*NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature declares that the long-term trade policy of the state of Washington will have the largest impact on the volume of trade moving through our state by providing leadership and vision, and by concentrating on traditional state functions, such as transportation, infrastructure, education, taxation, regulation, and public expenditures. It is the responsibility of the state to ensure that these traditional functions contribute to the international focus Washington must develop.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In order to implement this long-term trade policy, to ensure traditional functions contribute to an international focus, the department of trade and economic development:

(1) Should support federal government efforts to work directly with foreign governments in reducing real and artificial trade barriers;

(2) Should coordinate its efforts with agencies in other states to affect regional and national policy. Washington has a common destiny with other free trade states. The governor, department heads, and legislative leaders should coordinate efforts with their counterparts in these other states;

(3) Should develop international trade goals, policies, and strategies with the full support and counsel of the private sector;

(4) Should monitor Washington's competitive status regarding taxation, transportation, education, and other public policies related to international trade;

(5) Should adopt policies which increase the efficiency and competitiveness of the state's transportation system, so products arrive to the end consumer quicker, and at a lower, predictable cost;

(6) Should recognize the critical need for constant, detailed, federal-state coordination in planning and implementing business outreach information programs; and

(7) Should recognize the appropriate role of the state, and only provide business assistance which is not duplicative, and which is responding to a tangible private sector demand not already being met by the private sector.*

In accordance with the Constitution of the state of Washington, Article II, Section 30, the last sentence--'a member who has a private interest in any bill or measure proposed or pending before the legislature shall disclose the fact to the house of which he is a member and shall not vote thereon.' I request the permission of the body not to vote on the bill.

"Mr. President, whatever it takes--any statement you wish I'll make--but I would like for you to state the record will show that I was excused from voting on the bill, because it would present a conflict of interest."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President isn't aware, yet, as to whether he has that authority."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, if I may be of assistance, this occurred once when I was in the House and the Speaker simply ruled that the record will so state. I agree with your comment that you don't have authority to excuse us or not excuse us. Obviously, Senator Guess could walk off the floor and be marked absent. What he's asking is that it be recorded that he is being excused."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senate Rule 22 states, 'In all cases of election by the Senate the votes shall be taken by yeas and nays and no Senator or other person shall remain by the secretary's desk while the roll is being called or the votes are being counted. No Senator shall be allowed to vote except when within the bar of the Senate, or upon any question upon which he or she is in any way personally or directly interested.'"

"The President believes that inasmuch as Senator Guess has stated that he has an interest upon this question, the President will take his word for it and excuse Senator Guess from voting."

Further debate on Substitute House Bill No. 1079 ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Cantu: "Senator Warnke, during the committee hearing on this bill, we discussed the importance of the term 'complex' on page 2, line 11. Would you describe the significance of that term?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Cantu, as indicated during testimony on this bill, the tax deferral offered by this bill is intended to be targeted toward new expansions with an emphasis on small or medium-sized businesses. If the term 'complex' were not in the bill, large existing firms who should have available resources for expansion or renovation could qualify for deferral and could very quickly exhaust the twenty million cap on total deferrals for a biennium. I think the intent of this bill is to focus on the deferral on new business attraction."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1079, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1079, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 8; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJamatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vogniild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Bottiger, Garrett, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Pullen, Rinehart, Williams - 8.

Excused: Senators Barr, Guess, Moore - 3.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1079, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.210.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

(1) The exporting of goods and services from Washington to international markets is an important economic stimulus to the growth (and), development, and stability of (many) the state's businesses, and ((the economic activities associated with exporting make an important contribution to the economic well-being of the state)) that these economic activities create needed jobs for Washingtonians.

(2) Impediments to the entry of many small and medium-sized businesses into export markets have restricted growth in exports from the state.

(3) Particularly significant impediments for many small and medium-sized businesses are the lack of easily accessible information about export opportunities and ((export)) financing alternatives(and the limited availability of export financing at reasonable costs from conventional financing sources for many small and medium-sized businesses).

(4) There is a need for ((an)) a small business export finance assistance center which will specialize in providing export assistance to small and medium-sized businesses throughout the state ((in the financing of export transactions and)) in acquiring information about export opportunities and financial alternatives for exporting.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.210.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) To provide, singly or in conjunction with other organizations, information and assistance to these businesses about export opportunities and ((export)) financing alternatives.

(3) To provide information to and assist those businesses interested in exporting products, including the opportunities available to them in organizing export trading companies under the United States export trading company act of 1982, for the purpose of increasing their comparative sales volume and ability to export their products to foreign markets.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.210.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The small business export finance assistance center and its branches shall be governed and managed by a board of ((eleven)) seventeen directors appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate. The directors shall serve terms of six years except that two of the original directors shall serve for two years and two of the original directors shall serve for four years. The directors may provide for the payment of their expenses. The directors shall include a representative of a not-for-profit corporation formed for the purpose of facilitating economic development, ((a)) at least two representatives of ((a)) state financial institutions engaged in the financing of export transactions, a representative of a port district, and a representative of organized labor. Of the remaining board members, there shall be a representative of the governor, ((and four representatives of businesses: (a)) one representative of business from the area west of Puget Sound, ((b)) one representative of business from the area east of Puget Sound and west of the Cascade range, ((c)) one representative of business from the area east of the Cascade range and west of the Columbia river, and ((d)) one representative of business from the area east of the Columbia river. One of the directors shall be a representative of the public selected from the area in the state west of the Cascade mountain range and one director shall be a representative of the public selected from that area of the state east of the Cascade mountain range. One director shall be a representative of the public at large. The directors shall be broadly representative of geographic areas of the state, and the ((three)) representatives of businesses shall represent at least four different industries in different sized businesses as follows: (a) One representative of a company employing fewer than one hundred

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.210.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The small business export finance assistance center formed under RCW 43.210.020 and 43.210.030 shall have the powers granted under chapter 24.03 RCW. In exercising such powers, the center may:

(a) Solicit and accept grants, contributions, and any other financial assistance from the federal government, federal agencies, and any other sources to carry out its purposes;

(b) Make loans to Washington businesses with annual sales of twenty-five million dollars or less for the purpose of financing exports of goods or services by those businesses to buyers in foreign countries. (d) Establish and regulate the terms and conditions of any such loans and loan guarantees and charges for interest and services connected therewith; ~~((and))~~

(e) Provide export financial counseling to Washington exporters with annual sales of one hundred million dollars or less, provided that such counseling is not available from a Washington for-profit business. For such counseling, the center may charge such fees as it determines are necessary.

(f) Contract with the federal government and its agencies to become a program administrator for federally provided country risk insurance programs and for the purposes of this chapter; and

(g) Take whatever action may be necessary to accomplish the purposes set forth in this chapter.

Under no circumstances may the center use any funds received under RCW 43.210.050 to make or assist in making any loan or to pay or assist in paying any amount under a loan guarantee agreement. Debts of the center shall be center debts only and may be satisfied only from the resources of the center. The state of Washington shall not in any way be liable for such debts.

(3) The small business export finance assistance center shall make every effort to seek nonstate funds for its continued operation and shall report to the governor and legislature each January 1st on the amounts it has secured from nonstate funding sources.

(4) The small business export finance assistance center may receive such gifts, grants, and endowments from public or private sources as may be made from time to time, in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the purposes of the small business export finance assistance center and expend the same or any income therefrom according to the terms of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 20, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.210.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The contract shall require the center to provide export assistance services ~~((and)),~~ may not have a duration of longer than two years, and shall require the center to aggressively seek to fund its continued operation from nonstate funds. The contract shall also require the center to report at least twice annually to the department on its success in obtaining nonstate funding. ((The center, including its branch, for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, may not have more than one contract with the department of commerce and economic development or its statutory successor.))

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, I read the information on the bill--'The Center is authorized to become an administrator for federally provided Country Risk Insurance Programs.' Now, the Production Credit Corporation has had four or five bankruptcies. I'm not familiar with the Country Risk Insurance Program. What is it?"

Senator Warnke: "The Country Risk Insurance is the small business export finance center acting as an administrator for the Foreign Credit Insurance Corporation--FCIC--and an affiliate of the export/import bank."

Senator Rasmussen: "Those Production Credit Corporations that went bankrupt were federally financed, too, I understand. When they went bankrupt, they left a lot of people in bad shape. Maybe some of the insurance people here know about it. I don't know much about this one."

Senator Warnke: "Senator, the Center only acts in assisting or directing clients to agencies or places to get insurance. This is just one of the places to send people if they wish to get insurance."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Warnke.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the amendment was adopted.

HOUSE BILL NO. 107, by Representatives Crane, P. King, Armstrong, Dellwo, Sutherland, Zellinsky, Barnes, Locke, West and Padden

Expanding and clarifying the crime of interference with official proceedings.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

On page 2, after line 22, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 43.43 RCW to read as follows:

The chief of the Washington state patrol is directed to provide such security and protection for the supreme court, while in session, as in the opinion of the chief justice may be necessary therefor, upon the advice of the clerk of the court and the court bailiff.

The chief of the Washington state patrol is also directed to provide security and protection to members of the court and their families to the extent and in the manner the chief justice and the chief of the Washington state patrol deem adequate and appropriate."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, you are aware, of course, of the great expansion under the protection given to former presidents, their wives and their children, where they will have a child go on a vacation and they will have a contingent of fifty secret service men along with them--that's going to Florida, Naples or some place. Is there any chance of this bill allowing expansions, such as this type?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, and if that were the case, Senator Rasmussen, I would join with you from preventing that from happening."

Senator Rasmussen: "How many members--is it open only to the Supreme Court and their chambers?"

Senator Talmadge: "It would be only as may be required by the Supreme Court. I would anticipate that their security would be similar to what is provided to us by the Washington State Patrol. They would meet with the Patrol and see what their security needs are. If it got to be something that blossomed far beyond what we had anticipated by this amendment, I think we could put a stop to that. It's intended to provide security precautions as may be required under the circumstances."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, who makes the final decision as to whether such security has to be given? Is it up to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or is it up to the Chief of the Washington State Patrol?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think it's up to them in conjunction with one another. They have to mutually agree on the requisite security that would be provided."

Senator Pullen: "Well, that's the way I read the committee amendment with respect to the second paragraph, where it says, 'The Chief of the Washington State Patrol is also directed to provide security and protection to the members of the court and their families to the extent and in the manner the Chief Justice and the Chief of the Washington State Patrol deem adequate and appropriate.' However, in the first paragraph, it says 'The Chief of the Washington State Patrol is directed to provide such security and protection for the Supreme Court while in session, as in the opinion of the Chief Justice may be necessary therefor upon the advice of the Clerk of the Court and the Chief Bailiff.'

"It sounds to me that the Chief of the State Patrol would have no option with regard to providing security for the Supreme Court while in session. Is that correct? Is that the intent?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think that's the understanding, Senator Pullen. The second paragraph is designed to be something where they both have to agree on it. For example, if there were a death threat that was pending against some Justice and the Chief of the State Patrol and the Chief Justice would agree on the security. In the case of the court being actually in session, the court would call over, for example, to the Chief of the State Patrol and say, 'we've got a very hot case here and we anticipate there may be some problems--if you could give us a uniformed state trooper, that would sure help.'

"If this gets out of hand, as I said in response to Senator Rasmussen's question, I would join in making sure that we restrict it narrowly."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 3 of the title, after "9A.72 RCW;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 43.43 RCW;"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 107, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, House Bill 107 provides that a person is guilty of a Class B felony for intimidating a judge if the person directs a threat to a judge because of the judge's ruling or decision in any official proceeding. 'Threat' in this bill is defined with reference to RCW 9A.04.110(25). RCW 9A.04.110(25) defines 'threat' to mean a communication, directly or indirectly, of the intent to do a number of acts including bodily injury, property damage, or physical confinement. Also, included as a 'threat' is communication of an intent--'To do any other act which is intended to harm substantially the person threatened with respect to his health, safety business, financial condition, or personal relationships.'

"Focussing on the words 'business' and 'financial condition,' I can foresee a situation in which a person who is dissatisfied with a judge's decision writes a letter to the judge saying that they are going to vote the judge out of office in the next election. It seems to me that the type of threats this bill prohibits should be limited to threats of physical or financial damage to a person or their property, and not to their position as an elected official.

"Is it your intent that this bill be applicable to such threats to vote against a judge in the next election as I have described?"

Senator Talmadge: "No."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 107, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 107, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 1; absent, 1; excused, 3.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen - 1.

Absent: Senator Guess - 1.

Excused: Senators Barr, Moore, Rinehart - 3.

(1) Whenever the department of social and health services receives an application for public assistance on behalf of a child, the department shall take appropriate action under the provisions of this chapter, chapter 74.20A RCW, or other appropriate statutes of this state to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay support moneys.

(2) The secretary may accept ~~((applications))~~ a request for support enforcement services on behalf of persons who are not recipients of public assistance and may take appropriate action ~~((in appropriate cases))~~ to establish or enforce support obligations against the parent or other persons owing a duty to pay moneys. ~~((Applications))~~ Requests accepted under this ~~((section))~~ subsection may be conditioned upon the payment of a fee as required through regulation issued by the secretary. Action may be taken under the provisions of chapter 74.20 RCW, the abandonment or nonsupport statutes, or other appropriate statutes of this state, including but not limited to remedies established in chapter 74.20A RCW, to establish and enforce said support obligations. The secretary may establish by regulation, ~~((such))~~ reasonable standards ~~((as may be necessary to limit applications))~~ and qualifications for support enforcement services under this subsection. ~~((Said standards shall take into account the income, property, or other resources already available to support said person for whom a support obligation exists.))~~

(3) The secretary may accept requests for support enforcement services from child support enforcement agencies in other states operating child support programs under Title IV-D of the social security act, and may take appropriate action to establish and enforce support obligations against the parent or other person owing a duty to pay support moneys. Requests from such agencies must be accompanied by a request for support enforcement services executed by the state agency submitting the application and the person to whom the support moneys were owed authorizing the secretary to initiate appropriate action to establish, enforce, and collect the support obligation on their behalf. The application shall contain and be accompanied by such information and documentation as the secretary may by rule require.

The department may take action to establish, enforce, and collect a support obligation, including performing related services, under this chapter and chapter 74.20A RCW, or through the attorney general or prosecuting attorney for action under chapter 26.09, 26.18, 26.20, 26.21, or 26.26 RCW or other appropriate statutes or the common law of this state.

(4) The secretary may charge and collect a fee from the person obligated to pay support to compensate the department for services rendered in establishment of or enforcement of support obligations. This fee shall be limited to not more than ten percent of any support money collected as a result of action taken by the secretary. The fee charged shall be in addition to the support obligation. In no event may ~~((the fee be))~~ any moneys collected by the department of social and health services from the person obligated to pay support be retained as satisfaction of fees charged until all current support obligations have been satisfied. The secretary shall by regulation establish reasonable fees for support enforcement services and said schedule of fees shall be made available to any person obligated to pay support. The secretary may, on showing of necessity, waive or defer any such fee.

~~((4))~~ (5) Fees, due and owing, may be collected as delinquent support moneys utilizing any of the remedies in chapter 74.20 RCW, chapter 74.20A RCW, chapter 26.21 RCW, or any other remedy at law or equity available to the department or any agencies with whom it has a cooperative or contractual arrangement to establish, enforce, or collect support moneys or support obligations.

~~((5))~~ (6) The secretary may waive the fee, or any portion thereof, as a part of a compromise of disputed claims or may grant partial or total charge off of said fee if the secretary finds there are no available, practical, or lawful means by which said fee may be collected or to facilitate payment of the amount of delinquent support moneys owed.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon ~~((subrogation to or))~~ RCW 74.20A.030, assignment of ~~((the judgment))~~ a support debt or a request for support enforcement services under RCW 74.20.040 (2) or (3), to enforce and collect a support debt created by a superior court order. Said notice may be served upon the debtor in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or be mailed to the debtor at his last known address by certified mail, return receipt requested, demanding payment within twenty days of the date of receipt. Said notice of debt shall include a statement of the support debt accrued and/or accruing, computable on the amount required to be paid under any superior court order to which the department is subrogated or is authorized to enforce and collect under RCW 74.20A.030, has an assigned interest, or has been authorized to enforce pursuant to RCW 74.20.040 (2) or (3); a statement that the property of the debtor is subject to collection action; a statement that the property is subject to lien and foreclosure, distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver; and a statement that the net proceeds will be applied to the satisfaction of the support debt. Action to collect ~~((said subrogated or assigned))~~ a support debt by lien and foreclosure, or distraint, seizure and sale, or order to withhold and deliver shall be lawful after twenty days from the date of service upon the debtor or twenty days from the receipt or refusal by the debtor of said notice of debt.

Sec. 3. Section 22, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever public assistance is paid under this title, each applicant or recipient is deemed to have made assignment to the department of any rights to a support obligation from any other person the applicant or recipient may have in his or her own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the applicant or recipient is applying for or receiving public assistance, including any ((rights)) unpaid support obligation or support debt which ((have)) has accrued at the time the assignment is made. Payment of public assistance under this ((chapter)) title operates as an assignment by operation of law.

(2) The department may, ((during the four months)) and under appropriate circumstances shall, continue to establish the support obligation and to enforce and collect the support debt for a period not to exceed three months from the month following the ((last)) month in which such family ceased to receive public assistance ((was paid)), and thereafter if a nonassistance ((application)) request for support enforcement services has been made under RCW 74.20.040((; pay the family, from collections made on the delinquent support assigned, an amount equal to the monthly amount required by either the superior court order for support or the administrative order entered under RCW 74.20A.055. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit the department to make such payments for months in which no collections have been made on the delinquent support assigned; nor is the department permitted to make payments for the support of one person from collections on the delinquent support assigned by a different person. The department has, upon making any such payment, by operation of law an additional assignment of the unpaid obligation owed for the month in which the payment is made. The department shall take action to collect the unpaid obligation to reimburse itself and/or the federal government for the payment made)) (2) and (3). The department shall distribute all amounts collected in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

Sec. 4, Section 2, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall be subrogated to the right of any dependent child or children or person having the care, custody, and control of said child or children, if public assistance money is paid to or for the benefit of the child, to prosecute or maintain any support action or execute any administrative remedy existing under the laws of the state of Washington to obtain reimbursement of moneys expended, based on the support obligation of the responsible parent established by a superior court order or RCW ((26-16-295)) 74.20A.055. Sec. 6. Section 8, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.080 are each amended to read as follows:

~~Twenty-one days after service of a notice of debt as provided for in RCW 74.20A.040 ((stating a support debt accrued and/or accruing based upon subrogation to or assignment of the amount required to be paid under any superior court order)), or twenty-one days after service of the notice and finding of financial responsibility or as otherwise appropriate under RCW 74.20A.055, or as appropriate under RCW 74.20A.270, the secretary is hereby authorized to issue to any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state, an order to withhold and deliver property of any kind including, but not restricted to, earnings which are due, owing, or belonging to the debtor, when the secretary has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state property which is due, owing, or belonging to said debtor. The order to withhold and deliver shall state the amount of the support debt accrued, and shall state in summary the terms of RCW 74.20A.090 and 74.20A.100. The order to withhold and deliver shall be served in the manner prescribed for the service of a summons in a civil action or by certified mail, return receipt requested. Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state upon whom service has been made is hereby required to answer said order to withhold and deliver within twenty days, exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of therein. The secretary may require further and additional answers to be completed by the person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state. In the event there is in the possession of any such person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state any property which may be subject to the claim of the department of social and health services, such property shall be withheld immediately upon receipt of the order to withhold and deliver and shall, after the twenty day period, upon demand, be delivered forthwith to the secretary. The secretary shall hold said property in trust for application on the indebtedness involved or for return, without interest, in accordance with final determination of liability or nonliability. In the alternative, there may be furnished to the secretary a good and sufficient bond, satisfactory to the secretary, conditioned upon final determination of liability. Where money is due and owing under any contract of employment, express or implied, or is held by any person, firm, corporation, or association, political subdivision or department of the state subject to withdrawal by the debtor, such money shall be delivered by remittance payable to the order of the secretary. Delivery to the secretary of the money or other property held or claimed shall satisfy the requirement of the order to withhold and deliver. Delivery to the secretary shall serve as full acquittance and the state warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons delivering money or property to the secretary pursuant to this chapter. The state also warrants and represents that it shall defend and hold harmless for such actions persons withholding money or property pursuant to this chapter. The foregoing is subject to the exemptions contained in RCW 74.20A.090.~~

The secretary shall also, on or before the date of service of the order to withhold and deliver, mail or cause to be mailed by certified mail a copy of the order to withhold and deliver to the debtor at the debtor's last known post office address, or, in the alternative, a copy of the order to withhold and deliver shall be served on the debtor in the same manner as a summons in a civil action on or before the date of service of the order or within two days thereafter. The copy of the order shall be mailed or served together with a concise explanation of the right to petition for a hearing. This requirement is not jurisdictional, but, if the copy is not mailed or served as in this section provided, or if any irregularity appears with respect to the mailing or service, the superior court, in its discretion on motion of the debtor promptly made and supported by affidavit showing that the debtor has suffered substantial injury due to the failure to mail the copy, may set aside the order to withhold and deliver and award to the debtor an amount equal to the damages resulting from the secretary's failure to serve on or mail to the debtor the copy.

An order to withhold and deliver issued in accordance with this section has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for support moneys.

Any person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision or department of the state required to withhold and deliver the earnings of a debtor under this action may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the debtor's earnings, even if the remainder would otherwise be exempt under RCW 74.20A.090. The processing fee shall not exceed ten dollars for the first disbursement to the department and one dollar for each subsequent disbursement under the order to withhold and deliver.

Sec. 7. Section 10, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state fail to make answer to an order to withhold and deliver within the time prescribed herein; or fail or refuse to deliver property pursuant to said order; or after actual notice of filing of a support lien, pay over, release, sell, transfer, or convey real or personal property subject to a support lien to or for the benefit of the debtor or any other person; or fail or refuse to surrender upon demand property distrained under RCW 74.20A.130 or fail or refuse to honor an assignment of wages presented by the secretary, said person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state shall be liable to the department in an amount equal to one hundred percent of the value of the debt which is the basis of the lien, order to withhold and deliver, distraint, or assignment of wages, together with costs, interest, and reasonable attorney fees. If a judgment has been entered as the result of an action in superior court against a person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision, or department of the state based on a violation of this section, the secretary is authorized to issue a notice of debt pursuant to RCW 74.20A.040 and to take appropriate action to collect the debt under this chapter.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 8, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

With respect to any arrearages on a support debt assessed under RCW 74.20A.040, 74.20A.055, or 74.20A.270, the secretary may at any time consistent with the income, earning capacity and resources of the debtor, set or reset a level and schedule of payments to be paid upon ~~(the)~~ a support debt. The secretary may, upon petition of the debtor providing sufficient evidence of hardship, after consideration of the standards established in RCW 74.20.270, release or refund moneys taken pursuant to RCW 74.20A.080 to provide for the reasonable necessities of the responsible parent or parents and minor children in the home of the responsible parent. Nothing in this section shall be construed to require the secretary to take any action which would require collection of less than the obligation for current support required under a superior court order or an administrative order or to take any action which would result in a bar of collection of arrearages from the debtor by reason of the statute of limitations.

Sec. 9. Section 18, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.180 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary finds that the collection of any support debt, accrued under a superior court order, based upon subrogation ~~((to))~~ or an authorization to enforce and collect under RCW 74.20A.030, or assignment of, or a request for support enforcement services to enforce and collect the amount of support ordered by any superior court order is in jeopardy, ~~((he))~~ the secretary may make a written demand under RCW 74.20A.040 for immediate payment of the support debt~~(:))~~ and, upon failure or refusal immediately to pay said support debt, ~~((he))~~ may file and serve liens pursuant to RCW 74.20A.060 and 74.20A.070, without regard to the twenty day period provided for in RCW 74.20A.040: PROVIDED, That no further action under RCW 74.20A.080, 74.20A.130 and 74.20A.140 may be taken until the notice requirements of RCW 74.20A.140 are met.

Sec. 10. Section 20, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person against whose property a support lien has been filed or an order to withhold and deliver has been served pursuant to this chapter may apply for relief to the superior court of the county wherein the property is located ~~((on the basis that no support debt is due and owing))~~. It is the intent of this chapter that jurisdictional and constitutional issues, if any, shall be subject to review, but that administrative remedies be exhausted prior to judicial review.

Sec. 11. Section 23, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 21, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.230 are each amended to read as follows:

No employer shall discharge or discipline an employee or refuse to hire a person for reason that an assignment of earnings has been presented in settlement of a support debt or that a support lien or order to withhold and deliver has been served against said employee's earnings (~~(- PROVIDED: That this provision shall not apply if more than three support liens or orders to withhold and deliver are served upon the same employer within any period of twelve consecutive months)~~). If an employer discharges or disciplines an employee or refuses to hire a person in violation of this section, the employee or person shall have a cause of action against the employer. The employer shall be liable for double the amount of lost wages and any other damages suffered as a result of the violation and for costs and reasonable attorney fees, and shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars for each violation. The employer may also be ordered to hire, rehire, or reinstate the aggrieved individual.

Sec. 12. Section 24, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 183, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.240 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, corporation, association, political subdivision or department of the state employing a person owing a support debt or obligation, shall honor, according to its terms, a duly executed assignment of earnings presented by the secretary as a plan to satisfy or retire a support debt or obligation. This requirement to honor the assignment of earnings and the assignment of earnings itself shall be applicable whether said earnings are to be paid presently or in the future and shall continue in force and effect until released in writing by the secretary. Payment of moneys pursuant to an assignment of earnings presented by the secretary shall serve as full acquittance under any contract of employment, and the state warrants and represents it shall defend and hold harmless such action taken pursuant to said assignment of earnings. The secretary shall be released from liability for improper receipt of moneys under an assignment of earnings upon return of any moneys so received.

An assignment of earnings presented by the secretary in accordance with this section has priority over any other wage assignment or garnishment, except for another wage assignment or garnishment for support moneys.

The employer may deduct a processing fee from the remainder of the debtor's earnings, even if the remainder would be exempt under RCW 74.20A.090. The processing fee shall not exceed ten dollars from the first disbursement to the department and one dollar for each subsequent disbursement under the assignment of earnings.

Sec. 13. Section 25, chapter 164, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 20, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 74.20A.250 are each amended to read as follows:

((By accepting public assistance, the recipient is)) Whenever the secretary has been authorized under RCW 74.20.040 to take action to establish, enforce, and collect support moneys, the custodial parent and the child or children are deemed, without the necessity of signing any document, to have appointed the secretary as his or her true and lawful attorney in fact to act in his or her name, place, and stead to perform the specific act of endorsing any and all drafts, checks, money orders or other negotiable instruments representing support payments which are received on behalf of said child or children ((as reimbursement for the public assistance moneys previously paid to said recipient)) to effect proper and lawful distribution of the support moneys in accordance with 42 U.S.C. Sec. 657.

Sec. 14. Section 18, chapter 171, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 41, chapter 260, Laws of 1984 and RCW 74.20A.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The secretary may issue a notice of support debt to any person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision of the state of Washington or any officer or agent thereof who has violated RCW 74.20A.100, who is in possession of support moneys, or who has had support moneys in his or her possession at some time in the past, which support moneys were or are claimed by the department as the property of the department by assignment, subrogation, or by operation of law or legal process under chapter 74.20A RCW, if the support moneys have not been remitted to the department as required by law.

The notice shall describe the claim of the department, stating the legal basis for the claim and shall provide sufficient detail to enable the person, firm, corporation, association or political subdivision or officer or agent thereof upon whom service is made to identify the support moneys in issue or the specific violation of RCW 74.20A.100 that has occurred. The notice may also make inquiry as to relevant facts necessary to the resolution of the issue.

The notice may be served by certified mail, return receipt requested, or in the manner of a summons in a civil action. Upon service of the notice all moneys not yet disbursed or spent or like moneys to be received in the future are deemed to be impounded and shall be held in trust pending answer to the notice and any hearing which is requested.

The notice shall be answered under oath and in writing within twenty days of the date of service, which answer shall include true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice. The ((notice)) answer shall also either acknowledge the department's right to the moneys or request an administrative hearing to contest the allegation that RCW 74.20A.100 has been violated, or determine the rights to ownership of the support moneys in issue. The hearing shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department and shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW. The burden of proof to establish ownership of the support moneys claimed, including but not limited to moneys not yet disbursed or spent, is on the department.

If no answer is made within the twenty days, the department's claim shall be assessed and determined and subject to collection action as a support debt pursuant to chapter 74.20A RCW. Any such debtor may, at any time within one year from the date of service of the notice of support debt, petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for a hearing upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60. A copy of the petition shall also be served on the department. The filing of the petition shall not stay any collection action being taken, but the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee for an order staying collection action pending final decision of the secretary or the secretary's designee or the courts on any appeal made pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. Any moneys held and/or taken by collection action prior to the date of any such stay and any support moneys claimed by the department, including moneys to be received in the future to which the department may have a claim, shall be held in trust pending final decision and appeal, if any, to be disbursed in accordance with the final decision. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall condition the stay to provide for the trust.

If the hearing is granted it shall be an administrative hearing limited to the determination of the ownership of the moneys claimed in the notice of debt. The right to the hearing is conditioned upon holding of any funds not yet disbursed or expended or to be received in the future in trust pending the final order in these proceedings or during any appeal made to the courts. The secretary or the secretary's designee shall enter an appropriate order providing for the terms of the trust.

The hearing shall be a contested case as provided for in chapter 34.04 RCW and shall be held pursuant to this section, chapter 34.04 RCW, and the rules of the department. The hearing shall be promptly scheduled within thirty days from the date of receipt of the answer by the department. The hearing shall be conducted by a duly qualified hearing examiner appointed for that purpose. Hearings may be held in the county of residence of the debtor or other place convenient to the debtor.

If the debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the hearing examiner shall, upon showing of valid service, enter an initial decision and order declaring the amount of support moneys, as claimed in the notice, to be assessed and determined and subject to collection action. Within thirty days of entry of the decision and order the debtor may petition the secretary or the secretary's designee to vacate the decision and order upon a showing of any of the grounds enumerated in RCW 4.72.010 or superior court civil rule 60.

The hearing and review process shall be as provided for in RCW 74.20A.055.

If, at any time, the superior court enters judgment for an amount of debt at variance with the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings, the judgment shall supersede the final order in these proceedings. Any debt determined by the superior court in excess of the amount determined by the final order in these proceedings shall be the property of the department as assigned under 42 U.S.C. 602(A)(26)(a), RCW 74.20.040, 74.20A.250, 74.20.320, or 74.20.330. The department may, despite any final order in these proceedings, take action pursuant to chapters 74.20 or 74.20A RCW to obtain such a judgment or to collect moneys determined by such a judgment to be due and owing.

If public assistance moneys have been paid to a parent for the benefit of that parent's minor dependent children, debt under this chapter shall not be incurred by nor at any time be collected from that parent because of that payment of assistance. Nothing in this section prohibits or limits the department from acting pursuant to RCW 74.20.320 and this section to assess a debt against a recipient or ex-recipient for receipt of support moneys paid in satisfaction of the debt assigned under RCW 74.20.330 which have been assigned to the department but were received by a recipient or ex-recipient from another responsible parent and not remitted to the department. To collect these wrongfully retained funds from the recipient, the department may not take collection action in excess of ten percent of the grant payment standard during any month the public assistance recipient remains in that status unless required by federal law. Payments not credited against the department's debt pursuant to RCW 74.20.101 may not be assessed or collected under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 74.20A RCW to read as follows:

A support obligation arising under the statutes or common law of this state binds the responsible parent, present in this state, regardless of the presence or residence of the custodian or children. The obligor is presumed to have been present in the state of Washington during the period for which support is sought until otherwise shown. The department may establish an administrative order pursuant to RCW 74.20A.055 that is based upon any support obligation imposed or imposable under the statutes or common law of any state in which the obligor was present during the period for which support is sought.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 322, Laws of 1959, section 2, chapter 206, Laws of 1963 and RCW 74.20.020 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The department of social and health services office of support enforcement is the designated agency in Washington state to administer the child support program under Title IV-D of the federal social security act and is responsible for providing necessary and mandated support enforcement services and ensuring that such services are available state-wide. It is the intent of the legislature to enhance the total child support program in this state by granting the office of support enforcement administrative powers and flexibility. If the exercise of this authority is used to supplant or replace the role of the prosecuting attorneys for reasons other than economy or federal compliance, the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys shall report to the committees on judiciary of the senate and house of representatives."

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.69.010 are each amended to read as follows:

In recognition of the severe and detrimental impact of crime on victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crime and the civic and moral duty of victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crimes to fully and voluntarily cooperate with law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies, and in further recognition of the continuing importance of such citizen cooperation to state and local law enforcement efforts and the general effectiveness and well-being of the criminal justice system of this state, the legislature declares its intent, in this chapter, to grant to the victims of crime and the survivors of such victims a significant role in the criminal justice system. The legislature further intends to ensure that all victims and witnesses of crime are treated with dignity, respect, courtesy, and sensitivity; and that the rights extended in this chapter to victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crime are honored and protected by law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and judges in a manner no less vigorous than the protections afforded criminal defendants.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.69.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Crime" means an act (~~committed by an adult or juvenile in this state which, if committed by a competent adult person, would constitute a crime as provided in either federal, state, or local statute~~) punishable as a felony, gross misdemeanor, or misdemeanor under the laws of this state or equivalent federal or local law.

(2) (~~"Family member"~~) "Survivor" or "survivors" of a victim of crime means a spouse, child, parent, (~~or~~) legal guardian, sibling, or grandparent. If there is more than one survivor of a victim of crime, one survivor shall be designated by the prosecutor to represent all survivors for purposes of providing the notice to survivors required by this chapter.

(3) "Victim" means a person against whom a crime has been committed or the representative of a person against whom a crime has been committed.

(4) "Victim impact statement" means a statement submitted to the court by the victim or a survivor, individually or with the assistance of the prosecuting attorney if assistance is requested by the victim or survivor, which may include but is not limited to information assessing the financial, medical, social, and psychological impact of the offense upon the victim or survivors.

(5) "Witness" means a person who has been or is expected to be summoned to testify for the prosecution in a criminal action, or who by reason of having relevant information is subject to call or likely to be called as a witness for the prosecution, whether or not an action or proceeding has been commenced.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 7.69.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a reasonable effort made to ((assure)) ensure that victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crimes have the following rights:

(1) To be informed by local law enforcement agencies or the prosecuting attorney of the final disposition of the case in which the victim, survivor, or witness is involved;

(2) To be notified by the party who issued the subpoena that a court proceeding to which they have been subpoenaed will not occur as scheduled, in order to save the person an unnecessary trip to court;

(3) To receive protection from harm and threats of harm arising out of cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts, and to be provided with information as to the level of protection available;

(4) To be informed of the procedure to be followed to apply for and receive any witness fees to which they are entitled;

(5) To be provided, whenever practical, a secure waiting area during court proceedings that does not require them to be in close proximity to defendants and families or friends of defendants;

(6) To have any stolen or other personal property expeditiously returned by law enforcement agencies or the superior court when no longer needed as evidence. When feasible, all such property, except weapons, currency, contraband, property subject to evidentiary analysis, and property of which ownership is disputed, shall be photographed and returned to the owner within ten days of being taken;

(7) To be provided with appropriate employer intercession services to ensure that employers of victims, survivors of victims, and witnesses of crime will cooperate with the criminal justice process in order to minimize an employee's loss of pay and other benefits resulting from court appearance;

(8) To access to immediate medical assistance and not to be detained for an unreasonable length of time by a law enforcement agency before having such assistance administered. However, an employee of the law enforcement agency may, if necessary, accompany the person to a medical facility to question the person about the criminal incident if the questioning does not hinder the administration of medical assistance; ((and))

(9) ((To have the family members of homicide victims afforded all of the rights established under subsections (1) through (4), (6), and (7) of this section)) With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to be physically present in court during trial, or if subpoenaed to testify, to be scheduled as early as practical in the proceedings in order to be physically present during trial after testifying and not to be excluded solely because they have testified;

(10) With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the date, time, and place of the trial and of the sentencing hearing for felony convictions upon request by a victim or survivor;

(11) To submit a victim impact statement or report to the court, with the assistance of the prosecuting attorney if requested, which shall be included in all presentence reports and permanently included in the files and records accompanying the offender committed to the custody of a state agency or institution;

(12) With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to present a statement personally or by representation, at the sentencing hearing for felony convictions;

(13) To be promptly notified upon the request of victims or survivors of victims by the agency or institution having custody of an offender convicted and sentenced to a term of confinement of more than a year, or acquitted by reason of insanity, of a violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030, when such offender is furloughed, placed on work or training release or partial confinement, placed on parole, or released following completion of a sentence, placed under community supervision, conditionally released, or finally discharged from an insanity commitment, or when such offender escapes. The victim or survivor may designate that another person or entity receive the notification. The agency or institution shall send the notices to the last known address provided by the requesting victim or survivor; and

(14) With respect to victims and survivors of victims, to entry of an order of restitution by the court in all felony cases, even when the offender is sentenced to confinement, unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 7.69 RCW to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter, a victim who is incapacitated or otherwise incompetent shall be represented by a parent or present legal guardian, or if none exists, by a representative designated by the prosecuting attorney without court appointment or legal guardianship proceedings. Any victim may designate another person as the victim's representative for purposes of the rights enumerated in RCW 7.69.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 7.69 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to provide grounds for error in favor of a criminal defendant in a criminal proceeding, nor may anything in this chapter be construed to grant a new cause of action or remedy against the state, its political subdivisions, law enforcement agencies, or prosecuting attorneys. The failure to provide notice of the rights enumerated in RCW 7.69.030 or to provide notice pursuant to RCW 7.69.030(13) to a victim, survivor, or witness under this chapter shall not result in civil liability for the agency or institution or its employees so long as the failure to notify was in good faith and without gross negligence. The failure to make a reasonable effort to ensure that victims, survivors, and witnesses under this chapter have the rights enumerated in RCW 7.69.030 shall not result in civil liability so long as the failure to make a reasonable effort was in good faith and without gross negligence. This chapter does not limit other civil remedies or defenses of the offender or the victim or survivors of the victim.

Sec. 6. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 5, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department.

Sec. 7. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death, or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
  - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
  - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
  - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
  - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or
  - (f) Pay a fine, make restitution, and/or accomplish some community service work.
- (6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, restitution, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, make restitution, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210 (2) through (6).

(14) This section shall apply to offenses committed before the effective date of this 1985 act.
NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) and (5) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of any violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020, or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

(15) This section shall apply to offenses committed after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 9. Section 14, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 5, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If restitution is ordered, the court shall determine the amount of restitution due at the sentencing hearing or within sixty days and may set the terms and conditions under which the defendant shall make restitution. Restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a maximum term of ten years subsequent to the imposition of sentence. The portion of the sentence concerning restitution may be modified as to amount, terms and conditions during the ten-year period, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department.

(2) Restitution may be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property. In addition, restitution may be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

(3) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means.

(4) This section does not limit civil remedies or defenses available to the victim or defendant.

(5) This section shall apply to offenses committed before the effective date of this 1985 act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A RCW to read as follows:

Restitution ordered by a court pursuant to a criminal conviction shall be based on easily ascertainable damages for injury to or loss of property, actual expenses incurred for treatment for injury to persons, and lost wages resulting from injury. Restitution shall not include reimbursement for damages for mental anguish, pain and suffering, or other intangible losses. The amount of restitution shall not exceed double the amount of the offender's gain or the victim's loss from the commission of the crime. For the purposes of this section, the offender shall remain under the court's jurisdiction for a maximum term of ten years subsequent to the imposition of sentence. The portion of the sentence concerning restitution may be modified as to amount, terms and conditions during the ten-year period, regardless of the expiration of the offender's term of community supervision and regardless of the statutory maximum for the crime. The offender's compliance with the restitution shall be supervised by the department.

(2) Restitution shall be ordered whenever the offender is convicted of an offense which results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property unless extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment and the court sets forth such circumstances in the record. In addition, restitution shall be ordered to pay for an injury, loss, or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which are not prosecuted pursuant to a plea agreement.

(3) In addition to any sentence that may be imposed, a defendant who has been found guilty of an offense involving fraud or other deceptive practice or an organization which has been found guilty of any such offense may be ordered by the sentencing court to give notice of the conviction to the class of persons or to the sector of the public affected by the conviction or financially interested in the subject matter of the offense by mail, by advertising in designated areas or through designated media, or by other appropriate means.

Notwithstanding the provisions of any of the sections, as now or hereafter amended, of Title 51 RCW which are made applicable to this chapter, the marital status of all victims shall be deemed to be fixed as of the date of the criminal act. All references to the child or children living or conceived of the victim in this chapter shall be deemed to refer to such child or children as of the date of the criminal act unless the context clearly indicates the contrary.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Talmadge, tell me a little bit about the funding. Are we wiping out the two-hundred dollars that was an assessment on the criminals and replacing it with something?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, we're not. The funding source for this, Senator McDonald, is the enactment at the federal level by the Congress of a hundred million dollar fund in the federal Crime Victim's Compensation Law. The state of Washington, by making the change in our Crime Victims Compensation Law, as provided for in this bill, will qualify for about a million dollars per year--two million dollars for this biennium for the Crime Victim's Compensation Law. That's the first source. The second is, specifically, an increase in the assessment that now occurs against the offenders. Presently, it is so much for a misdemeanor and so much for a felony. We would increase that amount and that will raise some additional two hundred thousand dollars for this biennium.

"As a consequence, I think, this amendment will provide for a Crime Victim's Compensation program that will not have to borrow from the Crime Justice Training account, as has occurred, and will also pay for the additional changes that are laid out in this bill."

Senator McDonald: "So it is federal money and money as assessed on the felonies?"

Senator Talmadge: "And misdemeanors."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge to the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved that the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Williams and Newhouse to the Committee on Judiciary amendment be adopted:

On page 38 of the amendment, after line 36, insert the following:

"Sec. 14. Section 1, chapter 58, Laws of 1975 and RCW 4.24.300 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, including but not limited to a public or private nonprofit volunteer firefighter, volunteer police officer, emergency medical technician, volunteer ambulance attendant, and volunteer first provider of medical services, who ((in good faith and not for)) without compensation or the expectation of compensation renders emergency care at the scene of an emergency or ((who participates in transporting, not for compensation, therefrom an injured person or persons for emergency medical treatment shall)) during transit by an established emergency medical service provider to a location where professional medical care can be rendered is not ((be)) liable for civil damages resulting from any act or omission in the rendering of such emergency care or in transporting such persons, other than acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. Any person rendering emergency care during the course of regular employment and receiving compensation or expecting to receive compensation for rendering such care is excluded from the protection of this subsection.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975 and RCW 4.24.310 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of RCW 4.24.300 the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) ~~("Good faith" means a state of mind denoting honesty of purpose, integrity, and a reasonable opinion that the immediacy of the situation is such that the rendering of care should not be postponed until the injured person is hospitalized))~~ "Compensation" has its ordinary meaning but does not include nominal payments, reimbursement for expenses, or pension benefits.

(2) "Emergency care" means care, first aid, treatment, or assistance rendered to the injured person in need of immediate medical attention and includes providing or arranging for further medical treatment or care for the injured person. Except with respect to the injured person or persons being transported for further medical treatment or care, the immunity granted by RCW 4.24.300 does not apply to the negligent operation of any motor vehicle.

(3) "Scene of an emergency" means the scene of an accident or other sudden or unexpected event or combination of circumstances which calls for immediate action other than in a hospital, doctor's office, or other place where qualified medical personnel practice or are employed.

Sec. 16, Section 8, chapter 49, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 9.69.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whoever, having witnessed the actual commission of a ~~((felony involving violence or threat of violence or having witnessed preparations for the commission of a felony involving violence or threat of violence))~~ violent offense as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(17) or preparations for the commission of such an offense, or the actual commission of a felony sexual offense or an attempted felony sexual offense, does not as soon as reasonably possible ((make known his knowledge of such to)) notify the prosecuting attorney, ~~((police))~~ or law enforcement, medical assistance, or other public officials of the state of Washington having jurisdiction over the matter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That nothing in this ((act)) section shall be so construed to affect existing privileged relationships as provided by law: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the duty to notify a person or agency specified in this subsection shall be met if a person notifies or attempts to provide such notice by telephone or any other means, as soon as reasonably possible.

