In order to defend against this lawsuit, you must respond to the complaint by stating your defense in writing, and serve a copy upon the person signing this summons within 20 days after the service of this summons, excluding the day of service, or a default judgment may be entered against you without notice. A default judgment is one where plaintiff is entitled to what he asks for because you have not responded. If you serve a notice of appearance on the undersigned person you are entitled to notice before a default judgment may be entered.

If you wish to seek the advice of an attorney in this matter, you should do so promptly so that your written response, if any, may be served on time.

This summons is issued pursuant to rule 4 of the Justice Court Civil Rules.

(c) By Whom Served. Service of summons and complaint may be made by the sheriff or a deputy of the county or district in which the court is located or by any citizen of the State of Washington over the age of 18 years and who is competent to be a witness and is not a party to the action.

(d) Service.

(1) Of Summons and Complaint. The summons and complaint shall be served together.

(2) Personal in State. Personal service of summons and other process shall be as provided in RCW 4.28-.080-.090, 23A.08.110, 23A.32.100, 46.64.040, and 48-.05.200 and .210, and other statutes which provide for personal service.

(e) Service by Publication and Personal Service Out of the Jurisdiction.

(1) When the defendant cannot be found within the territorial jurisdiction of the court (of which the return of the sheriff of the county in which the action is brought, that the defendant cannot be found in the county, is prima facie evidence), and upon filing of an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, with the court stating that he believes that the defendant is not a resident of the county, or cannot be found therein, and that he has deposited a copy of the summons (substantially in the form prescribed in this rule) and complaint in the post office, directed to the defendant at his place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is not known to the affiant, and stating the existence of one of the cases hereinafter specified, the service may be made by publication of the summons by the plaintiff or his attorney in any of the following cases:

(i) when the defendant is a foreign corporation, and has property within the county;

(ii) when the defendant, being a resident of the county, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a notice and complaint, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;

(iii) when the defendant is not a resident of the county, but has property therein which has been brought under the control of the court by seizure or some equivalent act;

(iv) when the subject of the action is personal property in the county, and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, and the relief demanded consists wholly, or partially, in excluding the defendant from any interest or lien therein;

(v) when the action is brought under RCW 4.08.160 and 4.08.170 to determine conflicting claims to personal property in the county.

(2) The publication shall be made in the same manner and in the same form as a summons by publication in superior court (see RCW 4.28.100), with appropriate adjustments for the name and location of the court.

(3) Personal service on the defendant out of the territorial jurisdiction of the court shall be equivalent to service by publication, and the notice to the defendant out of the county shall contain the same as the notice by publication and shall require the defendant to appear at a time and place certain which shall not be less than 30 days from the date of service.

(4) Service made in the modes provided in this section 4(e) shall not alone be taken and held to give the court jurisdiction over the person of the defendant. By such service the court only acquires jurisdiction to give a judgment which is effective as to property or debts attached or garnished in connection with the suit or other property which properly forms the basis of jurisdiction of the court. If the defendant appears in a suit commenced by such service the court shall have jurisdiction over his person. The defendant may appear specially and solely to challenge jurisdiction over property or debts attached or garnished or other property within the jurisdiction of the court.

(f) Alternative to Service by Publication. In circumstances justifying service by publication, if the serving party files an affidavit stating facts from which the court determines that service by mail is just as likely to give actual notice as service by publication, the court may order that service be made by any person over 18 years of age, who is competent to be a witness, other than a party, by mailing copies of the summons and other process to the party to be served at his last known address or any other address determined by the court to be appropriate. Two copies shall be mailed, postage prepaid, one by ordinary first class mail and the other by a form of mail requiring a signed receipt showing when and to whom it was delivered. The envelopes must bear the return address of the sender. The summons shall contain the date it was deposited in the mail and shall require the defendant to appear and answer the complaint within 90 days from the date of mailing. Service under this subsection has the same jurisdictional effect as service by publication.

(g) Appearance. A voluntary appearance of a defendant does not preclude his right to challenge lack of jurisdiction over his person, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process pursuant to rule 12(b).

(h) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. All process other than a subpoena may be served anywhere within the territorial limits of the state, and when a statute or these rules so provide beyond the territorial limits of the state. A subpoena may be served within the territorial limits provided in rule 45 and RCW 5.56.010.

(i) Return of Service. Proof of service shall be as follows:

(1) If served by the sheriff or his deputy, the return of the sheriff or his deputy endorsed upon or attached to the summons;

(2) If served by any other person, his affidavit of service endorsed upon or attached to the summons; or

(3) If served by publication, the affidavit of the publisher, foreman, principal clerk, or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the summons as published; or

(4) If served as provided in section (f), the affidavit of the serving party stating that copies of the summons and other process were sent by mail in accordance with the rule and directions by the court, and stating to whom, and when, the envelopes were mailed;

(5) The written acceptance or admission of the defendant, his agent or attorney;

(6) In case of personal service out of the state, the affidavit of the person making the service, sworn to before a notary public, with a seal attached, or before a clerk of a court of record;

(7) In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, acceptance, admission, or affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service. Failure to make proof of service does not affect the validity of the service.

(j) Amendment of Process. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process is issued.

RULE 5

SERVICE AND FILING OF PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

(a) Service: When Required. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, every order required by its terms to be served, every pleading subsequent to the original complaint unless the court otherwise orders because of numerous defendants, every paper relating to discovery required to be served upon a party unless the court otherwise orders, every written motion other than one which may be heard ex parte, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, designation of record on appeal, and similar paper shall be served upon each of the parties. No service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of summons in rule 4.

In an action begun by seizure of property, in which no person need be or is named as defendant, any service required to be made prior to the filing of an answer claim, or appearance shall be made upon the person having custody or possession of the property at the time of its seizure.

(b) Service: How Made.

(1) On Attorney or Party. Whenever under these rules service is required or permitted to be made upon a party represented by an attorney the service shall be made upon the attorney unless service upon the party himself is ordered by the court. Service upon the attorney or upon a party shall be made by delivering a copy to him or by mailing it to him at his last known address or, if no address is known, filing with the clerk of the court an affidavit of attempt to serve. Delivery of a copy within this rule means: handing it to the attorney or to the party; or leaving it at his office with his clerk or other person in charge thereof; or, if there is no one in charge, leaving it in a conspicuous place therein; or, if the office is closed or the person to be served has no office, leaving it at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion then residing therein. Service on an attorney is subject to the restrictions in subsections (b)(4) and (5) of this rule and in rule 71, Withdrawal by Attorneys.

(2) Service by Mail.

(i) How made. If service is made by mail, the papers shall be deposited in the post office addressed to the person on whom they are being served, with the postage prepaid. The service shall be deemed complete upon the third day following the day upon which they are placed in the mail, unless the third day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, in which event service shall be deemed complete on the first day other than a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, following the third day.

(ii) Proof of service by mail. Proof of service of all papers permitted to be mailed may be by written acknowledgment of service, by affidavit of the person who mailed the papers, or by certificate of an attorney. The certificate of an attorney may be in form substantially as follows:

CERTIFICATE

I certify that I mailed a copy of the foregoing _____ to [John Smith], [plaintiff's] attorney, at [office address or residence], and to [Joseph Doe], an additional [defendant's] attorney [or attorneys] at [office address or residence], postage prepaid, on [date].

[John Brown]

Attorney for [Defendant] William Noe

(3) Service on Nonresidents. Where a plaintiff or defendant who has appeared resides outside the state and has no attorney in the action, the service may be made by mail if his residence is known; if not known, on the clerk of the court for him. Where a party, whether resident or nonresident, has an attorney in the action, the service of papers shall be upon the attorney instead of the party. If the attorney does not have an office within the state or has removed his residence from the state, the service may be upon him personally either within or without the state, or by mail to him at either his place of residence or his office, if either is known, and if not known, then by mail upon the party, if his residence is known, whether within or without the state. If the residence of neither the party nor his attorney, nor the office address of the attorney is known, an affidavit of the attempt to serve shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

(4) Service on Attorney Restricted After Final Judgment. A party, rather than the party's attorney, must be served if the final judgment or decree has been entered and the time for filing an appeal has expired, or if an appeal has been taken (i) after the final judgment or decree upon remand has been entered or (ii) after the mandate has been issued affirming the judgment or decree or disposing of the case in a manner calling for no further action by the trial court. This rule is subject to the exceptions defined in subsection (b)(6).

(5) Required Notice to Party. If a party is served under circumstances described in subsection (b)(4), the paper shall (i) include a notice to the party of the right to file written opposition or a response, the time within which such opposition or response must be filed, and the place where it must be filed; (ii) state that failure to respond may result in the requested relief being granted; and (iii) state that the paper has not been served on that party's lawyer.

(6) Exceptions. An attorney may be served notwithstanding subsection (b)(4) of this rule if (i) fewer than 63 days have elapsed since the filing of any paper or the issuance of any process in the action or proceeding or (ii) if the attorney has filed a notice of continuing representation.

(c) Service: Numerous Defendants. In any action in which there are unusually large numbers of defendants, the court, upon motion or of its own initiative, may order that service of the pleadings of the defendants and replies thereto need not be made as between the defendants and that any cross claim, counterclaim, or matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense contained therein shall be deemed to be denied or avoided by all other parties and that the filing of any such pleading and service thereof upon the plaintiff constitutes due notice of it to the parties. A copy of every such order shall be served upon the parties in such manner and form as the court directs.

(d) Filing.

(1) Time. Complaints shall be filed as provided in rule 3. All pleadings and other papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or promptly thereafter.

(2) Sanctions. If a party fails to file any pleading or paper under this rule, the court upon 5 days' notice of motion for sanctions may dismiss the action or strike the pleading or other paper and grant judgment against the defaulting party for costs and terms including a reasonable attorney fee unless good cause is shown for, or justice requires, the granting of an extension of time.

(3) Limitation. No sanction shall be imposed if prior to the hearing the pleading or paper other than the complaint is filed and the moving attorney is notified of the filing before he leaves his office for the hearing.

(4) Nonpayment. No further action shall be taken in the pending action and no subsequent pleading or other paper shall be filed until the judgment is paid. No subsequent action shall be commenced upon the same subject matter until the judgment has been paid.

(e) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the clerk of the court, except that the judge may permit the papers to be filed with him, in which event he shall note thereon the filing date and forthwith transmit them to the office of the clerk.

(f) Other Methods of Service. Service of all papers other than the summons and other process may also be made as authorized by statutes other than RCW 4.28-.230, 4.28.240, 4.28.250, 4.28.260, 4.28.270, and 4.28-.280, which are superseded by these rules.

(g) Certified Mail. Whenever the use of "registered" mail is authorized by statutes relating to judicial proceedings or by rule of court, "certified" mail, with return receipt requested, may be used.

(h) Service of Papers by Telegraph. Any writ or order in any civil suit or proceeding and all the papers requiring service may be transmitted by telegraph for service in any place, and the telegraphic copy of such writ or order or paper so transmitted may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom it is sent for that purpose and returned by him, if any return be requisite, in the same manner, and with the same force and effect in all respects as the original thereof might be, if delivered to him, and the officer or person serving or executing the same shall have the same authority and be subject to the same liabilities as if the said copy were the original. The original, when a writ or order, shall also be filed in the court from which it was issued, and a certified copy thereof shall be preserved in the telegraph office from which it was sent. In sending it, either the original or certified copy may be used by the operator for that purpose.

TIME

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by the local rules of any court, by order of court, or by an applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period so computed shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, a Sunday, nor a legal holiday. Legal holidays are prescribed in RCW 1.16.050. When the period of time prescribed or allowed is less than 7 days, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Enlargement. When by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court for cause shown may at any time in its discretion, (1) with or without motion or notice, order the period enlarged if request therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order or, (2) upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, permit the act to be done where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but it may not extend the time for taking any actions under rules 50(b), 59(b), 59(d), and 60(b).

(c) Proceeding Not To Fail for Want of Judge or Session of Court. No proceeding in a court of justice in any action, suit, or proceeding pending therein is affected by a vacancy in the office of any or all of the judges or by the failure of a session of the court.

(d) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 5 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in rule 59(c), opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time.

(e) Additional Time After Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do some act or take some proceedings within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper upon him and the notice or paper is served upon him by mail, 3 days shall be added to the prescribed period.

3. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS (RULES 7–16)

RULE 7

PLEADINGS ALLOWED: FORM OF MOTIONS

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross claim, if the answer contains a cross claim; a third party complaint, if a person who was not an original party is summoned under the provisions of rule 14; and a third party answer, if a third party complaint is served. No other pleadings shall be allowed, except that the court may order a reply to an answer or a third party answer.

(b) Motions and Other Papers.

(1) How Made. An application to the court for an order shall be by motion which, unless made during a hearing or trial, shall be made in writing, shall state with particularity the grounds therefor, and shall set forth the relief or order sought. The requirement of writing is fulfilled if the motion is stated in a written notice of the hearing of the motion.

(2) Form. The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of pleadings apply to all written motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(3) Identification of Evidence. When a motion is supported by affidavits or other papers, it shall specify the papers to be used by the moving party.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used.

RULE 8

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

(a) Claims for Relief. A pleading which sets forth a claim for relief, whether an original claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state in short and plain terms his defenses to each claim asserted and shall admit or deny the averments upon which the adverse party relies. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial. Denials shall fairly meet the substance of the averments denied. When a pleader intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an averment, he shall specify so much of it as is true and material and shall deny only the remainder. Unless the pleader intends in good faith to controvert all the averments of the preceding pleading, he may make his denials as specific denials of designated averments or paragraphs, or he may generally deny all the averments except such designated averments or paragraphs as he expressly admits; but, when he does so intend to controvert all its averments, he may do so by general denial subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In pleading to a preceding pleading, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitation, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure To Deny. Averments in a pleading to which responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied in the responsive pleading. Averments in a pleading to which no responsive pleading is required or permitted shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading To Be Concise and Direct: Consistency.

(1) Each averment of a pleading shall be simple, concise, and direct. No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice.

RULE 9

PLEADING SPECIAL MATTERS

(a) Capacity. It is not necessary to aver the capacity of a party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity or the legal existence of an organized association of persons that is made a party. When a party desires to raise an issue as to the legal existence of any party or the capacity of any party to sue or be sued or the authority of a party to sue or be sued in a representative capacity, he shall do so by specific negative averment which shall include such supporting particulars as are peculiarly within the pleader's knowledge.

(b) Fraud, Mistake, Condition of the Mind. In all averments of fraud or mistake, the circumstances constituting fraud or mistake shall be stated with particularity. Malice, intent, knowledge, and other condition of mind of a person may be averred generally.

(c) Condition Precedent. In pleading the performance or occurrence of conditions precedent, it is sufficient to aver generally that all conditions precedent have been performed or have occurred. A denial of performance or occurrence shall be made specifically and with particularity.

(d) Official Document or Act. In pleading an official document or official act, it is sufficient to aver that the document was issued or the act done in compliance with law.

(e) Judgment. In pleading a judgment or decision of a domestic or foreign court, judicial or quasi-judicial tribunal, or of a board or officer, it is sufficient to aver the judgment or decision without setting forth matter showing jurisdiction to render it.

(f) Time and Place. For the purpose of testing the sufficiency of a pleading, averments of time and place are material and shall be considered like all other averments of material matter.

(g) Special Damage. When items of special damage are claimed, they shall be specifically stated.

(h) Pleading Existence of City or Town. In pleading the existence of any city or town in this state, it shall be sufficient to state in such pleading that the same is an existing city or town, incorporated or organized under the laws of Washington.

(i) Pleading Ordinance. In pleading any ordinance of a city or town in this state it shall be sufficient to state the title of such ordinance and the date of its passage, whereupon the court shall take judicial notice of the existence of such ordinance and the tenor and effect thereof.

(j) Pleading Private Statutes. In pleading a private statute, or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to such statute by its title, and the day of its passage, and the court shall thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

(k) Foreign Law.

(1) United States Jurisdictions. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States shall set forth in his pleading facts which show that the law of another United States jurisdiction may be applicable, or shall state in his pleading or serve other reasonable written notice that the law of another United States jurisdiction may be relied upon.

(2) Other Jurisdictions. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a jurisdiction other than a state, territory or other jurisdiction of the United States shall give notice in his pleading of the foreign jurisdiction whose law he contends may be applicable to the facts of the case. The following matters need not be pleaded, but may be discovered pursuant to rule 26:

(i) the party's contentions as to which issues of law are governed by the foreign law;

(ii) the substance of such foreign law;

(iii) the expected effect of such foreign law on the legal issues and on the outcome of the case being tried;

(iv) the specific foreign statutes, regulations, judicial and administrative decisions, documents and other non-privileged written materials and translations thereof upon which the party intends to rely.

(3) Application of Foreign Law. Issues of foreign law may be simplified pursuant to rule 16 and determined in advance of trial pursuant to rule 56.

(4) Failure To Plead Foreign Law. If no party has requested in his pleadings application of the law of a jurisdiction other than a state, territory or other jurisdiction of the United States, the court at time of trial shall apply the law of the State of Washington unless such application would result in manifest injustice.

(l) Burden of Proof. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to shift or alter the burden of proof.

RULE 10

FORM OF PLEADINGS

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every written pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number if known to the person signing it, and a designation as in rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other written pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties.

When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(b) Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

(c) Form. All notices, pleadings, motions, and other papers filed shall be plainly written or typed.

RULE 11

SIGNING OF PLEADINGS

Every pleading of a party represented by an attorney shall be dated and signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign and date his pleading and state his address. Pleadings need not, but may be, verified or accompanied by affidavit. The signature of a party or of an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. If a pleading is not signed or is signed with intent to defeat the purpose of this rule, it may be stricken as sham and false and the action may proceed as though the pleading had not been served. For a willful violation of this rule an attorney may be subjected to appropriate action as for contempt. Similar action may be taken if scandalous or indecent matter is inserted.

RULE 12

DEFENSES AND OBJECTIONS

(a) When Presented. A defendant shall serve his answer within the following periods:

(1) Within 20 days, exclusive of the day of service, after the service of the summons and complaint upon him pursuant to rule 4;

(2) Within 60 days from the date of the first publication of the summons if the summons is served by publication in accordance with rule 4;

(3) Within the period fixed by any other applicable statutes or rules.

A party served with a pleading stating a cross claim against him shall serve an answer thereto within 20 days after the service upon him. The plaintiff shall serve his reply to a counterclaim in the answer within 20 days after service of the answer or, if a reply is ordered by the court, within 20 days after service of the order, unless the order otherwise directs. The service of a motion permitted under this rule alters these periods of time as follows, unless a different time is fixed by order of the court.

(i) If the court denies the motion or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after notice of the court's action.

(ii) If the court grants a motion for a more definite statement, the responsive pleading shall be served within 10 days after the service of the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, shall be asserted by the responsive pleading thereto if one is required, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) improper venue, (4) insufficiency of process, (5) insufficiency of service of process, (6) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (7) failure to join a party under rule 19. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading if a further pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (6) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in rule 56 and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by rule 56.

(c) Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. After the pleadings are closed but within such time as not to delay the trial, any party may move for judgment on the pleadings. If, on a motion for judgment on the pleadings, matters outside the pleadings are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in rule 56, and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by rule 56.

(d) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)–(7) in section (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, and the motion for judgment mentioned in section (c) of this rule shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(e) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted is so vague or ambiguous that a party cannot reasonably be required to frame a responsive pleading, or if more particularity in that pleading will further the efficient economical disposition of the action, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after notice of the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(f) Motion To Strike. Upon motion made by a party before responding to a pleading or, if no responsive pleading is permitted by these rules, upon motion made by a party within 20 days after the service of the pleading upon him or upon the court's own initiative at any time, the court may order stricken from any pleading any insufficient defense or any redundant, immaterial, impertinent, or scandalous matter.

(g) Consolidation of Defenses in Motion. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule but omits therefrom any defense or objection then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motion, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on the defense or objection so omitted, except a motion as provided in subsection (h)(2) hereof on any of the grounds there stated.

(h) Waiver or Preservation of Certain Defenses.

(1) A defense of lack of jurisdiction over the person, improper venue, insufficiency of process, or insufficiency of service of process is waived (i) if omitted from a motion in the circumstances described in section (g), or (ii) if it is neither made by motion under this rule nor included in a responsive pleading or an amendment thereof permitted by rule 15(a) to be made as a matter of course.

(2) A defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, a defense of failure to join a party indispensable under rule 19, and an objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may be made in any pleading permitted or ordered under rule 7(a), or by motion for judgment on the pleadings, or at the trial on the merits.

(3) Whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action.

RULE 13

COUNTERCLAIM AND CROSS CLAIM

(a) Compulsory Counterclaims. A pleading shall state as a counterclaim any claim which at the time of serving the pleading the pleader has against any opposing party, if it arises out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim and does not require for its adjudication the presence of third parties of whom the court cannot acquire jurisdiction. But the pleader need not state the claim if (1) at the time the action was commenced the claim was the subject of another pending action, or (2) the opposing party brought suit upon his claim by attachment or other process by which the court did not acquire jurisdiction to render a personal judgment on that claim, and the pleader is not stating any counterclaim under this rule.

(b) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party not arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the opposing party's claim.

(c) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(d) Counterclaim Against the State. These rules shall not be construed to enlarge beyond the limits now fixed by law the right to assert counterclaims, or to claim credits against the State or an officer or agency thereof.

