REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "The President confesses confusion. Is not sure on whether to call on Senator Billig or Padden or Wilson or Holy rather for a very brief point of personal privilege. One of you is going to get it here pretty quick. Senator Padden!"

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Padden: "Well, I don't know if anybody here saw the game between St. Mary's and Gonzaga here on Saturday night, but it was a great victory for our school from the Spokane area and allowed them to be co-champions again of the West Coast Conference. So, hats off to the Zags."

President Heck: "Your point is very well taken, now that you finally have it. Senator Billig."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Billig: "Thank you Mr. President. I felt I needed to rise after I heard the remarks from Senator Padden who, I really appreciate it, but he neglected to mention that the Gonzaga University Bulldogs are in the Third Legislative District. And, Mr. President, I actually wanted to invite you to make a remark as well as, I think, our leader in this area of the state."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "The President will be withholding his remarks until after we win the tournament."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5341, by Senators Muzzall, Shewmake, Van De Wege, Torres, Warnick, Kuderer, Lias, Stanford and Wilson, C.

Creating a location-based branding and promotion program for Washington food and agricultural products.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Van De Wege moved that the following striking amendment no. 0036 by Senator Van De Wege be adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that Washington is one of only five states in the nation without a state program to help food and agricultural producers promote their products based on where the product is grown, raised, or caught. The legislature further finds that a location-based promotion program will help consumers support Washington producers and the state's agricultural economy by building upon Washington's strong reputation for characteristics like food quality and food safety, which are key factors in consumer purchasing decisions.

(2) The legislature recognizes that recent food policy forum reports to the legislature recommend creation of a program to promote Washington food and agricultural products, and that such a location-based brand recognition program would help identify Washington products for procurement by schools and other public institutions and would provide strong marketing tools to help differentiate Washington products, making them more visible to consumers and more competitive in the local, state, regional, national, and international marketplace. The legislature further recognizes that a new program is needed because a previous promotion program, which was formally dissolved in 2008 and was based primarily on one-time federal funding, did not provide a sustainable structure or a statutory framework that was suitable for most Washington food and agricultural producers.

(3) The legislature therefore intends that the Washington department of agriculture gather advisory committee input and submit recommendations to the legislature prior to developing a location-based promotion program that is voluntary, sustainable, and suitable for Washington food and agricultural producers. The legislature further intends that this program provide support for food producers across the state in a manner that is equitable and inclusive of all scales of Washington agriculture including, but not limited to, serving historically underrepresented producers, producers from less resourced geographies, and producers with less access to support systems and funding.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Agricultural product" has the same meaning as the term "agricultural commodities" in RCW 15.66.010, and is broadly construed to include, but is not limited to, all agricultural products or commodities grown or raised on Washington lands or caught in Washington waters, or foods, including processed or manufactured foods, containing such agricultural products.

(2) "Department" means the Washington department of agriculture.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department or the director's designee.

(4) "Food" has the same meaning as the term "food" in RCW 15.130.110.

(5) "Program" means the location-based promotion program created in this chapter to promote local food and agricultural products and make them more visible to consumers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The director must establish an advisory committee with representatives from interested agricultural and food production organizations for the purpose of identifying the appropriate scope and nature of a voluntary location-based program to brand and promote local food and agricultural products. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2024, the director must submit a report containing recommendations for program development and implementation to the appropriate committees of the legislature.

(2) The report submitted under subsection (1) of this section must include, but is not limited to, department and advisory committee recommendations on how best to proceed or not proceed with developing and implementing the following program elements:

FIFTIETH DAY, FEBRUARY 27, 2023

2023 REGULAR SESSION

(a) Eligibility criteria for: (i) The use of location-based branding sanctioned by the program to identify where an agricultural product was grown, raised, or caught; (ii) the use of location-based branding sanctioned by the program for processed or manufactured food products containing such agricultural products; and (iii) participating in program-sanctioned promotional activities for the agricultural products or foods containing the agricultural products. The criteria must include, but are not limited to, identifying thresholds for the necessary amount of time a product has been located within a specific geographical area in Washington, within lands or waters of Washington, or within lands or waters of other Pacific Northwest states or provinces neighboring Washington, and thresholds for the necessary amount of such food products in a processed or manufactured food product, to be eligible;

(b) Application, approval, certification, verification, renewal, audit, enforcement, or cancellation procedures for using product identification, branding, logos, or labels sanctioned by the program, or for participating in program-sanctioned promotional activities;

(c) Licensing fees, fee waivers, cost recovery mechanisms, or fee structures for membership, for using product identification, branding, logos, or labels sanctioned by the program, or for participating in program-sanctioned promotional activities;

(d) Creation, purchase, acquisition, protection, and blending of brand, logo, and trademark ownership or licensing rights;

(e) Cooperative agreements to jointly carry out program or program-sanctioned activities and administration; and

(f) Any other action designed to help Washington food and agricultural producers promote their products and make them more visible and appealing to consumers and more competitive in the local, regional, national, and international marketplace of their choice including, but not limited to, retail stores, farmers markets, schools, restaurants, institutions, and other market channels.

