(3) A defendant who has been tried for one offense may thereafter move to dismiss a charge for a related offense, unless a motion for joinder of these offenses was previously denied or the right of joinder was waived as provided in section (b). The motion to dismiss must be made prior to the second trial, and shall be granted unless the court determines that because the prosecuting attorney was unaware of the facts constituting the related offense or did not have sufficient evidence to warrant trying this offense at the time of the first trial, or for some other reason, the ends of justice would be defeated if the motion were granted.

(4) Entry of a plea of guilty to one offense does not bar the subsequent prosecution of a related offense unless the plea of guilty was entered on the basis of a plea agreement in which the prosecuting attorney agreed to seek or not to oppose dismissal of other related charges or not to prosecute other potential related charges.

(d) Authority of Court to Act on Own Motion.

The court may order consolidation for trial of two or more indictments or informations if the offenses or defendants could have been joined in a single charge. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 4.4 Severance of offenses and defendants.*(a) Timeliness of Motion; Waiver.

(1) A defendant's motion for severance of offenses or defendants must be made before trial, except that a motion for severance may be made before or at the close of all the evidence if the interests of justice require. Severance is waived if the motion is not made at the appropriate time.

(2) If a defendant's pretrial motion for severance was overruled he may renew the motion on the same ground before or at the close of all the evidence. Severance is waived by failure to renew the motion.

(b) Severance of Offenses.

(1) The court, on application of the prosecuting attorney, or on application of the defendant other than under section (a), shall grant a severance of offenses whenever before trial or during trial with consent of the defendant, the court determines that severance will promote a fair determination of the defendant's guilt or innocence of each offense.

(c) Severance of Defendants.

(1) A defendant's motion for severance on the ground that an out-of-court statement of a co-defendant referring to him is inadmissible against him shall be granted unless:

(i) The prosecuting attorney elects not to offer the statement in the case in chief.

(ii) Deletion of all references to the moving defendant will eliminate any prejudice to him from the admission of the statement.

(2) The court, on application of the prosecuting attorney, or on application of the defendant other than under subsection (i), should grant a severance of defendants whenever:

(i) if before trial, it is deemed necessary to protect a defendant's rights to a speedy trial, or it is deemed appropriate to promote a fair determination of the guilt or innocence of a defendant; or

(ii) if during trial upon consent of the severed defendant, it is deemed necessary to achieve a fair determination of the guilt or innocence of a defendant.

(3) When such information would assist the court in ruling on a motion for severance of defendants, the court may order the prosecuting attorney to disclose any statements made by the defendants which he intends to introduce in evidence at the trial.

(d) Failure to Prove Grounds for Joinder of Defendants.

If, pursuant to section (a), a defendant moves to be severed at the conclusion of the prosecution's case or of all the evidence, and there is not sufficient evidence to support the grounds upon which the moving defendant was joined or previously denied severance, the court shall grant a severance if, in view of this lack of evidence, failure to sever prejudices the moving defendant.

(e) Authority of Court to Act on Own Motion. The court may order a severance of offenses or defendants before trial if a severance could be obtained on motion of a defendant or the prosecution. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.46.100.

Rule 4.5 Omnibus hearing.

(a) When Required. When a plea of not guilty is entered, the court may set a time for an omnibus hearing.

(b) Time. The time set for the omnibus hearing shall allow sufficient time for counsel to (i) initiate and complete discovery; (ii) conduct further investigation of the case, as needed; and (iii) continue plea discussions.

(c) Checklist. At the omnibus hearing, the trial court on its own initiative, utilizing a checklist substantially in the form of the omnibus application by plaintiff and defendant (see section (h)) shall:

(i) ensure that standards regarding provision of counsel have been complied with;

(ii) ascertain whether the parties have completed discovery and, if not, make orders appropriate to expedite completion;

(iii) make rulings on any motions, other requests then pending, and ascertain whether any additional motions, or requests will be made at the hearing or continued portions thereof;

(iv) ascertain whether there are any procedural or constitutional issues which should be considered;

(v) upon agreement of counsel, or upon a finding that the trial is likely to be protracted or otherwise unusually complicated, set a time for a pretrial conference; and

(vi) permit defendant to change his plea.

(d) Motions. All motions and other requests prior to trial should ordinarily be reserved for and presented orally at the omnibus hearing unless the court otherwise directs. Failure to raise or give notice at the hearing of any error or issue of which the party concerned has knowledge may constitute waiver of such error or issue. Checklist forms substantially like the memorandum required by section (h) shall be made available by the court and utilized at the hearing to ensure that all requests, errors and issues are then considered.

(e) Continuance. Any and all issues should be raised either by counsel or by the court without prior notice, and if appropriate, informally disposed of. If additional discovery, investigation or preparation, or evidentiary hearing, or formal presentation is necessary for a fair and orderly determination of any issue, the omnibus hearing should be continued from time to time until all matters raised are properly disposed of.

(f) Record. A verbatim record, (electronic, mechanical or otherwise), shall be made of all proceedings at the hearing.

(g) Stipulations. Stipulations by any party shall be binding upon that party at trial unless set aside or modified by the court in the interests of justice.

(h) Memorandum. At the conclusion of the hearing, a summary memorandum shall be made indicating disclosure made, rulings and orders of the court, stipulations, and any other matters determined or pending. Such summary memorandum shall be in substantially the following form:

Rule 4.6 Depositions.

(a) When Taken. Upon a showing that a prospective witness may be unable to attend or prevented from attending a trial or hearing or if a witness refuses to discuss the case with either counsel and that his testimony is material and that it is necessary to take his deposition in order to prevent a failure of justice, the court at any time after the filing of an indictment or information may upon motion of a party and notice to the parties order that his testimony be taken by deposition and that any designated books, papers, documents or tangible objects, not privileged, be produced at the same time and place.

(b) Notice of Taking. The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition. The notice shall state the name and address of each person to be examined. On motion of a party upon whom the notice is served, the court for cause shown may extend or shorten the time and may change the place of taking.

(c) How Taken. A deposition shall be taken in the manner provided in civil actions. No deposition shall be used in evidence against any defendant who has not had notice of and an opportunity to participate in or be present at the taking thereof.

(d) Use. At the trial or upon any hearing, a part or all of a deposition so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence may be used if it appears: that the witness is dead; or that the witness is unavailable, unless it appears that his unavailability was procured by the party offering the deposition; or that the witness is unable to attend or testify because of sickness or infirmity; or that the party offering the deposition has been unable to procure the attendance of the witness by subpoena. Any deposition may also be used by any party for the purpose of contradicting or impeaching the testimony of the deponent as a witness.

(e) Objections to Admissibility. Objections to receiving in evidence a deposition or part thereof may be made as provided in civil actions. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 4.7 Discovery.

(a) Prosecutor's Obligations.

(1) Except as otherwise provided by protective orders or as to matters not subject to disclosure, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the defendant the following material and information within his possession or control no later than the omnibus hearing:

(i) The names and addresses of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, together with any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements of such witnesses;

(ii) Any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements made by the defendant, or made by a codefendant if the trial is to be a joint one;

(iii) When authorized by the court, those portions of grand jury minutes containing testimony of the defendant, relevant testimony of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, and any relevant testimony that has not been transcribed.

(iv) Any reports or statements of experts made in connection with the particular case, including results of physical or mental examinations and scientific tests, experiments, or comparisons;

(v) Any books, papers, documents, photographs, or tangible objects, which the prosecuting attorney intends to use in the hearing or trial or which were obtained from or belonged to the defendant; and

(vi) Any record or prior criminal convictions known to the prosecuting attorney of the defendant and of persons whom the prosecuting attorney intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial.

(2) The prosecuting attorney shall disclose to the defendant:

(i) Any electronic surveillance, including wiretapping, of the defendant's premises or conversations to which the defendant was a party and any record thereof;

(ii) Any expert witnesses whom the prosecuting attorney will call at the hearing or trial, the subject of their testimony, and any reports they have submitted to the prosecuting attorney;

(iii) Any information which the prosecuting attorney has indicating entrapment of the defendant.

(3) Except as is otherwise provided as to protective orders, the prosecuting attorney shall disclose to defendant's counsel any material or information within his knowledge which tends to negate defendant's guilt as to the offense charged.

(4) The prosecuting attorney's obligation under this section is limited to material and information within the knowledge, possession or control of members of his staff.

(b) Defendant's Obligations.

(1) Except as is otherwise provided as to matters not subject to disclosure and protective orders, the defendant shall disclose to the prosecuting attorney the following material and information within his control no later than the omnibus hearing:

(i) The names and addresses of persons whom the defendant intends to call as witnesses at the hearing or trial, together with any written or recorded statements and the substance of any oral statements of such witness.

(2) Notwithstanding the initiation of judicial proceedings, and subject to constitutional limitations, the court on motion of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, may require or allow the defendant to:

(i) Appear in a lineup;

(ii) Speak for identification by a witness to an offense;

(iii) Be fingerprinted;

(iv) Pose for photographs not involving reenactment of the crime charged;

(v) Try on articles of clothing;

(vi) Permit the taking of samples of or from his blood, hair, and other materials of his body including materials under his fingernails which involve no unreasonable intrusion thereof;

(vii) Provide specimens of his handwriting;

(viii) Submit to a reasonable physical, medical, or psychiatric inspection or examination;

(ix) State whether there is any claim of incompetency to stand trial;

(x) Allow inspection of physical or documentary evidence in defendant's possession;

(xi) To state whether his prior convictions will be stipulated or need to be proved;

(xii) To state whether or not he will rely on an alibi and, if so, furnish a list of alibi witnesses and their addresses;

(xiii) To state whether or not he will rely on a defense of insanity at the time of the offense;

(xiv) To state the general nature of his defense.

(3) Provisions may be made for appearance for the foregoing purposes in an order for pretrial release.

(c) Additional Disclosures Upon Request and Specification. Except as is otherwise provided as to matters not subject to disclosure the prosecuting attorney shall, upon request of the defendant, disclose any relevant material and information regarding:

(1) specified searches and seizures;

(2) the acquisition of specified statements from the defendant; and

(3) the relationship, if any, of specified persons to the prosecuting authority.

(d) Material Held by Others. Upon defendant's request and designation of material or information in the knowledge, possession or control of other persons which would be discoverable if in the knowledge, possession or control of the prosecuting attorney, the prosecuting attorney shall attempt to cause such material or information to be made available to the defendant. If the prosecuting attorney's efforts are unsuccessful and if such material or persons are subject to the jurisdiction of the court, the court shall issue suitable subpoenas or orders to cause such material to be made available to the defendant.

(e) Discretionary Disclosures.

(1) Upon a showing of materiality to the preparation of the defense, and if the request is reasonable, the court in its discretion may require disclosure to the defendant of the relevant material and information not covered by sections (a), (c) and (d).

(2) The court may condition or deny disclosure authorized by this rule if it finds that there is a substantial risk to any person of physical harm, intimidation, bribery, economic reprisals or unnecessary annoyance or embarrassment, resulting from such disclosure, which outweigh any usefulness of the disclosure to the defendant.

(f) Matters Not Subject to Disclosure.

(1) Work product. Disclosure shall not be required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports or memoranda to the extent that they contain the opinions, theories or conclusions of investigating or prosecuting agencies except as to material discoverable under (a)(1)(iv).

(2) Informants. Disclosure of an informant's identity shall not be required where his identity is a prosecution secret and a failure to disclose will not infringe upon the constitutional rights of the defendant. Disclosure of the identity of witnesses to be produced at a hearing or trial shall not be denied.

(g) Medical and Scientific Reports. Subject to constitutional limitations, the court may require the defendant to disclose any reports or results, or testimony relative thereto, of physical or mental examinations or of scientific tests, experiments or comparisons, or any other reports or statements of experts which the defendant intends to use at a hearing or trial.

(h) Regulation of Discovery.

(1) Investigations not to be impeded. Except as is otherwise provided with respect to protective orders and matters not subject to disclosure, neither the counsel for the parties nor other prosecution or defense personnel shall advise persons other than the defendant having relevant material or information to refrain from discussing the case with opposing counsel or showing opposing counsel any relevant material, nor shall they otherwise impede opposing counsel's investigation of the case.

(2) Continuing duty to disclose. If, after compliance with these standards or orders pursuant thereto, a party discovers additional material or information which is subject to disclosure, he shall promptly notify the other party or his counsel of the existence of such additional material, and if the additional material or information is discovered during trial, the court shall also be notified.

(3) Custody of materials. Any materials furnished to an attorney pursuant to these standards shall remain in his exclusive custody and be used only for the purposes of conducting his side of the case, and shall be subject to such other terms and conditions as the court may provide.

(4) Protective orders. Upon a showing of cause, the court may at any time order that specified disclosure be restricted or deferred, or make such other order as is appropriate, provided that all material and information to which a party is entitled must be disclosed in time to permit his counsel to make beneficial use thereof.

(5) Excision. When some parts of certain material are discoverable under this rule, and other parts not discoverable, as much of the material shall be disclosed as is consistent with this rule. Material excised pursuant to judicial order shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(6) In camera proceedings. Upon request of any person, the court may permit any showing of cause for denial or regulation of disclosure, or portion of such showing, to be made in camera. A record shall be made of such proceedings. If the court enters an order granting relief following a showing in camera, the entire record of such showing shall be sealed and preserved in the records of the court, to be made available to the appellate court in the event of an appeal.

(7) Sanctions.

(i) If at any time during the course of the proceedings it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto, the court may order such party to permit the discovery of material and information not previously disclosed, grant a continuance, dismiss the action or enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

(ii) Willful violation by counsel of an applicable discovery rule or an order issued pursuant thereto may subject counsel to appropriate sanctions by the court. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.46.030 in part; RCW 10.46.050.

Rule 4.9 Pretrial conference. At any time after the filing of the indictment or information the court upon motion of any party or upon its own motion may order one or more conferences to consider such matters as will promote a fair and expeditious trial. The defendant and his attorney shall be present at any such conference, unless the defendant makes an intelligent written waiver of his right to be present. A memorandum of the matters agreed upon shall be signed by counsel, the defendant personally, and the court, and shall be filed. No admission made by the defendant or his attorney at the conference shall be used against the defendant unless it is included in such signed memorandum. Any admissions contained in the memorandum shall be binding only for the purpose of the case in which the conference is held. No conference shall be held if the defendant is not represented by counsel. Any conference held shall be reported. If possible, the judge who conducts the conference should try the case. (a) Trial by Jury. Cases required to be tried by jury shall be so tried unless the defendant files a written waiver of a jury trial, and has consent of the court.

(b) Jury of Less Than Twelve.

(1) If prior to trial on a noncapital case, all defendants so elect, the case shall be tried by a jury of six, or by the court.

(2) If a juror is unable to continue and if no alternate jurors have been selected or if none is available, all defendants may elect to continue with the remaining jurors; otherwise a mistrial may be granted on motion of any defendant.