(2) For the purposes of this section, "felony sexual offense" means a sexual offense constituting a felony under chapter 9.68A or 9A.64 RCW or a class B or C felony under chapter 9A.44 RCW.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Talmadge, in reading this--the person that witnesses this and sees it, then they have a reasonable time to respond--to go to the proper authorities. It doesn't say that they have to take an active part right there. Just exactly, how does this work?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Metcalf, the intention, I think, is indicated in Section 16 of the amendment--"That the duty to notify a person or agency specified in this subsection shall be met if a person notifies or attempts to provide such notice by telephone or any other means, as soon as reasonably possible." We're not asking people to have to jump in and mix-up with someone who is violent or has a weapon. We're simply saying that is--what I think--a common sense response. If you see someone, for example, being violently assaulted, a phone call to the police will satisfy your obligation under this law."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Talmadge, Williams and Newhouse to the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 3, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(4) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(5) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(6) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(7) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(8) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions ((or plea of guilty)) in juvenile court if: (i) The ((guilty plea or)) conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); ((and)) (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant ((had not reached his or her twenty-third birthday)) was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(9) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(10) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(11) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)).

(12) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

~~((+3))~~ (16) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(17) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

~~((+4))~~ (18) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

~~((+5))~~ (19) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

~~((+6))~~ (20) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:

(a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum;

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

~~(7) ((By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (6) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.~~

~~(8) Every two years.)~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

~~((9))~~ (8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

~~((10))~~ (9) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 3. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1))~~ At its regular session convening in 1983, the legislature shall enact laws approving or modifying either the standards recommended by the commission, or the additional list of standard sentence ranges consistent with prison capacity in the event an additional list has been submitted pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040(6). The standards so adopted shall take effect on July 1, 1984.

~~((2))~~ Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years ~~((and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted))~~.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) ~~((and)),~~ (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer; or

(f) Pay a fine, make restitution, and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, restitution, a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of ~~((any))~~ a sex offense other than a violation of ~~((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except))~~ RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions ~~((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020))~~ for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, make restitution, accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recompense to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital. ~~((as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services))~~ only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to treatment at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be ~~((transferred))~~ committed to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

- (i) Crime-related prohibitions;
- (ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and
- (iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. The period of supervision shall be concurrent with any outpatient supervision that is part of a treatment program imposed under (b) of this subsection. In no case shall the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

Sec. 5. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months ((6) for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1((6)) (RCW 9A.40.020))

Sec. 9. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ((~~are~~)), partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is ((~~computed in the following way:~~)) the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (13) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (12) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if the offender spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offense since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony or serious traffic conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

((~~2~~)) (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed prior to July 1, 1985, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.

(6) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(7) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (8), (9), (10), or (11) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

((3)) (9) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count (9) convictions as in subsection ((5)) (7) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

((4)) (10) If the present conviction is for (Vehicular Homicide, only) a felony traffic offense count (the following crimes as part of the offender score:) two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for Vehicular Homicide (Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500)); Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction; count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.

((6)) (11) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (6) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.

(12) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.

((7)) (13) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ((9)) (6) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.

((8) If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.

(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.

(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.

(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.)

Sec. 10. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ~~((use))~~ rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ~~((and))~~ or admitted ~~((to or))~~, acknowledged, or ~~proved in a trial or~~ at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ~~((real))~~ facts shall be deemed ~~((proven))~~ proved at the ~~((evidentiary))~~ hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ~~((Real))~~ Facts that establish the elements of ~~((a higher crime;))~~ a more serious crime~~(:)~~ or additional crimes ~~((cannot))~~ may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence~~(:)~~. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

~~((+))~~ (a) A significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

~~((+))~~ (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

~~((+))~~ (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

~~((+))~~ (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

~~((+))~~ (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

~~((+))~~ (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

~~((+))~~ (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

~~((+))~~ (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

~~((+))~~ (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

~~((+))~~ (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

~~((d))~~ (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

~~((+))~~ (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition. The presence of ANY of the following may identify ~~((am))~~ a current offense as a major VUCSA:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d))~~ The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

~~((e))~~ (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

~~((ff))~~ (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

~~((g))~~ (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

~~((h))~~ (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ~~(9.94A.400)~~ 9.94A.010.

~~(The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.)~~

Sec. 12. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ~~((criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes))~~ if they were prior convictions for the purposes of the offender score: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That all current offenses encompassing the same criminal conduct shall be counted as if they were one crime in determining ~~((criminal history))~~ the offender score. Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(e) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's ~~((prior convictions as))~~ criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ~~((a criminal history))~~ an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any remaining offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run ~~((consecutively))~~ concurrently with any felony ~~((sentences previously))~~ sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court~~((:))~~ subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the ~~((subsequent))~~ current sentence expressly orders that they be served ~~((concurrently))~~ consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, ~~((this))~~ that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((13)) below for the crimes within these categories.

 Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
  - (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.
- (2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:
- (a) Charging a higher degree;
  - (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended:

or

- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 14. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

As a minimum, the records shall include the name of the offender, the crimes for which the offender was sentenced, the name and county of the sentencing judge, and the deviation from the standard range. Such records shall be made available to public officials upon request.

Sec. 16. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

- (a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;
- (b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;
- (c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 104, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 64, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 71.06.091 are each amended to read as follows:

A sexual psychopath committed pursuant to RCW 71.06.060 shall be retained by the superintendent of the institution involved until in the superintendent's opinion he is safe to be at large, or until he has received the maximum benefit of treatment, or is not amenable to treatment, but the superintendent is unable to render an opinion that he is safe to be at large. Thereupon, the superintendent of the institution involved shall so inform whatever court committed the sexual psychopath. ~~(The court then may order such further examination and investigation of such person as seems necessary, and may at its discretion, summon such person before it for further hearing, together with any witnesses whose testimony may be pertinent, and together with any relevant documents and other evidence. On the basis of such reports, investigation, and possible hearing, the court shall determine whether the person before it shall be released unconditionally from custody as a sexual psychopath, released conditionally, returned to the custody of the institution as a sexual psychopath, or transferred to the department of corrections to serve the original sentence imposed upon him. The power of the court to grant conditional release for any such person before it shall be the same as its power to grant, amend and revoke probation as provided by chapter 9.95-RCW.)~~ The court may release such person only if release is the recommendation of the superintendent. The court shall commit the person to the department of corrections to serve the original sentence imposed upon him if any recommendation or opinion other than release is received from the superintendent. When the sexual psychopath has entered upon the conditional release, the ~~((state board of prison terms and paroles))~~ department of corrections shall supervise such person pursuant to the terms and conditions of the conditional release, as set by the court: PROVIDED, That the superintendent of the institution involved shall never release the sexual psychopath from custody without a court release as herein set forth.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would challenge this amendment on the basis it expands the scope and object of House Bill 348. The bill adopts the recommendation of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission which has to do with sentencing, et cetera. It has nothing to do with the make-up of that Commission. This amendment and the ones that follow have everything to do with the make-up of that Commission. Now, I'm not saying that I'm opposed to that, but it is beyond the scope and object of this bill and I think should be the subject of another piece of legislation."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 348 was deferred.

"BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII of the state Constitution by adding a new section to read as follows:

Article VII, section . . . . . Notwithstanding any provision of this Constitution, the legislature may by general law for the purpose of permitting special financing of public improvements authorize the legislative authority of any county, city, or town to create boundaries, within its jurisdiction, containing only that real property which the legislative authority determines will be increased in true and fair value by reason of specified public improvements within those boundaries. The legislature may further provide that all or a portion of the property taxes levied within those boundaries against increases in the true and fair value of such real property may be used to pay for the specified public improvements or to pay public obligations incurred to fund the specified public improvements. Any such public obligations payable solely from revenues from these public improvements and such property taxes levied against the increases in real property value shall not constitute general indebtedness.

For purposes of this section, "property taxes" means:

(1) Property taxes subject to the aggregate limitation on tax levies by the state and all taxing districts in section 2 of this Article; and

(2) Property taxes levied by port districts and public utility districts, except for property taxes levied specifically for the purpose of making required payments of principal and interest on general indebtedness.

Nothing in this section authorizes the provision of public improvements which counties, cities, and towns may not otherwise provide.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to exercise powers of eminent domain contrary to the provisions of Article I, section 16.

Nothing in this section authorizes a county, city, or town to pledge all or part of its full faith and credit without complying with the laws relating to the incurring of general indebtedness, including Article VIII, section 1 and Article VIII, section 6, or to aggregate tax levies in excess of the limitation on levies in section 2 of this Article.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, House Joint Resolution No. 23, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator McDonald, I didn't hear the reference. You made some reference to some page and I was trying to figure out what you were reading from?"

Senator McDonald: "If you look at page 2, line 37, through page 3, line 8, what you'll find is that it may be the revenues from the tax increment that you get from the redevelopment that takes place, but it's not necessarily so. In fact, what it says is that you can have a GO bond and those GO bonds are obligated by the same things that any other bonds are and consequently there is no assurance whatsoever that it's only the tax increment that is going to pay back those bonds."

Senator Goltz: "Senator McDonald, if you would look, also, on page 2, starting with line 8--where it refers to the public obligation--it says, 'Any such public obligation payable solely from revenues from these public improvements and such property taxes levied against the increases in real property values shall not constitute general indebtedness.' I think that is truly a protection against the kind of general obligation you're fearful of."

Senator McDonald: "Senator Goltz, if I wasn't aware of the evolution of this bill, then I guess I would probably agree with you, but I remember when we wanted to make these revenue bonds only. That wasn't acceptable. Representative Flannigan, then, decided that we could have it with a fifty percent vote by the people and then you could go into a general obligation bond. That was then evolved. The next time we saw this before us in 1983--we wiped the provision out completely and that's the evolution of why we have page 2, line 37 through line 8 on page 3."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 23, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Joint Resolution No. 23, as amended by the Senate, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 15; excused, 1.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1077, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Niemi, Lewis, Holland, J. King, Leonard, Cole, R. King, Winsley and Wineberry) (by Governor Gardner request)

Implementing procedures to control and monitor health care costs.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following Committee on Ways and Means amendment not be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known as the state health care purchasing reform act of 1985.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. The legislature finds that the rising increase in health costs for public employees and persons within the state's care is a major public policy concern and that unless addressed through specific statutory direction adequate health care will not be attainable through the expenditure of public funds. The legislature further finds that prevalent methods of health care delivery and cost reimbursement are often inefficient and wasteful.

It is therefore essential that effective cost control programs be established. It is the intent of the legislature to control costs of state purchased health care while maintaining an adequate level of care; promote wellness; encourage the development of managed health care systems and other systems that have been effective in controlling costs; place within one authority the responsibility and power to control cost while insuring adequate care; and place the state of Washington in a leadership position in cost containment. It is also the legislative intent that cost control procedures be implemented by all state agencies that purchase or provide health care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "State purchased health care" or "health care" means medical and health care, pharmaceuticals, and medical equipment purchased with state and federal funds by the department of social and health services, the state employees insurance board, the department of labor and industries, the department of corrections, and the department of veterans affairs.

(2)(a) "Managed health care" for the purposes of this chapter means a system which shall include these components:

(i) Provision of insurance and responsibility for delivery of care through the same organization;

(ii) A comprehensive range of services either directly or on contract with other providers;

(iii) Control of utilization through identified management intervention points;

(iv) A data collection system that includes, as a minimum, utilization data on all clients and quality of care review; and

(v) Financial risk to the provider organization.

(b) It may as an option also include the following:

(i) A mechanism to resolve complaints;

(ii) Incorporation of health promotion activities as a regular part of medical care;

(iii) Membership education regarding appropriate use of facilities and services;

(iv) Quality of care reviews, utilization review, and peer review; and

(v) Financial incentives to the consumer to control costs.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created a unit within the office of financial management which shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt guidelines for acceptable state purchased health care programs which will accomplish the purposes of this chapter;

(b) To review periodically all agency practices for purchasing health care to ensure compliance with health care guidelines;

(c) To coordinate the activities of all state agencies with respect to health care cost containment policies;

(d) To explore new ways to control cost while maintaining adequate levels of care;

(e) To submit to the legislature by January 7, 1987, legislation that is necessary to streamline health care purchasing procedures and remove unnecessary barriers, including but not limited to state contracting procedures;

(f) To coordinate and encourage efforts by state agencies to establish proven health promotion and disease and accident prevention efforts within state-purchased health care programs including, but not limited to education, monitoring, and counseling of consumers on effective methods to minimize illness;

(g) To ensure coordination of the development and maintenance of appropriate health care information systems by all state agencies purchasing or providing health care, to the fullest extent possible using existing data systems, that include:

(i) Common definitions of health care services;

(ii) Health care data elements common to all agencies;

(iii) Health care data elements unique to any agency;

(iv) The capability to monitor the number of persons for whom services are purchased or provided, the types of services or benefit packages provided or purchased, and the unit costs to the state;

(v) Mechanisms for thorough program and budget review; and

(vi) Preparing, on the basis of data available from state agencies, and submitting to the legislature by September 1 of each even-numbered year, biennial and long-term projections for total health care costs assuming no changes in current programs, and recommendations to reduce the costs of those programs;

(h) To establish procedures for volume purchasing of health care goods and equipment; and

(i) To appoint a technical advisory committee that represents state employees, state agencies, and others with technical expertise who are involved in the direct purchase, funding, or provision of health care.

(2) All state agencies shall cooperate in assisting the unit to implement the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The hospital commission, the health planning and certificate of need sections of the department of social and health services, the board of health, department of licensing, health care facilities authority, and the office of the insurance commissioner shall each submit a report to the legislature and the governor by November 30, 1986.

The report shall describe the respective roles of these agencies regarding health care cost containment and their accomplishments over the preceding six years, and shall address ways to increase the efficiency of these agencies to control costs and maintain quality of care.

(4) The unit shall have an administrator who, along with one other employee, shall be exempt from civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The state employees' insurance board, the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the department of veterans affairs, and the department of corrections shall individually or in cooperation with other agencies take any necessary actions to control costs without reducing the quality of care when reimbursing for or purchasing drugs. To accomplish this purpose, each agency shall investigate the feasibility of and may establish a drug formulary designating which drugs may be paid for through the respective health care programs. For purposes of this section, a drug formulary means a list of drugs, either inclusive or exclusive, that defines which drugs are eligible for reimbursement by the agency.

(2) In developing the drug formulary authorized by this section, agencies:

(a) Shall prohibit reimbursement for drugs that are determined to be ineffective by the United States food and drug administration;

(b) Shall adopt rules in order to ensure that less expensive generic drugs will be substituted for brand name drugs in those instances where the quality of care is not diminished;

(c) Where possible, may authorize reimbursement for drugs only in economical quantities;

(d) May limit the prices paid for drugs by such means as central purchasing, volume contracting, or setting maximum prices to be paid;

(e) Shall consider the approval of drugs with lower abuse potential in substitution for drugs with significant abuse potential; and

(f) May take other necessary measures to control costs of drugs without reducing the quality of care.

(3) Agencies may provide for reasonable exceptions to the drug formulary required by this section.

(4) Agencies may establish medical advisory committees, or utilize committees already established, to assist in the development of the drug formulary required by this section.

(5) Agencies shall report to the unit on the requirements in this section by November 30, 1986.

Sec. 6. Section 28A.58.420, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 255, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.58.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors of any of the state's school districts may make available liability, life, health, health care, accident, disability and salary protection or insurance or any one of, or a combination of the enumerated types of insurance, or any other type of insurance or protection, for the members of the boards of directors, the students, and employees of the school district, and their dependents. The board of directors may contract with the state employees' insurance board to provide coverage under chapter 41.05 RCW. Such coverage may be provided by contracts with private carriers, self-insurance, or self-funding pursuant to chapter 48.62 RCW, or in any other manner authorized by law.

Whenever funds shall be available for these purposes the board of directors of the school district may contribute all or a part of the cost of such protection or insurance for the employees of their respective school districts and their dependents. (1) When a facility contract is terminated for any reason, the old contractor shall submit final reports as required by RCW 74.46.040. ~~((Payment for care provided during the final thirty days of service under a contract will be held until the contractor has filed a properly completed final cost report, an audit has been completed by the department, and final settlement has been determined, such settlement not to exceed ninety days following completion of the audit process.~~

~~(2) Following final settlement, a payment withheld pursuant to subsection (1) of this section will be sent to the contractor after any overpayment determined in connection with final settlement has been deducted. ~~(4)) (2) Upon notification of a contract termination, the department shall determine by preliminary or final settlement calculations the amount of any overpayments made to the contractor, including overpayments disputed by the contractor. If preliminary or final settlements are unavailable for any period up to the date of contract termination, the department shall make a reasonable estimate of any overpayment or underpayments for such periods. The reasonable estimate shall be based upon prior period settlements, available audit findings, the projected impact of prospective rates, and other information available to the department.~~

~~(3) The old contractor shall provide security, in a form deemed adequate by the department, in the amount of determined and estimated overpayments, whether or not the overpayments are the subject of good faith dispute. Security shall consist of:~~

If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the financing and variable return allowances shall be adjusted to the anticipated patient day level.

(b) In computing the portion of net invested funds representing the net book value of tangible fixed assets, the same assets, depreciation bases, lives, and methods referred to in RCW

74.46.330, 74.46.350, 74.46.360, and 74.46.370, including owned and leased assets, shall be utilized, except that the capitalized cost of land upon which the facility is located and such other contiguous land which is reasonable and necessary for use in the regular course of providing patient care shall also be included. In the case of leased facilities where the net invested funds are unknown or the contractor is unable to provide necessary information to determine net invested funds, the secretary shall have the authority to determine an amount for net invested funds based on an appraisal conducted according to RCW 74.46.360(1).

(c) In determining the variable return allowance:

(i) The department will first rank all facilities in numerical order from highest to lowest according to their average per diem allowable costs for the sum of the administration and operations and property cost centers for the previous cost report period.

(ii) The department shall then compute the variable return allowance by multiplying the appropriate percentage amounts, which shall not be less than one percent and not greater than four percent, by the total prospective rate for each facility, as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510. The percentage amounts will be based on groupings of facilities according to the rankings as established in subparagraph (2)(b)(i) of this section. Those groups of facilities with lower per diem costs shall receive higher percentage amounts than those with higher per diem costs.

(d) The sum of the financing allowance and the variable return allowance shall be the return on investment for each facility, and shall be added to the prospective rates of each contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(e) In the case of a facility which was leased by the contractor as of January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length agreement, which continues to be leased under the same lease agreement, and for which the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center determined according to RCW 74.46.510, is more than the return on investment allowance determined according to subsection (1)(d) of this section, the following shall apply:

(i) The financing allowance shall be recomputed substituting the fair market value of the assets as of January 1, 1982, as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure, less accumulated depreciation on the lessor's assets since January 1, 1982, for the net book value of the assets in determining net invested funds for the facility. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(ii) The sum of the financing allowance computed under subsection (1)(e)(i) of this section and the variable allowance shall be compared to the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center rate determined according to RCW 74.46.510. The lesser of the two amounts shall be called the alternate return on investment allowance.

(iii) The return on investment allowance determined according to subsection (1)(d) of this section or the alternate return on investment allowance, whichever is greater, shall be the return on investment allowance for the facility and shall be added to the prospective rates of the contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(f) In the case of a facility which was leased by the contractor as of January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length agreement, if the lease is renewed or extended pursuant to a provision of the lease, the treatment provided in subsection (1)(e) of this section shall be applied except that reimbursement for the annualized lease payment shall be no greater than the reimbursement for the annualized lease payment for the last year prior to the renewal or extension of the lease that was in effect on January 1, 1980.

(2) In the event that the department of health and human services disallows the application of the return on investment allowances to nonprofit facilities, the department shall modify the measurements of net invested funds used for computing individual facility return on investment allowances as follows: Net invested funds for each nonprofit facility shall be multiplied by one minus the ratio of equity funds to the net invested funds of all nonprofit facilities.

(3) Each biennium, beginning in 1985, the secretary shall review the adequacy of return on investment allowances in relation to anticipated requirements for maintaining, reducing, or expanding nursing care capacity. The secretary shall report the results of such review to the legislature and make recommendations for adjustments in the return on investment rates utilized in this section, if appropriate.

Sec. 40. Section 42, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 18, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The following principles are inherent in RCW 74.46.430 through 74.46.590:

(1) Reimbursement rates will be set prospectively on a per patient day basis:

(2) The legislature finds that rates established in accordance with this chapter ~~((shall be))~~ are reasonable and adequate to meet the costs that must be incurred by economically and efficiently operated facilities to provide services which meet the needs of a medical care recipient in compliance with applicable standards, and that such rates comply with the requirements of 42 U.S.C. 1396a(13)(A) and other applicable provisions of Title 19 of the federal social security act; and

(3) The rates so established will be adjusted for economic conditions and trends in accordance with appropriations made by the legislature as consistent with federal requirements for the period to be covered by such rates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. Section 52, chapter 177, Laws of 1980, section 148, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.520 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. Sections 23 through 41 of this act shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired or any obligation or liability incurred under the statutes amended or repealed by those sections or any rule, regulation, or order adopted under those sections, nor as affecting any proceeding instituted under those sections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The state health care purchasing unit and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, 1991, as provided in section 44 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1992.

- (1) Section 1 of this act;
- (2) Section 2 of this act;
- (3) Section 3 of this act;
- (4) Section 4 of this act; and
- (5) Section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. The legislature finds that:

(1) A substantial percentage of the population of this state does not have reasonably available insurance or other coverage of the costs of necessary basic health care services;

(2) This lack of basic health care coverage is detrimental to the health of the individuals lacking coverage and to the public welfare, and often results in substantial expenditures for emergency and remedial health care, often at the expense of health care providers, health care facilities, and all purchasers of health care, including the state;

(3) The use of managed health care systems, as defined in section 2 of this act, has significant potential to reduce the growth of health care costs incurred by the people of this state, and low-income pregnant women are an especially vulnerable population, along with their children, who need greater access to managed health care; and

(4) As declared in RCW 70.39.010, health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish a program providing access to affordable basic health care for low-income persons through the use of managed health care systems. This chapter is intended to establish an appropriate mechanism that will foster the entrepreneurial abilities of health care providers in many communities to join together in helping to address a significant portion of that unmet need for access to affordable health care that exists among the residents of the state and in almost every community. The legislature intends that the program be designed and operated in a fiscally prudent manner within the funds appropriated from the basic health plan account established in this chapter, and that the program emphasize primary and preventive health care services while also covering necessary hospitalization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health plan" or "plan" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health plan board created under section 48 of this act.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, to a defined patient population by enrollment in the plan and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who reside in the state, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed twice the federal nonfarm poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal office of management and budget, who choose to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, are not eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW and do not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 53(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 48. The basic health plan trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenues received under sections 64, 65, and 66 of this act shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health plan board created in section 49 of this act. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the plan and payment of costs of administering the plan. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health plan trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 49. There is hereby created a Washington basic health plan board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board shall be co-located with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of nine members appointed by the governor, as follows:

- (1) One member representing hospitals, as defined in RCW 70.41.020.
- (2) Two members representing individual health care professionals licensed under Title 18 RCW, at least one of whom shall be a physician.
- (3) Two members representing the health care insurance industry and possessing actuarial experience or expertise or experience in health care financing and/or benefit design, who may be associated with health care service contractors or commercial health insurers registered and doing business in the state under Title 48 RCW.
- (4) One member representing labor, who is an active trustee of a union-sponsored health care fund.
- (5) One representative of private employers who provide or purchase health care benefits for employees.
- (6) Two representatives of consumers, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons.

The governor shall designate one of the members designated in subsections (5) and (6) of this section to serve as chairman. At least two of the three members designated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be persons actively engaged in rendering health care services through a managed health care system. No member designated in subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) of this section shall have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility, or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms: PROVIDED, That of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, three shall be appointed to four-year terms, two to three-year terms, two to two-year terms, and two to one-year terms. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board shall serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 50. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless five members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 51. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit. The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such ad hoc advisory committees as it deems necessary.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 52. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, regulations consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 53. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health plan shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the plan only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080. No major professional service may be included in the schedule until legislation is enacted imposing a tax or other assessment, to be deposited in the basic health plan trust account, upon the class of providers or practitioners by whose members that professional service is to be performed.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments shall vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. The board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who qualify for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close all enrollment in the plan until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 58 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

(3) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the plan to prospective enrollees living in all areas of the state and, where possible, from among a selection of participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems, and in its dealings with such systems the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several communities of the state.

(4) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(5) To accept applications from individuals, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for reduced sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, may continue enrollment if the enrollee's gross family income rises above twice the federal nonfarm poverty level, but shall then make payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds two hundred percent of the federal nonfarm poverty level.

(6) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(7) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for all enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area or community, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(8) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(9) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. The benefits available under the plan shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee which provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. On and after July 1, 1986, enrollees whose payments to the board are current shall be entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. Before January 1, 1987, the board may not enroll more than thirty thousand individuals who are eligible for subsidies. Before January 1, 1987, the board shall endeavor to secure participation agreements with managed health care systems in not more than twelve areas of the state, including urban, suburban and rural areas, and to the extent possible with a mixture of public hospitals, community clinics, cities and counties, nonprofit hospitals, and health care professionals engaged in independent practice. The board shall endeavor to secure participation agreements with managed health care systems in each of the congressional districts of the state. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the plan and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the plan. Upon removal of an enrollee from the plan, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, when applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall do so by contract with the board and, on and after July 1, 1986, shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The plan shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different areas of the state. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the plan, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board shall, before executing any initial or renewal contracts, be assured that adequate enrollee protection and continuity of care measures are in place, and the full schedule of services can be provided any enrollee;

(4) The board may then select one and preferably more than one system to provide the covered services under the plan within a specific geographic area; and

(5) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. Any enrollee who, after enrollment in the plan, becomes eligible for medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as a plan enrollee, and shall so continue if the enrollee's minimum enrollment period, if any, has not expired. If the enrollee continues enrollment in the plan under this section, the department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the plan on the enrollee's behalf, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the plan; PROVIDED, That with respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the plan shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the plan under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on his own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the plan. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of plan enrollees and payments on their behalf between the plan and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 51 and 53 of this act, the board shall have the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the plan as managed health care systems.

(3) With health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015 and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance; PROVIDED, That any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

(4) With any public hospital district established under chapter 70.44 RCW or with any county or city, to administer the plan as the board's agent with respect to enrollees residing and managed health care systems serving the geographic area within the boundaries of the district, county, or city; PROVIDED, That the district, county, or city shares with the board, on a dollar for dollar matching basis, the cost of payments to participating managed health care systems for coverage of enrollees residing within the boundaries of the district, county, or city less the amounts payable by enrollees to the district, county, or city as agent for the board. In the event a hospital district, county, or city provides the board with adequate assurances of its ability to administer the plan for potential enrollees residing within its jurisdiction and agrees to share in the cost of any subsidy required for enrollees under the schedule for sliding scale payments, and the board has agreements for participation with a managed health care system or systems within the boundaries of such district, county, or city, and with the approval of the legislature, the plan may commence operations in that jurisdiction on or after March 30, 1986 notwithstanding the implementation dates in sections 55 and 57 of this act.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the plan and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the plan, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health plan under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the plan, shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this act at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this act or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this act at any time.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 62. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify in writing any person filing a claim under this chapter of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 46 through 61 of this act). The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the Washington basic health plan board, in each employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 63. A new section is added to chapter 74.08 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify in writing any person found ineligible for public assistance of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 46 through 61 of this act). The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the Washington basic health plan board, in each community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 64. A new section is added to chapter 82.24 RCW to read as follows:

Effective October 1, 1985, there is hereby levied and there shall be collected by the department of revenue from the persons mentioned in and in the manner provided by this chapter, an excise tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession, or distribution of cigarettes in an amount equal to the rate of four mills per cigarette. The moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 65. A new section is added to chapter 70.39 RCW to read as follows:

Effective July 1, 1986, the commission shall assess against each hospital an annual charge equal to one percent of the hospital's gross annual operating costs for the provision of hospital services for its last fiscal year ending on or before June 30 of the preceding calendar year, less the gross annual operating costs related to revenue received from any managed health care system participating in the Washington basic health plan, revenue received from the department of social and health services under provisions of chapter 74.09 RCW, and the costs of services carried as charity care, as such care is defined by the commission. A hospital that does not charge any fees for services rendered to patients may apply for a waiver of the annual assessment fee from the Washington basic health plan board. One-twelfth of the assessment shall be payable each month to the department of revenue and all such payments shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury. The commission shall take into account, in establishing annual target amounts of state-wide hospital revenues under RCW 70.39.150(6), the duty of each hospital to pay the assessment.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 66. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

Effective July 1, 1986, there is levied and shall be collected from every person engaging in the business of practicing medicine as defined in chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, other than a health maintenance organization as defined in chapter 48.46 RCW, for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by the provisions of RCW 82.04.290, an additional tax equal to the gross income of the business activity multiplied by the rate of one percent. Revenue received from any managed health care system participating in the Washington basic health plan, revenue received from the department of social and health services under the provisions of chapter 74.09 RCW, and the amount of professional liability insurance premiums paid during the reporting period may be deducted from revenues subject to the additional tax. Such deductions may not reduce revenues subject to the basic tax imposed by RCW 82.04.290. The department of revenue shall deposit the revenues collected under this section in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 67. The Washington basic health plan board shall be appointed, hire an executive director, and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this act. Not later than January 1, 1986, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 53 of this act;

(2) A proposal for legislation imposing, effective July 1, 1986, a tax or other assessment upon any class of health care providers or practitioners providing major professional services included in the schedule of basic health care services adopted under section 53 of this act, designed to raise sufficient revenue to cover the anticipated cost to participating managed health care systems of the professional services of providers or practitioners within the class;

(3) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health plan, along with an identification of geographical areas within the state where no managed health care system is expected to be participating in the plan by July 1, 1986, together with any proposals that might assist or stimulate the development of managed health care systems in such areas;

(4) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health plan trust account as of June 30, 1986;

(5) An estimate of the number of enrollees whose basic health care coverage under this chapter can be expected to be financed during the 1986-87 state fiscal year by combining revenues received under sections 64, 65, and 66 of this act with payments from the enrollees;

(6) A description of the sliding fee schedule for periodic enrollee payments adopted by the board under section 53 of this act;

(7) Jointly with the department of social and health services, a proposal for maximizing federal financial participation with respect to persons who may be eligible both for enrollment in the plan and for the limited casualty program under RCW 74.09.700;

(8) A proposal or set of proposals that would allow any health care provider subject to any assessment or tax imposed under this act an appropriate deduction, from the base used for such assessment or tax, of the costs associated with the provision of charity care by the health care provider;

(9) Any proposals for statutory changes which the board deems necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter; and

(10) Any other information which the board deems appropriate.

Not later than January 1, 1987, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1986 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the plan to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 55 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 68. Sections 46 through 61 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW. The chapter shall have no force or effect after June 30, 1986, unless the legislature affirms before that date, by bill or concurrent resolution, its intent to continue the force and effect of the chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 69. There is appropriated from the general fund to the basic health plan trust account, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of one million dollars, to carry out the purposes of this act. Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable, but not later than June 30, 1987, from the revenues accruing to the basic health plan trust account under sections 64, 65, and 66 of this act.

There is appropriated from the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury to the Washington basic health plan board, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of sixty million dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, not exceeding funds deposited in the account, to carry out the purposes of this act.

There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of revenue, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of seven thousand dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

Sec. 70. Section 82.24.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(3) For purposes of this chapter (~~and RCW 28A.47.440~~), "possession" shall mean both (a) physical possession by the purchaser and, (b) when cigarettes are being transported to or held for the purchaser or his designee by a person other than the purchaser, constructive possession by the purchaser or his designee, which constructive possession shall be deemed to occur at the location of the cigarettes being so transported or held.

~~((2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section, RCW 82.24.025, and 28A.47.440.))~~

Sec. 71. Section 82.24.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Such remittance shall be made at the same time and manner as remittances of the retail sales tax as required under chapters 82.08 and 82.32 RCW. In the event the retailer fails to collect the tax from the buyer or transferee, or fails to remit the same, the retailer shall be personally liable therefor, and shall be subject to the administrative provisions of RCW 82.24.230 with respect to the collection thereof by the department. The provisions of this section shall not relieve the buyer or possessor of unstamped cigarettes from personal liability for the tax imposed by ((RCW 82.24.020, 82.24.025, and 28A.47.440)) this chapter.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott to not adopt the Committee on Ways and Means amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1077.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the following amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter shall be known as the state health care purchasing reform act of 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that the rising increase in health costs for public employees and persons within the state's care is a major public policy concern and that unless addressed through specific statutory direction adequate health care will not be attainable through the expenditure of public funds. The legislature further finds that prevalent methods of health care delivery and cost reimbursement are often inefficient and wasteful.

It is therefore essential that effective cost control programs be established. It is the intent of the legislature to control costs of state purchased health care while maintaining an adequate level of care; promote wellness; encourage the development of managed health care systems and other systems that have been effective in controlling costs; place within one authority the responsibility and power to control cost while insuring adequate care; and place the state of Washington in a leadership position in cost containment. It is also the legislative intent that cost control procedures be implemented by all state agencies that purchase or provide health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "State purchased health care" or "health care" means medical and health care, pharmaceuticals, and medical equipment purchased with state and federal funds by the department of social and health services, the state employees insurance board, the department of labor and industries, the department of corrections, and the department of veterans affairs.

(2)(a) "Managed health care" for the purposes of this chapter means a system which shall include these components:

(i) Provision of insurance and responsibility for delivery of care through the same organization;

(ii) A comprehensive range of services either directly or on contract with other providers;

(iii) Control of utilization through identified management intervention points;

(iv) A data collection system that includes, as a minimum, utilization data on all clients and quality of care review; and

(v) Financial risk to the provider organization.

(b) It may as an option also include the following:

(i) A mechanism to resolve complaints;

(ii) Incorporation of health promotion activities as a regular part of medical care;

(iii) Membership education regarding appropriate use of facilities and services;

(iv) Quality of care reviews, utilization review, and peer review; and

(v) Financial incentives to the consumer to control costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) There is hereby created a unit within the office of financial management which shall have the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt guidelines for acceptable state purchased health care programs which will accomplish the purposes of this chapter;

(b) To review periodically all agency practices for purchasing health care to ensure compliance with health care guidelines;

(c) To coordinate the activities of all state agencies with respect to health care cost containment policies;

(d) To explore new ways to control cost while maintaining adequate levels of care;

(e) To submit to the legislature by January 7, 1987, legislation that is necessary to streamline health care purchasing procedures and remove unnecessary barriers, including but not limited to state contracting procedures;

(f) To coordinate and encourage efforts by state agencies to establish proven health promotion and disease and accident prevention efforts within state-purchased health care programs including, but not limited to education, monitoring, and counseling of consumers on effective methods to minimize illness;

(g) To ensure coordination of the development and maintenance of appropriate health care information systems by all state agencies purchasing or providing health care, to the fullest extent possible using existing data systems, that include:

(i) Common definitions of health care services;

(ii) Health care data elements common to all agencies;

(iii) Health care data elements unique to any agency;

(iv) The capability to monitor the number of persons for whom services are purchased or provided, the types of services or benefit packages provided or purchased, and the unit costs to the state;

(v) Mechanisms for thorough program and budget review; and

(vi) Preparing, on the basis of data available from state agencies, and submitting to the legislature by September 1 of each even-numbered year, biennial and long-term projections for total health care costs assuming no changes in current programs, and recommendations to reduce the costs of those programs;

(h) To establish procedures for volume purchasing of health care goods and equipment; and

(i) To appoint a technical advisory committee that represents state employees, state agencies, and others with technical expertise who are involved in the direct purchase, funding, or provision of health care.

(2) All state agencies shall cooperate in assisting the unit to implement the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The hospital commission, the health planning and certificate of need sections of the department of social and health services, the board of health, department of licensing, health care facilities authority, and the office of the insurance commissioner shall each submit a report to the legislature and the governor by November 30, 1986.

The report shall describe the respective roles of these agencies regarding health care cost containment and their accomplishments over the preceding six years, and shall address ways to increase the efficiency of these agencies to control costs and maintain quality of care.

(4) The unit shall have an administrator who, along with one other employee, shall be exempt from civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The state employees' insurance board, the department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the department of veterans affairs, and the department of corrections shall individually or in cooperation with other agencies take any necessary actions to control costs without reducing the quality of care when reimbursing for or purchasing drugs. To accomplish this purpose, each agency shall investigate the feasibility of and may establish a drug formulary designating which drugs may be paid for through the respective health care programs. For purposes of this section, a drug formulary means a list of drugs, either inclusive or exclusive, that defines which drugs are eligible for reimbursement by the agency.

(2) In developing the drug formulary authorized by this section, agencies:

(a) Shall prohibit reimbursement for drugs that are determined to be ineffective by the United States food and drug administration;

(b) Shall adopt rules in order to ensure that less expensive generic drugs will be substituted for brand name drugs in those instances where the quality of care is not diminished;

(c) Where possible, may authorize reimbursement for drugs only in economical quantities;

(d) May limit the prices paid for drugs by such means as central purchasing, volume contracting, or setting maximum prices to be paid;

(e) Shall consider the approval of drugs with lower abuse potential in substitution for drugs with significant abuse potential; and

(f) May take other necessary measures to control costs of drugs without reducing the quality of care.

(3) Agencies may provide for reasonable exceptions to the drug formulary required by this section.

(4) Agencies may establish medical advisory committees, or utilize committees already established, to assist in the development of the drug formulary required by this section.

(5) Agencies shall report to the unit on the requirements in this section by November 30, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 51.44 RCW to read as follows:

The department of labor and industries shall establish, on an ongoing basis, a review of methods to be used to obtain savings in health care costs and also an analysis of all optional systems considered by the department to control costs, including establishing a managed health care system approach for the provision of health care services, which would include making available to injured workers preferred provider arrangements, health maintenance organizations, or other managed health care or case management systems. This shall include an analysis of the constraints of establishing the system under Title 51 RCW and shall also consider incentives to encourage injured workers to use the system. The department shall prepare any legislation necessary to implement this or other strategies it may recommend to the legislature to effect these savings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The director of labor and industries shall submit to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, a report that will propose methods to incrementally reduce the projected expenditures of the medical aid fund up to twenty percent for the period of July 1, 1986, to June 30, 1987. With each proposed incremental reduction, the report shall include: Methods of obtaining the reduction; effects upon injured workers; effects upon the service provider; and drafts of any legislation necessary to implement the reductions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to its existing managed health care programs the department shall develop plans for two managed health care programs, one in the eastern part and one in the western part of the state. The plan shall include measures to ensure enrollment of at least five thousand medical assistance enrollees in each program, in addition to the number enrolled in managed health care programs as of June 30, 1985. The department shall report to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, on the development of the plan.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 288, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.38.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is authorized and directed to implement the certificate of need program in this state pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) There shall be a state certificate of need program which is administered consistent with the requirements of federal law as necessary to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

(3) No person shall engage in any undertaking which is subject to certificate of need review under subsection (4) of this section without first having received from the department either a certificate of need or an exception granted in accordance with this chapter.

~~(i) if the equipment will be owned by or located in a health care facility; or~~

~~(ii) if, after January 1, 1981, the equipment is not to be owned by or located in a health care facility, the department finds consistent with federal regulations the equipment will be used to provide services for hospital inpatients, or the person acquiring such equipment did not notify the department of the intent to acquire such equipment at least thirty days before entering into contractual arrangements for such acquisition)) if the equipment is not in operation before March 31, 1985. NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The state health care purchasing unit and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, 1991, as provided in section 44 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 43.131 RCW to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1992.

(1) Section 1 of this act;

(2) Section 2 of this act;

(3) Section 3 of this act;

(4) Section 4 of this act; and

(5) Section 5 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The legislature finds that:

(1) A substantial percentage of the population of this state does not have reasonably available insurance or other coverage of the costs of necessary basic health care services;

(2) This lack of basic health care coverage is detrimental to the health of the individuals lacking coverage and to the public welfare, and often results in substantial expenditures for emergency and remedial health care, often at the expense of health care providers, health care facilities, and all purchasers of health care, including the state;

(3) The use of managed health care systems, as defined in section 14 of this act, has significant potential to reduce the growth of health care costs incurred by the people of this state, and low-income pregnant women are an especially vulnerable population, along with their children, who need greater access to managed health care; and

(4) As declared in RCW 70.39.010, health care is a right of the people and one of the primary purposes for which governments are established.

The purpose of this chapter is to establish a program providing access to affordable basic health care for low-income persons through the use of managed health care systems. This chapter is intended to establish an appropriate mechanism that will foster the entrepreneurial abilities of health care providers in many communities to join together in helping to address a significant portion of that unmet need for access to affordable health care that exists among the residents of the state and in almost every community. The legislature intends that the program be designed and operated in a fiscally prudent manner within the funds appropriated from the basic health plan account established in this chapter, and that the program emphasize primary and preventive health care services while also covering necessary hospitalization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Washington basic health plan" or "plan" means the system of enrollment and payment on a prepaid capitated basis for basic health care services, administered by the board through participating managed health care systems, created by this chapter.

(2) "Board" means the Washington basic health plan board created under section 16 of this act.

(3) "Managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract basic health care services, as defined by the board and rendered by duly licensed providers, to a defined patient population by enrollment in the plan and in the managed health care system.

(4) "Enrollee" means an individual, or an individual plus the individual's spouse and dependent children, all under the age of sixty-five, who reside in the state, whose gross family income at the time of enrollment does not exceed one and one-half times the federal nonfarm poverty level as adjusted for family size and determined annually by the federal office of management and budget, who choose to obtain basic health care coverage from a particular managed health care system in return for periodic payments to the board, and who, at the time of enrollment, are not eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW and do not have access to employer-sponsored health care coverage.

(5) "Subsidy" means the difference between the amount of periodic payment the board makes, from funds appropriated from the trust account, to a managed health care system on behalf of an enrollee and the amount the board determines to be the enrollee's responsibility under section 20(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The basic health plan trust account is hereby established in the state treasury. All revenues received under sections 31, 32, and 33 of this act shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account. Disbursements from the account shall be made pursuant to appropriation and upon warrants drawn by the Washington basic health plan board created in section 49 of this act. Moneys in the account shall be used exclusively for the purposes of this chapter, including payments to participating managed health care systems on behalf of enrollees in the plan and payment of costs of administering the plan. The earnings on any surplus balances in the basic health plan trust account shall be credited to the account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090. After January 1, 1987, the legislature shall not appropriate for an ensuing fiscal period amounts exceeding ninety percent of the revenues anticipated to accrue to the account during the fiscal period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is hereby created a Washington basic health plan board, which shall be a separate and independent board of the state. For efficiencies in operation and consultation, the offices of the board shall be co-located with those of the hospital commission. The board shall be composed of nine members appointed by the governor, as follows:

(1) One member representing hospitals, as defined in RCW 70.41.020.

(2) Two members representing individual health care professionals licensed under Title 18 RCW, at least one of whom shall be a physician.

(3) Two members representing the health care insurance industry and possessing actuarial experience or expertise or experience in health care financing and/or benefit design, who may be associated with health care service contractors or commercial health insurers registered and doing business in the state under Title 48 RCW.

(4) One member representing labor, who is an active trustee of a union-sponsored health care fund.

(5) One representative of private employers who provide or purchase health care benefits for employees.

(6) Two representatives of consumers, at least one of whom represents the interests of low-income persons.

The governor shall designate one of the members designated in subsections (5) and (6) of this section to serve as chairman. At least two of the three members designated in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be persons actively engaged in rendering health care services through a managed health care system. No member designated in subsection (3), (4), (5), or (6) of this section shall have any fiduciary obligation to any health care provider or facility, or any material financial interest in the provision of health care services.

Members of the board shall serve for four-year terms: PROVIDED, That of the members initially appointed after the effective date of this act, three shall be appointed to four-year terms, two to three-year terms, two to two-year terms, and two to one-year terms. Appointments shall require senate confirmation. No member of the board shall serve for more than two consecutive terms. A vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term and the initial appointments and vacancies shall not require senate confirmation until the legislature next convenes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Meetings of the board shall be held as frequently as its duties require. The board shall keep minutes of its meetings and adopt procedures for the governing of its meetings, minutes, and transactions. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a vacancy on the board shall not impair its power to act. No action of the board shall be effective unless five members concur therein. The board may, consistent with the procedural requirements of chapter 42.30 RCW, meet in executive session with representatives of prospective or participating managed health care systems to discuss matters of a proprietary or sensitive nature.

