

refunding bond proceeds and other funds, and the income therefrom shall be used to pay and secure the payment of the principal of and interest on the advance refunding bonds. The governing body may additionally pledge for the payment of such revenue refunding bonds any revenues which might legally be pledged for the payment of revenue bonds of the issuer of the type being refunded. Provisions must be made by the governing body for moneys sufficient in amount to accomplish the refunding as scheduled.

Sec. 6. Section 11, chapter 138, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 39.53.100 are each amended to read as follows:

((When funds and investments and the known earned income therefrom in amounts sufficient to pay the principal of and interest and any premium on general obligation bonds to be refunded as they become due at their respective maturities or at the date fixed for redemption have been irrevocably pledged to the general obligation bonds to be refunded; such bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness of the public body within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation)) In computing indebtedness for the purpose of any constitutional or statutory debt limitation there shall be deducted from the amount of outstanding indebtedness the amounts of money and investments credited to or on deposit for general obligation bond retirement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The state may issue general obligation bonds to refund any special revenue obligations of the state at or prior to the date they mature or are subject to redemption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. This 1973 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.
