed bill, being line 24 of the printed bill, after "driving" insert "or of being in actual physical control of" restoring words stricken by Senator Washington's amendment to lines 24 and 25.

On page 3, section 1, line 27 of the printed bill being line 23 of the engrossed bill, after "rescinded" insert "as of the date of such plea or the date on which the suspension of driving privileges ordered by the court upon such plea ends or would have ended had the person pleading guilty to physical control pled guilty to driving under the influence, whichever is later."

On page 4, after subsection 6, add a new subsection as follows:

"(7) The revocation of driving privileges under this section shall be considered as a conviction for the purpose of eligibility for an occupational driver's license as determined under chapter 5, Laws of 1973 and chapter 46.20 RCW," and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Day moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2675.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, I quickly looked at 1871 and it relates to physicians and surgeons. I did not have time to look at it too closely to see whether it also covers osteopaths because I understand that they do manipulate also."

Senator Day: "No, it does not. Now what they are referring to is 1871 which is the Medical Practice Act which has a provision at the end where they are all inclusive in practice. They can practice optometry, chiropractic, naturopathy, podiatry, dentistry, you name it, and I, in 1961, put an amendment on the act that says that they shall not practice chiropractic as defined in the act. Now all this does is to tie down that prohibition in the 1961 amendment to adjustment by hand of any articulation of the spine. It has nothing to do with osteopaths, Senator."

Senator Woody: "If this passes, will the osteopath still be able to adjust by hand?"

Senator Day: "Absolutely. They will be able to manipulate articulations like they have always done, which is a completely different technique done for the purpose of manipulating all joints for the stimulation of circulation, which has to do with something entirely different, but it will not prohibit them from doing it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Walgren: "Would Senator Day yield? I just want to know, will a doctor, after this amendment passed, be able to set a fracture?"

Senator Day: "Of course, because you see, an adjustment of an articulation has absolutely nothing to do with setting a fracture. Now there has been a lot of minutiae flying around here relative to this but all we are trying to do is prohibit the physician from attempting to practice something he does not know a thing about."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, we passed the other day the Asian-American Commission, and it was very much supported by the sauna operators. Will this interfere with the practices that the sauna operators are engaged in at the present time which does include, I understand, Senator Day . . ."

Senator Day: "It depends on what the sauna operator is doing, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "They do manipulate the back, they tell me."

Senator Day: "If they do, they are doing so illegally if they do, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is what I was afraid. We will get the commission working on it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, could you tell me something of the history of the subject matter of this bill and in particular why we need the bill and whether or not we did pass a bill on this subject through the Senate last year and the year before?"

Senator Day: "Yes, Senator Francis, we most assuredly have passed this bill before. There has been a great deal of debate between the two associations as to the content of the definition and that has finally been resolved, and so we are passing it again through the Senate after it got through the House. Now in addition there is another section that is on the bill that was originally on and was amended off before, which has to do with state contracts and municipal subdivisions and discrimination. This is not the bill that passed through the legislature. It has never passed completely before, Senator."

Senator Francis: "Senator Day, what I am trying to establish is apparently although the Senate has passed this bill a couple of times before, it has not been passed by the House before and we have not actually taken action on this particular subject since I believe it was 1961."

Senator Day: "I believe the upgrading portions of it, that is correct. 1959 and 1961 were the last two that substantively affected the practice act."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FRANCIS

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, the reason I asked that question is that I was under the incorrect understanding that the legislature had passed matters on this last year and the year before, and I find out that the House had not gotten around to taking action and that is one of the reasons why the bill is needed."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "I would like to ask Senator Day a question if he would yield. Senator, you will remember, going back to 1961, back in those good old days, we used to have some M.D.'s in the House occasionally. You remember Dr. McFadden and Dr. Adams from Spokane, and with your expertise and theirs we used to get I would say a rather complete and unbiased view of this situation. Now we just have Dr. Day and while I do not wish to impugn your motives or expertise, are we getting both sides of the question?"

"As I read the House amendment, if I went to a doctor he could not adjust by hand any articulation of the spine and that kind of bothers me because I wonder if we are going to make it so all they can do pretty soon is to use a butcher knife and a pill. I do not believe we ought to restrict these doctors unduly from any reasonable practice of their profession."

Senator Day: "The answer to your question is that when both Dr. McFadden and Dr. Adams were in the House is when the original amendment went on the Medical Practice Act saying they could not adjust an articulation of the spine. All this amendment does is make sure that the amendment put on in 1961 stays identically as it was in 1961. There is no change."

Senator Canfield: "But they could not adjust by hand any articulation of the spine?"

Senator Day: "That is right. That is the practice of chiropractic and that is the reason the original amendment was put on there."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2675.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill

No. 2675, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 8; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Absent or not voting: Senator Atwood—1.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Greive, Metcalf, Whetzel—4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2675, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. Scates has come to me and pointed out that I was incorrect in my remarks this morning about the story that he was involved in a deal with the Governor. He tells me that rather he was in an investment club with Slade Gorton and others. He also points out that he got out of that deal some time ago. I suppose after the conflict became public. Now that he has told us about his involvement in this affair with Slade Gorton and others I think we can find it in our hearts to forgive him and his past conflicts and hope that he now recognizes that we can all be made to look worse than we really are."

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Speak for yourself, John."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the House Message on Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 2583 was ordered held for consideration on Monday, February 11, 1974.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 7, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2904, with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike the title and insert the following:

"AN ACT Relating to savings and loan associations; and amending section 7, chapter 280, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1969 and RCW 33.08.110.

On page 1, following the enacting clause strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 7, chapter 280, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1969 and RCW 33.08.110 are each amended to read as follows:

An association with the written approval of the supervisor, may establish and operate branches in any county of the state.

An association desiring to establish a branch shall file a written application therefor with the supervisor, who shall approve or disapprove the application within six months after receipt.

[A branch shall not be established at a place in which the supervisor would not permit a proposed new association to engage in business, by reason of any consideration contemplated by RCW 33.08.060 as now or hereafter amended.] The supervisor's approval shall be conditioned on a finding that the resources in the neighborhood of the proposed location and in the surrounding country offer a reasonable promise of adequate support for their proposed branch and that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title. A branch shall not be established or permitted if the contingent fund, loss reserves and guaranty stock are less than the aggregate paid-in capital which would be required by law as a prerequisite to the establishment and operation of an equal number of branches in like locations by a commercial bank. If the application for a branch is not approved, the association shall have the right to appeal in the same manner and within the same time as provided by RCW 33.08.070 as now or hereafter amended. The association when delivering said application to the supervisor shall transmit to him a check for five hundred dollars to cover the expense of the investigation. An association shall not move any office from its immediate vicinity without prior approval of the supervisor.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Dore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2904.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "It appears to me that it allows branch banking in addition. Is this right? It says, 'Following the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill.'"

Senator Dore: "This was checked out by the attorney downstairs. I had him check it out and the act as it went through provided that with savings and loan branches they merely need to show justification as the economic stability of a branch rather than an association. There is no change in the House in that except they referred the substantive part of the act which passed the Senate to amend the 1969 act. There is no change from the Senate version except that it amends the 1969 act which had previously amended the 1959 act. In passing the Senate we did not refer the 1969 act. I will be glad to hold it for a day on the calendar if you want to check it out, but I did check it out. I have it right here before me."

Senator Woody: "What about this commercial?"

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, if I might respond, this is the bill that allows the state savings and loan associations to do exactly what the federals can do already. We are just trying to make them equal."

Senator Dore: "That is not quite an accurate statement but what this bill that passed the Senate did allows the state savings and loan to ask for a branch banking privilege from the supervisor and he determines the economic feasibility to support a branch rather than to support an entire association. Now that is the bill that passed. The House amendment is merely to correct the defect in the drafting. They inadvertently amended only the 1959 law. This provides also . . . amends the 1969 law."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Dore yield? Senator Dore, on the handout sheet that we got from the House, it appears, 'in like locations by a commercial bank.' Now I thought this was savings and loans. Are we now making the savings and loans exactly like commercial banks?"

Senator Dore: "As to a new branch, yes."

Senator Guess: "In other words it expands the banking capabilities?"

Senator Dore: "Right now commercial banks can put in a branch in the county in which they have their home office and they only have to show economic justification to support a branch, not an entire bank. The savings and loan did not have that privilege but this permits them to have the same privilege to establish a branch."

Senator Guess: "Very good. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2904.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2904, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Woodall, Woody—43.

Absent or not voting: Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob")—1.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Greive, Mefcalf, Whetzel—4.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2904, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 7, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3003, with the following amendments:

On page 2, section 2, beginning on line 32 of the engrossed bill, being line 31 of the printed bill, after "furnish" strike all the material down to and including "voters" on page 3, line 1 of the engrossed bill, being page 2, line 33 of the printed bill, and insert "without cost and upon application therefor, and annual state-wide listing or computer tape of registered voters to the state central committee of any major political party that received at least ten percent of the total votes cast for the office of President at the preceding Presidential election".

On page 5, section 6, beginning on line 8 of the engrossed bill, being line 7 of the printed bill, after "send" strike "whenever possible to do so without the payment of postage,", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3003, and asks the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1974-205.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-205

By Senators Lewis (Harry), Atwood and Matson:

WHEREAS, This Third Extraordinary Session of the Forty-Third Legislature was called for the recognized and expressed purpose of dealing with the emergent needs of the people of the State of Washington, relating to the budget, transportation and energy; and

WHEREAS, Whatever measures of importance remaining can be acted on within a period of a few days;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that we remain in session until Thursday, February 14, 1974, in order to complete our work and be responsible to the people of the State of Washington.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate take all the necessary steps for adjournment sine die no later than 12:00 midnight on Thursday, February 14, 1974, the thirty-second day of this session.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Lewis yield to a question? Senator Lewis, what if we cannot resolve our differences with the House as to the budget before next Thursday? Does your proposal in substance indicate that you desire that we roll over and accept whatever the House wants to do on the budget?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Francis, I am really surprised that you would ask such a question because I, frankly, have a lot more confidence in the majority parties of both houses apparently than you do, and I believe that you can get together and I believe that you will. You have a great leader in Senator Mardesich and in Senator Bailey. Your Ways and Means chairman, Senator Durkan, Senator Donohue and Senator Odegaard are all skilled in areas of the budget and I have great confidence that they can reach Representative Shinpoch and Representative Sawyer and bring this shop to a close."

Senator Francis: "Senator Lewis, what if we do not achieve that? That is the question I am asking, if we do not achieve our desires with regard to that by Thursday, I take it the adoption of your resolution means that we just drop it and have no budget and go home? Or what? What do we do in the event that we cannot get our way on this and cannot communicate with them to your satisfaction?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator, we have always faced that problem in the fourteen years I have been here and we have always come to a conclusion. In addition to that, this is precisely why I presented a floor resolution rather than a concurrent resolution which is necessary in order to adjourn sine die. I merely wanted to establish the position of the Senate. Now I suggest that if the position of the Senate is established as not wanting to complete our work, not wanting to sine die, not wanting to perform the job that we came to, then the message that we send, if this resolution fails, would be one that would be costly to the citizens of the state and I think opposite in the direction that the people would like to have us go."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "In direct response to your question, Senator Francis, this body, if it did not get agreement on the budget by two-thirds, could pass a concurrent resolution and extend day by day. We have done this many times; if you recall the 1970 session we had a thirty day sine die and we extended it three days. We did this again in the 1972 session. We went up to forty some days, I believe. But that is no great problem. And this is only a floor resolution, I might point out, but I think the people of the state deserve a good valentine and that would be a sine die with a complete and total budget. I would hope that the majority party would at least prevail on the House to send a complete and total budget. I understand they have taken out all of DSHS except for four million dollars and I think that this resolution is offered in good faith and I know that there are some of you on the other side that would like to sine die and not be faced with an April session. I also want to point out that the Governor yesterday agreed to call us back if two-thirds of us thought it was necessary. As a matter of fact I would have been willing to let the majority call us back in April because I do not think you could get twenty-five of you together over there to come back in April, in all sincerity. But in any event, I think you should support this resolution."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, it is most difficult to speak after those laudatory remarks on the part of Senator Lewis. However, it would appear to me that if we were to send a valentine to the people in the form of a sine die adjournment we would be doing far less for those people than were we to inform them that they still might have some hope that we might save twenty or thirty or forty million dollars. I think that might be a better valentine to send them, Senator Lewis, and if we decide to stay beyond Tuesday or Monday or whatever day we can wind up, it will be because we have arrived at the conclusion that it may be able for us to send such a valentine to the people."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich moved that Senate Resolution 1974-205 be laid upon the table.

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Rasmussen, Washington, Woodall, Bailey, Clarke, Atwood, Lewis (Harry), Wanamaker and Sellar.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Mardesich yield? The members back here want to know truly if we are set free, or are we still chained?"

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, in response to that, I might only point out that if Senator Woody had not been reading all these bills and offering so many amendments, we might have left last week."

President Pro Tempore Henry declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Mardesich that Senate Resolution 1974-205 be laid upon the table.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the resolution was laid upon the table by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 16; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Woody—28.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Matson, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Wanamaker, Woodall—16.

Excused: Senators Durkan, Greive, Metcalf, Whetzel—4.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 7, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3039, with the following amendments:

On page 1, beginning on line 6, after "for" strike "said lease or" and insert "television station".

On page 1, line 8 of the engrossed bill, being line 9 of the printed bill, after "rental" insert "for at least one period of not more than twenty years".

On page 1, line 9, after "That" insert "the rates in said leases shall be renegotiated at five year intervals: PROVIDED FURTHER, That".

On page 1, line 11, after "towers" insert "FURTHER, That notwithstanding any term to the contrary in any lease, this section shall not preclude the commission from prescribing new and reasonable lease terms relating to the modification, placement or design of facilities operated by or for a station, and any extension of a lease granted under this section shall be subject to this proviso".

On page 1, section 1, line 11 of the printed bill after "towers" insert " PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of law the director in his discretion may waive any requirement that an environmental impact statement or environmental assessment be submitted as to any lease negotiated and signed between January 1, 1974 and December 31, 1974", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DONALD R. WILSON, Assistant Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Day moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3039.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Day, I am looking at the amendment submitted by the House and the second one, 'PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, the director in his discretion may waive any requirement that an environmental impact statement or environmental assessment be submitted as to any lease.' It does not say this lease. But this is for 1974, it says. Between January 1, 1974 and December 31, 1974. . . . apply to 'any lease', not just to the lease of this antenna."

Senator Day: "In answer to your question, it would be my opinion that it gives them the discretion to waive any requirement but the way that group operates I doubt if they would ever waive it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, will Senator Day submit to a question for the record? Senator Day, I see the proviso that allows the director to waive environmental assessments, environmental impact statements during the calendar year 1974 with relation to, the language is, 'as to any lease negotiated.' Now is not the intent of this legislature that that be true with respect only to the antennas that this bill addresses itself to or are there other problems?"

Senator Day: "No, it is my specific understanding that refers back to this one section which constitutes the whole bill and which would mean that only as it relates to the placement of these two towers and that the towers will not be moved."

Senator Washington demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bottiger, Scott, Newschwander, Murray, Lewis (Harry), Stortini, Bailey, Connor and Wanamaker.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Day that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3039.

[(8)] (9) "Professional fund raiser" means any person who, for compensation, plans, conducts, or manages any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable purpose, or who engages in the business of or holds himself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations: PROVIDED, That the following persons shall not be deemed professional fund raisers or professional solicitors: (a) Bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent establishment in the state of Washington; who is employed and engaged as such officer or employee principally in connection with activities other than soliciting contributions or managing the solicitation of contributions and whose salary or other compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised; (b) a clergyman of a religious corporation exempt under the provisions of [RCW 19.09.030] section 2 of this 1974 amendatory act.

[(9)] (10) A "professional solicitor" means a person other than a professional fund raiser who is employed for compensation by any person or charitable organization to solicit contributions for charitable purposes from persons in this state.

[(10)] (11) "Sale and benefit affair" shall mean and include, but not be limited to, athletic or sports event, bazaar, benefit, campaign, circus, contest, dance, drive, entertainment, exhibition, exposition, party, performance, picnic, sale, social gathering, theater, or variety show which the public is requested to patronize or attend or to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable or religious purpose connected therewith.

[(11)] (12) "Solicitation" means any oral or written request for a contribution, including the solicitor's offer or attempt to sell any property, rights, services, or other thing in connection with which:

(a) Any appeal is made for any charitable purpose; or

(b) The name of any charitable organization is used as an inducement for consummating the sale; or

(c) Any statement is made which implies that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale will be applied toward any charitable purpose or donated to any charitable organization.

The solicitation shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making it receives any contribution or makes any sale.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise specifically provided in other sections of this chapter, this chapter shall not apply to the following:

(1) Solicitations by religious corporations duly organized and operated in good faith as religious organizations which are entitled to receive a declaration of current tax exempt status from the government of the United States and their duly organized branches or chapters, if the solicitations by such organization are conducted among the members thereof by other members or officers thereof, voluntarily or if the solicitations are in the form of collections or contributions at the regular or special religious assemblies, meetings, or services of any such organization or solicitations by such organizations for evangelical, missionary, or religious purposes.

(2) Any organizations which are organized and operated principally for charitable or religious or educational purposes, other than the raising of funds, when the solicitation of contributions is confined to the membership of the organization and when the solicitation is managed and conducted solely by officers and members of such organizations who are unpaid for such services.

The term "membership" shall not include those persons who are granted membership upon making a contribution as the result of a solicitation.

[(2)] (3) Persons requesting any contributions for the relief of named individuals:

(a) When the solicitation is managed and conducted solely by persons who are unpaid for such services and;

(b) When the contributions collected do not exceed the [two] five thousand dollars in any six month period; and

(c) When all of the contributions collected, without any deductions whatsoever except for the actual cost of a banquet, dance, or similar social gathering, are turned over to the named beneficiary or beneficiaries.

[(3)] (4) Any charitable organization which does not solicit and collect contributions in this state in excess of [two] five thousand dollars in any six month period if all such fund raising functions are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon receipt of an application in the proper form for registration, the director shall immediately initiate an examination to determine that:

(1) The cost of solicitation for direct gifts shall not exceed twenty percent of the total gross amount to be raised or for sale and benefit affairs shall not exceed fifty-five percent of the total gross amount to be raised; and of this fifty-five percent, not more than twenty percent shall be paid for all wages, fees, commissions, salaries, and emoluments paid or to be paid to all salesmen, solicitors, collectors, and professional fund raisers. If it appears that the cost of soliciting will exceed the percentages listed above, and except for that, the registration would otherwise be granted, the director may enter an order registering the charitable organization, upon a showing that special reasons make a cost higher than twenty percent or said fifty-five percent, or said twenty percent, respectively, reasonable in the particular case. When such an order is entered, the amount, stated as a percentage of the total purchase price, that will be given to the charitable organization or purpose shall be disclosed to each person being solicited at the time of each solicitation by conspicuously setting out such cost upon the item of goods, or upon its package, or by conspicuously setting out such cost upon a sign posted at each location where such solicitation occurs;

(2) The charitable organization has complied with all local governmental regulations which apply to soliciting for or on behalf of charitable organizations;

(3) The advertising material and the general promotional plan are not false, misleading, or deceptive and its rules and regulations, which the director may adopt, comply with the standards prescribed by the director and which afford full and fair disclosure;

(4) The charitable organization has not, or if a corporation, its officers, directors, and principals have not, been convicted of a crime involving solicitations for or on behalf of a charitable organization in this state, the United States, or any other state or foreign country within the past ten years and has not been subject to any permanent injunction or administrative order or judgment, under the provisions of RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090, involving a violation or violations of the provisions of RCW 19.86.020, within the past ten years, or of restraining a false or misleading promotional plan involving solicitations for charitable organizations.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any charitable organization mentioned under [RCW 19.09.030 (3)] section 2 (4) of this 1974 amendatory act:

(a) Before conducting any solicitation give written notice to the director stating its intention to solicit funds, the basis of its exemption, the purpose of such solicitation, the approximate percentage of collections, after deductions for expenses, to be actually devoted to that purpose, and when and in what area or areas such solicitation will be conducted.

Written notice shall be given to the director by the organization, or by someone in its behalf, at least three days in advance of such solicitation, and if it is sent by registered or certified mail such notice shall be deemed given when deposited in the United States mail. The notice requirement of this section shall constitute a registration statement which shall be construed as registration under the provisions of this chapter.

(b) In the event that any organization, under this section, solicits and collects funds in excess of [five] fifteen hundred dollars during any year, such organization shall file a short form report conforming to the provisions of RCW 19.09.130. The director may require the furnishing of any further details as may be necessary for complete reporting and disclosure within the purposes of this section.

(2) No fees shall be collected in connection with any notice, registration, or report filed under this section.", and the same is herewith transmitted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Walgren, Senator Rasmussen was excused.

Senator Grant moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3235.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Grant yield? Senator, I agree with your position on this bill. I am just concerned about the action of the House. Did their budget include money for the implementation of this act?"

Senator Grant: "Since the House only acted on their budget Saturday night, I have not seen any copies of their amendments to the Senate version of the budget. There was testimony, as you know, Senator Canfield, in the Ways and Means Committee by the Department of Social and Health Services that coverage of nursing home employees under the minimum wage act could be taken care of through the Senate version of the budget. The total budget, of course, has not been acted on. I do not know what the version of the House is now."

Senator Canfield: "I would hope that we can all take a good look at that when the budget is before us again."

Senator Grant: "I am confident we will all be looking at that."

The motion by Senator Grant carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3235.

MOTION

Senator Washington moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Would Senator Washington yield? Senator Washington, does this change in any way the present power of the local county commissioners to approve. . . ."

Senator Washington: "Could I interrupt? I believe the questions might be more appropriate on final passage because they have nothing to do with the amendment. You may ask at this time if you wish, however."

Senator Bailey: "The question I have has to do with the amendment. Do the amendments in any way change the present powers of the local county commissioners to approve or disapprove the sites?"

Senator Washington: "No, these amendments do not. However, you may want that same question on the bill."

Senator Bailey: "I may want that back in the record on final passage."

The motion by Senator Washington carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329, as amended by the House.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, a question of Senator Washington. Again, does this bill in any way change the present power of the local board of county commissioners to approve or disapprove a site?"

Senator Washington: "No, it does not. They have to approve the site before the siting council can take any action."

Senator Bailey: "The only thing it really does then is make it unnecessary to have another environmental impact report?"

Senator Washington: "Yes, this is the purpose of the act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sandison: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question please? Senator Washington, does this bill in any way inhibit the county commissioners or other local officials from making a full and complete study of the environment?"

Senator Washington: "No, it prevents them in no way from making a full and complete study and report on the environmental impact of a proposed thermal power plant. Now I can explain. The bill, if passed, will exempt local officials from preparing a formal statutory detailed statement which is usually referred to as an environmental impact statement. In subsection (4) of this bill it provides that the study made by the Thermal Plant Siting Council shall legally serve in place of the detailed statement, but nothing in this provision or any other provision in the bill will prevent the local authorities from voluntarily securing or considering the same detailed environmental information presently required in the act. If the local authorities fail to secure and consider in detail all pertinent environmental information it will be their own fault, because nothing in this bill will stand in their way from securing this information. Section 2, subsection (7) of the bill specifically provides, 'Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing a city or county from requiring any information it deems appropriate to make a decision approving a particular location.' Now the Thermal Plant Siting Council, however, must fully comply with the detailed statement requirement, and the sufficiency of this detailed statement may be challenged in court. Then I want to point out that this act has no retroactive effect and does not affect any pending court actions in Skagit County or in any other county where thermal plant sites are under consideration."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WHETZEL

Senator Whetzel: "I would like to add to Senator Washington's remarks that in section 1, subsection (4), to further complete his remarks, that the county may be required to have the detailed statement if they do not have the study prepared by the Thermal Siting Council and I think that was the intention of that part of subsection (4) that the Ecology Committee adopted."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3329, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 3; excused, 6.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—36.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Sandison, Talley—3.

Absent or not voting: Senators Guess, Lewis (Harry), Mardesich—3.

Excused: Senators Connor, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Peterson (Lowell), Woodall—6.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3329, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the third order of business.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit a copy of this 1974 Senate Resolution to Senator August P. Mardesich.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2701, by Senator Matson:

Relating to a migrant worker labor camp demonstration project.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2701 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2701, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "Senator Matson, it seems to me we put the one hundred thousand in the appropriations bill. I am not certain as to what the House did with respect to that. Are you aware or would this appropriation here amount to a duplicate?"

Senator Matson: "I am told that the figure is still in the budget. My opinion into this is implementing the use of that hundred thousand. It is not a double appropriation."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Matson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2701 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Matson yield? Senator Matson, I certainly am pleased to see what you are trying to do here and the fact that you and Senator Fleming are together on this. There is one statement of purpose in this material that you passed out to us that I just do not get the connection. You say one purpose is to convince the individual farmers that once they construct a facility it will not be declared illegal by some ruling of state government two or three years hence. How will this project do that?"

Senator Matson: "I am not sure that it will. My purpose is here, if you will recall back in 1968 the Health Department promulgated some new rules in this regard. There was no grandfathering in that and in essence it closed down all housing available. The question is whether it is better for these people to be living on river banks for the short term season or whether it is better for them to have some sanitary facilities, etc. Further, under OSHA there are some other stipulations regarding on-farm housing, and what we are hoping to do is to convince state government, particularly the Health Department, that it is difficult to provide these facilities to start with and they ought to give some sort of an indication that if they further promulgate rules in the future that they ought to at least seriously consider grandfathering in some facilities, at least the better ones."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2701, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; excused, 5.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—44.

Excused: Senators Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Peterson (Lowell), Woodall—5.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2701, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

WHEREAS, This crisis indicates the country's need for responsible development of our resources; and

WHEREAS, If there had been responsible exploration and development of the country's tremendous resources, the current crisis would very likely not now exist; and

WHEREAS, The United States petroleum industry, whether wilfully or through restrictive federal rules and regulations, has abandoned its responsible development of the country's petroleum resources; and

WHEREAS, The current unwillingness of the petroleum industry to make public disclosure of accurate information and statistics concerning the petroleum supplies is evidence of the lack of responsibility shown by that industry; and

WHEREAS, The majority of this nation's citizens have demonstrated their willingness to conserve our resources through self-restraint and to halt wasteful use of energy sources; and

WHEREAS, Reports of excessively high profits by the major oil companies in this country have caused widespread concern and may, if such reports are accurate, be the major cause of skyrocketing prices and galloping inflation throughout our economy;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the Congress of the United States and the current administration seriously consider the enactment of legislation to authorize a federal energy corporation to assure the proper development and distribution of our energy resources for all our citizens and to strictly regulate all federal lands including off-shore areas which our country has control of, so as to assure that responsible development of all natural resources shall be for the benefit of all the people; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to each member of the Congress from the state of Washington.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1 of the resolution, strike lines 6 through 16.

Debate ensued.

Senator Guess commenced speaking. . . .

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, are these additional remarks made on the oral amendment or the resolution as a whole?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes the remarks would be on the motion before the Senate, namely the adoption of the oral amendment or the expression of any objections."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Senator Walgren, I certainly think in view of the discussion and so on that it is perfectly all right for this to go to your committee. The reason we did not present this as a joint resolution, I followed the advice of our very knowledgeable Secretary of the Senate and in view of the fact that our time of adjournment was so uncertain, he thought it would be more likely to get favorable action if we had it as a Senate floor resolution rather than a joint resolution. Now, my question to you is this, if time prohibits a joint resolution, would you be willing to work out a Senate floor resolution so we could at least get the consensus of the Senate to the Congress?"

Senator Walgren: "Yes, I think that we could do that. We can have a choice. It is interesting to me the amount of time we are spending on this. I would like to think that these resolutions that we pass here in the Senate and the House, whether they be single resolutions or concurrent resolutions are going to have a tremendous effect upon the people to whom we are resolving. Somehow I do not think that that always happens. We like to know that we are saying something that is going to have an effect, but it seems to me that even if we had a concurrent resolution that passed only this body that we would at least express the views of the Senate. But in any case, Senator Canfield, we will have a double one so that we can take our choice."

Senator Canfield: "Your answer then is in the affirmative. We can get action out of the Senate alone if necessary. Thank you."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Walgren moved that Senate Resolution 1974-180 be referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Walgren carried on a rising vote and Senate Resolution 1974-180 was referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Resolution 1974-181.

Senator Mardesich moved that the following Senate Resolution 1974-181 be referred to the Committee on Transportation and Utilities.

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-181

WHEREAS, The energy shortage has stimulated new proposals for harnessing energy sources; and

WHEREAS, Science is diligently renewing efforts to utilize solar, geothermal and other energy sources; and

WHEREAS, Oil fuel reserves still exist in abundance on federally owned land within the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the Congress of the United States is requested to create a Federal Energy Corporation to explore and produce oil and gas on a maximum of twenty percent of the federal lands; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Federal Energy Corporation be the last resort of oil and gas supplies; and

WHEREAS, There are 1,127 American servicemen still listed as missing in action in Indochina one year after the signing of the Vietnam peace accords; and

WHEREAS, There are more than 50 families in Washington with fathers, husbands or sons still on the list of men missing in action; and

WHEREAS, The January 27, 1973, peace accords did make a mutual promise of cooperation on the exchange of information about all servicemen missing in action; and

WHEREAS, The North Vietnamese have not provided such information and have in fact hindered search teams looking for the missing men; and

WHEREAS, President Nixon promised that a complete accounting of the men missing in action would be given the same priority as the return of the 566 American prisoners of war who returned home from North Vietnam in the spring of 1973;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That Congress urge the President to demand that the North Vietnamese comply with the 1973 Vietnam peace accords, and that he obtain a full accounting of all American servicemen missing in action;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Richard M. NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate wishes to recognize and commemorate this 75th Anniversary of the establishment of the Mount Rainier National Park.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-184

By Senators Bottiger and Walgren:

WHEREAS, The shortage of petroleum fuel has decreased the amount of such fuel sold in this state; and

WHEREAS, In their efforts to help during the energy crisis, the citizens of this state have curtailed driving and are attempting to use less petroleum fuel; and

WHEREAS, State highway fund income has been reduced in direct proportion to the lesser number of gallons of petroleum fuel sold in the state; and

WHEREAS, The reduction in such revenue has made this state less able to meet the federal matching funds requirements for construction of highways by the department of highways;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, that Congress should consider methods of relieving the states of their responsibility to match federal funds and that Congress should consider reducing or eliminating the state matching funds requirements for highway construction; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and to each member of Congress from the State of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, I wonder if this should not go to Senator Walgren's committee along with the other two that we dumped on him?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, I discussed this. You will notice his name is on there as one of the sponsors of the floor resolution. The House is passing a similar floor resolution and we are going to simply send them back. The Congress is already aware of the problem. It is just a little bit of weight."

Senator Canfield: "I would not be adverse to passing it if we thought these others were ever going to come out, but I thought the thinking was to send these to Senator Walgren's committee."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Canfield, you will be notified shortly of a meeting to vote out the other resolutions."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Day, Senate Resolution 1974-187 was substituted for Senate Resolution 1974-185.

On motion of Senator Day, Senators Ridder and Van Hollebeke were permitted as additional sponsors to Senate Resolution 1974-187.

WHEREAS, The Senate State Government Committee has considered during the interims of the 43rd Legislature a number of measures relating to competitive bidding for public works contracts and to the processes whereby professional services are secured; and

WHEREAS, In the course of studying these measures, the Senate State Government Committee has found out that there is no uniform procedure for securing such services for public projects; and

WHEREAS, It has come to the attention of the Committee that many qualified professional consultants are not made aware of public projects under consideration, and therefore do not have an opportunity to submit proposals on such projects;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, That the State Government Committee be requested to conduct a study of the procedures by which agencies of state government and municipal corporations contract for the employment of consultants, engineers, architects, accountants, attorneys, and others providing professional services and to report its findings and recommendations to the next regular session of the Legislature with respect to legislation which would insure uniformity in contracting procedures and which would promote greater participation among persons and firms interested in providing such professional services to state agencies and municipal corporations.

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendments were adopted:

On line 3 of the resolution, after "Committee" insert "and Local Government Committee" and following "Committee" strike "has" and insert "have".

On line 14, after "Committee" insert "and Local Government Committee."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, by the amendment that you made, is it the intent of this resolution for the Senate Local Government Committee to look at those state agencies as it relates to this problem and the Senate Local Government Committee to look at those municipal corporations on the local level in the same vein?"

Senator Day: "Yes, it would be the intent, with the amendment, to have the State Government Committee look at the state level and the Local Government Committee to the municipal contracts and possibly a joint meeting relative to the areas that apply jointly."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Senator Walgren, do you have anything on the program tonight except these resolutions?"

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a report of such findings and recommendations be transmitted to the next regular session of the Washington State Legislature for its consideration.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Senator Woody, Senator Knoblauch had a bill in that would expand the youth and the conservation activity. What has happened to that? Has that passed?"

Senator Woody: "We passed it here in the Senate. It does not expand the size of it. It expanded some of the other provisions for the Youth Development and Conservation Corps. It is over in the House right now. They have not taken action on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Knoblauch, you had better get over there and go to work."

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the resolution was adopted.

WHEREAS, These problems must be understood and solved as soon as possible in order to maintain and enhance this valuable resource;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That the Senate Standing Committee on Natural Resources conduct a study of the salmon problems of the Dungeness River.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of the study and any recommendations be presented to the next regular session of the legislature to be convened in January, 1975.

MOTION

WHEREAS, The Lewis County court supervised Antabuse program, offered as a condition of a suspended sentence, has proven to be an effective and desirable alternative to incarceration and has stopped problem drinkers from consuming alcohol;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington hereby recognizes and commends the courts and probation department of Lewis County for their efforts in instituting a monitored Antabuse pilot program for the prevention and treatment of drinking driver offenders.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-195

By Senators Bottiger, Knoblauch and Durkan:

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of the State of Washington has ruled in Valentine v. Johnston that it was the intent of the Legislature that the "rollback statute" should apply to property taxes owed in 1971 ("Phase I" taxes) as a result of a cyclical program of revaluation, and that the statute would therefore require an appropriate property tax rollback where property had been revalued before the enactment of the statute, but where the taxes owed had not yet been collected; and

WHEREAS, This decision has created uncertainty regarding possible deficiencies in county treasuries and the possible impact on the state general fund requiring appropriation action and clarifying legislation by the Legislature.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Ways and Means Committee be directed to study the decision in Valentine v. Johnston to determine the required levels of funding and methods therefor to comply with that decision.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of that study, together with recommendations and proposed drafts of legislation be presented to the next session of the 43rd Legislature in April, 1974.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, do you mean that the Governor is going to have the nerve to call us back into a fourth special session? I see by the bottom of this resolution it states that the Fourth Extraordinary session of the Forty-third Legislature."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, thank you for your keen eye. May I make an oral amendment asking that that be stricken to the April extension of the Third Extraordinary Session?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Would you accept another amendment which would say to whatever session of the legislature happens to be sitting rather than indicate there is going to be another one this year?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, some of your very good friends live out in that area and I would not want it to be reported back in 1977 or 1981 or something like that. I want to pin it down. I was hoping — if we can say April or in case no April session is held, then January."

Senator Rasmussen: However you word it, I do not like that positive announcement in this resolution that we are going to adopt that says the fourth. How would it be, Senator, to be presented to the next session of the legislature?"

Senator Bottiger: "I will accept that if the Clerk will make that amendment."

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following resolution was adopted:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Committee may consult with the State Board of Education, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and representatives of the criminal justice system and shall report their findings to the Forty-Fourth Legislature; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be transmitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, in his capacity as President of the State Board of Education.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senator Henry to the amendment by Senator Durkan:

On page 11, section 32, line 4, after "in" and before "Lewis" insert "Clark, Cowlitz and"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Senator Durkan, I see we have about seventy-five thousand dollars as their one-third share of this pilot program. Now that we have spread this pilot project over four counties, are you satisfied that there are sufficient funds to do a pilot program, secondly, my second question is, does this mean that the pilot project is required to be done in all four counties simultaneously or could they select Lewis and Thurston?"

Senator Durkan: "First, as to the amount of money, we have asked the department to provide us as to how much additional funds they are going to need. And I would assume that after they have examined Cowlitz County and Clark County as to the additional needs in that area, they will come back in and ask for additional funds, but this amount of money which they have now will enable them to begin. As to whether or not the pilot program should be in all three counties it would be my guess perhaps that this should be probably of administrative discretion and I am willing to permit the department to go ahead with it."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment by Senator Henry to the amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted.

On motion of Senator Durkan, the following amendments to the amendment by Senator Durkan were adopted:

Amend the Senate amendment as follows:

On page 19, section 41, line 8, strike "4,498,691" and insert "3,005,353"

On page 33, section 63, line 32, after "sections" strike "44 and 45" and insert "45 and 46"

On motions of Senator Canfield, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted:

On page 34, section 64, line 28 strike "period" and insert "periods"

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan:

On page 30 of the amendment, strike line 31 and down through "case" on line 32 and insert: "the acceptance of this amount releases the state and all of its subdivisions, and their agents, of further claims arising out of the herein described alleged false imprisonment of the claimant"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question? Senator Dore, does that amendment need 'alleged' in there since it has already been proven that this was a false arrest of this individual?"

Senator Dore: "I understand there has been no trial, there is just a claim filed and I do not think they. . ."

Senator Fleming: "He has been acquitted and he is out. . ."

Senator Dore: "It is standard legal language in a settlement. You do not admit you are guilty. You say 'alleged' and then so on."

Senator Fleming: "He has been proven innocent, from my understanding."

Senator Dore: "You asked me for my answer, Senator. This is standard language in a settlement. There has been no court determination of his guilt or innocence one way or the other. I have no objection if you want to knock it out."

Senator Fleming: "You are the attorney and I was just asking you because you did not have any proof one way or another whether it had been a court case or not."

Senator Dore: "I would have no objection if you made an oral amendment and knocked it out, but that is usually standard language for a settlement claim."

Senator Fleming: "Maybe some other attorney will want to address themselves to it."

The motion by Senator Dore carried and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan was adopted.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan:

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I wonder if Senator Atwood would yield? In this appropriation to DSHS, do I understand that we have either other legislation or other provisos in this budget that will take care of unanticipated receipts and otherwise provide some legislative control over this appropriation that could be handled during the interim when we are not in session?"

Senator Atwood: "That is correct. If you will look in the boilerplate that Senator Durkan has on your desk, there are about three sections, and I might point out that the boilerplate has been expanded to cover all agencies, not just DSHS. This was Representative Shinpoch's idea and I agreed with him on it. It is a good idea. I am not sure what the sections are, I do not have a copy with me, but it is in the boilerplate, in the back end."