(e) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court, be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(f) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(g) Cross Claim Against Coparty. A pleading may state as a cross claim any claim by one party against a coparty arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross claimant.

(h) Joinder of Additional Parties. Persons other than those made parties to the original action may be made parties to a counterclaim or cross claim in accordance with the provisions of rules 19 and 20.

(i) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in rule 42(b), judgment on a counterclaim or cross claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of rule 54(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of.

(j) Setoff Against Assignee. The defendant in a civil action upon a contract express or implied, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, may set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(k) Setoff Against Beneficiary of Trust Estate. If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of a plaintiff which has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought against those beneficially interested.

(l) Setoff Must Be Pled. To entitle a defendant to a setoff under this rule, he must set forth the same in his answer.

SETOFFS AGAINST ASSIGNEES

[Rescinded. Provisions transferred to rule 13.]

RULE 14

THIRD PARTY PRACTICE

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. At any time after commencement of the action a defending party, as a third party plaintiff, may cause a summons and complaint to be served upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. The third party plaintiff need not obtain leave to make the service if he files the third party complaint not later than 10 days after he serves his original answer. Otherwise he must obtain leave on motion upon notice to all parties to the action. The person served with the summons and third party complaint, hereinafter called the third party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third party plaintiff's claim as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third party plaintiff and cross claims against other third party defendants as provided in rule 13. The third party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third party plaintiff, and the third party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims and cross claims as provided in rule 13. Any party may move to strike the third party claim, or for its severance or separate trial. A third party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Tort Cases. This rule shall not be applied in tort cases, so as to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance company, unless such company is by statute or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged.

RULE 14A

REMOVAL TO SUPERIOR COURT

(a) Jurisdiction Over Third Party. A case may be removed to superior court in order to obtain jurisdiction over a third party defendant, as provided in RCW 4.14-.010. This procedure is governed by RCW 4.14.

(b) Claims in Excess of Jurisdiction—Generally. When a defendant, third party defendant, or cross claimant in good faith asserts a claim in an amount in excess of the jurisdiction of the district court or seeks a remedy beyond the jurisdiction of the district court, the district court shall order the entire case removed to superior court.

(c) Claims in Excess of Jurisdiction—Orders and Process. If a case is removed to the superior court under section (b) of this rule, the superior court may issue all necessary orders and process as provided in RCW 4.14-.030.

(d) Claims in Excess of Jurisdiction—Improper Removal. If it appears that a case has been improperly removed to the superior court under section (b) of this rule, the superior court shall remand the case as provided in RCW 4.14.030.

(e) Claims in Excess of Jurisdiction—Attached Property; Custody. If property of a defendant is attached or garnished prior to the removal of a case, the attachment or garnishment shall be transferred with the removed case to the superior court and shall be held to answer the final judgment or decree in the same manner as it would have been held to answer had the cause been brought in the superior court originally.

AMENDED AND SUPPLEMENTAL PLEADINGS

(a) Amendments. A party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is permitted and the action has not been placed upon the trial calendar, he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served. Otherwise, a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service or notice of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues.

If the evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading. An amendment changing the party against whom a claim is asserted relates back if the foregoing provision is satisfied and, within the period provided by law for commencing the action against him, the party to be brought in by amendment (1) has received such notice of the institution of the action that he will not be prejudiced in maintaining his defense on the merits, and (2) knew or should have known that, but for a mistake concerning the identity of the proper party, the action would have been brought against him.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. Permission may be granted even though the original pleading is defective in its statement of a claim for relief or defense. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead to the supplemental pleading, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Interlineations. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, without first obtaining leave of the court.

RULE 16

[RESERVED]

4. PARTIES (RULES 17-25)

RULE 17

PARTIES PLAINTIFF AND DEFENDANT; CAPACITY

(-) Designation of Parties. The party commencing the action shall be known as the plaintiff, and the opposite party as the defendant.

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. An executor, administrator, guardian, bailee, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought. No action shall be dismissed on the ground that it is not prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest until a reasonable time has been allowed after objection for ratification of commencement of the action by, or joinder or substitution of, the real party in interest; and such ratification, joinder, or substitution shall have the same effect as if the action had commenced in the name of the real party in interest.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons.

(1) When an infant is a party he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. The guardian shall be appointed:

(i) when the infant is plaintiff, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, or if under the age, upon the application of a relative or friend of the infant;

(ii) when the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, and applies within the time he is to appear; if he be under the age of 14, or neglects to apply, then upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relative or friend of the infant.

(2) When an insane person is a party to an action he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint one to act as guardian ad litem. Said guardian shall be appointed:

(i) when the insane person is plaintiff, upon the application of a relative or friend of the insane person;

(ii) when the insane person is defendant, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane person, such application shall be made within the time he is to appear. If no such application be made within the time above limited, application may be made by any party to the action.

RULE 18

JOINDER OF CLAIMS AND REMEDIES

(a) Joinder of Claims. A party asserting a claim to relief as an original claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, may join, either as independent or as alternate claims, as many claims as he has against an opposing party.

(b) Joinder of Remedies. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties.

RULE 19

JOINDER OF PERSONS NEEDED FOR JUST ADJUDICATION

(a) Persons To Be Joined if Feasible. A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties, or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party. If he should join as a plaintiff but refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant, or, in a proper case, an involuntary plaintiff. If the joined party objects to venue and his joinder would render the venue of the action improper, he shall be dismissed from the action.

(b) Determination by Court Whenever Joinder Not Feasible. If a person joinable under (1) or (2) of section (a) hereof cannot be made a party, the court shall determine whether in equity and good conscience the action should proceed among the parties before it, or should be dismissed, the absent person being thus regarded as indispensable. The factors to be considered by the court include: (1) to what extent a judgment rendered in the person's absence might be prejudicial to him or those already parties; (2) the extent to which, by protective provisions in the judgment, by the shaping of relief, or other measures, the prejudice can be lessened or avoided; (3) whether a judgment rendered in the person's absence will be adequate; (4) whether the plaintiff will have an adequate remedy if the action is dismissed for nonjoinder.

(c) Pleading Reasons for Nonjoinder. A pleading asserting a claim for relief shall state the names, if known to the pleader, of any persons joinable under (1) or (2) of section (a) hereof who are not joined, and the reasons why they are not joined.

(d) [Reserved.]

(e) Husband and Wife Must Join—Exceptions. RCW 4.08.030 applies to the joinder of spouses.

RULE 20

PERMISSIVE JOINDER OF PARTIES

(a) Permissive Joinder. All persons may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of these persons will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice.

(c) When Husband and Wife May Join. [Reserved. See RCW 4.08.040.]

(d) Service on Joint Defendants; Procedure After Service. When the action is against two or more defendants and the summons is served on one or more but not on all of them, the plaintiff may proceed as follows:

(1) If the action is against the defendants jointly indebted upon a contract, he may proceed against the defendants served unless the court otherwise directs; and if he recovers judgment it may be entered against all the defendants thus jointly indebted so far only as it may be enforced against the joint property of all and the separate property of the defendants served.

(2) If the action is against defendants severally liable, he may proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

(3) Though all the defendants may have been served with the summons, judgment may be taken against any of them severally, when the plaintiff would be entitled to judgment against such defendants if the action had been against them alone.

(e) Procedure To Bind Joint Debtor. RCW 4.68 applies to the enforcement of a judgment against a joint debtor.

RULE 21

MISJOINDER AND NONJOINDER OF PARTIES

Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately.

RULE 22

INTERPLEADER

(a) Rule. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted under other rules and statutes.

(b) Statutes. The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by RCW 4.08.150 to 4.08.180, inclusive.

RULE 23

[RESERVED]

INTERVENTION

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application, anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the applicant claims an interest relating to the property or transaction which is the subject of the action and he is so situated that the disposition of the action may as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest, unless the applicant's interest is adequately represented by existing parties.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirements, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all parties as provided in rule 5. The motion shall state the grounds therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought.

RULE 25

SUBSTITUTION OF PARTIES

(a) Death.

(1) Procedure. If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided by rule 5 for service of notices, and upon persons not parties in the manner provided by statute or by rule for the service of a summons. If substitution is not made within the time authorized by law, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) Partial Abatement. In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The death shall be suggested upon the record and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in section (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in section (a) of this rule.

(d) Public Offices; Death or Separation From Office.
[Reserved.]

5. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY
(RULES 26–37)

RULE 26

DEPOSITIONS PENDING ACTION

The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules applicable for use in the superior court may be available only upon prior permission of the court. The court shall have absolute discretion to decide whether to permit any such procedures. In exercising such discretion the court shall consider (1) whether all parties are represented by counsel, (2) whether undue expense or delay in bringing the case to trial will result and (3) whether the interests of justice will be promoted.

RULES 27 through 37

[RESERVED]

6. TRIALS
(RULES 38–53)

RULE 38

JURY TRIAL

(a) Demand. When a trial by jury is authorized by the constitution, statutes, or decisions of the Supreme Court, any party may demand a jury which shall be selected and impaneled as required by law and this rule. At or prior to the time the case is called to be set for trial, or at such other time as directed by the court, any party may demand a jury trial of any issue triable by a jury by serving upon the other parties a demand therefor in writing, by filing the demand with the clerk, and by paying any required jury fee.

(b) Specification of Issues. In the demand a party may specify the issues which it wishes tried by a jury; otherwise, the demand shall be considered a demand for all issues so triable. If the demand requests jury trial of only some of the issues, any other party within 14 days of service of the demand or such lesser time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(c) Waiver of Jury Trial. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule, to file it as required by this rule, and to pay the required jury fee in accordance with this rule, constitutes a waiver of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury once made may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.

(d) Impaneling the Jury.

(1) Voir Dire. A voir dire examination shall be conducted for the purpose of discovering any basis for challenge for cause and for the purpose of gaining knowledge to enable an intelligent exercise of peremptory challenges. The judge shall initiate the voir dire examination by identifying the parties and their respective counsel and by briefly outlining the nature of the case. The judge and the parties may then ask the prospective jurors questions touching their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case, subject to the supervision of the court as appropriate to the facts of the case.

(2) Challenges for Cause. If the court is of the opinion that grounds for challenge to a juror exist, it shall excuse that juror. Otherwise, any party may challenge the juror for cause. Challenges for cause shall be allowed as provided in RCW 4.44.150 through 4.44.190.

(3) Peremptory Challenges. The number and the manner of exercising peremptory challenges shall be as provided in RCW 4.44.130, 4.44.140, and 4.44.190.

(4) Order of Taking Challenges. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.220.]

(5) Objections to Challenges. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.230.]

(6) Trial of Challenge. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.240.]

(e) Alternate Jurors. The court may direct that not more than three jurors in addition to the regular jury be called and impaneled to serve as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors, in the order in which they are called, shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, are unable to continue. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination and challenges for cause, and shall take the same oath as the regular jurors. An alternate juror who does not replace a regular juror shall be discharged after the jury retires to consider its verdict. Each party shall be entitled to one additional peremptory challenge which may only be exercised against alternate jurors, and other peremptory challenges allowed shall not be used against alternate jurors. If the court has found that there is a conflict of interest between parties on the same side, the court may allow each conflicting party a peremptory challenge to exercise against alternate jurors.

(f) Juries of Fewer Than Six. The parties may at any time stipulate that the jury shall consist of at least three but fewer than six jurors, or that a verdict of a stated majority shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury.

(g) Oath. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.260.]

(h) Notetaking by Jurors. With the permission of the trial judge, jurors may take written notes regarding the evidence presented to them and keep these notes with them when they retire for their deliberation. Such notes should be treated as confidential between the jurors making them and their fellow jurors, and shall be destroyed immediately after the verdict is rendered.

RULE 39

[RESERVED]

RULE 40

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

(a) Notice of Trial—Note of Issue.

(1) Of Fact. At any time after the issues of fact are completed in any case by the service of complaint and answer or reply when necessary, as herein provided, either party may cause the issues of fact to be brought on for trial, by serving upon the opposite party a notice of trial at least 3 days before any day provided by rules of court for setting causes for trial, which notice shall give the title of the cause as in the pleadings, and notify the opposite party that the issues in such action will be brought on for trial at the time set by the court; and the party giving such notice of trial shall, at least 5 days before the day of setting such causes for trial, file with the clerk of the court a note of issue containing the title of the action, the names of the attorneys and the date when the last pleading was served; and the clerk shall thereupon enter the cause upon the trial docket according to the date of the issue.

(2) Of Law. In case an issue of law raised upon the pleadings is desired to be brought on for argument, either party shall, at least 5 days before the day set apart by the court under its rules for hearing issues of law, serve upon the opposite party a like notice of trial and furnish the clerk of the court with a note of issue as above provided, which note of issue shall specify that the issue to be tried is an issue of law; and the clerk of the court shall thereupon enter such action upon the motion docket of the court.

(3) Adjournments. When a cause has once been placed upon either docket of the court, if not tried or argued at the time for which notice was given, it need not be noticed for a subsequent session or day, but shall remain upon the docket from session to session or from law day to law day until final disposition or stricken off by the court.

(4) Filing Note by Opposite Party. The party upon whom notice of trial is served may file the note of issue and cause the action to be placed upon the calendar without further notice on his part.

(5) Issue May Be Brought to Trial by Either Party. Either party, after the notice of trial, whether given by himself or the adverse party, may bring the issue to trial, and in the absence of the adverse party, unless the court for good cause otherwise directs, may proceed with his case, and take a dismissal of the action, or a verdict or judgment, as the case may require.

(b) Methods. Each court of limited jurisdiction may provide by local rule for placing of actions upon the trial calendar (1) without request of the parties or (2) upon request of a party and notice to the other parties or (3) in such other manner as the court deems expedient.

(c) Preferences. In setting cases for trial, unless otherwise provided by statute, preference shall be given to criminal over civil cases, and cases where the defendant or a witness is in confinement shall have preference over other cases.

(d) Trials. When a cause is set and called for trial, it shall be tried or dismissed, unless good cause is shown for a continuance. The court may in a proper case, and upon terms, reset the same.

(e) Continuances. A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence shall only be made upon affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it, and also the name and address of the witness or witnesses. The court may also require the moving party to state upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party.

(f) Change of Judge. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed by the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than 10 days after the case is set for trial, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the 10-day period. In multiple judge courts, or where a pro tempore or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10-day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge.

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

(a) Voluntary Dismissal.

(1) Mandatory. Any action shall be dismissed by the court:

(i) By stipulation. When all parties who have appeared so stipulate in writing; or

(ii) By plaintiff before resting. Upon motion of the plaintiff at any time before plaintiff rests at the conclusion of his opening case.

(2) Permissive. After plaintiff rests after his opening case, plaintiff may move for a voluntary dismissal without prejudice upon good cause shown and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems proper.

(3) Counterclaim. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by a defendant prior to the service upon him of plaintiff's motion for dismissal, the action shall not be dismissed against the defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court.

(4) Effect. Unless otherwise stated in the order of dismissal, the dismissal is without prejudice, except that an order of dismissal operates as an adjudication upon the merits when obtained by a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action based on or including the same claim in any court of the United States or of any state.

(b) Involuntary Dismissal; Effect. For failure of the plaintiff to prosecute or to comply with these rules or any order of the court, a defendant may move for dismissal of an action or of any claim against him.

(1) Want of Prosecution on Motion of Party. Any civil action shall be dismissed, without prejudice, for want of prosecution whenever the plaintiff, counterclaimant, cross claimant, or third party plaintiff neglects to note the action for trial or hearing within 1 year after any issue of law or fact has been joined, unless the failure to bring the same on for trial or hearing was caused by the party who makes the motion to dismiss. Such motion to dismiss shall come on for hearing only after 10 days' notice to the adverse party. If the case is noted for trial before the hearing on the motion, the action shall not be dismissed.

(2) Dismissal on Clerk's Motion.

(i) Notice. In all civil cases wherein there has been no action of record during the 12 months just past, the clerk of the court shall mail notice to the attorneys of record that such case will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution unless within 30 days following said mailing, action of record is made or an application in writing is made to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If such application is not made or good cause is not shown, the court shall dismiss each such case without prejudice. The cost of filing such order of dismissal with the clerk shall not be assessed against either party.

(ii) Mailing notice. The notice shall be mailed in every eligible case not later than 30 days before June 15 and December 15 of each year, and all such cases shall be presented to the court by the clerk for action thereon on or before June 30 and December 31 of each year. These deadlines shall not be interpreted as a prohibition against mailing of notice and dismissal thereon as cases may become eligible for dismissal under this rule.

(iii) Applicable date. This dismissal procedure is mandatory as to all cases filed after January 1, 1959, and permissive as to all cases filed before that date. This rule is not a limitation upon any other power that the court may have to dismiss any action upon motion or otherwise.

(3) Defendant's Motion After Plaintiff Rests. After the plaintiff, in an action tried by the court without a jury, has completed the presentation of his evidence, the defendant, without waiving his right to offer evidence in the event the motion is not granted, may move for a dismissal on the ground that upon the facts and the law the plaintiff has shown no right to relief. The court as trier of the facts may then determine them and render judgment against the plaintiff or may decline to render any judgment until the close of all the evidence. If the court renders judgment on the merits against the plaintiff, the court shall make findings as provided in RALJ 5.2. Unless the court in its order for dismissal otherwise specifies, a dismissal under this subsection and any dismissal not provided for in this rule, other than a dismissal for lack of jurisdiction, for improper venue, or for failure to join a party under rule 19, operates as an adjudication upon the merits.

(c) Dismissal of Counterclaim, Cross Claim, or Third Party Claim. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim. A voluntary dismissal by the claimant alone pursuant to subsection (a)(1) of this rule shall be made before a responsive pleading is served or, if there is none, before the introduction of evidence at the trial or hearing.

(d) Costs of Previously Dismissed Action. If a plaintiff who has once dismissed an action in any court commences an action based upon or including the same claim against the same defendant, the court may make such order for the payment of taxable costs of the action previously dismissed as it may deem proper and may stay the proceedings in the action until the plaintiff has complied with the order.

(e) Notice of Settlements. If a case is settled after it has been assigned for trial, it shall be the duty of the attorneys or of any party appearing pro se to notify the court promptly of the settlement. If the settlement is made within 5 days before the trial date, the notice shall be made by telephone or in person. All notices of settlement shall be confirmed in writing to the clerk.

CONSOLIDATION; SEPARATE TRIALS

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice, or when separate trials will be conducive to expedition and economy, may order a separate trial of any claim, cross claim, counterclaim, or third party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross claims, counterclaims, third party claims, or issues, always preserving inviolate the right of trial by jury.

RULE 43

TAKING OF TESTIMONY

(a) Testimony.

(1) Generally. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise directed by the court or provided by rule or statute.

(2) Multiple Examinations. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections and offers of proof made during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross examination.

(b) and (c) [Reserved. See ER 103 and 611.]

(d) Oaths of Witnesses.

(1) Administration. The oaths of all witnesses

(i) shall be administered by the judge;

(ii) shall be administered to each witness individually; and

(iii) the witness shall stand while the oath is administered.

(2) Applicability. This rule shall not apply to civil ex parte proceedings, and in such cases the manner of swearing witnesses shall be as each court may prescribe.

(3) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(e) Evidence on Motions. When a motion is based on facts not appearing of record the court may hear the matter on affidavits presented by the respective parties, but the court may direct that the matter be heard wholly or partly on oral testimony or depositions.

(f) Adverse Party as Witness.

(1) Party or Managing Agent as Adverse Witness. A party, or anyone who at the time of the notice is an officer, director, or other managing agent (herein collectively referred to as "managing agent") of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party to an action or proceeding may be examined at the instance of any adverse party. Attendance of such deponent or witness may be compelled solely by notice (in lieu of a subpoena) given in the manner prescribed in rule 30(a) to opposing counsel of record. Notices for the attendance of a party or of a managing agent at the trial shall be given not less than 10 days before trial (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays, and court holidays). For good cause shown in the manner prescribed in rule 30(b), the court may make orders for the protection of the party or managing agent to be examined.

(2) Effect of Discovery, etc. A party who has filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party or who has taken the deposition of an adverse party or of the managing agent of an adverse party shall not be precluded for that reason from examining such adverse party or managing agent at the trial. The testimony of an adverse party or managing agent at the trial or on deposition or interrogatories shall not bind his adversary but may be rebutted.

(3) Refusal To Attend and Testify; Penalties. If a party or a managing agent refuses to attend and testify before the officer designated to take his deposition or at the trial after notice served as prescribed in rule 30(a), the complaint, answer, or reply of the party may be stricken and judgment taken against the party, and the contumacious party or managing agent may also be proceeded against as in other cases of contempt. This rule shall not be construed:

(i) to compel any person to answer any question where such answer might tend to incriminate him;

(ii) to prevent a party from using a subpoena to compel the attendance of any party or managing agent to give testimony by deposition or at the trial; nor

(iii) to limit the applicability of any other sanctions or penalties provided in rule 37 or otherwise for failure to attend and give testimony.

(g) Attorney as Witness. If any attorney offers himself as a witness on behalf of his client and gives evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court.

(h) Recording as Evidence. Whenever the testimony of a witness at a trial or hearing which was recorded is admissible in evidence at a later trial, it may be proved by the recording thereof duly certified by the person who recorded the testimony.

(i) [Reserved. See ER 804.]

