SENATE RESOLUTION 8710

By Senators Kohl-Welles, Rockefeller, Prentice, Parlette, Brandland, Honeyford, Keiser, Regala, Fairley, Kline, Stevens, Tom, Delvin, Fraser, Oemig, Eide, and McAuliffe

WHEREAS, Washington State is blessed with the majestic and impressive Cascade Mountains and Olympic Mountains, and these natural features help define Washington's character and are a part of its heritage; and

WHEREAS, Ed Viesturs moved to Washington over three decades ago to live among the state's great peaks and began his climbing career as a guide on Mount Rainier, reaching its summit over 200 times; and

WHEREAS, Ed Viesturs has taken the skills and lessons he learned on the slopes of Washington's mountains to the world's highest mountain, summiting Mount Everest for the seventh time on May 19, 2009; and

WHEREAS, Ed Viesturs became the first American to reach the summits of all fourteen of the world's 8,000-meter mountains on Annapurna on May 12, 2005, and only the fifth person in the world to accomplish this amazing feat without bottled oxygen; and

WHEREAS, Ed Viesturs' actions have proven time and again that he lives by high ideals even in high places, adhering to his famous creed that reaching the summit is optional but coming home isn't, and sacrificing his own plans to come to the aid of stricken climbers; and

WHEREAS, Ed Viesturs shares his experiences with organizations and audiences around this state and around the world, inspiring others to strive for more and emphasizing that there is truly no shortcut to the top and that planning and teamwork are the foundations of success;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate commend Ed Viesturs for his outstanding accomplishments as America's most accomplished Himalayan climber and for his contributions to the sport of climbing, especially in safety and awareness, and for his dedication to promoting high ideals and excellence in his community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be immediately transmitted by the Secretary of the Senate to Ed Viesturs.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed Mr. Ed Viesturs who was seated at the rostrum.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Ed Viesturs to address the Senate.

REMARKS BY ED VIESTURS

Ed Viesturs: "Thank you. It's a true honor to here. You know, I'm so glad I moved over thirty years ago from the great mountaineering state of Illinois. But you know, what drew me here was I read the book 'Annapurna' which was described earlier and I was inspired by that story and it was basically about team work, adventure, camaraderie, you know trial and tribulation and I think based on my personality I thought that's something I wanted to do and I figured I had to go somewhere like this great state to learn about mountaineering because so many great mountaineers had started here, had come from here and I knew that. Three of my mentors and heroes are coincidentally here today. They were honoring Wolf Bauer earlier, Dee. Molenaar is in the audience as well who was on one of the first American K2 expeditions in 1953 and Lou Whittaker as well in the audience who was my boss on Mt. Rainier for many years and took me on first successful eight thousand meter expedition in Kangchenjunga in 1989 and you know, when I came out to climb I knew I would have to have teachers and mentors and learn the basics, climb the small mountains before I went to the bigger mountains and thank you and I had such great teachers and mentors and leaders. You know, in the mountains we say that we follow in the footsteps of others and that's true. Literally and figuratively, you know I, people that went ahead of us that broke the trail that broke those mental and physiological barriers of climbing very high, that's what I was able to use to climb these mountains as well. When we're working as a team in the mountains we do literally do break the trail for each other. So, there is a tremendous amount of team work involved, you know, hopefully the people that you go with are your friends because if you don't like them at sea level you're not going to like them at twenty-six thousand feet. There's that implicit trust as well and for me when I went to climb these mountains it was all about the journey and the process and it was a struggle and I spent eighteen years of my life you know climbing the fourteen eight thousand meter peaks but when I sat on the summit of the Annapurna at the end of that it was for me that literal dream come true moment. I am so glad I did it, I'm so glad that I live here in this state of Washington and I can raise my family here as well. Thank you very much."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator McAuliffe: "Thank you Mr. President. I would request the Senate have a moment of silence for the special education teacher who was fatally shot outside of Tacoma elementary school this morning at seven thirty am. It was Birney Elementary School and it was a domestic violence tragedy and I would like us to extend our sympathies to the teachers and staff and families at Birney Elementary who are affected by this tragedy."