Senator Whetzel: "Does that in effect constitute legislative review over this budget so that..."

Senator Atwood: "Yes, it does."

Senator Whetzel: "So that it may not be necessary to bring the entire legislature in session to review this?"

Senator Atwood: "That is correct. It provides for House and Senate Ways and Means and they will, see, review and approve before expenditure of any of these federal funds."

Senator Newschwander demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Atwood, Bailey, Metcalf, Lewis (Harry), Jones, Clarke, Washington, Durkan and Sandison.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Atwood to the amendment by Senator Durkan.

On page 20, beginning on line 16 strike all of new section 44 and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION

General Fund Appropriation: Provided, That this appropriation shall be for the continued implementation of a Management Information System directed toward analytical data gathering and evaluation of such data as required by the Legislative and Executive branches of government: Provided Further, That no expenditure of any of these funds shall be made until the final system design is approved by the State Data Processing Authority and the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management$ 500,000

Community College Capital Projects Account Appropriation: Provided: That funds are made available from release of current reserve requirements, as retained in the Community College Bond Retirement Fund, contingent upon refinancing of revenue tuition bonds to full faith in credit bonds under HJR 52: Provided Further, That such funds released shall only be used for the purchase of capital assets$4,000,000"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Atwood yield to a question? Senator Atwood, you are anticipating four million in the release of the reserve funds when they refinance the bonds?"

Senator Atwood: "There is over eight million, Senator. This is an expenditure of half."

Senator Rasmussen: "It is my understanding that this will not be available for some considerable time."

Senator Atwood: "It will not be available until they go through the refunding process but it is my understanding it will be done in the next six months."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would think, Senator, also that before this money was allocated for anything else, we ought to have some word before this legislature what they intend to spend it for rather than just releasing it for them to spend for anything that they so desire."

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, in reply to Senator Rasmussen, it is only for capital assets, which is equipment only, Senator, laboratory equipment and things like that. One time purchases. It is not for maintenance and I took all that language out in that proviso of the Senate bill that went out of here. I think they are in very desperate shape for it. Some of the colleges have presented lists of major items of equipment and the board can furnish you those."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, just a short answer. I have no disagreement with Senator Atwood on what he proposes, but even his amendment would take, I do not think you could get the bonds sold or moved in less than four to six months. By that time this whole problem will have been resolved. The total problem of community colleges will have been resolved and we will be able to do the job. And on that basis I still would oppose it.”

The motion by Senator Atwood failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Durkan:

MOTIONS

Senator Dore moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3145 and ask the House to recede therefrom.

Senator Atwood moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3145.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Atwood yield? I happen to be a director of a small state bank. Now as between this amendment, which one benefits a small bank, your way or Dore's way?"

Senator Atwood: "According to the way I read it, I would think that the amendment that was put on in the House would benefit the small banks. Senator Dore could answer that question better than I could."

Senator Dore: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, you will notice in the literature put out by the four banks, they say the ones it will hurt the most are the state savings and loan and the small banks. The example I gave you, without this amendment all the small banks would be able to use their particular credit card at such places as Expo '74 or the airport or things like that, great centralization of population. Under this restriction, if they were located more than twenty-five miles away from the event, for instance, no small bank in Seattle could have its card work in a satellite at Expo '74. This is very restrictive of small banks. And yet the man who presented this on the floor of the House said he was putting it on for the benefit of the small banks. That is absolutely false."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Dore yield? Senator Dore, I am still confused on this issue. Senator Atwood did not quite answer me. Now you are moving to concur or not concur?"

Senator Dore: "To take the amendment off. That we move to not concur and ask the House to recede."

Senator Woodall: "All right. Now, if I am interested in a small bank, which side would I be on, yours or the other way?"

Senator Dore: "Well, in the meantime change it to the affirmative so if you are for the small banks you will vote no."

Senator Woodall: "Thank you."

Senator Scott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Atwood, Metcalf, Newschwander, Guess, Day, Mardesich, Connor, Murray and Twigg.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the positive motion by Senator Atwood that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3145.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Atwood failed by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 31; absent or not voting, 2.

"PART I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Section 1. On and after March 1, 1975:

(1) The provisions of this 1974 amendatory act shall apply to any wills of decedents dying thereafter;

(2) The provisions of this 1974 amendatory act shall apply to any proceedings in court then pending or thereafter commenced regardless of the time of the death of decedent except to the extent that in the opinion of the court the former procedure should be made applicable in a particular case in the interest of justice or because of infeasibility of application of the procedure of this 1974 amendatory act;

(3) Every personal representative including a person administering an estate of a minor or incompetent holding an appointment on March 1, 1975, continues to hold the appointment, has the powers conferred by this 1974 amendatory act and is subject to the duties imposed with respect to any act occurring or done thereafter;

(4) An act done before March 1, 1975 in any proceeding and any accrued right is not impaired by this 1974 amendatory act. If a right is acquired, extinguished, or barred upon the expiration of a prescribed period of time which has commenced to run by the provisions of any statute before March 1, 1975, the provisions shall remain in force with respect to that right;

(5) Any rule of construction or presumption provided in this 1974 amendatory act applies to instruments executed before March 1, 1975 unless there is a clear indication of a contrary intent.

Sec. 13. Section 11.68.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.68.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[In all cases where it is provided in the last will and testament of the deceased that the estate shall be settled in a manner provided in such last will and testament and that such estate shall be settled without the intervention of any court or courts, and where it duly appears to the court, by the inventory filed, and other proof, that the estate is fully solvent, which fact may be established by an order of the court on the filing of the inventory, it shall not be necessary to take out letters testamentary or of administration, except to admit the will to probate and to file a true inventory of all the property of such estate and give notice to creditors and to the body having charge of the collection of inheritance tax, in the manner required by law.

After the probate of any such will and the filing of the inventory all such estates may be managed and settled without the intervention of the court, if the last will and testament so provides. However, when the estate is ready to be closed the court, upon application, shall have authority and it shall be its duty, to make and cause to be entered a decree finding and adjudging that all debts have been paid, finding and adjudging also the heirs and those entitled to take under the will and distributing the property to the persons entitled thereto. Such decree shall be made after notice given as provided for like decrees in the estates of persons dying intestate. If no application for a final decree is filed, the executor shall, when the administration of the estate has been completed, file a written declaration to that effect, and thereupon his powers shall cease.

The executor of a nonintervention will shall not be deemed to waive his nonintervention powers by obtaining any order appointing appraisers, fixing or allowing appraiser's fees, dispensing with appraisal, or approving or allowing creditors' claims, not by obtaining any other order or decree.] Subject to the provisions of this chapter, if the estate of a decedent, who died either testate or intestate, is solvent, and if the personal representative is other than a creditor of the estate, such estate shall be managed and settled without the intervention of the court; the fact of solvency shall be established by the entry of an order of solvency. An order of solvency may be entered at the time of the appointment of the personal representative or at any time thereafter where it appears to the court by the petition of the personal representative, or the inventory filed, and/or other proof submitted, that the estate of the decedent is solvent, and that notice of the application for an order of solvency has been given to those persons entitled thereto when required by RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If at the time set for the hearing upon the petition for the entry of an order of solvency, any party entitled to notice under the provisions of RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended, shall appear and object to the granting of nonintervention powers to the personal representative of the estate, the court shall consider said objection, if any, and the entry of an order of solvency shall be discretionary with the court upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended. The court may restrict the powers of the personal representative in such manner as the court determines and shall thereupon restrict the powers as ordered. If no heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the entry of an order of solvency, the court shall enter an order of solvency upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If, after the entry of an order of solvency, any personal representative of the estate of the decedent shall die, resign, or otherwise become disabled from any cause acting as the nonintervention personal representative, the successor personal representative, other than a creditor, shall administer the estate of the decedent without the intervention of court after notice and hearing as required by sections 16 and 17 of this 1974 amendatory act, unless at the time of said hearing objections to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative shall be made by an heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent, and unless the court, after hearing said objections shall refuse to grant nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative. If no heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative, the court shall enter an order granting nonintervention powers to the successor personal representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After such notice as the court may require, the order of solvency shall be vacated upon the petition of any personal representative, heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor, if supported by proof satisfactory to the court that said estate has become insolvent.

If, after hearing, the court shall vacate the prior order of solvency, the court shall endorse, the term "Vacated" or "Powers restricted" upon the original order of solvency together with the date of said endorsement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. This 1974 amendatory act shall take effect March 1, 1975," and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and said bill, together with the Senate amendments thereto, are herewith transmitted.

WHEREAS, Since it is inconceivable to allow super tankers in Puget Sound, there is an urgent need to consider alternative means, methods, and sites for the unloading of oil from super tankers; and

WHEREAS, The Single Buoy Mooring System appears to offer an economical, efficient, and ecologically proven solution to the problem of accommodating gigantic super oil tankers;

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Durkan, House Bill No. 1006 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Durkan yield to a question? Senator Durkan, how would you get a handle on recapturing a little bit of the profits for the people?"

Senator Durkan: "It is sports franchises that specifically is included in the bill. But historically, no assessor has ever done it. Harley Hoppe in King County indicated two years ago that he was going to start assessing the contracts of the ball players. It is questionable whether he could do it legally or not, but he then indicated to the legislature that he would like to have the bill passed and the bill has been forth three or four times, subject to some fine editorials, and that is the purpose of the legislation. There is no loss in revenue. They have never collected any."

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 5:55 p.m.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 153, by Senators Mardesich and Bailey: Adjourning the third extraordinary session of the forty-third legislature until April 15, 1974.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153 was advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

On motion of Senator Bailey, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Bailey yield? Senator Bailey, down on the bottom on the last resolve it says that Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143 is rescinded. What resolution is that? Is that the one we are operating on, cutoffs and everything?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Atwood, that is the cut-off resolution."

Senator Atwood: "Everything is going to be wide open again when we come back?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Atwood, we do not intend to open it up. You cannot run a ten-day or a nine-day session without some control and we expect to have control over the priorities and the measures. We do not expect to open it wide, no, but we do know that there will be some other needs that come up that if you do not have this, you cannot even introduce a bill to take care of them. The purpose here is to make it a little more elastic so we can do that. It is the same rule we had in the nine-day session in September, and we did not seem to go wild on that one."

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, I really object to the repeal of that. It throws it wide open. You can amend it by a majority vote. It does not take a two-thirds. And I would hope that you would hold those cutoffs and only do it for the necessary bills rather than rescind the whole thing. That is what really disturbs me. After having briefed the effect of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143, it did not take a two-thirds. It only took a majority and I hate to see that repealed."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, my recollection of Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 143, it took a two-thirds vote? Would the Chair clarify Concurrent Resolution No. 143?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, further, in that clarification would you please advise as to whether repeal would take a two-thirds vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that a simple majority is required to amend the resolution."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I would submit that we would prefer to leave this in here. We can do it on the opening day of the next round, but if we can do it by a majority today, we can do it by majority then and I assure you that we have no intention of opening this wide open because we certainly could not accomplish anything in a short session if we opened too wide. We have to have a pretty tight schedule, a pretty tight hand on the priority bills before us and things of that sort or the short session will never work. It is not our intention to open wide except somehow or other we have to have a method of introducing new resolutions and things of that type."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 19.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgrein, Washington, Woody—30.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Odegaard:

On page 1, section 1, line 19, after ")")" strike "ten" and insert "eight".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "My county treasurer called me and was plugging for the ten percent. I am just asking you if your county treasurers have contacted you and Senator Odegaard asking for eight. Is that an agreed upon figure by the county treasurers, or are you just fighting for the common people again?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Treasurers are known to be after the dollar, Senator Canfield, and this is purely in the interest of that poor son of a gun who cannot pay his taxes. He does not have to pay ten percent interest, he can pay only eight percent. He is the party that I have my primary concern with. He already is in difficulty when he cannot pay his taxes, and I just hate to see him get stuck with ten percent. I think eight percent is a more reasonable figure and after all, we should not be bloodthirsty down here. If you get a reasonable amount, that should be all right."

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1423, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1328, by Representatives Douthwaite, Ceccarelli, Chatalas, Barnes, Charnley, Valle, Lysen, Perry, Cunningham, Leckenby and Van Dyk:

Providing means for port districts to undertake abatement of airport noise.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, Engrossed House Bill No. 1328 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, you said that the port could acquire property that people wanted to sell?"

Senator Fleming: "Under the program that they are talking about, they have three areas that they can look at, property that the port would acquire from those people who wanted to get out. They could also resoundproof some of the houses for those people who would like to stay in. They could also underwrite insurance that was too costly for people who would like to stay there. Now my understanding of the measure is that they have been involved in purchasing some land, but they have been having some federal dollars come in. They are not able, under statute now, to use port funds for this and so this is where the general obligation bonds would come in."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Fleming yield to a question? Senator Fleming, I have not had time to really study this bill, but the Port of Tacoma is planning on opening a cargo port, using McChord Air Base. Would these rights as related in this bill then extend to the Port of Tacoma, or is it only related to the Seattle Port District?"

Senator Fleming: "No, it says 'A port district operating an airport serving more than twenty scheduled jet aircraft,' I guess it would be just Seattle at this time because it says, 'A port serving more than twenty scheduled jet aircraft flights per day.' So that would exclude what you are talking about out of this — from the definition — because there would not be, from my understanding, twenty scheduled jet aircraft flights per day out of there."

Senator Rasmussen: "Okay, that covers that part. Now the next one. Could you explain how the port is going to go into the mortgage bankers' business by issuing mortgages on these homes?"

Senator Fleming: "No, you misunderstood me when I said mortgage. What I said was that they could go into the business of underwriting mortgage insurance. Those people who would like to live in those areas, because of the noise in the area their insurance premiums and so forth might be a little higher and so what they would be able to do, if those people wanted to remain there and if they wanted to resoundproof these people's houses and so forth, they could undertake to write the insurance on these houses if it were too expensive for them to remain there, rather than buy the property."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Fleming."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Fleming yield? Would this bill in any fashion give the port or any port the authority to affect flight patterns or altitudes of flights or times of flights or numbers of flights?"

Senator Fleming: "From my understanding, I could be wrong, I do not think it does. It just puts about establishing a program as to the effects of noise and so forth, but not the scheduling or how high or how low the planes would fly. That is my understanding."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1328, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 2; absent or not voting, 2.

"Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall—45.

"PART I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. On and after March 1, 1975:

(1) The provisions of this 1974 amendatory act shall apply to any wills of decedents dying thereafter;

(2) The provisions of this 1974 amendatory act shall apply to any proceedings in court then pending or thereafter commenced regardless of the time of the death of decedent except to the extent that in the opinion of the court the former procedure should be made applicable in a particular case in the interest of justice or because of infeasibility of application of the procedure of this 1974 amendatory act;

(3) Every personal representative including a person administering an estate of a minor or incompetent holding an appointment on March 1, 1975, continues to hold the appointment, has the powers conferred by this 1974 amendatory act and is subject to the duties imposed with respect to any act occurring or done thereafter;

(4) An act done before March 1, 1975 in any proceeding and any accrued right is not impaired by this 1974 amendatory act. If a right is acquired, extinguished, or barred upon the expiration of a prescribed period of time which has commenced to run by the provisions of any statute before March 1, 1975, the provisions shall remain in force with respect to that right;

(5) Any rule of construction or presumption provided in this 1974 amendatory act applies to instruments executed before March 1, 1975 unless there is a clear indication of a contrary intent.

Sec. 13. Section 11.68.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 19, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.68.010 are each amended to read as follows:

[In all cases where it is provided in the last will and testament of the deceased that the estate shall be settled in a manner provided in such last will and testament, and that such estate shall be settled without the intervention of any court or courts, and where it duly appears to the court, by the inventory filed, and other proof, that the estate is fully solvent, which fact may be established by an order of the court on the filing of the inventory, it shall not be necessary to take out letters testamentary or of administration, except to admit the will to probate and to file a true inventory of all the property of such estate and give notice to creditors and to the body having charge of the collection of inheritance tax, in the manner required by law.

After the probate of any such will and the filing of the inventory all such estates may be managed and settled without the intervention of the court, if the last will and testament so provides. However, when the estate is ready to be closed the court, upon application, shall have authority and it shall be its duty, to make and cause to be entered a decree finding and adjudging that all debts have been paid, finding and adjudging also the heirs and those entitled to take under the will and distributing the property to the persons entitled thereto. Such decree shall be made after notice given as provided for like decrees in the estates of persons dying intestate. If no application for a final decree is filed, the executor shall, when the administration of the estate has been completed, file a written declaration to that effect, and thereupon his powers shall cease.

The executor of a nonintervention will shall not be deemed to waive his nonintervention powers by obtaining any order appointing appraisers, fixing or allowing appraiser's fees, dispensing with appraisal, or approving or allowing creditors' claims, not by obtaining any other order or decree.] Subject to the provisions of this chapter, if the estate of a decedent, who died either testate or intestate, is solvent, and if the personal representative is other than a creditor of the estate, such estate shall be managed and settled without the intervention of the court; the fact of solvency shall be established by the entry of an order of solvency. An order of solvency may be entered at the time of the appointment of the personal representative or at any time thereafter where it appears to the court by the petition of the personal representative, or the inventory filed, and/or other proof submitted, that the estate of the decedent is solvent, and that notice of the application for an order of solvency has been given to those persons entitled thereto when required by RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If at the time set for the hearing upon the petition for the entry of an order of solvency, any party entitled to notice under the provisions of RCW 11.68.040 as now or hereafter amended, shall appear and object to the granting of nonintervention powers to the personal representative of the estate, the court shall consider said objections, if any, and the entry of an order of solvency shall be discretionary with the court upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended. The court may restrict the powers of the personal representative in such manner as the court determines and shall thereupon restrict the powers as ordered. If no heir, legatee, or devisee of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the entry of an order of solvency, the court shall enter an order of solvency upon being satisfied by proof as required in RCW 11.68.010 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If, after the entry of an order of solvency, any personal representative of the estate of the decedent shall die, resign, or otherwise become disabled from any cause from acting as the nonintervention personal representative, the successor personal representative, other than a creditor, shall administer the estate of the decedent without the intervention of court after notice and hearing as required by sections 16 and 17 of this 1974 amendatory act, unless at the time of said hearing objections to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative shall be made by an heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent, and unless the court, after hearing said objections shall refuse to grant nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative. If no heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor of the decedent shall appear at the time of the hearing to object to the granting of nonintervention powers to such successor personal representative, the court shall enter an order granting nonintervention powers to the successor personal representative.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 11.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After such notice as the court may require, the order of solvency shall be vacated upon the petition of any personal representative, heir, legatee, devisee, or creditor, if supported by proof satisfactory to the court that said estate has become insolvent.

If, after hearing, the court shall vacate the prior order of solvency, the court shall endorse the term "vacated" or "Powers restricted" upon the original order of solvency together with the date of said endorsement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. This 1974 amendatory act shall take effect March 1, 1975."

Signed by: Senators Marsh, Francis and Clarke; Representatives Smith, Knowles and Hayner.

MOTION

Senator Francis moved that the report of the Conference Committee be adopted and the committee be granted the powers of Free Conference.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, a question of Senator Francis? Are these all of the suggested changes that Free Conference is talking about?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Bailey, this will be the Free Conference report. As you can see, it does not confine itself to differences between the houses in the respect which I just indicated. Other than that, the Free Conference report is in front of you, but without being granted the powers of Free Conference, we cannot do it. We have to get new signatures because there were some technical things which had to be done."

 the same under consideration, and we recommend that the bill do pass with the following amendments, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference:

On page 2, section 2, beginning on line 6, strike “)”) none of which are smaller than one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land, or smaller than five acres” and insert “[none] each of which is [are smaller than] one-one hundred twenty-eighth of a section of land or larger, or five acres or larger”.

On page 2, section 2, strike lines 21 through 28 and insert:

"(4) Divisions made by court order: PROVIDED, That this exemption shall not apply to land divided pursuant to dissolution or partition proceedings of a corporation, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, or trust, unless the local government wherein the land is located is made a party to the proceedings and has rendered its advice to the court in respect of the division proposed to be included within such order;"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Woody, the report of the Conference Committee on Second Substitute House Bill No. 383 was adopted and the committee was granted the powers of Free Conference.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 13, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has concurred in the amendment to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 473, to page 23, section 12, line 12 and refuses to concur in the amendment to page 21, line 21, and said bill, together with the amendment thereto, is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Bailey moved that the Senate recede from its position on the Senate amendment to page 21, line 21 to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would someone yield to a question? I am interested in the bill itself. Is the local option still left in there? Senator Bailey, would you yield?"

Senator Bailey: "Yes, the local option is there."

Senator Greive: "And the elimination of class actions is still there?"

Senator Bailey: "The bill is the same as we sent back to the House except the House refused to recede on a section on page 21, line 21, in which we lowered the punchboard and pull tab tax. They say they want to include a higher tax so they can afford expenses of enforcement. Local option is in the bill."

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the Senate receded from its position on the Senate amendment to page 21, line 21 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473, as amended by the Senate.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, Senator Greive is right about the local option. I happen to strongly agree with him. However, we had local option for the past year so this bill does not represent a change in that respect, at least not a substantial one. I would like to ask if Senator Greive would yield to a question. Senator Greive, where in this bill – and that is Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473 – does it take away the right of civil actions by citizens for enforcement?"

Senator Greive: "I was going on the quick question that I put to Senator Bailey and asked him if it was the same as it left here. Now if you want me to make an analysis of it, I would suggest that we put it down beyond the next bill, and I would be very happy to dig that information out. Conceivably I am wrong."

Senator Francis: "Okay. I would like to put it down at least one bill, Mr. President, because I do not recall anything that takes away that right, and I think that is a fairly significant thing to look into and I would like an opportunity to check that out."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, may I merely say that I agree with that and I may very well be in error, but let us look and see."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 473, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 32; nays, 14; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Marsh, Matson, Odegard, Peterson (Lowell), Ridder, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Woodall, Woody—32.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Greive, Guess, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Metcalf, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Sandison, Scott, Washington, Whetzel—14.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 473, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 2416, with the following amendments:

On page 1, in line 2 of the title, after "9.54.030;" and before "and" insert "amending section 46.37.020, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 154, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.37.020;"

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, February 13, 1974.

THE HONORABLE JOHN A. CHERBERG, PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON STATE SENATE
LEGISLATIVE BUILDING
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

THE HONORABLE LEONARD SAWYER, SPEAKER
WASHINGTON STATE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
LEGISLATIVE BUILDING
OLYMPIA, WASHINGTON

GENTLEMEN:

It is my understanding that the Legislature, upon adjournment today, will not reconvene again until April 15, 1974, pursuant to the provisions of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153.

I submit to you that there are only two subjects which would justify reconvening the Legislature in April: (1) Supplemental budget; (2) Timber taxation. It is my strong belief that both of these subjects could be dealt with by the Legislature in two to three days, and that a recess of the Legislature today until mid-April is unwarranted and contrary to the public interest.

Moreover, our state faces right now a serious and critical fuel shortage, causing great inconvenience and unrest among our citizens. The Legislature must take immediate action on this problem. The crisis we now confront will not and cannot await resolution in an April session.

For these reasons, and pursuant to my constitutional duty and the provisions of SCR 153, I hereby request that the Legislature reconvene, after today's adjournment, at 9:00 o'clock a.m., February 14, to consider and take action on these matters of vital and critical concern to this state.

Sincerely,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lewis (Harry): "It is my understanding that the terms of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153 provide that the Governor may request to the President of the Senate and to the Speaker of the House for their decision to be made as to whether or not to call a session if he requests it. In the event that we do recess under the terms of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 153, Mr. President, am I correct in understanding that you and the Speaker would get together to make a decision as to whether or not we should come back in the morning?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "I believe that your analysis of the concurrent resolution is the same as the President's."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Bailey yield? Could we have a caucus, please?"

Senator Bailey: "I am not talking. I wish the rest of them would quit."

"Mr. President, in answer to Senator Canfield, we have one bill we would like to take care of — a conference report so that the Secretary can do the mechanical work and we, too, want to go to caucus."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bailey, the communication from the Governor will be taken under consideration by the President of the Senate.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

February 13, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has adopted the report of the Free Conference Committee on SENATE BILL NO. 3003, and has passed the bill as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and said report together with the bill are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

February 12, 1974.

Mr. President:

Mr. Speaker:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SENATE BILL NO. 3003, making general revisions to the election laws, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend the bill be amended to read as follows:

On page 9, line 18, section 12, after "county" and before the period insert " PROVIDED, That an auditor in a county with more than 150,000 registered voters may decline to comply with the provisions of all or none of sections 1, 4, 12, 13, and 14 of this act".

Signed by: Senators Grant, Washington and Newschwander; Representatives King and Gallagher.

MOTION

WHEREAS, On the Colville Indian Reservation this epidemic has increased tenfold so that there are now 60,000 to 70,000 acres of damage with 50,000,000 board feet of Douglas fir killed. The average stumpage value on reservation logging units is about $95 per M. feet, for a total value of approximately $4,750,000; and unless this epidemic is stopped by June, 1974, there will be 200,000 acres devastated with approximately 200,000,000 board feet of Douglas fir killed for a total value of $19,000,000; and

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President, I kept waiting for a sentence that might add a salary increase on to him. It is all very nice."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "There is a point at which the government takes it all. And in response to Senator Atwood's statement about no favors and being fair, now he has got me worried. I do not know really how I could add anything to it, Sid. Certainly the place would collapse without you to 'one-lung'."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Mr. President and members of the Senate, it gives me a great pleasure to stand here and commend our Secretary and I am glad that I have the backing of my colleagues on this side of the aisle."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I just want to point out that this resolution speaks for itself, but Sid was raised in the nineteenth district and just recently transferred into Gary Odegaard's district. He got his experience in a good district."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Senator Bailey should get his facts right. He was raised in the eighteenth district."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JONES

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, the back row caucus wishes to extend its hearty congratulations to you, Sid, and we appreciate your efforts on our part. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I think the fact is we all claim him and that is the main thing. I would like to suggest we stand and give him a round of applause."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Sid, by now I think you are suitably embarrassed, but the President also wishes to extend his thanks and appreciation to you for a job more than well done."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "Are we going to forget these other people up in front who have done so well, including Leather Lungs and all these other people?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "They are going to be invited to come out once again, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "I am kind of worried. The resolution has not been adopted yet."

REMARKS BY SID SNYDER

Sid Snyder: "Really, I would not say embarrassed, but really grateful for the fine tribute, and any success that we may have achieved certainly should be shared with the fine staff that I have; if not shared; they should have full credit, and this includes able, right-hand Bill Gleason and, as the President referred to him, Leather Lungs Verne Sawyer, and our Minute/Journal Clerk Dorothy Greeley. Elmo Fadling is busy on the phone over there. And Marian Rohrbeck who is the workroom supervisor, and of course, my very able secretary, Florence Kenderesi; Pat Knowlton. Thank the rest of the girls there too."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "We have not adopted that resolution yet."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Oh, that is right. As many as are in favor will say aye. As many as are opposed will say no. Having received the unanimous approval of the Senate, the resolution is adopted."

MOTION

Senator Mardesich: "Mr. President, I move that the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee be authorized to refer bills from the Rules Committee to other standing committees of the Senate and to refer bills from one Senate standing committee to another Senate standing committee during the recess authorized by SCR153.

"By way of explanation, of course we have had a number of bills down in Rules that committees have requested back to correct and to amend. There are bills up in Ways and Means that should be referred to other committees. They were sent there for fiscal notes, so we want to get those bills back and rather than go through all the problems of finding out where they are and making specific motions, we thought this general motion would cover the whole situation."

MOTION

Senator Francis: "Mr. President, I move that the last part of Senator Mardesich's motion be stricken and that is the language referring from one standing committee to another."

"Mr. President, I think that the members, if they are going to vote on that, ought to at least be aware of the significance of it because at that point the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee becomes the biggest super-committee we have ever had. If something is being held up in a committee the body as a whole does not get to vote on it; the membership of the committee does not get to vote on it; the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee simply transfers it to a committee of its choice. I respect most of the things that Senator Mardesich is doing to make this body more efficient and more effective but I for one do not want to see the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee become a committee which can overrule everything that the other standing committees do, even as to what bills they will be able to continue considering, and I hope you will support me in cutting them back that much.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR LOWELL PETERSON

Senator Peterson (Lowell): “Mr. President and members of the Senate, speaking against Senator Francis’ motion to rerefer, I think this is a proper motion and I think it would expedite the business of the Senate to proceed in this fashion. I have some bills, Senator Francis, that I have referred to Ways and Means and some that are still in Rules and I have no objection and can see no objection in letting the Executive Committee on the Rules Committee rerefer those bills if in their judgment they so desire, and I have just as much concern as you do, Senator Francis, but I am willing to go along with the process and as Senator Mardesich indicated, when we come back down here, hopefully we are not going to be here very long and I think this is the fastest and the best way to go. In that vein I would speak against your motion.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: “Mr. President, it occurs to me that perhaps a middle ground would add to the efficiency and that would simply be with the consent of the chairman of the committee presently holding the bill. I can very well see that from a mechanical standpoint as has been pointed out, there may be situations where it is desirable to transfer a bill from one committee to another and we should not be kept from doing that. On the other hand, I also think that Senator Francis had a very good point that where a committee does have a bill and is working on it, that it should not be taken away from them without the consent of that committee. So if you add to that, Senator Mardesich, ‘with the consent of the chairman of the committee holding the bill,’ it would seem to me a good compromise.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: “I have no objection to that amendment at all but I would hate to see too many one-armed chairmen running around this place later.”

The motion by Senator Mardesich, as amended by Senator Clarke, that the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee be authorized to refer bills from the Rules Committee to other standing committees of the Senate and to refer bills from one Senate standing committee to another Senate standing committee during the recess authorized by SCR 153 with the consent of the Chairman of the committee holding the bill, carried.

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that the Senate Remonstrance be assigned to the Executive Committee of the Rules Committee.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 5:19 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Monday, April 15, 1974.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Monday, April 15, 1974.

The Senate was called to order at 9:00 a.m. by President Cherberg. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Keefe, Rasmussen and Woodall. There being no objection, Senators Keefe and Rasmussen were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Meri Hurst and Mark Letteer, presented the Colors. Father William Treacy, pastor of St. Michael's Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"ALMIGHTY GOD OUR FATHER, HAVE MERCY ON US YOUR PEOPLE CONFUSED AND UNCERTAIN, IN NEED OF DIRECTION. A FEW DAYS AGO A SUPREME COURT JUSTICE TOLD US OUR GOVERNMENT IS A GOVERNMENT OF THE CORPORATIONS, BY THE CORPORATIONS AND FOR THE CORPORATIONS. SUCH STATEMENTS CAUSE PEOPLE TO LOOK WITH DISTRUST ON THE MEMBERS OF THIS CHAMBER AND OTHERS ELECTED TO POLITICAL OFFICE. WHEN TRUST DISAPPEARS AMONG PEOPLE DISILLUSIONMENT DEVELOPS AND THE DANGER OF TYRANNY AND OPPRESSION INCREASES. WE DO NOT BELIEVE LORD THAT THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS IS IDEAL, BUT WE BELIEVE IT IS THE BEST FOR OUR IMPERFECT LOT IN LIFE. GIVE TO OUR LEGISLATORS CONCERN FOR THE INDIVIDUAL IN JAIL, THE VICTIM OF CRIME, THE TRAFFIC FATALITY, THE WITNESS IN COURTS, THE RETIRED AND THOSE WITH INFLATION EATING INTO A FIXED INCOME. MAY THE EFFORTS OF THIS SENATE BE GUIDED BY YOU, LORD, IN THEIR DELIBERATIONS ON THE BUDGET, THE RIGHT USE OF THE TIMBER RESOURCES WITH WHICH OUR STATE IS ENDOWED, EDUCATION CONCERNS AND THE OTHER PROBLEMS THAT CALL FOR THEIR ATTENTION. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of February 13, 1974 was dispensed with and it was approved.

Senator Day moved that the appointment of PHILLIP NUDELMAN as a member of the State Board of Pharmacy be confirmed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Day yield to a question? Senator Day, this is not what you think. It was recommended that there be lay members of this board. Can you tell me, is this one of the lay members or is this a member of the profession?"

Senator Jones: "Phil Nudelman is a practicing pharmacist and a constituent of mine and a very fine gentleman and I would like to add my recommendation to his confirmation. He is presently in the geriatrics portion of pharmacy. He has been a practicing pharmacist. He has been a very active community leader in terms of dealing with drug abuse with youth, just a fine upstanding man, and I have more than answered your question."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Jones. I have no objection to his being a member of the profession. I was curious when we were going to get some lay members on the Board of Pharmacy and that is what I was asking Senator Day. Do you know, Senator Day?"

Senator Day: "Would you repeat the question?"

Senator Rasmussen: "As I recall, the recommendation was made that there be — that the Board of Pharmacy not be composed entirely of people in the pharmacy profession."

Senator Day: "It was not only a recommendation, but this does not happen to be the lay member, as Senator Jones has stated. I think there is one lay member on there now."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

On motion of Senator Durkan, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3253 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3253, and the substitute bill was read the second time in full.

MOTION

At 8:00 p.m., on motion of Senator Atwood, the Senate recessed until 8:30 p.m.

SECOND EVENING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 8:30 p.m.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3253, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Donohue and Odegaard):

Making an appropriation for the operation of state government.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3253 on second reading.

Senator Durkan moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Lewis (Harry) and Durkan:

On page 10, line 3, after "Committees" insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That the governing body of any county, city or political subdivision of the state may permit the use by lease, contract for service, or otherwise of the facilities of any social and health care facility by any community service organization, nonprofit corporation, group or association, for the purpose of conducting a program of education, training, or other purpose, for the residents of such institutions if determined by the director to be beneficial to such residents or a portion thereof."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Lewis yield? Senator Lewis, in terms of the words 'facilities of any social and health care facility' you mean owned by the local county, city, or political subdivision and not a state facility, isn't that correct?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "That is correct."

Senator Woody: "And also it is not the intent by this amendment that the department, either directly or indirectly, can change an existing program or facility without legislative authority. Isn't that correct?"

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Absolutely not. No way is that intended."

The motion by Senator Durkan carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Clarke, the amendments to page 16 by Senators Clarke and Jones were considered simultaneously.

Senator Clarke moved adoption of the following amendments by Senators Clarke and Jones:

On page 16, line 24, strike "$121,477,502" and insert "$161,477,502".

On pages 16-18, strike all of section 28.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, my home district of Toppenish recently turned down a special levy. Now I detect some difference between Senator Clarke's explanation and yours. Now, would the neighboring districts which passed one get more out of this than Toppenish, which turned one down, or will Toppenish get anything? There seems to be some conflict between your and Senator Clarke's explanation."

Senator Durkan: "In the proposal which is in the bill before you, Senator Woodall, there are two parts to it. One is the part which provides twenty dollars for every full time equivalent student in the district where the levy has failed. Twenty dollars. That is Toppenish. The district next to yours which has passed the levy would get the twenty dollars plus they would get the additional amount of equalization. So if you passed your levy you would also get more. That is the proposal in the bill, if that answers your question."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you are a pretty good lawyer, I think. I want to ask you a question on the legality of state appropriation in different amounts per pupil out of general state appropriations. Now I understand from certain court decisions that there has been quite a controversy over that very thing of inequality of educational opportunity. And do you think, or don't you think, that appropriating under the terms of this bill would be unequal support for individual students and therefore unlawful?"

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, no, I do not. I think that is no different than the actual formula which we operate under presently and that is that we weight. We give different weights as to appropriation and amounts of appropriation in terms of the formula. And what we are saying here simply is that we are making a weighted decision. It is a formula within itself, and the formula depends upon the passage of special levies or the failure of special levies, and those who pass it — they are weighted with a greater amount of appropriation. No, I see no constitutional question involved here."

Senator Canfield: "When we talk about weighted pupils, we are talking about a characteristic of the pupil. We are not talking about a tax situation in a district. I think there is a very great difference there, Senator."

Senator Durkan: "Senator, it is an arbitrary decision which the legislature has made. We have decided whether it is a characteristic of the pupil or whether it is the characteristic of the formula. And actually it is a legislative decision. And here we are saying that the legislature has decided that the weighing will be done in this manner. We use the pupil characteristic in the formula and we are using the special levy characteristic here in the bill. And so it is highly and, I think, very proper."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you have spoken of the districts which passed the special levy. You have spoken of the districts that did not pass the special levy, which voted it down. How about the district that has never floated a special levy?"

Senator Durkan: "That, Senator — there is a penalty involved in here and that is one of the things that makes this bill — this amendment and proviso — not one hundred percent fair, and that is, as Senator Canfield pointed out in committee, those school districts which do economize and try to do a good job and not pass special levies in some manner do get penalized. But nevertheless in the bill, or if you read on page 17 beginning on line 6, you can see the language . . . it answers your question as to some help that they do receive."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Clarke failed and the amendments were not adopted.

Senator Washington moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 25, line 25, insert a new section to read as follows:

"Sec. 43. Section 5, chapter 131, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) as amended by section 48, chapter 142, Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE CENTRAL WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

General Fund Appropriation: PROVIDED, That Central Washington State College may expend an amount not to exceed $125,000 to explore the feasibility of the development and implementation of a management by objective program for the administration of public agencies [$21,655,934] $21,755,934

General Fund Appropriation for salary and related fringe benefit increases in addition to any other increases authorized by chapter [. . . (SB 2854)] 137, Laws of 1973, 1st ex. sess. for faculty and exempt personnel $850,876"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Durkan: "Mr. President, can we go back on amendments if we want? I want to make an oral amendment on page 18."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Yes, Senator Durkan."
The motion by Senator Washington carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, an oral amendment correcting the spelling of the word "calendar" on page 18, line 16 was adopted and the correction was made by the Secretary of the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Senator Washington, on your figures there you have one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars itemized but you strike out a certain figure and add on your new amount. You add on one hundred thousand but it calls for one hundred and twenty-five. Which is right?"

Senator Durkan: "I think that adds up to one hundred thousand. I think if you add twenty-one million six fifty-five and add one hundred thousand it would be twenty-one million seven fifty-five."

Senator Canfield: "That is true, but if you look above there about four lines it says 'one hundred and twenty-five thousand.'"

