"Sec. 1. RCW 10.73.170 and 2003 c 100 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((On or before December 31, 2004, a person in this state who has been convicted of a felony and is currently serving a term of imprisonment and who has been denied postconviction DNA testing may submit a request to the state Office of Public Defense, which will transmit the request to the county prosecutor in the county where the conviction was obtained for postconviction DNA testing, if DNA evidence was not admitted because the court ruled DNA testing did not meet acceptable scientific standards or DNA testing technology was not sufficiently developed to test the DNA evidence in the case. On and after January 1, 2005, a person must raise the DNA issues at trial or on appeal.~~

~~— (2) The prosecutor shall screen the request. The request shall~~

~~be reviewed based upon the likelihood that the DNA evidence would demonstrate innocence on a more probable than not basis. The prosecutor shall inform the requestor and the state Office of Public Defense of the decision, and shall, in the case of an adverse decision, advise the requestor of appeals rights. Upon determining that testing should occur and the evidence still exists, the prosecutor shall request DNA testing by the Washington state patrol crime laboratory. Contact with victims shall be handled through victim/witness divisions.~~

~~— (3) A person denied a request made pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section has a right to appeal his or her request within thirty days of denial of the request by the prosecutor. If the attorney general's office determines that it is likely that the DNA testing would demonstrate innocence on a more probable than not basis, then the attorney general's office shall request DNA testing by the Washington state patrol crime laboratory.~~

~~— (4) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any biological material that has been secured in connection with a criminal case prior to July 22, 2001, may not be destroyed before January 1, 2005.) A person convicted of a felony in a Washington state court who currently is serving a term of imprisonment may submit to the court that entered the judgment of conviction a verified written motion requesting DNA testing, with a copy of the motion provided to the state office of public defense.~~

~~(2) The motion shall:~~

~~(a) State that:~~

~~(i) The court ruled that DNA testing did not meet acceptable scientific standards; or~~

~~(ii) DNA testing technology was not sufficiently developed to test the DNA evidence in the case; or~~

~~(iii) The DNA testing now requested would be significantly more accurate than prior DNA testing or would provide significant new information;~~

~~(b) Explain why DNA evidence is material to the identity of the perpetrator of, or accomplice to, the crime, or to sentence enhancement; and~~

~~(c) Comply with all other procedural requirements established by court rule.~~

~~(3) The court shall grant a motion requesting DNA testing under this section if such motion is in the form required by subsection (2) of this section, and the convicted person has shown the likelihood that the DNA evidence would demonstrate innocence on a more probable than not basis.~~

~~(4) Upon written request to the court that entered a judgment of conviction, a convicted person who demonstrates that he or she is indigent under RCW 10.101.010 may request appointment of counsel solely to prepare and present a motion under this section, and the court, in its discretion, may grant the request. Such motion for appointment of counsel shall comply with all procedural requirements established by court rule.~~

~~(5) DNA testing ordered under this section shall be performed by the Washington state patrol crime laboratory. Contact with victims shall be handled through victim/witness divisions.~~

~~(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, upon motion of defense counsel or the court's own motion, a sentencing court in a felony case may order the preservation of any biological material that has been secured in connection with a criminal case, or evidence samples sufficient for testing, in accordance with any court rule adopted for the preservation of evidence. The court must specify the samples to be maintained and the length of time the samples must be preserved.~~

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hewitt: "Thank you Mr. President. Senator Delvin, I got to tell you how disappointed I am in you. I've trained you and trained you this summer teach you to act like a senator. The first thing you do on your first speech is stand up and not button your jacket. We do things differently over here. Secondly, let me tell you how disappointed I am in a gift like this. The Senators from Spokane are noted for giving very nice gifts, like bottles of wine. How many would rather have a bottle of wine than a T-Shirt. Thank you, and I don't think that we even need to do a roll call on that. However, it is by this body a tradition that you give something from your district and I will say that the Senator from the 41st last week gave something from China so that's a little bit of out sourcing that went on so I don't want to hear about out sourcing. Out sourcing is off the table now, so we'll expect the wine. Some others things happened differently in this body as well. When we vote here we say 'yea or nay' so when you do the budget this year you'll get to say 'yea or nay' and if you don't know the history behind this, you voted the wrong way on the budget one year because he punched the wrong button in the other body and tried to stand up and change his vote and was gavelled down. That's different over here. I also think your confused as to what body you belong in. I think perhaps you should of maybe moved into the Lt. Governor's office because in the last few years you have been to Peru. So you've been to Peru, Chile, Germany, Ireland, Great Britain, South Africa, Mexico, Nepal, Thailand, France, Bolivia and Canada. Well, I can tell you in the Senate we have to work so they'll be enough of that. Welcome to the Senate, we're glad to have you here Senator Delvin."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Delvin: "Point of compensation Mr. President. Thank you Mr. President. I represent the 8th district which is known for the Columbia River rolls through there, the Yakima certainly comes into the Columbia there and the Snake River used to flow through in the same district by now it's in the 16th. We're known for Agriculture, we're known for the Hanford area and I was trying to think of a appropriate gift. At first I thought about the AG that goes on in my area, district and I know you've gotten wine in the past and the good Senator from the 16th brought it up.

Well with a cops salary I couldn't afford a bottle of wine for everyone unless I could find some of that two dollar bottle and I didn't find any two dollar bottle. So, that went out. I do have a French fry plant in my district and I thought how about a bad of frozen French fries and I know a lot of you guys do the carb light and I would just add to that carb light as you know when you take gas, when you go to the gas pumps to fill up your car you have to leave that gas pump because the tank gets full and you have to drive off so just push away from the dinner table more often and get out and drive around and you don't have worry about what you eat. Then I thought well I'm a police officer and maybe something along the lines of a police officer Mr. President and I thought well I could give you all one of my police business cards and put get out of jail free card on it. I thought that would probably only work in Richland and I know a lot of you don't never come to Richland so that wouldn't be a very good gift. I thought about hand cuffs, give everyone a pair of hand cuffs Mr. President but I know some of you already have some fur lined hand cuffs and also you'd have a hard time maybe taking those home and explaining what the hand cuffs were to your spouse so that idea went out the window too. Then I thought what is really unique about the 8th district and it's probably the High School that I attended and graduated from. We are known, the Richland High is known as the Richland Bombers and that comes from the World War II role that Hanford play in manufacturing the plutonium that used in one if the bombs to bring it into World War II. Also during the cold war Hanford played an important role in our national security during the cold war and now of course we're in the clean up, to clean up that legacy. Richland, the Bombers has a symbol, it's called the mushroom cloud and that is in the school on the mixing area and when I was a freshman I found you don't step on that as a freshman because I ended upside down in the trash can for stepping on the cloud, only seniors could do that. I hope you'll enjoy the shirt. It's from the High School, it's unique, it's the Bombers, it has the mushroom cloud with the R. I encourage you to wear it in Seattle. I encourage you to wear it to Olympia, wherever you may go to show that you're proud of the cloud as I am, Mr. President, thank you very much."

MOTION

At 12:23 p.m., on motion of Senator Eide, the Senate adjourned until 12:30 p.m. Thursday, February 17, 2005.

BRAD OWEN, President of the Senate

THOMAS HOEMANN, Secretary of the Senate