The members of the board shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.250 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The board shall employ a full-time executive director, who shall be the chief administrative officer of the board and shall be subject to its direction. The executive director, medical director, and up to three other employees shall be exempt from the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW.

The board shall employ such other staff as are necessary to fulfill the responsibilities and duties of the board, such staff to be subject to the civil service law, chapter 41.06 RCW. In addition, the board may contract with third parties for services necessary to carry out its activities where this will promote economy, avoid duplication of effort, and make best use of available expertise. Any such contractor or consultant shall be prohibited from releasing, publishing, or otherwise using any information made available to it under its contractual responsibility without specific permission of the board. The board may call upon other agencies of the state to provide available information as necessary to assist the board in meeting its responsibilities under this chapter, which information shall be supplied as promptly as circumstances permit. The board may create committees from its membership, and may appoint such ad hoc advisory committees as it deems necessary.

The board may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and service, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs and access to health care.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The board may promulgate and adopt, under chapter 34.04 RCW, regulations consistent with this chapter to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To design and from time to time revise a schedule of covered basic health care services, including physician services, inpatient and outpatient hospital services, and other services that may be necessary for basic health care, which enrollees in any participating managed health care system under the Washington basic health plan shall be entitled to receive in return for periodic payments to the board. The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive and primary health care, shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care, and shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children, eighteen years of age and younger, for those enrollees who choose to secure basic coverage through the plan only for their dependent children. In designing and revising the schedule of services the board shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080. No major professional service may be included in the schedule until legislation is enacted imposing a tax or other assessment, to be deposited in the basic health plan trust account, upon the class of providers or practitioners by whose members that professional service is to be performed.

(2) To design and implement a structure of periodic payments due from enrollees. The payment structure shall be based upon enrollee family size and shall include a sliding scale whereby payments shall vary according to enrollee family income. The structure shall be designed so as to include payment amounts for enrollment of children without requiring enrollment of their parents. The board shall not enroll such numbers of enrollees who qualify for subsidies as might reasonably be expected to result in an overexpenditure of appropriations for such purposes. Whenever the board finds that there is danger of such an overexpenditure, the board shall close all enrollment in the plan until the board finds the danger no longer exists. Payments to the board by the department of social and health services on behalf of any person eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW, subject to section 58 of this act, shall not be less than the payments the board makes to managed health care systems for coverage of those persons.

(3) To solicit and accept applications from managed health care systems, as defined in this chapter, for inclusion as eligible basic health care providers under the plan. The board shall endeavor to assure that covered basic health care services are available through the plan to prospective enrollees living in all areas of the state and, where possible, from among a selection of participating managed health care systems. In adopting any rules or procedures applicable to managed health care systems, and in its dealings with such systems the board shall consider and make suitable allowance for the need for health care services and the differences in local availability of health care resources, along with other resources, within and among the several communities of the state.

(4) To receive periodic payments from enrollees, deposit the payments in the basic health plan operating account, keep records of enrollee payments and status, and authorize periodic payments to managed health care systems on the basis of the number of enrollees participating in the respective managed health care systems.

(5) To accept applications from individuals, on behalf of themselves and their spouses and dependent children, for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan, to establish appropriate minimum-enrollment periods for enrollees as may be necessary, and to determine, upon application and at least annually thereafter, or at the request of any enrollee, eligibility due to current gross family income for reduced sliding scale payments that will be the responsibility of the enrollee. An enrollee who remains current in making periodic sliding-scale payments, as determined by the board under subsection (2) of this section, may continue enrollment if the enrollee's gross family income rises above one and one-half times the federal nonfarm poverty level, but shall then make payment at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee schedule. No subsidy shall be paid with respect to any enrollee whose current gross family income exceeds one hundred-fifty percent of the federal nonfarm poverty level.

(6) To require that prospective enrollees who may be eligible for medical coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW apply for such coverage.

(7) To determine, on a community rating basis, the amount of each periodic per capita or per family payment to a participating managed health care system in return for the provision of covered basic health care services to enrollees in the system. Although the schedule of covered basic health care services will be the same for all enrollees, the periodic per capita or per family payments to participating managed health care systems may vary among the systems. In negotiating payment levels with participating systems the board shall consider the characteristics of the populations served by the respective systems, economic circumstances of the local area or community, and other factors the board finds relevant.

(8) To monitor the provision of covered services to enrollees by participating managed health care systems in order to assure enrollee access to good quality basic health care, to require periodic reports on health care services rendered to enrollees, and to inspect the books and records of participating managed health care systems to assure compliance with the purposes of this chapter. In requiring reports from participating managed health care systems, including data on services rendered enrollees, the board shall endeavor to minimize costs, both to the managed health care systems and to the board. The board shall coordinate any such reporting requirements with other state agencies, such as the insurance commissioner and the hospital commission, to minimize duplication of effort.

(9) To monitor the access that state residents have to adequate and necessary health care services, determine the extent of any unmet needs for such services or lack of access that may exist from time to time, and make such reports and recommendations to the legislature as it deems appropriate.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The benefits available under the plan shall be subject to the provisions of RCW 48.21.200 and shall be excess to the benefits payable under the terms of any insurance policy issued to or on the behalf of an enrollee which provides payments toward medical expenses without a determination of liability for the injury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. On and after July 1, 1986, enrollees whose payments to the board are current shall be entitled to receive covered basic health care services as defined by the board from the respective managed health care systems in which they are enrolled. Before January 1, 1987, the board may not enroll more than thirty thousand individuals who are eligible for subsidies. Before January 1, 1987, the board shall endeavor to secure participation agreements with managed health care systems in not more than twelve areas of the state, including urban, suburban and rural areas, and to the extent possible with a mixture of public hospitals, community clinics, cities and counties, nonprofit hospitals, and health care professionals engaged in independent practice. The board shall endeavor to secure participation agreements with managed health care systems in each of the congressional districts of the state. The board shall closely monitor growth patterns so as not to exceed that consistent with the orderly development of the plan.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. Any enrollee whose payments to the board are delinquent may be dropped from enrollment status. The board shall make reasonable efforts to notify delinquent enrollees of their removal from the plan and shall provide for a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW for any enrollee who contests the board's decision to drop the enrollee from the plan. Upon removal of an enrollee from the plan, the board shall promptly notify the managed health care system in which the enrollee has been enrolled, and shall not be responsible for payment for health care services provided to the enrollee (including, when applicable, members of the enrollee's family) after the date of notification. A managed health care system may contest the denial of payment for coverage of an enrollee through a hearing under chapters 34.04 and 34.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. Managed health care systems participating in the plan shall do so by contract with the board and, on and after July 1, 1986, shall provide, directly or by contract with other health care providers, covered basic health care services to each enrollee as long as payments from the board on behalf of the enrollee are current. Subject to board approval and with full disclosure to enrollees and prospective enrollees, a managed health care system may impose nominal copayments upon enrollees as an incentive for proper utilization of services. The board may receive and act upon complaints from enrollees regarding failure to provide covered services or efforts to obtain payment, other than copayments authorized under this section, for covered services directly from enrollees, but nothing in this chapter empowers the board to impose any sanctions under Title 18 RCW or any other professional or facility licensing statute.

The plan shall allow, at least annually, an opportunity for enrollees to transfer their enrollments among participating managed health care systems. The board shall establish a period of at least twenty days in a given year when this opportunity is afforded enrollees, and in those areas served by more than one participating managed health care systems the board shall endeavor to establish a uniform period for such opportunity.

Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system the board shall determine, on an actuarially sound basis, the reasonable cost of providing the schedule of basic health care services, expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different areas of the state. In negotiating with managed health care systems for participation in the plan, the board shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least the following:

(1) The board shall issue a request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; financial integrity of the responding systems; and responsiveness to the unmet health care needs of the local communities or populations that may be served;

(2) The board shall then review responsive proposals and may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(3) The board shall, before executing any initial or renewal contracts, be assured that adequate enrollee protection and continuity of care measures are in place, and the full schedule of services can be provided any enrollee;

(4) The board may then select one and preferably more than one system to provide the covered services under the plan within a specific geographic area; and

(5) The board may adopt a policy that gives preference to systems substantially supported by public revenues or involving public agencies.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. Any enrollee who, after enrollment in the plan, becomes eligible for medical assistance or medical care services under chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as a plan enrollee, and shall so continue if the enrollee's minimum enrollment period, if any, has not expired. If the enrollee continues enrollment in the plan under this section, the department of social and health services shall make periodic payments to the plan on the enrollee's behalf, at the maximum rate established in the sliding fee scale, for the services covered by the plan; PROVIDED, That with respect to enrollees eligible for medical assistance under RCW 74.09.510, the periodic amount payable to the plan shall not be greater than the amount with respect to which full federal financial participation is available under title XIX of the federal social security act. Any enrollee on whose behalf the department of social and health services makes payments to the plan under this section and chapter 74.09 RCW may continue as an enrollee, making periodic payments based on his own income as determined under the sliding scale, after eligibility for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW has ended. Nothing in this section affects the right of any person eligible for coverage under chapter 74.09 RCW to receive the services offered to other persons under that chapter but not included in the schedule of basic health care services covered by the plan. The board and the department of social and health services shall cooperatively adopt procedures to facilitate the transition of plan enrollees and payments on their behalf between the plan and the programs established under chapter 74.09 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. In addition to the powers and duties specified in sections 18 and 20 of this act, the board shall have the power to enter into contracts for the following functions and services:

(1) With public or private agencies, to assist the board in its duties to design or revise the schedule of covered basic health care services, and/or to monitor the performance of participating managed health care systems.

(2) With public or private agencies, to provide technical or professional assistance to health care providers, particularly public or private nonprofit organizations and providers serving rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the plan as managed health care systems.

(3) With health care service contractors registered under RCW 48.44.015 and doing business in the state, for marketing and administrative services in connection with participation of managed health care systems, enrollment of enrollees, billing and collection services to the board, and other administrative functions ordinarily performed by health care service contractors, other than insurance; PROVIDED, That any activities of a health care service contractor pursuant to a contract with the board under this section shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

(4) With any public hospital district established under chapter 70.44 RCW or with any county or city, to administer the plan as the board's agent with respect to enrollees residing and managed health care systems serving the geographic area within the boundaries of the district, county, or city; PROVIDED, That the district, county, or city shares with the board, on a dollar for dollar matching basis, the cost of payments to participating managed health care systems for coverage of enrollees residing within the boundaries of the district, county, or city less the amounts payable by enrollees to the district, county, or city as agent for the board. In the event a hospital district, county, or city provides the board with adequate assurances of its ability to administer the plan for potential enrollees residing within its jurisdiction and agrees to share in the cost of any subsidy required for enrollees under the schedule for sliding scale payments, and the board has agreements for participation with a managed health care system or systems within the boundaries of such district, county, or city, and with the approval of the legislature, the plan may commence operations in that jurisdiction on or after March 30, 1986 notwithstanding the implementation dates in sections 22 and 24 of this act.

(5) With any community health center or other public or private nonprofit health care provider participating in a managed health care system under the plan and demonstrating financial need, to furnish direct financial assistance in meeting the start-up costs of providing covered basic health care services under the plan, for a period not exceeding one year after the managed health care system commences coverage of enrollees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. The activities and operations of the Washington basic health plan under this chapter, including those of managed health care systems to the extent of their participation in the plan, shall be exempt from the provisions and requirements of Title 48 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal all or any part of this act at any time and there shall be no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal. All the rights, privileges, or immunities conferred by this act or any acts done pursuant thereto shall exist subject to the power of the legislature to amend or repeal this act at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. A new section is added to chapter 50.20 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall notify in writing any person filing a claim under this chapter of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 13 through 28 of this act). The commissioner shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the Washington basic health plan board, in each employment service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. A new section is added to chapter 74.08 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall notify in writing any person found ineligible for public assistance of the availability of basic health care coverage to qualified enrollees in the Washington basic health plan under chapter 70.____ RCW (sections 13 through 28 of this act). The department shall maintain a supply of Washington basic health plan enrollment application forms, which shall be provided in reasonably necessary quantities by the Washington basic health plan board, in each community service office for the use of persons wishing to apply for enrollment in the Washington basic health plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. A new section is added to chapter 82.24 RCW to read as follows:

Effective October 1, 1985, there is hereby levied and there shall be collected by the department of revenue from the persons mentioned in and in the manner provided by this chapter, an excise tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession, or distribution of cigarettes in an amount equal to the rate of four mills per cigarette. The moneys collected under this section shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 70.39 RCW to read as follows:

Effective July 1, 1986, the commission shall assess against each hospital an annual charge equal to one percent of the hospital's gross annual operating costs for the provision of hospital services for its last fiscal year ending on or before June 30 of the preceding calendar year, less the gross annual operating costs related to revenue received from any managed health care system participating in the Washington basic health plan, revenue received from the department of social and health services under provisions of chapter 74.09 RCW, and the costs of services carried as charity care, as such care is defined by the commission. A hospital that does not charge any fees for services rendered to patients may apply for a waiver of the annual assessment fee from the Washington basic health plan board. One-twelfth of the assessment shall be payable each month to the department of revenue and all such payments shall be deposited in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury. The commission shall take into account, in establishing annual target amounts of state-wide hospital revenues under RCW 70.39.150(6), the duty of each hospital to pay the assessment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW to read as follows:

Effective July 1, 1986, there is levied and shall be collected from every person engaging in the business of practicing medicine as defined in chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, other than a health maintenance organization as defined in chapter 48.46 RCW, for the act or privilege of engaging in business activities, as a part of the tax imposed by the provisions of RCW 82.04.290, an additional tax equal to the gross income of the business activity multiplied by the rate of one percent. Revenue received from any managed health care system participating in the Washington basic health plan, revenue received from the department of social and health services under the provisions of chapter 74.09 RCW, and the amount of professional liability insurance premiums paid during the reporting period may be deducted from revenues subject to the additional tax. Such deductions may not reduce revenues subject to the basic tax imposed by RCW 82.04.290. The department of revenue shall deposit the revenues collected under this section in the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. The Washington basic health plan board shall be appointed, hire an executive director, and commence operations as promptly as practicable after the effective date of this act. Not later than January 1, 1986, the board shall submit to the legislature a progress report including:

(1) The schedule of covered basic health care services adopted under section 20 of this act;

(2) A proposal for legislation imposing, effective July 1, 1986, a tax or other assessment upon any class of health care providers or practitioners providing major professional services included in the schedule of basic health care services adopted under section 20 of this act, designed to raise sufficient revenue to cover the anticipated cost to participating managed health care systems of the professional services of providers or practitioners within the class;

(3) A descriptive listing of managed health care systems expected to participate in the Washington basic health plan, along with an identification of geographical areas within the state where no managed health care system is expected to be participating in the plan by July 1, 1986, together with any proposals that might assist or stimulate the development of managed health care systems in such areas;

(4) The approximate amount of funds estimated to be on deposit in the basic health plan trust account as of June 30, 1986;

(5) An estimate of the number of enrollees whose basic health care coverage under this chapter can be expected to be financed during the 1986-87 state fiscal year by combining revenues received under sections 21, 22, and 23 of this act with payments from the enrollees;

(6) A description of the sliding fee schedule for periodic enrollee payments adopted by the board under section 21 of this act;

(7) Jointly with the department of social and health services, a proposal for maximizing federal financial participation with respect to persons who may be eligible both for enrollment in the plan and for the limited casualty program under RCW 74.09.700;

(8) A proposal or set of proposals that would allow any health care provider subject to any assessment or tax imposed under this act an appropriate deduction, from the base used for such assessment or tax, of the costs associated with the provision of charity care by the health care provider;

(9) Any proposals for statutory changes which the board deems necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter; and

(10) Any other information which the board deems appropriate.

Not later than January 1, 1987, the board shall submit to the legislature a further progress report, updating its 1986 report, and covering the same items provided for therein, with projections based upon implementation of the plan to date. Further, the report shall include a description of the performance of the first managed health care systems included as eligible providers as provided in section 22 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. Sections 13 through 28 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in title 70 RCW. The chapter shall have no force or effect after June 30, 1986, unless the legislature affirms before that date, by bill or concurrent resolution, its intent to continue the force and effect of the chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is appropriated from the general fund to the basic health plan trust account, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of one million dollars, to carry out the purposes of this act. Such appropriation shall be repaid to the general fund as soon as practicable, but not later than June 30, 1987, from the revenues accruing to the basic health plan trust account under sections 31, 32, and 33 of this act.

There is appropriated from the basic health plan trust account of the state treasury to the Washington basic health plan board, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of sixty million dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, not exceeding funds deposited in the account, to carry out the purposes of this act.

There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of revenue, for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of seven thousand dollars, or as much thereof as shall be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

Sec. 37. Section 82.24.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 15, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.24.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected as hereinafter provided, a tax upon the sale, use, consumption, handling, possession or distribution of all cigarettes, in an amount equal to the rate of ~~((eight)) eleven~~ and one-half mills per cigarette.

(2) Wholesalers and retailers subject to the payment of this tax may, if they wish, absorb one-half mill per cigarette of the tax and not pass it on to purchasers without being in violation of this section or any other act relating to the sale or taxation of cigarettes.

(3) For purposes of this chapter ~~((and RCW 28A.47.440))~~, "possession" shall mean both (a) physical possession by the purchaser and, (b) when cigarettes are being transported to or held for the purchaser or his designee by a person other than the purchaser, constructive possession by the purchaser or his designee, which constructive possession shall be deemed to occur at the location of the cigarettes being so transported or held.

~~((2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section, RCW 82.24.025, and 28A.47.440.))~~

Sec. 38. Section 82.24.070, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 14, chapter 299, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 82.24.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 39. Section 7, chapter 157, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 217, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and by section 3, chapter 189, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.24.260 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Any retailer who sells or otherwise disposes of any unstamped cigarettes other than (1) a federal instrumentality with respect to sales to authorized military personnel and (2) a federally recognized Indian tribal organization with respect to sales to enrolled members of the tribe shall collect from the buyer or transferee thereof the tax imposed on such buyer or transferee by ~~((RCW 82.24.020, 82.24.025, and 28A.47.440))~~ this chapter and remit the same to the department after deducting from the tax collected the compensation he would have been entitled to under the provisions of this chapter ~~((and RCW 28A.47.440))~~ if he had affixed stamps to the unstamped cigarettes. Such remittance shall be made at the same time and manner as remittances of the retail sales tax as required under chapters 82.08 and 82.32 RCW. In the event the retailer fails to collect the tax from the buyer or transferee, or fails to remit the same, the retailer shall be personally liable therefor, and shall be subject to the administrative provisions of RCW 82.24.230 with respect to the collection thereof by the department. The provisions of this section shall not relieve the buyer or possessor of unstamped cigarettes from personal liability for the tax imposed by ~~((RCW 82.24.020, 82.24.025, and 28A.47.440))~~ this chapter.

Nothing in this section shall relieve a wholesaler or a retailer from the requirements of affixing stamps pursuant to RCW 82.24.040 and 82.24.050.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDonald: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would rise to make a motion that this expands the scope and object of the bill. I would argue that this is an extremely lengthy bill and it becomes a proposed vehicle for other Senate Bills and most notable the basic health care plan, Senate Bill No. 3320, which establishes a basic health plan. This bill has been found to be tagged on at the end of 1077 as a proposed amendment; if you look at Section 12 on page 9 and subsequent sections. The original bill, Engrossed Substitute House Bill 1077 represents the outgrowth of two studies ordered by the 1984 legislature and it's designed to insure that the state be prudent in its purchase of health care and explore ways to be wise and efficient in the use of the state expenditures. House Bill 1077 created a state health care purchasing unit within OFM which was charged with a certain degree of oversight in the state's health care purchase.

"In conjunction with that original intent and for the purposes of 1077, it does the following: It allows the schools and the ESDs that were granted options for self funding and self insurance--they also have a medical aid fund in Labor and Industries which would then be subject to legislative appropriation and L & I is to report on methods to achieve cost savings. In other words, 1077 clearly is an exploration of implementation of cost-saving measures in the state agencies' expenditure of health care. The committee striking amendment greatly expands that in order to establish an entirely new entity that was not in 1077--a new scheme of health care, of enrollment and it's financed by a tax increase. While 1077 is limited to oversight and improvement of agencies purchase of health care, the proposed amendment would also establish a new delivery system to administer this new entity and a newly defined group of potential recipients that would enact new taxes to finance the program. For these reasons, I challenge the scope and object of the amendment."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1077 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 227, by Committee on Financial Institutions and Insurance (originally sponsored by Representatives Lux, Ballard, Jacobsen, Winsley, Leonard, Baugher, Unsoeld, Patrick, Chandler, Rayburn, Braddock, Brough, Lewis, Miller, Van Luven, May, Taylor, D. Nelson and Schoon)

Requiring liability insurance or other proof of financial responsibility for operation of a motor vehicle.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment was adopted:

On page 1, following line 19, insert a new subsection as follows:

"(3) A policy of insurance issued as required by this chapter or pursuant to RCW 46.29 may contain conditions and limitations commonly used in motor vehicle insurance policies including but not limited to the following:

(a) Reasonably prompt written notice of accident or loss and prompt delivery to the company of a claim or suit papers;

(b) Cooperation in the defense of any claim and attendance at proceedings and hearings;

(c) Notification and payment of premiums for any newly acquired or replacement vehicle;

(d) Named driver or under-age driver limitations;

(e) Permissive use by the named insured of a non-owned vehicle and permissive use of the insured vehicle by other persons;

(f) Limitation of coverage to the named insured or organizations defined as persons insured."

MOTION

Senator Newhouse moved that the following amendment by Senators Newhouse, Talmadge, Moore and Owen be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is a privilege granted by the state to operate a motor vehicle upon the highways of this state. The legislature recognizes the threat that uninsured drivers are to the people of the state. In order to alleviate the threat posed by uninsured drivers, it is the intent of the legislature to require that no application for an original motor vehicle license or for renewal or reinstatement of a vehicle license will be approved unless accompanied by evidence of insurance as set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) On and after January 1, 1986, no application for an original motor vehicle license or for renewal or reinstatement of a motor vehicle license may be approved or validated unless the applicant certifies that a motor vehicle insurance policy or a surety bond issued by a company authorized to do business in this state or surplus line coverage under chapter 48.15 RCW is in effect in at least the amounts specified in RCW 46.29.490 on account of any accident in which the vehicle is involved. A certificate of deposit of money or securities, as provided in RCW 46.29.550, or a certificate of self-insurance, as provided in RCW 46.29.630, meets the requirements of this section.

(2) It is unlawful to wilfully falsify insurance information submitted to the department pursuant to subsection (1) of this section or section 5 of this act. Violation of this subsection is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or thirty days imprisonment or both.

(3) The department shall annually verify on a random audit basis by negative verification the insurance information contained in at least one percent of all certifications received pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

For purposes of this section, "negative verification" means that an insurer or surety shall be required to notify the department, upon inquiry by the department, only if the insurer or surety determines that no insurance policy or bond issued by it was in force at the time for which the department is inquiring.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) On or after January 1, 1986, it is unlawful to operate a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW in this state unless the vehicle is insured against liability as provided in RCW 46.29.490, by a bond under RCW 46.29.520, by a certificate of deposit under RCW 46.29.550, or by self-insurance under RCW 46.29.630.

(2) Violation of this section is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or thirty days imprisonment or both.

(3) A policy of insurance issued as required by this chapter or pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW may contain conditions and limitations commonly used in motor vehicle insurance policies including but not limited to the following:

(a) Reasonably prompt written notice of accident or loss and prompt delivery to the company of a claim or suit papers;

(b) Cooperation in the defense of any claim and attendance at proceedings and hearings;

(c) Notification and payment of premiums for any newly acquired or replacement vehicle;

(d) Named driver or under-age driver limitations;

(e) Permissive use by the named insured of a nonowned vehicle and permissive use of the insured vehicle by other persons;

(f) Limitation of coverage to the named insured or organizations defined as persons insured.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An insurance carrier who issues a policy required by this chapter shall also furnish the policy holder with the carrier's name, the policy number, and the identification number of the vehicle insured under the policy. The policy holder shall transfer this information to the reverse side of the current vehicle registration or otherwise keep this information in written form in the vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) A law enforcement officer requiring an operator of a motor vehicle subject to registration under chapter 46.16 RCW to produce for inspection a driver's license shall also require the operator to produce the information required by section 4 of this act.

(2) If the operator of the motor vehicle is unable to produce the information as required, the operator shall be charged with a violation of section 3 of this act. If the operator can demonstrate to the court that liability insurance was in effect on the vehicle at the time of the inspection, the charge against the driver shall be reduced to a traffic infraction of failure to show proof of insurance. The infraction is punishable by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act do not apply to motor vehicles registered with the Washington utilities and transportation commission as common or contract carriers.

Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 11, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 30, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.52.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The driver of any vehicle involved in an accident resulting in injury to or death of any person or damage to the property of any one person to an apparent extent of three hundred dollars or more, shall, within twenty-four hours after such accident, make a written report of such accident to the chief of police of the city or town if such accident occurred within an incorporated city or town or the county sheriff or state patrol if such accident occurred outside incorporated cities and towns.

(2) If such accident was not investigated by a law enforcement officer, the original of such report shall be immediately forwarded by the authority receiving such report to the chief of the Washington state patrol at Olympia, Washington, and the second copy of such report to be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(3) If such accident was investigated by a law enforcement officer, the original of each driver's report required by subsection (1) of this section shall be retained by the local law enforcement agency where the accident occurred, and the second copy shall be forwarded to the department of licensing at Olympia, Washington.

(4) Any law enforcement officer who investigates an accident for which a driver's report is required under subsection (1) of this section shall submit an investigator's report as required by RCW 46.52.070.

(5) The chief of the Washington state patrol may require any driver of any vehicle involved in an accident, of which report must be made as provided in this section, to file supplemental reports whenever the original report in his opinion is insufficient, and may likewise require witnesses of any such accident to render reports. For this purpose, the chief of the Washington state patrol shall prepare and, upon request, supply to any police department, coroner, sheriff, and any other suitable agency or individual, sample forms of accident reports required hereunder, which reports shall be upon a form devised by the chief of the Washington state patrol and shall call for sufficiently detailed information to disclose all material facts with reference to the accident to be reported thereon, including the location, the cause, the conditions then existing, and the persons and vehicles involved, personal injury or death, if any, the amounts of property damage claimed, the total number of vehicles involved, whether the vehicles were legally parked, legally standing, or moving, and whether such vehicles were occupied at the time of the accident. The accident report shall also contain sufficient information to permit verification of motor vehicle liability insurance. The department shall verify on a random audit basis the insurance information contained in at least five percent of the accident reports received pursuant to this section. Every required accident report shall be made on a form prescribed by the chief of the Washington state patrol and each authority charged with the duty of receiving such reports shall provide sufficient report forms in compliance with the form devised. The report forms shall be designated so as to provide that a copy may be retained by the reporting person.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 6, chapter 164, Laws of 1983 and RCW 46.63.020 are each amended to read as follows:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 82.14 RCW to read as follows:

On and after July 1, 1985, through June 30, 1991, the legislative authority of any city having a population over one hundred forty thousand may impose a sales and use tax of up to one-tenth of one percent of the selling price (in the case of a sales tax) or value of the article used (in the case of a use tax). The tax authorized by this section is in addition to the tax authorized by RCW 82.14.030 and 82.14.045 and shall be collected from those persons who are taxable by the state pursuant to chapters 82.08 and 82.12 RCW upon the occurrence of any taxable event within such city. This section shall expire June 30, 1992."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Wojahn this is a different--they are not going to have the two cents a gallon tax?"

Senator Wojahn: "No, that's been dropped."

Senator Rasmussen: "But within the city, they will charge one-tenth of one percent?"

Senator Wojahn: "They could, if they wish to assess up to one-tenth of one cent on the existing sales tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "What would one-tenth raise?"

Senator Wojahn: "It would raise about six million dollars. That's the estimate I have, between five and six million. It raises more than the gasoline tax."

Senator Rasmussen: "Did they give up on the two cents a gallon?"

Senator Wojahn: "I didn't give up. The House gave up on me and I'm doing the best I can, Senator."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I guess I would raise scope and object on it. A sales tax is an entirely different approach. The original proposal of two cents a gallon would kill all of the gasoline dealers in town and this certainly wouldn't set within the scope and object of the legislation we are considering."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Have you made the point of order or did you say you would think about it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "I hesitate to make a scope and object with my back to my colleague, but I think that it is a scope and object case on the amendment."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 187 was deferred.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 1094, by Representatives L. Smith, Dellwo, Brooks, Schmidt, Rayburn and Bond

Expanding eligibility for issuance of identicards.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 1094 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Stratton: "Senator Peterson, when the Department issues these cards, will they ask, especially in the case of young people, for proof of age?"

Senator Peterson: "Well, I would assume so. That would be automatic for that purpose to avoid illegal use of the card."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 1094 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 47.

Excused: Senators Granlund, Moore - 2.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1094, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1077 and the pending striking amendment by Senator McDermott, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator McDonald, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 1077 is a measure implementing procedures to control and monitor health care costs including expansion of managed health care programs and creation of a state health care purchasing unit in O.F.M.

"The amendment proposed by Senator McDermott establishes a statewide managed health care plan called the basic health plan designed to control the costs of physician and hospital services and requires certificate of need review for all medical equipment costing in excess of one million dollars.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator McDermott was ruled in order.

MOTION

Senator Bluechel moved the following amendment to the amendment be adopted:

On page 6, line 2, of the amendment, strike Sec. 9 through line 11 on page 8.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Bottiger, you indicated that the hospitals didn't get a certificate of need and then a couple of doctors opened a clinic and bought the same equipment--is that right?"

Senator Bottiger: "There's all kinds of examples. I'm sure Senator McDermott could give you some. I think there's a body scanner one in Tacoma where the hospital knew they couldn't get it and there's a loophole in the law by doctors putting one in an office and the hospital refers all the patients over there. By the way, Senator, then they send the bill to Labor and Industries and we pay it."

Senator Rasmussen: "That's what I fail to understand. What is the difference if they have it and they bill the same amount to Labor and Industries as the hospital would?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, existing law does not cover doctor's clinics--under a certificate of need--and so the doctors discovered a loophole and while the hospital was covered, a doctor's office was not, so they'd buy it and put it in the doctor's office. Senator McDermott's bill closes the loophole."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. There are two amendments by Senator Bluechel. I heard both of them being discussed. The one on page 6 which simply reduces the expansion of the certificate of need and the one on page 27 which would repeal the certificate of need, and my point of inquiry is--which amendment, Mr. President, are we voting on? Is it the one on page 6 which does not expand it or the one on page 27 which repeals it?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The amendment on page 6."

Senator Lee: "The one that does not expand it, and the other one would be subsequent to that?"

President Cherberg: "Yes."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Bluechel demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Bluechel to the amendment by Senator McDermott.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bluechel carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 22; absent, 2; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Guess, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Saling, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 23.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, McManus, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Williams, Wojahn - 22.

Absent: Senators Garrett, Warnke - 2.

Excused: Senators Granlund, Moore - 2.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment by Senators McDermott, Lee, Zimmerman and Thompson to the Committee on Transportation amendment was adopted:

On page 7, after line 11 of the amendment, strike all material down through "1985." on line 16 and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND POLICY. The legislature finds that there exists in the state of Washington over four billion dollars worth of critical projects for the planning, acquisition, construction, repair, replacement, rehabilitation, or improvement of streets and roads, bridges, water systems, and storm and sanitary sewage systems. The December, 1983 Washington state public works report prepared by the planning and community affairs agency documented that local governments expect to be capable of financing over two billion dollars worth of the costs of those critical projects but will not be able to fund nearly half of the documented needs. It is the policy of the state of Washington to encourage self-reliance by local governments in meeting their public works needs and to assist in the financing of critical public works projects by making loans, financing guarantees, and technical assistance available to local governments for these projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the public works board created in section 13 of this act.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Financing guarantees" means the pledge of money in the public works assistance account, or money to be received by the public works assistance account, to the repayment of all or a portion of the principal or of interest on obligations issued by local governments to finance public works projects.

(4) "Local governments" means cities, towns, counties, special purpose districts, and any other municipal corporations or quasi-municipal corporations in the state excluding school districts and port districts.

(5) "Public works project" means a project of a local government for the planning, acquisition, construction, repair, reconstruction, replacement, rehabilitation, or improvement of streets and roads, bridges, water systems, or storm and sanitary sewage systems.

(6) "Technical assistance" means training and other services provided to local governments to (a) help such local governments plan, apply, and qualify for loans and financing guarantees from the board and (b) help local governments improve their ability to plan for, finance, acquire, construct, repair, replace, rehabilitate, and maintain public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PUBLIC WORKS BOARD CREATED. (1) The public works board is hereby created.

(2) The board shall be composed of thirteen members appointed by the governor for terms of four years, except that five members initially shall be appointed for terms of two years. The board shall include: (a) Three members, two of whom shall be elected officials and one shall be a public works manager, appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the association of Washington cities or its successor; (b) three members, two of whom shall be elected officials and one shall be a public works manager, appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the Washington state association of counties or its successor; (c) three members appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated jointly by the Washington state association of water districts, the Washington public utility districts association, and the Washington state association of sewer districts or their successors; and (d) four members appointed from the general public. In appointing the four general public members, the governor shall endeavor to balance the geographical composition of the board and to include members with special expertise in relevant fields such as public finance, architecture and civil engineering, and public works. The governor shall appoint one of the general public members of the board as chair. The term of the chair shall coincide with the term of the governor.

(3) Staff support to the board shall be provided by the department.

(4) Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) If a vacancy on the board occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the vacant position for the unexpired term. Each vacancy in a position appointed from lists provided by the associations under subsection (2) of this section shall be filled from a list of at least three persons nominated by the relevant association or associations. Any members of the board, appointive or otherwise, may be removed by the governor for cause in accordance with RCW 43.06.070 and 43.06.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. GENERAL POWERS OF THE BOARD. The board may:

(1) Accept from any state or federal agency, loans or grants for the planning or financing of any public works project and enter into agreements with any such agency concerning the loans or grants;

(2) Provide technical assistance to local governments;

(3) Accept any gifts, grants, or loans of funds, property, or financial or other aid in any form from any other source on any terms and conditions which are not in conflict with this chapter;

(4) Adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(5) Do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted or implied under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. PUBLIC WORKS FINANCING POWERS. In order to aid the financing of public works projects, the board may:

(1) Make low-interest or interest-free loans to local governments from the public works assistance account or other funds and accounts for the purpose of assisting local governments in financing public works projects. The board may require such terms and conditions and may charge such rates of interest on its loans as it deems necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Money received from local governments in repayment of loans made under this section shall be paid into the public works assistance account for uses consistent with this chapter.

(2) Pledge money in the public works assistance account, or money to be received by the public works assistance account, to the repayment of all or a portion of the principal or interest on obligations issued by local governments to finance public works projects. The board shall not pledge any amount greater than the sum of money in the public works assistance account plus money to be received from the payment of the debt service on loans made from that account, nor shall the board pledge the faith and credit or the taxing power of the state or any agency or subdivision thereof to the repayment of obligations issued by any local government.

(3) Create such subaccounts in the public works assistance account as the board deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) Provide a method for the allocation of loans and financing guarantees and the provision of technical assistance under this chapter.

All local public works projects aided in whole or in part under the provisions of this chapter shall be put out for competitive bids. The competitive bids called for shall be administered in the same manner as all other public works projects put out for competitive bidding by the local governmental entity aided under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. ELIGIBILITY AND PRIORITY. (1) To qualify for loans or pledges under this chapter the board must determine that a local government meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The city or county must be imposing a tax under chapter 82.46 RCW at a rate of at least one-quarter of one percent;

(b) The local government must have developed a long-term plan for financing public works needs; and

(c) The local government must be using all local revenue sources which are reasonably available for funding public works, taking into consideration local employment and economic factors.

(2) The board shall develop a priority process for public works projects as provided in this section. The intent of the priority process is to maximize the value of public works projects accomplished with assistance under this chapter. The board shall attempt to assure a geographical balance in assigning priorities to projects. The board shall consider at least the following factors in assigning a priority to a project:

(a) Whether the local government receiving assistance has experienced severe fiscal distress resulting from natural disaster or emergency public works needs;

(b) Whether the project is critical in nature and would affect the health and safety of a great number of citizens;

(c) The cost of the project compared to the size of the local government and amount of loan money available;

(d) The number of communities served by or funding the project; and

(e) Other criteria that the board considers advisable.

(5) Existing debt or financial obligations of local governments shall not be refinanced under this chapter. Each local government applicant shall provide documentation of attempts to secure additional local or other sources of funding for each public works project for which financial assistance is sought under this chapter.

(6) Before November 1 of each year, the board shall develop and submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives a prioritized list of projects which are recommended for funding by the legislature. The list shall include, but not be limited to, a description of each project and recommended financing, the terms and conditions of the loan or financial guarantee, the local government jurisdiction and unemployment rate, demonstration of the jurisdiction's critical need for the project and documentation of local funds being used to finance the public works project. The list shall also include measures of fiscal capacity for each jurisdiction recommended for financial assistance, compared to authorized limits and state averages, including local government sales taxes; real estate excise taxes; property taxes; and charges for or taxes on sewerage, water, garbage, and other utilities.

(7) The board shall not sign contracts or otherwise financially obligate funds from the public works assistance account before the legislature has appropriated funds for a specific list of public works projects. The legislature may remove projects from the list recommended by the board. The legislature shall not change the order of the priorities recommended for funding by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. PUBLIC WORKS ASSISTANCE ACCOUNT. The public works assistance account is hereby established in the state treasury. Money may be placed in the public works assistance account from the proceeds of bonds when authorized by the legislature or from any other lawful source. Money in the public works assistance account shall be used to make loans and to give financial guarantees in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. RECORDS, AUDITS, AND REPORTS. The board shall keep proper records of accounts and shall be subject to audit by the state auditor. Biennial reports on the activities of the board shall be made by the chair to the governor and the legislature.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND POLICY. The legislature finds that there exists in the state of Washington over four billion dollars worth of critical projects for the planning, acquisition, construction, repair, replacement, rehabilitation, or improvement of streets and roads, bridges, water systems, and storm and sanitary sewage systems. The December, 1983 Washington state public works report prepared by the planning and community affairs agency documented that local governments expect to be capable of financing over two billion dollars worth of the costs of those critical projects but will not be able to fund nearly half of the documented needs. It is the policy of the state of Washington to encourage self-reliance by local governments in meeting their public works needs and to assist in the financing of critical public works projects by making loans, financing guarantees, and technical assistance available to local governments for these projects.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the public works board created in section 13 of this act.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Financing guarantees" means the pledge of money in the public works assistance account, or money to be received by the public works assistance account, to the repayment of all or a portion of the principal of or interest on obligations issued by local governments to finance public works projects.

(4) "Local governments" means cities, towns, counties, special purpose districts, and any other municipal corporations or quasi-municipal corporations in the state excluding school districts and port districts.

(5) "Public works project" means a project of a local government for the planning, acquisition, construction, repair, reconstruction, replacement, rehabilitation, or improvement of streets and roads, bridges, water systems, or storm and sanitary sewage systems.

(6) "Technical assistance" means training and other services provided to local governments to (a) help such local governments plan, apply, and qualify for loans and financing guarantees from the board and (b) help local governments improve their ability to plan for, finance, acquire, construct, repair, replace, rehabilitate, and maintain public facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. PUBLIC WORKS BOARD CREATED. (1) The public works board is hereby created.

(2) The board shall be composed of thirteen members appointed by the governor for terms of four years, except that five members initially shall be appointed for terms of two years. The board shall include: (a) Three members, two of whom shall be elected officials and one shall be a public works manager, appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the association of Washington cities or its successor; (b) three members, two of whom shall be elected officials and one shall be a public works manager, appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated by the Washington state association of counties or its successor; (c) three members appointed from a list of at least six persons nominated jointly by the Washington state association of water districts, the Washington public utility districts association, and the Washington state association of sewer districts or their successors; and (d) four members appointed from the general public. In appointing the four general public members, the governor shall endeavor to balance the geographical composition of the board and to include members with special expertise in relevant fields such as public finance, architecture and civil engineering, and public works. The governor shall appoint one of the general public members of the board as chair. The term of the chair shall coincide with the term of the governor.

(3) Staff support to the board shall be provided by the department.

(4) Members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(5) If a vacancy on the board occurs by death, resignation, or otherwise, the governor shall fill the vacant position for the unexpired term. Each vacancy in a position appointed from lists provided by the associations under subsection (2) of this section shall be filled from a list of at least three persons nominated by the relevant association or associations. Any members of the board, appointive or otherwise, may be removed by the governor for cause in accordance with RCW 43.06.070 and 43.06.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. GENERAL POWERS OF THE BOARD. The board may:

(1) Accept from any state or federal agency, loans or grants for the planning or financing of any public works project and enter into agreements with any such agency concerning the loans or grants;

(2) Provide technical assistance to local governments;

(3) Accept any gifts, grants, or loans of funds, property, or financial or other aid in any form from any other source on any terms and conditions which are not in conflict with this chapter;

(4) Adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(5) Do all acts and things necessary or convenient to carry out the powers expressly granted or implied under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. PUBLIC WORKS FINANCING POWERS. In order to aid the financing of public works projects, the board may:

(1) Make low-interest or interest-free loans to local governments from the public works assistance account or other funds and accounts for the purpose of assisting local governments in financing public works projects. The board may require such terms and conditions and may charge such rates of interest on its loans as it deems necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes of this chapter. Money received from local governments in repayment of loans made under this section shall be paid into the public works assistance account for uses consistent with this chapter.

(2) Pledge money in the public works assistance account, or money to be received by the public works assistance account, to the repayment of all or a portion of the principal or interest on obligations issued by local governments to finance public works projects. The board shall not pledge any amount greater than the sum of money in the public works assistance account plus money to be received from the payment of the debt service on loans made from that account, nor shall the board pledge the faith and credit or the taxing power of the state or any agency or subdivision thereof to the repayment of obligations issued by any local government.

(3) Create such subaccounts in the public works assistance account as the board deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(4) Provide a method for the allocation of loans and financing guarantees and the provision of technical assistance under this chapter.

All local public works projects aided in whole or in part under the provisions of this chapter shall be put out for competitive bids. The competitive bids called for shall be administered in the same manner as all other public works projects put out for competitive bidding by the local governmental entity aided under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. ELIGIBILITY AND PRIORITY. (1) To qualify for loans or pledges under this chapter the board must determine that a local government meets all of the following conditions:

(a) The city or county must be imposing a tax under chapter 82.46 RCW at a rate of at least one-quarter of one percent;

(b) The local government must have developed a long-term plan for financing public works needs; and

(c) The local government must be using all local revenue sources which are reasonably available for funding public works, taking into consideration local employment and economic factors.

(2) The board shall develop a priority process for public works projects as provided in this section. The intent of the priority process is to maximize the value of public works projects accomplished with assistance under this chapter. The board shall attempt to assure a geographical balance in assigning priorities to projects. The board shall consider at least the following factors in assigning a priority to a project:

(a) Whether the local government receiving assistance has experienced severe fiscal distress resulting from natural disaster or emergency public works needs;

(b) Whether the project is critical in nature and would affect the health and safety of a great number of citizens;

(c) The cost of the project compared to the size of the local government and amount of loan money available;

(d) The number of communities served by or funding the project; and

(e) Other criteria that the board considers advisable.

(5) Existing debt or financial obligations of local governments shall not be refinanced under this chapter. Each local government applicant shall provide documentation of attempts to secure additional local or other sources of funding for each public works project for which financial assistance is sought under this chapter.

(6) Before November 1 of each year, the board shall develop and submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives a prioritized list of projects which are recommended for funding by the legislature. The list shall include, but not be limited to, a description of each project and recommended financing, the terms and conditions of the loan or financial guarantee, the local government jurisdiction and unemployment rate, demonstration of the jurisdiction's critical need for the project and documentation of local funds being used to finance the public works project. The list shall also include measures of fiscal capacity for each jurisdiction recommended for financial assistance, compared to authorized limits and state averages, including local government sales taxes; real estate excise taxes; property taxes; and charges for or taxes on sewerage, water, garbage, and other utilities.