Senator Durkan: "'Not to exceed,' - this whole section here is language right out of the past appropriation bill, and the only change made in the previous language is the underlined material. That is old, old language. Technically it is correct. It is probably a technical question. The bill was drafted by the Ways and Means Committee, and they tell me that the way to do it was, in the last appropriations bill it read just exactly like this except there was the figure twenty-one million six hundred and fifty-five thousand nine thirty-four, and all we are doing is adding one hundred thousand to that, making no other changes in the present appropriation language."

Senator Canfield: "What do you have one hundred and twenty-five thousand up above for then?"

Senator Durkan: "I think it is merely a technical point. All we are doing is changing one figure in that particular item and the rest of it is all old language."

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 16, strike all of section 7.

Re-number remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator von Reichbauer yield to a question? Do I understand you correctly when you say that for one hundred and ninety thousand dollars we only have one investigator and two clerks? How many people have we got on the payroll now?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Woodall, currently the commission is allocated funds for the appointment of six point four fiscal year employees in 1974 and eight point five in 1975. At the present time the commission employs four people on a full time basis; an administrator, an investigator, a secretary and a clerk. An accountant and an additional clerk are employed on a half time basis."

Senator Woodall: "What is the current salary of the administrator?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "If I can take this opportunity, Senator Woodall. . . ."

Senator Woodall: "It just seems to me that for one hundred and ninety thousand we ought to have more than six employees, is what I am getting at."

Senator von Reichbauer: "I agree. Senator Woodall, she is receiving a little over thirteen thousand dollars. I would point out, Senator Woodall, and I appreciate your question, and this is a quote from the supplemental budget, 'the unexpected volume of report forms required is resulting in substantial increases in printing and mailing costs. Original estimates were based upon printing of approximately three hundred and fifty thousand forms. The present demands have exceeded eight hundred thousand.' This is just one example of across the board low estimations by this citizen commissioner organization. They are not professional bureaucrats. They are really not professional administrators. They are citizens, and in many cases they made low projections of their own needs. And this is a good example of it."

Senator Woodall: "One more question. You say eight hundred thousand people are reporting under this system now?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "No, sir."

Senator Woodall: "You said eight hundred thousand forms? How many forms?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "They had projected three hundred and fifty thousand. So far they have had to print over eight hundred thousand forms. This includes C-1, C-2, C-3, C-4 and F-1 reports."

Senator Woodall: "Give them more money and they will figure up some more forms, too."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Atwood: "Senator Grant is not talking on the amendment. He is making some political commentary on the Attorney General's role in enforcing 276. The amendment before us is Senator Rasmussen's deletion of the fifty thousand dollar item, and he is not talking about that at all."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was laid upon the table.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:

Beginning on page 16, strike all of section 28 and insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION

General Fund Appropriation: This appropriation shall be distributed by the Superintendent of Public Instruction on the basis of $30 per pupil, or as much as may be available for each FTE enrolled pupil in each district levying an excess levy for maintenance and operation purposes for 1975 collection, or in which the maximum number of elections pursuant to law have been conducted for maintenance and operation excess levies for 1975 collections; or in each district which the per pupil cost in such district, excluding transportation, is less than the state average for the preceding year $25,000,000”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: “You mentioned the thirty million dollars. I am wondering which amendment we are talking about.”

Senator Atwood: “I meant twenty-five. I am sorry.”

Senator Woody: “That is the amendment that says ‘page 16, line 25?’ ”

Senator Atwood: “Twenty-five. Right. I meant thirty dollars per pupil. I did have it thirty million and I cut it back because the second half of that calendar year was a little more than we had, Senator Woody. But the forty million dollars has a nineteen million dollar add-on which you have to get if you are going to get them through that calendar year, which, I might add, if you will look at your forty million, those collections are scheduled for the whole year. Fifty-three percent of it is collected in the first half taxes. The forty-seven percent is the additional nineteen million.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: “Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, the last time we met there were some bills put through – Senator Donohue handled most of them – borrowing out of other funds in order to have some money in the general fund. Is that true? We borrowed a lot of money out of other funds at the last time we met? Senator Donohue sponsored some measures. He said it would increase the flow in the general fund to borrow out of other funds. You remember that last time?”

Senator Durkan: “The only one I recall is the refinancing of the community college tuition bonds which gave us about twelve million more, Senator. Other than that, I do not recall any.”

Senator Woodall: “Did you not borrow out of the motor vehicle excise to put into the general funds last time?”

Senator Durkan: “There were changes in the MV fund, yes.”

Senator Woodall: “Now, what I do not understand is if we had to borrow just a few weeks back from these funds to have the general fund, how do we suddenly have this forty-one or forty-four million more dollars? Where did it come from?”

Senator Durkan: “The present increase in revenue that we have had since the last session, Senator, came from the increase in the sales tax and the increase in the business and occupation tax.”

Senator Woodall: “Now as I take it, we have already borrowed into the month of August of the next biennium, haven’t we? We have already done that?”

Senator Durkan: “We did that, I think, five years ago.”

Senator Woodall: “And so this presupposes then that the revenue take will continue as you say it is now coming in?”

Senator Durkan: “The Senate’s revenue estimates are on the bottom of the revenue projections between the Senate and the Governor and the House.”

Senator Woodall: “Then I take it you do not agree? But you do anticipate this continued increase in revenue. Is that correct?”

Senator Durkan: “We anticipate that there will be this much money available for the remainder of this biennium.”

Senator Woodall: “Then you do not agree with the Democrat Senators and Representatives who predict a Nixon depression?”

Senator Durkan: “On behalf of my client, Mr. President, I object to the question as leading.”

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Atwood failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Whetzel, Francis and Lewis (Harry):

On page 28, after line 3, insert a new section as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. FOR THE GOVERNOR – SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

General Fund Appropriation: To provide effective January 1, 1975, sufficient general fund appropriations as are necessary to implement the remaining fifty percent of the salary findings for state and higher education employees as contained in the State Personnel Board and the Higher Education Personnel Board July 1972 Salary Survey as updated to July 1, 1973 and for comparable salary increases for employees of judicial and the executive agencies: PROVIDED, That the increase for classified employees under the Higher Education Personnel Board shall not be less than $33 per month for a full time employee $6,059,784

Special Fund Salary Increase Revolving Fund Appropriation: The State Treasurer is hereby directed to transfer sufficient revenue from each special fund to the Special Fund Salary Increase Revolving Fund, in accordance with schedules provided by the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management, as required to implement the remaining fifty percent, effective January 1, 1975, of the salary findings for state and higher education classified employees as contained in the State Personnel Board July 1972 Salary Survey as updated to July 1, 1973: PROVIDED, That the increase for classified employees under the Higher Education Personnel Board shall not be less than $33 per month for a full time employee $2,541,754

General Fund Appropriation: For a salary adjustment effective January 1, 1975 for faculty and exempt personnel of the four-year units of higher education: PROVIDED, That the amount allocated shall be sufficient to assure an average salary increase of four percent over the average salary rate in effect on December 31, 1974 $3,418,516

General Fund Appropriation: For a salary adjustment for faculty and exempt personnel of the community colleges: PROVIDED, That the amount allocated shall be sufficient to assure an average salary increase of four percent over the average salary rate in effect December 31, 1974: PROVIDED FURTHER, That these funds be disbursed by the districts in a manner consistent with guidelines prepared by the State Board $1,619,768

General Fund Appropriation: For a state-wide average of up to three percent salary adjustment for certificated employees of local school districts effective January 1, 1975: PROVIDED, That it is the intent of the Legislature that these funds shall be used exclusively for salary increases, exclusive of increments, for certificated employees and shall be allocated through the school apportionment formula $7,934,331

General Fund Appropriation: For a state-wide average of up to three percent salary adjustment for classified employees of local school districts effective January 1, 1975: PROVIDED, That it is the intent of the Legislature that these funds shall be used exclusively for salary adjustment exclusive of increments, for classified employees and shall be allocated through the school apportionment formula $2,606,640”

Renumber remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.
The motion of Senator Whetzel failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3253 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Durkan yield? A couple of questions just so that there is no misunderstanding in that special levy provision. My first question is, on what basis is the FTE enrolled pupil to be determined? Is it the October 8th day enrollment, or is it the fiscal year 1975 enrollment?"

Senator Durkan: "It is the fall enrollment figure, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "It is the usual?"

Senator Durkan: "Yes."

Senator Atwood: "Okay, just so that there is no misunderstanding if this thing happens to hang and stay in there. And I take it that although there is no reduction of special levies mandated in that first part, it is implied all the way through there and I take it that is the intent to the school board, that they will roll back."

Senator Durkan: "There is a trigger in there, Senator."

Senator Atwood: "Yes, that is in the second section, but not in the first."

Senator Durkan: "But as we read the trigger on the roll back it applies to both parts of the special levy proviso."

Senator Atwood: "I take it if the legislature in January does not fund that additional nineteen for the remainder of that school year, we are talking, instead of the twenty-six percent, one-half of that as far as the so-called average relief of around twelve or thirteen percent."

Senator Durkan: "That would be correct."

Senator Atwood: "Okay."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Atwood yield? Senator, we turned down an amendment awhile ago that Senator Whetzel spoke on. As I look through this, on page 25, I wanted to ask you about the salary increases for Western Washington, and I wonder if you could justify that?"

Senator Atwood: "That is not a salary increase. If you will look in the bill that was passed in February, the reason that is in there, that amendment had technically, to refer to section 49 of the bill that was passed in February. I questioned Ways and Means staff about that million thirty-two and if you will look in the budget that was passed, in order to get to the chapter, that is why they rewrote it into that amendment, in order to do what we wanted to do. It was also done in the Washington amendment, carrying that same increase which we did grant last February."

Senator Canfield: "Does it or does it not then give a salary increase?"

Senator Atwood: "It does not. This is just a reenactment of the same provision that passed in February."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you."

WHEREAS, It is now clear that there will be surplus revenues for the fiscal biennium ending June 30, 1975, variously estimated to be between forty-one and one hundred and fifty million dollars; and

WHEREAS, Governor Dan Evans is proposing that the bulk of said surplus be used for salary increases for state employees, and various Senators and Representatives are proposing alternate use of the same surplus, not for salary increases, but to reduce sales taxes on prescription drugs, reduction of property taxes and reduction of the business inventory tax, tax on liquor, etc.; and

WHEREAS, There are currently circulating rumors that the state of Washington will be faced with a dire financial emergency in 1975, and that the office of program planning and fiscal management has made projections that show it will be necessary for the state to increase the sales tax by one to two cents next biennium; and

WHEREAS, Legislative requests have been made for surveys and projections and the office of program planning and fiscal management has denied the existence of this information, but nevertheless this information is essential so that the legislature, the press, and the citizens of the state of Washington can fully evaluate the projections for the 1975-77 biennium; and

WHEREAS, The budget-making process is exceedingly complex and requires the continuing work of professional fiscal and accounting experts; and

WHEREAS, The legislature has therefore delegated to the executive branch, through the office of program planning and fiscal management, responsibilities in regard to the initial preparation of the state budget; and

WHEREAS, To appropriately and prudently account for the present surplus, to evaluate and provide for the emergency, if one exists, in the 1975-77 biennium, it is imperative that the legislature have the most accurate revenue information and projections available relating to the 1975-77 fiscal biennium; and

WHEREAS, It is appropriate and necessary that the executive branch provide the legislative branch with any available information and data regarding the budget-making process;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Senate, that all such projections be forwarded to the Governor and that the Governor present to the legislature all available information and projections concerning the revenue expectations for the 1975-1977 fiscal biennium, together with his long and short range recommendations at the earliest possible time, to permit consideration of such projections and recommendations by the forty-fourth session of the legislature.

The motion by Senator Greive carried and the resolution was adopted.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence in the Senate Chamber of the Apple Blossom Royalty from Wenatchee and appointed Senators Sellar, Matson, Odegaard, von Reichbauer, Knoblauch and Woodall as a special committee to escort the honored guests to the rostrum.

The President turned the gavel over to Senator Sellar to introduce the guests from Wenatchee, including Queen Julie Agens, Princesses Adele Fischer and Cathy Williams.

Business was suspended to permit Queen Julie Agens to address the Senate.

The committee escorted the honored guests from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

MOTION

Senator Newschwander: "Mr. President, I would like to move that the rules be suspended and this bill that I have left on your desks in regard to capital punishment be allowed to be introduced and read in."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWSCHWANDER

Senator Newschwander: "Mr. President, the reason I am using this method, this is practically the same bill that this body had before it last January and passed and it died in the House, as I remember. I have made several changes in this bill. The previous bill dealt with policemen, firemen, people in correctional institutions who were killed in the line of duty, and I have also added hijacking and kidnapping. The other change in this bill deals near the end where I have a referendum that if this is passed by the Senate and the House I would like to refer it to the people next November. So that is the reason I am taking this urgent means of getting this bill on its way so that the people of this state will have a chance to vote on it and I have every indication that it would pass very easily so I would request that this body would allow me to introduce it and have it read in today."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Mardesich: "As I recall, the question of introduction of bills is a matter of concurrent resolution with the House. My recollection is also that it takes two-thirds to suspend that rule -- of both bodies, that is. And so I question the procedure and the number of votes it would take to accomplish this and all I would like is a ruling on that matter so it might give us direction in the future should this thing in case arise."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the motion by Senator Newschwander was made a special order of business for 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 17, 1974.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR
VETO OF SENATE BILL NO. 3039

February 16, 1974.

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADY AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval SENATE BILL NO. 3039, entitled:
"AN ACT Relating to parks and state lands."

Senate Bill No. 3039 provides for the extension of existing leases of transmitter sites for KVOS-TV on Mt. Constitution and KXLY-TV on Mt. Spokane. Both of these areas are within state parks.

On May 8, 1972 after appropriate public hearings, the State Parks and Recreation Commission adopted a policy regarding non-park structures within state park boundaries. The policy states in part:

"The Commission is firmly opposed to the placement on park lands of any facilities which will adversely affect public recreation or despoil the natural environment. Public recreational needs and park values are paramount to any other use. Conflicting uses shall be considered only when public welfare, safety, or necessity clearly requires the use of the site when no suitable alternative site exists.

When non-park structures are permitted on parks they shall be designed, built, and maintained with the least possible intrusion on park values, and made to serve public recreational needs whenever possible.

Users of such non-park facilities shall be required to combine and to share buildings and antenna-supporting towers where feasible. Outstanding leases notwithstanding, all users and lessees shall be expected to cooperate with any proposal of the Commission to combine into a structure or structures suitable for joint use."

In compliance with this policy the Commission has determined the necessity for KXLY-TV to remain on Mt. Spokane. The new lease agreement between the Commission and KXLY-TV is scheduled to be signed in March 1974. In compliance with the same policy, the Commission has determined not to renew the KVOS-TV lease on Mt. Constitution but has extended the existing lease to August 11, 1975, because of the delay involved during the negotiations and final Commission decision.

In the case of KXLY-TV the Commission has found that necessity exists. A lease will be signed in March and the issue shortly will be moot. In the case of KVOS-TV an alternate site exists and is readily available. I believe the policy of the Commission relative to non-park facilities on park lands is appropriate and was properly exercised in relation to KVOS-TV and Mt. Constitution.

I further believe that the determination of this policy and its implementation should properly remain with the Commission, which was previously granted this authority by the Legislature.

Respectfully submitted,
DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

Senator Knoblauch moved that the Senate pass Senate Bill No. 3039 notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Murray moved that the Senate hold further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3039 and the Governor's veto thereto until the appropriate order of business on Wednesday, April 17, 1974.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Peterson (Lowell) moved that the motion by Senator Murray be laid upon the table.

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "We have a motion on the floor and a motion to table. Is it correct that a motion to table is not debatable?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Woodall: "My point of order is that the good Senator Peterson made quite a prolonged speech before he made his motion."

REMARKS BY SENATOR VAN HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "But he did finally make the motion to table, as I understood it. Is that correct, Mr. President, or wrong?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Van Hollebeke, the President believes that Senator Peterson, who is very well advised on the parliamentary rules of the Senate — only in essence moved that the motion be tabled. Therefore, the question before the Senate is the motion presented by Senator Murray."

MOTION

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I will then move to table the motion."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Someone could raise the point, Senator, that your motion is not in order because. . ."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Under Article II, Section 30 of the Constitution says that a member who has a private interest in a bill shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member and not vote thereon. I wish to disclose the fact that I am a stockholder in a broadcasting company which is a competitor of one or two stations that may be involved in this particular legislation and I do not intend to vote thereon. My inquiry to you is, normally when the matter comes up for final passage it does not matter whether the member who is not voting is present or not and customarily we leave the floor. In this case, in the override of a veto, it requires a two-thirds vote of those members present. What do I do? I think it makes a difference whether it requires thirty-two or thirty-three votes to override, whether I stay here or leave the floor and I want to do the thing that would be considered fair and appropriate and not prejudice one side or the other."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President should suggest, Senator, that perhaps you should let your conscience be your guide. But the President would interpret 'presence' as being those voting, two-thirds of those voting."

MOTION

Senator Francis moved that the motion by Senator Murray be made a special order of business for 4:00 p.m. today.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Francis carried on a rising vote.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Murray was excused.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate immediately commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3143.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3143, by Senators Day and Donohue:
Extending the authority of hospital districts.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 7, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3143, extending the authority of hospital districts (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 20, section 1, after "persons" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, That hospital districts will not construct nursing homes when such facilities are already available".

On page 2, line 15, after "any" strike all the material down through the colon on line 18 and insert "[hospital clinic or sanatorium operated as a charitable, nonprofit establishment or against a hospital clinic or sanatorium operated by a religious group or organization:] health care facility".

On page 3, line 15, after "facilities" insert ", subject, however, to the applicable limitations provided in subsection (2)".

Signed by: Senators Day, Chairman; Van Hollebeke, Vice Chairman; Clarke, Francis, Jones, Ridder, von Reichbauer.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

There being no objection, on motion of Senator Day, the committee amendments were adopted simultaneously.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "I notice that this permits the public hospital districts to establish physicians' clinics and offices. My question is, if those were established by the hospital districts, would those not go off the tax rolls?"

Senator Day: "The answer to that question is that those have to be contiguous with or within such facility or hospital. So they are not going to be just anywhere. They could construct a facility adjacent to the hospital for purposes of the hospital district."

Senator Whetzel: "They would go off the tax rolls in that limited situation?"

Senator Day: "That is correct."

Senator Whetzel: "That was my concern but you feel that that would be only a narrow exemption, because they would have to be contiguous with and within facilities or hospitals and you would not have a small hospital with a large medical clinic?"

Senator Day: "No, that is not the intent. The intent would be that facilities for purposes of doctors' offices be within the clinic or immediately contiguous to said clinic for purposes of implementing the center as a health care center."

Senator Whetzel: "These clinics and offices would be solely for the physician's use in connection with a hospital and would not be for their general practice otherwise?"

Senator Day: "Well, no. I think that they would be used as offices are but they would have to be directly in conjunction, contiguous with the facility. That is my understanding."

Senator Whetzel: "Let me ask you, if I put up an amendment to strike the physicians' clinics and offices from this so that they would have to be owned privately and not by the hospital districts, would that present a serious impediment. . . .?"

Senator Day: "Perfectly all right with me."

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 1, line 16, strike "physicians' clinics and offices".

On page 6, beginning on line 22, after "facilities" strike all the material down to the period on line 23 and insert "[, and physicians' clinics and offices contiguous with or within such facilities or hospitals]".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator, we have not caucused on this and I do not know exactly what it includes, but as I read your analysis here it includes everything in the way of health care."

Senator Day: "Just about, as it pertains to public hospital districts."

Senator Canfield: "Yes, but it also includes the outpatient care and extended care and physicians' clinics."

Senator Day: "We just struck those clinics."

Senator Canfield: "Rehabilitative facilities and health maintenance. I do not find anything in there that it leaves out. It is a complete comprehensive health program, isn't it?"

Senator Day: "What it will be is a base, as drafted, for public health districts, public hospital districts rather, to expand into a health care facility such as Group Health of King County. That is exactly the purpose of the bill."

Senator Canfield: "Is this a group health. . . ."

Senator Day: "I understand they are in favor of the bill."

Senator Canfield: "Is it analogous to the Group Health plan? Is it the same thing essentially?"

Senator Day: "It could be implemented to be such upon the election of the public hospital district."

Senator Canfield: "This you referred to though as privately paid. In this case it is publicly."

Senator Day: "No, the only thing that would be publicly paid here would be the facility."

Senator Canfield: "I know some people belong to the health clinic. What do you call it? Group Health?"

Senator Day: "Group Health of King County."

Senator Canfield: "And the remarks have been very favorable for the service rendered but as I understand it, it is paid for by private fees by the members of the Group Health. They pay for the cost of it. Now in this case I am concerned because this appears to be at public cost, a complete comprehensive health care and maintenance program at public expense."

Senator Day: "Just as in the formation of the hospital district, I think that what they do is form a district for the support of the facility, but that does not mean the people going into a hospital district hospital do not have to pay a bill. I think that they do, and I. . . ."

Senator Canfield: "Do you have a fiscal note on it?"

Senator Day: "There would not be any fiscal note attached to this. It would be done within the hospital district. It would have to be passed, possibly by a special bond issue to construct the hospital, and then if they were going to do anything relative to maintenance and operation they would have to have a special levy to do that, be voted on by the people within the district, the same as any other local entity."

Debate ensued.

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, a presentation was scheduled for one thirty this afternoon but due to the press of business we were unable to accomplish it at that time. The President respectfully requests at this time, with your permission, that a presentation be made to two honored members of the Senate and two very esteemed members of the House. So with your indulgence, the President would like to respectfully request of Senator Atwood, Senator Harry Lewis, Senator Bailey and Senator Mardesich that you please escort the Honorable Martin J. Durkan, the Honorable Pete Francis, the Honorable Bud Shipoch, and the Honorable John Bagnariol to a position upon the rostrum."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Honored members of the Senate and most esteemed members of the House; ladies and gentlemen, it is with great pride and pleasure that the President presents a very charming and lovely friend of some time, Ms. Barbara Pattison, who is National Board Member of the Association for Children With Learning Disabilities and is also vice president of the Washington State Association. Barbara."

REMARKS BY BARBARA PATTISON

Ms. Pattison: "I would like to thank you all for letting me have this privilege today. The National does not usually honor a state and they have honored the State of Washington for the outstanding efforts that you have all done for education, particularly in the field of learning disabilities. I would like to make these presentations from the National Board of the Association for Children With Learning Disabilities to these gentlemen. This is really a tribute to all of you, however. Senator Martin J. Durkan, Senator Pete Francis, Representative John Bagnariol, Representative Bud Shinpoch. This is for the work they have done for such a long, long time and have put up with me for such a long, long time."

(Ms. Pattison presented Certificates to the honored members)

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Representative Bagnariol and Representative Shinpoch, you are cordially invited to remain for a moment, as we are going to present a former illustrious member of the House to the members of the Senate and to the ladies and gentlemen present in the gallery. We hope that your schedule will permit you to stay for a moment."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "It is with a great deal of pride that the President is able to announce the presence in the Senate Chamber today of one of the most highly respected and capable legislators, who served for a number of years in the House of Representatives . . . the Honorable Julia Butler Hansen. The President at this time should like to request of Senator Washington, Senator Woodall, Senator Talley, Senator Canfield, Senator Henry and Senator Guess, to act as a committee of honor to escort our esteemed visitor to a position upon the rostrum."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Inasmuch as the members of the escort committee are long time friends of our very welcome guest, won't you please join us on the rostrum?"

"Julia, every member of the Senate and all of the ladies and gentlemen present are here because you are here, and we are certainly very, very happy that you took time to be with us today. We wanted to pay tribute to a great lady and I cannot think of anybody better than this first team that we have up here, and we will have a real heavyweight start off, Al Henry. He will be the leadoff hitter here; okay? Fine."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "To our friends in the galleries and the members of the Senate, my association with this fine lady goes back many years. I recall one incident very clearly that when we had the first joint interim committee on highways, streets and bridges I said I would like to get on it. She says, 'There is only room for one in our particular area. Do you want me to get off?' And that sort of ended the conversation. But it is a real privilege to be here with Julia again today. Thank you, Governor."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "It is a real pleasure for me to be here on the podium with you, Julia. I think I look back many years ago, after a few years I used to say how long I had been in the legislature. Now in my campaign literature I do not say how long I have been. But back in those days one of the best pieces of advice I ever got was from Julia. It is, when you start a bill, don't put the appropriation on the bill when you first put it in. You put it in and get it passed and then later on try to get the money for it. It is one of the best lessons I ever got and that has been one of the rules I have followed ever since. Thank you, Julia."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Julia, I remember one time coming to Washington and I wanted to take you to lunch. We could not quite agree upon where we were going to go and so we decided, as we walked across from the Capitol over to the hotel, that we would go in the main dining room of the hotel. Julia had a real smile on her face and those eyes were twinkling and as we were walking down the corridor all of a sudden she reached behind me and opened the door that was on the side—it did not have any name on it—and she led me into this room right quick. I found myself in the Democratic National Committee dining room. She thought it was a great joke and we had a real good visit, and it is delightful to have you back in the state with us. Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and Congressman Hansen, I have the distinction, if it be one and she does not object to my stating this, of being the only one here who first came to Olympia the first year she came. I guess now that you are retiring I can tell them the session. It was the 1939 session, so you are looking at two old veterans. One thing I learned from Julia was this, that if you want a road through, you handle the chairman of that particular committee with due care."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "I think Senator Woodall made on little misstatement. I would not refer to Julia Butler Hansen as old. She is experienced. You are not old until you are worn out. When I came to the House in 1953 I happened to hold down the dubious honor of seat number ninety-eight, which was the lowest on the totem pole. And Julia Hansen at that time was a power in the front row. She was at the time the chairman of the highway—what did they call it then, Highways Committee? Roads and Bridges. Well anyway, we all admired Julia Butler Hansen and I want to tell you why. Not only because she was a charming woman and is still so, but because she was extremely effective and, I might add, she feared no man nor beast. She established a record for courage and effectiveness which has seldom been equaled."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I first met Julia Butler Hansen when she was a member of the House in 1946 and I watched her grow from a very powerful member of the House to one of the most distinguished members of the national House of Representatives. Washington State has been most fortunate in having Julia as a member of Congress. She is known nationwide as one of the outstanding ladies in America. No one has said anything about Julia's retiring. It is most difficult to make a decision to retire but the time comes when you want to have some time to yourself. And good old Julia. She has not forgotten that she is from a little town named Cathlamet, and she wants to go home. She wants to do some writing and some visiting. And I was very pleased, Julia, when I heard that you were smart enough to want to retire, to go home and to enjoy yourself. And so may I, as a member in behalf of the members of the Senate, Julia, thank you for a job well done. One of the finest women in America, and to wish you a most happy retirement."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Julia, I am sure that you are aware that this genuine outpouring of affection and respect for you is a true indication of what the members of the Senate think of you. You are truly a legend in your own time, and that is something that very, very few people achieve in their lifetimes. I have been told that all work and no plagiarism make a dull speech, and that is why the President often likes to quote Walter Hagen: 'It is so wonderful to have you here to smell the flowers while still around to enjoy them.' And now, with your permission, we should like to ask . . ."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, all the kind words that have been said about Julia, I can agree with. Even the time that her bridge sunk she still had kind words for the rest of us poor legislators who tried to help hold that bridge up, and I do not know whether she assumed that we were doing right in holding the bridge up. However, there is one thing that she did, keep many House members alive. And I can well remember the time when they covered the clocks. We were down here at five dollars a day for the sixty-day session, a total of three hundred dollars, and the session was running seventy days and everybody was low on money and, lo and behold, one day we walked into the Roads and Bridges Committee room and here the table was loaded with food. And Julia saved the legislature. They had the strength then to go on and adjourn shortly afterwards. But one of the things that I think Julia should be complimented on probably is that now that she has decided to let go of the reins, that she has suggested a new driver to take her place. And let nobody forget, Julia was a driver. And when she suggested that possibly Senator Bob Bailey would be the best driver to drive the affairs of the Third District, I think she made a wise choice and she should be complimented. She is continuing to serve her district and the State of Washington. Thank you very much, Julia."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Julia, what we are trying to say is what over two hundred million Americans would like to say to you. So won't you please come up and say a few words to us? Thank you."

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE JULIA BUTLER HANSEN

Julia Butler Hansen: "Governor Cherberg and all my very distinguished former colleagues from the House, and that includes you, Slim, and the distinguished Senators, may I say that words can't begin to express my appreciation for your thoughtfulness and your courtesy and your kindness in doing this today. I seldom come back to the legislature of Washington. Congress is busy and we do not have the opportunities to get around when you are in session as much as we would like to. But it is a joy to be here today. But may I say the greatest joy through all the years has been working with all of you. There have been some times, and Brother Rasmussen always remembers the unpleasant ones. You want me to dig up some about you, Slim? Used car bills and so on. The bodies were buried and they were buried all around. But it has been a joy, each one of you. I have particularly enjoyed and appreciated having Senator Bailey on my staff and I certainly want you to know that it is a joy to support him to take my place.

"And may I say, about retirement, don't feel sorry for me about retiring. You know, several of the men came to Mrs. Griffiths and Mrs. Green and myself and asked why we three women were quitting. They did not ask the other two. They asked me to explain. Well, I said, I will tell you something. Women have the good sense to know when to go home and men never do. That is the reason we are going and some of the old goats are staying. And then the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee couldn't understand why I was quitting. He said it was a sheer disaster. And I said, 'Well, George, I was there at Clarence Cannon's funeral and I just do not want to be in the same kind of a box.' And this is a story I think you might all enjoy because you have all been to these legislative funerals or congressional funerals. The members of the Appropriations Committee all flew out on Air Force II. We were confined to II, to this town down in Missouri; it is on the riverbanks of the Mississippi. And just as the funeral was about to start, who joins the entire aggregation of congressmen and a couple of stray senators, but Lyndon Johnson, who was the new President of the United States. This was May, 1964. So Lyndon did not like funerals and he did not particularly, I guess, like to fly, and he just about had enough. So after the funeral was over, he gathered all the subcommittee chairmen, the Potentates—I was a new member of the committee at that time—all the potentates of the committee into Air Force I for the flight back to Washington. And the only people left to escort Mr. Cannon's coffin around the cemetery were the new members, and I said, 'Clarence Cannon would have died and turned over again if he had seen the junior members whom he did not even want on the committee having to be the ones to escort him.' So I just told George, I said, 'I am just saving you the embarrassment of having to go to my funeral in such circumstances.' And I just prefer to go home on two feet.

"But may I say I am going to continue as a citizen of the state of Washington and I have the same number of votes as anybody else, that is one. I hope the guy downstairs knows that too. I wore my Symbionese dress today. I thought it might be appropriate. But it has been fun, all the years in public office have been fun. Even the city council when you couldn't suit anybody. And the House of Representatives when there were just four women of us. And there were four over here. And then, of course, it became an Elk's Club. And I am delighted to see a woman over here, Senator Ridder. My congratulations and my best wishes, and may you someday serve in the United States Senate."

Senator Ridder: "I won't try for that."

Julia Butler Hansen: "Don't say that."

"But thank you all for the graciousness and the kindness and even you, Slim, for the roadblocks. But I really appreciate today, and, Governor Cherberg did a very thoughtful, generous thing. And, Al, you got on the interim committee even if I did not get off that first time. And Perry, you remember the night you picked up the paper and said, 'Oh, I have got the wrong script.'? And Damon, such a gracious tribute. And my friend Nat, who served on the Highways Committee in the House with me and then came over here to be chairman. And Sam, and I did think it was great for Sam, a Mississippian, to go to the Democratic Club where he belongs anyway. I do not know what on earth a Mississippian was doing in the Republican Party. I never could figure that out. I guess he just figured he wanted to get elected and it was a Republican district.

"Now I have talked much too long and probably been much too lively for the Senate atmosphere. But you must forgive me because I never was a Senator so I just did not have the opportunity to ever get pompous or stuffy."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "I was sure that your practiced eye led you to see so many good friends here from all walks of life, the staff and visitors, friends, relatives, and you know something, the House has sent a posse over here, headed by that strong arm, Ray Olson, the sergeant at arms and all the pretty girl members over there. They want to capture you, but we had hoped that you would be able to spend a few minutes in the office to greet some of your close friends, and we would like to invite all friends of Julia to come back.

"Everybody here thinks you are better than Bob Hope, Dean Martin, Johnny Carson, and all those stuffy people."

A bouquet of red roses was presented to Congresswoman Hansen by Senator Ruth Ridder.

The special committee escorted the honored guest from the Senate Chamber.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Office of the Governor, February 15, 1974.
TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON.

LADY AND GENTLEMEN:

I am returning herewith without my approval ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3023 entitled:

“AN ACT Relating to irrigation.”

This bill exempts from the requirement of RCW 43.21C.030 relating to the filing of environmental impact statements those decisions pertaining to certain applications for irrigation waters of fifty cubic feet per second or less, an amount which would be sufficient to irrigate up to 3,000 and 4,000 acres of farm land.

The bill represents the first time the Legislature has provided a direct exemption to the environmental impact statement requirement of the State Environmental Policy Act of 1971. I do not believe the exemption can be justified in light of the scope of the irrigation project involved.

I further do not believe that the problems caused by the State Environmental Policy Act should be remedied by the Legislature on a piecemeal basis. At the outset of the Third Extraordinary Session of the Legislature, I submitted by Executive Request concurrently in the House and Senate, House Bill 1545 and Senate Bill 3310 providing for revisions in the State Environmental Policy Act which would alleviate some of the unwarranted difficulties caused by the act by simplifying some of the procedural requirements for proposals which do not have a substantial impact on the environment. I believe the Legislature should enact this proposal or a similar proposal which would equitably address the problems of all concerned while retaining the integrity of the State Environmental Policy Act.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3023.

Respectfully submitted,

DANIEL J. EVANS
Governor.

MOTION

Senator Jolly moved that the Senate pass Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3023 notwithstanding the Governor's veto.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Senator Francis was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Jolly that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3023 pass the Senate notwithstanding the Governor's veto. The President declared a vote “yea” will override the Governor's veto and a vote “nay” will sustain the veto. The President declared that a two-thirds majority of those present is required to override the veto.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3023, notwithstanding the Governor's veto, and the vote was as follows: Yeas, 37; nays, 9; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Will Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, I note we have other gubernatorial appointments to handle and other bills on the calendar. Are we going to try to complete our calendar tomorrow? We are in a mini-session situation. I was wondering, do we have pressing committee meetings now that we have to go to or what is the purpose in adjourning and not finishing our work?"

Senator Mardesich: "We plan to have a Democratic caucus for the rest of the afternoon and I assume that there are some important matters that you wish to consider, also, matters residing in Rules, including the timber tax and a few items like that, and we wish to spend some time discussing those items, and would offer to you the same opportunity. We do not want to keep you here too late every night."

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE HENRY

President Pro Tempore Henry: "Of course, I hope that our introduction today of our distinguished guests will not be like the introduction I received down in Senator Talley's district. My first association with the guard, and I still have not my records straightened out, was when I lied about my age and joined the old 41st Division tank company in Centralia when later the Adjutant General Lilburn Stevens was a staff sergeant there. However, in 1948 during the flood, I was a major on Adjutant General Llewellyn's staff and we had a few problems down with Vanport and Longview, Woodland, down that way. And I was a guest of the senior McClelland, the owner of the Longview Daily News, at a Kiwanis luncheon and as he introduced me, being a great needler and being a member of the opposite party, he said, 'Major Henry was at Woodland when the dike broke, he was at Camas when the dikes broke, he was at Puget Island when the dikes broke, now he is here to see what he can do to help us.' Fortunately, the town of Longview did not go under.

"And it is a pleasure again to see that emblem of the eagle on the shoulder there that we affectionately called the 'blue beak eagle' many years ago.

"Colonel Pennington of Edmonds had a very distinguished record. He was in the famous 248th Coast Artillery and built some of our bases in the Aleutian Islands and in Dutch Harbor. I remember a little bit about some of those things up there because the regular army, with its customary efficiency, trained the boys in Alabama and sent them to Kiska and Attu and around in low shoes and summer underwear. But anyway, that was another story.

"Colonel Pennington has been very instrumental in helping to reactivate the Washington State Guard in 1959, and even though we are paying tribute to the one individual today, I think it is only fair, and very appropriate, that we pay tribute to the guardsmen who serve without pay in the State Guard. In times of war and emergencies they are not necessarily the heroes out with the tanks and the jet planes but they are around to help protect your homes. When we first got into this war, our northwest defense consisted of a few World War I destroyers and less than half a dozen bombers, and as you know, they trained with brooms and stovepipes in lieu of cannon and few other things, and the activation of the National Guard and the State Guard after World War II into the fine, efficient organization it is now, of course, came because we did have access to a lot of government materials. At that time Ensley Llewellyn made it very clear that he was going to get all of it he could, and I think we got our share. I think at this time that we are very sorry to lose, I must say, we are very sorry to lose Colonel Pennington. I am sure that he is going to be around for a long time and will help us, those of us who are still interested in Guard and Guard legislation, in trying to keep this fine organization alive, with his knowledge, his wisdom and his advice. At this time I would again ask the Lieutenant Governor to come forward. He has a presentation."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Thank you very much, Senator Henry. Prior to making the presentation, the President should like to present General Buchanan, who is Assistant Adjutant General of the Washington State National Guard. And General McGee, our own Adjutant General of the Washington State National Guard; former classmate of the President at the University of Washington, who is a little camera shy, General McKay, who is the Commanding General of the Washington State National Guard. Senator Henry has so capably described the career of Colonel Pennington.

Colonel Pennington, in behalf of the members of the Washington State Senate, in fact, and of the National Guard and of all the citizens of our state, I hope that you will accept this certificate as a Washington State Brigadier General. The Washington Generals are an up and coming organization. Every member of the Senate is also a Brigadier General, so you are joining an illustrious group, and may the members of the Senate and I wish you many, many years of happy retirement. And with your youthful appearance you should last a long, long time."

REMARKS BY COLONEL PENNINGTON

Colonel Pennington: "I am not going to say many words because I have not had lunch yet and I do not want to get into coffee break here because I do not want you to get in trouble with your union.

"Mr. President, General McGee, General Buchanan, Senator Henry, thank you very much. During the depression I used to come over here to get in out of the cold, and we used to watch the show and Vic Meyers putting on his very commendable act, and we did not feel bad, because some of the legislators at that time were here for the same purpose. Thank you very much."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Colonel, the members of the Senate and the President are very happy that you are here. We enjoyed your remarks and are very grateful to you for not trying to negotiate a labor act for the National Guard."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of the second reading calendar for today.

