PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator King: "Thank you Mr. President. Well, if you recall back to the opening day of session all of you should have received a little bag of apples from me. and those apples were given to me by Kershaw Fruit who their selling arm is under Domex Superfresh Growers. So, I wanted to recognize them today for that donation but, in addition to that, the Lieutenant Governor had made a bet on the Super Bowl with the Lieutenant Governor from Massachusetts. And, unfortunately, we lost that bet and part of that was a box of apples from Domex and Kershaw Fruit to be given to the Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts. And they were gracious enough to provide that box and deliver with their sales arm back in Massachusetts, personally, to that Lieutenant Governor. The other part of that, as the story continues, is there was an additional part to that bet that included two thousand pounds of apples that was to go to one of their agencies back in Massachusetts. It was determined that the cost was too prohibitive so the Lieutenant Governor from Massachusetts said, 'We'll donate them to a group in Washington.' So Kershaw Fruit donated two thousand pounds of apples to Northwest Harvest, I believe it was. So, I thought it was right and fitting that we thank them for that donation. We happen to have two gentlemen here today. I will let the Lieutenant Governor take it from there but I want to say thank you to, really, a great company. This is Bob and Ed Kershaw, the fourth generation to run Kershaw Fruit, and they've been a great part of our Valley and continue to be a very great part of our Valley. So I thank you for the apples and thank you for what you do to support the economy not only in the Yakima Valley but Washington State."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "So the President, I hated to pay up on that bet but was incredibly proud of the fact that we had a company so willing to step up when we said we need to donate something to a food bank. That was the bet, that we have to donate food to a food bank and they offered a ton of apples for that. It's a great honor for me to be able to introduce to you Loren Queen and Mark Holtzinger of Kershaw Fruit. And I certainly think they earned the right to say something, if you would like to. Either one of you."

With the permission of the senate, business was suspended to allow Mr. Holtzinger and Mr. Queen to offer remarks.

REMARKS BY Mr. MARK HOLTZINGER

Mr. Holtzinger, President, Kershaw Companies: "We enjoy the apples too and we enjoy the fact that we were able to share them with you. And we have a plethora of them this year coming out of Eastern Washington. The new varieties that we have, like the Autumn Glory, are an exciting part of Eastern Washington and we look forward to more support from you folks as we look to maybe a little shortage of water this year. I'll add that to my comments. Thank you so much for the recognition, it's very much an honor."

REMARKS BY MR. LOREN QUEEN

Mr. Queen, Marketing and Communications Manager, Kershaw Companies: "Thank you. It turned out to be an excellent opportunity for us as a marketing firm to be able to get a little mileage out of it of an unfortunate situation from the Super Bowl. It worked out well for us, though, as a company. Thank you very much."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hobbs, Senator McAuliffe was excused.

Such action may be taken based on the court's own motion, based on a motion by an attorney for a person or entity, based on a motion of a person or entity representing themselves, or based on a written complaint, as described in this section. The court may grant relief under this section as it deems just and in the best interest of the incapacitated person. (c) Within fourteen days of being presented with a complaint, the court must enter an order to do one or more of the following actions:

(i) To show cause, with fourteen days' notice, directing the guardian to appear at a hearing set by the court in order to respond to the complaint;

(ii) To appoint a guardian ad litem to investigate the issues raised by the complaint or to take any emergency action the court deems necessary to protect the incapacitated person until a hearing can be held;

(iii) To dismiss the complaint without scheduling a hearing, if it appears to the court that the complaint: Is without merit on its face; is filed in other than good faith; is filed for an improper purpose; regards issues that have already been adjudicated; or is frivolous. In making a determination, the court may review the matter and consider previous behavior of the complainant that is documented in the guardianship record;

(iv) To direct the guardian to provide, in not less than fourteen days, a written report to the court on the issues raised in the complaint;

(v) To defer consideration of the complaint until the next regularly scheduled hearing in the guardianship, if the date of that hearing is within the next three months, provided that there is no indication that the incapacitated person will suffer physical, emotional, financial, or other harm as a result of the court's deferral of consideration;

(vi) To order other action, in the court's discretion, in addition to doing one or more of the actions set out in this subsection.

(5) The board may send a grievance it has received regarding an active guardian case to the court's designee with a request that the court review the grievance and take any action the court deems necessary. This type of request from the board must be treated as a complaint under this section and the person who sent the complaint must be treated as the complainant. The court must direct the clerk to transmit a copy of its order to the board. The board must consider the court order when taking any further action and note the court order in any final determination.

(6) In any court action under this section that involves a professional guardian, the court must direct the clerk of the court to send a copy of the order entered under this section to the board.