(7) The board shall not sign contracts or otherwise financially obligate funds from the public works assistance account before the legislature has appropriated funds for a specific list of public works projects. The legislature may remove projects from the list recommended by the board. The legislature shall not change the order of the priorities recommended for funding by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. PUBLIC WORKS ASSISTANCE ACCOUNT. The public works assistance account is hereby established in the state treasury. Money may be placed in the public works assistance account from the proceeds of bonds when authorized by the legislature or from any other lawful source. Money in the public works assistance account shall be used to make loans and to give financial guarantees in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. RECORDS, AUDITS, AND REPORTS. The board shall keep proper records of accounts and shall be subject to audit by the state auditor. Biennial reports on the activities of the board shall be made by the chair to the governor and the legislature.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 187 and the pending amendment by Senators Wojahn and Talmadge, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 187 is a measure allowing counties to use road improvement districts or service districts to improve state highways within the boundaries of the county.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Wojahn and Talmadge allows certain cities to impose a sales tax of up to one-tenth of one percent to finance construction projects crossing a waterway within the city.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 187, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Peterson, is it based on area for individual property owners and how wide could it encompass where the people would have to pay for the new LID assessment?"

Senator Peterson: "It would be within the perimeter of the district that would be interested in forming a LID."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, if I had an acreage that I was developing—forty miles back, I could include all the other people in there, so I could have the improvements with a highway system—even though the people didn't want the improvements, but they would be wrapped into the LID?"

Senator Peterson: "No, you couldn't do that unless the LID was approved by majority vote."

Senator Rasmussen: "That was why I was asking whether it was on area or owners, because that is what has happened many times in the past. Somebody with fifty/seventy-five acres has wrapped up a number of small people within the LID—but they had the area. Now, how does the bill work?"

Senator Peterson: "The way I understand it—the property owners adjacent to or on any state highway—this refers, as you recall, to a state highway, if it doesn't happen to be on the priority system. If the property owner adjacent to or on that road wanted to improve it for some unknown reason, they would have the opportunity to form the LID and do it."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 187, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 187, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 5; excused, 2.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognlid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Cantu, Craswell, McCaslin, Pullen, Rasmussen - 5.

Excused: Senators Granlund, Moore - 2.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 187, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 123, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.95.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

(1) Continuing technological changes in methods of manufacture, packaging, and marketing of consumer products, together with the economic and population growth of this state, the rising affluence of its citizens, and its expanding industrial activity have created new and ever-mounting problems involving disposal of garbage, refuse, and solid waste materials resulting from domestic, agricultural, and industrial activities.

(2) Traditional methods of disposing of solid wastes in this state are no longer adequate to meet the ever-increasing problem. Improper methods and practices of handling and disposal of solid wastes pollute our land, air and water resources, blight our countryside, adversely affect land values, and damage the overall quality of our environment.

(3) Considerations of natural resource limitations, energy shortages, economics and the environment make necessary the development and implementation of solid waste recovery and/or recycling plans and programs.

(4) The following priorities in the management of solid waste are necessary and should be followed in order of descending priority as applicable:

- (a) Waste reduction;
- (b) Waste recycling;
- (c) Energy recovery or incineration; and
- (d) Landfill.

(5) There is an imperative need to anticipate, plan for, and accomplish effective storage, control, recovery, and recycling of discarded vehicle tires with the subsequent conservation of resources and energy.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 41, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.95.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to establish a comprehensive state-wide program for solid waste handling, and solid waste recovery and/or recycling which will prevent land, air, and water pollution and conserve the natural, economic, and energy resources of this state. To this end it is the purpose of this chapter:

(1) To assign primary responsibility for adequate solid waste handling to local government, reserving to the state, however, those functions necessary to assure effective programs throughout the state;

(2) To provide for adequate planning for solid waste handling by local government;

(3) To provide for the adoption and enforcement of basic minimum performance standards for solid waste handling;

(4) To provide technical and financial assistance to local governments in the planning, development, and conduct of solid waste handling programs;

(5) To encourage storage, proper disposal, and recycling of discarded vehicle tires and to stimulate private recycling programs throughout the state.

It is the intent of the legislature that local governments be encouraged to use the expertise of private industry and to contract with private industry to the fullest extent possible to carry out solid waste recovery and/or recycling programs.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 123, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.95.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(11) "Waste reduction" means reducing the amount or type of waste generated.

(12) "Waste recycling" means reusing waste materials and extracting valuable materials from a waste stream.

There is levied and there shall be collected by the department of revenue from every person engaging within this state in business making retail sales of new replacement vehicle tires, an annual assessment equal to the gross proceeds of the sales of new replacement vehicle tires sold within this state, multiplied by twelve hundredths of one percent. All of the applicable provisions of chapter 82.32 RCW have full force and application with respect to taxes imposed under this section. For the purposes of this section, "new replacement vehicle tires" means tires that are newly manufactured for vehicle purposes and does not include retreaded vehicle tires.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is created an account within the state treasury to be known as the vehicle tire recycling account. All assessments, fines, bail forfeitures and other funds collected or received under this chapter shall be deposited in the vehicle tire recycling account and used for the administration and implementation of this chapter as provided by section 7 of this act.

The plan shall relate to solid waste management for twenty years in the future and shall be reviewed biennially, revised as necessary, and extended so that perpetually the plan shall look to the future for twenty years as a guide in carrying out a state coordinated solid waste management program.

(3) Provide technical assistance to any person as well as to cities, counties, and industries.

(4) Initiate, conduct, and support research, demonstration projects, and investigations, and coordinate research programs pertaining to solid waste management systems.

(6) May, under the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, from time to time promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. To aid in the state-wide tire recycling campaign, the legislature strongly encourages various industry organizations which are active in resource recycling efforts to provide active cooperation with the department of ecology so that additional technology can be developed for the tire recycling campaign.

On page 4, line 31, after "assessments" strike ", fines, bail forfeitures."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Talmadge to the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following amendment to the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

On page 5, line 27, delete "vehicle" and insert "tire."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, this provides penalties of two hundred to two thousand dollars per offense. It says the Ecology Department may exempt persons. There is nothing that says they have to--if I have a tire in my back yard. Then my second question would be the tax that is imposed. Does that mean my local dump, because they are already taxing me once cannot charge me again for the disposing of tires? And does that same thing relate to the commercial establishments that have a lot of tires to get rid of?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Rasmussen, this is speaking to the committee amendment rather than the technical amendment that we have before us, but the language we have in our committee amendment takes care of the very problem that you are describing--to make sure that somebody who may be a tire dealer and has a few tires stacked up behind their place or a person who puts a couple tires out on a vacant lot behind their house, will not be affected. We want to make sure that that would be the situation. We're looking at only those big tire dumps that are collectors and that somebody then walks away from and we, then, inherit the problem to catch on fire, or one thing or another."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kreidler to the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

The time having arrived for the special order of business, the Senate began consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3654.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3654, by Senator McDermott

Relating to the capital budget.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3654 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3654 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Bottiger moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 67, beginning on line 9, strike everything down to and including "provided." on line 13 and insert:

"This appropriation shall lapse unless the state, or the city and/or county of Spokane, within one year of the effective date of this act imposes either a hotel/motel tax or other local option tax. Revenues generated by such tax shall be dedicated for reimbursement of the bond principal and interest provided in SB 3679. Alternatively, the city and/or county of Spokane may pledge revenues from municipal bonds to retire the bond debt provided in SB 3679."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bottiger, I can understand your efforts, but why is the state involved? The second line says, 'unless the state or the city or county?'"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Newhouse, apparently the hotel/motel tax which was used to build the King Dome is a state statute and they wanted to preserve that option that in January they would come down with a recommendation that we pass a state statute applying to a hotel/motel tax in the city of Spokane. I candidly can't tell you why they can't use the one in Seattle."

Senator Newhouse: "They might suggest that they have hotels with units of two hundred or more so nobody has to pay it."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I don't know. They asked for that option and it seemed reasonable to me."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McManus moved that the following amendment by Senators McManus and Wojahn be adopted:

On page 92, after line 31, insert the following:

*NEW SECTION, Sec. 714. A new section is added to read as follows:

The office of financial management shall submit each agency's proposal for a capital project or capital improvement project together with each agency's master development plan, environmental impact statement and any supporting material to the capital projects review committee no later than the twentieth day of October, 1986: PROVIDED, That if a capital project proposal or capital improvement project proposal is submitted for a fiscal period other than a biennium, the proposal shall be submitted no less than eighty days prior to the first day of the session at which such proposal is to be considered.

The capital projects review committee shall consider the feasibility and necessity of each proposal for a capital project or capital improvement project. The committee shall recommend approval, modification, or rejection of the funding of each proposal.

The capital projects review committee is hereby established and shall be composed of the chairpersons of the senate and house of representatives ways and means committees, and one member appointed by each caucus.

The capital projects review committee may establish an ad hoc advisory committee composed of representatives of the private sector and the public to advise the review committee on project proposals."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President, it appears to me that this is a statutory section to go in the RCWs and should not be a part of the budget bill. Perhaps to be more to the point, I'll raise the issue that this expands the scope and object of the budget bill and should not be in the bill."

Further debate ensued.

There being no objection, the President declared that further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3654 would be deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 758, by Representatives Locke, Miller, Armstrong, Nealey, Jacobsen, Patrick, Gallagher, Barnes, Unsoeld, D. Nelson, Isaacson, Todd, Van Luven, Madsen, Addison and Wineberry

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Williams, I'm interested, number one, in the troubled damages. We very rarely apply troubled damages in our legislation except in the most egregious circumstances. I'm also worried about the fact that, as I understand, if there's evidence of tampering with the meter—is that prima facia evidence if the owner did the tampering?"

Senator Williams: "It does shift the burden of proof to the owner of the building, if in fact, the meter has been tampered with."

Senator Pullen: "Does the owner have to prove that he did not do the tampering then?"

Senator Williams: "Yes. I might add, though, that in that case you are dealing with the damages that are involved in the amount of electricity that has been lost or stolen and the damage to the actual facility. That's what we're talking about."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 758.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 54 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Williams, is this similar legislation to what some other states have adopted--or do you know?"

Senator Williams: "I can't answer that question. I don't know what the pattern is of other states."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. There's a doctrine in the law called 'Res Ipsa Loquitor.' There's a very ancient English case where the safe fell out of a second story window onto a passerby on the sidewalk. An English court, which was one to quote Latin, at the time, adopted the doctrine of 'Res Ipsa Loquitor.' If the product or the commodity is in the hands of the individual and it escapes, who should have to explain how it got away from him? What this bill does is simply apply that doctrine to the handlers of high level nuclear waste. If it gets away from you, then you have to prove that it wasn't because you were negligent--rather than the outside trying to prove it was. This is a shift of the burden of proof to the handlers of a dangerous commodity."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Bottiger, do you know the answer to my question?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, with or without a statute, I would argue 'Res Ipsa Loquitor'--if something like that got away from somebody, it just simply makes it clear. Another case where it applies is if you go to the hospital and you come home with a sponge in your stomach--Res Ipsa Loquitor or the hospital--has to explain how it got there and that they weren't negligent. I don't see anything startling about this bill, candidly."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Talmadge, as this reads to me--anyone that's transporting or moving any nuclear waste would be found guilty and we have so many tariffs out there and people fighting to keep nuclear waste--the white trains and all of this--say they went out and sabotaged it and here you're letting them go out and sabotage that and the truck driver or anyone transporting would be found guilty."

Senator Talmadge: "No, not at all, Senator Hansen. I think, in fact, if you had a circumstance like you described and someone intervened--terrorists or something like that, that would be something that the handler of nuclear waste could then pose for the reason of being excused from any fault in the handling of the high-level nuclear waste. This, basically, provided the presumption that says if there is a problem, an accident occurs, that then causes damage--there is a presumption that that person is at fault--then they can present evidence that rebuts the presumption and terrorist activity or any other kind of intervening problem would be something you could use to rebut the presumption."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, you said 'if it causes damage.' What kind of damage? Are you talking about nuclear damage or are you talking about physical damage to a truck or something like that?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, conceivably it could be both. If the circumstance were--a person believes he has been harmed--harm has to occur before a cause of action is said to exist. It has to be a duty owed by the defendant to the plaintiff. The duty has to be breached in some way and a proximate result of the breach, some kind of damage has to occur and damage could be damage to the truck, for example, or could be damage more generally to the environment or adjoining landowner or whatever if the high-level waste were to leak in the course of its transportation."

Senator Guess: "Senator, what I want to make sure is that the damage would be the leakage of high-level nuclear waste. It would not be physical damage by someone running into a truck or a truck running into someone else? This is the thing that worries me."

Senator Talmadge: "It would be only damage caused by the nuclear waste, as I understand it, Senator Guess."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 54 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 39; nays, 6; absent, 1; excused, 3.

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 974, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Kreidler, as I remember it, we extended the life of the Science and Technology Committee to the end of this biennium--if I'm not mistaken. What have we done with this bill?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator McDonald, this bill--the language came over from the House referencing that particular Committee. At this time right now, even though we have taken that action, the House has not, so we are waiting to see if they concur in continuing that Joint Committee and that is the only reason in making the change in referencing which Committee would be involved."

Senator McDonald: "So, we would extend it until the end of this biennium, which would be June 30th, but this bill is neutral on it? It just simply says it will be what?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator McDonald, it is, essentially, a fail-safe mechanism whereby if and when that Committee fails to exist because we don't know if the House is going to go along with the renewal of its continued existence. It's just making sure we have something to fall back on--that there is some Committee reference."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 974, as amended by the Senate.

Senator Kreidler moved that the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. In recognition of the fact that tidelands historically used for shellfish farming are threatened by nonpoint pollution sources that have been identified as resulting from agricultural grazing practices, failing septic drainfield systems, and stormwater runoff; in recognition of the fact that some of the historical and productive shellfish areas within the state already have been contaminated by these pollution sources and as a result may not be used for shellfish farming; and in recognition of the fact that shellfish harvesting both commercially and for home consumption is a way of life in many areas of the state, particularly in the Hood Canal, southern Puget Sound, and Willapa Bay regions, and has been so since before the days of statehood; the legislature hereby encourages all counties having tidelands used for the growing or harvesting of shellfish within their boundaries to immediately establish shellfish protection districts and programs designed to prevent any further degradation and contamination of shellfish growing areas.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For purposes of this chapter, "shellfish tidelands" means all saltwater tidelands on which shellfish are grown or harvested for human consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The legislative authority of each county having shellfish tidelands within its boundaries is authorized to establish a shellfish protection district to include areas in which nonpoint pollution threatens the continuation of shellfish farming or harvesting. The legislative authority shall constitute the governing body of the district and shall adopt a shellfish protection program to be effective within the district. This program may include any elements deemed appropriate to deal with the pollution threat, including, but not limited to, requiring the elimination or decrease of contaminants in stormwater runoff, monitoring programs to make sure that septic drainfield systems are adequately maintained and working properly and that animal grazing practices are appropriate, and educational programs to inform citizens on the causes of the threatening nonpoint pollution and what they can do to decrease the amount of such pollution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The county legislative authority may create a shellfish protection district on its own motion or by submitting the question to the voters of the proposed district and obtaining the approval of a majority of those voting. The boundaries of the district shall be determined by the legislative authority. The legislative authority may create more than one district. A district may include any area within the county, whether incorporated or unincorporated. The legislative authority may abolish a shellfish protection district on its own motion or by submitting the question to the voters of the district and obtaining the approval of a majority of those voting.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. County legislative authorities are encouraged to coordinate their plans and programs to protect shellfish tidelands, especially in respect to shellfish farming areas located within the boundaries of more than one county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Whenever a governmental entity makes a decision which addresses a matter in which there is a conflict between (1) on the one hand, a proposed development, proposed change in land use controls, or proposed change in the provision of utility services; and (2) on the other hand, the long-term use of an area for the growing or harvesting of shellfish, which area is within the boundaries of a shellfish protection district, then the governmental entity making the decision must observe the requirements of chapter 43.21C RCW and county ordinances or resolutions integrating the state environmental policy act of 1971 into the various programs under county jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The county legislative authority establishing a shellfish protection district may finance the protection program through (1) its tax revenues, (2) inspection fees and similar fees or charges specified in its protection program, or (3) federal, state, or private grants.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This chapter shall not be considered as diminishing or affecting the authority of a county to adopt and enforce programs or controls, within all or a portion of the county, to deal with nonpoint pollution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 90 RCW."

If the decision is not made in favor of the long-term use of the area for the growing or harvesting of shellfish, then the governmental entity must justify the decision in writing and submit it into the records of the local governmental entity. The justification shall include an analysis of the potential injuries to, and loss of property values on the part of, the owners of the shellfish lands or the rights to raise or harvest shellfish on the lands. Unless restricted by the legislative authority, this section applies to areas within a shellfish protection district in which shellfish are grown or harvested for commercial or noncommercial purposes"

MOTIONS

Senator Kreidler moved that the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) The Nisqually river, its waters, and beds have been statutorily characterized for more than a decade as an area of state-wide significance by the people of the state;

(b) The river is a highly prized area of great natural beauty that extends through four biological zones of Washington state from the peak of Mount Rainier to the Nisqually Delta;

(c) The productive uses of the river may well be enhanced in terms of recreation, fish and wildlife habitat, forestry, agriculture, and other benefits associated with the basin if a carefully developed program of stewardship for the area is established;

(d) Notwithstanding existing governmental units' management programs, including those developed under the shoreline management act, an optimum management program designed to achieve maximum benefits for the public and the private landowning community for the use of this valuable natural river corridor has not been established;

(e) The Nisqually river corridor has been historically used for such productive uses as agriculture, education, forestry, hunting, fishing, mining, military maneuvers, irrigation, and electric power production.

(2) It is the purpose of this act to initiate a process that emphasizes the natural and economic values of this river of state-wide significance and that will bring about a stewardship program for the Nisqually river that will assure enhancement of economic and recreational benefits for this generation as well as those to come.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) The department of ecology is directed to develop an overall management plan for the Nisqually river consistent with the findings and objectives of section 1 of this act. This plan shall set forth with reasonable specificity, the boundaries of the managed area, the management objectives for the various reaches of the river, the institutional arrangements for carrying out the plan, the moneys and funding sources for successful plan implementation and property owner compensation, and the economic impact on private property owners. If this plan requires private property owners to sell property they own, the property owners shall receive fair market value for their property interests. Taking of less than the fee interest shall be in accordance with RCW 84.34.200 through 84.34.240.

(2) In order to accomplish this task the commission shall establish advisory committees to provide technical assistance and policy guidance. Membership on the advisory committees shall include but not be limited to persons representing the interests of federal, state, and local governmental entities, agriculture, forestry, the Nisqually Indian tribe, other property owners, and environmentalists.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department shall submit a report to the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives not later than January 6, 1986. The report shall set forth a management plan as directed by section 2 of this act and any proposed legislation recommended or required to implement the plan. The plan shall not be implemented before adoption by the legislature.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act shall not limit the rights of private or public property owners without fair monetary compensation nor may this act require that private property owners sell their property for less than fair market value.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, the sum of forty-two thousand five hundred sixteen dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, the city of Tacoma operates two dams on the Nisqually River, will this have any effect on these dams?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Rasmussen, it will not."

Senator Rasmussen: "The Wilcox Farms are on a large stretch of the Nisqually River, will this affect the Wilcox Farms?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator Rasmussen, we are talking about a study; it has absolutely no impact on any entity of the river. The recommendation will come back to the legislature, and any action taken by the legislature is something that would be the result of future legislatures and not the result of this particular legislation."

Senator Rasmussen: "Thank you, Senator. You indicated that various people had been consulted. Would you mind stating who those people were?"

Senator Kreidler: "There were a couple of dairy farmers that have property alongside the Nisqually system who came and testified relative to this legislation; also, the Washington Forest Protection Association—as a couple who would have potential concern in the future. On the side of the port's permit, there was considerable support from the Department of Ecology and from various environmental interested groups and the like."

Senator Rasmussen: "The city of Tacoma was part of the discussion?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator, I believe they were present and they did not wish to testify. They had reviewed the legislation and they did not see any conflict."

The legislature finds that homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state.

The legislature further finds that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, disability of spouse, or other loss of family income of a spouse. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employer's pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age.

It is the purpose of this chapter to establish guidelines under which the ~~((council for postsecondary education))~~ higher education coordinating board shall contract to establish multipurpose service centers and programs to provide necessary training opportunities, counseling, and services for displaced homemakers so that they may enjoy the independence and economic security vital to a productive life.

The commission, subject to dispute resolution rules adopted by said commission, shall have the final determination on any disputes arising out of such program proposals.

In adjudicating disputes between the two secondary and postsecondary education systems regarding the state plan, the commission will use at least the following criteria: Recognition that secondary education is constitutionally the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and that by legislative action postsecondary education is the responsibility of institutions of higher education; adhere to the general policy set forth in the state plan; consider the particular vocational need of the community, region, or state and whether the common school or community college, or both, can best respond to those needs; encourage cooperation and coordination rather than competition and program conflict between secondary and postsecondary education systems; consider the desires and preferences of the residents of the immediate program service area and of the representatives of the fields of management, labor, and agriculture which benefit from possible program offerings; and avoid unnecessary duplication of vocational education programs and facilities.

(3) Vocational education administration. The commission shall be the sole agency for the receipt and allocation of federal funds in accordance with the state plan. The commission shall be the primary state liaison with the federal government for the state plan for vocational education.

(4) Fire service training program. The commission may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the fire service training program established in RCW 28C.04.140.

(c) To help identify, upon the request of business and industry, those educational institutions which could provide the training services sought by business and industry and to identify any existing programs which could serve the particular needs of business and industry;

(d) To provide job skills grants to educational institutions to facilitate the development of programs of job skills training and education consistent with employment needs;

(e) To work cooperatively with the employment security department to enhance and update the state's occupational information system and the state's career information system;

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Rinehart to not adopt the Committee on Education amendment to Engrossed House Bill No. 331.

The motion by Senator Rinehart carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Rinehart, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 331 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDonald: "Senator Rinehart, looking at this, we're striking language like, 'The University of Washington and Washington State University shall embrace as major'--'liberal arts and pure sciences' has been deleted--'mining as well as home economics.' What's the meaning of all this?"

Senator Rinehart: "There are statutes that were designed in 1917 and the purpose was to restrict each of the universities to teaching only those subjects. In theory, without removing those statutes, only those research institutions which have those course titles listed in statutes would be allowed to offer them. For instance, another thing in that same category, it changed--it deletes commerce, journalism and marine engineering from being offered only at the University of Washington. With the 1917 language, according to that, liberal arts, pure sciences and home economics would be exclusive only to Washington State University and the University of Washington."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 331 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; absent, 1; excused, 4.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Cantu, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 44.

Absent: Senator Hayner - 1.

Excused: Senators Granlund, McManus, Moore, Saling - 4.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 331, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 7:14 p.m., on motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate adjourned until 9:00 a.m., Friday, April 19, 1985.

JOHN A. CHERBERG, President of the Senate.

SID SNYDER, Secretary of the Senate.

~~(3) In a prosecution under this section, if evidence has been introduced tending to show the existence at the time the extension of credit in question was made of the circumstances described in RCW 9A.82.020(2) (a) or (b), and direct evidence of the actual belief of the debtor as to the creditor's collection practices is not available, then for the purpose of showing that words or other means of communication, shown to have been employed as a means of collection, in fact carried an express or implicit threat, the court may in its discretion allow evidence to be introduced tending to show the reputation of the defendant in any community of which the person against whom the alleged threat was made was a member at the time of the collection or attempt at collection:))~~

(b) Any ~~((interest in, security of, claims against or property or contractual right of any kind affording a source of influence over))~~ property, contractual right, or claim against property used to influence any enterprise ~~((which))~~ that a person has established, operated, controlled, conducted, or participated in the conduct of, in violation of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080.

(c) All proceeds traceable to or derived from an offense included in the ~~((definition of racketeering))~~ pattern of criminal profiteering activity and all moneys, negotiable instruments, securities, and other things of value significantly used or intended to be used significantly to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(6) A defendant convicted in any criminal proceeding is precluded ~~((from subsequently denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense of which the defendant was convicted))~~ in any civil proceeding from denying the essential allegations of the criminal offense proven in the criminal trial in which the defendant was convicted. For the purposes of this subsection, a conviction shall be deemed to have occurred upon a verdict, finding, or plea of guilty, notwithstanding the fact that ~~((an appeal))~~ appellate review of the conviction and sentence has been or may be ~~((lodged upon any judgment and sentence entered thereon))~~ sought. If a subsequent reversal of the conviction occurs, any judgment that was based upon that conviction may be reopened upon motion of the defendant.

(7) ~~The initiation of civil proceedings ((related to violations of any offense included in the definition of racketeering or a violation of RCW 9A.82.080 shall be commenced within seven years after actual discovery of the violation)) under this section shall be commenced within two years after discovery of the pattern of criminal profiteering activity or after the pattern should reasonably have been discovered.~~

(8) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may, in a civil action brought pursuant to this section, file with the clerk of the superior court a certificate stating that the case is of special public importance. A copy of that certificate shall be furnished immediately by the clerk to the ~~((chief judge or))~~ presiding chief judge of the superior court in which the action is pending and, upon receipt of the copy, the judge shall immediately designate a judge to hear and determine the action. The judge so designated shall promptly assign the action for hearing, participate in the hearings and determination, and cause the action to be expedited.

(9) The standard of proof in actions brought pursuant to this section is the preponderance of the evidence test.

(10) A person other than the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney who files an action under this section shall serve notice and one copy of the pleading on the attorney general within thirty days after the action is filed with the superior court. The notice shall identify the action, the person, and the person's attorney. Service of the notice does not limit or otherwise affect the right of the state to maintain an action under this section or intervene in a pending action nor does it authorize the person to name the state or the attorney general as a party to the action.

(11) Except in cases filed by a county prosecuting attorney, the attorney general may, upon timely application, intervene in any civil action or proceeding brought under this section if the attorney general certifies that in the attorney general's opinion the action is of special public importance. Upon intervention, the attorney general may assert any available claim and is entitled to the same relief as if the attorney general had instituted a separate action.

(12) In addition to the attorney general's right to intervene as a party in any action under this section, the attorney general may appear as amicus curiae in any proceeding in which a claim under this section has been asserted or in which a court is interpreting RCW 9A.82.010, 9A.82.080, 9A.82.090, 9A.82.110, or 9A.82.120, or this section.

(13) A private civil action under this section ~~((is remedial and))~~ does not limit any other civil or criminal action under this chapter or any other provision. Private civil remedies provided under this section are supplemental and not mutually exclusive.

(14) ~~((In bringing a civil action under this chapter, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may grant a witness immunity in exchange for testimony in the civil case. The immunity bars the use or derivative use of the witness' testimony in any subsequent criminal prosecution of the witness except for perjury or false swearing committed during the course of the testimony.))~~ Upon motion by the defendant, the court may authorize the sale or transfer of assets subject to an order or lien authorized by this chapter for the purpose of paying actual attorney's fees and costs of defense. The motion shall specify the assets for which sale or transfer is sought and shall be accompanied by the defendant's sworn statement that the defendant has no other assets available for such purposes. No order authorizing such sale or transfer may be entered unless the court finds that the assets involved are not subject to possible forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Prior to disposition of the motion, the court shall notify the state of the assets sought to be sold or transferred and shall hear argument on the issue of whether the assets are subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f). Such a motion may be made from time to time and shall be heard by the court on an expedited basis.

(15) In an action brought under subsection (1) (a) and (b)(i) of this section, either party has the right to a jury trial.

Sec. 12. Section 11, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((a) There is established in the custody of the state treasurer an antiracketeering revolving fund to be administered by the attorney general under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the attorney general. No appropriation is required for disbursements.~~

~~(b) Any prosecution and investigation costs, including attorney's fees, recovered for the state by the attorney general as a result of enforcement of civil and criminal statutes pertaining to any offense included in the definition of racketeering, whether by final judgment, settlement, or otherwise, shall be deposited, as directed by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the fund established by this subsection. When the fund exceeds seven hundred fifty thousand dollars, all funds in excess of the seven hundred fifty thousand dollars shall be deposited in the state general fund.~~

~~(c) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the attorney general for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the attorney general, included in the definition of racketeering, including civil enforcement.~~

~~(2)) Any payments or forfeiture to the state general fund ordered under RCW 9A.82.100 (4) or (5) shall be deposited in the public safety and education account.~~

(2) In an action brought by the attorney general on behalf of the state under RCW 9A.82.100(1)(b)(i) in which the state prevails, any payments ordered in excess of the actual damages sustained shall be deposited in the public safety and education account.

(3) It is the intent of the legislature that the money deposited in the public safety and education account pursuant to this chapter be appropriated to promote crime victims' compensation.

(4)(a) The county legislative authority may establish an ((antiracketeering)) antiprofitteering revolving fund to be administered by the county prosecuting attorney under the conditions and for the purposes provided by this subsection. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the county prosecuting attorney. No appropriation is required for disbursements.

(b) Any prosecution and investigation costs, including attorney's fees, recovered for the state by the county prosecuting attorney as a result of enforcement of civil and criminal statutes pertaining to any offense included in the definition of ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering, whether by final judgment, settlement, or otherwise, shall be deposited, as directed by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the fund established by this subsection. In an action brought by a prosecuting attorney on behalf of the county under RCW 9A.82.100(1)(b)(i) in which the county prevails, any payments ordered in excess of the actual damages sustained shall be deposited in the public safety and education account in the state general fund.

(c) The county legislative authority may prescribe a maximum level of moneys in the ((antiracketeering)) antiprofitteering revolving fund. Moneys exceeding the prescribed maximum shall be transferred to the county current expense fund.

(d) The moneys in the fund shall be used by the county prosecuting attorney for the investigation and prosecution of any offense, within the jurisdiction of the county prosecuting attorney, included in the definition of ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering, including civil enforcement.

(e) If a county has not established an antiprofitteering revolving fund, any payments or forfeitures ordered to the county under this chapter shall be deposited to the county current expense fund.

Sec. 13. Section 12, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state, upon filing a criminal action under RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080 or a civil action under RCW 9A.82.100, may file in accordance with this section a ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien. A filing fee or other charge is not required for filing a ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien.

(2) A ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien shall be signed by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney representing the state in the action and shall set forth the following information:

(a) The name of the defendant whose property or other interests are to be subject to the lien;

(b) In the discretion of the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, any aliases or fictitious names of the defendant named in the lien;

(c) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, the present residence or principal place of business of the person named in the lien;

(d) A reference to the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed, including the name of the court, the title of the action, and the court's file number for the proceeding;

(e) The name and address of the attorney representing the state in the proceeding pursuant to which the lien is filed;

(f) A statement that the notice is being filed pursuant to this section;

(g) The amount ((which)) that the state claims in the action or, with respect to property or other interests ((which)) that the state has requested forfeiture to the state or county, a description of the property or interests sought to be paid or forfeited;

(h) If known to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien, a description of property ((which)) that is subject to forfeiture to the state or property in which the defendant has an interest ((which)) that is available to satisfy a judgment entered in favor of the state; and

(i) Such other information as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien deems appropriate.

(3) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien may amend a lien filed under this section at any time by filing an amended ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien in accordance with this section ((which)) that identifies the prior lien amended.

(4) The attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney filing the lien shall, as soon as practical after filing a ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien, furnish to any person named in the lien a notice of the filing of the lien. Failure to furnish notice under this subsection does not invalidate or otherwise affect a ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien filed in accordance with this section.

(5)(a) A ((racketeering)) criminal profiteering lien is perfected against interests in personal property ((by filing the lien with the department of licensing)) in the same manner a security interest in like property pursuant to RCW 62A.9-302, 62A.9-303, 62A.9-304, 62A.9-305, and 62A.9-306 or as otherwise required to perfect a security interest in like property under applicable law. In the case of perfection by filing, the state shall file, in lieu of a financing statement in the form prescribed by RCW 62A.9-402, a notice of lien in substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF LIEN

Pursuant to RCW 9A.82.120, the state of Washington claims a criminal profiteering lien on all real and personal property of:

Name: .....

Address: .....

State of Washington

By (authorized signature)

On receipt of such a notice from the state, a filing officer shall, without payment of filing fee, file and index the notice as if it were a financing statement naming the state as secured party and the defendant as debtor.

(b) A ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien is perfected against interests in real property by filing the lien ~~((with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located. The state may give such additional notice of the lien as it deems appropriate))~~ in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded. The filing officer shall file and index the criminal profiteering lien, without payment of a filing fee, in the same manner as a mortgage.

(6) The filing of a ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien in accordance with this section creates a lien in favor of the state in:

(a) Any interest of the defendant, in real property situated in the county in which the lien is filed, then maintained, or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien;

(b) Any interest of the defendant, in personal property situated in this state, then maintained or thereafter acquired in the name of the defendant identified in the lien; and

(c) Any property identified in the lien to the extent of the defendant's interest therein.

(7) ~~((The filing of a racketeering lien under this section is notice to all persons dealing with the person or property identified in the lien of the state's claim.))~~ The lien created in favor of the state in accordance with this section ~~((is superior and prior to the claims or interests of any other person, except a person possessing:~~

~~((a) A valid lien perfected prior to the filing of the racketeering lien;~~

~~((b) In the case of real property, an interest acquired and recorded prior to the filing of the racketeering lien; or~~

~~((c) In the case of personal property, an interest acquired prior to the filing of the racketeering lien)), when filed or otherwise perfected as provided in subsection (5) of this section, has, with respect to any of the property described in subsection (6) of this section, the same priority determined pursuant to the laws of this state as a mortgage or security interest given for value (but not a purchase money security interest) and perfected in the same manner with respect to such property; except that any lien perfected pursuant to Title 60 RCW by any person who, in the ordinary course of his business, furnishes labor, services, or materials, or rents, leases, or otherwise supplies equipment, without knowledge of the criminal profiteering lien, is superior to the criminal profiteering lien.~~

(8) Upon entry of judgment in favor of the state, the state may proceed to execute thereon as in the case of any other judgment, except that in order to preserve the state's lien priority as provided in this section the state shall, in addition to such other notice as is required by law, give at least thirty days' notice of the execution to any person possessing at the time the notice is given, an interest recorded subsequent to the date the state's lien was perfected.

(9) Upon the entry of a final judgment in favor of the state providing for forfeiture of property to the state, the title of the state to the property:

(a) In the case of real property or a beneficial interest in real property, relates back to the date of filing the ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien ~~((with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located))~~ or, if no ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien is filed, then to the date of recording of the final judgment or the abstract thereof ~~((with the county auditor of the county in which the real property is located)); or~~

(b) In the case of personal property or a beneficial interest in personal property, relates back to the date the personal property was seized by the state, or the date of filing of a ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien in accordance with this section, whichever is earlier, but if the property was not seized and no ~~((racketeering))~~ criminal profiteering lien was filed then to the date the final judgment was filed with the department of licensing and, if the personal property is an aircraft, with the federal aviation administration.

(10) This section does not limit the right of the state to obtain any order or injunction, receivership, writ, attachment, garnishment, or other remedy authorized under RCW 9A.82.100 or appropriate to protect the interests of the state or available under other applicable law.

(1) In a civil or criminal action under this chapter, the superior court shall provide for the protection of bona fide interests in property, including community property, subject to liens of persons who were not involved in the violation of this chapter, except to the extent that such interests or property were acquired or used in such a way as to be subject to forfeiture pursuant to RCW 9A.82.100(4)(f).

Sec. 14. Section 13, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((+))~~ (1) A trustee who ~~((receives))~~ is personally served in the manner provided for service of legal process with written notice that a lien notice has been recorded or a civil proceeding or criminal proceeding has been instituted under this chapter against any person for whom the trustee holds legal or record title to real property, shall immediately furnish to the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney the following:

- (a) The name and address of the person, as known to the trustee;
- (b) To the extent known to the trustee, the name and address of all other persons for whose benefit the trustee holds title to the real property; and
- (c) If requested by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, a copy of the trust agreement or other instrument under which the trustee holds legal or record title to the real property.

(2) The recording of a lien notice shall not constitute a lien on the record title to real property owned by a trustee at the time of recording except to the extent that trustee is named in and served with the lien notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney may bring a civil proceeding in superior court against the trustee to recover from the trustee the amounts set forth in RCW 9A.82.150. In addition to amounts recovered under RCW 9A.82.150, the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney also may recover its investigative costs and attorneys' fees.

(3) The recording of a lien notice does not affect the use to which real property or a beneficial interest owned by the person named in the lien notice may be put or the right of the person to receive any avails, rents, or other proceeds resulting from the use and ownership except the sale of the property, until a judgment of forfeiture is entered.

(4) This section does not apply to any conveyance by a trustee under a court order unless the court order is entered in an action between the trustee and the beneficiary.

~~(5) ((Unless a trustee receives written notice that a person having a beneficial interest in the trust is named in a lien notice or is otherwise a defendant in a civil proceeding))~~ Notwithstanding that a trustee is served with notice as provided in subsection (1) of this section, this section does not apply to:

- ~~(a) a conveyance by a trustee required under the terms of any trust agreement ((if the trust agreement is a matter of public record before a lien notice is filed; or~~
- ~~(b) A conveyance by a trustee to all persons who have a beneficial interest in the trust)) in effect before service of such notice on the trustee.~~

Sec. 15. Section 14, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The term of a lien notice shall be six years from the date the lien notice is recorded. If a renewal lien notice is filed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney, the term of the renewal lien notice shall be for six years from the date the renewal lien notice is recorded. The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney is entitled to only one renewal of the lien notice.

(2) The attorney general or county prosecuting attorney filing the lien notice may release in whole or in part any lien notice or may release any specific property or beneficial interest from the lien notice upon such terms and conditions as the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney considers appropriate and shall release any lien upon the dismissal of the action which is the basis of the lien or satisfaction of the judgment of the court in the action or other final disposition of the claim evidenced by the lien. A release of a lien notice executed by the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney shall be recorded in the official records in which the lien notice covering that property was recorded. No charge or fee may be imposed for recording any release of a lien notice.

(3) (a) A person named in the lien notice may move the court in which the civil proceeding giving rise to the lien notice is pending for an order extinguishing the lien notice.

(b) Upon the motion of a person under (a) of this subsection, the court immediately shall enter an order setting a date for hearing, which shall be not less than five nor more than ten days after the motion is filed. The order and a copy of the motion shall be served on the attorney general or county prosecuting attorney within three days after the entry of the court's order. At the hearing, the court shall take evidence on the issue of whether any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is covered by the lien notice or otherwise subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.120. If the person shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the lien notice is not applicable to the person or that any property or beneficial interest owned by the person is not subject to forfeiture under RCW 9A.82.120, the court shall enter a judgment extinguishing the lien notice or releasing the property or beneficial interest from the lien notice.

(c) The court may enter an order releasing from the lien notice any specific real property or beneficial interest if, at the time the lien notice is recorded, there is pending an arms length sale of the real property or beneficial interest in which the parties are under no undue compulsion to sell or buy and are able, willing, and reasonably well informed and the sale is for the fair market value of the real property or beneficial interest and the recording of the lien notice prevents the sale of the property or interest. The proceeds resulting from the sale of the real property or beneficial interest shall be deposited with the court, subject to the further order of the court.

~~(d) At ((the hearing held pursuant to (b) of this subsection, if) any time after filing of a lien, the court ((releases)) may release from the lien ((notice)) any property ((or beneficial interest, the person shall post)) upon application by the defendant and posting of security equal to the ((fair market)) value of the property ((or beneficial interest owned by the person)) to be released.~~

Sec. 16. Section 15, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~If a trustee conveys title to real property for which, at the time of the conveyance, ((a lien notice has been recorded in the county in which the real property is situated and the notice names a person who the trustee knows holds a beneficial interest in the trust)) the trustee has been personally served with notice as provided in RCW 9A.82.130(1) of a lien under this chapter, the trustee shall be liable to the state for the greater of:~~

(a) The amount of proceeds received by the person named in the lien notice as a result of the conveyance;

(b) The amount of proceeds received by the trustee as a result of the conveyance and distributed by the trustee to the person named in the lien notice; or

(c) The fair market value of the interest of the person named in the lien notice in the real property so conveyed.

(2) ~~If the trustee conveys the real property for which a lien notice has been ((recorded)) served on the trustee at the time of the conveyance and holds the proceeds that would otherwise be paid or distributed to the beneficiary or at the direction of the beneficiary or beneficiary's designee, the trustee's liability shall not exceed the amount of the proceeds so held so long as the trustee continues to hold the proceeds.~~

Sec. 17. Section 16, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.160 are each amended to read as follows:

A trustee who knowingly fails to comply with RCW 9A.82.130(1) is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. A trustee who conveys title to real property after service of the notice as provided in RCW 9A.82.130(1) with the intent to evade the provisions of RCW 9A.82.100 or 9A.82.120 with respect to such property is guilty of a class C felony.

Sec. 18. Section 17, chapter 270, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9A.82.170 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(1) ((A custodian of the records of a financial institution shall, at no expense to the financial institution, produce for inspection or copying the records in the custody of the financial institution when requested to be inspected by the attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney; provided the person requesting the information has served a subpoena issued by a court or obtained a court order for the information. The attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney or any peace officer or other person designated by the county prosecuting attorney or the attorney general shall be prohibited from using or releasing the information except in the proper discharge of official duties. If directed by the court in the subpoena or court order, neither the custodian nor any other employee of the institution shall disclose to the institution's customer the fact that the customer's records have been examined or copied. The furnishing of records in compliance with this section by a custodian of records is a bar to civil or criminal liability against the custodian or financial institution in any action brought alleging violation of the confidentiality of the records.~~

(2)) In connection with an investigation under this chapter, relevant records of a financial institution may be subpoenaed pursuant to a subpoena signed by a superior court judge upon request by the attorney general or a county prosecuting attorney. A response to such a subpoena is sufficient if a copy, duly authenticated by an officer of the financial institution as a true and correct copy of its records, is provided, unless otherwise provided in the subpoena for good cause shown. If any records are subpoenaed, unless excused under subsection (2) of this section, the person requesting the subpoena shall deliver in person or by mail a copy of the subpoena to the customer of the financial institution about whom the records sought relate.

(2) A judge of the superior court may excuse the attorney general or prosecuting attorney from advising the financial institution's customer of the subpoena and order the financial institution to not advise or disclose to its customer that the records concerning the customer have been subpoenaed, upon a showing of good cause. Disclosure by the financial institution of the subpoena of its records to its customer by any of its employees, after receipt of a court order barring such disclosure, is a misdemeanor.

(3) A financial institution shall be reimbursed in an amount set by the court for reasonable costs incurred in providing information pursuant to this section.

(4) This section does not preclude the use of other legally authorized means of obtaining records, nor preclude the assertion of any legally recognized privileges.

(5) Disclosure by the attorney general, county prosecuting attorney, or any peace officer or other person designated by the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney, of information obtained under this section, except in the proper discharge of official duties as provided in subsection (1) of this section, is ((a misdemeanor)) punishable as a contempt of court.

((3) Disclosure by the custodian or employee of the financial institution contrary to subsection (1) of this section is a misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not preclude the use of any other legally authorized means of obtaining the information.))

(6) Upon filing of any civil or criminal action, the nondisclosure requirements of any subpoena or order under this section shall terminate, and the attorney general or prosecuting attorney filing the action shall provide to the defendant copies of all subpoenas or other orders issued under this section.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Senator Talmadge, you present a very good argument on the reasons against this, however, I also see some very good arguments from the Washington State Prosecuting Attorneys Association and they don't exactly jibe with your arguments. Could you tell me where they're wrong and you're right?"

Senator Talmadge: "I like those kinds of questions. Throw me another softball like that, Cliff. I'd say there is a difference in philosophy here. The question comes back to really two things on the bracket of time periods. When you start extending the time period in the way that this is suggested here, remember the prosecutor can proceed either civilly or can proceed criminally. The criminal discovery rules are very narrow. Civil discovery rules are very broad and what it means is the opportunity to go back to a very long time period, the ten-year bracket plus discovery plus three gets you back in some instances fourteen, fifteen and twenty years. We're suggesting in order to demonstrate the existence of annexes between the various kinds of crime--they're going back that far it's going to be extraordinarily difficult to prove. If you have a narrower bracketed period it's easier to make that kind of proof.