MOTION

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-248

By Senators Sandison, Marsh, Whetzel and Francis:

WHEREAS, The Washington State Law Against Discrimination (Chapter 49.60 RCW) was first enacted in 1949 and has since been amended many times without comprehensive review of the integrity of the act; and

WHEREAS, The act has been greatly expanded from its original thrust concerning employment and race; and

WHEREAS, Changing social mores have prompted most of the amendments to the act; and

WHEREAS, Due to an unexpected literal interpretation of a recent amendment, the Legislature found it necessary to enact Senate Bill No. 3382 to clarify legislative intent;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that the Judiciary Committee be requested to undertake a comprehensive review of the Law Against Discrimination (Chapter 49.60 RCW) to ensure the current appropriateness and compatibility of all sections therein; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Human Rights Commission, the Washington State Women's Council, the Attorney General's Office are requested to participate in this study, and other organizations are to be offered the opportunity to contribute to the study; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Judiciary Committee be requested to report their conclusions to the Senate Rules Committee not later than December 1, 1974.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Sandison yield to a question? Senator, in line 9, the first word is 'amendment,' it reads 'literal interpretation of a recent amendment.' Does that mean the amendment to the State Constitution?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes, that is an amendment to the State Constitution and probably the language should be above this."

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, we are talking, are we not, about the equal rights amendment?"

Senator Sandison: "No, we are talking about a bill that arose out of that."

Senator Canfield: "All right. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the resolution was adopted.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3382, by Committee on Higher Education (endorsed by Senators Sandison, Guess, Marsh, Scott, Donohue and Durkan):

Making certain changes in the laws relating to discrimination.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Sandison moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Sandison, Guess, Marsh, Scott, Donohue and Francis:

On page 2, line 20 after "(a)" strike all of the material down through line 9 on page 3, and insert "To limit residential use of a building or facility or portion thereof to persons of one sex where the purpose of such limitation is to provide privacy in the performance of intimate bodily functions or where the ability to move about freely in a disrobed or partially disrobed condition within the building, facility or portion thereof would or might be inhibited were the building, facility or portion thereof in use in common by both sexes, or where the purpose is to preserve the person or persons of one or the other of the sexes from possible physical molestation or where the purpose is to promote health or safety of persons of either or both sexes.

(b) For any public or private school or institution of higher education to separate the sexes or give preference to or limit use of dormitories, residence halls or other student housing to persons of one sex or to make distinctions on the basis of marital or family status in dormitories, residence halls or other student housing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Sandison yield to a question? As I understand it now, you are going to limit the residential use of a building or facility. What type of a building is it going to be?"

Senator Sandison: "A public type of accommodation. We are speaking here of YWCA's, YMCA's, college dormitories, church camps, youth camps, and this type of thing."

Senator Rasmussen: "Is that spelled out?"

Senator Sandison: "Yes. At the present time, Senator Rasmussen, there have been two cases involving YWCA's where men have come in there and demanded to live there. Under the law and the interpretation of it by an Assistant Attorney General, they felt that under a literal interpretation the YWCA had to offer accommodations to these people because it would be a discriminatory act if they did not. This removes that problem of discrimination. Now the Human Rights Commission can say that, 'No, this is not a discriminatory act,' and that we can tell men that they cannot live at the YWCA and, conversely, women at the YMCA."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Sandison, it is my understanding that the Human Rights Commission has never particularly paid any attention to the law. That they make their own law, and in fact, that their main principal purpose in life has been to declare the laws that we have made discriminatory and therefore of no effect. So what is this law going to do? They can also declare this law is discriminatory."

Senator Sandison: "The Human Rights Commission has given the stamp of approval to this amendatory language and to the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Have you had the approval of the ACLU also?"

Senator Sandison: "No, I haven't checked with them yet."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "This amendment says, and I suppose I am directing a question to Senator Sandison or anyone else that cares to answer, that the purpose of this limitation is to provide privacy in the performance of intimate bodily functions or where the ability to move about freely in a disrobed or partly disrobed condition within the building facility, and what we are saying now by this amendment is to say that members of one sex may move around freely in this condition, but we are saying that we will prohibit members of the other sex from doing that. In other words, we are going to allow individuals of one sex but not the other sex there. And we just passed an amendment to the State Constitution to specifically prohibit the state from discriminating on the basis of sex. This just flies, totally flies in the face of the equal rights amendment which we just passed. And I have seen the Attorney General's opinion relative to this, but it is clear to me that this is exactly the kind of thing that many of us said would happen if we wrote into the Constitution that the state may not limit rights and responsibility on the basis of sex. And so to get around a bad constitutional amendment, apparently we are passing an unconstitutional bill."

Senator Washington: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, in answer to Senator Metcalf, this would be an unconstitutional bill if we limited it to one sex or the other. If you said that men cannot live in the YMCA and then conversely would allow women, say, to live in the YMCA, then you would have a discrimination. But when you make limitations that are applicable equally to both, then there is no discrimination between the sexes. And that is what this bill does. It rests equally upon the male sex and equally upon the female sex. For that reason it does not violate the constitutional amendment which we passed."

Senator Metcalf: "Very clearly, Senator Washington, that is lawyer talk to get around a difficult position. If you are saying that women may live in the building but a man cannot, that is discrimination on the basis of sex and all of the evasory words do not change that. I am for the concept of the bill. I am for what you are trying to do. I told you a couple of years ago what this kind of problem would come up if you were talking about that thing into the Constitution and now it has come up, and I have had comments that, 'Well, we know it is unconstitutional but this will delay the problem for a year.' And that is clearly what we are doing. We are just trying to delay the problem for a year and maybe we can settle it then. But frankly, if we adopt this language, the first person that takes it to court will win. And there is just no question about it. We are discriminating on the basis of sex, and the Constitution says we cannot do that."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, begging Senator Atwood's pardon, I would like to ask the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, Senator Francis, a question. Senator Francis, as I read this amendment, it is either 'partially disrobed' or 'fully' or whatever you want to do. It is my understanding, Senator Francis, there are instances where there are a large number of elderly people that are drawing social security and, for reasons of our inadequate social security laws, if they get married they will lose their pension. And it is my opinion that this amendment would at that time make this illegal again. This is one of the things, of course, that the ACLU and the rest of the Human Rights people, and it is true what I said, Senator Sandison, they take the process of declaring our laws discriminatory and of no effect, and as what Senator Metcalf has said, the Constitution is the main distinction. Is it constitutional or is it not? Now under the constitutional amendment that was adopted, equal rights, they had the perfect right to live together if they wanted. They are opposite sexes, or both sexes, same sex, could live together. This in effect is coming right back and saying that they cannot do this, and putting all those old laws back in effect. Is this right or wrong? In my opinion it is wrong to deprive these people on social security the right to live together even though not married. Thank you, Senator Francis."

Senator Francis: "Senator Rasmussen, I share your concern and the way I read this thing, it does not do as I think the bill would have done, that is, it does not prevent that. You have to remember that we are writing a law. Every time we write a law it has to apply to everyone across the board. Now I think this law would do this, if someone, say an elderly lady, wished to rent a room in her house, this bill would allow her to limit that rental to someone of her own sex, if she so preferred, and if she felt that her privacy demanded that, so that it would apply in that respect. Now if two people decided, if one person owned a house and someone else wanted to live with them, obviously there is no public accommodations law problem. It does not affect them. So the only way it could hurt the people that you are talking about would be if two people of the opposite sex wanted to go down and rent a place from a third party, I think that this would allow that third party to say, 'No, I do not want you to move in this kind of a situation where this, in effect, will invade my right to privacy.' So that is the kind of situation I think it speaks to. You have to look at the exact language of the bill, think in terms of the situation it would apply to, and I think in most cases it would not adversely affect the people that you are trying to help."

The motion by Senator Sandison carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, add a new subsection to read as follows:

"(c) For any public or private institution, corporation, organization, partnership or individual to refuse to rent for joint occupancy any premises to persons of the opposite sex who are not married to each other."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Francis yield to a question? I have the same problem, Senator Greive, and therefore I am asking: Senator Francis, would you please tell me what you understand the effect of this amendment to be and then maybe I can ask a question after that. I am not sure what your interpretation is and I could use a little help."

Senator Francis: "Senator Van Hollebeke, I understand that this amendment would not affect, one way or another, the person who is in the situation Senator Greive is describing. Present law allows landlords, any person renting premises, to make a decision on the basis of whether or not he thinks his rent is going to get paid. He can always discriminate on the basis of the individual's record for payment of bills and on whether or not he is satisfied as to that person's financial ability and reliability to keep the premises in good shape and so forth. We simply have a statute that sets forth certain things that you cannot cross the board say in every case, just because of that, you can deny them the right to rent premises. And one of those is marital status. Now I think that this amendment proposed by Senator Talley would simply say that you do have an absolute right, across the board, without regard to any of those other questions, to simply say that no one can move in someone of the opposite sex without the benefit of clergy. And that is what this says, pure and simple. That is for corporations, individuals, institutions and so forth."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Okay. Now what would it do, for instance, as you read it, if my seventy-eight year old aunt wants to rent a place and have, say, an eighteen year old college student living with her, somebody she just decides to take under her wing, we will say. What do you think this bill, if this amendment were to be in there, would do to that situation?"

Senator Francis: "All right. This amendment would place that decision in the hands of her landlord rather than letting it be her decision."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I do not understand you."

Senator Francis: "This amendment would allow her landlord to say, 'No, you cannot do that' it would also, in the same situation Senator Rasmussen described. If two elderly people wanted to live together and they happened to be of the same sex, the landlord would make that decision for them. They could not make their own because this law would allow the landlord to discriminate on that basis. That is what this proposed amendment by Senator Talley would do."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I have been searching for a way to make that kind of thing legal, you know, to make it perfectly permissible for people to cohabitate under what is normally considered a legitimate circumstances and still not reduce the rights of the landlord to select his own tenants under reasonable guidelines."

Senator Francis: "Senator Van Hollebeke, I have many landlord clients. I explain to them on a frequent basis that they have a right to select their tenants on the basis of legitimate economic concern but not on the basis of an across the board moral decision on behalf of their tenants. And obviously if somebody is going to move in there and they think they are going to tear the place up, they do not have to move them in. But if they do it because they do not like their relationship, then that is not a legitimate reason. Now I think what you are getting at is something where you would want an age limit and I do not think that would be a very good social policy."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Well, I am concerned about more than that. I would like to see the statute read that you can tell somebody that they cannot live under the roof you are providing for under circumstances ordinarily considered immoral. I would like it to read that way and I am not sure what the effect of this amendment is."

Senator Francis: "I think the amendment would certainly give the landlord the right to make that decision for them."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talley carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Atwood moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3 after line 9 add a new section as follows:

“NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any provision of this 1974 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.”

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3380, by Committee on Social and Health Services (endorsed by Senators Day, Van Hollebeke, Ridder, Connor, Jones, Clarke, Murray, von Reichbauer and Francis):

Relating to health care services, enabling the hospital commission to undertake a state cost containment control program in lieu of a federal control program as authorized under federal law and regulation.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Woody, Senate Bill No. 3380 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, does this enable the state hospital commission to set the rates of the private hospitals in the state of Washington?"

Senator Day: "They already have the right to review those rates. What this will allow them to do, Senator, is instead of HEW with their commission doing the rate adjustment and/or fixing, it will allow them to do it in lieu thereof. In other words, when the federal is controlling, this will allow the state commission to be the agency for the state of Washington, rather than HEW."

Senator Guess: "Is this a monopolistic system that could be established in the state of Washington in opposition to the free enterprise system that we have had in hospitals in eastern Washington?"

Senator Day: "No. We have already established the hospital rates commission."

Senator Guess: "They only review, they do not set."

Senator Day: "But then along comes the federal government and they now have the authority to, in fact with price controls which were extended and so forth, they did this. This will allow our state commission to act in lieu of the federal government."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Would Senator Day yield further? You use the word 'supersede', Senator, and then the word 'containment' is in there. I would interpret it as though the federal government had laid down the guidelines already as to what they would do, but if they did not spell them out completely, then we could go ahead in this containment act, so-called, and prepare, not our own rates, but prepare everything up to that point; because I think we would be controlled, wouldn't we, on the actual per day cost, hospital cost?"

Senator Day: "What this actually does is it extends the authority of the hospital commission to include coordination of state actions relative to the efforts of the Cost of Living Council as authorized by the federal Economic Stabilization Act, and in so doing, allows our hospitals in this state to deal with a state agency instead of the federal government. And so I think that Senator Guess has just got the reverse on this. It changes from mandatory to permissive the hospital commission's making of rate setting recommendation. So it makes it permissive for them to make rate setting recommendation and allows the commission to assume administration of the state program in lieu of the federal administration. That is exactly what we are intending to do here and that is what this extension does."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Senate Bill No. 3380 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

"Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—47.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 3382, as amended earlier today. An amendment by Senator Atwood adding a new section which had been moved for adoption when the bill was previously under consideration today, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Greive, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3 add a new subsection as follows:

"(c) To refuse to rent residential property to anyone where there is reasonable ground to believe that the person or persons who would occupy the property might damage the property beyond reasonable wear and tear without adequate resources to compensate the owner for damages."

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob") moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, add a new subsection as follows:

"(c) For athletic leagues which promote interest in athletics and athletic prowess of a single sex to function for the exclusive use of persons of that single sex."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sandison: "I may be wrong but it appears to me that this section is dealing with discrimination in housing, and I do not think that the amendment is within the scope of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR (R. H. "BOB") LEWIS

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "May I say that housing is involved when we do travel with the teams to various towns. And I may have in my charge a group of nine, twelve or whatever number of team members I take, and while on an overnight trip to an invitational tournament, housing is involved and I would like for them to be able to be of a single sex so that I do not get into the problem."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Sandison, members of the Senate, Senator Sandison has raised a very interesting and fascinating point of order. The President believes that such an important point should be deliberated a great deal more than time presents."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Senate Bill No. 3382, as amended, together with the amendment proposed by Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), the point of order as raised by Senator Sandison on that amendment and a ruling by the President on the point of order, was made a special order as the first order of business for Friday, April 19, 1974.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 15, 1974

HOUSE BILL NO. 1183, making certain changes in the laws relating to emergency services (reported by Committee on Social and Health Services):

MAJORITY recommendation with the following amendments:

On page 14, section 11, line 14 after "unassisted" and before the period insert "and in furtherance thereof the following interstate civil defense and disaster compact is hereby approved, ratified, adopted, entered into, and enacted by the state of Washington:

INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

The contracting States solemnly agree:

Article 1. The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the States in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective States, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the States that are parties hereto. The Directors of Civil Defense (Emergency Services) of all party States shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of each party State to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such State. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the States and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party States shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including;

(a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

(b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;

(c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;

(d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;

(e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;

(g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during, and subsequent to drills or attacks;

(h) The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and

(i) Mobile support units.

Article 3. Any party State requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof: PROVIDED, That it is understood that the State rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such State. Each party State shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party State, while operating within its State limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving State), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the State in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the State receiving assistance.

Article 4. Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any State evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party State to meet an emergency or disaster and such State shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the State in which aid is rendered.

Article 5. No party State or its officers or employees rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

Article 6. Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other States party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all States, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any State from entering into supplementary agreements with another State or States. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

Article 7. Each party State shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that State and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such State.

Article 8. Any party State rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party State receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests: PROVIDED, That any aiding State may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party State without charge or cost: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any two or more party States may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those States. The United States Government may relieve the party State receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party State supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the State and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

Article 9. Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party States and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party State receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party State of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party State of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

Article 10. This compact shall be available to any State, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "State" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Article 11. The committee established pursuant to Article 1 of this compact may request the Civil Defense Agency of the United States Government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States Government may attend meetings of such committee.

Article 12. This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any State as between it and any other State or States so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by Congress unless prior Congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party States and with the Civil Defense Agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

Article 13. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party State until the legislature or the Governor of such party State takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the Governor of the party State desiring to withdraw to the Governors of all other party States.

Article 14. This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article 1 hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Article 15. (a) This Article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the Governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this Article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a State pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide, a supplementary agreement in implementation of this Article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(b) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

1. Searches for and rescue of persons who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.
2. Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.
3. Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.
4. The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party States.

5. Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(c) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party State, a subdivision of such State, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a State. The personnel of such a joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party States.

(d) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles 1-15 of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this Article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby."

SENATE BILL NO. 2156, by Senators Francis, Murray, Grant, Ridder and Woody (by Attorney General request):

Providing that limitations on implied warranties shall be of no effect regarding consumer goods.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 5, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 2156, providing that limitations on implied warranties shall be of no effect regarding consumer goods (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, after the enacting clause, strike the remainder of the bill and insert the following:

"Section 1. Section 2-316, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 78, Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess. and RCW 62A.2-316 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit warranty shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but subject to the provisions of this Article on parol or extrinsic evidence (RCW 62A.2-202) negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that such construction is unreasonable.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention merchantability and in case of a writing must be conspicuous, and to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it states, for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof."

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2)

(a) unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is", "with all faults" or other language which in common understanding calls the buyer's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty; and

(b) when the buyer before entering into the contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as he desired or has refused to examine the goods there is no implied warranty with regard to defects which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed to him; and

(c) an implied warranty can also be excluded or modified by course of dealing or course of performance or usage of trade.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section and the provisions of [section 2 of this 1974 amendatory act] RCW 62A.2-719, as now or hereafter amended, in any case where goods are purchased or leased primarily for personal, family or household use [or] and not for commercial or business use, disclaimers of the warranty of merchantability or fitness for particular purpose shall not be effective to limit the liability of merchant sellers [or lessors or manufacturers] except insofar as the disclaimer sets forth with particularity the qualities and characteristics which are not being warranted. Remedies for breach of warranty can be limited in accordance with the provisions of this Article on liquidation or limitation of damages and on contractual modification of remedy (RCW 62A.2-718 and RCW 62A.2-719).

Sec. 2. Section 2-719, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess. and RCW 62A.2-719 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages,

(a) the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this Article and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this Article, as by limiting the buyer's remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of non-conforming goods or parts; and

(b) resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy.

(2) Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this Title.

(3) Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of goods purchased [or leased] primarily for personal, family or household use or of any services related thereto is invalid unless it is proved that the limitation is not unconscionable. Limitation of remedy to repair or replacement of defective parts or nonconforming goods is invalid in sales [or leases] of goods primarily for personal, family or household use unless the manufacturer or seller maintains or provides within this state facilities adequate to provide reasonable and expeditious performance of repair or replacement obligations.

Limitation of other consequential damages is valid unless it is established that the limitation is unconscionable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to Title 63 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In any lease or rental agreement for the lease of movable personal property for use primarily in this state (other than a lease under which the lessee is authorized to use such property at no charge), if the rental or other consideration paid or payable thereunder is at a rate which if computed on an annual basis would be six thousand dollars per year or less, no provision thereof purporting to disclaim any warranty of merchantability or fitness for particular purposes which may be implied by law shall be enforceable unless either (1) the disclaimer sets forth with particularity the qualities and characteristics which are not being warranted, or (2) the lessee is engaged in a public utility business or a public service business subject to regulation by the United States or this state."

On page 1, in line 1 of the title, after "transactions;" strike the remainder of the title and insert the following: "amending section 2-316, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 78, Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess. and RCW 62A.2-316; amending section 2-719, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 78, Laws of 1974 1st ex. sess. and RCW 62A.2-719; and adding a new section to Title 63 RCW."

Signed by: Senators Francis, Chairman; Woody, Vice Chairman; Atwood, Bottiger, Clarke, Dore, Marsh.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Woody moved adoption of the committee amendment.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 11 of the Senate Committee amendment, after "purchased" and before "primarily" strike "or leased" and insert "[or leased]".

There being no objection, an amendment on the Secretary's desk by Senator Atwood to page 3 of the committee amendment after section 3, adding a new section 4, was withdrawn.

The motion by Senator Woody carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3382, by Committee on Higher Education (endorsed by Senators Sandison, Guess, Marsh, Scott, Donohue and Durkan):

Making certain changes in the laws relating to discrimination.

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 3382, as amended on Thursday, April 18, 1974. On motion of Senator Greive on April 18, 1974, Senate Bill No. 3382 was made a special order of business pending a Ruling by the President on the following amendment by Senator Lewis (R. H. “Bob”) and the Point of Order raised by Senator Sandison on the amendment:

On page 3, add a new subsection as follows:

“(c) For athletic leagues which promote interest in athletics and athletic prowess of a single sex to function for the exclusive use of persons of that single sex.”

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: “In ruling on the Point of Order presented by Senator Sandison, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3382 is a measure which exempts a multitude of different activities and organizations from provisions of the existing law pertaining to discrimination based on sex.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Bob Lewis merely includes, within the exemptions, athletic activities, which probably are already included to some extent in paragraph 10(c) of the bill.

"The amendment does not, therefore, change the scope and object of the bill, and the point of order is not well taken."

The motion by Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob") carried and the amendment was adopted. On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, add a new section following section 1 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1974 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Sandison, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "49.60.222" insert "; and declaring an emergency".

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sandison, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3382 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "I would like to ask Senator Francis to yield to a question. Senator Francis, you talked about the right to privacy in the amendment which is now the main part of the bill. And it says, 'the ability to move about freely in a disrobed or partially disrobed condition.' If you have three girls in a YWCA moving about freely in a disrobed or partially disrobed condition, is this a violation of privacy?"

Senator Francis: "Senator Metcalf, the answer is no. This has to be read as a whole. The only thing they are talking about there is whether or not premises will be rented to someone, marital status and sex can be considered with reference to privacy. That is, if someone is in the habit of wandering around the house disrobed or partially disrobed or around the YWCA, that could be relevant to determining whether they are going to rent to somebody of the opposite sex."

Senator Metcalf: "Okay. That is fine. I have no objection to this. I understand the situation, but what you say is, if there are three girls doing this, that it is not a violation of privacy. Now suppose that there are two girls and one boy. Is that a violation of privacy?"

Senator Francis: "Well, again, you know, we are talking about the landlord. If the landlord thinks that that would be a violation of privacy, the landlord can take into consideration the fact that it is no longer three girls, it is two girls and a boy. Whether or not it violates the privacy of the three individuals involved I think is up to them."

Senator Metcalf: "You have hedged a little bit here, because we are writing the bill to say in this case that if three or four girls are doing this, which is perfectly normal, natural and no problem, that it is not a violation of privacy, and yet if one of those people is a boy, under this law, the wording that we are adopting, it is a violation of privacy."

Senator Francis: "Senator Metcalf, you are working very hard. I think you are playing a game. You are working very hard to try to build one of those things like what happens when the irresistible force meets the immovable object. The fact if something is not intrinsically a violation in the area of somebody's privacy if three people are wandering around and they do not feel that their privacy has been invaded. So it is with regard to what? This bill gives the landlord a right to take certain things into consideration and one of them is to think about whether or not something might be a violation of privacy. Now the landlord does not have to conclude it would be a violation of privacy, but can consider sex as one of those things that he or she considers in determining whether or not they are going to rent if it would involve someone's privacy."

Senator Metcalf: "I will conclude my remarks here to attempt to speed this up but I will conclude them by saying that what we are saying in this bill is that, just the case I mentioned, if four girls are doing this, that it is not a violation of privacy but if one of them is a boy, then it is, and yet the Constitution says as we have adopted it, that you may not discriminate, you may not limit the rights and responsibilities on the basis of sex. It is most clearly a violation of the constitutional amendment. I think we will pass it here today and we probably should, though I do not intend to vote for a clearly unconstitutional bill, and I think it will delay it a year; but again, as I told you before when we were considering this unwise amendment, I told you certain things would happen. Now they are happening. Now today I tell you that when this comes to court, the Supreme Court is going to rule that you cannot discriminate on the basis of sex because you have passed a constitutional amendment preventing it and this bill will be ruled unconstitutional and I do not think that there is any question about that in the minds of those who have studied this issue."

Senator Francis: "Senator Metcalf, in answer to that, I said before that you did not understand the constitutional amendment. I am now very much convinced you do not understand it."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1208, by Representatives Smith, Polk, Thompson and Paris:

Providing for electrical contractor qualifying certificates.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 7, 1974.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 1208, providing for electrical contractor qualifying certificates (reported by Committee on Commerce):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 4, line 6, after "consisting of" strike "six" and insert "seven".

On page 4, line 16, after "as follows:" strike "Two" and insert "Three".

On page 4, line 17, after "of Washington" insert "of which one shall be a minority electrical contractor".

Signed by: Senators Greive, Chairman; Herr, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Peterson (Lowell), Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Greive, Engrossed House Bill No. 1208, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Will Senator Fleming yield to a question please? Senator Fleming, with the amendments that you have offered on having a minority member present on there, how far do you think that that amendment goes in deciding who is a minority? Who is a member of a minority group? I am kind of wondering if I would qualify?"

Senator Fleming: "Do you consider yourself a minority?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Yes. My parents are both immigrants from a small country in Europe called Belgium and I wonder if I would qualify, or one of my children perhaps, if they would qualify."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Van Hollebeke, I think you have been on this floor long enough since you have been here, that the bills that we have been passing through here and you got up and asked the same question last session, and you did not qualify then. Secondly, it is spelled out now in our state law what constitutes a minority in this state and also in the United States."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Can you clarify that for me at this time? I have never heard that."

Senator Fleming: "I would say, Asian American, American Indian, Chicanos, Mexican Americans, Blacks, and they do, I guess, some consider women minorities now, but I think they are the majority minority."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "All right. Now then I still want to know the answer, if you can help me, and I realize this is a tough question. My children are my direct descendants and my parents were born in Belgium. My family goes back very many generations in Flanders. But my children have American Indian blood in them. Now, you know, the question gets a little tougher when you get down that far, but I think it may be pertinent and I would like an answer to that question if you think you can. . . ."

Senator Fleming: "It would be pertinent, Senator, but it is ironic that all of a sudden you want to worry whether they are included in minorities. I am sure when Indians were being discriminated against, you were not worrying about that particular situation."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "I have been worried about Indians before you were born."

Senator Fleming: "You have been?"

Senator Van Hollebeke: "That is right."

Senator Fleming: "I am not going to try to get personal with you here on the floor, because you have probably been worried about a lot of things before I was born, since you are older than I am. But secondly, let us say this, Irishmen, Polish, in our history in this country we all at some point in time have ethnic backgrounds and there were discriminations at those particular times. And back in the eastern seashores you had the different communities but they were divided up into communities. And these were the situations. But over the years in this country and other countries, those ethnic minorities have been phased into the over-majorities. By that I mean, they were minorities in a sense through their ethnic background, but by the pigmentation of their skin they have been considered majorities. And the only way the minorities that I have mentioned have continued to be discriminated against by the mere fact of the pigmentation of their skin was of color. And that would indicate to you the definition that we are talking about of minorities."

"Secondly, as far as this board is concerned, I am sure that the electrical contractors will not have any problem with appointing somebody on that board of your ethnic background."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "They might, because mine gets narrowed down pretty far, but thank you for your answer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Would Senator Greive yield? Senator Greive, I have a real concern for the very small electrical contractor. In the rural areas especially we have some very small contractors, even some one-man shops. Would you see the bill and the intent of the membership on the board, do you see some nominations, at least a nomination being made representing the very small electrical contractors?"

Senator Greive: "No."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Greive yield? I would like this for the record."

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I do not really think these questions should be directed to me. I am a very lukewarm supporter of this legislation. It just happened to float through the committee. Now if you want a partisan answer, you are not going to get it from me. Somebody else."

Senator Woodall: "No, not partisan at all. This is very sincere, Senator. We have in some of our small rural areas people who are — you might even call them 'Mr. Fixit.' The kind of people that we can call and get to our homes to do the minor fixing of electrical defects, people who have been doing it for years and years and years. And I want this in the record. Do you feel that the present measure adequately 'grandfathers' in those people in rural areas who have been responding to calls from farmers and small homeowners to do these electrical jobs?"

Senator Greive: "Seriously, I believe that it is intended to do just that, yes."

Debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 1208, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; absent or not voting, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—45.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3096, by Senator Rasmussen:
Providing for review of agency requests for additional housing.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 5, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3096, providing for review of agency requests for additional housing (reported by Committee on State Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 2, line 29, after "committee" and before the period insert "as provided in RCW 43.82.020".

Signed by: Senators Rasmussen, Chairman; Day, Henry, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Wanamaker.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3096 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield to a question? Senator Rasmussen, do you have any indication or any fiscal note as to the additional cost that will be involved in having an OPP&FM review of each of these requests for space? I am quite serious with this question. I can see where somebody feels they need an extra storage closet or one additional office that they have to move into down the hall and the additional cost of reviewing it could be considerable. I am just wondering if you have had an analysis done on that?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, quite frankly, we have not, Senator Francis, because we did not consider that this is the type of request they have been making. The type of request that they have been making has caused us to lease seven hundred and forty-five thousand square feet from Tumwater to Lacey and all the areas in between, and that is the reason why this would probably save money if the OPP&FM would review these, plus the fact that it will make the Legislative Budget Committee aware of them. Now there may or may not be additional expense. It will be very minimal if there is."

Senator Francis: "Do you have any idea how many of these agency requests for new or additional space involve fairly small amounts of space? Do you have any exemption for that or is that a fairly small portion of it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Practically nonexistent. The requests for space that they have had have been for very large in additional quarters."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. MOTION

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Metcalf was excused.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "Senator Whetzel said he was sorry I was not here. I happened to be in the Republican caucus room at that moment. We have everything that is said out here piped in. I heard what you said and I did not hear anything that convinced me of anything."

Absent or not voting: Senators Durkan, Lewis (Harry)—2.

Excused: Senator Metcalf—1.

MOTION

Senator Day moved that Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Whetzel yield? Senator Whetzel, if the Day motion fails, will you remove the appropriation?"

Senator Whetzel: "Yes. I meant to include Senator Day's motion that we take off the appropriation, because I think at this time to send the bill to Ways and Means Committee probably would end up with its not passing and I think that might even be contrary to the interests of Senator Day and Senator Guess, who are not enthusiastic about this legislation, that they might rather have something than nothing."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "I would like to ask Senator Whetzel if he is being consistent. On the one hand he is saying that without the money you will get a set of rules and regulations that are hastily adopted without proper consideration, and now he is proposing to take the appropriation off. I wonder what kind of legislation that is, Senator Whetzel?"

Senator Whetzel: "Senator Guess, if you listened to my remarks, I said that we would make an effort to include the appropriation in the budget bill that is over in the House. I looked on the effort to send the bill to the Ways and Means Committee and to hold it over as an effort to defeat the legislation, and as I said, I am not certain that that is in the best interests of the people who really are concerned about noise control, because if you do not have any legislation, you may find out that you get a lot worse regulations than you would with some state preemption of the field."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator Day, in order to get this fiscal problem in its correct order, would you consent to have Senator Whetzel's amendment heard before yours, his motion, which will be to strike that appropriation? That way, I know that the question was asked of Senator Atwood as to whether or not, if your motion failed, he would then put up his motion. I see he has now put it up before the Secretary of the Senate."

Senator Day: "I think in answer to that question that I would do it, maybe reluctantly, because I think if we strike the appropriation off the bill we have really hamstrung the department's ability to develop the recommendations that should come back to this body. I am not opposed to them having the facility to do that, but if that will facilitate the work of the body, Mr. President, with the consent of the body I will withdraw the motion."

There being no objection, the motion by Senator Day was withdrawn.

Further debate ensued.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 7, section 13, line 6, strike section 13,

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906, together with the pending amendment by Senator Whetzel, was ordered placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Saturday, April 20, 1974.

SECOND READING

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 151, by Senators Atwood, Mardesich and Bailey:

Authorizing a study of retirement systems.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Atwood, Mardesich and Bailey:

On page 1, beginning on line 1, after "WHEREAS," strike the balance of the resolution and insert:

"The legislature and executive branch have historically assumed a commitment to programs of public retirement benefits that are both equitable for retired employees and financially responsible to the taxpayers; and

WHEREAS, Increasing public and professional concern has been expressed about the state's future liability for funding a variety of public retirement programs; and

WHEREAS, The complexity of current retirement formulas makes valid comparisons difficult as between contribution and benefit structures of the various systems, from the standpoint of either equity or responsibility; and

WHEREAS, Recent revisions in public retirement programs have tended to be made through piecemeal amendment of retirement statutes; and

WHEREAS, Similar problems have been addressed in other states, notably New York;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, the House concurring, that the respective Ways and Means Committees and the members of the Public Pension Commission be directed to make a comprehensive joint study of all public retirement programs, with particular reference but not limited to:

(1) The most accurate possible determination of the unfunded liability with respect to current obligations;

(2) The most effective means for funding that liability over the shortest period consonant with anticipated state revenues and expenditure constraints;

(3) Modification of obligations to future employees to provide a balanced retirement program based on total retirement compensation, rather than separation of state retirement benefits from federal Social Security benefits, without jeopardizing current obligations.

(4) Coordination and possible consolidation of all state actuarial functions;

(5) Development of a system of compatible data about all public retirement contributions, benefits, options, anticipated liabilities, and funding; and

(6) Consideration of the legislative rules and joint rules relating to filing and pre-filing of pension bills and amendments; and

(7) The conducting of a joint study of the feasibility and desirability of establishing a new retirement system for all persons employed by state and local government after June 30, 1975.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That any proposed comprehensive new retirement system should include, but not necessarily be limited to, state employees, local government employees, judicial officers, law enforcement officers, firemen, and commissioned officers of the state patrol;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the study shall include one or more alternative benefit structures for a retirement plan covering all employees who are first employed after June 30, 1975, each structure taking into consideration social security payments that are received by retired persons.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That in implementing the study outlined above, the respective Ways and Means Committees:

(1) Be given access to all recent reports, studies and findings in the field of retirement programs, particularly those conducted by the Legislative Budget Committee, the Public Pension Commission and the respective retirement systems; and

(2) Consider recent retirement program revisions in other states.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the respective Ways and Means Committees present a report of their findings and recommendations to the Legislature by January 1975."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Mardesich carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 151 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President, I have been in these marble halls for a good many years and for the first time since I have been here I noticed flowers on a couple of the male Senators' desks. Senator Van Hollebeke, with nine children. I think I am going to write to Ann Landers and get the solution to this matter. It seems so funny to have a very fine lady Senator sitting back there and, by golly, some of our men have flowers today. What do you suppose is happening?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR VAN HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Senator Knoblauch, all I can say is I never look a gift horse in the mouth, and when a beautiful lady sends me flowers, I generally accept them. And I am not saying anything further than that."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "I hold in my hand the newspaper published up in Seattle today which has this remarkable comment, that during the first quarter of this year the gross national product fell five point eight percent. They further say in this article by Mr. Sidney Jones, the chief economist, it is touch and go whether or not in the second quarter we will have a minus growth and a technical recession. I point this out because if you will recall I stood on the floor and said I was not going to vote to spend money that we did not have. I was not going to vote to spend money that was based on somebody's prediction in this state that we were going to have more money than ever before. It now appears that those of us who voted not to spend it before we got it may have been the ones who acted wisely, and those of you who are here in 1975, there may well have been hung a millstone around the necks of the 1975 legislators because with a minus growth and with a fall, you are not going to have the forty-one million dollars that you spent before you got it."

Debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Grant: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, there is being distributed a letter addressed to the President of the United States Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and Members of Congress from the state of Washington. This is not a memorial, not a resolution. It is a letter that is signed thus far by Senator Francis, Senator Fleming, myself, Senator Van Hollebeke, Senator Ridder, Senator Woody, and Senator Mardesich. I simply offer it and would like to ask that it be inserted in the Journal as at least our position relative to the question of impeachment of the President and offer to other members the opportunity to sign this letter."

There being no objection, the following communication was ordered placed in the Journal:

COMMUNICATION

April 19, 1974.

TO: The President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Honorable Peter Rodino, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives; and to each member of Congress from the State of Washington:

WHEREAS, The most ancient and venerable of all traditions of democratic governments is that they have been governments of laws, not merely of men; and

WHEREAS, All persons are equally subject to such laws, no single individual having the right to place himself above the laws; and

WHEREAS, Revelations recent and continuous consistently produce evidence sufficient to establish, beyond the realm of coincidence, that high ranking federal government officials directly associated with the executive branch and the White House have engaged in extensive and deliberate illegal conduct and activities which include, but have not been limited to, burglary, obstruction of justice, perjury, extensive illegal surveillance of private individuals, and gross violation of federal and state campaign and election laws; and

WHEREAS, The President himself has publicly accepted responsibility for many acts of impropriety committed by numerous individuals directly responsible to him; and

WHEREAS, The President has repeatedly shown a considerable degree of reluctance to release vital information and evidence which would have provided full disclosure of the facts involved in the unfortunate progression of clandestine occurrences commonly known as "Watergate"; and

WHEREAS, The President, his administration, the officials thereof, and, above all, the American people are entitled to an orderly and complete disclosure of this matter, which will hopefully restore the people's confidence in the ability of the federal government to administer its duties as provided for by the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Our founding fathers, in their wisdom, prescribed an orderly procedure for the impeachment and trial of all civil officers, including the President, under the mandate of Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States;

NOW, THEREFORE, We respectfully pray that the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives of the 93rd Congress of the United States do send to the House of Representatives a resolution and articles of impeachment specifying the charges against the President as may be determined by the Committee; and

FURTHER, We respectfully pray that the House of Representatives of the United States vote to impeach the President in order that a full public hearing, conducted solely upon documented facts and evidence, be commenced by the Senate of the United States; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this letter be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the President of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to the Honorable Peter Rodino, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, and to each member of Congress from the State of Washington.

UPPERMOST IN OUR MINDS, O GOD, IS THE PEACE OF THE WORLD, AND OUR NEED FOR YOU TO GUIDE THE NATIONS OF MANKIND TO WORK FOR THOSE CONDITIONS WHICH CREATE JUSTICE AND EQUITY FOR ALL PEOPLE. IN OUR OWN LAND, OUR FATHER, HELP US TO FIND WAYS TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE AND TRUST IN OUR NATION'S LEADERS AND IN OUR POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS. STRENGTHEN OUR UNITY, O GOD, DRAWING US CLOSER TOGETHER AS YOU LEAD US INTO THE HIGHER WAYS OF HONESTY, FAIRNESS AND INTEGRITY IN OUR NATIONAL AND LOCAL POLITICS. HELP US NOT TO FORGET THAT AS FREE MEN AND WOMEN WE CANNOT TRULY LIVE WITHOUT STRONG AND INDEPENDENT POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS SUPPORTED BY RESPONSIBLE CITIZENS.