(c) Trial Without Jury. In a case tried without a jury, the court, shall enter findings of fact and conclusions of law. In giving the decision, the facts found and the conclusions of law shall be separately stated. The court shall enter such findings of fact and conclusions of law only upon five days notice of presentation to the parties. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.49.020.

Rule 6.2 Jurors' orientation. All jurors will be given a general orientation when they report for duty.

He shall draw the required number of names for purposes of voir dire examination. Any necessary additions to the panel shall be drawn from the clerk's list of qualified jurors. The clerk shall thereupon prepare separate ballots and deposit them in the trial jury box. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 6.4 Challenges.

(a) Challenges to the Entire Panel. Challenges to the entire panel shall only be sustained for a material departure from the procedures prescribed by law for their selection.

(b) Voir Dire. A voir dire examination shall be conducted for the purpose of discovering any basis for challenge for cause and for the purpose of gaining knowledge to enable an intelligent exercise of peremptory challenges. The judge shall initiate the voir dire examination by identifying the parties and their respective counsel and by briefly outlining the nature of the case. The judge and counsel may then ask the prospective jurors questions touching their qualifications to serve as jurors in the case, subject to the supervision of the court as appropriate to the facts of the case.

(c) Challenges for Cause.

(1) If the judge after examination of any juror is of the opinion that grounds for challenge are present, he shall excuse that juror from the trial of the case. If the judge does not excuse the juror, any party may challenge the juror for cause.

(2) RCW 4.44.150 through 4.44.200 shall govern challenges for cause.

(d) Exceptions to Challenge.

(1) Determination. The challenge may be excepted to by the adverse party for insufficiency and, if so, the court shall determine the sufficiency thereof, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true. The challenge may be denied by the adverse party and, if so, the court shall try the issue and determine the law and the facts.

(2) Trial of challenge. Upon trial of a challenge, the rules of evidence applicable to testimony offered upon the trial of an ordinary issue of fact shall govern. The juror challenged, or any other person otherwise competent, may be examined as a witness by either party. If a challenge be determined to be sufficient, or if found to be true, as the case may be, it shall be allowed, and the juror to whom it was taken excluded; but if not so determined or found otherwise, it shall be disallowed.

(e) Peremptory Challenges.

(1) Peremptory challenges defined. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which there is no reason given, but upon which the court shall exclude him. In prosecutions for capital offenses the defense and the state may challenge peremptorily twelve jurors each; in prosecution for offenses punishable by imprisonment in a penitentiary six jurors each; in all other prosecutions, three jurors each. When several defendants are on trial together, each defendant shall be entitled to one challenge in addition to the number of challenges provided above, with discretion in the trial judge to afford the prosecution such additional challenges as circumstances warrant.

(2) Peremptory challenges—how taken. After prospective jurors have been passed for cause, peremptory challenges shall be exercised alternately first by the prosecution then by each defendant until the peremptory challenges are exhausted or the jury accepted. Acceptance of the jury as presently constituted shall not waive any remaining peremptory challenges to jurors subsequently called. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.49.030, 10.49.040, 10.49.050, 10.49.060.

SUPERIOR COURT MENTAL PROCEEDINGS RULES (MPR)

Introduction

The following rules have been designed and promulgated to give full force and effect to Laws of 1973, 1st Ex. Sess., ch. 142. Any future amendments which may be enacted will be dealt with in rules as the need may arise.

Section 62 of the act directs the Supreme Court to adopt rules with respect to court procedures and proceedings. Adoption of these rules is not to be construed as approval of what could be a breach of the separation of powers of government. While the legislature may recommend rule making as to particular matters, it may not mandate rule making which is an inherent power of the judicial branch.

Although the courts generally do not pass upon the wisdom or the workability of statutes, they are concerned with their constitutionality. The adoption of these rules, which are merely designed to give effect to the statute as it is written, does not in any manner indicate an opinion of the court that the statute is or is not constitutional in any respect. In promulgating them, the court does not in any manner obviate further consideration of any portion of the statute or these rules in a proper case.

Because of the complicated nature of the statute necessitating these rules and the need that they be effective January 1, 1974, the court has promulgated them without submitting them for comment, and now invites comment from the bench and bar. [Adopted Dec. 17, 1973, effective Jan. 1, 1974.]

Advice About Diversion

1. Diversion is a different way of dealing with juveniles who are charged with a crime. You do not go to court and there is no trial before a judge.

2. A diversion agreement is a contract between you and the diversion unit. A diversion agreement may require you to do certain things, such as community service or make restitution, but you cannot be sent to jail.

3. The diversion agreement will be part of your criminal record.

4. You have the right to talk to a lawyer about whether you should participate in diversion or whether you should go to court. You will not have to pay for a lawyer if you cannot afford it.

5. When you agree to participate in the diversion process, you do not have the right to have a free lawyer appointed for you to help you work out a diversion agreement, but you do have the right to have a lawyer help you work out a diversion agreement if you can afford to pay for it.

6. Even if you talk to the diversion unit, you can decide not to sign the diversion agreement; then your case would go to court if charges are filed by the prosecutor.

FOREWORD

(to rules adopted May 5, 1967)

In January of 1961 Judge Donworth suggested to the Washington Judicial Council that certain civil rules for superior court be clarified. This resulted in a committee report in October of that year, recommending the adoption of five federal rules. Further suggestions for the adoption of certain federal rules were received about that time from Washington state attorneys and judges. By June of 1962 more than a dozen federal rules had been studied and their adoptions proposed. It was then decided to do an intensive study of the federal rules and to incorporate numerous suggestions that had been received from members of the Council, from judges and from attorneys. By this time it had become apparent to the Council's committee that in many areas Washington practice was preferable to federal practice.

By January 1964 the Sixth Draft had been prepared by the committee and considered by the Council at numerous meetings. This Draft was published as a service to the Bench and Bar by the West Publishing Company and widely distributed throughout that state to judges and local bar associations for their study, suggestions, and criticisms. The superior court judges of the state, at their annual Judicial Conference, discussed the proposed rules at length and submitted suggestions to the Judicial Council. Letters were received from bar associations and from individual attorneys suggesting various changes. These suggestions were considered at several meetings of the Judicial Council during 1965 and resulted in the Seventh Draft, which was submitted to the Supreme Court for its consideration.

The rules are designed to accomplish the following objectives:

- (1) To provide a single trial manual with ready references to the procedural rules and statutes relating to the trial of cases in the Superior Court of Washington;
- (2) To conform to the federal practice in all situations where there are no compelling reasons for perpetuating Washington practice, especially in the many situations

Rules for Superior Court

where the Washington statutes, rules, and case law are confusing, obscure, or nonexistent;

- (3) To preserve the Washington practice in all situations where the Washington practice is believed to be superior or where the matter is not adequately covered by federal rules;
- (4) To eliminate many procedural traps now existing in Washington practice;
- (5) To conform the Civil Rules for the Superior Court to the Civil Rules for the Justice Courts which also follow the format of the federal rules;
- (6) To make available a ready reference to all authorities discussing the comparable federal rules.

The Court expresses its appreciation to the members of the committee, consisting of Judge Frank D. James, Senator Fred H. Dore, and Dan Reaugh, chairman, with the assistance of Professor Robert Meisenholder of the University of Washington School of Law as reporter, devoted many hours and much labor to this complex and extensive compilation. We are likewise grateful to the many lawyers and judges whose helpful suggestions have added materially in the formulation of the rules as now presented.

A final note is that most of the 1966 Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure have been incorporated into the comparable Civil Rule.

ROBERT C. FINLEY, Chief Justice

2. EXPLANATION BY THE COURT

Format. So that the many text books on the Federal Rules will be readily usable in researching these Civil Rules for Superior Court, every effort has been made to maintain the format of the Rule Number and subdivision organization of the Federal Rules. Therefore, even though the text of a given subdivision of a Federal Rule is not adopted, the comparable text of the Washington Rule is included where appropriate under the comparable Federal subdivision. Where the Federal Rules contain no comparable subdivision for a Washington Rule, and when the subject of the Washington subdivision logically should be placed before a subdivision "(a)" of the applicable Federal Rule, the hyphen symbol "-" is used to identify the inserted subparagraph. For examples see Rules 4(-) and 17(-). In other words, the hyphen (-) subdivision always precedes an (a) subdivision. When a Washington subdivision logically follows the last subdivision of a Federal Rule, the Washington subdivision is added after the last Federal subdivision. For examples see subdivisions (e) of Rule 15, and (i), (j), (k) and (l) of Rule 9. If there is no comparable Washington subdivision for a Federal subdivision, the Federal subdivision is included and designated as "[Reserved]".

Statutes. Where a Washington procedural statute, not superseded by a rule, logically comes within the scope of the Format of the subject matter of the Federal Rules, a cross-reference is added after the most appropriate "[Reserved]" subdivision. For examples see subdivision (b), (c), and (d) of Rule 3 and (d), (e) and (f) of Rule 17. The inclusion of a cross-reference to a statute does not imply that there are no other pertinent statutes.

Comments by the court. Where it appears that all or part of a statute has been superseded by a Rule, a statement to that effect is included in the Comments. Statutes not superseded continue to be effective. The Comments also identify the sources of the Rules.

Abbreviations. These "Civil Rules for Superior Court" may be cited as "CRs".

3. ORDER CORRECTING AND AMENDING RULES--JUNE 28, 1967

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

IN THE MATTER OF
THE ADOPTION OF

Paper No. 25700A-104
CORRECTIONS and
AMENDMENTS TO ORDER ADOPTING
(1) Classification System
for Court Rules
(2) Amendments to
Rules on Appeal
(3) Civil Rules for Superior Court
(4) Special Proceedings
Rules for Superior Court
(5) Criminal Rules
for Superior Court

WHEREAS, The Supreme Court of Washington on May 5, 1967, issued and published in 71 W.D. 2d No. 1A, new court rules primarily applicable to the Superior Court, to become effective on July 1, 1967, and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court individually, and in executive session, has received and considered comments, suggestions, and objections as requested in the May 5, 1967 order, and

WHEREAS, most suggestions and objections not adopted will be referred to the Judicial Council for further study,

NOW, THEREFORE, it is ORDERED that:

1. A new General Rule 1 relating to the classification of Court Rules is adopted to read:

(Reviser's note: See Part I, GENERAL RULES, Rule 1) The titles to all Court Rules are amended to conform.

2. On page vi of the May 5, 1967, order, the table of cross-references is amended by deleting "Rule 93.06W [98.06W] . . . SPR 98.06W."

3. The Rules on Appeal (ROA) are amended as follows:

(a) ROA 15, entitled "Jurisdiction, Effect of Appeal on", is amended by substituting:

"A party may appeal from any order, judgment or decree enumerated in ROA 14 by giving notice of appeal as provided in ROA 33 and ROA 46. Except when the running of time for appeal is suspended as otherwise provided in these rules," for:

"A party may appeal from any order, judgment, or decree enumerated in Rule 14 by giving notice of appeal as provided in Rule 33, and"

Comment. The amendment coordinates with other rules such as ROA 33(6) and 46(b)(1) the suspending or extending the running of the time for filing the notice of appeal when certain post-trial motions are pending.

(b) ROA 16, entitled "Powers of Supreme Court", is amended by adding at the end a new paragraph reading:

"An appeal to the Supreme Court from a judgment granted on a motion for judgment notwithstanding the verdict shall, of itself, without the necessity of a cross-appeal, bring up for review the ruling of the trial court on the motion for a new trial; and the Supreme Court shall, if it reverses the judgment entered notwithstanding the verdict, review and determine the validity of the ruling on the motion for a new trial."

Comment. The paragraph added is identical to the last sentence from RPPP 59.08W which is superseded.

(c) In heading and in text of ROA 27, entitled "Exception to Surety", change "Exception" to "Objection" and "except" to "object" and "excepts" to "objects."

Appendix to Part IV: Court Orders and Tables

Comment. This change from exceptions to objections is consistent with the Proposed CR-46 relation to objections.				Page in 71 W.D. 2d No 1A	CR	Line	Amendment
(d) Paragraph (6) of ROA 33, entitled "Notice of Appeal and Cross-appeal in Civil Cases" is amended to read:  "(6) Extension of Time for Filing Notice of Appeal. If a timely motion is made for judgment notwithstanding the verdict under CR 50(b), for the amendment of findings under CR 52(b), for vacation of judgment under CR 52(d), and/or for reconsideration, etc., under CR 59, the notice of appeal may be filed within 30 days after the entry of the order granting or denying the motion."  Comment. Paragraph (6) is amended to clarify the effect on the running of the time for appeal when the enumerated motions are pending in the superior court.							has been assigned for trial, it shall be the duty of the attorneys or of any party appearing pro se to notify the court promptly of the settlement. If the settlement is made within 5 days before the trial date, the notice shall be made by telephone or in person. All notices of settlement shall be confirmed in writing to the clerk." Comment. Subdivision (e) is added to enable the courts to make fuller use of all court facilities.
(e) ROA 35, entitled "Statement of Facts, What Constitutes", is amended by adding in the first sentence "any objections or" between "and" and "exceptions in the cause".  Comment. The phrase "exceptions in the cause" is not deleted because some statutes relating to the review of administrative ruling require "statements of exceptions".				75	44(a)(1)	13th & 15th	After "office" in line 13, insert "or official custody of the seal of the political subdivision", and at the end add: "or the seal of the political subdivision."

(2) The present text of Rule on Appeal 40 is designated as subdivision (b) with the subtitle of "(b) Use by Counsel". (3) Adding new subdivisions (a) and (c) and comment reading: "(a) Notice of Filing. When the proposed statement of facts is received by the clerk of the superior court, the clerk shall promptly notify the Supreme Court of the filing. "(c) Forwarding to Supreme Court. The clerk of the superior court shall not forward the statement of facts to the clerk of the Supreme Court until the time for filing the respondent's brief has elapsed, except by consent in writing of respondent's counsel."  Comment. Subdivision (c) follows and supersedes RPPP 77.16W(4)."				83	50(a)	—	At end of comment delete "it supersedes RCW 4.56.150" and insert "Subdivision (a) does not supersede RCW 4.56.150."

Rule JAR 2 Scope of Rules. These rules shall govern the procedure of civil, criminal, and traffic cases in all courts of limited jurisdiction inferior to the superior court. They shall be construed to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action. Failure to set forth herein any provisions of common law or statute, not inconsistent with these rules, shall not be construed as an implied repeal thereof. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 3 Definition of Terms. As used in these rules, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Court" means any court inferior to the superior court.

Rule JAR 4 Canons of Judicial Ethics. (1) The Canons of Judicial Ethics as adopted by the Supreme Court of Washington shall apply to the judge of each court subject to these rules, whether or not such judge has been admitted to the bar. It shall be the obligation of each such judge to conduct his court and his professional and personal relationships in accordance with the same standards as are required of judges of courts of record, except that Canon 31, prohibiting judges from practicing law, shall not apply to attorney-justices of courts of limited jurisdiction who have been specifically authorized by statute to practice law.

The Presiding Judge so elected shall send notice of the election of such Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court on or before May 1, 1963, and thereafter on or before March 15th of each year. If the judges of a district shall fail or refuse to elect and certify to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Supreme Court shall by appointment designate the Presiding Judge and Acting Presiding Judge.