"Prosecutors, of course, would like to have the opportunity to go back infinitely, back as far as they can possibly go in every set of circumstances and whether or not they have the opportunity to really prove that point, I tend to doubt. I think the shorter time period will make for stronger cases, better kinds of proof in the court than would be the case under the ten-year period and that seems to be the experience so far under federal recall."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Metcalf demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf to the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Halsan: "Senator Talmadge, the amendment to page 27, line 33, is a striking amendment which specifically provides that a financial institution cannot be civilly liable for harm resulting in its compliance with the section of the bill authorizing the subpoena of a financial institution's record. Is it your intent, by giving financial institutions immunity under this statute and in this type of investigation, to impliedly recognize that a financial institution's compliance with other similar statutory provisions that do not contain such an immunity clause, for example, the special inquiry judge statute, can give rise to civil liability?"

Senator Talmadge: "No."

Senator Halsan: "Senator Talmadge, as an additional question, I note that new language on page 16, lines 21 and 22 of the committee striking amendment specifically provides that a party to an action for damages under this act brought by a private citizen or the attorney general or prosecuting attorney has the right to a jury trial. If a forfeiture action is brought by a prosecutor or the attorney general in connection with such an action, or if the prosecutor or attorney general also seeks some form of equitable relief in connection with such an action, is it your intent that the right to a jury trial extends to those matters as well?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, the right to a jury trial is intended to extend only to questions of liability in damage actions and the determination of actual damages not to forfeiture proceedings or to proceedings seeking some form of equitable relief."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 767, as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator McDermott, could you explain to the body what's left in the bill?"

Senator McDermott: "The bill as it is now before us is a health cost-containment unit in the Governor's Office of Fiscal Management. It has no certificate-of-need implications any more. It has a basic health plan which would affect 30,000 people under a plan that would be designed over the next eight months by a nine member board appointed by the Governor. That plan would have to come back to the legislature. We put 30 million dollars into this to fund that program and it is a basic health-care plan, not any kind of a cadillac program. We've put in recommendations that would be under a managed health-care system and that it be in twelve areas with statewide representation."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

Senator Thompson moved that the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Individually identifiable" means that a record contains information which reveals or can likely be associated with the identity of the person or persons to whom the record pertains.

(2) "Legally authorized representative" means a person legally authorized to give consent for the disclosure of personal records on behalf of a minor or a legally incompetent adult.

(3) "Personal record" means any information obtained or maintained by a state agency which refers to a person and which is declared exempt from public disclosure, confidential, or privileged under state or federal law.

(4) "Research" means a planned and systematic sociological, psychological, epidemiological, biomedical, or other scientific investigation carried out by a state agency, by a scientific research professional associated with a bona fide scientific research organization, or by a graduate student currently enrolled in an advanced academic degree curriculum, with an objective to contribute to scientific knowledge, the solution of social and health problems, or the evaluation of public benefit and service programs. This definition excludes methods of record analysis and data collection that are subjective, do not permit replication, and are not designed to yield reliable and valid results.

(5) "Research record" means an item or grouping of information obtained for the purpose of research from or about a person or extracted for the purpose of research from a personal record.

(6) "State agency" means: (a) The department of social and health services; (b) the department of corrections; and (c) an institution of higher education as defined in RCW 28B.10.016.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. (1) A state agency may authorize or provide access to or provide copies of an individually identifiable personal record for research purposes if informed written consent for the disclosure has been given to the appropriate department secretary, or the president of the institution, as applicable, or his or her designee, by the person to whom the record pertains or, in the case of minors and legally incompetent adults, the person's legally authorized representative.

(2) A state agency may authorize or provide access to or provide copies of an individually identifiable personal record for research purposes without the informed consent of the person to whom the record pertains or the person's legally authorized representative, only if:

(a) The state agency adopts research review and approval rules including, but not limited to, the requirement that the appropriate department secretary, or the president of the institution, as applicable, appoint a standing human research review board competent to review research proposals as to ethical and scientific soundness; and the review board determines that the disclosure request has scientific merit and is of importance in terms of the agency's program concerns, that the research purposes cannot be reasonably accomplished without disclosure of the information in individually identifiable form and without waiver of the informed consent of the person to whom the record pertains or the person's legally authorized representative, that disclosure risks have been minimized, and that remaining risks are outweighed by anticipated health, safety, or scientific benefits; and

(b) The disclosure does not violate federal law or regulations; and

(c) The state agency negotiates with the research professional receiving the records or record information a written and legally binding confidentiality agreement prior to disclosure. The agreement shall:

(i) Establish specific safeguards to assure the continued confidentiality and security of individually identifiable records or record information;

(ii) Ensure that the research professional will report or publish research findings and conclusions in a manner that does not permit identification of the person whose record was used for the research. Final research reports or publications shall not include photographs or other visual representations contained in personal records;

(iii) Establish that the research professional will destroy the individual identifiers associated with the records or record information as soon as the purposes of the research project have been accomplished and notify the agency to this effect in writing;

(iv) Prohibit any subsequent disclosure of the records or record information in individually identifiable form except as provided in section 4 of this act; and

(v) Provide for the signature of the research professional, of any of the research professional's team members who require access to the information in identified form, and of the agency official authorized to approve disclosure of identifiable records or record information for research purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. In addition to the copying charges provided in RCW 42.17.300, a state agency may impose a reasonable charge for costs incurred in providing assistance in the following research activities involving personal records:

(1) Manual or computer screening of personal records for scientific sampling purposes according to specifications provided by the research professional;

(2) Manual or computer extraction of information from a universe or sample of personal records according to specifications provided by the research professional;

(3) Statistical manipulation or analysis of personal record information, whether manually or by computer, according to specifications provided by the research professional.

The charges imposed by the agency may not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the agency for its actual costs in providing requested research assistance.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. No research professional who has established an individually identifiable research record from personal record information pursuant to section 2(2) of this act, or who has established a research record from data or information voluntarily provided by an agency client or employee under a written confidentiality assurance for the explicit purpose of research, may disclose such a record in individually identifiable form unless:

(1) The person to whom the research record pertains or the person's legally authorized representative has given prior informed written consent for the disclosure; or

(2) The research professional reasonably believes that disclosure will prevent or minimize injury to a person and the disclosure is limited to information necessary to protect the person who has been or may be injured, and the research professional reports the disclosure to the agency; or

(3) (a) The research record is disclosed in individually identifiable form for the purposes of auditing or evaluating a research program; and

(b) The audit or evaluation is authorized or required by federal or state law or regulation or is based upon an explicit provision in a research contract, grant, or other written research agreement; and

(c) No subsequent disclosure of the research record in individually identifiable form will be made by the auditor or evaluator except as provided in this section; or

(4) The research record is furnished in compliance with a search warrant or court order: PROVIDED, That:

(a) The court issues the search warrant or judicial subpoena concerning the research record solely for the purpose of facilitating inquiry into an alleged violation of law by the research professional using the record for a research purpose or by the agency; and

(b) Any research record obtained pursuant to (a) of this subsection and any information directly or indirectly derived from the research record shall remain confidential to the extent possible and shall not be used as evidence in an administrative, judicial, or legislative proceeding except against the research professional using the record for a research purpose or against the state agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Unauthorized disclosure, whether wilful or negligent, by a research professional who has obtained an individually identifiable personal record or record information from a state agency pursuant to section 2(2) of this act is a gross misdemeanor. In addition, violation of any provision of this chapter by the research professional or the state agency may subject the research professional or the agency to a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars for each such violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Nothing in this chapter is applicable to, or in any way affects, the powers and duties of the state auditor or the legislative budget committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 42 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 150, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Haugen, Brough, Zellinsky, May, Allen, Nutley, Isaacson and Jacobsen)

Providing uniform procedures for the creation, elections, and operations of various special purpose districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following Committee on Governmental Operations amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to provide uniform and simplified procedures for the creation, elections, and operations of various special districts that provide diking, drainage, and flood control facilities and services. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to clarify and standardize the laws relating to these special districts.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Governing body" means the board of commissioners, board of supervisors, or board of directors of a special district.

(2) "Owner of land" means the record owner of at least a majority ownership interest in a separate and legally created lot or parcel of land, as determined by the records of the county auditor, except that if the lot or parcel has been sold under a real estate contract, the vendee or grantee shall be deemed to be the owner of such land for purposes of authorizing voting rights. It is assumed, unless shown otherwise, that the name appearing as the owner of property on the property tax rolls is the current owner.

(3) "Qualified voter of a special district" means a person who is either: (a) A natural person who is a voter under general state election laws, registered to vote in the state of Washington for a period of not less than sixty days before the election, and the owner of land located in the special district for a period of not less than sixty days before the election; or (b) a corporation or partnership that has owned land located in the special district for a period of not less than sixty days before the election. If land is owned as community property, both spouses may vote if otherwise qualified. If other multiple undivided interests exist in a lot or parcel, and no person owns a majority undivided interest, the owners of undivided interests at least equal to a majority interest may designate in writing which owner is eligible to vote. A corporation or partnership shall designate a natural person to exercise its voting powers. Except as provided in sections 21 and 22 of this act, no owner of land may cast more than one vote, or have more than one vote cast for it, in a special district election.

(4) "Special district" means: (a) A diking district; (b) a drainage district; (c) a diking, drainage, and/or sewerage improvement district; (d) an intercounty diking and drainage district; (e) a consolidated diking district, drainage district, diking improvement district, and/or drainage improvement district; or (f) a flood control district.

(5) "Special district general election" means the election of a special district regularly held on the second Tuesday of December in each odd-numbered year at which a member of the special district governing body is regularly elected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The establishment of a special district may be initiated by either petition of the owners of property located within the proposed special district, or by resolution of the county legislative authority or authorities within which the proposed special district is located.

A petition calling for the creation of a special district, which is signed by at least ten owners of land located within the proposed district, shall be filed with the county legislative authority within which a proposed special district, or the largest portion of a special district, is located. If the proposed special district is proposed to be located within more than one county, the county legislative authority receiving the petitions shall notify the other county legislative authorities of the proposal. The petition shall set forth in general terms: (1) The objects sought by the creation of the special district; (2) the projects proposed to be completed by the special district that will accomplish these objects; (3) the boundaries of the proposed special district, which may be stated in terms of sections, townships, and ranges; and (4) any other matters deemed material by the petitioners. The jurisdiction of the county legislative authority to proceed with consideration of the creation of the proposed special district shall not be affected by the form of the petition or allegations on the petition. The petition shall be accompanied by proof of land ownership that is sufficient in the opinion of the county legislative authority to evidence the ownership of land by the petitioners within the proposed special district. A petition calling for the creation of a special district shall be accompanied by a bond of five thousand dollars to defray the costs incurred by the county, or counties, in considering the creation of the special district.

A resolution proposing the creation of a special district shall contain the same items as are required and permitted to be contained in a petition to create a special district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Upon the filing of a valid petition or upon the adoption of the resolution, the county legislative authority shall direct the county engineer to investigate the proposed boundaries of the special district and the feasibility of the projects located in the county as proposed in the petition or resolution. The engineer shall report to the county legislative authority within ninety days of such direction on the proposed boundaries of the special district within the county and feasibility of that portion of the proposed project. If the proposed special district is located in more than one county, the county legislative authority of each county shall direct its county engineer to investigate and report on the proposal within its boundaries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The county legislative authority shall schedule a public hearing on the proposed special district if the county engineer's report indicates that the proposed projects are feasible. If the engineers of each of the counties within which a proposed special district is located indicate that the proposed projects are feasible, the county legislative authorities shall schedule a joint public hearing on the proposed special district. The county legislative authority may, on its own initiative, schedule a public hearing on the proposed special district if the county engineer's report indicates that the proposed projects are not feasible. The county legislative authorities of counties within which a proposed special district is located may, on their own initiative, schedule a joint public hearing on the proposed special district if one or more of the county engineers' reports indicate that the proposed projects are not feasible.

Notice of the public hearing shall be published and posted as provided in section 13 of this act for notices of elections. Additional notice of the public hearing shall be published in the newspaper in general circulation within the proposed special district, which notice shall be purchased in the manner of a general advertisement, not to be included with legal advertisements or with classified advertisements. This additional notice shall be published at least twice, not more than twenty nor less than three days before public hearing. Additional notice shall be made as required in RCW 79.44.040.

The notice must contain the following: (1) The date, time, and place of the public hearing; (2) a statement that a particular special district is proposed to be created; (3) a general description of the proposed projects to be completed by the special district; (4) a general description of the proposed special district boundaries; and (5) a statement that all affected persons may appear and present their comments in favor of or against the creation of the proposed special district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The county legislative authority or authorities shall conduct the public hearing at the date, time, and place indicated in the notice. Public hearings may be continued to other dates, times, and places specified by the county legislative authority or authorities before the adjournment of the public hearing. Each county legislative authority may alter those portions of boundaries of the proposed special district that are located within the county, but if territory is added that was not described in the original proposed boundaries, an additional hearing on the proposal shall be held with notice being posted and published as provided in section 5 of this act.

After receiving the public testimony, the county legislative authority may cause an election to be held to authorize the creation of a special district if it finds:

(1) That creation of the special district will be conducive to the public health, convenience and welfare;

(2) That the creation of the special district will be of special benefit to a majority of the lands included within the special district; and

(3) That the proposed improvements are feasible and economical, and that the benefits of these improvements exceed costs for the improvements.

If the proposed special district is located within two or more counties, the county legislative authorities may cause an election to be held to authorize the creation of the special district upon making the findings set forth in subsections (1) through (3) of this section.

The county legislative authority or authorities may also choose not to allow such an election to be held by either failing to act or finding that one or more of these factors are not met.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The county legislative authority or authorities shall cause an election on the question of creating the special district to be held if findings as provided in section 6 of this act are made. The county legislative authority or authorities shall designate a time and date for such election, which shall be one of the special election dates provided for in RCW 29.13.020, together with the site or sites at which votes may be cast. The persons allowed to vote on the creation of a special district shall be those persons who, if the special district were created, would be qualified voters of the special district as described in section 2 of this act. The county auditor or auditors of the counties within which the proposed special district is located shall conduct the election and prepare a list of presumed eligible voters.

Notices for the election shall be published and posted as provided in section 6 of this act. The special district shall be created if the proposition to create the special district is approved by a simple majority vote of the voters voting on the proposition and the special district may assume operations whenever the initial members of the governing body are appointed as provided in section 8 of this act.

Any special district created after the effective date of this act may only have special assessments measured and imposed, and budgets adopted, as provided in sections 15 through 18 of this act.

If the special district is created, the county or counties may charge the special district for the costs incurred by the county engineer or engineers pursuant to section 4 of this act and the costs of the auditor or auditors related to the election to authorize the creation of the special district pursuant to this section. Such county actions shall be deemed to be special benefits of the property located within the special district that are paid through the imposition of special assessments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Except as provided in section 10 of this act, each special district shall be governed by a three-member governing board. The term of office for each member of a special district governing body shall be six years and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. One member of the governing body shall be elected at the time of special district general elections in each odd-numbered year for a term of six years beginning as provided in RCW 29.04.170 for assumption of office by elected officials of cities.

(2) The terms of office of members of the governing bodies of special districts, who are holding office on the effective date of this act, shall be altered to provide staggered six-year terms as provided in this subsection. The member who on the effective date of this act has the longest term remaining shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1991, special district general election; the member with the second longest term remaining shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1989, special district general election; and the member with the third longest term of office shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1987, special district general election.

(3) The initial members of the governing body of a newly created special district shall be appointed by the legislative authority of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located. These initial governing body members shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified at the next special district general election held at least ninety days after the special district is established. At that election the first elected members of the governing body shall be elected. No primary elections may be held. Any voter of a special district may become a candidate for such a position by filing written notice of this intention with the governing body of the special district at least thirty, but not more than sixty, days before a special district general election. The names of all candidates for such positions shall be listed alphabetically. At this first election, the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall have a six-year term, the candidate receiving the second greatest number of votes shall have a four-year term, and the candidate receiving the third greatest number of votes shall have a two-year term of office. The initially elected members of a governing body shall take office immediately when qualified as defined in RCW 29.01.135. Thereafter the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected for a six-year term of office. Members of a governing body shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified, and assume office as provided in RCW 29.04.170.

(4) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the governing body of a special district, the legislative authority of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located, shall appoint a district voter to serve the remaining term of office. A vacancy occurs upon the death, resignation, or incapacity of a governing body member or whenever the governing body member ceases being a qualified voter of the special district.

(5) An elected or appointed member of a special district governing body must be a qualified voter of the special district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Each member of a governing body of a special district, whether elected or appointed, shall enter into a bond, payable to the special district. The bond shall be in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, as determined by the county legislative authority of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located. The bond shall be conditioned on the faithful performance of his or her duties as a member of the governing body of the special district and shall be filed with the county treasurer of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Whenever the governing body of a special district has more than three members, the governing body shall be reduced to three members as of January 1, 1986, by eliminating the positions of those district governing body members with the shortest remaining terms of office. The remaining three governing body members shall have staggered terms with the one having the shortest remaining term having his or her position filled at the 1987 special district general election, the one with the next shortest remaining term having his or her position filled at the 1989 special district general election, and the one with the longest remaining term having his or her position filled at the 1991 special district general election. If any of these remaining three governing body members have identical remaining terms of office, the newly calculated remaining terms of these persons shall be determined by lot with the county auditor who assists the special district in its elections managing such lot procedure. The newly established terms shall be recorded by the county auditor.

(2) However, whenever five or more special districts have consolidated under chapter 85.36 RCW and the consolidated district has five members in its governing body on the effective date of this act, the consolidated district may adopt a resolution retaining a five-member governing body. At any time thereafter, such a district may adopt a resolution and reduce the size of the governing body to three members with the reduction occurring as provided in subsection (1) of this section, but the years of the effective dates shall be extended so that the reduction occurs at the next January 1st occurring after the date of the adoption of the resolution. Whenever a special district is so governed by a five-member governing body, two members shall be elected at each of two consecutive special district general elections, and one member shall be elected at the following special district general election, each to serve a six-year staggered term.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. General elections shall be held in each special district on the second Tuesday in December in each odd-numbered year. The auditor of the county within which a special district, or the largest portion of a special district, is located may provide for special elections whenever necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A list of presumed eligible voters shall be prepared and maintained by each special district. The list shall include the assessor's tax number for each lot or parcel in the district, the name or the names of the owners of such lots and parcels, the extent of the ownership interest of such persons, and if such persons are natural persons, whether they are known to be registered voters in the state of Washington. Whenever such a list is prepared, the district shall attempt to notify each owner of the requirements necessary to establish voting authority to vote. Whenever lots or parcels in the district are sold, the district shall attempt to notify the purchasers of the requirements necessary to establish voting authority. Each special district shall provide a copy of this list, and any revised list, to the auditor of the county within which all or the largest portion of the special district is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The auditor of the county within which a special district, or the largest portion of a special district, is located shall assist such special district with its elections as provided in this section. The county auditor shall both publish and post notices for such elections. Notices shall be posted in at least four conspicuous public places within the special district at least two weeks before the election. Notices shall also be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the special district at least once not more than ten nor less than three days before the election. The notices shall describe the election, give its date and times to be held, and indicate the election site or sites in the special district where ballots may be cast. All costs of the county auditor incurred related to such elections shall be reimbursed by the special district. A special district may also contract with the county auditor to staff the voting site during the election or contract with the county auditor to conduct the election pursuant to RCW 29.36.120.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. The governing body of each special district shall appoint three voters of the special district, who may be members of the governing body, to act as election officials, unless the special district contracts with the county auditor to staff the election site. The election officials shall distribute a ballot or ballots to each voter of the special district who arrives at the voting place during the hours for the election on the day of the election and requests a ballot. Ballots shall also be provided to those persons arriving at the polling place during the hours for the election on the day of the election who present documents or evidence sufficient to establish their eligibility to vote. A person arriving at the polling place at such times who demands a ballot, but who fails to present documents or evidence which in the opinion of the election officials is sufficient to establish eligibility to vote, shall be given a ballot clearly marked as "challenged" and shall be allowed to vote. Each challenged ballot shall be numbered consecutively and a list of such persons and their ballot numbers shall be made.

The governing body of each special district shall designate those hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. during which the election shall be held: PROVIDED, That at least two consecutive hours must be designated. When the election is over, the election officials shall secure the ballots and transport the ballots to the county auditor's office by noon of the day following the election. The auditor may, at his or her discretion, station a deputy auditor or auditors at the election site who shall observe the election and transport the ballots to the auditor's office. The auditor shall count the ballots and certify the count of votes for and against each measure and for each candidate appearing on the ballot. A separate count shall be made of any challenged ballots. A challenged ballot shall be counted as a normal ballot if documents or evidence are supplied to the auditor before 4:00 p.m. on the day after the election that, in the opinion of the auditor, are sufficient to establish the person's eligibility to vote.

Additionally, voting by absentee ballot shall be allowed in every special district. A request for an absentee ballot may be made by an eligible voter by mail or in person to the county auditor who supervises the special district elections. An absentee ballot shall be provided to each voter of a special district requesting such a ballot under this section. A person requesting such a ballot may present information establishing his or her eligibility to vote in such a special district. The auditor shall provide an absentee ballot to each person requesting an absentee ballot who is either included on the list of presumed eligible voters or who submits information which, in the auditor's opinion, establishes his or her eligibility to vote. The names of these persons so determined to be eligible to vote shall be added to the list of presumed eligible voters for the appropriate special district. The request for an absentee ballot must be made no more than forty-five days before the election. To be valid, absentee ballots must be postmarked on or before the day of the election and mailed to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. The process by which budgets are adopted, special assessments are measured and imposed, and assessment zones are established, as provided in sections 15 through 18 of this act, shall constitute an alternative optional method of financing special districts. A special district in existence prior to the effective date of this act may conform with sections 15 through 18 of this act when its governing body adopts a resolution indicating its intention to conform with such laws. Whenever such a resolution is adopted, or a new special district is created on or after the effective date of this act, sections 15 through 18 of this act shall be the exclusive method by which the special district measures and imposes special assessments and adopts its budget. The governing body of a special district that was created before the effective date of this act, and which operates under sections 15 through 18 of this act, may adopt a resolution removing the special district from operating under sections 15 through 18 of this act, and operate under alternative procedures available to the special district. A county may charge a special district for costs the county incurs in establishing a system or systems of assessment for the special district pursuant to sections 15 through 18 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 16. (1) Special district special assessments shall be imposed only on real property within the district that uses or will use the special district's facilities or receives or will receive special benefits from the special district's operations and facilities. Both privately owned and publicly owned real property, including real property owned by the state, is subject to these special assessments. Mobile homes located on real property within a special district shall be considered an improvement to the real property for purposes of imposing special assessments.

(2) Special assessments imposed upon real property, other than improvements, shall be a function of the dollar value of benefit or use per acre and the assessment zone in which the real property is located. Special assessments imposed upon an improvement shall be a function of the dollar value of benefit or use assigned to the type or class of improvements and the assessment zone in which the improvement is located.

(3) Assessment zones shall be established in which each zone reflects a different relative ratio of benefit or use that the real property within such a zone receives, or will receive, from the special district's operations and facilities. That real property receiving the greatest benefits, or which uses the special district's facilities to the greatest extent, shall be placed into class No. 1 and assigned a value of one hundred percent; that real property receiving the next greatest benefits, or which uses the special district's facilities to the next greatest extent, shall be placed into class No. 2 and assigned a lower percentage value; and so on, extending to the class of least benefits or use. That real property receiving no benefits or use shall be designated "nonbenefit." If all real property in the special district is found to have the same relative ratio of benefit or use, a single assessment zone may be established.

(4) Any one or more of the following criteria shall be used in measuring the manifest degrees or ratios of benefit or use: (a) proximity to the special district's facilities; (b) height above or below dikes and levees; (c) easier accessibility; (d) facility of drainage; (e) minimization of flood or inundation damage; (f) actual flood protection; (g) use of the special district's facilities; and (h) any other criteria established by the county under section 17 of this act that measure manifest degrees of benefit or use from the special district's facilities and operations.

(5) Special assessments may be imposed to pay for the construction, repair, and maintenance of special district facilities and for special district operations. Administrative and operational costs of the special district shall be proportionally included in these special assessments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. (1) The county within which each special district is located shall establish a system or systems of assessment for the special district as provided in this section. A differing system of assessment shall be established for different classes of facilities that a special district provides or will provide, including a separate system of assessment for diking and drainage facilities if both classes of facilities are provided. Whenever a special district is located in more than one county, the county within which the largest portion of the special district is located shall establish the system or systems of assessment for the entire special district. A system of assessment shall include assessment zones, the acreage included in each assessment zone, a dollar value of benefit or use per acre, and various classes or types of improvements together with a dollar value of benefit or use for an improvement included in each of the classes or types of improvements. The county shall establish which improvements shall be subject to special assessments and shall establish one or more types or classes of such improvements.

(2) The engineer of the county shall prepare a preliminary system or systems of assessment for each special district. Each system of assessment that is prepared for a special district shall be designed to generate a total of one thousand dollars in revenue for the special district.

The preliminary system or systems of assessment shall be filed with the county legislative authority. A public hearing on the preliminary system or systems of assessment shall be held by the county legislative authority. Notice of the public hearing shall be published in a newspaper, in general circulation in the special district, for two consecutive weeks with the final notice being published not less than fourteen, nor more than twenty-one days, before the public hearing. Notice shall also be mailed to each owner or reputed owner, as shown on the assessor's tax rolls, of each lot or parcel subject to such assessments. The mailed notice shall indicate the amount of assessment on the lot or parcel that, together with all other assessments in the system of assessment, would raise one thousand dollars. The mailed notice shall indicate that this assessment amount is not being imposed, but is a hypothetical assessment that, if combined with all other hypothetical assessments in the system of assessment, would generate one thousand dollars, and that this hypothetical assessment is proposed to be used to establish a system or systems of assessment for the special district. Where a special district currently is imposing special assessments and a property owner's property is subject to these special assessments, the mailed notice to this property owner also shall use the hypothetical special assessment in conjunction with the total special assessments imposed by the special district in that year to provide a comparison special assessment value to the property owner. This notice shall indicate that the comparison special assessment value is not being imposed, and should be considered for comparative purposes only. Where a special district is not currently imposing special assessments, the mailed notice may include, if deemed appropriate by the county engineer and if such figures are available, an estimated special assessment value for the property owner's property using this hypothetical special assessment in conjunction with special district-wide level of special assessments that possibly would be imposed in the following year. Where a county is imposing rates and charges for stormwater or surface water control facilities pursuant to chapters 36.89 or 36.94 RCW, the county shall credit such rates and charges with assessments imposed under this section by a special district to fund drainage facilities and the maintenance of drainage facilities.

(3) The county legislative authority shall hold a public hearing on the preliminary system or systems of assessment on the day specified in the notices. Persons objecting to the preliminary system or systems of assessment may present their objections at this public hearing, which may be continued if necessary. The county legislative authority shall adopt an ordinance finalizing the system or systems of assessment after making any changes that in its discretion are necessary. The county legislative authority shall have broad discretion in establishing systems of assessment. The decision of the county legislative authority shall be final, except for appeals. Any person objecting to the system or systems of assessment must appeal such decision to the superior court of the county within which all, or the largest portion, of the special district is located within twenty days of the adoption of the ordinance.

(4) The system or systems of assessment of each special district shall be reviewed by the county engineer and finalized by the county legislative authority at least once every four years. A system or systems of assessment shall be finalized on or before the first of September in the year that it is finalized. The legislative authority of a county that is responsible for establishing a system or systems of assessment for more than one special district may, at its option, stagger the initial finalization of such systems of assessment for different special districts over a period of up to four years. Assessments shall be collected in special districts pursuant to the district's previous system of assessment until the system or systems of assessment under this chapter is finalized under this section.

(5) New improvements shall be noted by the special district as they are made and shall be subject to special assessments in the year after the improvement is made.

(6) The county legislative authority, upon request by a special district, may authorize the special district to impose and collect emergency assessments pursuant to the special district's system or systems of assessment whenever the emergent protection of life or property is necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Budgets for each special district shall be adopted, and special assessments imposed, annually for the succeeding calendar year. On or before December 1st of each year, the governing body of the special district shall adopt a resolution approving a budget for the succeeding year and special assessments sufficient to finance the budget. A copy of the resolution and the budget shall be forwarded immediately to the county legislative authority of the county or counties within which the special district is located and to the treasurer of the county or counties in which the special district is located. Special assessments necessary to generate funds for this budget shall be imposed pursuant to the system or systems of assessment established by the county. Special assessments shall be collected by the county treasurer or treasurers within which the special district is located. Notice of the special assessments due may be included on the notice of property taxes due, may be included on a separate notice that is mailed with the notice of property taxes due, or may be sent separately from the notice of property taxes due. Special assessments shall be due at the same time property taxes are due and shall constitute liens on the land or improvements upon which they are imposed. Delinquent special assessments shall be foreclosed in the same manner, and subject to the same time schedules, interest, and penalties as delinquent property taxes. County treasurers may impose a fee for collecting special assessments not to exceed one percent of the dollar value of special assessments collected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A special district may:

(1) Engage in flood control activities, and investigate, plan, construct, acquire, repair, maintain, and operate improvements, works, projects, and facilities necessary to prevent inundation or flooding from rivers, streams, tidal waters or other waters. Such facilities include dikes, levees, dams, banks, revetments, channels, canals, and other works, appliances, machinery, and equipment.

(2) Engage in drainage control, stormwater control, and surface water control activities, and investigate, plan, construct, acquire, repair, maintain, and operate improvements, works, projects, and facilities necessary to control and treat stormwater, surface water, and flood water. Such facilities include drains, ditches, canals, nonsanitary sewers, pumps, and other works, appliances, machinery, and equipment.

(3) Take actions necessary to protect life and property from inundation or flow of flood waters, stormwaters, or surface waters.

(4) Acquire, purchase, condemn by power of eminent domain pursuant to chapters 8.08 and 8.25 RCW, or lease, in its own name, necessary property, property rights, facilities, and equipment.

(5) Sell or exchange surplus property, property rights, facilities, and equipment.

(6) Accept funds and property by loan, grant, gift, or otherwise from the United States, the state of Washington, or any other public or private source.

(7) Hire staff, employees, or services, or use voluntary labor.

(8) Sue and be sued.

(9) Cooperate with or join the United States, the state of Washington, or any other public or private entity or person for district purposes.

(10) Enter into contracts.

(11) Exercise any of the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 85 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 85.05 RCW to read as follows:

Each qualified voter of a diking or drainage improvement district who owns more than ten acres of land within the district shall be entitled to one additional vote for each ten acres or major fraction thereof located within the district, up to a maximum total of twenty votes for any voter, or in the case of community property, a maximum total of ten votes per member of the marital community: PROVIDED, That this additional voting provision shall only apply in districts that were not in operation and did not have improvements as of May 14, 1925.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 86.09 RCW to read as follows:

Each qualified voter of a flood control district who owns more than ten acres of land within the district shall be entitled to one additional vote for each ten acres or major fraction thereof located within the district, up to a maximum total of twenty votes for any voter, or in the case of community property, a maximum total of ten votes per member of the marital community.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 85.08 RCW to read as follows:

The county engineer shall continue to act as a supervisor of a diking, drainage, or sewerage improvement district that is governed by a three-member board of supervisors until a replacement assumes office after being elected at the 1987 special district general election. At that election two supervisors shall be elected, with the person receiving the greatest number of votes being elected to a six-year term, and the person receiving the second greatest number of votes being elected to a four-year term. For the purposes of this subsection the organization shall be deemed to be principally located in the county within which it has its primary business office. If the organization has no business office, the organization shall be deemed to be located in the county of principal residence of its chief executive officer: PROVIDED, That any organization which is conducting any licensed and established bingo game in any locale as of January 1, 1981 shall be exempt from the requirement that such game be conducted in the county in which the organization is principally located.

(3) "Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization" means: (a) any organization duly existing under the provisions of chapters 24.12, 24.20, or 24.28 RCW, any agricultural fair authorized under the provisions of chapters 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, or any nonprofit corporation duly existing under the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW for charitable, benevolent, eleemosynary, educational, civic, patriotic, political, social, fraternal, athletic or agricultural purposes only, or any nonprofit organization, whether incorporated or otherwise, when found by the commission to be organized and operating for one or more of the aforesaid purposes only, all of which in the opinion of the commission have been organized and are operated primarily for purposes other than the operation of gambling activities authorized under this chapter; or (b) any corporation which has been incorporated under Title 36 U.S.C. and whose principal purposes are to furnish volunteer aid to members of the armed forces of the United States and also to carry on a system of national and international relief and to apply the same in mitigating the sufferings caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other national calamities and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same. Such an organization must have been organized and continuously operating for at least twelve calendar months immediately preceding making application for any license to operate a gambling activity, or the operation of any gambling activity authorized by this chapter for which no license is required. It must have not less than fifteen bona fide active members each with the right to an equal vote in the election of the officers, or board members, if any, who determine the policies of the organization in order to receive a gambling license. An organization must demonstrate to the commission that it has made significant progress toward the accomplishment of the purposes of the organization during the twelve consecutive month period preceding the date of application for a license or license renewal. The fact that contributions to an organization do not qualify for charitable contribution deduction purposes or that the organization is not otherwise exempt from payment of federal income taxes pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, shall constitute prima facie evidence that the organization is not a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this section.

Any person, association or organization which pays its employees, including members, compensation other than is reasonable therefor under the local prevailing wage scale shall be deemed paying compensation based in part or whole upon receipts relating to gambling activities authorized under this chapter and shall not be a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for the purposes of this chapter.

(4) "Bookmaking" means accepting bets as a business, rather than in a casual or personal fashion, upon the outcome of future contingent events.

(5) "Commercial stimulant". An activity is operated as a commercial stimulant, for the purposes of this chapter, only when it is an incidental activity operated in connection with, and incidental to, an established business, with the primary purpose of increasing the volume of sales of food or drink for consumption on that business premises. The commission may by rule establish guidelines and criteria for applying this definition to its applicants and licensees for gambling activities authorized by this chapter as commercial stimulants.

(6) "Commission" means the Washington state gambling commission created in RCW 9.46.040.

(7) "Contest of chance" means any contest, game, gaming scheme, or gaming device in which the outcome depends in a material degree upon an element of chance, notwithstanding that skill of the contestants may also be a factor therein.

(8) "Fishing derby" means a fishing contest, with or without the payment or giving of an entry fee or other consideration by some or all of the contestants wherein prizes are awarded for the species, size, weight, or quality of fish caught in a bona fide fishing or recreational event.

(9) "Gambling". A person engages in gambling if he stakes or risks something of value upon the outcome of a contest of chance or a future contingent event not under his control or influence, upon an agreement or understanding that he or someone else will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome. Gambling does not include fishing derbies as defined by this chapter, parimutuel betting as authorized by chapter 67.16 RCW, bona fide business transactions valid under the law of contracts, including, but not limited to, contracts for the purchase or sale at a future date of securities or commodities, and agreements to compensate for loss caused by the happening of chance, including, but not limited to, contracts of indemnity or guarantee and life, health or accident insurance. In addition, a contest of chance which is specifically excluded from the definition of lottery under subsection (14) of this section shall not constitute gambling.

(10) "Gambling device" means: (a) Any device or mechanism the operation of which a right to money, credits, deposits or other things of value may be created, in return for a consideration, as the result of the operation of an element of chance; (b) any device or mechanism which, when operated for a consideration, does not return the same value or thing of value for the same consideration upon each operation thereof; (c) any device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation designed primarily for use in connection with professional gambling; and (d) any subassembly or essential part designed or intended for use in connection with any such device, mechanism, furniture, fixture, construction or installation. But in the application of this definition, a pinball machine or similar mechanical amusement device which confers only an immediate and unrecorded right of replay on players thereof, which does not contain any mechanism which varies the chance of winning free games or the number of free games which may be won or a mechanism or a chute for dispensing coins or a facsimile thereof, and which prohibits multiple winnings depending upon the number of coins inserted and requires the playing of five balls individually upon the insertion of a nickel or dime, as the case may be, to complete any one operation thereof, shall not be deemed a gambling device: PROVIDED FURTHER, That owning, possessing, buying, selling, renting, leasing, financing, holding a security interest in, storing, repairing and transporting such pinball machines or similar mechanical amusement devices shall not be deemed engaging in professional gambling for the purposes of this chapter and shall not be a violation of this chapter: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any fee for the purchase or rental of any such pinball machines or similar amusement devices shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put but be based only upon the market value of any such machine, regardless of the location or type of premises where used, and any fee for the storing, repairing and transporting thereof shall have no relation to the use to which such machines are put, but be commensurate with the cost of labor and other expenses incurred in any such storing, repairing and transporting.

(11) "Gambling information" means any wager made in the course of and any information intended to be used for professional gambling. In the application of this definition information as to wagers, betting odds and changes in betting odds shall be presumed to be intended for use in professional gambling: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this subsection shall not apply to newspapers of general circulation or commercial radio and television stations licensed by the federal communications commission.

(12) "Gambling premises" means any building, room, enclosure, vehicle, vessel or other place used or intended to be used for professional gambling. (14) "Lottery" means a scheme for the distribution of money or property by chance, among persons who have paid or agreed to pay a valuable consideration for the chance.

(15) "Member" and "bona fide member". As used in this chapter, member and bona fide member each mean a person accepted for membership in an organization eligible to be licensed by the commission under this chapter upon application, with such action being recorded in the official minutes of a regular meeting or who has held full and regular membership status in the organization for a period of not less than twelve consecutive months prior to participating in the management or operation of any gambling activity. Such membership must in no way be dependent upon, or in any way related to, the payment of consideration to participate in any gambling activity.

Member or bona fide member shall include only members of an organization's specific chapter or unit licensed by the commission or otherwise actively conducting the gambling activity: PROVIDED, That

(a) Members of chapters or local units of a state, regional or national organization may be considered members of the parent organization for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the parent organization, if the rules of the parent organization so permit;

(b) Members of a bona fide auxiliary to a principal organization may be considered members of the principal organization for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the principal organization. Members of the principal organization may also be considered members of its auxiliary for the purpose of a gambling activity conducted by the auxiliary; and

(c) Members of any chapter or local unit within the jurisdiction of the next higher level of the parent organization, and members of a bona fide auxiliary to that chapter or unit, may assist any other chapter or local unit of that same organization licensed by the commission in the conduct of gambling activities.

No person shall be a member of any organization if that person's primary purpose for membership is to become, or continue to be, a participant in, or an operator or manager of, any gambling activity or activities.

(16) "Player" means a natural person who engages, on equal terms with the other participants, and solely as a contestant or bettor, in any form of gambling in which no person may receive or become entitled to receive any profit therefrom other than personal gambling winnings, and without otherwise rendering any material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation of a particular gambling activity. A natural person who gambles at a social game of chance on equal terms with the other participants therein does not otherwise render material assistance to the establishment, conduct or operation thereof by performing, without fee or remuneration, acts directed toward the arrangement or facilitation of the game, such as inviting persons to play, permitting the use of premises therefor, and supplying cards or other equipment used therein. A person who engages in "bookmaking" as defined in this section is not a "player".

(17) A person is engaged in "professional gambling" when:

(a) Acting other than as a player or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly engages in conduct which materially aids any other form of gambling activity; or

(b) Acting other than as a player, or in the manner set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, he knowingly accepts or receives money or other property pursuant to an agreement or understanding with any person whereby he participates or is to participate in the proceeds of gambling activity;

If a person having substantial proprietary or other authoritative control over any premises shall permit said premises to be used with the person's knowledge for the purpose of conducting gambling activity other than gambling activities as set forth in RCW 9.46.030 as now or hereafter amended, and acting other than as a player, and said person permits such to occur or continue or makes no effort to prevent its occurrence or continuation, he shall be considered as being engaged in professional gambling: PROVIDED, That the proprietor of a bowling establishment who awards prizes obtained from player contributions, to players successfully knocking down pins upon the contingency of identifiable pins being placed in a specified position or combination of positions, as designated by the posted rules of the bowling establishment, where the proprietor does not participate in the proceeds of the "prize fund" shall not be construed to be engaging in "professional gambling" within the meaning of this chapter: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the books and records of the games shall be open to public inspection.

(18) "Punch boards" and "pull-tabs" shall be given their usual and ordinary meaning as of July 16, 1973, except that such definition may be revised by the commission pursuant to rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter.

(19) "Raffle" means a game in which tickets bearing an individual number are sold for not more than one dollar each and in which a prize or prizes are awarded on the basis of a drawing from said tickets by the person or persons conducting the game, when said game is conducted by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization, no person other than a bona fide member of said organization takes any part in the management or operation of said game, and no part of the proceeds thereof inure to the benefit of any person other than the organization conducting said game.

(20) "Social card game" means a card game, including but not limited to the game commonly known as "Mah Jongg", which constitutes gambling and contains each of the following characteristics:

(a) There are two or more participants and each of them are players; and

(b) A player's success at winning money or other thing of value by overcoming chance is in the long run largely determined by the skill of the player; and

(c) No organization, corporation or person collects or obtains or charges any percentage of or collects or obtains any portion of the money or thing of value wagered or won by any of the players: PROVIDED, That this item (c) shall not preclude a player from collecting or obtaining his winnings; and

(d) No organization or corporation, or person collects or obtains any money or thing of value from, or charges or imposes any fee upon, any person which either enables him to play or results in or from his playing in excess of one dollar per half hour of playing time by that person collected in advance: PROVIDED, That a fee may also be charged for entry into a tournament for prizes, which fee shall not exceed twenty-five dollars, including all separate fees which might be paid by a player for various phases or events of the tournament: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this item (d) shall not apply to the membership fee in any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization; and

(e) The type of card game is one specifically approved by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070; and

(f) The extent of wagers, money or other thing of value which may be wagered or contributed by any player does not exceed the amount or value specified by the commission pursuant to RCW 9.46.070.

(21) "Thing of value" means any money or property, any token, object or article exchangeable for money or property, or any form of credit or promise, directly or indirectly, contemplating transfer of money or property or of any interest therein, or involving extension of a service, entertainment or a privilege of playing at a game or scheme without charge.

(22) "Whoever" and "person" include natural persons, corporations and partnerships and associations of persons; and when any corporate officer, director or stockholder or any partner authorizes, participates in, or knowingly accepts benefits from any violation of this chapter committed by his corporation or partnership, he shall be punishable for such violation as if it had been directly committed by him.

(23) "Fund raising event" means a fund raising event conducted during any seventy-two consecutive hours but exceeding twenty-four consecutive hours and not more than once in any calendar year or a fund raising event conducted not more than twice each calendar year for not more than twenty-four consecutive hours each time by a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization as defined in subsection (3) of this section other than any agricultural fair referred to thereunder, upon authorization therefor by the commission, which the legislature hereby authorizes to issue a license therefor, with or without fee, permitting the following activities, or any of them, during such event: Bingo, amusement games, contests of chance, lotteries and raffles: PROVIDED, That (a) gross wagers and bets received by the organization less the amount of money paid by the organization as winnings and for the purchase cost of prizes given as winnings do not exceed ten thousand dollars during the total calendar days of such fund raising event in the calendar year; (b) such activities shall not include any mechanical gambling or lottery device activated by the insertion of a coin or by the insertion of any object purchased by any person taking a chance by gambling in respect to the device; (c) only bona fide members of the organization who are not paid for such service shall participate in the management or operation of the activities, and all income therefrom, after deducting the cost of prizes and other expenses, shall be devoted solely to the lawful purposes of the organization; and (d) such organization shall notify the appropriate local law enforcement agency of the time and place where such activities shall be conducted. The commission shall require an annual information report setting forth in detail the expenses incurred and the revenue received relative to the activities permitted.

Bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations holding a license to conduct a fund raising event may (~~jointly~~) join together to jointly conduct a fund raising event if:

(i) Approval to do so is received from the commission; and

(ii) The method of dividing the income and expenditures and the method of recording and handling of funds are disclosed to the commission in the application for approval of the joint fund raising event and are approved by the commission.

The gross wagers and bets received by the organizations less the amount of money paid by the organizations as winnings and for the purchase costs of prizes given as winnings may not exceed ten thousand dollars during the total calendar days of such event. The net receipts each organization receives shall count against the organization's annual limit stated in this subsection.

A joint fund raising event shall count against only the lead organization or organizations receiving fifty percent or more of the net receipts for the purposes of the number of such events an organization may conduct each year.

