CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF LEONDIS DAVONE BERRY

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2002, Leondis Davone Berry pleaded guilty to six counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 01-1-05494-1. These convictions followed events in which Mr. Berry, to fuel his drug addiction, engaged in a series of robberies and home invasions while armed with a revolver.

WHEREAS, these convictions also included four firearm enhancements, each of which carried a 60-month sentence, to be served consecutively. Mr. Berry was sentenced to 369 total months of confinement and has an earned release date of January 2029.

WHEREAS, Mr. Berry has served over 19 years in prison for these convictions. His criminal history is a product of his challenges with substance addiction.

WHEREAS, ten years ago Mr. Berry turned his life around. He has been sober since 2010, and he married in 2011.

WHEREAS, Mr. Berry suffered his first heart attack at age 31. Though not yet 50 years old, he has since experienced additional heart attacks.

WHEREAS, in September 2020, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Berry's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Berry has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he has broad family and community support, including housing options upon his release as well as multiple job opportunities awaiting him.

WHEREAS, the King County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Berry's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Berry's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Berry's strong familial and community support network, as well as the housing and work opportunities awaiting him should he be released.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Leondis Davone Berry's 2002 sentence on six counts of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in King County Superior Court Cause No. 01-1-05494-1, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by DOC in an in-custody transition plan, to be completed no later than February 1, 2022. While in custody, Mr. Berry must successfully complete a DOC-approved six-month work-release program. If Mr. Berry satisfies all phases of his in-custody transition plan by February

2022 REGULAR SESSION

1, 2022, DOC shall have the authority to release him after approving his offender release plan and completing all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Berry must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Berry shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, rules, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Regardless of risk, maintain contact frequencies with a CCO, including physically reporting at least once a month, unless DOC advises otherwise.
4. Be available for regular contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
5. As directed by DOC, obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational, vocational, or other programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
6. Participate in cognitive behavioral intervention programming as directed by DOC.
7. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
8. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
9. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
10. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons, as determined by DOC.
11. Complete a chemical dependency assessment within six months of release to the community, and follow/complete any treatment recommendations, as directed by DOC.
12. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
13. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
14. Have no contact with known criminal felons, drug users or dealers, or individuals on active community supervision or in prison unless approved by DOC.
15. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Berry shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Berry is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Berry to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Berry if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Berry violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Berry will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Berry has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Berry is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Berry submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Berry an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Berry has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Berry is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Berry will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Berry may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Berry may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Berry will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the state of Washington to be affixed at Olympia this 15th day of January, A.D., two thousand and twenty-one.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF KEITH DWAIN BIRCH

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2007, a jury found Keith Dwain Birch guilty of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Spokane County Superior Court Cause No. 05-1-04626-1. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Birch, unemployed and substance addicted, robbed a bank by handing a note to the teller that demanded money. He was unarmed and committed no physical violence.

WHEREAS, this conviction followed two other earlier convictions on "strike" offenses, resulting in Mr. Birch being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, Mr. Birch has now served over 13 years in prison for this crime. One of Mr. Birch's "strike" convictions is a robbery conviction from California that is the legal equivalent of Washington's second degree robbery.

WHEREAS, in 2019 the Washington State Legislature passed ESSB 5288, which prospectively removed second degree robbery from the list of most serious offenses under the state's persistent offender statute. So, were Mr. Birch to be convicted on the present offense today, he would not qualify as a persistent offender.

WHEREAS, Mr. Birch has had no serious prison infractions since 2011.

WHEREAS, much of Mr. Birch's criminal history can be attributed to his challenges with substance addiction. He has maintained sobriety since January 2007.

WHEREAS, in December 2020, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Birch's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Birch has used money from his late mother's estate to pay over $10,000 in legal financial obligations. He has an offer for housing in Spokane County, should he be released from prison, and he has employment skills in energy systems technology that he obtained while incarcerated.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Birch's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Birch's remorse and rehabilitation while incarcerated, his community network and his financial resources, and his taking the initiative to proactively pay his legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Keith Dwain Birch's 2007 conviction for FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Spokane County Superior Court Cause No. 05-1-04626-1, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in the below community transition plan. Under this plan, Mr. Birch must first complete a chemical dependency assessment as well as any in-custody treatment recommendations. Then, once that is complete, DOC shall have the authority to release Mr. Birch to the community as soon as DOC approves his offender release plan and completes all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Birch must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Mr. Birch shall:

1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, or instructions issued by DOC.
2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
3. Be available for regular contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.
4. Physically report to DOC at least once per month, regardless of risk, as directed and at the discretion of DOC.
5. Participate in polygraph examinations, as directed by DOC, to verify compliance with this order.