(b) Duties. The duties of the Presiding Judge shall include the supervision of the business of the judicial district in such manner as to assure the expeditious and efficient handling of all cases and equal distribution of the work load among the several judges; assigning the justices of the peace to departments, if the court is departmentalized; presiding at meetings of the justices of the peace of the district; supervising the preparation and filing of reports required by statute or rule of court; and such other duties as may be assigned by statute or by rule. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule JAR 8 Reporting of criminal cases.

(a) Report of Disposition. Within five court days after the disposition by a court of limited jurisdiction of a felony or gross misdemeanor charge or misdemeanor charges which have been reported to the Washington State Patrol Section on Identification, whether the disposition be a plea of guilty or by deferral or suspension of imposition of sentence, or a finding of guilty, or not guilty after trial, or by a dismissal of the charge, the court clerk shall report such disposition to the Section on a disposition form approved by the Administrator for the Courts. When a sentence has been deferred or suspended, the report to the Section shall indicate the length of time over which such suspension or deferral is to be effective. At the conclusion of the time period for deferral or suspension of sentence, the court clerk shall forward an amended disposition form to the Section showing the actual disposition of the case.

(b) Report of Appeal. If an appeal is taken from the disposition made by a court of limited jurisdiction, the court clerk shall, within five court days of the taking of the appeal, notify the Section on an amended disposition form. In the event that the result of any proceeding changes or otherwise makes inaccurate the information forwarded on the original disposition report, the court clerk shall prepare and forward to the Section a supplemental disposition report on a form approved by the Administrator for the Courts indicating thereon the information necessary to correct the current status of the disposition of charges against the subject maintained in the records of the Section.   - (e) Effect of Subsequent Legislation
- 1.2 Interpretation and Application of Rules
  - (a) Interpretation
  - (b) Application of Rules

Rule 1.1 Scope of Rules. (a) Proceedings Subject to Rules. These rules establish the procedure, called appeal, for review by the superior court of a final decision of a court of limited jurisdiction, subject to the restrictions defined in this rule. These rules apply only to review of (1) district courts operating under RCW 3.30; (2) municipal departments operating under RCW 3.46; (3) alternative municipal courts operating under RCW 3.50 in municipalities exceeding 5,000 in population; (4) municipal courts operating under RCW 35.20; (5) all other courts operating under RCW Title 35 or 35A in municipalities exceeding 5,000 in population; and (6) any other court required by law to have a lawyer-judge. These rules do not apply to review of other courts of limited jurisdiction, do not apply to review of a small claims court operating under RCW 12.40, and do not apply to review of a decision of a judge who is not admitted to the practice of law in Washington. These rules do not supersede the procedure for seeking de novo review when these rules do not apply. These rules do not apply to and do not supersede the procedure for seeking de novo review of other decisions of a court of limited jurisdiction.

(b) Statutory Writs Retained. These rules do not supersede and do not govern the procedure for seeking review of a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction by statutory writ.

(c) Application to Civil and Criminal Proceedings. Each rule applies to both civil and criminal proceedings, unless a different application is intended.

(d) Superseding Effect of Rules. These rules supersede all statutes and rules covering the procedure for review in the superior court of a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction to which these rules apply, unless one of these rules specifically indicates to the contrary.

(e) Effect of Subsequent Legislation. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does not supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the rule applies unless the rule specifically indicates that statutes control. If a statute in conflict with a rule is enacted after these rules become effective and that statute does supersede the conflicting rule by direct reference to the rule by number, the statute applies until such time as the rule may be amended or changed by the Supreme Court through exercise of its rule making power. [Adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

Rule 1.2 Interpretation and application of rules. (a) Interpretation. These rules will be liberally interpreted to promote justice and facilitate the decision of cases on the merits.

(b) Application of Rules. Cases and issues will not be determined on the basis of compliance or noncompliance with these rules, except that a case will be dismissed without a decision on the merits for failure to timely file a notice of appeal in the superior court or for want of prosecution of the appeal under Rule 10.2(a), and a party's right to proceed further in an appeal may be conditioned on compliance with the terms of a sanction order under Rule 10.1. [Adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

defendant is not a resident of the county, or cannot be found therein, and that he has deposited a copy of the notice (substantially in the form prescribed in this rule) and complaint in the post office, directed to the defendant at his place of residence, unless it is stated in the affidavit that such residence is not known to the affiant, and stating the existence of one of the cases hereinafter specified, the service may be made by publication of the notice by the plaintiff or his attorney in any of the following cases:

- (i) When the defendant is a foreign corporation, and has property within the county;
- (ii) When the defendant, being a resident of the county, has departed therefrom with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid the service of a notice and complaint, or keeps himself concealed therein with like intent;
- (iii) When the defendant is not a resident of the county, but has property therein which has been brought under the control of the court by seizure or some equivalent act;
- (iv) When the subject of the action is personal property in the county, and the defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, and the relief demanded consists wholly, or partially, in excluding the defendant from any interest or lien therein;
- (v) When the action is brought under RCW 4.08.160 and 4.08.170 to determine conflicting claims to personal property in the county.

(2) The publication shall be made in a newspaper authorized to publish a summons in superior court and shall not be published until after the filing of the complaint. The notice must be subscribed by the judge or clerk, it shall notify the defendant to appear in person or by attorney on a date certain, and it shall contain a brief statement of the object of the action. Said notice shall be published not less than once a week for 3 weeks prior to the time fixed for the hearing of the cause, which shall not be less than 4 weeks from the time of first publication of such notice; and publication shall be deemed complete on the seventh day following the last publication.

The notice shall be substantially in the following form:

(NAME AND LOCATION OF COURT)

Plaintiff
vs. No. _____
Defendant NOTICE OF SUIT

-----
To ----- (Defendants)
On ----- 19--, above-named plaintiff(s) filed a claim against you.

You are notified to appear in person or by attorney on or at any time before ----- at the office of the clerk of the above entitled court at ----- (address of court) and admit or deny the above claim. If you deny any part of the claim, then the court clerk will set the case for trial at a future date.

If you fail to appear or to answer, judgment will be taken against you by default as demanded in the claim. (Insert here a brief statement of the object of the action.)

Issued: -----
(Name and address of plaintiff or his attorney)
-----
(Judge or Clerk)

(3) Personal service on the defendant out of the territorial jurisdiction of the court shall be equivalent to service by publication, and the notice to the defendant out of the county shall contain the same as the notice by publication and shall require the defendant to appear at a time and place certain which shall not be less than 30 days from the date of service.

(4) Service made in the modes provided in this rule 4(f) shall not alone be taken and held to give the court jurisdiction over the person of the defendant. By such service the court only acquires jurisdiction to give a judgment which is effective as to property or debts attached or garnished in connection with the suit or other property which properly forms the basis of jurisdiction of the court. If the defendant appears in a suit commenced by such service the court shall have jurisdiction over his person. The defendant may appear specially and solely to challenge jurisdiction over property or debts attached or garnished or other property within the jurisdiction of the court.

(g) Territorial Limits of Effective Service. The complaint and notice may be served anywhere within the county or counties in which the district of the court is located.

(h) Return. (1) The person serving the complaint and notice shall make proof of service thereof to the court promptly and in any event within the time during which the person served must respond to the notice.

(2) Proof of service shall be as follows:

(i) If served by the sheriff or his deputy or a constable, the return of the officer indorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or

(ii) If served by any other person, his affidavit of service indorsed upon or attached to a copy of the notice; or

(iii) If served by publication, the affidavit of the printer, publisher, foreman, principal clerk or business manager of the newspaper showing the same, together with a printed copy of the notice as published; or

(iv) Written admission of the defendant indorsed upon a copy of the notice.

In case of service otherwise than by publication, the return, affidavit, or admission must state the time, place and manner of service.

(3) Costs shall not be awarded and a default judgment shall not be rendered unless proof of service is on file with the court.

(i) Amendment. At any time in its discretion and upon such terms as it deems just, the court may allow any process or proof of service thereof to be amended, unless it clearly appears that material prejudice would result to the substantial rights of the party against whom the process issued. [Amended November 26, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended February 24, 1972, effective July 1, 1972; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 5 Service and Filing of Pleadings and Other Papers.

(a) Service: When Required. Every order required by its terms to be served, every written pleading subsequent to the original complaint, every written motion, and every written notice, appearance, demand, offer of judgment, or other paper shall be served upon all parties, but no service need be made on parties in default for failure to appear except that pleadings asserting new or additional claims for relief against them shall be served upon them in the manner provided for service of notice and complaint in Rule 4.

(b) Same: How Made. Whenever under these rules service of papers other than the complaint and notice is required or permitted the rules governing the manner of service of such papers in superior courts shall govern.*

(c) Filing. When pleadings or motions are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the records. All papers after the complaint required to be served upon a party shall be filed with the court either before service or within a reasonable time thereafter and a reference shall be made to them in the record of the court.

(d) Filing With the Court Defined. The filing of pleadings and other papers with the court as required by these rules shall be made by filing them with the judge or with his authorized clerk and the filing date shall be noted thereon at the time of filing. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

*Note by the Court: See RCW 4.28.230-4.28.280.

Rule 6 Time.

(a) Computation. The time within which an act is to be done, as herein provided, shall be computed by excluding the first day, and including the last, unless the last day is a holiday or Sunday, and then it is also excluded.

(b) For Motions—Affidavits. A written motion, other than one which may be heard ex parte, and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served not later than 3 days before the time specified for the hearing, unless a different period is fixed by these rules or by order of the court. Such an order may for cause shown be made on ex parte application. When a motion is supported by affidavit, the affidavit shall be served with the motion; and, except as otherwise provided in any of these rules, opposing affidavits may be served not later than 1 day before the hearing, unless the court permits them to be served at some other time. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 7 Pleadings Allowed: Form of Motions.

(a) Pleadings. There shall be a complaint and an answer; and there shall be a reply to a counterclaim denominated as such; an answer to a cross-claim, if the answer contains a cross-claim; a third-party complaint, if leave is given under rule 14 to summon a person who was not an original party; and there shall be a third-party answer, if a third-party complaint is served. No other pleadings shall be allowed.

The complaints, counterclaims, cross-claims and third-party claims shall be in writing. A reply to a counterclaim and answers may be written or oral. When pleadings are oral the substance of them shall be entered in the docket.

(b) Motions and Other Papers. (1) An application to the court for an order shall be by motion. Motions may be oral or written. Motions need not be in any special form but must be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) The rules applicable to captions, signing, and other matters of form of written pleadings apply to all written motions and other papers provided for by these rules.

(c) Demurrers, Pleas, etc., Abolished. Demurrers, pleas and exceptions for insufficiency of a pleading shall not be used. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 8 General Rules of Pleading.

(a) Claims for Relief. A complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall contain (1) a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, and (2) a demand for judgment for the relief to which he deems himself entitled. Relief in the alternative or of several different types may be demanded.

(b) Defenses; Form of Denials. A party shall state his defenses, denials and objections to each claim asserted against him in any form which will enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended. If he is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an averment, he shall so state and this has the effect of a denial.

(c) Affirmative Defenses. In a written answer to a complaint, cross-claim or third-party claim and in a written reply to a counterclaim, a party shall set forth affirmatively accord and satisfaction, arbitration and award, assumption of risk, contributory negligence, discharge in bankruptcy, duress, estoppel, failure of consideration, fraud, illegality, injury by fellow servant, laches, license, payment, release, res judicata, statute of frauds, statute of limitations, waiver, and any other matter constituting an avoidance or affirmative defense. When a party has mistakenly designated a defense as a counterclaim or a counterclaim as a defense, the court on terms, if justice so requires, shall treat the pleading as if there had been a proper designation.

(d) Effect of Failure to Deny. Statements in a pleading to which responsive pleading is required, other than those as to the amount of damage, are admitted when not denied by responsive pleading. Statements of an answer to a complaint, cross-claim, or third-party complaint, or a reply to a counterclaim shall be taken as denied or avoided.

(e) Pleading to Be Concise and Direct; Consistency. (1) No technical forms of pleadings or motions are required. Pleadings and motions shall be stated so as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

(2) A party may set forth two or more statements of a claim or defense alternately or hypothetically, either in one count or defense or in separate counts or defenses. When two or more statements are made in the alternative and one of them if made independently would be sufficient, the pleading is not made insufficient by the insufficiency of one or more of the alternative statements. A party may also state as many separate claims or defenses as he has regardless of consistency and whether based on legal or on equitable grounds or on both. All statements shall be made subject to the obligations set forth in rule 11.

(f) Construction of Pleadings. All pleadings shall be so construed as to do substantial justice. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 9 (Reserved).*Rule 10 Form of Pleadings.

(a) Caption; Names of Parties. Every written pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the court, the title of the action, the file number if known to the person signing it, and a designation as in rule 7(a). In the complaint the title of the action shall include the names of all the parties, but in other written pleadings it is sufficient to state the name of the first party on each side with an appropriate indication of other parties. When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

(b) Adoption by Reference; Exhibits. Statements in a pleading may be adopted by reference in a different part of the same pleading or in another pleading or in any motion. A copy of any written instrument which is an exhibit to a pleading is a part thereof for all purposes.

(c) Form. All notices, pleadings, motions, and other papers filed shall be plainly written or typed. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 11 Verification and Signing of Pleadings.

(1) Every complaint, answer or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he be not present, by the oath of his attorney or agent, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification shall be oral, or in writing, in conformity with the pleading verified.

(2) All other pleadings of a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in his individual name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign his pleading and state his address. The signature of a party or an attorney constitutes a certificate by him that he has read the pleading; that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 12 Defenses and objections—When and how presented—By pleading or motion—Motion for judgment on pleadings.

(a) When Presented. If the answer is oral, a defendant shall make the oral answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. If the answer is written a defendant shall serve his answer on or before the time he is required to appear in answer to the notice as indicated in rule 4. A party served with a pleading stating a cross-claim against him shall answer thereto on the return date fixed in a notice which shall accompany the pleading. The plaintiff shall reply to a counterclaim not less than three days prior to trial. If the court denies a motion permitted under this rule or postpones its disposition until the trial on the merits, the court may set the case for trial at the same time and also fix a time for the responsive pleading. If the court grants a motion for more definite statement the court may set the case for trial at the same time and fix the date for making the more definite statement and for the responsive pleading to the more definite statement.

(b) How Presented. Every defense, in law or fact, to a claim for relief in any pleading, whether a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, shall be asserted by the responsive pleading thereto, except that the following defenses may at the option of the pleader be made by motion: (1) lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter, (2) lack of jurisdiction over the person, (3) insufficiency of process, (4) insufficiency of service of process, (5) failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, (6) failure to join an indispensable party. A motion making any of these defenses shall be made before pleading is permitted. No defense or objection is waived by being joined with one or more other defenses or objections in a responsive pleading or motion. If a pleading sets forth a claim for relief to which the adverse party is not required to serve a responsive pleading, he may assert at the trial any defense in law or fact to that claim for relief. If, on a motion asserting the defense numbered (5) to dismiss for failure of the pleading to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, matters outside the pleading are presented to and not excluded by the court, the motion shall be treated as one for summary judgment and disposed of as provided in CR 56 and all parties shall be given reasonable opportunity to present all material made pertinent to such a motion by CR 56.