The commission may issue a joint license for a joint fund raising event and charge a license fee for such license according to a schedule of fees adopted by the commission which reflects the added cost to the commission of licensing more than one licensee for the event.

Sec. 2, Section 2, chapter 139, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.46.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The legislature hereby authorizes bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct bingo games, raffles, amusement games, and fund raising events, and to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs and to allow their premises and facilities to be used by only members, their guests, and members of a chapter or unit organized under the same state, regional, or national charter or constitution, to play social card games authorized by the commission, when licensed, conducted or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(4) The legislature hereby authorizes any person, association or organization operating an established business primarily engaged in the selling of food or drink for consumption on the premises to conduct social card games and to utilize punch boards and pull-tabs as a commercial stimulant to such business when licensed and utilized or operated pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(g) The person or organization conducting the pool is conducting no other sports pool on the same athletic event; and

(h) The sports pool conforms to any rules and regulations of the commission applicable thereto.

(7) The legislature hereby authorizes bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations to conduct, without the necessity of obtaining a permit or license to do so from the commission, golfing sweepstakes permitting wagers of money, and the same shall not constitute such gambling or lottery as otherwise in this chapter prohibited, or be subject to civil or criminal penalties thereunder, but this only when the outcome of such golfing sweepstakes is dependent upon the score, or scores, or the playing ability, or abilities, of a golfing contest between individual players or teams of such players, conducted in the following manner:

(a) Wagers are placed by buying tickets on any players in a golfing contest to "win", "place" or "show" and those holding tickets on the three winners may receive a payoff similar to the system of betting identified as parimutuel, such moneys placed as wagers to be used primarily as winners proceeds, except moneys used to defray the expenses of such golfing sweepstakes or otherwise used to carry out the purposes of such organization; or

Accounting records shall be available for inspection during business hours by any person purchasing a chance thereon, by the commission or its representatives, or by any law enforcement agency.

(9) (a) The legislature hereby authorizes any bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization which is licensed pursuant to RCW 66.24.400, and its officers and employees, to allow the use of the premises, furnishings, and other facilities not gambling devices of such organization by members of the organization, and members of a chapter or unit organized under the same state, regional, or national charter or constitution, who engage as players in the following types of gambling activities only:

(ii) Social dice games, which shall be limited to contests of chance, the outcome of which are determined by one or more rolls of dice.

(10)(a) The legislature hereby authorizes promotional contests of chance conducted in this state, or partially in this state, in which a person is required, in order to participate in the contest equally with other participants, to do only one or more of the following:

(ix) Pay an admission fee to gain admission to any bona fide exposition, fair, or show for the display or promotion of goods, wares, or services, or any agricultural fair authorized under chapter 15.76 or 36.37 RCW, if (A) the scheme is conducted for promotional or advertising purposes, not including the promotion or advertisement of the scheme itself; and (B) the person or organization conducting the scheme receives no portion of the admission fee either directly or indirectly and receives no other money for conducting the scheme either directly or indirectly, other than what might be received indirectly as a result of the success of the promotional or advertising aspect of the scheme.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, where any contest of chance is conducted by or on behalf of in-state retail grocery outlets in connection with business promotions, no such in-state retail grocery outlet may conduct more than one such contest of chance during each calendar year and the period of the contest of chance and its promotion shall not extend for more than fourteen consecutive days: PROVIDED, That if the sponsoring organization has more than one outlet in the state, such contests of chance must be held in all such outlets at the same time except that a sponsoring organization with more than one outlet may conduct a separate contest of chance in connection with the initial opening of any such outlet: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such contests of chance may be conducted on an ongoing basis if the prizes awarded or accumulated to award do not exceed thirty dollars a day or five thousand dollars a year in the aggregate for all outlets of the sponsoring organizations. (11) The penalties provided for professional gambling in this chapter shall not apply to the activities authorized by this section when conducted in compliance with the provisions of this chapter and in accordance with the rules and regulations of the commission."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Warnke, will you refresh our memory? What is the twenty percent qualification on the last portion of the digest?"

Senator Warnke: "The twenty percent is the definition of instate retail grocery outlets and we modified that to include the establishment in which twenty percent of the gross receipts result from the sale of food for off premise preparation."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 101, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, did I hear you correctly in saying that this bill was aimed at the Safeway stores and their bingo game?"

Senator Warnke: "I can't recall my remarks mentioning any establishment by name."

Senator Rasmussen: "Would this now, Senator Warnke, prohibit Safeway stores from conducting bingo games as they have in the past?"

Senator Warnke: "This bill will allow any grocery outlet to hold any bingo game, but for not more than fourteen consecutive days, or in the case of a grand opening of store and they can only run them more than fourteen days if there is more than thirty dollars a day, which computes to $5,000 a year, which is the limit in the gambling act."

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Warnke, in a case of a grand opening they may, how about a grand closing? We have many stores that have a grand closing every week and they have grand openings also. If they just head it--'we're celebrating a grand opening'--and put another counter in the store, then they can have their bingo?"

Senator Warnke: "If this bill passes, there may not be as many grand closings as there are grand openings."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Warnke, I would appreciate further definition as to what--there are several references to instate retail grocery stores and I would like to know what, by definition under this act, is an instate retail grocery outlet?"

Senator Warnke: "You know, Senator Patterson, I can't recall why we said instate except that I don't think the state has the ability to prohibit retail outlets that may be across the border, for example, in Oregon from running a bingo game, and I believe the instate refers only to stores which are physically situated inside the state of Washington."

Senator Patterson: "Then under that definition they could be an out-of-state multi type of corporation that has an outlet in the state of Washington, and under this definition then, like a Safeway store, would be prohibited?"

Senator Warnke: "Yes."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Pullen and Warnke demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, this bill does two things. It reduces gambling on one hand and it extends gambling on the other hand. Does this bill require a sixty percent majority to pass?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President thinks not."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "I wish to inquire of the President, I didn't know that we had a rule that only two for and two against, or three for and six against, whatever it was that Senator Bottiger remarked on. I knew that we had a three-minute rule, Mr. President, but could you enlighten me on the rest of it? Or is that a figment of his imagination?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It's possible that Senator Bottiger has an agreement with leadership that the President is unaware of."

Senator Rasmussen: "I'm part of the leadership and they didn't have an agreement with me, and we vote blindly, Mr. President. I hope we don't get that blinded."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I was just calling--hopefully in a subtle way--calling the attention of the body to the other important measures that are remaining here to be considered by the cutoff time."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 101, as amended by the Senate.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1116, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representatives Day, Padden, Dellwo, Silver, Barrett, Taylor, Haugen, Isaacson, J. King, Bond, West and Fuhrman)

Authorizing the establishment of aquifer protection areas.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Kreidler moved that the following Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment not be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The protection of subterranean water from pollution or degradation is of great concern. The purpose of this chapter is to allow the creation of aquifer protection areas to finance the protection, preservation, and rehabilitation of subterranean water, and to reduce special assessments imposed upon households to finance facilities for such purposes. Pollution and degradation of subterranean drinking water supplies pose immediate threats to the safety and welfare of the citizens of this state.

Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall not take effect unless, by August 1, 1985, four hundred million dollars of state general obligation bonds are authorized, a state tax plan is authorized, or some combination thereof, for the purpose of public waste disposal and management facilities, including facilities that will protect sole source aquifers and other groundwater bodies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The county legislative authority of a county may create one or more aquifer protection areas for the purpose of funding the protection, preservation, and rehabilitation of subterranean water.

When a county legislative authority proposes to create an aquifer protection area it shall conduct a public hearing on the proposal. Notice of the public hearing shall be published at least once, not less than ten days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation within the proposed aquifer protection area. The public hearing may be continued to other times, dates, and places announced at the public hearing, without publication of the notice. At the public hearing, the county legislative authority shall hear objections and comments from anyone interested in the proposed aquifer protection area.

After the public hearing, the county legislative authority may adopt a resolution causing a ballot proposition to be submitted to the registered voters residing within the proposed aquifer protection area to authorize the creation of the aquifer protection area, if the county legislative authority finds that the creation of the aquifer protection area would be in the public interest. The resolution shall: (1) Describe the boundaries of the proposed aquifer protection area; (2) find that its creation is in the public interest; (3) state the maximum level of fees for the withdrawal of water, or on-site sewage disposal, occurring in the aquifer protection area, or both; and (4) describe the uses for the fees.

An aquifer protection area shall be created by ordinances of the county if the voters residing in the proposed aquifer protection area approve the ballot proposition by a simple majority vote. The ballot proposition shall be in substantially the following form:

"Shall the _____ (insert the name) aquifer protection area be created and authorized to impose monthly fees on _____ (insert "the withdrawal of water" or "on-site sewage disposal") of not to exceed _____ (insert a dollar amount) per household unit for up to _____ (insert a number of years) to finance _____ (insert the type of activities proposed to be financed)?

Yes ..... _____
 No ..... _____

If both types of monthly fees are proposed to be imposed, maximum rates for each shall be included in the ballot proposition.

An aquifer protection area may not include territory located within a city or town without the approval of the city or town governing body, nor may it include territory located in the unincorporated area of another county without the approval of the county legislative authority of that county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Aquifer protection areas are authorized to impose fees on the withdrawal of subterranean water and on on-site sewage disposal. The fees shall be expressed as a dollar amount per household unit. Fees imposed for the withdrawal of water, or on-site sewage disposal, other than by households shall be expressed and imposed in equivalents of household units. If both types of fees are imposed, the rate imposed on on-site sewage disposal shall not exceed the rate imposed for the withdrawal of water.

No fees shall be imposed in excess of the amount authorized by the voters of the aquifer protection area. Fees shall only be used for the activity or activities authorized by the voters of the aquifer protection area. Ballot propositions may be submitted to the voters of an aquifer protection area to authorize a higher maximum level of such fees or to authorize additional activities for which the fees may be used. Such a ballot proposition shall be substantially in the form of that portion of the proposition to authorize the creation of an aquifer protection district that relates to fees or activities, as provided in section 2 of this act. Approval of the ballot proposition by simple majority vote shall authorize the higher maximum level of fees or additional activities for which the fees may be used.

A county may contract with existing public utilities to collect the fees, or collect the fees itself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Aquifer protection areas may impose fees to fund:

- (1) The preparation of a comprehensive plan to protect, preserve, and rehabilitate subterranean water;
- (2) The construction of facilities for: (a) The removal of water-borne pollution; (b) water quality improvement; (c) sanitary sewage collection, disposal, and treatment; and (d) storm water or surface water drainage collection, disposal, and treatment; and

(3) The proportionate reduction of special assessments imposed by a county, city, town, or special district in the aquifer protection area for any of the facilities described in subsection (2) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A county legislative authority may dissolve an aquifer protection area upon a finding that such dissolution is in the public interest.

A ballot proposition to dissolve an aquifer protection district shall be placed on the ballot for the approval or rejection of the voters residing in an aquifer protection area, when a petition requesting such a ballot proposition is signed by at least twenty percent of the voters residing in the aquifer protection area and is filed with the county legislative authority of the county originally creating the aquifer protection area. The ballot proposition shall be placed on the ballot at the next general election occurring sixty or more days after the petition has been filed. Approval of the ballot proposition by a simple majority vote shall cause the dissolution of the aquifer protection area.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Kreidler, we just got this amendment and it's difficult to read. It's about a seven page amendment in about thirty seconds. Could you specifically describe the differences between the amendment you propose and the bill as it came from committee that is in the book here."

Senator Kreidler: "Thank you, Senator Bluechel. I would like to point out two things--one is an amendment that was passed out, a short couple of lines amendment, and that one does not need to be offered now with the motion that I made right now so I'm not going to offer it. The second part is that this was the committee amendment as it came out of committee and apparently it would not have been in the books--and that's the reason it was passed out when it did. It is identical to the language as when it came out of committee as we dealt with it, so we are essentially going back. If there's a 'no' vote on the amendment, then we are essentially back to the language as it came over from the House."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kreidler, without the amendment, it provides that if both types of fees are imposed, the on-site sewage disposal fees cannot be greater than the withdrawal of water fees. Let's assume that I'm a farmer and I'm drawing out 10,000 gallons of water a day when I'm spraying my fields, would that mean that the on-site sewage disposal fee for his septic tank would equal the amount of fee for the water withdrawal?"

Senator Kreidler: "Senator, as I understand it, that's a way of limiting to reassure those people those fees would not be exorbitant and that's the reason the language is in there, not the reverse that they would be too high as a result of that language."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, I'm a farmer and I have my little well and I also have my septic tank and nothing else, and I'm forty miles from nowhere. They are going to charge me for my septic tank and my well water?"

Senator Kreidler: "The answer to that, Senator, would be 'no.' We're talking about in the aquifer protection area. What you're describing there would obviously be a situation where they would not be inscribed into that area if they are, indeed, geographically that far removed from the area."

Senator Rasmussen: "It could be, as I understand, one large aquifer protection district."

Senator Kreidler: "To insure that one individual out there from ever having a problem of this nature, we're talking about an issue that is going to be decided by the local community by virtue of a vote, so there's adequate protections in there from the standpoint of someone being inscribed into an area or being exposed to fees they were adamantly opposed to. It's going to be a local decision."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "A parliamentary inquiry--what is the motion?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The question before the Senate is the motion by Senator Kreidler that the Senate not adopt the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Kreidler to not adopt the Committee on Parks and Ecology amendment to Substitute House Bill No. 1116.

The motion by Senator Kreidler carried and the committee amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Guess was adopted:

On page 3, line 20, after "water" strike "; and insert ". This plan may be prepared as a portion of a county sewerage and/or water general plan pursuant to RCW 36.94.030."

On motion of Senator Kreidler, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1116, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "I'm looking at the committee amendment, Senator Guess, and I was wondering, in the language it says, 'The legislative authority of a county may create one or more aquifer protection areas for the purposes, etc.' What happens when you have the subterranean river going from one state into the state of Washington, or from one county into another county?"

Senator Guess: "Would you state that question over?"

Senator Patterson: "I don't know whether the language is in the old bill--it is in the old bill and the question I have is on page 2 of the old bill--it says, 'The legislative authority of a county may create one or more aquifer protection areas for the purpose of protection and preservation of a subterranean river' and what I'm asking is what affect this has or how do you handle a situation where a river stands between the border of a state into the state of Washington or that it encompasses two counties?"

Senator Guess: "Senator, I'll have to answer first on across the state line. In the instance of the Rafton Plain, out east of Spokane, the state of Idaho ten years ago adopted far more stringent regulations than the state of Washington has been able to adopt, so they stopped polluting the aquifer a long time ago, we continued to do that, or at least to have our septic tanks. Now, if you've got two counties, I don't know of any situation where you have two counties but each county under an intergovernmental contract relationship would be able to do the same thing."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1116, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1116, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 3; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Authorizing employees to inspect their personnel files for irrelevant or erroneous information.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 6, after "file(s)," insert "An 'employee' is defined as a person currently employed or on a leave of absence with a right to return to the employer or a person whose employment has terminated within the preceding twelve months."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 11, after "file(s)" insert "that are regularly maintained by the employer as a part of his business records or are subject to reference for information given to persons outside of the company"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 358, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 846, by Committee on Energy and Utilities (originally sponsored by Representatives D. Nelson, Van Luven, Todd, Miller, Braddock, Long, Appelwick, J. Williams, Sanders and Isaacson)

Authorizing municipalities to develop electric generation capabilities.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Williams moved that the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. For the purposes of this act, the legislature finds it is the policy of the state of Washington that:

(1) The quality of the natural environment shall be protected and, where possible, enhanced as follows: Perennial rivers and streams of the state shall be retained with base flows necessary to provide for preservation of wildlife, fish, scenic, aesthetic and other environmental values, and navigational values. Lakes and ponds shall be retained substantially in their natural condition. Withdrawals of water which would conflict therewith shall be authorized only in those situations where it is clear that overriding considerations of the public interest will be served.

(2) Development of water supply systems, whether publicly or privately owned, which provide water to the public generally in regional areas within the state shall be encouraged. Development of water supply systems for multiple domestic use which will not serve the public generally shall be discouraged where water supplies are available from water systems serving the public.

Sec. 2. Section 35.92.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.92.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A city or town may construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain and operate waterworks, within or without its limits, for the purpose of furnishing the city and its inhabitants, and any other persons, with an ample supply of water for all purposes, public and private, including water power and other power derived therefrom, with full power to regulate and control the use, distribution, and price thereof: PROVIDED, That the rates charged must be uniform for the same class of customers or service. Such waterworks may include facilities for the generation of electricity as a byproduct and such electricity may be used by the city or town or sold at a price no greater than the cost of generation to an entity authorized by law to distribute electricity. Such electricity is a byproduct when the electrical generation is subordinate to the primary purpose of water supply. In classifying customers served or service furnished, the city or town governing body may in its discretion consider any or all of the following factors: The difference in cost of service to the various customers; location of the various customers within and without the city or town; the difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair, and replacement of the various parts of the system; the different character of the service furnished various customers; the quantity and quality of the water furnished; the time of its use; capital contributions made to the system including, but not limited to, assessments; and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. No rate shall be charged that is less than the cost of the water and service to the class of customers served.

For such purposes any city or town may take, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, and retain water from any public or navigable lake or watercourse, surface or ground, and, by means of aqueducts or pipe lines, conduct it to the city or town; and it may erect and build dams or other works across or at the outlet of any lake or watercourse in this state for the purpose of storing and retaining water therein up to and above high water mark; and for all the purposes of erecting such aqueducts, pipe lines, dams, or waterworks or other necessary structures in storing and retaining water, or for any of the purposes provided for by this chapter, the city or town may occupy and use the beds and shores up to the high water mark of any such watercourse or lake, and acquire the right by purchase, or by condemnation and purchase, or otherwise, to any water, water rights, easements or privileges named in this chapter, or necessary for any of said purposes, and the city or town may acquire by purchase or condemnation and purchase any properties or privileges necessary to be had to protect its water supply from pollution. Should private property be necessary for any such purposes or for storing water above high water mark, the city or town may condemn and purchase, or purchase and acquire such private property. For the purposes of waterworks which include facilities for the generation of electricity as a byproduct, nothing in this section may be construed to authorize a city or town that does not own or operate an electric utility system to condemn electric generating, transmission, or distribution rights or facilities of entities authorized by law to distribute electricity, or to acquire such rights or facilities without the consent of the owner.

Sec. 3. Section 35.92.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.92.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When the governing body of a city or town deems it advisable that the city or town purchase, acquire, or construct any such public utility or make any additions and betterments thereto or extensions thereof, it shall provide therefor by ordinance, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, and declare the estimated cost thereof, as near as may be, and the ordinance shall be submitted for ratification or rejection to the voters of the city or town at a general or special election, except in the following cases where no submission shall be necessary:

(1) When the work proposed is (a) an addition to, or betterment of, or extension of, or an increased water supply for, existing waterworks(:); PROVIDED, That submission by a city or town that does not own or operate an electric utility system shall be necessary for a work which may produce electricity for sale in excess of present and future needs of the water system if such work involves an ownership greater than twenty-five percent in a new water supply project combined with an electric generation facility or if the combined facility has an installed capacity in excess of five megawatts; or (b) an addition, betterment, or extension of an existing system or plant of any other public utility for which no general indebtedness is to be incurred by the city or town;

(2) When in the charter of a city or town a provision has been adopted authorizing the corporate authorities thereof to provide by ordinance for acquiring, opening, or operating any of such public utilities, for which no general indebtedness is to be incurred; or

(3) When in the judgment of the corporate authority, the public health is being endangered by the discharge of raw or untreated sewage into any river or stream and the danger to the public health may be abated by the construction and maintenance of a sewage disposal plant for which no general indebtedness shall be incurred by the city or town responsible for such contamination.

If a general indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount and terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the voters and such proposition shall be adopted by three-fifths of the voters voting at such election.

If no general indebtedness is to be incurred the proposition may be adopted by a majority vote.

~~((Fen))~~ Thirty days' notice of the election shall be given in the newspaper doing the city or town printing, by publication ~~((in each issue of))~~ at least once each week in the paper during such time.

When a proposition has been adopted, or in the cases where no submission is necessary, the corporate authorities of the city or town may proceed forthwith to purchase, construct, and acquire the public utility or make additions, betterments, and extensions thereto and to make payment therefor.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as amended by section 1, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A water district may acquire by purchase or condemnation, or both, all property and property rights and all water and water rights, both within and without the district, necessary for its purposes. A water district may lease real or personal property necessary for its purposes for a term of years for which such leased property may reasonably be needed where in the opinion of the board of water commissioners such property may not be needed permanently or substantial savings to the district can be effected thereby. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as provided for cities of the third class, insofar as consistent with the provisions of this title, except that all assessment rolls to be prepared and filed by eminent domain commissioners or commissioners appointed by the court shall be prepared and filed by the water district, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer. A water district may construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, add to, maintain and supply waterworks to furnish the district and inhabitants thereof, and any city or town therein and any other persons, both within and without the district, with an ample supply of water for all uses and purposes public and private with full authority to regulate and control the use, distribution and price thereof. Such waterworks may include facilities which result in combined water supply and electric generation, provided that the electricity generated thereby is a byproduct of the water supply system. Such electricity may be used by the water district or sold at a price no greater than the cost of generation to any entity authorized by law to distribute electricity. Such electricity is a byproduct when the electrical generation is subordinate to the primary purpose of water supply. For such purposes, a water district may take, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire and retain water from any public or navigable lake, river or watercourse, or any underflowing water and, by means of aqueducts or pipe line conduct the same throughout such water district and any city or town therein and carry it along and upon public highways, roads and streets, within and without such district. For the purpose of constructing or laying aqueducts or pipe lines, dams, or waterworks or other necessary structures in storing and retaining water or for any other lawful purpose such water district may occupy the beds and shores up to the high water mark of any such lake, river, or other watercourse, and may acquire by purchase or condemnation such property or property rights or privileges as may be necessary to protect its water supply from pollution. For the purposes of waterworks which include facilities for the generation of electricity as a byproduct, nothing in this section may be construed to authorize a water district to condemn electric generating, transmission, or distribution rights or facilities of entities authorized by law to distribute electricity, or to acquire such rights or facilities without the consent of the owner.

A water district may purchase and take water from any municipal corporation.

A water district may fix rates and charges for water supplied and may charge property owners seeking to connect to the district's water supply system, as a condition to granting the right to so connect, in addition to the cost of such connection, such reasonable connection charge as the board of commissioners shall determine to be proper in order that such property owners shall bear their equitable share of the cost of such system.

Sec. 5. Section 10, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 4, chapter 190, Laws of 1981 and RCW 56.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A sewer district may acquire by purchase or by condemnation and purchase all lands, property rights, water, and water rights, both within and without the district, necessary for its purposes. A sewer district may lease real or personal property necessary for its purposes for a term of years for which such leased property may reasonably be needed where in the opinion of the board of sewer commissioners such property may not be needed permanently or substantial savings to the district can be effected thereby. The right of eminent domain shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as provided for cities of the third class, insofar as consistent with the provisions of this title, except that all assessments or reassessment rolls required to be filed by eminent domain commissioners or commissioners appointed by the court shall be prepared and filed by the district, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer shall be imposed upon the county treasurer for the purposes hereof; it may construct, condemn and purchase, add to, maintain, and operate systems of sewers for the purpose of furnishing the district and inhabitants thereof with an adequate system of sewers for all uses and purposes, public and private, including but not limited to on-site sewage disposal facilities, facilities for the drainage of storm or surface waters, public highways, streets, and roads with full authority to regulate the use and operation thereof and the service rates to be charged. Such sewage facilities may include facilities which result in combined sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage and electric generation, provided that the electricity generated thereby is a byproduct of the system of sewers. Such electricity may be used by the sewer district or sold at a price no greater than the cost of generation to any entity authorized by law to distribute electricity. Such electricity is a byproduct when the electrical generation is subordinate to the primary purpose of sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage. For such purposes a district may conduct sewage throughout the district and throughout other political subdivisions within the district, and construct and lay sewer pipe along and upon public highways, roads, and streets, within and without the district, and condemn and purchase or acquire land and rights of way necessary for such sewer pipe. A district may erect sewage treatment plants, within or without the district, and may acquire by purchase or condemnation, properties or privileges necessary to be had to protect any lakes, rivers, or watercourses and also other areas of land from pollution, from its sewers or its sewage treatment plant. For the purposes of sewage facilities which include facilities which result in combined sewage disposal, treatment, or drainage and electric generation where the electric generation is a byproduct, nothing in this section may be construed to authorize a district to condemn electric generating, transmission, or distribution rights or facilities of entities authorized by law to distribute electricity, or to acquire such rights or facilities without the consent of the owner. A district may charge property owners seeking to connect to the district system of sewers, as a condition to granting the right to so connect, in addition to the cost of such connection, such reasonable connection charge as the board of commissioners shall determine to be proper in order that such property owners shall bear their equitable share of the cost of such system. A district may compel all property owners within the sewer district located within an area served by the district system of sewers to connect their private drain and sewer systems with the district system under such penalty as the sewer commissioners shall prescribe by resolution. The district may for such purpose enter upon private property and connect the private drains or sewers with the district system and the cost thereof shall be charged against the property owner and shall be a lien upon property served.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 90.54 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to other requirements of this chapter, when the proposed water resource development project involves a new water supply combined with an electric generation facility where such electricity generated may be sold to an entity authorized by law to distribute electricity, the department shall evaluate and utilize, in connection with any application to appropriate water pursuant to the water code, chapter 90.03 RCW, sufficient information furnished by the project applicant regarding the need for the project, alternative means of serving the purposes of the project, the cumulative effects of the project and similar projects that are built, under construction or permitted in the relevant river basin or basins and an estimate of the impact, if any, of the sale of the project's electricity on the rates of utility customers of the Bonneville power administration. Such information shall be furnished at the project applicant's own cost and expense.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Nothing in this act exempts any city or town, water district, or sewer district from compliance with applicable state and federal statutes and regulations including but not limited to: State environmental policy act, chapter 43.21C RCW; national environmental policy act, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 4321 et seq.; federal power act, 16 U.S.C. Sec. 791 et seq.; public utility regulatory policies act, 15 U.S.C. Sec. 717f; Pacific northwest electric power planning and conservation act, 16 U.S.C. Sec. 839; energy financing voter approval act, chapter 80.52 RCW; water resources act, chapter 90.54 RCW; federal clean water act, 33 U.S.C. Sec. 1251 et seq.; the public water system coordination act, chapter 70.116 RCW; and the state clean water act, chapter 90.48 RCW.

(2) In addition, if the work proposed under this act involves a new water supply project combined with an electric generation facility with an installed capacity in excess of five megawatts which may produce electricity for sale in excess of present and future needs of the water system, then each of those with a greater than twenty-five percent ownership interest in the project shall jointly prepare an independent economic feasibility study evaluating the cost-effectiveness of the combined facility in the context of forecast regional water needs, alternate sources of water supply, and the potential impact of the combined facility on rates charged for water and electricity.

In addition to the economic feasibility study, the results of the environmental impact statement required by chapter 43.21C RCW and any review by the department of ecology made pursuant to chapter 90.54 RCW shall be made available to the public at least sixty days prior to any public vote on the new combined project.

(3) This act supplements the authority of cities and towns, water districts, and sewer districts and does not restrict or impose limits on any authority such municipal corporations may otherwise have under any laws of this state nor may the authority of such municipal corporations under other laws of this state be construed more narrowly on account of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Goltz moved that the following amendments by Senators Goltz and McDonald to the Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 2, line 26, after "sold", strike "at a price no greater than the cost of generation"

On page 8, line 23, after "sold", strike "at a price no greater than the cost of generation"

On page 11, line 26, after "sold", strike "at a price no greater than the cost of generation"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McDonald, the question I have about this amendment--about this whole issue--is this dam really being built for electrical generation or is it being built to have the city of Bellevue to acquire its own water system independent from that of the city of Seattle?"

Senator McDonald: "The dam, whether it's built or not, is the decision of the East Side Water Venture, which is a venture of many towns and water districts across there and this bill doesn't do anything to that. The answer to your question, Senator Talmadge, is if we don't allow them to generate power and put that back to lower the water rates what that will do is they will put energy dissipators into the lines, because the pressure would be too great in the lines and you simply have to get rid of that energy. You do that then by energy dissipation. What this will allow us to do, if the venture goes forward, and there are a lot of checks and balances in there, is to use that drop in pressure to generate electricity and then the revenue generated from that will be used to reduce the cost of power and that seems to me to be a reasonable----"

Senator Talmadge: "Are you assuring me, Senator McDonald, that the revenues derived from this project will not be employed to build a new water system for the city of Bellevue and the other cities on the east side of the lake?"

Senator McDonald: "The revenues derived from generation of the power, Senator Talmadge, will be used to reduce the rate for water, and that's all this bill does."

Senator Talmadge: "I guess I still haven't really gotten an answer to the question as to whether or not the revenues derived from this will be used when the city of Bellevue sells the power at a greater than the cost of generation for the construction of a new water system for the eastside cities."

Senator McDonald: "The cost of building the dam is far in excess of what the power generated will get us, so that's not a question, they are going to have to sell bonds or they are going to have to generate revenue in some way to build the dam. The power generated will simply be a by-product of the water transmitted into the city and, therefore, that revenue will be used to somewhat offset the cost of the bonds. Have I answered your question?"

Senator Talmadge: "Not entirely."

Senator McDonald: "It costs more to build this dam than the power that is generated will give you back."

Senator Talmadge: "I just want assurance from one of the proponents of this measure that the monies derived from this will be used to deal with the issue of paying back the cost of construction of the dam, perhaps lowering the rate of the electrical users on the east side, and not for the purpose of using one project to finance another--which might be desired by the east side cities."

Senator McDonald: "No, that is clearly not the intent or what would be authorized in this bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Goltz and McDonald to the Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

Senator Warnke: "This bill deals with metro employees. The other bill deals with public employees."

Senator Pullen: "I'm not comparing with who it deals with, but what the specific mechanism is for the deductions and what the specific rights for any of the specific affected groups."

Senator Warnke: "The payroll deduction authorization must be signed by the employee--must be covered by the collective bargaining agreement in this bill. Frankly, I cannot recall 3189. I do not recall 3189."

On page 4, after line 19 of the committee amendment, insert a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 70.98 RCW to read as follows:

(1) (a) The agency shall institute a user permit system and issue site permits consistent with current regulatory practices, for generators, packagers, or brokers using the Hanford low-level radioactive waste disposal facility.

(b) The costs of administering the user permit system shall be borne by the applicants for site use permits.

(c) The site use permit fee shall be set at a level that is sufficient to fund completely the executive and legislative participation in activities related to the Northwest Interstate Compact on Low-Level Radioactive Waste.

(2) In addition to the fee collected pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the agency shall collect a surveillance fee, consistent with current regulatory practices, which shall be set at a level that is sufficient to fund completely the radiation control activities of the agency which are not otherwise covered by cost recovery programs including, but not limited to, any funds from federal sources: PROVIDED, That the surveillance fees shall not be used to support monitoring or other activities not related to the management and disposal of low-level radioactive waste. The fee shall also provide funds for other state agencies that incur expenses as a result of the control and management of the disposal of low-level radioactive waste in the state of Washington. Disbursements for these purposes to other state agencies shall be by authorization of the secretary of the department of social and health services or the secretary's designee.

(3) The agency may adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this section."

Re-number the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, I raise the point that the amendment by Senator Williams expands the scope and object of the original bill.

"Mr. President, Engrossed House Bill No. 723 extends or raises a 33 percent tax on low-level radioactive waste activities to raise 75 million dollars in this biennium. The amendment offered by Senator Williams leaves the low level waste area entirely and it directs the state radiation control agency with the Department of Social and Health Services to conduct environmental monitoring to verify the radiation monitoring being conducted by the federal government in high level waste. It further directs the Department of Ecology to seek funds from the federal government to carry out this monitoring and it does in fact expand the scope and object of the original bill."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Guess, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 723 is a measure extending the 33% tax on low level radioactive waste activities to all radioactive waste site activities and to disposal site activities.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Williams codifies a permit system for radiation generators, packagers and brokers and authorizes the collection of user fees to fund monitoring activities regarding radiation.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Williams to the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

Debate ensued.

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 723, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Benitz, the stated purpose of this bill was to provide revenues to enable the state to monitor and evaluate a potential repository site on the Hanford Reservation. From your perspective as a ranking member of the Senate Energy and Utilities Committee, is that your view of this bill?"

Senator Benitz: "It is my view that this bill singles out nuclear waste activities at the highest rate imposed by the state, not because of health and safety concerns, but rather as punitive measure against the federal government and its contractors. This bill defines disposal activities as including all of the preliminary activities that are going on at Hanford to determine the suitability of the site. There is, at present, no disposal activity involving commercial spent fuel or waste, and it could be--as Senator Guess said--up to 13 years before such an activity takes place. The work being performed by the federal government and its contractors in this area is sophisticated engineering and geological analyses. However, since it may eventually involve nuclear waste disposal, the bill singles out these activities for an extremely high tax rate. This is particularly onerous since the state has requested grant funds from the Department of Energy under the Nuclear Waste Policy Act to perform the monitoring and independent investigations, which the proposed bill states is its basic intent. Under these circumstances, it's obvious that this bill unfairly discriminates against the federal government and its contractors."

Further debate ensued.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 723, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 14; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, Lee, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Stratton, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 33.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 26, after per se" strike all material down to and including "arrangements" on line 27

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 46, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, being a non-lawyer, how would you define unreasonable?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Kiskaddon, there's something in the federal anti-trust law called the rule of reason that's been applied to allow certain kinds of anticompetitive activities. However, the federal courts have indicated that certain kinds of activities are unreasonable per se and they include some of the things I described, such as price fixing, division of market places--you get this market and I get that market and that kind of thing, or other arrangements--you buy my product and if you buy it, then you get this other product--which is a little bit scarcer. Those kinds of unreasonable things are considered to be violations of the antitrust law per se. This essentially makes our state antitrust law, anticompetitive law, similar to what now applies to federal law."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 46, as amended by the Senate.

understanding between the two parties that are usually at logger heads on this type of bill?"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the seal of the state of Washington is a symbol of the authority and sovereignty of the state and is a valuable asset of its people. It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that appropriate uses are made of the state seal and to assist the secretary of state in the performance of the secretary's constitutional duty as custodian of the seal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "State seal" means the seal of the state as described in Article XVIII, section 1 of the state Constitution and in RCW 1.20.080.

(2) "Secretary" means the secretary of state and any designee of the secretary of state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the state seal shall be used for official purposes only.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The secretary of state may authorize the use of the state seal on commemorative and souvenir items, and for historical, educational, and civic purposes. Such authorization shall be in writing.

(2) Application for such authorization shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a filing fee, the amount of which shall be determined by the secretary of state. The secretary shall set the fee at a level adequate to cover the administrative costs of processing the applications.

(3) If the secretary determines that a permitted use of the seal could financially benefit the state, the secretary may condition authorization upon a licensing agreement to secure those benefits for the state.

(4) The secretary of state shall adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to govern the use of the seal in a manner consistent with this chapter. Any rule governing the use of the seal shall be designed to prevent inappropriate or misleading use of the seal and to assure tasteful and high-quality reproduction of the seal. The rules shall also prescribe the circumstances when a licensing arrangement shall be required and the method for determining licensing fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Except as otherwise provided in section 4 of this act, the state seal shall not be used on or in connection with any advertising or promotion for any product, business, organization, service, or article whether offered for sale for profit or offered without charge.

(2) The state seal shall never be used in a political campaign to assist or defeat any candidate for elective office.

(3) It is a violation of this chapter to use any symbol that imitates the seal or that is deceptively similar in appearance to the seal, in any manner that would be an improper use of the official seal itself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. No use of the state seal may operate or be construed to operate in any way as an endorsement of any business, organization, product, service, or article.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Any person who violates section 5(1) or (3) of this act by using the state seal or an imitative or deceptively similar seal on or in connection with any product, business, organization, service, or article shall be liable for damages in a suit brought by the attorney general. The damages shall be equal to the gross monetary amount gained by the misuse of the state seal or the use of the imitative or deceptively similar seal, plus attorney's fees and other costs of the state in bringing the suit. The "gross monetary amount" is the total of the gross receipts that can be reasonably attributed to the misuse of the seal or the use of an imitative or deceptively similar seal. In addition to the damages, the violator is subject to a civil penalty imposed by the court in an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars. In imposing this penalty, the court shall consider the need to deter further violations of this chapter.

The attorney general may seek and shall be granted such injunctive relief as is appropriate to stop or prevent violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary of state shall conduct investigations for violations of this chapter and may request enforcement by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Any person who wilfully violates this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. All fees, penalties, and damages received under this chapter shall be paid to the secretary of state and with the exception of the filing fee authorized in section 4(2) of this act shall be deposited by the secretary into the capitol building construction account in the state treasury, for use in the historical restoration and completion of the legislative building.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1947 and RCW 9.91.050; and

(2) Section 2, chapter 170, Laws of 1947 and RCW 9.91.055.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Senator Thompson moved the following amendment by Senators Rinehart, Thompson, McCaslin and Metcalf to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment be adopted:

On page 3, after line 20, insert the following:

"(4) Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the reproduction of the state seal for illustrative purposes by the news media if the reproduction by the news media is incidental to the publication or broadcast. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a characterization of the state seal from being used in political cartoons."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Rinehart, is this the amendment that has Senator Nita Rinehart as the prime sponsor? Is the main purpose of this amendment dealing with the use of the seal by the news media or is it to allow the state seal from being used in political cartoons? There are two different subject matters in this particular amendment and I'm not sure what problem you're trying to get at."

Senator Rinehart: "Political cartoons are considered to be part of the news media."

Senator Pullen: "Is there any problem with a newspaper and a political cartoon as they often want to use the seal in a caricature fashion that could be considered undignified or disgraceful. Are you worried about that?"

Senator Rinehart: "I'm worried about excess prohibition on the first amendment freedom."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Rinehart, Thompson, McCaslin and Metcalf to the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Governmental Operations amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 151, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Thompson, I'm somewhat concerned about this bill and you didn't mention it. Can the state seal, under this bill, in any way be used for a commercial or profit or in any way used to make a profit?"

Senator Thompson: "There's no prohibition against that in the bill. It depends upon the rules and regulations adopted by the Secretary of State."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, under the amendment as adopted--the Rinehart amendment--it says that you can use the state seal as a political cartoon. I don't think that the Secretary of State can set up any regulations that would go against that law. That's the amendment we just adopted. How could the Secretary of State prohibit anybody from using the state seal as a political cartoon?"

Senator Thompson: "How could he prohibit it?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, you say it's under his rules and regulations."

Senator Thompson: "Well, the amendment exempts that use from the possibility of regulation by rule."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of House Bill No. 151, as amended by the Senate, was deferred.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate now consider House Bill No. 576.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "It's after 5 o'clock, Mr. President, and we had not started on that bill prior to 5 o'clock."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that Senator Pullen's remarks are well taken."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 151, as amended by the Senate, deferred earlier today.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 151, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DENNIS L. HECK, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order. Mr. President. My point of order is that the House amendments expand the scope and object of the bill. Mr. President, I would direct your attention to some of the key House amendments, one of which allows all school districts, rather than just those with grandfather levy capacity to use one of three alternatives to determine the levy percentage during the freeze period. That in itself is a significant expansion. The House amendment also provides for a study committee and the scope of the study is very broad in its nature, and the House also added language dealing with converting the district's prior year of basic education allocation to a hundred percent of formula, as part of the method of calculating the district's ten percent levy amount and that's repealed. There were other repealers and I just feel that that is a significant expansion in the scope and object and I would ask the President to so rule."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612 and the House amendments was deferred.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3038, by Senators Kreidler, Granlund and Stratton

Requiring the provision of information about day care centers.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3038 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3038 and the second substitute bill was read the second time.

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, line 9, after "1990," insert: "The legislature further recognizes that it is a joint responsibility of parents and the state to assure the safety and well-being of children in day care environments."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "I would probably ask Senator Bottiger--what the state licenses--an establishment like this or others--don't we, through the licensing process, incur some liabilities?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, if the state is negligent in the way it operates, they have been held liable, generally, for the failure to adequately inspect and prohibit damage or injury to people. The simple fact of licensing itself does not expose us to liability but if we assume more than that and the second half of Senator Kiskaddon's amendment here is the one that was of particular concern to, I believe Senator Hayner and me, that if this program is not adequate then the injury to the child could revert back to the state and that's my recollection why she and I moved to take this out."

Senator Patterson: "But when we carry on further this bill, as I understand it, authorizes additional inspection and when we inspect and an inspector says, 'this is a good operation,'--at that point in time the state has said 'we recommend this facility for your use.' Doesn't that in itself carry a liability?"

Senator Bottiger: "No. Let me give you an example, and I hope I'm right on this, perhaps Senator Talmadge can listen carefully, or Senator Halsan. An elevator inspector goes in and makes an inspection and puts his stamp on. In fact, he was lazy and didn't climb up and find a frayed wire, there is exposure to the licensing agency--the city or the state, whoever did it, if in fact that elevator falls, but we cannot presume the negligence of all the people out there. The mere fact that you have licensed me as an attorney does not expose the state to liability if I'm engaged in malpractice, because you cannot foresee all my negligence in simply giving me a license. Now if you let me get the license without taking a test, then you may expose yourself to some liability."

Senator Patterson: "Then are the inspectors under this act, are they going to have to take some kind of test to insure that they are qualified inspectors? I'm extremely concerned about the liability that this act could carry with it on behalf of the state and I would like the record some way to show what the intention is of this legislative body on this issue."

Senator Bottiger: "I don't know how I'd do that. The objection--the public concern is that there are licensed day care centers in which there is not---"(time ran out--3 minute rule)

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon asked Senator Bottiger to yield.
Senator Bottiger did not yield.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Kiskaddon, and there being no objection, the amendment was withdrawn.

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved that the following amendment be adopted:

On page 1, after line 24, insert a new section as follows and renumber the remaining section consecutively:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 74.15 RCW to read as follows:

The division of children and family services shall develop and make available programs designed to provide parents with information about day care. Subject areas shall include but not be limited to, child development, child safety, standards of care, and the licensing programs, and shall support and coordinate with existing resources. Nothing shall preclude the use of volunteers in these programs.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Granlund: "Senator Kiskaddon, we discussed this in committee and I think your objections are admirable. I'm wondering if you would refresh my memory. I think we surely must have talked about a fiscal note, and I think we need to know that. I simply cannot remember what the figure was."

Senator Kiskaddon: "I don't believe we had a note on this amendment."

Senator Granlund: "I guess my concern would be that even though this is an admirable amendment, it's very vague as to how much this would cost the Department to implement so I would have some misgivings about it."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kiskaddon on page 1, line 34.

The motion by Senator Kiskaddon failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended. Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3038 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3038.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3038 and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 7; excused, 4.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Craswell, Hansen, McCaslin, Metcalf, Pullen, Sellar - 7.

Excused: Senators Bauer, Benitz, Hayner, Newhouse - 4.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612 and the pending House amendments, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612 is a measure extending the Levy Lid Act phase-down and establishes the levy percentages local school districts are authorized to use in upcoming years.

"The ruling is essentially the same as made previously. The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, also, extend the Levy Lid Act phase-down and establish levy percentages local school districts may use.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not change the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendments by the House of Representatives were ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Gaspard that the Senate concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3612.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Halsan, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McDonald, McManus, Moore, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hansen, Kreidler, Metcalf, Owen, Pullen, Thompson - 9.

It talks about some funds used for existing structures that have not been constructed for use of jails or holding facilities for certain traffic offenders. Would you explain to me what that means? What facilities or structures are we talking about?"

Senator Talmadge: "This, Senator Saling, carries over from House Bill No. 1184 of a year ago. The desire on the part of the legislature was to encourage local governments where ever possible in dealing with DWI offenders to use alternatives to the usual county jail or holding facility process. It's much less expensive to hold those people. County government found it to be an excellent way in dealing with the problem. Some examples that come to mind, I think Geiger Field over in Spokane and Fircrest in Seattle have been used as facilities for holding DWI offenders for that mandatory one day in jail. It's significantly less expensive to do it that way and some of the county governments have been doing it."

Further debate ensued.