Limiting commercial salmon licenses.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Bill No. 2940 was made a special order of business for 1:00 p.m. today.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3246, by Senators Day and Walgren:

Providing for a special fuel tax.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 16, strike "[until July 1, 1975]" and insert "until July 1, [1975] 1977".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Day, inform the body how many truck fleets have been converted or are in the process of being converted to this propane fuel?"

Senator Day: "I was not at the hearing, Senator, to have that information. There has been a number of truck fleets converted but it is not a very broad thing yet and they are just really beginning to get the fleets and people aware that this is a possible alternative fuel source. When the bill was introduced I told them that just striking the period of time limitation was asking for too much and that would force the legislature to come back and reinstitute the thing, and this way it will be done automatically but it will give them time to get the thing going and get the source - it is quite an expensive conversion, you see, Senator, and what this will do is give them an opportunity to get the thing going but still it will make an automatic cutoff date."

Senator Rasmussen: "I understand that, but what I am concerned with is that there would probably be a large number of truck fleets operating that would be paying no other tax than sales tax for the use of highways, and their license fees."

Senator Day: "There is not that much difference and this is in the experimental stage in the cost, to begin with. It is a little bit cheaper but it also is not quite as efficient as far as mileage is concerned, and consequently, I do not think there is that much difference so it has not really been the burgeoning thing that they thought it was going to be, but they have asked for two more years and an opportunity to try and see if they can use this as an alternative source of fuel. I think that is what the bill intends to give them. Now, Senator Walgren may be able to answer that question because he was at the hearing and conducted the hearing."

Senator Rasmussen: "I would hope so."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Walgren, would you yield to a question please? My concern is that by extending this time to 1977 we would have more truck fleets than we do now that are using propane. Do you have any knowledge as to how many truck fleets? I do not anticipate too many personal cars, but the truck fleets, I understand, are in many instances completely converting to propane because of availability and because it is cheaper, and it would be particularly advantageous because there was no tax on it other than the sales tax. Could you tell me, from the hearings, what information you received?"

Senator Walgren: "It is true that there are more trucks that are changing over than there are personal cars. For a truck it costs somewhere in the neighborhood of about five hundred to six hundred dollars for the conversion, while a private automobile will require up to about seven hundred and fifty dollars. Senator Jolly called to my attention that most of the trucks that have changed over are delivery trucks inside cities, rather than the large trucks out on the highway, and I do not recall that there is any testimony directly as to the number of conversions that have occurred."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well then, these fleets that do change over to propane, they will then be operating without any fuel tax except the sales tax that they pay on propane gas?"

Senator Walgren: "They will have the federal tax. They will not have the regular motor vehicle excise tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Beck yield? Senator, I know there have been quite a number of experimental conversions at considerable expense to the owners. Do you have any information on the cost per mile of operating under gasoline or diesel compared with propane? Is propane a saving of the resource, is what I am trying to get at?"

Senator Beck: "Senator, I cannot give you any facts on that, but it is an expensive conversion and those people who have converted their vehicles have gone to considerable expense to readjust their carburetors to burn this low pressure fuel. I cannot give you the number of people, but they will still have until July 1, 1975 (sic) in which they will not have to pay any motor vehicle fuel tax to help recoup the cost. It is not working out. There are so few vehicles involved that it is almost negligible."

Senator Canfield: "My information that I have, which is rather casual, indicates that the benefits are partly in the field of pollution, partly in the field of saving wear and tear on the motor, but I have not heard any data on the saving of the resource of natural gas or petroleum. That is why I was asking you the question."

Senator Beck: "Testimony has been given that this is much easier on the motor of an automobile. It cuts down considerably on the wear and tear of the motor of the car. It is true that there is a lot of propane gas and if you had a propane burning vehicle during this four or five months that we had this energy shortage, you were able to go ahead and buy propane gas. And there was an ample supply of that. But the thing is so negligible - let us give them another two years. If it does not work, the law automatically expires July 1, 1977."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Day, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3246 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

There being no objection, Senators Dore, Greive and Ridder were excused.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3246, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 4.

Knoblauch, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woody—41.

Voting nay: Senators Matson, Rasmussen, Woodall—3.

Absent or not voting: Senator Lewis (Harry)—1.

Excused: Senators Dore, Greive, Ridder, Sellar—4.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3246, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2906, by Committee on Ecology (originally sponsored by Senator Washington):

Relating to the environment.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 and the following amendment by Senator Whetzel that had been moved for adoption on Friday, April 19, 1974:

On page 7, section 13, line 6, strike section 13.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, I do not think we can expect this department to properly function in this area without some kind of an appropriation or an available resource. Do they have it within their budget or is there some adjustment you can make in the budget?"

Senator Donohue: "This morning, in fact right now, we are in contact with Mr. Biggs of the department to try and find out if it is possible that he can do the study. We feel that, it is definitely our opinion that one hundred and fifty thousand dollars is excessive, that between now and January that this amount of money is not necessary, that amount, and I have contacted Representative Shinpoch pertaining to funding. The budget bill is still over in the House and we are going to find out what is needed to fit it in over there before it comes back."

Senator Day: "All right. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the amendment to page 7, section 13, line 6 striking section 13 was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 6, after "environment" insert a comma.

On page 2, line 8, after "nature" insert a comma.

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Donohue and Jolly:

On page 2, line 10, after "products" and before the period insert " PROVIDED FURTHER, That all agricultural equipment and machinery shall be exempt from the requirements of this act".

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Donohue carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 4, line 29, strike "controlled" and insert "control".

On page 4, line 31, after "special" strike "local".

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Mardesich and Whetzel:

On page 3, after "standards." on line 10, add a new subsection as follows:

(6) Noise levels and rules adopted by the department pursuant to this chapter shall not be effective prior to March 31, 1975.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Whetzel carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Marsh moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, section 5, line 16, after "who" insert "knowingly".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Marsh yield to a question? Senator Marsh, would you accept a further amendment to that, 'knowingly and willfully,' with the addition of the word 'willfully'?"

Senator Marsh: "It would be acceptable to me."

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Marsh was adopted:

After "knowingly" added by the Marsh amendment, insert "and willfully".

The motion by Senator Marsh carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess:

On page 3, line 18, after the period strike the remainder of the section and insert: "All violations of this act shall be administered pursuant to the provisions of RCW 34.04, the state administrative procedures act."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Whetzel: "Does your amendment, Senator Guess, strike down through line 24 or does it strike the entire remainder of the section?"

Senator Guess: "The entire remainder of the section."

Senator Whetzel: "I wonder if you really want to go that far, if you would not prefer to have some method of appeal to the Pollution Control Hearings Board and an opportunity to go into court?"

Senator Guess: "Are you suggesting that we leave in line 25 and the remainder?"

Senator Whetzel: "That would be my suggestion, that you may actually have a better opportunity for someone who is given a notice of violation to appeal to the Pollution Control Hearings Board."

Senator Guess: "I would accept a verbal amendment to that, Senator."

Senator Whetzel: "Then we would just strike down through line 24 so that the notice of the violation would have to comply with the administrative procedure act, but then you could appeal to the Pollution Control Hearings Board."

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Guess was adopted:

Strike the words "strike the remainder of the section" and insert "strike the balance of the paragraph down through "section." on line 24".

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted: Senator Canfield moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 14, after "field." add the following: "This act shall apply to AA counties only."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Canfield failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "penalties;" strike "making an appropriation;"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Whetzel, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Washington yield to a question? Senator Washington, under an amendment that was put up by Senators Mardesich and Whetzel which I believe was adopted, the rules and regulations under this bill shall not be effective prior to March 31, 1975. First, am I correct in that; and secondly, will you request that the department report their proposed rules and regulations to you prior to the end of 1974 so that we will have a chance to review those rules and regulations?"

Senator Washington: "I think that what I would say is I would request from the chairman of the Ecology Committee that they submit them to us prior to or at the time of the commencement of the legislature in 1975."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Washington yield? Do you have any assurance that the amendments which we have proposed will be left on if we pass this or will they all be penciled out?"

Senator Washington: "I have no knowledge one way or the other on that, Senator Woodall. I wish I could give you assurances but I am in no position to do that."

Senator Woodall: "Thank you."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2906 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 5; absent or not voting, 1; excused, 2.

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senators Greive and Woodall who had previously been excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 2940, by Committee on Natural Resources (endorsed by Senators Peterson (Lowell), Metcalf, Sandison, Peterson (Ted), Lewis (Harry) and Talley):

Limiting commercial salmon licenses.

The time having arrived, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 2940.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Third Substitute Senate Bill No. 2940 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 2940 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2 of the third substitute bill, section 2, line 8, after "1977" and before the period insert "PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed to authorize any permit or license which is unlawful under Title 75 RCW or any regulation promulgated thereunder"

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bailey failed and the amendment was not adopted on a rising vote.

Senator Day moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, following line 9, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No commercial fishermen licensed under the terms of this bill shall be allowed to fish within three miles of the shorelines of the state of Washington with any gear other than line and hook."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Day failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2 of the third substitute bill, following section 2, add a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Each license or vessel delivery permit shall be restricted to a single licensing district."

Renumber the following sections.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bailey failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Bailey moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, following line 9, section 7, insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In addition to the licenses and permits authorized by this act the boards of review sitting jointly with the director shall have discretionary power to issue additional licenses and permits in number not to exceed a figure equal to three percent of the total number of permits and licenses issued in the previous year for each designated license and permit classification. In issuing such additional licenses and permits the board of review and the director of fisheries shall give special consideration to the previous training and commercial fishing experience of the applicant."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Senator Mardesich moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Bailey:

On line 7 after "to" and before "percent" strike "three" and insert "one and one-half"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Would you be willing to add an addition to that amendment and limit the one and one-half percent to gillnetters only? After all, when you deal in purse seining and you deal in other types of fishing, there are not that many. There would be a lot fewer purse seining boats and it would seem to me that you might limit it to three or four boats."

Senator Mardesich: "It seems to me that if the philosophy applies in the case of gillnetters it applies in the case of all types of licenses. If some son has been fishing with his father for fifteen years and he is now old enough to get out into the business on his own and he happens to have been brought up in the purse seine rather than the gillnet area, why not allow him also that freedom to get in."

Senator Greive: "But, Senator, is it not true that the vast majority of purse seiners do not live from the Sound alone or from the waters of the state of Washington alone? They live basically from Alaska and other waters and this is just an extra something that might encourage them to locate here rather than the state of Oregon or somewhere else. So would it not seem that since this is just something extra as far as they are concerned, something to make a successful rather than an unsuccessful season, and since it might limit it to two or three boats and there are a number of people who has opposed this bill who want to get into the business, especially younger people, and some gillnetters, for instance, that would like to be purse seiners, would it not make good sense to make a different limitation where you would have so many fewer boats than you do in the case of gillnetting?"

Senator Mardesich: "I really do not know what the statistics are with respect to how many boats come from Alaska. I do know that there are gillnetters who come down. There are purse seiners who come down. And on the other hand, there are probably as many of us who go up there during the season. So it is a two-way street, and it would seem to me, although this amendment does not address itself to the question of how those additional permits might be allocated, I would assume that they would do it on a lot basis but there is nothing that prohibits giving preference to local residents, as I see it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Would Senator Mardesich yield to a question? Senator Mardesich, could you perhaps give me a little more background information on this? You mentioned that, I think you said it was gillnetters, we have in excess of two thousand presently licensed. How many trollers approximately? I know that you do not have exact figures but approximately how many trollers?"

Senator Mardesich: "I do not recall. I would suspect that the trolling fleet is one quarter of the gillnet field, perhaps four or five hundred, and given the seiners, I really do not know. I would guess maybe seven hundred or about eight hundred or something like that."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Seven to eight hundred perhaps in seiners and you think the trollers about five hundred?"

Senator Mardesich: "I am just guessing."

Senator Van Holleke: "Just a rough guess?"

Senator Mardesich: "Right. Is there anyone around on staff? Or maybe Senator Peterson can help on this."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Senator Mardesich, I think if we are talking about the kelper, the long line trollers and combining them, I think we are talking more around four thousand if you take the total segment."

Senator Mardesich: "The total segment of what? Trollers and kelpers together?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Trollers and kelpers together. They do not differentiate or break down in the licensing procedures to license the long line troller or the kelper. It comes under the same category."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Bailey yield to a question please? Senator Bailey, we have a little discussion going back here as to whether it is three percent a year or three percent in the four year period. Are we compounding each year?"

Senator Bailey: "It says 'previous year' and I judge that would be yearly. Now that is no issue with me. I think we are accomplishing the principle involved that Senator Peterson, the two Petersons, are trying to put over, and that is a limitation. The three percent is only discretionary. The board has to find hardship or a good reason for this even to grant the three percent. It would be my idea it would be three percent per year."

The motion by Senator Mardesich failed and the amendment to the amendment by Senator Bailey was not adopted.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talley: "Would Senator Metcalf yield? What if the three percent restriction is only applied to Puget Sound? Would you take it that way?"

Senator Metcalf: "I believe that a limitation is a limitation and I think it should be a limitation. If the body amends it and adds this amendment or applies it to Puget Sound only, I will still vote for the bill when it is on final passage but I believe that we--this is a moratorium bill and I think we should have a year moratorium bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Day: "Will Senator Bailey yield? I would appear to me, Senator Bailey, that rather than put the department in this very advantageous position, as you have already done with these other licenses, would it not be better to put the limit on and then put a limit on the amount that the man could obtain in the transfer of a license? In other words, limit the amount of the sale of the license, so that you would not make a bonanza out of this for people that happened to have licenses?"

Senator Bailey: "Senator Day, that is a good idea, I think, but it is so complicated and the variation of the price of license that it probably would defeat the bill at this time. I just could not be worked out.

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Talley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, following line 9 add a new section 8 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any Indian fisherman or white fisherman, who is fishing for commercial sale or use, must fish in pairs, and when fish are sold, receipts shall be divided equally."

Renumber remaining sections.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talley failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendments:

On page 3, line 13, after "be" strike "informal" and insert "formal" and on line 14 after "shall" strike "not"

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, the amendment by Senator Rasmussen was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Woody, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 14, after "proceedings" insert "and a record shall be kept thereof as provided by chapter 34.04 RCW"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, beginning on line 12, strike all of section 14.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen carried and the amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the following amendment to the title was adopted:

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "appropriation" strike "; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed Third Substitute Senate Bill No. 2940 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Would Senator-Metcalf yield to a question? Senator, how many boats could Whidbey-Fidalgo, which is now owned by Japanese interests, have under this one license? How many licenses? How would that work in that particular industry?"

Senator Metcalf: "I have no idea as to how many they own today. I would only suggest that when you come to the time to limit the licenses, this is one thing . . ."

Senator Greive: "Can they have a number of boats under one license and do they . . ."

Senator Metcalf: "No. Each boat is individually licensed and that is the limitation we are putting on this."

Senator Greive: "Where is that in the bill? Would you point that out to me? I think it is an important question. I want to know how many licenses, in other words, if you have a corporate license can you have a number of boats . . ."

Senator Metcalf: "Each vessel is licensed. That is what this is."

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I think section 5 addresses itself to that. 'No person, sole proprietorship, partnership or any other profit or nonprofit entity of any kind shall increase the number of licenses held,' and that was fairly well restricted. To get more relative to your question, this came up in committee, Senator Greive, and at the present time there are very few corporate cannery owned fishing vessels holding licenses in the department."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Third Substitute Senate Bill No. 2940 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 36; nays, 13.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Dore, Durkan, Francis, Henry, Herr, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody-36.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Donohue, Fleming, Grant, Greive, Guess, Jolly, Odegaard, Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Van Hollebeke, Washington-13.

ENGROSSED THIRD SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 2940, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson (Lowell), Engrossed Third Substitute Senate Bill No. 2940 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3283, by Senators Durkan, Odegaard, Donohue, Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington and Woody:

Authorizing property tax exemptions and rental support programs for elderly, poor, and infirm persons.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Donohue, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3283 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 10, after "revenue" and before the period insert a new subsection as follows:

"(5) The term "income" shall mean the net income after deductions and exemptions authorized under federal income tax laws have been subtracted from gross income"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Rasmussen yield? Senator, under your amendment, might not these conditions be true? A person could have a very substantial income, maybe even a million dollars, and by depletion allowances, by depreciation, by write-offs, by interest payments, by investment losses, you can name a whole slug of them, he could end up being supported at public expense, under your amendment. Is that not true?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I think what you say is true, that we are supporting a lot of people with public assistance that should not be supported. Yes, frankly, I can agree with that, but I do not think that my amendment would do that, Senator Canfield."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? Senator Donohue, as this proposed bill now stands, Senate Bill 3283, what is the total fiscal impact? Was it twenty million?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, the total fiscal impact of this bill is twelve million, but the present fiscal impact is eight point four. We are adding three point six million additional relief under this bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well then, the total would be twelve plus eight."

Senator Donohue: "No, no. The present law, with the four thousand, six thousand dollar exemption amounts to eight point four million dollars. We in our amendment are extending that and adding three point six for a total of twelve million."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you. Would you answer one more question? What is the present method of filing for tax relief?"

Senator Donohue: "The present method is an application, a regular application which is annually, and all people have to do it annually, every year, and that is all there is to it."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is what I thought. Is there any means of checking that you know and does anyone do any checking as to the truth of the statements?"

Senator Donohue: "I have not talked to any assessors as to how far they check, so I guess the answer is that I do not know, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator Donohue. Mr. President, this is exactly the point that I was making with this amendment as I offered it, that there is no checking now and this same party that Senator Canfield mentioned might have a million dollars worth of income, may come in and show his social security statement or railroad retirement or civil service pension, state pension, and then completely forget about filing the income from his oil wells down in California or Oklahoma, and there is nobody that does any checking. And this was what I was aiming at. Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Rasmussen showed us this amendment before and I have had a chance to do a little work, as Senator Donohue has also done. He has mentioned the numbers of people and the income that would be exempt from partial or total special levy relief. Senator Canfield, in answer to your question that Senator Rasmussen did not answer, the answer is, you are absolutely right. Add to that tax free bonds, all the other kinds of nontaxable income. Senator Rasmussen goes further than he says, because rather than simply filing your income tax and using the gross income as a means of checking, he adopts the net income approach, the net effect of which is to build in to our exemptions all of the evils of the federal income tax system. And Slim, you are just hitting a sledge hammer where you needed a very fine paring knife."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rasmussen, the amendment was withdrawn.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Donohue yield to a question? I had a phone call this morning, a fellow was rather upset, and he says by changing this formula and knocking out any credit for social security, he actually will have his taxes raised. I think there are twenty-five thousand such cases in King County that are presently getting this exemption. Has your staff made a study? Generally I realize it is tax relief for the majority of people in view of the large appropriations you have added into the bill, but will any number of those twenty-five thousand people actually, by the fact you have knocked out federal social security, be paying more taxes or is there no case where they will be paying more taxes?"

Senator Donohue: "There might be a case, very few people who would be paying more taxes than they are today, but I will explain, Senator, that we are raising the exemption from six thousand to seven thousand, and in doing so we took care of the large, large majority of those people. I do not have a specific number but the staff tells me that this would solve the problem that you are speaking to."

Senator Dore: "Maybe this is an unfair question but the man who called apparently had taken the bill down to the assessor and applied it to his situation and he finds out he is going to pay more taxes because his credit is not allowed under this new exemption bill. He lives in a house valued at about, oh, I would say sixteen, seventeen thousand dollars. I was quite taken aback about it and he started lobbying me to vote against the bill and I said, 'No, this is going to help you, not hurt you,' and it is kind of hard to argue against the man that has gone down with the bill to Mr. Hoppe to find out what additional taxes he would pay, so I just wondered if this is just an isolated example. Has your staff made any studies or what?"

Senator Donohue: "According to the staff, Senator, as I remarked earlier, there are a few people but the main group of people will be helped because of the raise of the exemptions from six to seven thousand dollars."

MOTIONS

Senator Bottiger moved that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 be placed on the second reading calendar for Sunday, April 21, 1974.

Senator Donohue moved that Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 be placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Sunday, April 21, 1974.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "If we hold the bill over, I would like to ask Senator Donohue a question. Senator Donohue, every time we go back home and we have given tax credit, the county commissioners jump all over me because we have cost them some more money. Now, can you assure me that this is not going to do more damage to the county government and the county financing? For instance, on the rollback they were very unhappy that we had cost them a lot of money. Is this going to cost the county commissioners in the operation of the county government more funds?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator, if you remember the appropriation bill that we passed several days ago, we had one point four million four to take care of the state portion of the property tax to take care of schools. Under the one hundred and six percent limitation law which pertains to dollars, the counties and local taxing districts can pick this up and not cost them any money."

Senator Guess: "Okay. Thank you very much."

The motion by Senator Donohue carried. Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 was ordered placed at the beginning of the second reading calendar for Sunday, April 21, 1974.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3274, by Senator Bottiger:
Relating to fire districts.

REPORT ON STANDING COMMITTEE

April 16, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3274, relating to fire districts (reported by Committee on Local Government):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

Strike all material after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 52.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any fire protection district which provides first aid vehicle service pursuant to RCW 52.08.030, may pursuant to a resolution establish and collect reasonable charges for such services in order to reimburse the district for its costs of providing such services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 52.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any fire protection district which provides ambulance service pursuant to RCW 52.08.030, shall pursuant to a resolution establish and collect charges for such services in order to reimburse the district for all costs of providing such service."

In line 1 of the title, after "districts" and before "." insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 52.36 RCW"

Signed by: Senators Beck, Connor, Jolly, Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Murray, Ridder, Sellar, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments were adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the committee amendment to the title was adopted.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3274 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Bottiger yield? Senator, are these charges levied against the user of the ambulance service or is it just put on the general bill of the district? In other words, do they budget 'x' dollars for ambulance service or, if I need ambulance service, charge me personally and directly?"

Senator Bottiger: "They would charge you. Now keep in mind there are two subjects, emergency service and ambulance service. We are talking about ambulance service, the run by the fire district ambulance from Prosser to Yakima, would get a bill if your fire district had adopted a resolution charging for that service? Yes, sir."

Senator Canfield: "The bill would come to me and it would not be absorbed by the district with everybody paying a little share?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, sir, the individual would be billed for the service."

Senator Canfield: "Now my second question is, you remember you are interested in a service charge bill last January or February, remember? Does this add to that or how does it relate to it? Would you explain that please?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is an entirely different subject. That was a method whereby fire districts could charge. . . ."

Senator Canfield: "I understand the other bill, but this is over and above that service."

Senator Bottiger: "Okay, Senator Canfield, few fire districts have ambulance service. Most of them now have emergency service, but those that have ambulance service, especially in the remote areas, simply are providing it on a demand basis and they do not have to pass a resolution charging for it but if they could eliminate or reduce other charges and other taxes by billing the individual who, as I say, ninety percent of whom are covered by insurance anyhow, if they could reduce their other expenses through this source that is available."

Senator Canfield: "Do you remember, Senator, that these service charges were to be adopted following a vote of the people in a district, remember? And these particular service charges are applied to the individual who uses that service directly. Is that what we are saying in this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is correct."

Senator Canfield: "Thank you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Bottiger yield to a question? Senator Bottiger, I understand the intent of this bill and I am for it. I am a little curious though. I see House Bill 1526 was read in this morning providing a lien for services by ambulance companies. This bill contains no provisions for an automatic lien, does it?"

Senator Bottiger: "No, sir."

Senator Rasmussen: "You do not know anything about this?"

Senator Bottiger: "I have not read that bill, Senator. I do not think it pertains to fire districts. That must be commercial ambulances. Nobody has ever told me about it."

Senator Rasmussen: "It was just read in this morning here. Thank you."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3274, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 49.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—49.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3274 having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was order to stand as the title of the act.

Signed by: Senators Fleming, Chairman; Beck, Murray, Ridder, Sellar, Whetzel.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

On motion of Senator Fleming, the committee amendments were adopted.

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, section 2, line 12, after "a" and before "county" strike "city, town, or"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Would Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Senator Whetzel, do you think we have a problem with that as discussed in committee? The reason that was in there, they refer to an area like Ocean Shores or some areas where there might be a consolidation situation and this was put in there sort of as a protection for some of those areas."

Senator Whetzel: "Senator, we never had any clear explanation and it would not apply in the event of consolidation and I am not certain why it was there and if somebody from Ocean Shores wants, has some special problem, we will take care of that next January. This bill was designed for Pierce County and we King County mice are doing our best to help Pierce County out in this situation."

Senator Fleming: "Okay, I just asked the question because you are the one who raised the question, and this bill refers to the entire state. Pierce County just has a bigger problem."

Senator Whetzel: "There is no other problem. No one else has expressed any interest whatsoever in this piece of legislation other than our country cousins down in Pierce County. We are trying to help them with their problem. We thought we would zero in on their problem; instead of putting a class A county restriction we are going ahead helping Pierce County and without any agricultural exemption or a big city exemption. We are just going ahead and doing it for them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Would Senator Whetzel yield? Senator, some years ago we had a kind of a lien clause which a lot of people did not like and this has a similar element in it and this has another very interesting thing. I wonder if I read the bill right where it says that if the low income person cannot pay and chooses to defer, then the taxing district will issue bonds, general obligation bonds, which you and I have to pay to make up for his deferral. Is that correct or not?"

Senator Whetzel: "No, they are secured by the property involved in this. It is simply a special assessment deferral program."

Senator Canfield: "Does the bill or does not the bill say that the charge shall be financed through general obligation bonds levied against the entire district?"

Senator Whetzel: "I think maybe when we get to final passage you might want to direct your question on that to Senator Bottiger, who is more cognizant with that aspect of the bill than I am, but I think you are correct that there are—you have to raise the money to pay the contractor who bills the special assessment and if you are going to allow deferred payment you have to get that money from somewhere. So you do issue GO bonds necessary for the deferred assessment. Then as those deferred assessments are ultimately paid, of course, you pay back those GO bonds. You have, in effect, security for the GO bonds. You have the property. You have a lien on the property and all those things so, yes, they are kind of GO bonds but they do kind of have a specific charge on the property which is benefited by the special assessment."

Senator Canfield: "And no charge upon the general taxpayer?"

Senator Whetzel: "The interest on the GO bonds is also picked up and paid as part of the deferral program, so presumably there is no cost to the county overall."

Senator Canfield: "That is one thing I have got to see. I hope that Senator Bottiger will—would he approve of your statement?"

Senator Whetzel: "I cannot speak for Senator Bottiger."

Senator Canfield: "May I ask Senator Bottiger that question, Mr. President?"

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, Senator Canfield, I basically approve of Senator Whetzel's statement, if that helps. The testimony that we have had on this bill, first of all you should know that cities already have this authority with a similar deferral program. Counties had never really asked for it because they never got into this kind of business before. But now they are under the county service bill in the sewer business and so they asked for the same type of deferral for the low income, retired or disabled people that cities were able to get. Drawing on the experience of cities, we found that very, very few people ever used this but the rare case where it is necessary for someone to be able to stay in their home, it permits that use. Now in Oregon the use, and I do not have the exact figure, but it was strikingly small, and the cities reported at the hearing that they had very, very few people applying in cities. But again, the rare case, it was necessary to keep the person in their home. As a result, the cities, rather than ever issuing bonds, simply picked it up in the slack money in a project and were able to continue that on and as the person who had applied died or sold the property or something, they paid off the obligation and the whole thing worked out. But it takes care of the few cases where somebody simply cannot pay that assessment and stay in their home, and they are able to apply and go under this system."

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 3, section 4, line 13, after "Any" strike "city or town in a county or such"

On page 3, section 4, beginning on line 21 with "property" strike all the matter down to and including "residence, and" on line 27, and insert "persons"

Senator Whetzel moved adoption of the following amendments simultaneously:

x On

On page 5, section 7, line 8, after "by the" and before the comma strike "assessor" and insert "treasurer"

On page 5, section 7, line 17, after "to the" and before the period strike "assessor" and insert "treasurer"

On page 5, section 7, line 18, after "county" and before "shall" strike "assessor" and insert "treasurer"

On page 5, section 10, line 33, after "county" and before "or" strike "assessor" and insert "treasurer"

POINT OF INQUIRY

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Duane Johnson and Karen Marshall, presented the Colors. Reverend Paul J. Beeman, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

“O GOD, OUR LOVING AND COMPASSIONATE FATHER, WHO IS MORE CONCERNED ABOUT THE NEEDS OF YOUR CHILDREN THAN ABOUT THE POPULARITY OF EVEN YOUR OWN NAME: WE COME TO YOU ON BEHALF OF THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, AND ALL THOSE WHO ARE MEMBERS OF THIS BODY. WE COME PRAYING, AS IN THOUSANDS OF PRAYERS BEFORE, FOR UNITY OF THOUGHT AND ACTION, LED BY YOUR LOVE. WE COME PRAYING FOR YOUR DIVINE GUIDANCE. WE THANK YOU FOR ALL THE GOOD DECISIONS MADE AT THIS SESSION, AND AT ITS PRECEDING SISTER SESSIONS. WE THANK YOU FOR ALL SENATORS WHO HAVE STRUGGLED AGAINST GREAT ODDS FOR THE BEST THAT THEIR COLLECTIVE CONSCIENCES COULD LEGISLATE. BUT WE PRAY FOR YOUR FORGIVENESS FOR EACH SENATOR WHO HAS HAD A HAND IN BAD LEGISLATION. FORGIVE THOSE WHO HAVE PUT THE GATHERING OF A FEW MORE DOLLARS INTO THE GENERAL FUND AHEAD OF CONCERN FOR THOSE WHO ARE THE YET UNNAMED VICTIMS OF OPEN GAMBLING. FORGIVE ACTION THAT MAY SPELL BODILY TRAGEDY FOR THOSE WHO CONFUSE FLASHING SIGNBOARDS WITH TRAFFIC LIGHTS. FORGIVE ACTION THAT MAY TAKE TOO MUCH PUBLIC WATER FOR TOO SMALL PRIVATE GAIN. FORGIVE ANY EXPRESSIONS WHICH HAVE PUT FUTURE ELECTION RETURNS AHEAD OF THE WELFARE OF ALL OUR STATE'S CITIZENS. WE GIVE YOU THANKS FOR THIS BODY, O GOD. HELP EACH MEMBER TO PUT ASIDE PARTISANSHIP AND PRIVILEGE. SO MANY OF US WANT TO SEE NOBLE QUALITIES IN OUR BODY POLITIC – LIKE PURITY OF MOTIVE, JUSTICE FOR ALL OUR PEOPLE, AND LOVE MADE TANGIBLE FOR EVEN OUR WEAKEST NEIGHBORS. BLESS EVERYONE IN THIS ROOM WHO SEEKS THESE GODLY ENDS AND FORGIVE THOSE WHO MISS THE MARK, WE PRAY IN THE NAME OF THE MASTER, WHOSE LOVE WAS COMPLETE, EVEN UNTO THE END. AMEN.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I would just like to announce that today is opening day of fishing season and the lowland lakes of the state are crowded with fishermen. And in addition to that, if Abe Lincoln were alive today he would roll over in his grave."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of Senate Bill No. 3042.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3042, by Senators Grant, Connor, Dore, Mardesich and Ridder:
Enacting a state labor-management relations act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3042, and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time in full.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, may I ask of Senator Grant, in preparing amendments, I noticed in the Digest that the bill purportedly at least pursuant to the Digest, did not exempt agricultural employees and I wanted to prepare an amendment to see that it did. If Senator Grant could respond as to whether it does or not and give me the citation and the place in the bill."

Senator Grant: "Mr. President, Senator Bottiger, agricultural employees are excluded by the act on lines 21 and 22 on page 2. They are excluded in the definition of the term 'employee'."

Senator Bottiger: "Thank you, Senator Grant. I see those references on lines 21 and 22 of page 2 expressly excluding agricultural employees, so I do not need an amendment."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "A clerical error, Senator Bottiger. It should have been 'excludes' instead of 'includes'."

MOTIONS

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 13, after "organization." add the following: "The term "employer" does not include any employer having fifteen employees or less."

Senator Donohue moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment by Senator Matson:

Amend the Matson amendment to page 2, line 13, as follows: In the second line of the amendment after "having" strike "fifteen" and insert "five".

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MATSON

Senator Matson: "This amendment simply puts in a threshold of fifteen employees. It is our feeling that small employers should be excluded from the act and that is the purpose of the amendment.”

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: “Will Senator Grant yield? Senator Grant, you said there is no threshold in the federal act and yet, in effect there is. Is that not true?”

Senator Grant: “Senator Matson, the national labor relations act and, of course, national legislation, can only deal with businesses engaged in interstate commerce and they have set certain requirements as far as what amount of commerce, interstate commerce, must be engaged in. They have also set a dollar amount in the rules of the national labor relations board, but as far as there being a threshold in the act itself, there is none to my knowledge.”

Senator Matson: “My point is this, there are obviously a number of employers in this state who are excluded under the federal act. Most of those are small employers, so in effect there is a threshold in the national act. That is my point.”

Senator Greive: “To answer Senator Matson more accurately, yes, there is a threshold, and in general if it is nonretailing in interstate commerce it is fifty thousand dollars. If it is retailing, it is five hundred thousand dollars. And that is the way that the national labor relations act went to interpret the thing. In other words, rather than going by the number of employees, they used a different device which is the very point we make, that if you do not put a threshold in here that the board itself can either use a device such as they use with dollars or they can use a device the number of employees such as what you suggest, but at least we have left it then to their discretion and that is the important point. In other words, we who do not want a threshold enacted into the bill do not necessarily mean that there are not situations where the bargaining unit should be such that it should not apply. I am sure that there were many, many situations in which it should. But we are saying that this is a case by case consideration and one that should be considered by somebody who is looking at that particular industry at the time, somebody who has presumably information and background which is essential at the time, to make that determination rather than making some determination now that would be meaningful. Obviously, it is going to be pretty hard to find any, if you look at the national act, it is going to be pretty hard to find any employer anywhere who does fifty thousand dollars who does not have more than two employees. Or any retail outfit that does five hundred thousand that does not have more than two employees. So that they just did not address themselves in the national act to the question of threshold as it is being suggested here. They just did not address it at all. They said you have to have at least two and they went a money route. Now it may very well be that our board would decide that money or volume of business is the way to go.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson (Ted): “Would Senator Donohue yield? Senator, when you started out you said that no one had lobbied you at all on the bill. No one has even asked you for it, and I am just trying to figure the rationale as to your statement and your actions that you took. You said that they had not lobbied you, no one had talked to you, but you did amend it to come down to five. Now is that because of your business as farming, is that why you did that? What is the rationale on that?”

Senator Donohue: “Senator Peterson, I am concerned, of course, about the fact that as I mentioned that eventually somebody is going to make a move to put all agricultural laborers under this act. But I am more concerned about getting this thing out on the floor and getting some action and getting the thing going so we can all go home. We have been messing around here talking about this for the last week and it is time we get down to the nitty gritty and vote. Now I have things to do. Maybe some do not, but I have work to do at home and I intend, if at all possible, to bring this out here and get a vote on it so we can all go home. I think that is what we all want to do. That is the reason.”

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "If we vote five instead of fifteen, is the body then able to vote no threshold or have we made a decision?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the members of the Senate could vote the amendment as amended down and that, in essence, would leave no threshold."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the amendment by Senator Donohue to the amendment by Senator Matson.

Senator Dore demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Bailey, Washington, Connor, Peterson (Lowell), Herr, Rasmussen, Walgren, Ridder, Van Hollebeke and von Reichbauer.

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Donohue to the amendment by Senator Matson.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Donohue to the amendment by Senator Matson was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 16.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bottiger, Canfield, Day, Donohue, Francis, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—33.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Beck, Clarke, Connor, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Grant, Greive, Herr, Knoblauch, Rasmussen, Ridder, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer—16. Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BAILEY

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, Senator Francis certainly does not use any logic and if he is illogical he has no business talking for me in explaining the way I voted. I voted against that amendment. I intend to vote against the amendment that is before us. I did not believe in any threshold. Now, any way you want to twist that, Senator Francis, do so but keep it honest."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of the amendment by Senator Matson as amended by Senator Donohue.

Senator Greive demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Woody, Walgren, Francis, Dore, Mardesich, Herr, Connor, Van Hollebeke and Knoblauch.

REMARKS BY SENATOR MARDESICH

Senator Mardesich: "With the leave of the Senate, I might add a comment or two. There has been an attempt to try to straighten out how people are voting, and the fact of the matter is that in enacting any piece of legislation there is a certain amount of compromise involved. And I think the fact is that without a threshold of five, if the threshold had been any lower, there would be no state labor relations act passed at this time. And I think that there are those of us who feel better than to have no bill at all that we should go with the threshold of five. There are those people in labor who take the position that they do not believe that is so. Well, I think that they are better off that way than the other way. Like anyone else, I also understand a little bit about negotiation. If you want to be high, why you start a little higher and then you come down. So I understand the name of that game, and I think that I have had enough labor people talk to me about their feelings on the matter, and they would rather have the bill with a threshold of five than have no bill at all. And that is enough to make my mind up."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Matson, as amended by Senator Donohue.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment, as amended, was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 14.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Day, Donohue, Fleming, Francis, Guess, Henry, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Talley, Twigg, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—35.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Connor, Dore, Durkan, Grant, Greive, Herr, Rasmussen, Ridder, Stortini, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer—14.

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment, as amended by Senator Donohue, was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

In explanation of our vote on the amendment to the amendment on Senate Bill No. 3042, which would have lowered the threshold from 15 to 5, we voted against the amendment to the amendment and against the amendment itself because we did not believe in any threshold in the bill.

Signed by: Senators Bailey, Greive, Dore, Ridder and von Reichbauer.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Grant, the following amendments were adopted:

On page 2, line 27 strike "employee" and insert "employer".

On page 5, line 21, after "director" insert ", with such additional legal assistance consistent with chapter 43.10 RCW,"

On page 5, line 28, after "employees" insert ", including attorneys,"

On page 17, line 4, after "subsection" strike "(b)" and insert "(2)".

On page 17, line 8, after "subsection" strike "(c)" and insert "(3)".

On page 18, line 23, strike "(c)" and insert "(3)".

On page 20, line 1, after "board" insert "or the charging party".

On page 20, beginning on line 1, after "petition the" strike "court of appeals" and insert "superior court".

On page 21, line 1, after "by the" strike "supreme court in the manner provided by law." and insert "appropriate court of appeals if application was made to the superior court as hereinabove provided, and by the supreme court in the manner provided by law."

On page 23, line 16, strike "8" and insert "9".

Senator Lewis (Harry) moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 21, strike "as an agricultural laborer, or".