(c) Preliminary Hearings. The defenses specifically enumerated (1)–(6) in subdivision (b) of this rule, whether made in a pleading or by motion, shall be heard and determined before trial on application of any party, unless the court orders that the hearing and determination thereof be deferred until the trial.

(d) Motion for More Definite Statement. If a pleading to which a responsive pleading is permitted (for example, the complaint) is so vague or ambiguous that a person of common understanding cannot know what is intended, he may move for a more definite statement before interposing his responsive pleading. The motion shall point out the defects complained of and the details desired. If the motion is granted and the order of the court is not obeyed within 10 days after the order or within such other time as the court may fix, the court may strike the pleading to which the motion was directed or make such order as it deems just.

(e) Motion to Strike. Upon motion made by a party not less than three days prior to trial or upon the court's own initiative at any time the court may order stricken from the complaint any impertinent or scandalous matter.

(f) Consolidation of Defenses. A party who makes a motion under this rule may join with it the other motions herein provided for and then available to him. If a party makes a motion under this rule and does not include therein all defenses and objections then available to him which this rule permits to be raised by motions, he shall not thereafter make a motion based on any of the defenses or objections so omitted, except as provided in subdivision (g) of this rule.

(g) Waiver of Defenses. A party waives all defenses and objections which he does not present either by motion as hereinbefore provided or, if he has made no motion, in his answer or reply, except (1) that the defense of failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, the defense of failure to join an indispensable party, and the objection of failure to state a legal defense to a claim may also be made by a later pleading, if one is permitted, or by motion for judgment on the pleadings or at the trial on the merits, and except (2) that, whenever it appears by suggestion of the parties or otherwise that the court lacks jurisdiction of the subject matter, the court shall dismiss the action. The objection or defense, if made at the trial, shall be disposed of as provided in rule 15(b) in the light of any evidence that may have been received. [Amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 13 Counterclaim and Cross-Claim.

(a) Permissive Counterclaims. A pleading may state as a counterclaim any claim against an opposing party.

(b) Counterclaim Exceeding Opposing Claim. A counterclaim may or may not diminish or defeat the recovery sought by the opposing party. It may claim relief exceeding in amount or different in kind from that sought in the pleading of the opposing party.

(c) Counterclaim Maturing or Acquired After Pleading. A claim which either matured or was acquired by the pleader after serving his pleading may, with the permission of the court be presented as a counterclaim by supplemental pleading.

(d) Omitted Counterclaim. When a pleader fails to set up a counterclaim through oversight, inadvertence, or excusable neglect, or when justice requires, he may by leave of court set up the counterclaim by amendment.

(e) Cross-Claim Against Co-Party. A pleading may state as a cross-claim any claim by one party against a co-party arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter either of the original action or of a counterclaim therein or relating to any property that is the subject matter of the original action. Such cross-claim may include a claim that the party against whom it is asserted is or may be liable to the cross-claimant for all or part of a claim asserted in the action against the cross-claimant.

(f) Additional Parties May Be Brought In. When the presence of parties other than those to the original action is required for the granting of complete relief in the determination of a counterclaim or cross-claim, the court shall order them to be brought in as defendants as provided in these rules, if jurisdiction of them can be obtained.

(g) Separate Trials; Separate Judgment. If the court orders separate trials as provided in rule 42(a), judgment on a counterclaim or cross-claim may be rendered in accordance with the terms of rule 42(b), even if the claims of the opposing party have been dismissed or otherwise disposed of. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 13.04 Setoffs Against Assignees.

(a) Setoff Against Assignee. The defendant in a civil action upon a contract express or implied, other than upon a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, negotiated in good faith and without notice before due, which has been assigned to the plaintiff, may set off a demand of a like nature existing against the person to whom he was originally liable, or any assignee prior to the plaintiff, of such contract, provided such demand existed at the time of the assignment thereof, and belonging to the defendant in good faith, before notice of such assignment, and was such a demand as might have been set off against such person to whom he was originally liable, or such assignee while the contract belonged to him.

(b) Setoff Against Beneficiary of Trust Estate. If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of a plaintiff which has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought against those beneficially interested.

(c) Setoff Must Be Pleaded. To entitle a defendant to a setoff under this rule, he must set forth the same in his answer. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 14 Third-Party Practice.

(a) When Defendant May Bring in Third Party. Before making his answer, a defendant may move ex parte or, after answering, on notice to the plaintiff, for leave as a third-party plaintiff to serve a notice and complaint upon a person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the plaintiff's claim against him. If the motion is granted and the notice and complaint are served, the person so served, hereinafter called the third-party defendant, shall make his defenses to the third-party plaintiff's claim as provided in rule 12 and his counterclaims against the third-party plaintiff and cross-claims against other third-party defendants as provided in rule 13. The third-party defendant may assert against the plaintiff any defenses which the third-party plaintiff has to the plaintiff's claim. The third-party defendant may also assert any claim against the plaintiff arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff. The plaintiff may assert any claim against the third-party defendant arising out of the transaction or occurrence that is the subject matter of the plaintiff's claim against the third-party plaintiff, and the third-party defendant thereupon shall assert his defenses as provided in rule 12. A third-party defendant may proceed under this rule against any person not a party to the action who is or may be liable to him for all or part of the claim made in the action against the third-party defendant.

(b) When Plaintiff May Bring in Third Party. When a counterclaim is asserted against a plaintiff, he may cause a third party to be brought in under circumstances which under this rule would entitle a defendant to do so.

(c) Tort Cases. This rule shall not be applied, in tort cases, so as to permit the joinder of a liability or indemnity insurance company, unless such company is by statute or contract directly liable to the person injured or damaged. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Removal of certain actions to Superior Court. See Chapter 4.14 RCW.

Rule 15 Amended and Supplemental Pleadings.

(a) Amendments Prior to Trial. A party may amend a complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim or third-party complaint once as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is made, or, if the pleading is an answer or a reply to a counterclaim he may so amend it at any time within 20 days after it is served, provided it is amended prior to trial. Otherwise, prior to trial a party may amend his pleading only by leave of court or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within 10 days after service or notice of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the court otherwise orders.

(b) Amendments At or After the Trial. When issues not raised by the pleadings are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the pleadings as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time, even after judgment; but failure so to amend does not affect the result of the trial of these issues.

If the evidence is objected to at the trial on the ground that it is not within the issues made by the pleadings, the court may allow the pleadings to be amended and shall do so freely when the presentation of the merits of the action will be subserved thereby and the objecting party fails to satisfy the court that the admission of such evidence would prejudice him in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. The court may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to meet such evidence.

(c) Relation Back of Amendments. Whenever the claim or defense asserted in the amended pleading arose out of the conduct, transaction, or occurrence set forth or attempted to be set forth in the original pleading the amendment relates back to the date of the original pleading.

(d) Supplemental Pleadings. Upon motion of a party, the court may, upon reasonable notice and upon such terms as are just, permit him to serve or make a supplemental pleading setting forth transactions or occurrences or events which have happened since the date of the pleading sought to be supplemented. If the court deems it advisable that the adverse party plead thereto, it shall so order, specifying the time therefor.

(e) Interlineations. No amendments shall be made to any pleading by erasing or adding words to the original on file, except by permission of the court. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 16 Garnishments. Garnishments are governed by RCW 7.33. Provided, that judges or their clerks, may issue writs of garnishment in accordance with the provisions therein. [Amended June 4, 1976, effective July 1, 1976; adopted July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966.]

  - (c) Transfer of interest.

Rule 17 Parties Plaintiff and Defendant; Capacity.

(a) Real Party in Interest. Every action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest; but an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee of an express trust, a party with whom or in whose name a contract has been made for the benefit of another, or a party authorized by statute may sue in his own name without joining with him the party for whose benefit the action is brought.

(b) Infants or Incompetent Persons. (1) When an infant is a party he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem. The guardian shall be appointed:

(i) When the infant is plaintiff, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, or if under the age, upon the application of a relative or friend of the infant.

(ii) When the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of 14 years, and applies within the time he is to appear; if he be under the age of fourteen, or neglects to apply, then upon the application of any other party to the action, or of a relative or friend of the infant.

(2) When an insane person is a party to an action he shall appear by guardian, or if he has no guardian, or in the opinion of the court the guardian is an improper person, the court shall appoint one to act as guardian ad litem. Said guardian shall be appointed:

(i) When the insane person is plaintiff, upon the application of a relative or friend of the insane person.

(ii) When the insane person is defendant, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane person, such application shall be made within the time he is to appear. If no such application be made within the time above limited, application may be made by any party to the action. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 18 Joinder of Claims and Remedies.

(a) Joinder of Claims. The plaintiff in his complaint or in reply setting forth a counterclaim and the defendant in an answer setting forth a counterclaim may join either as independent or as alternate claims as many claims either legal or equitable or both as he may have against an opposing party. There may be a like joinder of claims when there are multiple parties if the requirements of rules 19, 20, and 22 are satisfied. There may be a like joinder of cross-claims or third-party claims if the requirements of rules 13 and 14 respectively are satisfied.

(b) Joinder of Remedies. Whenever a claim is one heretofore cognizable only after another claim has been prosecuted to a conclusion, the two claims may be joined in a single action; but the court shall grant relief in that action only in accordance with the relative substantive rights of the parties. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 19 Necessary Joinder of Parties.

(a) Necessary Joinder. Subject to the provisions of subdivision (b) of this rule, persons having a joint interest shall be made parties and be joined on the same side as plaintiffs or defendants. When a person who should join as a plaintiff refuses to do so, he may be made a defendant.

(b) Effect of Failure to Join. When persons who are not indispensable but who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, have not been made parties and are subject to the jurisdiction of the court as to both service of process and venue, the court shall order them summoned to appear in the action. The court in its discretion may proceed in the action without making such persons parties, if its jurisdiction over them as to either service of process or venue can be acquired only by their consent or voluntary appearance; but the judgment rendered therein does not affect the rights or liabilities of absent persons.

(c) Same: Names of Omitted Persons and Reasons for Nonjoinder to be Pleased. In any pleading in which relief is asked, the pleader shall set forth the names, if known to him, of persons who ought to be parties if complete relief is to be accorded between those already parties, but who are not joined, and shall state why they are omitted. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 20 Permissive Joinder of Parties.

(a) Permissive Joinder. All person may join in one action as plaintiffs if they assert any right to relief jointly, severally, or in the alternative in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. All persons may be joined in one action as defendants if there is asserted against them jointly, severally, or in the alternative, any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences and if any question of law or fact common to all of them will arise in the action. A plaintiff or defendant need not be interested in obtaining or defending against all the relief demanded. Judgment may be given for one or more of the plaintiffs according to their respective rights to relief, and against one or more defendants according to their respective liabilities.

RCW 4.08.040 applies to joinder of husband and wife.

(b) Separate Trials. The court may make such orders as will prevent a party from being embarrassed, delayed, or put to expense by the inclusion of a party against whom he asserts no claim and who asserts no claim against him, and may order separate trials or make other orders to prevent delay or prejudice. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 21 Misjoinder and Nonjoinder of Parties. Misjoinder of parties is not ground for dismissal of an action. Parties may be dropped or added by order of the court on motion of any party or of its own initiative at any stage of the action and on such terms as are just. Any claim against a party may be severed and proceeded with separately. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 22 Interpleader.

(a) Scope. Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims are such that the plaintiff is or may be exposed to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of cross-claim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted under other rules and statutes.

(b) Other Remedies. The remedy herein provided is in addition to and in no way supersedes or limits the remedy provided by RCW 4.08.150 to 4.08.180, inclusive. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 23 (Reserved).

Rule 24 Intervention.

(a) Intervention of Right. Upon timely application, anyone shall be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers an unconditional right to intervene; or (2) when the representation of the applicant's interest by existing parties is or may be inadequate and the applicant is or may be bound by a judgment in the action; or (3) when the applicant is so situated as to be adversely affected by a distribution or other disposition of property which is in the custody or subject to the control or disposition of the court.

(b) Permissive Intervention. Upon timely application, anyone may be permitted to intervene in an action: (1) when a statute confers a conditional right to intervene; or (2) when an applicant's claim or defense and the main action have a question of law or fact in common. When a party to an action relies for ground of claim or defense upon any statute or executive order administered by a federal or state governmental officer or agency or upon any regulation, order, requirements, or agreement issued or made pursuant to the statute or executive order, the officer or agency upon timely application may be permitted to intervene in the action. In exercising its discretion the court shall consider whether the intervention will unduly delay or prejudice the adjudication of the rights of the original parties.

(c) Procedure. A person desiring to intervene shall serve a motion to intervene upon all parties affected thereby. The motion shall state the ground therefor and shall be accompanied by a pleading setting forth the claim or defense for which intervention is sought. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 25 Substitution of Parties.

(a) Death. (1) If a party dies and the claim is not thereby extinguished, the court may order substitution of the proper parties. The motion for substitution may be made by the successors or representatives of the deceased party or by any party and, together with the notice of hearing, shall be served on the parties as provided by statute for service of notices, and upon persons not parties in the manner provided by these rules for the service of notice and complaint. If substitution is not made within a reasonable time, the action may be dismissed as to the deceased party.

(2) In the event of the death of one or more of the plaintiffs or one or more of the defendants in an action in which the right sought to be enforced survives only to the surviving plaintiffs or only against the surviving defendants, the action does not abate. The fact of death shall be noted in the docket and the action shall proceed in favor of or against the surviving parties.

(b) Incompetency. If a party becomes incompetent, the court upon motion served as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule may allow the action to be continued by or against his representative.

(c) Transfer of Interest. In case of any transfer of interest, the action may be continued by or against the original party unless the court upon motion directs the person to whom the interest is transferred to be substituted in the action or joined with the original party. Service of the motion shall be made as provided in subdivision (a) of this rule. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

26 Depositions pending action.

Rule 26 Depositions Pending Action. The taking of depositions, the requesting of admissions and all other procedures authorized by Rules 26 through 37 of the Superior Court Civil Rules applicable for use in the superior court may be available only upon prior permission of the court. The court shall have absolute discretion to decide whether to permit any such procedures. In exercising such discretion the court shall consider (1) whether all parties are represented by counsel, (2) whether undue delay in bringing the case to trial will result and (3) whether the interests of justice will be promoted. [Amended January 5, 1976, effective January 23, 1976; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 27–37 (Reserved).

into the merits of the cause, either party may demand a jury to try the action. The selection and other matters concerning jury trials are governed by RCW 12.12.030–12.12.100 inclusive. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 39 Trial by Jury or by the Court.

(a) By Jury. In a civil case, when a jury is demanded, it shall be allowed and tried with all reasonable speed. All issues of fact shall be tried by the jury.