ALYSSA CYRENE KNIGHT

To All to whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2004, Alyssa Cyrene Knight was convicted of SECOND DEGREE MURDER, in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-03448-8, and sentenced to 270 months in prison, after she and her accomplices conspired to rob a man, then during the robbery, one of the accomplices shot and killed the victim.

WHEREAS, Ms. Knight has served over 16 years on her sentence. She is scheduled to be released from custody as early as January 2025. Two of her other non-shooter conspirators received sentences of less than seven years on the same offense and were released from incarceration after less than four years.

WHEREAS, this is the only criminal conviction on Ms. Knight's record. While incarcerated, Ms. Knight has had no infractions since 2006. She has paid off all her legal financial obligations, over $21,500.

WHEREAS, while in custody, Ms. Knight has excelled with college courses she has taken. She has earned her associates degree and maintained a near-perfect grade point average.

WHEREAS, at its June 2019 hearing, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Ms. Knight's clemency petition, which included several letters of support from family and other community supporters. The testimony before the Board was that upon release from custody, Ms. Knight plans to continue her college education. She has been accepted to several undergraduate programs, including the University of Washington. She also has a strong familial support network that will provide housing and other support.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the governor commute Ms. Knight's sentence. The Board cited Ms. Knight's strong support network, her housing and education prospects upon release, and the relatively lengthy sentence she received, compared to that of the other two non-shooter accomplices. And,

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Alyssa Cyrene Knight's sentence for her 2004 conviction for SECOND DEGREE MURDER in Spokane County Superior Court, Cause No. 03-1-03448-8, conditioned on her agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in a transition plan. Under this transition plan, Ms. Knight shall be released from custody as soon as DOC approves her release plan and completes all statutorily-required notifications. Following her release from custody, Ms. Knight shall serve 36 months of community supervision. During her time in custody and on community supervision, Ms. Knight must comply with any conditions set by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

Ms. Knight shall:

1. Obey all laws and follow standard DOC conditions for supervision or other DOC orders or directives;
2. Abide by the terms of her judgment and sentence order;
3. Report regularly to her community corrections officer as directed by DOC;
4. Participate in DOC-approved education, employment, and/or community service programs as directed by DOC;
5. Complete a mental health evaluation and recommended treatment while in the community, as directed by DOC;
6. Complete a chemical dependency assessment and follow any recommended treatment while in the community, as directed by DOC;
7. Abstain from using or possessing alcohol and drugs/paraphernalia, including medications, marijuana, spice, or other mind and mood altering substances, unless prescribed by a licensed medical doctor;
8. Submit to regular and/or random urinalysis and breathalyzer testing as directed by DOC;
9. Not possess, receive, or transport a firearm, deadly weapon, or ammunition as defined and determined by DOC;
10. Receive prior approval from DOC for living arrangements, residence locations, and residence location changes;
11. Allow DOC to conduct home, employment, and stakeholder visits as DOC deems appropriate, including inspection of common areas and places to which she has access;
12. Remain within a geographic county of approved residence unless granted DOC permission to travel outside county of residence;
13. Not visit geographic areas or certain classes of business establishments as determined by DOC, and not associate with known felons or gang members or their associates as determined by DOC.
14. Report contact with law enforcement to DOC within 24 hours of occurrence;

PROVIDED, that Ms. Knight shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by that agency during the term of her community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Ms. Knight is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Ms. Knight to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Ms. Knight if she violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Knight violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Knight will be immediately returned to any such facility as the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation will then be mailed to the most recent address Ms. Knight has provided to the Office of the governor or, if Ms. Knight is in custody, to her place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Ms. Knight submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that she has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Ms. Knight an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that she has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the governor for the governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Ms. Knight has violated the conditions of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Ms. Knight is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Ms. Knight will be immediately returned to any such facility that the Secretary of the DOC deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Ms. Knight may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that she would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Ms. Knight may abscond if not detained. If detained, Ms. Knight will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe she has violated the above conditions.