(j) Record in Retrial of Nonjury Cases. In the event a cause has been remanded by the court for a new trial or the taking of further testimony, and such cause shall have been tried without a jury, and the testimony in such cause shall have been taken in full and used as the record upon review, either party upon the retrial of such cause or the taking of further testimony therein shall have the right, provided the court shall so order after an application on 10 days' notice to the opposing party or parties, to submit said record as the testimony in said cause upon its second hearing, to the same effect as if the witnesses called by him in the earlier hearing had been called, sworn, and testified in the further hearing; but no party shall be denied the right to submit other or further testimony upon such retrial or further hearing, and the party having the right of cross examination shall have the privilege of subpoenaing any witness whose testimony is contained in such record for further cross examination.

RULE 44

PROOF OF OFFICIAL RECORD

(a) Authentication.

(1) Domestic. An official record kept within the United States, or any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession thereof, or within the Panama Canal Zone, the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands, or the Ryukyu Islands, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied by a certificate that such officer has the custody. The certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office or official custody of the seal of the political subdivision and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office or the seal of the political subdivision.

(2) Foreign. A foreign official record, or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof; or a copy thereof, attested by a person authorized to make the attestation, and accompanied by a final certification as to the genuineness of the signature and official position (i) of the attesting person, or (ii) of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness of signature and official position relates to the attestation or is in a chain of certificates of genuineness of signature and official position relating to the attestation. A final certification may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or accredited to the United States. If reasonable opportunity has been given to all parties to investigate the authenticity and accuracy of the documents, the court may, for good cause shown, either admit an attested copy without final certification or permit the foreign official record to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without a final certification.

(b) Lack of Record. A written statement that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records, designated by the statement, authenticated as provided in subsection (a)(1) of this rule in the case of a domestic record, or complying with the requirements of subsection (a)(2) of this rule for a summary in the case of a foreign record, is admissible as evidence that the records contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any other method authorized by law.

DETERMINATION OF FOREIGN LAW

(a) Pleading. A party who intends to raise an issue concerning the law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States, or a foreign country shall give notice in his pleadings in accordance with rule 9(k).

(b) United States Jurisdiction. The law of a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States shall be determined as provided in RCW 5.24.

(c) Other Jurisdictions. The court, in determining the law of any jurisdiction other than a state, territory, or other jurisdiction of the United States, may consider any relevant written material or other source, including testimony, having due regard for their trustworthiness, whether or not submitted by a party and whether or not admissible under the Rules of Evidence. If the court considers any material or source not received in open court, prior to its determination the court shall:

(1) Identify in the record such material or source;

(2) Summarize in the record any unwritten information received; and

(3) Afford the parties an opportunity to respond thereto. The court's determination shall be treated as a ruling on a question of law.

RULE 45

SUBPOENA

(a) For Attendance of Witnesses. The subpoena shall be issued as follows:

(1) Form. To require attendance before a court of limited jurisdiction or at the trial of an issue therein, such subpoena may be issued in the name of the State of Washington by the court before which the attendance is required or in which the issue is pending: Provided, That such subpoena may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action on whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney.

(2) Issuance for Trial. To require attendance before a court of limited jurisdiction or at the trial of an issue of fact, the subpoena may be issued by the clerk in response by a praecipe or by an attorney of record.

(3) Issuance for Deposition. To require attendance out of such court before a judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer authorized to administer oaths or to take testimony in any matter under the laws of this state, it shall be issued by an attorney of record or by such judge, justice of the peace, commissioner, referee or other officer before whom the attendance is required.

(b) For Production of Documentary Evidence. A subpoena may also command the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents, or tangible things designated therein; but the court, upon motion made promptly and in any event at or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance therewith, may (1) quash or modify the subpoena if it is unreasonable and oppressive or (2) condition denial of the motion upon the advancement by the person in whose behalf the subpoena is issued of the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(c) Service. A subpoena may be served by any suitable person over 18 years of age, by exhibiting and reading it to the witness, or by giving him a copy thereof, or by leaving such copy at the place of his abode. When service is made by any other person than an officer authorized to serve process, proof of service shall be made by affidavit.

(d) Subpoena for Taking Depositions; Place of Examination.

(1) Proof of service of a notice to take a deposition as provided in CR 30(b) and 31(a) constitutes a sufficient authorization for the issuance by the attorney of record or the officer taking the deposition of subpoenas for the persons named or described therein. The subpoena may command the person to whom it is directed to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of the examination permitted by rule 26, but in that event the subpoena will be subject to the provisions of section (b) of this rule.

The person to whom the subpoena is directed may, within 10 days after the service thereof or on or before the time specified in the subpoena for compliance if such time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials except pursuant to an order of the court from which the subpoena was issued. The party serving the subpoena may, if objection has been made, move upon notice to the deponent for an order at any time before or during the taking of the deposition.

(2) Place of Examination. A resident of the state may be required to attend an examination only in the county wherein he resides or is employed or transacts his business in person, or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the court. A nonresident of the state may be required to attend only in the county wherein he is served with a subpoena, or within 40 miles from the place of service or at such other convenient place as is fixed by an order of the court.

(3) Foreign Depositions for Local Actions. When the place of examination is in another state, territory, or country, the party desiring to take the deposition may secure the issuance of a subpoena or equivalent process in accordance with the laws of such state, territory or country to require the deponent to attend the examination.

(4) Local Depositions for Foreign Actions. When any officer or person is authorized to take depositions in this state by the law of another state, territory or country, with or without a commission, a subpoena to require attendance before such officer or person may be issued by any judge or justice of the peace of this state for attendance at any places within his jurisdiction.

(e) Subpoena for Hearing or Trial. [Reserved. See RCW 5.56.010.]

(f) Contempt. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

(g) When Excused. A witness subpoenaed to attend in a civil case is dismissed and excused from further attendance as soon as he has given his testimony in chief and has been cross-examined thereon, unless either party moves in open court that the witness remain in attendance and the court so orders; and witness fees will not be allowed any witness after the day on which his testimony is given, except when the witness has in open court been required to remain in further attendance, and when so required the clerk shall note that fact in the minutes.

EXCEPTIONS UNNECESSARY

Formal exceptions to rulings or orders of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has heretofore been necessary it is sufficient that a party, at the time the ruling or order of the court is made or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

JURORS

(a) Examination, Selection, etc. See rule 38.

(b) Care of Jury While Deliberating.

(1) Generally. During trial and deliberations the jury may be allowed to separate unless good cause is shown, on the record, for sequestration of the jury.

(2) Communication Restricted. Unless the jury is allowed to separate, the jurors shall be kept together under the charge of one or more officers until they agree upon their verdict or are discharged by the court. The officer shall keep the jurors separate from other persons and shall not allow any communication which may affect the case to be made to the jurors, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask the jurors if they have agreed upon their verdict. The officer shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of the jurors' deliberations or their verdict.

(3) Motions. Any motions or proceedings concerning the separation or sequestration of the jury shall be made out of the presence of the jury.

RULE 48

JURIES OF FEWER THAN SIX

[Reserved. See RCW 12.12.030.]

VERDICTS

(-) General Verdict. A general verdict is that by which the jury pronounces generally upon all or any of the issues in favor of either the plaintiff or defendant.

(a) Special Verdict. The court may require a jury to return only a special verdict in the form of a special written finding upon each issue of fact. In that event the court may submit to the jury written questions susceptible of categorical or other brief answer or may submit written forms of the several special findings which might properly be made under the pleadings and evidence; or it may use such other method of submitting the issues and requiring the written findings thereon as it deems most appropriate. The court shall give to the jury such explanation and instruction concerning the matter thus submitted as may be necessary to enable the jury to make its findings upon each issue. If in so doing the court omits any issue of fact raised by the pleadings or by the evidence, each party waives his rights to a trial by jury of the issue so omitted unless before the jury retires he demands its submission to the jury. As to an issue omitted without such demand the court may make a finding; or, if it fails to do so, it shall be deemed to have made a finding in accord with the judgment on the special verdict.

(b) General Verdict Accompanied by Answer to Interrogatories. The court may submit to the jury, together with appropriate forms for a general verdict, written interrogatories upon one or more issues of fact the decision of which is necessary to a verdict. The court shall give such explanation or instruction as may be necessary to enable the jury both to make answers to the interrogatories and to render a general verdict, and the court shall direct the jury both to make written answers and to render a general verdict. When the general verdict and the answers are harmonious, the appropriate judgment upon the verdict and answers shall be entered pursuant to rule 58. When the answers are consistent with each other but one or more is inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment may be entered pursuant to rule 58 in accordance with the answers, notwithstanding the general verdict, or the court may return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or may order a new trial. When the answers are inconsistent with each other and one or more is likewise inconsistent with the general verdict, judgment shall not be entered, but the court shall return the jury for further consideration of its answers and verdict or shall order a new trial.

(c) Discharge of Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 12.12.080 and 12.12.090.]

(d) Court Recess During Deliberation. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.350.]

(e) Proceedings When Jury Has Agreed. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.360.]

(f) Manner of Giving Verdict. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.370.]

(g) Verdict by Five Jurors in Civil Cases. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.380.]

(h) Jury May Be Polled. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.390.]

(i) Correction of Informal Verdict. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.400.]

(j) Jury To Assess Amount of Recovery. [Reserved. See RCW 4.44.450.]

(k) Receiving Verdict and Discharging Jury. [Reserved. See RCW 12.12.080 and 12.12.090.]

RULE 50

MOTION FOR A DIRECTED VERDICT AND FOR JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING THE VERDICT

(a) Motion for Directed Verdict; When Made; Effect. A party who moves for a directed verdict at the close of the evidence offered by an opponent may offer evidence in the event that the motion is not granted, without having reserved the right so to do and to the same extent as if the motion had not been made. A motion for a directed verdict which is not granted is not a waiver of trial by jury even though all parties to the action have moved for directed verdicts. A motion for a directed verdict shall state the specific ground therefor.

(b) Motion for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict. Not later than 10 days after the entry of judgment or after the jury is discharged if no verdict is returned, whether or not he has moved for a directed verdict and whether or not a verdict was returned, a party may move for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. A motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall identify the specific reasons in fact and law as to each ground on which the motion is based. A motion in the alternative for a new trial may be joined with this motion.

(c) Alternative Motions for Judgment Notwithstanding the Verdict or for a New Trial—Effect of Appeal. Whenever a motion for a judgment notwithstanding the verdict and, in the alternative, for a new trial shall be filed and submitted in any superior court in any civil cause tried before a jury, and such superior court shall enter an order granting such motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, such court shall at the same time, in the alternative, pass upon and decide in the same order such motion for a new trial; such ruling upon said motion for a new trial not to become effective unless and until the order granting the motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall thereafter be reversed, vacated, or set aside in the manner provided by law. An appeal to the superior court from a judgment granted on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall, of itself, without the necessity of cross appeal, bring up for review the ruling of the trial court on the motion for a new trial; and the superior court shall, if it reverses the judgment entered notwithstanding the verdict, review and determine the validity of the ruling on the motion for a new trial.

INSTRUCTIONS TO JURY AND DELIBERATION

(a) Proposed. Unless otherwise requested by the trial judge on timely notice to counsel, proposed instructions shall be submitted when the case is called for trial. Proposed instructions upon questions of law developed by the evidence, which could not reasonably be anticipated, may be submitted at any time before the court has instructed the jury.

(b) Submission. Submission of proposed instructions shall be by delivering the original and three or more copies as required by the trial judge, by filing one copy with the clerk, identified as the party's proposed instructions, and by serving one copy upon each opposing counsel.

(c) Form. Each proposed instruction shall be typewritten or printed on a separate sheet of letter-size (8½ by 11 inches) paper. Except for one copy of each, the instructions delivered to the trial court shall not be numbered or identified as to the proposing party. One copy delivered to the trial court, and the copy filed with the clerk, and copies served on each opposing counsel shall be numbered and identified as to proposing party, and may contain supporting annotations.

(d) Published Instructions.

(1) Request. Any instruction appearing in the Washington Pattern Instructions (WPI) may be requested by counsel who must submit the proper number of copies of the requested instruction, identified by number as in section (c) of this rule, in the form he wishes it read to the jury. If the instruction in WPI allows or provides for a choice of wording by the use of brackets or otherwise, the written requested instruction shall use the choice of wording which is being requested.

(2) Record on Review. Where the refusal to give a requested instruction is an asserted error on review, a copy of the requested instruction shall be placed in the record on review.

(3) Local Option. Any court of limited jurisdiction may adopt a local rule to substitute for subsection (d)(1) and to allow instructions appearing in the Washington Pattern Instructions (WPI) to be requested by reference to the published number. If the instruction in WPI allows or provides for a choice of wording by the use of brackets or otherwise, the local rule must require that the written request which designates the number of the instruction shall also designate the choice of wording which is being requested.

(e) Disregarding Requests. The trial court may disregard any proposed instruction not submitted in accordance with this rule.

(f) Objections to Instruction. Before instructing the jury, the court shall supply counsel with copies of its proposed instructions which shall be numbered. Counsel shall then be afforded an opportunity in the absence of the jury to make objections to the giving of any instruction and to the refusal to give a requested instruction. The objector shall state distinctly the matter to which he objects and the grounds of his objection, specifying the number, paragraph or particular part of the instruction to be given or refused and to which objection is made.

(g) Instructing the Jury and Argument. After counsel have completed their objections and the court has made any modifications deemed appropriate, the court shall then provide each counsel with a copy of the instructions in their final form. The court shall then read the instructions to the jury. The plaintiff or party having the burden of proof may then address the jury upon the evidence, and the law as contained in the court's instructions; after which the adverse party may address the jury; followed by the rebuttal of the party first addressing the jury.

(h) Deliberation. After argument, the jury shall retire to consider its verdict. In addition to the written instructions given, the jury shall take with it all exhibits received in evidence, except depositions. Copies may be substituted for any parts of public records or private documents as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession. Pleadings shall not go to the jury room.

(i) Further Instructions. After retirement for deliberation, if the jury desires to be informed on any point of law, the judge may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon the jury's being brought into court, the information requested, if given, shall be given in the presence of, or after notice to the parties or their counsel. Any additional instruction upon any point of law shall be given in writing.

(j) Comments Upon Evidence. Judges shall not instruct with respect to matters of fact, nor comment thereon.

RULE 52

FINDINGS BY THE COURT

[Reserved. See RALJ 5.2.]

RULE 53

MASTERS

[RESERVED]

RULE 53.1

REFEREES

[RESERVED]

RULE 53.2

COURT COMMISSIONERS

[Reserved. See RCW 3.42.]

7. JUDGMENTS (RULES 54–63)

RULE 54

JUDGMENTS; COSTS

(a) Definition; Form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any final order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings or the record of prior proceedings. Judgments may be in writing signed by the court or may be oral confirmed by an entry in the record.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims or Involving Multiple Parties. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross claim, or third party claim, or when multiple parties are involved, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment as to one or more but fewer than all of the claims or parties only upon an express determination in the judgment that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decision, however designated, which adjudicates fewer than all the claims or the rights and liabilities of fewer than all the parties shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims or parties, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims and the rights and liabilities of all the parties.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. Except as to a party against whom a judgment is entered by default, every final judgment shall grant the relief to which the party in whose favor it is rendered is entitled, even if the party has not demanded such relief in his pleadings.

(d) Costs. Costs shall be fixed and allowed as provided in RCW 12.20.060 or by any other applicable statute.

RULE 55

DEFAULT

(a) Entry of Default.

(1) Motion. When a party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought has failed to appear, plead, or otherwise defend as provided by these rules and that fact is made to appear by motion and affidavit, a motion for default may be made.

(2) Pleading After Default. Any party may respond to any pleading or otherwise defend at any time before a motion for default and supporting affidavit is filed, whether the party previously has appeared or not. If the party has appeared before the motion is filed, he may respond to the pleading or otherwise defend at any time before the hearing on the motion. If the party has not appeared before the motion is filed he may not respond to the pleading nor otherwise defend without leave of court. Any appearances for any purpose in the action shall be for all purposes under this rule 55.

(3) Notice. Any party who has appeared in the action for any purpose, shall be served with a written notice of motion for default and the supporting affidavit at least 5 days before the hearing on the motion. Any party who has not appeared before the motion for default and supporting affidavit are filed is not entitled to a notice of the motion, except as provided in subsection (f)(2)(i).

(4) Venue. A motion for default shall include a statement of the basis for venue in the action. A default shall not be entered if it clearly appears to the court from the papers on file that the action was brought in an improper district.

(b) Entry of Default Judgment. As limited in rule 54(c), judgment after default may be entered as follows, if proof of service is on file as required by subsection (b)(4):

(1) When Amount Certain. When the claim against a party, whose default has been entered under section (a), is for a sum certain or for a sum which can by computation be made certain, the court upon motion and affidavit of the amount due shall enter judgment for that amount and costs against the party in default, if he is not an infant or incompetent person. No judgment by default shall be entered against an infant or incompetent person unless represented by a general guardian or guardian ad litem. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are not necessary under this subsection even though reasonable attorney fees are requested and allowed.

(2) When Amount Uncertain. If, in order to enable the court to enter judgment or to carry it into effect, it is necessary to take an account or to determine the amount of damages or to establish the truth of any averment by evidence or to make an investigation of any other matter, the court may conduct such hearings as are deemed necessary or, when required by statute, shall have such matters resolved by a jury. Findings of fact and conclusions of law are required under this subsection.

(3) When Service by Publication or Mail. In an action where the service of the summons was by publication, or by mail under rule 4(d)(4), the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of service, apply for judgment. The court must thereupon require proof of the demand mentioned in the complaint, and must require the plaintiff or his agent to be examined on oath respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to anyone for his use on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover, or for such other relief as he may be entitled to.

(4) Costs and Proof of Service. Costs shall not be awarded and default judgment shall not be rendered unless proof of service is on file with the court.

(c) Setting Aside Default.

(1) Generally. For good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with rule 60(b).

(2) When Venue Is Improper. A default judgment entered in a district of improper venue is valid but will on motion be vacated for irregularity pursuant to rule 60(b)(1). A party who procures the entry of the judgment shall, in the vacation proceedings, be required to pay to the party seeking vacation the costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the party in seeking vacation if the party procuring the judgment could have determined the district of proper venue with reasonable diligence. This subsection does not apply if either (i) the parties stipulate in writing to venue after commencement of the action, or (ii) the defendant has appeared, has been given written notice of the motion for an order of default, and does not object to venue before the entry of the default order.

(d) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross claim or counterclaim. In all cases a judgment by default is subject to the limitations of rule 54(c).

(e) Judgment Against State. [Reserved.]

(f) How Made After Elapse of Year.

(1) Notice. When more than 1 year has elapsed after service of summons with no appearance being made, the court shall not sign an order of default or enter a judgment until a notice of the time and place of the application for the order or judgment is served on the party in default, not less than 10 days prior to the entry. Proof by affidavit of the service of the notice shall be filed before entry of the judgment.

(2) Service. Service of notice of the time and place on the application for the order of default or default judgment shall be made as follows:

(i) by service upon the attorney of record;

(ii) if there is no attorney of record, then by service upon the defendant by certified mail with return receipt of said service to be attached to the affidavit in support of the application; or

(iii) by a personal service upon the defendant in the same manner provided for service of process.

(iv) If service of notice cannot be made under sections (i) and (iii), the notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the action is pending for one publication, and by mailing a copy to the last known address of each defendant. Both the publication and mailing shall be done 10 days prior to the hearing.

RULE 56

SUMMARY JUDGMENT

(a) For Claimant. A party seeking to recover upon a claim, counterclaim, or cross claim, or to obtain a declaratory judgment may, at any time after the expiration of the period within which the defendant is required to appear, or after service of a motion for summary judgment by the adverse party, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor upon all or any part thereof.

(b) For Defending Party. A party against whom a claim, counterclaim, or cross claim is asserted or a declaratory judgment is sought may, at any time, move with or without supporting affidavits for a summary judgment in his favor as to all or any part thereof.

(c) Motion and Proceedings. The motion shall be served at least 10 days before the time fixed for the hearing. The adverse party, prior to the day of hearing, may serve opposing affidavits. The judgment sought shall be rendered forthwith if the pleadings, depositions, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. A summary judgment, interlocutory in character, may be rendered on the issue of liability alone although there is a genuine issue as to the amount of damages.

(d) Case Not Fully Adjudicated on Motion. If on motion under the rule judgment is not rendered upon the whole case or for all the relief asked and a trial is necessary, the court at the hearing of the motion, by examining the pleadings and the evidence before it and by interrogating counsel, shall if practicable ascertain what material facts exist without substantial controversy and what material facts are actually and in good faith controverted. It shall thereupon make an order specifying the facts that appear without substantial controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or other relief is not in controversy, and directing such further proceedings in the action as are just. Upon the trial of the action, the facts so specified shall be deemed established, and the trial shall be conducted accordingly.

(e) Form of Affidavits; Further Testimony; Defense Required. Supporting and opposing affidavits shall be made on personal knowledge, shall set forth such facts as would be admissible in evidence, and shall show affirmatively that the affiant is competent to testify to the matters stated therein. Sworn or certified copies of all papers or parts thereof referred to in an affidavit shall be attached thereto or served therewith. The court may permit affidavits to be supplemented or opposed by depositions, answers to interrogatories, or further affidavits. When a motion for summary judgment is made and supported as provided in this rule, an adverse party may not rest upon the mere allegations or denials of his pleading, but his response, by affidavits or as otherwise provided in this rule, must set forth specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. If he does not so respond, summary judgment, if appropriate, shall be entered against him.

