

FIRST DAY

NOON SESSION

Senate Chamber, Olympia, Monday, January 14, 2008

At 12:00 noon, pursuant to law, the Senate of the 2008 Regular Session of the Sixtieth Legislature of the state of Washington assembled in the Senate Chamber at the State Capitol. Lieutenant Governor Brad Owen, President of the Senate, called the Senate to order. The Secretary called the roll and announced to the President that all Senators were present with the exception of Senators Holmquist, Jacobsen and Kastama.

The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard consisting of Commander John Sager, Retired Trooper Craig Anders, Trooper Rachel Gardner, Trooper Tim Knopp, Sergeant John Lizama, Trooper Pete Stock and Trooper Christian Wilson presented the colors.

The thirty-nine county flags were presented in a parade by the Senate's high school student pages and college interns..

The President led the Senate in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The National Anthem was sung by Mr. Derrick Keys, Supervisor with the Department of Corrections.

Reverend David T. Alger, Executive Director of Associated Ministries offered the prayer.

The county flags were retired from the chamber.

The Washington State Patrol Honor Guard retired from the chamber.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Owen: "Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, every year at the beginning of the session we are privileged to have with us to give a welcome from this community, the Lakefair Queen. This year's Lakefair Queen is Maria Anne Noonan and she is accompanied by the 2008 Lakefair President Bob Barnes and First Vice President Jan Meyers. Also with her today we'd like to welcome in our gallery Pat Noonan, her father; Kelly Noonan, her mother; Brenna Noonan, her sister; Mariann Noonan, her grandmother; Julee Durham, a friend; and Verna Munroe a friend. Welcome to all of you. Ladies and Gentlemen please help me welcome the Lakefair Queen, Maria Noonan."

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Lake Fair Queen, Maria Anne Noonan to address the Senate.

REMARKS BY MARIA ANNE NOONAN

Maria Anne Noonan: "Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen. My name is Maria Anne Noonan and I'm honored to be this year's Capital Lakefair Queen. I'd like to welcome you all and thank you. I also want to thank you for providing me with the opportunity to speak to you on such a great occasion. It is a true honor and privilege. Recently Washington State was struck with a devastating weather disaster causing a state of emergency to be declared. I've seen first hand the loss and devastation to properties, communities and families. This disaster hit me at a very personal level. Sandbagging to protect houses in my own community during the hours of the storm. Going to every store, shop, restaurant and deli noticing the donation boxes and I along with others put food and money in those at every opportunity. Later going to Rochester and cleaning up and rebuilding homes and giving a hope to the flood families was nothing less than inspirational. These experiences and opportunities made me realize how important flood control and disaster relief programs are especially to our state. During Hurricane Katrina and 9-11, we all made statements that it would be more helpful if the crisis were closer. We can not get much closer to crisis than right in your own backyard. Our state holds true to that promise by family, friends, neighbors and complete strangers rising to the occasion in reaching out. For without that more lives would have been lost. When I had the chance to help in my fire cadet program driving utility rig from scene to scene sandbagging and making sure homes were ok, I realized how important it is to help those who help us. Even as a little girl I always wanted to be a firefighter like my dad. Serving others is what my future career field is all about. Now being the age I am and having the chance to actually be involved I realize more than ever how much we're able to deal and how often we are called upon to assist others. I'm not talking about only firefighters, I'm speaking all public service groups such as the police, EMS, teachers, doctors and even senators. I believe it is important for everyone to take a moment to help their community in any way possible. We need to show our appreciation for the beautiful city that we reside in. Consequently, I want to thank you all for reaching out and making our cities even better while extending and improving our wonderful state of Washington. We're all in this together and I believe every citizen in our community can learn a lesson from you. 'Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful citizens can change the world. Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has.' This quote is stated by renowned anthropologist Margaret Mead. My hope is not only for you but for everyone else as well. Remember, dreams really do come true. Thank you again for the opportunity to present my speech. I hope you all have a wonderful year."

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President welcomed and introduced Mr. Samuel Green, Washington State's Poet Laureate, who was seated at the rostrum.

With permission of the Senate, business was suspended to allow Washington State Poet Laureate Samuel Green to address the Senate.

INTRODUCTION OF SPECIAL GUESTS

The President introduced Samuel Green's wife Sally who was seated at the rostrum and Kris Tucker, the Executive Director of the Washington States Arts Commission.

REMARKS BY SAMUEL GREEN

Samuel Green: "Mr. President, members of the Senate, guests. It's such an honor to be here. I spend a great deal of my time traveling from place to place teaching poetry. You spend your's moving among your constituents keeping in touch. No doubt many of you have stopped to get a bite to eat before moving on to another meeting at some fast food place. I was doing just that once, eating Chinese food in a supermarket on the Kitsap Peninsula hoping for enough strength to get me through two classes of seventh graders when I noticed an elderly man come to the door in the arm of a much younger woman, his daughter I thought. She patted him, excuse me, she led him to a table and helped him sit down, patted him fondly on the shoulder and went off. He was wearing a tweed jacket with a handkerchief in the breast pocket and I wrote this poem of a record of what happened next.