FULL AND UNCONDITIONAL PARDON OF CHRISTIAN CLYDE LEIGH

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2010, Christian Clyde Leigh pleaded guilty to POSSESSION OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE in Clallam County Superior Court, Cause No. 10-1- 00240-4, and in 2011 he pleaded guilty to two counts of DELIVERY OF A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE in Clallam County Superior Court, Cause No. 11-1- 00206-2. These convictions resulted from a drug addiction that Mr. Leigh experienced dating back to his early teen years.

WHEREAS, Mr. Leigh accepts responsibility for his behavior, and he has satisfied all the conditions of his sentence, including paying all of his legal financial obligations.

WHEREAS, Mr. Leigh has no other criminal history. He has maintained his sobriety since July 2011 and regularly attends substance abuse support meetings.

WHEREAS, since these convictions, Mr. Leigh has earned his associate's and bachelor's degrees, married, and become a father and homeowner. He has also worked at a Portland semiconductor business since 2017.

WHEREAS, in December 2020, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Leigh's petition for a pardon. At his hearing, Mr. Leigh presented evidence that professionally, he is poised to climb within his company, where he will be asked to conduct international business and travel overseas. These convictions, however, prevent him from being able to take those international business trips.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Leigh a full pardon. The Board cited Mr. Leigh's clean criminal record since these crimes, his growth and maturation, his educational accomplishments, and how these convictions limit his professional prospects.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crimes, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

INTOXICATED in Island County Superior Court, Cause No. 87-1-00064-9. These convictions followed events in which an intoxicated Mr. Linton led a pursuing Washington State Patrol trooper on a high-speed chase before eventually surrendering.

WHEREAS, Mr. Linton accepts responsibility for his behavior, and he has satisfied the conditions of his sentence.

WHEREAS, Mr. Linton has no other criminal history. In 2016, the Island County Superior Court vacated this conviction from Mr. Linton's record; and then in 2018, the court reinstated Mr. Linton's firearm rights in Washington State.

WHEREAS, since this conviction, Mr. Linton married and now has an adult son. He lives in Nevada.

WHEREAS, in December 2020, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Linton's petition for a pardon. He testified that only a pardon will allow him to possess firearms in his home state of Nevada.

WHEREAS, the Island County Prosecuting Attorney does not oppose Mr. Linton's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board voted unanimously to recommend that the Governor grant Mr. Linton a full pardon. The Board cited Mr. Linton's clean criminal record since this 1987 incident.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF MARCUS XAVIER PRICE

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 1995, a jury convicted Marcus Xavier Price of FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-04687-1. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Price, after a night of drinking and while armed, robbed a Tacoma convenience store.

WHEREAS, this conviction followed other earlier serious felony convictions, resulting in Mr. Price being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole under Washington's persistent offender statute. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, Mr. Price would have been released from prison several years ago.

WHEREAS, Mr. Price has served roughly 25 years in prison for this crime. One of the other serious felony offenses on Mr. Price's record, another of his "strike" offenses, is for attempted second degree robbery.

WHEREAS, in 2019 the Washington State Legislature passed ESSB 5288, which prospectively removed second degree robbery from the list of serious offenses under the state's persistent offender statute. So, were Mr. Price to be convicted on the present offense today, he would not qualify as a persistent offender.

WHEREAS, the Department of Corrections now classifies Mr. Price as a low risk to reoffend. He has not received an infraction since 2012.

WHEREAS, in September 2020, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Price's clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Price has shown remorse for his past conduct, and he has broad family and community support, including housing options upon his release as well as professional opportunities awaiting him. He intends to release to Pioneer Human Services' roadmap to success program.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Price's petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Price's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited the fact that by today's legal standards, Mr. Price would not be a persistent offender and would have been released from prison on this offense several years ago, the support of the Pierce County Prosecutor's Office, his recent prison record, and his prospects for work in the community.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Marcus Xavier Price's 1995 sentence for FIRST DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 94-1-04687-1, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in the below community transition plan. Under this plan, Mr. Price must first complete a chemical dependency assessment as well as any in-custody treatment recommendations. Then, once that is complete, DOC shall have the authority to release Mr. Price as soon as DOC approves his offender release plan and completes all appropriate statutory notifications. He will then begin serving 36 months of DOC community supervision. During this period in custody and under community supervision, Mr. Price must comply with any conditions set forth by DOC. These conditions shall include, but not be limited to the following:

- Mr. Price shall:
1. Obey all laws and abide by all written or verbal conditions, prohibitions, rules, or instructions issued by DOC.
  2. Comply with all applicable judgment and sentence orders.
  3. Regardless of risk, maintain contact frequencies with a CCO, including physically reporting at least once a month, unless DOC advises otherwise.
  4. Be available for regular contact with DOC as directed, and consent to DOC home and employment visits and/or searches, including searches of person, automobiles, personal property, electronic devices, or social media accounts.

5. As directed by DOC, obtain DOC-approved employment or enroll in DOC-approved educational, vocational, or other programming, and report it to DOC along with changes in status.
6. Reside in DOC-approved housing, and obtain DOC permission before changing residences or taking overnight visits away from the DOC-approved residence, even if just for one night.
7. Not travel outside his county of residence without written DOC approval, or remain in, or out of, a given geographical area as directed by DOC.
8. Not operate a motor vehicle without a valid driver's license and registration.
9. Not possess firearms, ammunition, explosives, or dangerous weapons, as determined by DOC.
10. Complete a chemical dependency assessment and follow/complete any treatment recommendations, as directed by DOC.
11. Not possess in the home, or use, alcohol or controlled substances, including medications or marijuana or paraphernalia, without a valid physician's prescription and DOC approval.
12. Be subject to regular drug and alcohol testing as directed by DOC.
13. Have no contact with known criminal felons, drug users or dealers, or individuals on active community supervision or in prison unless approved by DOC.
14. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.
15. Be subject to GPS placement or electronic home monitoring during the first 60 days of his release, as determined by DOC.
16. Complete the Pioneer Human Services' roadmap to success program.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Price shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Price is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Price to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Price if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Price violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Price will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Price has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Price is in custody, to his place of detention. If within 14 calendar days of the mailing of the notice, Mr. Price submits a sworn statement made under penalty of perjury that he has, in fact, complied with all conditions of this Conditional Commutation, the Governor shall appoint a hearing officer. The hearing officer will provide Mr. Price an opportunity to be heard and to present witnesses and documentary evidence that he has met all conditions upon which the Conditional Commutation is granted. The hearing officer shall present findings of fact and a transcript of the hearing to the Governor for the Governor's final and conclusive determination on whether Mr. Price has violated the terms of this Conditional Commutation.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Price is convicted anywhere at any time of any offense the elements of which would classify the crime as a gross misdemeanor or felony in the state of Washington, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Price will be immediately returned to any such facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that Mr. Price may be detained pending judicial disposition of any new criminal charge or a final determination of whether a condition of this Conditional Commutation has been violated, if the Governor determines there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions of this Conditional Commutation, reason to be concerned that he would pose a risk to any person or to the community, or that there is a possibility that Mr. Price may abscond if not detained. If detained, Mr. Price will be provided a preliminary hearing, as promptly as convenient after arrest, to determine whether there are reasonable grounds to believe he has violated the above conditions.

CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2005, a jury found Cornell Shegog guilty of SECOND DEGREE ROBBERY in Pierce County Superior Court Cause No. 05-1-00152-8. He was confronted as he fled, and in what was a brief physical struggle, he surrendered the meats.

WHEREAS, this conviction followed other earlier second degree robbery convictions, resulting in Mr. Shegog being sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole, under Washington's persistent offender statute. Had he not been sentenced as a persistent offender, Mr. Shegog would have been released from prison several years ago.

WHEREAS, in 2019 the Washington State Legislature passed ESSB 5288, which prospectively removed second degree robbery from the list of most serious offenses under the state's persistent offender statute. WHEREAS, Mr. Shegog has had no major prison infractions since 2011.

He already has housing and job opportunities available to him upon his release from custody.

WHEREAS, the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney supports Mr. Shegog's clemency petition.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Shegog's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Shegog's strong familial and community support network, his remorse and growth over the term of his incarceration, the support of the Pierce County Prosecuting Attorney, and the change in law that-by today's standards-would not classify any of his criminal convictions as "strike" offenses under Washington's persistent offender statute.

