SENATE RESOLUTION 8670

By Senators Becker, Wellman, Saldaña, Salomon, Hunt, Lovelett, Nguyen, Pedersen, Hasegawa, Conway, Hobbs, Wilson, C., Kuderer, Frockt, Liias, Fortunato, Hawkins, Short, King, McCoy, Darneille, Van De Wege, Randall, Mullet, Dhingra, Cleveland, Carlyle, Warnick, Das, Zeiger, Ericksen, Rolfes, Wagoner, Muzzall, Sheldon, Honeyford, Walsh, Keiser, Padden, Rivers, O'Ban, Stanford, and Billig

WHEREAS, March 22, 2020, marks the one hundredth anniversary of the Washington State Legislature ratifying the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution, legalizing the right to vote for most women in the United States; and

Senator Becker: "WHEREAS, Washington women and men fought with great perseverance in the face of often stern resistance for women's right to vote nationally and in our state for more than sixty-five years, both during Territorial days and after statehood before the 19th Amendment authorizing women's suffrage was approved by our state Legislature; and"

Senator Darneille: "WHEREAS, In 1853, eighteen-year old Catharine Paine Blaine, the youngest signer of the Declaration of Sentiments at the 1848 Women's Rights Convention in Seneca Falls, New York, brought the message of women's rights to the new Washington Territory and later became one of only two women who signed this historic Declaration to actually vote in their lifetime; and"

Senator Das: "WHEREAS, In 1854 early Washington Territorial legislator Arthur Denny proposed a women's suffrage bill that failed by only one vote; and

WHEREAS, In 1867 Washington Territorial legislator Edward Eldridge successfully prime sponsored an act that struck the word "male" from the voting laws, thus technically opening up voting to "all white American citizens above the age of twenty-one," most notably including women; however, this interpretation of the law was not widely embraced and women were routinely turned away at the polls; and"

Senator Brown: "WHEREAS, In 1870 sisters Mary Olney Brown and Charlotte Olney French launched several attempts to cast votes in Thurston County and, eventually succeeding, became the first women to successfully cast ballots in Washington Territory and thus to encourage others; and"

Senator Dhingra: "WHEREAS, In 1871 Pacific Northwest women's rights leader Abigail Scott Duniway organized a speaking tour with national suffrage movement leader Susan B. Anthony through Washington Territory to promote women's suffrage; and

WHEREAS, In 1871 Susan B. Anthony became the first woman to address the Washington Territorial Legislature and cofounded the Washington Women's Suffrage Association; and"

Senator Keiser: "WHEREAS, In 1871, Washington Territorial Legislature passed an anti-suffrage law declaring that women could not vote until Congress made it the law of the land; and

WHEREAS, On November 23, 1883, women living in Washington Territory gained the right to vote by action of the Territorial Legislature; and"

Senator Rivers: "WHEREAS In 1883, when the Territorial Legislature enacted women's suffrage, African American women in Washington Territory became some of the first to have voting rights in the country; and

WHEREAS, On November 26, 1886, the Washington Territorial Legislature amended the 1883 act to state clearly that "all American citizens male and female" could vote; and"

Senator Kuderer: "WHEREAS, In 1887 the voting rights that were extended to women in Washington Territory in 1883 were revoked by the Washington Territory Supreme Court; and

WHEREAS, In 1888, the Territorial Legislature again enacted voting rights for women, but again it was overturned by the Territorial Supreme Court that same year; and"

Senator Lovelett: "WHEREAS, Washington women leaders such as Emma Smith DeVoe and May Arkwright Hutton and many others resurrected the local women's suffrage movement in the early 20th century and led Washington women to voting victory using the strategy of a calm and direct approach using campaigning posters, penny postcards and cookbooks in their campaigns; and"

Senator Short: "WHEREAS, On November 8, 1910, men voted in favor of women's suffrage 52,299 to 29,676, a nearly two-to-one margin, making Washington the first state in the 20th century and the fifth state in the Union to enfranchise women; and"

Senator Randall: "WHEREAS, This new Washington state constitutional provision, however, did not in itself authorize all women to vote, because two other factors blocked this right; (1) It authorized voting only for those who could read and speak English; and (2) many women, including immigrant Asians and Native Americans, were subject to other restrictive citizenship laws which denied the right to vote; and"

Senator Walsh: "WHEREAS, After women's suffrage was achieved in Washington in 1910, Washington women worked tirelessly to extend the woman's right to vote nationwide through astute political organizing, private persuasion, and mass action; and"

Senator Kuderer: "WHEREAS, Carrie Chapman Catt, who lived in Seattle and founded the Woman's Century Club there, was a leader in the national movement and met with President Woodrow Wilson to secure his support for suffrage in light of women's contributions during World War I; and"

Senator Saldaña: "WHEREAS, Washington's Emma Smith DeVoe founded the first national organization of voting women, the National Council of Women Voters, headquartered in Tacoma, which was the forerunner of the League of Women Voters; and"