(b) By the Court. All questions of law including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the judge, and all discussions of law addressed to him. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 40 Assignment of Cases for Trial—Judge, Disqualification.

(a) Assignment for Trial. When the pleadings of the parties have taken place a case shall be tried, but cases may be continued by the court to a date certain. Continuances may not be granted for a longer period than sixty days each.

(b) Disqualification. In any case pending in any court of limited jurisdiction, unless otherwise provided by law, the judge thereof shall be deemed disqualified to hear and try the case when he is in anywise interested or prejudiced. The judge, of his own initiative, may enter an order disqualifying himself; and he shall also disqualify himself under the provisions of this rule if, before the jury is sworn or the trial is commenced, a party files an affidavit that such party cannot have a fair and impartial trial by reason of the interest or prejudice of the judge or for other ground provided by law. Only one such affidavit shall be filed by the same party in the case and such affidavit shall be made as to only one of the judges of said court.

All right to an affidavit of prejudice will be considered waived where filed more than ten (10) days after the case is set for trial, unless the affidavit alleges a particular incident, conversation or utterance by the judge, which was not known to the party or his attorney within the ten (10) day period. In multiple-judge courts, or where a pro tem or visiting judge is designated as the trial judge, the 10 day period shall commence on the date that the defendant or his attorney has actual notice of assignment or reassignment to a designated trial judge. [Amended December 17, 1970, effective April 16, 1971; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 41 Dismissal of Actions.

(a) Without Prejudice. Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered, with costs, in the following cases:

(1) When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted.

(2) When plaintiff fails to appear at the time set for trial or other hearing.

(b) Limitation. If a counterclaim has been pleaded by defendant, the action shall not be dismissed against defendant's objection unless the counterclaim can remain pending for independent adjudication by the court.

(c) Counterclaims, etc. The provisions of this rule apply to the dismissal of any counterclaim, setoff, cross-claim, or third-party claim. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 42 Consolidation; Separate Trials.

(a) Consolidation. When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated; and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

(b) Separate Trials. The court in furtherance of convenience or to avoid prejudice may order a separate trial of any claim, cross-claim, counterclaim, or third-party claim, or of any separate issue or of any number of claims, cross-claims, counterclaims, third-party claims, or issues. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 43 Taking of testimony.

(a) Form. In all trials the testimony of witnesses shall be taken orally in open court, unless otherwise provided by rule or statute.

(a-1) Multiple Examinations. When two or more attorneys are upon the same side trying a case, the attorney conducting the examination of a witness shall continue until the witness is excused from the stand; and all objections and offers of proof made during the examination of such witness shall be made or announced by the attorney who is conducting the examination or cross-examination.

(b) (Reserved. See ER 607 and 611.)

(c) Affirmation in Lieu of Oath. Whenever under these rules an oath is required to be taken, a solemn affirmation may be accepted in lieu thereof.

(d) Adverse Party as Witness.

(1) Party or managing agent as adverse witness. A party, or anyone who at the time of the notice is an officer, director, or other managing agent (herein collectively referred to as "managing agent") of a public or private corporation, partnership or association which is a party to an action or proceeding may be examined at the instance of any adverse party. Attendance of such deponent or witness may be compelled solely by notice (in lieu of a subpoena) given to opposing counsel of record. Notices for the attendance of a party or a managing agent at the trial shall be given a reasonable time before the trial of not less than 10 days (exclusive of the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays and court holidays). For good cause shown, the court may make orders for the protection of the party or managing agent to be examined.

(2) Effect of discovery, etc. A party who has filed interrogatories to be answered by the adverse party or who has taken the deposition of an adverse party or of the managing agent of an adverse party shall not be precluded for that reason from examining such adverse party or managing agent at the trial. The testimony of an adverse party or managing agent at the trial or on deposition or interrogatories shall not bind his adversary but may be rebutted.

(3) Refusal to attend and testify: Penalties. If a party or a managing agent refuses to attend and testify before the officer designated to take his deposition or at the trial after notice served, the complaint, answer, or reply of the party may be stricken and judgment taken against the party, and the contumacious party or managing agent may also be proceeded against as in other cases of contempt. This rule shall not be construed: (1) to compel any person to answer any question where such answer might tend to incriminate him; or (2) to prevent a party from using a subpoena to compel the attendance of any party or managing agent to give testimony by deposition or at the trial; or (3) to limit the applicability of any other sanctions or penalties.

(e) Attorneys as Witnesses. If an attorney offers himself as a witness on behalf of his client and gives evidence on the merits, he shall not argue the case to the jury, unless by permission of the court. [Amended December 19, 1978, effective April 2, 1979; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 44 Proof of Official Record.

(a) Authentication of Copy. An official record or an entry therein, when admissible for any purpose, may be evidenced by an official publication thereof or by a copy attested by the officer having the legal custody of the record, or by his deputy, and accompanied with a certificate that such officer has the custody. If the office in which the record is kept is within the United States or within a territory or insular possession subject to the dominion of the United States, the certificate may be made by a judge of a court of record of the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of the court, or may be made by any public officer having a seal of office and having official duties in the district or political subdivision in which the record is kept, authenticated by the seal of his office. If the office in which the record is kept is in a foreign state or country, the certificate may be made by a secretary of embassy or legation, consul general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent or by any officer in the foreign service of the United States stationed in the foreign state or country in which the record is kept, and authenticated by the seal of his office.

(b) Proof of Lack of Record. A written statement signed by an officer having the custody of an official record or by his deputy that after diligent search no record or entry of a specified tenor is found to exist in the records of his office, accompanied by a certificate as above provided, is admissible as evidence that the records of his office contain no such record or entry.

(c) Other Proof. This rule does not prevent the proof of official records or of entry or lack of entry therein by any method authorized by an applicable statute, or by the rules of evidence at common law. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 45 Subpoena. Subpoenas are governed by RCW 12.16.010 through 12.16.050, inclusive. Provided, that subpoenas may be issued with like effect by the attorney of record of the party to the action in whose behalf the witness is required to appear, and the form of such subpoena in each case shall be the same as when issued by the court except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of such attorney. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 46–50 (Reserved).

Rule 51 Instructions to Jury; Objection. At the close of the evidence the court on its own motion, or on the request of either party, shall instruct the jury on the law either orally or in writing or both. Any party may file written request that the court instruct the jury. At the same time copies of requested instructions shall be furnished to adverse parties. The court need not grant any requested instruction if the matter is fairly covered by the instruction given. The court shall not instruct with respect to matters of fact or comment upon the evidence. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 52 Findings by the Court. If a jury trial is not demanded, the judge shall hear the evidence, and decide all questions of fact and law and render judgment accordingly. He is not required to make findings of fact or conclusions of law. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 53 (Reserved).

VII. JUDGMENTS

Rule

- 54 Judgments; costs.
  - (a) Definition; form.
  - (b) Judgment upon multiple claims.
  - (c) Demand for judgment.
- 55 Default.

- 58 Entry of judgment.
- 59 (Reserved).
- 60 Relief from judgment or order.
- 61 (Reserved).
- 62 Stay of proceedings to enforce a judgment.
- 63 (Reserved).

Rule 54 Judgments; Costs.

(a) Definition; Form. "Judgment" as used in these rules includes a decree and any final order from which an appeal lies. A judgment shall not contain a recital of pleadings or the record of prior proceedings. Judgments may be in a writing signed by the court or may be oral confirmed by an entry in the record.

(b) Judgment Upon Multiple Claims. When more than one claim for relief is presented in an action, whether as a claim, counterclaim, cross-claim, or third-party claim, the court may direct the entry of a final judgment upon one or more but less than all of the claims only upon an express determination that there is no just reason for delay and upon an express direction for the entry of judgment. In the absence of such determination and direction, any order or other form of decisions, however designated, which adjudicates less than all the claims shall not terminate the action as to any of the claims, and the order or other form of decision is subject to revision at any time before the entry of judgment adjudicating all the claims.

(c) Demand for Judgment. A judgment by default shall not be different in kind from or exceed in amount that prayed for in the demand for judgment. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 55 Default.

(a) Judgment. When the defendant fails to appear and plead before or at the time specified in the notice, or within 1 hour thereafter, or upon continuance, or for trial, judgment shall be given on motion of the plaintiff, if the motion includes a statement of the basis for venue in the action and it does not clearly appear to the court from the papers on file that venue is improper, as follows: When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given upon proof satisfactory to the court. In those cases where interest and attorney fees are claimed by virtue of a written instrument, a copy of said instrument shall be filed and the court shall set a reasonable attorney fee. The court shall notify the defendant of the entry of a default judgment by mailing a copy of the order and judgment to the defendant at his last known address within 5 days after entry of the judgment.

(b) Setting Aside Default.

(1) For good cause shown and upon such terms as the court deems just, the court may set aside an entry of default and, if a judgment by default has been entered, may likewise set it aside in accordance with Rule 60(b). No court shall issue a transcript or pay out or turn over money or property received by the court by virtue of any default judgment until the expiration of 20 days from entry of the judgment.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall limit the power of the court to set aside a judgment, at any time, where the court lacked jurisdiction to enter the judgment.

(c) Plaintiffs, Counterclaimants, Cross-Claimants. The provisions of this rule apply whether the party entitled to the judgment by default is a plaintiff, a third-party plaintiff, or a party who has pleaded a cross-claim or counterclaim. [Amended July 20, 1978, effective September 1, 1978; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 56–57 (Reserved).

Rule 58 Entry of Judgment. Upon the verdict of a jury, the court shall immediately render judgment thereon. If the trial is by the judge, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, unless he reserves his decision, in which event the trial shall be continued to a day certain, but not longer than 15 days. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 59 (Reserved).

Rule 60 Relief From Judgment or Order. (a) Clerical mistakes in judgments, orders, or other parts of the record and errors therein arising from oversight or omission may be corrected by the court at any time of its own initiative or on the motion of any party and after such notice, if any, as the court orders.

(b) Mistakes; Inadvertence; Excusable Neglect; Newly Discovered Evidence; Fraud; etc. On motion and upon such terms as are just, the court may relieve a party or his legal representative from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for the following reasons:

(1) Mistakes, inadvertence, surprise, excusable neglect or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order;

(2) For erroneous proceedings against a minor or person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings;

(3) Venue is improper and the judgment or order has been entered by default;

(4) Fraud (whether heretofore denominated intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

(5) The judgment is void;

(6) The judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged, or a prior judgment upon which it is based has been reversed or otherwise vacated;

(7) If the defendant was served by publication, relief may be granted as prescribed in RCW 4.28.200;

(8) Death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action;

(9) Unavoidable casualty or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending;

(10) Error in judgment shown by a minor, within 12 months after arriving at full age; or

(11) Any other reason justifying relief from the operation of the judgment.

(c) The motion shall be made within a reasonable time and for reasons (1), (2), or (3) of section (b) not more than 1 year after the judgment, order, or proceeding was entered or taken. If the party entitled to relief is a minor or a person of unsound mind, the motion shall be made within 1 year after the disability ceases. A motion under section (b) does not affect the finality of the judgment or suspend its operation. [Amended July 20, 1978, effective September 1, 1978; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 61 (Reserved).*Rule 62 Stay of Proceedings to Enforce a Judgment.

When the court has ordered a final judgment on some but not all the claims presented in the action, under the conditions stated in rule 54(b), the court may stay enforcement of that judgment until the entering of a subsequent judgment or judgments and may prescribe such conditions as are necessary to secure the benefit thereof to the party in whose favor the judgment is entered. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rules 65–67 (Reserved).

Rule 68 Offer of Judgment. At any time more than 5 days before the trial begins, a party defending against a claim may serve upon the adverse party an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the money or property or to the effect specified in his offer, with costs then accrued. If within 5 days after the service of the offer the adverse party serves written notice that the offer is accepted, either party may then file the offer and notice of acceptance together with proof of service thereof and thereupon the court shall enter judgment. An offer not accepted shall be deemed withdrawn and evidence thereof is not admissible except in a proceeding to determine costs. If the judgment finally obtained by the offeree is not more favorable than the offer, the offeree must pay the cost incurred after the making of the offer. The fact that an offer is made but not accepted does not preclude a subsequent offer. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Filing the notice of appeal is the only jurisdictional requirement for an appeal. A party filing a notice of appeal shall also, within the same 14 days, serve a copy of the notice of appeal on all other parties or their lawyers and file an acknowledgment or affidavit of service in the court of limited jurisdiction.

(c) Bond. A bond or undertaking shall be executed on the part of the appellant, except when the appellant is a county, city, town or school district, and filed with and approved by the court of limited jurisdiction with one or more sureties, in the sum of $100, conditioned that the appellant will pay all costs that may be awarded against him on appeal; or if a stay of proceedings in the court of limited jurisdiction be claimed, except by a county, city, town or school district, a bond or undertaking, with two or more personal sureties, or a surety company as surety, to be approved by the court of limited jurisdiction, in a sum equal to twice the amount of the judgment and costs, conditioned that the appellant will pay such judgment, including costs, as may be rendered against him on appeal, be so executed and filed.

(d) Stay of Proceedings. Upon an appeal being taken and a bond filed to stay all proceedings, the court of limited jurisdiction shall allow the same and make an entry of such allowance, and all further proceedings on the judgment in such court shall thereupon be suspended; and if in the meantime execution shall have been issued, such court shall give the appellant a certificate that such appeal has been allowed.

(e) Release of Property Taken on Execution. On such certificate being presented to the officer holding the execution, he shall forthwith release the property of the judgment debtor that may have been taken on execution.

(f) No Dismissal for Defective Bond. No appeal allowed by a court of limited jurisdiction shall be dismissed on account of any defect in the bond on appeal, if the appellant, before the motion is determined, shall execute and file in the superior court such bond as he should have executed at the time of taking the appeal, and pay all costs that may have accrued by reason of such defect.

(g) Judgment Against Appellant and Sureties. In all cases of appeal to the superior court, if on the trial anew in such court, the judgment be against the appellant in whole or in part, such judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties on the bond on appeal. [Amended December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 74 (Reserved).

Rule 75 Record on Appeal to a Superior Court.

(a) Scope of Rule. This rule applies only to proceedings which are not subject to appellate review under the Rules for Appeal of Decisions of Courts of Limited Jurisdiction (RALJ). The proceedings to which those rules apply are defined by RALJ 1.1.

(b) Transcript; Procedure in Superior Court; Pleadings in Superior Court. Within 14 days after the notice of appeal has been filed in a civil action or proceeding, the appellant shall file with the clerk of the superior court a transcript of all entries made in the docket of the court of limited jurisdiction relating to the case, together with all the process and other papers relating to the case filed in the court of limited jurisdiction which shall be made and certified by such court to be correct upon the payment of the fees allowed by law therefor, and upon the filing of such transcript the superior court shall become possessed of the cause, and shall proceed in the same manner, as near as may be, as in actions originally commenced in that court, except as provided in these rules. The issue before the court of limited jurisdiction shall be tried in the superior court without other or new pleadings, unless otherwise directed by the superior court.