(3) Following submission of the report required in subsection (1) of this section, the director may adopt rules as necessary to implement the program. These rules may include any recommended fees or structures for determining fees, fee waivers, cost recovery mechanisms, or other elements listed in subsection (2) of this section. Rules consistent with the recommendations submitted in the report qualify for expedited rule making under RCW 34.05.353. Prior to creating criteria related to particular agricultural products under the jurisdiction of an agricultural board or commission organized under state law, the director must consult with representatives of the appropriate board or commission. If the rules include a structure for determining fees, the director may subsequently amend the rules and increase or decrease fees consistent with the structure for determining fees.

(4) Nothing in this chapter precludes or prohibits the department or others, including but not limited to other agencies, boards, commissions, and associations, from separately promoting the origin of food and agricultural products grown, raised, or caught in Washington. Such promotional activities must be consistent with pertinent legal authorities including, but not limited to, RCW 15.130.210, which prohibits misbranding of food origins as part of Washington's food safety and security act, chapter 15.130 RCW, and RCW 15.04.410, which relies on Washington's consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW, and prohibits false retail sale declarations related to agricultural products held out as Washington agricultural products that are not in fact Washington agricultural products.

(5) Funds received for the purposes of this chapter must be deposited in the agricultural local fund created in RCW 43.23.230 to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(6) The department must actively seek nonstate funding sources to support program operation and may receive gifts, grants, or endowments from private or public sources, made in trust or otherwise, for the use and benefit of the program, consistent with the provisions of this chapter and any terms of the gift, grant, or endowment. Expenditures may be used only for those purposes identified in this chapter. Only the director of agriculture or the director's designee may authorize expenditures of the gifts, grants, or endowments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This chapter may be known and cited as the Washington food and agricultural product promotion act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 4 of this act constitute a new chapter in Title 15 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) RCW 15.105.005 (Findings) and 2004 c 26 s 1;
- (2) RCW 15.105.010 (Definitions) and 2004 c 26 s 2;
- (3) RCW 15.105.020 (Establishing a private, nonprofit corporation—Duties of successor organization—Debts and other liabilities) and 2021 c 176 s 5203 & 2004 c 26 s 3;
- (4) RCW 15.105.030 (Actions by department to establish a successor organization) and 2004 c 26 s 4;
- (5) RCW 15.105.040 (Board of directors of the successor organization—State membership) and 2004 c 26 s 5;
- (6) RCW 15.105.050 (Program logo) and 2004 c 26 s 6;
- (7) RCW 15.105.060 (Gifts, grants, or endowments) and 2004 c 26 s 7; and
- (8) RCW 15.105.901 (Effective date—2004 c 26) and 2004 c 26 s 10."

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "Relating to" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating a location-based promotion program for Washington food and agricultural products; adding a new chapter to Title 15 RCW; and repealing RCW 15.105.005, 15.105.010, 15.105.020, 15.105.030, 15.105.040, 15.105.050, 15.105.060, and 15.105.901."

Senators Van De Wege and Muzzall spoke in favor of adoption of the striking amendment.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the adoption of striking amendment no. 0036 by Senator Van De Wege to Senate Bill No. 5341.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Frame: "Thank you Mr. President. I rise as this is the first bill I have passed in the Senate that is my own. I rise to acknowledge the tradition here in the Senate of offering all members a first gift. Mr. President, in my remarks I mentioned so many iconic things about my district but the thing that is most iconic about my district are the thousands of small businesses peppered throughout all of our neighborhood business districts.

And so the gifts before you Mr. President were procured from small businesses throughout my district. Every gift is individual. Some of them specific to the human being that received it. I will take no offense if anybody wants to exchange their gift. There is a guide inside that bag that tells you what you got and what your colleagues got. I will note Mr. President yours was much funnier before you shaved, so you might talk to Senator Muzzall about exchanging gifts. Just a suggestion. If you want to regift it I will not be offended. But with every bag not only is the gift but the gift card or information about the small business from which it was procured. So, shop local. Enjoy your gift. And if you have any questions, come ask me. Thank you Mr. President."