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3310 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 28A.57.322, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28A.57.322 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person elected or appointed to the office of school director, before entering upon the discharge of the duties thereof, shall take an oath or affirmation to support the Constitution of the United States and the state of Washington and to faithfully discharge the duties of his office according to the best of his ability. In case any official has a written appointment or commission, his oath or affirmation shall be endorsed thereon and sworn to before any officer authorized to administer oaths. School officials are hereby authorized to administer all oaths or affirmations pertaining to their respective offices without charge or fee. All oaths of office, when properly made, shall be filed with the ~~((officer with whom declarations of candidacy for such positions are filed))~~ county auditor.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 107, Laws of 1980 and RCW 29.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No paper ballot precinct ~~((shall))~~ may contain more than three hundred voters. The county legislative authority may divide, alter, or combine precincts so that, whenever practicable, over-populated precincts shall contain no more than two hundred fifty registered voters in anticipation of future growth.

(2) Precinct boundaries may be altered at any time as long as sufficient time exists prior to a given election for the necessary procedural steps to be honored ~~((PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That)),~~ Except as permitted under subsection (5) of this section, no precinct boundaries ((shall)) may be changed during the period starting ((as of) on) the thirtieth day prior to the first day for candidates to file for the primary election and ending with the day of the general election.

(3) Precincts in which voting machines or electronic voting devices are used may contain as many as nine hundred registered voters ~~((PROVIDED, That)),~~ but there shall be at least one voting machine or device for each three hundred registered voters or major fraction thereof when a state primary or general election is held in an even-numbered year.

(4) On petition of twenty-five or more voters resident more than ten miles from any place of election, the county legislative authority shall establish a separate voting precinct therefor.

(5) The county auditor shall temporarily adjust precinct boundaries when a city annexes county territory to the city. The adjustment shall be made as soon as possible after the approval of the annexation. The temporary adjustment shall be limited to the minimum changes necessary to accommodate the addition of the territory to the city and shall remain in effect only until precinct boundary modifications reflecting the annexation are adopted by the county legislative authority.

The county legislative authority may establish by ordinance a limitation on the maximum number of registered voters in each precinct within its jurisdiction. The limitation may be different for precincts based upon the method of voting used for such precincts and the number may be less than the number established by law, but in no case may the number exceed that authorized by law.

If such a limitation is established by a county legislative authority, no precinct within the jurisdiction of the county may contain more registered voters than authorized in such an ordinance.

The county legislative authority of each county in the state hereafter formed shall, at their first session, divide their respective counties into election precincts with two hundred fifty voters or less and establish the boundaries of the ~~((same:))~~ precincts. *Sec. 1. Section 18, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 147, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state shall make payment of any underpayments within thirty days after the date the preliminary or final settlement report is submitted to the contractor.

(2) A contractor found to have received either overpayments or erroneous payments under a preliminary or final settlement shall refund such payments to the state within thirty days after the date the preliminary or final settlement report is submitted to the contractor, subject to the provisions of subsections (3), (4), and (7) of this section.

(3) Within the cost centers of nursing services and food, all savings resulting from the respective allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rate paid to the contractor during the report period shall be refunded. In computing a preliminary or final settlement, savings in a cost center may be shifted to cover a deficit in another cost center up to the amount of any savings: PROVIDED, That not more than twenty percent of the rate in a cost center may be shifted into that cost center and no shifting may be made into the property cost center.

(4) Within the cost centers of administration and operations and property, the contractor shall retain at least fifty percent, but not more than seventy-five percent, of any savings resulting from the respective((:)) audited((:)) allowable costs being lower than the respective reimbursement rates paid to the contractor during the report period multiplied by the number of authorized medical care client days in which said rates were in effect, except that no savings may be retained if reported costs in the property cost center and the administration and operations cost center exceed audited allowable costs by ten cents or more per patient day. The secretary, by rule and regulation, shall establish the basis for the specific percentages of savings to the contractors. Such rules and regulations may provide for differences in the percentages allowed for each cost center to individual facilities based on performance measures related to administrative efficiency.

(5) All allowances provided by RCW 74.46.530 shall be retained by the contractor. Any industrial insurance dividend or premium discount under RCW 51.16.035 shall be retained by the contractor to the extent that such dividend or premium discount is attributable to the contractor's private patients.

(6) In the event the contractor fails to make repayment in the time provided in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall either:

(a) Deduct the amount of refund due plus assessment of interest, as determined by the secretary, from payment amounts due the contractor; or

(b) In the instance the contract has been terminated, (i) deduct the amount of refund due plus an assessment of interest, determined by the secretary, from any payments due; or (ii) assess the amount due plus interest, as determined by the secretary, on the amount due.

(7) Where the facility is pursuing timely-filed judicial or administrative remedies in good faith regarding settlement issues, the contractor need not refund nor shall the department withhold from the facility current payment amounts the department claims to be due from the facility but which are specifically disputed by the contractor. If the judicial or administrative remedy sought by the facility is not granted after all appeals are exhausted or mutually terminated, the facility shall make payment of such amounts due plus interest accrued from the date of filing of the appeal, as payable on judgments, within sixty days of the date such decision is made.

Sec. 2. Section 68, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.680 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) On the effective date of a change of ownership the department's contract with the old owner shall be terminated. The old owner shall give the department ((thirty)) sixty days' written notice of such termination. When certificate of need and/or section 1122 approval is required pursuant to chapter 70.38 RCW and Part 100, Title 42 CFR, for the new owner to acquire the facility, and the new owner wishes to continue to provide service to recipients without interruption, certificate of need and/or section 1122 approval shall be obtained before the old owner submits a notice of termination.

(2) If the new owner desires to participate in the cost-related reimbursement system, it shall meet the conditions specified in RCW 74.46.660 and shall submit a projected budget in accordance with RCW 74.46.670 no later than sixty days before the date of the change of ownership. The facility contract with the new owner shall be effective as of the date of the change of ownership.

Sec. 3. Section 69, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 36, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.690 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a facility contract is terminated for any reason, the old contractor shall submit final reports as required by RCW 74.46.040. ~~((Payment for care provided during the final thirty days of service under a contract will be held until the contractor has filed a properly completed final cost report, an audit has been completed by the department, and final settlement has been determined, such settlement not to exceed ninety days following completion of the audit process.~~

~~(2) Following final settlement, a payment withheld pursuant to subsection (1) of this section will be sent to the contractor after any overpayment determined in connection with final settlement has been deducted. If the contractor contests the settlement determination in accordance with RCW 74.46.170, the department will hold the amount in dispute pending completion of the appeal process, but will release the balance of such payment to the contractor.~~

~~(3) The department will release a payment which would be withheld pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, provided a bond issued by a bonding company acceptable to the department is filed by the contractor. The bond shall:~~

~~(a) Be in an amount equal to the released payment;~~

~~(b) Be for a term sufficient to ensure effectiveness after final settlement and the exhaustion of administrative and judicial remedies;~~

~~(c) Provide that the full amount of the bond shall be paid to the department if a properly completed final audited cost report is not filed in accordance with this chapter, or if financial records supporting this record are not preserved and made available to the auditor; and~~

~~(d) Provide that an amount equal to any recovery the department determines is due from the contractor at settlement, but not exceeding the amount of the bond, shall be paid to the department in the event the contractor does not pay the refund within sixty days following receipt of written demand or the conclusion of administrative or judicial proceedings to contest settlement issues.~~

(4)) (2) Upon notification of a contract termination, the department shall determine by preliminary or final settlement calculations the amount of any overpayments made to the contractor, including overpayments disputed by the contractor. If preliminary or final settlements are unavailable for any period up to the date of contract termination, the department shall make a reasonable estimate of any overpayment or underpayments for such periods. The reasonable estimate shall be based upon prior period settlements, available audit findings, the projected impact of prospective rates, and other information available to the department.

(3) The old contractor shall provide security, in a form deemed adequate by the department, in the amount of determined and estimated overpayments, whether or not the overpayments are the subject of good faith dispute. Security shall consist of:

- (a) Withheld payments due the contractor; or
- (b) A surety bond issued by a bonding company acceptable to the department; or
- (c) An assignment of funds to the department; or
- (d) Collateral acceptable to the department; or
- (e) A purchaser's assumption of liability for the prior contractor's overpayment; or
- (f) Any combination of (a), (b), (c), (d), or (e) of this subsection.

(4) A surety bond or assignment of funds shall:

(a) Be at least equal in amount to determined or estimated overpayments, whether or not the subject of good faith dispute, minus withheld payments;

(b) Be issued or accepted by a bonding company or financial institution licensed to transact business in Washington state;

(c) Be for a term sufficient to ensure effectiveness after final settlement and the exhaustion of administrative and judicial remedies: PROVIDED, That the bond or assignment shall initially be for a term of five years, and shall be forfeited if not renewed thereafter in an amount equal to any remaining overpayment in dispute;

(d) Provide that the full amount of the bond or assignment, or both, shall be paid to the department if a properly completed final cost report is not filed in accordance with this chapter, or if financial records supporting this report are not preserved and made available to the auditor; and

(e) Provide that an amount equal to any recovery the department determines is due from the contractor at settlement, but not exceeding the amount of the bond and assignment, shall be paid to the department if the contractor does not pay the refund within sixty days following receipt of written demand or the conclusion of administrative or judicial proceedings to contest settlement issues.

(5) The department shall release any payment withheld as security if alternate security is provided under subsection (3) of this section in an amount equivalent to determined and estimated overpayments.

(6) If the total of withheld payments, bonds, and assignments is less than the total of determined and estimated overpayments, the unsecured amount of such overpayments shall be a debt due the state and shall become a lien against the real and personal property of the contractor from the time of filing by the department with the county auditor of the county where the contractor resides or owns property, and the lien claim has preference over the claims of all unsecured creditors.

(7) The contractor shall file a properly completed final cost report in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, which shall be audited by the department. A final settlement shall be determined within ninety days following completion of the audit process, including any administrative review of the audit requested by the contractor.

(8) Following determination of settlement for all periods, security held pursuant to this section shall be released to the contractor after overpayments determined in connection with final settlement have been paid by the contractor. If the contractor contests the settlement determination in accordance with RCW 74.46.170, the department shall hold the security, not to exceed the amount of estimated unrecovered overpayments being contested, pending completion of the administrative appeal process.

(9) If, after calculation of settlements for any periods, it is determined that overpayments exist in excess of the value of security held by the state, the department may seek recovery of these additional overpayments as provided by law.

(10) If a contract is terminated solely in order for the same owner to contract with the department to deliver services to another classification of medical care recipients at the same facility, the contractor is not required to submit final cost reports, and ~~(payment for the final thirty days will not be withheld)~~ security shall not be required.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Not later than March 31 (~~1982 and~~) of each year (~~thereafter~~), each contractor shall submit to the department an annual cost report (~~and such financial statements as are required by this chapter.~~) for the period from January 1st through December 31st of the preceding year.

(2) Not later than one hundred twenty days following the termination of a contract, the contractor shall submit to the department a cost report (~~and financial statements as are required by this chapter.~~) for the period from January 1st through the date the contract terminated.

(3) Two extensions of not more than thirty days each may be granted by the department upon receipt of a written request setting forth the circumstances which prohibit the contractor from compliance with a report due date; except, that the secretary shall establish the grounds for extension in rule and regulation. Such request must be received by the department at least ten days prior to the due date.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.050 are each amended to read as follows:

If ~~((either))~~ the cost report ~~((or the financial statements are))~~ is not properly completed or if ~~((they are))~~ it is not received by the due date, all or part of any payments due under the contract may be withheld by the department until such time as the required cost report ~~((and financial statements are))~~ is properly completed and received.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 2, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cost reports shall be prepared in a standard manner and form, as determined by the department, which shall provide for ~~((financial statements;))~~ an itemized list of allowable costs~~(;)~~ and a preliminary settlement report. Costs reported shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the provisions of this chapter, and such additional rules and regulations as are established by the secretary.

(2) ~~((All financial statements of a contractor must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the provisions of this chapter, and such additional rules and regulations as are established by the secretary:))~~

~~((3))~~ The records shall be maintained on the accrual method of accounting and agree with or be reconcilable to the cost report ~~((and the financial statements;))~~.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 3, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All records supporting the required cost reports ~~((and financial statements;))~~, as well as trust funds established by RCW 74.46.700, shall be retained by the contractor for a period of four years following the filing of such reports at a location in the state of Washington specified by the contractor. All records supporting the cost reports and financial statements filed with the department before the effective date of this 1985 act shall be retained by the contractor for four years following their filing.

The department may direct ~~((such))~~ supporting records to be retained for a longer period if there remain unresolved questions on the cost reports ~~((and financial statements;))~~. All such records shall be made available upon demand to authorized representatives of the department, the office of the state auditor, and the United States department of health and human services.

(2) When a contract is terminated, all payments due will be withheld until accessibility and preservation of the records within the state of Washington are assured.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The department will retain the required cost reports ~~((and financial statements;))~~ for a period of one year after final settlement, or the period required under ~~((the provisions of))~~ chapter 40.14 RCW, whichever is ~~((greater))~~ longer.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 4, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The principles inherent within RCW 74.46.105 and 74.46.130 are:

(1) To ascertain, through department audit, that the costs for each year are accurately reported, thereby providing a valid basis for future rate determination;

(2) To ascertain, through department audits of the cost reports, that cost reports properly reflect the financial ~~((statements;))~~ records of the contractor, particularly as they pertain to related organizations and beneficial ownership, thereby providing a valid basis for the determination of return as specified by this chapter;

(3) To ascertain, through department audit that compliance with the accounting and auditing provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations of the department as they pertain to these accounting and auditing provisions is proper and consistent; and

(4) To ascertain, through department audits, that the responsibility of the contractor has been met in the maintenance of patient trust funds.

Sec. 10. Section 5, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.105 are each amended to read as follows:

Cost reports~~((financial and statistical records;))~~ and patient trust accounts of contractors shall be field audited by the department, either by department staff or by auditors under contract to the department, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The department when it deems necessary to assure the accuracy of cost reports may review any underlying financial statements or other records upon which the cost reports are based. The department shall have the authority to accept or reject audits which fail to satisfy the requirements of this section or which are performed by auditors who violate any of the rules of this section. Department audits of the cost reports and patient trust accounts shall be conducted as follows:

(1) Each year the department will provide for field audit of the cost report, ~~((financial and))~~ statistical reports, and patient trust funds, as established by RCW 74.46.700, of all or a sample of reporting facilities selected by profiles of costs, exceptions, contract terminations, upon special requests or other factors determined by the department.

(2) Beginning with audits for calendar year 1983, up to one hundred percent of contractors cost reports and patient care trust fund accounts shall be audited: PROVIDED, That each contractor shall be audited at least once in every three-year period.

(3) Facilities shall be selected for sample audits within one hundred twenty days of submission of a correct and complete cost report, and shall be so informed of the department's intent to audit. Audits so scheduled shall be completed within one year of selection.

(4) Where an audit for a recent reporting or trust fund period discloses material discrepancies, undocumented costs or mishandling of patient trust funds, auditors may examine prior unaudited periods, for indication of similar material discrepancies, undocumented costs or mishandling of patient trust funds for not more than two reporting periods preceding the facility reporting period selected in the sample.

(5) The audit will result in a schedule summarizing appropriate adjustments to the contractor's cost report. These adjustments will include an explanation for the adjustment, the general ledger account or account group, and the dollar amount. Patient trust fund audits shall be reported separately and in accordance with RCW 74.46.700.

(6) Audits shall meet generally accepted auditing standards as promulgated by the American institute of certified public accountants and the standards for audit of governmental organizations, programs, activities and functions as published by the comptroller general of the United States. Audits shall be supervised or reviewed by a certified public accountant.

(7) No auditor under contract with or employed by the department to perform audits in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall:

(a) Have had direct or indirect financial interest in the ownership, financing or operation of a nursing home in this state during the period covered by the audits;

(b) Acquire or commit to acquire any direct or indirect financial interest in the ownership, financing or operation of a nursing home in this state during said auditor's employment or contract with the department;

(c) Accept as a client any nursing home in this state during or within two years of termination of said auditor's contract or employment with the department.

(8) Audits shall be conducted by auditors who are otherwise independent as determined by the standards of independence established by the American institute of certified public accountants.

(9) All audit rules adopted after March 31, 1984, shall be published before the beginning of the cost report year to which they apply.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 7, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the requirements of RCW 74.46.105, the contractor shall be notified by the department at least ten working days in advance of the engagement. Upon such notification, the contractor shall:

(a) Provide access to the facility, all records, and all working papers which are in support of the cost report (~~(and financial statements)~~) and patient trust funds; and

(b) Prepare reconciliation of the cost report (~~(and financial statements)~~) with (i) applicable federal income and federal and state payroll tax returns and (ii) the records for the period covered by the cost report (~~(and financial statements)~~).

(2) To facilitate department audit, the owner or administrator of a facility shall designate and make available an individual or individuals to respond to questions and requests for information from auditors. The designated individual or individuals shall have sufficient knowledge of the issue or function to provide accurate information.

Sec. 12. Section 16, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 9, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Within one hundred twenty days after receipt of the proposed preliminary settlement, the department shall verify the accuracy of the proposal and shall issue a preliminary settlement report by cost center to the contractor which fully substantiates disallowed costs, refunds, underpayments, or adjustments to the proposed preliminary settlement.

(2) After completion of the audit process, including exhaustion or mutual termination of reviews and appeals of audit findings or determinations, the department will submit a final settlement report by cost center to the contractor which fully substantiates disallowed costs, refunds, underpayments, or adjustments to the contractor's (~~(financial statements and)~~) cost report. Where the contractor is pursuing judicial or administrative review or appeal in good faith regarding audit findings or determinations, the department may issue a partial final settlement to recover overpayments based on audit adjustments not in dispute.

Sec. 13. Section 23, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.475 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall analyze the submitted cost report (~~(and financial statements)~~) of each contractor to determine if the information is correct, complete, and reported in conformance with generally accepted accounting principles, the requirements of this chapter and such rules and regulations as the secretary may adopt. If the analysis finds that the cost report (~~(or financial statements are)~~) is incorrect or incomplete, the department may make adjustments to the reported information for purposes of establishing reimbursement rates. A schedule of such adjustments shall be provided to contractors and shall include an explanation for the adjustment and the dollar amount of the adjustment. Adjustments shall be subject to review and appeal as provided in this chapter.

(2) The department shall accumulate data from properly completed cost reports (~~and financial statements~~) for use in:

- (a) Exception profiling; and
- (b) Establishing rates.

(3) The department may further utilize such accumulated data for analytical, statistical, or informational purposes as necessary.

Sec. 14. Section 82, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 41, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.820 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cost reports and their final audit reports shall be subject to public disclosure pursuant to the requirements of chapter 42.17 RCW. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, ~~((financial statements)) cost report schedules showing information on rental or lease of assets, the facility or corporate balance sheet, schedule of changes in financial position, statement of changes in equity-fund balances, notes to financial statements, and any accompanying schedules summarizing the adjustments to a contractor's financial records, reports on review of internal control and accounting procedures, and letters of comments or recommendations relating to suggested improvements in internal control or accounting procedures which are prepared pursuant to the requirements of this chapter shall be exempt from public disclosure.~~

This subsection does not prevent a contractor from having access to its own records or from authorizing an agent or designee to have access to the contractor's records.

(2) Regardless of whether any document or report submitted to the secretary pursuant to this chapter is subject to public disclosure, copies of such documents or reports shall be provided by the secretary, upon written request, to the legislature and to state agencies or state or local law enforcement officials who have an official interest in the contents thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 74.46 RCW to be codified between RCW 74.46.420 and 74.46.430 to read as follows:

(1) The legislature hereby finds that many of the nursing homes in the state are of older construction and are energy inefficient. The legislature further finds that it is desirable to encourage energy retrofit improvements in those nursing homes in order to achieve energy cost savings. Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to create an alternative reimbursement methodology for energy retrofitting which meets the criteria of this section. This alternative reimbursement methodology shall be available to contractors who apply for the alternative reimbursement methodology; contractors who do not apply for the alternative reimbursement methodology shall be reimbursed under the other provisions of this chapter for energy retrofit improvements.

(2) Any energy retrofit improvement shall be required to repay the department's proportionate share of the cost of such improvement within a five-year period. The department shall reimburse contractors for eligible energy retrofit improvements by applying the resulting energy cost savings in the administration and operations cost center against the capital expense for the improvement. The nursing home contractor shall provide the department with a technical assistance study which demonstrates the anticipated energy savings and documents the cost of the retrofit including any interest. The increase in the contractor's return on investment rate shall be limited to the documented costs for the energy retrofit. At the end of first year that the retrofit is in place, the contractor shall furnish documentation to the department indicating the actual reduction in energy consumption. If the reduction in the energy consumption is less than anticipated, the contractor's return on investment rate will be reduced accordingly.

(3) If a nursing home installs an energy retrofit improvement which meets the requirements contained in subsection (2) of this section, the department shall decrease the nursing home's administration and operations cost center reimbursement rate under RCW 74.46.500 by an amount equivalent to the energy cost savings or the documented costs of the energy retrofitting, whichever is less, for the first year, and shall increase the nursing home's return on investment allowance established in RCW 74.46.530 by an amount equivalent to the energy cost savings until the investment is paid for.

(4) The department shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out the policies and purposes of this section.

Sec. 16. Section 45, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 20, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.450 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Prospective reimbursement rates for a new contractor will be established within sixty days following receipt by the department of the properly completed projected budget required by RCW 74.46.670. Such reimbursement rates will become effective as of the effective date of the contract and shall remain in effect until rates can be established under RCW 74.46.460 based on a contractor's cost report including at least six months of cost data.

(2) Such reimbursement rates will be based on the contractor's projected cost of operations and on costs and payment rates of the prior contractor, if any, or of other contractors in comparable circumstances, except that the special reimbursement provisions for energy retrofitting in section 15 of this 1985 act shall not apply to any energy retrofit improvements installed by previous contractors.

(3) If a properly completed budget is not received at least sixty days prior to the effective date of the contract, the department will establish preliminary rates based on the other factors specified in subsection (2) of this section. These preliminary rates will remain in effect until a determination is made pursuant to RCW 74.46.460.

Sec. 17. Section 50, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.500 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The administration and operations cost center shall include all items not included in the cost centers of nursing services, food, and property, except as otherwise provided in section 15 of this 1985 act.

(2) The administration and operations cost center reimbursement rate for each facility shall be based on the computation in this subsection and shall not exceed the eighty-fifth percentile of (a) the rates of all reporting facilities derived from the computation below, or (b) reporting facilities grouped in accordance with subsection (3) of this section:

AR = TAC/TPD, where

AR = the administration and operations cost center reimbursement rate for a facility;

TAC = the total costs of the administration and operations cost center plus the retained savings from such cost center as provided in RCW 74.46.180 of a facility; and TPD = the total patient days for a facility for the prior year.

(3) The secretary may group facilities based on factors which could reasonably influence cost requirements of this cost center, other than ownership or legal organization characteristics.

Sec. 18. Section 51, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 and RCW 74.46.510 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The property cost center rate for each facility shall be determined by dividing the sum of the reported allowable prior period actual depreciation costs, subject to RCW 74.46.310 through 74.46.380, adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements approved by the department, and the retained savings from such cost center, as provided in RCW 74.46.180, by the total patient days for the facility in the prior period. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the property cost center rate shall be adjusted to anticipated patient day level.

When a certificate of need for a new facility is requested, the department, in reaching its decision, shall take into consideration per-bed land and building construction costs for the facility which shall not exceed a maximum to be established by the secretary.

(2) An energy retrofit improvement installed by a contractor under section 15 of this 1985 act shall not be included in the computation for the property cost center described in this section.

Sec. 19. Section 46, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 21, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.460 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each contractor's reimbursement rates will be determined prospectively at least once each calendar year, to be effective July 1st.

(2) Rates may be adjusted as determined by the department to take into account variations of more than ten percent in the distribution of patient classifications or changes in patient characteristics from the prior reporting year, program changes required by the department, or changes in staffing levels at a facility required by the department~~((-economic trends and conditions, and/or administrative review provided by RCW 74.46.780 and)), or capital improvements for energy retrofits as provided for in section 15 of this 1985 act.~~ Rates shall be adjusted for any capitalized additions or replacements made as a condition for licensure or certification.

(3) Where the contractor participated in the provisions of prospective cost-related reimbursement in effect prior to July 1, 1983, such contractor's prospective rate effective July 1, 1983, will be determined utilizing the contractor's desk-reviewed allowable costs for calendar year 1982.

(4) All prospective reimbursement rates for 1984 and thereafter shall be determined utilizing the prior year's desk-reviewed cost reports.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 1, chapter 117, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.46.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall establish for individual facilities return on investment allowances composed of two parts: A financing allowance and a variable return allowance, except that this section shall not apply to energy retrofit improvements funded under section 15 of this 1985 act.

(a) The financing allowance shall be determined by multiplying the net invested funds of each facility by .11, and dividing by the contractor's total patient days. If a capitalized addition or retirement of an asset will result in a different licensed bed capacity during the ensuing period, the prior period total patient days used in computing the financing and variable return allowances shall be adjusted to the anticipated patient day level.

(b) In computing the portion of net invested funds representing the net book value of tangible fixed assets, the same assets, depreciation bases, lives, and methods referred to in RCW 74.46.330, 74.46.350, 74.46.360, and 74.46.370, including owned and leased assets, shall be utilized, except that the capitalized cost of land upon which the facility is located and such other contiguous land which is reasonable and necessary for use in the regular course of providing patient care shall also be included. In the case of leased facilities where the net invested funds are unknown or the contractor is unable to provide necessary information to determine net invested funds, the secretary shall have the authority to determine an amount for net invested funds based on an appraisal conducted according to RCW 74.46.360(1).

(c) In determining the variable return allowance:

(i) The department will first rank all facilities in numerical order from highest to lowest according to their average per diem allowable costs for the sum of the administration and operations and property cost centers for the previous cost report period.

(ii) The department shall then compute the variable return allowance by multiplying the appropriate percentage amounts, which shall not be less than one percent and not greater than four percent, by the total prospective rate for each facility, as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510. The percentage amounts will be based on groupings of facilities according to the rankings as established in subparagraph ((f2)) (1)(b)(i) of this section. Those groups of facilities with lower per diem costs shall receive higher percentage amounts than those with higher per diem costs.

(d) The sum of the financing allowance and the variable return allowance shall be the return on investment for each facility, and shall be added to the prospective rates of each contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(e) In the case of a facility which was leased by the contractor as of January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length agreement, which continues to be leased under the same lease agreement, and for which the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center determined according to RCW 74.46.510, is more than the return on investment allowance determined according to subsection (1)(d) of this section, the following shall apply:

(i) The financing allowance shall be recomputed substituting the fair market value of the assets as of January 1, 1982, as determined by the department of general administration through an appraisal procedure, less accumulated depreciation on the lessor's assets since January 1, 1982, for the net book value of the assets in determining net invested funds for the facility. A determination by the department of general administration of fair market value shall be final unless the procedure used to make such determination is shown to be arbitrary and capricious.

(ii) The sum of the financing allowance computed under subsection (1)(e)(i) of this section and the variable allowance shall be compared to the annualized lease payment, plus any interest and depreciation expenses associated with contractor-owned assets, for the period covered by the prospective rates, divided by the contractor's total patient days, minus the property cost center rate determined according to RCW 74.46.510. The lesser of the two amounts shall be called the alternate return on investment allowance.

(iii) The return on investment allowance determined according to subsection (1)(d) of this section or the alternate return on investment allowance, whichever is greater, shall be the return on investment allowance for the facility and shall be added to the prospective rates of the contractor as determined in RCW 74.46.450 through 74.46.510.

(f) In the case of a facility which was leased by the contractor as of January 1, 1980, in an arm's-length agreement, if the lease is renewed or extended pursuant to a provision of the lease, the treatment provided in subsection (1)(e) of this section shall be applied except that in the case of renewals or extensions made subsequent to April 1, 1985, reimbursement for the annualized lease payment shall be no greater than the reimbursement for the annualized lease payment for the last year prior to the renewal or extension of the lease.

(2) An energy retrofit improvement installed by a contractor under section 15 of this 1985 act shall not be included in the computation for financing allowance under this section, except as provided in section 15 of this 1985 act.

(3) In the event that the department of health and human services disallows the application of the return on investment allowances to nonprofit facilities, the department shall modify the measurements of net invested funds used for computing individual facility return on investment allowances as follows: Net invested funds for each nonprofit facility shall be multiplied by one minus the ratio of equity funds to the net invested funds of all nonprofit facilities.

~~((f3))~~ (4) Each biennium, beginning in 1985, the secretary shall review the adequacy of return on investment allowances in relation to anticipated requirements for maintaining, reducing, or expanding nursing care capacity. The secretary shall report the results of such review to the legislature and make recommendations for adjustments in the return on investment rates utilized in this section, if appropriate.

Sec. 22. Section 42, chapter 177, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 18, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 74.46.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The following principles are inherent in RCW 74.46.430 through 74.46.590:

(1) Reimbursement rates will be set prospectively on a per patient day basis; and

~~(2) (Rates established in accordance with this chapter shall be reasonable and adequate to meet the costs that must be incurred by economically and efficiently operated facilities to provide services which meet the needs of a medical care recipient in compliance with applicable standards; and~~

~~(3))~~ The rates so established will be adjusted for economic conditions and trends in accordance with appropriations made by the legislature as consistent with federal requirements for the period to be covered by such rates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Section 52, chapter 177, Laws of 1980, section 148, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 74.46.520 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This act shall not be construed as affecting any existing right acquired or any obligation or liability incurred under the statutes amended or repealed by this act or any rule, regulation, or order adopted under those sections, nor as affecting any proceeding instituted under those sections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, line 4 of the title, after "74.46.530," strike "and 74.46.420;" and insert "74.46.420, 74.46.450, 74.46.500, and 74.46.510; adding a new section to chapter 74.46 RCW;"

On page 1, line 5 of the title, after "section;" strike "and repealing RCW 74.46.520" and insert "repealing RCW 74.46.520; and declaring an emergency"

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. This chapter shall be known as the state health care purchasing reform act of 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The legislature finds that the rising increase in health costs for public employees and persons within the state's care is a major public policy concern and that unless addressed through specific statutory direction adequate health care will not be attainable through the expenditure of public funds. It is therefore the intent of the legislature to control costs of state purchased health care while maintaining an adequate level of care; promote wellness; encourage the development of managed health care systems and other systems that have been effective in controlling costs; place within one authority the responsibility and power to control cost while insuring adequate care; and place the state of Washington in a leadership position in cost containment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "State purchased health care" or "health care" means medical and health care, pharmaceuticals, and medical equipment purchased with state and federal funds by the department of social and health services, the state employees insurance board, the department of labor and industries, the department of corrections, and the department of veterans affairs.

(j) To appoint a technical advisory committee that represents state employees and state agencies that are involved in the direct purchase, funding, or provision of health care, but whose majority shall be citizen taxpayers with no fiduciary interest in state purchased health care; and

(k) To promulgate rules and standards pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

(2) All state agencies shall cooperate in assisting the unit implement the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The unit shall submit to the legislature no later than November 30, 1986, a report that includes a review of state health care regulatory agencies, including the hospital commission, the health planning and certificate of need sections of the department of social and health services, the board of health, department of licensing, health care facilities authority, and the office of the insurance commissioner.

The report shall describe the respective roles of these agencies regarding health care cost containment and their accomplishments over the preceding six years, and shall address ways to increase the combined efficiency of these agencies to control costs and maintain quality of care.

The board's bidding procedures with organizations providing panel medicine plans shall not require federally qualified organizations to violate federal laws and regulations.

~~((The board may but shall not be required to pay more for health benefits under a panel medicine plan than it would otherwise be required to pay for health benefits by a contract~~

- (4) The cash balance, if any, in the capital projects fund of the district submitting the request which is designated for high school building construction purposes, together with the sources of such balance; and

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.32 RCW to read as follows:

Section 1 of this act shall apply to all persons governed by the provisions of RCW 41.32.005, regardless of the date of their retirement, but shall apply only to benefits payable after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 3. Section 21, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1982 and RCW 41.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to the provisions of RCW 41.40.310 and 41.40.320, upon application of a member, or his or her employer, a member who becomes totally incapacitated for duty as the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring in the actual performance of duty or who becomes totally incapacitated for duty and qualifies to receive benefits under Title 51 RCW as a result of an occupational disease, as now or hereafter defined in RCW 51.08.140, while in the service of an employer, without wilful negligence on his or her part, shall be retired: PROVIDED, The medical adviser after a medical examination of such member made by or under the direction of the said medical adviser shall certify in writing that such member is mentally or physically totally incapacitated for the further performance of his or her duty ~~((to his employer))~~ and that such member should be retired: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the ~~((retirement board))~~ director concurs in the recommendation of the medical adviser: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, No application shall be valid or a claim thereunder enforceable unless, in the case of an accident, filed within two years after the date upon which the injury occurred, or in the case of an occupational disease, filed within two years after the member separated from service with the employer.

(1) The director shall ascertain and report to each employer the contribution rates necessary to meet present and future pension liabilities of the system for the ensuing biennium or fiscal year, whichever is applicable. The amount to be so provided shall be computed by applying the rates of contribution as established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to an estimate of the total compensation earnable of all the said employer's members during the period for which provision is to be made.

(2) Beginning April 1, 1949, or October 1, 1977, as the case may be, the amount to be collected as the employer's contribution shall be computed by applying the applicable rates established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to the total compensation earnable of employer's members as shown on the current payrolls of the said employer. Each said employer shall compute at the end of each month the amount due for that month and the same shall be paid as are its other obligations.

(3) In the event of failure, for any reason, of an employer other than a political subdivision of the state to have remitted amounts due for membership service of any of the employer's members rendered during a prior biennium, the director shall bill such employer (~~(through the director of financial management)~~) for such employer's contribution together with such charges as the director deems appropriate in accordance with RCW 41.50.120. Such billing shall be paid by the employer as, and the same shall be, a proper charge against any moneys available or appropriated to such employer for payment of current biennial payrolls.

(2) Advise the legislature and the governor regarding the benefit provisions, funding policies, and investment policies of the department of retirement systems.

(3) Consult with the legislature and the governor concerning determination of actuarial assumptions used by the department of retirement systems.

(4) Prepare a report, to be known as the actuarial fiscal note, on each pension bill introduced in the legislature which ~~(shall)~~ briefly explains the financial impact of the bill. The actuarial fiscal note shall include: (a) The statutorily required contribution for the biennium and the following twenty-five years; (b) the biennial cost of the increased benefits if these exceed the required contribution; and (c) any change in the present value of the unfunded accrued benefits. Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for members, employers, and the state of Washington shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary.

The member, the employer and the state shall each contribute the following shares of the cost of the retirement system:

Member	50%
Employer	30%
State	20%

Effective January 1, 1986, however, no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit.

Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared proportionally by the members, employers, and the state: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system, in existence on September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the state.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of the state or of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the state or by that employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members' contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members basic salary each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members, employers of such members, and the state shall each contribute the following percentages of basic salary:

Member	8.14%
Employer	4.88%
State	3.28%

In addition, the state shall initially contribute an additional twenty percent of basic salary per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 14, Laws of 1963 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 236, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.32.401 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of establishing and maintaining an actuarial reserve adequate to meet present and future liabilities of the system and to pay for an equitable portion of the operating expenses of the department, the director shall determine the necessary contribution rates to be made by each employer on all members' total earnable compensation on the basis of the latest valuation prepared by the state actuary, and shall include a percentage contribution of the total earnable compensation, to be known as the "normal contribution" and an additional percentage contribution of such earnable compensation, to be known as the "unfunded liability contribution." The director shall notify employers of such rates at least thirty days prior to their effective date. Such determination shall provide for amortization of unfunded retirement system liabilities over a period of not more than fifty years from July 1, 1964. The legislature shall appropriate to the superintendent of public instruction the full amount recommended by the state actuary for the employer contribution rates for state funded certificated staff. The amounts shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund for the payment of pensions, survivors' benefits, and the employer's share of the operating expenses for the system. However, a school district and an educational service district for the 1985-86 school year shall not be required to pay to the department of retirement systems for the employer contribution to the teachers' retirement system, any amount in excess of the funds received by such school district or educational service district from the state through the office of the superintendent of public instruction for such purpose, and for the 1986-87 school year and thereafter, a school district and an educational service district shall not be required to pay at a rate exceeding the rate that the director sets for the employer contribution for each employee. Effective January 1, 1986, however, no contributions will be required for the calendar months in which the member is not granted service credit if the member or employee first established membership on or after October 1, 1977.

(2) In order to equitably reimburse the department of retirement systems expense fund, the director shall ascertain and report to each employer the contribution rate necessary to defray its proportional share of the cost of administering this chapter during either the next biennium or fiscal year, whichever is required to provide the amounts needed to defray such cost of administration. The director shall also ascertain at the beginning of either each biennium or each fiscal year, whichever is required, and request from the legislature an appropriation for the department of retirement systems expense fund sufficient to cover estimated expenses for the biennium or fiscal year.

Sec. 8. Section 6, chapter 293, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.32.775 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary: PROVIDED, That the employer contribution shall be contributed as provided in RCW 41.32.401.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Effective January 1, 1986, however, no contribution is required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system, in existence on September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members earnable compensation each payroll period. The members contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends and the employers contribution shall be remitted as provided by law.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute 5.66% of earnable compensation: PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional 5.80% of earnable compensation per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977.

Sec. 9. Section 34, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 12, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute five percent of his total compensation earnable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a retirement system expense fund contribution of two dollars and fifty cents per annum shall be transferred in semiannual payments of one dollar and twenty-five cents from each employee account balance in the employees' savings fund to the department of retirement systems expense fund account, as set forth in this section. On and after July 1, 1973, each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute six percent of his total compensation earnable. Effective January 1, 1986, however, no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member, on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he became a member of the retirement system the contribution as provided by this section.

(2) Any member may, pursuant to regulations formulated from time to time by the board, provide for himself, by means of an increased rate of contribution to his account in the employees' savings fund, an increased prospective retirement allowance pursuant to RCW 41.40.190 and 41.40.185.

(3) The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member covered by the provisions of RCW 41.40.190(5) and 41.40.185(4) on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he thereafter becomes a member of the retirement system, an amount equal to seven and one-half percent of such member's compensation earnable.

Sec. 10. Section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 13, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.361 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, the "fundable employer liability" at any date shall be the present value of

(a) all future pension benefits payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and

(b) all future benefits in respect of beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances or pensions.

(2) The contributions by the employer for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the "normal contribution", a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "unfunded liability contribution" and in the case of employers admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "additional contribution". The rates of such contributions shall be determined by the retirement board on the basis of assets and liabilities as shown by actuarial valuation: PROVIDED, That as to state employers effective July 1, 1973 the total combined contributions of the normal contribution and unfunded liability contribution shall not exceed a total combined percentage rate of seven percent for each employer unless authorized by the legislature.

(3) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the normal contribution rate and such contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. In addition the board shall determine the additional employer contribution rate necessary to fund the benefits granted officials holding office pursuant to Articles II and III of the Constitution of the state of Washington and RCW 48.02.010. Said additional employer contribution rate shall be paid in the same manner as the normal contribution and the unfunded liability contribution. Until the unfunded liability contribution shall have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be computed to be sufficient, when applied to the present value of the future compensation of the average new member entering the system, to provide for the payment of all prospective pension benefits in respect of such member. After the unfunded liability contributions have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be determined as the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system at the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the excess of the fundable employer liability over the amount of funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund.

(4) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the unfunded liability contribution, and such rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. The unfunded liability contribution rate shall ~~((not be less than the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system for the forty-year period following the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the unfunded liability))~~ be set at a percentage sufficient to provide for the amortization of unfunded retirement system liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from June 30, 1985. The unfunded liability shall be determined at such date as the excess of the fundable employer liability over the sum of the present value of the future normal contributions payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and the amount of all funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund. The unfunded liability contributions shall continue until there remains no unfunded liability.

(5) Any employer admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, shall make an additional contribution until such time as the sum of such additional contributions equals the amount of contributions which such employer and employee would have been required to contribute between April 1, 1949, and the date of such employer's admission to the retirement system: PROVIDED, That either the employee or employer may make the contributions the employee would have made during the same period of time: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all additional contributions hereunder and under the provisions of RCW 41.40.160(2) must be completed within fifteen years from the date of the employer's admission. Employee contributions for these periods must be made before the member will receive credit for those periods of service, pursuant to such regulations as the retirement board may adopt.

(6) For the biennium beginning July 1, 1971, and ending June 30, 1973, only, and notwithstanding any other provision of the chapter, the rate determined by the board for state employer contributions shall be only the percentage of compensation for members equal to the "normal contribution" computed to be four and thirty-six one-hundredths percent of compensation.

Sec. 11. Section 38, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 22, chapter 52, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall ascertain and report to each employer the contribution rates necessary to meet present and future pension liabilities of the system for the ensuing biennium or fiscal year, whichever is applicable. The amount to be so provided shall be computed by applying the rates of contribution as established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to an estimate of the total compensation earnable of all the said employer's members during the period for which provision is to be made.

(2) Beginning April 1, 1949, or October 1, 1977, as the case may be, the amount to be collected as the employer's contribution shall be computed by applying the applicable rates established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to the total compensation earnable of employer's members as shown on the current payrolls of the said employer, except no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Each said employer shall compute at the end of each month the amount due for that month and the same shall be paid as are its other obligations.

(3) In the event of failure, for any reason, of an employer other than a political subdivision of the state to have remitted amounts due for membership service of any of the employer's members rendered during a prior biennium, the director shall bill such employer through the director of financial management for such employer's contribution together with such charges as the director deems appropriate in accordance with RCW 41.50.120. Such billing shall be paid by the employer as, and the same shall be, a proper charge against any moneys available or appropriated to such employer for payment of current biennial payrolls.

Sec. 12. Section 6, chapter 295, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.40.650 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Effective January 1, 1986, however, no contribution is required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system, in existence on September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members compensation earnable each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute 5.51% of compensation earnable: PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional one and one-half percent of compensation earnable per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 41.26 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A disabled member who believes that his or her disability has ceased in accordance with RCW 41.26.130(3) may make application to the disability board which originally found the member to be disabled, for a determination that the disability has ceased.

(2) Every order of a disability board determining that a member's disability has ceased pursuant to RCW 41.26.130(3) shall forthwith be reviewed by the director. The director may affirm the decision of the disability board or remand the case for further proceedings if the director finds the disability board's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

(a) In violation of constitutional provisions; or

- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the disability board; or
  - (c) Made upon unlawful procedure; or
  - (d) Affected by other error of law; or
  - (e) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in this chapter; or
  - (f) Arbitrary or capricious.
- (3) Determinations of whether a disability has ceased under RCW 41.26.130(3) and this section shall be made in accordance with the same procedures and standards governing other cancellations of disability retirement.

Sec. 14. Section 14, chapter 209, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 4, chapter 294, Laws of 1981 and RCW 41.26.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the basis of reexaminations of members on disability retirement as provided in RCW 41.26.130, the disability board shall determine whether such disability beneficiary is still unable to perform his duties either physically or mentally for service in the department where he was employed.

(2) If the disability board shall determine that the beneficiary is not so incapacitated his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall be restored to duty in the same civil service rank, if any, held by the beneficiary at the time of his retirement or if unable to perform the duties of said rank, then, at his request, in such other like or lesser rank as may be or become open and available, the duties of which he is then able to perform. In no event, shall a beneficiary previously drawing a disability allowance be returned or be restored to duty at a salary or rate of pay less than the current salary attached to the rank or position held by the said beneficiary at the date of his retirement for disability. If the disability board determines that the beneficiary is able to return to service he shall be entitled to notice and a hearing, both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Should a disability beneficiary reenter service and be eligible for membership in the retirement system, his retirement allowance shall be canceled and he shall immediately become a member of the retirement system.

(4) Should any disability beneficiary under age fifty refuse to submit to examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for one year or more, his retirement allowance shall be canceled.

(5) Should the disability retirement allowance of any disability beneficiary be canceled for any cause other than reentrance into service or retirement for service, he shall be paid the excess, if any, of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement over all payments made on his behalf under this chapter.