(f) When Affidavits Are Unavailable. Should it appear from the affidavits of a party opposing the motion that he cannot, for reasons stated, present by affidavit facts essential to justify his opposition, the court may refuse the application for judgment or may order a continuance to permit affidavits to be obtained or depositions to be taken or discovery to be had or may make such other order as is just.

(g) Affidavits Made in Bad Faith. Should it appear to the satisfaction of the court at any time that any of the affidavits presented pursuant to this rule are presented in bad faith or solely for the purpose of delay, the court shall forthwith order the party employing them to pay to the other party the amount of the reasonable expenses which the filing of the affidavits caused him to incur, including reasonable attorney fees, and any offending party or attorney may be adjudged guilty of contempt.

RULE 57

[RESERVED]

RULE 58

ENTRY OF JUDGMENT

Upon the verdict of a jury, the court shall immediately render judgment thereon. If the trial is by the judge, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, unless he reserves his decision, in which event the trial shall be continued to a day certain, but not longer than 15 days.

RULE 59

NEW TRIAL, RECONSIDERATION, AND AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENTS

(a) Grounds for New Trial or Reconsideration. The verdict or other decision may be vacated and a new trial granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues when such issues are clearly and fairly separable and distinct, on the motion of the party aggrieved for any one of the following causes materially affecting the substantial rights of such parties:

(1) Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury or adverse party, or any order of the court, or abuse of discretion, by which such party was prevented from having a fair trial;

(2) Misconduct of prevailing party or jury; and whenever any one or more of the jurors shall have been induced to assent to any general or special verdict or to a finding on any question or questions submitted to the jury by the court, other and different from his own conclusions, and arrived at by a resort to the determination of chance or lot, such misconduct may be proved by the affidavits of one or more of the jurors;

(3) Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

(4) Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial;

(5) Damages so excessive or inadequate as unmistakably to indicate that the verdict must have been the result of passion or prejudice;

(6) Error in the assessment of the amount of recovery whether too large or too small, when the action is upon a contract, or for the injury or detention of property;

(7) That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the verdict or the decision, or that it is contrary to law;

(8) Error in law occurring at the trial and objected to at the time by the party making the application;

(9) That substantial justice has not been done.

(b) Time for Motion; Contents of Motion. A motion for a new trial or for reconsideration shall be served and filed not later than 10 days after the entry of the judgment.

A motion for a new trial or for reconsideration shall identify the specific reasons in fact and law as to each ground on which the motion is based.

(c) Time for Serving Affidavits. When a motion for new trial is based upon affidavits they shall be served with the motion. The opposing party has 10 days after such service within which to serve opposing affidavits, which period may be extended for an additional period not exceeding 20 days either by the court for good cause shown or by the parties by written stipulation. The court may permit reply affidavits.

(d) On Initiative of Court. Not later than 10 days after entry of judgment, the court of its own initiative may order a hearing on its proposed order for a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party, and in the order shall specify the grounds thereof.

(e) Hearing on Motion. When a motion for reconsideration or for a new trial is served and filed, the judge by whom it is to be heard may on his own motion or on application determine:

(1) Time of Hearing. Whether the motion shall be heard before the entry of judgment;

(2) Consolidation of Hearings. Whether the motion shall be heard before or at the same time as the presentation of the findings and conclusions and/or judgment, and the hearing on any other pending motion; and

(3) Nature of Hearing. Whether the motion or motions and presentation shall be heard on oral argument or submitted on briefs, and if on briefs, shall fix the time within which the briefs shall be served and filed.

(f) Statement of Reasons. In all cases where the trial court grants a motion for a new trial, it shall, in the order granting the motion, state whether the order is based upon the record or upon facts and circumstances outside the record which cannot be made a part thereof. If the order is based upon the record, the court shall give definite reasons of law and facts for its order. If the order is based upon matters outside the record, the court shall state the facts and circumstances upon which it relied.

(g) Reopening Judgment. On a motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment if one has been entered, take additional testimony, amend findings of fact and conclusions of law, and direct the entry of a new judgment.

(h) Motion To Alter or Amend Judgment. A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be served not later than 10 days after entry of the judgment.

(i) Alternative Motions, etc. Alternative motions for judgment notwithstanding the verdict and for a new trial may be made in accordance with rule 50(c).

(j) Limit on Motions. If a motion for reconsideration, or for a new trial, or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, is made and heard before the entry of the judgment, no further motion may be made for a new trial nor pursuant to sections (g), (h), and (i) of this rule, nor under CR 52(b), without leave of court first obtained for good cause shown.

RULE 60

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER

(a) Clerical Mistakes. Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders. Such mistakes may be so corrected before review is accepted by an appellate court, and thereafter may be corrected pursuant to RALJ 4.1(b).

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;

(2) For erroneous proceedings against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

(3) Newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under rule 59(b);

(4) Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(5) The judgment is void;

(6) The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated, or it is no longer equitable that the judgment should have prospective application;

(7) If the defendant was served by publication, relief may be granted as prescribed in RCW 4.28.200;

(8) Death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

(9) Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

(10) Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or

(11) Any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

The motion shall be made within a reasonable time and for reasons (1), (2) or (3) not more than 1 year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. If the party entitled to relief is a minor or a person of unsound mind, the motion shall be made within 1 year after the disability ceases. A motion under section (b) does not affect the finality of the judgment or suspend its operation.

(c) Other Remedies. This rule does not limit the power of a court to entertain an independent action to relieve a party from a judgment, order, or proceeding.

(d) Writs Abolished—Procedure. Writs of coram nobis, coram vobis, audita querela, and bills of review and bills in the nature of a bill of review are abolished. The procedure for obtaining any relief from a judgment shall be by motion as prescribed in these rules or by an independent action.

(e) Procedure on Vacation of Judgment.

(1) Motion. Application shall be made by motion filed in the cause stating the grounds upon which relief is asked, and supported by the affidavit of the applicant or his attorney setting forth a concise statement of the facts or errors upon which the motion is based, and if the moving party be a defendant, the facts constituting a defense to the action or proceeding.

(2) Notice. Upon the filing of the motion and affidavit, the court shall enter an order fixing the time and place of the hearing thereof and directing all parties to the action or proceeding who may be affected thereby to appear and show cause why the relief asked for should not be granted.

(3) Service. The motion, affidavit, and the order to show cause shall be served upon all parties affected in the same manner as in the case of summons in a civil action at such time before the date fixed for the hearing as the order shall provide; but in case such service cannot be made, the order shall be published in the manner and for such time as may be ordered by the court, and in such case a copy of the motion, affidavit, and order shall be mailed to such parties at their last known post office address and a copy thereof served upon the attorneys of record of such parties in such action or proceeding such time prior to the hearing as the court may direct.

HARMLESS ERROR

[RESERVED]

RULE 62

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS TO ENFORCE A JUDGMENT

(a) Automatic Stays. [Reserved. See RALJ 4.2.]

(b) Stay on Motion for New Trial or for Judgment. In its discretion and on such conditions for the security of the adverse party as are proper, the court may stay the execution of or any proceedings to enforce a judgment pending the disposition of a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment made pursuant to rule 59, or of a motion for relief from a judgment or order made pursuant to rule 60, or of a motion for judgment in accordance with a motion for a directed verdict made pursuant to rule 50, or of a motion for amendment to the findings or for additional findings.

(c) [Reserved.]

(d) [Reserved.]

(e) [Reserved.]

(f) Other Stays. This rule does not limit the right of a party to a stay otherwise provided by statute or rule.

(g) [Reserved.]

(h) Multiple Claims or Multiple Parties. When a court has ordered a final judgment under the conditions stated in rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered.

RULE 63

JUDGES—DISABILITY

If by reason of death, sickness or other disability, a judge before whom an action has been tried is unable to perform the duties to be performed by the court under these rules after a verdict is returned or findings of fact and conclusions of law are filed, then any other judge regularly sitting in or assigned to the court in which the action was tried may perform those duties; but if such other judge is satisfied that he cannot perform those duties because he did not preside at the trial or for any other reason, he may in his discretion grant a new trial.

8. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES
AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS
(RULES 64–71)

RULE 64

GARNISHMENT

[RESERVED]

RULES 65 through 67

[RESERVED]

RULE 68

OFFER OF JUDGMENT

At any time more than 10 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 10 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the court shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the costs incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. When the liability of one party to another has been determined by verdict or order or judgment, but the amount or extent of the liability remains to be determined by further proceedings, the party adjudged liable may make an offer of judgment, which shall have the same effect as an offer made before trial if it is served within a reasonable time not less than 10 days prior to the commencement of hearings to determine the amount or extent of liability.

RULES 69 through 70

[RESERVED]

RULE 71

WITHDRAWAL BY ATTORNEY

(a) Withdrawal by Attorney. Service on an attorney who has appeared for a party in a civil proceeding shall be valid to the extent permitted by statute and rule 5(b) only until the attorney has withdrawn in the manner provided in sections (b), (c), and (d). Nothing in this rule defines the circumstances under which a withdrawal might be denied by the court.

(b) Withdrawal by Order. A court appointed attorney may not withdraw without an order of the court. The client of the withdrawing attorney must be given notice of the motion to withdraw and the date and place the motion will be heard.

(c) Withdrawal by Notice. Except as provided in sections (b) and (d), an attorney may withdraw by notice in the manner provided in this section.

(1) Notice of Intent To Withdraw. The attorney shall file and serve a Notice of Intent To Withdraw on all other parties in the proceeding. The notice shall specify a date when the attorney intends to withdraw, which date shall be at least 10 days after the service of the Notice of Intent To Withdraw. The notice shall include a statement that the withdrawal shall be effective without order of court unless an objection to the withdrawal is served upon the withdrawing attorney prior to the date set forth in the notice. If notice is given before trial, the notice shall include the date set for trial. The notice shall include the names and last known addresses of the persons represented by the withdrawing attorney, unless disclosure of the address would violate the Code of Professional Responsibility, in which case the address may be omitted. If the address is omitted, the notice must contain a statement that after the attorney withdraws, and so long as the address of the withdrawing attorney's client remains undisclosed and no new attorney is substituted, the client may be served by leaving papers with the clerk of the court pursuant to rule 5(b)(1).

(2) Service on Client. Prior to service on other parties, the Notice of Intent To Withdraw shall be served on the persons represented by the withdrawing attorney or sent to them by certified mail, postage prepaid, to their last known mailing addresses. Proof of service or mailing shall be filed, except that the address of the withdrawing attorney's client may be omitted under circumstances defined by subsection (c)(1) of this rule.

(3) Withdrawal Without Objection. The withdrawal shall be effective, without order of court and without the service and filing of any additional papers, on the date designated in the Notice of Intent To Withdraw, unless a written objection to the withdrawal is served by a party on the withdrawing attorney prior to the date specified as the day of withdrawal in the Notice of Intent To Withdraw.

(4) Effect of Objection. If a timely written objection is served, withdrawal may be obtained only by order of the court.

(d) Withdrawal and Substitution. Except as provided in section (b), an attorney may withdraw if a new attorney is substituted by filing and serving a Notice of Withdrawal and Substitution. The notice shall include a statement of the date on which the withdrawal and substitution are effective and shall include the name, address, and signature of the withdrawing attorney and the substituted attorney.

9. APPEALS
(RULES 72–76)

RULE 72

APPEAL TO SUPERIOR COURT

An appeal from a court of limited jurisdiction is governed by the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. Under RALJ 1.1, the appeal from some courts is an appeal for error on the record, and the appeal from other courts is conducted as a trial de novo. The procedures for an appeal for error on the record are defined by RALJ. The procedures for a trial de novo are defined by JCR 73 and 75 below.

RULE 73

TRIAL DE NOVO

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Filing Notice of Appeal Jurisdictional—Service. When an appeal is permitted by law from a court of limited jurisdiction to a superior court such appeal shall be taken by filing in the court of limited jurisdiction a notice of appeal within 14 days after the judgment is rendered or decision made. Filing the notice of appeal is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal shall also, within the same 14 days, serve a copy of the notice of appeal on all other parties or their lawyers and file an acknowledgment or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction.

(c) Bond. A bond or undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant, except when the appellant is a county, city, town or school district, and filed with and approved by the court of limited jurisdiction with one or more sureties, in the sum of $100, conditioned that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on appeal; or if a stay of proceedings in the court of limited jurisdiction be claimed, except by a county, city, town or school district, a bond or undertaking, with two or more personal sureties, or a surety company as surety, to be approved by the court of limited jurisdiction, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, conditioned that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on appeal, be so executed and filed.

(d) Stay of Proceedings. Upon an appeal being taken and a bond filed to stay all proceedings, the court of limited jurisdiction shall allow the same and make an entry of such allowance, and all further proceedings on the judgment in such court shall thereupon be suspended; and if in the meantime execution shall have been issued, such court shall give the appellant a certificate that such appeal has been allowed.

(e) Release of Property Taken on Execution. On such certificate being presented to the officer holding the execution, he shall forthwith release the property of the judgment debtor that may have been taken on execution.

(f) No Dismissal for Defective Bond. No appeal allowed by a court of limited jurisdiction shall be dismissed on account of any defect in the bond on appeal, if the appellant, before the motion is determined, shall execute and file in the superior court such bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that may have accrued by reason of such defect.

(g) Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties. In all cases of appeal to the superior court, if on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties on the bond on appeal.

RULE 74

[RESERVED]

RULE 75

RECORD ON TRIAL DE NOVO

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Transcript; Procedure in Superior Court; Pleadings in Superior Court. Within 14 days after the notice of appeal has been filed in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the superior court a transcript of all entries made in the docket of the court of limited jurisdiction relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the case filed in the court of limited jurisdiction which shall be made and certified by such court to be correct upon the payment of the fees allowed by law therefor, and upon the filing of such transcript the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as provided in these rules. The issue before the court of limited jurisdiction shall be tried in the superior court without other or new pleadings, unless otherwise directed by the superior court.

(c) Transcript; Procedure on Failure To Make and Certify; Amendment. If upon an appeal being taken the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses, upon the tender or payment of the fees allowed by law, to make and certify the transcript, the appellant may make application, supported by affidavit, to the superior court and the court shall issue an order directing the court of limited jurisdiction to make and certify such transcript upon the payment of such fees. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the superior court that the return of the court of limited jurisdiction to such order is substantially erroneous or defective it may order the court of limited jurisdiction to amend the same. If the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any order issued under the provisions of this section he may be cited and punished for contempt of court.

10. COURT AND CLERKS (RULES 77–80)

RULE 77

[RESERVED]

RULE 77.04

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH

The oaths or affirmations of all witnesses
(1) Shall be administered by the judge;

(2) Shall be administered to each witness on coming to the stand, not to a group and in advance; and

(3) The witness shall stand while the oath or affirmation is pronounced.

[RESERVED]

11. GENERAL PROVISIONS
(RULES 81–86)

APPLICABILITY IN GENERAL

(a) To What Proceedings Applicable. These rules govern all civil proceedings except as provided in this rule. These rules do not apply where inconsistent with rules or statutes applicable to special proceedings, nor do they apply to proceedings in small claims court. In a court in which the proceedings are not recorded and review is by trial de novo, these rules apply to the extent practicable; in these courts, rules referring to recording or an appeal on the record should be disregarded.

(b) Conflicting Statutes and Rules. Subject to the provisions of section (a) of this rule, these rules supersede all procedural statutes and other rules that may be in conflict.

RULE 82

JURISDICTION AND VENUE—UNAFFECTED

These rules shall not be construed to extend or limit the jurisdiction of the courts of limited jurisdiction or the venue of actions therein.

RULE 83

LOCAL RULES

(a) Adoption. Each court of limited jurisdiction by action of a majority of the judges may from time to time make and amend local rules governing its practice not inconsistent with these rules.

(b) Filing With the Administrator for the Courts. Local rules and amendments become effective only after they are filed with the state Administrator for the Courts in accordance with GR 7.

RULE 84

[RESERVED]

RULE 85

TITLE

These rules may be known and cited as Justice Court Civil Rules and they may be referred to as JCR.

RULE 86

EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules take effect on the dates specified by the Supreme Court and thereafter all procedural laws in conflict therewith shall be of no further force and effect. They govern all proceedings in actions after they take effect, and also all further proceedings in actions pending on their effective dates, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court, expressed by its order, the application of rules in a particular action pending when the rules take effect would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the procedure existing at the time the action was brought applies.

RULE 1.03

LOCAL COURT RULES—AVAILABILITY

Courts of limited jurisdiction may adopt in accordance with GR 7 such special rules not inconsistent with these general rules as they may deem necessary for their respective courts. The court, upon the adoption of such rules, shall keep a copy of them readily available for inspection.

RULE 1.04

STYLE AND FORM

The complaint, warrant, summons, motions, briefs, orders, decisions of the court and all other papers or forms required by or employed under these rules shall be plainly written, typed or printed.

2. PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT—CITATION AND NOTICE

(a) Complaint.

(1) Initiation. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all criminal proceedings shall be initiated by a complaint.

(2) Contents. The complaint shall be in writing and shall set forth:

- (i) the name of the court;
- (ii) the title of the action and the name of the offense charged;
- (iii) the name of the person charged; and
- (iv) the offense charged, in the language of the statute, together with a statement as to the time, place, person, and property involved to enable the defendant to understand the character of the offense charged.

(3) Certification. The complaint shall contain a form of certificate by the prosecuting attorney that he or she certifies, under penalty of perjury, as provided in RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he or she has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person.

(4) Approval of Form. The complaint shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Citation and Notice To Appear.

(1) Issuance. Whenever a person is arrested for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor the arresting officer, or any other authorized peace officer, may serve upon the arrested person a citation and notice to appear in court, in lieu of continued custody. In determining whether to issue a citation and notice to appear, a peace officer may consider the following factors:

- (i) whether the person has identified himself satisfactorily;
- (ii) whether detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to himself or to another, injury to property, or breach of the peace;
- (iii) whether the person has ties to the community reasonably sufficient to assure his appearance or whether there is substantial likelihood that he will refuse to respond to the citation; and
- (iv) whether the person previously has failed to appear in response to a citation issued pursuant to this section or to other lawful process.

(2) Contents. The citation and notice shall include:

- (i) the name of the court and a space for the court's docket, case or file number;
- (ii) the name of the person, his address, date of birth, and sex;
- (iii) the date, time, place and description of the offense charged, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer;
- (iv) the time and place at which the person is to appear in court which need not be a time certain, but may be within 72 hours or within a greater period of time not to exceed 15 days after the date of the citation;
- (v) a space for the person to sign a promise to appear.

(3) Release. To secure his release, the person must give his written promise to appear in court as required by the citation and notice served.

(4) Certificate. The citation and notice to appear shall contain a form of certificate by the citing official that he certifies, under penalties of perjury, as provided by

RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person. Such citation and notice when signed by the citing officer and filed with a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of initiating prosecution of the offense charged therein.

(5) Additional Information. The citation and notice may also contain such identifying and additional information as may be necessary.

(6) Approval of Form. The citation and notice shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(c) Citizen Complaints. Any person wishing to make a complaint shall appear before a judge empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the State. The judge shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may require, take their statements, and cause the statements and the complaint to be subscribed under oath by the person or persons making it.

(1) Citizen's Complaint—Alternate Method. The judge may consider any complaint on the basis of an affidavit sworn to before the judge, a clerk, commissioner or notary public where the judge is satisfied that probable cause exists, that the complaining witness is aware of the gravity of initiating a criminal complaint, the necessity of a court appearance for himself and witnesses, the possible liability for false arrest and consequences of perjury. Such affidavit may be in substantially the form as provided herein.

I, the undersigned complainant understand that I have the choice of complaining to a prosecuting authority rather than signing this affidavit. I elect to use this method to start criminal proceedings. I understand that the following are some but not all of the consequences of my signing a criminal complaint: (1) the defendant may be arrested and placed in custody; (2) the arrest if proved false may result in a lawsuit against me; (3) if I have sworn falsely I may be prosecuted for perjury; (4) this charge will be prosecuted even though I might later change my mind; (5) witnesses and complainant will be required to appear in court on the trial date regardless of inconvenience, school, job, etc.

Following is a true statement of the events that led to filing this charge. I (have) (have not) consulted with a prosecuting authority concerning this incident.

Court Commissioner, Clerk, Judge or Notary Public

(d) Filing.

(1) The original of the complaint or citation and notice shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and sufficient copies shall be prepared in order to provide a copy for each defendant.

(2) The citation and notice in a traffic case shall be filed with the court within 48 hours after issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A citation and notice not filed within the time limits of this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

RULE 2.02

WARRANT OR SUMMONS UPON COMPLAINT

(a) Issuance of Warrant of Arrest. If it appears from the complaint or from an affidavit or affidavits filed therewith, that there is reasonable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the judge, except as otherwise provided in section (b), shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant unless he has already been arrested in connection with the offense charged and is in custody or has been released on obligation to appear in court. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the judge may require the complainant to appear personally and may examine under oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce.

(b) Issuance of Summons in Lieu of Warrant of Arrest.

(1) Where Summons May Issue. In any case in which the judge finds sufficient grounds for issuing a warrant pursuant to rule 2.02(a), he may issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear in lieu of a warrant.

(2) When Summons Must Issue. If the complaint charges the commission of one or more misdemeanors or gross misdemeanors, the judge shall issue a summons instead of a warrant unless he has reasonable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in response to a summons, or that arrest is necessary to prevent serious bodily harm to the accused or another, in which case he may issue a warrant.