(c) Transcript; Procedure on Failure to Make and Certify; Amendment. If upon an appeal being taken the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses, upon the tender or payment of the fees allowed by law, to make and certify the transcript, the appellant may make application, supported by affidavit, to the superior court and the court shall issue an order directing the court of limited jurisdiction to make and certify such transcript upon the payment of such fees. Whenever it appears to the satisfaction of the superior court that the return of the court of limited jurisdiction to such order is substantially erroneous or defective it may order the court of limited jurisdiction to amend the same. If the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any order issued under the provisions of this section he may be cited and punished for contempt of court. [Amended December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.01 Complaint—Citation and notice.*(a) Complaint.

(1) Initiation. Except as otherwise provided in this rule, all criminal proceedings shall be initiated by a complaint.

(2) Contents. The complaint shall be in writing and shall set forth:

- (i) the name of the court;
- (ii) the title of the action and the name of the offense charged;
- (iii) the name of the person charged; and
- (iv) the offense charged, in the language of the statute, together with a statement as to the time, place, person, and property involved to enable the defendant to understand the character of the offense charged.

(3) Certification. The complaint shall contain a form of certificate by the prosecuting attorney that he or she certifies, under penalty of perjury, as provided in RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he or she has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person.

(4) Approval of Form. The complaint shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(b) Citation and Notice to Appear.

(1) Issuance. Whenever a person is arrested for a violation of law which is punishable as a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor the arresting officer, or any other authorized peace officer, may serve upon the arrested person a citation and notice to appear in court, in lieu of continued custody. In determining whether to issue a citation and notice to appear, a peace officer may consider the following factors:

- (i) whether the person has identified himself satisfactorily;
- (ii) whether detention appears reasonably necessary to prevent imminent bodily harm to himself or to another, injury to property, or breach of the peace;
- (iii) whether the person has ties to the community reasonably sufficient to assure his appearance or whether there is substantial likelihood that he will refuse to respond to the citation; and
- (iv) whether the person previously has failed to appear in response to a citation issued pursuant to this section or to other lawful process.

(2) Contents. The citation and notice shall include:

- (i) the name of the court and a space for the court's docket, case or file number;
- (ii) the name of the person, his address, date of birth, and sex;
- (iii) the date, time, place and description of the offense charged, the date on which the citation was issued, and the name of the citing officer;
- (iv) the time and place at which the person is to appear in court which need not be a time certain, but may be within 72 hours or within a greater period of time not to exceed 15 days after the date of the citation;

(v) a space for the person to sign a promise to appear.

(3) Release. To secure his release, the person must give his written promise to appear in court as required by the citation and notice served.

(4) Certificate. The citation and notice to appear shall contain a form of certificate by the citing official that he certifies, under penalties of perjury, as provided by RCW 3.50.140, and any law amendatory thereof, that he has reasonable grounds to believe, and does believe, the person committed the offense contrary to law. The certificate need not be made before a magistrate or any other person. Such citation and notice when signed by the citing officer and filed with a court of competent jurisdiction shall be deemed a lawful complaint for the purpose of initiating prosecution of the offense charged therein.

(5) Additional Information. The citation and notice may also contain such identifying and additional information as may be necessary.

(6) Approval of Form. The citation and notice shall be on a form prescribed or approved by the Administrator for the Courts.

(c) Citizen Complaints. Any person wishing to make a complaint shall appear before a judge empowered to commit persons charged with offenses against the state. The judge shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may require, take their statements, and cause the statements and the complaint to be subscribed under oath by the person or persons making it.

(1) Citizen's Complaint—Alternate Method. The judge may consider any complaint on the basis of an affidavit sworn to before the judge, a clerk, commissioner or notary public where the judge is satisfied that probable cause exists, that the complaining witness is aware of the gravity of initiating a criminal complaint, the necessity of a court appearance for himself and witnesses, the possible liability for false arrest and consequences of perjury, such affidavit may be in substantially the form as provided herein.

I, the undersigned complainant understand that I have the choice of complaining to a prosecuting authority rather than signing this affidavit. I elect to use this method to start criminal proceedings. I understand that the following are some but not all of the consequences of my signing a criminal complaint: (1) the defendant may be arrested and placed in custody. (2) the arrest if proved false may result in a lawsuit against me. (3) if I have sworn falsely I may be prosecuted for perjury. (4) this charge will be prosecuted even though I might later change my mind. (5) witnesses and complainant will be required to appear in court on the trial date regardless of inconvenience, school, job, etc.

Following is a true statement of the events that led to filing this charge. I (have) (have not) consulted with a prosecuting authority concerning this incident.

(d) Filing.

(1) The original of the complaint or citation and notice shall be filed with the clerk of the court, and sufficient copies shall be prepared in order to provide a copy for each defendant.

(2) The citation and notice in a traffic case shall be filed with the court within 48 hours after issuance, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays. A citation and notice not filed within the time limits of this section may be dismissed without prejudice.

(e) Exceptions. RESCINDED. [Amended November 20, 1980, effective January 1, 1981; amended October 16, 1975, effective January 1, 1976; amended October 23, 1969, effective November 7, 1969; amended June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.02 Warrant or summons upon complaint.

(a) Issuance of Warrant of Arrest. If it appears from the complaint or from an affidavit or affidavits filed therewith, that there is reasonable cause to believe that an offense has been committed and that the defendant has committed it, the judge, except as otherwise provided in 2.02(b), shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant unless he has already been arrested in connection with the offense charged and is in custody or has been released on obligation to appear in court. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the judge may require the complainant to appear personally and may examine under oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce.

(b) Issuance of Summons in Lieu of Warrant of Arrest.

(1) Where summons may issue. In any case in which the judge finds sufficient grounds for issuing a warrant pursuant to 2.02(a), he may issue a summons commanding the defendant to appear in lieu of a warrant.

(2) When summons must issue. If the complaint charges the commission of one or more misdemeanors or gross misdemeanors, the judge shall issue a summons instead of a warrant unless he has reasonable cause to believe that the defendant will not appear in response to a summons, or that arrest is necessary to prevent serious bodily harm to the accused or another, in which case he may issue a warrant.

(3) Failure to appear on summons. If a person summoned fails to appear in response to the summons, or if service is unsuccessful, a warrant for his arrest may issue.

(c) Form. (1) Warrant. The warrant shall be in writing and in the name of the State of Washington, shall be signed by the judge with the title of his office, and shall state the date when issued and the municipality or county where issued. It shall specify the name of the defendant, or if his name is unknown, any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty. It shall describe the offense charged against the defendant; if the offense charged is triable in the county in which the warrant issues, the warrant shall command that the defendant be arrested and brought forthwith before the judge issuing the warrant. If the offense is bailable, the warrant shall contain the release provisions then fixed by the judge pursuant to JCrR 2.09.

(2) Summons. The summons shall be in the same form as the warrant except that it shall summon the defendant to appear before the judge issuing it at a stated time and place.

(d) Execution or Service.

(1) Execution of warrant. The warrant shall be directed to all peace officers in the state and shall be executed only by a peace officer.

(2) Service of summons. The summons may be served any place within the state. It shall be served by a peace officer who shall deliver a copy of the same to the defendant personally, or it may be served by mailing the same, postage prepaid, to the defendant at his address.

(e) Return. The officer executing a warrant shall make return thereof to the court before whom the defendant is brought pursuant to Rule 2.03. At the request of the prosecuting attorney any unexecuted warrant shall be returned to the judge by whom issued and shall be cancelled by him. The person to whom a summons has been delivered for service shall, on or before the return date, make return thereof to the judge before whom the summons is returnable. The judge for reasonable cause can also order that the warrant be returned to him.

(f) Defective Warrant or Summons.

(1) Amendment. No person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons shall be discharged from custody or dismissed because of any irregularity in the warrant or summons, but the warrant or summons may be amended so as to remedy any such irregularity.

(2) Issuance of new warrant or summons. If during the preliminary examination of any person arrested under a warrant or appearing in response to a summons, it appears that the warrant or summons does not properly name or describe the defendant, or the offense with which he is charged, or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant or summons there is reasonable ground to believe that he is guilty of some other offense, the judge shall not discharge or dismiss the defendant but may allow a new complaint to be filed and shall thereupon issue a new warrant or summons. [Amended April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973; adopted Feb. 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.04.010, 10.04.030; RCW 10.16.010.

Rule 2.03 Proceedings before the judge—Procedure following execution of a warrant, or arrest without a warrant—Bail—Preliminary hearing.

(a) Preliminary Appearance.

(1) Unless a defendant has appeared or will appear before the superior court for a preliminary appearance, any defendant whether detained in jail or subjected to court-authorized conditions of release, and any person in whose case the juvenile court has entered a written order declining jurisdiction, must be taken or required to appear before a judge of a court of limited jurisdiction as soon as practicable after the detention is commenced, the conditions of release imposed or the order is entered, but in any event before the close of business on the next judicial day. A person is not subject to conditions of release if the person has been served with a summons or traffic or misdemeanor citation and the only obligation is to appear in court on a future date.

(2) If a defendant is unavailable for preliminary appearance because of physical or mental disability, the court may, for good cause shown and recited in a written order, enlarge the time prior to preliminary appearance.

(b) Procedure at Preliminary Appearance. At the preliminary appearance the judge shall orally inform the defendant:

(1) Of the nature of the charge against the defendant; and

(2) Of the right to be assisted by a lawyer at every stage of the proceedings;

The court shall provide for counsel pursuant to Rule 2.11 and for pretrial release pursuant to Rule 2.09.

(c) Time Limits.

(1) Unless a written complaint is filed or the affected person consents in writing or on the record in open court, a defendant shall not be detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release for more than 72 hours after the defendant's detention in jail or release on conditions, whichever occurs first. Computation of the 72-hour period shall not include any part of Saturdays, Sundays, or holidays.

(2) If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed at the time of the preliminary appearance, and the defendant has not otherwise consented, the court at a time certain which is within the period described in section (c)(1), shall either (i) order in writing that the defendant be released from jail or exonerated from the conditions of release, or (ii) set a time at which the defendant shall reappear before the court. The time set for reappearance must also be within the period described in section (c)(1). If no complaint, information or indictment has been filed by the time set for release or reappearance, the defendant shall be immediately released from jail or deemed exonerated from all conditions of release.

(d) Preliminary Hearings on Felony Complaint.

(1) When a felony complaint is filed, the court may conduct a preliminary hearing to determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony. If the court finds probable cause, the court shall bind the defendant over to the superior court. If the court binds the defendant over, or if the parties waive the preliminary hearing, an information shall be filed without unnecessary delay.

(2) If at the time a complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the filing of the complaint in district court to the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed 30 days plus any time which is the subject of a stipulation under section (d)(3). If at the time the complaint is filed with the district court the defendant is not detained in jail or subjected to conditions of release, the time from the defendant's first appearance in district court which next follows the filing of the complaint to the time of the filing of an information in superior court shall not exceed 30 days, excluding any time which is the subject of a stipulation under section (d)(3). If the applicable time period specified above elapses and no information has been filed in superior court, the case shall be dismissed without prejudice. The court shall file the transcript in superior court promptly after notice that the information has been filed. The transcript shall include, but not be limited to, the bond and any exhibits filed in the court of limited jurisdiction. Jurisdiction vests in the superior court at the time the information is filed.

(3) Before or after the preliminary hearing or a waiver thereof, the court may delay a preliminary hearing or defer a bind-over order if the parties stipulate in writing that the case shall remain in the court of limited jurisdiction for a specified time not exceeding 30 days, which may be in addition to the 30-day time limit established in section (d)(2).

(4) A preliminary hearing shall be conducted as follows:

(i) The defendant may as a matter of right be present at such hearing.

(ii) The court shall inform the defendant of the charge unless the defendant waives such reading.

(iii) Witnesses shall be examined under oath and may be cross-examined.

(iv) The defendant may testify and call witnesses in the defendant's behalf.

(5) If a preliminary hearing on the felony complaint is held and the court finds that probable cause does not exist, the charge shall be dismissed, and may be refiled only if a motion to set aside the finding is granted by the superior court. The superior court shall determine whether, at the time of the hearing on such motion, there is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed a felony. [Amended July 1, 1980, effective August 1, 1980; amended April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973; adopted February 13, 1963, amended June 14, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.04.030, modifies if not supersedes RCW 10.16.090.

Rule 2.04 Complaint and citation—Sufficiencies.

(a) Complaint. The complaint shall not be deemed insufficient for lack of a formal caption or commencement or a formal conclusion, or any other matter not necessary to a plain, concise and definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense or offenses with which the defendant is charged, nor for lack of any other matter not necessary to such statement, nor need it negative any exception, excuse or proviso contained in any statute creating or defining the offense charged. Allegations made in one count may be incorporated by reference in another count. It may be alleged in any count that the means by which the defendant committed the offense are unknown or that he committed it by one or more specified means. Unnecessary allegations may be disregarded as surplusage and on motion of the defendant prior to trial may be stricken from the complaint by the court. The complaint shall state for each count the official or customary citation of any applicable statute, rule, regulation, ordinance, or other provision of law which the defendant is alleged therein to have violated; but, error in the citation or its omission shall not be ground for dismissal of the complaint or for reversal of a conviction unless the error or omission mislead the defendant to his prejudice.

(b) Citation and Notice. No citation and notice issued pursuant to the provisions of Rule 2.01(b) shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific offense with which the defendant is charged, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant. Any defendant upon request shall be entitled as a matter of right to a bill of particulars. [Amended June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.05 Complaint—Joinder of offenses and defendants.

(a) Joinder of Offenses. Two or more offenses may be charged in the same complaint in a separate count for each offense if the offenses charged are of the same or similar character or are based on the same act or transaction or on two or more acts or connected transactions or transactions constituting parts of a common scheme or plan.

(b) Joinder of Defendants. Two or more defendants may be charged in the same complaint if they are alleged to have participated in the same act or transaction or in the same series of acts or transactions constituting an offense or offenses. Such defendants may be charged in one or more counts together or separately and it shall not be necessary to charge all the defendants in each count. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.06 Several complaints for same offense—Jurisdiction—Consolidation.

(a) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Same Court. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant in the same court for the same offense, the court shall order the complaints to be consolidated.

(b) Several Complaints for Same Offense—Different Courts. If two or more complaints are filed against the same defendant for the same offense in different courts, and if each court has jurisdiction, the court in which the first complaint was filed shall try the case and upon motion by either party, or the judge, the second or several complaints shall be forwarded to the court in which a complaint was first filed for consolidation and trial. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.07 Complaint—Loss or destruction—Copy. When a complaint has been lost or destroyed a copy thereof certified by the court may be substituted and the case shall proceed without delay from that cause. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 2.08 Procedure on failure to obey citation and notice to appear.

(a) Residents. The court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of any defendant who is a resident of this state and who has failed to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear. If the warrant is not executed within 30 days after issue, the court shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained.