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Matson, the amendment by Senator Lewis (Harry) was laid upon the table.

Senator Greive moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Greive, Fleming and Grant:

On page 8, line 7, after "act" strike the period, insert a semicolon and the following:

"(6) To refuse to bargain with or to refuse to cooperate with or assist any labor organization regarding compliance with the conditions of an affirmative action program or any program or plan designed to assure compliance by the employer with the provisions of state or federal laws relating to equal employment opportunity for all regardless of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status or physical or mental handicap."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Odegaard: "Mr. President, would Senator Fleming yield? Senator Fleming, in my particular instance from a legislative district with very few number of minorities, not all Belgians either, would this require under this program a certain percentage of minorities who would have to be brought into my district?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Odegaard, an affirmative action program really does not deal necessarily in percentages. What they are trying to do is eliminate situations that have been there in the past. You might not have a certain percentage of minorities or blacks in your community, but you probably have Indians, Chicanos, or whatever, and they are minorities. And what affirmative action program does is to try to make sure that those people get a chance that they have not gotten before, by hiring them, by training them, and by trying to retain them, but it does not say that you have to have a certain percentage. Now, the company itself develops a plan as it relates to the federal guidelines and so forth and says that, 'We will make a reasonable effort to do these kinds of things,' and hopefully that plan that they set up will be in accordance with the guidelines that are set up on the federal level. And according to the area, if you have a small percentage of minorities, then your affirmative action program will be dealing around a smaller percentage of minorities than in Seattle or elsewhere."

Senator Guess: "To further clarify for Senator Odegaard, the minority population in eastern Washington, for instance, is approximately two percent. The home town plan or what we call the Spokane plan and then the plan that is called the Southeast Washington plan goes up to about four percent minority in the plan. They have worked this thing out on a very logical method. The big problem that we have had is getting apprentices into these plans and to retain them. And as long as one employer, it does not require that a single employer have four percent of his people on his payroll as long as he is a member of the area plan, and the area is employing the four percent in the apprenticeship grades of all of the crafts, then he is then held to be in compliance. So I think this amendment will help us in retaining and training the minorities that we need to train."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, first, would Senator Fleming please yield to a question? Feel up to it, Senator Fleming? I am really looking for a little help on this and as far as I can tell, we both have the same aims in mind here. I do not want to see any discrimination in any way because of race, creed, color, etc. Can you tell me, if we did not do this, do we already have sufficient protection under present law, both federal and state statutory and constitutional – that is statutory too of course – law? Do we really need this, as you understand it, to accomplish these ends?"

Senator Fleming: "To answer your question, Senator Van Hollebeke, we do need it. We do have federal laws and they set out guidelines, but we do also have projects that deal with local funds and state funds and we have some executive orders that deal with state agencies, but we do not have all the protection that we need, and what this does is reiterate the policy of our state and try and make possible that these things take place because you have to realize that there are labor unions that are under court order now in the city of Seattle because they have not really agreed to go along with . . ."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "They are under court order to comply?"

Senator Fleming: "Yes."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "That they have been out of compliance and have been ordered to comply?"

Senator Fleming: "Yes."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "But you said now we need to reiterate, and that is the main purpose here, to reiterate? What I am worried about is sometimes that we may possibly confuse the law, make it ambiguous by adding this in many places. And that is what I am trying to address myself to, partly."

Senator Fleming: "I do not think we will be confusing anyone. I think that we will be putting those labor unions that said that they are interested in all workers on notice that the state of Washington means business when we said that we want everybody to have an opportunity in this state to get a job, to be trained, to advance, be they minority or female."

Senator Van Hollebeke: "You have answered my question. Thank you."

The motion by Senator Greive carried and the amendment by Senators Greive, Fleming and Grant was adopted.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 10, line 21, after "exaction" and before the semicolon, insert ", for makework or services which are not performed or not to be performed".

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "You will notice that before I spoke against the amendment I wanted to get more clarification because I am not all that sure on this myself. Maybe Senator Grant or Senator Matson, one or the other, can answer me. Let us assume that somebody has to show up to be on hand and there may be no work for them. If you require somebody to show up under the NLRB or under the decisions of the court, can you insist on negotiating compensation for them? Standby time? That is what I want to know."

Senator Guess: "Senator Greive, yes, you do have to negotiate for a show-up time, and I know of no contract that does not have at least a four hour show-up time and some of them six. This is, as Senator Greive has said, in the present federal law. There is another case, Senator Grant, that is known as the Philadelphia Door case, and I think that there are other cases that have been tried and are a matter of record, so it has been upheld by the Supreme Court."

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Fleming moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Fleming, Lewis (Harry) and Mardesich:

On page 11, line 21, after "section." add a new subsection as follows:

"(8) To refuse to bargain with or to refuse to cooperate with or assist any employer regarding compliance with the conditions of an affirmative action program or any program or plan designed to assure compliance by the employer with the provisions of state or federal laws relating to equal employment opportunity for all regardless of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status or physical or mental handicap."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Ridder: "Will Senator Fleming yield? Just a point of inquiry, can you tell me why there is no reference to age? Senator Guess made a kind of superficial reference to that and I was wondering if there was some point in not having age encompassed in this?"

Senator Fleming: "If you would like to offer an oral amendment for age, so be it."

Senator Ridder: "I would like to do that."

On motion of Senator Ridder, the following amendment to the amendment by Senators Fleming, Lewis (Harry) and Mardesich was adopted:

Amend the amendment to page 11, line 21, as follows:

On the last line of the amendment after "origin," and before "sex," insert "age,".

The motion by Senator Fleming carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Lewis (Harry) moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senators Greive, Fleming and Grant was adopted to page 8, line 7.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the Senate moved to reconsider adoption of the amendment by Senators Greive, Fleming and Grant to page 8, line 7.

On motion of Senator Lewis (Harry), the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

Amend the amendment to page 8, line 7, as follows:

On the last line of the amendment after "origin," and before "sex," insert "age,".

The motion by Senator Lewis (Harry) carried and the amendment by Senators Greive, Fleming and Grant, as amended by Senator Lewis (Harry), was adopted.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 11, section 10, line 27 after "benefit," insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It shall be a violation of this chapter for either an employer or a labor organization to file an unfair labor practice charge which is determined by the board to be without evidence of probative value and to have been brought for purposes of harassment. At such time as the board finds any unfair labor practice charge to be without evidence of probative value and in violation of this chapter, the board shall consider the issue of whether the party in violation should be taxed for the reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the board and by the charged party in investigating and defending such charges."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the following amendment to the amendment was adopted:

Amend the Matson amendment to page 11, line 27 as follows:

On the third line of new section 11, added by the Matson amendment, after "board" insert "in a separate hearing".

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Guess, further consideration of the amendment by Senator Matson to page 11, section 10, line 7, as amended by Senator Whetzel, was ordered held after the next proposed amendment by Senator Matson.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 16, line 5, after "it" strike all the matter down through "thereof" on line 12 and insert: "determines that the petition is valid it shall direct an election by secret ballot, certify the results thereof and certify as exclusive representative the labor organization for which the majority of the employees within the unit shall have voted if the majority shall vote for representation by any labor organization."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: "Would either Senator Grant or Senator Greive yield? In this bill, what provisions are there for elections? And perhaps as a corollary of that, under what situations if this amendment did not pass would there be elections held with small units?"

Senator Greive: "Number one, wherever there is any question, as Senator Guess has been pointing out, there will be an election held. So, you know, you do not really have much of a problem. The exact provision, if you would like to turn to it, is on page 16, starting at line 5, 'The board shall investigate such petition and if it has reasonable cause to believe that a question of representation exists shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice.' and so forth and so on. And then it says that it should be investigated by employees, but the decision has to be made by the board and then it shall direct a secret ballot and shall certify the results thereof. Now if I might explain, what I said is valid. I think what Senator Guess is talking about are situations where over a period of many, many years they have worked the problem out. Everybody was not under the national labor relations act at first. I want to remind him that the units there are much larger . . . fifty thousand dollars if it is not retailing, five hundred thousand dollars in a retailing establishment. I also remind him that there is no provision in the national act where the board has to make every one of these decisions. In other words, they have regional boards and so forth that make them and we only have a single board here. And finally, I would like to remind him that here we are dealing with simply thousands of units, and the first time around I cannot believe that there are not an awful lot of employers that might very well be affected by this act.”

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Washington: “I will address this question to anyone. If there is a question on the part of the employer whether there has been coercion, could he demand an election under the present wording of the bill?”

Senator Guess: “No, he is just left out in the cold. He takes the decision of the examiner. And this is where this amendment by Senator Matson will protect the employer because he is really treated, Senator Washington, in many of these instances, like a total outsider. He cannot enter into the thing. He has a great deal of difficulty in finding out what is going on and if he even inquires as to what is going on, he can be slapped for an unfair labor charge by a board that has a degree of bias. And we have seen this in the past and this is the reason, in my opinion, that the bill needs to be amended.”

Senator Matson demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained by Senators Atwood, Newschwander, Guess, Greive, Grant, Whetzel, Sellar, Canfield and von Reichbauer.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Matson to page 16, line 5.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Matson was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 30.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Canfield, Clarke, Donohue, Guess, Jones, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. “Bob”), Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Scott, Sellar, Twigg, Wanamaker, Whetzel, Woodall—19.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington, Woody—30.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 20, line 1, after “board” and before “shall” insert “or the charging party”.

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment was adopted.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 21, line 25, after “board” insert “or the charging party”.

Debate ensued.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the amendment by Senator Matson to page 20, line 1 was adopted.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Atwood: “There is a motion pending on the floor and his motion to reconsider a prior amendment is not in order.”

Senator Greive: “A motion to reconsider always takes precedence and a motion to reconsider an amendment must be made immediately or as soon as you can get the floor or you lose your right. Now if you want to make a motion that I can have my right to do it later, I will be all with you.”

Senator Atwood: “I do not care. We are operating with no rules and we just went through this with Senator Ridder’s motion on a prior amendment and I think in the name of orderly procedure you should wait until we are through with this one and then move to reconsider.”

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I have no objection if I can consider a motion to reconsider and I am not ruled out under Reed's Rules saying that I did not make it immediately. I have no objection to waiting until after we consider this amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President believes that the amendment before the group should be acted upon first. Then you will have the right to move for reconsideration."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Senator Greive lost his chance."

Further debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Matson failed and the amendment was not adopted.

The motion by Senator Greive to reconsider adoption of the amendment by Senator Matson to page 20, line 1 was withdrawn.

There being no objection, the amendment on the Secretary's desk to page 21, line 33 was withdrawn.

The Senate resumed consideration of the amendment by Senator Matson to page 11, line 27, as amended by Senator Whetzel.

Senator Guess moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Francis and Guess:

Strike the Matson amendment as amended to page 11, line 27, and insert the following:

After "benefit." insert a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It shall be a violation of this chapter for either an employer or a labor organization to file an unfair labor practice charge which is determined by the board in a special hearing to be totally without evidence of probative value and to have been brought solely for purposes of harassment. At such time as the board finds a violation of this section, the board shall assess costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the board and by the charged party in investigating and defending such charges."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Grant: "Will Senator Matson yield to a question? Senator Matson, if this amendment is adopted, would you contemplate that the original charges of either the employer or the employee would be investigated and decided upon first without delay?"

Senator Matson: "Insofar as is possible, I would assume."

Senator Grant: "What I am trying to avoid here is any delay being caused by this question of frivolous charges being raised. I would like not to have that as an additional charge in each situation and a determination made on the original charges as rapidly as possible by the board. If that is the case and if that is the intent, then I think I can support your amendment."

Senator Matson: "The only comment in reading the act, I run across language in various stages that the board shall act expeditiously in all matters."

Senator Guess: "Senator Grant, I would say that it would only be in rare instances where somebody was flagrantly harassing would either party petition the board to take action in this case. It is a protective device here and it is pretty stringent either way, so it will only be in unusual cases."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Grant, the above remarks by Senator Guess were included as part of the Journal.

The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment by Senators Francis and Guess to the amendment by Senator Matson as amended by Senator Whetzel was adopted.

The motion by Senator Matson carried and the amendment, as amended, was adopted. Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 25, line 29, after "bargaining," add a new section as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. No employer or employee organization shall enter into any agreement creating a trust for or providing for employee pension benefits which agreement does not also provide for and allow transfer of benefits by any employee to another pension fund or pension trust upon such employee's change of employer or employee representative."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Greive: "I raise the question of scope and object on this particular amendment, although I am for the principle of the amendment certainly."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Greive has raised the point that the amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf changes the scope and object of the bill. Senator Guess wishes to amend that particular amendment, I believe, but the President believes that the decision shall have to be made first. Are there further remarks?"

The amendment by Senator Guess on the Secretary's desk was withdrawn temporarily.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "In ruling upon the point of order as raised by Senator Greive, the President finds that the Labor Relations Act, Senate Bill No. 3042, pertains to the rights to organize and sets up methods and rules for negotiations and settlements of disputes. The unfair labor practices prohibited by the bill are those practices which would tend to interfere with the right to bargain collectively.

"The proposed amendment by Senator Metcalf is a specific requirement as to what elements must be in a contract between employer and employee and in no way is designed to further the rights to bargain collectively as the other designated unfair practices.

"The amendment therefore introduces an entire new element in the act and does change the scope and object of the bill. The point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled out of order.

Senator Matson moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 27, beginning on line 1, strike all of section 24.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Greive: "Senator Durkan, the question has arisen, if you will look at the last section — can I hand this to you, Senator Durkan — on this particular act there is a motion to strike that particular section. And it deals, of course, with appropriations, and the question in my mind is, is that or is not that in the budget so that we will know intelligently how we can vote on it? And if you do not know, maybe we could delay it long enough to find out."

Senator Durkan: "It is not in the budget."

Senator Bailey demanded a roll call, and the demand was sustained by Senators Greive, Stortini, Day, Whetzel, Francis, Ridder, Newschwander, Washington and Peterson (Lowell).

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the amendment by Senator Matson on page 27, beginning on line 1.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the amendment by Senator Matson was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 17; nays, 32.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Whetzel, the amendment on the Secretary's desk to page 21, section 14, line 4 was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Grant, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senators Talley, Woodall and Greive demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

There being no objection, Senator Grant was permitted to close debate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 33.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bottiger, Day, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Henry, Jolly, Keefe, Marsh, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Sandison, Walgren, Woody-16.

Voting nay: Senators Atwood, Beck, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Donohue, Dore, Greive, Guess, Herr, Jones, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Matson, Metcalf, Murray, Newschwander, Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall-33.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3042, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Mardesich served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 failed to pass the Senate.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Greive served notice that he would, on the next working day, move for reconsideration of the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 failed to pass the Senate.

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3277.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Notice has been received from Senator Greive, but the notice of reconsideration embodies the group."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the body, I was born in a home where prayer was given before meals. I was one of those who felt that it would be proper to have prayer in public schools, of noncontroversial nature. Through the years, I have been here longer than anyone in this room. I have always thought it was great to open up the day with thoughtful prayer. But to use the guise of prayer to attempt to influence pending legislation and the votes thereon goes beyond the efficacy of prayer. I call your attention to what happened today. 'Forgive those who for the gathering of a few more dollars in the general fund ahead of the concerns of the yet unnamed victims of open gambling.' Now I think word should go out to the Ministerial Association that in the future that if they are going to use the prayer stand to lobby how the vote should be on matters pending before the body, they ought to register under 276."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I think this is a very serious matter. I do not think it is a laughing matter. I was going to suggest that the Rules Committee perhaps draw up a guideline for the clergy to follow."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DURKAN

Senator Durkan: "I would like to amend that to include the press."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "Mr. President, I can sympathize with Senator Woodall, but I think we had better leave this matter strictly alone. I think a minister has a right to say what he likes. He is an ordained minister; if he wants to say what he thinks up there, I am not going to say he cannot do it, and I do not think we should get into that matter at all."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I would like to repeat and go along with what Senator Talley says. There is no one in this body for whom I have more respect than Senator Woodall. The problem, of course, is that if a minister speaks from what is in his mind a moral conviction and if a man believes something, it is pretty hard to say something that be the tenet of his faith might not be the tenet of yours. Obviously, the faith I come from plays bingo, so we probably would feel quite a little differently about this whole subject. However, I do not think that the minister in this particular instance is attempting to influence our vote, and maybe it did ruffle a few feathers, but I do think that we should reasonably defend the right of the minister to state at least his personal opinion. I do not think it influenced anyone, anyway."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Just very briefly backing up Senator Talley and Senator Greive, we do have a spectrum of ministers who appear before us from any number of denominations. We have Protestants, we have Catholics. We have various denominations of Protestants who appear before us. Occasionally we have Jewish rabbis, and we are going to get a spectrum of opinion. I think we certainly should leave it up to the judgment of the ministers whom we invite to give the prayer that they think will do us the most good."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate dispensed with the Call of the Senate.

At 5:55 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Monday, April 22, 1974.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SIDNEY R. SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Wash., Monday, April 22, 1974.

The Senate was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Pro Tempore Henry. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present except Senators Bottiger, Dore, Geive, Lewis (Harry), Newschwander and Scott. On motion of Senator Atwood, Senators Lewis (Harry) and Scott were excused.

The Color Guard, consisting of Pages Robert Hansen and Debbie Jones, presented the Colors. Reverend Charles Loyer, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of Olympia, offered the following prayer:

"OUR HEAVENLY FATHER, AS WE PICK UP THE CARRY-OVER OF THE PAST AND TURN TO NEW RESPONSIBILITIES WHICH AWAIT OUR ATTENTION, WE PRAY THAT WE MAY BE GIVEN THE INNER RESOURCES TO SEE US THROUGH WHAT WELL MAY BE ANOTHER HECTIC WEEK. BLESS THE LEGISLATORS AS THEY CONTINUE THEIR ENGAGEMENT WITH THE COMPLEX AND STUBBORN ISSUES OF THESE TIMES. DESPITE THE FLACK FROM SELF-STYLED AUTHORITIES OF THE PUBLIC WEAL, GIVE THE LEGISLATORS THE CALMNESS OF MIND, THE STRENGTH OF PURPOSE, AND THE UNITY OF ACTION WHICH WILL BE A CREDIT TO THEIR OFFICE AND WIN THE APPROBATION OF EVEN THE MOST BILIOUS CYNIC. AMEN."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Walgren, the reading of the journal of the previous day was dispensed with and it was approved.

SECOND READING

SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3283, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Senators Durkan, Odegaard, Donohue, Bailey, Bottiger, Connor, Day, Dore, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Keefe, Knoblauch, Mardesich, Marsh, Peterson (Lowell), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Stortini, Talley, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Washington and Woody):

Authorizing property tax exemptions to support the elderly, poor, and infirm persons.

The Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283. The substitute bill was under consideration on Saturday, April 20, 1974 and held.

Senator Dore moved adoption of the following amendments by Senators Dore and Donohue and that they be considered simultaneously:

On page 2, line 17, before "or" strike "$6,000" and insert "$5,000"

On page 2, line 18, before "fifty" strike "$6,001-$7,000" and insert "$5,001-$6000"

On page 2, line 20, after "of" and before "or" strike "$5,000" and insert "$4,000"

On page 2, line 22, after "residence" insert ": PROVIDED FURTHER, That only two-thirds of any social security benefits, federal civil service retirement, or railroad retirement pension shall be considered as income for the purposes of this section".

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Would Senator Dore yield? What is the fiscal impact on this particular amendment, do you know?"

Senator Dore: "According to Senator Donohue, I asked him that question, it is three hundred thousand dollars less than it was before. Because we reduced the seven thousand dollar category down to six."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Beck: "Would Senator Dore yield to a question please? Senator Dore, if my memory serves me correctly, under the existing law people with salary incomes not to exceed four thousand dollars are exempted from the total special millage or fifty dollars, whichever is the greater."

Senator Dore: "Special levies, that is right."

Senator Beck: "Yes. Would you explain to me what happens to this fifty dollars now that we are raising the income to five thousand dollars worth of tax relief for property tax. What happens to the fifty dollars?"

Senator Dore: "It remains just the same as it is now."

Senator Beck: "The same as it was? Thank you kindly."

Senator Dore: "Plus you subtract the five thousand dollars from the evaluation of your house."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Francis: "Will Senator Dore yield to a question?" Senator Dore, what is the underlying reason why we make this sixty-two age distinction? Why is it that somebody age sixty-four with an income of under five thousand dollars gets this complete property tax break when somebody age sixty with the same income, under five thousand dollars or somebody age forty with the same income of under five thousand dollars would not get that kind of a tax break?"

Senator Dore: "Well, we established the philosophy of this bill four years ago to give tax relief. Remember when the big reappraisal program which took place in which is now your district and so on? We wanted to give some tax relief to people that already retired, based on these new high appraisals of their homes. So the way we did it, we had to delineate. We did not think we could fiscally afford to give everybody the same break so we wanted to give senior citizens the break. so we thought that sixty-two was the social security age and so we would start there and we have operated under that for four years and this is merely a liberalization of the law we passed four years ago. Or maybe it is only three years ago, Senator."

Senator Francis: "Thank you, Senator Dore. Mr. President, I am going to vote for this bill but I do not think it makes sense. Senator Dore tells me we have established a philosophy or a policy and I have heard of that policy many times from many people but I have never heard a good reason for it except that we get a lot of letters, but it seems to me that a person who is in that income category is going to be suffering regardless of age and I would hope that in some future session that we would consider giving the same kind of breaks to any one who is suffering from that kind of low income, regardless of age."

Senator Dore: "Just answering very briefly, Senator, that is true but you have to kind of crawl before you walk and we thought we would start here and perhaps what you state is very true but we are just not able to do it at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Senator Francis, the rationale is that the sixty-two is the age of retirement. The fellow who is under that age is not forced to retire about ninety percent of the time so he has a chance of upgrading himself but I think the rationale is very sound at age sixty-two. I do not see any great rush to decrease it. The handicapped and the disabled are also under this exemption, of course, so those people who are unable to earn more have always been picked up so I do not think just because a person has a low income, as long as he is able to work and be productive he should pay his fair share of property tax. I might say that this bill, the other taxpayers in those districts where there are elderly, is picking up the burden for the elderly. The state is not. The other taxpayer is. I hope that everyone understands that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Dore yield? Senator Dore, am I correct in understanding that you want all of these four amendments considered at once?"

Senator Dore: "Yes."

Senator Woody: "Well I am a little concerned because the last one which reinstates the existing language, about two-thirds of social security, federal service and railroad retirement pension be put back in, I am in favor of that, but of the first three amendments in which you slip the six thousand down to five and the seven thousand down to five from six and the last one from five to four thousand, I am not in favor of that and I realize that there is a fiscal impact and I realize the fiscal impact is not insignificant. I would rather have an opportunity of voting 'no' on the first three amendments and 'yes' on the last one."

Senator Dore: "Speaking briefly to your statement, I do not know exactly how to answer you, Senator. The last amendment, of course, is the existing law which we took that exemption out. And if we put that back in, that has a tremendous impact in dollars. So in order to limit the reduction it was necessary to drop the seven down to six. Now if you want to put that back up, I do not have the figures, I could ask Senator Donohue what that would cost, but this was to keep it within the same dollar exemption that we had on the phase of the bill yesterday. And if you take that out you cannot have both. You cannot put the two-thirds of the social security and also raise the dollar exemptions without a tremendous impact and it was to keep it at the same dollar level so your suggestion would be to skyrocket quite substantially. Now I do not know, if you want to do that, that is fine. I do not know what the figures are. Maybe if you would direct the question to Senator Donohue. Senator Donohue, what are the differences in the figures if he does that?"

Senator Donohue: "Senator Dore and Senator Woody, the reason we reduced that from seven because when we restored the language regarding the social security it had a fiscal impact of about two and one-half million dollars. As you know, in the budget bill we do have about eight hundred thousand dollars in there allocated for reimbursement of local taxes to the schools from regular property tax, so it was more of a fiscal analysis that we change these figures so that we would be in the ball park as far as dollars are concerned."

Senator Woody: "Thank you, Senator Donohue. I understand it is two and one-half or three million dollar difference. I understand we are dealing with senior citizens who are retired and I suppose that if we were to adjust the timber tax from six to six and one-half percent we would pick up this difference and we could pass this legislation and the timber tax and we would not have a revenue loss, net loss, if we did it at six and one-half. I know we are dealing with senior citizens here and I would rather protect them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Dore: "Would Senator Woody yield to a question? Would you like me to provide that we would vote on each one separately?"

Senator Woody: "I would appreciate it, Senator Dore."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Woody, the motion by Senator Dore to consider all amendments simultaneously was amended and the Senate adopted the amendments by Senators Dore and Donohue to page 2, lines 17, 18 and 20 simultaneously.

On motion of Senator Dore, the amendment by Senators Dore and Donohue to page 2, line 22, was adopted.

On motion of Senator Dore, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3283 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 1; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. H. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Rasmussen, Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Waigren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel, Woodall, Woody—45.

Voting nay: Senator Bottiger—1.

Absent or not voting: Senators Grant, Murray—2.

Excused: Senator Newschwander—1.

ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3283, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3062, by Senators Lewis (Harry) and Sandison:

Authorizing the sale and redemption of general obligation bonds for the construction and furnishing of higher education buildings and facilities.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 17, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3062 authorizing the sale and redemption of general obligation bonds for the construction and furnishing of higher education buildings and facilities (reported by Committee on Ways and Means):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendment:

On page 1, line 17, strike "(SB . . .)" and insert "(SSB 3253)"

Signed by: Senators Durkan, Chairman; Donohue, Vice Chairman; Odegaard, Vice Chairman; Bailey, Dore, Fleming, Grant, Lewis (Harry), Metcalf, Peterson (Ted), Sandison. The bill was read the second time by sections.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Durkan, the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Scott, Senator Murray was excused.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 13, after "of" and before "or" strike "five million seven hundred and twenty thousand one hundred and eighty dollars" and insert "seven million eight hundred one thousand eighty dollars"

On motion of Senator Durkan, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3062 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, would Senator Durkan yield to a question? It says it relates to issuance of five seven two zero one zero eight general obligation bonds. Is Evergreen College in this?"

Senator Durkan: "That is Evergreen and Western."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Do you want to answer that, Senator?"

Senator Atwood: "The House, in the January session we deleted the six million dollar technology building."

Senator Fleming: "For Evergreen."

Senator Atwood: "No, for Western. In place thereof is one point eight million for including the technology facilities in another building and that is what I added to one point eight. In the budget that is going to be before you in a little while, that one point eight is in that budget. I neglected to offer it up here simply because you people got that budget out too fast for me."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Will Senator Durkan yield? Senator Durkan, you have mentioned that this is now in order because, I think you said evidently we have agreed that these same matters will be in the budget bill. Is that correct?"

Senator Durkan: "They are in the budget bill."

Senator Woody: "But we have not passed the budget. It is still a wrestling match?"

Senator Durkan: "Where?"

Senator Woody: "The budget bill."

Senator Durkan: "Where? Senator Woody, the Senate passed the capital bill. The House has added the Western Washington one point eight. It is coming back over. I would suspect that there are sufficient votes to include both those items in the Senate. It is a matter of judgment. If we are to wait on this we will probably end up doing nothing as far as enabling the construction of these two facilities."

Senator Woody: "My only question is, I know there is a Senate bill, whether this should not go along with the budget bill at the same time, not of course incorporated."

Senator Durkan: "I agreed with you, Senator. We are only about five days late. It should have gone over with the budget bill. You are absolutely correct and we are late in doing it and I am trying to correct that now."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3062, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 4; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. "Bob"), Mardesich, Marsh, Matson, Metcalf, Odegaard, Peterson (Lowell), Peterson (Ted), Ridder, Sandison, Scott, Sellar, Stortini, Talley, Twigg, Van Hollebeke, von Reichbauer, Walgren, Wanamaker, Washington, Whetzel—43.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Whetzel yield to a question? Senator Whetzel, I can understand now some of your views when you say you have been drinking, I mean water and all that other stuff. But my direct question is, are you doubting the wisdom of the Ecology and the various other departments? I thought I heard you stand on this floor and tell us that they were supreme in their decisions and for the good of everybody."

Senator Whetzel: "I do not think you ever heard me say that. As you may know, earlier this session we passed a resolution where I — dealing with the clean air act — had some very serious doubts about the wisdom and sanity of the Environmental Protection Agency and the Department of Ecology and their regulations in that regard. I have some questions about the wisdom of this regulation, and I shall continue to question the regulations of all state agencies, as I am sure you will, too."

WHEREAS, Damon has been a primary force in securing the foundation of the state's agricultural industry as president or chairman of the Yakima Valley Angus Association, the Washington State Angus Association, the Central Washington Fair, the Washington Cherry Institute, the Washington Poultry Association, the Lower Valley Soil Conservation District, the Washington State Cherry Marketing Committee, member of the Washington Fruit Commission, director of the Washington Fairs Association, member of the Farm Bureau, and 50-year Grange member and Past Grange Master; and

WHEREAS, Damon has served his country admirably as a Navy veteran of World War I, and a member of the American Legion; and

WHEREAS, Damon, who was born in Arkansas, has lived in the Yakima Valley with his wife Marie for the last fifty-three years, and given of himself unstintingly to the people of the state of Washington;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington does hereby honor Damon R. Canfield as having the longest continuous legislative service of any Republican legislator now serving; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Senate of the state of Washington does hereby honor Damon as an outstanding legislator, a dedicated leader of men and a compassionate human being; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That Senator Canfield carry with him always our affection and highest esteem.

The President of the Senate introduced Senator and Mrs. Canfield, and the following remarks were made to the honored couple:

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Senator and Mrs. Canfield, Mr. President and members of the Senate, and ladies and gentlemen in the gallery, sometime ago a few of the members of the Senate decided that it would be nice to pay tribute to members of this body who were going to retire. And so today we honor a veteran, a farmer, a teacher, a legislator, a citizen extraordinary. Damon Canfield, today we members of the Senate in behalf of the citizens of the state of Washington pay tribute to you for your many years of wonderful service. It is easy to say good things about you, but it is hard to say goodbye to one whom we hold in such high esteem. Damon Canfield is a veteran of World War I, a member of the American Legion, and one who is most proud to have served in behalf of his country. Damon Canfield spent twenty-four years as a farmer, owner and operator of fruit and cattle ranches near Granger. He is a very proud member of more than fifty years of the Washington State Grange and a Past Master of this grange. He has held so many positions as chairman or president of so many organizations of the farmers and of course this is another tribute to the life of Damon Canfield.

"Teacher, twenty-seven years a teacher in the state of Washington, and Senator Canfield, you are still a professor. You have gotten up on your feet over there. You have corrected our spelling; you have corrected our English; you have corrected our sentence construction; and you have still been giving your famous lectures. You will always be a teacher and because of this we respect you even more.

"Legislator, good one, you bet. Twenty-two years of service to the people of the state of Washington, to Benton and part of Yakima county. You have been faithful to your responsibilities. You have sat through long committee meetings. I know about this because I know that Ways and Means works many long hours. You have not gone home, Damon. You sat and you assumed your responsibility. You put some of the younger members of the Senate to shame. And you have sat here on many important roll calls that were tough to make and never once did you evade the decision to assume your responsibility. Damon, in this time of the history of our country there has been a tragic loss of respect for public servants, and I say tragic because it is a tragedy for America. Our form of government may not be perfect but in our country we have thousands of people like Damon Canfield who have served well and who have brought credit to the word 'politician.' And, Damon, you are a credit to public service and you are a credit to the word 'politician.' You can hold your head high. You have kept the good faith. Your ideals have been of the highest standards. And you have had a faithful teammate for fifty-three years.

"I know I should not give a talk without talking about Marie. And no film or book could really portray the true love story of Damon and Marie Canfield. You two lovebirds still go around holding hands. Your romance is as fresh as when you took each other for better or for worse when you were married fifty-three years ago. And I remember when you celebrated your golden anniversary I called your home from Sumner and sang Happy Anniversary to two very fine people.

"Now I have been chairman of the all-powerful Parks and Recreation Committee and we have made several trips throughout the state of Washington, and I came to know both of you folks in a very personal way. It was always Damon, when you planned a meeting who would say, 'Can we bring our wives?' And of course the answer was always yes. You two are a real inspiration to the sacrament of matrimony. What more can I say about these two gracious and dear friends of ours? Marie, you have been a member of the grange for fifty-two years. And you know when I asked Damon for a brief synopsis of you two people, he wrote something real nice that I want to read because it shows further about the love story of Damon and Marie Canfield. In the words of Damon, 'Besides keeping a good home, raising two good children, being active in the church and grange, and helping with the farm work, she is noted for her green thumb and was at one time voted the outstanding gardner of the lower Yakima valley.' She also doubled as the personal unpaid secretary to her husband before paid secretaries were assigned under later arrangements. Life would be empty without having friends you could trust, love and treasure. And Damon, I have recited this poem many times because the word 'friends' means a lot to me. Life would be most empty if you did not have friends and someone to turn to. And many years ago in a Democratic newspaper called The Roosevelt American I saw a poem titled 'Friends' and I want to recite that poem now and dedicate it to Damon and Marie Canfield.

"Life is sweet because of the friends you have made,

And the things which in common we share.

We want to live on not because of ourselves

— But because of the people who care.

It is giving and doing for somebody else

On this all of life's splendor depends.

And the joy of this world
 When you have summed it all up,
 Is found in the making of friends.

"And, Damon, you are leaving a lot of friends in the Washington State Senate and the Washington State House of Representatives. And before I close I have one thing more, one note that Damon gave me that I think should be read.

"'Born in Kansas, where I was known as the razorback kid, received first schooling in a one room hillbilly school named Jay Bird. The teacher there was an Irish spinster whose firm dictums were reinforced by an ample supply of pear switches hanging behind her desk and a tall dunce cap close at hand.' Damon Canfield and Marie, as a team you have earned the tribute 'Well done, thou good and faithful servants.'"

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I was unaware that this particular resolution was coming in at this hour. I have no prepared remarks and it would be very difficult to follow the very splendid tribute paid by Senator Knoblauch. He has detailed many, many things that a lot of us know. It does so happen, however, that I have known these two wonderful, wonderful people longer than anyone in this room. I just added up, and you know we can argue on a lot of things, but you cannot argue on the calendar. And so I subtracted, because it was when I was first a lad of fourteen that I met this man and so it just adds up to forty-seven years of acquaintanceship. You cannot argue with the calendar. I was a member of the boys and girls 4-H Club and at that time Damon Canfield was what we used to call a Smith-Hughes teacher. He taught agriculture in Yakima High School and in those days in the summer months we would have joint judging tours where you would go to certain farmers' homes and you were taught and instructed in how to judge different kinds of cattle, different types of livestock, and that was when I first met him, when I would attend those judging tours in the summer months. The years went by and I came to Olympia in the House of Representatives. We retained our friendship and acquaintanceship. Then in 1939 we organized the Central Washington Fair. I was chosen as president, Damon as vice president. Years went by and he became president because they wanted some younger blood in the thing.

"Seriously, during all of this long association of forty-seven years, never have I heard anyone speak ill of either Damon or Marie. Never. Never has this man's integrity been questioned by anyone. Never has anyone questioned their mutual devotion between these two fine people. I have known him all these years. Night after night we used to go to fair board meetings together. I know of his dedication to agriculture and, incidentally, through the grange. Also through the fair. He used to run the poultry department of our fair and Marie would come - well, she ran it, Damon just appeared to - but she was the one who really ran the poultry department of our fair. And these two people have just been a symbol of everything that is fine and good in life. And that, I guess, is about the best I can say, that when you say that two people represent the finest and best in life, I guess I cannot go much further, Damon and Marie. It has been a thrill to know you all these years."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "I want to just say a few words. When I first considered running for the legislature, I went to a candidates' meeting in Yakima. My wife and I had discussed this. You know, we had heard about legislature, politics, and we were a little bit nervous about whether or not we wanted to become associated in this business. Going there, however, I heard a speech to a small group of candidates by Damon and the words that he said and the devotion to integrity and principle which he enunciated convinced me and I went back and told my wife, 'Yes, this is something that I think we should get fully involved in. There are people there of real integrity.' When I came to the Senate in 1967, Damon and I were freshmen. We shared an office together and it gave me a better chance to get acquainted with Damon, even better than I had in serving in the House. I just want to say that it has been a real privilege for me to serve in the Washington State House and Senate with Damon Canfield."

REMARKS BY SENATOR VAN HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Members of the Senate, Mr. President, honored guests, it is very difficult to say anything that would not detract from the very eloquent words of my good friend, Senator Knoblauch, and the many fine remarks made by my good friend Senator Perry Woodall, but I would like to tell Damon that to me it has really been a real honor, a privilege and a tremendous pleasure to have served with him. You are a true gentleman, Damon, and as usual as pointed out by both Perry and Reuben so ably, you are just half of a great team. And we love to honor that other member of the team, your wonderful wife. So I think it is more than fitting and proper that the Senate of the State of Washington and the people of this state should take the time today to honor you and your lovely wife and wish you many, many happy years of retirement."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Mr. President, I would like to speak as one who is often on the other side of the fence from Damon. Frequently, because of our philosophical points of view we have clashed on many matters. But I would like to say that in dealing with Damon I have always found several things. First, that his word was good. I think that is an important attribute to any legislator. Secondly, that he had strong conventional views. In other words, I never doubted but what he said, how he voted, was how he believed. Third, he was always responsible. But the thing that I recognize about Damon, and I am sure every member of this body recognizes most strongly is that he is always a gentleman."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BECK

Senator Beck: "Like Senator Woodall, I did not know that we were going to honor this distinguished gentleman this morning and his lovely wife, but I would be remiss in my responsibilities if I did not say something nice about Damon Canfield. Next to Perry Woodall, I have perhaps known the distinguished Senator which we honor this morning longer than any other member in this house. I got acquainted with Damon Canfield through the Washington state fairs. Damon, do you remember the 1949 convention in Spokane? That is when I became acquainted with Damon Canfield. He was the president of the Central Washington State Fair at Yakima. I was playing a similar role over in Kitsap County at the time, and I met this gentleman over there and we were trying to bail out the fairs of the state and try and get them into a little better financial solvency condition than they were in. And I found then that at that state fair convention that here is a gentleman who is ready to assume his responsibility in the community affairs. Damon Canfield has always been an inspiration to me: At the time we were trying to write the state fair law and if you will remember, Damon, in the 1951 session down here old Jackrabbit Jones was chairman of Agriculture over in the House and Milt Loney of the Walla Walla fair and Bob Ford, my Representative from Kitsap County introduced the bill for Damon and me, and we worked that bill through this state legislature. That was my first experience at being down here in Olympia, seeing how the wheels of government respond. Yes, in 1953 Damon became so enthused he came back as a member of that distinguished group across the hall here from us. And fellows, in those days the salary was five dollars a day and we did not think we were underpaid. We thought that we were doing a community and a civic responsibility. If you wanted a secretary you brought your own with you. That is where Marie came in. I remember the long hours that Damon used to sit over there in the House with his wife sitting down in the front row. We did not even have an office. We had a desk on the floor of the House in those days. And Damon, I used to sit up in the gallery and look at this distinguished Representative from Yakima County sitting down there with his lovely wife all hours of the day and night answering the letters. They got a five dollar roll of stamps. That is how much postage you got in those days.