(3) Failure To Appear on Summons. If a person summoned fails to appear in response to the summons, or if service is unsuccessful, a warrant for his arrest may issue.

(c) Form.

(1) Warrant. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the judge with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the municipality or county where issued. It shall specify the name of the defendant, or if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged against the defendant; if the offense charged is triable in the county in which the warrant issues, the warrant shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought forthwith before the judge issuing the warrant. If the offense is bailable, the warrant shall contain the release provisions then fixed by the judge pursuant to rule 2.09.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the judge issuing it at a stated time and place.

(d) Execution or Service.

(1) Execution of Warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of Summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address.

(e) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to rule 2.03. At the request of the prosecuting attorney any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the judge by whom issued and shall be canceled by him. The person to whom a summons has been delivered for service shall, on or before the return date, make return thereof to the judge before whom the summons is returnable. The judge for reasonable cause can also order that the warrant be returned to him.

(f) Defective Warrant or Summons.

(1) Amendment. No person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any irregularity in the warrant or summons, but the warrant or summons may be amended so as to remedy any such irregularity.

(2) Issuance of New Warrant or Summons. If during the preliminary examination of any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons, it appears that the warrant or summons does not properly name or describe the defendant, or the offense with which he is charged, or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant or summons there is reasonable ground to believe that he is guilty of some other offense, the judge shall not discharge or dismiss the defendant but may allow a new complaint to be filed and shall thereupon issue a new warrant or summons.

RULE 2.03

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE JUDGE—PROCEDURE FOLLOWING EXECUTION OF A WARRANT OR ARREST WITHOUT A WARRANT—BAIL—PRELIMINARY HEARING

(a) Preliminary Appearance.

(1) Unless a defendant has appeared or will appear before the superior court for a preliminary appearance, any defendant whether detained in jail or subjected to court authorized conditions of release, and any person in whose case the juvenile court has entered a written order declining jurisdiction, must be taken or required to appear before a judge of a court of limited jurisdiction as soon as practicable after the detention is commenced, the conditions of release imposed or the order entered, but in any event before the close of business on the next judicial day. A person is not subject to conditions of release if the person has been served with a summons or traffic or misdemeanor citation and the only obligation is to appear in court on a future date.

(2) If a defendant is unavailable for preliminary appearance because of physical or mental disability, the court may, for good cause shown and recited in a written order, enlarge the time prior to preliminary appearance.

(b) Procedure at Preliminary Appearance. At the preliminary appearance the judge shall orally inform the defendant:

(1) Of the nature of the charge against the defendant; and

(2) Of the right to be assisted by a lawyer at every stage of the proceedings.

The court shall provide for counsel pursuant to rule 2.11 and for pretrial release pursuant to rule 2.09.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) Unless a written complaint is filed or the affected person consents in writing or on the record in open court, a defendant shall not be detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release for more than 72 hours after the defendant's detention in jail or release on conditions, whichever occurs first. Computation of the 72-hour period shall not include any part of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays.

(2) If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed at the time of the preliminary appearance, and the defendant has not otherwise consented, the court at a time certain which is within the period described in subsection (c)(1), shall either (i) order in writing that the defendant be released from jail or exonerated from the conditions of release, or (ii) set a time at which the defendant shall reappear before the court. The time set for reappearance must also be within the period described in subsection (c)(1). If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed by the time set for release or reappearance, the defendant shall be immediately released from jail or deemed exonerated from all conditions of release.

(d) Preliminary Hearings on Felony Complaint.

(1) When a felony complaint is filed, the court may conduct a preliminary hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony. If the court finds probable cause, the court shall bind the defendant over to the superior court. If the court binds the defendant over, or if the parties waive the preliminary hearing, an information shall be filed without unnecessary delay.

(2) If at the time a complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the filing of the complaint in district court to the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed 30 days plus any time which is the subject of a stipulation under subsection (d)(3). If at the time the complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the defendant's first appearance in district court which next follows the filing of the complaint to the time of the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed 30 days, excluding any time which is the subject of a stipulation under subsection (d)(3). If the applicable time period specified above elapses and no information has been filed in superior court, the case shall be dismissed without prejudice. The court shall file the transcript in superior court promptly after notice that the information has been filed. The transcript shall include, but not be limited to, the bond and any exhibits filed in the court of limited jurisdiction. Jurisdiction vests in the superior court at the time the information is filed.

(3) Before or after the preliminary hearing or a waiver thereof, the court may delay a preliminary hearing or defer a bind-over order if the parties stipulate in writing that the case shall remain in the court of limited jurisdiction for a specified time not exceeding 30 days, which may be in addition to the 30-day time limit established in subsection (d)(2).

(4) A preliminary hearing shall be conducted as follows:

(i) the defendant may as a matter of right be present at such hearing;

(ii) the court shall inform the defendant of the charge unless the defendant waives such reading;

(iii) witnesses shall be examined under oath and may be cross-examined;

(iv) the defendant may testify and call witnesses in the defendant's behalf.

(5) If a preliminary hearing on the felony complaint is held and the court finds that probable cause does not exist, the charge shall be dismissed, and may be refiled only if a motion to set aside the finding is granted by the superior court. The superior court shall determine whether, at the time of the hearing on such motion, there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony.

RULE 2.04

COMPLAINT AND CITATION—SUFFICIENCIES

(a) Complaint. The complaint shall not be deemed insufficient for lack of a formal caption or commencement or a formal conclusion, or any other matter not necessary to a plain, concise and definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense or offenses with which the defendant is charged, nor for lack of any other matter not necessary to such statement, nor need it negate any exception, excuse or proviso contained in any statute creating or defining the offense charged. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged in any count that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. Unnecessary allegations may be disregarded as surplusage and on motion of the defendant prior to trial may be stricken from the complaint by the court. The complaint shall state for each count the official or customary citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated; but, error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the complaint or for reversal of a conviction unless the error or omission misleads the defendant to his prejudice.

(b) Citation and Notice. No citation and notice issued pursuant to the provisions of rule 2.01(b) shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense with which the defendant is charged, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant. Any defendant upon request shall be entitled as a matter of right to a bill of particulars.

RULE 2.05

COMPLAINT—JOINDER OF OFFENSES AND DEFENDANTS

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged are of the same or similar character or are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or connected transactions or transactions constituting parts of a common scheme or plan.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and it shall not be necessary to charge all the defendants in each count.

RULE 2.06

SEVERAL COMPLAINTS FOR SAME OFFENSE—JURISDICTION—CONSOLIDATION

(a) Several Complaints for Same Offense — Same Court. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant in the same court for the same offense, the court shall order the complaints to be consolidated.

(b) Several Complaints for Same Offense — Different Courts. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant for the same offense in different courts, and if each court has jurisdiction, the court in which the first complaint was filed shall try the case and upon motion by either party, or the judge, the second or several complaints shall be forwarded to the court in which a complaint was first filed for consolidation and trial.

COMPLAINT—LOSS OR DESTRUCTION— COPY

When a complaint has been lost or destroyed a copy thereof certified by the court may be substituted and the case shall proceed without delay from that cause.

RULE 2.08

PROCEDURE ON FAILURE TO OBEY CITATION AND NOTICE TO APPEAR

(a) Residents. The court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of any defendant who is a resident of this state and who has failed to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear. If the warrant is not executed within 30 days after issue, the court shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

(b) Nonresidents. If a nonresident defendant fails to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear, the court shall mail a notice to the defendant at the address stated in the citation and notice to appear requesting him to abide by his promise and appear in person or by counsel on a day certain, and notifying him that he may also be charged for his failure to appear after a written promise to do so. If the nonresident defendant fails to respond within 30 days after the date set in the notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest, and shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

PRETRIAL RELEASE

(a) Personal Recognizance. Any defendant charged with an offense shall at his first court appearance be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure his appearance when required. When such a determination is made, the court shall impose the least restrictive of the following conditions that will reasonably assure his appearance or if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

(1) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;

(2) Place restrictions on the travel, association, or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release;

(3) Require the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount;

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit in the registry of the court in cash or other security as directed, of a sum not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned upon the performance of the conditions of release;

(5) Require the execution of an appearance bond with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof;

(6) Require the defendant's return to custody during specified hours; or

(7) Impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required.

(b) Relevant Factors. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance, the court shall, on the available information, consider the relevant facts including: the length and character of the defendant's residence in the community; his employment status and history and financial condition; his family ties and relationships; his reputation, character and mental condition; his history of response to legal process; his prior criminal record; the willingness of responsible members of the community to vouch for the defendant's reliability and assist him in appearing in court; the nature of the charge; and any other factors indicating the defendant's ties to the community.

(c) Conditions of Release. Upon a showing that there exists a substantial danger that the defendant will commit a serious crime or that the defendant's physical condition is such to jeopardize his safety or that of others or that he will seek to intimidate witnesses, or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice, the court, upon the defendant's release, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

(1) Prohibit him from approaching or communicating with particular persons or classes of persons;

(2) Prohibit him from going to certain geographical areas or premises;

(3) Prohibit him from possessing any dangerous weapons, or engaging in certain described activities or indulging in intoxicating liquors or in certain drugs;

(4) Require him to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of an officer of the court or other person or agency;

(5) Detain him until his physical condition permits his release.

(d) Order for Release. A court authorizing the release of the defendant under this rule shall issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest may be issued immediately upon any such violation.

(e) Review of Conditions. Upon determining the conditions of release, the court, upon request, after 24 hours from the time of release, may review the conditions previously imposed.

(f) Amendment of Order. The court ordering the release of a defendant on any condition specified in this rule may at any time on change of circumstances or showing of good cause amend its order to impose additional or different conditions for release.

(g) Revocation of Release. Upon a verified application by the prosecuting attorney alleging with specificity that a defendant has willfully violated a condition of his release, a court shall order the defendant to appear for immediate hearing or issue a warrant directing the arrest of the defendant for immediate hearing. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a defendant released pending trial for a felony is about to leave the state or that he has violated a condition of such release, imposed pursuant to section (c), under circumstances rendering the securing of a warrant impracticable, may arrest the defendant and take him forthwith before the court.

(h) Release After Verdict. A defendant (1) who is charged with a capital offense or (2) who has been found guilty of a felony and is either awaiting sentence or has filed an appeal shall be released pursuant to this rule, unless the court finds that the defendant may flee the state or pose a substantial danger to another or to the community. If such a risk of flight or danger exists, the defendant may be ordered detained.

(i) Evidence. Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this rule need not conform to the rules pertaining to the admissibility of evidence in a court of law.

(j) Forfeiture. Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed to prevent the disposition of any case or class of cases by forfeiture of collateral security where such disposition is authorized by the court.

(k) Defendant Discharged on Recognizance or Bail—Absence—Forfeiture. If the defendant has been discharged on his own recognizance, on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

(l) Bail in Traffic Offense Cases — Mandatory Appearance. When required to reasonably assure appearance in court, bail for a person arrested for the following offenses shall be the amount listed in this rule, unless the court for good cause recited in a written order sets a different amount, not to exceed $500. Forfeiture of bail shall not constitute a final disposition for the following offenses without a written order of the court showing the reasons. The order may be a simple docket entry. If the court allows forfeiture of bail, it may accept the bail as full payment including all statutory assessments.

1. Driving while intoxicated; physical control (RCW 46.61.502; 46.52.100; 46.61.504)	Bail $300
2. Driving while intoxicated—nonhighway vehicle or snowmobile (RCW 46.09.120(2); 46.10.090(2))	$250

14. Failure to obey police officer, flagman, or fire fighter (RCW 46.61.015)	$100
15. Failure to cooperate with or give information to police officer (RCW 46.61.020)	$100

16. Failure to stop and give information (RCW 46.61.022)	$100
17. Reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500)	$250
18. Racing (RCW 46.61.530)	$250
19. Leaving children unattended (RCW 46.61.685)	$250
20. Failure to respond or appear (RCW 46.64.020; see Laws of 1980, ch. 128, § 8)	$100
21. Habitual traffic offender (RCW 46.65.090)	$250
22. Unfair motor vehicle business practices (RCW 46.70.170)	$250
23. Unlawful operation of for hire vehicles (RCW 46.72.100)	$250
24. Motor vehicle wreckers (RCW 46.80.170)	$250
25. Driving training schools (RCW 46.82.390)	$250

(m) Bail in Traffic Offense Cases—Optional Appearance. Bail for a person arrested for the following traffic offenses shall be the amount listed in this rule, unless the court for good cause shown and recited in a written order sets a different amount, not to exceed $500. Forfeiture of bail may, in the discretion of the court, constitute a final disposition of the following offenses.

Bail + Assessments
68 + 20 (TSE) + 12 (CJT) = $100

Negligent Driving (RCW 46.61.525)

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

(a) Authority To Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by a magistrate upon request of a peace officer or prosecuting attorney.

(b) Property or Persons Which May Be Seized With a Warrant. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any (1) evidence of a crime; or (2) contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or (3) weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed; or (4) person for whose arrest there is probable cause, or who is unlawfully restrained.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A search warrant may be issued only if the court determines there is probable cause for the issuance of a warrant. There must be an affidavit or affidavits or sworn testimony establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. The sworn testimony may be an electronically recorded telephonic statement. The recording or a duplication of the recording shall be a part of the court record and shall be transcribed if requested by a party if there is a challenge to the validity of the warrant or if ordered by the court. The finding of probable cause may be based on evidence which is hearsay in whole or in part. If the court finds that probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, it shall issue a warrant or direct an individual whom it authorizes for such purpose to affix the court's signature to a warrant identifying the property or person and naming or describing the person or place or thing to be searched. The judge shall record a summary of any additional evidence on which he relies. The warrant shall be directed to any peace officer. It shall command the officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed 10 days, the person, place, or thing named for the property or person specified. It shall designate to whom it shall be returned. The warrant may be served at any time.

(d) Execution and Return With Inventory. The peace officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property is taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property is taken, or in the presence of at least one person other than the officer. The magistrate shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court for the return of the property on the ground that the property was illegally seized and that he is lawfully entitled to possession thereof. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned. If a motion for return of property is made or comes on for hearing after an indictment or information is filed in the court in which the motion is pending, it shall be treated as a motion to suppress.

RIGHT TO AND ASSIGNMENT OF COUNSEL

(a) Types of Proceedings. The right to counsel shall extend to all criminal proceedings for offenses punishable by loss of liberty regardless of their denomination as felonies, misdemeanors, or otherwise.

(b) Stage of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall accrue as soon as feasible after the defendant is taken into custody, when he appears before a committing magistrate, or when he is formally charged, whichever occurs earliest.

(2) Counsel shall be provided at every stage of the proceedings, including sentencing, appeal, and postconviction review. Counsel initially appointed shall continue to represent the defendant through all stages of the proceedings unless a new appointment is made because geographical considerations or other factors make it necessary.

(c) Explaining the Availability of a Lawyer.

(1) When a person is taken into custody he shall immediately be advised of his right to counsel. Such advice shall be made in words easily understood, and it shall be stated expressly that a person who is unable to pay a lawyer is entitled to have one provided without charge.

(2) At the earliest opportunity a person in custody who desires counsel shall be provided access to a telephone, the telephone number of the public defender or official responsible for assigning counsel, and any other means necessary to place him in communication with a lawyer.

(d) Assignment of Counsel.

(1) Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain one without causing substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel shall not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond.

(2) The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. The assignment of counsel may be conditioned upon part payment pursuant to an established method of collection.

(e) Withdrawal of Attorneys. Whenever a criminal cause has been set for trial, no attorney shall be allowed to withdraw from said cause, except upon written consent of the court for good and sufficient reason shown.

(f) Services Other Than Counsel. Counsel for a defendant who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense in his case may request them by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant. The courts, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, shall ratify such services after they have been obtained.

The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them upon the filing of a claim for compensation supported by an affidavit specifying the time expended and the services and expenses incurred on behalf of the defendant, and the compensation received in the same cases or for the same services from any other source.

3. ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

ARRAIGNMENT

Arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of reading the complaint to the defendant or stating to him the substance of the charge, and calling on him to plead thereto. He shall be given a copy of the complaint before he is called upon to plead.

RULE 3.02

ARRAIGNMENT—TIME TO DETERMINE PLEA AND TO CONSULT COUNSEL

The defendant shall not be required to plead to the complaint until he shall have had a reasonable time to examine the complaint. If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel and, if available, his right to trial by jury, enter this fact on the record and, if time is requested to consult counsel, grant the defendant a reasonable time to consult counsel and determine his plea.

RULE 3.03

ARRAIGNMENT—APPEARANCE BY COUNSEL ONLY

If the complaint is for a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel. Any court may adopt a local rule, not limited to misdemeanors, substantially as follows: attorneys at law may enter a plea of not guilty in writing on all (here insert type of case) cases. No further arraignment shall be required.

RULE 3.04

ARRAIGNMENT—PROCEDURES—EFFECT OF

(a) Upon arraignment, the court shall ask the defendant his true name and, if it has been incorrectly stated in the complaint, order the complaint corrected accordingly.

(b) The defendant may move to set aside the complaint on the grounds that the complaint:

- (1) Does not satisfy the requirements of these rules; or
- (2) Does not set forth facts constituting a crime; or
- (3) Contains matter which, if true, would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

(c) If the motion is well taken, the court shall order the appropriate amendments or corrections to be made, if permitted under rule 2.04; otherwise, the court shall order the complaint dismissed.

(d) If the motion of dismissal is sustained because the complaint contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged; if sustained for any other reason, the dismissal shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

(e) If the motion is overruled, or well taken, followed by appropriate amendments or corrections, the defendant shall enter his plea.

ARRAIGNMENT—PLEAS

(1) The defendant may plead not guilty, former conviction, dismissal under rule 3.04(d), or acquittal, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty, or guilty. The plea of guilty can be made only by the defendant in open court. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty and shall not accept such plea without first determining of record that the plea is made voluntarily and with understanding of the nature of the charge. If the defendant fails or refuses to plead to the complaint, or the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the court.

(2) The court may, at any time before judgment, permit any plea to be withdrawn and an appropriate plea substituted, if it deems such action necessary in the interest of justice.

(3) The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the complaint. All matters of fact may be given in evidence under it, except a former conviction or acquittal.

RULE 3.07

COMPLAINTS—WHEN TRIED

The defendant, charged by complaint, may be tried, with his consent, immediately following his plea to the complaint, or on the first available court day, unless in either case the trial be continued to a day certain for good cause.

RULE 3.08

TIME FOR TRIAL

(a) Responsibility of Court. It shall be the responsibility of the court to ensure a trial in accordance with this rule to each person charged with having committed a crime.

(b) Precedence Over Civil Cases. Criminal trials shall take precedence over civil trials.

(c) Time for Arraignment and Trial.

(1) Cases Filed in Court. If the defendant is detained in jail or subject to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 15 days after the date the complaint is filed in court. If the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 15 days after that appearance in court which next follows the filing of the complaint or citation. A defendant not released from jail pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of arraignment. A defendant released from jail whether or not subjected to conditions of release pending trial shall be brought to trial not later than 90 days after the date of arraignment.

(2) Reserved.

(3) Cases Filed Initially in Juvenile Court. If a complaint or citation is filed with the court after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction, and if at the time the complaint or citation is filed the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 15 days after the date the complaint or citation is filed. If a complaint or citation is filed with the court after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction, and if at the time the complaint or citation is filed the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the defendant shall be arraigned not later than 15 days after the appearance in court which next follows the filing of the complaint or citation. A defendant not released from jail pending trial in court shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of arraignment. A defendant released from jail whether or not subjected to conditions of release shall be brought to trial not later than 90 days after the date of arraignment.

(4) Untimely Arraignment. If a defendant is not arraigned within the time limits of this rule and an objection to the date of arraignment has been made as required by section (e) of this rule, the time for trial established in this section shall commence on the last day the defendant could properly have been arraigned.

(5) Rearraignment. If a defendant is required to be rearraigned on a charge that arises out of the same occurrence and has the same elements of proof as those upon which the defendant was previously arraigned, the time for trial established in this section shall commence on the date of the previous arraignment.

(6) Arraignment Defined. As used in rule 3.08, "arraignment" shall be defined as in JCrR Title 3.

(d) Extensions of Time for Trial. The following extensions of time limits apply notwithstanding the provisions of section (c):

(1) Revocation of Release. A defendant who has been released from jail pending trial, pursuant to an order imposing conditions of release, but whose release is then revoked by order of the court, shall be brought to trial within such a time period that the defendant spends no more than a total of 60 days in jail following the date of arraignment, and in any event within such a time period that the defendant is tried not later than a total of 90 days after the date of arraignment unless the time period is otherwise extended by this rule.

(2) Failure To Appear. When a defendant who has already been arraigned fails to appear for any trial or pretrial proceeding at which the defendant's presence is required, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date upon which the defendant is present in the county where the criminal charge is pending and the defendant's presence has been made known to the court on the record, if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days after such date if the defendant is not detained in jail whether or not the defendant is thereafter subjected to conditions of release.

(3) Mistrial and New Trial. If before verdict the court orders a mistrial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the oral or written order of the court, whichever first occurs, if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days after the order if the defendant is not detained in jail and whether or not the defendant is subjected to conditions of release. If after verdict the court orders a new trial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after entry of the oral or written order of the court if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail, or not later than 90 days after entry of such order if the defendant is not detained in jail whether or not the defendant is thereafter subjected to conditions of release.