(b) Nonresidents. If a nonresident defendant fails to appear before the court either in person or by counsel in answer to a citation and notice to appear upon which he has given his written promise to appear, the court shall mail a notice to the defendant at the address stated in the citation and notice to appear requesting him to abide by his promise and appear in person or by counsel on a day certain, and notifying him that he may also be charged for his failure to appear after a written promise to do so. If the nonresident defendant fails to respond within 30 days after the date set in the notice, the court shall issue a warrant for his arrest, and shall make an entry of the notification on the docket, and may add a charge against the defendant for failure to appear after a written promise to do so, and mark the case closed, subject to being reopened when the appearance of the defendant is thereafter obtained. [Adopted June 28, 1968, effective July 5, 1968.]

Rule 2.09 Pretrial release.

(a) Personal Recognizance. Any defendant charged with an offense shall at his first court appearance be ordered released on his personal recognizance pending trial unless the court determines that such recognizance will not reasonably assure his appearance, when required. When such a determination is made, the court shall impose the least restrictive of the following conditions that will reasonably assure his appearance or if no single condition gives that assurance, any combination of the following conditions:

(1) place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him;

(2) place restrictions on the travel, association, or place of abode of the defendant during the period of release;

(3) require the execution of an unsecured appearance bond in a specified amount;

(4) require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount and the deposit in the registry of the court in cash or other security as directed, of a sum not to exceed 10 percent of the amount of the bond, such deposit to be returned upon the performance of the conditions of release;

(5) require the execution of an appearance bond with sufficient solvent sureties, or the deposit of cash in lieu thereof;

(6) require the defendant return to custody during specified hours; or

(7) impose any condition other than detention deemed reasonably necessary to assure appearance as required.

(b) Relevant Factors. In determining which conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance, the court shall, on the available information, consider the relevant facts including: the length and character of the defendant's residence in the community; his employment status and history and financial condition; his family ties and relationships; his reputation, character and mental condition; his history of response to legal process; his prior criminal record; the willingness of responsible members of the community to vouch for the defendant's reliability and assist him in appearing in court; the nature of the charge; and any other factors indicating the defendant's ties to the community.

(c) Conditions of Release. Upon a showing that there exists a substantial danger that the defendant will commit a serious crime or that the defendant's physical condition is such to jeopardize his safety or that of others or that he will seek to intimidate witnesses, or otherwise unlawfully interfere with the administration of justice, the court, upon the defendant's release, may impose one or more of the following conditions:

- (1) prohibit him from approaching or communicating with particular persons or classes of persons;
- (2) prohibit him from going to certain geographical areas or premises;
- (3) prohibit him from possessing any dangerous weapons, or engaging in certain described activities or indulging in intoxicating liquors or in certain drugs;
- (4) require him to report regularly to and remain under the supervision of an officer of the court or other person or agency;
- (5) detain him until his physical condition permits his release.

(d) Order for Release. A court authorizing the release of the defendant under this rule shall issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any, shall inform him of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of his release and shall advise him that a warrant for his arrest may be issued immediately upon any such violation.

(e) Review of Conditions. Upon determining the conditions of release, the court, upon request, after 24 hours from the time of release, may review the conditions previously imposed.

(f) Amendment of Order. The court ordering the release of a defendant on any condition specified in this rule may at any time on change of circumstances or showing of good cause amend its order to impose additional or different conditions for release.

(g) Revocation of Release. Upon a verified application by the prosecuting attorney alleging with specificity that a defendant has willfully violated a condition of his release, a court shall order the defendant to appear for immediate hearing or issue a warrant directing the arrest of the defendant for immediate hearing. A law enforcement officer having probable cause to believe that a defendant released pending trial for a felony is about to leave the state or that he has violated a condition of such release, imposed pursuant to section (c), under circumstances rendering the securing of a warrant impracticable, may arrest the defendant and take him forthwith before the court.

(h) Release After Verdict. A defendant (1) who is charged with a capital offense, or (2) who has been found guilty of a felony and is either awaiting sentence or has filed an appeal, shall be released pursuant to this rule, unless the court finds that the defendant may flee the state or pose a substantial danger to another or to the community. If such a risk of flight or danger exists, the defendant may be ordered detained.

(i) Evidence. Information stated in, or offered in connection with, any order entered pursuant to this rule need not conform to the rules pertaining to the admissibility of evidence in a court of law.

(j) Forfeiture. Nothing contained in this rule shall be construed to prevent the disposition of any case or class of cases by forfeiture of collateral security where such disposition is authorized by the court.

(k) Defendant Discharged on Recognizance or Bail—Absence—Forfeiture. If the defendant has been discharged on his own recognizance, on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear for judgment when his personal appearance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the recognizance, or of the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

(l) Bail in Traffic Offense Cases—Mandatory Appearance. When required to reasonably assure appearance in court, bail for a person arrested for the following offenses shall be the amount listed in this rule, unless the court for good cause recited in a written order sets a different amount, not to exceed $500. Forfeiture of bail shall not constitute a final disposition for the following offenses without a written order of the court showing the reasons. The order may be a simple docket entry. If the court allows forfeiture of bail, it may accept the bail as full payment including all statutory assessments.

[Amended November 20, 1980, effective January 1, 1981; adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 2.10 Search and seizure.

(a) Authority to Issue Warrant. A search warrant authorized by this rule may be issued by a magistrate upon request of a peace officer or prosecuting attorney.

(b) Property Which May be Seized With a Warrant. A warrant may be issued under this rule to search for and seize any (1) evidence of a crime; or (2) contraband, the fruits of crime, or things otherwise criminally possessed; or (3) weapons or other things by means of which a crime has been committed or reasonably appears about to be committed.

(c) Issuance and Contents. A warrant shall issue only on an affidavit or affidavits establishing the grounds for issuing the warrant. Such affidavit or affidavits may consist of an officer's sworn telephonic statement to the judge; provided, however, such sworn telephonic testimony must be electronically recorded at the time transmitted and retained in the court records and reduced to writing as soon as possible thereafter. If the magistrate finds that probable cause for the issuance of a warrant exists, he shall issue a warrant or direct an individual whom he authorizes for such purpose to affix his signature to a warrant identifying the property and naming or describing the person or place or thing to be searched. The finding of probable cause shall be based on evidence, which may be hearsay in whole or in part, provided there is a substantial basis for believing the source of the hearsay to be credible and for believing that there is factual basis for the information furnished. Before ruling on a request for a warrant the court may require the affiant to appear personally and may examine under oath the affiant and any witnesses he may produce. The judge shall record a summary of any additional evidence on which he relies. The warrant shall be directed to any peace officer. It shall command the officer to search, within a specified period of time not to exceed 10 days, the person, place, or thing named for the property specified. It shall designate a magistrate to whom it shall be returned. The warrant may be served at any time.

(d) Execution and Return With Inventory. The peace officer taking property under the warrant shall give to the person from whom or from whose premises the property is taken a copy of the warrant and a receipt for the property taken. The return shall be made promptly and shall be accompanied by a written inventory of any property taken. The inventory shall be made in the presence of the person from whose possession or premises the property is taken, or in the presence of at least one person other than the officer. The magistrate shall upon request deliver a copy of the inventory to the person from whom or from whose premises the property was taken and to the applicant for the warrant.

(e) Motion for Return of Property. A person aggrieved by an unlawful search and seizure may move the court for the return of the property on the ground that the property was illegally seized and that he is lawfully entitled to possession thereof. If the motion is granted, the property shall be returned. If a motion for return of property is made or comes on for hearing after an indictment or information is filed in the court in which the motion is pending, it shall be treated as a motion to suppress. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Rule 2.11 Right to and assignment of counsel.

(a) Types of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall extend to all criminal proceedings for offenses punishable by loss of liberty regardless of their denomination as felonies, misdemeanors, or otherwise.

(b) Stage of Proceedings.

(1) The right to counsel shall accrue as soon as feasible after the defendant is taken into custody, when he appears before a committing magistrate, or when he is formally charged, whichever occurs earliest.

(2) Counsel shall be provided at every stage of the proceedings, including sentencing, appeal, and post-conviction review. Counsel initially appointed shall continue to represent the defendant through all stages of the proceedings unless a new appointment is made because geographical considerations or other factors make it necessary.

(c) Explaining the Availability of a Lawyer.

(1) When a person is taken into custody he shall immediately be advised of his right to counsel. Such advice shall be made in words easily understood, and it shall be stated expressly that a person who is unable to pay a lawyer is entitled to have one provided without charge.

(2) At the earliest opportunity a person in custody who desires counsel shall be provided access to a telephone, the telephone number of the public defender or official responsible for assigning counsel, and any other means necessary to place him in communication with a lawyer.

(d) Assignment of Counsel.

(1) Unless waived, counsel shall be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain one without causing substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel shall not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond.

(2) The ability to pay part of the cost of counsel shall not preclude assignment. The assignment of counsel may be conditioned upon part payment pursuant to an established method of collection.

(e) Withdrawal of Attorneys. Whenever a criminal cause has been set for trial, no attorney shall be allowed to withdraw from said cause, except upon written consent of the court, for good and sufficient reason shown.

(f) Services Other Than Counsel. Counsel for a defendant who is financially unable to obtain investigative, expert, or other services necessary to an adequate defense in his case may request them by a motion. Upon finding that the services are necessary and that the defendant is financially unable to obtain them, the court shall authorize counsel to obtain the services on behalf of the defendant. The courts, in the interest of justice and on a finding that timely procurement of necessary services could not await prior authorization, shall ratify such services after they have been obtained.

The court shall determine reasonable compensation for the services and direct payment to the organization or person who rendered them upon the filing of a claim for compensation supported by an affidavit specifying the time expended and the services and expenses incurred on behalf of the defendant, and the compensation received in the same cases or for the same services from any other source. [Adopted April 18, 1973, effective July 1, 1973.]

Comment: Supersedes RCW 10.01.110.

CHAPTER 3—ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

- Rule
- 3.01 Arraignment.
- 3.02 Arraignment—Time to determine plea and to consult counsel.
- 3.03 Arraignment—Appearance by counsel only.
- 3.04 Arraignment—Procedures—Effect of.
- 3.06 Arraignment—Pleas.
- 3.07 Complaints—When tried.
- 3.08 Continuances—Trial within sixty days—Dismissal.
- 3.10 Witnesses—Process—Subpoena.
- 3.11 Witnesses—Continued obligation to attend—Dismissal.
- 3.12 Subpoena duces tecum—Motion to quash—Production and inspection.
- 3.13 Process—Criminal.

Rule 3.01 Arraignment. Arraignment shall be conducted in open court and shall consist of reading the complaint to the defendant or stating to him the substance of the charge, and calling on him to plead thereto. He shall be given a copy of the complaint before he is called upon to plead. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.02 Arraignment—Time to determine plea and to consult counsel. The defendant shall not be required to plead to the complaint until he shall have had a reasonable time to examine the complaint. If the defendant appears in court without counsel, the court shall advise him of his right to counsel, and, if available his right to trial by jury, enter this fact on the record, and, if time is requested to consult counsel, grant the defendant a reasonable time to consult counsel and determine his plea. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.03 Arraignment—Appearance by counsel only. If the complaint is for a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel. Any court may adopt a local rule, not limited to misdemeanors, substantially as follows: attorneys-at-law may enter a plea of not guilty in writing on all (here insert type of case) cases. No further arraignment shall be required. [Amended May 12, 1969, effective July 1, 1969; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.04 Arraignment—Procedures—Effect of.

(a) Upon arraignment, the court shall ask the defendant his true name and, if it has been incorrectly stated in the complaint, order the complaint corrected accordingly.

(b) The defendant may move to set aside the complaint on the grounds that the complaint:

(1) does not satisfy the requirements of these Rules, or

(2) does not set forth facts constituting a crime, or

(3) contains matter which, if true, would constitute a defense or other legal bar to the action.

(c) If the motion is well taken, the court shall order the appropriate amendments or corrections to be made, if permitted under Rule 2.04; otherwise, the court shall order the complaint dismissed.

(d) If the motion of dismissal is sustained because the complaint contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the action, the judgment shall be final and the defendant must be discharged; if sustained for any other reason, the dismissal shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

(e) If the motion is overruled, or well taken, followed by appropriate amendments or corrections, the defendant shall enter his plea. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.06 Arraignment—Pleas. (1) The defendant may plead not guilty, former conviction, dismissal under Rule 3.04(d), or acquittal, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty, or guilty. The plea of guilty can be made only by the defendant in open court. The court may refuse to accept a plea of guilty and shall not accept such plea without first determining of record that the plea is made voluntarily and with understanding of the nature of the charge. If the defendant fails or refuses to plead to the complaint, or the court refuses to accept a plea of guilty, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the court.

(2) The court may, at any time before judgment, permit any plea to be withdrawn and an appropriate plea substituted, if it deems such action necessary in the interest of justice.

(3) The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the complaint. All matters of fact may be given in evidence under it, except a former conviction or acquittal. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.07 Complaints—When tried. The defendant, charged by complaint, may be tried, with his consent, immediately following his plea to the complaint, or on the first available court day, unless in either case the trial be continued to a day certain for good cause. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.08 Continuances—Trial within sixty days—Dismissal. Continuances may be granted to either party for good cause shown. Also, the court, on its own motion, may postpone the trial for good and sufficient reason. In either case, the continuance or postponement must be to a date certain. If the defendant is not brought to trial within 60 days from the date of appearance, except where the postponement was requested by the defendant, the court shall order the complaint to be dismissed, unless good cause to the contrary is shown. Dismissal under such circumstances shall be a bar to further prosecution for the offense charged. [Amended July 14, 1966, effective August 1, 1966; adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.10 Witnesses—Process—Subpoena. (a) Before trial, upon request of the defendant, the prosecuting attorney shall file with the court the names of the witnesses he intends to call at the trial and shall provide a copy of the list for the defendant or his counsel.

(b) Both the prosecution and the defendant are entitled to subpoena such witnesses as are necessary, such process to be issued by the judge or the clerk of the court and directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which such witness may be.

(c) When so required by the court, the applicant for subpoena, either in person or by counsel, shall show to the satisfaction of the court, the materiality of the testimony which is expected to be obtained from such witness.

See RPPP 101.16W.

(d) The procedure for compelling attendance of witnesses shall be as established in Chapter 5.56 RCW, RCW 10.04.060, 10.16.010, 10.16.140, 10.16.145, 10.16.150, 10.16.160, 10.16.190; and 12.16.010 and 12.16.040. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.11 Witnesses—Continued obligation to attend—Dismissal. When a witness has been subpoenaed he shall remain in attendance until the case is disposed of, unless he be excused or dismissed as provided in RPPP 101.12W, Witnesses in Criminal Cases; and he shall be liable for contempt for any default or failure to appear. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.12 Subpoena duces tecum—Motion to quash—Production and inspection. (a) A subpoena duces tecum may be issued by the court upon application of either party, commanding the person to whom it is directed to produce the books, papers, documents or other objects designated therein. The court, on motion made promptly, may quash or modify the subpoena if compliance would be illegal, unreasonable or oppressive.

