REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "This morning we have the great privilege of having the Boy Scouts in our community and each year they come before us to give a report to the State of Washington of the incredible contributions that the Boy Scouts give to their communities. The President is privileged today to be able to introduce the Boy Scout Eagle Scout that is going to be making that presentation. He is Brad Gorenson. He has completed his Eagle Badge project by creating a Powerpoint presentation about Tourette's Syndrome for the purpose of educating the community on the disorder. He's made three presentation to the Pasco School District nurses, counselors and principles and each participant received a copy of the program. Copies are available at the Neurological Resource Center in Richland and the President has one as well if any member would like to see his presentation on Tourette's Syndrome. It's my great honor and privilege to be able to present to you for the report of the State of Washington and the Boy Scouts, Eagle Scout Brad Gorenson."

REMARKS BY MR. BRAD GORENSEN

Brad Gorenson: "I'm here to give the 2007 Washington Boy Scout report to the State. The mission of the Boy Scouts of America is to prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their life times through the efforts of over twenty-eight thousand dedicated volunteers. More than ninety-seven thousand youths in Washington State participated in scouting programs during 2006. Cub Scouting, for boys in first through fifth grade, served thirty-three thousand five hundred forty one. Forty-seven percent participated in a camping program. Boy scouting, for eleven to seventeen years old, reached twenty-two thousand seven hundred and seventy-three boys. Fifty-six percent participated in an outdoor camping adventure. One-thousand one-hundred seventy-six young men earned their Eagle Scout Award, The highest rank a Scout can achieve. Venturing, a co-ed high adventure program for kids age fourteen to twenty, served eight-thousand one-hundred thirty-nine. Learning for Life, also co-ed, is a classroom and work site based character educational program which served thirty-two thousand seven hundred sixty. Scout Reach is an outreach initiative focusing on developing programs in the inner city and lower income communities. Soccer and scouting aimed at the Hispanic community and children of incarcerated parents are two of the most significant programs offered in Washington State. Together our programs reach sixteen percent of the market share making it one of the largest youth-serving programs in the state. Good Turn for America, serve to others. The Boys Scout of America was founded on the premise to be a good citizen you must serve others. That belief led to the creation of Good Turn for America, national service initiative that addresses the issue of hunger, homelessness and poor health, is the collaborative effort with Habitat for Humanity, the American Red Cross and Salvation Army. In 2006, Washington Scouts and volunteers donated more than one-hundred eight-thousand three hundred ninety eight hours of community service to our state.

2007 REGULAR SESSION

That is volunteered time valued at over three million two-hundred eighteen thousand six hundred and thirty four. Boy Scouts of America looking to the future. Accordingly to research conducted by Harris Interactive released in May of 2005, one out of every two American males has had an affiliation with the scouting program. Their combined contributions touch our lives every day by continuing to recruit quality leadership, inviting youths of all backgrounds to join and offering a fun and exciting program. We seek to help ordinary young people to become extraordinary adults."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Delvin: "Thank you Mr. President. I'm tempted like the former speaker from the fourth district to name names so I won't do that, violate that rule this morning. I want to talk about a group that's visiting our campus today. I've been associated with their group this last year but in the past I've supported their fund raisers in the community at the Boys & Girls Club. Last year I was honored to be asked to be on their board of directors for Benton Franklin County Boys & Girls Club and it truly is an honor to be on that board and see the good work and help that organization. That organization provides a lot of outreach to a lot of youth in our communities through character and leadership programs, educational careers programs, health and life skills programs and of course arts and sports and fitness and others too. Today, though, we have a group of special Boy & Girls Clubs members, the Youth of the Year from their individual Boys & Girls Club and I think the Governor announced to the Youth of the Year for the Boy & Girls Club and again I just want to point out that this is a good organization in your communities and I would encourage all the members of the Senate anytime that you have a chance to participate with your local Boys & Girls Club in any way, be it a fund raiser or helping out in one of their centers. Take the time to do that. It's a good organization. The kids are great to hang out with and just encourage you to do that. Thank you Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Thank you, it is correct that, this morning fourteen of Washington's best and brightest were at the Governor's Mansion and I'd like you to meet some of these people who have met incredible challenges and made major contributions to their community. Each one of these was selected in their region as the Boys & Girls Clubs Youth of the Year for that region and then a finalist was chosen and presented this morning."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced members of the Boys & Girls Club who were seated in the gallery.