"But Damon, you certainly have been an inspiration to me. Everywhere I have gone. I have wanted my fair to be just like Damon Canfield's. When he was elected to Olympia, I wanted to become a member of this body. I followed him in the House. I followed him over here into the Senate. Damon, you have certainly been an inspiration to me. And Marie, I do not know how anyone could be a more devoted wife and look out for your husband. God bless you. You deserve every kind word that has been said about you. I am so happy this morning to second the resolution here and urge all of you to give a great big resounding yes vote to this resolution."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HENRY

Senator Henry: "Let us hope, Senator Canfield, that you did not decide to quit because Red Beck kept following you."

MOTION

Senator Lewis (Harry): "Mr. President, I would like to move that the names of all the members of the Senate be added to the resolution.

The President: "With the unanimous approval of the members, each Senator's name is added and the President hopes that his can be, also."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HARRY LEWIS

Senator Lewis (Harry): "I do not know what else we can really say, but the few remarks that I have to make, Damon and Marie, I think are really more intended for those in the balcony than those of us on the floor. I think how fragile our government is and I am reminded of some reading I did many years ago that maybe particularly you younger people in the balcony might think about, about the German burgermeister, you remember the fancy uniform he wears and the mace that was carried when this mayor of German towns presided at the council meetings. And I often wondered about the uniform and why it was there. You also remember maybe as a little child how you were attracted to a uniform and how you looked up to it. And that really is what the mace and what the uniform of the burgermeister is all about, because our fragile government relies upon the respect of the people for it. It is a tenuous thing. And Damon Canfield, in a time of difficulty for public officials, I think, exemplifies the burgermeister in the state of Washington. He carries the mace. He has our respect. And, Damon, we are going to miss you very much."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, all I can say is second to all the speeches, but it has been a great pleasure for me to have served both in the House and the Senate with Senator Damon Canfield and his wife, because I know what a wife can do when she is up there in the gallery watching what is going on down on the floor and preparing the amendments that are needed on the various bills, but I want to say this about Senator Canfield; it is a pleasure to have had somebody on the committee through all the years that I know for sure has read all of a bill and picked out the bad parts in it, and that is what Senator Canfield has done. We are going to miss you, Damon, and your wife, but just because you have decided to leave all of this hard work behind and go on into better endeavors, and I am sure you are going to keep on doing it, come back and visit us some time."

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: "Senator and Mrs. Canfield, ladies and gentlemen, some very wise person once said, 'One of the great miracles of life is the more you give and do, the more you have and are.' Certainly the provisions of the resolution and the remarks of our Senators prove that this is truly the story of your lives, Damon and Marie. One of my fondest memories will be something that occurred this morning. It was my good fortune to meet Damon and Marie as they entered the south end of the building and I the north end. We had a very pleasant conversation and as we parted, Marie to enter the cafeteria on the first floor and Damon and I to come to the Senate chamber, Damon uttered the five most endearing words I have heard in a long, long time. They were, 'Do you have any money?'

Well, Damon and Marie, when some of us who have had the good fortune to serve with you and thousands and thousands of other people who have had equally good fortune in knowing you, when we ever begin to think about all around good guys your names, like Abou Ben Adhem, will lead all the rest."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, and all you wonderful ladies and gentlemen, my wife and I are indeed deeply grateful for this moment of remembrance and appreciation, remembering the nearly twenty-two years of continuous service in this legislature and seeing the hand of friendship so freely extended to us today. Special thanks are due to Senator Knoblauch and to all others who have so thoughtfully arranged this friendly gesture.

"I came into this legislature when past the noontime of life, not as a freshly blossomed high school graduate as did Senator Woodall, Senator Greive and Senator von Reichbauer. As I gaze over this distinguished assembly today I see only a few familiar faces which were seen with mine in the first House session in 1953. Senator Bailey was there. He was distinguished then as he is now. Senator Connor was a big man in the House, too. Senator Dore came in at that time and was noted for his eloquence. Senator Mardesich was there and at that time early showing qualities of leadership. Senator Sandison was there. I would like to point out that my first year of school teaching was in the Dry Creek School District in Port Angeles. And I have always had a great deal of affection for that beautiful part of this beautiful state. Where were you in 1953, Slim? I always admired Slim. I always wished that I had his toughness and his resilience and his ability. And in the House there are only three left who were there with me in 1953, Representative Hurley, Representative O'Brien who is most durable, and Representative Savage.

"Governor Cherberg was not present here then as I recollect, but I want to pay tribute to you, Governor, for your competence in this Senate and for your unfailing courtesy to me and to the other Senators here. So many legislators have come and gone over these twenty-two years, some voluntarily, some by personal tragedy, some by the toll of years, some by redistricting, many by popular request. You and I have prepared and scanned thousands of pieces of legislation, some good, some bad, some indifferent. We have listened to many different and sometimes extreme philosophies. We have made many compromises, and that is necessary in the legislative process. Many of us have worked hard and conscientiously without expectation or realization of much material reward. I think we have done some good, and some things not good. Making mistakes, I guess, is normal human frailty. I do not think that over the years we have solved any problem in the sense that we can say, 'This thing is done now. We can turn our attention to something new.' For our problems here which are the political, social and economic concerns of people everywhere never seem finalized and never seem completed, but I like to think that most of us have done the best we knew. I do not believe that many legislators are supercharged with evil intent or offer themselves or their votes for sale for the highest bidder. If it is true that some people are losing confidence in government, I would suggest that the blame must be shared by legislators and also by those people or those organizations which demand special privilege. During the years of our personal legislative experience as well as before, my wife has been a loyal and faithful helper. And I gladly take this moment to publicly thank her for her help and for her understanding of a sometimes difficult Senator.

"Serving this body is an honor given to but few, therefore a greater honor to those who are chosen and a privilege always to be treasured. So thanks from the bottom of our hearts to all of you wonderful people."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DORE

Senator Dore: "I would like to move that Senator Canfield's remarks be spread in the Journal and I would just like to say that that magnificent speech shows what type of man he is, and often when a person leaves you say, 'Well, he is the best and the greatest, most wonderful,' and you just say it without any meaning but in my case, being one of the few survivors with him since 1953, I think that he has been one of the three or four outstanding legislators in these halls and he has always been conscientious. He was always there. He made very valuable contributions to the Appropriations Committee. Many of the laws we have are a result of his recommendations and suggestions. He did not take the headlines, but maybe we, some of the others, stole his ideas and passed them off as theirs, but I have nothing but the highest type of accolade to give the Senator. I will miss him and perhaps I will even join him. I came with him. Perhaps I will be leaving with you too, Senator. It has been a real pleasure to associate with him, this husband and wife team have really been a real example of what the public thinks – what they would like to have the legislators be, because he has just been a tremendous force for goodness and good legislative works and I say this from the bottom of my heart.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR TED PETERSON

Senator Peterson (Ted): “Mr. President and members of the Senate, I just wanted to say a very few words to the Senator as he retires. As an office – or I say cellmate – up on the fourth floor there, I have enjoyed him. I have served with a few Senators there, but he has that certain something that just enlightens the office up there and it has been wonderful. His compatibility with Marie is only seconded by the compatibility and the affection and that sense of humor that he brings out in an office where you are diligent and working, so I want to say it has been a pleasure, Senator, and in your leaving, and as I look around, it looks like I will have to take the seniority in age, now. That hurts a little, but I will accept it, Senator.”

PRESIDENT'S PRIVILEGE

The President: “Senator Knoblauch, the members and the President congratulate you and the members of your committee for your thoughtfulness in arranging this program. And Damon and Marie, it is aloha, it is not goodbye, because we want you coming back every chance you get. Thank you so much and God bless you.”

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: “Damon and Marie, particularly you, Damon, because I and many of us have worked so closely with you and I want you to know, Damon, that I felt it was a real honor, a tremendous honor, to be one to represent the Democratic side of the aisle in escorting you and Marie to the rostrum. And I think perhaps what I have to say, like Senator Lewis, may be perhaps more directed to the audience, the people in the galleries, because I think so many times in reading the press you have the idea that there is a line drawn down the middle of the aisle and you have Democrats on one side and you have Republicans on the other and almost that old saying that never the twain shall meet. And yet that just is not the case. There is probably only, I would say five or six percent of the bills that are passed are decided on a partisan basis, and the rest of the time we are working back and forth with members of the Republican Party. And I particularly feel this because Damon and I served, if you will recall, Damon, for a long time as one of the members of the Constitution and Elections Committee. And many times we have agreed, many times we have disagreed. And yet I know that you and I have developed a real feeling of friendship and respect for each other, and I think the test of it so many times is that you still maintain that feeling of friendship and respect even though you have disagreed many times. I think that is the test. You can disagree with someone and still have that deep feeling. And again, I know it happens with many other Democrats and Republicans. But it just happened over the years. I think there were so many times that I left my seat and went over and would talk to you and I would sit on the wastepaper basket and I would ask you about legislation which was not of a political nature. I have asked your advice and we would talk it over and I recall with real pleasure the number of times that you have left your seat and come and talked with me on the Democratic side of the aisle and we exchanged those ideas. And again, I think that is something so few people in the public recognize, that there are these deep friendships that develop between Republicans and Democrats. We have talked a lot about your official capacity, the things that you have done, but I think more than anything I am just going to miss your friendship, Damon, and the fact that I could call on you so often for advice and guidance.

"And then, I do want to use some of Damon's own words about retiring and rather than try to remember them, they are written down. And Damon said, 'I would much rather have people say, 'There was a good Senator. We wish he were still there,' rather than hearing them say, 'He used to be a good Senator, but for his own good and ours we wish he were out.' And anyway again, he has added, 'The state will get along somehow and maybe I can now catch up on my fishing.' Those are excellent sentiments, Damon, but I think they would have been much better expressed maybe ten years from now than at the present time, because we know the sharpness that you have and that seat — someone else is going to fill it but there is not going to be anyone who is going to fill it the way you did. The number of times that you have gotten up, and I count you as — say one of those who can get up on the floor and with a few well chosen words change the course of a piece of legislation that is on the floor, with the respect that you have, the confidence that people have in you, that ability you have of making short and concise statements, you change the course of many bills. And someone is going to sit in that seat but, Damon, they are not going to be able to fill your shoes."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALLEY

Senator Talley: "I wish Senator Washington had that quality, short and precise statements, sometimes."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WASHINGTON

Senator Washington: "Maybe that is why I appreciate so much Damon's ability. I perhaps am jealous of him. I really think I am."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "I appreciate that, Senator Talley, having had Damon in our caucus for the past seven years. To me he looked like a Senator, he acted like a Senator and he was a Senator and he will always remain a Senator as far as I am concerned. The Republican caucus will sorely miss Damon and we will also miss that kind and sweet and gentle Marie. I am sorry to see them go, but I know they will come back and visit."

The President of the Senate presented a bouquet of roses to Senator and Mrs. Canfield in recognition of their long and dedicated public service.

The special committee escorted the honored guests to the Senate dining room and the committee was discharged.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fifth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 21, 1974.

Mr. President: The Speaker has signed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3277, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

At 12:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate recessed until 2:15 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 2:15 p.m.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President announced the presence in the Senate Chamber of Mrs. Joyce Jones and Mrs. George Jones, and appointed Senators Knoblauch, Rasmussen, Stortini, Beck and Atwood to escort the honored guests to the rostrum.

The President turned the gavel over to Senator Bottiger.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-243

By Senators Bottiger, Sandison, Stortini and Beck:

WHEREAS, Dale Francis Jones entered the United States Navy in service of his country and served with distinction and courage during the Viet Nam conflict, attaining the rank of Second-class Petty Officer and was awarded four service medals; and

WHEREAS, Upon his honorable discharge from military service he entered the Tacoma Fire Department and, following a highly successful training period, was qualified as an Emergency Medical Technician and then was selected to serve as a Battalion Chief's Aid; and

WHEREAS, He performed the duties of his position with courage and extraordinary perseverance being always aware of the dangers involved; and

WHEREAS, On February 25, 1974 while engaged in an extensive fire-fighting operation in Tacoma, Dale Francis Jones met his untimely death while serving the people of his community;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington that we honor and commend the actions of Dale Francis Jones for his years of public service and his courage above and beyond the call of duty; and that we extend our deepest sympathy to his parents George and Mae Jones of Port Angeles and his lovely wife; Joyce, and two small daughters, eleven-month-old Christina and two-year-old Jennifer, who survive him.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, it is a sorrowful time when we pause to commemorate the passing of someone who has in the pursuit of goals of his community and of his occupation given his life. Dale Jones was born and raised in Port Angeles. His family resides there. His brother and sister are in the gallery. His mother still resides in Port Angeles, his wife in the Tacoma area. We tried to think of a way to honor Dale. Some people wonder why I am so interested in fire fighters and problems relating to firefighting. My brother-in-law is a fire fighter and I am aware of the peril that people in this occupation go through. So with conference with Mr. Willis from the Tacoma Fire Department we invited the mother and the widow of Dale Jones down here to show our appreciation for their contribution to the safety of the whole community. With that I would like to introduce to you Mrs. Jones. This is Joyce. May Jones from Port Angeles. None of us, I hope, will ever have to make the sacrifice they have made, but sometimes when we talk about firemen and policemen's pensions, it is good to remember the risk that is there."

The special committee escorted the honored guests from the Senate Chamber and the committee was discharged.

Senator Bottiger returned the gavel to President Cherberg.

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate commenced consideration of the House Message on Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3143.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3143, with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 21 after "available" insert "PROVIDED FURTHER, That districts located in counties having a population of over 18,000 may not construct nursing homes".

On page 2, beginning on line 19 strike everything after "facility" down to and including "organization" on line 21 and insert "[: charitable, nonprofit establishment or against a hospital clinic or sanatorium operated by a religious group or organization], and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Day moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to page 1, line 21 to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3143.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Day yield? Even without the House amendment, with this legislation, with the bill passed we would be able to do what is needed in Senator Donohue's area. Isn't that correct?"

Senator Day: "That is correct but it also would mean that it would apply to every district and I believe what this does is make the bill palatable and it was necessary to put this amendment on, it is my understanding, to get the thing through the House, and I do not want to lose the bill. I am making amendments to different things."

Senator Woody: "Yes, I understand that. I am not certain what went on in the House, but in Snohomish County which has, of course, a total population of over eighteen thousand, we have had one of the earliest hospital districts in the state in south county which has been expanded and is providing a reasonable, a very reasonable cost hospital for the people in south county. It would be my position that they ought to be able to build nursing homes as well. We both know that there is going to be an expanded use of nursing home care because of the increase in cost of hospital care. I do not know what went on in the House, but I feel that the health district in Snohomish County ought to be permitted to have nursing homes as well."

Senator Day: "Mr. President, I just feel that that is possibly a subject for debate, but at the moment we can address ourselves as to that in January to another amendment maybe, but I feel that in order to expedite this bill that we had better accept this one House amendment, and then the other one is a different story."

MOTIONS

The motion by Senator Day carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3143 to page 1, line 21.

On motion of Senator Day, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3143 to page 2, beginning on line 19 and asks the House to recede therefrom.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. Northern State Hospital at Sedro Woolley, Washington has been closed as a mental hospital. The purpose of this 1974 act is to authorize the disposition of the real property and improvements thereon in a manner that will be most beneficial to the people of the immediate area affected by the closure and to the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Secretary of the department of social and health services shall transfer the real property, improvements, and appurtenances thereto of the Northern State Hospital site to the departments of general administration and natural resources immediately. The department of social and health services will transfer the funds and the responsibility to maintain the facilities to the department of general administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department of natural resources shall manage or dispose of lands deemed not to be directly adjacent to buildings on the Northern State Hospital site in the same manner as other state lands as provided for in Title 79 RCW in accordance with the intent of section 1 of this 1974 act. The proceeds from such management or disposal shall be the same as proceeds from the management of state lands in Title 79 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department of general administration shall administer the disposition of the buildings and adjacent lands. Commencing on the effective date of this 1974 act, the director of the department of general administration or his designee shall consult with officials of the various political subdivisions of the immediate area affected by the closure to determine whether community use may be made of such facilities. If no agreement is reached by June 30, 1975 regarding future use of such facilities, the director shall dispose of the properties in the usual manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Prior to any disposal of the property of Northern State Hospital by either the department of natural resources or the department of general administration as authorized by sections 3 and 4 of this 1974 act, the proposal for any such disposition shall be submitted to the house and senate ways and means committees for approval or rejection if the legislature is in session. If the legislature is not in session the proposal for any such disposition shall be submitted for approval or rejection to the legislative budget committee. If the house and senate ways and means committees or the legislative budget committee fails to approve or reject a proposal within sixty days of its submittal to the legislative bodies herein named such proposal shall be deemed to have been approved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On line 2 of the title after "sections" and before the period insert "; and declaring an emergency", and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk.

MOTION

Senator Peterson (Lowell) moved that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3358.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Peterson yield? Senator Peterson, when we ran the amendment to this on the floor last time, we shipped it into DNR as you said, but not just to dispose of it, but also manage it. Isn't that correct?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "That is true."

Senator Woody: "And is that management any different under the amendment that we had as opposed to the way you have it now, which is under 79 RCW?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "Only to the extent that instead of DNR, it is to remove DNR from the management of the capital improvements, not of the present surrounding farmlands. The DNR still has the same jurisdiction as they previously had prior to the original version of this bill."

Senator Woody: "Who would manage it under this?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "GSA would manage the capital improvements. DNR would manage the surrounding farmlands which they have been leasing in the past and they would continue to do so."

Senator Woody: "As I understand it, under the prior situation, the prior amendment that we had, if DNR managed the capital improvements they would charge up to twenty-five percent, as I recall. My memory is not that good. Is that correct?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "That language has been stricken by the House amendment."

Senator Woody: "And General Administration would not be charging a percentage of anything that they received, or would it be less than twenty-five percent, or do you know?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "I do not think that is spelled out, Senator Woody. The procedural matter that is under statute that the GSA now handles disposal of surplus state property. This act just puts it into conformity."

Senator Woody: "But do you know whether GSA would charge a percentage or not, or would their operation of management just come out of the general fund?"

Senator Peterson (Lowell): "My interpretation of the House amendment, Senator Woody, is that GSA is not going to do anything with this property without either the approval of the legislature, the respective Ways and Means Committees of the House in session or the Legislative Budget Committee, as Senator Atwood explained, so we would still have an opportunity to look at this if in fact they did anything between now and 1975."

Senator Atwood: "I believe your question is, the costs of administering that, do they come out of the proceeds?"

Senator Woody: "Yes."

Senator Atwood: "Under our act for the revolving fund for GSA, in fact they charge for this building and for every check they will be charging their cost of administration against that particular entity. They do for everything now, under the revolving fund act that passed about two years ago."

The motion by Senator Peterson (Lowell) carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3358.

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3358, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; absent or not voting, 2; excused, 1.

The Sergeant at Arms locked the doors of the Senate Chamber. The Secretary called the roll on the Call of the Senate, all members being present except Senator Newschwander, who had previously been excused.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, the Senate proceeded under the Call of the Senate.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side and having served prior notice, Senator Mardesich moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042, the labor-management relations act, failed to pass the Senate on Sunday, April 21, 1974.

The motion for reconsideration carried.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 was returned to second reading.

MOTION

At 3:05 p.m., on motion of Senator Bailey, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 3:20 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Matson: "Will Senator Greive yield to a question? Senator Greive, there seemed to be some confusion yesterday about whether an 'aye' vote or a 'no' vote was a pro-labor or an anti-labor vote. I wonder if you could straighten us out on that today?"

Senator Greive: "I would suggest that you address that to somebody else. I think that like everyone else, to say that there are not outside forces in this or any other piece of legislation would be to put your head in the sand. I do not know what kind of a labor vote it will be. I have my strong suspicions, obviously. But the fact still remains that labor has a vital interest. It is their field of endeavor. I think that we have a whole gulch full of lobbyists. I do not find Bill Hicks and the truckers bashful about telling the things they want, and I respect them for it. I do not find Vern Lindskog and the major oil companies bashful about telling me what they want, and I respect it. I do not find any of the other, the education forces, both for the school directors or the teachers, if you please, WEA or school directors, I do not find them a bit bashful, and I do not know why anybody that has an interest — to say that we do not listen to what other people want; however, we do not always go with them, would be like saying that we come down here oblivious to what people who are organized into groups want . . . I would imagine that virtually everybody in the state of Washington is in a grange or a church or a Masonic Lodge or a labor union, a business organization or something, and I would imagine that all of those groups from time to time have their views. I can remember a minister up here who had some very strong views on gambling yesterday, and I respect him for it, too. So I cannot tell you whether it is or is not a labor vote, but I think that that is something that each person will have to decide for themselves, as to how they should vote."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I would just like to say for the record that Senator Harry Lewis has taken me through his plant, and if all employers were as good to their employees as he is, we probably would not need labor unions."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3042, and the bill, on reconsideration, passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; excused, 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: “I would like to ask Senator Fleming a question. Senator Fleming, can you tell me what the total impact of this is going to be in the next five years, and why are we getting into a new program where they are already having problems getting enough food for the lunch program? We are now taking on a breakfast program. How far is it going to go? Are we going to have three meals a day?"

Senator Fleming: "From my understanding, Senator Guess, this establishes a school lunch program in many of the areas throughout the state that are not involved in them. In terms of the dollars, there is no money in the bill. We feel as though it is imperative at this time that we try to establish a concept that out of three hundred and some school districts in the state, there are only two hundred and twenty plus school districts which do have school luncheon programs at this particular time. We realize that in some areas of capital construction and others there are federal dollars that are available now, and we feel as though the state should go on record as saying that any way possible that the minimum requirements for young people in our state, the kind of nutrition that they need for the minimum requirements, we should be trying to meet those within our school luncheon programs."

Senator Guess: "Senator Fleming, the caucus digest says that this includes a nutritious breakfast or lunch or both, and the question I ask is, why are we having to go for breakfast? Won't these people feed their kids?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, you might be right there, but I would say this. Some people cannot feed their kids breakfast, and as we know through statistics, when we have kids going to school hungry this lessens their learning ability and it affects them."

Senator Guess: "Senator, don't we have the food stamp program?"

Senator Fleming: "The food stamp program has nothing to do with these young people getting food before they go to school. A lot of young people do not eat breakfast before they go to school, and whether or not you have food stamps, you recognize that the price of food has risen and the price of our standard of living has risen -- and whether you have food stamps or not does not mean that you have enough food in your house to feed your kid breakfast before he goes to school."

Senator Guess: "If there is no money in it, Senator, why no money?"

Senator Fleming: "There is no money in the program at this point in time for two reasons. One, we think that the impact of the bill would probably be something like seventy thousand dollars. Some people felt as though, 'Do we really know whether this is going to be the effect?' And we would like to, if we cannot get the appropriation now, since we are in a mini-session dealing in a supplemental budget -- not the annual or biennial budget that we deal with -- and we think we should at least go on record as supporting the idea that all of our young people should not go to school with an empty stomach. And we think that by putting this concept we can come back, look at this program in January, look at the need, and if the need is there and the dollars, then we can deal with that. But we felt as though it was imperative because there are some federal dollars that could be available for this program because there are some school districts that do not participate and they are losing out on the federal dollars."

Senator Guess: "Thank you, Senator Fleming."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Atwood: "Will Senator Fleming yield? Senator, in section 8, page 4, there is a proviso in there that if the public school district fails to comply the SPI can withhold state apportionment funds available under the chapter from any school district failing to comply. I want to know what the philosophy is of penalizing the rest of the children for failure on action of the school board to comply and jeopardizing educational program for everyone else."

Senator Fleming: "The same thing happens, Senator Atwood, you know, whenever there is a federal law or a state law with which you do not comply. The state or the federal government can withdraw those funds. What they are trying to do is that in those areas, for instance, even with the URD funds that we have had before, we have had school districts that did not want to participate when the moneys were available for them to participate and they kept young people of bilingual language or whatever from getting additional education that they needed to get through school. And what we have said in those is that that should not be. If the money is available, if the program is there, then the districts should participate if there is a need. And I think this is what they are saying."

Senator Atwood: "Thank you, Senator Fleming."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Will Senator Fleming further yield? I am serious on this. Under this bill, are there any guidelines in it? What if someone has the financial ability but the mother is a little lazy or would just prefer to sluff getting breakfast for her kiddies off on the school district? Would that be possible under this, that even though you had food, if the mother just plain does not cook breakfast, is the child eligible regardless of the financial ability of the parents?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Woodall, from my understanding from the federal guidelines and so forth, there has to be a need shown as to whether these young people's parents can afford furnishing the luncheon or whatever it is. Many of the school districts, as I said, two hundred and twenty plus school districts out of the three hundred and some school districts we have, are already participating. And so what we are trying to do is at least let the state be behind the program."

Senator Woodall: "Senator Fleming, you say they already participate. We are talking about. . . ."

Senator Fleming: "Two hundred and twenty of them."

Senator Woodall: "All right. But we are talking about lunches. Now this adds breakfast. My question again is, now the school lunch at noon hour has no relationship to the financial ability of the parent. That is available to everyone. I am asking you, would breakfast be available for the children of some people who had means and the mother just plain did not get up in the morning and cook?"

Senator Fleming: "It depends on the program. I do not think it is necessary you have to have a breakfast program, but it depends on the school and the program that they decide to develop for that school. I would like to say this here, 'no' to your question that they cannot force someone who can afford the luncheon to have this. And I said before that it is developed on need, not whether someone is too lazy to get up and prepare their breakfast. I will just give you an idea of some of the counties that are not participating in the program. Adams County, Bingen No. 122; Benton County, Patterson No. 50; Chelan County; Clallam County, Port Angeles No. 21, Fairview No. 321. I can just go right down the list of some of the schools that are not participating. And no, they would not, from my understanding, force it on someone whose mothers were too lazy to get up and cook, but I think they do have programs. They develop a program on the basis of need."

Senator Murray: "Mr. President, I think maybe I can help to answer the question. I believe the bill says that they have to establish a need for at least ten percent of the student body involved in order to establish the program, so that if there is one mother who is not feeding her child, it does not require any kind of a program. However, if there are ten percent who, for one reason or another, are not getting an adequate breakfast and the money is available and the facilities are available, then they would have the authorization to go ahead and put in this kind of a program. But it requires a minimum need established before they can do anything."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woodall: "Would Senator Murray yield? Do I take it then that once established, however, all children, regardless of the ability of the parents to provide, are then eligible for this breakfast? Once you establish that ten percent of the district needs it, then are the other ninety eligible for breakfast?"

Senator Murray: "My understanding is that they individually have to establish their need to qualify for the free breakfast or lunch, once they have established the overall need in quantity to set up the program. If someone else wants their lunch then they may have to pay for it if they cannot individually establish their personal need."

The Secretary called the roll on the final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3345, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 12; absent or not voting, 4; excused, 7.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3212, by Senators Francis, Woody and Dore:
Enacting the Group Legal Services Act of 1974.

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE

April 19, 1974.

SENATE BILL NO. 3212, enacting the Group Legal Services Act of 1974 (reported by Judiciary Committee):

MAJORITY recommendation: Do pass with the following amendments:

On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that a substantial unmet need for legal services exists among the moderate and low income people of the state, that this need has not been met by existing methods for providing legal services, and that new approaches to the delivery of legal services should be developed in order to assist all people of the state in their efforts to achieve effective access to the legal system. The legislature further finds that the development of new approaches to providing legal services can best be accomplished by permitting innovative techniques for organizing and delivering legal services, that the people of the state should be offered a variety of choices between responsible new methods, that these new methods should be controlled reasonably, and that it would be inappropriate to provide such control pursuant to Title 48 RCW.

The purposes of this 1974 act are to provide for the certification of approved group legal services plans, to promote access to legal services at reasonable costs, and to regulate the development and operation of such plans in a manner which will serve the public interest by protecting the interests of the people of this state receiving such services, and to insure the adherence to the code of professional responsibility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This 1974 act shall apply to all persons or entities proposing to operate or operating or participating in the operation of a group legal services plan as such plan is defined in section 3 (7) of this 1974 act, or who are applicants, sponsors, legal service contractors, members, or operators as defined in section 3 of this 1974 act, and to all group legal services and group legal plans as defined in section 3 of this 1974 act. (10) "Member" means any person receiving or entitled to receive benefits under a group legal services plan.

(3) Any applicant whose filing is denied in whole or in part may petition the commission for a hearing on the merits, said petition to be filed within thirty days after receiving notice of the denial, and the hearing shall be conducted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) The commission may upon its own motion, or upon the motion of any person aggrieved, conduct a hearing concerning the revocation of a certificate of approval previously approved. After such hearing, the commission may revoke a certificate of approval previously granted to an applicant, upon finding any of the following conditions exist:

- (a) The certificate of approval was fraudulently obtained;
- (b) The certificate of approval was erroneously issued;

- (d) The plan is fraudulently operated; or

(e) The plan is in such condition as to render further operation thereof hazardous to the public interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The attorney general shall have authority to enforce the provisions of this 1974 act at the request of the commission, either by injunctive relief or civil action.

(1) Injunctive relief may be granted against any sponsor operating a group legal services plan without a valid certificate of approval and against any sponsor of a group legal services plan which

- (a) Has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter; or

(2) Each sponsor shall pay monthly to the commission a sum not to exceed two percent of the gross payments received by such sponsor during the preceding month in respect to the group legal services plans. The rate shall be fixed by the commission, from time to time, which, together with the income from any other source deposited or credited to such account will permit the commission to meet its anticipated expenditures. No payment to the commission shall be required from any funds granted or provided to sponsors by a state or federal source.

(3) Disbursements from the group legal services revolving account shall be on authorization of the commission or its designated representative to be used for the payment of salaries, wages, and other costs and charges incurred for the operation and administration of the provisions of this 1974 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The commission may request the insurance commissioner to provide actuarial and other assistance to enable the commission to fulfill its duties, and the commission shall reimburse the insurance commissioner for the reasonable costs of providing such assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. No sponsor or legal services contractor shall discriminate regarding participation in a group legal services plan on account of race, religion, sex, or national origin.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Nothing in this 1974 act shall be construed to relieve any attorney from adherence to the code of professional responsibility as adopted and amended from time to time by the supreme court of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. This 1974 act may be cited as the Group Legal Services Act of 1974.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. If any provision of this 1974 act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. This 1974 act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Would Senator Woody yield? Senator Woody, can you tell me how the mind of man can create a set of controls that would keep this or any other benefit plan from being abused?"

Senator Woody: "I certainly can. If you will look at this particular bill you will see that under section 14 there are very stringent requirements and any person aggrieved, which means you, Senator, can file before the commission a hearing whereby an entire plan would be undone and in the event that particular commission does not go along with you, you can appeal that to the Superior Court. If you found any abuses at all, you as an aggrieved person, it does not take a class but you as an aggrieved person, can file before the hearing board or the Superior Court."

Senator Guess: "A fat chance you would have of getting a decision on a deal like that, it has been my experience so far."

Senator Woody: "Have you read this bill, Senator Guess?"

Senator Guess: "No, I will have to admit I have not. I thought I would find out about it."

Senator Woody: "I have written this thing so tightly that even you would be happy with it."

On page 5 of the substitute bill, following section 7, insert new sections as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The legislature recognizes that the present shortage of energy affects the lives of the citizens of the state of Washington in a great variety of ways. One of the most noticeable and extensive effects has been a reduction in motor vehicle traffic, both in use and in speed. The result of this lessened motor vehicle usage has been a reduced accident rate, and insurance carriers writing motor vehicle casualty insurance have benefitted financially from a more favorable accident experience.

It is the intent of the legislature that such resulting financial gain be passed along to motor vehicle insurance policyholders to partially offset some of the other burdens placed on them by the energy crisis. Consequently it shall be the purpose of sections 8 through 11 of this 1974 amendatory act to provide a temporary adjustment in motor vehicle insurance premiums to reflect the financial impact of the energy shortage on companies offering motor vehicle casualty coverage.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The provisions of RCW 48.19.440 insofar as they relate to motor vehicle casualty insurance rates are superseded by sections 8 through 11 of this 1974 amendatory act during the present condition of motor vehicle use curtailment. Such condition shall be deemed to exist whenever the most current records of the state highway department show that average miles traveled per motor vehicle is below the level of the corresponding month of 1972 and the maximum posted daytime speed limit on the majority of the interstate highway system within this state is less than seventy miles per hour. Whenever such average miles per vehicle returns for three consecutive calendar months to the level existing for the corresponding month of 1972 and the maximum posted speed limit on the majority of the interstate highway system in this state returns to seventy miles per hour, the condition of motor vehicle use curtailment shall be deemed to be over, the emergency powers conferred by sections 8 through 11 of this 1974 amendatory act shall be terminated, and the provisions of RCW 48.19.440 shall resume their full force and effect, unless otherwise amended by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. During a period of motor vehicle use curtailment as defined by section 9 of this 1974 amendatory act, motor vehicle casualty insurance rates and premiums shall be reduced by five percent on May 1, 1974. The insurance commissioner shall, upon receipt of a written request by an individual insurer for a show cause hearing on the premium and rate reduction, hold such hearing. The insurance commissioner, after notice and hearing, and upon finding that any individual insurer would not earn excess profits at the rates in effect before such five percent reduction, may order relief from such five percent reduction in motor vehicle casualty insurance premiums and rates as he finds to be justified after such hearings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The provisions of sections 8 through 11 of this 1974 amendatory act are intended to be temporary and shall expire when the insurance commissioner, after notice and hearing, finds that for three consecutive calendar months there no longer exists a condition of motor vehicle use curtailment, as defined in section 9 of this 1974 amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 8 through 11 of this 1974 amendatory act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Renumber section 8 as section 13.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Point of order, Mr. President, that the proposed amendment would expand the scope and object of the bill, and speaking upon the point; in order to understand this it is necessary to explain what Substitute Bill No. 3317 is intended to accomplish. This bill is an amendment to the insurance code and we have to go back to the original insurance code which was enacted in 1947. And that bill was quite a voluminous enactment. When it came on for passage at the very last of a long session, then Senator Rosellini, later Governor, proposed an objection to the rating sections insofar as they applied to casualty insurance. And as a result of that there were insertions throughout the code of a simple statement to the effect that this section does not apply to casualty insurance. And then at the very end of the code there was a section that related to casualty insurance.

"Now this has gone on throughout the years with a sort of an uncertainty as to what the effect of the section was. The Insurance Department then requested a correction so that in effect those exclusions relating to casualty insurance should be stricken and also the provisions which would have applied to casualty rates. This then simply corrected the insurance code in such a way that the rating of casualty insurance insofar as all of the different criteria would be exactly the same as the other phases of insurance. Now this was the object of the bill as proposed at the request of the Insurance Department.

"The amendment as proposed by Senator Dore would create an entirely different and new situation. In effect, it would ask this legislature to take over the functions, the administrative functions of the Insurance Department with respect to a specific rate fixing on automobile insurance.

"Now this is completely contrary to the original concept of the bill and it is perhaps best illustrated by the fact that there was an identical bill which would have accomplished this at a different percentage that was opposed by the Insurance Commissioner at a hearing before the Financial Institutions Committee. So I submit that the proposed amendment not only completely changes the original objective of the bill, but is quite contrary thereto."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Senator Dore, Senator Clarke, the President believes this is a question that will take considerable study. The President could put you to ease until approximately midnight."

Further debate ensued.

The Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3317, a pending amendment by Senator Dore and others which was moved for adoption earlier today and the point of order raised by Senator Clarke on the scope and object of the amendment by Senator Dore and others.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "The President in ruling on the point of order as presented by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3317 is merely a measure which strikes language from the insurance code and thereby applies the same criteria to casualty insurance that is applied to other types of insurance.

"The amendment proposed however, pertains to insurance rates and the energy crisis and in fact sets a specific reduction in insurance rates and suspends existing laws with reference to the method of setting rates. The amendment, therefore, does increase the scope and object of the bill."

The amendment by Senator Dore and others was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Day, the following amendment to the resolution was adopted:

On page 1, line 15 of the resolution, after "custody" and before the period, insert " , coupled with security for the law-abiding citizens of the state;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Would Senator Day yield? Senator, by this resolution is it the intent of your committee to advance the proposition of community based prisons and to remove the reformatory and the prison at Walla Walla?"

Senator Day: "It is not. It is the intent of the committee to advance the understanding of objective facts relative to the prison system and to develop the type of a program which not only is beneficial to the rehabilitation of those prisoners but as the amendment states is also addressed to the security of the state."

The motion by Senator Day carried and the resolution, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Sellar, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-246

By Senators Bottiger and Sellar:

WHEREAS, Many collisions between automobiles and railroad cars occur each year, injuring or killing many persons and causing great property damage; and

WHEREAS, A disturbing proportion of car-train accidents occur at night when automobile drivers, arriving at a crossing after the engine has passed and too late to be warned by approaching lights and whistles, proceed into the darkened middle of the passing train; and

WHEREAS, Many rail cars in the United States travel between states and cross into Canada in the course of commerce;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the State of Washington, That we do hereby encourage the Congress to enact legislation and the Department of Transportation to enact rules and regulations requiring the marking of the sides of railroad cars with light reflectorization material, and that uniform regulations on this subject be sought with Canada; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Honorable Richard M. Nixon, President of the United States, to the President of the Senate of the United States, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the United States, to each member of the Congress from this State, and to the Secretary of the Department of Transportation.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Guess, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-260

By Senators Guess and Washington:

WHEREAS, The department of ecology has conducted hearings on proposed regulations to govern the base flow for rivers and streams; and

WHEREAS, The public reaction has not been favorable to the proposed rules and other management of the proposals of the department; and

WHEREAS, The legislature is concerned with the preservation and protection of the environment as well as various uses to which water can be put; and

WHEREAS, The department will be seeking alternatives to their existing management proposals which should be undertaken in conjunction with the legislature since such proposals will directly affect the neighboring states of Idaho and Oregon;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Senate Ecology Committee study the problem of base flows, the requirements of the 1971 Water Resources Act, and other matters related to the question of stream flow and stream management as it is interpreted and administered by the department of ecology; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the results of such study and any recommendations shall be reported back to the 1975 regular session of the legislature.