(4) Retrial After Appellate Reversal. If an appellate court orders a new trial, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after that appearance in court which next follows receipt by the clerk of the court of the mandate or other written order, if after such appearance the defendant is detained in jail, or not later than 90 days after such appearance if the defendant is thereafter released whether or not subject to conditions of release.

(5) Change of Venue. If a change of venue has been granted, the case shall be transferred to the receiving court as soon as practicable but within 7 days and the defendant shall be brought to trial as prescribed by this rule or not later than 30 days following the date upon which the court to which the case is being transferred for trial receives the filing of the case, whichever is later. If, however, after a change of venue is attempted, the criminal calendar of the receiving county will prevent compliance with the time limits within this section, the trial shall commence on the earliest available date permitted.

(6) Disqualification. If the prosecuting attorney or judge becomes disqualified from participating in the case, the defendant shall be brought to trial as prescribed by this rule or not later than 30 days following the disqualification, whichever is later.

(7) Withdrawal of Guilty Plea. If a defendant has been permitted to withdraw a plea of guilty, the defendant shall be brought to trial not later than 60 days after the date of the written order allowing withdrawal of the guilty plea if the defendant is thereafter detained in jail or not later than 90 days if the defendant is thereafter released from jail, whether or not subjected to conditions of release.

(8) Five-Day Extensions. When a trial is not begun on the date set because of unavoidable or unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the court or the parties, the court, even if the time for trial has expired, may extend the time within which trial must be held for no more than 5 days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays unless the defendant will be substantially prejudiced in his or her defense. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the extension. If the nature of the unforeseen or unavoidable circumstance continues, the court may extend the time for trial in increments of not to exceed 5 days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays unless the defendant will be substantially prejudiced in his or her defense. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the extension.

(e) Objection to Arraignment Date—Waiver of Objection. A party who objects to the date of arraignment on the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must state the objection to the court at the time of the arraignment. If the court rules that the objection is correct, it shall establish and announce the proper date of arraignment pursuant to section (c) of this rule, and the time for trial set out in section (c) shall be deemed to have commenced on that date. Failure of a party to object as required shall be a waiver of the objection, and the date of arraignment shall be conclusively established as the date upon which the defendant was actually arraigned.

(f) Setting of Trial Date—Notice to Parties—Objection to Trial Date—Waiver.

(1) The court shall, within 15 days of the defendant's actual arraignment in court, set a date for trial which is within the time limits prescribed by this rule, and notify counsel for each party of the date set. If a party is not represented by counsel, the notice shall be given to the party, and may be mailed to the party's last known address. The notice shall set forth the proper date of the defendant's arraignment as established at the time of arraignment, and the date set for trial. A party who objects to the date set upon the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must, within 10 days after the notice is mailed or otherwise given, move that the court set a trial within those time limits. Failure of a party, for any reason, to make such a motion shall be a waiver of the objection that a trial commenced on such date, or on an extension of such date properly granted pursuant to this rule, is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule.

(2) When the court determines that the trial date should be reset for any reason, including but not limited to the applicability of a period of extension pursuant to section (d) or a period of exclusion pursuant to section (g), the court shall set a new date for trial which is within the time limits prescribed and notify each counsel or party of the date set as provided in subsection (f)(1). A party who objects to the date set on the ground that it is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule must, within 10 days after the notice is mailed or otherwise given, move that the court set a trial date within those time limits. Failure of a party, for any reason, to make such a motion shall be a waiver of the objection that a trial commenced on such a date, or on any extension of such date granted pursuant to subsection (d)(8), is not within the time limits prescribed by this rule.

(g) Excluded Periods. The following periods shall be excluded in computing the time for arraignment and the time for trial:

(1) All proceedings relating to the competency of a defendant to stand trial, terminating when the court enters an order finding the defendant to be competent;

(2) Preliminary proceedings and trial on another charge except as otherwise provided by rule 3.08(c)(5);

(3) Delay granted by the court pursuant to section (h).

(4) The time between the dismissal of a charge and the defendant's arraignment or re-arraignment in court following the refiling of the same charge;

(5) Delay resulting from a stay granted by an appellate court;

(6) The time during which a defendant is detained in jail or prison outside the county in which the defendant is charged or in a federal jail or prison and the time during which a defendant is subjected to conditions of release not imposed by a court of the State of Washington;

(7) All proceedings in juvenile court.

(h) Continuances. Continuances or other delays may be granted as follows:

(1) Upon written agreement of the parties which must be signed by the defendant or all defendants. The agreement shall be effective when approved by the court on the record or in writing.

(2) On motion of the State, the court or a party, the court may continue the case when required in the administration of justice and the defendant will not be substantially prejudiced in the presentation of his or her defense. The motion must be filed on or before the date set for trial or the last day of any continuance or extension granted pursuant to this rule. The court must state on the record or in writing the reasons for the continuance.

(i) Dismissal With Prejudice. A criminal charge not brought to trial within the time period provided by this rule shall be dismissed with prejudice.

RULE 3.10

~~WITNESSES—PROCESS—SUBPOENA~~

(a) Before trial, upon request of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the court the names of the witnesses he intends to call at the trial and shall provide a copy of the list for the defendant or his counsel.

(b) Both the prosecution and the defendant are entitled to subpoena such witnesses as are necessary, such process to be issued by the judge or the clerk of the court and directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which such witness may be.

(c) When so required by the court, the applicant for subpoena, either in person or by counsel, shall show to the satisfaction of the court the materiality of the testimony which is expected to be obtained from such witness. See RPPP 101.16W.

(d) The procedure for compelling attendance of witnesses shall be as established in RCW 5.56; RCW 10-.04.060, 10.16.010, .140, .145, .150, .160, .190; RCW 12.16.010 and .040.

RULE 3.11

~~WITNESSES—CONTINUED OBLIGATION TO ATTEND—DISMISSAL~~

When a witness has been subpoenaed he shall remain in attendance until the case is disposed of, unless he be excused or dismissed as provided in RPPP 101.12W, Witnesses in Criminal Cases; and he shall be liable for contempt for any default or failure to appear.

RULE 3.12

~~SUBPOENA DUCES TECUM—MOTION TO QUASH—
PRODUCTION AND INSPECTION~~

(a) A subpoena duces tecum may be issued by the court upon application of either party, commanding the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court, on motion made promptly, may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be illegal, unreasonable or oppressive.

(b) The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may, upon their production, permit the books, papers, documents or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys.

RULE 3.13

~~PROCESS—CRIMINAL~~

The court may issue criminal process to any person anywhere in the state.

4. TRIAL

CONDUCT OF TRIAL

All judicial proceedings and trials shall be held in open court, and shall be conducted in accordance with these rules. Questions pertaining to the conduct of the trial and not covered by these rules or appropriate statutes shall be determined by the trial judge acting within his sound discretion.

RULE 4.02

PROCEDURE UPON A PLEA OF GUILTY

If the defendant pleads guilty, the judge may, if he wishes or if he has any doubts as to the plea, examine a witness or witnesses concerning the circumstances of the charge. If he is satisfied, either with or without the examination of witnesses, that the defendant is guilty, the judge shall assess the punishment and enter judgment accordingly. If, after an examination of a witness or witnesses, he is not satisfied as to the guilt of the defendant, he may, in his discretion, refuse to accept the plea and enter a plea of not guilty.

RULE 4.03

PROCEDURE ON A PLEA OF NOT GUILTY, OR OF FORMER ACQUITTAL OR CONVICTION, OR BOTH

The proceedings upon the trial of criminal and traffic offenses with respect to a plea of not guilty, or, of former acquittal or conviction, or both, in all courts of limited jurisdiction shall be the same as those which apply to the trial of criminal cases in superior court except as altered by these rules or by statute.

RULE 4.04

TRIAL TOGETHER OF COMPLAINTS

The court may order two or more complaints to be tried together if the offenses, and the defendants if there is more than one, could have been joined in a single complaint. The procedure shall be the same as if the prosecution were under a single complaint.

RULE 4.05

RELIEF FROM PREJUDICIAL JOINDER

If it appears that a defendant or the State is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or of defendants in a complaint by such joinder for trial together, the court may order a separate trial of counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide whatever other relief justice requires.

RULE 4.06

PRESENCE OF THE DEFENDANT

The defendant shall be present during the trial. A person being prosecuted for an offense punishable only by a fine may with the approval of the court be absent if with the approval of the court some responsible person undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant.

RULE 4.07

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(a) Trial by Jury—Waiver. When a trial by jury is authorized by the constitution, statutes or decisions of the Supreme Court, either the State or the defendant may demand a jury, which shall consist of six or less citizens of the state, who shall be impaneled and sworn as required by law. Demand for jury trial must be made at the time the defendant's plea is entered; otherwise, it shall be deemed waived, unless the court rules to the contrary.

(b) Trial by Jury—Selection. A jury shall be selected as follows: the judge shall write in a panel the names of 18 persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, or his attorney, must strike one name, the prosecuting attorney one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid the judge shall strike the name in behalf of such party.

(c) Trial by the Court. Unless the court refuses to assent, the parties may waive the right to trial by jury either explicitly or by failing to demand a jury trial in a timely manner, and trial shall be by the court. In trials for violation of municipal ordinances, except as indicated in section (a), the trial shall be by the court without a jury. Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

(d) Issues of Law. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of a trial. The judge may, with the consent of all parties, answer questions asked by jurors pertaining to the law applicable to the case.

(e) Issues of Fact — Judge May Charge Jury as to Law. Issues of fact shall be tried by the jury in jury cases and by the judge in nonjury cases. In cases tried by a jury, the judge shall not comment on the evidence; however, the court shall instruct the jury either orally or in writing as to the law governing the case.

RULE 4.08

ORDER OF TRIAL

(a) The order of trial in jury cases shall be as follows:

(1) Where trial by jury is requested, and authorized, a qualified jury, selected as provided by law, shall be sworn well and truly to try the case.

(2) Unless both parties waive opening statements, the prosecutor shall make the opening statement outlining the evidence which will be offered by the prosecution, and the defendant or his counsel may immediately thereafter make the opening statement for the defendant or such opening statement may be reserved until after the conclusion of the prosecution's case in chief.

(3) The prosecutor shall submit evidence in support of the prosecution.

(4) Defendant's attorney may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence at the close of the prosecution's case in chief and, if sustained, the case shall be dismissed; otherwise, the defendant may then offer evidence in defense.

(5) If the defendant's counsel shall have reserved his opening statement until the close of the prosecution's case in chief, he may then state the case for the defense; if such statement has already been made, he may then offer evidence in support thereof or he may, by proper motion, challenge the sufficiency of the prosecution's case in chief to sustain a conviction.

(6) The parties may thereafter respectively offer testimony in rebuttal only unless the court, for good cause shown or believing that the interests of justice will be best served thereby, permits the parties to offer evidence upon their original cases.

(7) If the jury is instructed, the instructions shall be given prior to argument by counsel.

(8) Unless both parties waive argument and agree that the cause be decided by the court or submitted to the jury without argument, the prosecutor shall make the opening argument and the counsel for the defendant may follow and the prosecutor may conclude the argument. The length of time of all arguments shall be fixed by the court in its discretion and announced before the arguments are commenced. Equal time shall be allowed each party.

(b) The order of trial in nonjury cases shall be the same as in section (a) except as to such portions as are not applicable to nonjury cases.

EVIDENCE

(a) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence are applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(b) Confessions. With respect to confessions, in jury cases, the procedure set forth in CrR 3.5 shall apply, upon demand of the defendant.

(c) Test Reports by Experts.

(1) Generally. The official written report of an expert witness which contains the results of any test of a substance or object which are relevant to an issue in a trial shall be admitted in evidence without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the report if the report bears the following certification:

TEST CERTIFICATION

The undersigned certifies under penalty of perjury that:

1. He performed the test on the (substance) (object) in question,
2. The person from whom he received the (substance) (object) in question is:

3. The document on which this certificate appears or to which it is attached is a true and complete copy of my official report, and

4. Such document is a report of the results of a test which report and test were made by the undersigned who has the following qualifications and experience:

Signature

Title

Business Address and Phone

(2) Exclusion of Test Reports. The court shall exclude test reports otherwise admissible under section (c) if:

(i) a copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant or the defendant's lawyer at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(ii) in the case of an unrepresented defendant, a copy of this rule in addition to a copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(iii) at least 7 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, the defendant has delivered or mailed a written demand upon the prosecutor to produce the expert witness at the trial.

(d) Breathalyzer Maintenance Certificates.

(1) Admission of Certificate. In the absence of a request to produce a Breathalyzer maintenance operator or a BAC Verifier Data Master infrared instrument operator made at least 7 days prior to trial or such lesser time as the court deems proper, certificates in the following forms are admissible in any court proceeding held pursuant to RCW 46.61.506 for the purpose of determining whether a person was operating or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors:

BREATHALYZER MAINTENANCE AND CHEMICAL CERTIFICATION

I, _____, do certify under penalty of perjury as follows:
I am a maintenance operator possessing a valid permit or certificate issued to me by the state toxicologist by virtue of his rules, WAC 448, chapter 12, and RCW 46.61.506.

On _____ (date) at _____ (time) I examined, tested and calibrated a Breathalyzer machine with Serial No. _____ using a sealed ampule of chemicals with Control No. _____ according to the methods established and approved by the state toxicologist.

I further certify that said machine was, on that date, in proper working order, and that the chemicals in ampules with the above control number are suitable for use in this machine.

Breathalyzer Maintenance Operator
Dated _____

BAC VERIFIER DATA MASTER CERTIFICATION

I, _____, do certify under penalty of perjury as follows:
I am employed by the Washington State Patrol Crime Laboratory possessing a valid permit issued to me by the state toxicologist by virtue of his rule, WAC 448, chapter 12, and RCW 46.61.506.

On _____ (date) at _____ (time) I examined, tested and verified the calibration of a BAC Verifier Data Master instrument with Serial No. _____ according to the methods established and approved by the state toxicologist.

I further certify that said instrument was, on that date, in proper working order.

Signature
Dated _____

(2) Continuance. The court at the time of trial shall hear testimony concerning the alleged offense and, if necessary, may continue the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the maintenance operator's presence for testimony concerning the working order of the Breathalyzer machine and his certification thereof. If, at the time the maintenance operator is produced, the prosecutor's Breathalyzer evidence is insufficient, a motion to suppress the results of such tests shall be granted.

(e) BAC Verifier Certificates.

(1) Admission of Certificate. Certificates in the following form are admissible in any court proceeding in lieu of a state expert witness held pursuant to RCW 46.61.506 for the purpose of determining whether a person was operating or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors:

I, _____, do certify under penalty of perjury as follows:
I am employed by the Washington State Patrol Crime Laboratory possessing a valid permit issued to me by the state toxicologist by virtue of his rule, WAC 448, chapter 12, and RCW 46.61.506.

On _____ (date) at _____ (time) I examined, tested and verified the calibration of a BAC Verifier Data Master instrument with Serial No. _____ according to the methods established and approved by the state toxicologist.

I further certify that said instrument was, on that date, in proper working order.

Dated _____ Signature _____

(2) Continuance. The court at the time of trial shall hear testimony concerning the alleged offense and, if necessary, may continue the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining evidence concerning the working order of the BAC Verifier Data Master instrument and the certification thereof. If the evidence provided is insufficient, a motion to suppress the results of such tests shall be granted.

RULE 4.10

AMENDMENTS TO COMPLAINT—CONTINUANCE

The court may permit a complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall not be granted upon such amendment unless the defendant shall satisfy the court that the amendment has made it necessary for him to have additional time in which to prepare his defense.

RULE 4.11

MOTION FOR JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL

Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of dismissal are substituted in their place. The court either on motion of a defendant, or on its own motion, shall order entry of judgment of dismissal of one or more offenses charged by complaint if, after the evidence on either side is closed, the court concludes as a matter of law that such evidence is not sufficient to sustain a judgment of conviction of such offense or offenses. If a defendant's motion for judgment of dismissal at the close of the prosecution's case in chief is not granted, the defendant may offer evidence without having reserved the right. If defendant's motion is granted, the State shall have the right to appeal from the court's ruling.

5. VERDICT, JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

TRIAL BY THE COURT

Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

RULE 5.02

VERDICT OF JURY

(a) When all the members of the jury have agreed upon a verdict of guilty or not guilty, it must be signed by the foreman and returned by the jury to the judge in open court.

(b) When a verdict is returned and before it is recorded, the jury shall be polled at the request of any party or upon the court's own motion. If at the conclusion of the poll all of the jurors do not concur, the jury may be directed to retire for further deliberations or may be discharged by the court.

RULE 5.03

BAIL, SENTENCE AND JUDGMENT

(a) Bail. Pending sentence, the court may commit the defendant or continue or alter the bail.

(b) Sentence. Before imposing sentence, the court shall afford the defendant, and the prosecution, an opportunity to make a statement and to present information in extenuation, mitigation, or aggravation of punishment. Upon a finding of guilty, in courts established under RCW 3.30 through 3.74, the sentence shall be determined and imposed by the court. In other courts of limited jurisdiction, unless the case is tried without a jury, the jury imposes the sentence.

(c) Judgment. The judgment of conviction shall set forth the plea, the verdict or findings, and the adjudication and sentence. If the defendant is found not guilty or for any other reason is entitled to be discharged, the judgment shall be entered accordingly.

RULE 5.04

JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE—PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT—WARRANT FOR ARREST

The defendant must be personally present when sentence and judgment are pronounced unless the court, upon request, consents to the absence of the defendant. If the defendant is in custody, he must be brought before the court for judgment and sentence; if he is not present when his personal attendance is necessary, the court may order the issuance of a warrant for his arrest.

RULE 5.05

JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE—DUTY OF JUDGE AND CLERK

Whenever a judgment upon a conviction shall be rendered in any court, the judge or clerk of such court shall enter such judgment on the court record, stating briefly the offense for which such conviction shall have been had; but the omission of this duty, either by the judge or clerk, shall not affect or impair the validity of the judgment.

RULE 5.06

JUDGMENT SET ASIDE

The court may for cause, on its own initiative, or on motion of the defendant set aside a judgment of conviction and order a new trial at any time before the time for appeal has expired and before an appeal has been taken.

6. APPEALS

APPEALS—PERFECTING OF

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Venue. Appeals shall be to the superior court of the county in which the court of limited jurisdiction is located. The appeal from a justice court located in a joint justice court district shall be made to the superior court of the county where the offense was alleged to have been committed.

(c) Notice of Appeal. The appeal shall be taken by filing in the court of limited jurisdiction a written notice of appeal containing the address of the appellant and appellant's attorney within 14 days after entry of judgment. If a motion for a new trial or for arrest of judgment has been timely made, such notice and proof of service may be filed within 14 days after entry of the order denying the motion. Filing the notice of appeal is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal shall also, within the same 14 days, serve a copy of the notice of appeal upon the lawyer for the party in whose favor the judgment was entered and file an acknowledgment or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction.

(d) The Record. After a notice of appeal is filed, the justice court shall immediately, and in no event later than 14 days thereafter, file with the clerk of the superior court in which the appeal is pending a transcript duly certified by such justice court, furnished without charge, containing a copy of all written pleadings and docket entries, and including exhibits introduced into evidence in the trial before the justice court. A cash bail or bail bond filed in the justice court shall at the same time be transferred to the superior court, there to be held pending disposition of the appeal. Evidence not offered in trial in the superior court shall be returned to the justice court.

(e) Notice of Filing. The justice court shall give prompt notice of the filing or mailing to the respondent and appellant, giving such particulars as date of filing or mailing and superior court file number, if known. Where the justice court is not located at the county courthouse, such filing may be made by certified mail, in which case the justice court shall advise appellant and respondent of the date of mailing.

(f) Noting for Trial. Within 21 days after the transcript is filed, the superior court shall set a trial date and notify the parties of the date.

RULE 6.02

IMPOSITION OF SENTENCE PENDING APPEAL

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Stay of Sentence. All sentences shall be stayed if an appeal is taken and the defendant posts cash bail or his bond to the State which shall be deposited with the clerk of the court, in such reasonable sum with sureties as the lower court judge may require, upon the following conditions: that he will diligently prosecute the appeal, and will appear at the court appealed to and comply with any sentence of the superior court, and will, if the appeal is dismissed for any reason, comply with the sentence of the lower court.

(c) Imposition of Sentence. If the appellant fails to provide security, sentence imposed shall be executed.

APPEAL—PROSECUTION THEREOF

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction. The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Failure To Certify Transcript. If the lower court fails, neglects or refuses to make and certify the transcript within the time allowed, the appellant may make application to the superior court not later than 21 days after the filing of the notice of appeal and the superior court shall issue an order to make and certify the transcript.

(c) Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. Upon dismissal of the appeal for failure of appellant to proceed diligently with the appeal as herein required, or for any other cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be enforced by the judge thereof. If, at the time of such dismissal, cash deposit or appeal bond as hereinafter required has been furnished and is in the custody of the superior court, the same shall be returned to the lower court. The lower court shall have power to forfeit the cash bail or appeal bond and issue execution thereon for breach of any condition under which it is furnished.

(d) Dismissal on Clerk's Motion. In all justice court appeals wherein there has been no action of record during the 90 days just past, the clerk of the superior court shall mail notice to the appellant and counsel at the addresses contained in the notice of appeal that such appeal will be dismissed by the court for want of prosecution unless within 30 days following such mailing, action of record is made for an application in writing to the court and good cause shown why it should be continued as a pending case. If the appeal is dismissed, the clerk of the court will proceed as per section (c) above.

8. DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE, CLERICAL MISTAKES, CONDUCT OF COURT

JUDGE, DISQUALIFICATION

(a) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party or his attorney of record files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed on behalf of the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

(b) Affidavit of Prejudice. All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than 10 days after the defendant's plea is entered, or the case is set for trial whichever should occur first, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the 10-day period. In multiple judge courts, or where a pro tempore or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10-day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge.

RULE 8.02

JUDGE, DISQUALIFICATION—ANOTHER JUDGE

Whenever a justice of the peace is disqualified, said judge shall forthwith make an order transferring and removing the case to another judge authorized by law to hear such case. RCW 3.50.280 shall apply to municipal courts.

RULE 8.03

CLERICAL MISTAKES

Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders or other parts of the record and errors in the record arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time and after such notice, if any, as the court may order. If an appeal has been taken, such mistakes may be so corrected until the record has been filed in the appellate court, and thereafter while the appeal is pending may be so corrected with the leave of the appellate court.

RULE 8.04

RULES OF COURT

If no procedure is specifically prescribed by rule, the court may proceed in any lawful manner not inconsistent with these rules, or with any applicable statute.

10. MISCELLANEOUS

TIME—RULES FOR COMPUTING

(a) In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these rules, by order of court or by any applicable law, the day of the act, event or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be counted or included, and the last day of the prescribed or allowed period so computed is to be counted and included, unless such last day be a Sunday or a legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Sunday nor a legal holiday. When the allowed period is less than 7 days, intermediate Sundays and legal holidays, if any, shall be excluded in the computation.

(b) Whenever by these rules or by a notice given thereunder or by order of court an act is required or allowed to be done at or within a specified time, the court, for good cause shown, may at any time in its discretion: (1) with or without motion or notice order the period enlarged if application therefor is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed or as extended by a previous order; or (2) upon motion and notice permit the act to be done after the expiration of the specified period where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect; but the court may not enlarge the period for taking an appeal as provided for in these rules.

RULE 10.02

MOTIONS AND APPLICATIONS—NOTICE—SERVICE

Reasonable notice shall be given to the opposing party or attorney of record of all motions and applications other than those ex parte. Where a motion or application is supported by an affidavit, a copy of such affidavit shall be served with the motion or application.

RULE 10.03

TITLE OF RULES

These rules may be known and cited as Justice Court Criminal Rules and they may be referred to as JCrR.

REPORTING TRAFFIC OFFENSES

The court shall within 10 days of bail forfeiture or entry of judgment of guilty of a traffic offense forward to the Department of Licensing a copy of the citation and notice to appear or complaint and an abstract of the court's order.

TITLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

RULE 1.1

SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

(a) Scope of Rules. These rules govern the procedure in courts of limited jurisdiction for all cases involving "traffic infractions." Traffic infractions are violations of the traffic laws defined by RCW 46.63.

(b) Purpose. These rules shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every traffic case.

(c) Effect of Other Law. These rules supersede all conflicting rules and statutes covering procedure for traffic infractions unless a rule indicates a statute or rule controls. Provisions of statute or rule not inconsistent with these rules shall remain in effect.

RULE 1.2

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of these rules:

(a) Traffic Case. "Traffic case" means a proceeding initiated pursuant to RCW 46.63.

(b) Notice of Traffic Infraction. "Notice of traffic infraction" means a document initiating a traffic case when issued and filed pursuant to RCW 46.63 and these rules.

(c) Defendant. "Defendant" means a person named in a notice of traffic infraction.

(d) Court. "Court" means a court of limited jurisdiction organized pursuant to RCW Title 3, RCW Title 35, or RCW Title 35A.

(e) Judgment. "Judgment" means any final decision in a traffic case, including, but not limited to, a finding entered after a hearing governed by these rules or after payment of a monetary penalty in lieu of a hearing.

(f) Plaintiff. "Plaintiff" means the governmental unit issuing the notice of traffic infraction, including, but not limited to, the state, a county, or a municipality.

(g) Department. "Department" means the Washington State Department of Licensing.

(h) Lawyer. "Lawyer" means any person authorized by Supreme Court rule to practice law.

(i) Statute. "Statute" means any state statute, local or county ordinance, resolution, or regulation, or agency regulation.

RULE 1.3

LOCAL COURT RULES

(a) Adoption. Each court may adopt special traffic rules not inconsistent with these general rules.

(b) Format. The numbering system and format of local rules shall conform to these rules.

(c) Filing. Local rules become effective only after they are filed with the Administrator for the Courts in accordance with GR 7.

TITLE 2

PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

NOTICE OF TRAFFIC INFRACTION

(a) Form Prescribed by Administrator for the Courts. Traffic cases shall be filed on a form entitled "Notice of Traffic Infraction" prescribed by the Administrator for the Courts; except that the form used to file cases alleging the commission of a parking, standing or stopping infraction shall be approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Contents. The notice of traffic infraction shall contain the following information on the copy given to the defendant, except the information required by subsections (2) and (6) is not required on a notice of infraction alleging the commission of a parking, standing, or stopping infraction:

(1) The name, address, and phone number of the court where the notice of infraction is to be filed;

(2) The name, address, date of birth, sex, physical characteristics, and operator's license number of the defendant;

(3) The vehicle make, year, model, style, license number, and state in which licensed;

(4) The infraction which the defendant is alleged to have committed and the accompanying statutory citation or ordinance number, the date, time, and place the traffic infraction occurred, the date the notice of traffic infraction was issued, and the name and number of the citing officer;

(5) A statement that the defendant must respond to the notice of traffic infraction within 7 days of issuance;

(6) A space for the defendant to sign a promise to respond to the notice of infraction within the time required;

(7) A space for entry of the monetary penalty which respondent may pay in lieu of appearing in court;

(8) A statement that a mailed response must be mailed not later than midnight on the day the response is due;

(9) The statements required by RCW 46.63.060; and

(10) Any additional information determined necessary by the Administrator for the Courts.

RULE 2.2

INITIATION OF TRAFFIC CASES

(a) Generally. A traffic case is initiated by the issuance, service, and filing of a notice of traffic infraction in accordance with this rule.

(b) Only Law Enforcement Officer May Issue. Only a law enforcement officer may issue a notice of traffic infraction.

(c) Service of Notice. A notice of traffic infraction may be served either by:

(1) The law enforcement officer serving the notice of traffic infraction on the person named in the notice of traffic infraction at the time of issuance;

(2) The law enforcement officer affixing to a vehicle in a conspicuous place the notice of traffic infraction if it alleges the violation of a parking, standing, or stopping statute; or

(3) The law enforcement officer filing the notice of traffic infraction with the court, in which case the court shall have the notice served either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, on the person named in the notice of traffic infraction at his address. If a notice of traffic infraction served by mail is returned to the court as undeliverable, the court shall issue a summons.

(d) Filing of Notice. When a notice of traffic infraction has been issued, the notice shall be filed with a court having jurisdiction over the traffic infraction or with a violations bureau subject to such court's supervision. The notice must be filed within 48 hours after issuance of the notice, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A notice of traffic infraction not filed within the time limits of this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

VENUE

A traffic case shall be brought in the justice court district or the municipality where the traffic infraction occurred. If a notice of infraction is filed in a court which is not the proper venue, the notice shall be dismissed without prejudice on motion of either party.

RULE 2.4

RESPONSE TO NOTICE

(a) Generally. A person who has been served with a notice of traffic infraction must respond to the notice within 7 days of the date the notice is personally served or, if the notice is served by mail, within 10 days of the date the notice is mailed.

(b) Three Alternatives. A person may respond to a notice of traffic infraction by:

(1) Paying the amount of the monetary penalty in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(2), in which case the court shall enter a judgment that the defendant has committed the traffic infraction;

(2) Contesting the determination that a traffic infraction occurred by requesting a hearing in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(3); or

(3) Requesting a hearing to explain mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the offense in accordance with RCW 46.63.070(4).

(c) Method of Response. A person may respond to a notice of traffic infraction either personally or by mail. If the response is mailed, it must be mailed not later than midnight of the day the response is due.

RULE 2.5

FAILURE TO RESPOND

If the defendant fails to respond to a notice of traffic infraction, the court shall enter an order finding that the defendant has committed the infraction, shall assess any monetary penalties provided for by law, and shall notify the Department of the defendant's failure to respond in accordance with RCW 46.20.270.

RULE 2.6

SCHEDULING OF HEARINGS

(a) Contested Hearings.

(1) Upon receipt of a response submitted pursuant to rule 2.4(b)(2), the court shall schedule a hearing to determine whether the defendant committed the infraction. The hearing shall be scheduled for not less than 7 days nor more than 90 days from the date of written notice of the hearing date, unless otherwise agreed by the defendant in writing.

(2) The court shall send the defendant written notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing within 14 days of the receipt of the request for a hearing. The notice of the hearing shall also include statements advising the defendant of his rights at the hearing, how the defendant may request that witnesses be subpoenaed, and that failure to appear is a crime for which the defendant may be arrested.

(3) The court may schedule the hearing on a contested traffic infraction for the same time as the hearing on another traffic infraction alleged to have been committed by the defendant. The court may schedule the hearing on a contested traffic infraction for the same time as the trial on a misdemeanor arising out of the same occurrence as the traffic infraction.

(b) Mitigation Hearings.

(1) Upon receipt of a response submitted pursuant to rule 2.4(b)(3) the court shall schedule a hearing to determine whether there were mitigating circumstances surrounding the commission of the infraction. The hearing shall be scheduled for not less than 7 days nor more than 90 days from the date of written notice of the hearing date, unless otherwise agreed by the defendant in writing.

(2) The court shall send the defendant written notice of the time, place, and date of the hearing within 14 days of the request for a hearing. The notice shall also include statements advising the defendant of his rights at the hearing and stating that failure to appear is a crime for which the defendant may be arrested.

(3) The court may schedule the mitigation hearing for the same time as the mitigation hearing on another traffic infraction alleged to have been committed by the defendant.

TITLE 3

PROCEDURE AT HEARINGS

RULE 3.1

CONTESTED HEARINGS—PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS

(a) Subpoena. The defendant and the plaintiff may subpoena witnesses necessary for the presentation of their respective cases. The subpoena may be issued by a judge, court commissioner, or clerk of the court or by a party's lawyer. If a party's lawyer issues a subpoena, a copy shall be filed with the court. A subpoena may be directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which the witness may be or it may be served as provided in CR 45(c). If the subpoena is for a witness outside the county, the judge must approve of the subpoena.

(b) Witness List. The plaintiff's lawyer, upon request of the defendant 14 days prior to a contested hearing, shall at least 7 days prior to the hearing provide the defendant or defendant's lawyer with a list of the witnesses the plaintiff intends to call at the hearing.

(c) Amendment of Notice. The court may permit a notice of traffic infraction to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different infraction is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall be granted if the defendant satisfies the court that the additional time is needed to defend against the amended notice of infraction.

(d) Sufficiency. No notice of infraction shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific infraction which the defendant is alleged to have committed, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant.

RULE 3.2

FAILURE TO APPEAR

(a) Entry of Judgment. If the defendant fails to appear at a requested hearing the court shall enter judgment against the defendant finding that the defendant has committed the traffic infraction and assessing against the defendant any monetary penalties provided by law. A judgment upon a failure to appear shall not be entered if it appears to the court from the papers on file that the traffic case was brought in an improper court.

(b) Setting Aside Judgment Upon Failure To Appear. For good cause shown and upon terms the court deems just, the court may set aside a judgment entered upon a failure to appear in accordance with JCR 60(b). A motion to set aside the judgment must be made within 90 days after entry of the judgment.

RULE 3.3

PROCEDURE AT CONTESTED HEARING

(a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing for contesting the notice of traffic infraction in accordance with RCW 46.63.090.

(b) Plaintiff Represented by Lawyer. At a contested hearing, the plaintiff shall be represented by a lawyer representative of the prosecuting attorney or of the city attorney when prescribed by local court rule.

(c) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence shall apply to contested hearings.

(d) Factual Determination. The court shall determine whether the plaintiff has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant committed the traffic infraction. If the court finds the infraction was committed, it shall enter an appropriate order on its records. If the court finds the infraction was not committed, it shall enter an order dismissing the case.

(e) Disposition. If the court determines that the traffic infraction has been committed, it may assess a monetary penalty against the defendant. The monetary penalty assessed may not exceed the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year.

RULE 3.4

HEARING ON MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES

(a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing concerning mitigating circumstances in accordance with RCW 46.63.100.

(b) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold an informal hearing which shall not be governed by the Rules of Evidence. The plaintiff and the defendant may each be represented by a lawyer. The defendant may present witnesses, but they may not be compelled to attend.

(c) Disposition. The court shall determine whether the defendant's explanation of the events justifies reduction of the monetary penalty. The court shall enter an order finding the defendant committed the infraction and may assess a monetary penalty. The court may not impose a penalty in excess of the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year.

TITLE 4

DISPOSITION PROCEDURES

RULE 4.1

NOTIFICATION TO DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING

(a) Generally. Within 10 days of entry of judgment that the infraction was committed the court shall forward to the Department of Licensing a copy of the notice of traffic infraction and an abstract of the court's order.

(b) Parking, Standing, Stopping, or Pedestrian Infractions. The court shall not notify the Department of a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction.

(c) Notice to Department When Failure To Appear Set Aside. If a judgment for a failure to appear has been set aside, the Department shall be notified that it has been set aside and of the final disposition of the infraction within 10 days after judgment has been rendered.

RULE 4.2

FAILURE TO PAY OR COMPLETE COMMUNITY SERVICE

(a) Failure To Pay or Complete Community Service. Unless the infraction is a parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infraction, the court shall notify the Department within 10 days:

(1) If the defendant fails to pay the monetary penalty assessed after a hearing to contest the traffic infraction or after a hearing to explain mitigating circumstances, or

(2) If the defendant fails to meet a time payment authorized by the court or fails to complete community service approved by the court.

(b) Notice to Department. The notice to the Department shall be in the form prescribed by the Department.

(c) Removal of the Failure To Pay or Complete Community Service. When the defendant has paid all monetary penalties owing, including completion of community service, the court shall notify the Department within 10 days of payment or of completion of community service on a form prescribed by the Department.

TITLE 5

APPEALS

WHAT ORDERS MAY BE APPEALED

A defendant may appeal a judgment entered after a contested hearing finding that the defendant has committed the infraction. The plaintiff may appeal a decision which in effect abates, discontinues, or determines the case other than by a judgment that the defendant has not committed a traffic infraction. No other orders or judgments are appealable by either party.

RULE 5.2

PROCEDURE TO APPEAL

The Justice Court Civil Rules govern the procedure to appeal a traffic case. The time for appeal under JCR 73 begins to run from the date the court makes its disposition under rule 3.3(e).

TITLE 6

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

TIME

Time shall be computed or enlarged as provided in CR 6, except that the time in which to respond to the notice of traffic infraction under rule 2.4 and the time in which to file an appeal under JCR 73 may not be enlarged.

RULE 6.2

MONETARY PENALTY SCHEDULE

(a) Effect of Schedule. The penalty for any infraction listed in this rule may not be changed by local court rule. The court may impose on a defendant a lesser penalty in an individual case.

(b) Unscheduled Infractions. The penalty for any infraction not listed in this rule shall be $25, not including statutory assessments. A court may, by local court rule, provide for a different penalty.

(c) Infractions Not Covered. This schedule does not apply to penalties for parking, standing, stopping, or pedestrian infractions established by municipal or county statute. Penalties for those infractions are established by statute or local court rule, but shall be consistent with the philosophy of these rules.

(d) Penalty Schedule. The following infractions shall have the penalty listed, not including statutory assessments.

TITLE AND CITATION OF RULES

These rules may be known and cited as Justice Court Traffic Infraction Rules. JTIR is the official abbreviation.

EFFECTIVE DATE

These rules shall apply to all traffic cases in which the traffic infraction occurred on or after January 1, 1981.

RULES SUPERSEDED

The Traffic Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction originally effective July 1, 1963, are superseded by these rules, except that the Traffic Rules for Courts of Limited Jurisdiction shall be applicable to any traffic offense occurring before January 1, 1981.

SUPPLEMENTAL COURT OF APPEALS
ADMINISTRATIVE RULE (SCAR)

RULE 1

PRESIDING CHIEF JUDGE—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

(a) Executive Committee. There is hereby created an executive committee of the Court of Appeals. It shall be made up of the Presiding Chief Judge, as chairman, and the remaining Chief Judges of the divisions of the court and the Acting Chief Judge of Division One.

(b) Duties of the Executive Committee. The executive committee shall be in general charge of administering the affairs of the Court of Appeals. Its duties shall include the following:

- (1) Coordinating the judicial work of the court to the end that its case load can be handled expeditiously;
- (2) Administering the budget of the court;
- (3) Recommending to and implementing policies determined by the Court of Appeals as a whole;
- (4) Appointing special committees for the court as necessary;
- (5) Appointing representatives of the court to serve on judicially related committees or task forces which may require a Court of Appeals representative;
- (6) Counseling and directing the Presiding Chief Judge on matters of liaison with the organizations set forth below;
- (7) Such other duties as the Court of Appeals as a whole may from time to time direct;
- (8) If the Presiding Chief Judge is not serving as the Chief Judge of a division or the Acting Chief Judge of Division One, the Presiding Chief Judge shall not have a vote on the executive committee.

(c) Selection of Presiding Chief Judge. Prior to the end of each calendar year, the Court of Appeals shall meet en banc for the purpose of selecting a Presiding Chief Judge for the Court of Appeals.

(1) Those eligible for the position of Presiding Chief Judge shall be the Chief Judges of each of the divisions of the Court of Appeals and the Acting Chief Judge of Division One, and any other judge who has served as a Chief Judge but not as the Presiding Chief Judge.

(2) The position of Presiding Chief Judge shall be selected annually from among the divisions of the Court of Appeals with regard for the necessity of dividing responsibility among the three divisions.

(3) The term of the Presiding Chief Judge shall be for 2 calendar years.

(d) Duties of the Presiding Chief Judge. The duties of the Presiding Chief Judge shall be those duties delegated to him by the Court of Appeals as a whole or by the executive committee:

(1) Act as a liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with all other levels of the judicial system, namely, the Supreme Court, the superior courts, the courts of limited jurisdiction, and the federal courts;

(2) Act as liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with the Washington State Bar Association;

(3) Act as liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with the Washington State Administrator for the Courts;

(4) Act as liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with the press and the public;

(5) Act as liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with the legislative branch of government;

(6) Act as liaison and spokesman for the Court of Appeals with the executive branch of government;

(7) Perform such other duties as the executive committee shall from time to time direct.

(e) Meetings and Reports. The Presiding Chief Judge shall call quarterly meetings of the Court of Appeals as a whole. Other meetings shall be as directed by the executive committee. At meetings, the Presiding Chief Judge will:

- (1) Preside;
- (2) Prepare an agenda and, if possible, forward the proposed agenda to all members of the Court of Appeals in advance of each meeting;
- (3) Report to the Court of Appeals with reference to his liaison activities with the organizations set forth above;
- (4) Arrange for the meeting place;
- (5) Arrange for the recording of minutes;
- (6) Maintain the records of all meetings of the court.

JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION RULES

Revised and Adopted September 1, 1984

PREFACE

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 31 of the Washington State Constitution

"The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings."

and RCW 2.64.110

"The commission shall establish rules for the confidentiality of its proceedings with due regard for the privacy interests of judges or justices who are the subject of an inquiry and the protection of persons who file complaints with the commission."

the Judicial Qualifications Commission has hereby revised rules adopted October 14, 1981 and adopts the following revised rules effective September 1, 1984.

JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS COMMISSION RULES

Rule 1. SCOPE AND TITLE

(a) Scope. These rules apply to proceedings before the Judicial Qualifications Commission created by Article IV, Section 31, of the Constitution of the State of Washington, and governed by chapter 2.64 RCW. These rules govern the procedure for considering allegations that a judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct, or has a disability which is permanent or likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties.

(b) Title. These rules shall be known as the Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules and may be abbreviated as JQCR.

(c) Supreme Court Rules. Supreme Court consideration of Judicial Qualifications Commission recommendations is governed by the Discipline Rules for Judges (DRJ) adopted by the Supreme Court.

Rule 2. DEFINITIONS

In these rules,

(a) "Admonishment," when issued by the commission, means a written informal disposition of an allegation consented to by the judge which cautions the judge not to engage in certain proscribed behavior and may contain agreed corrective action to be taken by the judge.

(b) "Allegation" means a statement or communication alleging facts which may upon investigation lead to a finding of judicial misconduct or disability.

(c) "Chairperson" includes the acting chairperson.

(d) "Commission" means the Judicial Qualifications Commission.

(e) "Complaint" means the formal charge of judicial misconduct or disability filed by the commission and forming the basis for a fact-finding hearing.

(f) "Fact-finder" means the commission, or at the discretion of the commission, a three-member subcommittee consisting of any members or alternates of the commission or a master.

(g) "Hearing" means a meeting for the purpose of taking evidence and conducted by a fact-finder.

(h) "Judge" means a judge or justice and includes justices of the supreme court, judges of the court of appeals, judges of the superior court, judges of any court organized under Titles 3, 35, or 35A RCW, and judges pro tempore. The term includes full-time and part-time judges and judges who have been or have not been admitted to the practice of law in Washington.