(6) Any person feeling aggrieved by an order of a disability board determining that a beneficiary's disability has not ceased, pursuant to RCW 41.26.130(3) has the right to appeal the order or determination to the director. The director shall have no jurisdiction to entertain the appeal unless a notice of appeal is filed with the director within thirty days following the rendition of the order by the disability board. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be served upon the director and the applicable disability board and, within ninety days thereof, the disability board shall certify its decision and order which shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law, together with a transcript of all proceedings in connection therewith, to the director for review. Upon review of the record, the director may affirm the order of the disability board or may remand the case for further proceedings if the director finds that the disability board's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions are:

- (a) In violation of constitutional provisions; or
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the disability board; or
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure; or
- (d) Affected by other error of law; or
- (e) Clearly erroneous in view of the entire record as submitted and the public policy contained in this chapter; or
- (f) Arbitrary or capricious.

Sec. 15. Section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Membership in the retirement system shall consist of all regularly compensated employees and appointive and elective officials of employers, as defined in this chapter, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Persons in ineligible positions;
- (2) Employees of the legislature except the officers thereof elected by the members of the senate and the house and legislative committees, unless membership of such employees be authorized by the said committee;
- (3) Persons holding elective offices or persons appointed directly by the governor: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership during such periods of employment: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any persons holding or who have held elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to establish the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee with interest as determined by the director and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee with interest as determined by the director: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That all contributions with interest submitted by the employee under this subsection shall be placed in the employee's individual account in the employee's savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the employee, with the exception that any contributions submitted by the employee in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall not be considered part of the member's annuity for any purpose except withdrawal of contributions:

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, in any case where the retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall not either before or after June 7, 1984, be excluded from membership or denied service credit pursuant to this subsection solely on account of enrollment under the relief and compensation provisions or the pension provisions of the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund under chapter 41.24 RCW:

(5) Patient and inmate help in state charitable, penal, and correctional institutions;

(6) "Members" of a state veterans' home or state soldiers' home;

(9) Persons rendering professional services to an employer on a fee, retainer, or contract basis or when the income from these services is less than fifty percent of the gross income received from the person's practice of a profession;

(10) Persons appointed after April 1, 1963, by the liquor control board as agency vendors;

A member who elects to continue as a member of this system shall pay the appropriate member contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010(4) as the result of an individual's election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, persons transferring from employment with a first class city of over four hundred thousand population that has its own retirement system to employment with the state department of agriculture may elect to remain within the retirement system of such city and the state shall pay the employer contributions for such persons at like rates as prescribed for employers of other members of such system;

(17) The city manager or chief administrative officer of a city or town who serves at the pleasure of an appointing authority: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership within thirty days from date of their appointment to such positions. Persons serving in such positions as of the effective date of this 1985 act shall continue to be members in the retirement system unless they notify the director in writing prior to December 31, 1985, of their desire to withdraw from membership in the retirement system. A member who withdraws from membership in the system under this section shall receive a refund of the member's accumulated contributions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 41.04 RCW to read as follows:

No statute which grants an increase in benefits to members or beneficiaries of a public retirement system created in this title or Titles 2, 28B, or 43 RCW, shall be effective unless it includes an appropriation or employee contribution increase sufficient to fund the actuarial present value of the increase in fully projected benefits. This section shall not apply to retirement system plans in which employees contribute fifty percent or more of the costs of the retirement system plan.

Sec. 17. Section 4, chapter 267, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 37, Laws of 1984 and RCW 2.10.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The Washington judicial retirement system is hereby created for judges appointed or elected under the provisions of chapters 2.04, 2.06, and 2.08 RCW. All judges first appointed or elected to the courts covered by these chapters on or after August 9, 1971, and prior to the effective date of this 1985 act, shall be members of this system: PROVIDED, That following February 23, 1984, and until the effective date of this 1985 act, any newly elected or appointed judge holding credit toward retirement benefits under chapter 41.40 RCW shall be allowed thirty days from the effective date of election or appointment to such judgeship to make an irrevocable choice filed in writing with the department of retirement systems to continue coverage under that chapter and to be permanently excluded from coverage under this chapter for the current or any future term as a judge. All judges first appointed or elected to the courts covered by these chapters on or after the effective date of this 1985 act may become members of the public employees' retirement system under chapter 41.40 RCW on the same basis as other elected officials as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3).

Any member of the retirement system who is serving as a judge as of the effective date of this 1985 act has the option of becoming a member of the retirement system created in chapter 41.40 RCW, subject to the conditions imposed by section 18 of this 1985 act, by making an irrevocable choice filed in writing with the department of retirement systems to be permanently excluded for the current and any future term as a judge.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any member of the Washington judicial retirement system who wishes to transfer such membership to the retirement system provided for in this chapter shall file a written request with the director as required by RCW 2.10.040 on or before December 31, 1986. Upon receipt of such request, the director shall transfer from the judicial retirement system to this retirement system: (a) An amount equal to the employee contributions paid into the judicial retirement system by the member which shall be credited to the member's account established under this chapter; (b) an amount equal to the matching employer contributions as provided by RCW 2.10.090(2); and (c) a record of service credited to the member.

(2) The member shall be given year-for-year credit for years of service, as determined under RCW 2.10.030(8), earned under the judicial retirement system. Service credit granted under the judicial retirement system pursuant to RCW 2.10.220 shall not be transferred under this section. The director instead shall reverse the transfer of contributions and service credit previously made under RCW 2.10.220 and shall credit the member for such periods of service and contributions under this chapter as though no transfer had ever occurred.

(3) All employee contributions transferred pursuant to this section shall be treated the same as other employee contributions made under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. It is the intent of sections 20 and 21 of this act to eliminate supplemental pension benefits for employees employed after the effective date of this act at institutions of higher education. The legislature also intends to permit certain retirement plan options for persons employed by institutions of higher education after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 20. Section 28B.10.400, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 259, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.10.400 are each amended to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities, the boards of trustees of the regional universities and of The Evergreen State College, and the state board for community college education are authorized and empowered:

(1) To assist the faculties and such other employees as any such board may designate in the purchase of old age annuities or retirement income plans under such rules and regulations as any such board may prescribe. County agricultural agents, home demonstration agents, 4-H club agents, and assistant county agricultural agents paid jointly by the Washington State University and the several counties shall be deemed to be full time employees of the Washington State University for the purposes hereof:

(2) To provide, under such rules and regulations as any such board may prescribe for the faculty members or other employees under its supervision, for the retirement of any such faculty member or other employee on account of age or condition of health, retirement on account of age to be not earlier than the sixty-fifth birthday: PROVIDED, That such faculty member or such other employee may elect to retire at the earliest age specified for retirement by federal social security law: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any supplemental payment authorized by subsection (3) of this section and paid as a result of retirement earlier than age sixty-five shall be at an actuarially reduced rate:

(3) For persons who began employment before the effective date of this 1985 act, to pay to any such (retired) person upon retirement or to ((his)) the person's designated beneficiary(s), each year after ((his)) the person's retirement, a supplemental amount which, when added to the amount of such annuity or retirement income plan, or retirement income benefit pursuant to RCW 28B.10.415, received by ((him or his)) the person or the person's designated beneficiary(s) in such year, will not exceed fifty percent of the average annual salary paid to such retired person for ((his)) the person's highest two consecutive years of full time service under an annuity or retirement income plan established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section at an institution of higher education: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if such retired person prior to ((his)) retirement elected a supplemental payment survivors option, any such supplemental payments to such retired person or ((his)) the person's designated beneficiary(s) shall be at actuarially reduced rates: PROVIDED FURTHER, That if a faculty member or other employee of an institution of higher education who is a participant in a retirement plan authorized by this section dies, or has died before retirement but after becoming eligible for retirement on account of age, the designated beneficiary(s) shall be entitled to receive the supplemental payment authorized by this subsection (3) of this section to which such designated beneficiary(s) would have been entitled had said deceased faculty member or other employee retired on the date of death after electing a supplemental payment survivors option: PROVIDED FURTHER, That for the purpose of this subsection, the designated beneficiary(s) shall be (a) the surviving spouse of the retiree; or, (b) with the written consent of such spouse, if any, such other person or persons as shall have an insurable interest in the retiree's life and shall have been nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the retiree's institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 28B.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Employees employed after the effective date of this act eligible to participate under RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430 may, before the end of the calendar month following the date of employment, elect through written notification to the governing body of the employing institution:

(a) To participate under RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430 without the supplemental benefits; or

(b) To participate in the retirement plan under chapter 41.32 RCW if the person has been a member under chapter 41.32 RCW.

(2) An employee, otherwise eligible, failing to make an election under subsection (1) of this section shall be covered under chapter 41.40 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The legislature finds that in the past public employees and teachers who had terminated employment, withdrawn their retirement contributions, and subsequently returned to public employment or teaching either did not receive proper notification of the procedure to reinstate their withdrawn contributions or they did not fully understand the limitation on such reinstatement. In 1973, the legislature recognized this fact and provided an extraordinary reinstatement period for such employees. Further in 1983, the legislature established clear notification procedures for the proper notification of the reinstatement policy for all such returning employees. Therefore, it is the intent of sections 23 through 25 of this act to provide one last opportunity for reinstatement of withdrawn contributions to those who may have not been properly informed or misunderstood the reinstatement procedure.

Sec. 23. Section 50, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 233, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.32.500 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Membership in the retirement system is terminated when a member retires for service or disability, dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years; however, a member may retain membership in the teachers' retirement system by leaving his accumulated contributions in the teachers' retirement fund under one of the following conditions:

(a) If he is eligible for retirement;

(b) If he is a member of another public retirement system in the state of Washington by reason of change in employment and has arranged to have membership extended during the period of such employment:

(c) If he is not eligible for retirement but has established five or more years of Washington membership service credit.

The prior service certificate becomes void when a member dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years, and any prior administrative interpretation of the board of trustees, consistent with this section, is hereby ratified, affirmed and approved.

(2) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1985 act through June 30, 1986, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(3) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Sec. 24. Section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 233, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.40.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should the individual separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should the individual become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member except:

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1985 act through June 30, 1986, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(6) (a) The recipient of a retirement allowance who is employed in an eligible position other than under RCW 41.40.120(12) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of eligible employment and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed;

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed; AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

(7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five(5); however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five; PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. (1) There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, one hundred six thousand dollars from the retirement systems expense fund to the department of retirement systems to carry out the administrative purposes of sections 22 through 24 of this act.

Of this amount, one million two hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund and one million six hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 43.88 RCW to read as follows:

Each omnibus biennial operating appropriations act shall include an appropriation for the full amount that will be paid out during that biennium under any postretirement cost of living adjustment adopted after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. There is created a sixteen member joint committee on public retirement during the 1985 interim as follows:

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1985

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4308 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The departments of social and health services and ecology were created in 1970. At that time, the legislature recognized that the protection of the natural environment and the protection of the public health were closely interrelated activities. The enabling statutes, RCW 43.21A.140 and 43.20A.140, directed each agency to consult with the other "in order that to the fullest extent possible, agencies concerned with the preservation of life and health, and agencies concerned with the protection of the environment may integrate their efforts and endorse policies in common."

Increasing awareness of incidents involving air, water, and land pollution resulting in health problems have caused citizens to be confused about the responsibility of the departments of ecology and social and health services.

Examples of areas in which both agencies have responsibilities include: Toxic and hazardous waste disposal; ground water contamination affecting drinking water; radioactive material handling and disposal; and pollution of Puget Sound resulting in shellfish area closures.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A thorough assessment of the relationship of public health, environmental health and environmental protection in the state is commissioned. A team shall be formed to assess the relationship of public health, environmental health and environmental protection in the state and recommend needed changes. The team will also investigate the feasibility of consolidating duties and staff of the department of social and health services office of environmental health programs and the department of ecology. The team shall consist of the directors of the department of social and health services and ecology, the chairs of the senate parks and ecology and house of representatives environmental affairs committees, the chairs of the house of representatives social and health services committee and senate human services and corrections committee, and the chair of the state board of health or their designees. The team shall also consist of one local health official, one county commissioner/council member and one member of the environmental community. The three previously mentioned members will be chosen by their respective organizations. Provided adequate funding is available, the Washington state institute for public policy shall act as convener for the study. Involvement of the Washington state institute for public policy is contingent upon approval of the institute's executive board of directors. The institute shall provide limited staff, conduct necessary research required and produce needed documents including the final plan and recommendations. If the Washington state institute for public policy cannot fulfill its role as detailed in this act, the legislature shall act in the same manner. One staff member from the department of social and health services and one staff member from the department of ecology will provide necessary staff support to the team. Team members shall serve voluntarily. Travel expenses shall be paid by their respective organizations. Travel expenses of the local health official, county commissioner/council member and members of the environmental community shall be paid jointly by the departments of social and health services and ecology. The plan will be submitted to the legislature by October 1, 1986. The plan shall include:

(1) A comprehensive analysis of public health, environmental health and environmental protection in the state with emphasis on duplicate or overlapping responsibilities and the relationship of each to the other;

(2) An analysis of the impact of a potential consolidation on programs administered by local health agencies, including recommendations for improving state and local coordination;

(3) A comprehensive organizational assessment of the department of ecology and the reporting relationship of the office of environmental health programs within the agency, along with recommendations to ensure that public health is given appropriate emphasis; and

(4) A review of existing statutes pertaining to the department of social and health services and the state board of health. The plan shall identify appropriate revisions that may be needed to reflect any consolidation of responsibilities. During formulation of the plan, efforts shall be made to coordinate with activities of the joint select committee on public health studying general public health issues pursuant to section 3, chapter 243, Laws of 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The plan and recommended legislation shall be submitted to the legislature with recommendations for the feasibility of and necessary components required for any consolidation of responsibility that is recommended."

On page 1, line 2 of the title, after "ecology;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and creating new sections."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

The order of the commission is valid for any election occurring in the jurisdiction for a two-year period following its issuance.

(3) The exemption in subsection (1)(c) of this section does not apply in any jurisdiction that by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to void the exemption with respect to election campaigns in the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an order voiding the exemption for that jurisdiction. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every candidate, political committee, or person making independent expenditures in the jurisdiction to comply with the campaign finance reporting provisions of this chapter within fourteen days of the date of the order. The order applies to all elections in the jurisdiction for two years after its issuance.

(4) Any petition for disclosure, ordinance, resolution, or official action of an agency petitioning the commission to void the exemption in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not be considered unless it has been filed with the commission:

(a) In the case of a ballot measure, at least sixty days before the date of any election in which campaign finance reporting is to be required;

(b) In the case of a candidate, at least sixty days before the first day on which a person may file a declaration of candidacy for any election in which campaign finance reporting is to be required.

(5) Any person exempted from reporting under this section may at his or her option file the statements and reports.

(4) (A) A candidate or political committee may at any time remove a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer or change a designated campaign depository.

(b) In the event of the death, resignation, removal, or change of a campaign treasurer, deputy campaign treasurer, or depository, the candidate or political committee shall designate and file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer the name and address of any successor.

~~((4))~~ (5) No campaign treasurer, deputy campaign treasurer, or campaign depository may be deemed to be in compliance with the provisions of this chapter until his name and address is filed with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer.

If the donor cannot be ascertained, the contribution shall escheat to the state, and shall be paid to the state treasurer for deposit in the state general fund.

(5) A contribution of fifty dollars or more in currency may not be accepted unless a receipt, signed by the contributor and by the candidate, campaign treasurer, or deputy campaign treasurer, is prepared and made a part of the campaign's or political committee's financial records.

(2) Appoint and set, within the limits established by the committee on salaries under RCW 43.03.028, the compensation of an executive director who shall perform such duties and have such powers as the commission may prescribe and delegate to implement and enforce this chapter efficiently and effectively. The commission shall not delegate its authority to adopt, amend, or rescind rules nor shall it delegate authority to determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred or to assess penalties for such violations;

(3) Prepare and publish such reports and technical studies as in its judgment will tend to promote the purposes of this chapter, including reports and statistics concerning campaign financing, lobbying, financial interests of elected officials, and enforcement of this chapter;

~~((3))~~ (4) Make from time to time, on its own motion, audits and field investigations;

~~((6))~~ (7) Adopt and promulgate a code of fair campaign practices;

~~((7))~~ (8) Relieve, by rule, candidates or political committees of obligations to comply with the provisions of this chapter relating to election campaigns, if they have not received contributions nor made expenditures in connection with any election campaign of more than one thousand dollars; ~~((and~~

The term "legislative information," for the purposes of this subsection, means books, pamphlets, reports, and other materials prepared, published, or distributed at substantial cost, a substantial purpose of which is to influence the passage or defeat of any legislation. The state auditor in his regular examination of each agency under chapter 43.09 RCW shall review the rules, accounts, and reports and make appropriate findings, comments, and recommendations in his examination reports concerning those agencies(;;);

~~((9))~~ (10) After hearing, by order approved and ratified by a majority of the membership of the commission, suspend or modify any of the reporting requirements of this chapter in a

The commission shall find that a manifestly unreasonable hardship exists if reporting the name of an entity required to be reported under RCW 42.17.241(1)(g)(ii) would be likely to adversely affect the competitive position of any entity in which the person filing the report or any member of his immediate family holds any office, directorship, general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more. Any suspension or modification shall be only to the extent necessary to substantially relieve the hardship. The commission shall act to suspend or modify any reporting requirements only if it determines that facts exist that are clear and convincing proof of the findings required under this section. (1) Revise, at least once every five years but no more often than every two years, the monetary reporting thresholds and reporting code values of this chapter. The revisions shall be only for the purpose of recognizing economic changes as reflected by an inflationary index recommended by the office of financial management. The revisions shall be guided by the change in the index for the period commencing with the month of December preceding the last revision and concluding with the month of December preceding the month the revision is adopted. As to each of the three general categories of this chapter (reports of campaign finance, reports of lobbyist activity, and reports of the financial affairs of elected and appointed officials), the revisions shall equally affect all thresholds within each category. Revisions shall be adopted as rules under chapter 34.04 RCW. The first revision authorized by this subsection shall reflect economic changes from the time of the last legislative enactment affecting the respective code or threshold through December 1985.

Sec. 12. Section 12, chapter 112, Laws of 1975-76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.395 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission may (a) determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred; and (b) issue and enforce an appropriate order following such determination.

(2) The commission, in cases where it chooses to determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred, shall hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW) to make such determination. Any order ~~((which))~~ that the commission issues under this section shall be pursuant to such hearing.

(3) In lieu of holding a hearing or issuing an order under this section, the commission may refer the matter to the attorney general or other enforcement agency as provided in RCW 42.17.360.

(4) The person against whom an order is directed under this section shall be designated as the respondent. ~~((Such))~~ The order may require the respondent to cease and desist from the activity ~~((which))~~ that constitutes a violation and in addition, or alternatively, may impose one or more of the remedies provided in RCW 42.17.390(1) (b), (c), (d), or (e); PROVIDED, That no individual penalty assessed by the commission may exceed ~~((two hundred fifty))~~ one thousand dollars, and in any case where multiple violations are involved in a single complaint or hearing, the maximum aggregate penalty may not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.

(5) An order issued by the commission under this section shall be subject to judicial review under the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW). If the commission's order is not satisfied and no petition for review is filed within thirty days as provided in RCW 34.04.130, the commission may petition a court of competent jurisdiction of any county in which a petition for review could be filed under that section, for an order of enforcement. Proceedings in connection with the commission's petition shall be in accordance with RCW 42.17.397, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 60, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((During the period between March 26, 1982, and January 1, 1986))~~ Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the reporting provisions of this chapter ((are suspended as they pertain)) do not apply to candidates, elected officials, and agencies in jurisdictions with less than one thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction((-The suspension also applies)), to political committees formed to support or oppose ballot propositions in such jurisdictions, ((and)) or to persons making independent expenditures in support of or opposition to such ballot propositions.

(2) The ~~((suspension shall not))~~ reporting provisions of this chapter apply in any jurisdiction from which a "petition for disclosure" containing the valid signatures of five percent of the number of registered voters, as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction, is filed with the commission. The commission shall by rule prescribe the form of the petition. After the signatures are gathered, the petition shall be presented to the auditor or elections officer of the county, or counties, in which the jurisdiction is located. The auditor or elections officer shall verify the signatures and certify to the commission that the petition contains no less than the required number of valid signatures. The commission, upon receipt of a valid petition, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(3) The ~~((suspension shall not))~~ reporting provisions of this chapter apply in any jurisdiction which by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to ~~((void the suspension with respect))~~ make the provisions applicable to elected officials and candidates of the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an appropriate order ~~((voiding the suspension for that jurisdiction))~~. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(4) Any person exempted from reporting by ~~((the suspension under))~~ subsection (1) of this section may at his or her option file the statement and reports."

Notwithstanding any other section of this 1977 amendatory act, the boards of regents and trustees of the respective institutions of higher education shall set aside from ((general)) tuition and fees charged in each schedule an amount heretofore pledged and necessary for the purposes of bond retirement until such time as any such debt has been satisfied.

(1) Each institution of higher education shall deposit two and one-half percent of revenues collected from tuition((-operating:)) and services and activities fees in an institutional long-term loan fund which is hereby created and which shall be held locally. Moneys in such fund shall be used to make guaranteed loans to eligible students except as provided for in subsection (10) of this section.

(2) An "eligible student" for the purposes of this section is a student registered for at least six credit hours or the equivalent, who is eligible for resident tuition and fee rates as defined in RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015, and who is a "needy student" as defined in RCW 28B.10.802.

(3) The amount of the loans made under subsection (1) of this section shall not exceed the demonstrated financial need of the student. Each institution shall establish loan terms and conditions which shall be consistent with the terms of the guaranteed loan program established by 20 U.S. Code Section 1071 et((:)) seq., as now or hereafter amended. All loans made shall be guaranteed by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. Institutions are hereby granted full authority to operate as an eligible lender under the guaranteed loan program.

(4) Before approving a guaranteed loan, each institution shall analyze the ability of the student to repay the loan based on factors which include, but are not limited to, the student's accumulated total education loan burdens and the employment opportunities and average starting salary characteristics of the student's chosen fields of study. The institution shall counsel the student on the advisability of acquiring additional debt, and on the availability of other forms of financial aid.

(5) Each institution is responsible for collection of loans made under subsection (1) of this section and shall exercise due diligence in such collection, maintaining all necessary records to insure that maximum repayments are made. Institutions shall cooperate with other lenders and the Washington student loan guaranty association, or its successor agency, in the coordinated collection of guaranteed loans, and shall assure that the guarantability of the loans is not violated. Collection and servicing of loans under subsection (1) of this section shall be performed by entities approved for such servicing by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency: PROVIDED, That institutions be permitted to perform such servicing if specifically recognized to do so by the Washington student loan guaranty association or its successor agency. Collection and servicing of loans made by community colleges under subsection (1) of this section shall be coordinated by the state board for community college education and shall be conducted under procedures adopted by such state board.

(6) Receipts from payment of interest or principal or any other subsidies to which institutions as lenders are entitled, which are paid by or on behalf of borrowers of funds under subsection (1) of this section, shall be deposited in each institution's general local fund and shall be used to cover the costs of making the loans under subsection (1) of this section and maintaining necessary records and making collections under subsection (5) of this section: PROVIDED, That such costs shall not exceed five percent of aggregate outstanding loan principle. Institutions shall maintain accurate records of such costs, and all receipts beyond those necessary to pay such costs, shall be used for the support of the institution's operating budget.

(8) Lending activities under this section shall be directed toward students who would not normally have access to educational loans from private financial institutions in Washington state, and maximum use shall be made of secondary markets in the support of loan consolidation.

(9) Short-term interim loans, not to exceed one hundred twenty days, may be made from the institutional long-term loan fund to students eligible for guaranteed student loans and whose receipt of such loans is pending. Such short-term loans shall not be subject to the guarantee restrictions or the constraints of federal law imposed by subsection (3) of this section. No such loan shall be made to any student who is known by the institution to be in default or delinquent in the payment of any outstanding student loan.

(10) Any moneys deposited in the institutional long-term loan fund which are not used in making long or short term loans or transferred to institutional operating budgets may be used by the institution for locally-administered financial aid programs for needy students, such as need-based institutional employment programs or need-based tuition and fee waiver programs. These funds shall be used in addition to and not to replace institutional funds which would otherwise support these locally-administered financial aid programs. Priority in the use of these funds shall be given to needy students who have accumulated excessive educational loan burdens. There is hereby created in the state treasury a community college bond retirement fund. Within thirty-five days from the date of start of each quarter all ~~((general tuition))~~ building fees of each such community college shall be paid into the state treasury, and shall be credited as follows:

(1) On or before June 30th of each year the college board if issuing bonds payable out of ~~((general tuition))~~ building fees shall certify to the state treasurer the amounts required in the ensuing twelve-month period to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on such bonds. The state treasurer shall thereupon deposit the amounts so certified in the community college bond retirement fund which fund as required, is hereby created in the state treasury. Such amounts of the funds deposited in the bond retirement fund as are necessary to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the ~~((tuition fee))~~ building bonds issued by the college board as authorized by this chapter shall be exclusively devoted to that purpose. If in any twelve-month period it shall appear that the amount certified by the college board is insufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the outstanding ~~((general tuition fee))~~ building bonds, the state treasurer shall notify the college board and such board shall adjust its certificate so that all requirements of moneys to pay and secure the payment of the principal and interest on all such bonds then outstanding shall be fully met at all times.

(2) That portion of the ~~((general tuition))~~ building fees not required for or in excess of the amounts necessary to pay and secure the payment of any of the bonds as provided in subsection (1) above shall be deposited in the community college capital projects account which account is hereby created in the general fund of the state treasury. The sums deposited in the capital projects account shall be appropriated and expended exclusively for the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alteration of buildings and other capital assets owned by the state board for community college education in the name of the state of Washington, and the acquisition of sites, rights-of-way, easements, improvements or appurtenances in relation thereto, and for the payment of principal of and interest on any bonds issued for such purposes.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) above, at such time as all outstanding ~~((tuition-fee))~~ building bonds of the college board payable from the community college bond retirement fund have been paid, redeemed, and retired, or at such time as ample provision has been made by the state for full payment, from some source other than the community college bond retirement fund, of the principal of and the interest on and call premium, if applicable, of such bonds as they mature and/or upon their call prior to their maturity, through refunding or otherwise, that portion of all ~~((general-tuition))~~ building fees of the community colleges equal to the amount required to pay yearly debt service on any general obligation bonds issued by the state in accordance with Article VIII, section 1, Washington state Constitution, for community college purposes, shall be paid into the general fund of the state treasury. The state finance committee shall determine whether ample provision has been made for payment of such bonds payable from the said bond retirement fund and shall determine the amount required to pay yearly debt service on such general obligation bonds of the state. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as obligating the legislature or the state to provide for payment of such community college ~~((tuition-fee))~~ building bonds from some source other than the community college bond retirement fund or as pledging the general credit of the state to the payment of such bonds.

Sec. 57. Section 28B.50.370, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 21, chapter 279, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.370 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of paying and securing the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds as the same shall become due, there shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the bond retirement fund of the state board for community college education, the following:

(1) Amounts derived from ~~((general-tuition))~~ building fees as are necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds and to secure the same;

(2) Any grants which may be made, or may become available for the purpose of furthering the construction of any authorized projects, or for the repayment of the costs thereof;

(3) Such additional funds as the legislature may provide.

Said bond retirement fund shall be kept segregated from all moneys in the state treasury and shall, while any of such bonds or any interest thereon remains unpaid, be available solely for the payment thereof. As a part of the contract of sale of such bonds, the college board shall charge and collect ~~((general-tuition))~~ building fees as established by this chapter and deposit such fees in the bond retirement fund in amounts which will be sufficient to pay and secure the payment of the principal of, and interest on all such bonds outstanding.

Sec. 58. Section 1, chapter 223, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.401 are each amended to read as follows:

The state finance committee has heretofore refunded, pursuant to RCW 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407, all of the outstanding ~~((general-tuition-fee))~~ building bonds of the community college board payable from the community college bond retirement fund. By reason of such refunding said ~~((tuition-fee))~~ bonds are no longer deemed to be outstanding and moneys presently on deposit in said bond retirement fund are no longer needed to pay and secure the payment of such refunded ~~((tuition-fee))~~ bonds.

Sec. 59. Section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.403 are each amended to read as follows:

The state of Washington is hereby authorized to issue state general obligation bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding ~~((general-tuition-fee))~~ building, limited obligation bonds of the college board issued pursuant to this chapter in an amount not exceeding 1.05 times the amount which, taking into account amounts to be earned from the investment of the proceeds of the issue, is required to pay the principal thereof, interest thereon, any premium payable with respect thereto, and the costs incurred in accomplishing such refunding: PROVIDED, That any proceeds of the refunding bonds in excess of those required to accomplish such refunding, or any obligations acquired with such excess proceeds, shall be applied exclusively for the payment of principal, interest, or call premiums with respect to such refunding obligations. In no event shall the amount of such refunding bonds authorized in this section exceed seventy-five million dollars.

Sec. 60. Section 2, chapter 112, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.404 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to the specific provisions of RCW 28B.50.360 and 28B.50.403 through 28B.50.407, such general obligation refunding bonds shall be issued and the refunding of said community college ~~((tuition-fee))~~ building bonds shall be carried out pursuant to chapters 39.42 and 39.53 RCW as now or hereafter amended. The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise of the state to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

In order that any future appropriations for such approved capital projects may be funded on terms most advantageous to the state, it is hereby determined to be in the public interest to provide for the issuance of state general obligation bonds, in lieu of (~~general tuition fee~~) building, limited obligation bonds.

On July 1st of each such year, the state treasurer shall withdraw said sum from the community college capital projects account and deposit said sum in the state general fund: PROVIDED, That withdrawal of (~~general tuition~~) building fees from the community college capital projects account for deposit into the state general fund pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be made only after provision has first been made for the payment in full of the principal of and interest on all outstanding (~~general tuition fee~~) building, limited obligation bonds of the college board coming due in the twelve months next succeeding July 1 of each such year, and for any reserve account deposits necessary for such outstanding bonds in the same period.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1985

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3283 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that it is in the public interest of the people of the state of Washington to encourage maintenance, improvement, and preservation of privately owned historic landmarks as the state approaches its Centennial year of 1989. To achieve this purpose, this chapter provides special valuation for improvements to historic property.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Historic property" means real property together with improvements thereon, except property listed in a register primarily for objects buried below ground, which is:

(a) Listed in a local register of historic places created by comprehensive ordinance, certified by the secretary of the interior as provided in P.L. 96-515; or

(b) Listed in the national register of historic places.

(2) "Substantial improvement" means the actual cost of rehabilitation which is twenty-five percent or greater of the assessed valuation of the historic structure prior to rehabilitation.

(3) "Special valuation" means the determination of the assessed value of the historic property at a rate that excludes, for up to ten years, the actual cost of a substantial improvement.

(4) "State review board" means the advisory council on historic preservation established under chapter 27.34 RCW, or any successor agency designated by the state to act as the state historic preservation review board under federal law.

(5) "Local review board" means a local body designated by the local legislative authority.

(6) "Owner" means the owner of record.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Four criteria must be met for special valuation under this chapter. The property must:

- (1) Be an historic property;
- (2) Fall within a class of historic property determined eligible for special valuation by the local legislative authority;
- (3) Be substantially improved within twenty-four months prior to the application for special valuation; and
- (4) Be protected by a covenant between the owner and the local review board as described in section 5(2) of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. An owner of property desiring special valuation under this chapter shall apply to the assessor of the county in which the property is located upon forms prescribed by the department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. The application form shall include a statement that the applicant is aware of the potential tax liability involved when the property ceases to be eligible for special valuation. Applications shall be made no later than October 1 of the calendar year preceding the first assessment year for which classification is requested.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Within ten days after the filing of the application in the county assessor's office, the county assessor shall refer each application for classification to the local review board.

(2) The review board shall approve the application if the property meets the criterion of section 3 of this act and is not altered in a way which adversely affects those elements which qualify it as historically significant, and the owner enters into a covenant with the review board which requires the owner for the ten-year period of the classification to:

- (a) Monitor the property for its continued qualification for the special valuation;
- (b) Comply with rehabilitation plans and minimum standards of maintenance as defined in the agreement;
- (c) Make the historic aspects of the property accessible to public view one day a year, if the property is not visible from the public right of way;
- (d) Apply to the local review board for approval or denial of any demolition or alteration;

and

- (e) Comply with any other provisions in the original agreement as may be appropriate.

(3) Once a covenant between an owner and a review board has become effective pursuant to this chapter, there shall be no changes in standards of maintenance, public access, alteration, or report requirements, or any other provisions of the covenant, during the period of the classification without the approval of all parties to the covenant.

(4) An application for classification as an eligible historic property shall be approved or denied by the local review board before December 31 of the calendar year in which the application is made.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The review board shall notify the county assessor and the applicant of the approval or denial of the application.

(2) If the local review board determines that the property qualifies as eligible historic property, the review board shall certify the fact in writing and shall file a copy of the certificate with the county assessor within ten days. The certificate shall state the facts upon which the approval is based.

(3) The assessor shall record the certificate with the county auditor.

(4) The assessor, as to any historic property, shall value the property under section 7 of this act and, each year the historic property is classified and so valued, shall enter on the assessment list and tax roll that the property is being specially valued as historic property.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) The county assessor shall, for ten consecutive assessment years following the calendar year in which application is made, value property classified as eligible historic property excluding the actual cost of the substantial improvement completed within the twenty-four months prior to the application.

(2) The entitlement of property to the special valuation provisions of this section shall be determined as of January 1. If property becomes disqualified for the special valuation for any reason, the property shall receive the special valuation for that part of any year during which it remained qualified or the owner was acting in the good faith belief that the property was qualified.

(3) At the conclusion of special valuation, the actual cost of the substantial improvement shall be considered as new construction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) When property has once been classified and valued as eligible historic property, it shall remain so classified and be granted the special valuation provided by section 7 of this act for ten years or until the property is disqualified by:

- (a) Notice by the owner to the assessor to remove the special valuation;
- (b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making it exempt from property taxation; or
- (c) Removal of the special valuation by the assessor upon determination by the local review board that the property no longer qualifies as historic property or that the owner has failed to comply with the conditions established under section 5 of this act.

(2) The sale or transfer to a new owner or transfer by reason of death of a former owner to a new owner does not disqualify the property from the special valuation provided by section 7 of this act if:

(a) The property continues to qualify as historic property; and

(b) The new owner files a notice of compliance with the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Notice of compliance forms shall be prescribed by the state department of revenue and supplied by the county assessor. The notice shall contain a statement that the new owner is aware of the special valuation and of the potential tax liability involved when the property ceases to be valued as historic property under this chapter. The signed notice of compliance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45-.120. If the notice of compliance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all additional taxes calculated pursuant to section 9 of this act shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of specially valued historic property for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of compliance or the additional tax has been paid.

(3) When the property ceases to qualify for the special valuation the owner shall immediately notify the state or local review board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, whenever property classified and valued as eligible historic property under section 7 of this act becomes disqualified for the valuation, there shall be added to the tax levied against the property on the next general property tax roll an additional tax equal to:

(a) The actual cost of the substantial improvement multiplied by the levy rate in each year the property was subject to special valuation; plus

(b) Interest on the amounts of the additional tax at the statutory rate charged on delinquent property taxes from the dates on which the additional tax could have been paid without penalty if the property had not been valued as historic property under this chapter; plus

(c) A penalty equal to twelve percent of the amount determined in (a) and (b) of this subsection.

(2) The additional tax and penalties, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on the property which shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation, or responsibility to or with which the property may become charged or liable.

(3) Before the additional tax or penalty imposed by subsection (1) of this section is added to the tax levied against the property on the next general property tax roll, in the case of disqualification under section 8 of this act, the assessor shall notify the owner of the property by mail, return receipt requested, of the disqualification.

(4) The additional tax, interest, and penalty shall not be imposed if the disqualification resulted solely from:

(a) Sale or transfer of the property to an ownership making it exempt from taxation;

(b) Alteration or destruction through no fault of the owner; or

(c) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The additional tax, penalties, and/or interest provided by section 9 of this act shall be payable in full thirty days after the date which the treasurer's statement therefor is rendered. Such additional tax when collected shall be distributed by the county treasurer in the same manner in which current taxes applicable to the subject land are distributed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The local legislative authority and the local review board may request the assistance of the state historic preservation officer in conducting special valuation activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The state review board shall adopt rules necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The rules shall include rehabilitation and maintenance standards for historic properties to be used as minimum requirements by local review boards to ensure that the historic property is safe and habitable, including but not limited to:

(1) Elimination of visual blight due to past neglect of maintenance and repair to the exterior of the building, including replacement of broken or missing doors and windows, repair of deteriorated architectural features, and painting of exterior surfaces;

(2) Correction of structural defects and hazards;

(3) Protection from weather damage due to defective roofing, flashings, glazing, caulking, or lack of heat; and

(4) Elimination of any condition on the premises which could cause or augment fire or explosion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any decision by a local review board on an application for classification as historic property eligible for special valuation may be appealed to superior court under RCW 34.04.130 in addition to any other remedy at law. Any decision on the disqualification of historic property eligible for special valuation, or any other dispute, may be appealed to the county board of equalization.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. No application for special valuation under this chapter may be made after December 31, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 84 RCW."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

(2) To discharge or bar any person from employment because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap.

(3) To discriminate against any person in compensation or in other terms or conditions of employment because of age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap: PROVIDED, That it shall not be an unfair practice for an employer to segregate washrooms or locker facilities on the basis of sex, or to base other terms and conditions of employment on the sex of employees where the commission by regulation or ruling in a particular instance has found the employment practice to be appropriate for the practical realization of equality of opportunity between the sexes.

(4) To print, or circulate, or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification, or discrimination as to age, sex, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical handicap, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification, or discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification: PROVIDED, Nothing contained herein shall prohibit advertising in a foreign language.

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "penalties;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "and amending RCW 51.28.025, 51.48.010, 51.48.017, 51.48.030, 51.48.040, 51.48.060, 51.48.080, and 49.60.180."

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1089, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bailey: "Violation of the department rules is subject to the maximum penalty of five hundred dollars? The second question is that a self-insured employer is subject to a minimum assessment of five hundred dollars for unreasonable delay in payments to claimants. All of the remarks that I've had from my community states the delay in payment has come from Departments rather than problems the other way around. Did your committee address this at all?"

Senator Warnke: "Yes, the committee did address that issue. Whether or not the claim is filed--and then is held by a self-insurer prior to going on--or vice versa--and that's the issue they are addressing in this claim and there was apparently some feeling on the part of people that could transpire, at least."

Senator Bailey: "Mr. President, I just wanted to address that question, because I wonder if we are addressing the right question in this particular bill. I don't want to go beyond that, but I just do raise that question."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Vognild, we understand that this is a package of bills that are related in their effect on the Department of Labor and Industries--and the most important bill, one which we really want to pass, is 1804. Obviously, there is some reluctance to vote on this bill, which is also agreed to without an understanding that 1084 will also run. Do we have your assurance that House Bill 1084 will be before us?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Newhouse, it is the majority party's intention that that bill will run tomorrow."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion Senator Vognild, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1089, as amended by the Senate, was deferred.

There being no objection, the President advanced the Senate to the seventh order of business.

There being no objection, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3927, on reconsideration, deferred on third reading, April 12, 1985.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3927, on reconsideration, was returned to second reading and read the second time.

Senator Peterson moved that the following amendments by Senators Peterson, Patterson and Fleming be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 2, line 30, after "~~((two))~~" strike "seven" and insert "five"

On page 3, line 23, after "~~((three))~~" strike "five" and insert "four"

On page 4, line 13, after "~~((three))~~" strike "ten" and insert "seven"

On page 4, line 35, after "~~((two))~~" strike "seven" and insert "five"

On page 5, line 23, after "than" strike "five" and insert "three"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Peterson, Patterson and Fleming.

The motion by Senator Peterson carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Sellar moved that the following amendments be considered simultaneously and adopted:

On page 7, line 16, after "~~((one))~~", strike "four" and insert "three" and after "dollars" on line 17 strike "~~((b-and fifty cents))~~" and insert "and ((fifty)) twenty-five cents"

On page 8, line 34, after "~~((one))~~", strike "four" and insert "three" and after "dollars" on line 17 strike "~~((fifty cents))~~" and insert "and ((fifty)) twenty-five cents"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Sellar, the reduction of seventy-five cents that you're proposing here--from the committee recommendation--do you know what the fiscal impact would be if we would reduce it to that point?"

Senator Sellar: "Senator Peterson said each dollar of overcharge to the company would be another 2.6 million dollars to the company, so I would assume that this would come out probably six hundred or seven hundred thousand dollars, which would leave it still in an overcharge position. Yes, I think that was the testimony, every dollar above three dollars is an overcharge of 2.6 million dollars to the people of the state of Washington."

Senator Patterson: "The reason I raise the question is that these fees will cover us for the biennium of 85-87--the coming biennium--and even with this schedule that would be reduced amounts in other areas, we will show approximately a 3.2 million dollars, supposedly, surplus. I just want to make sure that we do not do anything that will not provide the Department with the funding necessary to cover the coming biennium and that's the reason I asked the question."

Senator Sellar: "Well, Senator, the only answer to that is that this amendment will still probably overcharge those companies about a half a million dollars for the services that they receive. I think that's plenty enough overcharge for one particular company, so I would urge the adoption of the amendments."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Fleming demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Sellar.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Seilar failed and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 26; absent, 1; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bailey, Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Hayner, Johnson, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, Metcalf, Newhouse, Pullen, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 21.

Voting nay: Senators Bender, Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Halsan, Hansen, Kreidler, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Talmadge, Thompson, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn - 26.

Absent: Senator Vognild - 1.

Excused: Senator Bauer - 1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3927 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Patterson, being on the Transportation Committee, I guess I should know the answer to this question, but I can't recall--this money--how is that associated with the overall cost of running that Department? How directly does this money go for service out there in the county or is it just in a pot of running that Department? Could you kind of give me some indication of how directly it goes of what we are talking about here?"

Senator Patterson: "Yes, I can give you a direct example. Out in your rural district, it pays for licensing stations where you go in to renew your driver's license, take the test for new drivers, the examination and in lieu--if there's not one near in one of your rural communities--if you close down some of those stations, then they may have to drive as far as Ellensburg or Spokane in order to have that service close to where the people are located. That's a direct service to the people to try to make it more convenient for them to have their driver's licenses renewed and authorized, and I would suggest it is a direct benefit to the consumers."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3927 and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; excused, 1.

Voting yea: Senators Bottiger, Conner, DeJarnatt, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Kiskaddon, Kreidler, McDermott, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Thompson, Vognild, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 19.

Voting nay: Senators Bailey, Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Cantu, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Garrett, Gaspard, Halsan, Hayner, Johnson, Lee, McCaslin, McDonald, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Pullen, Rinehart, Saling, Sellar, Stratton, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams - 29.

Excused: Senator Bauer - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3927, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hansen: "I want to speak on a point of personal privilege here. I think the state can pick up nearly--there will be thirty some drivers' license closures--most of them in eastern Washington and I think that eastern Washington deserves one trip to Seattle. You have three ways to pick the money up. It's on our gas tax while we're coming over, second the speeding fines that you're going to get for speeding while we're coming and the hotel/motel tax while we're here. I think there's some more if I could stop long enough to think them up, so this is a bad vote we just made."

There being no objection, the President reverted the Senate to the first order of business.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator McDermott, of these nearly six hundred million dollar bond issues--plural--how much of the bonds are going to have to be retired from the general fund of the state of Washington versus those that will be retired from dedicated funds for that purpose?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator, most of the bonds here are general obligation bonds. There are a few in the colleges that are related to student fees and tuition that are from dedicated funds, otherwise it is all general funding. The exact proportion I'm not exactly certain. It's somewhere in excess of four hundred million that is general obligation."

Senator Patterson: "That would leave roughly another two hundred million that would not be an obligation against the general fund then?"

Senator McDermott: "No, Senator, the total figure was four hundred and ninety-six and it's in excess of four hundred million that is general obligation. I'm not quite sure the exact amount that comes from the general fund."

Senator Patterson: "Well, by an amendment by Senator Hansen, as I recall, there was an added forty million which takes it up over five hundred."

Senator McDermott: "It takes it up over five hundred and thirty-six. If you hang on one second I'll give you the figure."

Senator Patterson: "I'd appreciate that."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Patterson, if you add the forty million that we added as an amendment here that takes it up to five hundred and thirty-six million--sixty-five million are reimbursable--which would make four hundred and seventy-one million that would be from the general fund. There's also some money in here for Washington State for the airport."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3679.