The President welcomed Senator Frame to the Senate and thanked her for the gifts.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Liias: "Well Mr. President, I just wanted to say that the gifts that Senator Frame gave us are indicative of her. Incredibly thoughtful, super detail oriented, and way over the top Mr. President. But I do just want to give her kudos for giving thoughtful individualized gifts to the folks at the rostrum. We are heading into two weeks of maelstrom like activity and so I think that our Secretary, our Deputy Secretary, our readers, and our counsel, they deserve these gifts and more. So kudos to Senator Frame for thinking of all of you up there. Thank you Mr. President."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Heck: "The President would like to encourage each and every member to go back in the rules and read the definition of a point of personal privilege. Senator Hawkins state, what I am certain is not going to be, a point of personal privilege."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hawkins: "Thank you Mr. President. You are too kind. So, I too, would like to congratulate Senator Frame on the passage of her first bill. And I too, would like to thank her for her thoughtfulness of her gifts. You were probably too busy up there to recognize when you were asking about the other gift, but I took a chance to look over the list and I will point out for example, Mr. President, you have received the Philosophy of Beards book. And I remember when you had the beard and everything years ago. That was before we met but I remember. And Senator Liias who just spoke kindly, received the Finland hat. And Senator Cleveland, being close to Oregon, the Oregon Trail mug. Senator Dhingra, the rebel rose candle, how appropriate. But I do question..."

President Heck: "Senator Hawkins. The rules require that you seek permission to read from a document."

Senator Hawkins: "Actually, I was just looking at it. I had it memorized. May I read from the document Mr. President?"

President Heck: "Please proceed."

Senator Hawkins: "So, you know, so thoughtful. But then Senator Hasegawa, when we get to the 'H's, a lump of coal soap. And Senator Hawkins, the eco-towel and red panda plant art which I didn't realize but you can actually decorate your plants. And I am really excited about this. Um, so I just wanted to welcome Senator Frame to the Senate and thank her for her generosity and her individual-ness. And the only thing that bums me out about having Senator Frame in the Senate is I can no longer rely on her in the House to help pass my bills which she has been so helpful with in past years. So, anyway, congratulations and thank you.”

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hasegawa: “Thank you Mr. President. Well, Senator Frame is obviously a great Padawan because I told her a story of when I first did my first floor speech and Renton is a coal mining town. So, what I did was I had our pages hand out a lump of coal to everybody. Of course, I handed out more later on but the point is an I don’t think she is actually telling the truth when she says lump of coal so may I read what she actually gave me?”

President Heck: “Please proceed.”

Senator Hasegawa: “With your indulgence Mr. President. It’s a Big A-- Lump of Coal soap. Not exactly what I expect from my Padawan.”

President Heck: “You impugn her motives, and you did not maintain the decorum of the Senate by that reference and so, with your indulgence, we are going to move on.”

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 5166, by Senators Boehnke, Mullet, Conway, Short and Warnick

Reauthorizing the business and occupation tax deduction for cooperative finance organizations.

The measure was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Boehnke, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 5166 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senators Boehnke and Lovelett spoke in favor of passage of the bill.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the final passage of Senate Bill No. 5166.

ROLL CALL

Excused: Senators Kuderer and Rivers

SENATE BILL NO. 5166, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Boehnke: “Thank you Mr. President. When getting the opportunity to come over to the Senate from the House, it’s truly and honor and a privilege to be here. Knowing there’s friends on all sides of this rotunda and then having to pick out one of the biggest decisions is what to give the gifts from the 8th District that I get the opportunity to represent. And like others throughout this phase there are so many of the diversity, the area, small business, and even the beauty of the 8th District, you want to showcase that it is out there. This one comes to me from the heart because it’s one of those that I guess represents a lot of things in my life. One of the things I like about it is, it’s named after the state of Washington, where President George Washington had a little incident with a cherry tree on his watch when he was a kid back in the day. There was an opportunity, same kid in Kennewick who was dating a young lady who is supposed to be watching, I don’t know if she is or not, um, but she said she was, anyways, that for some reason that during the dating process her parents allowed me to go ahead and pick some cherries off their cherry trees when we were younger. Those same cherry trees still are in existence at the house that we reside in and just continues that symbolism, that love I guess between what we’ve seen over the years. I offer this to you because we could also be the fry capital of the world because we have a lot of French fries and potatoes coming out of the 8th District, but the cherry always seemed to come back into my world no matter where I was in the country, overseas and other places. And it means a lot to give that to you.”

The Senate rose in recognition of Senator Boehnke’s inaugural speech and appreciation of his gift to the Senate.

MOTION

At 4:23 p.m., on motion of Senator Pedersen, the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock a.m. Tuesday, February 28, 2023.