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 14, 2008

“Old man folding a kerchief in the supermarket. He has used it to wipe the filth from the table where his daughter has left him to do her shopping. Spilling it from the pocket of his jacket like a small blue lake, the color of an old house dress. Now, he is folding it back into shape with blunt fingers watching intently his hands as though they might betray him. For ten minutes this has been his work and he has gathered all the deliberate threads of his attention into this single act oblivious to the fact that anyone might be watching, that he might be teaching us all how to live. You and I share a job in common, we have to take the apparently disparate and put it together so that it’s useful to as many people as possible. All my life I trusted poetry to do this for me, the making of it, the careful reading of it, the unexpected encounter with it in odd places. The old man in this poem reminds us I think how important it is to pay attention, that excellence is adequate, that even the smallest jobs are worthy of our best work. At the beginning a new year with so much labor ahead of us he’s a good companion for us all I think. Thank you for your kind attention.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Brown: “Thank you Mr. President. Well, I wanted to say a big welcome to everyone. To you Mr. President, thank you for being back with again this session and to all the Senate staff both those at the rostrum and those who have been working behind the scenes to prepare the chamber for our arrival. We’re back, for better or worse. To all my forty-eight colleagues as well, welcome back. In particular to the Senators who are new with us this session, Senator King and Senator McDermott, welcome to both of you. This session will not be quite as short as the special session that you experienced with us but we hope it will be a very productive session. I just want to say on behalf of those Senators who are grappling right now in their districts with the aftermath of the storm and flood damage that our hearts go out to you and to your constituents and that we do plan to announce very soon a process, a Senate work group that all Senators will be invited to participate in. It will be headed by Senator Fraser in which we can bring our concerns and ideas forward so that we can get on top of being able to provide some assistance in this very short session. Again, welcome to all and hopes for a very productive session.”

MOTION

On motion of Senator Eide, the Senate advanced to the third order of business.

MESSAGE FROM SECRETARY OF STATE

The Honorable
President of the Senate
The Legislature of the State of Washington
Olympia, Washington

I, Sam Reed, Secretary of State of the State of Washington, do hereby certify that according to the provisions of RCW 29A.60.260, I have canvassed the returns of the 1,645,652 votes cast by the 3,288,642 registered voters of the state for and against the initiative, referendum and resolutions which were submitted to the vote of the people at the state general election held on the 6th day of November, 2007, as received from the County Auditors.

Initiative Measure No. 960

”Initiative Measure No. 960 concerns tax and fee increases imposed by state government. This measure would require two-thirds legislative approval or voter approval for tax increases, legislative approval of fee increases, certain published information on tax-increasing bills, and advisory votes on taxes enacted without voter approval.”

Yes 816,792
No 777,125

Referendum Measure No. 67

”The legislature passed Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 5726 (ESSB 5726) concerning insurance fair conduct related to claims for coverage or benefits and voters have filed a sufficient referendum petition on this bill.

This bill would make it unlawful for insurers to unreasonably deny certain coverage claims, and permit treble damages plus attorney fees for that and other violations. Some health insurance carriers would be exempt.”

Approved 910,598
Rejected 695,326

Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution 8206

”The legislature has proposed a constitutional amendment on establishment of a budget stabilization account.

This amendment would require the legislature to transfer 1% of general state revenues to a budget stabilization account each year and prohibit expenditures from the account except as set forth in the amendment.”

Approved 1,048,562
Rejected 499,292

Senate Joint Resolution 8212

“The legislature has proposed a constitutional amendment on inmate labor.

This amendment would authorize state-operated inmate labor programs and programs in which inmate labor is used by private entities through state contracts, and prohibit privately operated programs from unfairly competing with Washington businesses.”

Approved 937,557
Rejected 606,863

Engrossed House Joint Resolution 4204

”The legislature has proposed a constitutional amendment on school district tax levies.

This amendment would provide for approval of school district excess property tax levies by simple majority vote of participating voters, and would eliminate supermajority approval requirements based on voter turnout in previous elections.”

Approved 811,507
Rejected 792,010

Substitute House Joint Resolution 4215

”The legislature has proposed a constitutional amendment on investment of higher education permanent funds.

This amendment would authorize the investment of money in higher education permanent funds as permitted by law, and would permit investment in stocks or bonds issued by any company, if authorized by law.”

Approved 831,699
Rejected 695,663

I further certify that, according to the provisions of RCW 42.07.030, I have canvassed the returns of the votes cast at the state general election held on the 6th day of November, 2007, for

FIRST DAY, JANUARY 14, 2008
all legislative and joint judicial offices, and that the votes cast for candidates for these offices are as follows:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Eide, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

MOTION

Senator Eide moved adoption of the following resolution:

SENATE RESOLUTION 8694

By Senators Eide and Schoesler

WHEREAS, The Senate adopted permanent rules for the 2007-09 biennium under Senate Floor Resolution No. 8601 in 2007; and

WHEREAS, The notice requirements set forth in Senate Rule 35 have been satisfied; and

WHEREAS, The Senate desires to clarify the application of scope and object standards to title-only bills;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That Rule 66 of the Permanent Rules of the Senate is amended as follows:

"Rule 66. No amendment to any bill shall be allowed which shall change the scope and object of the bill. (See also Art. 2, Sec. 38, State Constitution.) Substitute bills shall be considered amendments for the purposes of this rule. A point of order raising the question of scope and object may be raised at any time during consideration of an amendment prior to voting on the amendment. A proposed amendment to an unamended title-only bill shall be within the scope and object of the bill if the subject of the amendment fits within the language in the title."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of Senate Resolution No. 8694.

The motion by Senator Eide carried and the resolution was adopted by voice vote.