WHEREAS, for this conviction, Mr. Tash was sentenced to life in prison without the possibility of parole, and he has served roughly 30 years.

He has maintained his sobriety during his term of custody.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Tash's sentence. In making this recommendation, the Board cited Mr. Tash's lengthy incarceration, his maturation and remorse, and his strong support system and community transition plan.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, and the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board and, in light of the foregoing, I have determined that the best interests of justice will be served by this action.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jay Inslee, by virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the state of Washington, adopt the recommendation of the Clemency and Pardons Board and hereby COMMUTE Daniel J. Tash's 1991 sentence for AGGRAVATED MURDER in Kitsap County Superior Court Cause No. 91-1-00148-9, conditioned on his written agreement to comply with all terms outlined by the Department of Corrections (DOC) in the below community transition plan. 17. Report to DOC all law enforcement contacts within 24 hours of occurrence.

PROVIDED, that Mr. Tash shall remain under DOC supervision and explicitly follow the conditions established by DOC during the term of his community supervision. Violation of any of the above conditions shall result in sanctions as deemed appropriate by DOC and may result in the termination of this Conditional Commutation as provided below. If Mr. Tash is taken into custody following any alleged violation, DOC shall hold a Community Custody Hearing. DOC may also require Mr. Tash to perform affirmative acts deemed appropriate to monitor compliance with the conditions and may issue warrants or detain Mr. Tash if he violates a condition.

ADDITIONALLY PROVIDED, that in the event Mr. Tash violates any of the conditions of this Conditional Commutation, as determined by the Governor, this Conditional Commutation may be revoked or amended and the sentence of the court reinstated, whereupon Mr. Tash will be immediately returned to any facility that the DOC Secretary deems appropriate. If any such violation occurs, DOC shall provide a written report to the Governor regarding the violation. A written notice of the Governor's intent to review the alleged violations and revoke or amend the Conditional Commutation may then be mailed to the most recent address Mr. Tash has provided to the Office of the Governor or, if Mr. Tash is in custody, to his place of detention. #### CONDITIONAL COMMUTATION OF RICHARD EUGENE TULLIS

To All to Whom These Presents Shall Come, Greetings:

WHEREAS, in 2000, Richard Eugene Tullis pleaded guilty to FIRST DEGREE MURDER WITH A FIREARM ENHANCEMENT in Stevens County Superior Court, Cause No. 99-1-00139-1. This conviction followed events in which Mr. Tullis, as an 18-year old in 1999, joined three other young men to go target shooting, and while walking to their destination, one of the men fired several bullets into one of the other men. Fearing that he might be the next victim, Tullis joined in and shot, kicked, and urinated on the victim's dead corpse.

WHEREAS, Mr. Tullis was sentenced to 25 years in prison on this conviction, and he has now served over 21 years. His earliest earned release date is July 2024.

WHEREAS, Mr. Tullis has no other felonies on his record.

WHEREAS, in March 2018, the Clemency and Pardons Board reviewed Mr. Tullis' clemency petition. The testimony before the Board was that Mr. Tullis cooperated with law enforcement in the prosecution of his co-defendants, he has a solid family and community support network, and his reentry plan accounts for housing, employment, and other transitional support.

WHEREAS, Mr. Tullis' clemency petition was accompanied by the support of the Stevens County Prosecuting Attorney's Office.

WHEREAS, the Clemency and Pardons Board unanimously voted in March 2018 to recommend that the Governor commute Mr. Tullis' sentence. WHEREAS, in December 2018, I denied Mr. Tullis' petition. In March 2021, Mr. Tullis petitioned for my reconsideration, noting that one of his co-defendants-a more culpable individual sentenced to a lengthier 40-year sentence-has since been released from custody by the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board. Mr. Tullis' petition for reconsideration also noted that Mr. Tullis has earned his associate's degree, and will soon be certified as a licensed electrician with robust job prospects in the Puget Sound corridor.

WHEREAS, I have reviewed all pertinent facts and circumstances surrounding this matter, the circumstances of the involved crime, the favorable recommendation of the Washington State Clemency and Pardons Board, and the events that have DOC.

14. Have no contact with known criminal felons, drug users or dealers, or gang members unless approved by DOC.