MOTION

Senator Sellar moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-250

By Senator Sellar:

WHEREAS, The United States Navy is proposing to move its Boardman, Oregon, Weapons Training Range; and

WHEREAS, One of the alternate sites is located in Northeastern Douglas County in Washington state; and

WHEREAS, Selection of this site would remove eight thousand acres of wheat land and twenty-two thousand acres of cattle range land from production; and

WHEREAS, Some twenty-four farm families would be seriously affected or displaced; and

WHEREAS, The removal of this land from private ownership would result in an annual tax loss of ten thousand dollars to Douglas County, its schools and taxing districts;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate of the Washington State Legislature that the United States Navy be encouraged to retain its present site at Boardman or seek a suitable alternate site on land currently owned by the United States Government and preferably a site such as an existing military reservation already used for similar purposes; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to the Secretary of the Navy and to each member of the Congress from the State of Washington.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Canfield: "Will Senator Washington or Senator Sellar yield to a question? Senator Sellar, since the Boardman Range is right across the river from my district, I would be interested in knowing why the Navy is planning to give up that Boardman site if such be true, and why they are looking for a site in Douglas County. I would be interested in some facts on this."

Senator Sellar: "Yes, Senator Canfield. This involves the location of a nuclear power plant adjacent to the Boardman site. It has been proposed because of safety factors that this bombing range - and incidentally they do drop practice bombs - and from this site. Now the facts are that they do not have to move it, that the safety factor is not any less there than it is in the Grand Coulee site. They do not have to move the Boardman site. This is all tangled up in an irrigation project and what it is going to do is, it is going to take farm land out of production in the state of Washington and it is going to put farm land into production in the state of Oregon. Now that is what it is going to do, gentlemen. The Boardman site does not have to be moved and that is the thing that we are just kind of getting out of perspective here."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Sellar, I built the Boardman Range and so help me Hannah, I could not find anything that would raise enough food for a jackrabbit down there. And one morning in February when we were making repairs on the pylons and I had a clear range for four hours, it was under the white flag, all of a sudden here came a wave of B-17's and I wonder if you could tell me what they dropped."

Senator Sellar: "Senator Guess, I was not there, obviously, so I have no idea what they dropped."

Senator Guess: "They dropped a bunch of blue cans. They were canisters. They were dummy bombs. But that day and age is gone. Now today they do it all electronically. And I believe that Senator Beck is correct when he says it is done electronically because we have the bomb exercises of the world at Fairchild Air Force Base every other year or so. It just depends on how high our boys have tested as to whether or not we get the world series. But they do not drop anything. They have a series of checkpoints that are electronic stations and they register the accuracy of the bombing by the electronic means. Now have you seen anything that says it is going to take land out of production? Is it going to make them move off the land?"

Senator Sellar: "Yes sir."

Senator Guess: "You are sure of that?"

Senator Sellar: "Yes sir."

Senator Guess: "Okay."

Senator Sellar: "I think it is academic whether they are actually dropping a practice bomb or not. The fact is that they will go in and if they need to, they will condemn production land and they will move families off it. I do not care whether they are going to drop something on them or not, Senator."

Senator Guess: "I was not aware that they were really going to move people off the ground. If they are going to do that, then that is a different matter."

Senator Sellar: "There is a fact sheet addendum to the resolution that I think will address itself to that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WANAMAKER

Senator Wanamaker: "In answer to that, Mr. President, yes, they will be moving those off but the land will not be going out of production. The Navy will be taking approximately thirty thousand acres. Of this they estimate about six thousand now is being farmed. This land will be leased back, which the Navy does. Their idea of taking that amount is in order to be able to have control, so that housing projects and such as that cannot move into the area. The land will be leased back to the farmers. Also, as far as you are saying about moving people off, they will also be moving in about thirty families into the area in order to operate the site."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Would Senator Wanamaker yield to a question? You know, I have always been for maximum use of existing facilities and we have a fantastic bombing range in Yakima, and I do not want to get into an argument on who the airplanes fly over, but why in the world don't they just use the one they have got?"

Senator Wanamaker: "I can answer that. The reason for that, as you understand that they are training new young pilots. Now as far as Yakima is concerned, they claim that the terrain is such that they are having to dive in the valleys between the bluffs and the hills, of which they are afraid to put young pilots in there because they are not experienced enough in order to be able to pull out. Also they are using the Yakima range, the Army is using it for anti-aircraft fire and if you happen to put a young pilot in when they were having anti-aircraft practice, there undoubtedly would be some casualties. Therefore, they feel that it would not be compatible nor be able to work to go into that particular area. They have looked at it. That has been one of the seven sites that they have looked at."

MOTIONS

Senator Francis moved that Senate Resolution 1974-250 be withdrawn.

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Mardesich, Senate Resolution 1974-250 was referred to the Committee on Rules.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Francis, the following resolution was adopted:

SENATE RESOLUTION 1974-255

By Senators Francis, Durkan, Ridder, Walgren, Van Hollebeke and Dore:

WHEREAS, Citizen confidence in law enforcement agencies is a vital component of the cooperation between civilians and law enforcement personnel necessary for effective control of crime; and

WHEREAS, Such confidence may be eroded by allegations of unnecessary use of force, and allegations of unrestrained use of surveillance and intelligence-gathering tactics; and by questions raised by law enforcement agencies investigating charges brought against them; and

WHEREAS, An increase in the number of such incidents has been reported; and

WHEREAS, There are a number of questions regarding the ability of law enforcement agencies to investigate public charges against said agencies; and

WHEREAS, There exist questions regarding the propriety of gathering and use of information on public figures or officials and the invasion of privacy of individuals;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Senate, that the Senate hereby requests the Judiciary Committee to study these questions; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That said committee is requested to transmit a report of such study and its recommendations to the next regular session of the legislature for its consideration.

APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The President appointed Senators Woodall and Walgren to escort Senator Robert W. Twigg and his wife, Margaret, to a place of honor upon the rostrum.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Atwood, all members of the Senate and the President of the Senate, John Cherberg, were added as sponsors to Senate Resolution 1974-258.

On motion of Senator Atwood, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

By Lieutenant Governor John A. Cherberg, Senators Atwood, Bailey, Beck, Bottiger, Canfield, Clarke, Connor, Day, Donohue, Dore, Durkan, Fleming, Francis, Grant, Greive, Guess, Henry, Herr, Jolly, Jones, Keefe, Knoblauch, Lewis (Harry), Lewis (R. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be presented to Senator Twigg by the Secretary of the Senate.

With the consent of the Senate, business was suspended to permit the following remarks regarding Senator and Mrs. Robert W. Twigg:

REMARKS BY SENATOR ATWOOD

Senator Atwood: "Mr. President, lady and gentlemen of the Senate, this is a different sort of retiree we are honoring here today. He has not had twenty-two years of continuous service. But he has had eight years of good and faithful service. He is one of our outstanding members of our caucus and it is a real tragedy to the state to have a very qualified professional man have to leave this body because of the time it takes and the effort it takes to serve a new district of extreme size. Senator Twigg has been a close personal friend of mine and I know of many of you on the other side of the aisle, and I think that we will miss him very sorely on this side and I know that you will on your side. He has done much for this state. He was one of the prime movers of getting the Expo legislation through this legislature and I hope and I know that we will see Bob again. He is a young man and I am sure that Spokane County will be the beneficiary of services in the future from him. Mrs. Twigg has been right beside Bob the whole time of his service, and I am sure that she will also miss this place. We are sorry to see you go, Bob, especially me."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WOODALL

Senator Woodall: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I join in what has been said. This is a sad hour personally for me. My best friend in the Senate a few years ago, Marshall Neill, with whom I worked closely, wrote me a letter immediately upon the election of Bob Twigg and said, 'You are going to like this guy.' And I began to receive letters from different people and sometimes carbon copies went to him. I never had seen him or known him. I was out of state at the time we had our first caucus, so I did not meet him until a given Sunday night. I shall never forget. I walked into our caucus room and I saw him and I said, 'You are the guy I am supposed to like.' He stuck out his hand and with that famous smile of his he says, 'Why not?' It is typical of him. In all of my time that I have been here, I have never known one man who in such a short period of time made as many friends on both sides of the aisle. Sometimes it takes years. He has that faculty of making friends immediately.

"I am going to mention a matter now because it illustrates how he is regarded. He came to me one day and said, 'Perry, what do you think about let us just for kicks start a little investment club? Get five Republicans and five Democrat guys who are good guys and just for fun give me one hundred dollars a month and see what I can do with it.' I said, 'Senator Twigg, if you can do with my dough what you have done with yours, I am for it.' He formed this little club and I mention it only for this reason; you have read some write-ups in the media trying to make something bad out of it. Nothing bad about it, nothing wrong about it. We send him one hundred dollars a month or one hundred and fifty, and he sees if he can find something attractive to buy for us. I mention this because many of the Democratic Senators have never even seen what he has purchased. They have never even gone over to check. And he tries once a year to have a meeting with us to have an accounting, and we get socially inclined and the first thing you know everyone accepts his reports without even hearing them. I mention this only to show how people feel about him. I mentioned that when I re-drew my will I willed everything I had to him in trust for my daughter, entrusting to him the proper administration of it. When I filed for office two years ago, he was the first to declare for me. I have spent nights in his home with him and his lovely wife Meg. He arranged a meeting in Spokane for me, stood up and announced that I was his best friend in the Senate, came to Yakima, did the same thing in Seattle. As one man can honorably love another man, I love you, Bob Twigg."

REMARKS BY SENATOR VAN HOLLEBEKE

Senator Van Hollebeke: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, and Senator Twigg; Perry, for a moment there you had me a little worried. I thought you were going to spring a surprise on us and not let us wait until Expo is all over and find out you guys own all that land underneath that Expo site. I hope that Senator Twigg will allow a freshman Senator to say a few kind words in his behalf. I have been involved in politics extensively for over eighteen years but have only been a Senator for some fifteen or sixteen months, but it has been a real pleasure getting to know Bob and working with him. We served together on the Judiciary Committee and I think that this is one of the committees that — all committees require a lot of ability and are very important, but this committee, I think, often requires knowledge in very many subjects to serve ably. It requires very many different types of abilities and I think one has to be judicious to be on the Judiciary Committee. One has to have the interest of all the citizens of the state in mind at all times, and I think that whatever it takes to be a good member of this Senate, to serve on a committee like that and the various committees that Senator Twigg has served on, it more than demonstrated that he has those abilities. I know whenever I have asked him about anything I have had the same experience that everybody else in this Senate has had. When Bob Twigg tells you something his word is good, and I think that is the finest thing you can say about a Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WALGREN

Senator Walgren: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, what can you really say when a good friend is leaving, because Bob Twigg, of course, has been a good friend, not only to me and to my wife and to all of us, as his wife has been a friend to us too. We know the pressures that come upon us as members of this Senate and of this legislature. We have all had them, and as has already been pointed out by Senator Atwood, it is unfortunate that the good people of the legislature have to leave. Bob certainly is one of those good people. He has all of those attributes that Perry Woodall mentioned and that all of us have talked about and all of us hope that we would have. Bob has integrity. Most of all, and I think the most important attribute that any Senator can have on this floor is loyalty and honesty, and he has those. It is going to be a different place around here in the Senate when Bob Twigg goes because he has been an inspiration, I think, to all of us. He has represented his district in the highest traditions. He has represented his state in the highest traditions. I have personally looked to him for advice on many of the matters that have come before us in this legislature. He has served with me on various committees. I think probably the closest service that we had was with the old interim Municipal Committee where we worked on so many problems of city government, particularly, and where he did such an outstanding job. So it is going to be, I think, a real problem and a difficulty for us to proceed without Bob Twigg sitting beside us and giving us his advice. I know that he will come down in the wings from time to time and tell us about how things are going on and what he thinks ought to be done and we certainly are going to welcome that.

"Back in the days before Van Hollebeke and von Reichbauer, it used to be Twigg and Walgren in the order, and I could always tell how to vote, even though I did not know what the issue was, because if Bob Twigg voted yes, I always voted no. So we had a little difference philosophically, but I certainly hope that that is the only place where our differences occurred and I know that, once again, we will all miss him here in the Senate."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Honored members of the Senate, with your indulgence the President should like to remark that I am sure everyone will be in agreement that there is no more popular, poised or pleasant person in the world than Bob Twigg, and if you will just take a moment I would like to ask Senator Woodall and Senator Walgren to escort the very beautiful and loving wife of our distinguished Robert W. Twigg and the Senator right down the center aisle."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GREIVE

Senator Greive: "Lady and gentlemen of the Senate, I am going to make it very short. In this world of combatants, and that is really what we are down here, fighting for matters of philosophy, for matters of ideals, sometimes for a matter of rank politics, but nevertheless we are constantly moving one way or another, attempting to see that our ideas and the ideas we support prevail; I can say for Bob Twigg, and I am sure that everyone in this body will agree with me, that he is one of the few people I have known in the years I have been here who has never struck a low blow, taken a cheap shot. I have never seen him once express rancor. At all times he has been fair."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TED PETERSON

Senator Peterson (Ted): "Mr. President and members of the Senate and to Bob and Meg, you know I am just sitting here swelling with pride. I happen to be the Senator in the district and in that part of town, Ballard, where Bob Twigg was born and I know his father well. He is in the middle of the district, lives on the corner of Twenty-fourth and Eighty-fifth in a beautiful little home there. He is in the real estate business. Now back of that, and after a comment that was made by Senator Woodall on the real estate, you might know why he is interested in real estate and why he is evolving and building a fortune in real estate. His father, Mr. Twigg, his grandfather Twigg, lived on the corner of Sixty-second and Twenty-fourth Northwest, right in the heart of Ballard. If Ballard had a mayor he would have been the mayor of Ballard. He was a lifetime Elk, and in the real estate business. And real estate that he had, even the property where the old home is now, is one of the valued pieces of property in Ballard. Then going out north, you know he graduated from Ballard High School. This resolution should have contained everything. And he had a paper route that went down Twenty-fourth and down in what we call the sticks, the salmonberry bushes and all that. He asked me if I knew where that was. Well, that is Blue Ridge Drive where I live now, and he peddled papers there and he can remember the old brickyards on the other side and Carkeek and all that.

"So again I say I just sit here swelling with pride because here is a native of Ballard, which is in Seattle of course, and he fondly calls it Snooseville and sometimes he refers to me as Snoose. Now you know what that means out in Ballard so it is a pleasure to be here, Bob and Meg, and to wish you the best. I hate to see you go because when a boy from Ballard makes good it is news and, Senators, I am just proud as punch to be here with you and hate to see you go."

REMARKS BY SENATOR JOLLY

Senator Jolly: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, there is one of Senator Twigg's abilities that has not been mentioned here today, and Farmer Twigg, we are going to miss you on the Agriculture Committee. I have enjoyed working with you and I wish you all the luck in the world."

REMARKS BY SENATOR DAY

Senator Day: "Bob and Meg, I do not belong to your investment club but Bob has taken me into another one of his clubs and that is his fishing club. We have been fishing a couple of times together and the first time we went he just really pulled me in there. I said,

'Have you ever done this?' Oh, no, he had never done this before. He ended up not only catching all the fish, he even traded poles with me and continued to catch all the fish. But, Bob, you have been a rare friend and in addition you have been an excellent committee member on my committee. Your abilities are broad and you have done a good job as a state Senator. You have suffered all of the inequities in circumstances that the rest of us have had to plow through, and done it with a smile. I just want to say that Perry Woodall has lost a friend on the Senate and so have I, but I think that the big loser, when a man of your caliber leaves the Senate, is the people of this state."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KNOBLAUCH

Senator Knoblauch: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, may I say 'Twiggy' like I always have? Twiggy, I think your finest hour was a few moments ago in the words of Senator Bob Greive. I do not think any higher tribute could be paid a man than those words of Senator Greive's. We have not thought of you as a Republican or a Democrat. We have thought of you as a fellow Senator. And I have never seen you with a bad look on your face. You are always smiling. And Meg and Twiggy, I have a memory of a night in San Diego. You are a gentleman when you are on the floor and you folks are kind and wonderful when you are out socially. And I remember a night in San Diego at the convention headquarters where we went to a place where they celebrate New Year's Eve every night of the year. And I got to celebrate New Year's Eve in July with Twiggy and his fine wife and it was a wonderful evening and one that I have never forgotten. I do not want to take away anything that has been said to you today, but Bob and Mrs. Twigg, this is your finest hour."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CANFIELD

Senator Canfield: "In a way I knew Bob before he was born. I went to school with his father. We were buddies over at Washington State, and his father is named Glen, and we met again in 1971 over at Washington State when we had our golden celebration, what they call golden grads over at Washington State and Glen was there. The first time I had seen him in fifty years, and it was nice to see him in apparent good health. So we talked over old times and then we talked about his son, Bob. He was pretty proud of his boy. I think it is pretty fine when you have a fine father and a fine son and I just wanted to say that I join in that. I think Bob is a real fine man."

REMARKS BY SENATOR R. H. "BOB" LEWIS

Senator Lewis (R. H. "Bob"): "Ladies and gentlemen, I think it is obvious that today we pay honor to that suave, smooth, smiling, sophisticate of the Senate, Bob Twigg. I think that he has survived such things as being valedictorian of his class and he has done it well. He wears his intelligence well. He has excellent taste. He not only won the hand, but body, soul and heart of a beautiful doll from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho and a very wise young lady also, because even though she plays golf quite capably and has a fairly low handicap, she is smart enough to keep it just a few strokes above that of her husband's, and I think a marriage like that has got to be a pretty good one."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to rise and support all these nice things that have been said about Senator Twigg and to Meg. I have enjoyed my relationship with both of them. It has been a relationship that I sometimes wonder how it got started. I too, like Senator Walgren, if I needed to know how to vote and Senator Twigg voted one way, I knew I had to vote the other. But the other side of the coin is that I know that Senator Twigg's philosophy and the district that he represents is totally to the opposite of mine, but for some reason or another there is something about this gentleman that you cannot help but like. First of all, he is a very classy guy, very classy guy, and there are not too many first class people that you get to know very well in this world today. But the other side of it is that the only thing I hated, Bob, is that it took me three years to get a 'yes' vote out of you. So although I will miss you, I will not miss your vote."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President: "Members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, I will have to quote from Balzac on this one. 'Everybody all over the world takes a wife's estimate into account in forming an opinion of a man.' How about it, Meg? Do you want to get at this guy? Would you like to say a few words?"

"Honored members of the Senate, ladies and gentlemen, it is indeed gratifying to hear such kind and friendly references to our very good friend Bob Twigg and to Meg. I would like to say that anyone who loves life as deeply as Bob Twigg never will grow old. Now the grim reaper may catch up with him in time but this guy will never die of old age. He will die young. Now that is not a very pleasant thought but I -- it did not come out exactly the way I meant it to come out but I am sure it will be accepted in the same good spirit in which it was spoken. Bob, it has been a delightful pleasure to meet you and you are a bright spot in everybody's life who ever had the chance to meet you. Won't you say a few words to us?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR TWIGG

Senator Twigg: "Meg and good friend Governor John, Perry and 'Gordo' and all of you, needless to say, this is the most thrilling moment of my life. I want you all to know how very deeply appreciative I am of this very thoughtful recognition. In keeping with the very pointed admonition of our friend Don Talley yesterday, I would simply like to say that I flat out love every damn one of you."

The President of the Senate presented a bouquet of roses to Mrs. Twigg.

The special committee escorted Senator Twigg to his seat in the Senate Chamber and Mrs. Twigg from the Senate Chamber.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to the President of the United States, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate and the members of the Washington State Congressional delegation.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Will Senator Bailey yield to a question? Senator Bailey, I see this is a resolution asking that the OEO be continued. It is my understanding that they were phasing the OEO out as an agency. Is it your intent that the Office of Economic Opportunity be continued? I would like to ask you that question if you will answer."

Senator Bailey: "No. The intent was that they provide for some of these community action councils that had very good programs going but the word OEO was removed from the resolution and the word OEO refers to where the program had been in the past. There are some very good programs operating under these – I think the idea is that these programs would be put out to other agencies. I think this is the administration's idea, but in doing so they did not provide for putting them out. It does not say to continue the OEO in there at all."

Senator Rasmussen: "In effect, that is what the whole aim of the resolution is and I would object very much if they would continue that – I have no objection to some of the programs which have proven successful, but in the main most of the programs by the Office of Economic Opportunity have been a waste of public funds and in many instances did complete harm to many worthwhile programs that the communities were engaged in themselves. Now I have no objection to the money, but I sure have a lot of objection to the continuation of the Office of Economic Opportunity. If you can make that clear that that is not your intention."

Senator Bailey: "It was not my intention to continue OEO. It was my intention to get money for those programs that were good and constructive, and of course that is the lack of administration and I do not know how you conquer that."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, I rise to support Senator Bailey on his motion. Regardless of whether some people think that moneys were wasted in some areas, the fact of the matter is that there were very good programs that were developed and that are still being maintained but are running short of funds that were started under OEO, and whether you call the program an OEO program or whatever you want to call it, there are some community action programs that are well worthwhile and I think that this resolution is most apropos, that many of the programs we will not be able to continue because of lack of funds and I would hope that Congress would be able to supply those needed federal funds to make sure that some of these programs could continue."

MOTION

The motion by Senator Bailey carried and the resolution was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the following resolution was adopted:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 22, 1974.

Mr. President: The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3044, with the following amendments:

On page 1, line 1 of the title after "elections;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 9, Laws of 1965, and to chapter 29.04 RCW;"

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 29.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and Title 29 RCW, or any other provision of law, no ballot, voting machine, ballot card, voting device or vote tally system shall be utilized at the general election for 1977 or for any primary or general election thereafter, which shall not make available in duplicate a record of the number of votes cast for and against each proposition in such voting place, the total votes cast for each candidate in such voting place, and the total number of all ballots cast at such voting place. Precinct election officials shall be responsible to see to the posting of the results in a manner which permits public viewing after the closure of the polling place, in the vicinity of the polling place, prior to said removal of any such ballots, voting machine printed election returns or ballot cards from the polling place, and one of such election officials shall maintain one copy of the above results in his possession for a period of at least thirty days following the election; and upon failure of the above responsibilities by any election official, said official, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly.

Sec. 2. Section 29.13.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 1, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.13.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All state, county, city, town, and district general elections for the election of federal, state, legislative, judicial, county, city, town, district, and precinct officers, and for the submission to the voters of the state, county, city, town, or district of any measure for their adoption and approval or rejection, shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, in the year in which they may be called. A state-wide general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November of each year: PROVIDED, That the state-wide general election held in odd-numbered years shall be limited to (1) city, town, and district general elections as provided for in RCW 29.13.020, or as otherwise provided by law; (2) the election of federal officers for the remainder of any unexpired terms in the membership of either branch of the congress of the United States; (3) the election of state and county officers for the remainder of any unexpired terms as provided for in Article II, section 15, Article III, section 10, and Article IV, sections 3 and 5 of the state Constitution and RCW 2.06.080; (4) the election of county officers in any county governed by a charter containing provisions calling for general county elections at this time; and (5) the approval or rejection of state measures, including proposed constitutional amendments, matters pertaining to any proposed constitutional convention, initiative measures and referendum measures proposed by the electorate, referendum bills, and any other matter provided by the legislature for submission to the electorate: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not be construed as fixing the time for holding primary elections, or elections for the recall of county, city, town, or district officers: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That the [board of county commissioners] county legislative authority may, if they deem an emergency to exist, call a special county election [at any time] by presenting a resolution to the county auditor at least forty-five days prior to the proposed election date: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of law nothing shall prohibit the name of a candidate for the office of president or vice president of the United States from appearing more than once upon a ballot. A special election called by the county legislative authority shall be held on one of the following dates as decided by such governing body:

- (1) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in February;
- (2) The last Tuesday in March;
- (3) The third Tuesday in September in even numbered years, or the second Tuesday in September in odd numbered years;
- (4) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November; or
- (5) In addition to all the above, a special election to validate an excess levy or bond issue may be called at any time to meet the needs resulting from fire, flood, earthquake or other act of God.

Such county special election shall be noticed and conducted in the manner provided by law. This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish mandatory dates for holding elections.

Sec. 3. Section 29.13.020, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.13.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All city, town, and district general elections, except as hereinafter provided, shall be held throughout the state of Washington on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the odd-numbered years: PROVIDED, That there shall be no general city or town elections held under the provisions of the 1963 elections act as amended until 1967, and the positions that would have been voted upon in the year 1966, except for the provisions of the 1963 elections act as amended, shall be voted upon at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the year 1967 and each two years thereafter. All city and town elections to be held in 1964 under existing law shall be conducted as though the provisions of the 1963 elections act had not been enacted. All city and town officers elected in 1964 shall remain in office for their regular term and until their successors are elected and qualified under the provisions of the 1963 elections act.

There shall be no regular district elections held in the years 1964, 1966, 1968, and 1970, and the positions that would have been voted upon, except for the provisions of the 1963 elections act as amended, in the years 1964, 1966, 1968, and 1970 shall be voted upon at the general elections to be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the years 1965, 1967, 1969, and 1971, respectively and each two years thereafter.

There shall be no regular school district elections held on the second Tuesday in March in the years 1965, 1967, and 1969 and the positions that would have been voted upon, except for the provisions of the 1963 elections act as amended, shall be voted upon at the general elections to be held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November in the years 1965, 1967, and 1969 respectively and each two years thereafter.

The purpose of this section is to change the time of holding all general city, town, and district elections to a common election date, throughout the state of Washington being the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November of the odd-numbered years.

All incumbent city, town, or district officers whose terms would have expired, except for the provisions of the 1963 elections act as amended, shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

This section shall not apply to:

- (1) Elections for the recall of city, town, or district officers,
- (2) Public utility districts, or district elections whereat the ownership of property within said districts is a prerequisite to voting, all of which elections shall be held at the times prescribed in the laws specifically applicable thereto.

The county auditor, as ex officio supervisor of elections, upon request in the form of a resolution of the governing body of a city, town or district, presented to him at least forty-five days prior to the proposed election date, may, if he deems an emergency to exist, call a special election [at any time] in such city, town, or district and for the purpose of such special election he may combine, unite or divide precincts. A special election called by such governing body shall be held on one of the following dates as decided by the governing body:

- (a) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in February;
- (b) The last Tuesday in March;
- (c) The third Tuesday in September in even numbered years, or the second Tuesday in September in odd numbered years;
- (d) The first Tuesday after the first Monday in November; or
- (e) In addition to all the above, a special election to validate an excess levy or bond issue may be called at any time to meet the needs resulting from fire, flood, earthquake or other act of God.

Such special election shall be conducted and notice thereof given in the manner provided by law. This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish mandatory dates for holding elections.

Sec. 4. Section 29.13.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 6, chapter 103, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 29.13.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Nominating primaries for general elections to be held in November shall be held at the regular polling places in each precinct on the third Tuesday of the preceding September in each even-numbered year and on the second Tuesday of the preceding September in each odd-numbered year.

Sec. 5. Section 29.21.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 7, chapter 123, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.21.010 are each amended to read as follows:

All [primaries for all] cities [of the first, second and third class,] and towns shall hold primary elections irrespective of type or form of government and which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070 as now or hereafter amended.

All districts, except those districts which require ownership of property within said districts as a prerequisite to voting, shall hold primary elections which shall be nonpartisan and held as provided in RCW 29.13.070 as now or hereafter amended.

All names of candidates to be voted upon at city, town, and such district primary elections shall be printed upon the official primary ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes for each position, shall appear in that order on the [municipal] city, town, or district general election ballot concerned under the designation for each respective office. In the event there are two or more offices to be filled for the same position, then names of candidates receiving the highest number of votes equal in number to twice the offices to be filled shall appear on the [municipal] city, town, or district general election ballot so that the voter shall have a choice of two candidates for each position: PROVIDED, That no name of any candidate shall appear on the city, town or district general election ballot unless said candidate shall receive at least [ten] five percent of the total votes cast for that office. The sequence of names of candidates printed on the [municipal] city, town, or district general election ballot shall be in relation to the number of votes each candidate received at the primary. Names of candidates printed upon the [municipal] city, town, or district primary and general election ballot need not be rotated.

The purpose of this section is to establish the holding of a primary election, subject to the exemptions as contained in RCW 29.21.015 as now or hereafter amended, as a uniform procedural requirement to the holding of city, town, and district elections and such provisions shall supersede any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different election requirements.

Sec. 6. Section 29.21.015, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.21.015 are each amended to read as follows:

No primary election shall be held for any single position in any city, town, or district as required by RCW 29.21.010 as now or hereafter amended if, after the last day allowed for candidates to withdraw, there are no more than two candidates filed for [each] the position to be filled: PROVIDED, That whenever it shall be necessary to hold a primary election for any one such position because of the number of candidates remaining filed, no primary election shall be held for any other position for which no more than two candidates have remained as filed. [In such event] Insofar as such positions not being subjected to a primary election are concerned, the [city clerk] county auditor shall [immediately notify all candidates concerned and if the county auditor has jurisdiction of such primary election, he shall also be notified] as soon as possible notify all the candidates so affected. Names of candidates that would have been printed upon the [city] primary ballot, but for the provisions of this section, shall be printed upon the [city] general election ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of the offices for which they are candidates.

Sec. 7. Section 29.21.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 56, chapter 283, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.060 are each amended to read as follows:

All candidates for offices to be voted on at any election in first, second, and third class cities and fourth class municipalities (towns) shall file declarations of candidacy with the clerk thereof not earlier than the last Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular city and town elections are held.

All candidates for district offices [in port districts, which are located in class AA and class A counties, and first class school districts,] subject to the provisions of RCW 29.21.010 as now or hereafter amended shall file their declarations of candidacy with the county auditor of the county not earlier than the last Monday of July nor later than the next succeeding Friday in the year such regular district elections are held.

[All candidates for district offices not subject to a primary election, other than irrigation districts, shall file declarations of candidacy not more than sixty nor less than forty-six days prior to the date of the election with the appropriate county auditor: PROVIDED, That] In the case of public utility districts, and in no other, [nominations shall be made by means of] nominating petitions containing the necessary number of signatures as provided by RCW 54.12.010 shall accompany each such declaration of candidacy at the time of so filing: PROVIDED [FURTHER], That this chapter shall not change the method of nomination for first district officers at the formation of [the] any district.

Any candidate for city, town, or district offices may withdraw his declaration at any time to and including the first Wednesday after the last day allowed for filing declarations of candidacy.

The city and town clerks in all counties shall transmit to their county auditors at least thirty-five days before the date fixed for the primary, a certified list of the names and addresses of the candidates to be voted on thereat as represented by the declarations of candidacy filed in their offices.

All candidates required to file declarations of candidacy shall pay the same fees and be governed by the same rules as contained in RCW 29.18.030 [, 29.18.039, and 29.18.060] through 29.18.100: PROVIDED, That no filing fee shall be charged in the event that the office sought is without a fixed annual salary. *

This section shall supersede the provisions of any and all other statutes, whether general or special in nature, having different dates for filing declarations of candidacy for such city, town, and district elections, the purpose of this section being to establish a uniform five day period throughout the state of Washington for filing declarations of candidacy.

Sec. 8. Section 29.21.140, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.21.140 are each amended to read as follows:

If at the same election there are [long terms and] short terms or full terms and unexpired terms of office to be filled, the city or town clerk, the secretary of state or the county auditor, as the case may be, shall distinguish them and designate the short term, [the long term,] the full term and the unexpired term [separately as such,] or by use of the words "unexpired two year term" or "four year term" as the case may be.

In filing his declaration of candidacy in such cases the candidate shall specify that his candidacy is for the short term, [the long term] the full term or the unexpired term as the case may be: PROVIDED, That when both a short term and a full term for the same position is scheduled to be voted upon, a single declaration of candidacy accompanied by a single filing fee shall be construed as a filing for both the short term and the full term and the name of such candidate shall appear upon the ballot for the position sought with the designation "short term and long term". The candidate elected to both such terms shall be sworn into and assume office for the short term as soon as the election returns have been certified and shall again be sworn into office on the second Monday in January following the election to assume office for the full term.

Sec. 9. Section 1, chapter 10, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for a single nonpartisan position shall appear on the general election ballot under the designation therefor: PROVIDED, That in elections for justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals and judges of the superior court, [for justices of the peace,] and for state superintendent of public instruction, [and for directors of first class school districts,] if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of all the votes cast for the position, only the name of the person receiving the highest vote shall be printed on the general election ballot under the designation for that position, followed by a space for the writing in of any other name by a voter [: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of Article IV, Section 29 of the Washington Constitution shall apply to offices of judges of the court of appeals].

Sec. 10. Section 29.21.160, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.21.160 are each amended to read as follows:

If there are two or more places to be filled for nonpartisan office, the number of candidates equalling the number of positions to be filled who receive the highest number of votes at the primary and an equal number who receive the next highest number of votes shall appear under the designation for that office [: PROVIDED, That the names of any candidates therefor who receive a majority of all of the votes cast at the primary for that office, shall be printed separately as candidates for that office under the designation "Vote for" followed by blank spaces equalling the number of such majority candidates for the writing in of any other name by a voter].

Sec. 11. Section 29.21.230, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 9, chapter 21, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.230 are each amended to read as follows:

Except for school districts of the first class having an enrollment of fifty thousand pupils or more in class AA counties, the name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for a school district position of school director for school districts embracing a city of over one hundred thousand population shall appear on the general election ballot under the designations therefor [: PROVIDED, That if any candidate for a position receives a majority vote, his name alone shall be placed on the general election ballot for that position].

Sec. 12. Section 35.20.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.20.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The municipal judges shall be elected on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1958, and on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November every fourth year thereafter by the electorate of the city in which the court is located. The auditor of the county concerned shall designate by number each position to be filled in the municipal court, and each candidate at the time of the filing of his declaration of candidacy shall designate by number so assigned the position for which he is a candidate, and the name of such candidate shall appear on the ballot only for such position. The name of the person who receives the greatest number of votes and of the person who receives the next greatest number of votes at the primary for a single nonpartisan position shall appear on the general election ballot under the designation therefor [: PROVIDED, That if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of all of the votes cast for the position, only the name of the person receiving the highest vote shall be printed on the general election ballot under the designation for that position, followed by a space for the writing in of any other name by a voter]. Elections for municipal judge shall be nonpartisan. They shall hold office for a term of four years and until their successors are elected and qualified. The term of office shall start on the second Monday in January following such election. Any vacancy in the municipal court due to a death, disability or resignation of a municipal court judge shall be filled by the mayor, to serve out the unexpired term. Such appointment shall be subject to confirmation by the legislative body of the city.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 299, Laws of 1961 and RCW 3.34.050 are each amended to read as follows:

At the general election in November, 1962 and quadrennially thereafter, there shall be elected by the voters of each justice court district the number of justices of the peace authorized for such district by the justice court districting plan. Justices of the peace shall be elected for each district by the qualified electors of the justice court district in the same manner as judges of courts of record are elected. Not less than ten days before the time for filing declarations of candidacy for the election of justices of the peace for justice court districts entitled to more than one justice of the peace, the county auditor shall designate each such office of justice of the peace to be filled by a number, commencing with the number one and numbering the remaining offices consecutively. Each candidate at the time of the filing of his declaration of candidacy shall designate by number which one, and only one, of the numbered offices for which he is a candidate and the name of such candidate shall appear on the ballot for only the numbered office for which the candidate filed his declaration of candidacy.

[In all elections for justices of the peace, if any candidate in the primary receives a majority of all of the votes cast for the position, only the name of the person receiving the highest vote shall be printed on the general election ballot under the designation for that position, followed by a space for the writing in of any other name by a voter.]

Sec. 14. Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.360 are each amended to read as follows:

Filings for a nonpartisan office shall be opened for a period of three normal business days, such three day period to be fixed by the election officer with whom such declarations of candidacy are filed and notice thereof given by notifying press, radio, and television in the county and by such other means as may now or hereafter be provided by law whenever before the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary:

(1) A void in candidacy occurs;

(2) A vacancy occurs in any nonpartisan office leaving an unexpired term to be filled by an election for which filings have not been held; or

(3) A nominee for judge [of the court of appeals or] of the superior court entitled to a certificate of election pursuant to Article 4, section 29, Amendment 41 of the state Constitution, dies or is disqualified.

Candidacies validly filed within said three-day period shall appear on the ballot as if made during the earlier filing period.

Sec. 15. Section 3, chapter 61, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.370 are each amended to read as follows:

Filings for a nonpartisan office (other than judge of the supreme court or superintendent of public instruction) shall be reopened for a period of three normal business days, such three day period to be fixed by the election officer with whom such declarations of candidacy are filed and notice thereof given by notifying press, radio, and television in the county and by such other means as may now or hereafter be provided by law, when:

(1) A void in candidacy for such nonpartisan office occurs on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary but prior to the fourth Tuesday before an election; or

(2) A nominee for judge [of the court of appeals or] of the superior court eligible after a contested primary for a certificate of election by Article 4, section 29, Amendment 41 of the state Constitution, dies or is disqualified within the ten day period when a petition for write-in candidacy may be received;

(3) A vacancy occurs in any nonpartisan office on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary but prior to the fourth Tuesday before an election leaving an unexpired term to be filled by an election for which filings have not been held.

The candidate receiving a plurality of the votes cast for that office in the general election shall be deemed elected.

Sec. 16. Section 4, chapter 61, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 29.21.380 are each amended to read as follows:

A scheduled election shall be lapsed, the office deemed stricken from the ballot, no purported write-in votes counted, and no candidate certified as elected, when:

(1) In an election for judge of the supreme court or superintendent of public instruction, a void in candidacy occurs on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary, public filings and the primary being an indispensable phase of the election process for such offices;

(2) Except as otherwise specified in RCW 29.21.370 as now or hereafter amended, a nominee for judge [of the court of appeals or] of the superior court entitled to a certificate of election pursuant to Article 4, section 29, Amendment 41 of the state Constitution dies or is disqualified on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to a primary;

(3) In other elections for nonpartisan office a void in candidacy occurs or a vacancy occurs involving an unexpired term to be filled on or after the fourth Tuesday prior to an election.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 29.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If, after the last day provided by law for the withdrawal of declarations of candidacy has expired, only one candidate has filed for any single city, town, or district position to be filled, no election shall be held as to such position and a certificate of election shall be issued to such candidate at such time such certificates are normally issued.