(b) The court may direct that books, papers, documents or objects designated in the subpoena be produced before the court at a time prior to the trial or prior to the time when they are to be offered in evidence and may, upon their production, permit the books, papers, documents or objects or portions thereof to be inspected by the parties and their attorneys. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 3.13 Process—Criminal. The court may issue criminal process to any person anywhere in the state. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

- 4.11 Motion for judgment of dismissal.

Rule 4.01 Conduct of trial. All judicial proceedings and trials shall be held in open court, and shall be conducted in accordance with these rules. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.02 Procedure upon a plea of guilty. If the defendant pleads guilty, the judge may, if he wishes or if he has any doubts as to the plea, examine a witness or witnesses concerning the circumstances of the charge. If he is satisfied, either with or without the examination of witnesses, that the defendant is guilty, the judge shall assess the punishment and enter judgment accordingly. Rule 4.05 Relief from prejudicial joinder. If it appears that a defendant or the state is prejudiced by a joinder of offenses or of defendants in a complaint by such joinder for trial together, the court may order a separate trial of counts, grant a severance of defendants, or provide whatever other relief justice requires. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.06 Presence of the defendant. The defendant shall be present during the trial. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.07 Trial by jury or by the court.

(a) Trial By Jury—Waiver. When a trial by jury is authorized by the constitution, statutes or decisions of the Supreme Court, either the state or the defendant may demand a jury, which shall consist of six or less citizens of the state, who shall be impaneled and sworn as required by law. Demand for jury trial must be made at the time the defendant's plea is entered; otherwise, it shall be deemed waived, unless the court rules to the contrary.

(b) Trial By Jury—Selection. A jury shall be selected as follows: the judge shall write in a panel the names of eighteen persons, citizens of the county, from which the defendant, or his attorney, must strike one name, the prosecuting attorney one, and so on alternately until each party shall have stricken six names, and the remaining six names shall constitute the jury to try such case; and if either party neglect or refuse to aid in striking the jury as aforesaid the judge shall strike the name in behalf of such party.

(c) Trial By the Court. Unless the court refuses to assent, the parties may waive the right to trial by jury either explicitly or by failing to demand a jury trial in a timely manner, and trial shall be by the court. In trials for violation of municipal ordinances, except as indicated in rule 4.07(a), trial shall be by the court without a jury. Where trial is by the court, the court shall make a general finding and may, in its discretion, find the facts specifically.

(d) Issues of Law. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of a trial. The judge may, with the consent of all parties, answer questions asked by jurors pertaining to the law applicable to the case.

(e) Issues of Fact—Judge May Charge Jury as to Law. Issues of fact shall be tried by the jury in jury cases and by the judge in nonjury cases. In cases tried by a jury, the judge shall not comment on the evidence; however, the court shall instruct the jury either orally or in writing as to the law governing the case. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.08 Order of trial. (a) The order of trial in jury cases shall be as follows:

(1) Where trial by jury is requested, and authorized, a qualified jury, selected as provided by law, shall be sworn well and truly to try the case.

(2) Unless both parties waive opening statements, the prosecutor shall make the opening statement outlining the evidence which will be offered by the prosecution, and the defendant or his counsel may immediately thereafter make the opening statement for the defendant or such opening statement may be reserved until after the conclusion of the prosecution's case-in-chief.

(3) The prosecutor shall submit evidence in support of the prosecution.

(4) Defendant's attorney may challenge the sufficiency of the evidence at the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, and, if sustained, the case shall be dismissed; otherwise, the defendant may then offer evidence in defense.

(5) If the defendant's counsel shall have reserved his opening statement until the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, he may then state the case for the defense; if such statement has already been made, he may then offer evidence in support thereof or he may, by proper motion, challenge the sufficiency of the prosecution's case-in-chief to sustain a conviction.

(6) The parties may thereafter respectively offer testimony in rebuttal only unless the court, for good cause shown or believing that the interests of justice will be best served thereby, permits the parties to offer evidence upon their original cases.

(7) If the jury is instructed, the instructions shall be given prior to argument by counsel.

(8) Unless both parties waive argument and agree that the cause be decided by the court or submitted to the jury without argument, the prosecutor shall make the opening argument and the counsel for the defendant may follow and the prosecutor may conclude the argument. The length of time of all arguments shall be fixed by the court in its discretion and announced before the arguments are commenced. Equal time shall be allowed each party.

(b) The order of trial in nonjury cases shall be the same as in subsection (a) except as to such portions as are not applicable to nonjury cases. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.09 Evidence. (a) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence (ER) are applicable to criminal prosecutions.

(b) Confessions. With respect to confessions, in jury cases, the procedure set forth in CrR 3.5 shall apply, upon demand of the defendant.

(c) Test Reports by Experts.

(1) Generally. The official written report of an expert witness which contains the results of any test of a substance or object which are relevant to an issue in a trial shall be admitted in evidence without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the report if the report bears the following certification:

(2) Exclusion of Test Reports. The court shall exclude test reports otherwise admissible under section (c) if:

(i) A copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant or the defendant's lawyer at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(ii) In the case of an unrepresented defendant, a copy of this rule in addition to a copy of the certified report or certificate has not been delivered or mailed to the defendant at least 14 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, or

(iii) At least 7 days prior to the trial date or, upon a showing of cause, such lesser time as the court deems proper, the defendant has delivered or mailed a written demand upon the prosecutor to produce the expert witness at the trial.

(d) Breathalyzer Maintenance Certificates.

(1) Admission of Certificate. In the absence of a request to produce a Breathalyzer maintenance operator made at least 7 days prior to trial or such lesser time as the court deems proper, certificates in the following form are admissible in any court proceeding held pursuant to RCW 46.61.506 for the purpose of determining whether a person was operating or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors:

(2) Continuance. The court at the time of trial shall hear testimony concerning the alleged offense and, if necessary, may continue the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the maintenance operator's presence for

Rule 4.10 Amendments to complaint—Continuance. The court may permit a complaint to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different offense is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall not be granted upon such amendment unless the defendant shall satisfy the court that the amendment has made it necessary for him to have additional time in which to prepare his defense. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

Rule 4.11 Motion for judgment of dismissal. Motions for directed verdict are abolished and motions for judgment of dismissal are substituted in their place. The court either on motion of a defendant, or on its own motion, shall order entry of judgment of dismissal of one or more offenses charged by complaint if, after the evidence on either side is closed, the court concludes as a matter of law that such evidence is not sufficient to sustain a judgment of conviction of such offense or offenses. If a defendant's motion for judgment of dismissal at the close of the prosecution's case-in-chief, is not granted, the defendant may offer evidence without having reserved the right. If defendant's motion is granted, the state shall have the right to appeal from the court's ruling. [Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

[Adopted February 13, 1963, effective July 1, 1963.]

(c) Dismissal for Want of Prosecution. Upon dismissal of the appeal for failure of appellant to proceed diligently with the appeal as herein required, or for any other cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be enforced by the judge thereof. If, at the time of such dismissal, cash deposit or appeal bond as hereinafter required has been furnished and is in the custody of the superior court, the same shall be returned to the lower court. The lower court shall have power to forfeit the cash bail or appeal bond and issue execution thereon for breach of any condition under which it is furnished.

  - (c) Amendment of notice.
  - (d) Sufficiency.
- 3.2 Failure to appear.

Rule 3.1 Contested Hearings—Preliminary Proceedings. (a) Subpoena. The defendant and the plaintiff may subpoena witnesses necessary for the presentation of their respective cases. The subpoena may be issued by a judge, court commissioner, or clerk of the court or by a party's lawyer. If a party's lawyer issues a subpoena, a copy shall be filed with the court. A subpoena may be directed to the sheriff of any county or any peace officer of any municipality in the state in which the witness may be or it may be served as provided in CR 45(c). If the subpoena is for a witness outside the county, the judge must approve of the subpoena.

(b) Witness List. The plaintiff's lawyer, upon request of the defendant 14 days prior to a contested hearing, shall at least 7 days prior to the hearing provide the defendant or defendant's lawyer with a list of the witnesses the plaintiff intends to call at the hearing.

(c) Amendment of Notice. The court may permit a notice of traffic infraction to be amended at any time before judgment if no additional or different infraction is charged, and if substantial rights of the defendant are not thereby prejudiced. A continuance shall be granted if the defendant satisfies the court that the additional time is needed to defend against the amended notice of infraction.

(d) Sufficiency. No notice of infraction shall be deemed insufficient for failure to contain a definite statement of the essential facts constituting the specific infraction which the defendant is alleged to have committed, nor by reason of defects or imperfections which do not tend to prejudice substantial rights of the defendant. [Adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

Rule 3.2 Failure to appear. (a) Entry of Judgment. If the defendant fails to appear at a requested hearing the court shall enter judgment against the defendant finding that the defendant has committed the traffic infraction and assessing against the defendant any monetary penalties provided by law. A judgment upon a failure to appear shall not be entered if it appears to the court from the papers on file that the traffic case was brought in an improper court.

(b) Setting Aside Judgment Upon Failure to Appear. For good cause shown and upon terms the court deems just, the court may set aside a judgment entered upon a failure to appear in accordance with JCR 60(b). A motion to set aside the judgment must be made within 90 days after entry of the judgment. [Adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

Rule 3.3 Procedure at contested hearing. (a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing for contesting the notice of traffic infraction in accordance with RCW 46.63.090.

(b) Plaintiff Represented by Lawyer. At a contested hearing, the plaintiff shall be represented by a lawyer representative of the Prosecuting Attorney or of the City Attorney when prescribed by local court rule.

(c) Rules of Evidence. The Rules of Evidence (ER) shall apply to contested hearings.

(d) Factual Determination. The court shall determine whether the plaintiff has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant committed the traffic infraction. If the court finds the infraction was committed, it shall enter an appropriate order on its records. If the court finds the infraction was not committed, it shall enter an order dismissing the case.

(e) Disposition. If the court determines that the traffic infraction has been committed, it may assess a monetary penalty against the defendant. The monetary penalty assessed may not exceed the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in Rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year. [Amended March 11, 1981, effective March 20, 1981; adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

Rule 3.4 Hearing on mitigating circumstances. (a) Generally. The court shall conduct the hearing concerning mitigating circumstances in accordance with RCW 46.63.100.

(b) Procedure at Hearing. The court shall hold an informal hearing which shall not be governed by the Rules of Evidence (ER). The plaintiff and the defendant may each be represented by a lawyer. The defendant may present witnesses, but they may not be compelled to attend.

(c) Disposition. The court shall determine whether the defendant's explanation of the events justifies reduction of the monetary penalty. The court shall enter an order finding the defendant committed the infraction and may assess a monetary penalty. The court may not impose a penalty in excess of the monetary penalty provided for the infraction in Rule 6.2 or provided for by local court rule. The court may waive or suspend a portion of the monetary penalty, or provide for time payments, or in lieu of monetary payment provide for the performance of community service as provided in RCW 46.63.120. The court has continuing jurisdiction and authority to supervise disposition for not more than 1 year. [Adopted December 2, 1980, effective January 1, 1981.]

1. Forward dated February 13, 1963

On November 2, 30, and December 7, 1962, respectively, the suggested procedural rules for courts of limited jurisdiction, adopted by a majority of the members of the Judicial Council, were published. The publication invited study, suggestions, and criticisms by interested persons prior to the promulgation of the proposed rules by the Supreme Court. Many letters were received suggesting substantial changes. Several meetings were held, and some major changes, in addition to numerous less significant ones, have been made.

The principal objections to the rules were (1) that they established rules for jury trials in municipal courts in certain cases, and (2) that, under the statutory authority to adopt rules of procedure, the suggested rules contained substantive law.

As to (1), Art. 1, § 22, of the state constitution, provides in part that "In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right . . . to have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury . . ." Accordingly, the legislature provided for juries in the Superior Court and the Justice Court. No juries were provided by legislative enactment for Municipal Courts. This court, in Bellingham v. Hite, 37 Wn. (2d) 652, 225 P. (2d) 895 (1950), held that a city ordinance which did not provide for jury trial for persons charged with violation of city ordinances was not repugnant to Art. 1, § 22, of the state constitution, for the reason that the municipal court conviction became a nullity when the accused person appealed to the Superior Court, where the municipal ordinance violation was tried de novo, and a jury provided upon request.

The legislature, by § 77, chapter 299, Laws of 1961, RCW 3.50.280, has authorized jury trials in municipal courts in certain cases involving traffic violations and gross misdemeanors. Sections 2 and 96, chapter 299, Laws of 1961, RCW 3.30.020, 3.50.470, exclude those municipalities from the provision of chapter 299 whose governing bodies have, by resolution, decreed not to be governed by its provisions.

Therefore, rules of procedure have been prepared for the selection of juries for those municipal courts whose municipalities have qualified under chapter 299, Laws of 1961.

We have endeavored to incorporate in one rule book as much of the necessary statutory law (and have given such laws a rule number) relating to jurisdiction, process, arrest, bail, disposition of bail forfeitures, and rules of trial procedure as the judges will need in the determination of most of the causes before them. To accomplish this purpose, the law was given a rule number. The statutory law, in most instances, is set out verbatim in the rule. There is no desire or intention to abrogate the statutes dealing with substantive law, but, rather, to make them readily available.

The rules are designed to establish uniform procedure in this state for courts of limited jurisdiction. They are the first such rules promulgated by the Supreme Court for courts of limited jurisdiction. Comments, suggestions, and criticism of these proposed rules, as revised, are invited prior to April 1, 1963. If revisions are made, only the specific rule revised will be republished. The effective date of these rules and any revision thereof will be May 1, 1963.

The court expresses its appreciation to the members of the advisory committee of the Judicial Council who drafted the proposed rules previously published. We are likewise grateful to the Chief of the State Patrol, the Director of Licenses, Justice Court, Municipal Court, and Superior Court Judges, the prosecuting and city attorneys, practicing attorneys, city officials and mayors, the press, and many others, whose helpful suggestions have aided materially in the formulation of the rules as now presented.

PARALLEL TABLES

- (1) Remington's Revised Statutes to Revised Code of Washington.
- (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws; inclusive.
- (3) Session law sections commencing with 1950 Extraordinary Session.

These tables include: (1) All sections of Remington's Revised Statutes or parts thereof which have parallel sections in the Revised Code of Washington as originally published, accounting as well for those Remington sections which are omitted from the Revised Code of Washington, and which omitted sections may not be accounted for in tables or notes published in Remington's Revised Statutes, its pocket supplements, and its biennial supplements up to and including that for the year 1949; (2) Session law sections not included in Remington's Revised statutes but included in the Revised Code of Washington: 1854 to 1949 Session Laws, inclusive; and (3) Session law sections commencing with The 1950 Extraordinary Session.

The original parallel tables were prepared in 1951. Since that date the Statute Law Committee has restored the Revised Code of Washington to the sectionalization of the session laws. As a result several of the RCW citations are no longer accurate. If the RCW section cited in the table cannot be found in the text of the Revised Code of Washington, consult the table entitled "Dispositions of former RCW sections" for further information.