(i) "Master" means a person appointed by the commission to hear and take evidence with respect to charges against a judge.

(j) "Meeting" means a meeting of the commission for any purpose other than the taking of evidence for fact-finding.

(k) "Member" means a member of the commission and includes alternates acting as members.

(l) "Party" means the judge or the commission.

(m) "Reprimand," when issued by the commission, is an informal action of the commission, consented to by the judge, finding that the judge's conduct is unacceptable but does not require a formal recommendation for discipline to the Supreme Court.

Rule 3. ORGANIZATION OF THE COMMISSION

(a) Officers. The commission shall elect from its members a chairperson, a vice-chairperson, and secretary, each of whom shall serve a term of two years or until they cease to be members of the commission, whichever period is shorter. The vice-chairperson shall act as chairperson in the absence of the chairperson. In the absence of both the chairperson and the vice-chairperson, the members present may select a temporary chairperson.

(b) Executive Director and Staff. The commission will hire an executive director and such other personnel as necessary for the effective performance of the commission's duties and the exercise of its powers.

(c) Meetings.

(1) Meetings of the commission shall be held at the call of the chairperson or the written request of three members of the commission.

Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules

(2) The commission may conduct meetings by telephone conference call.

(d) Quorum. Four members must be present for the transaction of business by the commission. A final decision of the commission, other than a decision recommending discipline or retirement, must be supported by a majority of the members present. A final decision recommending discipline or retirement in any form must be supported by four members of the commission.

(e) Alternates. The chairperson will call upon an alternate member selected by the appropriate appointing authority to serve in the place of a member whenever a member is disabled, disqualified, or unable to serve. The chairperson shall announce when an alternate member is serving in the place of a commission member.

Rule 4. CONFIDENTIALITY OF PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all papers filed with the commission are confidential and all discipline or disability proceedings before the commission, a subcommittee, or a master will be conducted in executive session.

(b) Public Inspection of Recommendation. A commission recommendation of discipline or retirement, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the recommendation, shall be available for public inspection in the commission's office during regular business hours after the recommendation is filed with the Supreme Court. The record filed with the Supreme Court shall be made available for inspection in the commission office when the decision of the Supreme Court is final or at such earlier time as the record may be available for public inspection at the Supreme Court.

(c) Release of Information. The commission may, with due consideration for the interests of the judge, make a public statement regarding a pending or completed proceeding which would otherwise be confidential in the following circumstances:

(1) If public statements that charges are pending before the commission are substantially unfair to a judge.

(2) If a judge is publicly associated with violating a rule of judicial conduct or with having a disability, and the commission, after a preliminary investigation or a formal hearing, has determined there is no basis for further proceedings or for a recommendation of discipline or retirement.

(3) If the commission, after a preliminary investigation or a formal hearing, has determined to conclude the proceeding with informal, agreed disposition pursuant to JQCR 19.

(4) If a formal hearing has been ordered in a proceeding in which the subject matter is generally known to the public or in which there is broad public interest, or in which confidence in the administration of justice is threatened due to misinformation or lack of information.

(d) Notice to Complainant. After final commission action on an allegation or complaint, the commission will disclose to the person making an allegation that after an investigation of the charges (i) the commission has found no basis for action by the commission against the judge, (ii) the commission has determined that the matter involved legal issues over which it has no jurisdiction, and involves no misconduct or disability, (iii) the commission has taken appropriate corrective action, or (iv) the commission has filed a recommendation with the Supreme Court for the discipline or retirement of the judge. The name of the judge, in the discretion of the commission, shall not be used in written communication to the complainant.

(e) Judge's Request for Release of Information. The commission may, in its discretion, release information concerning a pending or completed proceeding at the request of the judge who is the subject of the proceeding. A person who has been disciplined by commission action may disclose such fact.

(f) Release of Information to Bar Associations, Judicial Appointive Authority or Law Enforcement Agencies. The commission may, in its discretion, release information to the Washington State Bar Association, American Bar Association, a judicial authority, any judicial appointive, selection or confirmation authority, or to law enforcement agencies when required in the interests of justice, or to maintain confidence in the selection of judges or administration of the judiciary. The person to whom the information relates may, in the commission's discretion, be informed of any information released.

(g) Public Proceedings. If the commission determines that the public interest in maintaining confidence in the judiciary and the integrity of the administration of justice so require, it may order that some or all aspects of the proceeding before the commission may be publicly conducted or otherwise reported or disclosed to the public. The judge will be given notice and an opportunity to be heard on the issue before the commission determines to make a hearing public.

(h) Contempt. Unless otherwise permitted by these rules, no person shall disclose information obtained by that person during commission proceedings or from papers filed with the commission. Any person giving information to the commission or any member or employee of the commission is subject to a proceeding for contempt in superior court for disclosing information in violation of this rule.

Rule 5. INITIAL PROCEEDINGS

(a) Allegations of Misconduct or Disability. Any organization, association, or person, including a member of the commission, may make an allegation of judicial misconduct or disability to the commission. An allegation may be made orally or in writing.

(b) Distinguished from Appeal. The commission will not recommend the discipline of a judge for the exercise of discretion in making findings of fact, reaching a legal conclusion, or applying the law as the judge understands it.

(c) Screening by Executive Director. Upon receipt of an allegation not obviously unfounded or frivolous, the executive director shall make a prompt, discreet, and confidential inquiry and evaluation. The executive director shall make a recommendation to the commission as to whether a preliminary investigation should be initiated on every allegation received.

Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules

(d) Commission Determination. If the commission determines at a meeting that a preliminary investigation should be initiated, the person making the allegation may be requested to file a verified statement with the commission. If a verified statement is not filed by the person making the allegation, the executive director shall prepare and file a verified statement.

(e) Contents of Verified Statement. A verified statement requesting that the Commission investigate allegations must include facts showing that a judge may have violated a rule of judicial conduct or may be suffering a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent.

Rule 6. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATION

(a) Conduct of Preliminary Investigation. If the commission orders a preliminary investigation, the executive director will supervise the investigation.

(b) Notification of Investigation. The judge who is the subject of a preliminary investigation will be notified by the commission within 7 days after the filing of a verified statement. The judge shall also be advised of the nature of the charge, and, in the discretion of the commission, the name of the individual making the verified statement, if any, or that the investigation is on the commission's own motion.

(c) Judge's Response. The judge shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity in the course of the preliminary investigation to present such matters as he or she may choose.

(d) Order for Medical Examination. If the preliminary investigation concerns a judge who may be suffering a possible physical and/or mental disability which may seriously impair the performance of judicial duties, the commission may order a judge to submit to physical and/or mental examinations at commission expense. The failure or refusal of a judge to submit to physical and/or mental examinations ordered by the commission may, in the discretion of the commission, preclude the judge from presenting the results of other physical and/or mental examinations on his or her own behalf. The commission may consider the failure or refusal to submit to physical and/or mental examinations as evidence that the judge has a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent.

(e) Result of Preliminary Investigation.

(1) If the commission determines at a meeting after a preliminary investigation that there are insufficient grounds for further commission proceedings, the judge and the person making the allegation will be so notified.

(2) If the commission determines at a meeting after a preliminary investigation that probable cause exists for believing that the judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge may be suffering from a disability that seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties and is or is likely to become permanent, the commission shall order the filing of a complaint pursuant to Rule 7 or may informally dispose of the matter pursuant to Rule 19.

(f) Stipulations. After a preliminary investigation and prior approval is given by the commission, either the executive director or counsel retained by the commission may enter into a proposed stipulation of facts and/or discipline with the respondent judge. Such a stipulation may contain the imposition of terms and conditions and such other provisions as may appear appropriate. If a stipulation is not adopted by the commission, it shall be of no force and effect.

Rule 7. INITIATING FORMAL PROCEEDINGS

(a) Generally. The commission after a preliminary investigation may file a complaint alleging the violation of a rule of judicial conduct or the disability of a judge that is or is likely to become permanent. The complaint will be served on the judge within 7 days after filing of the complaint in the commission's office.

(b) Decision to File Complaint. When a complaint is filed, no further factual information shall be provided to the commission prior to a fact-finding hearing unless notice is given to both parties. The executive director will continue to assist commission counsel.

(c) Form of complaint. The complaint will state in ordinary and concise language the basis for commission action and the facts supporting the complaint. The complaint shall also inform the judge that he or she may file a written answer to the charges as provided in paragraph (d).

(d) Answer. The judge may file with the commission an answer to the complaint. The answer must be filed within 14 days after service of the complaint on the judge. If the judge does not file a written answer, a general denial will be entered on behalf of the judge. The complaint and the answer shall be the only pleadings required.

Rule 8. SCHEDULING FACT-FINDING HEARING

A fact-finding hearing will be scheduled to take place within 42 days after the time for answer has expired or after the answer is filed. The executive director will set a time and place for the fact-finding hearing. The judge will be given at least 14 days notice of the fact-finding hearing. The notice will include the name or names of the fact-finder and the presiding officer, if any.

Rule 9. DISQUALIFICATION OF FACT-FINDER

(a) Disqualification of Member or Master. A member of the commission or a master must disqualify himself or herself in any proceedings involving his or her own conduct or alleged disability. A member of the commission or a master must disqualify himself or herself if he or she cannot impartially consider the complaint against a judge.

(b) Challenge for Cause. A judge may file an affidavit challenging for cause any member or a master who the judge believes will not impartially consider the complaint. The affidavit must be filed within 7 days after notice of the fact-finding hearing. The commission will decide any challenge for cause if the member does not disqualify himself or herself.

Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules

(c) Peremptory Challenge. A judge may file one peremptory challenge against one member of the commission. The challenge must be filed within 7 days after notice of a fact-finding hearing. If the judge has unsuccessfully challenged a member for cause, any peremptory challenge against that member must be filed within 3 days after service of notice of the determination of the challenge for cause.

Rule 10. PROCEDURAL RIGHTS OF JUDGE

(a) Generally. The judge has a right to notice of the allegations concerning the judge which have been found by the commission to warrant a preliminary investigation. The judge shall have the right and reasonable opportunity at a fact-finding hearing to defend against the allegations in the complaint by the introduction of evidence. The judge has the privilege against self-incrimination. The judge may be represented by counsel and may examine and cross-examine witnesses. The judge has the right to testify or not to testify on his or her own behalf. The judge has the right to issuance of subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses to testify or produce evidentiary matters. The judge has the right to a prompt resolution of the allegations in the complaint.

(b) Compliance with Ethics Advisory Opinion. A judge's compliance with an opinion by the Ethics Advisory Committee shall be considered by the commission as evidence of good faith.

(c) Transcripts. The judge will be provided without cost a copy of any report of proceedings prepared by the commission. The judge may, in addition, have all or any portion of the testimony in the proceedings transcribed at his or her own expense.

(d) Witness Fees. All witnesses shall receive fees and expenses in the amount allowed by law. Expenses of witnesses shall be borne by the party calling them, unless the commission determines that the imposition of costs and expert witness fees would work a financial hardship or injustice upon the judge and orders that those fees be reimbursed.

Rule 11. GUARDIANS AD LITEM

If it appears to the commission at any time during the proceedings that the judge is not competent to act, or if it has been previously judicially determined that the judge is not competent to act, the commission will appoint a guardian ad litem for the judge unless the judge already has a guardian who will represent the judge's interests. In the appointment of a guardian ad litem, consideration may be given to the wishes of the members of the judge's immediate family. The guardian or guardian ad litem may claim and exercise any right and privilege and make any defense for the judge which the judge could have claimed, exercised, or made if competent. Any notice to be served on the judge will also be served on the guardian or guardian ad litem.

Rule 12. DISCOVERY PROCEDURE BEFORE FACT-FINDING

(a) Request for Witnesses and Documents. Upon written demand, the opposing party will disclose within 7 days thereof, with a continuing obligation thereafter, the following:

(1) names and addresses of all witnesses whose testimony that party expects to offer at the hearing,

(2) a brief summary of the expected testimony of each witness,

(3) copies of signed or recorded statements of anticipated witnesses, and,

(4) copies of documents which may be offered. Witnesses or documents not disclosed may be excluded.

(b) Discovery. The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by Rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules are available upon stipulation of the parties or upon prior permission of the master or presiding officer. A request for discovery shall be granted, unless the master or presiding officer determines that the request is frivolous, will create an undue burden on the party, or will result in undue delay.

(c) Disclosure by Commission's Counsel. The commission's counsel shall disclose to the judge any material or information within his or her knowledge which tends to negate the allegations against the judge or mitigate the degree of discipline which may be imposed.

(d) Prehearing Motions. The judge or counsel for either party may make prehearing motions to the designated presiding officer, who may make rulings or defer rulings to the commission.

Rule 13. AMENDMENTS TO COMPLAINT OR ANSWER

The fact-finder, at any time prior to the conclusion of the hearing, or the commission, at any time prior to its decision, may allow or require amendments to the complaint or the answer. The complaint may be amended to conform to the proof or set forth additional facts, whether occurring before or after the commencement of the hearing. Except for amendments to conform to the proof at a fact-finding hearing, if an amendment substantially affects the nature of the charges, the judge will be given reasonable time to answer the amendment and prepare and present a defense against the new matter raised.

Rule 14. PROCEDURE AT FACT-FINDING HEARING

(a) Order of Presentation. The order of presentation shall be in the same manner as in civil cases in superior court.

(b) Commission Represented by Counsel. The case for the commission shall be presented by counsel retained by the commission.

(c) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence (ER) as applicable in civil proceedings shall govern the fact-finding hearing.

(d) Standard of Proof. Any finding that the judge has violated a rule of judicial conduct or that the judge has a disability which is or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties must be supported by clear, cogent and convincing evidence.

Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules

(e) Presiding Officer. Unless the fact-finding hearing is before a master, the chairperson may appoint a member to be presiding officer or to rule on motions and objections made during the hearing. If the hearing is before the commission, a member may appeal a ruling to the commission members present. A majority vote will determine the motion.

(f) Failure to Answer or Appear. The failure of a judge to answer or to appear at the hearing or to submit to a mental or physical examination required by the commission will not prevent the commission from proceeding.

(g) Verbatim Record. Unless the judge and the commission stipulate to a different record, a verbatim record will be made and kept of the fact-finding hearing. The commission shall determine whether the verbatim record will be by court reporter or electronic recording device.

Rule 15. REPORT OF FACT-FINDER

(a) When Fact-Finder Other Than Commission. The fact-finder, when other than the entire commission, shall prepare a report containing a brief statement of the procedure followed and the proposed findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation with respect to the issues presented at the fact-finding hearing. The report and verbatim record shall be filed in the commission office within 35 days after the hearing. The report and record shall be served on the parties within 14 days thereafter. The fact-finder may request the prevailing party to prepare the findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(b) Objections. A party may file with the commission a statement of objections to the report of the fact-finder. The statement shall set forth all objections to the report and state reasons therefor. The objections must be filed with the commission and served on the opposing party within 14 days after service of the report on the party.

(c) No Objections Filed. If no statement of objections to the report of the fact-finder is filed within the time provided in paragraph (b), the report may be adopted without argument.

(d) Objections Filed. If a statement of objections is timely filed, the commission may schedule oral argument, or consider the matter on the record along with briefs of the parties. The parties shall be given at least 14 days written notice of the time and place for argument.

(e) Commission Modification. If the commission proposes to modify or reject the fact-finder's report, the commission shall schedule a time for oral argument on the record along with briefs of the parties. The parties shall be given at least 14 days written notice of the time and place for argument.

Rule 16. COMMISSION DECISION

(a) Commission Sitting as Fact-Finder. When the commission serves as fact-finder, it will file a decision including findings of fact, conclusions of law, and a recommendation with respect to the issues presented at the fact-finding hearing. The prevailing party may be requested to prepare the findings of fact and conclusions of law. The commission's decision will be served upon the judge pursuant to JQCR 16(c). Any motions for reconsideration or objections shall be timely filed in accordance with JQCR 16(d).

(b) Decision. Only upon the affirmative vote of at least four members will the commission recommend discipline or retirement of a judge or effect an informal disposition pursuant to JQCR 19. The commission's decision will include written findings of fact, conclusions of law, a recommendation and any record to be filed with the Supreme Court. The commission may adopt the report of the fact-finder, in whole or in part, by reference. To vote on a matter, a nonsitting member must consider the verbatim record and any report of a fact-finder. Any commission member may file a dissent.

(c) Notice to Judge. The commission's decision will be served upon the judge and his or her counsel of record within 14 days after the decision is filed in the commission's office.

(d) Motion for Reconsideration and Objections to Record. A party may file objections to the record or a motion for reconsideration of the commission decision within 14 days after the decision and record have been served. Objections will be determined by the chairperson or, in his or her discretion, by the commission.

(e) Finality of Decision. The commission decision is final 14 days after service unless a motion for reconsideration or objection is earlier filed. If a motion for reconsideration or objection is denied, the decision is then final. If either the motion for reconsideration or objection is granted, the reconsidered decision is final when filed in the commission's office.

(f) Notice of Commission Decision. When the decision is final, the commission will notify the person making the allegation of the general nature of its decision, in accordance with Rule 4(d).

Rule 17. ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE

The commission may order a hearing for the taking of additional evidence at any time before its decision is final. The order will set the time and place of the hearing and will specify the matters on which the additional evidence is to be taken. A copy of the order shall be served upon the judge at least 14 days prior to the date set for hearing. The hearing will be conducted in the manner provided in Rules 8-16.

Rule 18. SUPREME COURT PROCEDURES

(a) Certification to Supreme Court. Within 14 days after the decision is final, a commission decision recommending the discipline or retirement of a judge will be filed in the Supreme Court and served on the judge. The notice of the decision served on the judge shall state the date the decision was filed in the Supreme Court and shall specify the period during which the judge may challenge the commission recommendation as provided in DRJ 2.

(b) Record for Supreme Court Review. The chairperson shall certify the record of commission proceedings to the Supreme Court, having transmitted to the judge those portions of the record required by DRJ 4.

Judicial Qualifications Commission Rules

(c) Remand from the Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court remands a case to the commission, the chairperson shall assign the case to a fact-finder or the commission in accordance with the request of the Supreme Court.

Rule 19. INFORMAL DISPOSITION

An allegation of misconduct may be disposed of by a proposal to the judge for an admonishment or reprimand. The proposal will provide whether acceptance of the proposal may be considered as an admission of misconduct by the judge and whether it may be made public. If the judge accepts the proposal in writing within 14 days after service of the proposal, a letter of admonishment or reprimand will be issued and no further action will be taken by the commission. If the judge accepts the proposal, the person making the allegation shall be notified that the matter has been resolved, in accordance with Rule 4(d). If the judge does not accept or fails to respond to the proposal, proceedings will continue.

Rule 20. REINSTATEMENT OF ELIGIBILITY

A former judge whose eligibility for judicial office had been removed by the Supreme Court may file with the commission a petition for reinstatement of eligibility. Rules 4, 8 through 18 and 20 through 22 apply to commission review of a petition for reinstatement for eligibility. The commission will recommend to the Supreme Court in writing that the former judge should or should not be reinstated to eligibility to hold judicial office as provided in DRJ 11.

Rule 21. EXTENSION OF TIME

Upon a showing of good cause the chairperson or fact-finder may extend the time within which an act must be done under these rules.

Rule 22. SERVICE

(a) Service on Judge. A complaint under Rule 7 shall be served on a judge in person, unless the judge cannot be found within the state. If the judge cannot be found, the complaint may be served by mail addressed to the judge's last known business and residence addresses. All other papers in commission proceedings may be served on a judge in person or by mail. If counsel has appeared for a judge, papers, other than a complaint, may be served on counsel in lieu of service upon the judge.

(b) Service on Commission. Service of papers on the commission shall be given by delivering or mailing the papers to the commission's office.

(c) When Service Accomplished. If service is by mail, a paper is timely served if mailed within the time permitted for service. If a paper is served by mail, a time period dependent on the service begins to run 3 days after the paper is mailed.

Rule 23. RULE ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, OR REPEAL

(a) Generally. The commission may adopt, amend, or repeal a rule or any person may request such action by petition.

(b) Petition. The petition must set out the proposed rule, or amendments to an existing rule, in full. The petition must also include reasons in support of the request.

(c) Commission Review. The executive director shall recommend to the commission whether to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule as requested in a petition. The chairperson may order a public hearing for further consideration of the petition. The commission will order the publication of any proposed rule modifications for public comment before taking final action to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule.

(d) Notice to Petitioner. The commission will notify the petitioner of its final action within a reasonable time after disposition of the petition.

CODIFICATION TABLES

- (1) Remington's Revised Statutes to Revised Code of Washington.
- (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws; inclusive.
- (3) Session law sections commencing with the 1950 Extraordinary Session.

These tables include: (1) All sections of Remington's Revised Statutes or parts thereof that have parallel sections in the Revised Code of Washington as originally published, accounting as well for those Remington sections that are omitted from the Revised Code of Washington, and which omitted sections may not be accounted for in tables or notes published in Remington's Revised Statutes, its pocket supplements, and its biennial supplements up to and including that for the year 1949; (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws, inclusive; and (3) Session law sections commencing with the 1950 Extraordinary Session.

The original codification tables were prepared in 1951. Since that date, the Statute Law Committee has restored the Revised Code of Washington to the sectionalization of the session laws. As a result, several of the RCW citations are no longer accurate. If the RCW section cited in the table cannot be found in the text of the Revised Code of Washington, consult the table entitled "Disposition of Former RCW Sections" for further information.