THIRTY SECOND DAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2020

2020 REGULAR SESSION

Senator Warnick: "WHEREAS, In June 1919 Congress passed the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution and sent it to the state Legislatures for ratification, requiring thirty-six states to ratify it; and

WHEREAS, On March 22, 1920, the Washington State Legislature unanimously ratified the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution; and"

Senator Wilson, C.: "WHEREAS, On August 26, 1920, the last of the necessary thirty-six states ratified the 19th Amendment, thus enfranchising nearly half of the United States adult population; and

WHEREAS, The passionate, extended fight for women's suffrage, from the first women's rights convention in 1848 to national enfranchisement in 1920, lasted 72 years, with women from all walks of life, political views, and demographic backgrounds asking for the right to voice their opinions at the polls; and"

Senator Wilson, L.: "WHEREAS, Washington women by the thousands advocated for the right to vote—in parades, picketing, in newspapers, and in the state and federal capitols; and"

Senator Cleveland: "WHEREAS, Daughters, granddaughters, and great-granddaughters of the women who fought so hard to vote have been making their voices heard at the polls for over one hundred years in Washington state and nearly one hundred years nationwide; and

WHEREAS, Most of the women who worked for the right to vote did not live to see the success of enfranchisement of women; and"

Senator Wellman: "WHEREAS, In contemporary times, women are running for office in unprecedented numbers, with many current politicians, both male and female, keeping in mind that they follow in the footsteps of these great suffragists; and

WHEREAS, Many of the women and men who worked for Woman Suffrage in Washington Territory and then Washington state from 1854 to 1920 deserve recognition for their efforts and triumph;"

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate celebrate February 13, 2020, as the 100th Anniversary of the Washington State Legislature ratifying the 19th Amendment, and encourage accompanying celebrations throughout the state; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Washington State Senate reaffirm its commitment to empowering and uplifting the voices of women across our great state.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

Including, thank you for the tie Senator Das. But, thank you for organizing the very special reading of the resolution."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Secretary of State Kim Wyman, former State Senator Karen Fraser, and Jenifer Kilmer, Director, Washington State Historical Society and her spouse, U.S. Congressman, and former State Senator, Derek Kilmer, who were seated in the gallery.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Darneille: "Thank you Mr. President. Standing before you today, actually accompanied by two of our other members holding the Suffragist flag [Senators Lovelett and Randall in the rear of the chamber], this is the United States version of the flag. The colors are symbolic and if I can read Mr. President from a journal called The Suffragist from 1913?"

President Habib: "Senator, please proceed."

Senator Darneille: "Thank you. In that article they describe the symbolism of these colors: 'Purple is the color of loyalty, constancy to purpose, unswerving steadfastness to a cause. White, the emblem of purity, symbolizes the quality of our purpose; and gold, the color of light and life, is as the torch that guides our purpose, pure and unswerving. Simplified, the tri-colors signified loyalty, purity, and life.' And, I have the flag here today. This is part of a little plan to commemorate forever this event today and that is that the women of the Legislature both in the Senate and the House will be signing this flag today and it will become the possession of the Washington State History Museum. Along with that, I wanted to have everyone involved in this event today. So all of you should have a business card with you. Your staff has probably provided one. And you're thinking, 'Why do I need a business card on the floor of the Senate?' We're asking you to write the name, on your business card, of the first woman in your family who would have been eligible to vote. So it might be, like me, it might be my grandmother. Henrietta Taylor Phillips from 410 Pioneer Avenue in Cashmere, Washington would be the first woman in my family that I'm going to put her name on my card. So, if all of you with think about it. Could be your mother, it could be, you know, if you are new to this country, it could be you that were the first woman in your family to vote. And so, if you would put that on there, we will collect all those cards again from all the members of the Legislature and we will, those will be with the flag in the purse and the permanent collection of the Washington State History Museum. So today we will start the signing. It will be down in the Rules Room, in the Lieutenant Governor's office until 10:30 for the women of this body and then it will move to Secretary of State Kim Wyman's office for the rest of the day. And so, the House members will go down to Secretary Wyman's office, and we will sign it down downstairs as soon as possible. Thank you so much for your indulgence Mr. President."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Walsh: "I think we would be remiss in not noticing and acknowledging the fact that we've got very strong women up on the rostrum with you today Mr President. And, I must tell you, there was just a little flutter of warmth in my heart when I saw Victoria standing there with her little belly, holding that beautiful baby and me thinking, you know, talk about the wonderment of being a woman. There it is! And the other thing is, I'm so proud that you're both attorneys and you're in such high positions representing the Senate. And I just think that's wonderful. And you, yesterday, mentioned, Mr President, that we have a birthday on stage. And I was wondering if I could get my fellow folks here on the floor to help me in celebrating Jeannie Gorrell's birthday by singing Happy Birthday?"

The Senate rose and, led by Senator Walsh, performed a rendition of "Happy Birthday" in recognition of the anniversary of the birth of Ms. Jeannie Gorrell, Senate Counsel.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Habib: "Well you all know the best gift that we could give Jeannie Gorrell today would be to end our, our business in a timely manner so that she could spend some time with her family because I know over the years there have been many occasions in which she has spent this birthday even working past midnight. So thank you for that Senator Walsh."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Das: "When Senator Wellman asked me to help secure the sashes for the women in the Senate I took I very seriously and my staff and I did a lot of research on the proper sashes and the appropriate colors and to make sure that every woman in the Senate and many of our staff would be wearing these beautiful sashes today and then I realized that I wanted the men who wanted to participate to also feel included and so we had this great idea to buy the men ties and I want to just thank Senator Liias for choosing the tie for all of you wonderful gentleman and I just want to say that sitting here standing here I guess today in the Senate chamber as a woman this is not meant to be here not only to vote but to vote on behalf of the state people of the state of Washington is such an honor. And such a true joy to do this work every day and I want to thank my colleagues Mr. President for their grace and their hard work and dedication and passion this job is so unusual people ask me what it's like on a daily basis and I just let them know that it's like no other job that I have the honor to be a part of this body and I just want you all to know and when Senator Darneille just asked a question about the right to vote I'll just share my story my family came here from India as you know when I was eight months old was six dollars and my father was the first to get his right to vote to become a citizen and when I was thirteen years old my mother went through the rigmarole of the testing and the studying and took that test and as a child back then I don't know if the rules have changed the laws are changed I was able to become a citizen at that moment when she did at age thirteen so to answer Senator Darneille's question if I may Mr. President I am the first woman in my family to vote along with my mother in the United States of America and today looking up at the gallery and seeing all the women and I see that Secretary Kim Wyman also has hers now um her sash I'm just really honored and I just want everyone to know how grateful I am to stand here and what a privilege and honor it is to serve and seeing everyone in their ties and sashes today has been just a true joy and I just thank everyone thank you Mr. President thank you."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5749.

President Habib: "I do want to point out, I do want to point out an irony, actually, and I feel it is appropriate to do this. Which is that the irony is that, right now, those who would be watching our deliberations, of this body, would not be able to receive closed captioning for the deliberations, of the deliberations of this body because of well-insufficient funding or TVW not providing closed captioning and that accommodation. So I do think it is appropriate for senators to be aware of that. That there's not real-time closed captioning available, and has not been for many years, of legislative gavel-to-gavel coverage. And I do feel that that is problematic and some legislators are working on it this year."

PART I

ACT NAME AND LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This act may be known and cited as the voting opportunities through education act or the VOTE act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature finds that robust participation by young voters in Washington state elections is critical to ensuring lifelong civic engagement. Research has shown that voting is a habitual behavior and that people who vote in the first three elections when they are eligible will likely vote for life. However, this is also the period of time when they are likely to face unique barriers to participate in the democratic process, including regularly changing their address, becoming eligible shortly after an election, and exclusion from certain voter registration policies.

The legislature also finds that the period prior to election day is the most critical time to ensure ballot access for young voters. States with early voting have higher participation rates than states that do not and the use of early voting sites on college campuses helped produce record levels of participation for young voters in 2016 and 2018.

The legislature finds that students that have more opportunities to be registered and vote are more likely to participate. Limiting statutory voter registration opportunities on college campuses to days well in advance of election day is inconsistent with implementation of same-day voter registration. Making automatic voter registration unavailable to those registering for the first time denies young voters the same benefits as every other voter.

PART II

PERSONS ALLOWED TO VOTE IN PRIMARIES

Sec. 3. RCW 29A.08.210 and 2018 c 109 s 8 are each amended to read as follows:

An applicant for voter registration shall complete an application providing the following information concerning his or her qualifications as a voter in this state:

(2) The applicant's full name;

Sec. 4. RCW 29A.08.230 and 2013 c 11 s 14 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. RCW 29A.08.330 and 2019 c 391 s 6 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary of state shall prescribe the method of voter registration for each designated agency. (b) "Are you at least ~~((eighteen))~~ sixteen years old ~~((or are you at least sixteen years old and will you vote only after you turn eighteen))?"~~"

If the applicant answers in the affirmative to both questions, the agent shall then provide the applicant with a voter registration form and instructions and shall record that the applicant has requested to sign up to vote, register to vote, or update a voter registration. If the applicant answers in the negative to either question, the agent shall not provide the applicant with a voter registration application.

(4) If an agency uses a computerized application process, it may, in consultation with the secretary of state, develop methods to capture simultaneously the information required for voter registration during a person's computerized application process.

(5) Each designated agency shall transmit the applications to the secretary of state or appropriate county auditor within three business days and must be received by the election official by the required voter registration deadline.

(6) Information that is otherwise disclosable under this chapter cannot be disclosed on the future voter until the person reaches eighteen years of age, except for the purpose of processing and delivering ballots.

Sec. 6. RCW 29A.08.810 and 2011 c 10 s 20 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Registration of a person as a voter is presumptive evidence of his or her right to vote. A challenge to the person's right to vote must be based on personal knowledge of one of the following:
